Chapter 1

I am Luffy, Awaken the Sun God on the top Author: Let me go up on the list

Traveling through the world of pirates, becoming Luffy, and possessing cheats in teaching space, it is natural to make changes.

When Chambord landed on the island, the pacifist, the general Huang Yuan, appeared, and all the supernovas fell into despair except the hat group.

Seeing Zoro sweeping the world with a single sword, Sanji the Demon Kazekaku, and Luffy blasting away the oracle with his four-speed karma fist gun, the supernovas were stunned.

"Is this a supernova? I'm afraid it's not the imperial group!"

During the war on the top, the hat regiment descended with the momentum like a royal regiment.

On Ghost Island, Kaido and Big Mom satirized: "Hey, boy, what are you going to become? Say it again in front of us!"

Luffy opened five gears furiously, his fist was as huge as a ghost island! A five-speed Yehuo fist gun! Party Kaido and Big Mom!

Luffy landed, the black stand-up collar cloak fluttered, put on the helmet, and whispered domineeringly:

"I'm Monkey d Luffy, the man who wants to surpass you and become the One Piece!"

Chapter 001 Becoming Luffy

"Traveling became Luffy, there are still two months before going to sea, you have to become stronger."

Lying on a cliff, looking at the blue sky, the seagulls soaring, and listening to the sound of the waves, Luffy thought it was good.

When he woke up, he found that he had traveled to the world of pirates and became Luffy. The memories of the two merged, and their personalities also merged.

Knowing everything that will happen in the future, it is inevitable to make changes, but it takes strength to make changes.

"Ding! The teaching space system is turned on."

Luffy's eyes lit up, and Goldfinger came.

Soon, Luffy understood and his eyes lit up.

"Amazing."

Luffy soon realized that this teaching space cheat was really what he wanted.

One year of cultivation in the inside is equivalent to the past month outside, and the age is only increased by one month.

A person can only practice for two months at most, that is, two years in it.

Although it is short, there are various teaching templates in it, which can be selected.

Luffy disappeared in an instant because he entered the teaching space.

The environment in this space is harsh and has ten times the gravity, just like the spiritual bookstore in Dragon Ball.

This kind of cultivation environment is excellent, with twice the result with half the effort.

"It's so heavy, huh...huh..."

Entering the endless blank world, Luffy couldn't help but bend down, it was very heavy, and it was difficult to breathe, but he was excited inside, so it was interesting.

With a thought, Luffy chose Rayleigh to teach the template.

In the next moment, the illusory Pluto Rayleigh emerged and began to teach and explain domineering.

This is another powerful feature of the teaching space. You can choose a teaching template to teach yourself, and you can choose up to two.

Luffy began to listen carefully, thinking to himself: "Let the unreal Rayleigh teach me for a year, and let the unreal Roger teach me for another year."

The illusory teaching template can only teach and cannot talk about other things.

In this way, Luffy began to practice in the teaching space.

Luffy is happy in his heart, so that when he meets Sauron, Nami, and Sanji in the future, he can also let them enter the practice.

In this way, the future will not proceed as I know it!

Especially, the ending of the top war!

...

Two months later, Luffy appeared in Windmill Village.

The momentum is completely different from before, and there are more cross scars on the upper body.

Luffy stepped on the small wooden boat he had prepared and started his adventure in the sea.

"Everyone, goodbye!"

Luffy turned his head to the village head of Windmill Village on the shore, Makino and others waved goodbye, grinning, showing a row of big white teeth.

Seeing Lu Fei go away, Makino sighed: "It's finally gone, village chief, our Windmill Village will also become deserted."

The village chief was helpless: "It's a shame for the village to actually want to be a pirate."

Even so, I am happy for Luffy, and everyone who came to the shore had sincere smiles on their faces.

The sky was blue and clear, and seagulls were flying.

Lu Fei was in a good mood and praised: "Today is really a good day to go to sea."

Crash!

Suddenly, the sea rose up behind him, and a huge monster with blood-red eyes emerged from behind.

Luffy knew that it was that guy, the king of the near sea.

The King of the Sea suddenly opened his mouth, not to mention Luffy, even if it is a wooden boat, this mouth can hold ten.

And Luffy didn't turn around, didn't raise his hand or even make a fist.

On the shore, the village chief, Makino and others were shocked.

"It's the king of the offshore!"

"Luffy will be fine!"

"But, why do you not plan to do anything with your back to the King of the Sea? Luffy confidently said it was okay before."

"Is it going to be swallowed? Luffy! Get out of the way!"

Makino, the village head and others looked worried and exclaimed.

The king of the near sea pounced down, about to swallow Luffy.

At this time, Luffy moved slightly.

The face turned slightly to the left, and the face under the straw hat suddenly became domineering, low-key, and a red light flashed faintly in the cold left eye, which was extremely shocking.

"roll!"

Suddenly, the king of the near sea froze, opened his * mouth wide, did not dare to move forward, his whole body was sweating profusely, his blood red eyes were covered with bloodshot eyes, he was extremely frightened and shivering.

Boom!

clatter...

With a splash, the sea water splashed in all directions, and the King of the Sea was stunned and fell into the bottom of the sea.

Luffy didn't look any further and continued sailing forward.

At the entrance of the village, Makino and the village chief were stunned.

"This...what's going on..."

Makino shook, thinking of that person.

"At the moment just now, I seemed to see the shadow of that person."

The village chief was shocked: "Shanks?"

"Ok!"

...

The reason why the King of the Near Sea fainted was because of Luffy's domineering aura just now.

After two years of hard training in the teaching space, Luffy is now extremely powerful.

Practicing in the teaching space is more effective than practicing in Ruskaina Island!

Seven days later.

A banquet is held on a tourist ship.

Suddenly, everyone panicked, because they saw the pirate ship approaching, with a red heart on the skull of the pirate flag.

The pirate ship immediately shelled, and the bombing continued.

On the banquet ship, the girl with short orange hair is happy, and on the pirate ship, there are treasures.

She is Nami

Soon, the pirates took down the banquet boat.

The leading pirate captain is a female pirate, fat, ugly, freckled, carrying an iron rod, looking very vicious.

She is the female pirate, Alrita.

Alrita looked at Coby, who was short, with short pink hair and wearing glasses, and looked very cowardly, and asked.

"Keby, let me ask you. Who is the most beautiful in this sea?"

When Keby was about to answer against his will, a figure appeared with a bang.

When it landed on the deck of the ship and made a sound, everyone noticed.

They followed the sound and looked over, the sound had already sounded.

"You need a mirror."

Alrita frowned: "What do you mean?"

Luffy said bluntly: "I don't know who is the most beautiful in this sea, but you should be the ugliest."

In an instant, Alrita was furious!

Kebi's complexion changed drastically, and he cast a worried look.

"It's over...he's going to be over..."

call!

The iron rod in Alrita's hand roared down, but Luffy didn't look at it, but patted his belly.

This made Alrita sneer, she was really looking for a beating.

boom!

Click!

However, when the iron rod fell, it hit the deck, which made Alrita stunned.

Kebi was also dumbfounded, and rubbed his eyes, thinking he was dazzled.

"Didn't hit it?"

Alrita didn't believe in evil, and swung quickly, but Luffy didn't even look at it, and his body moved slightly, but he avoided them all.

Luffy got impatient: "I'm so hungry, I won't play with you guys anymore."

boom!

With a random punch, Alrita flew directly into the distant sky.

The other pirates were stunned, jumping into the sea and fleeing in fright.

Kebi was at a loss, Luffy said: "You were captured by them, you don't look like a pirate at all, stay here."

Kebi was extremely grateful and bowed in gratitude: "Thank you, my name is Keby!"

"My name is Monkey D Luffy."

Chapter 002 Beyond Sauron's Cognition

After Luffy met Kirby, he went to the restaurant.

The people on board are naturally hospitable.

Chapter 2

"Thank you so much, without you we would be doomed."

"This is the banquet meal prepared just now. We haven't eaten it yet. Let's start now."

"You please."

...

Luffy sat down and couldn't wait: "Then I won't be polite."

Others sat down one after another, but when they were about to pick up their chopsticks, they were stunned for the next scene.

I saw that Lu Fei opened his mouth wide, not eating, but pouring all kinds of food directly into it, and quickly cleaned the food on the ten-meter-long table.

"This... is delicious."

"Is the stomach a bottomless pit?"

"It's too fast, it's almost finished."

...

Before eating, the food on the table has almost been cleaned up.

Luffy was very satisfied, touched his stretched stomach, leaned on the back of the chair, and enjoyed it.

"Wow, it's delicious, I'm full."

The others and Kebi were still in shock, unbelievable.

After eating and drinking enough, Luffy is ready to leave.

Kebi followed, and said embarrassedly: "Well, Mr. Lu Fei, can you give me a ride?"

Luffy nodded: "Of course, it's boring to be alone."

"Thank you, Mr. Luffy." Kebi was very grateful.

Luffy saved himself indirectly and allowed himself to escape from the clutches of the clutches. He was extremely grateful and kept it in his heart.

Kirby is in charge of rowing, which is the little return he can do.

Kebi was curious: "Mr. Luffy, what are you going to sea for?"

Luffy grinned, showing a row of big white teeth.

"I want to be the Pirate King."

"what?"

Kirby was stunned, in disbelief.

"Being One Piece? Are you serious?"

"certainly."

"That is to say, Mr. Luffy, are you a pirate?"

"right."

"What about your companion?"

"I've only been out at sea for a few days, and I'm looking for a companion."

Kebi still finds it unbelievable, even unreal.

Kebi emphasized: "One Piece is a 'big treasure' that has the title of people all over the world and combines wealth, power, and fame. OnePiece is the goal."

Luffy said calmly, "Yes."

Kebi found it too difficult: "But, pirates all over the world are looking for that treasure. Mr. Luffy, that's impossible. How could it be possible to stand on the top of this ocean? Impossible, impossible."

Luffy punched Kebi on the head, and Kebi lay on the deck, a little puzzled.

"Mr. Luffy, why did you beat me up?"

"I can't help but want to beat you up, you bastard, it's not good to always say it's impossible. I want to be one, so I will. If you make up your mind to be the One Piece, you must do it."

Kebi looked at Luffy's expression, his eyes gradually became worshipful, and Luffy was very serious.

Kebi stood up and his expression became firm: "Mr. Luffy, I also have something I want to do. I...I want to be a navy!"

Luffy smiled: "Then do it."

"Well! Mr. Lu Fei, let's work * our own!"

Luffy had a goal, and his expression became firm.

However, Kebi felt that what Luffy was going to do was more dangerous.

"Mr. Luffy, you must enter the great route, which is the grave of pirates."

"Well, companions are essential, there is a pirate hunter."

"Sauron, I know, he is as terrifying as a beast."

Luffy looks forward to: "Although I haven't met him yet, I also know him, and I want him to be my partner.

one day later.

Naval Base.

Luffy and Kirby are here.

Luffy looked forward to it in his heart: "Zoro, we are going to meet."

Walking in the town, Luffy ate all kinds of fruits on both sides of the town and asked the people in the shop.

"That Sauron, is he at the naval base in town now?"

In an instant, everyone around was scared away.

Luffy said helplessly: "Then let's go and see, you want to be a navy, just right."

Soon, Luffy and Kirby came to the execution ground of the naval base.

"It should be inside."

Looking at the wall, Luffy punched casually, and with a bang, the wall collapsed.

Kebi had a complicated expression: "Mr. Lu... Mr. Lu Fei, this is too loud."

Luffy didn't care: "It's okay, hurry up."

Just when Luffy and Kebi were about to enter, after Luffy glanced, a little girl was approaching, holding a rice ball in her hand.

"Thank you, I don't have to work hard to climb over the wall."

After the little girl thanked Luffy, she quickly ran into the execution ground.

Luffy remembers that her name is Lijia, the daughter of the bar owner in Baker Town, a small island of the naval base.

Kebi was worried: "Mr. Lu Fei, do you need to save that little girl, he is approaching the terrifying beast-like pirate hunter."

"It's okay, let's see."

Li Jia handed out the rice ball: "Big brother, you haven't eaten all this time, so I'll give you this rice ball. Although it's the first time I've made it, it should be okay."

Sauron said coldly: "I'm not hungry, you are an eyesore, go back quickly.

If you don't leave, I will beat you."

At this time, ten sailors armed with guns came quickly, obviously because of the movement just now.

"Want to save someone? Shoot!"

The ten sailors immediately raised their guns and fired, which made Sauron's face change drastically!

"Get out of the way!"

Sauron was so anxious that he wanted to do it himself, but it was too late.

Whoosh!

Suddenly, Lu Fei flew over, raised his right hand and grabbed it quickly in front of him, bringing up an afterimage.

The shooting is over, Luffy and Rika are fine.

Luffy spread his right hand, and the bullets in his hand fell to the ground.

Sauron's eyes widened, his heart trembled.

Ten sailors froze.

"How...how is it possible."

"Shoot...shoot!"

They panicked and wanted to shoot again, but Luffy gave him a look of domineering awe, and the ten sailors rolled their eyes and fell to the ground.

This scene shocked Sauron even more, even beyond his cognition. What did this do? Why did ten sailors suddenly faint?

Looking at the shaking Sauron, Luffy grinned and said: "Don't be too surprised, you will understand in the future, and you will become stronger soon."

Sauron was baffled by these words.

I want to become stronger, but soon?

Getting stronger depends on hard work and time accumulation. Soon, what are you kidding.

Facing Sauron who was tied up, Luffy said bluntly: "I will help you untie the rope, and you will be my first companion!".

Chapter 003 Garp: It Can't Be My Grandson

After that, Luffy went to get Sauron's three knives.

At the same time, the execution ground was surrounded by sailors.

Luffy handed the three knives to Sauron, which was very meaningful.

"Fighting side by side with me here will become an existence against the world government, the enemy of the navy. Or you will be killed by the navy, which do you think is better?"

Sauron, who was tied up, felt very good about Luffy and was also interested.

"Forget it, instead of dying here, it's better to be a pirate!"

Luffy was happy and raised his hands in cheers.

"Great, you are willing to be my partner."

Sauron was very helpless: "If you understand, help me untie the rope quickly."

Luffy untied the rope for Sauron, and Sauron looked firm and spoke seriously.

"Follow you to become a pirate, but my goal will be carried out to the end."

Luffy naturally knew what Sauron's goal was.

Sauron firmly said: "I want to become the world's number one swordsman!"

Luffy nodded in admiration: "The world's greatest swordsman, yes, as the partner of One Piece, this is what you have to do."

At this time, a burly man with short blond hair, dark complexion, and a giant ax inlaid on his right arm walked over. It was the captain of the navy, Mengka.

However, Luffy ignored him and said to Zoro, "Let's go."

After the words fell, Luffy walked straight towards the sea soldiers.

This Zoro stared blankly, already holding the knife in both hands, biting a knife in his mouth, ready to kill, but Luffy just walked out like no one?

Thinking of the strength that Luffy showed before, Zoro received it, and followed up with three knives straddling his waist, and Kibi also quickly followed.

Monka was angry, belittling himself so much.

"Straw Hat Boy, I'm the Captain of the Navy, Monka the Axe! How dare you underestimate me!"

However, just as Mengka was about to make a move, suddenly, Luffy burst into a domineering arrogance, and the dark red domineering color burst out.

bang bang bang bang...

In an instant, nearly a hundred sailors fell to the ground in unison, rolling their eyes and fainting.

Even Mengka was sweating all over his body, his eyes were wide open, and his burly body knelt on one knee, terrified.

"How...how is it possible..."

Chapter 3

Sauron and Keby behind were stunned, it was too scary, what did they do?

Since he wanted to be a pirate, he would become an enemy with the navy, and Sauron beheaded Monka with a single blow.

The three of Luffy left the naval base, hungry, and went to the town restaurant to have a big meal.

While eating, Sauron was curious: "What did you do just now, obviously you didn't do anything, they all fell down."

It's okay for the sea soldiers to fall, but it's unbelievable that even a man of Mengka's strength has fallen.

Luffy didn't answer: "I won't be able to explain clearly for a while, but you will know soon."

Sauron didn't ask much, and fell into a deep thought. His own captain is too powerful.

Neither the sea soldiers nor Mengka just now could let Luffy show his strength, so Sauron didn't know how strong Luffy was. But, perhaps much stronger than myself.

And myself, I can't be too bad.

Luffy could see what Sauron was thinking, and seeing his expression became more determined, it was obvious that he wanted to work harder. Luffy said: "Soron, soon, you will also be very strong, and you will be one step closer to becoming the world's number one swordsman."

This made Zoro startled, and smiled: "Are you kidding? It's not that easy to become the world's number one swordsman. Soon? Impossible in the short term."

Luffy smiled mysteriously: "Soon, you will understand."

After speaking, Luffy continued to eat.

Sauron was surprised and puzzled: "I have been hungry for a long time, and there is nothing you can eat."

"Hee hee, it's delicious."

After that, Luffy and Zoro left, and as for Keby, he was beaten up by Luffy.

Otherwise, the navy will consider him an accomplice.

Naturally, Keby joined the navy. Looking at the ship going away on the sea, Keby was grateful and determined.

"Mr. Luffy, I will not let you down!"

three days later.

Naval Headquarters, Marin Fand.

Wearing a seagull military cap and a long black beard tied into a twisted chin, Warring States sat at his desk, looking at the reported materials.

When seeing a message, the Warring States was shocked.

"Age is about seventeen years old, domineering and domineering..."

Mengka will be affected, this..."

The face of the Warring States was already full of shock and disbelief.

Finally, seeing the name, the corner of Zhan Guo's mouth twitched.

"Monkey D Luffy..."

Warring States was a headache, thinking of Karp, thinking of dragons.

"Is it Garp's grandson? It's quite similar. What kind of offspring did they have?"

Sengoku immediately contacted Karp.

"Karp, I have something to talk to you about."

Soon, Karp walked leisurely to the office, sat on the sofa, crossed his legs, and ate the senbei, which were crunchy.

Warring States said solemnly: "Garp, your grandson is determined to become a pirate, right?"

Speaking of this, Garp also had a headache and was helpless.

"Boy, I can't help it."

"I understand, that's it, the waves behind the Yangtze River push the waves ahead. Let's not talk about strength for the time being, I don't know, but this domineering look, even Mengka will be affected."

This made Garp startled, domineering? Monca was affected?

Garp shook his head decisively: "Then the person you mentioned cannot be my grandson."

"Monkey D Luffy, isn't it?" Sengoku was puzzled.

With a thud, Garp jumped up from the sofa.

Garp grabbed the file and looked at it, then his eyes widened.

This name, as well as the photo on the file, is his grandson, Luffy.

Garp was stunned: "This... When did this kid awaken his domineering look? Although I haven't seen him for a while, even if I awakened not long after I left, he wouldn't be so powerful."

At first, Garp shook his head decisively, it couldn't be Luffy. But now he discovered that it was actually Luffy.

As a grandfather, he knew Luffy well, so it was a surprise.

Zhan Guo said in a deep voice: "It is necessary to issue a reward, it is an extremely dangerous existence, Karp, do you have any objection?"

Garp's face softened, he sat down again, and shook his head: "What can I say."

Warring States Zhengse asked: "His combat information is very little, and he is domineering and domineering to deal with sea soldiers. To issue a reward for him, you must know his strength. Garp, I hope you can tell me seriously, your grandson, the strength At what level?"

Garp didn't hide anything, and said bluntly: "I know, for his strength, there is a bounty of 30 million."

Zhan Guo shook his head decisively: "It's impossible to be so low, this domineering alone is more than enough."

Garp was helpless: "Warring States, I'm not kidding you."

Warring States hesitated for a while and decided: "Forget it, don't issue a reward for now, and learn more about it for a while, or send a high-strength navy to find him. Garp, forget what you say, and don't embarrass you."

Karp is proud in his heart, he deserves to be his grandson, and he is so powerful.

But I was also worried in my heart, which caused the navy to attach great importance to it. What kind of existence would it send?

Warring States pondered for a while and said: "Your Majesty Qiwuhai, Hawkeye, Joracle Mihawk, some sailors saw him appearing in the East China Sea, so let him be."

This shocked Garp, Hawkeye...

Karp felt unreliable: "Let Hawkeye go his own way, is it realistic?"

"We need to know his combat strength as soon as possible. Hawkeye is very suitable. Even if you don't catch him, let him try the Straw Hat Boy's strength. It shouldn't be a problem."

Immediately, Warring States began to notify subordinates to contact.

There was nothing on Garp's face, but his heart was heavy: "Luffy...don't fall down too early."

The new book asks for flowers, comments, and rewards. The author will write a different, more exciting and passionate plot. Ask for support! .

Chapter 004: Sauron Begins to Practice

The Warring States period began to wait, and after Hawkeye tried the Straw Hat Boy's strength, he could issue a reward.

The existence of such great potential must be paid attention to.

On the small wooden boat.

Luffy is already very familiar with Sauron, and he talked about the ability to teach space.

Sauron was unbelievable after hearing this, it was amazing.

One month outside, one year inside, and you can choose two teaching templates.

This moved Sauron's heart. He knew that he was still a long way from the world's number one swordsman.

Thinking of the oath he made to Kuina, to become the world's number one swordsman, he must do it.

Sauron was moved and chose to enter the teaching space.

Luffy chose to let Sauron enter, and the next moment, Sauron entered, and the white space.

"Good weight..."

Even he, who has been exercising desperately since he was a child, feels that the environment is too harsh.

However, there was an excited smile on the corner of Sauron's mouth, and his eyes were like a beast. This kind of environment is suitable for a beast like him.

Before entering, Luffy proposed to choose the template teaching of Hawkeye Mihawk, the world's number one swordsman, or Roger, the pirate king.

Roger's swordsmanship is also extremely powerful.

Sauron understood, so he chose the Mihawk template.

In the next moment, the figure was illusory, and the cruel Mihawk with the black knife on his back appeared.

Although it was only an illusory figure, Sauron was shocked by his momentum, as if looking up at a high mountain, he seemed very small.

The phantom figure has only one consciousness, which is to teach. It will not talk about other things, but do other things. The only task is to teach.

Unreal Mihawk didn't talk a lot at the beginning, and then disappeared after a few brief words. The next moment, a baboon dressed like an eagle appeared.

This is the power of the teaching space, and any accompanying objects can also appear.

Sauron was excited, grateful, and determined.

"Here for two years, become stronger, Luffy, I won't let you down."

Sauron started to practice, desperately, not inferior to Luffy who practiced here before.

Luffy started sailing alone, waiting for Sauron to come out in two months.

Luffy knew that at that time, it would be completely different. Even, there was already a picture in his mind, a more robust Sauron, with a vertical scar on his left eye, and his momentum was stronger.

Three days later, Luffy came to a town.

By a coincidence of fate, I saw Nami who was being chased by pirates.

"Thief, return the chart to us!"

"Don't run! Hand it over, and spare your life!"

"It's really courting death."

Nami glanced behind and was about to catch up.

However, her eyes lit up, and she saw a figure in front of her, not unfamiliar, she had seen it on the Alrita boat.

"Boss, save me!" Nami shouted towards Luffy.

When he ran to Luffy, he hid behind Luffy.

The three sword-wielding pirates frowned, they had accomplices.

Luffy passed domineeringly, and the three pirates fell to the ground.

If it can be solved with overlord color, try not to do it.

Nami was stunned: "It's amazing...what did you do?"

Nami introduced herself: "I am a thief who specializes in targeting pirates, Nami, do you want to cooperate with me?"

Luffy shook his head: "Cooperation? No, I'm a pirate. Do you want to join my pirate group, my third partner?"

Nami looked around: "The third one? What about the second one?"

"The second one, I'll see you later, he is practicing."

Nami is not interested, and her heart is heavy.

"I don't have time, I have to make more money."

Luffy felt that he had to speed up the progress, since he knew everything.

"You need money? Why?"

Although I know the reason, I can't act like I know it. I can only enter the topic faster in this way.

"nothing."

Nami won't say it, although the young man in front of him looks very powerful, but the other party is the evil dragon pirate group, who established the evil dragon empire in the East China Sea and dominates the East China Sea.

Luffy guessed: "Did you encounter any difficulties? You must be good at sailing by yourself, right? I need a navigator."

Nami was surprised, she didn't expect that she looked very smart, and she could deduce that she had good sailing ability.

Chapter 4

"I won't tell you any more, I have to leave quickly, thank you." Nami wanted to leave, fearing that her fellow pirates would arrive.

Lu Fei touched his stomach and said, "I'm so hungry, please treat me to dinner."

"Okay, then let's hurry up."

Soon, after finding a restaurant, Luffy started to eat, and continued to look for opportunities to chat.

Nami's eyes were firm: "No matter what, I have to earn 100 million Baileys."

"So, what do you need so much money for?"

"Secret, I won't tell you."

Looking at the chart in her hand, Nami felt joy in her heart: "As long as there is a chart of the great route, 100 million Baileys will not be a dream."

Seeing that Luffy had almost eaten, Nami wanted to leave and emphasized.

"Don't think about letting me join. I hate pirates the most. The only things I like are money and oranges."

"Okay, then I'll see you off."

Luffy got up and left the restaurant with Nami.

And on a high-rise platform in the town, there is the Bucky Pirates.

"Captain Bucky! Found the thief!"

The subordinate with the binoculars reported it immediately after seeing it.

Bucky's eyes were cold: "Use Bucky's shells and warn her, she will be scared and obediently send the chart."

"Understood, Captain Bucky!"

The muzzle is aimed at the street next to the street where Luffy and Nami are located.

boom!

The cannonball was fired, and the roar caught the attention of Nami and Luffy, who looked back.

The moment she turned her head, Nami's eyes widened, her pupils shrank, and she was terrified.

I saw that where the shells passed, a string of houses were bombed. In an instant, the kilometer-long street and houses were all blown to pieces.

This destructive power made Nami fearful and dared not take any action, because the muzzle of the distant cannon was already aimed at them.

Bucky shouted with a loudspeaker: "Are you scared? Obediently give us the chart, or you will be blown to powder!"

Nami clutched the chart tightly and struggled, she really didn't want to give it, otherwise the villagers would continue to be tortured. However, if you don't give it, you will die, and the villagers still cannot be free.

Nami could only lower her head decadently and walk forward.

However, as soon as she took a step, a hand fell on her shoulder.

Nami looked back, it was Luffy.

Luffy grinned: "Since you need the money very much, then keep it. Next, leave it to me."

Chapter 005

Nami looked at Luffy with a complicated expression, but there was a warmth in her heart.

Nami was puzzled: "Why do you do this, it's obviously a pirate."

Luffy emphasized: "Not all pirates are the same."

This left Nami silent, lost in thought.

At this time, Bucky was surprised that he didn't rush to send the chart.

Soon, Bucky realized something was wrong.

Picking up the binoculars, Bucky noticed the straw hat on Luffy's head.

"This hat..."

Soon, a very angry figure appeared in his mind, the red-haired Shanks!

"It's Shanks' bastard's hat!"

Seeing this hat, Bucky couldn't help but think of when he was in the Roger Pirates.

I often quarreled with Shanks. Once I stole the trophy devil fruit and treasure map. I wanted to sell it for a good price to form a pirate group. But because of Shanks, I ate the devil fruit by mistake, and the treasure map was still there. thrown into the sea.

So, seeing this hat, Bucky was very angry.

"fire!"

Bucky ordered, and another Bucky shell was fired.

Nami's pupils shrank: "Leave me alone! Run!"

With my own strength, I can't avoid it, but I have seen the strength of the pirate in front of me, so I might be able to escape.

Luffy picked up a stone and threw it away.

Whoosh!

In an instant, the speed and power of the stone are extremely powerful.

boom!

Bucky's shells exploded in mid-air, and the flames shot up into the sky, obviously because of the fast-grazing stones.

Luffy obviously learned from Rayleigh.

This stunned Bucky and the others on the building.

"What's going on, why did it explode in mid-air?"

"I don't know, it's so strange."

"Captain Bucky, did you see that?"

...

The crew was puzzled.

Bucky saw it naturally, and a figure couldn't help appearing in his mind, the deputy captain, Raleigh the Hades!

The hand just now is too similar.

"Continue to shoot gorgeously!"

Bucky felt that it couldn't just be left alone.

Boom boom boom...

Bucky shells blasted out one by one, stones were thrown from Luffy's hands, and the air bombardment continued.

Bucky gritted his teeth angrily: "Damn straw hat kid."

Bucky was ready to do it himself, with a sharp knife between his fingers.

The members of the Bucky Pirates were also ready to fight, raising their knives and screaming.

"Little ones! Come with me..."

Bucky gave an order, and before he finished speaking, his eyes suddenly widened.

I saw that Lu Fei suddenly jumped up, put his right hand in front of his mouth and blow.

"Third gear!"

In an instant, Luffy's right hand became huge, and the hand and arm were instantly huge, just like the arms of a giant.

"Rubber Rubber... Giant Pistol!"

boom!

Huge fists slammed out, and with a roar, the building where the Bucky Pirates were located was hit, and it collapsed directly, with rubble flying.

Bucky and the others were blown away, screaming continuously, and buried in the ruins.

Nami, who was behind Luffy, looked at this scene and was already stunned, subconsciously muttering to herself: "That's... so amazing..."

Luffy looked back at Nami, and motioned: "Let's go there, they should have a lot of treasure, don't you really need money?"

Nami's heart was touched, recalling the brutal dragon, and then looking at Luffy in front of her.

After a brief hesitation, Nami said sincerely, "Thank you."

"We will be partners in the future, don't be so polite."

Luffy and Nami walked over and started to search for the treasure of Bucky Pirates.

However, because Bucky is a split fruit ability user, he was not seriously injured.

"Give me a magnificent fall."

Bucky took the opportunity to sneak attack, separated his upper body from his lower body, and stabbed Luffy from behind.

Luffy didn't look back, and punched back at random, his arms stretched.

The next moment, Bucky's expression was painful, and his suspended upper body fell to the ground.

Bucky didn't want to give up, but the next moment he was easily sent flying and disappeared into the sky.

After the search, Luffy and Nami came to the shore and left in a wooden boat.

"You need money, so start looking for treasure."

What Luffy said made Nami nod subconsciously, and she found that she no longer resisted the pirate in front of her.

Luffy and Nami started the sea voyage. With a navigator like Nami, Luffy will be much more relaxed.

Destination, Sirob Village where Usopp is located.

Because I was looking for treasure all the way, it was a bit slow, and nearly two months passed.

In the past two months, Luffy and Nami have become very close, like partners.

Luffy looked forward to: "Zoro is about to come out. After he comes out, Nami, you can go in now, or you can go in after you settle the matter."

Nami understands that Luffy told him that the mysterious teaching space can become powerful.

Nami knows that strength is very important in this world, and if she is strong, the village will not be attacked by the dragon pirates.

I want to become stronger, but I have to wait until the village affairs are resolved, the sooner the better.

The next moment, Luffy's eyes lit up and he felt a powerful aura.

Luffy looked forward to: "Come out!".

Chapter 006 Sauron's Exit!

Whoosh!

The next moment, a figure appeared.

Short green hair, green robe, black boots, three knives on the right side of the waist, a vertical scar on the left eye, and the left eye is closed.

He is impressively Sauron who has finished training.

Two months have passed outside, and two years have passed inside.

"Luffy, long time no see."

Zoro misses Luffy very much.

Luffy also understood, and grinned: "For you, Zoro, two years have passed."

Nami understood, and she was shocked: "There is really such a strange space for teaching, two months outside and two years inside."

Looking at Sauron, Nami felt that this person was not easy to mess with, like a beast.

"She is?"

Sauron looked at Nami, a little curious, and guessed: "Our new partner."

Luffy said: "It's not quite right now, but it will be our partner."

From Luffy's eyes, Zoro naturally knew it was right.

Knowing the name after getting to know each other, what I'm good at.

Chapter 5

The three of them stood on the small wooden boat, looking a bit crowded.

Luffy looks forward to: "Soon to change to a big ship, and there will be a pirate flag."

Sauron smiled, it was inevitable.

Luffy looked at Sauron curiously, looked up and down, and became stronger.

"Sauron, you must be very powerful now. I want to know exactly how powerful you are."

Luffy really wants to know. Although he knows the plot, there may be some changes in strength compared to the original plot.

After all, it was not only Hawkeye, the world's number one swordsman, who taught Sauron, but also Roger, the pirate king.

Roger's swordsmanship is also extremely powerful, especially the name of the move, God's Avoidance! It is so domineering that even gods would avoid it, not to mention its power.

So, I don't know if Sauron has learned it.

Sauron also understands why Luffy is so powerful when he is so young.

Before Lu Fei made a move, it was beyond his cognition, and he was confused, but after two years of cultivation in it, he understood everything.

Recalling his previous self, Sauron couldn't help laughing, feeling a bit like a frog in a well.

The world is too big, and he has seen it a little.

Although there will be no other communication inside, but through the strength of Hawkeye and Roger, let him know that this world is very big, and there are people outside.

My previous self felt that his swordsmanship was good, even if he was far away from the world's number one swordsman, it would not be too far away.

But when he started to study, he was a little hit, the gap was too far, the difference between heaven and earth.

At the beginning, he couldn't even beat a baboon, which was very frustrating.

Now, he is confident in his own strength.

I also understand why Luffy fainted when he didn't do anything, it was because of his domineering look.

Zoro is also curious about Luffy's strength, knowing that in this small place, it is very difficult for Luffy to go all out.

So before, the strength that Luffy showed was definitely the tip of the iceberg.

Both of them were curious about each other's strength, looked at each other and smiled, and had an idea together.

That is to find an uninhabited island nearby and fight!

Nami then also knew what they were thinking and began to take charge of the voyage and search.

Nami also wanted to know how strong Luffy and Zoro are, can they deal with the Dragon Pirates?

Thinking of this, Nami found it difficult, after all, Luffy and Zoro are only two people.

Naval Headquarters, Marin Fand.

Marshal's office.

Sengoku was in a good mood and heaved a sigh of relief.

This made Karp, who was eating senbei leisurely, a little uneasy.

Garp asked: "Warring States, did Hawkeye respond?"

Zhan Guo nodded: "Well, I responded. He said he wouldn't grab it with his hands, but he can try it a little bit. However, he is not sure whether he will die or live after a little bit of hands. He won't just because the other party will die. Close hand."

Speaking of the latter, Sengoku secretly observed Karp's expression.

As he thought, Garp's face was gloomy, and his expression was very complicated.

The heart is naturally angry and worried, but it can't be fully expressed.

As a good friend, Sengoku also understands Karp's mood, seeing this expression, he doesn't say much.

Garp could only sigh in his heart: "Luffy, I hope you can survive this test, otherwise, it is impossible to become the One Piece or something."

Although I really don't want Luffy to become the One Piece, I don't want Luffy to die either.

Warring States changed the topic: "Not long ago, there was new news that Straw Hat's pirate team has added a new crew member, now there are two."

Garp felt a little more relaxed and had a partner.

My grandson's vision is not bad, and with a partner, the chance of surviving the Hawkeye will be higher.

After all, Hawkeye couldn't be serious.

Therefore, Garp hoped that his partner could be stronger, so he asked curiously.

"Who is it? How strong is it? How much is the bounty?"

Warring States didn't care: "A pirate hunter in the East China Sea has a slight reputation in a small area of the East China Sea. His name is Roronoa Zoro. If he is strong, he has some strength, but in a place like the East China Sea, he is still watching the sky from a well. The great route is nothing, the bounty is estimated at 50 million Baileys."

This made Cap twitch, fifty million Baileys...

The bounty is also linked to strength. In this case, facing Hawkeye...

Garp's heart was heavy, and he felt that his grandson Luffy and the crew member Zoro were in danger.

Chapter 007 Luffy VS Zoro

On an uninhabited island in the East China Sea, Nami watched with a telescope on the distant sea.

Originally, Nami wanted to go to the island to see it, but Luffy reminded her to watch it here in the end.

Nami thinks it's a bit unreasonable, this uninhabited island is also very big, it is equivalent to a city, so the scope of the battle cannot spread to the entire island, right?

At that time, I thought it was okay, I went up to see for myself, and just stayed away.

But both Luffy and Sauron told themselves not to go to the island, so they could only watch it here.

Looking through the binoculars, you can see that on the island, Luffy and Zoro are facing each other.

Sauron pulled out all three knives, held the knives in both hands, and bit one on his mouth.

Sauron's fighting spirit rose, and he looked forward to: "Luffy, we don't need to test it, let's get serious directly."

Lu Fei smiled and nodded: "I think so too."

Both of them knew that they were very powerful now, after all, they had practiced hard for two years.

Therefore, the temptation is avoided. This battle was originally just to see the strength of each other.

The two were about to fight directly and seriously, Sauron had already set his posture, and Luffy suddenly made a movement that made Sauron and Yuanfang Nami feel inexplicable.

on his knee, and his right fist touching the ground.

"Second gear!"

With the sound of second gear, Luffy's calf pulsated like a spring.

Under the surprised eyes of Zoro and Nami, it was found that Luffy's body complexion turned red and steamed.

The second gear uses feet or hands as a pump to accelerate blood flow and strengthen the body.

After entering the second gear, there was a chirping sound, and Luffy's hands turned black.

Seeing this, Nami was very puzzled: "Why did the hands turn black?"

However, it was soon discovered that Sauron was the same, and the knife in his hand was also covered with a layer of black, turning into a black knife, which looked sharper.

Nami felt that she was a little ignorant, what was it all about.

Perhaps, after I enter the teaching space, I will be able to understand these.

"Rubber jet bazooka!"

Suddenly, a red afterimage flashed across Luffy's body, and he came to Sauron in an instant, so fast that Nami's eyes still stayed where Luffy was standing before.

Luffy threw out his fists, Sauron was startled.

"So fast!"

Before he had time to fight back, Sauron crossed his knives in front of him to block.

With a bang, Sauron retreated 20 meters and leaned against a boulder.

With a bang, the boulder shattered and collapsed.

Sauron grinned, his fighting spirit rose and his blood boiled.

"Luffy, I have to be serious too."

At this time, Nami was a little stunned: "What happened..."

She didn't react at all, it was too fast.

"One-knife-evil port bird."

Zoro quickly drew the knife, and Nami was even more surprised, the speed was too fast.

With the quick draw of the knife, a slash similar to that of a blue bird was issued.

Whoosh!

However, it was easily dodged by Luffy.

Luffy reminded: "Zoro, seriousness is not like this."

"Then be careful!"

Sauron bit the knife in his mouth, and carried the two knives behind his back with both hands. Suddenly, there seemed to be blue battle energy behind him, and the faint sound of a tiger sounded.

Under Nami's astonished gaze, a blue mighty Tiger King appeared behind Sauron.

"Three-sword style, pole, tiger hunting!"

"Roar!"

As Sauron slashed out with his two knives, the roar of the tiger resounded, and the blue tiger roared out.

Luffy knew that Sauron was powerful now, so he would not be careless.

He put his right hand in front of his mouth, took a big breath, his chest expanded, and he blew hard.

Suddenly, the right hand and arm became huge, like a giant.

This was what Nami had seen before, but this time it was different because the entire giant's arm was covered in black.

Obviously, facing Sauron, Luffy has to be serious and domineering.

There was no need to use domineering to deal with the Bucky Pirates before.

"Rubber Giant Bazooka!"

Whoosh!

Huge black giant fists blast out like rocket shells, and both of them are extremely powerful.

boom!

The black giant fist collided with the blue tiger, and there was a stalemate.

However, following Lu Fei's shout, the blue tiger twisted, and with a puff, the blue tiger collapsed, and the power of Lu Fei's punch was also relieved a lot.

Whoosh!

Zoro jumped up and quickly came to the top of Luffy's head, the muscles of his arms swelled, and Nami, who was watching in the distance, was surprised.

"How did you do it? I was already full of muscles, but now my arms are swollen again."

Although I haven't seen the power yet, I can feel that it is full of violent power.

The next knife must be very powerful, and it seems to be close.

"Three swordsmanship, one forceful force, two forceful force, and two forceful slash!"

The muscles in both arms strengthened, and Sauron slashed down with two knives.

Luffy withdrew his hand quickly, and the giant fist shrank back to its original size on the way.

At the same time, Luffy's right foot was huge, turned black, and kicked upwards.

boom!

The ground around Luffy cracked, sunken, and gravel flew.

Chapter 6

The two figures retreated separately, but then quickly collided together.

Nami was a little dazed watching the fierce battle, because it was hard to catch with the naked eye.

Along with the battle, there were constant roars, collisions, boulders shattering, countless big trees falling and flying, the entire island seemed to be shaking, large pits emerged one after another, and wide cracks continued to spread.

Soon, the entire island was in a mess.

Nami now understands why Luffy and Zoro won't let her go to the island.

"They... are so powerful..."

Nami is more aware of the power of Luffy and Zoro, and at the same time yearns for the teaching space.

Even if he is not as good as Luffy and Zoro after teaching himself, he will definitely be much stronger than he is now.

You have to become stronger, whether it is saving the villagers, or being a member of the Straw Hat Pirates in the future!

If your partner is so strong, you can't be too weak.

Chapter 008

After fighting for three hours, it was coming to an end.

Luffy jumped up, stretched his huge right hand backwards, covering the jet-black armed domineering, then quickly pulled it back, and smashed downwards.

"Rubber Thor Gun!"

Sauron knew that this move was the most powerful from the beginning to the present.

"Three swords flow profound meaning, green dragon chant, flowing water."

Sauron sent out criss-crossing slashes, intertwined into an imaginary blue dragon, and roared out as if made of flowing water.

boom!

A roar erupted, and a terrifying force swept away, everything within a radius of 100 meters was emptied and turned into nothingness.

Luffy and Zoro stopped fighting, because it was basically clear.

Luffy said: "Zoro, you still have a lot of cards."

Sauron nodded: "Well, Luffy, you too."

"Hee hee, yes."

It's just a sparring, not a battle to the death. Naturally, both of them have many more powerful moves that are useless.

Nami came when she saw the battle was over. When she heard the conversation between the two, she was shocked.

I thought I was going all out, but I still have a hole card?

Wasn't the fight just now the strongest attack? There are stronger ones?

This made Nami more yearning and determined.

"I want to become stronger! Waiting for the village to end, I also want to enter the teaching space."

Luffy nodded: "Of course."

Leaving the uninhabited island, the voyage continues.

Nami felt that although Luffy and Zoro were great, they still lacked a lot.

Nami said bluntly: "It's too messy to start sailing like this and go to the great route if you are not strong enough."

However, during this period of contact, I also got to know Luffy, and it is true that the dog is messing around.

Luffy sat on the bow of the boat, eating an apple, and thought it made sense, so he nodded.

"Well, it's too messy. I can't eat like this. Sure enough, I still need some meat. It's not enough to only eat fruit every day."

Sauron, who was lying on his back, said by the way: "It would be better if there is wine."

Nami was speechless: "What are you talking about? That's not what I meant. The great route is the most dangerous place in the world, and your strength is not enough, not to mention you, Luffy, is a devil fruit capable person. Besides, there are many powerful pirates To find One Piece, and ride a powerful pirate ship."

Luffy believes: "We will also have it, a powerful ship, and more crew members. Chefs, doctors, and musicians are all indispensable."

Nami was thinking about getting a better boat. For such a boat, no matter how good her navigation skills are, it's useless.

At this time, Luffy saw an island with a town in the distance, and his eyes were shining.

"Ready to eat meat."

Sauron couldn't wait: "There is still wine."

This made Nami put her hands on her forehead, and she had a headache:

"You two are really."

Soon, the three of Luffy went ashore, and Luffy discovered that it was Xirob Village.

As soon as I went up, I heard a shout. Nami and Zoro were not familiar with it, but Luffy was familiar with this voice, and it was naturally

Usopp's.

"There are pirates, everyone run away! The pirates are coming! There are pirates..."

Soon, Usopp was chased and beaten, and he was looking forward to it, excited, and ran away.

"Hahaha, come and chase me if you have the ability."

...

The three of Luffy stayed in Sirob Village, went to eat and drink first, and then met Usopp.

After getting acquainted with each other for two days, I also knew the conspiracy of the Crocker Pirates.

Usopp went to the ramp. As for Sauron, he knew that Lu Chi had gone wrong.

Usopp panicked, what about Luffy and Sauron.

Looking at the black cat pirates who landed, Usopp calmed himself down.

"Police... I warn you, go back now! Otherwise, my partner who is against ten thousand will beat you to pieces!"

The Black Cat Pirates laughed.

"One against ten thousand?"

"Haha, it's a trick to deceive children."

"How can a guy like him have such a powerful partner?"

...

The pirates didn't believe it.

Hypnotist Zan Gao was angry: "Don't try to scare us, think we are idiots?"

Come on, little ones!"

"Yes! Captain Zangao."

Immediately, nearly a hundred pirates rushed uphill with knives.

This made Usopp panic and picked up the slingshot, but with so many people, it was impossible for him to deal with it alone.

Zangao sneered: "Boy, you are finished."

Usopp kept shooting, and one person fell down and screamed, but there were too many people, and they were about to rush, and he couldn't escape.

"Is it over...Damn it..." Usopp was very unwilling.

"Die!"

The pirate approached, raising the knife in his hand, ready to cut it down.

However, when the slash went down, Usopp closed his eyes and thought it was over.

call!

The invisible momentum erupted, time seemed to freeze, the waving knives stagnated, and nearly a hundred pirates rolled their eyes one by one.

bang bang bang...

The sound of falling to the ground continued, and Usopp froze.

No pain was felt, but a series of falling sounds.

Usopp opened his eyes, his pupils constricted in astonishment.

A hundred pirates broke through below, all of them fell down.

This... this... what's going on?

Whoosh!

boom!

A figure descended from the sky and appeared in front of Usopp, with his left hand on the ground and his right hand holding the straw hat on his head.

Looking at the back, Usopp's eyes lit up.

Zango was terrified, what did he do? Why did a hundred people collapse in an instant?

He obviously didn't do anything, but why did he faint, and he was a hypnotist just like himself?

Impossible, no hypnosis at all.

Zang Gao retreated subconsciously, terrified in his heart, and said in a deep voice, "You... who are you?"

Luffy stood up, raised his head, and the face under the straw hat grinned:

"I am his partner who can stop ten thousand with one, Monkey D Luffy!"

Chapter 009 The Gap, Easy to Solve

Zangao felt as if he had seen a ghost and didn't understand.

"What the * did you do, why are they all down, is there a drug in the air?"

Luffy doesn't explain too much, he looks domineering, and naturally he doesn't know at this level.

Whoosh!

Luffy quickly moved to the side of Zango, and he didn't need to open second gear to deal with this level.

Throwing out a punch, Zangao flew upside down amidst screaming and screaming, a mouthful of blood spewed out, and hit the ground, dying of serious injuries.

He only felt that all internal organs in his body were shattered and he was about to die.

"Why...why is there such a strong guy." Zengo realized his physical condition, fearful and desperate.

At this moment, Nami came, and it can only be said that Luffy is too fast.

Nami looked around, Luffy and Usopp are there, where is Sauron?

Nami asked, "Luffy, where is Sauron?"

Luffy was not surprised: "We've been together for a few days, you understand."

Nami suddenly remembered, stroked her forehead, and understood.

"Okay, got it."

Sauron is a road-crazy man, obviously lost.

At this time, the remaining 300 members of the Black Cat Pirates disembarked from the ship.

To deal with this kind of minion, Luffy has always been a domineering man who can solve it, so he doesn't waste time by doing it.

The domineering look broke out, and before disembarking, they all fainted.

At this time, Sauron came and exhaled.

"I'm not late, am I?"

Nami was speechless: "Fortunately, Luffy came early."

Chapter 7

Sauron looked at the fallen people in front of him and felt a little bored.

With my current strength, maybe it will be boring for a while?

Whizzing...

At this moment, two figures rushed down the hillside at an extremely fast speed, and they came out of the boat.

Zoro stepped forward: "Luffy, leave it to me."

"it is good."

There are two figures, one thin and one fat, they are cat brothers, Sam and Buji, both have cat-like hands and cat ears.

The bounty offered by these two people is seven million Baileys.

"Pirate hunter, Roronoa Zoro, we know. But, against our cat brothers, even you will lose."

Sam is full of interest, and feels that defeating this well-known pirate hunter in the East China Sea will give him a sense of accomplishment.

Boogie glanced at Luffy, surprised.

"He is very powerful, but let the boss solve it."

"Yeah, let's take care of this guy."

The situation is not good now, so the Catman brothers directly fight together, one left and one right, the speed is extremely fast, sweeping to the left and right sides of Sauron, slashing out with sharp claws, even a boulder can be shredded.

The catman brothers looked at Sauron and laughed inwardly. Seeing that Sauron didn't seem to react, he didn't draw his sword, not even a single one.

They knew that Sauron was a swordsman, so it was obviously because they were too fast to react.

However, Zoro didn't draw his sword because he didn't think it was necessary.

Just when the Catman Brothers thought they could tear Sauron apart in the next moment, they saw Sauron's arms suddenly raised and spread out, spinning and waving suddenly.

"No knife flow, tornado!"

Suddenly, a tornado whizzed, with great power, after all, it was Sauron now.

The catman brother's body was suddenly rolled up uncontrollably, spinning continuously, screaming, and tearing apart.

"what!"

Pooh.

Soon, the catman brothers were torn to pieces by the tornado, and the tornado soon dispersed.

This stunned Usopp behind him: "It's amazing..."

"It took so long to get it done, so it turned out to be in trouble."

At this time, a figure rushed over, and a deep voice sounded.

He wears a black suit, wears glasses, combs his hair back, and has sharp claws on each of his hands and five fingers. It is Crowe, and the reward is 15 million Baileys.

Luffy looked at Crowe, and said easily: "If you get rid of you, it's over."

This made Crowe laugh back angrily: "Hahahaha, don't you underestimate me? Wait, I will carefully chop you up now!"

Although angry, Crowe also knew that these guys in front of him were not simple.

After all, his crew members were all down, and the cat brothers were easily dealt with.

But, I am Crowe, in this sea, no one is better than me, so let me solve them by myself.

Crowe didn't try, and went all out, using his ultimate move.

Under Usopp's and Nami's surprised eyes, Kloe seemed listless, with his hands lowered, his head lowered, his body slightly downward, and as he walked, his hands began to sway from side to side.

Nami was puzzled: "What is he doing?"

Usopp was a little uneasy, and reminded: "He is the Black Cat Pirates Crowe, you have to be careful."

Although he has seen the power of Luffy and Zoro, Usopp is still worried.

"Die!"

With a low shout from Crowe, it suddenly disappeared, as if it disappeared out of thin air and did not exist.

Nami knew that she must be nearby, but she was surprised because she couldn't see her figure or hear any sound.

Usopp was worried, and Sauron frowned slightly.

Luffy naturally knows that this is the combination of silent steps and indiscriminate attacks, Crowe's strongest ultimate move.

Because it is silent, fast, and indiscriminate, Crowe doesn't know who he is attacking.

Now that the crew is down, it doesn't matter. He'd do it even if the crew were still there.

"what!"

"Ah!"

...

Suddenly, there were continuous screams, all coming from those who were stunned.

Because he felt the pain and was attacked, he screamed.

puff...

puff...

Blood splattered everywhere, and Nami looked over in shock.

"How come there are wounds on their bodies out of thin air."

Usopp is also puzzled, why? They obviously didn't see anyone attacking them, but there were cut wounds on each of them, blood splattered everywhere, and bones could be seen.

Sauron narrowed his eyes and kept moving, explaining: "It's because the speed is so fast that you can't see, and you act silently, as if there is nothing."

Nami suddenly felt that Sauron and Luffy could be captured, so it was Crowe's fault.

"What a cold-blooded guy, he is constantly killing his own crew." Nami was disgusted, and couldn't help but think of the dragon, which was just as cruel.

Chapter 010 The Golden Merry

Silently and constantly cutting, Usopp was a little worried.

Luffy said: "Nami, Usopp, stay away."

Usopp and Nami nodded, which means that Luffy can't solve Crowe in a short time?

Sauron was surprised. Luffy's strength can naturally be captured. After all, he must be as superb as himself if he is knowledgeable and domineering.

Therefore, Sauron will not have the same idea as Usopp.

The screams continued, and Luffy walked down the broken road.

And, close your eyes.

This made Sauron understand: "I plan to use this guy to hone his knowledge and arrogance."

This is indeed Luffy's idea. Although the domineering power of knowledge and knowledge has been mastered to a high level, there is still a little distance from being able to see the short future.

So, not to be missed.

After closing his eyes, Luffy started to feel.

whoosh whoosh...

They came cutting immediately, but they were all dodged without any injuries.

Usopp and Nami watched from a distance, and Luffy was dodging left and right with ease and style, as if he was dodging something.

They knew that Luffy was dodging silent attacks.

Although they couldn't see it, the stone walls on both sides were cut and traces emerged, which let the two know that Crowe's attack was still going on, but it couldn't hurt Luffy.

Just like that, half an hour passed.

Crowe, too, was exhausted and ready to stop.

With this speed, he attacks indiscriminately, and he doesn't know who he has attacked.

But, never mind, after so long, everyone here must have died.

"It's over, I'm about to see the pieces of their bodies."

Crowe stopped, out of breath, while looking forward.

Suddenly, Crowe's eyes widened in disbelief.

Luffy stood in front of him, and he was unscathed, and his clothes were not damaged at all.

"How...how is it possible..." Crowe couldn't believe it.

Glancing at the others, the three in the distance were all fine.

Lu Fei smiled and thanked: "Thank you, let me hone my sense of domineering a little bit."

"Informative and domineering?"

Although Crowe didn't know what it was, he couldn't tell, but he could tell that he was using his killer move just now as a training partner!

Whetstone!

This made Crowe's anger rise, but he was also afraid.

"hateful..."

Exploding with the last strength, Crowe moved quickly, silently, trying to escape.

However, Luffy flew in front of him in an instant, his fists were black, and he slammed out fiercely.

boom!

"what!"

Crowe flew upside down, his abdomen sunken directly, and a mouthful of blood mixed with broken internal organs spurted out.

Flying hundreds of meters, smashing through many big trees and rocks along the way.

After stopping, Crowe was pale and dying.

This made him unacceptable. The Black Cat Pirates himself was instantly killed by a boy. Why, why is the gap so big.

Crowe tilted his head, unwilling to die.

Usopp adores so much, so it's over...

Nami was very happy, she ran to the black cat pirate ship immediately, and she was even happier because there were a lot of treasures.

Usopp looked at the vast sea and made a decision.

"I have been hesitating, but after seeing you, I decided. As a man, I should go to the wide sea. Therefore, I want to leave the village, become a pirate, and join the Straw Hat Pirates!"

Luffy was happy: "Welcome to join."

Afterwards, Usopp went home to clean up.

Knowing that everything is over, Keya is very grateful and wants to do what she can.

Seeing that Luffy's boat is still a small wooden boat, he decided.

Three days later, on the coast of Xiluobu Village.

A light sailboat was docked here, and Luffy and others came.

Looking at the sailboat in front of him, Luffy sighed in his heart: "The Golden Merry."

Ke Ya expected: "I hope you will accept it, this is my thanks to you."

The person in charge of designing the ship said: "Although the style is a bit old, it is a light sailing ship with a skeleton structure and a central rudder with a triangular sail at the stern. It is called the Golden Merry."

The designer continued: "Let me talk about the operation method, first of all, in terms of power start adjustment..."

Nami interrupted: "Just tell me."

Luffy, Zoro, and Usopp started admiring the ship.

Luffy praised: "What a great ship, especially the bow, so cool."

Chapter 8

Ke Ya said softly: "All the things that can be used for sailing have been packed on board."

Luffy didn't say too many polite words, boarded the boat with Zoro, Nami, and Usopp, and set sail with Yang Fan!

On the deck, Luffy and others are discussing and drawing the pirate flag.

Usopp raised his hand and said, "Leave it to me. I'm a talented painter. I used to graffiti on the walls of the village."

Then, the black pirate flag, with a white skull, crossed skull bones, and a straw hat like Luffy on top of the skull.

Luffy was satisfied: "Very good, that's all, Usopp, let's draw on the canvas."

"it is good."

Soon, a bigger one was drawn on the canvas, so that it looked decent.

Nami sighed softly: "This is like a pirate ship."

The voyage continued, Luffy yearned, and there were already four people on board.

Luffy knew that the next partner, Sanji, should also go to the sea restaurant.

However, there will be someone.

That is, Hawkeye!

Luffy doesn't know what will happen after meeting, but he knows one thing, that is, it will be different from what he knows and will change.

What kind of change, you will know when you encounter it! .

Chapter 011 Sea Restaurant

Usopp soon learned about the teaching space and was looking forward to it.

"Of course I am willing to enter cultivation!"

On the one hand, he wants to become stronger, and on the other hand, he wants to meet his father, even if it is illusory.

When he knew that there were still teaching templates, and he could choose two, the first thing Usopp thought of was his father.

Luffy nodded: "Okay, Usopp, you go in, see you in two months, for you, it's two years."

Usopp knew that he was too weak now.

Although Nami is not very good, but Nami is a woman.

Among the three men on board, Luffy and Zoro are both incredibly strong. Therefore, you have to become stronger yourself, and you can't hold back.

After deciding, Usopp entered the teaching space.

"It's so heavy, it's hard to breathe."

Usopp gritted his teeth and persisted, excited, anticipating, and chose the teaching template, his father, * Bu, a world-renowned sniper, one of the cadres of the Red Hair Pirates, and even the world's number one sniper!

The next moment, Usopp saw his father without the slightest emotion.

Usopp is not surprised, the teaching template is only responsible for teaching and has no other emotions.

However, even being taught, Usopp is happy.

When the teaching began, various environments suitable for Usopp's cultivation also appeared in the space.

Nami also decided: "I've dealt with the Dragon Pirates, and I'll start practicing after Usopp comes out."

"Haha, good." Luffy nodded.

ten days later.

On the Merry, there are two more people, Johnny and Joseph.

Johnny suggested: "Brother Sauron, I know a place, if you are looking for a chef, you can go there and have a look."

A chef is to be found, even Zoro and Nami agree.

Because, the food during this period is too bad.

Johnny introduced: "It's very close to the great route, and the man that Brother Sauron is looking for, Hawkeye, seems to have appeared there recently."

Hearing this, Sauron's eyes lit up, and his fighting spirit rose.

After Johnny told the location, the Merry headed towards the sea restaurant.

Twenty days later.

It has been a month since Usopp entered the teaching space, and Usopp has been in it for a year.

At this time, Luffy and others can already see the restaurant on the sea from a distance.

As it approached, a naval ship also came.

The leading man wore knuckles and looked at the Merry.

"I haven't seen Pirate Flag, are you new? Listen, I'm the captain of the Navy Headquarters, Iron Fist Hopperdy, who is your captain, tell us your name."

Luffy didn't respond, just punched him.

Looking at the elongated arm, Hobodi was surprised: "A devil fruit capable user, hmph, dare to fight with me, Hobodi the Iron Fist?"

Hobboddy smiled, and punched him hard.

boom!

Click!

However, at the moment of the collision, there was a crackling sound, and Hobodi flew backwards, dislocated his right arm, and let out a scream.

"what!"

Hobbodi was seriously injured, all the bones in his hand were shattered, how could it be.

Lu Fei said: "Don't look arrogant, and besides, don't use the name Iron Fist."

Hobodie was extremely angry and in extreme pain.

"Sink them for me!"

"yes!"

The muzzle was aimed at the Merry at close range, ready to fire.

Hobodi sneered: "You all will be buried in the sea."

Luffy didn't make a move, but Sauron, who was leaning on the boat, moved, jumped up, and slashed out with a knife.

With a click, the navy ship was cut in half, separated from the left and right, and sank into the sea.

Lu Fei rubbed his stomach and couldn't wait: "I'm so hungry, go in quickly."

Entering the restaurant on the sea, there are many people sitting inside, eating delicious food. The decoration style of the restaurant is very nice and elegant.

A slightly attractive woman in a red cheongsam sat alone.

At this time, a man with blond hair, black suit, black trousers, curly eyebrows, and a cigarette in his mouth stepped forward, politely.

"Miss, are you bored sitting alone? Do you want me to sit down and have a glass of red wine and chat with you?"

Obviously, this person is Sanji.

"I gotta go."

The woman got up and left.

This made Sanji sigh, reluctant to look away.

When they arrived at the restaurant, Luffy and the others ordered all kinds of delicacies and began to eat them.

Luffy and others decided to eat and drink here for seven days, and most importantly, find a cook.

The next day, Ah Jin, who was seriously injured, was thrown from the dining room onto the deck.

"You bastard, don't come again."

Ajin, who was lying weak on the ground, gritted his teeth: "Damn it, he would be thrown out by that kind of guy. If it were normal, he wouldn't be looked down upon."

Ah Jin was lying on his stomach, trying to stand up, but he was too weak, his arms trembled, unable to get up, and collapsed on the ground again.

Luffy watched from above and asked, "Are you hungry? Do you want me to treat you to dinner?"

Ah Jin cried out hungry, but bravely said: "I'm not hungry."

With a creak, the door was pushed open, Sanji came out from inside, and put down a plate of homemade shrimp fried rice.

It is steaming, fragrant, and the rice grains are distinct, and it looks delicious.

Ah Jin watched and swallowed, wanting to eat very much.

Sanji sat down, took a puff on his cigarette, and puffed out the smoke.

"Let's eat."

Ah Jin's face was firm: "I don't know how to eat, no matter how poor I am, even if I starve to death, jump into the sea from here and be eaten by fish, I still don't know how to eat the food that comes from me. Take this food away."

After saying that, Ah Jin turned his face away so that he could not see the delicious fried rice.

Sanji was impatient: "Stop talking nonsense, eat quickly. For me, anyone who is hungry is a customer."

"Sorry, I'm not a guest." Ah Jin said firmly, "Don't persuade me, I won't eat it. Even if I, Ah Jin, starve to death, I won't eat a single grain of rice."

.....

.....

Ask for flowers, evaluation tickets, rewards, monthly tickets, thank you very much! .

Chapter 012 It's So Fragrant

Sanji was helpless, and couldn't help but sigh: "The sea is so vast and cruel. In this sea, there is no water and food. What a terrible thing."

Sanji seems to think of the past, and sighs: "I know better than anyone else the feelings of hungry people, it doesn't matter if you die for dignity, but if you survive after eating, you can see a new tomorrow. "

After Sanji finished speaking, Ah Jin wavered, grabbed the plate and spoon, and started to eat.

After taking the first bite, Ah Jin's eyes lit up. This is the best fried rice he has ever eaten, no, to be precise, it is the best rice he has ever eaten!

It's so delicious, whether it's rice, or shrimp, or squid and other seafood.

This seafood fried rice is so delicious.

snoring...

Ajin gobbled it up, but was very careful, for fear that a grain of rice would fall to the ground and be wasted.

After taking a few bites and raising my head, I enjoyed it very much, it was so delicious.

Ajin smiled, and couldn't help sighing: "It smells so good!"

snoring...

Soon, Ah Jin finished the fried rice, reluctant to part with it, and let it go.

Although he really wanted to eat again, but not wanting a second bowl was his last stubbornness.

Thinking of how he was eating just now, and what he sighed, Ah Jin burst into tears.

"It's shameful, it was too embarrassing just now."

However, I don't know if it's because I feel ashamed or moved.

Luffy looked at Sanji and invited: "I found a good cook, you can join us."

Sanji looked up at Lu Fa, a little confused.

Luffy said bluntly: "Join my pirate group."

Sanji didn't expect it to be so sudden, it was the first time they met.

Sanji shook his head: "I refuse, I have a reason to work in this store."

Luffy jumped down, firmly at close range: "I reject your refusal, you are a good cook, be a pirate with me."

This is, Ah Jin spoke.

"You are also a pirate, what is the purpose of your coming here?"

Luffy said bluntly: "I want to enter the great route and look for ONEPIECE."

Chapter 9

This made Ah Jin startled, with cold sweat on his face, looking serious.

Ajin smiled wryly and shook his head: "Another ignorant pirate, even we can't do it."

A Jin introduced himself: "I am A Jin of Creek Pirates. Since you are looking for a cook, it means that there are not enough people now."

Luffy nodded: "Well, it's not enough, he is the fifth."

Sanji was speechless and shouted, "Why did you add me?"

A Jin reminded: "I don't think you are a bad person, so I give you a piece of advice, it's best not to go on the great route. You are still young, so there is no need to act too hastily."

When the word "great route" was mentioned, Ah Jin showed fear and even trembled.

Luffy is interested: "This way I will want to go even more."

Ajin helpless: "Forget it, I can't stop other people's will. Mr. Sanji, thank you, I'm leaving. You are my savior, and I will repay you in the future, when I have the ability."

After the words fell, Ah Jin's eyes became firm.

Now I don't have the ability to repay, and Sanji doesn't need to do anything by himself.

Therefore, if you work hard, there will always be opportunities, otherwise you will need your own help in the future, and if you are incapable, it will be a real shame, it is better to die this time.

next morning.

The sea was shrouded in mist, but the movement caught the attention of everyone in the restaurant.

After approaching, I saw that there were many broken pirate ships approaching, and most of the people inside trembled when they saw the pirate flag.

"It's Creek Pirates!"

"The largest pirate group in the East China Sea, the Creek Pirates!"

"He... why are they here, are they going to finish us?"

"The opponent is a pirate group with 5,000 people, we are finished."

Suddenly, people panic.

The leading ship is huge, in the shape of a panther, and it is the main ship of the Creek Pirates, the Dreadnought Saber.

Nami looked at the huge boat in front of her, wondering: "It's really broken, how could it be like this."

Sanji smoked a cigarette, began to behave, and analyzed: "It doesn't look like it was attacked by a cannon, and it doesn't look like man-made damage. Did it encounter a tornado?"

Luffy came out to look at these, looking forward to it.

Not interested in Creek Pirates.

If it was me in the original book, then the opponent is strong, but the current me is very strong.

The Creek Pirates, the largest pirate group in the East China Sea, even so, made themselves uninterested.

The reason for looking forward to it means that Hawkeye will appear soon.

Crick got off the boat and was supported by Ah Jin, asking for water and food.

Then it was given, but unlike Ah Jin, Crick turned his face and was ready to do it.

However, Luffy burst into a domineering look, and the rest of the Creek

Pirates fainted and sank into the sea.

Crick was horrified, why?

He had no intention of doing anything, and he didn't dare to be arrogant anymore, which broke his cognition.

It was like meeting that person just after entering the great route.

That person's strength also broke his cognition.

"Look, there is movement at sea."

"There's a boat approaching."

"The fog is heavy, and I can't see clearly, but I can see two green light spots."

"It's two small green fires, like the fire of a candle."

"what exactly is it."

...

This made Luffy's eyes light up: "Here we come!".

Chapter 013 Sauron Meets Hawkeye

Gradually approaching, everyone can see clearly.

It was a small boat, with candles lit left and right at the front of the boat, and the flames were green.

There was only one coffin on board, and a cross was erected on top of the coffin, and the man on board sat at the front of the coffin.

Sitting upright with a black knife on his back, he tapped on Erlang's legs, wearing a black top hat, a wine red shirt inside, and a black windbreaker outside. The whole person gave off a very cold feeling.

The members of the Creek Pirates saw that their pupils constricted, and they were all terrified.

Even Crick's eyes were wide open, and cold sweat broke out on his face.

The Creek Pirates trembled.

"Yes...it's that man."

"Captain Creek, what should we do? It's the man who defeated our fleet!"

"He actually chased us here, did he come to kill us? It's...it's over..."

...

At this time, Sauron's fighting spirit was rising, and his blood was boiling.

"He is the man I've been looking for, the world's number one swordsman, Hawkeye Mihawk."

In the restaurant on the sea, many people also knew about the Creek Pirates. Looking at Hawkeye, they were shocked.

"Is he the man who sank all fifty ships of the Creek fleet on the great route?"

"It's obviously just one person, how can it be possible."

"Although I was alone and didn't move much, I didn't see him make a move, but just sitting there, I felt very powerful."

...

When everyone was shocked and scared, Sauron was excited.

"I didn't expect to meet him so soon, and I can finally fight and see."

When approaching the sea restaurant, Hawkeye's coffin ship stopped.

The members of the Creek Pirates were puzzled and angry.

"Why, why did you hunt us down here."

Hawkeye raised his head slightly, revealing yellow pupils as sharp as eagles, and spoke casually.

"To pass the time."

This makes the Creek Pirates very popular, it's a shame.

Even though they knew that the man in front of them was terrifying, many of them raised their guns angrily and pulled the trigger.

"Do not make jokes!"

bang bang bang...

The dense bullets shot at Hawkeye, but Hawkeye didn't even draw his knife, and dodged all the bullets while moving slightly.

This makes other people look like hell.

"How...how could it be, didn't hit?"

"How is it possible, it's clearly aligned."

"Did the bullet go around?"

bang bang bang...

Footsteps sounded, and it was Sauron coming.

"It was dodged."

The Creek Pirates looked at Sauron, puzzled.

"Who are you?"

"There are three knives in your waist. Are you a pirate hunter, Roronoa Zoro with three knives?"

"What are you going to do, challenge him?"

...

They could see that Sauron's fighting spirit was rising.

I can also understand that they are all swordsmen.

Sauron sighed softly: "Sink all their ships. You really are the strongest swordsman. I used to find you to go to sea. Now I have one more, so that the captain can become the Pirate King. I have to do both of them." ."

Hawkeye didn't look at Sauron, and continued to sit upright, with his legs crossed, his hands on his knees, and asked lightly.

"what is your purpose?"

Sauron grinned and said firmly, "The world's number one swordsman!"

Hawkeye only glanced at Sauron, but smiled: "Hmph, how stupid."

Sauron pulled out the words of He Dao, aimed at Hawkeye, and suggested: "You are free, so let's compete."

"Ok?"

At this moment, Zoro noticed Luffy.

"My luck is good, but your luck is bad. Because I'm free, I agreed to do something for the Navy."

Whoosh!

Under the horrified eyes of the Creek Pirates and everyone in the restaurant, Hawkeye appeared on the sea restaurant as if teleporting.

Most people's eyes were still on the coffin ship, but Hawkeye had already arrived.

Sauron's eyes naturally fell on Hawkeye immediately.

This surprised Hawkeye a little. Perhaps this young man was not as weak as he thought.

However, I was not very interested, but looked at Luffy.

"I'm here to test your strength. Although I'm not here to kill you, if it's just a test and you can't handle it, then it doesn't matter if you die."

Hawkeye has no killing intent, the meaning is very simple, a tentative attack, if you are too weak, you will die.

Sauron no longer hid his aura and faced Hawkeye.

"If you want to fight my captain, you have to ask me first."

In an instant, there seemed to be a fierce ghost Shura behind Sauron. At this time, he no longer suppressed his momentum, which shocked Hawkeye.

Hawkeye didn't look at Luffy any more, but stared at Sauron.

He knew now that the young man in front of him was no ordinary swordsman.

This made Hawkeye interested, and nodded: "Okay, then I will compete with you."

Although there was no battle yet, the aura that erupted just now let Hawkeye know that it was unusual.

At the same time, I was surprised that such a young swordsman could appear in such a small place as Donghai.

Knowing the power of Hawkeye, Sauron planned to go all out, holding the knife in both hands, and biting the knife in his mouth.

Luffy was ready to watch the battle, and at the same time, it was not surprising that Hawkeye looked for him.

After all, if one's own strength changes, then the follow-up will naturally change.

Luffy secretly said: "In order to confirm my strength, can I issue a bounty?"

Chapter 10

Sauron and Hawkeye were facing each other, and everyone around them were watching and discussing.

"The world's greatest swordsman, what kind of battle will it be with the pirate hunter Zoro?"

"The gap is too big, it will be crushing."

"I also think that the three-sword Liu Zoro will be quickly defeated by the world's number one swordsman, and will be crushed."

"Severe injury or death, after all, he is the world's number one swordsman."

Hawkeye didn't pull out the small knife around his neck, but stretched his hand behind his back, holding the cross knife, the supreme sharp knife, and the black knife night.

Hawkeye said lightly: "You are a well-known swordsman, and originally planned to use only the knife on my neck even if you fight. However, your strength is beyond my expectation, and it does not match your reputation. Therefore, I just face you, respect you, and use my strongest knife."

Sauron was very happy: "Fight me with all your strength! Let me see how much difference there is!"

Chapter 014 The Battle Between Sauron and Hawkeye

Zheng!

Hawkeye drew his sword, and the sound of the sword clanged.

For a moment, everyone's eyes were fixed.

Facing Sauron, Hawkeye would not act first.

Sauron also understood that he was a challenger.

So, the first cut, you can't let the opponent down.

Sauron held the word "Hedao" in his left hand, and the hilt of the sword in his right hand, and his hands and toes became pitch black.

"One Swordsman, Black Sword, Death, Lion Song!"

Zheng!

The moment he drew the sword, Sauron was already close to Hawkeye.

Hawkeye was shocked by it, not daring to be careless, he slashed out at night with the black knife in his hand.

Whoosh!

The moment he moved, Sauron appeared behind Hawkeye.

Hawkeye didn't move in place, but the knife in his hand had been retracted, obviously the chopping was over.

This stunned everyone except Luffy.

"I didn't see anything clearly."

"Sauron, the pirate hunter, is he so powerful?"

"Why did the knife turn into a black knife, and the hands also turned black."

"It seems that we are frogs at the bottom of a well, too ignorant."

"The sea is so big that we don't know much about it."

"It's too fast, I can't see clearly, what's wrong?"

...

Not to mention them, even Sanji was shocked.

"This green algae head is so powerful."

Sanji was thinking, if he had been facing the sudden knife just now, could he have avoided it?

Obviously, there is no way to hide.

Moreover, the power of this knife must be very strong, the reason why it did not cause much commotion is because the opponent is the world's number one swordsman.

If you can't dodge yourself, if you get hit, your life may be in danger.

After all, with a dead word.

Hawkeye turned around and praised: "It's a good cut, let me take it seriously just now. Among the swordsmen, you are considered very good.

Maybe, you are very close to me."

This kind of appreciation comes from the world's number one swordsman. Others will be satisfied, but Sauron will not. His goal is to surpass Hawkeye.

Sauron exclaimed: "Isn't it hurt? It's Hawkeye."

The slash just now was considered a powerful move by him, but Hawkeye was unscathed.

In an instant, Hawkeye reacted and blocked it with the black knife night.

Hawkeye seemed to be unharmed, but his hand felt a little bit of the shock. This strike was so powerful that it was impossible for him not to feel it at all, and his hand hurt a little.

Hawkeye holds the knife in his right hand and lifts it up.

This made Sauron shrink back in pain, although it was an extremely simple movement, even a child would do it.

Lift up, cut down, very simple actions.

But Zoro felt uneasy and stood ready.

Zheng!

With a simple slash, under the horrified eyes of everyone, a huge emerald green slash came out and attacked Sauron.

"Three-sword style, pole, tiger hunting!"

Roar!

The blue tiger roared out and rushed towards the emerald green slash.

boom!

The two collided, and the sharp air raged. Everyone quickly moved away, feeling that even if they didn't get close, they would be torn apart if they were far away.

With a puff, the tiger and the slash dissipated.

The people around watched with lingering fear.

"too strong."

"Sauron is so powerful."

"Our Creek Pirates are more aware of Sauron's power. The attack just now can cut all 50 ships of our Creek fleet in half at once."

"too horrible..."

Sanji was shocked, and looked at Luffy: "His partners are so powerful, how strong is he?"

Whoosh!

Sauron rushed towards Hawkeye quickly, his arms muscles swelled in a circle.

"Three swordsmanship, one forceful force, two forceful force, and two forceful slash!"

He rushed to jump up, and chopped down with two knives.

Hawkeye didn't move, he raised his black sword to block.

Clanking raged, and terrifying power swept away.

Sauron shook, and was actually blocked by the grid, and Hawkeye held the knife in one hand to block, his arm barely trembled.

Sauron exerted strength with his arms, his muscles burst, and his veins squirmed.

Hawkeye's arm and the black knife sank down, and his heart was more shaken than Sauron's.

After all, Sauron is too young. At his age, he was not so powerful.

Hawkeye exerted strength with his arm and raised it violently, shaking Sauron away.

Looking at Sauron in the air, Hawkeye sent out another emerald slash.

Shocked back in the air, Sauron sent out criss-crossing chopping waves.

"Three Swords Style Thousand Eighty Troubled Winds!"

boom!

When they collided again, they still collapsed separately, but Sauron was at a slight disadvantage and was sent flying by the aftermath.

Sauron landed steadily, his clothes were already torn.

Although Hawkeye is idle, he won't waste too much time, which is not his style.

Hawkeye intends to make a quick decision, and his goal is Luffy.

Hawkeye raised the black knife Ye Ye again, but the difference was that his left hand also raised up, holding the handle of the knife.

This made Sauron dignified. At this time, Hawkeye held the black sword

Yaya with both hands and raised his head high.

Others watched the shock.

"Hawkeye is getting really serious."

"Sauron's attacks are all kinds of tricks and tricks, while Hawkeye's attacks are very simple, just swinging a knife, but the power is too powerful."

"When you swing the knife with one hand, the slash is so powerful, let alone holding the knife with both hands now."

"The next slash will be stronger, and it's definitely not as simple as one plus one."

"It seems that the battle is coming to an end. Although Sauron is powerful, he is facing the world's number one swordsman after all, and defeat is inevitable."

"Although I lost the battle not long ago, it's not shameful. Instead, it's very honorable and powerful. I didn't get crushed and lost instantly."

...

Except for Luffy, everyone felt that the battle would end in an instant.

Hawkeye raised the knife with both hands, ready to cut it off.

Wanting to end the battle quickly, but also looking forward to it, I hope Sauron can continue to surprise himself, so he opened his mouth lightly.

"If you can't let me continue to be surprised, then after this knife, the battle is over."

Sauron smiled: "This is the end, but it's too soon."

Luffy is also looking forward to it, looking at Sauron, secretly said:

"Soron, let me see your cards."

Chapter 015 Nine Blades, Asura

Nami is not very worried either, she has seen the strength of Sauron and Luffy with her own eyes, and also knows that neither of them had real full strength at that time.

Hawkeye held the knife in both hands and chopped down.

Zheng!

There was a louder clank, and a larger and more powerful emerald green slash came out, with the power to split mountains and seas.

At the same time, Sauron moved. He didn't dodge or stay away. Instead, he held the knife in both hands and rushed forward with the knife in his mouth, while chanting.

This scene attracted everyone's attention, and they all looked over.

Originally, their eyes were focused on the more powerful slash from Hawkeye, and they were shocked by it, but Sauron did not retreat but advanced, which shocked them even more.

All eyes were on Sauron, and as Sauron charged forward, they could hear Sauron's chant.

"Nine mountains and eight seas form one world, and thousands of worlds gather to form a small thousand worlds. This world is multiplied by three, and there is no one who is endless..."

Following the chanting, the knife in Sauron's hands began to spin like a windmill, and he shouted awe-inspiringly.

"Three swords style mystery! One big, three thousand, big thousand worlds!"

Zheng!

Chapter 11

As Sauron finished chanting, there was also a louder clanging sound.

Sauron's slash aimed at Hawkeye's slash.

laugh!

The two powerful slashes collided, and the terrifying sharpness raged, and the surrounding atmosphere was cut and traces emerged.

Everyone keeps moving away, they know that even if steel gets close, it will be cut into pieces, let alone them.

The collision of two huge slashes created a terrifying momentum, after all, they all had the power to split mountains and seas.

For a moment, the surrounding sea continued to diverge, all of which were cut by the raging sharp air.

The air of sharpness permeated the air, and the slashing was rampant, even Hawkeye was dismayed by it.

"This knife is not bad."

boom!

The slash exploded, and Sauron retreated to the ground, with a lot of clothes on his body torn.

Hawkeye took five steps back, facing the sharp aura, waved his arm like a knife, rolling up a slashing storm, and shining the sharp aura.

Hawkeye was as full of force as ever, unscathed, and his clothes were not damaged in the slightest.

The others were stunned, looking at Sauron in shock.

"Amazing."

"His knife is so strong."

"I thought the slashing attack from Hawkeye's hands would be over, but it was defeated without injury."

"Yeah, it's just that the clothes are a little bit torn, and there is no injury."

The opponent is the world's number one swordsman."

"How did he cultivate? He is so powerful at such a young age."

...

They felt that Sauron was much more powerful than the rumors said.

Hawkeye exclaimed: "Facing the slash with both hands, I didn't lose or get hurt. You are very good at this age. I am not so strong at this age.

But, I won't let you surpass me easily. ."

Whoosh!

Hawkeye rushed forward suddenly, which made everyone shudder, and Hawkeye moved!

Hawkeye didn't take the initiative to act just now, but was knocked back, and the others just stood in place and slashed.

But now, rushing towards Sauron with great speed.

Sauron didn't dare to be careless, his blood boiled with enthusiasm, and he went all out.

After approaching, Hawkeye slashed with the black knife in his hand.

Zoro responded, although he was able to parry and block, but every time he blocked, his arms were so painful and numb.

Hawkeye's attacks are simple and rude, not fancy.

At this moment, afterimages of the black knife continued. This was not a gimmick, but a too fast swing.

Although it is a three-sword style, it is difficult for Sauron to find an opportunity to slash at Hawkeye, but keeps blocking.

This stunned the people in the distance, and they could only see the dazzling afterimage of the knife.

It seemed that instead of one knife and three knives in the hands of both parties, there were dozens of knives.

ding ding ding ding...

Clanking continued, sparks flew everywhere, the two figures kept moving, and the battle became more intense.

Sauron let out a low growl. He felt that this kind of close-range knife-to-knife collision was better, so let's fight like this.

chi...chi...

Sauron's clothes were cut and even started to show blood.

There were streaks of blood on the arms, legs, and shoulders, overflowing with blood.

As for Hawkeye, his clothes were not damaged, let alone injured, but sometimes a few hairs were chopped off.

The two figures kept flickering, the shadows of knives spread all over, and the sound of collision continued.

"It's amazing..." Sanji stared dumbfounded, the cigarette in his mouth was still in his mouth, but he didn't smoke, and he didn't even know it was almost finished.

It's not that Hawkeye is powerful, but Sauron, who is about the same age as himself, but why is he so powerful.

The opponent is the world's number one swordsman, and he can fight him so fiercely.

At the same time, he was even more curious about how strong Luffy is.

At this time, Hawkeye was also curious.

After all, his goal this time is to test Luffy's strength.

And now, the battle with Luffy and the crew of the Straw Hat Pirates has not ended yet.

Suddenly, Hawkeye's hands were pitch black, his arms were pitch black, and Heidaoye was even darker.

Heidaoye was originally Heidao, and the previous battles did not cover the armed domineering. At this moment, Hawkeye used it.

In an instant, the power became stronger, and it was difficult for Sauron to deal with it even with three knives.

Hawkeye sighed softly: "I am impressed by you being able to persevere until now. Although there is still a distance from the number one in the world, it is only second to me. Even the famous swordsmen in the sea are not as good as you. You are comparable, and there are not many of them, and you can't count them on one hand."

This kind of praise is extremely high, after all, it comes from Hawkeye. Everyone understands, which means that it is very strong, it can be said that it is the top five in the world.

However, Zoro's goal is only number one.

Seeing more and more wounds on Sauron's body, he didn't feel timid, but became more and more fierce.

Hawkeye exclaimed: "That's right, but with absolute strength, fierceness and bravery are useless."

Hawkeye was about to end the battle, and the frequency of attacks suddenly became faster, and the blade shadows became denser and more powerful.

This made Sauron even more difficult to parry in an instant.

Everyone can see that Sauron's disadvantage is even greater, and he is really losing ground.

However, the next moment.

Sauron's right eye seemed to have a purple light flashing, and the surrounding space gave people the illusion of being pitch black.

Even behind him, there seemed to be a ghostly shadow of a vicious ghost.

"The end? It's still early." Sauron said in a low voice:

"Ghost Qi, Nine Swords Style, Asura!"

Chapter 016: God's Avoidance!

Under everyone's horrified eyes, Sauron had two extra heads and four hands.

Suddenly, there were six knives in each of the six hands, and one in each of the three mouths, nine knives in total.

Many people rubbed their eyes, thinking they were hallucinating, and their eyes were dazzled by what they saw just now. But it was soon discovered that it was true.

"How...how could..."

"Why are there two more heads and four hands?"

"Monster."

"Just like the name, really like Asura."

"Do you still have a hole card? It's amazing."

...

Immediately, Sauron began to wave.

For a while, they were evenly divided with Hawkeye at close range.

Even, cracks began to appear on Hawkeye's clothes.

Facing the attack of nine knives, even though Hawkeye had the upper hand in terms of strength, he was able to pierce three knives just now, but now there are nine knives, and it is impossible to dodge all of them.

Therefore, Hawkeye's clothes gradually had more rips.

Sparks flew, jingling continued, and Hawkeye backed away.

Sauron suggested: "It is impossible to end it in a short time. If you fight here, you will be destroyed. So, find an island nearby."

Hawkeye also became interested, jumped on the coffin boat and left.

Luffy, Nami, and Zoro boarded the boat.

Luffy looked at Sanji and suggested, "Come and see with us."

Sanji also wanted to see how far he was from this green algae head, and did he have a stronger hole card?

Hawkeye originally thought that there was a gap and it would be over quickly, but unexpectedly, it would not take a while to end the battle.

Sauron's swordsmanship, even if there is still some gap with his own, but it is definitely not very big.

Therefore, it is not easy for this kind of challenger to defeat him.

Hawkeye is also willing to go, and he can't let go of the place just now.

Soon, Hawkeye and Sauron came to an uninhabited island, covered with mountains and forests.

Sauron reincarnated as Asura and fought with Hawkeye.

The battle became more and more intense, and the dings continued.

The two figures kept flickering, and every time they stopped, the surroundings were in a mess, and countless trees were cut.

After facing the knife at close range, he launched another slash.

"Three Swords Style, Black Rope Tornado!"

"Three-sword style, bull ghost brave claws!"

"King of Hades, Three Swords Style, Purgatory Ghost Slash!"

...

Sauron slashed out various moves, but Hawkeye still didn't call out a name, and still swung the black sword Yaya in an ordinary way, sending out emerald green slashes.

The roar continued, and with the battle, the mountains crumbled and collapsed.

Sanji was dumbfounded, how powerful he could be to such an extent, after fighting for a few days, the island might be wiped out.

Nami exclaimed: "Zoro is so powerful."

In the previous battles, I knew Sauron didn't use all his strength, but I didn't expect to keep so many hands.

This made Nami curious, how many cards did Luffy have, and who kept more?

Nami asked curiously: "Luffy, seeing Zoro who is going all out, who do you think is better if you go all out?"

Luffy thought for a while and said, "Well, I don't know."

This shocked Nami, and she didn't give a specific answer, but just said she didn't know, which meant that Luffy had the same reservations as he was fighting Sauron.

Nami Xinliantan: "Two monsters."

The fighting lasted a day and a night.

Sanji and Nami didn't expect it to last so long, one day and one night.

Luffy was not surprised, he felt that this was too short, the battles between the strong were all of a few days and nights.

Luffy and Nami kept watching, and Sanji occasionally left to cook and then delivered.

After arriving, I found that the fighting was still going on.

Hawkeye never expected to last for so long. In terms of swordsmanship, he only felt that he could fight to his heart's content. Shanks was the only one who fought for a long time.

Chapter 12

To learn swordsmanship with Shanks, they often fight for five days and five nights.

Although Sauron's swordsmanship is not as good as Shanks', after all, Shanks' swordsmanship is comparable to his own.

However, being able to fight for a day and a night is already very strong, after all, he is only nineteen years old.

Whenever Hawkeye felt that the end was coming, Zoro showed stronger strength.

Not only great strength, but also perseverance, determination, and even madness.

Sauron was already bruised, but he didn't allow himself to fall down, because he hadn't reached his limit yet.

Looking at the battle, looking at Zoro with many scars and blood on his body, Sanji admires him, a real man.

Sauron was seriously injured, but Hawkeye would not be unscathed either.

Hawkeye's clothes were torn a lot, and he could even see a few slits of blood on his body, obviously injured.

Although the injury was not serious, it was already a great honor to be able to injure the world's number one swordsman in a swordsmanship competition.

Seeing that the eagle eye is still calm, Sauron realized that there is still a gap between him and the world's number one.

"Huh...huh..." Sauron gasped for breath, bleeding from the corner of his mouth.

Hawkeye said: "This time, it should be over."

Sauron is no longer in the form of Asura, and put the knife in his mouth back into the scabbard.

Hawkeye was about to withdraw the knife: "You have reached your limit, so go here."

Sauron put the second knife back into its sheath, and Hawkeye felt that Sauron had given up, that it was over.

This battle is over. Although Sauron was defeated, the defeat was glorious. He was able to fight until now, even hurting Hawkeye.

However, Sauron did not retract the knife in his right hand.

This made Hawkeye frowned slightly: "Huh? Do you want to continue?"

Sauron grinned: "Yes! This is the last cut!"

After the words fell, Sauron held the handle of the knife with both hands, and his momentum rose. The knife in both hands swung backwards, his body twisted, and his legs tensed.

The power explodes, continuously uploaded from the feet, to the waist, back, and then to the arms.

Immediately afterwards, holding the knife with both hands, the strength of the whole body swung the knife.

Seeing this posture, Lu Fei's eyes lit up, and a figure appeared in his mind, One Piece, Roger!

When teaching space cultivation, fighting Roger, I have faced this trick myself! this is...

Sauron shouted majestically, this sound shocked Hawkeye! Respond immediately!

"One-shot style, avoiding the gods!"

Chapter 017 Test Luffy?

Facing the sword shroud, Hawkeye clenched Hei Daoya with both hands, his arms muscles swelled a circle, and he slashed out.

Zheng!

A more powerful huge emerald green slash came out, facing Sauron's knife.

boom!

With a terrifying roar, everything within a kilometer radius instantly turned into nothingness, and wide ravines spread all over the ground.

Amidst the roar, Sauron and Hawkeye both retreated in shock.

"This knife..."

Hawkeye was shocked, very strong.

Sauron gritted his teeth and insisted, with amazing perseverance.

Sauron's perseverance is extremely strong. After all, he has started all kinds of hellish high-intensity training since he was a child, and he persists day after day, so his perseverance is very strong.

Knowing that there is still a gap between myself and Hawkeye, I will lose this battle, but even if I lose, I have to make the gap look smaller, make the battle last longer, and cause more injuries to Hawkeye.

Hawkeye was getting more and more shocked, but he still persisted.

I didn't let the water go, but I was extremely serious, but I can persist until now.

Hawkeye became interested again, and continued to slash out.

Boom boom boom...

The battle started again, and half a day passed, and Sauron was out of breath and exhausted.

And Hawkeye is not just a skin trauma.

Hawkeye exclaimed: "So far, you are the only one who is inferior to me in swordsmanship."

Hearing this, Sauron was curious: "Who?"

I am still inferior to one, so it is not only Hawkeye who is stronger than me.

Hawkeye said: "Four emperors, red-haired Shanks."

Hearing this, Sauron was startled, it turned out to be the Four Emperors, no wonder.

After Hawkeye finished speaking, he glanced at Luffy, and his gaze stayed on the straw hat.

He knew that Hawkeye and Luffy must have a relationship, after all, that straw hat is important even to redheads.

Sauron forced himself to stand up, holding the knife in both hands.

"After this time, it's really over."

The muscles of Sauron's arms swelled, and he held the knife in both hands towards the right side of his body. At the same time, he rushed towards Hawkeye at a high speed.

"Double Swords · Double God Avoidance!"

Double * avoidance is his limit, and he still can't do the three-sword style, or even the nine-sword style.

Hawkeye shook, and sighed secretly: "At my age, maybe you can really surpass me."

For Sauron, Hawkeye even felt a sense of admiration in his heart, the future is limitless.

Hawkeye swung Hei Daoya with all his strength, sending out a stronger slash.

boom!

There was another terrifying roar, the ground continued to crack, and even the entire island was covered with cracks, shaking the ground.

Zheng!

The two attacks collided, and the sword energy swept away, and the mountain in the distance was directly cut by the middle.

Sanji was already numb to seeing that he could be so strong.

After the roar, Sauron flew upside down, and Luffy moved to catch Sauron.

Sauron was convinced: "I lost."

Hawkeye retreated in shock, the black knife in his hand stuck in the ground, and still drew a 50-meter-long ravine before stopping.

A smear of blood spilled from the corner of Hawkeye's mouth, and a few drops of blood dripped from his hands.

"It's over, I'm waiting for you to challenge me again." Hawkeye looked forward and even excited.

Sauron fainted, and Luffy breathed a sigh of relief after checking it. It wasn't that the injury was so severe that he fainted, but that he was exhausted.

Nami was shocked. Although Zoro lost, he was too powerful. He could injure the world's number one swordsman, and it wasn't a light injury. He was very strong.

Luffy handed Sauron to Sanji, and Sanji took it, ready to take Sauron back to rest.

Glancing at Luffy, Sanji was puzzled: "Aren't you leaving?"

Luffy looked at Hawkeye, who was approaching with a black knife, with a rising fighting spirit, and said in a concentrated voice: "Maybe, it will take a while."

Nami frowned: "He wants to find Luffy?"

Luffy nodded: "Well, obviously you want to fight me."

Hawkeye pointed at Lu Fei with a black knife, looking forward to: "Come on, just go all out, I won't fight with you, then, I just want to test your strength."

After seeing Sauron's strength, he was not interested in testing Luffy's strength at first, he was idle, but now, Hawkeye is very interested.

Luffy suggested: "Forget it, you are seriously injured now."

These words really made Hawkeye frowned, and he was naturally unhappy in his heart.

If it's the redhead who says that, it's fine. To fight against the redhead's level, he has to maintain his peak condition, but in front of him, he's just a young rookie.

"That's enough." Hawkeye said confidently.

It's impossible for Hawkeye to go like this, since he promised, he must do it.

Luffy is helpless, it seems that he still has to fight.

If it was Hawkeye in its heyday, Luffy would also be interested, but now that he has been fighting for a day and a half and was injured, he is not very interested.

However, he also felt that Hawkeye was angry, so Luffy nodded: "Okay, since it's a test of my strength, it's fine, I don't want to fight with you in this state for too long."

Hawkeye's sharp yellow eyes narrowed slightly. Even though as a captain, he was slightly more powerful than Sauron just now, it was too rude to talk to himself like this.

Or is it more than powerful?

Hawkeye thinks it is impossible, the age of the Straw Hat Boy and Sauron's idea, the strength must be the most powerful, and there is not much difference.

"Let's go inside, Sanji, take Zoro back to rest. Nami, wait for me, I should come out soon."

Nami chose to believe and nodded.

Hawkeye is puzzled, soon?

If you want to test it, it won't be soon, after all, you want to test how strong Luffy is with all his strength.

This is destined not to end soon, and will last longer.

In the deep woods, Hawkeye waited for Luffy to make a move.

"bring it on."

Lu Fei didn't ink any ink marks, and nodded: "Then just go all out, maybe you will leave directly after you see it, uncle."

"Huh?" Hawkeye frowned.

However, following Luffy's next actions, the next moment, Hawkeye was horrified!

Chapter 018 The First Reward

Nami sat down and waited, thinking she should wait a while.

It shouldn't be that long to wait a day, but I think it will take at least a few hours.

However, not long after Nami sat down, Hawkeye came out first.

Then, it was Luffy who walked out of the woods.

This made Nami startled, how long did it take to get in? Less than five minutes?

He didn't even hear the sound of the battle, so why did he come out? Are you done exploring? Or is there no fight?

Hawkeye skimmed to the coffin boat and left. He had already done what he had to do, so he didn't stay any longer.

Luffy walked up to Nami and said, "Let's go back to the restaurant on the sea."

Nami was stunned: "It's over? Have you guys fought yet?"

Lu Fei shook his head: "No, he just showed his full strength, he probably knew it, and left."

Nami suddenly realized that this was the case, and at the same time she was frightened. This shows that Luffy in full strength is very strong.

...

Navy Headquarters.

Warring States is very happy, because just now through the East China Sea's naval intelligence, Hawkeye has met the Straw Hat Boy.

Donghai's eyeliner was watching closely.

Soon, the reporting sailor came in.

Warring States asked: "How's it going? It's been more than a day since I met the Straw Hat Boy, should I try it out?"

"Marshal, according to intelligence, the battle started after Hawkeye arrived, and the battle lasted for a day and a half."

Hearing this, the Warring States Period shook.

Knowing that there was new news, Karp also came, so he naturally heard it.

After hearing that, Garp's heart sank. After fighting for a day and a half, Luffy...

The opponent is the world's number one swordsman, facing Hawkeye, fighting for a day and a half, how can Luffy bear it.

It can make Hawkeye fight for a day and a half, which shows that Hawkeye is serious. Even though Luffy is stronger than he imagined, what is going on now? seriously injured, or...

Garp frowned, his fists clenched.

Warring States could see Garp's mood, but he had to keep asking.

Warring States is happy in his heart. It was unexpected that Hawkeye could fight for so long. He thought it was just a test.

In that case, maybe the Straw Hat Kid has...

Warring States asked: "What happened afterwards? Did Hawkeye use all his strength?"

"Information says that based on the momentum of the battle, Hawkeye is probably at full strength."

These words made Garp's heart sink even more.

"Just now, according to the information, the battle is over. However, Hawkeye did not fight the Straw Hat Boy, but fought with the crew of the Straw Hat Pirates, the pirate hunter Zoro for a day and a half."

Hearing this, Sengoku was stunned, and Karp was also stunned.

Wasn't he fighting Straw Hat Luffy? how come...

Just the crew of the Straw Hat Pirates, Hawkeye fought for a day and a half...

Sengoku frowned, but Garp breathed a sigh of relief.

This information made Zhan Guo feel a little outrageous, and wanted to ask Hawkeye what was going on.

However, although Hawkeye is the king of Qibuhai, it is not something they can contact if they want to, and they still go their own way.

Just then, the phone bug rang.

Warring States quickly connected, because it was Hawkeye calling.

Zhan Guo tried his best to calm himself down and asked, "What's going on? Didn't you fight the Straw Hat Boy?"

Hawkeye's tone was as indifferent as ever: "Contacting you, the representative has completed."

"Straw Hat Luffy, you fought too?"

"No, first let me talk about the strength of the Straw Hat Pirates, the Pirate Hunter, and Roronoa Zoro. In terms of swordsmanship, they are only inferior to me."

Hearing this, both Sengoku and Garp were shocked.

It is only inferior to the world's number one swordsman, which means it is very powerful!

Warring States immediately asked his subordinates to get the information of the pirate hunter, and quickly brought it. After looking through it, he found out that he was only seventeen years old.

I know it's a three-sword style, a swordsman, but it's so strong.

He was able to fight Hawkeye for a day and a half, and it was learned from intelligence that Hawkeye was still injured.

This means that Hawkeye is not exaggerating. This seventeen-year-old Sauron is very powerful, even if he is placed in Qiwuhai, he is not weak. Thinking of this, the Warring States period was shaken and heavy, and the rookie pirate group had such a powerful partner for a while.

Fortunately for the Warring States period, fortunately, I noticed it early. Sengoku began to understand the specific strength of Sauron. Since it belongs to the Straw Hat Pirates, it is still so powerful, so it must be understood.

After understanding, Zhan Guo knew clearly.

Then, the most important thing.

Warring States asked: "What about the strength of the Straw Hat Boy? Since you have left, the representative has already understood, but the intelligence said that after you fought with the pirate hunter Zoro, there was no other fighting sound. You and the Straw Hat Boy did not fight?"

Hawkeye said bluntly: "No."

This made both Sengoku and Garp astonished, didn't they?

"Although not, I already know his strength. As a captain, he is not inferior to Roronoa Zoro, and even stronger."

Zhan Guo's face instantly became heavy. He already knew Sauron's strength, and his heart was shocked, so strong.

And now, Straw Hat, stronger... this...

I originally thought that although he is the captain, maybe the captain is weaker than the crew?

Although this kind of situation rarely happens, but to say that the straw hat boy is stronger, he thinks it is too outrageous, and he is still so young.

But now that it is confirmed, Sengoku's face is heavy, and there is another monster in the sea.

Zhan Guo was horrified in his heart, is this still his grandson? Why is it so powerful?

Hawkeye's temperament can never be exaggerated.

Immediately, Hawkeye hung up the phone, because what had to be said had already been said.

Warring States didn't ask any more questions, his face was heavy after sitting down, and he accepted the reality after a brief moment of contemplation.

Warring States order: "Go and release the reward for the Straw Hat Pirates."

"Marshal, how much is the bounty set?" Hai Bing asked, knowing that Zhan Guo already had a plan in mind.

Warring States said in a concentrated voice: "Pirate hunter, Roronoa Zoro, the bounty offered: 350 million Baileys!"

"Captain of the Straw Hat Pirates, Straw Hat Luffy, the bounty: 450 million Baileys!"

"Hiss!" Hai Bing took a deep breath.

Garp grinned and began to eat the senbei, muttering: "Hahaha... as expected of my grandson."

Chapter 019

Soon, the arrest warrant was made and began to spread around the world.

Kebi, who was sweeping the floor of a naval branch, saw the reward list hanging on the wall. The photo on it was a grinning Luffy.

Kebi was startled when his eyes moved to the bounty offer below.

Even, suspecting that the number was wrong, I counted one by one again, and finally found that there was nothing wrong.

"450 million Baileys... that's amazing..."

Kebi was shocked, thinking it was 45 million Baileys, but found out that it was 450 million.

After the horror, Kebi was happy: "Mr. Luffy, you have finally moved towards your dream, congratulations."

After being happy, Kebi became serious.

"However, next time we meet, we may be enemies."

...

Seven days later.

The Meili is sailing in the sea, and its goal is the village of Cocosia.

After competing with Hawkeye, and after spending five days in the restaurant on the sea, Sanji agreed to board the ship.

Now, there are five members of the Straw Hat Pirates.

Usopp is still in the teaching space, but is about to come out.

Sanji couldn't wait to learn about the teaching space. He felt amazing and understood why Luffy and Zoro were so strong at such a young age.

Sanji naturally wants to enter too, he can't be too inferior to Zoro.

At this moment, two bounty lists floated on the deck.

Looking down, I naturally saw it, it was the reward list of Luffy and Zoro.

Nami picked up Luffy's eyes and was shocked.

"My God, 450 million peles."

Sanji was also shocked: "350 million Baileys."

Luffy and Zoro are naturally happy.

However, Luffy was not very satisfied in his heart, thinking: "Is it just 450 million Baileys? Forget it, if something bigger happens in the future, it will go up."

Nami also understands why Hawkeye wants to test Luffy's strength, it has something to do with the navy.

Sanji was a little dissatisfied. If he wanted to enter the teaching space as soon as possible, he couldn't be too inferior.

...

Windmill Village.

The villagers were also happy when they found out, especially the village chief and Makino.

Makino sighed softly: "Luffy is so powerful, the first time he offered a reward, it was directly 450 million Baileys."

The village head had a headache: "What a disgrace to our village."

Even so, I am happy and proud inside.

on the hill.

After Dadan saw it, he was very happy, relieved and proud, as if his child had achieved very good grades.

Dadan sighed softly, "Luffy is stronger than Ace."

Dadan remembers that the first time Ace offered a reward, the bounty did not exceed 50 million Baileys, while Luffy directly offered 450 million Baileys.

...

Navy Headquarters.

Karp's heart is more heavy.

Because in this way, the Navy will pay more attention to the Straw Hat Pirates and will eradicate evil.

Then stronger combat forces will inevitably be sent to deal with the Straw Hat Pirates, and those sub-navies in the East China Sea are impossible to deal with.

So Garp felt that he would definitely mobilize powerful combat forces from the headquarters to deal with it.

Karp prayed in his heart: "I hope I don't send a general, probably not."

...

Somewhere on the great sea route.

A small fire-powered schooner sailed with only one young man on board.

He has black hair, wears an orange cowboy hat, has freckles on his face, is naked on his upper body, wears a red bead necklace around his neck, has a black tattoo of ASCE on his left arm, and wears black knee-length shorts on his lower body.

He's obviously Ace.

Ace held a reward list in his hand, and his eyes flashed with surprise.

"The first time I offered a reward, it was 450 million Baileys. As soon as I went to sea, the bounty almost surpassed me."

After being surprised, Ace was happy and exclaimed: "Luffy, you have not only grown, but also grown to a very strong level."

Recalling Luffy's fist that always hit him when he was young, Ace couldn't help laughing.

Chapter 14

some island.

The red-haired pirates are camping and drinking here.

The pirate in charge of guarding the shore suddenly saw a person with a binoculars, a coffin boat with a person sitting on it.

"Yes...it's Hawkeye!"

Soon, Hawkeye went ashore with a black knife on his back, ruthless and domineering.

The pirates on the shore were afraid and sweated coldly.

"Hawkeye, what are you doing here?"

Hawkeye said lightly: "Don't panic, I'm not here to look for you, where are the cadres?"

The pirate led the way, and soon, Hawkeye came to the red hair.

Around, there are cadres, Beckman, * Bu, Lagilu and others.

The red-haired man was drinking, looked up, with a gentle face:

"Hawkeye, it's you, you're such a rare visitor, are you here to fight with me?"

Hawkeye shook his head: "I prefer to duel with you in the past. Now that you have lost your left arm, I am not interested."

The red-haired laughed: "Hawkeye, I was young at that time. Now I'm thirty-seven years old, and I'm even stronger. There's no difference in one arm. Of course, you may also be stronger, so I'm still very strong." I want to have a duel with you."

Hawkeye was also interested. Indeed, the redhead was young, four years younger than himself.

At such a young age, he became the Four Emperors early, and when he became the Four Emperors, his strength was definitely not at its peak.

Even the thirty-seven-year-old redhead is definitely not at the peak of strength, and has potential, after all, he is still young.

And myself, at the age of 41, has little potential.

"After I tell you one thing, let's fight again."

Hawkeye's words made Shanks curious: "What's the matter?"

Hawkeye took out the reward list and said, "This boy should be the kid you talked to me at the beginning. He went to sea. This is the first time he has been offered a reward."

This made the red-haired eyes brighten: "Is it Luffy?"

"yes."

After confirming, the red hair said: "It seems that I just went to sea not long ago, and I was offered a reward for the first time, otherwise I wouldn't have found out now."

Hawkeye nodded: "It is indeed the first time a reward has been offered."

The redhead was curious: "How much is the bounty?"

Hawkeye replied, "Four to five."

"Four past five?"

After hearing this, the red-haired eyes lit up, relieved, and sighed softly:

"45 million Baileys? It's really amazing, more than the first time I offered a reward."

Hawkeye shook his head: "The 4.5 I said meant 450 million Baileys."

After finishing the words, he unfolded the reward list and placed it in front of the red hair.

In an instant, the red hair looked at the numbers above and was startled.

Chapter 020

The redhead was startled, 450 million Baileys.

After being surprised, the redhead became more and more relieved.

"Luffy's first bounty is so high, it's amazing."

As the Four Emperors, they were all shocked.

Lagilu and the others were also shocked when they saw it.

"Luffy is so powerful."

"As expected of Luffy, you didn't disappoint us."

"It seems that Luffy's growth has exceeded our expectations."

...

At this time, Hawkeye said seriously: "Even, in my opinion, this bounty is too low."

"what?"

The cadres of the Red Hair Pirates were shocked again, 450 million is low?

This is the first time a reward has been offered not long after setting out to sea.

The redhead has never heard of anyone offering such a high reward for the first time.

The red-haired pirates are unbelievable, 450 million is outrageous, and the result is still low?

But if it comes from the mouth of Hawkeye, there will be no falsehood.

The redhead was curious: "Hawkeye, have you met Luffy? Have you fought?"

Hawkeye told what happened, and Red Hair and the others understood.

"Fighting Sauron, his strength is not much than 800 million Baileys.

Although he didn't fight the Straw Hat Boy, his strength is even stronger."

Hawkeye calculated: "At least one billion Pele."

Hearing this, * Bu, Lagilu and the others shrank their pupils. Is it so scary.

How old is this, and now he has such a strong strength.

With Hawkeye's temperament, he would definitely not speak big words.

The red hair exclaimed: "Is Luffy so powerful? Hahaha, what a monster."

The redhead couldn't help but think of another monster who was already extremely powerful at this age, and that was Barrett.

The red hair is looking forward to, looking forward to meeting with Luffy, looking forward to Luffy really doing it.

After understanding, the red hair stood up and pulled out the Griffin from his waist.

With a clang, Hawkeye pulled out the black knife Ye.

Most of the crew of the Red Hair Pirates stayed away and began to watch the battle.

Immediately, the battle started, the roar continued, and even, as the two knives collided together, the natural clouds broke, or the sky cracked.

Regarding the speculation about Luffy's bounty, Hawkeye did not exaggerate.

Hawkeye felt that if anyone knew Luffy's strength best, it could only be Luffy himself.

Even I am not completely clear, but roughly clear.

After all, at that time, seeing the form that Luffy entered, he did not fight.

Luffy and Zoro are so powerful, it is also very reasonable.

After all, after two years of practice, you can still choose two arbitrary templates to teach.

The most important thing is that the environment inside will get twice the result with half the effort.

Two years of training outside, even in a cruel environment, the effect will not be as good as teaching space.

It can be said that Luffy has practiced in the teaching space for two years, which is equivalent to four years in Ruskaina Island!

This is not an exaggeration. After all, the teaching space is like a spiritual bookstore, and the gravity environment inside is the best environment for cultivation.

There are also various creatures and plants that can be realized, so two years of training in the teaching space cannot be said to be the effect of two years, the effect will be better.

What's more, not only Rayleigh taught Luffy, but also Roger.

Roger's swordsmanship is strong, but his physical skills are even stronger, Liu Ying, and the overlord's entanglement are also extreme.

Luffy is powerful, and Sauron is naturally the same. The effect is not as simple as two years.

Therefore, it is no exaggeration that Luffy and Sauron are so strong now.

...

Aaron Paradise.

There are not only people from the Dragon Pirates, but also the navy.

The leader looks like a mouse, Colonel Mouse.

Aaron put a stack of Baileys on the table, and Colonel Mouse accepted it, admiring.

"Brother Aaron, your brain is really different from other pirates, you know how to deal with the world."

Aaron laughed: "To each other, as long as you are willing to be my friend, you can taste endless sweetness in the East China Sea. Money is a good thing, and it is more trustworthy than anything else."

The mouse agreed: "Indeed."

Aaron said in a deep voice: "Although I hate human beings, sensible people like you are an exception."

The mouse felt that it had to continue to make a profit, and took out two reward lists.

After putting it on the table, Aaron was shocked when he saw it.

The bounties offered were 350 million and 450 million respectively, and I was only 20 million Baileys, not as much as these two people.

Aaron frowned: "What do you mean? Let me solve them?"

"No, just a reminder."

"remind?"

Aaron was puzzled. He didn't know these two pirates, and he had never heard of them, but the bounty was so high, which was really strange, which made him wonder if it was fake.

I have never heard of or seen this kind of bounty pirate, and it looks so young.

"Colonel Mouse, is this fake?" Aaron didn't believe it.

"It's true. I was also surprised when I saw it. The reason I want to remind you is because that Nami is very close to them."

"Huh?" Aaron frowned immediately, and fully understood why he reminded himself.

"Tell me in detail." Aaron's face darkened.

The mouse started talking, and Aaron's face changed constantly.

"It took more than a day to fight the world's number one swordsman."

This let Aaron know that he is powerful. He thought that he killed some nobleman to make him so young and offer such a high reward. It seems not to be the case.

However, Aaron will not be afraid. Whether he is so powerful or not, he wants to witness with his own eyes. It is impossible for him to escape from the East China Sea with the pirates just because these two guys with high bounties get close to Nami. .

It's impossible, it's just not his style.

Aaron grinned sneer, revealing a row of sharp teeth.

"Hey... If you want to be my enemy, then a total of 800 million Baileys, I will take it."

The mouse is also excited, after all, he can also get the money, looking forward to: "I believe Brother Aaron will definitely be able to do it. In such a grade, I don't believe that their strength matches the bounty. The navy should be to stifle this more budding evil, so That's why the reward is so high."

Aaron was murderous: "Go ahead!"

Chapter 021

At this time, the Meili was about to arrive at Cocosia Village.

Nami said it, and it will be there in half a day.

It's already night, and we can arrive at Cocosia Village tomorrow morning.

Luffy, Zoro, and Sanji already know about Nami's village, as long as they destroy the Dragon Pirates.

Chapter 15

With the strength of Luffy and Zoro, it is very simple to do.

midnight.

The phone that Nami was holding rang, her brows frowned, it was Aaron calling.

When Nami answered the phone, her face suddenly changed drastically, her eyes widened, uneasy, and panicked.

After hanging up the phone quickly, Nami tidied up carefully and anxiously, then jumped into the sea and left.

next morning.

"Huh? Where's Nami?" Luffy wondered.

Zoro and Sanji looked for it, but couldn't find it.

Sauron frowned slightly: "The money on the boat is gone, and Nami is also gone."

Sanji was puzzled: "Aren't you going to solve Aaron and the others with us?"

Luffy also frowned. Logically speaking, relying on their strength is enough, but why did Nami leave alone with the money.

Lu Fei said in a condensed voice: "No matter what, continue to head towards Cocosia Village."

Soon, the three of Lu Fei went ashore and came to Cocosia Village.

Entering the village, there was no one on the street, and there was no answer to knocking on the door.

"excuse me."

Sanji kicked the wooden door open, but found that there was no one in the room.

Sanji said: "Luffy, there seems to be no one in this village."

Lu Fei said in a cold voice: "Then go to Aaron Paradise."

Both Zoro and Sanji are eager to fight, eager to fight.

At this moment, a slender girl with short blue hair, slightly dark complexion and good looks came.

"No matter what you do, it's useless. Aaron's rule will not end."

Sauron frowned and asked, "Who are you?"

"My name is Nuo Qigao, Nami's older sister, but I am not related by blood."

Luffy recognized it, it was indeed Nokigo, and Nami was adopted by Bermel since they were young.

Sanji was about to pretend to be jealous, his eyes were shining brightly:

"Miss Nami's sister is really beautiful."

Luffy asked: "What do you mean when you say it's useless?"

Makino begged: "Please, don't bother with the affairs of this village, and don't bother with Nami anymore. I will tell you the whole story."

"Are you talking about the reason Miss Nami left us suddenly?" Sanji asked urgently.

"Yes, the specific reason. You can listen now, don't worry, because Nami will be fine."

Sauron lay down, leaning against the tree with his hands on the back of his head.

"Then listen."

Sanji looked forward to: "Tell me, I want to know everything about Ms. Namei."

Makino started talking.

"Cocosia Village can be regarded as Nami's second hometown, where she has beautiful childhood memories. Later, it was occupied by the murlocs of the Dragon Pirates. Race, humans are trash."

"They used Cocosia Village as their base to try to establish their own dragon empire to dominate the East China Sea. They collected life money from the villagers and killed those who couldn't pay. Our mother Berner became the first victim."

"The evil dragon took a fancy to Nami's ability to draw nautical charts, threatened the lives of the villagers, took her as a cadre, and made an agreement with Nami that as long as she collected 100 million Berries, she could buy back the village and her own land. free."

Sanji said: "We know this, Miss Nami has already said it, let's talk more specifically, why Miss Nami left suddenly."

Makino sighed: "Because she doesn't want anyone to be sacrificed anymore. Even if you are very powerful, if you intervene, someone will be sacrificed. And this is what Nami doesn't want the most. As for why, it is because of Bermel's Death will hit her hard."

This made the three of Luffy frown slightly.

Makino continued: "Nami told you briefly, then I will tell you in detail.

Eight years ago, when we were young. Once, Nami stole books and was caught by Kensuke. Learned by Bermer."

"Nami told the reason why she wanted to steal the book. She wanted to learn navigation and draw the most complete map of the world."

"We had no money, but we had no problem eating and drinking, because Bermer ate the citrus himself and let me eat bread and milk."

"Life is rigid, I wear the rest of the clothes, and Bellemel sews them up and ships them to Nami. Once, I quarreled with Nami, and Nami said that we are not related by blood, not real sisters, and Belle Mel slapped me."

"At that time, Bermel regretted the fight. Nami also said that she had no blood relationship with Bermel, but she actually meant that without us, Bermel would not have had such a hard life. Afterwards, Nami ran out. It's gone, but it won't take long, and Nami and I are going to go back."

"However, the Dragon Pirates came. The adults gave each of them 100,000 Baileys, and the children each gave 50,000 to make sure that nothing happened. We were not at home at the time, thinking that Bermer could afford it. We could get through it, but Someone from the Dragon Pirates noticed that Bermel had prepared a meal for three people. This let Aaron know that there are actually two more people in our family."

"Afterwards, Uncle Jian said that he and a friend were invited to dinner, so he prepared a meal for the three of them. The members of the Dragon Pirates also checked the village's residence book. Bermer was not married and had no children. They just believe it."

"The village chief told us not to go back and leave the village, so that Bermer can spend 100,000 yuan, we can survive, and the village will be fine. Nami and I are also planning to leave, we are very reluctant, Bell Mel is our mother. Although it is very sad to leave Bellmel, we have no choice but to leave."

"However, Bermer took the initiative to say that the 100,000 Baileys were not prepared for himself, but for his two daughters."

Hearing this, Zoro and Sanji were stunned, and realized the reason for Bermel's death.

But why do you want to do this?

Sanji was puzzled: "Obviously they could all be rescued, and they also hid the evil dragon pirates, but why did they do this?"

Mist surged in Makino's eyes, tears slid down, ticked down, and wept.

"Because... Bermel doesn't want our two children to be left alone in the sea, and he can't say that he has no family, even if he will die."

"Afterwards, Bermel was taken away by... Nami, and the villagers assembled and took weapons to rescue Nami, but in the end, some villagers were sacrificed. Nami knew that if she wanted to save the villagers, she had to choose to join Aaron also promised that if we give 100 million Baileys, we will be free. So, this is why Nami needs money."

"I left suddenly this time because Aaron * everyone in the village, and I was rescued by Uncle Ajan. Everyone in the village is family to Nami, and I don't want anyone to have an accident. Ah Long said, bring you here, and the people in the village will be killed directly."

This made Luffy and others understand why Nami left.

The people in the village were kidnapped. Although they knew that Luffy and the others were powerful, Nami was also worried that even if the Dragon Pirates were solved, some people in the village would be killed again. Even if the Dragon Pirates were solved, there would be one The villagers were killed, and Nami couldn't accept it.

So, Nami took the money and left alone.

Combining the previous reasons and the present, they fully understood.

bang bang bang...

Footsteps sounded, Sanji, Zoro, and Noki looked over, and Luffy left alone.

"What are you going to do?" Nuo Qigao asked puzzled.

Lu Fei said coldly: "Nami is so stupid, I will go to Aaron Paradise to solve all this!"

Chapter 022 Angry Luffy!

Aaron Paradise.

The villagers were * by the pirates of the Dragon Pirates, with knives around their necks.

Nami has already arrived and put all 100 million Baileys on the ground.

Looking at the big bag of Bailey and even gold, the eyes of the Dragon Pirates shone.

Nami said in a deep voice: "I have saved enough 100 million Baileys. If you give them, you can let them go, and let Kexia Village go free?"

Aaron gave his subordinates a wink, and his subordinates accepted all the money.

However, Nami frowned, because there was no sign of letting the villagers go, and the knife was still on the neck, which made Nami uneasy.

"Why don't you let him go?" Nami asked.

Aaron shook his head: "I can't let it go."

Suddenly, Nami was taken aback, clenched her fists tightly, her long suppressed anger broke out, and she gritted her teeth.

"Why, why can't you let it go? It was agreed before, do you want to break the contract?"

Looking at the angry Nami, Aaron was unmoved, and sneered: "Break the contract? I didn't, but you actually thought of uniting with other people to destroy us and save your village. So, let this be an apology, I can not pursue it, let them leave, you continue to be in my Dragon Pirates, and you will be free next time. Of course, this kind of thing can't happen again, so just keep repeating it."

This made Nami completely collapsed. After saving for so long and suffering for so long, she saved enough and gave it to Aaron, but she didn't fulfill the agreement.

"You bastard! Damn it!"

Nami was so angry that her whole body was shaking with anger.

Aaron smiled instead: "Hahahaha, don't be so angry, isn't it just 100 million Baileys, just earn it again. Or do you want to give up and escape here? Or let them help? It's okay, even if we will be solved, but the villagers in Cocosia will also die a lot."

After the words fell, Aaron gave his subordinates a wink.

Immediately, the pirate holding the knife exerted a little strength, and the knife cut a little blood on the necks of many villagers.

This made Nami's face change drastically, and she quickly calmed herself down.

"Don't...don't do it! I'll keep earning!"

Nami was devastated, helpless, and desperate, and could only choose to earn again.

"Hahahaha, this is the correct way." Aaron laughed, very satisfied.

The villagers watched, heartbroken, and shouted.

"Nami, leave us alone!"

"Yes, leave us alone, let's go!"

"It's okay for us to die, we can't drag you down anymore!"

...

Nami shouted: "Don't say that, don't you want to live?!"

Kensuke didn't want to continue like this, and said firmly, "We don't want to live anymore, and we don't want to drag you down. We swore eight years ago that we would not sacrifice our lives easily. It is a useless sacrifice. No matter how painful it is, we must endure it. As long as Nami is doing well, so we continue to endure. Because we feel that once we die, Nami will not do things for the Dragon Pirates, and that would be dangerous."

"Now, you have hope. It's okay even if we die. Let's seek the help of our partners! Leave us alone! Live well, even if we all die, we will be happy down there!"

Nami kept shaking her head: "No, no, I won't let you die."

Kensuke shook his head: "There is no hope, these unforgiving murlocs are playing with your kindness."

The villagers regarded death as home and made the same decision.

"Yes, they are just playing with you."

"We are ready to die, Nami, leave us alone!"

"Stop being her money-making tool, go live the way you want to live, and realize your dreams! Draw the whole world!"

...

"Shut up!"

The members of the Dragon Pirates were about to do it, but Aaron stopped them.

The subordinates stopped, Aaron didn't worry, and laughed in his heart:

"Let them continue talking, so that the more she can't let go, the more she will work harder to make money for me. In order to protect these people, hahaha..."

Nami let herself smile, a happy smile, and said: "It's okay, I'm okay, I haven't been unhappy these years, I just keep earning. I have already earned 100 million Berries, and I will earn it again, it will be easier, I have experience, it's okay, don't think so, we will all be fine."

Nami forced a smile: "It's okay, don't worry about me, I don't want anyone to die anymore. Everyone thinks too much, I don't care, I'm fine, you are my family, and protecting you is what I want most, Even more important than dreams, don't say it, I will continue to make money, next time it will be fine. This time I was wrong, I wanted to ask for help, next time I won't, and next time I will be free."

Seeing Nami with a forced smile, the villagers were all in grief.

The more Nami was like this, the more they blamed themselves, the heartache, and the more determined they were.

"enough..."

tick tock...

The sound of tears falling to the ground continued, and all the villagers were in tears.

Kensuke lowered his head, tears fell, and whispered: "Enough, stop this, Nami. You also know in your heart that it is useless. You have carried all of our lives on your own, and you have continued to fight until now. For you I said, joining the Dragon Pirates is more painful than a thousand cuts. You really worked hard, leave, Nami."

Nami kept shaking her head: "Don't say it, everyone, don't say it, I don't want to see someone hurt by them, they will die, everyone, they will die."

None of the villagers were afraid, and their expressions were extremely resolute.

"It's useless, we've made up our minds."

"Nami, live for yourself!"

Chapter 16

"Nami, run away!"

...

As soon as the words fell, the tied Ajian and others exerted their strength like desperately, and slammed into the pirates on the side, and suddenly fell into chaos.

"Nami, run!"

The villagers fought desperately, shouting while not fearing death.

"I will fight with you!"

"Don't think about using us as a threat to make Nami continue to suffer."

"Kill us!"

...

Aaron's face darkened, and he said coldly: "Teach them hard!"

"yes!"

bang bang bang...

Knife backs, maces, guns and other weapons slammed into Kensuke and others, screaming continuously.

Aaron looked at Nami and asked, "Are you really going to take the opportunity to escape? Because you are still there, we didn't kill you. It's just a lesson. If you turn around, they will not only be smashed, but their Nami, who was wearing a straw hat, stared deeply at Luffy's back with teary eyes.

Aaron sneered: "You are Straw Hat Luffy? Does it matter if they live or die? If you dare to step forward, they will all die!"

However, Luffy still went straight forward, which made Aaron's face turn cold.

"Do it!"

"yes!"

Everyone in the Dragon Pirates understood, and all raised their knives, or put their fingers on the trigger.

The knife is raised, ready to cut, and the fingers are ready to pull the trigger.

However...

Lu Fei's eyes suddenly became awe-inspiring, domineering! A red light flashed from the eyes, and the domineering look exploded!

Like a freeze frame, the Dragon Pirates' knives freeze in midair, and the trigger finger also stops.

next moment...

bang bang bang bang...

The sound of falling to the ground continued, and almost all the pirates of the Dragon Pirates rolled their eyes and fell to the ground. The villagers, however, were not affected.

Aaron was startled, unbelievable. Although he didn't faint, he was so shocked that he broke out in cold sweat. He even stood still and didn't dare to move, his body was shaking!

Aaron's eyes widened, and his eyes were full of horror as he watched Luffy approach step by step until he stood still in front of him.

After stopping for a moment, Luffy's face, with his head down, suddenly lifted up, his expression, his eyes, extremely angry! It's chilling!

call!

Luffy's right hand suddenly raised, his fist was pitch-black, and he slammed out, his eyes wide open, roaring and roaring!

"Ughhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhh!!"

boom! !

"what!!"

The domineering fist covered with armed force slammed into Aaron's abdomen, and Aaron flew upside down like a shell, his abdomen was deeply sunken, and he spurted blood in the air, screaming terribly!

The villagers were stunned.

Nami's tear-filled eyes were also dull, but after a short period of dullness, she shed tears, weeping with joy!

"Luffy..."

Chapter 023 Solved

The villagers were stunned, how did they do it.

Almost all of the Dragon Pirates fell down, but Aaron stood still for a few seconds, and then was blown away with a punch.

The house behind him collapsed directly, and Aaron was buried in the ruins.

After the astonishment, they were incomparably surprised and excited.

"Can you be saved?"

"Great! He is Nami's partner."

"Great! Aaron and the others are going to be dealt with!"

...

They were extremely happy, and the happiest thing was that they were happy for Nami, and they could be relieved.

Also, they're fine, they know Nami doesn't want them to have an accident, so this is perfect.

Nami cried with joy: "That's great, that's great."

At the same time, Nami was very relieved, and the anger and grievances that had been suppressed for many years were all released under Luffy's punch.

The villagers are also very relieved.

"Good fight!"

"Seeing it just now made my blood boil."

"Aaron just stayed there, sweating all over his body, watching helplessly as he was blown away by a punch."

"Nice job!"

...

Among the ruins, the stone moved, and Aaron struggled to climb out of it.

He was in extreme pain and his face was pale. Although the punch didn't kill him, it was still seriously injured.

One more blow would kill him.

I thought that the reward of 450 million was due to other things that had a great impact, but now it seems that it is really due to strength.

Aaron was scared, knowing that he would die without a doubt.

"Stop him!"

After the words fell, Aaron ran into the sea.

In the sea, he will be stronger, not to mention that the opponent is a devil fruit capable person, and he has nothing to do with him.

So, that would save it.

Luffy easily knocked the cadres of the Aaron Pirates away, and Aaron was startled that he was dealt with so quickly.

But fortunately, the inner bay of Aaron Paradise is sea water, and he has already jumped into the sea.

However, Aaron didn't run away directly. This is not his style. Instead, he looked up in the sea, looked at Luffy coldly, wiped the blood from the corner of his mouth, his eyes were bloodshot, and was angry.

"In the sea, you can't see me, but I can clearly see you above. And, in the sea, my speed will accelerate, and no one can stop my speed. This is what is only given to murlocs. ability."

Locking on Luffy, Aaron sneered.

"Shark Flying Arrow!"

Accelerating suddenly, the speed is extremely fast, even difficult to catch, the sharp nose is like the tip of an arrow, rushing upwards.

The speed is so fast that Aaron can't see anything clearly because he is too fast.

However, in the next moment, he really didn't encounter any substance.

This shouldn't be, although for a short moment, but with such a fast speed, he should have encountered it long ago.

this means...

Aaron was suddenly uneasy, which meant that the straw hat boy escaped!

He couldn't figure it out, he thought it was impossible, how could he dodge, he couldn't see himself, and he was so fast, how could he dodge.

However, Aaron is still a little ignorant. How could Luffy, who is so domineering and knowledgeable, not be able to hide.

After all, not only taught by Rayleigh, but also the stronger Roger.

Therefore, when Aaron rushed up quickly, Luffy turned sideways quickly and dodged.

While dodging, Luffy said in a low voice, "It's so slow."

Whoosh!

Luffy suddenly disappeared in place and had already appeared above Aaron's head. No one could react, including Aaron.

"Rubber... machine gun!"

Luffy appeared above Aaron's head, stretched his arms and slammed down, his fists were pitch black, and the speed was extremely fast.

Suddenly, the shadow of the fist was like a machine gun, and dense black fists blasted at Aaron.

Suddenly, Aaron, who was rushing forward, stopped and was directly smashed to the ground.

"what!!!"

With screams and screams, Aaron, who hit the ground, was bombarded by dense black fist shadows above, hitting every part of his body.

Every time a punch landed on his body, a crater was directly sunken in that part of his body, and the bones, internal organs, and even flesh and blood of his whole body were in pain, as if they were about to burst.

"what!"

Aaron screamed miserably, unable to resist at all.

Aaron was angry and powerless, recalling the beginning.

When he was young, facing Huang Yuan, who was not yet a general, he was as powerless as he is now, and was tortured and killed.

After so many years, I am stronger, but I feel this feeling again.

Three seconds later, Lu Fei retracted his fist and landed, looking down at Aaron on the ground.

Aaron has become a blood man, very miserable.

Aaron's vitality gradually dissipated and became weaker and weaker.

Chapter 17

"hateful..."

Aaron was unwilling, so he ended it like this.

At the same time, Zoro and Sanji easily solved the navy that cooperated with Aaron and killed Colonel Mouse.

"Luffy, that Colonel Mouse, we also solved it."

Zoro and Sanji came to the Dragon Paradise, looking at everything in front of them, it happened to be over.

Aaron's eyes were dim and lifeless.

The villagers were overjoyed, it was over, Aaron was dead! They are free!

The damned Colonel Mouse is also dead, that's great, and peace has returned to Kekexia Village.

Luffy turned around and faced Nami from a distance.

In an instant, the surroundings became quiet, and everyone stopped cheering tacitly, and calmed down, looking at Luffy and Nami.

Nami was wearing a straw hat, looking deeply at Luffy.

Luffy took a deep breath and shouted loudly: "Nami! You are my partner!

Let's prepare...to go to sea!"

These words echoed around.

Nami wept with joy, wiped away her tears, and nodded heavily.

"Ok!"

Chapter 024 Joining, Parting

Both Zoro and Sanji smiled, and they were also happy.

The villagers were also very happy. The Dragon Pirates were defeated, and Nami found a partner. She can go to sea and fulfill her dream, which is great.

The villagers surrounded Luffy, then threw them up, cheering constantly. After a long time, Luffy landed, and Nami came over and put the straw hat on Luffy's head.

The two looked at each other, smiled, and clapped their hands together.

They didn't say much, but they both understood.

The villagers cheered unceasingly.

"We are free!"

"It's great to be free!"

"Let's have fun and dance, everyone."

...

Cocosia Village held a banquet with ten long tables on which were various delicacies, fruits, snacks, etc.

Luffy and the others began to eat and laugh.

Nami came to the back mountain of the village, a cliff, backed by the sea.

A tomb on the cliff belongs to Bermel.

Nami sat here for a long time, and told Bermel about what happened today.

"You can rest assured."

At this time, Kensuke and Nuo Qigao came.

Nami turned around and asked, "Nuo Qigao, Mr. Jian, if Bermel is still alive, do you think she would let me become a pirate?"

Kensuke shook his head: "Don't be kidding, she used to be a navy, how could she allow her beloved daughter to become a pirate."

However, Nuo Qigao smiled: "Yes. Besides, even if you disagree, will you listen to her?"

Nami stuck out her tongue, naughty: "Of course I won't listen."

Nuo Qigao laughed, and Kensuke also laughed.

"Nami, you've made up your mind, then live according to your own ideas, just like your mother, Bermel should hope so too."

Nami looked at the tombstone and smiled warmly, she felt the same way.

After celebrating in the village for two days, in the early morning, Luffy and others were about to leave.

The villagers prepared various ingredients, supplies, and more than a dozen large boxes.

The villagers were busy, moving all the boxes onto the boat.

However, Nami was never seen.

Sanji wondered, "Where did Miss Nami go?"

Sauron thought: "Will it not come?"

Sanji was taken aback, a little annoyed.

"Why? Could it be that you made Miss Nami angry?"

Sauron pouted helplessly: "Why would I do that."

Sanji was a little sad: "If Ms. Nami doesn't get on the ship, there is 98.72% meaningless for me to be on this ship."

The villagers were also puzzled, looking left and right, but did not see Nami.

There are many villagers on the bank, hundreds of them, densely packed, but after careful inspection, there is still no one, and Nami really did not come.

"I haven't seen her since morning."

"me too."

"why."

...

The villagers were puzzled.

At this time, Nuo Qigao was talking with Kensuke.

When Kensuke found out, he shouted, "What, she left all the money?

That's 100 million Baileys."

Nuo Qigao said: "She left a letter at home, that's what she said."

Kensuke said: "How could it be like this, did you leave without any money? Nami got that money with all her might."

Nuo Qigao said calmly: "She said she could steal again, it's fine, and you all know that she won't change her mind about what she decides."

When the villagers found out, they were very sorry and cursed in a low voice.

"That idiot Nami, obviously we should be grateful to her, but she kept the money."

"Nami is good enough for us, how can we want it."

"Nami is so nice."

...

At this moment, footsteps sounded, and after a brief moment of silence, it was Nami who came.

On the boat, Luffy looked over, not surprised, he knew it would come.

Sanji was very happy and shouted: "Miss Nami, it's great that you are here!"

Nami yelled, "Let's sail!"

After the words fell, Nami quickly ran towards the shore.

Luffy shouted: "Yang Fan, set sail!"

The Merry sailed away.

The villagers were taken aback for a moment, and they all understood.

"Don't Nami want us to say goodbye to her?"

"Do you want to go like this? No, we are too sorry."

"They sailed, Nami is still running, stop, we have to thank you very much, and say goodbye, Nami."

"You have worked so hard for so many years, let's say goodbye before leaving."

...

However, Nami did not stop, the crowd shuttled, and the villagers kept blocking, Nami kept dodging and shuttled forward.

Soon, when they reached the shore, Nami jumped to the Meili and landed on the deck.

Still unable to say goodbye, the villagers were very moved.

"Nami..."

"Nami is so kind..."

"I don't want to make us sad, so that's why."

"Why are we so sorry, Nami..."

...

The villagers were very moved.

However, it was quickly discovered that something was wrong.

"Huh? Where's my wallet?"

"My wallet is gone, too."

"My money is gone."

"Could it be..."

...

The villagers all looked at Nami on the deck and realized something.

Nami has a string of wallets in her right hand and a stack of banknotes in her left hand. After kissing the banknotes, she smiled mischievously.

"Everyone, take care."

All the villagers shouted like baring their teeth and claws: "Nami, you brat, you are so brave."

Nuo Qigao smiled helplessly, his eyes showing reluctance.

on board.

Sauron sighed softly: "It hasn't changed at all."

Sanji praised: "Miss Nami, you did a great job."

Luffy laughed too.

The boat gradually moved away, and the villagers all looked at Nami and shouted.

"You little thief cat, come back quickly and return the money to us."

"Bad brat, you can come back anytime you want."

"Be careful."

...

Nami waved and shouted: "Goodbye, everyone!"

Such a farewell is the best.

Chapter 025 Tragic Sanji

It has been two months since Usopp entered the teaching space.

On this day, Luffy, Zoro, Nami, and Sanji are waiting because they know they will come out.

In the next moment, Usopp appeared, with more muscles, and it seemed that the change was not small, mainly in terms of momentum.

Usopp is very excited because his strength has improved a lot!

Chapter 18

After all, one of his masters was his father, the number one sniper in the world.

"Luffy, Zoro, Nami, long time no see, I miss you all."

Usopp and Luffy hug each other.

It is two years for Usopp, two months for Luffy and others, but I really miss it.

Sauron said: "You must be much stronger."

Usopp grinned: "Everyone will know in the future."

Usopp saw a strange figure, and Luffy started to introduce it.

Usopp is happy that there is a cook on board.

After getting to know each other, Luffy looked at Nami and Sanji and asked.

"Teach the space one person at a time, Sanji, Nami, which one of you will enter?"

Sanji hurriedly said: "Of course Miss Nami, she knows you first, and ladies first."

Sanji is a gentleman as always. Although he wants to become stronger and narrow the gap with Luffy and Zoro, he is also confident that it can be narrowed, but he naturally hopes that Nami will enter first.

However, Nami shook her head.

"Sanji, you go in first, I will start after you come out."

"Ah? Miss Nami, why? You go in, I'm not in a hurry."

Sanji refused and waited for two months.

Nami said sternly: "I have my own ideas, it's better for you to go first, now our reputation is definitely not small, the navy will increase its efforts against us, we need stronger strength to deal with the subsequent crisis."

Speaking of this, Sanji understood, didn't say anything more, nodded his head heavily, and his expression became resolute.

They can all think that the adventure has just begun, and the enemy is weak now, but they are about to enter the great route, and they will encounter strong enemies at that time, and they are not comparable to Aaron.

The ones encountered must be extremely strong, and they may even encounter existences that are not too different from Hawkeye.

Needless to say, the Navy will definitely try to kill them.

So, afterward is dangerous and stressful.

There are still too few people on board, so the combat power must be strong.

Nami knows that if she goes in by herself, even if she can become stronger, she won't have as much potential and improvement as Luffy and Zoro.

The weakest person on board is yourself.

As for Sanji, he is young and powerful. After two years of training, his strength will definitely be the same as that of Luffy and Zoro after he comes out. He will become one of the three main combat forces on the ship.

This is the best, so Nami wants Sanji to practice first.

Nami's decision, Luffy can also understand, this is indeed the best.

However, when Nami enters into cultivation, her improvement will be great.

In the past eight years, Nami has been able to persevere, which shows her great patience and perseverance.

Cultivation is hard, so entering the cultivation space, and being taught by two powerful character templates, Nami will definitely improve a lot, even surpassing the peak of the original plot. She has learned physical skills, domineering, etc., and is powerful.

But, even so, Sanji is naturally stronger.

Luffy said: "Okay, then Sanji will go in first."

Sanji was a little bit reluctant, but he had to go in.

In the future, I have to share for everyone, protect my partners, and become stronger.

"Then I'm going in, and I'm going to miss everyone."

Thinking of staying for two years and not being able to see any beauties for two years, Sanji's heart ached.

Ok? wrong.

Sanji's eyes lit up, and he asked, "Luffy, can you choose a template for teaching?"

Luffy is helpless, and already understands Sanji's thoughts.

"You want to choose a template for a female teacher."

As soon as Luffy said this, Zoro and Nami stroked their foreheads and understood.

No way, Sanji is like this.

Sanji smiled, expecting: "Yes."

Luffy said: "You can choose whatever you want, but the main thing is to choose the one that suits you. It can teach you better and make you stronger. It is best to teach you with strong physical skills and domineering power. If you are the most Good at kicking, that's the best."

Speaking of which, among the pirates who are good at kicking, Luffy can't think of it.

Although there is a red-footed Zhepu, the strength of the teaching template must at least be a general, such as an emperor.

Luffy felt that the grandfather Garp template could teach Sanji.

Grandpa is very strong in physical skills. Although he is called Iron Fist Garp, as a top physical player, his feet are naturally strong.

Sanji also felt the same way, there is only one chance to enter cultivation, and two years should be cherished, not to be missed.

Choosing a teaching template should naturally be suitable for you.

Entering it is mainly to improve your strength, and you can better help your partners and solve crises in the future.

But if you can have both, that's the best. strength, beauty.

Sauron was helpless: "It's just a teaching template, it's illusory, you can't touch it, and you don't have any feelings. You are only responsible for teaching, and then disappear, and you won't talk about anything."

Usopp also understood: "Yeah, it doesn't make sense."

However, Sanji insisted: "You can't do anything, but you can also look good."

However, he really couldn't think of anyone who was suitable.

Sanji hopes to find someone who is good at martial arts, suitable for teaching himself, and can improve himself, preferably a woman, which is the best.

Sanji looked at Luffy expectantly: "Is there any? Choose a strong male template, a strong female template suitable for teaching me."

Sanji felt that this would not be a waste, delaying himself, the best of both worlds.

Luffy thought for a while and said, "Okay, I'll satisfy you. Then you go in and choose the Garp template, and the Ivankov template."

Karp...

Sanji knew that it was the naval hero Garp, who was famous and male.

Then, Ivankov is a woman.

"Luffy, thank you, let me in quickly."

Sanji couldn't wait, he was very grateful to Luffy, he was so kind to himself.

Luffy started teleporting, and the next moment, Sanji disappeared and appeared in the teaching space.

Sanji felt heavy all over his body and had difficulty breathing, but he was excited and looking forward to it. Naturally, he had to hand over the teaching template, and he could only call one at a time. Naturally, it was the Ivankov template.

"Come out!"

Sanji yelled, thinking of the Ivankov template.

The next moment, a figure appeared in front of him, and Sanji froze.

Immediately, roars resounded throughout the teaching space.

"Luffy!! You bastard!!"

.....

.....

Ask for flowers, evaluation tickets, monthly tickets, and tips. Many thanks! .

Chapter 026

Sanji was devastated. The teaching template in front of him is not a beauty.

Even, the other party is a man, Sanji thinks it's nothing, but it happens...

Sanji was stunned and speechless.

The figure in front of me is tall, with a huge face, with unusually large dark purple hair, long and thick eyelashes, light blue eye shadow and purple lip gloss. The clothes are also quite weird, mesh stockings and capes, tight ultra-low hung jumpsuits, revealing a large skull tattoo on the abdominal muscles.

Neither male nor female, too hot-eyed.

Thinking of having to spend a second with him next time, Sanji felt desperate and painful.

There are two teaching templates, each of which must be taught for a year, so Sanji can't let the Garp template teach himself for two years.

"How should I live this year?" Sanji had a headache.

...

After ten days of sailing, Luffy and others came to Rogge Town.

Nami introduced: "This is Rogge Town, any town where pirates going to the great route gather, and the items they need can be bought here."

Usopp couldn't wait: "Okay, I'm going to collect some equipment for the upcoming adventure."

Sauron was also looking forward to it: "I also want to buy something."

Nami reminded: "What do you want to buy? I remember you are penniless."

Sauron was also a little embarrassed, indeed.

Luffy said: "Then let's split up, I'm going to see the execution platform."

Luffy couldn't wait to run to the square of Rogge Town, even if he was running on the street leading to the square of Rogge Town, Luffy was also happy, because Roger, the One Piece, might also walk through this street.

Naval Branch Base in Logue Town.

White smoke was lingering, and a sailor came in to report.

"News came from the headquarters. It is said that Monkey D. Luffy and his gang have come to Rogue Town. Straw Hat Luffy is a pirate with a bounty of 450 million Baileys in the East China Sea. Roronoa Zoro has a bounty of 350 million. Billionaire."

Hearing this, the figure in the smog was shaken.

This person, of course, is Smoker.

Smoker has heard of it, but he still can't believe it: "450 million Baileys is really ridiculously high, but since I took charge of this town, I have never let the pirates who came here escape. ."

Smoker walked out, expecting slightly: "Straw hat Luffy, hope is an interesting guy."

The sea soldiers quickly followed, struggling: "Colonel, please give orders to the troops, take down the straw hats."

Smoker continued to walk forward, and said lightly: "No need."

"However, considering the opponent's strength..."

Smoker paused and glanced back, with a gloomy expression on his face.

"Stop rambling, don't tell me what to do."

Hai Bing was frightened immediately, not daring to say a word.

Smoker asked, "Where did Dashiqi go?"

"I saw you again in the morning. I don't know where it is, but it must be in Rogge Town."

Smoker was helpless: "Where did that woman go?"

At this moment, a little girl happily took the ice cream she just bought, and couldn't wait to go home quickly, bought two, and ate with her mother.

Dad followed behind, with a happy and doting smile on his face.

"Don't run so fast, worry about falling to the ground."

With a puff, the little girl didn't pay attention, and bumped into Smoker, and the ice cream stuck to Smoker's trouser leg.

The little girl was stunned, and when she looked up, she was a little scared. The uncle in front of her looked very fierce.

The girl's father's face changed greatly: "S...Colonel Smoker, my child took you, I'm sorry, I'm sorry..."

The man apologized again and again, but the little girl looked at the ice cream in her hand, she couldn't eat it, she dropped it, tears welled up in her eyes.

Smoker squatted down, with a cigar in his mouth, and pressed his right hand on the little girl's head.

The girl's father thought it was over.

However, the next scene left him stunned.

Chapter 19

Smoker became very gentle: "Sorry, my pants ate your ice cream, go buy a five-layer ice cream."

Smoker took out a hundred Baileys, put them in the little girl's pocket, got up and left.

The girl's dad thanks: "Thank you."

The little girl was also happy: "Thank you."

Smoker didn't turn around, but waved his hand up in response.

The little girl didn't expect to look fierce, but she was actually a warm uncle.

At this time, Luffy was looking for the execution platform and lost his way.

Traveling through time became Luffy, and the personalities merged, so everything is very similar, and the personalities have hardly changed.

At this moment, Luffy saw Smoker walking up the street and recognized him.

Luffy stepped forward and asked, "Do you know where the execution platform is? I'm lost."

Smoker hasn't seen Luffy's reward list, so he doesn't know what it looks like.

Smoker asked: "Why go to the execution platform?"

Luffy looks forward to: "I want to see the place where One Piece died."

This answer made Smoker startled, and he was touched.

"Follow my street, and you will be there."

"I'm so tired, thank you."

Luffy ran over quickly.

At this moment, Zoro was shopping, looking for a better knife.

I also got some money from Nami.

But it can be known that Nami would not give the money so kindly, it was lent to Sauron, and Sauron will pay it back three times in the future.

...

Luffy ran along the pointed path, and knew in his heart that he didn't know himself when they met for the first time just now.

But soon, there will be a fight with Smoker.

However, the result will not be saved by the dragon.

"Smog, I don't want to fight you now."

The reason why Luffy thinks this way is because there is a gap in strength.

.....

Ask for flowers, evaluation tickets, monthly tickets, and rewards, thank you very much! .

Chapter 027

Soon Smoker realized something.

Straw Hat Luffy...

Age, straw hat, it all fits.

Smoker frowned: "I missed it, no matter, the execution platform, he must be there."

The sailor immediately reported: "Colonel, have you confirmed the location of Straw Hat Luffy? Now you can send a hundred sailors immediately, and then you can dispatch the whole army."

Smoker was impatient, and said in a deep voice: "It's really a group of guys who can't understand human language. As I said, I alone is enough."

Smoker has a little understanding of the strength of Straw Hat Luffy, even if he only needs to understand a little, there is no need for these sailors to go there, and it is useless to go there.

Because, Straw Hat Luffy has the qualifications of a king, and he looks domineering and domineering.

At this time, Luffy came to the execution platform and was climbing up.

Smoker arrived soon, and as he thought, he was here.

"Hey, boy, you are the straw hat Luffy who is offering a bounty of 450 million Baileys in the East China Sea."

"Yes." Luffy said bluntly.

Smoker's fighting spirit rose: "I am the captain of the navy stationed in Rogue Town, Smoker, and I want to arrest you."

Luffy didn't take it seriously, and refused: "Arresting me will not let you succeed. My adventure has just begun, or in other words, this is the starting point."

Luffy's voice was unusually firm: "I'm going to the Great Route and become the King of Pirates!"

Smoker's pupils shrank, but he felt a little ridiculous.

"One Piece? Stop talking big."

Smoker doesn't think that the guy in front of him can become the One Piece King, just talking.

"Whether you can become the Pirate King or not, I don't know. You have to defeat me at the starting point before you can go to the great route. However, it depends on whether you have the courage to fight me."

Smoker was gearing up for a fight.

Luffy said: "Can't you go to the great route without defeating you, then, I will defeat you."

Looking at the harmless straw hat Luffy, who spoke harmlessly to humans and animals, and smiled, but said harsh words, Smoker was a little angry.

Luffy jumped down and looked around, there were too many people.

Luffy suggested: "Let's fight on a street where no one is around."

"Can."

Smoker also wants to meet Straw Hat Luffy to see if he really has the strength of 450 million.

Soon, the two found an empty street and prepared to fight.

In the dark, a man in a green coat with tattoos on his face was watching.

He is Luffy's father, Monkey D Dragon.

Although I am surprised that the bounty offered by my son is as high as 450 million Baileys, I still have a look.

After all, this is the starting point, the beginning of the real adventure. If Luffy is in danger, he will help one or two.

So, still have to pay attention to this battle.

It's best for Luffy to beat him. If he loses to Smoker, he will help him.

Long also knew that Smoker's strength was extraordinary, he was still a natural type, a person with smoke fruit ability, his own strength, and fruit ability were not bad, so he still had to take a look.

Long had some expectations in his heart: "Luffy, let me see if your growth is worth 450 million Baileys."

Smoker is full of fighting spirit and is confident.

At such a young age, he would definitely not be his opponent.

Smoker didn't use the fruit ability directly, but moved quickly in an instant.

"shave!"

Obviously, use the Navy Type 6 first.

Quickly skimming behind Luffy, Smoker slammed his fist hard.

At the same time, feeling a little disappointed in his heart, Smoker secretly said: "It seems that it's just like..."

However, when the fist was punched, Smoker was taken aback because he didn't touch the essence.

Smoker's eyes widened and his pupils shrank, because the figure in front of him gradually dissipated, it was an afterimage!

"So fast!"

Smoker was startled, but he was able to react.

The dragon in the dark was shocked by it, this knowledge is domineering.

"Second gear!"

When Smoker reacted, he heard Luffy shout.

Looking at the sound, Luffy has entered the second gear, his whole body is dark red, and red steam is coming out.

"What is this?" Smoker frowned, not daring to be careless.

Whoosh!

The next moment, Luffy disappeared in front of Smoker.

Smoker vibrations, hard to catch!

Just about to turn into smoke, Luffy suddenly launched an attack.

"Rubber jet bazooka!"

The hands stretched instantly, and the fists covered the jet-black armed color domineeringly blasted out.

Smoker is also unusual. Although he can't dodge, and it's hard to be aerosolized, he is also a defense at a critical moment.

"Iron block!"

boom!

"Ugh!"

Smoker suddenly drew back ten meters away, and slammed a deep dent in the wall.

Smoker suddenly knelt down on one knee, his eyeballs were bulging, and the pain was excruciating. He clutched his stomach with his right hand.

"Ahem..."

Smoker lowered his head and coughed, coughing up a lot of blood.

Luffy suggested: "In the future, don't use the iron block of self-deception behavior."

Smoker was shocked, why is his attack power so strong? He obviously defended with all his strength, but he was still injured, even not lightly!

Smoke began to surge around Smoker's body. Obviously, he had to use his full strength to use his devil fruit ability.

Smoker felt that Luffy must be serious, but he was not serious just now.

"White fist!"

Smoker's arms and legs turned into smoke, he stretched out his smoked limbs, and violently launched his fists and feet at Luffy.

After hitting an opponent, the opponent can be snatched or slammed with smoke.

whoosh whoosh...

Smoke's fists kept bombarding quickly, but Smoker was startled, because Luffy moved a little and avoided his attack, which seemed very easy.

Luffy moved again, Smoker was fully concentrated and his body became elemental.

However, it is useless in the face of armed domineering.

boom!

Smoker couldn't react again and was blown out, frightened, elementalization was useless, and vomited blood again.

Lu Fei secretly said: "The gap now is really too big, so let's end it quickly."

Suddenly, Luffy disappeared from Smoker's sight.

Smoker uses white blast, and his whole body turns into smoke.

This move expands the range of the smoke and engulfs a large number of opponents, then resolidifies the smoke, and can also directly suffocate the opponent through the smoke.

However, he did this to avoid being attacked, after all, the range of smoke is too large.

Although Luffy's speed and attack are stronger than his own, but if he expands the range, then...

Smoker, however, noticed Luffy, wondering why he wasn't around, but looked up, and there it was!

And, with the hand in front of the mouth and blowing, the fist of the arm suddenly became huge, like the arm of a giant, and it was covered with jet-black domineering color.

"Third gear!"

"Rubber Giant Pistol!"

boom! !

Chapter 20

"what!"

After a scream, there was a deafening roar, and the ground sank into a big pit.

Gravel flew and dust lingered.

Luffy landed, and his body returned to its original appearance.

The dust dissipated, and in the deep pit, Smoker was lying there with injuries all over his body, so seriously injured that he couldn't fight.

In this battle, he lost, and he lost so quickly, it can be said that he was crushed!

Smoker was shocked, unbelievable, never expecting such a situation.

The dragon in the dark was also shocked, but it was unexpected.

Long Xinxin: "As expected of my son."

.....

.....

Ask for flowers, evaluation tickets, monthly tickets, and tips. Many thanks! .

Chapter 028

Smoker was a little skeptical about life, why the gap was so big.

Smoker also got it clear, and confirmed that Straw Hat Luffy has a strength of 450 million.

Although he was hanged and beaten, he was still able to accept being defeated by 450 million pirates like this.

Smoker knew that it was impossible for him to leave Straw Hat Luffy in Rogue Town.

"As expected of a reward of 450 million yuan, did you go all out for the battle just now?"

Although he was defeated, Smoker also wanted to obtain some valuable information, at least he tried out the real strength of the straw hat.

It is important to know the real strength of the opponent, and it is also worthwhile to lose.

Smoker was curious: "Have you tried your best?"

He himself must have gone all out. Seeing the battle between the straw hat and himself, and defeated him like this, he must have tried his best, but he still has to ask.

At this time, the dark dragon also calmed down, ready to listen.

Luffy shook his head: "Full strength? Of course not."

Luffy is as straightforward as ever.

Smoke was stunned by this, and so was Long.

Just now, wasn't it full strength?

Smoker was extremely shocked: "How could it be, not at full strength."

After the shock, Smoker tried his best to calm himself down, thinking in his heart: It's not full strength, but at least close to full strength, right? It's normal to be a little bit reserved.

Smoker asked curiously: "So, what percentage of your strength is it that you showed just now? Ninety percent, or eighty percent?"

Lu Fei thought for a while and said, "Well... less than 30%."

Smoker: "???!!"

dragon: "!!!"

Smoker was stunned, 30%...less than...

He couldn't believe it even more, felt impossible, what a joke.

He defeated himself so easily, but the result is less than 30% of his strength? how is this possible.

Even with a reward of 450 million, it is impossible to do this.

"Don't...don't be joking." Smoker couldn't believe it.

Lu Fei was helpless: "If you don't believe me, I can't help it. Well, I'm going to see the execution platform."

With a wave of his hand, Luffy turned and left.

Smoker looked at Luffy's leaving back with dull eyes, with a shocked expression on his face.

Less than three percent, is it true...

Smoker feels that his world view has collapsed. How can he be so strong at such a young age?

It's impossible that at this age, he is close to the existence of a general, right?

In that case, it's too scary.

Smog became firmer in his heart. As a navy man, seeing such a monster new pirate appeared, he naturally wanted to motivate himself.

"I want to become stronger, I want to catch up with you until I arrest you!"

Smoker got up and left in embarrassment.

At this time, the dragon was also shaking.

"Luffy is actually so strong."

Long didn't think his son was joking. Although he didn't see it often, he paid attention to it. Luffy is not the kind of big talker.

So, it must be true.

The strength shown just now was very strong, and the result was less than 30%.

Long imagined for a moment, what kind of strength the combat power would be if he went all out.

Long understood the general idea in his heart, and he was relieved. In this case, he will be able to deal with future adventures.

I was worried at first, because the Straw Hat Pirates are very popular now.

Not long after setting out to sea, as a rookie, the reward was so high for the first time.

Captain, Straw Hat Luffy, 450 million.

Forget it, but the first crew member recruited was also extremely strong, 350 million.

Therefore, such a pirate group is very terrifying, and the Navy will attach great importance to it. Long feels that if the limelight continues in the future, it is possible for the Navy to send a general to personally deal with the Straw Hat Pirates.

Therefore, the dragon is worried in his heart, but he can't worry too much. The flowers in the greenhouse cannot withstand the wind and rain, and excessive protection will only be detrimental to them, and will only be properly protected.

Long felt that maybe it would really be what he thought.

"I can also feel a little more relieved, but if I really meet a general, I hope you can deal with it. If you can't deal with it, I will take action. But, save one or two at most, it mainly depends on you, this is what you have to go through of."

Immediately, the wind roared, and the dragon disappeared like a ghost.

one day later.

Luffy and the others have completed what they have to do, and they are all ready.

Before leaving, I had a big meal in Rogge Town. After all, Sanji was teaching the space and couldn't come out yet.

Luffy missed it a bit: "I miss Sanji, I'm about to enter the great route.

Although I have prepared a lot of food, it's better to have Sanji."

Nami said, "You want Sanji to cook, right?"

"Hee hee, I want to."

Usopp thought: "Sanji should be very happy in it, Luffy, what do you think? After all, you recommended him."

Luffy nodded: "Well, Sanji will definitely be grateful to me when he comes out."

...

in the teaching space.

Sanji cried, "Stop chasing me."

Originally, such a scene was Sanji's dream, being chased by a group of girls.

It's a dream for him to chase a group of girls, let alone being chased by a group of girls.

But now, the one chasing him is neither a man nor a woman, but a shemale, and each one looks scarier than the other.

Sanji collapsed and could only run fast.

What troubled him the most was that he couldn't fight Ivankov at all.

"Luffy, I hate you." Sanji felt like he was in hell.

...

Rogge Town, get ready, and the four of Luffy board the boat.

Looking at the sea, looking forward to, yearning for, and entering the great route.

The real adventure begins!

Chapter 029 Sanji's training is over

The Merry started sailing, and the four of Luffy looked forward to it.

Nami suggested: "Let's have a launching ceremony."

Luffy and the others nodded and stepped on the barrel.

Lu Fei said in a condensed voice: "I want to become the One Piece!"

Sauron put his foot on it: "I want to become the world's number one swordsman!"

Nami stepped on the barrel and said firmly, "I want to draw a map of the world!"

Usopp was left, and after a brief moment of pondering, his eyes were determined.

"I want to be a brave warrior at sea!"

Although Sanji is not there, the four of Luffy also understand what will happen to Sanji.

Naturally looking for AllBlue

The voyage started, and before I knew it, two months had passed since Sanji entered the teaching space.

At this time, Luffy and others are about to approach the Red Earth Continent.

During this time, I met Abis and protected the Millennium Dragon.

On the deck, what Luffy and the others were looking forward to, Sanji was about to come out.

Whoosh!

Just then, Sanji appeared.

"Sanji, you're out."

Luffy and the others are happy.

Sanji was depressed, but also happy, because his strength had improved a lot.

Although Luffy asked himself to choose Ivankov, he has to say that he has made great progress.

And in the first year, I also got used to it.

However, Sanji still burst into tears.

"Luffy, do you know what I've been through?"

Seeing Sanji cry, Zoro and the others were surprised.

Didn't you choose a beauty template for Sanji?

Lu Fei scratched his head and said, "It's good to become stronger."

Sanji couldn't get angry anymore. Although Ivankov was very hot-eyed, he could still watch it after transforming, and it also caused himself to bleed many times.

When Sanji came out, Nami didn't rush in, because she was about to enter the great route and needed herself as a navigator.

So, I can't go in yet.

Chapter 21

You can wait until you land on a certain island, and then enter by yourself. You must always pay attention to the navigation of the great route.

Although it is not clear about Sanji's current strength, it can be imagined that he must be very strong.

Now the four major forces on board, Nami thinks that it is almost the same, even if it is against the powerful combat forces of the Shanghai

Navy, it can be dealt with.

As long as it is not a general, it can be dealt with.

Therefore, I am not in a hurry to enter, the most important thing is to enter the great route, without myself.

The voyage continued, and Nami looked at it with the map, and she was responsible for the voyage.

Nami was a little puzzled: "I should see the Red Earth Continent soon."

Luffy was excited: "It's finally time to enter the great route."

Nami said: "The picture shows a canal going up the mountain. It should be to climb up the canal."

Sauron was surprised: "Even if there is a canal, how can the boat climb the mountain?"

Nami also finds it miraculous, but believes: "It's drawn like this on the picture."

Looking at Zoro who didn't believe it, Sanji believed it.

"Miss Nami's words, how could it be wrong."

After Nami pondered, her eyes lit up and she understood.

"We have to enter the canal, otherwise, if we follow the current and fail to enter the canal, the Merry will hit the red earth continent and be torn apart."

Nami said sternly: "Now our ship is on the sea current. As long as we control the rudder well, we can rush to the top of the reverse mountain in one go. If we don't control it well, we will crash into the red earth continent."

Sanji praised: "Miss Nami, you are amazing."

Sauron still found it unbelievable: "The boat can climb mountains."

Sanji smiled: "I've heard of it."

Sauron was surprised: "Have you heard of it? Is it reliable?"

"It must be reliable." Sanji firmly believed.

Sanji didn't say that he actually climbed the red soil continent by boat when he was a child, he just said that he had heard of it.

The sky was cloudy, heavy rain was pouring down, and the sea was rushing. Luffy and others got busy and couldn't hit the red earth continent.

Soon, Lu Fei and others' eyes lit up and saw the Red Earth Continent.

Covered by clouds and mist in the sky, one could not see the end of the Red Earth Continent when one looked up.

Nami observed carefully, found the entrance to the canal, and saw a gap in the red earth continent.

After approaching, the gap got bigger, and Sauron was surprised, because the sea water goes up along the gap, which is an upward canal.

In this way, the boat can really climb mountains.

Sanji and Usopp are at the helm together, and the currents are strong, but both have been boosted and fully in control.

Soon, the boat was precisely facing the opening of the gap, and climbed up in an instant.

The speed is very fast, and they keep going up along the canal. Luffy and others are facing the sea breeze and keep going up.

Soon, through the clouds, Luffy and others saw the top of the mountain.

With a whoosh, the boat rushed to the top of the mountain, flew in the air, paused briefly, and fell, following the downward current.

As they continued to go down, on the boat, the five of Luffy looked down, and they were about to enter the great route.

Sauron's eyes were fixed: "Hawkeye is on the great route."

Sanji yearned: "AllBLUE is there."

Nami: "To draw a world map."

Usopp: "To become a brave sea warrior."

Luffy: "To become the One Piece."

While saying this, Luffy still has a lot of thoughts in his heart, that is, he must make changes.

Alabasta, Sky Island, Judiciary Island, Boost City, and most importantly, the top!

Also, Wano Country.

Now, it's time to start.

Soon, it will be below, through the clouds.

Following that, the expressions of Nami and the others changed.

Logically speaking, going down would be the exit, but why, the front is a black mountain wall, so you will hit it.

But when they got closer, they could see clearly that it was not a black mountain, but a huge whale blocking it.

The whale is so huge that even a tooth in its mouth is a little bigger than the Merry.

"He blocked the way, what to do." Usopp was anxious.

Nami said heavily: "He opened his mouth, and the boat is about to enter its mouth."

"Leave it to me." Luffy stepped forward.

Chapter 030 Give me some medicine

Luffy didn't release the domineering aura, knowing that this is the whale Rab, it cannot be deterred.

"It can only knock you back."

Luffy jumped up and used the third gear, his fists and arms suddenly became huge.

However, in the face of Raab, it still looks small.

Covered in jet-black armed domineering, Luffy punched Rab's head with a punch.

boom!

With a bang, Rab was thrown backwards directly.

"I'm here to help too."

Sauron stepped forward and gave a low shout.

"Black rope, big tornado!"

Hoo hoo...

The tornado roared, and for Sauron at the beginning, the power of this tornado could be said to be equivalent to a breeze for Rab, who was as huge as a small island.

But now the strength of Sauron, the * rope tornado still rolled up Rab slightly, and flew back a certain distance.

In this way, the exit was no longer blocked, and the Merry sailed out and stopped on the parallel sea.

This made Nami breathe a sigh of relief, thinking that she was going to be finished, be swallowed alive, and there would be Luffy and Zoro.

Even after practicing for two years, Usopp was shocked: "I just encountered this kind of monster when I was about to enter the great route. Is the great route so scary?"

This is a bit beyond Usopp's cognition, knowing that it is terrible, can't it be so terrible? Encounter such a huge creature in the first place.

However, after Rab fell, there was a buzzing sound, which shocked Luffy and others' eardrums.

Moreover, he opened his mouth wide, and the surrounding seawater rushed in, and the Merry naturally flowed along.

This made Nami's face change drastically, what should I do?

Even if Luffy, Zoro, and Sanji are powerful, they can't stop it, and it's impossible to control the sea water.

At this point, Luffy really had no choice.

With his own strength, he can deal with such a huge Rab, but now that it opens its mouth, the surrounding sea is surging, and no matter how powerful the Meri is, it can't go out against the current, and can only approach Rab's big mouth along the sea.

Of course, I can jump on top of Rab's head.

Although Rab is as huge as a mountain, Luffy can also walk up, so he can go up.

After going up, you can use the third gear to punch down, which is powerful enough to make Rab shut up.

However, I am afraid that after shutting up at that time, the Merry also hit Raab's teeth.

Then the Merry would be destroyed.

So after thinking about it, Luffy didn't do anything, anyway, it's okay to enter Rab's stomach.

Nami screamed: "Luffy, what should I do."

Luffy is lying on the deck, which leaves Nami stunned.

Luffy said: "There is no way."

While screaming, the Merry flowed into Rab's mouth along the sea water.

The Meili rotated accordingly, and Nami and others were dizzy.

When the Merry stopped spinning, they felt better, and when they looked up, they were a little dazed.

Logically speaking, it should have entered the belly of a huge whale, but why, it seems that it is still outside?

Because, there is the sky, the sea, and even a small island in front of it with a house on it.

Nami rubbed her eyes to make sure that it was true.

"Isn't it a hallucination?" Nami couldn't figure it out.

Sauron was also confused: "It was swallowed, what's going on?"

"Someone came out." Usopp noticed a figure coming out of the house.

Luffy looked over, and naturally knew who it was, the ship doctor of the Roger Pirates, Kulocas.

After Kulocas came out, he was used to it, so which pirate ship was swallowed in again.

However, looking at the boat, Kulocas's pupils shrank, and his eyes locked on Luffy, to be precise, on the straw hat on Luffy's head.

The figure of Roger can't help appearing in his mind.

The figure of Shanks also appeared, which was given to him by Shanks.

"First introduce myself, my name is Kulocas, and I am the lighthouse keeper of Cape Twins. As for where this is, it is my private resort center."

Nami didn't believe it: "Private resort center? We were swallowed by a mountain-like whale, shouldn't we be in its stomach?"

However, I am very puzzled, there are blue sky and white clouds, and there are people living here, what is going on.

Kulocas reminded: "Look, the blue sky, white clouds, and seagulls are not moving."

Nami and the others noticed this reminder, indeed.

Kulocas explained: "Because, it was painted."

painted...

Nami and the others were even more shocked, so outrageous.

Later, they believed it, because they found that what they saw was not an island, but a ship similar to an island.

Here is the inside of the whale's stomach, these are all painted.

Soon, the sea surged up.

Kulocas said: "Don't panic, Rab is hitting the red earth continent with his head."

Nami understood, no wonder there were so many scars on her head.

"But why the impact?"

Kulocas explained, and then Nami and the others understood.

The Rumba Pirates decided to venture into the Great Channel. Because the Great Channel was too dangerous, the Rumba Pirates could only leave Rab in front of the Reverse Mountain, let Rab wait there for a while, and said something.

"When we go around the world and come back, we can meet again."

So Little Rab stayed with tears in his eyes, waiting for the return of the Rumba Pirates on this side of the Red Earth Continent.

Chapter 22

However... this wait... is 50 years.

The vicissitudes of life have changed over the years, and the little whale has become a bigger and bigger whale than the island, and there is even an ocean in its body.

Everything in the world has changed, but Raab is still waiting for his master's return on the Red Earth Continent.

Because it wants to see its master, it has been bumping its head against the red earth continent that will never be broken for decades, scarred itself, and neighing sadly. This whale, which is as huge as an island, lives in sorrow every day like this. It waits, unaware that its owners have died fighting on the Great Channel decades ago.

Nami and the others felt so pitiful when they found out, and were glad they were swallowed in, otherwise they wouldn't have known about it.

Soon became acquainted with Kurokas.

Luffy said: "I'll let it change, just give him a new waiting target."

In addition, since it is here, knowing the follow-up, Luffy naturally has to do one thing.

"You are the ship's doctor."

"Well, I know your hat, Captain Roger's."

This shocked Sauron and the others, the ship doctor of the Roger Pirates?

Lu Fei grinned: "So, can you prepare some medicine for us? We don't have a ship's doctor yet. If anyone gets sick, it will be troublesome."

Kulocas nodded: "Small, I'll prepare it for you."

"thanks."

"It's okay, as long as you can make Rab stop being like this, I'm not busy enough."

Chapter 031 Bounty increase, one billion!

After listening to Raab's story, Usopp sighed.

"Has fifty years been so long? Those guys made it wait long enough."

Sanji was not surprised, and sighed softly: "This is a great route, and it's not like we'll see each other once we can."

Usopp understood what Sanji meant and couldn't help himself.

Sanji puffed out the smoke, guessing: "They must all be dead, no matter how much we wait, we won't come back."

Nami recalled the history and said solemnly: "I remember fifty years ago, the great sea route was more chaotic than it is now, and the terrifying sea area has not been visited by humans."

Usopp felt hopeless if he couldn't do this, and said in a concentrated voice: "Don't say these things that make people feel hopeless, it's still uncertain, maybe we can come back, and see you again."

Although Usopp said so, Nami, Zoro, and Sanji felt that thinking that way was just deceiving themselves.

After all, it's been fifty years, and it's too early to come back.

Moreover, fifty years is too long. Even if they were their age when they went to sea, they are almost seventy years old now.

At this age, are you still on the great voyage?

Looking at the silent Sanji and the others, Usopp looked at Luffy and asked.

"Luffy, what do you think?"

Luffy grinned and said, "I think, we will see you again."

This made Usopp's eyes brighten, Sauron and the others were surprised, did Luffy think so too.

Then, the Merry came out of Raab's belly.

After coming out, Luffy and Rabo started fighting.

The battle stopped in the middle, and the outcome was still undecided.

Luffy agreed: "We haven't decided the winner yet, so we have to keep fighting. I will always be your opponent. We must fight again to decide the winner. After we circle the great route, we will Come to you, then, let's decide the winner!"

Rab wept, raised his head and roared, which was a response to Luffy and agreed.

Just when Lu Fei and others were about to leave, the two climbed onto the shore.

Luffy recognized it, it was Vivi and mr9

Weiwei's current identity is mr3.

"I ask you one thing."

Weiwei and mr9 knelt down and talked.

Luffy said: "Whiskey Mountain?"

"Yes, we really want to go back to town, the reason we can't say, the purpose of the company is to be mysterious, sorry."

Weiwei said sincerely: "I like your character, so I ask for your help. We will definitely repay this kindness."

Nami said: "But, our record pointer is broken."

This made mr9's eyes light up, and he quickly took it out.

"This is ours, for your use."

Nami took over the record pointer, Weiwei and mr9 looked forward to it.

"May we ask for your help?"

Nami shook her head: "I still have to think about it, it's too suspicious after all."

At this time, Luffy decided: "Okay, let's get on the boat. You said to go to Whiskey Mountain, so go there."

With Weiwei, it is natural to get to know each other, so let nature take its course.

Usopp felt a little hasty, and confirmed asking: "Luffy, are you really going to bring these two guys of unknown origin on board?"

Luffy wants to defeat Crocodile as soon as possible, but some processes still have to go.

It's impossible to say it directly, I'll help you solve Crocodile, it's too abrupt.

Luffy didn't care: "It's okay, don't worry about this little thing."

Usopp and the others are helpless, is it a trivial matter to be unknown.

But, Luffy decided, they naturally listened.

"Okay, let's go, head to Whiskey Mountain!"

With the target determined, the Merry sailed.

...

Navy Headquarters.

Warring States knew what happened to Straw Hat Luffy and others in Rogge Town, knew that Smoker was defeated, and knew that he was easily defeated.

However, for a better understanding, Warring States asked Smoker to come in person.

Karp has always been leisurely, but he came here often during this time, mainly to learn more.

Marshal's office, Sengoku, Garp, Smoker also walked in.

"Marshal of the Warring States Period." Smoker said in a respectful tone.

"Sit down, Smoker, and talk slowly."

The face of the Warring States is heavy, and he is clear about Smoker's strength.

Although Hawkeye learned about the strength of the pirate hunter Sauron and that Straw Hat Luffy is very strong, Hawkeye did not fight Straw Hat Luffy.

And Smoker fought, so Smoker should know better.

Smoker started telling the story of the battle, but it was short because it was over so quickly.

Warring States was surprised, Smoker was crushed.

Sengoku and Garp were shocked when they heard that what Luffy said was less than 30%.

After the surprise, they are all heavy, but the reasons are different.

Warring States heavy monster newcomer pirates appeared, and Karp was worried about the high combat power sent by the navy.

Warring States exclaimed: "It's so strong, it seems that what Hawkeye said is true, and the bounty of 450 million is not enough, maybe it really is..."

Thinking of this, Warring States was even more shocked.

Hawkeye said, maybe Straw Hat Luffy, a bounty of one billion is fine.

After thinking about it, Warring States decided: "Perhaps, it's time to increase the bounty of Straw Hat Boy."

This made Karp, who was sitting, twitch his brows, and asked, "Warring States, how much do you plan to raise the bounty to?"

Warring States thought about it, and suddenly, the office became quiet.

Smoker also felt that 450 million might be too low.

It's that strong if it's less than 30%, but it's obvious that the straw hat was serious in the battle back then.

Or is there another form?

Thinking of Luffy's second gear, the third gear's body changes, maybe, there are other forms?

Thinking of this, Smoker thought it was very possible.

At the same time looking at the Warring States, Smoker was also very curious about how much the Warring States Marshal would increase the bounty for the straw hat.

Smoker felt that the following figures were reasonable, after all, Marshal Warring States was also a wise general.

After pondering for a short while, the Warring States Period has decided, said in a cold voice.

"Increase the bounty of the Straw Hat Boy to one billion Baileys!"

Chapter 032 The Unexpected Straw Hats

The words of the Warring States Period fell, Smoker and Garp were shocked, one billion Baileys? !

Only seventeen years old, a rookie who has just set out to sea, is offering a bounty of one billion Baileys, which is unprecedented.

Smoker had thought that the Warring States period might increase the bounty to around 700 to 800 million, but he didn't expect one billion.

But think about what Luffy said, 30% is less than strength, so full strength, maybe there is really a billion.

Moreover, it is too young and has great potential, so it can be understood after a short surprise when it is raised to one billion.

Smoker also felt that he was worthy of being the Marshal of the Warring States Period, and he was very decisive.

After Garp was surprised, his heart became more and more heavy. Luffy offered a reward of one billion Baileys. This is not a good thing, it means more danger.

Zhan Guo said in a condensed voice: "We must pay more attention to it.

Although the Straw Hats have entered the great route, they still have to take action."

After pondering briefly, Warring States decided.

Smoker is looking forward to what kind of decision and what kind of combat power to send.

And, inwardly, Smoker was a little worried.

This made him very uneasy. As a navy, how could he worry about a pirate.

Although Luffy feels good to himself, just like he feels good to Roger, but he can't have such an idea.

Smoker heard that Garp and Roger are both enemies and friends, will he be friends and enemies with the Straw Hat in the future?

No, I am a righteous navy, and the other party is a pirate.

Smoker stopped thinking about it and waited for Sengoku's decision.

Garp prayed in his heart: "Don't send generals to deal with them."

You can send yourself there, at least you can put water.

But if General Pai...

Garp also knew that Warring States would not let him go.

Chapter 23

The Warring States has decided, and he said in a concentrated voice:

"Sending multiple lieutenant generals, elite lieutenant generals and many elite sailors, warships were not very useful in the past. Even if they can be won, there will be many sacrifices. So, directly send a general to Bar."

This shocked Smoker. Sure enough, he still had to send a general to take down the Straw Hats.

So, which of the three generals will it be?

Karp frowned tightly and said nothing, naturally his heart was bad.

No matter which general it is, it is dangerous for the Straw Hat Pirates.

Warring States has already decided, said: "I will contact Aokiji to find the Straw Hat Pirates, and then take down the Straw Hats."

Smoker's heart shuddered, General Aokiji.

In his heart, Smoker felt sorry for Luffy and his gang.

As a rookie, he was too sharp, and he was about to be targeted by the general.

Although Luffy is very strong, it is impossible to be comparable to the general, even if the Straw Hat Pirates go together, it will be difficult.

As far as the combat strength of the Straw Hat Pirates is known, there are only two strong ones, Straw Hat Luffy, and the Pirate Hunter, Roronoa Zoro.

Therefore, it is enough to send a general, and even Smoker thinks it is a bit too much.

However, in order to kill such a newcomer, it is also understandable.

Smoker sighed inwardly: "Straw hat, you can wish for happiness."

After the decision of the Warring States Period, he glanced at Garp who was silent, and saw that Garp had a bad face.

"Karp, are you okay? I can't help it either. I hope you can understand my position as a navy."

The meaning of Warring States is very obvious, so that Karp also knows his position.

Karp shook his head: "I'm fine, it's decided, then I'll go on vacation first."

Warring States is not allowed, vacation, what if Karp runs over to help.

"Karp, wait for a while, about your vacation." Zhan Guo said in a calm voice.

Karp said seriously: "Warring States, you also understand me, what you worry about will not happen, I know my position."

No matter how uncomfortable and complicated Karp was, he would not think of helping.

"I know, but wait."

Cap was helpless and said nothing more.

Afterwards, Warring States contacted Lieutenant General He to arrange to update the bounty for Straw Hat Luffy.

Soon, the new reward list was printed and sent to all over the world.

The Merry sails the Great Route, heading for Whiskey Peak.

At this moment, a bounty list floated down.

On the deck, Nami and others looked down and saw that it belonged to Luffy.

Usopp picked it up and looked at it, and shouted: "Luffy's reward list, huh? It's been updated, how did it become 100 million Baileys?"

Usopp is surprised, why is this, how did he surrender.

Luffy was also taken aback: "Huh? My bounty has been updated and lowered? 100 million Berries?"

Luffy was surprised, if it was true, he would naturally be in a bad mood.

Hearing this, Zoro, Nami, and Sanji all came over.

Just looking at it at first glance, I thought it was really lower, 100 million Baileys, because the first number is 1, followed by a series of 0.

Weiwei and MR9 are shocking, and 100 million Baileys is also very powerful.

Mr9: "I've heard that Straw Hat Luffy offered a bounty of 450 million Baileys for the first time, which is really too exaggerated. The estimate was wrong, and it dropped to 100 million."

Weiwei: "100 million is also very powerful, don't be disappointed, among the newcomers, 100 million is top-notch."

Zoro was puzzled. If Luffy's bounty was lowered and he felt that the estimate was too high, he would update his own and lower it, right? But didn't see my own.

After all, Luffy is the captain, and the crew members themselves cannot be higher than the captain.

After Zoro realized it, Nami realized it too.

As a money addict, she is very sensitive to numbers, and soon realized something was wrong.

Taking a closer look, Nami's eyes widened, her pupils shrank, and she subconsciously exclaimed.

"My God! No, it's not 100 million Pele!"

no?

Usopp and the others were taken aback, why not?

Nami exclaimed: "You count carefully! It's not 100 million Peles, but... 1 billion Peles!"

"what?!!!"

In an instant, the Straw Hats were startled.

Chapter 033

Hearing Billion, Luffy was very happy.

"Hahaha, one billion, that's great."

If it is one billion, then Luffy feels normal.

Sauron, Sanji, and Usopp were all shocked, a billion Bailey? !

They looked carefully, counted one by one, and found that it was really one billion!

"It's amazing, Luffy directly offered a reward of one billion!" Usopp couldn't believe it.

Sauron exclaimed: "Amazing."

Sanji looks forward to: "My bounty has not come out yet, hurry up and meet a strong enemy, show my own strength, let the navy release my bounty, and let the world see my handsome photos. No, let the world All the beauties see my handsome photos."

Sanji began to fantasize about posting a handsome photo of himself, and then offering a reward of hundreds of millions, so cool, it will definitely fascinate many beauties.

Moreover, those beautiful pirates will definitely worship themselves extremely, that would be too wonderful.

Usopp felt that he also had to have a reward list, and it couldn't be too low, and he couldn't hold back.

At this moment, Weiwei and mr9 still couldn't believe it, one billion?

What are you kidding?

They looked closely, counted one by one, and were startled.

They stayed where they were, dumbfounded and muttering to themselves.

"It's...really a billion Baileys..."

Even for Crocodile, the bounty is only 81 million Baileys.

I used to think that the straw hat's bounty estimate was too high, and it was normal to drop it to 100 million, but I didn't expect it to be so much higher than the estimate.

Weiwei looked at Luffy deeply, at such a young age, why is there a billion, I can't see it.

Ace, who was sailing alone, saw the bounty list.

It belongs to Luffy, so naturally he is very interested.

Seeing the bounty offered, Ace was startled, and subconsciously thought it was a correction? I thought it was too high before, so I lowered it?

But upon closer inspection, Ace was also shocked, Billion Bailey!

After being surprised, Ace was relieved, proud, and laughed loudly:

"Hahaha, as expected of my brother, Luffy, really amazing."

But then, Ace was worried.

After all, it was too sharp.

A newcomer who has not been out to sea for a long time has a bounty of one billion.

In the previous rewards, it was impossible for Luffy to be known to everyone and spread all over the world, but this time, even if it is not known to everyone, even if it is not true in every corner of the world, it will definitely be famous. It shocked the world.

In this case, it is not good.

It would be fine if the Straw Hat Pirates were bigger, and Luffy still had partners, but now he knows that there are not many of them.

So, Ace is worried.

For such a monster, the navy will pay more attention to it and send more powerful combat forces. At that time...

Ace's face was gloomy and firm: "No matter who it is, don't even think about hurting my brother, Luffy. No matter what happens to you in the future, I will help you."

Ace swears in his heart that nothing will happen to his brother.

Knowing that Luffy will be in danger next time, but he still has his brother.

...

The red-haired pirate is on board.

"Boss! Look!"

"What's the matter? So anxious." Shanks was a little surprised.

"It's about Luffy."

This got Shanks interested.

Picking it up, Shanks was shocked: "One billion Baileys."

"Yeah, I thought my eyes were dazzled after seeing it." * couldn't believe it.

It just showed that Smoker was easily defeated in Rogge Town, and there was no big deal, so the bounty was increased to one billion Baileys.

This is the reason for their astonishment. It would be understandable if they defeated the existence of 800 or 900 million Baileys and rose to one billion Baileys, but it was directly one billion Baileys.

Shanks exclaimed: "Luffy, amazing. It seems that Luffy didn't have all his strength to defeat that Smoker. The Navy knew it, so they increased the bounty."

This shocked the cadres of the Red Hair Group.

Recall that when Luffy was six years old, he was still a kid.

In terms of strength, basically no, but Luffy has the courage.

I knew that Luffy would be unusual in the future, but I didn't expect such a monster, even Shanks didn't expect it.

Shanks looked forward to: "Luffy, maybe it won't be long before we meet again. But, before that..."

Halfway through, Shanks' face became serious.

Beckman, known as the world's smartest, had already thought of it when he puffed out the smoke.

Jesus appointed them these cadres, looked at Shanks' expression, and guessed it.

That is, the more outrageous it is, the more dangerous the road ahead will be.

It is uncertain whether it will go all the way or disappear like a meteor.

Shanks said to himself: "Luffy, the road ahead will be more difficult. I hope to see you in the future. Don't fall down too early."

...

On the New World Ocean, the Mobidi.

It's the Whitebeard Pirates.

"Father, look quickly."

"What's the matter? Ace's matter, or Tiki?"

Speaking of Tiki, Whitebeard's face was a little ugly, and his eyes were low.

In addition, about Ace, he is concerned, other things, almost not interested.

"Father, neither."

White Beard was lying on the chair, taking a potion, and lost interest.

Chapter 24

Even though he was old and had a bottle hanging on his body, he was still powerful, the strongest man in the world.

Marco said: "Father, it's about his brother, Luffy, whom Ace often mentions."

White Beard's closed pupils opened slightly, showing some interest.

After all, Ace often praises himself and shows off his younger brother.

"What is it?" Whitebeard asked.

"Father, look."

Marco was shocked, which made Whitebeard think that maybe it was really something interesting.

In the end, Whitebeard offered a reward to watch, and he was shocked.

Straw Hat Luffy, seventeen years old, captain of the Straw Hat Pirates, offers a bounty of one billion Baileys.

"It's true that the waves behind the Yangtze River push forward the waves ahead."

White Beard admired, it is a great compliment for the strongest man in the world to say this.

Whitebeard recalled Ace's frequent praise and showing off, and smiled:

"Kula la la la... It seems that Ace is not exaggerating. His younger brother is really extraordinary."

Marco exclaimed: "Yeah, it's unbelievable that a newcomer who has just set sail can reach one billion Berries in an instant. He is worthy of being Ace's younger brother."

In the past, Ace often said that Whitebeard remembered the name of Luffy in his heart, and now, he remembers Luffy even more firmly.

...

The Navy Headquarters is not far from the sea.

If someone sees this scene, they will think it is an illusion, because there is a person riding a bicycle in the sea.

As you ride, the sea water in front of the front wheel freezes a trail, which is why you can ride your bike on the sea.

The man riding a bicycle, about forty-seven years old, was wearing a white suit and black curly hair. He was the general Aokiji.

The goal of this trip is to take down the Straw Hats.

Chapter 034

The increase in Luffy's bounty has caused a great shock in the world, and Luffy's reputation has also been greatly improved.

The Meili was sailing on the great route, suddenly there was a blizzard on the sea, and the temperature dropped sharply.

Wrapped in a down jacket, Nami looked out through the window in the houseboat, it was still snowing, her body was still shaking and complaining.

"What's the matter with the weather, it was obviously warm just now."

Luffy, Zoro, Sanji, and Usopp didn't feel cold, and they still wore their previous clothes.

After all, the four are all strong, and they have practiced in the teaching space for two years, and the environment is even worse.

The four of Luffy squatted on the deck with a snowman, enjoying themselves.

Sanji was in charge of shoveling the snow and asked, "Miss Nami, how long will it take to shovel the snow with love?"

Nami said: "Shovel until the end of the snow."

"Okay, Miss Nami."

Sanji continued to shovel snow hard, full of motivation.

Mr9 shivered from the cold and asked, "Does your ship have no heating facilities?"

Weiwei was wrapped in the sheets, still shivering from the cold: "It's so cold."

Nami yelled: "Stop rambling, you are just seeking our help, and you are not guests, go out and shovel snow quickly."

rumbling...

Suddenly, thunder roared, the sky was overcast, and the sky and the earth became dark.

Hoo hoo...

Then there was a strong wind like howling ghosts and wolves, giving people a prelude to a storm.

Nami sighed softly: "The weather on the great route is really fickle."

Weiwei reminded: "You haven't been at the helm since just now, is it okay?"

Nami thought what was the matter, and shook her head: "It's okay, I have adjusted the direction."

However, Nami glanced at the recording pointer, her face changed in surprise, the direction of the ship was opposite to the direction of the pointer.

Nami was startled, and realized that she was careless, and also underestimated the great route.

Nami ran out immediately and hurriedly said: "Turn the boat 180 degrees, hurry up."

Sanji asked: "Miss Nami, is something going to the back?"

Nami shook her head and explained, "No, the boat turned around automatically and headed in the direction we came from, so I turned it around quickly. I just didn't pay attention to the recording pointer for a while, and there was a change. Obviously the sea was calm, but it fell Head up."

Weiwei confirmed and asked: "Are you really a navigator? On the great voyage, no matter whether it is wind, sky, waves, or clouds, you can't believe it. The only thing you can believe is the direction pointed by the record pointer. This is not true. will change."

Nami kicked Weiwei and mr9 out angrily, shouting, "Stop rambling, go shovel the snow."

Usopp sympathized: "I don't know Nami, it would be strange to say that I won't be beaten."

Nami looked at the pointer carefully, and after observing, she began to make adjustments.

"Pull the jib so the starboard winds and the boat turns 180 degrees to port. Usopp, pull the jib. Sanji, take the helm."

After the arrangement, suddenly, the weather changed again, and Nami had a headache, so she continued to observe and arrange.

There were constant footsteps on the boat, and it was very busy.

Usopp looked at Sauron, very helpless, Sauron was lying in a corner and fell asleep, his body was covered with snow.

"Ah, it's not good, there is a huge iceberg ahead!"

"It's getting foggy!"

"What should I do? The boat is about to crash!"

...

For a moment, Usopp, Weiwei, and mr9's expressions changed drastically.

Mr9 burst into tears, terrified:

"Wooooooooooooooooooooooooooooooooooooooooooooooooooooooooooooooooooooooooooooo

Weiwei was also afraid: "I don't want to die."

Nami had a headache: "What's going on in this sea area?"

Nami thought it was too difficult, but as a navigator, this was something she had to overcome.

"Leave it to me." Luffy was ready to do it.

Nami apologized: "I'm sorry, Luffy, because of my negligence."

Luffy didn't care: "It's okay, you just entered the great route, and you are not familiar with it yet."

Luffy's stomach suddenly swelled, like a hot air balloon, and when he exhaled, his stomach shrunk.

Soon the mist was blown away,

But at the same time, Nami's eyes widened.

Weiwei and mr9 froze in fright, because the ship was so close to the iceberg that it was about to be loaded!

Moreover, there was a big wave, the boat was out of control, and it was about to hit the iceberg, so the boat would definitely be torn apart, and everyone would fall into the sea.

No matter how good your swimming skills are in such turbulent waves, it is useless to fall.

Luffy is full of fighting spirit: "This is the great route, it is only interesting if it is difficult."

This is an adventure at sea.

The fog cleared, and when Luffy was about to do something, Sauron was woken up and heard that he was about to hit an iceberg.

"give it to me."

Sauron got up, jumped up, and slashed out with a single knife.

Zheng!

The slash came out, and with a click, the small iceberg in front was split in half, separated from the left and right.

This made Nami and the others heave a sigh of relief, the iceberg parted and formed a glacial ravine into which the Merry entered.

However, the sea water surged, and the icebergs on both sides were also affected and squeezed over.

This caused Weiwei and mr9 to collapse again. Are they going to die even worse? Are they going to be squeezed into meatloaf?

"Sanji, let's take care of each of them." Luffy said.

"it is good!"

Sanji also felt that it was time for him to move. After the teaching space came out, he hadn't touched it yet.

Lu Fei's fist suddenly became huge, and he blasted towards the iceberg on the left.

With a bang, the iceberg shattered into slag.

Sanji jumped up, his right foot suddenly burst into flames, and he let out a low cry.

"Devil Wind Foot! Crushed!"

boom!

Click!

He kicked the iceberg on the right, and the iceberg suddenly collapsed.

Seeing Usopp, Sauron's eyes lit up.

Nami was shocked, so powerful.

Weiwei and mr9 are stunned, the Straw Hat Pirates are too powerful.

Chapter 035: A Group of Actors

Nami breathed a sigh of relief, fortunately there are Luffy and the others. The Merry continued to sail, and soon, through the fog ahead, Music saw the island.

Nami confirmed: "It's almost here, the first voyage into the great route is coming to an end."

After approaching, through the fog, I could see clearly.

On the island, there are many huge cacti as mountains, and the eyes of Luffy and others are shining brightly.

Sanji sighed softly: "This is Whiskey Mountain, what a wonderful island."

Usopp sighed: "What a big cactus, I thought it was a mountain from a distance just now."

At this moment, mr9 and Weiwei were about to leave.

"We bid farewell and thank you for sending us back."

After the words fell, there were two thuds, mr9 and Weiwei jumped into the sea water and swam away.

Nami was a little confused: "Just leave like this."

Usopp also didn't understand: "What the * are they doing?"

Luffy didn't care, looked at the island, expecting: "Whatever, it's about to land, the first island to enter the great route."

Nami nodded: "Well, let's land, and you have to stay on this island for a while. Because if the record pointer does not record the magnetic force of this island, it will not be able to point to the next island. As for how long, it is not sure. Different islands , The recording speed is different, some take a few hours, some take a few days."

Luffy understood: "Got it, let's go to the island quickly."

Chapter 25

Sauron and the others are still looking forward to the first island that enters the great route.

They have experienced the voyage of the great route, and it is quite difficult, so what will this first island be like.

Sailing in along the river, soon, I found that both sides were full of people, and then cheers.

"Welcome, pirates."

"Welcome to the hospitable town, Whiskey Peak."

"Welcome, I will treat you well!"

...

Listening to the cheers, except for Luffy, everyone else was surprised.

I thought it would be a difficult and dangerous island, but it was such a scene, so hospitable, so many people welcomed them.

"So enthusiastic." Nami was surprised.

"It's so popular, aren't most people afraid of pirates?" Usopp wondered.

Sanji said: "So many beauties are welcoming me, it's great to be here."

Sanji felt that it was the right place to come here, and even fantasized about being surrounded by beauties after going to the island and entertaining him warmly.

Thinking of this, Sanji couldn't wait to go up.

Nami and the others think this town is good, and it turns out to be a town that likes pirates. They think that after going up, they can spend a few days in this town and they will be warmly entertained.

This is what they didn't expect. They thought it would be difficult to be the first to land on the island.

However, Luffy knew that these people did not welcome pirates, they did this only to allow pirates who entered the great route to come here.

In fact, this island is full of bounty hunters.

It can be regarded as a weasel wishing a chicken a new year, uneasy and kind.

The hearts of those who welcome are full of joy.

"It's the Straw Hat Pirates."

"Although there are only two rewards on the boat, it's the biggest fat sheep we've encountered."

"Straw Hat Luffy has a bounty of one billion. Roronoa Zoro has a bounty of 350 million."

"A lot of money."

"Why is it so high as a billion, and what did he do?"

"Don't be afraid, this is the town of bounty hunters. It's just a pirate group, or a pirate group with only five people. It will still be our dinner."

"Such a pirate group needs to be welcomed more warmly and lure them into the bait."

...

This is what's on their minds.

When the Meili docked, many people crowded around it.

The leader was well-mannered, in a black suit, with long curly hair, about fifty years old, and introduced himself.

"My name is Icarem, and I am the mayor of Whiskey Peak."

Luffy nodded: "Well, I'm Luffy, please give me your advice."

"Well, it's nice to meet you. This is a small town famous for brewing and music. We are most proud of entertaining guests. We have a lot of good wine that we are proud of. Let's use your adventure stories so far as an appetizer. , come and enjoy the banquet with me."

Hearing this, Usopp, Sanji, and Nami's eyes lit up, this town is really nice.

Wu Supu thought about having a big meal, and Sanji thought about the banquet, there must be many beauties and beautiful waiters.

Sauron's eyes lit up because there was a lot of fine wine.

Nami asked: "How long will it take to record the magnetic force on this island?"

Icarem replied: "It will take five days. Well, go to the banquet and relieve the fatigue of the voyage."

Nami and the others were indeed tired. The newcomers who entered the great route were very tired at the beginning, because they were busy in various ways due to the sudden change of weather.

Entering the banquet hall, it is very lively, fine wine and delicious dishes are all ready.

Usopp was triumphant and began to brag, surrounded by many people, both men and women.

"Every time I encounter a desperate situation, I rely on Usopp to reverse it. I will tremble when encountering difficulties, but because I am a brave warrior, I tremble with excitement."

The people around looked adoring, and the woman's eyes were full of gold stars.

"Mr. Usopp, that's amazing."

"cheers."

"I admire you so much."

...

Sanji, Nami heard it, and got used to it.

What Luffy thinks is miraculous, what Usopp bragged about, will come true.

Looking at the people around, I think everyone here is an Oscar actor, they are so good at acting.

The towns of bounty hunters are quite dangerous, but unfortunately, they are unlucky to meet them with their current combat power.

Chapter 036 The Gap

The banquet continued, and Sanji was extremely happy, and he experienced being surrounded by beautiful women for the first time.

He used to be a dog licker, but now a group of women worship him and praise him. Sanji thinks this is heaven, and it would be nice if he could stay a little longer.

At the end of the banquet, almost everyone was drunk and fell asleep on the table.

Icarem came out from the banquet hall, mr9 and Weiwei sat on the roof and said hello.

Mr9 said: "Ikalem, long time no see, to be precise, mr8."

"It's you."

Weiwei and mr9 jumped down and asked.

"Where are they?"

"They're going to hell."

At this time, a person with dark complexion, pink hair, strong body, like a boy, but with a girl's voice stepped out, like King Kong Barbie.

"Is it necessary to play such a scene? It's just a five-member pirate group.

Although one is a newcomer who has recently become famous in the world, and has a bounty of one billion Baileys, is there really a billion?

The other one, Luo Luo Noah Sauron, I've heard it before, it's not 350 million. As for the others, they don't look very good, even if they are powerful, with so many of us, we can take them down."

Weiwei curled her lips: "Idiot, they are very strong."

Mr8 reminded: "Miss Monday, you really can't be careless, it is necessary to do this, and it saves effort."

Mr8 breathed a sigh of relief, and arranged: "You can report to the boss, and take all the treasures on their ship. As for them, they can't be killed, and the reward will be reduced by 30%. The world government wants to publicly execute them. Go, Move, capture them alive."

clatter...

"Huh, so comfortable."

At this moment, a voice suddenly shocked the four of them.

Follow the sound and look over, there is a person standing on the roof, birding.

They all shrank their pupils, it was Luffy!

Luffy peed on it, and for a moment, Weiwei's eyes widened and her pupils shrank.

I don't know why I didn't faint because of the shock, or something else.

They calmed themselves down, what if they didn't hear? What if you are still drunk and not sober?

They had such luck, but then, Luffy spoke, making their faces extremely heavy.

"I heard everything you said."

"And I."

Then, Zoro appeared and stood beside Luffy.

This made mr8 and their faces heavy: "It's terrible."

Sauron said: "Don't disturb my partners, let them sleep well, they are very tired during the day."

Soon, nearly a hundred people gathered outside the banquet hall.

Although it was seen through, the other party was only two people.

"You guys knew beforehand?" mr8's face was ugly.

Sauron nodded: "Yeah, I know this is the lair of bounty hunters. I welcome those pirates who triumphantly come to the great route, let them come up and loot them, right? I just think we It's hard to deal with, so we held a banquet, added medicine, and tried to knock us out before doing it."

As more and more people gathered, they were seen through.

Soon, a total of one hundred people gathered.

Zoro is not very interested. If he were the former self, he would still be interested, but the current self is very strong.

I even feel that Luffy's domineering look can be put on most people.

Luffy didn't want to waste time dealing with too many miscellaneous fish, his eyes glared, and his domineering look burst out.

bang bang bang...

Suddenly, the sound of falling to the ground continued, and a group of bounty hunters rolled their eyes and fell to the ground fainting.

Mr8 and the others looked around in horror, originally thinking that it would be okay if they were found out, but there were only two of them, and there were more than one hundred of them, and they were all bounty hunters, not ordinary people.

But now, 90% of them fainted! Only ten left!

This made their hearts feel more and more heavy, and they felt a sense of crisis.

Zoro planned to end it quickly, and signaled: "Luffy, just leave it to me."

Luffy nodded: "Okay."

The lineup in front of him really made Luffy uninterested, so there was no need for the two of them to do it together.

Sauron held the word "He Dao" in his right hand, and said calmly, "Come on, Baroque studio."

This made mr8 and their expressions change.

"How do you know it's our studio?"

"Of course I know. When I was a bounty hunter, your company once wanted to poach me, but I refused. The employees in the company don't know each other's background at all, and they only use code names. Your boss's location, name, It's all a mystery."

After Sauron finished speaking, their faces were heavy, knowing so much.

Mr8 said coldly: "It seems that there will be another tombstone on the cactus rock."

From a distance or even up close, the huge cactus is covered with thorns.

You may think it is a real thorn, but it is actually a tombstone. You can imagine how many pirates were buried here.

Sauron jumped down, intending to make a quick decision, and even put away his knives, not even planning to use a single knives.

This made mr8 feel ashamed, even though there was a bounty of 350 million, but since they knew they were from the Baroque studio, they couldn't be underestimated so much.

But I was also thankful in my heart, and immediately went all out to attack.

There are guns and shells hidden in Mr8's curly hair, and they are fired unexpectedly.

Sauron raised his arms, covering the domineering black armor.

"No knife flow, black rope tornado!"

Hoo hoo!

In an instant, the cannonballs and bullets were thrown away, and mr8 and the others were directly rolled up, screaming.

After the storm, all of them were in a state of embarrassment and were seriously injured.

Wei Wei was far away, and was not involved, because she herself had no malicious intentions.

Chapter 26

In this way, they lost, the gap is too big, they fully realized that 350 million is real, the gap is too big.

Perhaps their bosses did not dare to say that they could win against each other.

They despair and feel they are doomed.

"You are really weak, you were defeated by a swordsman who didn't use a sword."

Two figures came out of the alley, a man and a woman, the girl was petite and held an umbrella, the man had a dark complexion and black hair.

This brightened mr8's eyes and saw hope.

"mr5."

"Miss Valentine's Day."

Chapter 037 Save Vivi

Mr8 and the others are happy, because the appearance of these two people gave them hope.

Because they are all devil fruit capable users, and in Baroque Studio, their strength is very strong.

Mr5 sarcastically: "Are you guys kidding, it's so unbearable."

Miss Valentine's Day is not surprising, she sneered: "Hahaha, I can understand, after all, this is the difference in our level."

This made mr8 and the others angry, but they could only endure it.

Miss Valentine sneered: "We are here to carry out the mission, but we are not here to help you."

Mr.9 was taken aback by these words, unable to understand.

"The one who carried out the mission didn't help us? It's so contradictory."

"How can there be conflicts, because we are here to solve her."

Both Mr5 and Miss Valentine looked at Weiwei, with murderous intent flashing in their eyes.

This shocked mr8 and felt uneasy.

Weiwei's complexion became heavy, and her temperament changed accordingly, like a princess.

Mr5 said coldly: "What we need to solve is the undercover agents who infiltrated into our company, and the whereabouts of the Alabasta kingdom is still unknown..."

Mr8 decided to fight it out, but it really revealed his secrets.

Standing up suddenly, the shells in the curly hair continued to blast.

Boom boom boom...

Bombing ahead, the fire will bomb mr6 and miss Valentine's Day.

Sauron was taken aback, thinking that maybe it wouldn't be too boring, but the two sides started fighting by themselves.

"Go to hell, you guys, I won't let you touch the princess. From now on, I am no longer mr8, but Icarem. Bet on my name as the captain of the Alabasta Kingdom Guard, I want to protect the princess. "

After the bombing, mr5 and miss Valentine remained unscathed.

Mr5 said indifferently: "Sure enough, there is no mistake. The princess of Alabasta Wang Gang, Naferutali Weiwei, I am here to kill you under the order of the boss."

Said, took out a photo.

This made Sauron startled, he didn't look like a person.

Luffy said: "The disguise is good, no wonder it can be hidden until now."

Having said that, Sauron also felt that it was true. Since he was going to be an undercover agent, he naturally had to pretend to be a little more like it. No wonder the Baroque studio only discovered it now.

"Master Weiwei, run away!"

Icarem rushed up, the firepower in the curly hair continued to explode, the bullets continued to shoot, and the shells bombarded.

Facing these two people, Icarem rushed forward without fear of death.

Wei Wei is worried: "Icarem."

Mr5 was disdainful, flicked his fingers, and exploded, blasting Icarem into the air, with serious injuries, and black smoke rising all over his body.

This surprised Sauron, what happened, it exploded.

Icarem has cannonballs in his hair how does this guy do it.

It doesn't make sense, it can only be explained that it is a devil fruit ability user.

Of course, Luffy knows that this guy has the ability to explode fruit.

Smoky, Miss Valentine's Day floated up with an umbrella, and then fell quickly, taking off Weiwei's high ponytail headband, and the long blue hair immediately fell down.

Suddenly, Zoro realized that he was indeed the same person as the photo.

"Master Weiwei, I can't fight anymore, you go away. For the sake of the country, you must live, without you, the Kingdom of Alabasta will perish, go away..." Icarem's voice was weak.

"Go? When we don't exist?"

Mr5 picked his nostrils, which made Weiwei's face change, knowing that the other party was about to attack.

At this moment, mr9 stepped forward with an iron rod.

"Although I don't know the situation, but because we have been partners for so long, I will help you. Let's go, miss Wednesday."

"mr9..."

Mr9 swung an iron rod and rushed up, mr5 flicked again with his fingers, small black particles flew out, and exploded, mr9 flew upside down, with black smoke all over his body, and fell to the ground.

Sauron sighed softly: "This little booger bombardment is so powerful."

Icarem crawled up to Sauron, hugged Sauron's feet, and begged.

"Master Swordsman, I have an unfeeling request. I am not their opponent.

Can you protect the princess for me?"

Sauron was speechless: "Why do you want to help you protect it? You were clearly an enemy just now."

Icarem begged: "If you can send the princess back to the Alabasta Kingdom, you will definitely be rewarded handsomely, please."

Sauron was helpless: "Don't be kidding, you obviously wanted to kill us just now."

But, at this moment, Nami came.

She has been wandering alone all year round in order to make money, but she was very careful and did not faint.

Nami was interested, and asked, "Is it true that you said a generous reward?"

"yes!"

Icarem sees hope. After all, she is a companion. If she agrees, then Sauron and Luffy, who are powerful companions, will definitely help.

Icarem nodded heavily: "Yes! I swear on my life! There will be a generous reward!"

Nami's eyes lit up, and she made a condition: "I agree to your request, but the reward is one billion Baileys, is that okay?"

Icarem's expression was dull, and he suspected that he had misheard.

"Ten...billion Baileys..."

Icarem was in a dilemma: "This... I'm just a soldier guard, I can't make such a decision, there are too many."

Nami asked: "Do you think your princess is not worth the price?"

"The princess is priceless, but, I'm not sure if I can give so much, maybe."

Icarem's words let Nami decide.

"Okay, I'll help you guys."

Nami looked at Sauron and said, "Okay, Sauron, let's go."

Sauron was speechless, rolling his eyes: "Who will go, idiot, why do you let me go for the errand you promised yourself?"

Nami scolded: "Idiot, although the money belongs to me, it belongs to everyone. In addition, you still owe me money. I bought a knife in Luoge Town before."

Sauron was speechless.

Luffy said: "So, Sauron, let's go and see."

Zoro glanced at Luffy and found that he had a serious expression on his face.

It seems that I am also curious and want to know what the specific situation is.

"Okay, let's go."

Chapter 038 Gravity

At this time, Weiwei was fleeing on a duck.

The name of the duck is that it runs fast, and as its name suggests, it does run very fast.

Weiwei said anxiously: "Run fast, run at full speed, there is a boat parked behind the cactus rock, we will take that boat to leave the island, and then return to Alabasta."

boom!

However, there was a bombardment ahead and the road was destroyed.

The run almost stopped, Weiwei's face was heavy.

In the thick smoke, a figure stepped out, it was Mr5.

Another way, Miss Valentine's Day emerged.

Weiwei's face was heavy, and she had nowhere to escape.

"Okay, I can take you back."

Mr5 was about to do it, but at this moment, Luffy and Zoro rushed over.

Luffy said: "Zoro, let me do it."

"It is good."

Sauron stood aside, dealing with these two, there was no need for the two of them to do it together.

Weiwei was startled, is this to protect her? Why?

"You..." Weiwei looked at Luffy puzzled.

"We're here to save you."

After Luffy finished speaking, Mr5 and Miss looked ugly on Valentine's Day, and offered a bounty of one billion Baileys to the straw hat Luffy.

However, the task must be completed.

Mr5 rushed up quickly and kicked hard.

"Foot burst!"

boom!

The bombing was stronger, which shocked Weiwei's face, it was much stronger than the bombing just now.

After all, the bombing just now was just booger.

Luffy didn't dodge, which made mr5 feel that he couldn't dodge.

"It's useless to dodge, because the explosion range is so large that you can't dodge it. It seems that you know it too. However, the bounty of 1 billion is not worthy at all, and 100 million feels too much."

Mr5 sarcastically, but his face changed unexpectedly.

Because he felt his ankle tightened suddenly and was grabbed by Luffy's hand.

No matter how hard you try, you can't pull it out.

The smoke dissipated, mr5's eyes widened, and he couldn't believe it, because the straw hat Luffy was unharmed.

"how come..."

Chapter 27

In astonishment, his body suddenly became uncontrollable, Luffy flicked it casually, and mr5 flew upside down.

Boom boom boom...

Several houses were smashed through, and the houses continued to collapse.

"mr5!"

miss Valentine's Day shock, so strong, it seems that it can't be underestimated because of age, maybe one billion really has some hard power.

Miss Valentine's Day floated up quickly and was located above Luffy.

"Be crushed by me!"

Located in the sky above, miss Valentine felt that Luffy couldn't hide at all, because it was directly 5,000 kilograms to the top.

Whoosh!

Falling like a meteorite, Miss Valentine is confident, even if she is stronger than herself, as long as she is hit, it will be over.

Luffy knows that Miss Valentine is a light and light fruit, which can make the body light and light, and can also control its own weight. Now Miss Valentine is 5,000 kilograms, 10,000 catties.

This gravity is strong, so Luffy can dodge it naturally, but he doesn't intend to dodge, but he is interested and wants to challenge it.

As Miss Valentine's Day fell rapidly, Luffy raised his hands, palms facing up.

This made Miss Valentine startled, instead of dodging, she raised her hands up, was she trying to support herself?

Miss Valentine laughed, he weighs 5,000 kilograms now, how could he possibly be able to carry it.

boom!

boom!

Miss Valentine's Day fell, and there was a sudden roar, the ground around Luffy's feet was sunken, gravel was flying, and there was an explosion.

Weiwei was worried, after all, it was to save her. If something happens to save herself, she will blame herself very much.

Weiwei looked at Sauron, who was lying against the wall with his arms folded, and asked, "Aren't you going to help him? Their fruit abilities are too powerful."

Explosive fruit, light and floating fruit, are not bad fruits, but the ones developed by these two are not very good, especially the explosive fruit.

What's more, Luffy and Sauron are super powerful, and it's too easy to deal with this level.

Sauron said calmly, "Don't worry, it's fine."

This made Weiwei a little surprised, so indifferent.

Sauron knew that Luffy wanted to have fun, to be precise, to hone it.

Sauron wanted to go up and play. He wanted to try the ability of Miss Valentine's Day. The dumbbells he held in the past were not too difficult. If it was 10,000 catties, Sauron wanted to try it out, whether he could hold it.

Holding her for exercise should be able to improve strength and muscle. If miss Valentine knew, Sauron at this moment imagined using her as a dumbbell, and would be so mad, it would be too shameful.

The dust dispersed, and Weiwei's eyes widened in disbelief.

Because, a deep pit appeared, but the ground under Luffy's feet was intact.

And, Luffy stood straight, with his arms raised high, just like this, he grabbed Miss Valentine's feet with both hands and held them high.

Weiwei was shocked: "That's 5,000 kilograms, 10,000 kilograms, it's such a powerful force, it's actually lifted."

Holding high the 10,000-jin Miss Valentine, Lu Fei gritted his teeth and persisted. It was indeed difficult, but it was good.

"What..." Miss Valentine was startled, she was not crushed, but held herself up instead.

Why, why is there such a strong force.

Luffy sighed softly: "Not bad gravity, very stressful, but not bad."

This makes Miss Valentine's Day puzzled, isn't it? Why do you say that?

But in the next moment, Luffy's actions made Miss Valentine understand.

Sauron just smiled, while Wei Wei stared blankly.

I saw that Luffy began to squat down slowly, and then got up, and even started to squat on the spot.

The body is straight and straight, but the legs are bent, and the hands are still raised straight, just squatting on the spot like this.

This made Miss Valentine's Day understand why Luffy felt good, it turned out that he used himself to exercise!

Miss Valentine's Day exploded: "What do you think of me!"

It's such a shame.

Lu Fei said harmlessly: "Although I am very strong, but I still want to become stronger, let me exercise for a while."

Miss Valentine watched Luffy grinning at herself and begging, wanting to vomit blood angrily.

"Okay! If you have the ability, you continue! This time I will crush you!"

Miss Valentine's body suddenly felt light and light, which made Luffy feel bored. It was as light as cotton, and there was no pressure, so he couldn't continue to squat.

But, then Luffy became more interested, looking forward to it, and felt that a change had to be made.

"Continue if you have the ability! But I remind you that it is best to think highly of me! If you insult me again, you are really finished! Don't hide if you have the ability!"

Luffy nodded: "Well, I won't hide."

This made Miss Valentine sneer, cursing in her heart: "Idiot."

But, fortunately, this is the best.

The bounty of one billion is much better than myself and Mr. 5, but fortunately my ability is special, if I don't hide, then he will be finished next!

Miss Valentine's Day is very high this time, because I know that Luffy will not hide.

It didn't stop until it was a thousand meters high, and then broke out with all its fruit ability, its own limit.

Luffy looked up, expecting: "Come down quickly."

Miss Valentine's Day aimed at Luffy below, and said in a low voice: "The limit, 10,000 kilograms is the top!"

Chapter 039

Whoosh!

In an instant, Miss Valentine's Day fell like a meteorite.

Weiwei was very worried: "Get out of the way! Ten thousand kilograms, twenty thousand kilograms! It's still falling from a height of a thousand meters!"

Weiwei felt that no matter how powerful Luffy was, it would be impossible for him to handle it.

20,000 jin is enough, it is still falling from a height of 1,000 meters, the acceleration of gravity, this is not just the power of 20,000 jin, it is too terrifying.

Even Sauron was a little worried. If it was him, he would have to dodge, or slash out to finish the opponent, instead of standing still and thinking about continuing to hold it.

In this case, even if there is a huge difference in strength, they will be crushed to death by the 20,000 jin at an altitude of 1,000 meters on Miss Valentine's Day.

Unless, counterattack, otherwise, if you can't bear it, you will be crushed.

Sauron worriedly reminded: "Luffy, hide quickly, or fight back."

If you fight back, with Luffy's strength and explosive power, it can also offset most of the power of the 10,000 kg drop, and nothing will happen.

However, Luffy shook his head.

"Don't worry, I'll try."

Luffy stood where he was, with no intention of dodging, but raised his hands.

This surprised Weiwei and Sauron, do they still want to lift it?

It can be seen that Luffy is full of interest and fighting spirit. He wants to challenge himself and hone himself, but the risk is too great.

Mr5 crawled out from the ruins, just now he saw the horror of Luffy, and even lifted a 10,000-jin miss Valentine's Day.

However, mr5 sneered, and was also grateful in his heart.

"It's a good thing we don't dodge. They are too powerful. We are no match for each other. We are too small. But it's a good thing. Miss Valentine's ability, plus his support. Twenty thousand catties, from a thousand meters in the air Falling is enough to destroy a small town.

Falling objects are very destructive, and a vase falling from a tall building can kill people.

What's more, at 20,000 jin, at a height of one thousand meters, the power is terrifying.

Mr5 felt that the straw hat must be crushed to death.

In this case, such a powerful combat force will be solved by them. Next, they only need to join forces to deal with Sauron, and there is still a chance.

Miss Valentine fell at a high speed, didn't know anything, couldn't see, but knew that straw hats wouldn't hide, that was enough.

Seeing Miss Valentine's Day falling rapidly and getting closer to Luffy, Weiwei and Zoro stared closely, worried.

At this moment, Luffy put his hands in front of his mouth, one left and one right, and blew hard.

Arms, hands suddenly huge.

This made Sauron heave a sigh of relief, while Weiwei was dumbfounded, and she was also a devil fruit capable user.

In an instant, Luffy raised his arms high like giants.

Mr5 is not worried: "If you fight back and counteract part of the power, maybe you will be fine, but you still plan to hold it, even if you expand your body, it will be useless."

Mr5 has learned that Luffy is a rubber fruit, blowing air makes the rubber bulge up, maybe the strength is stronger, but it's useless, it can't hold it.

In the next moment, Miss Valentine's Day fell.

boom!

With an even more deafening roar, all the surrounding houses were blown away, and the air waves made Mr5 blown away.

Sauron flew in front of Weiwei, blocking the impacting air wave, while constantly retreating.

The ground continued to crack, broken rocks flew, and even the entire island trembled, just like a real meteorite falling.

When the dust dispersed, Weiwei and Sauron immediately looked over.

At first glance, I was shocked by the Tiankeng with a diameter of 100 meters.

Seeing this scene, Mr5 sneered.

"It must be over."

With the Tiankeng as the center, densely packed wide cracks spread in all directions, and the longest one is a kilometer long.

He felt that with such destructive power, the Straw Hat must be finished.

"Fight back with all your strength, and you can still blow Miss Valentine's Day away. You are not injured at all, but if you choose to fight hard, it will definitely be over..."

However, Mr5's complexion changed drastically.

I saw Luffy's giant hand raised high, holding Miss Valentine's Day.

"one two three..."

Mr5 was dumbfounded, Weiwei was dumbfounded, even Zoro, who knew Luffy's strength, was shocked.

Because Luffy continued to sit and squat up, clenching his teeth, the muscles all over his body tensed, and his veins bulged.

Obviously it is more laborious than before, but Luffy is happy to do this, it is very challenging.

"It's heavy, but it's better to exercise this way."

"Ten... Eleven... Twelve..."

Luffy gritted his teeth and continued to sit and squat with difficulty.

Miss Valentine was stunned on Valentine's Day, how could it be...still resisted.

"Don't reduce the gravity, that's it, too short a time for no effect."

Luffy finished his sentence and continued to count.

It's a shame to miss Valentine's day, but it's also not possible to reduce gravity, but want to increase gravity.

But there is no way, the limit of her development is 10,000 kilograms.

Chapter 28

"Damn! Gravity strengthens me!"

Miss Valentine really wants to increase the gravity and put Luffy on the ground so that they still have a chance.

Perhaps because of shame, anger, and urgency, Miss Valentine's constant urging of the fruit made her break through the limit of her own ability, and the gravity increased.

This made Luffy's body sink, and after squatting down, it was difficult to straighten up for a short time.

Miss is excited on Valentine's Day: "Hahaha, my ability has improved."

It can be felt that after lifting five thousand catties, it can no longer be raised.

But it is also very strong, twenty-five thousand catties.

"mr5, take the opportunity to attack!"

Miss Valentine's Day yelled, mr5 was about to rush over, and there was a full-body explosion, which was even more powerful.

Luffy said with difficulty: "Zoro, stop him, don't let anyone disturb me."

"it is good."

Sauron rushed over, and mr5's whole body exploded, but was chopped off by Sauron, and the bombardment was also blown away.

Luffy exclaimed: "Very good, this is even better, give it to me!"

Under Miss Valentine's horrified gaze, Lu slowly straightened up again, and continued to sit and squat.

This made Miss Valentine's face ugly, but it didn't remove the fruit ability.

If it's released, they're just playing around, if they don't, it's going to be like this all the time, the Straw Hat is exhausted.

Luffy is naturally happy and can't help it. The longer the time, the better.

He has to hone himself and become stronger.

"Don't lighten up, I think I can hold on for one night." Luffy grinned.

Chapter 040 Isn't it just a Shichibukai?

Luffy kept exercising like this, and Zoro wanted to exercise.

But I know that Luffy relies on ability, and it is impossible for him to bear 25,000 kilograms of gravity.

In this way, it continued all night.

After one night, Luffy was also exhausted, but it was still very effective, exercising like this.

Even, Luffy wants to take miss Valentine's Day as a tool man, and use it as a gravity object to train his body and body every day.

"Okay, this is the end."

Luffy stopped training and lay down on the ground to rest.

"Zoro, I'll leave it to you. I'll sleep for ten minutes."

"it is good."

Sauron directly started to solve miss Valentine's Day and mr5.

While Luffy was resting, Nami went to wake Usopp and Sanji.

Sanji is still having a dream, and he can tell by his expression that he is dreaming of beauties.

"Continue to drink..." Sanji muttered.

"Stop drinking, wake up quickly, there is still something to do!"

Nami looked at the wretched, drooling Sanji with a smile, and just stepped on the face hard.

Sanji was woken up by the pain, angry, and interrupted his sweet dreams, but when he saw that it was Nami, he immediately behaved.

"Let's go, there are important things."

Along the way, Nami told what happened, and Usopp and Sanji were so terrified that they were drunk and fainted.

After arriving, Luffy also woke up.

After only ten minutes of sleep, Luffy was alive and well, which made Weiwei marvel at Luffy's body structure, which is too outrageous.

On the boat before, she saw that Luffy ate a lot of food, his stomach was like a balloon, but he digested it quickly, like a monster.

Weiwei was puzzled: "You guys, why did you save me? You were clearly an enemy before."

Nami began to explain: "It's like this, because your guard..."

Nami finished the matter and said: "That's it, I have to give me one billion rewards."

Weiwei fully understood that it was because of this that she helped.

Looking at the embarrassed Weiwei, Nami said: "I think this business is not bad, and Baroque Studio is also very powerful, right?"

Weiwei shook her head: "I can't agree, although you saved me. But it's not that I don't want to give it, I really want to give it, as long as it can save our kingdom. But, don't you know the kingdom of Alabasta? If it can be saved, I will Promise, I also know that you are capable, but I can't trick you into agreeing to you, but I can't get it out."

Nami was surprised: "It's a kingdom anyway, can't you get a billion?"

Nami thinks it's a little outrageous, can't she be so poor?

Weiwei explained: "It's one of the few countries that can be called civilized and peaceful, but it's in the past."

As soon as these words came out, Nami and the others were curious, what happened, did they fall from a big country?

Weiwei is sad: "Now the kingdom is in civil strife. In the past few years, some people have begun to plan revolutions. People have rioted one after another, and the country has become more and more chaotic. One day, I heard about an organization called Baroque Studio."

Speaking of this, Weiwei's tone became resentful.

"I know that this organization is instigating the people, but if I want to investigate deeper information, I have no clues and can't start. Therefore, I chose to go undercover, so that I can know the people behind the scenes and their purpose. Ikalem is worried about me. , so go undercover with me."

Hearing this, Sauron praised: "You are a very brave princess. So, have you found out who is behind the scenes and what is their purpose?"

Weiwei nodded: "They want to build an ideal country, but they say this is actually a big panic. Their real goal is to seize the Kingdom of Alabasta. I must return to the country to tell everyone the truth and quell the national riots, otherwise If this continues, Alabasta will be doomed."

Weiwei became more and more sad, and at the same time hated her own powerlessness and weakness.

Nami understands that the big country has no money because it is in civil strife.

Sauron was curious: "Then who is behind the scenes?"

Weiwei's face was heavy: "I didn't dare to say the original words, I didn't want to tell you, I was afraid that you would be in danger, but seeing your strength, maybe the bounty is really not exaggerated, so let me tell you."

Hearing this, Sauron and the others had a good impression of Weiwei.

Lu Fei said: "Let's talk about it, as long as it is not a general or a four emperor, we will not be able to destroy us."

"Then I'll say it, he is Crocodile."

Weiwei said the words, watching the reaction of Luffy and others.

"You should have heard it, if you find it difficult, you don't need to help, just leave it to me..."

When it came to the end, Weiwei's words were somewhat lacking in confidence.

How can it be possible to deal with Crocodile and Baroque Studio by yourself.

I really want them to help me, but I don't have enough money, and I don't want them to help me deal with such a powerful enemy.

Luffy nodded: "I know."

Weiwei felt uneasy in her heart, looking forward to it, but not expecting it either.

"If you know, what kind of decision do you make, we can't give you a billion, and you can choose not to help..."

Luffy grinned: "If you can't get a billion, just lower the salary, do what you can, and I will help you."

This made Weiwei startled, and stared blankly at Lu Fei.

"It's okay to lower the salary and the opponent's strength is weak, but it's Crocodile, do you really know? His identity and reputation."

Weiwei asked for confirmation, looking at the indifferent Luffy, she wondered if she really understood.

Lu Fei wrote lightly: "I know, isn't it just a king under Qi Wuhai?"

Weiwei: "??!!"

Chapter 041 Akainu is going to catch the Straw Hats?

Hearing Lu Fei's words, Weiwei was shocked, isn't she just a king under Qiwuhai? This...

Perhaps, it is really not an exaggeration to say this from Luffy, who is offering a bounty of one billion.

Luffy and the others take Vivi on board, ready to go to Alabasta.

The next island, Little Garden.

To get to Alabasta, you need to pass through two islands.

Weiwei also knows a little about sailing, so it happened to let Nami enter the teaching space.

Because there are two islands to pass through, each island has to stop, so that the magnetic force of the record pointer is full, so Luffy and others feel that it may take two months to reach Alabasta.

Weiwei is grateful, Luffy and others help her, then she will do her best for the next voyage.

Nami entered the teaching space and chose the Karp template, as well as the most famous meteorologist template in history.

Luffy is sure that after Nami comes out, she will be stronger than when she was the strongest in the original plot.

The color of knowledge and the color of armament are bound to be proficient, and they will also have the ability they are good at. Using the weather stick, physical skills will not be bad.

Nami also felt that she had to take the opportunity to enter at this time. After all, there were five people on board, and she was too weak. Luffy, Zoro, Sanji, and Usopp were all strong. Although she was a woman, she couldn't hold her back.

Nami entered the teaching space and felt the cruelty of the environment here, but she was also excited. This environment is better.

After that, the voyage begins.

...

Navy Headquarters.

Sengoku contacted Aokiji.

Knowing that Aokiji would take more than two months to find the Straw Hats, Sengoku gave up. Although it took a little longer, it only allowed the Straw Hats to live longer.

Once encountered, faced with generals, no matter how powerful they are, they will definitely be captured.

No matter how outrageous the rookie is, it is impossible to escape from the general.

Garp was slightly relieved when he found out, but his heart was still heavy, and he would encounter it sooner or later.

Fortunately, Aokiji rides a bicycle, which is relatively lazy, and it will be much faster if he drives a warship.

When Akainu found out, he was angry.

"Hmph! Killing evil, Kuzan is so slow, what are you doing?"

In the office, the mouth of the red dog was heaving, thinking that if he went by himself, he would be arrested like a thunderbolt.

Before, I had something to do and was busy, and so was the yellow monkey, so I chose Aokiji.

Chiquan's heart was low: "Straw hats, you are lucky."

Akainu felt that Luffy and the others were lucky. If he had been chosen, the Straw Hats would have been captured earlier and imprisoned in Advance City.

For this kind of new crime, it is still so famous, and it has reached one billion Baileys in a short period of time, which is unprecedented.

Akainu really wanted to kill him quickly with his own hands, so he begged for his life.

"I hope I can deal with the Straw Hat Pirates."

This made Garp, who was sitting on the sofa, look gloomy. If it was Sakaski who went to...then...

Aokiji's words are okay, I took care of him many times when I was young, but Sakaski, with cruel methods, acted resolutely, and treated pirates extremely cold-blooded.

Sakalski moves, then Luffy and the others are really in danger...

Garp glanced at the Warring States Period, feeling uneasy in his heart. If he agreed, it would really be over.

Chapter 29

Even Karp was thinking, if Sakaski really took action, should he make a move.

Although he insisted on his position, he was his own grandson.

My grandson's life is in danger, can I still maintain my position unwaveringly?

When Garp thought of this, he didn't even know it.

Akainu looked at Sengoku, expecting in his heart, waiting for Sengoku's reply.

I think it should be no problem. After all, the Straw Hat Pirates are too popular, and the navy and the world government naturally hope to win them quickly, so as to deter the pirates in the whole world.

It can also reduce some newcomer pirates going to sea.

After all, such a powerful newcomer who became famous all over the world as soon as he went to sea was caught soon. What about the monster newcomer, who was still caught by the navy, enhancing the deterrence of the navy and justice.

Then, those who are quite pirates will naturally decrease and be affected.

Sengoku is a wise general, so he can naturally think of the benefits of taking down the Straw Hat Pirates.

Although he is famous and a newcomer monster, it is also a good thing in disguise, as long as he catches the Straw Hat Pirates.

Sengoku shook his head, which made Akainu frown.

Warring States Road: "No need, Sakaski, I have already sent a general, and it is impossible to send another one. After all, it is a rookie pirate group. Although it is powerful, it is not enough to send two generals, and it is not the Four Emperors ."

Akainu didn't want to give up: "But..."

Warring States interrupted: "Don't think about it, Sakaski, you know, the enemy of justice is not just one, but all evil. There are many powerful pirates in the sea, especially the Four Emperors. The headquarters will go out two General, there are risks."

The Warring States period is conservative. Indeed, it is impossible for all the generals of the Navy headquarters to go out, and it is basically impossible to send out two at a time.

After all, there are still four emperors in the sea, if they take advantage of it, the loss outweighs the gain.

Although there is still him in the headquarters, Garp, but it is not enough.

Kizuru was busy with other things, so it was impossible to let Akainu leave as well.

Sakaski could only nod unwillingly: "Understood."

Sakaski left with a gloomy face: "Kuzan, although you are lazy, you should be fine, don't fail, let me look down on you."

In the office, Garp breathed a sigh of relief, but fortunately, Akainu was not allowed to go.

Otherwise, it's really over.

Maybe the Straw Hat Pirates won't encounter Red Dog and Aokiji at the same time, but they will meet Red Dog first, which is more dangerous than meeting Aokiji.

So Garp felt that maybe there was still hope, and it depended on whether Aokiji would feel nostalgic for the past and feel compassionate.

Chapter 042 Emergency Food

However, what Akainu said, who is lucky?

...

Unknowingly, two months have passed since Nami entered the teaching space.

At this time, Luffy and others are about to leave Magnetic Drum Island, and Nami is also coming out.

Whoosh!

The next moment, Nami appeared in front of Luffy.

The appearance has changed, it is more beautiful, the size is bigger, and the body is more popular. It is no longer short orange hair, but long hair.

The change in appearance is not small, but the change in strength is even greater.

Nami is happy, she knows her current strength best.

Not to mention better than Luffy, Zoro, and Sanji, but it's also pretty good.

The three of Luffy and the others are the three main forces on the ship, so they can't be compared, but now their own strength can at least not hold back, and even play some role.

After Nami came out, she gave Luffy a hug.

After all, it has been two years and Nami misses her so much.

"Nami, your physical skills, arrogance, and ability to use weather are very strong." Luffy asked curiously.

Nami smiled triumphantly: "Of course."

Zoro has a headache, and it will hurt even more when he beats us up in the future.

"what?"

Nami found a little reindeer, looked at Luffy, and wondered, "Did you keep a pet on board?"

"I'm not a pet." Chopper emphasized.

"Ah? Can talk." Nami was taken aback.

Luffy started to explain.

Nami understood, after two months outside, Luffy and the others first went to the small garden, then Drum Island, some things happened, and they got to know Chopper.

And now, Chopper was about to leave, the sixth crew member.

Nami felt very good.

The Merry was moving away from Magnetic Drum Island, and the cherry blossoms were falling.

Chopper looked at Magnetic Drum Island, a little bit reluctant.

"Doctor, Madam Doriel, I'm leaving. My adventure is finally about to begin."

Chopper is looking forward to it, and he also wants to go to sea.

Luffy and the others are happy, drinking and laughing.

Usopp shouted: "Chopper, don't be in a daze, come here and play together."

Sanji brought Choppa over and said, "Let's sing together."

Sauron handed out the wine: "Let's have a drink together."

Chopper was a little uncomfortable, and some couldn't get into it.

Nami said: "You have also become a partner of this group of crazy, stupid guys."

Chopper said to himself: "Companion..."

"Yeah, everyone will be companions in the future, so you must get used to it."

At this time, Weiwei caught the running quickly from the sea and onto the boat.

I ran so fast that I was shivering and frozen. It was snowing all year round on Magnetic Drum Island and its surroundings, and the river was very ice.

Weiwei was puzzled: "Run fast, why did you fall into the sea?"

Sauron sneered: "Haha, probably his feet slipped and he fell into the sea.

What a stupid duck."

After Chopper approached, he heard the running fast quacking, and understood.

Chopper looked at Sauron and explained: "It said that a man named Sauron was swimming in the river, and he disappeared after swimming. He thought something happened to him, so he jumped down, so it became like this."

Sauron: "..."

This made Zoro a little embarrassed. He swam just now, and he didn't know where he was going, and it took him a long time to find it.

Weiwei was surprised: "Chopper, can you understand what Run Kuai said?"

Chopper nodded: "Yes, because I was originally an animal, so I can talk to animals."

Nami's eyes lit up, and she exclaimed, "Chopper, you are amazing. I didn't expect that you are not only proficient in medical skills, but also have such abilities."

Chopper was a little embarrassed by the praise, and he cursed, really looking happy and enjoying it.

"Idiot, even if you praise me like that, I won't be happy."

Sauron and the others were startled: "Chopper is proficient in medical skills?"

Nami was stunned: "Hey, I'm not here during this time, you don't know?"

Then why did you let Chopper on the boat?"

Nami was speechless, she had also communicated with her just now, but

Zoro and the others didn't know how they got along during this time.

Sanji said: "Seven stages of transformation, interesting reindeer."

Luffy said bluntly: "Emergency food."

"Huh?" Chopper was startled.

Nami punched Sanji and Luffy directly, with a bump on the head.

"You guys are really speechless. Chopper is a ship's doctor. I know better than you when I first came out."

Sanji and Zoro also understood, that's great, as there is no ship doctor on board.

Nami is looking forward to it now: "Luffy has a bounty of one billion, Sauron has a bounty of 350 million, and Sanji's bounty will come out sooner or later. It's not low, and there is Usopp. I don't know if my bounty will be there." how much."

Lu Fei said: "If you make a big fuss, there will be."

Nami also thought so, and nodded: "Well, let's go to Alabasta to make a big fuss, to be precise, make a big fuss with Baroque Studio."

Nami's words made Usopp and Sanji want to make a big fuss as soon as possible, and then they can also be rewarded.

What Usopp yearns for, he will also have a reward, and he is getting closer and closer to the brave fighters at sea.

Sanji is looking forward to uploading his handsome photos, and being seen by beauties all over the world, knowing his existence, name, ability, chef, gentleman, handsome, how perfect he is.

In this way, there will be no worries of no woman liking her in the future.

Thinking of this, Sanji's eyes glowed with jealousy, and he couldn't wait:

"I'm going to Alabasta soon. When the time comes, the king will attack the Qiwuhai. Let me solve it. I want to see my reward list as soon as possible."

Luffy sighed secretly: "Sanji, the greater the expectation, the greater the disappointment."

Sanji naturally didn't know what his reward list would look like, and Luffy knew it, and he felt a little sympathetic to Sanji.

Of course, Luffy sympathized with that person more.

Luffy said: "Okay, Alabasta, Sanji, I'll leave it to you."

This surprised Vivi. Facing the Baroque studio, all the staff did not do anything, but only Sanji?

Will it be too big?

But, thinking of Luffy's words, isn't he Qi Wukai? Maybe it's self-confidence.

Both Luffy and Zoro want to see Sanji's current strength more clearly, so when the time comes, let Sanji solve it first.

Chapter 043 Destroy the Baroque studio alone?

Weiwei stepped forward and said, "Are you dealing with Crocodile alone, or are you dealing with the entire Baroque studio alone?"

Sauron said: "He deals with Crocodile alone, and the rest of the Baroque studio, leave it to me."

Vivi understands, but Sanji thinks it's okay to fight one-on-one.

"It's okay to single out the entire Baroque studio, I can do it."

Sanji wanted to pretend to be in front of Weiwei, and glanced at Zoro.

"I don't need your help."

Nami reminded: "Even if you are very strong, but at least you are Shichibukai, you can beat him alone, but there are so many capable people in his studio, you single them out, plus Crocodile, It will be very difficult, just do as Sauron said."

Sanji nodded immediately: "Okay, Miss Nami."

Weiwei introduced: "Then let me tell you about the members of the Baroque studio, so that you two can deal with them when the time comes."

"It's like this. Although the name is complicated and varied, it's actually not complicated..."

"The one on top is the boss, Crocodile, also known as mr0."

Chapter 30

"There are twelve people and one animal who directly follow Crocodile.

They are mr1 to mr13."

"These guys are each paired with a female partner."

"Mr1 and miss are combined on New Year's Day, and Mr2 is the only one who doesn't have a partner. Mr3 is the candle man I met in the small garden, and his partner is miss Golden Week."

"The combination of mr4 and miss Christmas, and mr5 and miss Valentine's Day, you all know it, and it was solved by you."

"Mr1 to 5 are all high-level agents, and all of them are devil fruit capable. They will only be dispatched for important missions."

"Mr6 to 13 are ordinary employees, and their strength is not very strong.

So Sauron, your opponents are mainly seven."

After listening to it, Sauron thought it was very simple.

Although there are a lot of people, these combined are not Crocodile's opponents, so it will be very easy.

After listening to it, Sanji felt that he could try to destroy the Baroque studio by himself.

"In this case, it's not very powerful, let me try it alone?" Sanji suggested.

Weiwei shook her head and reminded: "You two should do it when the time comes, because the strength of that mr1 is very strong, he has followed Crocodile for a long time, and he has the ability to cut fruit, and his swordsmanship is not weak."

Sauron was slightly interested: "Then don't let me down."

After learning about it, Luffy and others went fishing.

Moreover, Chopper disappeared temporarily, apparently entering the teaching space.

The template Luffy asked Chopper to choose was the Garp template and the Kaido template.

Teacher Kai, there is still a lot to learn.

After Chopper knew the teaching space, he was very willing to enter and wanted to become stronger.

Although I am a doctor, it is best to help in battle, and it is best to keep my companions from getting hurt.

Hearing that the Garp template can teach physical skills well, the Kaido template can teach domineering, and fruit awakening, Chopper is looking forward to it.

However, thinking of two years, Chopper is reluctant, but in order to become stronger, two years of practice are necessary.

Chopper started to practice in the teaching space.

Luffy and the others are looking forward to what changes will happen after Chopper comes out.

Even Luffy is looking forward to what will happen.

Luffy can't think of it. Sanji and Zoro can still imagine some, but with Chopper's words, Luffy is curious about how far they will reach.

I was also wondering if I could wake up after I came out.

After all, there is a Kaido template.

After sailing for seven days, the distance from Alabasta was getting closer and closer.

The ingredients prepared by Magnetic Drum Island have also been eaten, and Luffy, Zoro, and Usopp are fishing.

Lu Fei touched his belly: "I'm so hungry, the fish hasn't taken the bait yet."

Usopp had a headache: "Luffy, it's because you ate all the bait that you can't catch it now."

"very hungry."

Luffy rubbed his stomach and cooed.

Everyone else is also very hungry, let alone Luffy.

Luffy asked: "Sanji, are there any ingredients on the boat?"

Sanji nodded: "Yes, get the ingredients quickly."

Luffy looked at the boat, and soon his eyes stayed on the running body.

Running fast, he immediately became uneasy. Being stared at by Luffy, he became even more uneasy, trembling, thinking to himself, wouldn't it be to eat himself?

Luffy pointed to run fast, and asked Weiwei: "Well, can you stew it?"

For a moment, he ran so fast that he jumped into the sea in fright.

Weiwei stroked her forehead and said, "Definitely not."

"Okay, there is a way."

Luffy's eyes lit up, watching the one who jumped into the sea run fast.

If you run fast and are afraid, don't you let yourself go?

Luffy stretched his hand suddenly, quickly grabbed it and quickly pulled him up.

Running fast is scared and struggling.

Weiwei worried: "Luffy, what are you going to do."

Luffy will run fast and tie it to the bait, and then put it in the sea.

Vivi: "..."

Weiwei was speechless and seemed to understand.

Usopp's eyes lit up, that's fine.

Usopp understood: "This method is good, I hope it will fall to the shark."

Luffy didn't think it was enough: "Catch a Sea King, that's enough."

Hearing this, I ran quickly and cursed in my heart, Neptunes are scary.

Luffy comforted: "Run fast, don't worry, I won't let you have an accident."

Weiwei also comforted: "Run fast, you can act as a bait, trust in Luffy's strength."

After running fast, he calmed down and soaked in the sea.

The method was very successful, and soon, a shark fell, and Sanji was left to do it.

Not enough, keep going.

Soon, a ten-meter-long Neptune with the body of a giraffe appeared.

"Usopp, I leave it to you."

"it is good!"

"Must kill, flame ball!"

boom!

There was a loud explosion, and the flames shot into the sky, and the sea kings let out a miserable scream, lying on their backs and floating on the surface of the sea.

Luffy praised: "Usopp, amazing."

"Hee hee, two years of cultivation is not for nothing."

In this way, the ingredients were enough, and Luffy began to wait.

At this time, Weiwei's face changed and she looked forward: "What is that?"

Chapter 044

On the surface of the sea ahead, green steam surged.

Weiwei felt that she couldn't get close, and now she was acting as a navigator.

Weiwei asked the Merry to stop first, while thinking about it, she understood.

"I see. It's water vapor. There are volcanoes on the bottom of the sea. You can move forward, but it will be a little hotter."

The Merry went on, into the steam, really hot and choking, smelling of sulphur, and couldn't see anything.

Weiwei said: "Everyone bear with it, we will pass through soon."

Just then, another ship also entered.

There were three people on the boat, the leader sat in the middle, he looked like a shemale, with a pair of white swan wings behind him, he was clearly Mr2, Feng Klei.

The subordinates reported: "Lord Feng Klei, there is smoke ahead."

"It's okay, rush over to me."

"Lord Feng Klei, isn't there any danger?"

"Mr3 must be eliminated, otherwise my life will be in danger, move forward."

"yes."

...

When the boat sailed in, it was their screams.

After passing through, the two were shocked to find that Feng Kelei had disappeared.

"Huh? Where's Master Feng Klei?"

"Quickly look for it on the boat."

...

At this time, the Merry passed through the steam, and Luffy and Usopp were about to finish the shot and pull up the running speed, but it felt a little heavier.

However, when he looked down halfway, Usopp was taken aback, but Luffy was not surprised.

There is a person running fast, it is Feng Kelei.

Feng Klei was a little confused: "Why am I holding a duck and floating in the air?"

Usopp was stunned: "Is he human? I thought it was a small strange goose."

Luffy said: "Obviously it's a human, not a goose, let alone eat it."

Feng Klei let go and fell, feeling weak all over, calling for help.

"Help...help me...I'm a landlubber, Gululu..."

Feng Clay sank and was quickly rescued by Usopp.

Feng Klei coughed continuously, he was relieved, and was saved.

"Phew, I thought I was going to die, but I was rescued by a pirate I had never met before. I will never forget your great kindness in my life. I, Feng Kelei, will repay my kindness, and I am very loyal."

Usopp asked, "Can't you swim?"

Feng Kelei said bluntly: "I am a devil fruit capable person."

Usopp understood, just like Luffy.

Soon, Luffy, Usopp, Chopper, and Funkley played together.

Soon, Feng Klei's ship came.

Feng Kelei walked to the bow, jumped on it, and turned his back to Luffy and the others, feeling a little regretful.

"My ship is here, and it's time to part, what a pity."

Although we didn't know each other for a long time, but it was fun, Usopp was a little bit reluctant.

"Don't go, play for a while."

Feng Klei looks like a shemale, but at this moment he is very manly, standing upright.

"Don't be sad, there will always be encounters and partings during the journey, but as long as this is not forgotten, our friendship. Even if we spend a short time together, we are still friends, goodbye."

Feng Kelei jumped onto the boat and said to his subordinates, "Let's go."

"Yes, mr2 Feng Klei-sama!"

The ship sails away at a very high speed, with rapidly spinning turbines on the bottom of the ship.

Usopp and the others froze, mr2?

Usopp and the others looked at Weiwei: "Didn't you recognize it just now?"

Weiwei shook her head: "No, I've never seen him before. I only knew he was a tall ballerina, but I didn't expect it to be him."
