

Chapter 18-: Extrasensory Sensation of Sephy

( TL By GUST )

The sun is shining warmly on me.

□

□I wonder if it's an instinct of life to feel sleepy when I'm relaxing in the pleasant sunshine, not to mention the progress of photosynthesis.

□

□While Sephy was eating her lunch and taking a nap, I, who had nothing special to do, started to take a nap with her as part of my daily routine.

□With the breeze coming in through the window, the sound of the leaves rustling, and the faint sleep of Sephy as background music, I slept comfortably.

□And then...

"Someone's coming!

"..... Huh?

□I woke up to Sephy's shout.

□You'll be able to find a lot more than just a pair of shoes.

'What? What? What's wrong?

□There was no one in the room, even though she said someone had come.

□

□It's a good idea to have a good idea of what you're looking for.

I'm sure he thought it was a dream.

□I'm sure he mistook it for a dream event.

□

□It's a good idea to have a good idea of what you're doing.

"No! There are so many of them coming here!

"Who's coming?

"I don't know! I don't know! I don't know, so let's go!

"What? Where are you going?

□I'm not sure what to do, but I'm sure I'm not the only one.

□

□I'm not sure what to make of this.

□

□From the direction I'm heading, the destination is ..... the village gate!

I'm not sure what to do. You're not going to go out there, are you?

"I'm not sure.

□

□I'm not sure what to make of it, but I'm sure the elders will tell you not to go outside without permission.

You're going to tell the elders, right?

"I'll tell you later! There's a lot of them out there, so if we don't hurry, we might be in danger!

Then get Walnut and Laurel to escort you.

"All right!

□Walnut and Laurel are the young elves I met when I first came to this village.

□

□They should be near the gate after lunch at this time. At worst, one of them would be there.

□

□While I was thinking about this, I was getting closer to the Gate of Thorns.

□

□When I saw the gate in my field of vision, all I could see was Walnut, one half of a young elf. He was a red-haired man who looked a bit more active than most elves.

□

□Sephy walked past Walnut, who was standing there lazily.

"Wal! Follow me!"

"What? Princess!"

Wal, follow me! Sephy's going out there!

"Genie-sama! Hey! Wait!"

□

□I can understand your panic at the suddenness of the situation.

□

□But Sefi didn't even check to see if Walnut was coming with her, she left the gate and went into the forest.

□

□I've been living with Sephy for over a year now and I think I have a pretty good idea of how powerful this little High Elf is. I know it's unlikely that she'll be harmed by any of the demons out there, but she's still a child. It's possible that they could get careless.

□

□In addition, according to Sephy, "There are so many of them coming at me.

□

□If it was something hostile and powerful, they could be outnumbered and defeated.

□

□So--

"Come on, come on! Don't leave her alone!"

"I know, I know! Oh, my God!"

□

□I hurried Walnut to the rear.

□

□As if he had given up, he interrupted his role as a gate guard and started running towards us.

□

□Then he quickly sidled up to us.

"I'm going to get scolded later too! Spirit-sama, please intercede properly."

□

□She said this pathetically.

□

□Sephy's recklessness is an everyday occurrence, but I wish Walnut would put Sephy's safety first instead of his own. No, I understand what he's saying.

It's okay, I'll make sure the elders know.

"Laurel, too, please."

□

□Laurel, one half of the young elves, is nervous and serious. It's a good idea to have a good idea of what you're looking for.

I'm sure you can handle it.

□

□We're childhood friends.

□

□It's not because Laurel's anger is a little scary, okay?

"No."

□

□Walnut's voice was pathetic, but he let out one deep, deep sigh and looked up with a crisp expression.

□

□I'm not sure what to make of it.

"So, where are you headed? What happened to you?"

I don't know!

"What? What do you mean you don't know?"

Sephy suddenly started running. I heard there's a lot of them coming towards our village.

"Geez."

□Walnut looked disgusted when he heard this.

What is it? Do you have any idea what's going on?

"I'm not sure what to make of it. It's a good idea to have a good idea of what you're doing.

□

□But from the way he said it, it seems he doesn't think so.

What if it's not?

"It's a person. I don't know what species it is, but either way, it's going to be a pain in the ass. ....

□

□Walnut does not hide his expression of disgust.

□

□It's a good idea to have a good idea of what you're looking for.

□

□If it really is a person, it is a little hard to read what will happen. If he was really a person, it was hard to tell what would happen.

"If that's the case--

□

□We need more guards.

□

□That's why I'm calling you.

□

□I used most of the magical power of the walking weed's retainer to send out a telekinesis over a wide area.

I'm not sure what to do. Gather at my place!

"What?

□

□Walnut, who was standing next to me, jumped up as if startled by the loud voice.

□

□I'm not sure what to do.

"I'm not sure what to say. If you're going to shout, please say it first!

I'm not sure what the point is if you cover your ears because it's telekinesis.

"I'm not prepared for this, I'm prepared for this!

□

□I'm sure you'll be happy to hear that.

□

□It's a good idea to have a good idea of what you're looking for.

□

□And while I'm thinking about it, it looks like they've already arrived. Goh, you guys are really good.

"Oh, the guardians..... are here, that's a relief.

□

□The one that appeared was a humanoid wood golem that was about three meters tall.

□

□

□There were three of them: a plant golem about the same size as an adult elf, with ivy entwined around it to form a humanoid form.

□

□They are the first golems I created, and in the order I created them, they are Go-kun 1, 2, and 3.

□

□About a month after I evolved, they also evolved, resulting in their current form. No, Go-kun No. 3 has not changed much in terms of appearance. If I had to say anything, I'd say it has become smarter.

□

□Incidentally, the elves now called him "guardian" and even gave him a title.

"Ah!"

What's wrong?

□

□Sephy raised her voice as if she noticed something.

□

□When I asked her back, she said something outrageous.

"There's a bear.

"Geez! Then it's not safe, let's go home!

□

□Walnut's face scrunched up, he advised us to retreat in a flowing manner.

□

□But it is not unreasonable. The bear that Sephy refers to is the Tyrant Bear, the strongest demon around.

□

□It's intelligent enough that it won't attack Sephy, but if he starts a serious fight, the aftermath alone will cause damage to the surrounding area. If a stray bullet or something like that hits you, of course, you're in danger.

"Are you coming this way?"

"No. I'm not sure what to do.

"What? Is it a person?"

□

□I'm not sure if it's because I'm getting closer, or if I just didn't say it until now, but Sephy referred to the approaching entity as "people".

"I have to save her.

"Should I help her?"

"Yes!"

□

□She also nodded without hesitation.

□

□So I decided to do the same.

I'm not sure what to do. I'll send Goh and the others first, and Sephy and the others can follow.

"Okay! Be careful!"

"Oh!

□

□I can't let Sephy take the lead, as expected.

□

□I moved from Sefi's hand to sit on top of Goh-kun 1's head. Sefi told me where the bear was, and I quickly pointed a branch in that direction.

"The three Goh-kuns quickly moved over there!"

□

□The three Go-kuns quickly started running through the forest.

□As a side note.

□In the last year I have succeeded in learning the words of the elves.

□You see, I didn't talk in the telepathy, right?
