Chapter 31

Usopp's face was heavy; "Such ability is terrifying. After all, it is to make Alabasta turbulent, and can turn into any appearance, such as your father..."

Weiwei's face was heavy. Thinking of this, then this ability is indeed terrifying.

...

After getting on the boat, Feng Kelei danced the ballet with one leg, very happy.

The subordinates were puzzled: "Master Feng Kelei, why did you suddenly become so happy?"

Feng Klei was happy: "Because I have gained a little friendship."

Feng Klei looked forward to seeing each other again, and if any of them encountered difficulties in the future, he would definitely help them.

...

Soon the Merry was approaching Alabasta, and the desert could already be seen.

Luffy and others tied a white bandage on their left hand, knowing Feng Kelei's identity, so as to prevent the other party from becoming an undercover agent.

Luffy and the others stood in a circle, stretched out their left arm, looked at the white bandage on the wrist of the left arm, and said in a concentrated voice:

"The one on the left arm is the sign of the companion, so let's land."

Luffy and others went ashore, and Luffy couldn't wait to run up first.

However, it quickly got lost.

Luffy is naturally intentional, and he is looking forward to it in his heart, because he is about to meet Ace.

Weiwei, Sanji, Zoro and the others are together, and Luffy is also relieved that everyone is very strong.

When Sanji came to the town, he liked it very much. Because it was very hot, women wore very little clothes, showing their navels, and basically only had a bellyband on their upper body.

Sanji had a lot of nosebleeds along the way, but he couldn't help but want to see it.

Weiwei reminded: "You look like this, how will you deal with Crocodile in the future? Don't look at it. If you continue to bleed, you won't faint."

Usopp said: "It's okay, Sanji won't let himself faint."

"Ok."

...

At this time, Crocodile already knew that the Straw Hats were going to help Weiwei deal with him.

Crocodile naturally knows about the Straw Hat Pirates, and even more about Luffy.

"A bounty of one billion Baileys."

Even so, Crocodile will not be afraid, even if he meets Whitebeard, he will fight against him, so what if a reward of one billion is offered.

Taking a sip of the cigar and puffing out the smoke, Crocodile said in a deep voice, "Come on, I'll take the head of a billion."

As he spoke, he raised the golden hook on his left hand with a sneer on his face.

Chapter 045: Luffy Meets Ace

At this time, in the town of Alabasta, there is a restaurant.

Ace is eating here, with more than twenty bowls stacked aside.

Came here to ask if anyone has seen Luffy, but no.

After eating and drinking, Ace prepares to leave.

But at this moment Smoker walked in.

Smoker noticed Ace, and said in a deep voice: "You are really brave, dare to eat in front of the public, the captain of the second team of the Whitebeard Pirates, Portgas D Ace."

When the shop owner and the people eating around heard it, their faces changed drastically.

"White... Whitebeard Pirates."

No one has never heard of it, but it is the Four Emperors, and is known as the strongest Four Emperors. The captain is a self-improving man in the world, and it can be said to be the strongest pirate group.

"That young man turned out to be the captain of the second team of the Whitebeard Pirates."

"So young, but so powerful."

"I'm familiar with the logo on his back, the logo of the Whitebeard Pirates."

"Why is he here?"

...

Everyone was surprised and puzzled.

Smoker was also puzzled: "What does the famous big pirate want to do when he comes to this country?"

Ace turned and said bluntly, "I'm looking for someone, my brother."

"I want to eat!"

At this moment, Smoker and Ace were taken aback.

Everyone was startled, because the shout came from outside, it was so loud that it seemed to resound through the whole town.

Luffy came to the town, smelled the aroma of food, and ran quickly.

After seeing the restaurant, my eyes lit up, I ran at full speed, my saliva couldn't stop, and I could have a big meal.

Too hungry, too thirsty to eat meat and drink juice.

Although it sounded familiar, Smoker didn't care about it. Since the opposite party was a pirate or the Whitebeard Pirates, he had to do it himself.

Smoker clenched his fist with his right hand, filled with smoke, ready to strike.

"Rubber...Rocket!"

Luffy couldn't wait, stretched his hands and grabbed the sides of the dining room door from a distance of 100 meters, and then ejected in an instant.

With a whoosh, it bounced into the restaurant and hit Smoker directly on the back, and Ace, who was facing Smoker, was also hit.

With a bang, a hole was smashed into the wall of the restaurant.

The people around were staring at their pockets, and Luffy jumped back to the bar, impatient.

"I finally found the restaurant, I can finally eat, I'm starving, hurry up."

Knowing that the other party is not easy to mess with, the shop owner signaled the waiter who served the food to bring the food here.

Looking at the seafood ramen, big fish and big meat, Luffy ate it like crazy.

"Really tasty."

The store owner was dumbfounded, and it was even more edible than the one just now.

The store owner kindly reminded: "Well, you'd better run away quickly."

"Ah? Why?" Luffy didn't realize it yet.

"The two people who were pushed up by you just now are not easy to mess with."

"Huh?" Luffy was taken aback.

A hundred meters away, many houses have a hole pierced.

At the end, among the ruins, Ace and Smoke climbed out.

"Which * is it?"

Ace and Smoker didn't do it directly, but walked straight to the restaurant along the holes.

After entering, Ace was pleasantly surprised: "Lu... Luffy!"

Smoker was taken aback, Straw Hat.

Seeing Ace, Luffy's eyes lit up, and he rushed straight up.

"Ace! Long time no see, I miss you so much."

Ace is also very happy, it's been a long time.

Smoker's face is ugly, Fire Fist Ace, Straw Hat Luffy, this...

I can't be the opponent, he has fought with the straw hat, the gap is too big.

Luffy and Ace shook hands, put them on the bar, and wrestled wrists.

The two are at a stalemate, and Ace is shocked, because he is about to die, and it is very laborious.

And look at Luffy, very calm.

With a bang, Ace's hand was crushed to the table, and he lost.

Ace admired: "I haven't seen you for more than three years, Luffy, your improvement is really great. The bounty does not seem to be exaggerated, it is really amazing."

Ace was surprised. He knew that Luffy was stronger than before, but he didn't expect it to be so powerful. He was very curious about how Luffy had cultivated in the past three years.

Ace sighed softly: "Luffy, it seems that you are better than me."

Luffy said modestly: "Maybe strong in strength, but Ace, you can't tell for sure after eating the Shao Shao fruit."

Ace smiled: "My bounty is only 500 million Baileys."

Lu Fei smiled: "You don't necessarily have to look at the reward."

Smoker watched the two brothers recognize each other and talk, not knowing what to do.

Come on, you can't beat it, don't go on, as a navy, it's a shame for justice.

"Do you think I don't exist?" Smoker was a little annoyed.

Ace remembered: "Yeah, there is still a problem."

Luffy looked over: "It's you, smoker."

"Although it is not your opponent, you must do it."

Smoker was wrapped in smoke, ready to strike.

Luffy started directly: "It won't be embarrassing if I just hit you into the air."

Luffy raised his right hand, it was dark for an instant, and he punched out quickly.

With a bang, Smoker couldn't dodge, the gap in strength was huge, and he was directly blasted out.

Smoker also thought so, although it was a bit shameful, but he couldn't beat him.

Moreover, he was thinking of contacting Aokiji.

After being blown away, Smoker stood up from the ruins a thousand meters away and called the marines over.

"Spread eyeliner and watch their whereabouts."

"yes."

Smoker called the phone bug and contacted Aokiji.

Aokiji, who is riding a bicycle leisurely on the sea, enjoys it.

Pororo...

The phone rang and Aokiji connected.

"General Kuzan, it's me, Smoker."

"It's you, what's the matter?"

"Marshal Warring States asked me to look for the traces of the Straw Hats. Now that I have met them, they have come to Alabasta. Now the Straw Hats are not far from me. Where are you?"

Aokiji said embarrassedly: "Well, sorry, are you in Alabasta? If I want to get there, it will take three days."

This made Smoker's face a little ugly, and it will take three days, but it's okay, the Straw Hats have just arrived in Alabasta, and it is impossible to leave within three days.

"Alright then, General Kuzan, I'll keep an eye on the Straw Hats and wait for your arrival in three days."

"it is good."

...

Chapter 32

After hanging up the phone, Smoker was a little entangled, and looked in the direction of the restaurant with pity.

"As soon as General Kuzan arrives, you will be finished, Fire Fist Ace, Straw Hat Luffy, mourning for you."

Chapter 046

Luffy is going to find his companions and walk with Ace.

Ace sighed: "You still haven't changed at all, there is only one thing that surprises me, your strength."

Ace didn't expect that Luffy could become so strong. Although the details are not clear, he may not be inferior to himself.

Remembering when he was a child, among the three brothers, Luffy was the weakest, Ace couldn't help laughing.

It's just a touch of sadness deep in the eyes, it would be great if he was beside her now.

But Ace knew that was impossible.

Luffy felt a touch of sadness deep in Ace's eyes, and knew that he missed Sabo.

Luffy wants to say that if there is a chance, the three brothers can get together again.

But of course we can't say that. First of all, if we want to really get together again, we have to rewrite the ending of Dingshan.

Ace was curious: "By the way, what kind of people are your partners?"

Luffy is very proud: "My partners, there are five now. Although there are not many, they are all very powerful."

Luffy introduced: "There are swordsmen who want to become the world's greatest swordsman, and there are navigators who like money and oranges and want to draw a complete world map. Then there are chefs who are good at cooking, and they are also very strong. .There is also a good sniper who always tells some lies, but I think they will all come true. Also, there is a partner I just found recently, which is a reindeer."

After listening, Ace smiled and said, "Your hobbies are really rich and varied."

Luffy said: "There is also a princess and a duck, who are also partners, and everyone is very interesting."

Walking in the alley, suddenly, front and back, and on the roof, many people stood up.

It can be said that there are people in all directions around, some with knives, some with guns, all of them are vicious, obviously they have killed many people.

"Two guys with a high bounty, 500 million Fire Fist Ace and 1 billion Straw Hat Luffy."

"We're going to make a lot of money."

"Although powerful, we are all bounty hunters. With so many people, there is hope."

"With so many guns aimed at them, no matter how powerful they are, they will die."

...

Luffy is helpless, there is always no shortage of head givers in this world, the key is still being too ignorant.

Ace glanced at Luffy and asked, "Luffy, are you coming or me?"

Lu Fei said lightly: "I'll do it."

Luffy didn't make any movements, just raised his head abruptly, his eyes froze, and his arrogance leaked from the side.

In an instant, domineering arrogance swept away.

In an instant, Ace was shocked and his face changed: "This..."

bang bang bang bang...

Soon, the surrounding bounty hunters fainted and fell to the ground one after another. Even those with a little strength fainted.

Ace wasn't shocked by Luffy's domineering aura, but that he was so strong that even those with a little strength fainted.

Ace has seen red hair before, and he has also seen the domineering look of red hair. At that time, he felt that he was indeed the most domineering man in the world.

Overlord color domineering is also the world's number one, causing substantial damage.

Although Luffy is still unable to achieve the actual damage of domineering domineering, but Ace thinks it is possible.

Ace exclaimed: "What a strong domineering color..."

If it were me, it would be impossible to stun all these people with the domineering look.

Looking at the surprised Ace, Luffy smiled: "Let's go."

Luffy walked forward, and Ace calmed down and followed quickly.

In front of him is his familiar younger brother, but he is a little strange, and the strangeness in strength makes him a little confused.

But Ace is happy in his heart, this is better, after all, this world is still very dangerous, it's just the beginning, and he hasn't encountered very powerful enemies yet.

Ace thought to himself, "This way I'm more at ease."

Later, Luffy and Ace came to the place where the Merry was docked, and Sauron and the others were there.

After getting on the boat, Luffy said: "Ace, these are what I just told you, my partner."

Ace said friendly: "My brother has been taken care of by you, please take care of him in the future."

The Merry sailed away, but behind, came five large ships, each with hundreds of people.

Weiwei's face changed: "It's the ship of the billionaire elders of the Baroque studio."

Ace jumped onto his boat and said, "Leave it to me."

Zoro looked forward to it: "Let us see the strength of the captain of the second team of the Whitebeard Pirates."

Flames burst out from under Ace's feet, and the one-sail boat moved forward quickly, approaching the five large ships.

Whoosh!

After approaching, Ace jumped up.

The people on board sneered.

"Jump into the air, court death."

"See how you hide, fire!"

"Shoot! Full fire!"

Boom boom boom...

whoosh whoosh...

Suddenly, there was a hail of bullets, and dense black shells bombarded Ace.

However, Ace was on fire all over his body, and the bullets and shells had no effect.

Ace's fist was on fire, and the flames surged and blasted out violently.

"fire punch!"

boom!

"what!"

Huge flaming fists swept out, smashing all five connected ships. The bombardment continued, and the flames filled the air.

In the next moment, everyone was buried in the sea, leaving only some burning wreckage floating on the sea, filled with gunpowder smoke.

Usopp was shocked: "It's amazing..."

Chopper's eyes lit up: "As expected of Luffy's brother."

Soon, Ace came back, and Sanji went to prepare food and wine.

After it was done, Lu Fei and others ate, drank and talked together.

Ace praised: "Luffy, your cooking skills are really good."

Lu Fei giggled: "It's not an exaggeration to be the first."

Ace didn't think it was an exaggeration, he thought it was really amazing.

Although the number of people was small, everyone was top-notch.

To become the world's number one swordsman, have the potential to be the world's number one chef, have the potential to be the world's number one navigator, have the potential to be the world's number one sniper, and have the potential to be the world's number one doctor.

And Luffy wants to become the Pirate King.

Such a pirate group is really good.

Luffy wanted Ace to join, but he knew it was impossible, so he wouldn't say it.

Luffy asked: "Ace, are you here to find me?"

Ace shook his head: "It's a chance encounter, I'm actually hunting a man."

This lets Luffy know who it is.

Sauron and the others were curious that the man that Fire Fist Ace was chasing must be unusual, so they listened quietly.

Ace's eyes were cold: "His name is Blackbeard."

Chapter 047 Straw Hats Crushing the Baroque Studio

Luffy will not persuade Ace not to catch Blackbeard, knowing that persuasion is useless.

Ace left two days later.

Luffy knows that next time we meet, we will be on top.

Luffy and the others went directly to the Baroque Studio, they were so powerful that they could break through directly.

When it was almost time, Crocodile had already led his men out.

Sanji and Zoro stepped forward, ready to fight.

This made Crocodile frowned slightly: "Aren't you coming together?"

Sanji breathed out the smoke: "No need."

This makes Crocodile furious, which is an absolute disgrace, belittled.

"Then solve you first, and then solve the others."

Sauron rushed to the other cadres, but mr1 blocked Sauron.

Sauron was slightly interested because he knew that this was the strongest under Crocodile.

"Don't let me down." Sauron's fighting spirit rose.

Knowing that the opponent is the existence with a bounty of 350 million, mr1 didn't dare to be careless, and directly used the fruit ability.

Both arms turned into knives, and rushed up quickly.

Sauron took out the words of He Daoyi, facing mr1's quick slash, he easily and continuously blocked.

After parrying ten moves, it was roughly clear, and Zoro felt bored.

"that's all?"

With a flick of the knife in Sauron's hand, mr1 was directly knocked out.

This made mr1 vibrate: "What a strong force."

This knife almost made him fall to the ground, and his body was almost out of control.

"Don't underestimate me."

Mr1 uses all his strength to slash the fruit, and he becomes as hard as steel.

"Behead!"

Mr1's whole body is instantly invulnerable, and when he uses slash, his hardness will increase again.

Sauron slashed with the knife, feeling a little bit okay.

"That's barely okay."

Mr1's heart was shaken, because Sauron was just swinging a knife normally, and his sword skills were useless.

And he could be said to have gone all out, but the blades kept colliding, and his arms were still numb from the shock.

Moreover, Sauron was like a ferocious beast, hitting harder and harder, gradually unable to hold on.

Sauron planned to make a quick decision. Although this guy has some strength, the gap with him is still too big.

"Next, I will solve you with one move."

Sauron retracted He Dao Yiwen into the scabbard, held the scabbard in his left hand, and held the scabbard in his right hand, prostrated his body forward, and assumed the posture of drawing the scabbard.

This made mr1 dare not be careless, knowing that the other party wanted a quick fight, which was a bit shameful.

"Although you are very powerful, if you want to solve me with one move, don't talk stupid!"

mr1 defended with all his strength, and the self who cut the fruit, his body hardness surpassed that of steel, it was impossible to solve himself with one move.

Sauron's eyes were cold, he suddenly drew his knife, and a deep voice sounded.

"One sword, black sword, death, lion singing!"

The words He Daoyi suddenly turned into a black knife, and the moment the knife was drawn, Sauron had already swept behind mr1.

The knife was slowly retracted into the scabbard, and the moment it was fully retracted, mr1 let out a scream.

"what!"

While screaming, a large amount of blood was splashed on the chest, mr1 rolled his eyes, bleeding from the corner of his mouth, and fell to the ground, the ground was soon stained red with blood.

This startled Crocodile, and he made a move in seconds.

The other cadres were shocked, mr1 was much stronger than them, but Sauron gave him a second.

In fact, it can be faster, but at the beginning Sauron just slashed normally.

Weiwei was shocked: "It's amazing."

Other cadres swarmed up, and Sauron lost much interest.

"The most powerful thing is this, you make me feel uninterested."

"Black rope, big tornado!"

call!

After one move, all other cadres were rolled up, screamed, and fell to the ground.

Zoro retracted his knife, walked back to the team, passed Sanji and said,

"Let's solve it as soon as possible."

Sanji said: "Don't worry, I won't be slower than you."

Pooh!

In an instant, Sanji's right leg ignited an orange flame and jumped up.

"Devil Wind Kick, kick!"

Crocodile wants to elementalize, but finds that he can actually hurt himself, so he is armed with domineering.

In an instant, Sanji kicked out densely flaming feet all over Crocodile.

Crocodile's face was heavy and pained.

Luffy is waiting, the current opponent is really not interested, even Crocodile.

"Desert Sword!"

The sand-condensed knife slashed out, but Sanji easily dodged it.

Sanji stepped on the air and moved quickly.

Crocodile shook: "It's so fast."

Whoosh!

Sanji kicked down, Crocodile shouted.

"Desert Great Sword!"

Crocodile clapped his hands to the ground, his arms turned into sand blades, and instantly he slashed up from the ground below Sanji like a big sword.

This move is very fast.

Luffy remembers that when he was on the top of the mountain, Red Dog was cut in half by Crocodile's move, of course, no harm was done.

Sanji doesn't have a devil fruit, nor is it a natural system, but he still escapes with his own speed.

The knowledgeable domineering is also superb. Sanji's strength is higher than that of Crocodile, and it is impossible to avoid it.

boom!

The roar erupted, and Crocodile was kicked out, bleeding from the corner of his mouth.

Vivi's eyes were shining brightly, and Sanji clearly had the upper hand.

Recalling what Luffy said before, isn't it just a king under the Qiwuhai, it is really not an exaggeration.

Crocodile's face was ugly, the Straw Hats, it wasn't the captain Luffy who did it himself, it's too shameful.

"Sha Lan!"

"Let's all be crushed."

Hoo hoo...

The sand storm emerged in the palm of the hand, and when it was shot, it was huge in an instant, and as it roared, it became bigger and bigger.

Crocodile was about to leave, because he couldn't control it because it continued.

Sanji charged directly at the storm, and the demon wind kicked it out.

"Devil Wind Foot, Veal SHOT"

This kick was so powerful that it directly kicked the storm away.

This surprised Crocodile, so strong.

Chapter 048 Tragic Sanji

Crocodile's face was ugly, how could he be so strong.

Sanji breathed out the smoke: "In this battle, I must defeat you quickly, so that my reputation will resound throughout the world, and more beauties will know me."

Sanji was thinking about whether to use the Demon God's Wind Foot, but after thinking about it, forget it, he doesn't need it.

Although this Crocodile is Qiwuhai, it is not considered powerful in Qiwukai.

Sanji rushed forward again, unleashing a ferocious kick.

Crocodile fought with all his heart, and his face was extremely ugly. He never expected that he would be so strenuous to deal with a cook from the Straw Hats.

To be precise, it is not an opponent!

This guy is so strong, so how strong is the straw hat?

Crocodile only knew that there were two powerful ones in the Straw Hats, Luffy and Sauron, but he didn't expect there to be such a powerful one.

Sauron returned to the line and began to wait.

Weiwei is very happy. Facing the Straw Hats, Baroque Studio is not an opponent at all.

Crocodile's face was heavy, and he fought again for a quarter of an hour, but it was still difficult to defeat Sanji.

Moreover, his injuries are getting worse.

Can't beat Sanji, let alone Luffy, or even Zoro.

Crocodile gave up, knowing that he had lost, turned into a storm and swept away mr1.

But then, met Smoker.

Smoker has been paying attention to the traces of the Straw Hats. When he came here, he also learned about the battle between the Straw Hats and the Baroque Studio.

Therefore, following the fine traditions of the navy, Crocodile will naturally not let go of leaks.

Smoker said in a deep voice: "Be obedient and be captured by me, send to the city of advancement, or do you do it?"

Crocodile said coldly, "Stop talking nonsense."

The battle unfolds.

Even though Smog is weaker than Crocodile, he still has other troops, and mr1 is seriously injured, so Crocodile's situation is not optimistic.

Fighting lasted for a while, and Crocodile was captured.

Soon, Naval Headquarters, Sengoku knew about it.

The Warring States period shook, and the Straw Hats had another powerful guy.

Started to find out the identity, the Warring States period has already set a reward, and the portrait has been selected.

But after knowing his identity, he had no choice but to change the portrait into a hand-painted one. If he could find any reason, the bounty should not be too high.

Warring States decided: "Let's set the bounty at 200 million Pele."

"yes!"

Defeated Crocodile, no high nor low reward.

Karp frowned: "Defeated Crocodile, and judging from the intelligence, it is not difficult, just 200 million?"

Zhan Guo nodded: "Well, there are other factors, so I won't talk about it."

Sanji's bounty list has started to be made.

Meanwhile, the Palace of Alabasta, in celebration, held a banquet.

For the Straw Hats, Weiwei and the people in Alabasta are extremely grateful.

Knowing Crocodile's conspiracy, they are all lucky to meet the Straw Hats, and lucky that the princess can know such a friend.

While Weiwei was grateful, she was also a little bit reluctant and sad.

Because I know that they will leave soon, after the magnetic force is full.

Soon, the news that the Straw Hats easily defeated the king Shichibukai Crocodile spread, and it was discussed in many places in the world.

"The Straw Hat Pirates are really famous recently."

"Yeah, the most eye-catching rookie pirate group."

"It's really amazing. It's not Straw Hat Luffy or Pirate Hunter Zoro who defeated Crocodile, but another one."

"The Straw Hat Pirates are not many in number, but they are all powerful."

"The reward list is out."

"Ah, is this the black-footed Sanji? He looks so ugly."

"Yeah, it's so ugly."

"It's the ugliest person I've ever seen, vomit."

...

At this time, Sanji was very happy, knowing that his reward list must come out.

At the same time as the banquet, Sanji fantasized about happiness.

"When my reward list comes out, I will definitely fascinate a large number of girls. It's great. I'm excited when I think about it. I'm so happy."

Sanji's eyes were full of love, and he was very happy.

Just then, a soldier came in with a reward list.

Chapter 34

"Adults, your reward list has been released again. Other things remain unchanged. For the first time selected Sanji-sama, the reward has come out."

Sanji was excited and rushed up immediately, impatiently.

He doesn't care how much the bounty is, the most important thing is how the selected portrait is.

"Let me see which handsome photo of me was chosen."

"this..."

The soldier was a little embarrassed. At first, he thought it was not, but when he saw the name, Pirates, he knew it was again.

"That... don't hold out too much hope..."

This makes Sanji puzzled, what does it mean.

After taking the reward list and looking at it, Sanji suddenly petrified.

Sanji Blackfoot, the chef of the Straw Hat Pirates, defeats Crocodile. Due to the failure to obtain the photo, the head portrait of the reward list is hand-painted, and the reward is 200 million Baileys.

Sanji turned into petrification, and his color became dim.

"Sanji, what's wrong with you?"

Usopp was puzzled.

Sanji's whole body trembled and exploded with anger.

"Who is it! Who drew it! This is me!"

Sanji was furious. He felt that this painter's skills were too bad. Could it be that he just learned it? How did it draw so badly.

Sanji wanted to cry but had no tears. At first he thought that everyone knew how handsome he was, but now everyone knows that the chef of the Straw Hat Pirates is an ugly guy.

This made Sanji collapse. What he was looking forward to the most was to spread his handsome photos all over the world so that more women could see them, but it was like this.

Usopp took a closer look and fully understood.

"This is too outrageous."

"It's Sanji, but it's not. If it's not, it's somewhat similar, but it's ugly."

...

Sauron took a closer look, smiled, and was curious: "Why do you emphasize the capture alive?"

Sanji calmed himself down, and maybe he understood why the painting didn't look like himself, and the failure to obtain the photo must be fake.

"Hey." Sanji was very helpless, as long as he came from an ordinary family.

Chapter 049

After a period of time in Alabasta, Luffy and others left.

After saying goodbye to Vivi, the Merry continued to sail, but there was one more person on board, and that was Robin.

Nami and the others were unexpectedly puzzled.

"Luffy... really want to..."

Lu Fei turned his head and smiled, "It's okay, she's not a bad person."

Nami and the others are helpless, well, Luffy is such hasty, but he has never made a wrong decision.

Unknowingly, it has been two months since Chopper entered the teaching space.

During this time, I got to know Robin well.

After Chopper came out, he was very happy because his strength had improved so much.

Teaching the space environment has a multiplier effect. Although it is very painful, it is also very effective.

There is also a teaching template, which is completely teaching, which is too strong.

Chopper's own physical skills, as well as knowledge and knowledge, and the mastery of armed domineering, have made great progress in the development of fruits.

Luffy asked: "Chopper, how is it?"

Chopper was excited: "Luffy, the template you recommended to me is really good. Teacher Kai is very good at teaching fruit development."

This let Luffy know that it seems that Chopper has changed and improved a lot.

The crew members were also very happy. In this way, the combat effectiveness of the Straw Hats has been improved again.

Now Luffy, Sauron, Sanji, Usopp, Nami, and Chopper have all entered the teaching space.

Robin is the only one on board who hasn't entered yet.

After Chopper met Robin, he knew that they were new partners.

Nami asked: "Robin, do you want to enter the teaching space for two months?"

Robin shook his head: "Now, forget it first, there are important things to do."

Luffy also understands, indeed, because he is about to go to Sky Island.

After leaving Alabasta, he passed through the island of goats, Luluja

Island, and now, he is with the big talker, the descendant of Nolandu, Kulikat.

I have already told Luffy and others about the rising sea current, but it is very dangerous, and the failed ship will be smashed if it falls.

"Hurry up and catch this guide bird. Tomorrow, the current from bottom to top is going to be on the man's side of the cape here. Do you know how to get there? Once you go out to sea, you don't know where to go. ."

Usopp and others listened to what Curricate said, and they were still a little puzzled, why did they find the guide bird?

As a navigator, Nami understood.

"I understand. This time the target is not an island, but an ocean current, so it is useless to record the pointer. If you want to head south, you have to use the habit of the guide bird."

Curricate nodded: "Yes, some creatures in nature have the correct magnets in their bodies, and they can clearly know where they are."

Luffy laughed: "Hahaha, so Sauron is not as good as an animal."

Sauron was very helpless: "Are you still qualified to talk about me?"

Nami said: "Stop arguing, both of you, it's not the same."

Usopp and the others understood why they had to find the guide bird on the map. To go to the sky island, you have to succeed in rising currents, and finding the currents is a must, so you must find the guide bird.

Luffy and others set off to find the island forest.

Curricate reminded: "Before dawn, at least one must be found, otherwise the next upwelling current will not know when it will be."

"Got it, we will definitely find it." Luffy said firmly.

It must be found, and the sky island must go up.

Robin wants to go up the most, which is why he doesn't enter the teaching space to improve his strength.

After so many years of hard work, Robin is most aware of the importance of strength. If he is strong enough, he does not need to join the Baroque studio. It would be great if he could do it by himself.

But I know it's impossible, so if I can become stronger, I won't miss it.
but not now.

Not long after Luffy and the others left, a pirate ship approached. It was the Bellamy Pirates.

After entering the forest, Luffy also knew what would happen afterwards, after all, he knew the plot.

Therefore, it is natural to go back.

Luffy found an excuse to go back, knowing that maybe the battle had already begun.

Curricate looked at Bellamy and the others, and asked in a deep voice, "What do you want to do?"

It can be seen that the other party is not kind.

Bellamy smiled obscenely: "Hey, I like to * the treasures that others have worked so hard for. It will be very interesting. So, do you understand what I'm here for?"

This made Curricate's face sink, and he wanted to grab his golden guide bird.

The members of the Bellamy Pirates attacked directly, but they were quickly knocked down by Kuri Kate.

Bellamy didn't panic at all, instead she smiled arrogantly, with a well-thought-out plan.

"Spring Sniper!"

Bellamy squatted down, and her legs immediately pulsated in circles like springs.

Under the elastic force, it shot out suddenly, the speed was too fast for Curricate to react.

The spring is not only fast, but also strong. Speed plus strength makes it even stronger.

He punched Kurikat hard in the abdomen, and was blown away, vomited blood, and fell to the ground with serious injuries.

Bellamy sneered: "Too weak."

Bellamy signaled his subordinates to act, and when he entered the room, he saw the golden bird on the table, his eyes lit up.

"The bird of gold is indeed right."

"Hahaha, it's ours."

"It's been a long time since I harvested such a treasure."

...

After taking it out, Bellamy was also happy when she saw it, and she was in a good mood.

"Okay, little ones, let's get on the boat and go back to Magic Valley Town."

"You guys, you don't need to go back."

Suddenly, a cold sound sounded, which made Bellamy startled.

Following the prestige, he found a figure wearing a straw hat floating above their big boat.

"Third gear, giant pistol!"

Under the horrified gazes of Bellamy and the others, the hands of the figure above the boat suddenly became huge, and they struck down like a giant's fist.

Boom!

Click!

In the roar, their ship collapsed directly and sank into the sea.

Bellamy was angry, her face was extremely ugly, and she recognized it:

"Straw hat, Luffy."

Chapter 050

Bellamy's face was ugly, and the veins on her face squirmed in anger, and her boat just disappeared.

"Damn...straw hat."

Bellamy's face was gloomy and she gritted her teeth.

Luffy landed, looked at the golden bird in Bellamy's hand, and said in a deep voice, "Give back uncle's things."

Bellamy laughed, sarcastically: "You, a pirate, how could you say such a thing?"

Bellamy's legs were like springs again, fighting spirit rose.

"Let me see your strength, how to reach one billion."

Bellamy was ready to go, looking at Luffy, without any intention of doing anything.

"Why, don't you use your ability quickly? For example, the third gear just now. I heard that you still have the second gear that can increase the speed. Hurry up and enter this state."

Bellamy didn't rush straight up, but wanted Luffy to better get into a stronger form.

Luffy shook his head: "I don't need the fruit ability to deal with you with a billion dollars."

This made Bellamy's face darken in an instant, and he gritted his teeth angrily again, for underestimating himself!

Chapter 35

"Then... let me solve it, Straw Hat with a reward of one billion!"

"Spring Sniper!"

Whoosh!

Bellamy rushed over quickly, and was gone in a flash, the wind howling.

The strength of the spring is strong, and the speed is even stronger. I feel that I can knock Luffy down with one punch.

Seeing Luffy not moving, Bellamy smiled: "Can't hide, a billion is nothing more than that."

However, without touching the substance, Bellamy slammed into a distant tree.

Looking back, Luffy was clearly still where he was.

No, not right.

Bellamy's pupils shrank, she didn't stay where she was, but moved a little bit, maybe she just turned sideways and escaped.

Lu Fei said lightly: "It's so slow."

This made Bellamy's anger rise, and she said angrily, "Stop talking like that! My performance has just begun, let's go to the climax now! You'd better keep belittling me like this, you will pay a heavy price!"

"Spring...jump people!"

Suddenly, Bellamy bounced out, but the target was not Luffy, but bounced around quickly.

With the help of any surrounding buildings, houses, rocks, and trees, it keeps bouncing, and afterimages are all over Luffy in all directions.

With the bounce, the speed gets faster and faster.

Even Curricate couldn't catch Bellamy's figure anymore, as if she had disappeared.

Kuri Kate was shocked and worried: "The speed is so fast, as it keeps bouncing, it gets faster and faster, and it's even hard to see clearly, as if it disappeared. Luffy, you can deal with it."

Bellamy keeps bouncing around, laughing while Luffy moves quickly around.

"Are you friends with Kuri Kate and the others? People like this also have friends. Could it be that you also believe their words? Hahaha... What a ridiculous kind. It's really stupid to regard the nonsense of our ancestors four hundred years ago as a treasure. Go home big fool. Go to your golden country, go to your empty island, the days of daydreaming are long past."

...

Bellamy's crew laughed and looked at Luffy sympathetically.

"It's really stupid to believe that."

"Bellamy's speed has reached the limit, and she's about to attack."

"It's about to fall in the next second. He doesn't know which direction he's going to attack from. Even if he knows, he can't react."

"Yeah, it's too fast, and the power will be the strongest."

Bellamy ejected for a while, with speed and strength reaching the extreme, and suddenly shot at Luffy from the front.

In his opinion, Luffy couldn't see it at all, let alone react.

Bellamy got closer and closer to Luffy, and said in a low voice, "Goodbye, Straw Hat!"

However, in an instant, Luffy's fist raised and smashed down heavily.

boom!

"what!"

With a scream, Bellamy's forward body suddenly hit the ground, creating a deep hole.

Luffy hit Bellamy on the head with a punch, and blasted directly into the ground, rolled his eyes, vomited blood, and a lot of teeth were shattered.

In an instant, the surroundings were quiet.

There was no sound of bouncing, no sound of discussion, and everyone stood there dumbfounded.

Luffy picked up the golden bird and handed it to Kurikat.

Kuri Kate was shocked, really useless ability, defeated Bellamy with one punch, it was too strong.

"run!"

The others had no intention of saving Bellamy and ran away directly, the difference in strength was too great.

However, it was easily resolved by Luffy.

Soon, Nami and others came back and found the guide bird.

Robin is looking forward to it, and he can go to Sky Island tomorrow.

Luffy is also looking forward to it a little bit. For a long time, the only powerful enemy he has encountered is Hawkeye.

Now my own strength, such as Crocodile and Smoker, is far behind my own.

Bellamy's kind can't compare with himself.

Therefore, Sky Island Luffy is slightly looking forward to it. After all, there is Enil, the extremely powerful devil fruit in the natural system, even in the entire devil fruit, it is an extremely powerful existence.

In the original plot, although he defeated Enilo even in the second gear, the protagonist halo.

So this time, let's have a real fight with Enilo and experience the real power of the thunder fruit.

The next day, early morning.

Luffy and others boarded the boat, and the guide bird was released.

Immediately, the Merry began sailing.

Luffy secretly said: "Sky Island, I'm here."

051 Fire Fist! pistol!

Kuri Kate waved on the shore: "Little brother, let's say goodbye here."

Luffy nodded heavily: "Well, we will see you again."

Kuri Kate said: "There is one thing, you must understand. No one has ever proved the existence of the Golden Bell and Sky Island in the past. Maybe some people will laugh at me and say that this is made up, but there is nothing wrong with it. That's the romance of a man."

Luffy nodded, agreeing.

The Merry sailed away, and Curricate showed gratitude.

"Thank you for helping me get the golden bird back. I hope you are all right, but don't fall from the sky."

Not long after the Merry sailed, the sea ahead was covered with overcast clouds.

But, it's just that part of the sky full of clouds.

Nami said in a condensed voice: "The cumulus cloud appeared earlier than we expected, but we haven't determined the position of the current from the bottom to the top. I hope we can catch up."

Soon, the Meili approached the huge vortex and was about to fall into the vortex.

Whoosh!

The boat lost weight and fell instantly.

Usopp despaired: "It's over, I'm going to fall."

puff...

However, just as he fell, he landed on the surface of the sea.

This made everyone startled, very surprised.

"The vortex, disappeared?"

"The boat is on the sea."

"The vortex was so big just now, it was bottomless, and it suddenly disappeared? I thought I was going to fall in and die."

Gudong... Gudong...

Nami heard the movement and realized.

"Everyone get ready, it may be about to start, the upwelling current is coming!"

This made Usopp and the others nervous, and the impact must have been great, after all, they could rush to the empty island with the boat.

At this time, Kuri Kate was sitting on the island, looking at the sea, smoking a cigarette. The cigarette butts beside him piled up into mountains.

Kuri Kate said to herself: "It's the first time in my life that I have encountered idiots like you, idiots chasing dreams."

Although Kuri Kate said this, she smiled and believed that Luffy and the others could succeed.

I also believe that the words of the ancestors are true, not empty.

If you can't see it yourself, let Luffy and the others verify it.

Curry Kate believes that Luffy and the others can do it and will do it.

At this time, the waters near the Meili.

A simple sailboat made of many logs sailed, with four people on it.

The pirate flag is three skulls, obviously, it is the Blackbeard Pirates.

The four above are Blackbeard, Badgers, Van Oka, and Poison Q.

"How about it, did you see anything?" Blackbeard asked Badgers who was observing with a telescope.

Badgers shook his head: "No, I didn't even see the shadow on the other side. Is there really an empty island? Are they really going?"

Blackbeard said in a deep voice: "We can't let them go to heaven, otherwise it will be troublesome, and it will be difficult to complete our task."

Blackbeard's face was sullen: "Straw hat kid Luffy, a wanted criminal with a bounty of one billion."

Badgers put down the binoculars and looked into the distance, a little unbelievable.

"The sky ahead has darkened. The swirl-like dark clouds look very depressing."

Blackbeard showed excitement: "It's right there, move forward quickly, and solve it before they leave!"

...

At this time, the sea where the Meili was located was calm.

But everyone's face was solemn, knowing that it was the calm before the storm, and the rising current was coming soon.

thump, thump, thump...

The movement is getting louder and louder, coming from the bottom of the sea.

Luffy and the others know that it will erupt sooner.

"Stop! Don't go!"

A deep voice came from afar.

Luffy followed the prestige, and the first thing he noticed was the pirate flag, which directly made Luffy's face darken, knowing who it was.

On the boat, Zoro, Sanji, Usopp, Nami, Chopper, and Robin all looked over.

Pirate flag, the three people on board, they have never seen.

Badgers and Poison Q paddled quickly on both sides of the front of the boat, and there were two men standing at the front of the boat, Van Oka with a black beard and a gun.

Blackbeard's eyes lit up, he found it, and let out a unique laugh.

"Thief hahahaha... finally found you, straw hat kid Luffy!"

Sanji was puzzled: "Who is this?"

Luffy said: "He is the guy Ace wants to catch."

In an instant, Sanji and others knew about Blackbeard.

Chapter 36

To this black beard, Sanji and the others were also very hostile and disgusted. They knew from Ace that he was a traitor and killed the captain of the fourth division.

Blackbeard said in a low voice, "Straw hat boy, I'm here to take a billion heads of you, wake up! Thief hahahaha..."

After the boat approached, they stopped rowing, and Blackbeard, Van Oka, and Badgers were all ready to do it.

At the same time, below the Merry, the sea water surged like a huge fountain.

Nami said in a condensed voice: "The upwelling current is about to start, and they are going to attack us. What should we do? We can't let them affect us at this critical moment."

Sanji and the others are heavy, indeed, now is the critical moment, it is about to start.

It's okay that the opponent is a small character, but let Ace hunt him down personally, the strength is obviously extraordinary, perhaps even stronger than Crocodile.

In a short time, it may not be solved. The four members of the Blackbeard Pirates should also be very powerful.

Find a place to single out, the Straw Hats are not afraid, but now they are a little worried about accidents.

boom! boom! boom! !

Suddenly, loud and low footsteps sounded.

Nami, Zoro and others all looked over, it was Luffy.

Luffy kept silent, walked towards the bow with a gloomy face.

The head was lowered and the straw hat covered it, so that Zoro and the others couldn't see Luffy's expression clearly at this time, but they could feel that Luffy was in a bad mood.

I've never seen Luffy look so gloomy, even angry, like this moment.

Luffy said: "It's okay, they leave it to me to solve it quickly."

Whoosh!

In an instant, Luffy jumped up and rushed to the sky.

Luffy in the sky, with black clouds above his head, and the white-bearded pirate ship below.

The four with black beards looked up, they didn't care at first, they were ready to fight, but the smiles on their faces froze in the next moment.

And Nami, Zoro, Sanji, Usopp, Chopper, and Robin all changed their expressions in astonishment and were shocked by it.

Luffy's expression was low and angry, and his right hand suddenly extended and rushed up to the sky.

"Rubber rubber..."

Pooh!

Suddenly, the extended arm and fist pointing to the sky became pitch black, covered with domineering armed colors, and suddenly flames rose! In an instant, the dark sky was illuminated by fire!

Between heaven and earth, it is no longer dark, it is full of fiery red!

In the next moment, on the Blackbeard pirate ship, Blackbeard, Fan Oka, Badgers, and Poison Q all changed their expressions! Eyes widened, pupils constricted, frightened, uneasy!

Luffy growled:

"Fire Fist! Gun!!"

Chapter 052

Lu Fei punched down, and the faces of Blackbeard and others changed drastically.

It seemed that what fell was not a fist, but a flaming sun.

boom!

The Blackbeard pirate ship had no time to dodge, and Blackbeard and the others had no time to fight back, so they could only defend.

Amid the roar, the Blackbeard pirate ship collapsed directly, accompanied by the screams of the four Blackbeards.

rumbling...

The bombing sounded, and the flames filled the air.

Luffy landed and stood on the bow of the Merry, and the rising current raised the Merry to a higher altitude.

Luffy looked down at the wreckage of the ship floating on the sea, as well as the scorched body, rolled eyes, bleeding from the corner of the mouth, painful black beard, and the other three.

Luffy's aura at this time is like an emperor.

"I don't have time to spend with you, so let's do this first."

Chopper, Usopp's eyes burst into starlight, and he couldn't help cheering.

"So handsome."

"That's cool, Luffy."

...

Zoro, Sanji and the others were also shocked, this punch was too strong.

Moreover, the visual impact is too great.

After the surprise, they were surprised.

Nami was surprised: "Luffy, why did your punch just now have flames?"

This is what surprised and puzzled all of them. It is obviously a rubber fruit, why did the attack just now have flames?

Luffy didn't say that he was actually a phantom beast, the sun god.

Luffy explained: "Friction and fire."

This made Nami and the others understand that there was only this reason, friction with the air caused a fire, otherwise how could the rubber automatically burst into flames.

Usopp admired: "However, it's so handsome."

Chopper exclaimed: "It's so powerful, they sank to the bottom of the sea with one punch, life and death are unknown."

The rising current rushed up, and the Merry rushed high into the sky.

Luffy looked at the sea below and said: "They shouldn't die, that would be too weak. This time we are in a hurry, the next time we face them, it will be a real battle between the pirates."

Zoro, Sanji and the others also knew that they would not just be wiped out like this, that would be too inferior, and they are not qualified to be their enemies.

Where the Blackbeard pirate ship was silent, steam was rising from the sea.

On the bottom of the sea, Badgers vomited blood and his whole body was scalding, but he was still awake.

Badgers' face changed, and he held his breath and quickly searched for the figure of Blackbeard.

Soon, I found out, and saw the black beard who kept sinking and rolled his eyes weakly.

Badgers swam over quickly, and after approaching, he held Blackbeard and swam to the sea.

Fan Oka was in pain all over his body, but he persisted and dragged the poisonous Q to the surface.

With a puff, Badgers emerged from the sea, and put Blackbeard on his stomach on a floating charred log.

Fan Oka and Poison Q also found a piece of wood and lay on it, floating.

Fan Oka looked at the pillar of sea water rising into the sky, connecting the sky and the earth, and it was difficult to see the shadow of the Straw Hat Pirate Ship.

Fan Oka felt lingering fear, thankfully.

"So strong..."

I didn't expect the straw hat to be so strong. Although it is a billion, I feel that the strength is definitely not a billion.

Now that he has seen it, he is lucky. Fortunately, the Straw Hat Pirates have something to do, so they left on the current. Otherwise, in a real battle, they might be wiped out by the group.

"Captain, captain, are you all right?"

Badgers shook Blackbeard, knowing that Blackbeard was the most seriously injured. After all, the dark fruit ability bears double the pain of ordinary people.

Moreover, Badgers discovered that the punch that the Straw Hat had just aimed at was precisely aimed at Blackbeard.

Therefore, Blackbeard was the most seriously injured, and as a capable user, he sank into the sea, and now he fainted.

With the shaking, Blackbeard gradually became sober.

The moment he woke up, Blackbeard screamed in pain.

"Hiss...it hurts..."

After waking up and remembering what happened just now, Black Beard grinned: "Damn... Straw Hat Boy..."

Heibeard's whole body was scorched black, in great pain, cold sweat broke out on his face, his eyes were angry and cold.

Badgers rejoiced: "Huh... It's a good thing they went up, otherwise it would be dangerous."

"Hmph." Blackbeard snorted coldly, "Not necessarily."

He said so, but Blackbeard was shocked.

Badgers thinks maybe not necessarily, the ship knows how to hide.

Blackbeard was surprised, he didn't expect the Straw Hat to be so strong.

The move just now shocked them, not to mention the power, what shocked them was the momentum of the straw hat, and the most important thing was the flame.

It's obviously a rubber fruit, why did he hit the Fire Fist, I don't know why I thought it was Fire Fist Ace.

However, this fire fist is faster and stronger.

Blackbeard's face was ugly: "What kind of monster is this straw hat? Why can the rubber fruit burst into flames? This punch hurt me so much, and the boat was destroyed."

Heibeard couldn't hold back his face, he wanted to take down the straw hats, but he was caught in a second.

Badgers was also puzzled: "Yeah, it's so good, it's a rubber fruit, not the burning fruit that Fire Fist Ace had."

Fan Oka guessed: "Maybe it was caused by friction with the atmosphere, that's the only way to explain it."

Blackbeard felt the same way, and it could only be like this.

Blackbeard looked up and frowned: "I underestimated you, Straw Hat, your strength is stronger than I imagined. It's really hard to say that I want to take you down now. But sooner or later, I will solve you. I'm also the one who wants to be the Pirate King."

In the end, Blackbeard was full of ambition, and even couldn't wait. He had thought about it a long time ago and just waited.

Obviously, coveting the Zhenzhen fruit, and the double fruit himself, it will be easy to destroy the Straw Hat Group.

Blackbeard ordered: "Leave here and go back to Magic Valley Town to recuperate. Poison Q, are you okay, I have to wait for you to heal me."

Although Poison Q looked terminally ill, he was fine.

"It's okay, you can treat it immediately after you go back."

"Okay, we have to change our target." Blackbeard's eyes turned cold.

Now he doesn't dare to provoke the straw hat anymore, he is very strong.

Fan Oka was curious: "I don't know if that punch just now is one of the strongest moves for him."

Blackbeard is also curious about the real strength of the straw hat, but he will know sooner or later.

Moreover, Blackbeard is confident that no matter how strong he is, he will definitely not be his opponent in the future, and he will be the final winner.

Chapter 053 Embarrassed

At this time, the Meili continued to go up by the upwelling current.

Nami's face was heavy: "The boat may break away from the current and be thrown out."

Hearing this, Sauron's expressions changed in shock.

Chapter 37

If it fell from such a height, the ship would be crushed.

Crash!

In the next moment, a worse scene happened, and many shipwrecks fell from the sky.

Usopp's face changed greatly: "It was the ship that crashed and was damaged before, was washed up by the current, and now it fell down again."

Chopper worried: "Don't hit us, it's too dangerous."

However, wreckage is plentiful and impossible not to come across.

"give it to me."

Sauron stepped forward and reassured everyone when he said this.

What Sauron meant by saying this was that it was enough to leave it to him alone.

"One knife style, three hundred and sixty trouble winds!"

Zoro launched a chopping wave and shattered all the large wooden boards that fell down.

Sanji is heavy: "However, even if it is not hit, it will be thrown out. It has gradually become less suitable for the rising current."

Nami is thinking of a way, this is what she should do as a navigator, she must find a way, and can't continue.

Otherwise, the ship will definitely crash, and at such a height, there is no doubt that you will die.

Nami immediately said: "Yang Fan immediately! This is the sea, not an ordinary water column, but a sea current soaring into the sky. And the wind blowing up from below is the updraft generated by the geothermal heat and steam explosion on the seabed. Since the object is the wind and the sea, I have a way of sailing."

Everyone believed in Nami, after all, she was the navigator on this ship.

Luffy praised: "Nami, that's amazing, then let's quickly follow Nami's arrangement."

Nami makes arrangements according to the wind, current, etc.

"Now the starboard is receiving the wind. Immediately turn the rudder to the left and try to make the hull match the current."

"OK!"

Under Nami's arrangement, the Meili kept going upwards without falling out of the current.

Nami pointed to the dark clouds not far above, expecting: "Passing through that cloud, we should be almost to Sky Island."

This has everyone looking forward to it, especially Robin.

Whoosh!

The Meili quickly passed through the clouds, and the next moment, it stopped rising.

On board, everyone had a little difficulty breathing.

Luffy looked around and saw nothing but whiteness.

Except for Robin, everyone else is fine, after all, they have practiced in the teaching space.

Robin's face was sweating, and he had difficulty breathing. It can be said that he had altitude sickness.

Nami looked around, puzzled and surprised: "On the cloud, it didn't fall."

Nami glanced at the recording pointer and said: "This is not an empty island, the pointer is still pointing up, it seems that it will go up."

Robin got used to it for a few minutes, got better, and said, "It seems that this is just the middle of the cumulus cloud."

Chopper looked around, puzzled: "Then how to get up?"

Without upwelling currents, others are indeed puzzled.

Usopp wanted to jump in and swim, he couldn't wait.

"This is the sea of clouds, I want to go down and try."

Usopp is about to jump, and Chopper is envious. He is a capable person and cannot swim.

However, Luffy stopped Usopp.

"Don't act recklessly, if you fall, even though it's a sea of clouds, it's not without bottom, right? If you reach the bottom, you're about to fall."

These words made Usopp stunned, it was possible, that would be miserable.

Usopp was a little surprised: "Luffy, I thought you wanted to be with me, but you are a capable person, I didn't expect you to dissuade me."

Originally thought that Luffy would not stop him, but envied him instead, but he didn't expect to stop him so rationally.

Lu Fei smiled: "I'm not stupid."

At this time, an old man wearing silver armor and a white beard flew quickly on a bird.

Nami reminded: "Someone is coming."

The old man landed on the boat and said gently, "I have no hostility towards you. Let me introduce myself. I am Sky Knight, Ganfur."

Luffy and the others didn't do it directly, let alone Luffy.

Ganfur was surprised: "Except for her, you won't feel that your body is not working hard. It's really amazing."

Usopp smiled: "Because we have all received special training, we have adapted to this environment."

Ganfur asked, "Are you from the blue ocean?"

Nami was puzzled: "Blue sea people?"

"Blue Sea People is our common name for people under the cloud, so you are from Blue Sea, right?"

Luffy nodded: "Yes."

"Okay, let me introduce myself in detail. My profession is a mercenary.

This is a dangerous sea of clouds. Either I will be targeted by guerrillas, or I will be eaten by powerful fish in this sea of clouds. So, only five million Igrams, I can guarantee your safety."

After Ganfur finished speaking, Luffy hadn't responded yet, suddenly, the sea of clouds was constantly thumping.

"Roar!"

Suddenly, the Meili was in all directions, and many huge fish creatures sprang out from the sea of clouds.

Not so much, they are more like Neptunes, some are like zebras, some are like giraffes, and some are like dinosaurs, but they have the body or tail of a fish.

Ganfur's face changed in surprise, it was the first time he met so many creatures in the sea of clouds, and they all looked so powerful.

Counting, there are eight in total, spread in all directions, the shortest is ten meters, and the tallest is forty meters tall.

Ganfur's face was heavy. If it were him, he would probably...

Not directly making a move, on the one hand, it is very dangerous, on the other hand, the other party did not agree.

"Ho Ho!"

The eight sea kings screamed, opening their mouths wide open, ready to devour them.

Ganfur suggested: "How about, do you need to hire me to protect? But the price has to be raised, it needs to be raised to..."

However, the next moment, Ganfur was stunned.

Lu Fei's eyes were serious, and the red light in his eyes flashed away, and the domineering look broke out, and the domineering stared at the surrounding sea kings.

"roll!"

In an instant, the eight huge sea kings froze instantly, with cold sweat on their faces, trembling pupils, and trembling all over.

After a few plops, they all fled into the sea of clouds and disappeared without a trace.

Luffy looked at the sluggish Ganfort and asked, "Go on."

Ganfort: "..."

Chapter 054 Asking for Help, Dealing with God

Ganfur was very embarrassed, so strong, he didn't need his protection at all.

Ganfur shook his head again and again: "No... nothing more to say, you don't need my protection at all."

Even Ganfur wanted to seek help from Luffy and others.

One thing, Ganfur was puzzled, he didn't even know what Ike he was talking about.

Ganfur asked: "Didn't you come from the air? Then you should pass through two islands, so you don't know what Ik I'm talking about."

It was Nami's turn to be puzzled: "From your tone, it seems that there are other ways to get to the sky island? There will be two islands on the way. Is there more than one sky island? There are other islands?"

Ganfur was shocked and understood: "You don't know anything, it seems that it came up in that way, rising sea current?"

Nami nodded, "Yes."

Ganfur became more and more shocked, admiring: "It turned out to be like this, and it succeeded. What a brave fighter, really amazing. The last time I came up like this was 24 years ago."

Ganfort directly knelt on one knee, which surprised everyone.

"You are?" Nami was puzzled.

Ganfur looked serious and asked: "I hope you can help me, I am willing to pay 10 billion Igrams! As long as you are willing to help me, help me deal with that guy, and return peace to the island."

Hearing 10 billion, Nami's eyes lit up.

Although I don't know what Ike is, I can imagine that it is the currency of Sky Island.

Nami's eyes lit up: "Although I don't know Ike very well, ten billion sounds like a lot."

Sauron is helpless, Nami is like this, reminded: "Don't rush to agree, first understand the situation clearly."

Nami also understood that if the one who helped him deal with a good person, no amount of money would be allowed.

When I was in Alabasta, I knew that Crocodile was going to mess up a country. When I first came here, I naturally had to understand.

Luffy felt that he wanted to help, but he also had to act like he didn't understand.

Gamfor sat down, his face heavy, and he began to tell.

"What I want you to help me deal with is the current ruler of Sky Island.

He has a cruel personality. He is in charge of Sky Island, which is disastrous for everyone in Sky Island."

"He was born in Bika, an empty island, and after destroying his hometown Bika, he defeated the * Gan Fuer of the original empty island, that is, me, and the guards of the gods under him. The famous bodyguard ruled the sky island for 6 years, claiming to be a god."

Hearing this, everyone except Luffy was shocked.

"god?"

"Well... claiming to be a god, and I don't think it's an exaggeration at all.

He has this strength, his ability, it's too terrifying, it's really as terrifying as a god."

Speaking of this, Ganfur's eyes were full of fear and heavy.

Facing Enilo, he was vulnerable, too powerful and terrifying.

Ganfur said: "I don't need you to agree immediately, I can understand, you need to understand, it is impossible to listen to my one-sided words and choose to help."

Nami said in a deep voice: "If what you said is true, then this * is indeed cruel and even destroyed his own hometown. However, we have to understand it before making a decision. In addition, since he claims to be a god, he is very powerful."

Although I know that Luffy and the others are very strong, they are very strong now, but facing the word of God, can they win?

Nami felt that maybe the enemy this time was not comparable to Crocodile.

Chopper was also curious: "How strong would you be if you call yourself a god?"

In the world below, no one dares to call himself a god.

Sauron said: "Either it is very powerful, or it is the arrogance of a frog in a well."

Ganfur shook his head, and said seriously: "It's not the arrogance of a frog in a well, it's really scary, he's an ability user, a nature type, a thunder fruit, he can control thunder and lightning, it's scary."

This shocked Zoro, Sanji and the others, the natural department, or thunder and lightning.

It is conceivable that it is indeed not simple, the power of thunder and lightning is very powerful.

This thunderous fruit is probably among the best in the natural system.

Nami asked: "So, tell me, how much is this 10 billion Ike equivalent to? Is it the currency of our blue ocean people, equivalent to 10 billion Bailey?"

Thinking of this, Nami's eyes were starry, she was very excited, ten billion Baileys, I dare not even dream about it.

Ten billion Baileys is definitely a dream for Nami, who is obsessed with money.

Ganfur shook his head: "I have also learned about the currency of the blue ocean, there are not so many. Ten thousand Ike is equivalent to one Bailey. So ten billion Ike is equivalent to ten million Bailey."

Nami: "..."

Chapter 38

Nami just withered, lost interest.

The others were also taken aback. Ten billion Ike sounds like a lot, but it's so little.

Nami was speechless: "It's only 10 million Baileys. What we need to deal with is a * who doesn't know how powerful it is. Forget it."

Ganfur was taken aback: "Is it too little?"

"Of course less." Nami said helplessly.

Ganfur said seriously: "I will do my best to prepare more money, even if everyone in Sky Island donates, if it is one billion Baileys, is it okay?"

Nami still thinks it's a little small. Back in Crocodile, she wanted a billion, but now this * seems to be more powerful than Crocodile.

However, one billion is not a lot.

Nami nodded: "Okay, let's get together first, let's get to know this place first."

"Okay, then I will be your tour guide for free, but unfortunately my bird can't take all of you up, so you still have to go through the gate of heaven. But it doesn't matter, I will pay for you to go in."

After a pause, Ganfur struggled and said: "That is, before that, can you let me try your strength? After all, God is too powerful. Although you are powerful, if you can really deal with it, I will seek help. If No, I can't bother you."

Ganfort put on an attacking posture, obviously wanting to test his strength, and, wanting to test the strongest on board, his eyes locked on the captain, Luffy.

Luffy nodded: "Okay, just go ahead and attack."

"it is good!"

Chapter 055: A Group of Monsters

Ganfort went all out and rushed forward suddenly, extremely fast.

The cone-shaped weapon in his hand rotates rapidly, and with the speed boost, this blow is very powerful.

"Be careful!"

Ganfur reminded him all his life, he rushed to him in an instant, and stabbed out with all his strength.

At the same time, unexpectedly, Luffy didn't dodge.

It's not surprising that he didn't dodge, maybe he didn't need it, but he didn't mean to fight back? There is no defense either.

But, maybe because he thought too much, he would definitely not be so weak, so he didn't have to worry about it.

Just when the weapon was about to stab Luffy, Luffy moved, raised his right hand, but raised his middle finger, covering the jet-black armed domineering.

With a ding, Ganfur's figure stopped abruptly, and the air wave swept away, and Lu Fei remained motionless.

From the strong air waves that swept away, it can be known that Ganfur's blow is not weak.

Ganfor was stunned, blocked, still with a finger.

Even, there was no trace left on Luffy's finger, and he didn't even need to shake it.

No matter how hard I tried, I couldn't shake Luffy's fingers.

This made Ganfur realize that the gap was too big.

The one who made him so aware of the huge gap was Enilo.

Ganfur is excited, great, such strength, maybe it is really possible.

Moreover, there are other people who seem to be very powerful and can really save Sky Island.

Ganfur couldn't wait: "I'll take you up, but unfortunately my bird can only take two at most."

Usopp was stunned: "Bring two? Is it very reluctant to bring you?"

Ganfur explained: "Although it is a bird, it eats the horse horse fruit and can become a pegasus."

The bird transformed in an instant, its claws stretched and turned into horseshoes, and its body also changed, but without its wings, it soon became a pegasus.

But it's different from imagination, it's too ugly, it's still a bird's head.

Luffy looked up and said, "Then leave the boat here and go directly up."

"Go straight up?"

This made Ganfur stunned, how to go up? fly up?

But obviously, it can't fly.

Ganfur asked: "Could it be, is there anyone who has the ability to fly?"

Luffy shook his head: "No, but you can step on the air, that is, moon steps."

Sanji breathed out the smoke: "Okay."

In terms of Yuebo, Chopper, Sanji, Zoro, Nami will know it, Luffy will do it, but Usopp will not.

Nami glanced at the sky: "If you are not very tall, you can, otherwise your physical strength and feet will not be able to support you."

Although you can use moon steps, there is a limit, otherwise you don't need to come up by boat.

However, it is obviously impossible for Moon Step to reach such a height.

Even Garp, who has the strongest physical skills, cannot jump all the way to the empty island at an altitude of 10,000 meters by relying on Moon Step.

Ganfur asked: "Are you sure you want to do that? This is the White Sea, and Sky Island is located in the White Sea. It is seven kilometers above the ground, and it takes another three kilometers to get to the White Sea."

Luffy is interested, and this is also a challenge.

"If you can't do it halfway, just rest on your Tianma."

"Fine."

Luffy asked Sauron to stay and watch the ship, so Sauron planned to rest.

Luffy said: "I won't let you wait too long. After it's confirmed, if we have to deal with that god, it will end quickly."

Sauron also believes in the strength of Luffy and others. If this * is not as strong as Hawkeye or the level of a general, then it can be dealt with.

Nami is also interested, looking at the sky.

"Then look at the limit of my monthly steps, how much I can reach, it is also a challenge and training."

Chopper and Sanji also want to try.

Usopp said that he should sit on the pegasus.

After Usopp went up, Luffy didn't let Robin go up, in case someone needed to rest halfway, but it wasn't enough.

It can fit three, including Gamfort, but it can actually fit four, because Chopper is so small.

The next scene shocked everyone, because Luffy walked up to Robin.

"Robin, let me hold you."

Robin understands that Luffy not only needs to use moon steps to climb to Bai Baihai, but also hugs himself.

"Is it really possible?" Robin was a little worried.

"Hee hee, it's okay."

"Ok."

Robin also knew that it was necessary to reserve some space for Tianma.

In the next moment, Luffy and others couldn't wait.

Sanji said: "Then I will go up first."

Boom!

Sanji jumped up, and then stepped on the air to keep going up, and he was best at moon steps.

Nami and Chopper also kept going up. Chopper turned into a human form, muscular, and looked even more powerful. After all, he was taught by Garp and Kaido template.

Physical skills, in terms of fruit development, must have surpassed the peak of the original plot, unfathomable.

Nami has also been taught by Karp's template, and her physical skills are also very strong, stepping on the air to keep going up.

Luffy grabbed Robin's slender waist and jumped up suddenly, like a rocket.

Looking at this scene, Ganfur was dumbfounded and exclaimed: "This ship is really a group of monsters."

Ganfort hurriedly rode Pegasus and took Usopp into the sky.

Sanji was surprised, he was the one who took the lead because he climbed to the sky first, but soon, Luffy caught up.

You know, Luffy is still holding Robin.

After ascending 500 meters, Nami gave up and fell on the back of Tianma.

Chopper is okay, after all, he is not a real human body, not inferior to Sanji.

In this way, keep going up, and continue after the break. When Sanji and Chopper can't do it, they step on Pegasus to borrow strength.

Tianma also tried his best to bear it, so as not to be stepped on and fall.

Ganfur felt that maybe the * of Sky Island was really about to be pulled down from the altar by these monsters.

Chapter 055: General Aokiji is coming!

Soon, Lu Fei and others came to Baibaihai, 10,000 meters from the ground.

After coming up, the eyes of Lu Fei and others are shining, it is no longer a vast expanse of whiteness, the front is an island, there are many towns and buildings on the island, some are surrounded by clouds and mist, the real city in the sky is very beautiful and spectacular.

Luffy enjoys it very much. The most meaningful part of the adventure is this. I have never been to each of them. There are magical places.

Luffy and the others jumped onto the beach, their eyes lit up, because the beach was soft and comfortable to step on.

Luffy, Usopp, and Chopper are playing below, enjoying themselves very much.

Sanji walked to the bow with his hands in his pockets, muttering: "Three idiots, they look like they don't know much, there's really nothing they can do about it."

After saying that, Sanji took off his shoes and jumped into the sea of clouds, swimming and cheering.

Nami was speechless: "You are not the same."

Nami couldn't wait to jump down and ran to the beach.

Looking at all this, Robin felt very good, and said to himself: "Is this an adventure? I've never thought about it before. It feels pretty good."

Nami enjoys everything around her, it feels like a vacation, and it is still such a unique and beautiful place.

Nami let herself relax and stretched her arms.

"The air here is really good, it's not thin anymore, and it's impossible for the navy to appear here, so let's stretch our muscles and bones."

After Nami's activity, she lay on the gazebo chair and found that the soft evil was also working, and she couldn't help admiring it.

"It seems that there is a technology for processing clouds here."

Just as Luffy and the others were playing, there was a sound of playing.

Following the sound, a blond girl was standing on the cloud and playing the harp.

The girl is not bad in appearance, the most striking thing is that there is a pair of white angel wings on her back.

Sanji stared blankly: "Angel?"

The girl came down from the cloud and asked friendlyly, "Are you from Lan Hai?"

Luffy nodded: "Well, we came up from below, are you a resident here?"

"Yes, my name is Konis. Welcome to Angel Beach in the Kingdom of God."

Seeing Luffy hugging a pumpkin-like, but blue, coconut-like fruit, Konis asked.

"Would you like a drink?"

Luffy nodded, "Well, shaking can tell that it's full of juice, but it's too hard."

Konis took it, made a slit in the upper center with a knife, took out the habit and inserted it in, and handed it to Luffy.

Chapter 39

"Here, so you can drink."

Luffy couldn't wait, took a big sip, and his eyes lit up: "It's delicious, it's really sweet, much better than the coconut below."

Luffy sucked and drank, couldn't stop at all, enjoying the expression of happiness, which made Nami and others want to drink, and hurriedly picked such fruits from the coconut-like tree.

Konis said: "This is called cloud coconut fruit. It is a very common fruit in Sky Island. It has no pulp and is full of juice. It is really delicious."

Nami and the others got one, opened the opening, and took the straw from Konis.

After taking a sip, my eyes lit up, it was so delicious.

Robin also drank it, feeling really good, it was an adventure, it was better to say it was a trip, after leaving O'Hara, he had never felt so good and comfortable like now.

Conis said kindly: "If you have any other questions, you can ask me."

Nami nodded: "Then we will not be polite. It is the first time we come here, and many things are really incredible to us."

"Kenis, I told them about God's evil deeds. If they verify that it is true, they will help us."

Ganfort just flew up, because Tianma was too tired just now.

Conis was worried when she heard it, and looked at Luffy and the others.

It was the first time I saw them, and I didn't understand them yet, but they all looked too young, how to deal with God?

Conis worried: "Letting them help us is harming them, or not."

I thought they were here for adventure and travel, and they seemed to be nice people. She warmly entertained them, but they wanted to deal with God? She doesn't want to.

Ganfort said: "Don't worry, they are very strong."

Luffy nodded: "Well, don't worry too much, that * is really cruel, it will be a disaster for the entire Sky Island, I will beat him up."

Konis was still a little worried. Although she said so, she had never seen the power of God.

"God is terrifying, really like a god, you..." Conis still wanted to persuade.

Sanji said: "Such a kind and beautiful Miss Conis, we have to find out even more. If it is really cruel, I can't let such a cruel * rule you. I am not willing."

Shan Healing wanted to stay longer in Sky Island to understand what was going on here.

Luffy said: "We won't leave, not in a short time, Robin still has important things to do."

Robin nodded: "That's right."

"Okay... I hope you all understand God's strength before deciding whether to deal with him or not. You must be cautious." Conis kept reminding.

Luffy nodded: "Yeah, got it."

At this time, the Navy Headquarters.

Garp and Sengoku are in the office.

A sailor came in and reported: "We are paying close attention to the whereabouts of the Straw Hats. They have already gone to Sky Island and took the rising current."

Zhan Guo frowned slightly: "It actually succeeded."

It was the first one to go up by the upwelling current since Roger.

This made Garp breathe a sigh of relief, because he knew that Aokiji had also reached the waters below Sky Island.

Sengoku dialed the phone bug and contacted Aokiji.

After connecting, Warring States asked.

"Kuzan, where are you?"

"Here's the rising current."

Warring States sighed: "It seems that we can only continue to wait. After they come down, let's do it."

Qingzhi shook his head: "Perhaps, it can be done now."

Looking at the rising ocean current that is about to disappear, connecting the sky and the earth like a water column, the green pheasant activates the frozen fruit ability, and the cold air pervades.

Ka Ka Ka! !

In an instant, the upwelling current froze and kept going upwards. In an instant, the upwelling current at a height of 7,000 meters was completely frozen, forming an icicle that connected the sky and the earth!

This made Sengoku's eyes brighten, he guessed what happened, and he was glad that he chose Aokiji.

Qingzhi said: "Then, I'm going up!"

Zhan Guo was about to hang up, and said in a concentrated voice: "I leave it to you, Kuzan, take down the straw hats!"

Chapter 056 God Is This?

Usopp looked towards the sea of clouds ahead, and found that someone seemed to be coming.

Konis said, "That's my father."

Nami was surprised that she was driving something similar to a motorcycle and a boat on the sea.

"What~thing is your father sitting on?"

Konis introduced: "Everything here is novel to you. It's called Weiba, which is equivalent to a means of transportation in Sky Island."

Chopper, Usopp's eyes are shining, he looks so cool, the speed is so fast.

Conis's father got to know each other after they landed, and their eyes lit up. Do you want to deal with Enilo?

"My name is Paigia. If you can really do it, then you will be the saviors of Sky Island."

Usopp couldn't wait: "Well, can you let us feel Weiba?"

"of course can."

Immediately, Usopp drove the Weiba quickly on the sea of clouds, feeling extremely beautiful.

Luffy felt that it was like driving a power yacht on the sea.

Chopper and the others also drove for a while at a time, having a great time.

Afterwards, Paigia took Luffy and others to wander around Angel Island and explained.

Luffy and others follow behind, Paigia is equivalent to a tour guide, they are equivalent to tourists.

Sailing, adventure, not just fighting and killing, this kind of time is also beautiful and necessary, very interesting and not boring.

Along the upward stairs, Paigia introduced.

"Many people are collecting clouds there. It is a place where clouds are mined and processed, so that they can be made into materials needed for various buildings and furniture. Clouds here are divided into two types of clouds, sea clouds, which are like the sea. Cloud. Island cloud is the cloud they are responsible for mining and can be processed."

Usopp and the others think that the artifact, the cloud can still be processed, isn't it soft, will it be substantial.

Pai Geya introduced: "You must be very puzzled, why the sea clouds are somewhat like sea water, and the island clouds can even be substantive, stepping on them and sinking."

"Yeah, why is that?"

"Because the condensation nuclei produced by clouds are different. I remember that there is a mineral called sea floor stone in your blue ocean. It contains a kind of * particles. When the * particles are sent to the sky by volcanic eruptions, they change from the condensation of water vapor. When the concentration is increased, sea clouds and island clouds are formed."

This made Luffy and others understand the reason for the formation of two special clouds on Sky Island, which turned out to be the case.

At this time, Ganfur said solemnly: "If you want to deal with Enilu in the future, you need Hailou Stone, otherwise, you won't be able to defeat him."

Luffy, Sanji and the others all smiled.

Lu Fei said: "It's not just Hailoushi, the armed domineering can also hurt the nature department."

"Armed and domineering?"

Ganfor did not understand this unfamiliar vocabulary.

"That's it."

Luffy's fist became pitch black, which shocked Ganfur. Before he blocked his attack with a finger, it also turned pitch black. Is this the domineering color of the weapon?

By explaining, Ganfort understood, excitedly, that it was too strong.

It can defend, enhance attack, and cause substantial damage to nature.

Ganfur was surprised, Luffy and the others didn't understand Sky Island, but they didn't understand Blue Sea.

Paigia brought Luffy and others home and began to prepare sumptuous food.

Luffy and the others are also hungry, eat first, and then travel around the empty island.

...

At this time, the island of the gods, the place where Enel lives.

The four priests came here, namely the Sky Knight and Shura.

Empty stockist, ohm.

The chief guard of the sky, Nirvana.

Senzhi Dawu.

The four priests talked while walking.

"I don't know why Master Enel suddenly asked the four of us to come together."

"Sky Island is ruled by us, there is nothing wrong with it."

"Maybe there are outsiders?"

"This is the only possibility. Call the four of us. It seems that the opponent will not be too weak. I hope we won't be disappointed. I haven't moved my hands and feet for a long time."

"It may also be the remnants of the Sandia, who want revenge."

"In that case, it's boring."

...

As the four priests, they are very proud.

The door engraved with the characters of the gods opened, and the four priests entered, putting away the arrogance on their faces.

The four priests faced Anilu directly, and sat down cross-legged, with awe in their eyes.

Anilu was lying sideways on the sofa with a haughty expression.

Enel frowned slightly, dissatisfied: "Ganfur is still alive."

"How could it be... didn't die at the beginning..."

Ai Nilu didn't care: "It doesn't matter whether he died or not. He seems to have a good relationship with the Qinghai people who just came up. He even wanted to ask them to help and solve me."

This made the four priests laugh: "I'm going to look down on Mr. Enilu, do you want those Qinghai people to come to die?"

"Is it coming now?"

They couldn't wait to fight, and they knew that Enilo must have known it. After all, the heart network combined with the ability of the thunder fruit could hear the voices of the entire Sky Island.

Anilu shook his head: "They need to understand first, but, you take action and deal with them. You don't need to wait until they are against me, as long as they have the possibility of being against me, they will be resolved."

The four priests were surprised: "Do you want us to do it together?"

"Well, let's solve it as soon as possible, without waiting for them to enter your trial one by one."

"Understood, Lord Enel, I don't want them to live longer."

Enilu was lying lazily on his side, resting his chin in his hands, closing his eyes, and waving.

"Okay, you guys go and solve it as soon as possible."

"yes!"

The next moment, the four priests left.

At this time, Luffy and others, led by Ganfort, came to the upper ruins.

Nami and the others' eyes widened with shock, and they were attracted by a huge vine spreading towards the higher sky, it was too huge.

Just when Lu Fei and others were about to explore, the four priests came.

"You are foreigners from Qinghai."

"Ganfur, you're really still alive, it's okay, just solve you this time."

Chapter 40

"A total of seven people, no, six, not counting the reindeer."

...

This made Chopper angry: "I'm also a human being!"

"Oh? It's strange to be able to talk."

"Don't worry about it, they'll all be dead soon."

"It doesn't look too good, they are all young."

The four priests felt that there were too many people coming, and one priest would do.

Ganfor frowned and reminded: "They are the four priests under Enilo, and they are very powerful. It seems that Enilo already knows about us and sent them to deal with us."

Sanji said: "If this is the case, then you don't need to understand, you are already an enemy."

Usopp was curious, but also a little apprehensive: "Priest, also wear a word of God. Although he is an official of God, he will be very powerful, right?"

Others are also curious about the strength of these four.

If it's a priest, it shouldn't be too bad.

However, Luffy is clear and has no interest at all.

The four priests looked at Sanji and the others who were speculating, and all laughed.

"It seems that you can roughly know that we are very powerful."

"After all, we are priests, second only to the existence of God."

"Then, let them see our strength."

"We want to go together?"

...

The four priests looked arrogantly at each other.

"Let's go together, don't be kidding, they don't look very good, they are too young."

"Yes, we are priests. To deal with them, do we still need to go together?"

0...Ask for flowers...

"I will deal with Ganfur, how you three deal with them, you discuss."

"Let me deal with Ganfort. He is barely strong enough to let me play."

...

The words of the four priests made Ganfur look ugly, too contemptuous, too shameful.

However, he couldn't say anything, because he knew that the four priests were really powerful.

Ganfor put on a fighting posture, and said in a concentrated voice: "Don't underestimate me too much!"

Ganfur was ready to fight, and Luffy said: "If we want to help you, you don't need to do anything, just leave it to us."

Ganfur was taken aback, understood, and thought of Luffy's strength, so he calmly stood where he was, and didn't plan to do anything.

"Okay, then I won't do it."

Ganfur's attitude surprised the four priests.

"Not going to fight?"

"It seems to be handed over to them."

"Forget it, I won't deal with Ganfort, he doesn't have any fighting spirit."

"So, what to do? Who's going? Get rid of these five people and this reindeer quickly."

...

Chopper was furious: "I'm human too! Don't count me out every time!"

However, being ignored by the four priests, they continued to discuss.

"Shura, go ahead, get rid of these guys quickly."

.....

"I'm not. I'm Shura, one of the priests. Dealing with these weak-looking Qinghai people is an insult to my identity."

"The weakest Dawu, you go."

"I'm the weakest? Nirvana, don't accept Bibi, whoever loses wins."

...

For a while, none of the four priests came up, let alone teamed up. They were all pushing and giving way, with an arrogant look, as if they were doing something to Lu Fei and others, insulting their identities.

This left Nami and the others speechless, and glanced at Luffy.

"Luffy, what do you say?"

Lu Fei shrugged helplessly, looked at the four priests who were arguing, and said, "I just watched these four idiots pretending there."

"Ok?!"

Hearing Luffy's words, the four priests who were arguing stopped, all with low faces, frowning and looking at Luffy.

They all heard what Luffy said just now.

Quietly watching the four idiots pretending there?

This directly made the four priests furious!

"Looking for death! How dare you say such a thing!"

"This is a provocation to our priests!"

"We only choose one to solve you, you should be glad."

"Don't think too highly of yourself. To deal with you, you still want us four priests to join forces? It's not that we are stupid, it's you who are stupid..."

However, before the four priests finished speaking, they stopped abruptly.

Chopper suddenly became huge and turned into a human-beast form.

"shave!"

While moving quickly, he swept to the far right of the four priests standing in a row.

Chopper rushed over, his deer paws were pitch-black, covered with superb armed domineering, and slammed fiercely at the face of Priest Shura on the far right.

boom!

boom!

With a slap, Shura felt uneasy, and it was too late to dodge or counterattack, so he had to raise his hand to block in time.

However, severe pain struck, a click sounded, and the arm broke directly.

Then the violent force hit his face, causing his face to be deeply sunken, his head seemed to be about to explode, and his mind went blank for a moment, buzzing.

The other three priests didn't have time to dodge, because Shura was blown away by Chopper's slap, and the other three were blown away together.

"what!"

Amidst the four shrill screams, the four priests all flew horizontally towards one side, flying a hundred meters away, smashing through many stone walls along the way, and the roar continued.

Chopper relieved his anger a little, and said in a deep voice, "Is the priest so unbearable?" Cun.

Chapter 057 Enel: Straw Hat, Do You Know God?

The four priests fell on the ground a hundred meters away, Shura died immediately, bleeding from his head, and the other three, although not dead, were also seriously injured, unable to even stand up.

They were extremely shocked, unbelievable, how could it be.

I thought it was just a pet, but it's so powerful?

With one slap, they were seriously injured, even Shura died, the force was too terrifying.

Looking at the reindeer at this time, they were terrified. It was not a reindeer at all, unlike the small and cute pet just now, but like a monster, which made them tremble.

"Why...why...why is it so strong."

"It obviously looked harmless to humans and animals just now, and it looked easy to deal with."

"Devil fruit abilities, but, are too strong, Shura is dead, we are all seriously injured, and he just slaps."

"We are priests, second only to Master Enilu, but we are so vulnerable to him, how can we be so strong. Could it be that the one we thought was the weakest is actually the strongest among these Qinghai people?"

"It must be the possibility. We made the strongest one angry."

...

They felt that it could only be like this, this guy must be the strongest in the group, not the weakest.

Chopper changed back to his original form, shook his head and said, "I'm not the strongest, I'm just a ship doctor, not the main combat force on the ship."

These words directly made the three "four five three" priests stunned, their eyes widened, and they couldn't believe it.

Just a ship doctor, not the main combat force?

What... are you kidding me? Isn't the main force so strong? how is this possible...

They couldn't believe it until they were shocked. If the main force is not so strong, how strong is the main force? How strong is the captain?

They were terrified and afraid. Thinking of their actions just now, in the eyes of the other party, they were really stupid and ridiculous.

Zizizi...

Suddenly, the sound of electric current sounded.

With a bang, the thunder and lightning fell, and after it dissipated, a figure appeared in front of Luffy and the others.

He looks about thirty-seven years old, wears a white headscarf, and has long earlobes with earrings. The upper body is bare, and there is a thunder drum engraved with black three hook jade on the back, a gold ring on the hand, and a gold stick in his hand. Wearing knickerbockers on the lower body, barefoot, looks arrogant and unruly.

This person is obviously Anilao.

The eyes of the three priests lit up, and they breathed a sigh of relief, they were saved.

"Master Enel."

They are not afraid anymore, even though these Qinghai people are powerful, they cannot be the opponent of Enilo, they are gods.

Enilu turned his back to them, raised his right hand, and the electric current raged in his palm.

The three priests expected that Enilo would deal with these Qinghai people by using the terrifying power of thunder and lightning.

Click!

The lightning in his hand rushed to the sky, followed by Enilu's subordinates, and shouted in a low voice: "God's punishment!"

Under the horrified eyes of Ganfur, Nami, Robin, Chopper, and Usopp, a huge thunderbolt fell from the sky and fell instantly.

However, the target is not them, but the rear of Enilo.

Boom!

"Ah! Lord Enel, why!"

It was the three priests who were hit by Lei Zhu. They screamed pitifully, they were puzzled, and they didn't wait for a reply, because they died instantly and turned into scorched black.

Chopper was horrified: "What a terrifying ability..."

Nami was shocked: "Is this the thunder fruit?"

Although he can also control the weather, compared with the thunder fruit, there is a big gap.

Robin frowned: "He actually killed his subordinate."

Anilo Jie smiled and said, "I am showing mercy."

This made Robin and the others puzzled. They didn't expect to say this. Is this still compassion?

Anilao said: "I stretched out the hand of salvation to those miserable and struggling ants and liberated them. Isn't this compassion? This is also the mission of being a god."

This made Nami and the others look down, and there was no need to continue to understand. This Enilu is indeed disgusting and cruel, and he is an enemy that must be dealt with right now.

Ai Nilu was slightly interested: "Your strength looks good, which surprised me. This is even better. There is no need for sideshows at the banquet. Let's start directly and feel desperate!"

Anilu's whole body is crackling with electric current, ready to do some activities, he is full of interest now.

Chapter 41

Anilu threw out a cloud shell, and a circle-shaped white cloud filled the shell.

Enilu sat cross-legged leisurely on it, looking down at Luffy and the others.

"The game can start, are you willing to play?" Enilo asked.

Nami was puzzled: "Game?"

"Yes, everyone here is a participant, a total of eight people."

The eight people are naturally Enilo, Luffy, Sanji, Usopp, Nami, Robin, Chopper, and Ganfort.

Ai Nilu introduced: "Five minutes later, a few people will disappear here.

I think, seven people, how about you?"

Enilu's words made Nami and others understand that it meant to defeat everyone except himself.

Luffy said: "You think seven, then I think one."

Anilu frowned slightly, and glanced at the others.

"what about you?"

Nami and the others looked at Luffy and agreed: "We have the same thoughts!"

This made Enilu's face darken, and he smiled: "Well, after five minutes, if one person disappears here, no matter who it is, you win. Five minutes later, if seven people disappear here, I win. But , I'm curious, which one do you want to disappear?"

Enilo looked at Luffy, his eyes narrowed.

Luffy said bluntly, "You."

Hearing this, Enilo laughed angrily: "Yeah hahaha...yeah hahaha..."

After laughing, the electric current in Anilu's hand holding the golden rod tightly raged, and his voice sank: "It seems that you haven't realized who you are talking to. I am... God, facing God, I actually said such words."

Lu Fei said indifferently: "Forget it, self-appointed god."

This made Enilu's face even more gloomy, and his heart was full of anger, daring to talk to himself like this.

"You said you want to disappear one, then I will help you, but I want you to realize that it is not me who disappeared, so it would be too embarrassing."

Whoosh!

After Enilu finished speaking, the next moment, he disappeared in place, turned into a ball of electric current, and rushed to Ganfur.

The moment it emerged, a hand condensed with electricity slapped Ganfur.

"Just let you disappear first."

"Discharge, 20 million..."

Gan Fulton was disturbed, too fast, and there was no time to dodge.

It was too late to fight back. At this moment, he seemed very powerless, and could only wait for the terrifying thunder and lightning to burn him to the ground.

"Second gear!"

"Rubber jet bazooka!"

Luffy entered the second gear in an instant, his skin color turned red and steam filled.

Suddenly, when Anilu was about to attack Ganfort, Lu Fei flew over, clenched his fists with both hands, covered in pitch-black armed domineering, and blasted out violently.

Anilu was startled: "It's so fast."

This speed is so fast that it is even difficult for me to dodge it, but I don't worry, I am a natural element, and now my whole body is elementalized with lightning, so I can't hurt myself...

boom!

"what!"

However, Anilu suddenly felt an incomparable pain on the left side of his body, and the terrifying force hit the left side of his body, flying directly out of the 0...

Whoosh!

Boom boom boom...

The roar continued, and many dilapidated stone walls were blasted through.

Gamfor shook, and at the same time he breathed a sigh of relief, saved.

Enilu flew five hundred meters away before stopping and was buried by the ruins.

In the ruins, the corner of Enilo's mouth was bleeding, and he was covering his painful body with his right hand, shaking and puzzled.

"Why...why did it hurt me, obviously there is no Hailou Stone in my hand."

Anilu couldn't figure it out, but soon realized that the hands of the straw hat were black.

"What is that?" Enilo didn't understand.

If you don't understand it, don't think too much about it. Enilu's face is a little heavier, which means that the other party can actually hurt himself, and elementalization is useless.

For a short time, Enilu's face was gloomy, so what, then rely on absolute strength and divine power to solve them.

Crackling!

Terrible thunder and lightning raged, and exploded, shaking the ruins and stones in all directions, and Enil stood up.

Enilu's face was ugly, which made him, as a god, unable to do what he said.

Thinking of making Ganfur disappear, this would make the straw hat look ugly. After all, the straw hat said to make a person disappear, and that person was himself.

Then, to make Ganfur disappear is to slap the Straw Hat in the face, but now, he has not succeeded.

Looking at Enilu with an ugly face in the distance, Lu Fei sarcastically said, "Is this a god? I didn't do what I said, and I really proclaimed myself."

This made Enilu break the defense, his face was extremely gloomy, he gritted his teeth, raised his right hand suddenly, and swung it down fiercely with the current raging.

"I am God! God's punishment!"

Suddenly, above Lu Fei's head, a huge thunder column descended from the sky.

Ganfur was worried and was about to retreat quickly. The power of God's sanction was too terrifying.

Ganfur reminded: "Although you are very strong, you'd better choose to avoid the sanction of God."

Enilu looked at it and sneered: "Experience God's punishment, and then think about whether I am a god."

Looking at Luffy, Enilo felt that the punishment of God was enough to hurt the straw hat.

If you want to hide, it means you are afraid.

However, Luffy didn't dodge and said something that surprised Ganfur.

"Don't hide, you and I don't need it, you just stand here."

Ganfur was stunned, letting himself stand here?

I am so close to Luffy, so this huge God's Punishment Thunder Pillar will also cover me, but Luffy tells me not to move?

Enil heard it. Although it was far away, Xinwang could hear the conversation of the entire Sky Island after all.

Ai Nilu smiled: "Yeah hahaha... You didn't let him hide, did you feel that it was too shameful for you to disappear alone? So, choosing two people to disappear, ye hahahaha... I can understand it. After all, let one person disappear. It was he who said the disappearance, and it would be even more embarrassing if the person who started to disappear was himself. Hahahaha, why didn't I think of it, if I thought of it, I would have dealt with him first."

Seeing Luffy who was not dodging and preparing to fight back, Enilo sneered: "Straw Hat, you still don't understand God after all."

God's sanction fell from the sky, Luffy didn't dodge, Ganfur subconsciously believed in Luffy, and didn't stay away.

Whoosh!

Suddenly, Luffy soared into the sky, his whole body was dark red, full of righteousness, his right hand was elongated downward, straight, covered with jet-black armed domineering, and the long black arm and fist suddenly burst into raging flames.

Immediately, the sky and the earth were occupied by thunder and flames, and it depends on who dissipates and occupies the entire sky.

Luffy roared: "Fire fist! Gun!".

Chapter 058 I'm Thor, What God Are You?

The surging flames surged upwards and collided with the Thunder Pillar.

Ganfur was stunned, the flames were no less powerful than the flames of Lei Zhu.

Moreover, combined with fist attacks and flames, the power seems to be stronger under the sanction of God.

Ganfur was shocked. Although he didn't understand Luffy's strength, he knew it was a rubber fruit.

However, why can you make a flame?

In the previous battle, one finger made me realize the gap, and I couldn't see the true strength of Luffy, the captain of the Straw Hat Pirates.

So this first trick surprised him.

Enilu in the distance was also shocked, unable to figure it out.

"The arm is like rubber, but why can there be flames that can hurt."

Enilo felt that he couldn't see through this straw hat boy more and more, what kind of existence was he? What kind of abilities are they?

"Hmph, your hand must have been burned by the electric shock."

Enilo felt that since it was still a physical attack, it would definitely touch lightning.

The surging flame collided with the thunder column and exploded in the sky.

Crackling...

The thunder and lightning shattered, and Enilo found that the sky was illuminated with fiery red, and his own thunder column was defeated.

As the God of Thunder himself, Raiden, lost to the Flame of the Straw Hat.

Gan Fuer's worship is too strong, no wonder he doesn't let himself go, it is absolute self-confidence, self-confidence can deal with the sanction of this god.

Luffy closed his hands, the flames in his hands dissipated.

Looking at Luffy's hand, there is no burn mark.

Enilu rushed over. As a god, he was puzzled too many times because of the appearance of the straw hat.

Enilo asked in a deep voice: "What kind of fruit ability are you?"

Luffy said: "Gum fruit."

"Rubber fruit, rubber that can isolate electricity." Enilu frowned and understood: "No wonder your hands were not burned by electricity."

After confirming that it was a rubber fruit, Enilo also understood: "It seems that your punch can produce such a powerful flame that even defeated my God's Sanction, not because of other abilities, but the flame produced by friction. Overcoming My lightning is not the power of fire, but your physical attack power."

Enilo thinks this way, after all, he was blown away by Luffy before, and he has seen Luffy's speed and strength.

And this move is more powerful than the rocket launcher just now, so Enilo felt that it was not the power of the flame that collapsed the lightning, but the strength.

Enel proudly said: "I am Thor, the thunder and lightning sent by Thor, how could it be defeated by ordinary flames, it is still power. You are amazing, beyond my expectation, it is still rubber, insulator. But, don't think that rubber is enough Insulate against lightning of any intensity. Terrible lightning, even rubber, will be turned into ashes!"

Luffy will not underestimate Enilo. After all, in the plot, the protagonist's aura accounts for most of the victory, and he has to rely on absolute strength to win.

Listening to Enilu's words, Lu Fei didn't explain much, just let him think. Enilu felt a little more balanced in his heart. Thor himself, it would be too shameful if the thunder and lightning were defeated by the fire generated by the friction air from the rubber fruit.

Luffy reminded: "One minute has passed, and there are still four minutes, and you haven't let anyone disappear."

This made Enilu's face darken, and he sneered: "It seems that I have to let you understand God more clearly."

Anilu slapped the big drum on his right shoulder with the golden stick in his hand. Under Nami's surprised gaze, the azure current raged and condensed into a huge Thunderbird.

"Thirty million volts, Thunderbird!"

Immediately, the phoenix-like Thunderbird rushed towards Luffy.

However, Lu Fei blew air on his right hand, it suddenly became huge, turned black, and blasted out quickly.

"Third gear, giant pistol!"

boom!

Thunderbird suddenly looked a little small and was blown away.

Enilo shook, and rushed towards him, blocking with a golden stick with both hands, while raging terrifying thunder and lightning.

boom!

However, when the giant fist hit, the golden rod bent instantly and hit his body, using elementalization to dodge, but the huge black giant fist also blasted all over his body.

Elementalization was useless again, Enilo was in severe pain all over his body, he vomited blood and was blown away.

boom!

Enilu flew farther, startled, although the speed was slower, but stronger.

Chapter 42

Thunderbird couldn't counteract too much power, why is it so strong?

Still not even hurt.

Although it is rubber, it cannot be completely isolated. It was 30 million volts just now.

Enel didn't understand, but he didn't know, Luffy's current strength, and the degree of defense of the armed domineering.

Lu Fei swooped up to the top of Enni Road, and said contemptuously,

"Don't you want me to see the real power of God, that's it?"

Luffy's huge right hand stretched out to the sky, and twisted like a twist, and then the black giant fist spun quickly in the rotation of the arm, and smashed down.

"Rubber giant boomerang!"

Enilu's pupils shrank, not daring to be careless, and directly patted the drums on both sides of his shoulders.

"Sixty million volts! Brontosaurus!"

With a dragon chant, a blue thunder dragon roared out.

boom!

While roaring, it was hit by a giant black whirling fist, and Thunder

Dragon's utterance was no longer a majestic dragon chant, but a shrill scream.

boom!

Amidst the terrifying roar, the ground sunken, cracked, and gravel flew.

When Luffy lands, his right hand will retract to its original size.

There was a lot of dust in front of him, and Anilu walked out of it, a little embarrassed.

Anilo did not continue to attack, but was interested and sent an invitation.

"Your strength is very good. I like God. You are qualified to go to that place with me. Also, since they are your companions, they should not be much weaker than you. They may also be qualified."

What Anilu said made Nami and the others puzzled, where to go? What's the meaning?

Enilu restrained his fighting spirit and looked at the sky with longing eyes.

"Just let me tell you."

Enilu's expression became extremely yearning and excited. 453

This made Nami and the others even more surprised. What could make Enilo, who was so arrogant and self-proclaimed God, yearn for him so much?

Enilo spread his arms: "Do you want me to take you there? Go to the dream world where I am about to leave! Infinite Land!"

Enilo was extremely excited and couldn't wait.

Enilo yearned: "I want to build a real kingdom of God there. Only those who can live in that land are chosen by me here. Those of my subordinates can be easily dealt with by you. It seems that they are not qualifications, so I let them go. If they go, it will lower the level of my kingdom of gods, and it's okay for you to go."

Enilu looked at Luffy and asked, "How is it? Follow me from now on, God I, to be precise, Thor!"

Luffy is not interested: "We are not interested in that place. I am interested in only one place, and that is Ralph Drew. And you always say that you are God or Thor, forget it. Your dead men go down, Lower the level of your kingdom of God, we went, feel that you and your kingdom of God are not worthy."

Suddenly, Enilo was furious, unprecedentedly furious!

After all, satirizing myself made me extremely angry, and now I brought the kingdom of God that I most yearned for.

"Audacious!" Enilo was extremely angry, the veins between his brows bulged, and he had never been as angry as he is now.

Enilu is arrogant and contemptuous: "I am not worthy? I am a god, Thor! What about you? What kind of * are you?"

Chapter 059 Thor Can't Play Sun God

Anilu is angry, it should be an honor to be chosen by him, he is a god.

However, he was rejected and satirized himself. He is Thor, what about him?

Luffy shook his head: "I'm not a god, I'm Monkey D Luffy, if you want to become something, it's not a god, but One Piece!"

"One Piece? Yeah hahahaha..."

Enel laughed out loud, thinking it was ridiculous.

"What One Piece, is it better than a god? Surrender to me and make you a priest."

Luffy shook his head decisively: "Not interested."

Luffy checked the time, three minutes had passed.

"I said, within five minutes, let you disappear here."

These words made Enilu's face ugly, and he still had to fight with himself.

Enilu sneered: "It really disappoints me, then, you guys just disappear."

Enilo elementalized and emerged behind Luffy, his right finger stretched out, and the current burst out.

Although it is only a wire of current, the voltage is extremely terrifying.

Enilo feels that even rubber can penetrate Luffy's head.

"Die. Discharge, 100 million volts!"

laugh!

The current flashed out in an instant, looking at Luffy who was still facing away from him, Enilo smiled: "Rejecting me is really the stupidest decision you have ever made."

However, when the 100 million volt current was about to hit the back of Luffy's head, Luffy's head turned slightly to the right.

A current of 100 million flashed from Luffy to the left and forward, and the bombing broke out.

The air wave swept in, and Luffy's clothes rattled backwards. He measured his body and glanced at Enilu, and said in a stern voice: "It's so slow."

This made Anilu extremely shocked, so slowly...

It's a shame, but Luffy did dodge it with precision.

"He can also mind net, but even if he can, how can he escape so easily."

Ai Nilu couldn't believe it, his face was ugly, for five minutes, he had to make everyone except himself disappear to be considered a success.

I have to win too. As a god, if I lose the game with these people, it would be too embarrassing, no, it would be embarrassing for God.

Gods play games with humans, how can they lose?

But now Enilo feels that Luffy is very tricky, so strong.

The speed, strength, and reaction are all top-notch, and they can also cause substantial damage to themselves.

"How could your heart net be so strong that you escaped..."

Enilu's face was ugly. In this case, it would be difficult to succeed.

Luffy said: "Heart net? I'm more used to calling it knowledgeable domineering."

"Informative and domineering?"

This unfamiliar vocabulary made Anilu startled.

Looking at the confused Enilo, Lu Fei suggested: "Don't go to any infinite land, go down first, go to Qinghai to see, and gain more knowledge."

These words made Anilu extremely angry again, and his body trembled, which meant that he had no knowledge.

"What Qinghai, God, I don't bother to go, I am in the sky, God, Thor, how can I go to Qinghai below? I want to go to a higher infinite land!"

Enilo is arrogant, although he doesn't know about domineering and domineering, but he doesn't want to know either.

In Luffy's view, if Enilo goes down, honed for another two years, masters domineering, and adds the fruit of thunder, then he will definitely be a general.

Luffy didn't care: "Forget it, you don't have a chance to go down."

This made Anilu's face sink, and he always talked to himself in this tone.

However, I have not been able to hurt Luffy until now, but I have been injured one after another, which is detrimental to the majesty of God.

Nami and others watched from a distance, calm and composed, feeling that there was no need to take action at all.

Ganfort was shocked. Although he knew that Luffy would be very powerful, he also imagined that Enel would be defeated and Sky Island would return to its former peace and beauty.

However, the fantasy is that Enel was defeated by the Straw Hats, not by one person.

But now, when Ainilu faced Luffy, he was beaten up one after another, and Luffy is now unharmed, which is beyond his imagination.

Ganfur was amazed in his heart: "This little brother is much stronger than I imagined, and he doesn't even pay attention to the self-proclaimed * Enel."

Listening to Luffy's words, and seeing the arrogant Enilu face extremely ugly repeatedly, Ganforr is very happy.

At first, I was a little worried that it would be dangerous to anger Enel, but Enel didn't have all his strength, so Luffy did it all?

Looking at Lu Fei's confident attitude, Ganfur was sure, but he didn't go all out.

Ganfur looked forward to: "Then, let me see your true strength, how strong it is."

Ganfort thinks that he can see it next, Enel, who can never go all out, can't force Luffy to go all out, right?

Being underestimated and being spoken to by the people of Qinghai in such a tone to himself as a god, Enilo burst into anger and quickly beat all the big drums behind him, which made Luffy look forward to it a little.

After all, in the original plot, they didn't hit all of them at once, at most two on the left and right shoulders, using 60 million volts of Thunder Dragon.

Luffy really wants to experience an interesting battle, there is pressure, he can let himself fight to his heart's content, and his blood boils, so I hope Enilo can surprise himself.

Luffy said: "The so-called God, don't let me down again."

"No!" Enilo said in a low voice, beating quickly, and the drums sounded.

The four big drums behind him burst out with thunder and lightning at the same time, and in an instant, four groups of electricity burst out.

At the same time, Enilo activated the thunderous fruit ability, and his whole body was blue.

Accompanied by the sound of wolves, dragons roaring, tigers roaring, and crowing, four thunder beasts emerged.

Thunderbird, Thunder Wolf, Thunder Tiger, Thunder Dragon, come to life, more realistic than before, and look more ferocious.

Enilu shouted: "`~100 million volts, four thunder beasts!"

Immediately, the four thunder beasts roared out with terrifying power.

Ganfur in the distance couldn't help trembling, not to mention four, even if one attacked him, he would be killed, and he could feel the power of thunder and lightning from a distance.

Enilu plans to make a quick decision, looking at Luffy, think he can always be defeated, right?

After all, this is the strongest move other than the combination of Lei Ying made by Ark and his strongest move Thor.

Luffy blows his hands, inflates them, swings them backwards, and stretches them behind him.

Luffy's black arms and huge fists are like bear's paws.

After stretching backwards, he suddenly slammed forward, and Luffy roared:

"Guo Mo, Guo Moruo... the Grizzly Bear Gun!"

boom!

Huge black fists blasted out, gathered together, and blasted towards the attacking four thunder beasts.

The roar broke out, and there was a stalemate, and the four thunder beasts kept roaring.

Accompanied by Lu Fei's low growl, he thrust his arms forward fiercely, and with a puff, the four thunder beasts collapsed.

This made Anilu's face change drastically, and he quickly turned into an element, and it was too late for Shan to dodge.

The golden stick blocked, but (Li Hao) the next moment, huge black fists hit, and with a click, the golden stick shattered!

"puff!"

Enilu was directly blown away, and in contact with the huge black fists, it can be clearly seen that Enilu's face and whole body were flattened, vomiting blood, and screaming in pain.

"what!"

Whoosh!

Enilu was blasted out, as fast as a cannonball, smashing through many buildings along the way.

Whoosh...

Continuously flying backwards, more than a dozen thick walls were smashed through, and Enilo still showed no signs of stopping, and was still growing stronger in the inverted flight.

Enilu's whole body was in severe pain, and his mind was buzzing, as if he had been hit by a sledgehammer, the pain was excruciating.

Boom boom boom...

The roar continued, and Enilo kept flying backwards until he disappeared from sight and smashed out of the upper ruins.

In situ, there are only seven of Luffy and the others left.

Luffy said that one disappeared, it was Enil, and now in less than five minutes, one has indeed disappeared, and Enel disappeared here.

Ganfur was stunned: "It's amazing..."

Chapter 43

Chapter 060 Destroy Lei Ying, open fourth gear?

After Anilu flew away from the upper ruins, he stood up in embarrassment, spitting blood.

"hateful..."

Enilu's face became more and more ugly, God himself lost.

However, he hasn't completely lost yet, it's just that his face has been damaged.

If I lost the game, I didn't really have the full strength, so I didn't lose to the straw hat.

However, Enilo did not go there again, but planned to drive the ark.

"It's a shame to lose to you, so I will kill you immediately!"

Enel's face was gloomy, and he went to the ark.

"I am Almighty God, I can't lose to him, I must solve them!"

...

Upper ruins.

Nami was puzzled: "Didn't you come back?"

Usopp guessed: "Dead?"

Ganfort felt that Enel would not die so easily, and guessed: "Probably not."

Usopp smiled: "That's why I didn't dare to come, haha, what a god."

But suddenly, the sky darkened, and dark clouds could be seen spreading from a place in the distant sky, and then continued to spread, soon covering the entire sky island.

For a time, the sky of the entire Sky Island was covered with dark clouds and shrouded in darkness, making it appear oppressive.

"Look, the flying ship." Usopp was surprised.

Luffy looked over and knew he had to go.

Gamfor said solemnly, "It's Enilo's ship, the proverb of the ark."

The ark kept rising into the sky 457 degrees, and soon overtook the huge bean vines, and black clouds filled the air from the ark.

For a moment, the people of the entire sky island panicked.

"Is that... a ship?"

"How is it possible, I have never seen a flying ship before."

"The sky is dark because of that ship, and there are gods written on it.

Could it be Enilo?"

"It should be. There is a feeling of uneasiness about what he is going to do."

...

The people on Sky Island panicked and were inexplicably uneasy.

On the ark, Enilo's face was cold.

"Sky Island is about to end. The lives of the angels and you Qinghai people will also end. No one can stop it. Of course, even you can't stop it."

The figure of Luffy appeared in Enilo's mind, and he was angry when he thought of it.

After the anger subsided, because Anilu felt that he would die soon.

Enilo said arrogantly: "In this world, no one can defeat me, and truly defeat me, even you."

After the words fell, Anilu frowned slightly, and couldn't help thinking, if the straw hat was opposite him and heard what he said, how would he answer?

Is it still sarcasm, making yourself fly into a rage?

Could it be said that there are (aedb) monsters stronger than straw hats in Qinghai? Even less?

Thinking of this, Enel became angry.

"I am definitely the strongest, without a doubt!"

Enilo felt that he could not have such thoughts. Having such thoughts meant that he was shaken, and God himself began to doubt life and his own cognition.

"Straw hat, get ready to witness miracles!"

...

Luffy and the others came under the bean vines and looked up.

Luffy said: "I'll go up alone, and I'll beat him up soon."

"Okay, then we won't go up."

Nami and the others believe that Luffy can do it.

Just then, Sauron came.

Of course, Sauron didn't come here by himself, he was a road idiot after all, and it was obviously guided by Konis and her father.

Before handing over, the Meri stopped at the sea of clouds on Angel Island, and Sauron came here under the leadership of Konis.

Otherwise, just talk about the way, and Sauron will get lost.

Sauron said: "Just arrived, it seems that I will leave soon."

Sauron looked around with a look of novelty.

"Then you wait here for me."

After the words fell, Lu Fei jumped up and stepped on the bean vines continuously. Every time he jumped up, he could reach a height of 100 meters.

At this time, everyone in Angel Island panicked, and everyone ran out, fleeing frantically.

Because in the sky, a spherical black cloud emerged, getting bigger and bigger.

They felt the crisis of death and wanted to leave Angel Island as soon as possible.

Ganfur's face changed drastically: "This is... Lei Ying, so powerful that it can turn an island into dust in the blink of an eye, and wipe out the people of a country..."

Ganfort is worried, even if he knows that Luffy has passed, can he stop it? This has the power to destroy an island.

Even Nami, Zoro and the others shrank their pupils, so terrifying.

Usopp looked at the huge black cloud ball that was getting bigger and bigger in the sky, sweating coldly on his face.

"This... feels like the end of the world."

Anilu stood on the huge cloud ball at this time, raised his arms high, and sneered.

"Yahahahaha, the sky belongs to me! Experience it! As long as you have the Ark Proverbs and my power, you can release such a miracle!"

On the dribble, Enilo overlooked the entire Angel Island, feeling like a god. The people of Angel Island want to resist him, and those Qinghai people, so now he will sanction them as a * and destroy them all.

Enilo also saw Luffy who was going up, his face was gloomy.

"The ground has lost to you, but the sky will not. I am God, Thor! My power combined with the ark, even you will be destroyed. So, dare to fight against Lei Ying? Stop me, and everyone below will die. Stop Lei Ying, you die."

Enil was curious about Luffy's decision, and would not use God's sanction to prevent Luffy from coming up.

Instead, he expected Luffy to come up, and he actually lost just now, because Luffy, it was too shameful, he had to recover, and immediately.

The entire Angel Island was dark and depressing, and everyone even gave up because it was too late.

The destructive power is too great to escape the scope of destruction.

Watching the black cloud ball getting lower and lower, some people directly collapsed on the ground, desperate.

"It's over... it's over..."

"Don't run away..."

"Are you going to die, * it..."

"I don't want to die, and I don't want my family to die either."

"Who can save us?"

"It's about to come down, hey, it's hopeless."

"It's useless to be rescued by someone, but that's God."

...

The people of Angel Island are desperate and fearful. They know that someone is dealing with Enilo, but they also feel that there is no hope.

Zoro and Sanji frowned.

As it landed, it can be seen that this black cloud ball is like a huge meteorite, even larger than the entire Angel Island.

Crackling...

It can be clearly seen that the black cloud ball is raging with thunder and lightning, and after falling, it explodes, which can definitely destroy Angel Island.

Luffy, who keeps climbing up, knows that he can't let the cloud ball continue to go down, then Enilo will launch a thunder attack, and Angel Island will be over.

Now that he has come here and his strength has changed, Angel Island cannot be destroyed.

Therefore, it must be blocked.

Lei Ying's power is indeed powerful, even if he wants to destroy it, he has to be serious.

Attack with all your strength, but also defend with all your strength.

Luffy stared at the huge black cloud ball, raised his left hand in front of his mouth, and said in a serious voice:

"Then...you can only drive in fourth gear."

Chapter 061: The Miracle of Sauron's Great Thousand World Destroyer!

Facing Lei Ying, who has the power to destroy an island, Luffy plans to use gear 4, which is also the first time he uses gear 4 after coming out of the teaching space.

However, just when Luffy was about to open the fourth gear, he found that Zoro was rapidly ascending into the air.

This made Luffy not have the idea of using fourth gear, and locked his eyes on Enilo.

"Then, Lei Ying will be handed over to you."

Now that Sauron has made a move, he can rest assured that he can beat Enilu by himself.

As the black spherical thundercloud was about to fall, and when it was still 500 meters above the ground, Sauron knew that he was about to make a move.

If you start later, even if you can defeat it, the bombing will affect Angel Island.

With a bang, Sauron jumped up, stepped on the air, and kept going up, obviously it was a moon step.

Sauron moon steps, just mastered not long ago.

Facing the falling spherical thundercloud that was bigger than Angel Island, Sauron held the knife in both hands and bit the knife in his mouth.

The knives in both hands are entangled with jet-black armed domineering, with cold eyes, and - singing in his mouth.

"Nine mountains and eight seas, - for one world..."

In an instant, everyone on Angel Island raised their heads, and their eyes were all focused on Sauron who was constantly rising into the sky.

"Look! Someone is rushing up."

"Are you from Qinghai?"

"Do you want to face Lei Ying alone? That is a terrifying miracle that can destroy an island."

"Is this going to cut off the miracle?"

"Trust them! We can only believe, we can't do anything at all."

"Yes, we are too weak and powerless in the face of miracles. I hope he can do it."

"I don't know why, looking at him, I feel so cool, and I can hear the singing, which makes me feel even cooler."

"However, facing the black ball-shaped thundercloud that is bigger than Angel Island, he looks too small, how could he destroy such a huge Lei Ying."

"Unless he has the strength to cut Angel Island in half with a single blow, otherwise..."

"Cut Angel Island in half with one knife... Is it possible... That's not strength, it's also a miracle."

...

For a moment, the people of Angel Island stared at Sauron who had risen into the sky.

Chapter 44

Although they felt that it was impossible in their hearts, at least it gave them a glimmer of hope, so that they would not be completely desperate.

The ground below the bean vine.

Ganfur looked up at Sauron, who was getting taller and taller, expecting:

"I can see the strength of another little brother, can I do it..."

Ganfur also finds it difficult, but Luffy, the captain of the Straw Hat Pirates, surprised him too much. Perhaps, he can be surprised or even shocked again.

As for Robin, Nami and the others, they were relieved and calm.

After Ganfur found out, his heart was shocked.

Such an expression...means absolute trust!

Which means... it's really possible...

Realizing this, Gamfur looked at Sauron intently.

Sauron continued to chant: "If you gather a thousand worlds, you will form a small thousand worlds. This world will be multiplied by three, and there will be no ego."

Sauron turned the two knives with both hands, dancing like a windmill, his whole body became sharper, his aura reached its peak, and his singing resounded throughout the world.

"Three swords style mystery! One big, three thousand, big thousand worlds!!"

"Zheng!!"

In the next moment, Sauron disappeared in a flash, accompanied by the sound of slashing and clanging that resounded through the world.

Sauron was still under the black spherical thundercloud one second ago, but the next second, he had already emerged above the thundercloud.

And the huge spherical thundercloud was split vertically into two halves from the middle!

The slashing raged and roared, and the dark clouds in the sky were all scattered.

In an instant, everyone on Angel Island, and even the entire Sky Island, and people of all races widened their eyes and opened their mouths wide, looking at the scene in the sky in horror.

Such a huge spherical thundercloud was cut in half!

Such a scene has a great visual impact!

Everyone in the sky island was extremely shocked, goosebumps all over their bodies, and they couldn't help but marvel.

"Too...too powerful!"

"A miracle is also a miracle!"

"It's too strong. It's unbelievable to cut the huge thunder cloud in half with one knife."

"Obviously facing Lei Ying, the person is so small, the knife is so small, but he can cut Leiyun in half. If the same huge meteorite falls, I'm afraid it can be done!"

...

At this moment, Chopper's eyes lit up: "It's so cool."

Sanji had to admit that Zoro's knife was really cool.

Sanji puffed out the smoke and muttered, "I let you get ahead, I wanted to kick this thundercloud."

Sanji really wanted to do it just now. After all, he heard the terrified cries of the entire Sky Island, especially the girls' frightened and cries, which he didn't want to hear.

Therefore, I naturally planned to do it, and let the angels and beauties of the entire sky island see my heroic appearance by the way.

At that time, all the women in Sky Island would focus their eyes on him, and they would be excited just thinking about it.

However, when he was about to jump up, Sauron moved.

Therefore, Sanji is a little angry now, stealing his limelight.

At this moment, Ganfur was extremely shocked.

Surprised by the knife that bounds the world, he cut Lei Ying in half.

I'm afraid that Angel Island could also be cut in half if it were to slash Angel Island.

"What a terrifying slash, what a powerful swordsman, this knife is a miracle."

Ganfur couldn't help marveling, showing joy, and heaved a sigh of relief.

Angel Island was saved, and thousands of people were saved.

This knife cut Lei Ying open, cut off the haze on Angel Island, and wiped out the miracle.

Boom!

The terrifying roar erupted, naturally because Sauron's knife cut Lei Ying in half, so it exploded in the air.

0...Ask for flowers...

Five hundred meters, Angel Island can bear it.

Sauron, who was at close range, naturally had to bear it at close range, launching chopping waves, and constantly defeating the explosive power.

"Black Rope Tornado!"

The storm roared, dispelling the power of the thundercloud explosion.

After the bombing, the sky was blue and bright, and everyone on Angel Island couldn't help but close their eyes.

After the roar dissipated and the light got used to it, everyone opened their eyes excitedly. Angel Island was fine, they were fine, and Lei Ying had completely dissipated.

The dark clouds in the sky also dispersed due to the bombing, and the sky returned to a clear sky.

Luffy, who was walking up the bean vine, saw it and admired: "It's really you, Zoro."

Luffy knew that Sauron could handle it.

The people of Angel Island cheered unceasingly.

"Great! Saved!"

"Thank you Qinghai Swordsman for saving us!"

.....

"It's not a swordsman, it's a sword god! It's a miracle!"

"You don't have to die, thank you so much, my family is also well, thank you so much."

...

The people of Sky Island are extremely grateful, and are already thinking about how to repay.

At this moment, Ganfort realized a problem, which made him even more shocked.

Straw Hat Pirates, he has now seen the strength of three people.

Luffy, Zoro, Chopper.

The reason for the shock was because of Sanji's words just now.

Ganfur looked at Sanji and asked in surprise, "If you did it just now, would you be able to destroy this Lei Ying?"

Not only Ganfur was curious, but Nami, Chopper, Usopp, and Robin were also curious.

They heard what Sanji said just now, that he could kick Lei Ying with one kick.

Zoro slashed Lei Ying with a knife, and Sanji kicked him to death. Is it really okay?

Right now, the Straw Hats don't know each other how strong they are and what their limits are.

I only know that everyone is very strong after cultivation, but it is not clear how strong they are.

Being looked at like this, Sanji enjoyed it very much, took a puff of cigarette, raised his head slightly, breathed out the smoke, and said very calmly:

"of course can."

Sanji didn't talk big, after all, his strongest kick now is not the devil's wind kick.

"Wow, Sanji, it's amazing." Chopper was amazed and looked forward to it, but knew he couldn't see it.

Nami, Usopp, and Robin are also shocked, so Sanji is also amazing.

Ganfur exclaimed in his heart: "Sure enough, as I thought, they are all monsters."

At this moment, Sanji and the others were taken aback, while Robin's expression changed!

"Ah Lala...I finally found you."

Hearing this voice, Robin felt familiar for the first time!

Following the sound, Robin's eyes widened and his pupils shrank!

Admiral! Aokiji! Inch.

Chapter 062 Thor Wants to Melt the Sun God?

At this moment, Luffy looked down and noticed a person coming.

Luffy saw it clearly, it was Aokiji.

However, Luffy didn't go down, because he was about to reach the ark.

Whoosh!

Luffy jumped up and landed on the ark.

Luffy is not worried, and believes: "Zoro, Sanji, General, I will leave it to you to deal with, I will shoot this guy first."

At this time, Ai Nilu was still shaking, and his Lei Ying was cut in half by a knife, and exploded in the air, and Angel Island was not destroyed.

"how come..."

As a god, he was shocked again.

How could a swordsman be so strong? He thought it was a miracle to create Lei Ying, but the knife just now was also a miracle.

Ai Nilu knew that among Qinghai's group, the straw hat in front of him was the boss, but he didn't expect that the others were so strong.

Enilu felt it was a pity: "What a pity, you are fully qualified to go to the infinite land with me, seeing your performance, as a god, I can even invite you again, will you go?"

Luffy shook his head decisively: "No."

This made Anilu angry. As a god, he let himself lose in the game before, mocked himself, and hurt himself.

Logically speaking, with my temper, I wouldn't send "four five seven" to invite a second time.

But now, he sent out again, but was still rejected, how could he not be angry.

"Don't think you can defeat God! How can a mere rubber man defeat Thor?"

Enel's whole body was raging with electric current. Although he was beaten by Luffy just now, he was still confident.

"Since you are here, then, accept God's punishment! Next, I will be the real Thor!"

Enilo exploded the thunder fruit ability with all his strength, his whole body was covered by blue lightning, his body suddenly became huge, his hair was raised, and his hair was full of anger, his whole body was covered by blue lightning, just like a real * of thunder.

"Two hundred million volts, Thor!"

Enilo entered his strongest form, and the electric current raged all over his body.

However, Lu Fei looked indifferent and didn't care: "So what about the real Thor."

Hearing this, Enilo was furious. From the beginning to the present, it has been like this. He has never been afraid at all, and he always looks down on himself.

"Let me see, you are a rubber man, how can you defeat me Thor!"

Lu Fei said confidently: "I want to ring the golden bell, so I will use you as the bell and pestle!"

These words made Anilu's whole body explode like lightning, and every cell in his body was shaking with anger.

A bell will be struck with a piece of wood to make a bell. This piece of wood is called a bell.

There is no golden bell, and the straw hat wants to use itself as a bell pestle to ring the golden bell, how can this make him not angry.

Enil said in a deep voice: "It seems that you believe in the legend that as long as the golden bell rings again, the war will end."

Luffy nodded: "I believe."

Enel was angry and arrogant: "I am a god, you are just a superhuman rubber man, how can you defeat me, God, I will definitely solve you."

Looking at the still proud Enilo, Luffy actually wanted to say: I am not a superhuman, I am actually a phantom beast, the sun god.

However, if you can't say it, you won't believe it.

After all, it looks like rubber at the moment.

Ai Nilu punched out, and a huge thunderbolt shot out instantly, at an extremely fast speed, so fast that it disappeared in a flash, making it difficult to dodge.

Enilo felt that it was impossible for the straw hat to dodge, this attack was like ordinary people facing lightning, and it was impossible to dodge in the face of lightning.

Chapter 45

When lightning strikes, human beings can only be hit by unlucky luck.

Therefore, I feel that Luffy can only fight back.

However, Luffy closed his eyes, which puzzled Enilo.

While closing his eyes, he moved quickly, but did not completely avoid the terrifying 200 million volt lightning that was five meters in diameter and a thousand meters long.

The right arm was scratched, but Luffy was covered with domineering armor, and the injury to his right hand was not too serious.

This shocked Enilo, why did he close his eyes and almost escaped.

Enilo felt that it was impossible to dodge, and he would definitely be hit completely, but it turned out that only his right arm was scratched.

Moreover, the right arm has not been disabled, how could it be possible, this is an attack of 200 million volts under the * of thunder.

Luffy shook his head dissatisfied: "It's still close, it's okay, continue, completely concentrate."

Luffy still closed his eyes, concentrating.

This made Anilu even more puzzled, why did he do this? Why not attack, just close your eyes and wait?

"court death!"

Anilu blasted out with both hands, this time it was two terrifying lightning bolts of 200 million volts.

Luffy is still dodging, this time it is more difficult because there are two ways.

He still couldn't dodge all of them, and was scratched on both sides of his body, but the injury was still not serious.

This made Enilo wonder why, this is an attack of 200 million volts, even if it is rubber, even an insulator, it must melt in the face of 200 million volts of lightning.

but why? Why doesn't it melt? Not to mention melting, there are no serious injuries, it can be said to be skin trauma!

This made Anilo doubt his life, did he still use Thunderbolt?

However, seeing the bean vines in the distance being attacked and instantly turning into scorched black nothingness filled the air, Enilo was convinced that the terrifying Lei Wei of 200 million volts.

But, why can't the rubber man be melted away?

Could it be because of the domineering color of the weapon?

Enilu looked at the darkness covering his skin, and frowned.

Love you Liu Xinjing: "Because of this armed domineering? Could it be that I am really ignorant? No, it is impossible. Even if the defense can be enhanced and hit the natural system, it is impossible to withstand 200 million volts. Even if Qinghai has stronger Yes, it's impossible to be too strong, it's impossible for someone in Qinghai who has mastered the domineering weaponry to withstand my 200 million volts of thunder."

Ai Nilu felt that it had nothing to do with the domineering color of the weapon, and the more he thought about it, the more confused he became, and he even snarled and asked:

"Why! Why can't my 200 million volt lightning melt you! Even a rubber man can't be fine, why can't it melt you!"

Looking at Luffy who closed his eyes indifferently, God's Enilo broke the defense.

As a god, he once again asked human beings.

Luffy wanted to say, how could Thor's thunder and lightning melt the sun god.

However, Luffy wanted to say this more: "Because you are not a god."

"hateful!"

Enel continued to attack, but soon found that Luffy could even dodge it completely.

Even before he launched an attack, Luffy seemed to know where he was going to attack and where.

This surprised Anilao, why did he bring so many shocks to himself, and even one wave was stronger than the other.

I am a god, how could I be so shocked, even puzzled, I am ignorant.

Lu Fei opened his eyes happily: "Almost mastered 0...."

Apparently, Luffy refers to the domineering and knowledgeable person who foresees the short future.

In the original plot, it was only after the battle with Ka Er that I initially grasped it. Now, I have initially grasped it.

In fact, when teaching the space, it was close. Occasionally, you can see it once or twice, and you haven't mastered it yet, but after you come out, Luffy will continue to practice. In addition to the battle just now, Luffy didn't dodge because he needed to dodge. Continue to hone.

Lu Fei's fists were black, he clenched his fists and hit it, and said in a stern voice: "Okay, now I will fly you and hit the golden bell."

"Ahhhhh!!!"

Enilo exploded with anger, roared incompetently, and went crazy, it can be said that he was mad by anger.

It's too shameful, I treated myself as a training partner just now, so I didn't dodge or attack.

"You have completely angered God! Die!"

Enilu's huge palms blasted out together, terrifying thunder and lightning raged, and with the strongest blow, an even bigger thunder and lightning rushed out.

Luffy's right hand swelled, his arms stretched backwards, his fists were filled with more terrifying power, and became pitch black, like elephant legs, giving people a feeling of violent power.

Luffy let out a low growl: "Rubber Thor Gun!"

Hearing this, Enilu's face changed, Thor is like a gun? Even with the word Thor.

Enilu's face was ugly, why, and he growled more and more, he couldn't lose! If Thor himself is defeated by this Thor's Elephant Spear, it would be too shameful!

boom!

In the next moment, the terrifying thunderbolt collided with Luffy's Thor gun, one black and one blue.

The collision was at the center of the distance between the two, and there was a stalemate.

This move can be said to be the strongest move in Luffy's third gear.

The thunder and lightning raged, and Enilo burst out the power of the thunderous fruit, trying to repel Luffy and let the huge thunder and lightning continue to move forward. But no matter how it explodes, it still cannot move forward.

Instead, Luffy roared, his fists kept moving forward, defeating Thunder.

Enilu's eyes widened, his pupils constricted, and he felt uneasy.

Luffy growled, his teeth were clenched, and the veins on his face were bulging.

"Without a little compassion 3.1, what kind of * is he? Let's fall to the altar!"

boom!

Click!

Suddenly, the Thunder God's Elephant spear rushed forward, the thunder and lightning continued to shatter, and completely collapsed in the roar, and the Thor Elephant Gun blasted Ainilu's whole body.

The front of Enilo's body was sunken, and the pain was excruciating. It was more painful than the grizzly bear just now. His internal organs and bones were about to shatter, and his body was about to explode due to the terrifying force.

"what!"

Enilu let out a shrill scream, his body suddenly flew upside down at a faster speed, his consciousness was about to dissipate, and the last thought before dissipating, God, he was defeated...

Eneru was ashamed, unwilling, and screamed in his heart before his consciousness completely collapsed: "I am a god, and I lost to a rubber man, no!"

However, if it is known that Luffy is actually the sun * in the future, Enilo will not be so collapsed. But obviously no chance.

boom!

clang! !

The sound of the collision sounded, but it was instantly covered by the loud bell, which was so loud that it resounded through the world.

Enilu hit the golden bell, spat out a mouthful of blood mixed with broken internal organs, his eyes were cracked, and he was in extreme pain.

With the impact, the bell echoed between heaven and earth.

Lu Fei said in a loud voice: "Uncle, did you hear that, the Golden Country exists!".

Chapter 063 Straw Hats: What About the Admiral?

The bell echoed, under the empty island.

Kuri Kate heard it and looked up at the sky with joy on his face.

There is no excitement, excitement, because he believes that there is, and now, it has been verified.

Listening to the bell, Kuri Kate knew that Luffy did it.

They also really understand why there is such a huge monster appearing together with the cumulus cloud. Now it is clear that it is not a monster that is so huge that it stands up to the sky, but someone in the sky. In the fog, that scene appeared.

Hearing the loud golden bell, Kuri Kate could confidently say that sentence.

"The land of gold is indeed in the sky, my ancestor Rolando is not a liar!"

Kuri Kate was extremely grateful: "Thank you, Luffy."

...

Listening to the bell, everyone in Sky Island was excited and excited.

"Great, it's over!"

"Enilo has been defeated! Sky Island is free!"

"Thank you so much."

...

The people in Sky Island were very grateful and began to raise money one after another. This was the only thing they could do.

Because they know that the people of Qinghai will leave soon, this is just an island for their journey, and they will not stay for long, so giving money, supplies, etc. is what they can do.

Under the bean vine.

After hearing Robin's words, Sanji's expression changed, Admiral?

Admirals, they know it. After all, there is a template for the teaching space, although they have not chosen it.

What Robin said was, Admiral Aokiji!

They remembered that it was a frozen fruit ability user!

Sauron had already landed, staring at the approaching Aokiji.

clang!

At this time, the bell echoed, and Robin and the others looked up into the sky.

They are all 04's joyful expressions, especially Ganfur, Enelu was defeated.

Usopp is proud: "Luffy, good job."

Robin praised: "It's really beautiful."

Ganfur was excited: "I knew that this day would always come, thank you, little straw hat brother."

"Ah Lala, I was ignored."

Aokiji's words brought Robin and the others back to their senses and stopped looking at the sky.

After all, the general is still here.

What is the purpose of coming here? Don't think about it, they are pirates.

But Robin blamed himself in his heart, and felt that the general even came to Sky Island, perhaps because of his own reasons.

Sure enough, I still can't have a companion, otherwise I will be implicated by myself.

Although she knows that Luffy and the others are very powerful, she is more aware of the horror of the Admiral, which is the highest combat power of the Navy Headquarters.

Knowing that he was a general, Sauron and the others rose in momentum.

Qingzhi said calmly: "Don't look so murderous. Although I came here after accepting the mission, I accept that I just want to take a walk. When I came here for the first time, I wanted to take a walk here. Sleeping here should be better."

Sanji said in a deep voice: "The admiral came here and appeared in front of us with no intentions, we don't believe it."

Sauron said in a condensed voice: "I have to be cautious, after all, I am an admiral of the navy."

Sauron has fought against Hawkeye's level before, and he knows how powerful Hawkeye is, and he knows that there is still a gap between him and Hawkeye. However, Sauron also knows that the admiral is as powerful as Hawkeye at least, so he must be cautious.

Sanji and the others also understand that it can't be as simple as taking a walk, and they will definitely fight with them.

After all, they were so famous during this period of time, and they could have imagined that there would be today, but they didn't expect the navy to move so fast, and even sent a general directly.

However, it is not very surprising.

After all, not long after setting out to sea, the reputation of the Straw Hat Pirates was too great.

The battle between Hawkeye and Sauron, Luffy's strength, and the first reward all shocked the world.

Luffy's second reward, directly one billion, shocked the world even more.

With constant voyages and adventures, the Straw Hat Pirates have become more famous and their number is increasing, which is also known to the world.

Although the number is not large, including Robin, there are a total of seven people, but everyone in the world knows that the Straw Hat Pirates are not about numbers, but about strength.

Chapter 46

Similar to the Red Hair Pirates, they take the elite route, even more elite than the Red Hair Pirates.

Many people know that although the Straw Hat Pirates have just been established and now have seven members, they are already an extremely powerful pirate group with a great reputation.

This kind of growth rate and reputation, the navy will naturally attach great importance to them, and they must be strangled, otherwise, in the eyes of the navy, the future will inevitably be as troublesome as the four emperors.

Then, it is naturally impossible for the navy to take no action against them.

Now this scene, they can predict.

Qingzhi was helpless, and his voice was a bit more solid: "Little buddies, although I have accepted the mission to arrest you, it doesn't seem easy. As long as you give me a step down and let me take someone away, then I will just go."

Although Sauron and the others were taken aback by these words, they did not expect to say such words.

I am also puzzled in my heart, take a person away? with whom?

Sauron and the others found that Aokiji's eyes were fixed on Robin.

This makes them wonder, why? Robin just boarded the ship, the navy probably didn't know about it, but the main target was Robin?

Even if Robin is caught, it's okay to not arrest them and the gang?

Looking at Robin, Aokiji sighed, "Long time no see, you've grown up, Nicole Robin."

Robin's face became extremely heavy, and he was nervous and apprehensive, not knowing what to do.

She doesn't want to be taken away, because she still has to do that thing, she must do it, and inherit O'Hara's will.

But, if you don't leave, the admiral will attack Sauron and the others.

Robin was so tangled that he couldn't help but sit on the ground.

Nami was surprised: "It actually made Robin so nervous."

Sanji comforted: "Miss Robin, don't be afraid, we are here."

Usopp asked for confirmation: "Robin, is he really an admiral? He looks different from what I imagined."

In Usopp's mind, he felt that the admiral should be a very majestic and terrifying existence, but this one in front of him looks very lazy and peaceful.

Aokiji said, "Hey, do you think I don't look like me? How can you judge a person just by their appearance?"

Aokiji wore a white suit, put his hands in his pockets, and said lazily: "My purpose as a navy is to implement lazy justice."

Usopp asked: "Why do you want to take Robin?"

Although the opponent was an admiral, Usopp made himself brave.

Sanji said: "No matter why, you don't need to know."

Qingzhi was not in a hurry, sat down cross-legged, and started talking.

"I'm a little tired from standing, so I'll sit down and tell you. Nicole Robin, her bounty is 80 million Baileys."

Hearing this, Usopp and the others were surprised. Although they are not as good as Luffy, Sauron, and Sanji, they are still very powerful.

However, Aokiji continued: "The amount of the bounty offered not only indicates the level of strength, but also the size of the threat to the world government. Because when you were eight years old, you became a prisoner with a bounty of 79 million Baileys."

Hearing this, Usopp and the others were even more astonished. At the age of eight...

What Aokiji means is not because of strength, so what kind of threat is it?

Let the world government directly offer the first reward to the eight-year-old Robin, 79 million Baileys.

Aokiji continued: "Although he is a child, he has become flexible.

Betrayed, fled, flattered, and used people. He has survived in the dark society with his clever mind. This time, the hiding place you chose, Is this the group of people?"

Aokiji smiled: "The choice is good. After all, it is the recently famous rookie pirate group. It can be said that it is an unprecedented rookie pirate group. After a while, it has a great reputation. But it is also a wrong choice."

Aokiji glanced at Sanji and the others, and reminded: "I want to take her away, you better not stop me. After all, if I take her away, I don't have to do anything to you and catch you. And, you will regret it soon Let such a troublesome woman on board, and regret letting her be your partner. The best proof is that all the organizations that have been involved with Nico Robin so far have perished, and she was the only one who survived. Why is this? "

Speaking of this, Aokiji stood up, which made Zoro and the others frown, and Robin became more and more uneasy.

Aokiji stared at Robin, and his voice became low, which shocked Robin's heart.

"Nicole Robin, choose to follow me, or do you implicate them? Continue as before, they all perish, and you survive alone?"

Robin's pupils shrank, his expression was complicated, he was tangled, and he really didn't want to.

The destruction of O'Hara, the death of the mother, the death of the magi, the death of the common people.

Robin is not reconciled, if he fails, there is really no hope.

But, in front of them, there is also despair, they will be arrested, they will all be arrested, instead of being arrested, it is better to be taken away, in exchange for the safety of Nami and others.

Robin stood up, and she spoke after a long silence.

"This time, let me sacrifice in exchange for everyone's survival."

Robin looked at Aokiji and made a choice.

"I'll go with you."

After saying that, Robin moved his right foot, ready to walk forward.

But, suddenly, a figure descended from the sky!

Whoosh!

boom!

The figure fell down, holding the straw hat on his head with his left hand, and resting his right hand on the ground.

Impressively, Luffy.

Where Luffy landed was in front of Robin. He stood up, blocked Robin, stared at Aokiji, and whispered domineeringly.

"I won't let you take her away. If you have to do that, then...try it!"

boom! boom! boom! boom! boom!

After Luffy finished speaking, five loud footsteps sounded. It was Zoro, Sanji, Usopp, Nami, and Chopper who took a step forward and stood shoulder to shoulder with Luffy! Keep Robin behind!

The next moment, Lu Fei and others shouted in unison.

"Come on! Admiral!"

Chapter 064 Straw hats are like royalty!

The scene in front of him shocked Aokiji.

All of them put on a fighting posture. This momentum gave him a feeling that it was not like a rookie pirate group.

Even if it is a supernova, it is impossible to have such an aura.

Aokiji's heart trembled, as if, as if the pirate group in front of him was not a rookie pirate group, but a royal group feeling!

Robin, who was protected behind, stared blankly at the backs of Lu Fei and the others. At this moment, she was no longer uneasy, but inexplicably relieved and calmed down.

Robin's eyes were full of crystal, his heart was moved, and he whispered:

"Luffy...everyone..."

It's been a long time since I felt this way, being protected.

There was this feeling, a long time ago, when O'Hara was protected by her mother.

Lu Fei turned his head and grinned: "Robin, what nonsense did you just say, we don't agree to go with him."

"But..."

Robin wanted to say something, but was interrupted by Luffy.

"We don't care what you did before, but now, you are our...partner!"

In the end, the word "partner" echoed in Robin's ears, and his heart was very warm. It was the first time he felt this way after leaving O'Hara.

Pororo Poro...

At this time, the phone bug sounded.

Aokiji connected, it was from the Warring States Period.

"How is it? Have you met?"

Warring States is actually a little unhappy, after all, it has been so long. I thought I could meet in Alabasta and take down the Straw Hats, but I haven't met them until now.

Warring States wants to do it as soon as possible, and doesn't want the Straw Hats to continue to grow and expand.

It's a disgrace to the navy that the admiral has been dispatched, and it's been so long since we haven't seen the Straw Hats.

Qingzhi said: "I have already met, right in front of me, ready to attack."

Zhan Guo understood, breathed a sigh of relief, and hung up directly:

"Then I won't bother you, waiting for your good news."

After hanging up, Zhan Guo was in a good mood. It seemed that in his eyes, the Straw Hats would soon be defeated by Kuzan, and they would all be frozen into ice sculptures. They would be arrested and imprisoned in Advance City.

Warring States is in a good mood: "Finally we can end the Straw Hats.

During this period of time, they are too famous to continue. Otherwise, more people will want to become pirates. It is not allowed to follow their example. Yes, and let's not allow this kind of pirate group to grow. It is so strong now, and it will continue to grow, and it is really not impossible to become a royal class in the future."

Warring States felt that it was even possible.

The four emperors are enough to cause headaches for the navy and the world government, otherwise, the existence of the four emperors would not be allowed.

He didn't do anything because he didn't dare, and he didn't want to fight easily. If there is another fifth emperor, the pressure will be even greater and the headache will be even greater.

Therefore, they must kill them, and they also believe that although the Straw Hats are hot and strong, they will definitely lose in the face of the general.

Warring States waited for the good news, and felt that Kuzan's call would come soon to inform him of the good news.

Warring States asked someone to order tea for himself, and began to drink and wait.

Karp is also there, knowing that Kuzan has met the Straw Hat Pirates, his heart is naturally heavy.

Even sitting in the marshal's office, Garp's heavy face did not hide it.

Warring States understood, but chose to ignore.

Garp was worried in his heart: "Luffy... I hope you can survive."

...

empty island.

At this time, Aokiji was ready to do something, and the whole body was already filled with cold air.

Sauron said: "Luffy, you solved that so-called god, so, this general, leave it to us."

Sanji also agreed: "Luffy, you have shown off in front of all the girls in Sky Island, this time, it's me."

Usopp also felt that he was not what he used to be, and said, "Yes, leave it to us, Luffy, go and protect Robin."

Luffy thought for a while, and it was enough, so he backed away.

"Okay, that's up to you."

After the words fell, Luffy stood beside Robin.

Robin was surprised and worried: "Don't worry about me, you will pay (aedb) together..."

Before finishing speaking, Lu Fei smiled and said to himself: "It's okay, they can do it."

After all, today is not what it used to be. If you have to deal with an admiral, all of the Straw Hats have to fight together, that would be a waste of practice.

Luffy sat cross-legged and gestured to Robin.

"Robin, sit down with me and watch. You should be as curious as I am. I'm also curious about how strong they are."

Although he has fought against Sauron, Luffy knows that he has never shown his true strength, full strength.

Seeing Luffy's indifference and confidence, Robin nodded heavily and chose to believe.

Although it is outrageous, the rookie pirates are so young, facing the admiral, although there is only one, but he is an admiral.

You know, there are only three admirals.

However, since Luffy said so, he chose to believe it.

Qingzhi was even more surprised, because he didn't expect to face him, and he didn't even fight together.

Although it is a well-known rookie pirate group, it also depends on who it is compared with.

Aokiji wasn't angry either, just feel free, looked at Luffy, and sighed: "You are very similar to your grandpa, Monkey D Luffy."

Chapter 47

Luffy said: "You know my grandpa."

"I have been taken care of by your grandfather, but I will not show mercy." Aokiji became serious.

Luffy was more than happy, and reminded: "You don't have to be merciful, otherwise, you may be the one who suffers."

This made Qingzhi startled, and smiled: "Really, then I am very interested, to see your real strength."

For the Straw Hats, Luffy offered a bounty of one billion, and Aokiji thought it was a match.

Sauron, the pirate hunter, has a bounty of 350 million.

Chef Sanji has a bounty of 200 million Baileys.

Aokiji didn't know whether they matched or not, but felt that the lowest reward was this kind.

Others, who haven't been rewarded yet, know their names, Nami the navigator, Usopp the sniper, and Chopper the ship doctor.

It looked like a pet, but in the next moment, Chopper suddenly became huge, turning into a human-beast form, with powerful momentum, thick muscles, and even covered with jet-black armed domineering.

Nami holds the weather stick and becomes pitch black, covering the armed color domineering.

Sanji's right foot suddenly ignited, Zoro put on a three-sword style posture, Usopra pulled the slingshot, aimed at himself, and his eyes were sharp.

At this moment, Aokiji was shocked by the momentum displayed by the five people in front of him.

"Is it an illusion, or..."

The green pheasant is a little hard to imagine, because the aura it shows is like a royal group!

The rookie Pirates, the Straw Hat Pirates, even gave him, as a general, the aura of a royal regiment! .

Chapter 065 Aokiji: It's Like Fighting the Royal Corps

Aokiji couldn't believe it in his heart, and felt that this was impossible.

The rookie pirate group is all young people, how could it be like the royal group.

"Maybe it's just the aura."

Aokiji thinks this way, in terms of strength, he will soon~know.

Aokiji made a move directly, raising the - with his right hand, aiming at Robin.

"Ice cube, burst pheasant's beak!"

Suddenly, a lifelike ice bird rushed towards Robin with extremely cold air, extremely fast.

Sauron and the others were naturally angry when they saw Aokiji directly attacking Robin.

"Did you ignore us, * it?"

Sanji was about to make a move, but Zoro said, "I'll do it."

Sauron suddenly shouted in a low voice: "Three Swords Technique, Azure Dragon Cry!"

Suddenly, a lifelike green dragon came out and collided with the ice bird.

Amidst the roar, the ice bird was crushed, and the green dragon also dispersed.

This made Aokiji shiver, and his swordsmanship was very strong.

Moreover, the most important thing is that only the opponent's attack alone defeated his own attack.

Aokiji sighed softly: "You guys are really good. It seems that it is impossible to go around you and win Nico Robin. Then, let's fight you seriously."

Qingzhi grabbed two handfuls of grass with both hands, and blew left and right, the cold air swept across, and the grass blades froze, turning into two ice skates.

Aokiji holds two ice skates in his hands, and they are covered with jet-black armored domineering colors. The ice skates are harder, and at the same time, the cold air is biting.

Zoro suddenly assumed the posture of drawing the sword, and the sword became pitch black.

"One sword, black sword, death, lion singing!"

Whoosh!

Suddenly, Zoro disappeared in a flash, and in the next moment, appeared behind Aokiji.

As for the green pheasant, who was not injured, he used the ice blade to block it, but with a click, the ice blade shattered.

Even Aokiji's hands went numb from the shock.

This knife was very strong, and made Aokiji more aware of Sauron's strength.

Even, at the moment of the collision, Aokiji planned to use the freezing moment, and the cold air was instantly released through the ice skates to freeze Zoro, but the speed was too fast to succeed.

Before Aokiji could react, Sanji had already arrived in an instant, shaving at a very fast speed.

Aokiji was amazed, why did he know the Sixth Form of the Navy.

Just now Zoro flew high into the sky, and Aokiji also saw it, using moon steps, why the Straw Hat Pirates almost all know the Sixth Form of the Navy.

"Devil's foot, veal SHOT!"

Flashing to Aokiji's side in an instant, Sanji's right foot ignited, kicking quickly, the power was extremely strong, Aokiji could clearly feel it, his heart was shocked, and he didn't dare to be careless.

Aokiji understands that he is a strong physicist, and his feet are strong.

boom!

With one quick kick, Aokiji quickly raised his other hand, and slashed out with the ice blade.

At the moment of the collision, Aokiji's hand was shaken, and instead of shaking Sanji away, he remained in a stalemate.

As Sanji's foot exerted force, the ice blade in Aokiji's hand trembled.

Aokiji was surprised in his heart: "What a strong force, what a strong kick."

Aokiji is unexpected, so strong.

If Garp is strong in physical skills, strong in iron fist, then Sanji is strong in feet.

On the skates, the cold was raging, but it didn't freeze Sanji's feet because of the burning flames.

Sanji kicked hard, and with a click, the skates shattered.

At the same time, behind Aokiji, Sauron moved.

"Three-sword style, pole, tiger hunting!"

"Roar!"

Suddenly, a blue tiger roared out, and bit the green pheasant from above, with a frightening momentum.

The green pheasant didn't dare to be careless, raised the other hand, and sent out the ice pheasant again.

However, when the ice pheasant condensed, Usopp in the distance had already aimed at it.

"Must kill, flame ball!"

As the ice pheasant came out, as soon as it came out, it was hit by the flame ball, bombed, and dissipated.

The green pheasant is shaking, so accurate, it shoots when it launches an attack, and it hits precisely, this prediction, this accuracy. And this sniping power is also extremely strong.

Aokiji stared sideways in shock, dignified: "The sniper of the Straw Hats."

Aokiji has a heavy heart and is a strong sniper.

The ice pheasant collapsed, and the fierce tiger came roaring.

At the same time, a figure flew to his side in an instant.

"shave!"

It was Chopper who rushed over quickly, and took a blue wave pill while moving, and his whole body was strengthened.

The already burly and muscular body became even more burly, and his muscles swelled with a punch.

Chopper's arms were thick and his fists were clenched tightly, covered in pitch-black armed domineering, both fists blasted out, facing the right side of Aokiji's body.

"Six Types of Mysteries, Six King Spears!"

This shocked Aokiji, who did he learn from.

Whoosh!

Usopp moved quickly, and appeared to the left of Aokiji. While moving, he had already drawn his bow, and when he stopped for a moment after moving, he had finished shooting.

This made Aokiji look sideways and frown, this sniper ability shocked him again.

Already shot, shot what?

Aokiji didn't notice it. What was shocking was that he was able to accurately shoot himself while moving at high speed?

However, I didn't see any bullets or more powerful ones.

"wrong."

The green pheasant looked down, and a few green beans jumped under his feet, which were very small.

"Bind the vines!"

In an instant, the vines under the feet of the green pheasant swept across and grew rapidly, binding the green pheasant.

And, it diffused from the ground, and then sprang out from under Usopp's feet.

Usopp held the vines in his hand, and the vines immediately covered the armed domineering.

In an instant, the vines wrapped around Aokiji turned black, which made Aokiji's eyes widen and pupils shrink.

"Thunder and lightning weather, the sky strikes with lightning!"

Qingzhi was shocked again, dark clouds appeared above his head, lightning flashed and thunder thundered, and the thunder and lightning suddenly fell.

For a moment, there was Sanji's demon wind foot in front, the tiger cut by Zoro in the back, Chopper's powerful six-king gun bombardment on the right, vine restraints on the bottom, Usopp aimed again on the left, and the bullets were pitch-black. It's not that the original eyes are evil, but it's domineering with armed colors.

And above, there is thunder and lightning.

For a while, Aokiji, as a general, felt the pressure, a lot of pressure!

At this moment, Aokiji had a thought, a heavy thought, and feeling.

Facing these five is like facing five cadres of the imperial regiment!

It seems that the general himself is not fighting five rookie pirates, but five powerful royal cadres!

Just now, Aokiji felt that the Straw Hats were as imposing as the Royals, and Aokiji thought it was impossible, but now, he was sure, not an exaggeration!

Facing the siege of five people, the lazy Aokiji was extremely dignified at this moment.

boom!

Boom boom boom!

A series of terrifying bombings erupted. In the center, the ground was sunken, gravels were flying, and various attacks erupted, including flame kicks, tiger slashing, thunder and lightning, and icy air.

Although the result hasn't come out yet, Ganfort is already stunned, standing there watching blankly.

Ganfor murmured to himself: "Too...too strong..."

Now Ganfor is extremely sure that everyone in the Straw Hats is a monster! Each one is powerful!

Robin was also stunned, extremely shocked, I didn't expect everyone to be so strong!

Looking at the shocked Robin, Luffy said: "Although he is a general, it is impossible for him to take you away. As for everyone's strength, even if they are so strong, don't be too shocked. You will be very strong soon. "

0...Ask for flowers...

Robin was happy. He was worried that he would drag everyone down, but now it seems that maybe he can really fight against the admiral!

The most important thing is that Luffy hasn't made a move yet.

Robin was not so heavy, and felt relieved: "Great, everyone is so powerful. Although they are generals, there is hope. And, Luffy, you haven't done anything yet."

Robin felt hopeful, after all, Luffy must be the strongest of the seven.

Luffy corrected: "Well, there is hope, but I won't do it, they are enough. I even think that five of them will bully the general."

Robin was stunned, a little bullying the general...

This, although five people join forces, but the opponent is a general.

Looking at the astonished Robin, Luffy smiled and said, "Let's put it this way, if it's the royal group, take the red-haired pirates. The five strongest cadres of the red-haired group teamed up to deal with a general Aokiji, right? It's too bullying."

Saying this, Robin was shocked, and thinking about it this way, it was true.

Luffy continued: "Everyone may not be that strong yet, but it won't be too bad."

Chapter 48

Robin looked at the bombing center, staring intently at the result.

.....0

Gunpowder smoke, cold air, crackling thunder and lightning raged, and then dispersed.

Robin saw clearly that in the center, Aokiji parried, counterattacked, and defended against all attacks, but was also injured, a little embarrassed, and a smear of blood appeared at the corner of his mouth.

The icy air exploded and condensed instantly, forming a dense formation around the green pheasant, spreading all over the surrounding space, and hundreds of small ice swords were shot out at high speed.

Sauron and the others counterattacked, retreated, and shattered the ice sword, but they were not injured.

Qingzhi wiped the blood from the corner of his mouth, touched all parts of his body, his face twitched slightly.

"It hurts." Aokiji sighed softly.

Sauron and the others put on an attacking posture again, and they also knew that it was impossible to defeat the general in the siege just now, and it was impossible to end the battle in a short time.

Qingzhi exclaimed: "I really underestimated you. Although they are newcomers, they are all monsters. Even fighting with you makes me feel like fighting with five cadres of the imperial regiment."

Aokiji's whole body was filled with cold air, and he was ready to go all out.

Put your mind right, you can't think of it as facing five newcomers, you really have to treat it as facing five royal cadres, or even if you change it to fighting Akainu, Aokiji thinks that you have to be more serious.

A powerful swordsman with extremely fast movement speed, powerful kicks, reindeer with strong physical skills, strength, and speed, and extremely strong sniper ability, ranking among the best in the world.

There are also navigators in the distance, long-range attacks.

At this moment, Aokiji has a lot of pressure in his heart and must fight with all his strength.

"Ah Lala, I thought this task would be easier, but I didn't expect the pressure to be so great. I knew that guy Sakaski would come."

Aokiji's words are obviously a headache, I don't want to work so hard, it will be very tiring.

Next, Luffy's words changed Aokiji's face.

"Nami, Chopper, you two stand back, Zoro, Sanji, and Usopp are enough to deal with him."

"it is good."

Nami and Chopper stopped and stepped back, ready to watch.

Aokiji wasn't angry. Although it looked a little shameful, they couldn't be regarded as newcomers.

Sanji's fighting spirit rose: "That's fine, five words may not force me to go all out, we three deal with it, since he is a general, then let's go all out.

Next, don't use the devil wind feet, but..."

In the next moment, Aokiji's eyes fixed on Sanji, and his expression changed.

Chapter 066

Aokiji's right leg was entangled with domineering cherry blossoms.

This let Aokiji know that it was Liu Ying.

And, I also know that Sanji will use a stronger move, no longer a devil's foot, so, what is it? An existence more terrifying than demons?

Sauron said: "Then I won't hide it anymore."

Sauron holds the knife in both hands, and the blade is wrapped around domineering.

This made Aokiji's face change, not only the black sword, covering the armed domineering, but also entangled, domineering domineering!

As a general, Aokiji naturally knows that wrapping domineering arrogance on weapons or attacks will increase the attack power after winding, and can substantially attack the enemy without touching the opponent within a certain distance. Only a very few top-level Only the strong can do it.

However, the next thing that was even more shocking was Sauron's movement of swinging the knife.

In an instant, he thought of a person, a person he had seen when he was young, One Piece, Roger!

When I was young at that time, I naturally couldn't fight against Roger's level. I followed Garp at that time and was fortunate to see the battle between Garp and Roger.

At that time, it shocked him that Roger's swordsmanship was also extremely powerful, especially the Sword God.

The power is powerful, and the name is even more domineering.

But now, Sauron holds the sword in both hands, with a domineering look and domineering entanglement. Is this a double-sword escape?

There is Sanji in the front, Zoro in the back, and far away from "460", there is an extremely terrifying sniper.

And, Aokiji was shocked again, this time the bullet was wrapped around

Liu Ying!

Liu Ying's domineering internal destruction, combined with this terrifying sniper ability, the speed of the bullet must be extremely fast, and it is difficult to dodge, so he was hit.

Aokiji was shocked. I thought the pressure would not be as great as it was just now, but the pressure now is even greater than before!

Ganfur has been numb from shock, it's too weird, one by one, and there is something hidden? horrible.

Nami and Chopper are looking forward to it. They know that everyone is very strong after training, but they have not seen the strongest hole card yet. Now that the three of them are facing the general, they have to go all out, and you can see it.

Luffy is also looking forward to it. After all, even he can't think of Sauron's strongest hole card.

After all, Sauron's teacher is not only Hawkeye, and Sanji is not only Ivankov.

There are other teaching templates, coupled with the cultivation environment, so Luffy is not very clear.

Zoro, Sanji, and Usopp are ready to attack at the same time.

"Dual Swordsmanship, Twin Gods..."

"Devil God..."

"Super killer...Liu Ying..."

However, just when the three of Sauron were about to go all out to fight and launch an attack, the cold air from Aokiji's body dissipated, and he returned to the lazy appearance just now.

"Ah Lala, forget it, stop fighting."

After saying that, Qingzhi was about to turn around and leave.

This made Sauron and the others stunned, stop fighting?

Usopp wanted to say, was he afraid?

But thinking about saying this, it might provoke the opponent. After all, he is an admiral, so if he can stop fighting, Usopp feels that it is not good to fight.

Even if you fight, you are not afraid.

Zoro and Sanji just came here because they wanted to fight, but seeing that Aokiji really stopped fighting, it wasn't for any tricks, and he really didn't feel the fighting spirit anymore.

"Hey, what are you doing, we are pirates, you are the admiral, don't you want to fight?" Sauron was a little unhappy.

He is happy to fight against the strong, and on the road to become the world's number one swordsman, he is destined to fight more strong ones.

Sanji was dissatisfied: "I'm going to show off in front of the beauties, don't you want to fight?"

At this time, many people in Sky Island gathered around, ready to thank Luffy and others, but found that the battle was continuing, not with Enilo's people.

Qingzhi walked towards Yunyu and waved his hand: "If you fight, you are not sure of success. Since you can't succeed, why do you fight? You have to make yourself so tired. So, forget it, don't fight."

Qingzhi said that he was not sure, but he was sure in his heart that it was impossible to succeed.

Facing the three combat powers of the Straw Hats, Aokiji felt that it was difficult. Although he didn't worry about being defeated if he fought, it was only the three of the Straw Hats who were fighting with him.

There are also powerful navigators, powerful ship doctors, and most importantly, Straw Hat Luffy didn't make a move.

Aokiji felt that among the Straw Hats, as the captain, the Straw Hat must be the strongest.

Even if he can defeat Sauron three, or even five, then, what about the straw hats joining?

Aokiji didn't think he could win, even though he was an admiral.

What Aokiji said made Usopp and the others speechless. Is this really an admiral? It's too casual and lazy.

Naturally, Luffy is not surprised, he can understand, this is lazy justice.

Only then did Nami and the others completely believe that they really stopped fighting and left like this.

However, did not completely relax, knowing that the future will be more difficult.

Although the general did not succeed in taking them down and left like this, he also had a clearer understanding of their group's fighting strength.

Then, the navy will definitely pay more attention, which is why it will be more difficult in the future.

Robin was extremely grateful in his heart, looked at Luffy and the others, and thanked: "Thank you."

Luffy was a little unhappy: "We are partners, so thank you for what you are doing."

Nami said: "Yes, you are too polite."
partner...

Robin's heart was touched, and he nodded with a smile.

After Aokiji left, people from Sky Island surrounded him, adoring and thanking him very much.

Everyone surrounded Luffy, threw them upwards, and cheered.

"Thank you so much!"

"Thank you, God is defeated, Sky Island is peaceful."

"Without you, we would be doomed. You are Sky Island's biggest benefactor! Whatever happens in the future, Sky Island will do its best to help!"

...

Their sincere thanks and pledged assurance.

Ganfur and other fighters are determined in their hearts. In order to thank the Straw Hat Pirates, they are willing to go up the mountain of swords and down the sea of fire.

War Ghost Wei Bo vowed: "If you need anything in the future, even if you say it, I will help you if you risk your life."

Luffy knew that they really wanted to thank him, and he gave an order, and the fighters of the sky island would go up and down for him.

The sky island warriors also have strength, especially Weber, who is strong and a man.

Luffy nodded, and he was not polite, which made them even more embarrassed.

Weber, Ganfort and the others nodded heavily, waiting for what Luffy would ask them to do in the future.

In the future, Luffy will naturally set up the Straw Hat Fleet as in the original plot, and the war ghost Webber is good, he can lead the Sandia warriors.

Sanji and the others didn't enjoy themselves, and they didn't care anymore. They will fight with all their strength, and even more difficult and dangerous battles, and they will meet sooner or later.

Even, it will be faster, after all, the Navy Headquarters will soon know that they are actually stronger.

The people of Sky Island prepared sumptuous drills for Luffy and the others, eating and eating delicious food, Luffy likes it the most.

Although the battle didn't consume too much energy, it wasn't very difficult, but they were all hungry. Even if they weren't hungry, seeing so many delicacies and the smell of aroma, their appetites increased greatly....

Lu Fei and others gobbled it up, eating and drinking, laughing and laughing.

After eating, Luffy and others looked happy and satisfied, lying on the beach, Luffy and Usopp's stomachs were bulging.

After eating, drinking, resting and digesting, Robin couldn't wait.

"I'm going to take a look." Robin was excited inside.

Luffy and others nodded and went with Robin.

Soon, under the golden bell, directly in front of the stone platform below, was engraved with a historical text that no one could understand.

There are many people from Angel Island gathered here.

"Elder, do you know what is written on it?"

"I don't know, but it might be a good thing not to know."

At this time, Robin walked to the main text of the history and read:

"I am the one who writes history, with the bells of the Great Clock Tower."

The elders and others were shocked: "Could it be, can you understand?"

Robin nodded: "Well, it says, an ancient weapon with the name of a god, Poseidon."

Robin looked at the text of the history, feeling heavy in his heart: "It's another ancient weapon, not the same thing as Alabasta's Pluto. Such a dangerous thing is still sleeping somewhere in this world. I hope everyone will not Meet this dangerous ancient weapon."

Robin was naturally referring to Luffy and the others. Crocodile learned that Pluto shot an island, so other ancient weapons must be equally terrible.

Therefore, I don't want Luffy and the others to be targeted by this ancient weapon.

Looking at it, Robin lost interest, this is not something she wants to know. What she wanted to know was the truth about the blank hundred-year history.

"Ok?"

Robin was taken aback, and saw a paragraph of text in the Golden Bell, which was the same text as the main text of history.

Chapter 49

"Here I am, leading this text to its final place.—One Piece, Gol D Roger."

Robin was shocked: "One Piece, Roger, he came to Sky Island. The engraved words mean that he left behind after becoming the One Piece.

What does this passage mean...why did he write such a text."

Robin is puzzled, curious.

Nami stepped forward and asked, "Robin, is that what you want to know?"

Robin shook his head in 3.1: "Historical texts are divided into two types of stones. One is the historical texts of 4 red road signs that record the location information of Ralph Drew, and the other is 26 historical texts that record a blank 100-year history. It includes 9 historical texts that record important information. When the information on these 26 historical texts is combined, a complete article that records the blank 100-year history can be formed, that is, the real historical text."

In the end, Robin is looking forward to it and must do it.

Luffy believes: "You can definitely know, the real history."

Robin looked at Luffy who believed in him so much, and nodded heavily:

"Yeah!"

Robin's thinking became clearer. If you connect all the historical texts in series and guide them to the end of the great route, you will know.

After solving Enilo and understanding the historical text here, Luffy and others prepare to leave Sky Island.

Nami said: "At this time, that general should have gone down and gone far away."

Usopp nodded: "Well, if you really want to leave, then you have already left."

Sanji looked forward to it: "The bounty will be updated again, I hope my reward order can be changed to a good-looking profile picture."

Luffy and others are also looking forward to the new reward order. After this time, how much will the bounty of the Straw Hats reach? .

Chapter 067: The Five Emperors!

At this time, Aokiji had left Sky Island and dialed the phone bug.

Naval Headquarters, Marshal's Office.

Sengoku was naturally happy to see that it was Aokiji who called. In his opinion, it meant that he had succeeded.

Garp's face on the side was ugly, and he knew it was Aokiji's call, which meant that the battle was over.

"Luffy..."

Cap felt heavy, feeling that it was over.

Warring States connected and asked, "Did you succeed, Kuzan?"

Aokiji was a little embarrassed: "Marshal, sorry, I failed."

Warring States was stunned, and Garp was also stunned, failed?

Zhan Guo frowned: "Kuzan, what do you mean?"

Qingzhi was very helpless: "I failed to take them down."

Warring States is a little unbelievable: "You mean, you are not their opponent?"

Other than that, I can't figure out why.

To Sengoku's surprise, Aokiji nodded without hesitation.

"Yes, Marshal, I am not their opponent. To take down the Straw Hats, I am afraid that at least two generals are needed."

In an instant, Warring States was even more shaken, even Karp couldn't believe it.

General Kuzan is not an opponent of the Straw Hats, and even said that two generals are needed, or at least...

How is this possible?

Sengoku was a little angry, suspecting that Aokiji was joking with himself.

"Kuzan, stop joking."

Qingzhi said seriously: "Marshal, I'm not joking, their combat power is beyond your and my imagination."

This made Zhan Guo's complexion completely ugly. It's not a joke, it really failed.

04 To calm himself down, Zhan Guo asked: "What's going on, let's talk about it in detail."

Aokiji sat down and began to talk.

Garp was in a good mood, and Luffy and the others were fine, and they were quietly listening with interest.

As the story goes, the expressions of Sengoku and Garp are almost the same.

Doubt, shock, shock, heavy face.

Aokiji said that starting to face the Straw Hats gave him a feeling of facing the Royals.

Then the five Straw Hats dealt with him, but Luffy didn't do anything.

This was the reason for their shock. Facing the admiral, the whole regiment didn't go all out to fight.

The point is, Aokiji still failed.

Until the end, it turned out that three people dealt with Aokiji, and five people made Aokiji feel a lot of pressure.

Qingzhi was sure that if he singled out five, he would lose, just like facing the real five royal cadres.

Then facing Sauron, Sanji, Usopp, Aokiji didn't have the confidence to win.

Even if they can win, there are still two other combat powers, the most important one is the captain of the straw hat, Luffy.

Therefore, the battle did not last, and Aokiji chose to leave.

Warring States' face was extremely heavy, while Garp's face was proud and relieved.

Garp sighed softly in his heart: "As expected of my grandson, you are really amazing, Luffy."

After being relieved, Karp was extremely regretful.

"Unfortunately, if you listen to me and are willing to become a navy, then you can definitely become an admiral."

Qingzhi said: "That's how it happened."

Sengoku understands, according to what Aokiji said, then to take down the Straw Hats, at least two generals are really needed.

Zhan Guo's heart is heavy. In a short period of time, the newcomer's straw hat group turned out to be so powerful.

Even if the original Roger Pirates and the Whitebeard Pirates were just established, it was impossible for them to be so terrifying in a short period of time.

I thought a general would be enough, but failed, so I chose to leave voluntarily.

"Sorry, Warring States Marshal, I let you down." Aokiji apologized.

Zhan Guo shook his head: "It has nothing to do with you. I didn't expect them to be so strong. It seems that I still didn't know them well enough before. I'm afraid I will also fail."

The most important thing is that Luffy, the strongest straw hat captain, didn't do anything.

Warring States felt that it would be impossible for him to single out the whole group of straw hats.

Unless, he and Garp go out together.

But, stop joking, you will be laughed at if you spread it out.

The only ones who can let him and Garp go out to deal with it are the legendary pirates of the old era.

The former Roger Pirates, the Flying Pirates, and the Whitebeard Pirates.

Warring States sighed: "Although they didn't succeed, they have become more aware of their combat power, so it's a good thing."

Although it is a good thing, but the heart is still heavy, such a powerful pirate group with great potential has appeared on the sea.

It is inevitable to become a royal group in the future.

Although I learned about the combat power this time, I also know that it will not be easy to take down the Straw Hats.

If it is other supernovas, even if there are several, one general is enough, but if they are so strong, they have to be weighed.

When they are strong enough, they cannot be dealt with at will, just like the Four Emperors.

However, the Warring States Period was more determined.

"They must be taken down, and they cannot be allowed to continue to grow, otherwise it is hard to imagine how terrible it will be. Fortunately, there are seven people in total now, and taking them down will not be more difficult than taking down the Four Emperors."

Aokiji also felt the same way, although it was powerful beyond their imagination, it was naturally still unable to compare with any of the Four Emperors.

Warring States Road: "Although the Straw Hats didn't make a move, they are the strongest among the Straw Hats, but they are not much stronger than the pirate hunter Zoro."

On this point, Qingzhi also agrees.

Sauron is very strong, if you think of the strongest combat power of the straw hat, it is stronger than Sauron, right? To say that it is much stronger, they think it is impossible.

Therefore, in this battle, they felt that they basically knew the current strength of the Straw Hats, and they also felt that it was easier than taking down any of the Four Emperors.

At this moment, after Karp relaxed briefly, his heart became heavier.

If this is the thinking, it will be even more difficult for the Straw Hats in the future.

After all, the Four Imperial Regiments and the navy try not to fight if they can, because the combat power is very strong, and if a fight occurs, the impact will be great and the risk will be great.

Although the Straw Hats are also very powerful, the Navy does not have such an idea, but will pay more attention to it. This is why Garp is so heavy.

Maybe next time, two generals will really be sent, or one general will bring some elite lieutenant generals and other high-level combat power.

Warring States said solemnly: "Next time, send two generals directly."

This made Garp's heart sink suddenly, the two generals...

In this way, Luffy and the others...

Although he was shocked by the Straw Hats, until now, if he was facing two generals, it would be a disaster!

Aokiji was also shocked. I thought that one general would bring some backbone and high combat power, but I didn't expect to have two generals directly.

Such a battle has not passed for a long time.

I am afraid that only when facing the Roger Pirates and the Golden Lion attacking the Navy headquarters, the two generals were dispatched.

Haven't encountered it in all these years.

If you don't fight easily with the Four Emperors, then it is impossible for other pirate groups to let the two generals fight together.

Zhan Guo said in a deep voice: "Even if the Straw Hats are like the Five Emperors, we must fight against them and take them down!"

Qingzhi felt that it was not an exaggeration for the Straw Hats to become the Five Emperors.

Aokiji asked: "Now it is necessary to designate the Straw Hats as the Five Emperors, and Straw Hat Luffy as the Fifth Emperor of the Sea?"

Warring States shook his head: "It's still too early. The rookie pirates are set as such. It's a bit sloppy. Let's learn more. This time, let's increase their bounty."

Aokiji understood that it was indeed a bit sloppy, after all, this time, he didn't fight with all his strength, it was just that the Straw Hats were stronger than expected.

It is indeed premature to designate Straw Hat Luffy as the Fifth Emperor of the Sea now.

Aokiji asked: "So, when will the next action be, and which two of the three generals?"

Aokiji didn't want to go in his heart, and felt that even with two generals, it wouldn't be easy.

Speaking of this, Zhan Guo frowned and became more serious.

Making the Warring States period heavier than before means that it is a more serious matter.

Garp also guessed it, and he was relieved, but still heavy.

Warring States solemnly said: "That guy with red hair has signs of meeting Whitebeard."

This made Aokiji's heart flutter, the meeting of the two four emperors, or the meeting of the Whitebeard Pirates and the Red Hair Pirates, this is indeed a more headache and heavy matter for the navy and the world government.

Aokiji 460 also understood, so the Straw Hats will not act in a short time, at least until the results of the meeting between the Red Hair Pirates and the Whitebeard Pirates come out.

If two generals are sent to deal with the Straw Hats, and if the Red Hair Pirates and the Whitebeard Pirates form an alliance, it will be extremely dangerous for the Navy and the World Government. There is no need to take such a risk to solve the Straw Hats big risk.

Zhan Guo said in a condensed voice: "You should be able to think of the reason. Let's see what they will do in the meeting first. Ordinary meetings are fine. If the alliance or others target us, then we have to stop doing anything to the Straw Hats for the time being. It's okay, this matter We will know soon, and I believe that the strength and number of the Straw Hats will not increase too much in a short time."

Aokiji thinks so too, the Straw Hats pay more attention to friendship than numbers.

So they felt that after a period of time, the strength of the Straw Hats might be about the same as it is now. So, there is no need to rush.

At this time, Garp had an idea in his heart, although it was very inconsistent with his position.

But the inner thought is that I hope that the Red Hair Pirates will unite with the Whitebeard Pirates and hope that they will do something to the navy.

Otherwise, the Straw Hats would really have a narrow escape from death in the face of two generals.

Sengoku's eyes flashed with wisdom, and the office calmed down. Aokiji and Garp were looking forward to it.

Because I know that Warring States is thinking about how much the rewards for the Straw Hats will be set. This time, the rewards for all members of the Straw Hats will definitely be released.

After a brief consideration, Warring States stopped pondering.

Chapter 50

Qingzhi asked: "Have you decided, Marshal?"

"Well, I already know the rewards for everyone in the Straw Hats. Let's not talk about the rewards of each person, let's talk about the total amount of rewards for the current seven members of the Straw Hats."

This made the office quiet, and Aokiji and Garp looked at Sengoku.

Sengoku raised his hand and stretched out a number. In the next moment, Aokiji and Garp's expressions changed in surprise!

it turns out....

Chapter 068: Demon God Wind Foot!

I saw that Zhan Guo raised his right hand and stretched out four fingers.

If it is a rookie pirate group, everyone will think that the number given by Sengoku is 400 million Baileys.

After all, for a rookie pirate group, even at the supernova level, the total bounty offered by everyone on board is 400 million, which is already very powerful.

However, Aokiji and Garp knew that this did not refer to 400 million, but 4 billion Baileys!

Aokiji and Garp were shocked, they didn't expect it.

I thought about whether the total bounty offered by the Straw Hats would be 2 billion Baileys, or close to 3 billion, but I didn't expect it to be 4 billion directly.

So, how much is the bounty for each person? It took seven people to add up, and the bounty reached four billion Baileys.

Sengoku said in detail: "First of all, the doctor of the Straw Hat Pirates, Tony Tony Chopper, is offering a bounty of 300 million Baileys!"

Aokiji was surprised for a short time, but felt that it was not an exaggeration.

The animal is a human fruit, the development of the fruit is very strong, combined with its own powerful physical skills, it also has arrogance, and its combat power is very strong.

Qingzhi has seen it before, and feels that there are hole cards in physical skills, and most importantly, there must be more hole cards that are useless in terms of fruit ability.

Therefore, it is not an exaggeration to offer a bounty of 300 million directly.

Except for Nicole Robin and Captain Luffy, everyone else in the Straw Hats must be treated as cadres of the Royal Corps.

Sengoku continued: "The navigator of the Straw Hat Pirates, Nami, offers a bounty of 300 million Baileys!"

Although Nami doesn't do much, Aokiji can be sure that she is very strong.

After all, the aura he exuded before gave him the aura of a royal cadre.

Aokiji felt that this Nami might not only be good at manipulating the weather, but also domineering, and also very strong in physical skills.

"Straw Hat Pirates sniper, Usopp, a bounty of 400 million Baileys!"

Aokiji is still not surprised, this sniper is terrifying.

In combat, snipers are terrifying.

For example, * Bu of the red-haired regiment, the world's number one sniper.

On Usopp, Aokiji can see the shadow of * cloth.

If the pirate hunter Sauron is the most promising existence to surpass Hawkeye and become the world's number one swordsman, then Usopp is the existence to surpass * Bu and become the world's number one sniper.

"Chef of the Straw Hat Pirates, Sanji, the bounty is 700 million Baileys!"

Directly 900 million, Garp was shocked.

However, it is not surprising.

Warring States also decided after careful consideration. If it hadn't been for what Aokiji said at the end, he wouldn't have set the bounty so high.

Sengoku reconfirmed and asked: "At the last moment, do you really think that even if Zoro and Sanji join forces to deal with you, it will make you feel difficult?"

Aokiji recalled that at that time, Sanji's feet were entwined with cherry blossoms, and a more powerful flame was about to emerge, Aokiji was sure.

"Although I didn't make a move, and I didn't see his powerful move, but I can be sure that it is a stronger move. The name may be..."

Aokiji had roughly guessed what kind of name it was.

Warring States was curious: "I didn't make a move at the time, and I didn't fully say it. Did you guess it?"

Qingzhi nodded: "Well, refer to the devil's wind foot, so what he was going to use at that time was called... the devil's wind foot!"

Devil's feet...

Listening to the name, it is indeed scary.

Sengoku continued: "Swordsman of the Straw Hat Pirates, Roronoa Zoro, the reward is 800 million Baileys!"

800 million, Aokiji and Garp are not surprised, naturally they are higher than Sanji.

Warring States asked: "Are you sure what he was going to use at that time, God's Refuge?"

Aokiji nodded: "I'm pretty sure about that posture. And the domineering entanglement, plus the double swords, so I think it should be a double * avoidance at that time."

This made Sengoku very puzzled, how did he learn Roger's moves.

Warring States also fully understood why Hawkeye was injured in the battle between Hawkeye and Sauron.

Although he won, he was injured, which shocked the Warring States Period. Now I fully understand, this Sauron is very strong in swordsmanship.

Perhaps, looking at this world, it is only inferior to Hawkeye and the five old stars.

"The Straw Hats, the Devil's Son, Nico Robin, the bounty is 200 million Baileys."

Karp and Aokiji understood that although the combat power was not strong, Nicole Robin must be caught.

Even if you ask, which one of the Straw Hats has the highest priority, then it must be Nicole Robin.

The combat power is not strong, but it is too dangerous. If you join a powerful pirate group like the Straw Hats, then the bounty will inevitably increase.

Sengoku's face became serious, and he said in a concentrated voice:

"Captain of the Straw Hat Pirates, Straw Hat Luffy, a bounty... 1.3 billion Baileys!"

Aokiji and Garp figured this out.

His heart was also shocked, he was only seventeen years old, and he was offering a reward of 1.3 billion.

Warring States felt that 1.3 billion was reasonable, the most.

Warring States Road: "1.3 billion, it should be very suitable. Although he didn't make a move in this battle, his strength is at most stronger than that of the pirate hunter Zoro. Therefore, it is set at 1.3 billion, which is very high."

Aokiji also thinks so, it is impossible for Straw Hat Luffy to be much stronger than Zoro, right? how is this possible.

After all, at the same age, there must be little difference in combat power.

Therefore, these bounties add up to a total of four billion Baileys.

After the decision was made, the people of the Warring States Period began to issue rewards.

Soon, the new reward list was printed and sent to all over the world. one day later.

At this time, the Meri has disembarked from the empty island, and Luffy and others are with Curricate.

At this moment, the reward list fell down.

"~ is our bounty list, it has been released, and the bounty has been updated."

Usopp was happy, and hurried to find his own, the first time he was offered a reward, which avatar was it, and how much was the reward.

Found it soon, Usopp was very happy: "Hahaha, it's amazing, I'm offering a reward for the first time, 400 million Baileys!"

Nami was surprised: "I turned out to be 300 million Baileys."

Chopper's eyes were also bright, excited: "I am also 300 million."

Sauron grinned, very satisfied, 900 million.

Sanji was nervous, it had nothing to do with the bounty, he prayed in his heart, change his avatar.

However, when I picked it up, Sanji was petrified.

Although the bounty was as high as 800 million Baileys, he was not happy at all.

"Ah! I'm so mad!"

Sanji was so angry that he wanted to cry, but he felt in his heart that maybe (Mawang's) will never change, because of the family relationship, unless there are some changes in the family, it may be this ugly photo that is not him, And the words that must be captured alive.

Robin also understands why his bounty has increased, because he joined such a powerful pirate group.

Nami and the others leaned over and looked at the reward list in Luffy's hand, and were shocked by it.

"1.3 billion Baileys."

"It's so high, Luffy."

"Amazing."

"Sauron's 900 million, as the captain of Luffy, 1.3 billion is normal."

"Based on this calculation, our seven bounties add up to four billion Baileys!"

"Then the average bounty is so high! More than 570 million!"

...

Thinking about it this way, it is indeed high, and the average bounty is too high.

Nami and the others were excited, but Luffy's sudden words stunned them.

Lu Fei said lightly: "The reward for us this time is low."

All staff: "...".

Chapter 069: The Straw Hats offer an average reward to shock the red-haired group!

Sauron and the others were startled, how low is this?

However, in Luffy's mind, it was indeed low.

But, it's nothing, after all, the influence is not high, and it is impossible to become the Five Emperors Group as I thought.

But Luffy feels that it won't take long, maybe after the Chambord Islands, it will be fine.

But, there is still time, first to go through, Judicial Island!

Luffy felt that maybe the difficulty would increase in Judiciary Island, and it couldn't be just Lu Qi.

Because, not to mention Luffy's current combat power, even Sauron alone can use CP9 alone.

On the Meili, Luffy and the others began to have a banquet, eating, drinking, singing and dancing, having a good time, celebrating that all the members had a bounty, and celebrating that the total bounty reached 4 billion Baileys.

Although the total sum is not as good as the Four Emperors, after all, the four emperors' bounties start at four billion, but don't worry, they will surpass it sooner or later, it's just the beginning.

Moreover, the most shocking thing about the Straw Hats is that the average bounty offered is more than 570 million Baileys, which is appalling.

It can be said that even for the Four Emperors, the average bounty is not so high, except for the most balanced Iron Wall Pirates, the Red Hair Pirates.

In addition, no pirate group can compare with the average bounty of the straw hat group.

At this time, the matter of rewards offered by all members of the Straw Hats has resounded all over the world, and there has been a wave of discussions about it.

Everyone is horrified and unbelievable.

"My God, the bounty of the Straw Hat Pirates has been raised again for such a short period of time."

"There are now seven members of the Straw Hats. Although the number is not comparable to those of the hundreds or thousands of big pirates, they are too powerful."

"Yeah, although there are only seven of them, the rewards for each one are so high."

"The straw hat is 1.3 billion, the pirate hunter Zoro is 800 million, the chef Sanji is 700 million, the sniper Usopp is 400 million, the navigator and the ship doctor are 300 million, and Nicole Robin is 200 million.

They are all over 100 million. The captain's straw hat is more than one billion."

"The unprecedented pirate group, how long has it been, and it's so high."

"Add up, four billion Pele, too strong 473."

"It's not good. The navy will pay more attention to it, and the combat power it will face will be stronger."

"The incident this time also explained in detail why the bounty has increased so much. It is because facing Admiral Aokiji, he retreated unscathed."

"Amazing, that's the admiral of the navy. From this point of view, the bounty is not exaggerated."

"One thing is outrageous. The average bounty offered is as high as more than 570 million Baileys!"

"Yeah, the average bounty is too outrageous. I was wondering if the average bounty exceeds that of the Red Hair Pirates!"

"The red-haired pirates are also taking the elite route. If it is not counted as a big ship group, then maybe the average bounty has not surpassed the red-haired pirates?"

"Well, if you don't count the fleet under the Red Hair Pirates, it shouldn't have surpassed it. After all, the rewards for the trainee crew members of the Red Hair Pirates are close to 100 million Baileys."

Chapter 51

"It's a bit of an exaggeration. The most powerful trainee crew is close to 100 million Baileys, and the normal number is more than 50 million."

"Although the average bounty has not been surpassed, it is already the average bounty of the second pirate group in the world. I even think that in the future, it may surpass the red-haired pirates and become the most balanced pirate group, surpassing the iron-walled red-haired pirates. Thieves."

"It's possible, but it depends on how far they can go. It's very rare. The next time we deal with the Straw Hats, we will definitely have a stronger naval force."

...

After the world shook, I felt that the future of the Straw Hats was going to be very difficult. They were too sharp, and they might die soon, like a shining meteor, which is fleeting.

At this time, among the newcomers who entered the great route at about the same time as the Straw Hats, the powerful pirates were all shocked.

The performance of the newcomer Pirates and the Straw Hats made them a little embarrassed.

They are all arrogant and arrogant. Seeing that the Straw Hats offer such a high bounty (aedb), even the lowest one is higher than their captain, which makes them very unbalanced.

Kidd Pirates.

Kidd looked at the bounty list of the Straw Hats in his hand, his face was a little ugly.

After being surprised, he couldn't wait, and a defiant smile appeared on Kidd's face.

"We will meet sooner or later, and we will meet you at that time."

Kidd's fighting spirit is rising, he is very interested, and knows that he will meet soon, because all the rookie pirates will eventually gather in the Chambord Islands if they want to enter the new world.

Therefore, Kidd knew that the Chambord Islands would meet the Straw Hats.

At that time, he will fight the Straw Hats to see where he is weak, and see if the Straw Hats are really that powerful.

The bounty offered is so much higher than theirs. Kidd, who is proud, ideal and ambitious, wants to prove that he, Eustace Kidd, is no worse than the Straw Hats, and that he, the Kidd Pirates, is no worse than the Straw Hats. The Straw Hat Pirates.

Therefore, in the Chambord Islands, he, the Kidd Pirates, must fight the Straw Hat Pirates.

That way, after the battle, they can be proved, as well as the world has proved.

Kidd looked forward to: "I wanted to enter the new world, challenge the red hair, and become famous, so before entering the new world, let's fight against you. Straw hat, don't let me down when the time comes, I hope you can let me have fun."

"Believe in the captain, you will definitely be able to defeat the Straw Hats and become famous all over the world!"

"The bounty for the straw hat with the ability of the rubber fruit is so high. Our captain, the Superman-type magnetic fruit, is stronger and has greater potential. The bounty cannot be lowered for the straw hat."

"The captain must surpass the straw hat and become the first person in the supernova."

"Let's sail quickly, meet them in the Chambord Islands, and defeat them!"

...

Not only Kidd, but also the people in the Kidd Pirates can't wait.

At this time, not only the Kidd Pirates, but also the best of the other rookie pirates had the same idea.

Such as the Hawkins Pirates, the Radio Pirates, and the Flame Tank Pirates.

Radio Pirates.

"Captain, this group of straw hats is too dazzling, it overwhelms us all, and even the bounty is far away from us, the lowest one is even higher than you, captain."

"That's unreasonable, Captain."

"Captain, it's time for us to make a big fuss, and we can't be too inferior."

...

However, Apu, who has long hands, is not in a hurry.

"Don't worry, the Chambord Islands will meet them. It doesn't matter if they have become famous all over the world recently, and they will be used as a stepping stone to become famous."

This made the crew's eyes brighten and admire.

"The captain is smart."

"It's fine for them to be like this now. When we defeat them and let them be deflated, we will become famous."

"They are working so hard to raise their prestige now, and when they get to the Chambord Islands, they will only make wedding dresses for us."

"Captain, who are you going to fight then?"

...

Apu smiled darkly: "At first I wanted to provoke Kidd, but when we get to the Chambord Islands, let's provoke the straw hat, and let him know how powerful my sound fruit is. Babababa..."

At the end, Apu let out a unique laugh, and couldn't wait to make a name for himself by deflated straw hats.

People who don't know their own abilities will be hit, after all, the sound fruit attack is too sudden.

...

Hawkins Pirates.

"Captain, is this true or false?"

"Captain, you can do a divination to see if it's true or not?"

"It's unbelievable and unreasonable. They are all newcomers. Why are they offering such a high bounty? Is it true that they retreated completely in the face of the general? Did they do something special to make the bounty so high? .It feels impossible to retreat from the general."

...

Hawkins, with his blond hair, gives off a manipulative air and his voice is deep.

"pointless."

"Captain, do you think we can win against the Straw Hats?"

"How can you ask the captain like this, you can definitely win."

"Captain, does this divination make sense?"

...

However, Hawkins shook his head: "The Chambord Islands will do divination when they meet the Straw Hats. Let's see what the winning percentage of my Hawkins Pirates will be in the face of them."

This made the crew look forward to it, and they couldn't wait to go to the Chambord Islands and meet the Straw Hat Pirates.

"The Chambord Islands are a very chaotic place, especially when all the new stars gather, it will be exciting to think about."

"At that time, our goal will be the Straw Hat Pirates."

"Well, naturally we have to fight the most dazzling one."

"I believe that when the time comes to the captain's divination, our chances of winning will be very high."

...

Most of the Nova Pirates have this idea, thinking that when they are in the Chambord Islands, they will meet the Straw Hat Pirates.

Windmill Village, when everyone knew about it, they were proud and happy for Luffy, which is amazing.

After Ace knew it, he was also proud, happy, and amazed.

"Luffy, it's really getting better and better."

In a short time, Luffy's reputation has surpassed himself.

new world.

The Four Emperors, who are famous all over the world, naturally paid attention to it.

Whether it is the Whitebeard Pirates, the Beasts Pirates, or the Big Mom

Pirates, they are all shocking.

On the Mobidi, Marco exclaimed: "This little brother Ace's reputation is really getting louder and louder. This bounty is almost the same as mine."

Joz: "Ace must be very happy now."

"Yeah, he used to show off to us all the time, but now he is so powerful, if Ace is here, he can show off to us all day and night."

"Kulalala..."

White Beard couldn't help laughing when he heard it, it would indeed be like this.

...

At this time, one of the four emperors was the happiest, and naturally it was the red-haired pirates.

"Luffy is really getting better and better." * Bu exclaimed.

Beckman was all accidents: "I was a kid back then, but now that I'm growing up, I can't even imagine it."

Shanks is the same, knowing that Luffy will be extraordinary in the future, but he didn't expect to grow so fast.

"Boss, there is a problem with their average bounty."

Lagilu, who was eating chicken legs, was shocked after doing the math.

"The average reward is more than 570 million Baileys!"

In an instant, the entire red-haired group was shocked! The shock was extreme.

The average bounty offered can shake the red-haired group, which is unprecedented. After all, it is the most balanced iron-walled pirate group.

The red hair exclaimed: "Seven people, with a total reward of 4 billion, an average of 570 million, amazing. Maybe soon, we will surpass us. We are no longer the first balanced iron wall pirate group."

The total amount of rewards offered by the Straw Hats is still far behind that of the Red Hairs.

But the average bounty offered shocked Hongfa and all the cadres.

The red-haired grinned, expecting: "Luffy, I'm waiting for your average reward to surpass us, even, the total reward to surpass us."

Chapter 070 Can become the fifth emperor of the sea!

Redhead felt that the average bounty of the Straw Hats would surpass them soon.

After all, the gap is not too big anymore. If the Straw Hats continue to do this, only have one or two more partners for a long time, and they are not killed, and the bounty continues to increase, then I believe that soon, the world's most balanced iron with the highest average bounty The title of the Wall Pirates is not their Red Hair Pirates, but the Straw Hat Pirates.

Redheads are looking forward, waiting for that day to come.

"Luffy, I believe you can keep going."

Redhead is also ready to leave, to meet Whitebeard.

Let the trainee crewman Roxstar go to deliver the letter, but Whitebeard didn't look him in the eye, and came back again, so he had to go to the red-haired pirates himself.

Red Hair also knew that because of himself, the Navy would not send two generals to deal with the Straw Hats for a short time.

Beckman could also think of it, and said in a concentrated voice: "We must meet with the Whitebeard Pirates, so that the navy and the world government will be tense, and Luffy and the others will be safe for a while."

Jesus Bu nodded: "Yes, although Luffy and the others are very powerful, but facing two generals, they will really be strangled by ~."

Jesus Bu is worried, worried about Luffy, and even more worried about his son, Usopp.

Jesus Bu was also surprised. He never expected that the first time his son offered a reward, it was 400 million Berries, which was much better than himself.

And the ability is also a sniper, which makes * very pleased.

Jesus looked forward to it: "Son, I believe that one day you can surpass me and become the world's number one sniper."

Lagilu also agreed: "We have indirectly helped Luffy and the others, but it won't last long. I hope that when the Navy takes action against Luffy and the others again, they can summon more powerful partners, so that they can be more powerful. Be safe."

Although I said this, my heart was a little heavy, after all, I was facing two generals.

If it's their red-haired pirates, it's okay to face two generals, even if it's three generals, it's hard to win them.

After all, among the four emperors, only their red-haired pirate group is a ship with two emperors.

Although Beckman is not the four emperors, but the deputy captain, his strength is not much different from that of the red hair.

However, for the Straw Hats, they felt it was very dangerous.

In this sea, apart from the Four Emperors, which pirate group can withstand the attack of two generals? Obviously not.

However, they still underestimated the Straw Hats, Luffy to be precise.

Even the navy is underestimated, which is why Luffy said that the reward is low.

Luffy's current strength, becoming the fifth emperor of the sea, has no problem at all.

On the Meri, Luffy is not in a hurry, it won't be long before he becomes the Fifth Emperor.

At this point, Robin entered the teaching space.

The teaching template Robin chose was Kaido.

After all, Teacher Kai is very strong in fruit development and teaching.

Therefore, Robin's Huahuaguo fruit ability will definitely be developed better.

As for the second template, the selected Garp template, Huahuaguo combined with powerful physical skills, domineering, will be stronger.

Chapter 52

After leaving the empty island, Robin entered. He didn't enter before, mainly because Robin was going to the empty island to see the historical text. Now that I have seen it, I also know that everyone has basically become stronger because of the teaching space, and they also want to become stronger.

Because to seek the truth, great strength is necessary.

Although the partners are very strong, but he can not be too far behind.

After the voyage, after passing the naval fortress, the Long Chain Island adventure.

It can be regarded as tourism, which is not boring, but it is good to play.

If it's an adventure, the battle is boring, after all, the Straw Hats are too powerful now.

At this time, the Meili was approaching the capital of seven waters.

It has been two months since I left Sky Island, and Robin is about to come out.

Whoosh!

The next moment, Robin appeared.

After appearing, the first thing people feel is that the momentum has changed, and it can be known that it is stronger.

Then, the appearance is more beautiful, and the hunger is bigger.

Robin was excited, teaching the practice of space, it was too strong.

The teaching template has a strong teaching ability, and it can be said that it can teach everyone.

The development of Huahuaguo, as well as the mastery of domineering and physical skills have all been greatly improved.

Robin felt that his current strength would not be a hindrance on the boat.

Luffy is very curious, to what extent has Robin's Huahua fruit ability been developed, after all, there is Teacher Kai.

Involuntarily, Lu Fei thought of Senju Bashirama in Hokage.

"Robin, you must be very strong."

Nami looked forward to it, after all, after she went in and out, she became very strong.

And Robin is a fruit ability user, before entering, Robin will be stronger than himself.

Before, she was stronger than Robin because Robin hadn't practiced yet, but now that she came out, Nami felt that Robin must be stronger than herself.

Robin was happy and nodded: "I have benefited a lot and improved a lot."

"It's inevitable." Usopp said.

At the same time, everyone is glad that Luffy has such a special ability, otherwise, it must be extremely dangerous for them to come all the way to the present.

A general can easily destroy them.

Although their combat strength has been greatly improved, they know that the future will be more difficult, and they will not relax.

After Robin came out, Luffy and the others told Robin about the two-month adventure, the interesting things they encountered, what happened, and the game of Long Chain Island.

Robin listened very interestingly, but regretted not being able to be together.

Nami said: "It's okay, we can go through the adventure together all the time. Except for Luffy, each of us went in for two months and missed some voyages. This is inevitable."

Robin nodded, but suddenly felt a chill in his heart.

"here it is..."

Nami said: "I don't know the details, but an island of the World Government seems to be nearby."

Robin's heart was shocked, and Judicial Island was nearby.

An organization belonging to the World Government.

But after thinking about it, my current strength and everyone's strength are very strong, maybe I don't need to worry.

Robin's inner appraisal: "I will try my best not to leave everyone, but if..."

Robin was worried about one thing in his heart. The world government would definitely continue to catch him. Now that they are all strong, the world government will also make changes and send out more powerful existences.

If a more powerful existence comes, and it is difficult for Luffy and the others to deal with, or even dangerous, Robin will choose to leave and not drag Luffy and the others.

If it is still the original combat strength of the Judicial Island, Robin feels that there is no need for that.

Luffy could see that Robin was worried.

Luffy appraised in his heart, no matter what kind of change, what kind of combat power comes, he will not let Robin have trouble.

At this time, passing by a small room on the sea, I met Zimoni and her mother-in-law, Ke Keluo.

Just now, she was almost hit by a fast and long boat on the sea, Nami asked.

0...Ask for flowers...

"Zimone, was that a steamboat just now? But, it's so strange, how did it sail?"

Zimoni said: "You haven't seen it, so it's not surprising. After all, even if you search all over the world, it's only found here."

This surprised Nami and others, only this one?

So strange, they just had to look more.

Luffy naturally knows what it is, not a steamship, but a sea train.

Zimoni introduced: "That is the sea train, called Smokey Tom. It is driven by steam power and travels along the track on the sea."

Usopp was stunned when he heard that, wondering: "Orbit?"

"Yes, a little under the sea. The trains run the same section every day, carrying passengers from island to island. Also carry ships, freight, mail packages, etc."

"It's amazing, it's amazing."

Nami and the others were amazed, but at the same time found it very interesting and learned a lot. This is also one of the meanings of sailing adventures.

Ke Keluo suggested: "You can take a ride and experience it. The islands you are going to include the capital of the spring queen [San Poplar], the gourmet town [Butch], and the carnival town [Saint Falt]. They are all very good. If it is related to the world government People, there is another special train."

.....

Nami thought that Luffy would soon say, go and feel it, and then go to the food town, but it was a surprise to find that Luffy didn't say anything.

Nami asked: "Do you want money?"

"definitely."

Nami lost interest: "We have a boat, so we won't go, let's go according to the record pointer."

Zimone was curious: "Where does that point? We are familiar with this place, so we can see where it is."

"East direction."

Ke Keluo said: "That is the capital of seven waters, and it is also a good place, and it is the city with the most developed shipbuilding industry, number one in the world."

This made Luffy look forward to: "So, have gathered many of the world's strongest ship repair craftsmen?"

Ke Keluo nodded: "Yes."

Luffy decided: "Then, let's go to the capital of seven waters, I want to find a ship repairman to be my partner!"

Nami and others also feel that it is really necessary and indispensable.

Ke Keluo enthusiastically said: "I will give you a map of the capital of seven waters and a letter of introduction. You can just find them when you arrive, and they will help you repair the boat."

Luffy thanked: "Thank you, Granny Ke Keluo, it's very kind of you to think of us like this."

Immediately, Luffy and others boarded the ship, and the Merry sailed eastward, approaching the capital of seven waters!

Standing at the bow of the boat, Lu Fei's eyes were fixed, thinking to himself.

"The world government will take action, and it's not just CP9, maybe there will be CP0. But, no matter what, you won't be allowed to succeed!"

Luffy judged in his heart that no matter how powerful Judiciary Island is next, or how unexpected it is, it must be the same as the original plot and survive successfully!

The original cp9 combat power, no pressure, if you join other powerful combat power, then fight with all your strength.

No matter what, Luffy is not afraid, even looking forward to it.

"I hope Judicial Island won't be too boring."

Luffy hopes that he can fight to his heart's content, so that after the Judiciary Island incident, he can become the fifth emperor of the sea!

Although I became Luffy through time travel and understand the plot, I also know that there will be some changes due to the butterfly effect.

Therefore, Luffy is looking forward to it, what kind of unknown will soon be known.

The Battle of Judiciary Island, the Straw Hats, is coming! Inch.

Chapter 071 cp0 goes to Judiciary Island, the battle of the emperor is coming Soon, it is close to the capital of seven waters.

After approaching, they saw the capital of seven waters from a distance, and everyone was stunned, their eyes shining.

Because the capital of the seven waters is so beautiful, it looks like a huge fountain when viewed from a distance.

All the buildings and houses in the capital of seven waters seem to be built on a large fountain, which is amazing, and it is worthy of being a city of water.

Chopper exclaimed: "It's amazing, there's a lot of water, where does the water in the pipes around the capital of seven waters come from?"

Nami admired: "It's so beautiful."

Robin sighed: "It's very interesting. The water seems to be ejected from the fountain and then flows to the sea through the sink."

The Meili sailed, and sailed into the river in the capital of seven waters.

Luffy and others admired the surrounding buildings along the way, which was extremely beautiful.

The whole city gives people a refreshing and warm feeling, and I really want to stay here forever.

Soon, the river became narrower and narrower, and the boat could only be stopped.

Luffy, Nami, and Usopp found a small duck-like boat and went to the shipyard.

aboard the Merry.

Sanji turned around and asked, "Green algae head, where is Robin, I didn't see her."

Sauron was lying on the deck, basking in the sun, ready to rest, and lazily opened his eyes.

"She's not here, she just went out with Chopper."

Sanji felt bored when he was on "Four Seven Seven": "What? Got out?"

"Well, they said they wanted to buy something."

Sanji has a headache and doesn't want to stay on the boat anymore.

"So you're the only guy on board, what a boring space."

Sauron nodded lightly: "I agree."

Sanji was about to get off the boat: "Okay, I'll leave too, to go shopping, and I'll leave you alone to watch the boat."

Sauron didn't say anything, just closed his eyes and fell asleep.

Sanji couldn't wait, fantasizing about it, his eyes full of love.

"The capital of seven waters, the city of water, will there be many ladies in bikinis?"

Thinking of this, Sanji's nose felt a little hot, and he couldn't wait, so he quickly ran off the boat.

At this time, the three of Luffy have come to the top of the fountain, which is the upper floor of the capital of seven waters, the center street of the shipyard.

The three of Luffy went to the street, and saw a group of people watching something in the distance, crowded on both sides of the street, very excited and cheering.

"Look, it's Mr. Lu Qi, so handsome."

"Is Barry here?"

"Lulu is here too. She really looks very sophisticated. Although her name is a bit special, she looks like a man among men."

"It's better to call her by her full name, Biplely Lulu."

...

After the three of Luffy approached, Usopp asked curiously.

"Uncle, what happened in front?"

Luffy has actually guessed, they may be not far away, cp9.

The uncle on the side of the road said: "Just now at Dock No. 1, there were pirates making trouble. I repaired the ship for them. They didn't intend to pay money and make trouble, so they were beaten. It's really ignorant and stupid. The shipyard repairs the ship for pirates. Naturally, there must be thugs, and now everyone is watching them and cheering."

This made Usopp understand, but they are not that kind of pirates, and they will definitely not fight these people.

Luffy looked over, as he thought, it was Lu Qi and others who were undercover in the shipyard.

Chapter 53

Don't expose it now, sooner or later.

And Lu Qi and the others quickly noticed Luffy and the others.

As cp9, they don't know about those weak pirates, but Luffy and the others, they naturally recognized them at a glance.

After all, the Straw Hats have been famous all over the world recently, and no one knows it. They have naturally seen the reward lists of everyone in the Straw Hats.

Especially when Nicole Robin joined the Straw Hats, they paid more attention.

After Lu Qi and the others saw it, their hearts were heavy. After all, the Straw Hat team is too powerful, and the general Aokiji has not been able to win. Even if they are powerful and confident, they are not sure.

After seeing Luffy, Lu Qi felt unbalanced.

I have experienced those devil-like training since I was a child, and the straw hat in front of me is younger than me, but stronger than me.

Before, he thought it was impossible, but even the generals failed to win, so he believed it a little bit.

However, Lu Qi wanted to fight the Straw Hat more, to see for himself how strong the Straw Hat is, and to see how big or small the gap between him and it is.

Fighting is inevitable, but Lu Qi knows that it is not now.

As long as Nico Robin is with the Straw Hats, there is bound to be a fight because they have to catch Nico Robin.

Unless, the Straw Hats don't plan to control Nico Robin, but Lu Qi thinks the chance is very small, unless, the Straw Hats are afraid.

This, Lu Qi thinks, is possible, because soon the World Government will know that the Straw Hats have come to the capital of seven waters and meet them.

On the one hand, to catch Nicole Robin, and on the other hand, he was worried that the Straw Hats would destroy the ultimate goal of their undercover plan. Lu Qi felt that the World Government would definitely send stronger forces over. After all, it was the Straw Hats who offered a total bounty of 4 billion Baileys.

After looking at each other, Lu Qi flatly retracted his gaze and left.

The three of Luffy went to the shipyard and stopped paying attention to Lu Qi and others.

After Lu Qi and the others left, they found a private space and contacted the world government.

...

The holy land, Mary Joya, the hall where the five old stars are located.

Wu Laoxing already knew that the Straw Hats had gone to the capital of seven waters, and began to discuss.

"You can't ignore it, lest this mission fail. The undercover agent has been there for so long, so he can't fail, he must succeed."

"Well, we also need to catch Nicole Robin. It just so happens that this time we have to deal with the Straw Hats."

"Although Redhead will meet Whitebeard soon, there will be a threat, but it is enough to leave it to the Navy. They can't do anything to the Straw Hats in the near future, so let's hand it over to the World Government."

"So, what combat forces will be sent there?"

"Since Kuzan failed to take them down, the Straw Hats are really powerful and cannot be underestimated. So, send cp0 there!"

...

After the decision, the five old stars all agreed.

It is not an exaggeration to send cp0 to deal with the Straw Hats.

If it is other Nova Pirates, it is enough for cp9 Lu Qi to deal with them, but the Straw Hats are different, only CP0.

And the capital of seven waters, for their world government, has two major events, which must be successful.

The design of Pluto and Nico Robin, the son of the devil, must be successful, so I chose to dispatch cp0 without hesitation.

Even though they knew that the Straw Hats were not ordinary, they felt relieved after making a decision, as if they had the chance to win, and the Straw Hats would definitely be taken down.

"The capital of seven waters, the best result, capture Nicole Robin, get the blueprint of Hades, and take down the Straw Hats. The worst outcome, catch Nicole Robin, and get the blueprint of Hades."

"Oh? In the worst case, why are the Straw Hats missing?"

"Because, once they know that it is cp0's action, they will choose to give up the devil's son who brought anyone bad luck, and choose to leave."

"It's possible. After all, it's cp0. Facing the highest combat power under our world government, the Straw Hats have to weigh it."

"I bet they will choose to give up. After all, there is still a long way to go, and they will not make a stupid decision to fight against the navy and the highest combat power of the world government at the same time."

...

The five old stars all think that this time, at least two things will be successful. If the Straw Hats don't interfere, it's okay. If they interfere, they will take them together.

It's not that they despise the Straw Hats, they also understand the rewards offered by the Straw Hats because of their belief in cp0.

Cp0, an organization directly under the "world nobles" Tianlongren, is known as "the strongest shield of the Tianlongren" and "the strongest spy agency in the world".

Responsible for protecting the Tianlong people, and the status of the Tianlong people is known to the whole world. It is conceivable how powerful cp0 is.

After making a decision, he contacted Lu Qi.

After Lu Qi connected, his voice was full of respect.

"Five old stars."

"It has been decided that even the Straw Hats must succeed. Therefore, we will send a stronger force to the past. If there is a conflict and is blocked, they will support you."

Lu Qi originally wanted them to try first, but this matter was too important, so he first told the Straw Hats to come.

Although it was a little embarrassing to be supported, I had to accept the support.

Against the Straw Hats, cp9 is really not sure.

Although confident in his own strength, Lu Qi will not be arrogant.

Lu Qi asked: "Which organization will be sent to support?"

"cp0."

Hearing this, Lu Qi's heart trembled, the strongest shield of the Tianlongren.

Tianlong people are basically weak chickens, but their status is high and they need to be protected. cp0 is responsible for protecting Tianlong people.

Lu Qi's goal is to become a member of cp0. Even his current strength is not enough, so it can be imagined that the strength of cp0 members is the weakest.

But Lu Qi felt that if he practiced for another two years, he would definitely become cp0.

Lu Qi was inexplicably relieved. The task must be completed. After seeing the Straw Hats coming, he had to admit that he was under pressure 3.1.

Lu Qi planned to ask one last question.

"Wuluoxing, cp0, how many people will you send over?"

Wu Laoxing said in a cold voice: "Two groups."

This shocked Lu Qi, the two groups.

He knew that cp0 usually formed groups of three, that is to say, six cp0 members were sent to support them!

After hanging up the phone, Lu Qi was completely relieved. He didn't expect Wu Laoxing to send six directly. It seems that he attaches great importance to this mission and must succeed.

Moreover, it is best to kill the Straw Hats this time.

Lu Qi decided in his heart: "I won't let you down. The Pluto design must be obtained, and Nicole Robin must be caught. If the Straw Hats choose to interfere, they will also perish."

Thinking of this, Lu Qi thought:

So, when the time comes, Straw Hats, will you care about this devil's son? Will you choose to stay away from this unlucky star, or will you interfere and bring you bad luck of extinction?

Even you, if you know what you are going to face in the intervention, you will shrink back with fear.

However, Lu Qi didn't know that Luffy was looking forward to it at this time.

"The world government should know through Lu Qi, so what kind of combat power will be sent to support it? In the battle of Judiciary Island, whether they can be crowned emperor depends on their combat power."

Chapter 072: Mei Li Will Die? impossible!

It has been three days since I came to the capital of seven waters.

Luffy met Bingshan, Barry, and Franky.

Moreover, at this time, Barry and the others had already seen the Mei Li.

Barry frowned slightly: "This ship is hard to repair."

Luffy, Usopp, and Nami were together, and Usopp's face changed drastically when he heard this.

"It's not easy to repair, what do you mean?"

Barry said bluntly: "It is very difficult to repair, that is to say, it is best not to repair it, because it is very difficult to repair it."

Hearing this, Luffy's face darkened.

Make a difference, including any tragedy, and of course the Merry.

As they become stronger, the damage to the Meili will be less, and Luffy doesn't think it will be necessary to change the ship.

Usopp was puzzled: "Don't be kidding, aren't you very good ship repairers? We'll give you as much money as you want, and it's all here."

All the treasures seized during this period have been replaced by Bailey.

There are three big boxes in total, totaling as much as 600 million.

Barry said seriously: "It's very difficult to repair. Even if it is repaired, it will be replaced in the future, because the structure is there, and it cannot withstand the risk of your level. Therefore, it is better to replace it now. The long-term pain is worse than the short-term pain. "

"Stop kidding, it's impossible." Usopp firmly disagreed.

Lu Fei frowned slightly, and asked: "It's difficult to repair, even if it is repaired, it will have to be replaced sooner or later. So, what if it is rebuilt?"

Hearing this, Barry and Bingshan looked at each other, transforming...

Luffy said: "The transformation is better, making the Meili more perfect."

Barry sighed: "It's better to replace 04 and rebuild a new one, which can save a lot of money. Remodeling is too troublesome, let alone a ship of this level. It's like cutting hair. It's extremely ugly, and even becomes a Bald head, how can I cut it to look better? I can only wait for it to grow out and cut it again, so you understand?"

Luffy said seriously: "Although Meili is a ship, it is also our partner. We can't wait for her to die. Let's transform it. No matter how troublesome it is, no matter how much money it costs, we will do it."

Bingshan said: "Actually, after remodeling, it is equivalent to a new ship, and it will be very different."

However, the three of Luffy said in unison.

"Even so, Meili is still here."

Seeing that Lu Fei and others are so determined, Bingshan and the others also understand.

"Okay, we'll do our best to remodel, and make it better, so we won't be perfunctory to you. Try to remodel as much as the new ship we want to build for you, but still have a part of your current ship. Your Mei Li, and How about combining the transformed new ones?"

Usopp hesitated and Luffy made his decision.

"Can."

Luffy made such a decision, Usopp didn't say anything, maybe this is the best plan.

Although it will change a lot, as long as they know in their hearts that it is still Mei Li, they can accept the new one.

Luffy has already figured it out, the Meili is still the Meili, but the newly remodeled part is also part of the new ship.

Sonny, also a partner.

Soon, Franky and the others began to draw a picture of the remodeled ship.

Soon, the drawing is finished and shown to Luffy and the others.

They are all satisfied. In Luffy's view, it is not unfamiliar, it is the Sonny.

Luffy suggested: "After the ship is remodeled, change the name."

This made Usopp's face change: "Change your name? No."

Luffy explained: "It's not a complete change, it's like transforming the Meili, it's still the Meili, but with some new and big changes, and merged together. Then the name, also merged."

This made Usopp understand. He thought it was a complete name change, so he said how could Luffy do this.

Everyone has as much affection for Meili as I do.

Usopp asked: "Then, what kind of name is fused?"

Luffy suggested: "Let's call it Sonny Meili. Sonny, it means to be like the sun, calmly and happily, crossing the cruel sea."

"Can."

Both Usopp and Nami feel good.

Luffy said: "Then when Sanji, Zoro, Chopper, and Robin arrive, tell them to decide together."

In Luffy's view, this is the most perfect way. You don't have to say goodbye to Meili, but you can also meet Sonny. It's best to have both.

In the past three days, the three of Luffy have been together, and have never seen Robin, Chopper and the others.

Sanji doesn't know if he will be with Robin and Chopper, Luffy is sure, Zoro is watching from the boat.

Now that we want to start rebuilding the ship, there is no need for Sauron to continue looking at the ship, so here we come.

Chapter 54

So, Luffy thinks that Sanji must be with Robin and Chopper.

What will happen in three days, Luffy doesn't know.

However, Luffy had two ideas.

One, nothing happened, provided that the world government did not send stronger forces over.

Two, it happened, stronger combat power came, together with cp9,

Robin chose to leave after knowing it.

Of these two ideas, Luffy thinks the second one is bigger.

Although Luffy knew that the second one would be bigger, he didn't intervene. He just let things take their course and solved them when they happened instead of trying to stop them. This is completely unsolvable.

It was already night, and the four of Luffy went to rest.
next morning.

A big event happened, the iceberg was attacked.

Bingshan called Luffy and the others, claiming that it was Nico Robin.

This shocked everyone except Luffy, thinking it was impossible, why would Robin do this.

Although they were enemies before, they are partners now.

Robin didn't believe it: "Absolutely impossible, Robin has no reason to do this."

Luffy said in a condensed voice: "Let's go find Robin."

...

At this time, Sanji and Chopper also knew about it, and they were indeed separated from Robin for a while, and they didn't know what Robin was going to do.

After a while, the mayor happened to be attacked, and it was still Robin.

However, Sanji and Chopper didn't believe it.

At this time, in an alley, Sanji and Chopper suddenly stopped at the entrance of the alley, because footsteps came from the dark alley, and when they got closer, they knew that it was Robin.

"Robin."

"Miss Robin."

Sanji and Chopper shouted in unison.

Robin stopped and didn't come out. He was still in the dark alley. One step forward was the sunlit ground, but he didn't move forward, but it was deep in the darkness.

Sanji was puzzled and asked: "Miss Robin, where have you been? We have been looking for you for a long time, and everyone is worried about you. Let's go back to the hotel and talk slowly."

Robin, however, was silent.

Sanji said: "Miss Robin, won't you come out, forget it, let's go there."

Robin spoke, with a somewhat indifferent tone: "No, just stay there."

This made Sanji stunned, his tone didn't seem to be joking, but extremely serious.

As if, if I don't do it, something will happen.

Sanji stopped, more and more puzzled, and a little flustered in his heart, probably the last thing he wanted.

Sanji and Chopper stared blankly at Robin in the dark alley, waiting for Robin to explain why?

Looking at Sanji and Chopper who were stunned and puzzled, Robin felt pain in his heart, but he was indifferent on the surface.

"I won't go back to your place again, just say goodbye here."

Sanji was stunned: "Miss Robin, what are you talking about, stop joking.

Oh, by the way, is it something in the newspaper? Don't care about that kind of thing. We won't believe it if other people don't care about it.

Pirate Being wronged is a common thing, it's normal."

However, Robin said bluntly: "I'm sorry to let you carry such a fictional thing."

This made Sanji and Chopper sink their hearts, why did they say such things.

The two became more and more uneasy, and their expressions were dull.

Robin continued to speak bluntly: "For me, it is a true report. It was indeed me who invaded the mayor's room last night."

Chopper and Sanji froze in place, unable to believe it, and didn't want to believe it.

Chopper's eyes were empty: "How is it possible..."

Robin continued to be indifferent: "I have a darkness that you don't know. The darkness will destroy you one day. Even if you are strong, you are not indestructible. You are just starting, so go ahead. Now, I want you to be charged with crimes and run away by yourself, and the situation will deteriorate further."

Sanji didn't want to believe it: "No, it's impossible, why would you do that kind of thing?"

"Why...you don't need to know this."

Sanji was so shocked that the hand holding the cigarette was trembling and screaming.

"Miss Robin, I don't know what you're talking about, what's going on?"

Sanji wanted to know, there must be a reason.

Chopper didn't want this very much, and shouted: "Robin! Let's go back together!"

Robin stood indifferently in the dark alley, shook his head, very decisive.

"From today onwards, I will not see you again. Thank you for taking care of me all the time. Farewell."

After the words fell, Robin turned around, walked into the darkness alone, and disappeared into the darkness.

The surroundings became quiet, and Chopper and Sanji froze in place, unable to accept it.

I thought in my heart, it's not real, it's definitely not real, is it a dream, how could it be like this? impossible.

However, the footsteps echoing in the alley told them that it was true.

Footsteps getting farther and farther told them that Robin was leaving them.

Sanji and Chopper wanted to catch up, but Robin, who was far away, spoke.

"If you want to chase me, I can't stop it."

Although he has become stronger, if Sanji and Chopper insist on staying, he can't help it.

However, Robin's voice was extremely firm: "If you want to stop it, I will fight to the death with you. You don't want to do this, do you?"

This made Sanji and Chopper stunned. The tone and demeanor didn't look like they were joking.

The footsteps echoed again, farther and farther away, until they disappeared.

Sanji and Chopper stood there blankly, lost in thought.

Later, Luffy found out.

Not surprisingly.

Then, let's see what kind of combat power came to make Robin still make such a decision.

Justice Island, the Straw Hats are here! .

Chapter 073 What about cp0?

Luffy and others gather to go to Judiciary Island.

At the same time, Robin came to the room where the iceberg was.

Because, the blueprints that were taken before were fake.

Robin pressed the iceberg to the ground with his ability, unable to move, with a cold expression.

Bingshan regards death as home, and firmly said: "I will not give you the real design, even if I die, I will not give it. One thing I don't understand, you are looking for historical texts everywhere, but now you are helping the world government. Why, I have to stop you."

Robin said bluntly: "I am looking for historical texts, not to revive ancient weapons, I just want to know history."

Bingshan said in a deep voice: "Your argument is meaningless at all, why do you have to look for it?"

"If you don't understand, I must find it. Everyone in O'Hara has been wiped out by the world government, so I must find it."

Bingshan could hear that Robin was puzzled by his hatred for world conquest.

"Why help them when you hate them so much? What about your fellows?"

Robin looked extremely determined: "I have to leave them. Before, I only had one dream. Now, I have one more. Since I can't realize the first one, let's realize the second one."

Bingshan was very puzzled: "Why? Your companion will definitely look for you, and you should be very clear."

Hearing this, Robin's face was extremely heavy.

"Tell them, tell them not to look for me, definitely not." Robin's voice was extremely firm, and he didn't want to.

Bingshan frowned: "Why, your partners are all very strong. I have heard of the Straw Hat Pirates. Recently, the sea is very famous, and Luffy's bounty is even 1.3 billion Baileys. Why, do you have anything to say?" , why do you want to do this."

Hearing it now, Bingshan fully understands that Robin must have difficulties.

Robin's face became extremely heavy: "CP9 has the right to launch a demon-slaying order against the Straw Hat Pirates."

Hearing this, Bingshan's face changed drastically, and he naturally knew about the Demon Slaying Order.

The Demon Slaughter Order is a military operation, authorized by the World Government to form the Navy Headquarters, to carry out indiscriminate and destructive attacks on the area that sends out the signal, and to completely eliminate things and people in an area that threatens the World Government's rule.

The Demon Slaying Order is a brutal and inhuman attack that burns everything, consisting of 10 warships, 5 lieutenant generals, and the elite combat forces of the navy.

The warships that execute the Demon Slaying Order are the strongest and most aggressive in the navy. They are all built by the imperial shipyard, Water Seven Islands. Their quality is unquestionable. There are about a thousand naval soldiers on each warship.

Moreover, the five lieutenant generals are not ordinary lieutenant generals, they are all well-known among the lieutenant generals, and they can even be said to be five elite lieutenant generals.

This is why Bingshan's face changed drastically, and he actually launched the Demon Slaughter Order.

However, Bingshan thinks it's okay, after all, they are the Straw Hat Pirates, and the total bounty offered is four billion Baileys.

If they join forces, even cp9 plus the Demon Slaughter Token can contend, right?

Bingshan said in a deep voice: "Why don't you try to contend, just so as not to implicate them? They will definitely come to you, even if it is a demon-slaying order..."

However, if it is the Demon Slaughter Order plus cp9, it is impossible for Robin to leave.

Seeing that Robin's face was still heavy, Bingshan asked: "What else?"

Robin's face was extremely heavy, which made Bingshan see that there were still some, and the most important thing to say next.

Robin sighed: "I didn't want to say it at first, but I have to say it."

Robin's face was extremely solemn, worried, and his voice was extremely heavy: "And... the strongest combat power under the World Conquest banner, the strongest shield of the Tianlong people, cp0."

Hearing this, Bingshan's expression changed dramatically.

The degree of shock was greater than that of the Demon Slaying Order just now.

Bingshan also fully understood, no wonder, fully understood why Robin suddenly left without saying goodbye, it turned out to be cp0.

Cp0 is very powerful. Since it is responsible for protecting the Celestial Dragons and is known as the strongest shield of the Celestial Dragons, the members of cp0 must be masters, and their strength is far higher than that of cp9.

The Straw Hats were strong, he knew it.

When Robin did this, he knew there were difficulties, but he felt that cp9 and the Demon Slaying Token were still a bit worse, and now he fully understands.

However, even cp0 wouldn't let Robin leave without saying goodbye, so resolute.

After all, Robin knows the strength of the Straw Hats better than himself.

Well, there is only one possibility.

Bingshan's face was also extremely heavy, and he asked worriedly: "Cp0 members, how many are here?"

Robin frowned heavily, "Six."

"what?!"

Bingshan was shocked, and there were six of them.

Bingshan didn't expect this. He thought there would be a group of three people, plus cp9 and the Demon Slaying Token, to deal with the Straw Hats.

But there are six, so many.

He felt that the seven strengths of Cp9 could counter the two strengths of the Straw Hats, Chopper and Nami.

Cp0 has six, the two strongest are against Luffy, and the remaining four are against Sauron, Sanji, and Usopp.

What's more, there is also the Demon Slaughter Order.

Thinking about it this way, such a battle is indeed extremely dangerous for the Straw Hats.

Bingshan couldn't believe it, but he also knew that Robin wasn't joking with him, he wasn't exaggerating, and he wouldn't be exaggerating to prevent the Straw Hats from saving her.

Bingshan frowned: "Why did you send six at a time, you must get the blueprint and catch you."

Chapter 55

Robin said solemnly: "There is another reason. I want to solve the fast-growing Straw Hat regiment. For other reasons, the navy cannot send two generals to do it, so the world government will do it."

Bingshan understood, after all, the Straw Hats were too dazzling.

This kind of rookie should be hit hard, especially if a general has not been taken down. It stands to reason that the Straw Hats will face a more difficult and powerful battle force.

However, the navy did not move during this period, it could not be that it was afraid and did not want to take it down.

I get it now.

If the navy can't act, it depends on the world government, so it directly sent six powerful combat forces from cp0.

Worst case, get the blueprints and grab Robin.

The best result is that if the Straw Hats want to intervene, they will also solve the Straw Hats.

Seeing Bingshan pondering, his brows getting tighter and tighter, Robin knew, he understood.

"You should fully understand, so, be sure to tell them, stop them, and don't let them come to me."

Bingshan sighed and said nothing more.

Robin did not continue to control the iceberg, and the hands that bound the iceberg on the ground disappeared.

Bingshan lay on the ground, did not stand up, his face was dazed.

In this case, he completely understood.

"You said just now that you had one dream, but now it has two. The first one is to know the truth of history, and the second one is to protect your partners, so that you don't want the Straw Hats to have an accident and be strangled on Judicial Island, right?"

As soon as the words came out, Robin fell silent, or acquiesced.

The iceberg is heavy: "In this case, you will die. What about your first dream, do you plan to realize it?"

Robin shook his head, although he really wanted to, but knew it was impossible.

"~ For twenty years, no matter what the situation, I have survived, because I have nothing to protect. I can betray everyone and use them as a shield. But now I can't do it. It is everyone who saves It saved the life I once gave up, awakened the soul I had lost, and let me regain the dreams that fell into the end. I have partners who can trust me. I don't want to watch them be strangled. I hope they can go on forever. Don't end up failing like I did."

Robin clenched his fists tightly to hide his sadness, hoping: "I hope that Luffy will become One Piece, Nami will draw a complete map, Sanji will find AllBlue, Zoro will become the world's number one swordsman, and Usopp will become a brave sea warrior. Chopper will be able to develop a panacea in the future. I hope that they can all realize their dreams. I hope most that the Straw Hats and the six can leave this island safely and continue sailing."

After the words fell, Robin turned and left.

Bingshan was silent, and when Robin was about to walk out of the room, he said:

"I will try my best to persuade them not to go to you."

Robin paused and stopped at the door, sincerely grateful: "Thank you."

Immediately, Robin left.

"Hey."

After fully understanding, Bingshan sighed.

It turned out that Robin left without saying goodbye because of this.

They must be told, because Bingshan knows that Luffy and the others are going.

"With such a powerful combat force, you must (Zhao Zhao) stop them, otherwise even their lives will be in danger. Robin doesn't want them to die here, and I don't want to either."

Although they spend a lot of time together, he, Frankie, Barry, and the Straw Hat are already friends.

Such danger must be told to them.

Soon, Bingshan found Luffy and the others.

"I have something to tell you about why Nicole Robin left without saying goodbye."

Immediately, Luffy and the others were all quiet.

Even Luffy wants to hear it.

Bingshan began to tell, Frankie, Barry's face changed drastically, shocked and heavy.

Cp9, as well as the Demon Slaughter Order, and even cp0 have been dispatched, and there are still six powerful combat forces, which is too outrageous.

In order to strangle the Straw Hats, the World Government made up its mind.

Totally got it, no wonder Robin did this.

However, the expressions of the Straw Hats, Luffy, Zoro, Nami, Sanji, Usopp, and Chopper have not changed at all from the beginning to the end.

Knowing the cause and effect, the six of Luffy stood up from the sofa, and the six of them walked out the door side by side.

This made Bingshan, Frankie, and Barry stunned.

Bingshan was puzzled and asked, "Where are you going?"

The next moment, the six people stopped and spoke in unison.

"Go to Justice Island! Bring Robin back!"

Chapter 074 The Straw Hats Will Bring Disaster to Advance City

Hearing this, Bingshan's face changed drastically.

"I can't go, I tell you this, I just don't want you to go, the opponent's combat power is too much, too powerful, even you, it will be very dangerous."

I thought that Luffy and others would retreat in the face of difficulties, but they left without saying a word, and they still wanted to bring Robin back.

Then, they will face CP9, Demon Slayer Token, and six powerful CP0s.

In this case, it is a narrow escape, and perhaps it will really be strangled.

Bingshan persuaded: "This is not what Robin wants. He hopes that you will not interfere, continue sailing, and fulfill your dreams..."

"do not talk!"

Lu Fei's voice sank suddenly, and Bingshan's words stopped abruptly.

Lu Fei said in a loud voice: "Even my friends can't save me, if I give up, what dreams are there!"

This made the iceberg vibrate and fell silent.

"alright, I got it."

Bingshan knew that he couldn't persuade him anymore, and said to himself: "Sorry, Nicole Robin, I can't stop them."

You can't stop it, you can only help and do what you can.

That is to provide a boat so that Luffy and others can reach Judicial Island.

...

Navy Headquarters.

Garp's face is heavy, and he will send out the Demon Slaying Order when he knows it, and it has already been dispatched.

As long as the Straw Hats choose to intervene, cp9, cp0, and Demon Slaughter Order will do it together.

This kind of battle is extremely powerful, even if it is an imperial group, it has to be weighed.

Luffy's character, Garp knows, will definitely interfere, so that's why he's heavy.

Garp asked: "Warring States, why do you want to launch the Demon Slaughter Order? The white beard and red hair are about to meet, so don't you keep your combat power?"

Warring States Road: "We will meet soon, but there should be no action in a short time, and the Demon Slaying Order is activated to deal with the Straw Hats. The headquarters still has a strong backbone force and tens of thousands of sea soldiers, which is enough. The most important thing Yes, to deter the Straw Hats from intervening. If they intervene, the Demon Slaughter Order will not be consumed. After all, there are cp0, five elite lieutenant generals. Therefore, the Demon Slaughter Order is launched on the premise of 480 without casualties. In this way, even if the red-haired and white-beards make trouble and there are no casualties, they will be able to come back in time."

This made Garp understand, and his brows were frowned, knowing that it was impossible to change.

Indeed, with cp0, five elite lieutenant generals, and cp9, Tumo makes it impossible for this lineup to be destroyed.

Garp prayed in his heart: "Luffy, I hope you are safe."

Garp knew that this was the most dangerous battle of the Straw Hats so far.

There is bound to be a fight, there will be interference.

...

one day later.

CP0 has six combat forces, cp9 Lu Qi and other seven people are in the meeting room of the high-rise building on Judicial Island.

They are all sure of one thing, the Straw Hats dare not come.

If it comes, it must perish.

At that time, the Demon Slaughter Order and their combat power will attack from inside and outside. Although the Straw Hats are powerful, they only have six people, so how can they fight against it.

"I bet the Straw Hats don't dare to come." One of the cp0 members said confidently.

"Even if it comes, it will perish."

"I hope they come, and kill them by the way. It's really not easy, and I can't let it go."

...

Whether it's cp0, or Lu Qi and the others, they all feel that they are bound to succeed this time.

Either successfully get the blueprint and solve Nicole Robin.

Either add one more, that is to solve the Straw Hat Pirates.

...

Just then, a sailor from Judiciary Island came to report.

"The Straw Hats are coming. They have sent troops to stop them, but they can't stop them at all. They are approaching the building quickly."

"Understood, let's go down."

"So, the Straw Hats..."

"Come on, we'll fix it."

They had no intention of going there in person, which made Hai Bing understand.

"Has the Demon Slaughter Order come yet?"

"I don't know, logically speaking, it should be here."

"I originally thought that the Demon Slaughter Order would come first, and we would rely on the Demon Slaughter Order to solve them, but now it seems that we may have to do it ourselves."

...

However, the Demon Slaughter Order should have arrived now, and there was a reason why it was late.

Half an hour ago.

The demon-slaying order is mighty and powerful, heading for Judicial Island.

At the same time, Feng Klei and his men sailed past and saw this scene. From a distance, although they were pirates, the Demon Slaying Order did not come.

"Ah, it's the Demon Slaughter Order."

"It's going to be bad luck for someone to start a demon-slaying order."

"They didn't touch us, and they didn't come close."

...

Feng Kelei asked one of his subordinates, a member of the Long-Eared Clan, to listen to him, who has the title of Shunfenger.

This subordinate indeed heard the conversation, and knew that it was aimed at the Straw Hats.

This made Feng Kelei's face change in shock, and he wanted to catch the Straw Hats. This was a demon-slaying order.

"Let's leave it alone, the Straw Hats are very strong."

However, the complexion of his subordinates changed drastically.

"There is also cp9, and cp0."

This made Feng Klei's face heavy, and the faces of his subordinates were also extremely ugly.

"Such a battle is indeed very dangerous."

"Even the Straw Hats with a total bounty of 4 billion can hardly face the Demon Slaughter Order plus cp9 plus six cp0 combat power."

"We can't think of a way, the strength gap is too big."

...

Chapter 56

However, at this moment, Feng Kelei was standing on the bow of the boat. Although he looked like a woman, he was also an incomparably man at this moment.

"Of course I want to help! Straw hats are my benefactors, friends!"

"Ah? How can I help?"

Feng Klei has already made up his mind, and quickly asked his men to dress up, imitating Zoro, Sanji and everyone else from the Straw Hats.

Feng Kelei, on the other hand, has turned into Luffy's face, with white swan wings still hanging on his back, and his figure and clothes are still his own.

But, that's enough.

"Okay, move towards the Demon Slaughter Order!" Feng Kelei ordered, resolutely, without fear at all.

Most pirates will run away in fright when they see the Demon Slaughter Token, but they want to get close to the Demon Slaughter Token.

Moreover, they still pretended to be a group of straw hats, which let them know that it was even more dangerous, and they would definitely be arrested.

However, it passed resolutely.

After approaching, it attracted the attention of the Demon Slaughter Order.

I ignored it at first, but found that something was wrong. The figures on the boat were somewhat familiar.

"That's it, the Straw Hat Pirates?"

"Pirate ship, the flag is wrong."

"But, it's them (aedb)!"

"look carefully."

...

At the bow, Feng Kelei stood up, afraid that others would not know, and shouted: "The straw hat Luffy you are looking for is here, it is me."

This made Tu Moling completely noticed, although he was astonished, he immediately turned around.

Feng Klei naturally told his men to turn the rudder and flee at full speed.

The lieutenant generals' faces were ugly when the order to slaughter the demon was issued.

"Is this the Straw Hats? They are so arrogant, they are not afraid of the Demon Slaughter Order."

"Yeah, I came here on my own initiative, but stayed away. This is a provocation to us."

"Is this the Straw Hats that offer a total reward of 4 billion Baileys? It's not surprising that they dare to provoke us, after all, they are them."

"Just frustrate them, chase them! Arrest them directly, no need to rely on cp0."

"The lineup of the Demon Slaughter Order, plus our five elite lieutenant generals, still dare to do this. Although it is the recently famous Straw Hats, it is too shameful for us, we must catch it!"

...

For a moment, Tu Moling turned around and chased after him.

Looking back, Feng Kelei breathed a sigh of relief, not afraid, but happy.

"Hahaha, they were fooled, sailing at full speed, the longer the delay, the better, it is best to take them away."

"yes!"

However, he still underestimated the speed of the Demon Tuning Order's warship. Although his ship was fast, the Demon Tuning Order was faster.

Moreover, under orderly command, the warships spread out and surrounded them.

The encirclement gradually narrowed, and soon, the direction of navigation became narrower and narrower.

"If this continues, they will be surrounded soon."

"We're done."

"We have no regrets."

...

Feng Kelei also knew that there was no way to escape, and he would be caught soon.

"Keep going at full speed."

It would be nice if it could be delayed for a while, but soon, it was surrounded by ten warships from all directions.

All the shells were aimed at them, and Feng Klei was still unafraid.

The five elite lieutenant generals are ready to do it.

"Let us feel their strength."

"Naturally, but let's bombard it first, so that the straw hats of the capable users will lose their combat power, and we can relax a bit."

"Okay, fire first!"

...

However, when he was about to fire, Feng Klei touched his face with his left hand and returned to his own appearance.

This made the navy and the five elite lieutenant generals sluggish, what's going on? Changed?

Looking at the 10,000 elite navy and five elite lieutenant generals who were stunned, Feng Kelei felt that he was so handsome that he had deceived all the navy, and there were still five powerful combat forces.

Feng Klei sneered: "Hahaha, have you been fooled? I'm an expert in transformation, and I'm also a friend of Little Straw Hats."

This made the navy feel that it was tricked and was very angry, especially the elite five lieutenant generals, who gritted their teeth in anger, clenched their fists tightly, and their bodies were trembling. The demon-slaying order was tricked by a little pirate. It's still this kind of guy, what a shame.

Feng Kelei turned around, his back was facing the navy, his left hand was placed on his chest, his right hand was stretched diagonally upward to the right, his legs were bent, and he spoke charmingly.

"It's the same to practice the way of a man, and it's also the same to practice the way of a woman. Only the way of a man needs to follow the right way. Wither, let's be together under this sincere sky. Bloom, the way of a monster!"

Pink petals fell from the sky, falling around Feng Klei.

At this moment, Feng Klei's subordinates were all in tears, not because they were afraid, not because they were sad because they would spend the rest of their lives in Advance City, but because they didn't want the boss to be arrested.

But you know, you can't escape.

Feng Kelei turned around and faced the fifth lieutenant general, which made them astonished, without the slightest fear, they shouted instead.

"Let the horse come here."

Facing the Demon Slaughter Order, they were like gnats shaking a tree, but Feng Kelei and his men charged forward with weapons.

"Hmph, I'm overthinking myself."

"Although the task is important, it's too shameful. Just take a few seconds to take them down."

"Inevitably, send them to the city of advancement! Let them regret the decision they made today for the rest of their lives."

...

In less than a minute, Feng Klei and the others were captured, and then contacted the nearby navy to take them away and lock them into the city of advance.

"Go to Jinjin City and stay for a lifetime, and regret it."

This is what they think.

However, after a while, they would regret imprisoning Feng Klei and others in Advance City.

Because, this will become the fuse of the disaster in Advance City.

Chapter 075

Justice Island.

The six members of Cp0 frowned slightly, the Demon Slaying Order hadn't come yet.

They knew that the Straw Hats were about to approach here.

They don't want to deal with the Straw Hats, they just want to complete the characters of the World Government, get the blueprints, and deal with Nicole Robin.

As for the Straw Hats, they - want to be dealt with by the Navy.

After all, the Straw Hats are very powerful. Although they dispatched six cp0s, they felt that they could not easily defeat the Straw Hats, and it would definitely take a lot of effort.

After all, the six members of cp0 are not uniform in combat power. This time, the leading captain is comparable to a general in combat power.

The remaining five are the lowest elite lieutenant general and the highest associate general.

As for the Straw Hats, they knew that Zoro and Sanji, the main force of the Straw Hats, probably had the strength of a quasi-general.

Others, the lowest is an elite lieutenant general, or even a little higher.

As for the straw hat, I haven't seen his real full strength, the lowest is a quasi-general, and it may even be comparable to a general.

Thinking about it this way, with the addition of cp9, they would at most have some advantages, not a big one.

However, if there is a demon-slaying order, it is an absolute advantage.

If the Demon Slaying Order hadn't come, they didn't want to fight the Straw Hats, they just wanted to complete those two tasks.

It doesn't matter if the Demon Slaying Order comes, it will be easier after all.

They are already very easy, the shield of the Tianlong people, and no one of the Tianlong people dares to hurt them.

So, it used to be easy.

"The Straw Hats are coming soon."

"How about this, let Nicole Robin talk to them and let them leave. If they don't leave, they can delay until the Demon Slaughter Order comes."

"I asked just now. The reason for the late arrival of the Demon Slaughter Order was because it was tricked by a group of pirates."

"Are you kidding me, what kind of pirate, played the Demon Slayer Token?"

"No strength, but the leader is a person with the ability to imitate the fruit, so he deceived the demon-slaying order and mistakenly thought it was the Straw Hat gang. But they have already been arrested and sent to the city of advancement."

"It seems that acquaintance with the Straw Hats is really a show of loyalty, and they chose to delay the demon-slaying order."

"Soon, let's send them to meet in Advance City."

...

At this time, Luffy came to the square in front of the court first, jumped up, stood on the top of the stone pillar, and faced the building where Robin was at close distance.

Robin came out, his face heavy.

"Robin, great, you're fine." Luffy shouted to Robin who came out.

Robin's heart was extremely heavy, and his expression was extremely complicated.

Luffy is about to jump up and take Robin away.

Robin knew that Luffy could easily walk over on moon steps.

Grief flashed across Robin's eyes, why did he come.

Seeing that Luffy was about to rush over, Robin shouted to stop him:

"Wait."

Luffy stopped. It seemed that to completely solve the problem, we had to chat and fight.

Robin let himself be extremely indifferent, and said in a deep voice: "I have said many times, I will not return to you, go back quickly, I don't want to see you people anymore. Why did you come to save me? I don't even want you to do this kind of thing, when will I ask you to do this."

Speaking of this, Robin took a deep breath and shouted loudly: "I already, want to die!"

whoosh whoosh...

At this moment, several figures flickered, they were seven from CP9, headed by Lu Qi, standing on Robin's left.

Another six figures flickered, all dressed in white, standing on the right side of Robin, the six high combat power of cp0.

Spandam watched the good show from behind: "Hahaha, the Straw Hats are having internal conflicts, so it's time to watch the show."

At this time, Robin panicked, and cp9 Lu Qi and others came.

On the right, there are six high combat powers of cp0.

Soon, in the sea ahead, the Demon Slaughter Order will come, and at that time, he will be flanked by front and back.

Robin's heart was heavy: "We must let them go quickly, otherwise they will be implicated by me."

At the same time, the sound of fighting behind Luffy disappeared.

Obviously, all the sailors, giants and other forces on Judiciary Island have been dealt with.

Luffy stood on top of the stone pillar, stared at Robin, and asked, "Do you want to die?"

Robin said without hesitation, "Yes."

Lu Fei didn't take it seriously: "Robin, what are you talking about, don't be kidding, we are all here, and we will definitely rescue you."

Chapter 57

Whoosh whoosh whoosh...

Five figures jumped up and swept to the top of the stone pillars on the left and right sides of Luffy.

Luffy and Usopp stand on the top of a stone pillar, with Sanji and Chopper on the top of the stone pillar on the left, Zoro and Nami on the right.

All members of the Straw Hats, here we come.

Luffy said: "So if you want to die, you can die after we rescue you. In addition, if you want to die, wait until you are by our side."

This made Robin look sad, why did he let himself go back so resolutely.

"cp9, cp0, and the Demon Slaughter Token will die. It's fine for me to die alone. You guys leave now!"

Robin was sad and worried, but Luffy and the others were still determined and would not leave.

Robin fell into memory, talking about what happened to O'Hara twenty years ago.

Painful memories were uncovered, indiscriminate bombing, huge troops, powerful combat power, the island was filled with gunpowder, like hell,

But now, what they are facing is even more terrifying than before.

O'Hara's friends, her own mother, were all dead, and she was the only one left, and this time, she didn't want to do that again.

After Robin finished speaking, he said solemnly: "Now you will face even more terrifying combat power. I finally met friends who can open their hearts and are threatened. The more I want to be with you, the more you will be hated by my friends." I am implicated by fate. No matter how long I have been on the sea, I have a huge enemy that I cannot shake off. Because my enemy is the world and its darkness. Whether it was that time or this time, Aokiji, I have wrapped you up I have come in twice. If this kind of thing keeps happening, no matter how good you are, you will still treat me as a burden!"

Listening to what Robin said, this is why Luffy chose to let nature take its course, because the knot in his heart must be opened, otherwise he will still make such a choice when he encounters stronger combat power in the future.

So this time on Judicial Island, Luffy didn't stare closely at Robin.

Robin shouted in a deep voice: "At that time, you will definitely betray me and abandon me. This is what I am most afraid of. Therefore, I don't want you to rescue me at all. You are going to die anyway, just die here!"

Spandam laughed out loud.

"Hahahaha... so that's the truth, it's true."

Spandam looked at Robin and agreed: "You're right, no fool would be willing to be dragged down by you. Look at that flag, pirates."

Pointing to the white flag fluttering above the building, Spandam reminded: "The mark on the flag is the symbol of the joint organization formed by more than 170 member countries in the four seas of the world and the great shipping routes. This is the world! I am so Say, you know how insignificant you are when you are against it. Now, do you know what kind of huge organization this woman has been hunting for for twenty years?"

Luffy nodded lightly: "Well, I know who Robin's enemy is."

Luffy looked at the flag and whispered, "Usopp."

He didn't say anything, just called his name, and Usopp understood.

"clear."

Instantly pull the slingshot, and the moment you pull it, you have already aimed and fired.

0...Ask for flowers...

"Definitely kill, Fire Bird Star!"

The speed was so fast that even the six forces of cp0 could not stop it in time.

Whoosh!

The flames shot out, condensing the lifelike firebirds, instantly piercing through the white flag, burning it, and turning it into nothingness.

Usopp said lightly: "It's done."

The members of Cp9 and cp0 all had ugly faces and frowned.

The other remnants of Judiciary Island looked up, unbelievable, they didn't expect to dare to do this.

That means...that's...

Spandam was horrified, and asked in a low voice: "Do you know what it means to do this? Did I just say it for nothing? Or do you have a problem with your comprehension, and you dare to do this! I don't understand..."

Luffy interrupted Spandam's words, and what he said made Spandam stop abruptly, horrified.

Luffy said indifferently: "Isn't it just declaring war with the World Government, what's the big deal?"

This made Spandam's pupils shrink, and he suspected that he had heard it wrong. If he said it so lightly, wouldn't he be declaring war with the World Government? He said it so easily.

At this moment, on the sea behind, mighty warships sailed over, and it was the Demon Slaughter Order.

Spandam was excited: "Hahaha, the Demon Slaughter Token has also come, then, regret the decision you made. Cp9, Demon Slaughter Token, plus cp0, you will surely die! All of you will die here, you have done the best! Stupid decision, it's too late to regret it now! Hahaha..."

Spandam picked up the binoculars and looked at it: "The Slaughtering Order, the first time I saw it, it was like the said battle. Ten top warships, each with many sailors, full of energy, each with a thousand elite navy. The five lieutenant generals headed by the battleship at the front, which five are they, let me take a good look."

After reading it carefully, Spandam was excited: "Hahaha, you are going to be finished. The five lieutenant generals are Flying Squirrel, Huoshaoshan, Dauberman, Ghost Spider, and Stoloberg. They are not only lieutenant generals, but also A very powerful existence among the lieutenant generals. Straw hats, you are finished! Hahaha!"

However, the six of Luffy didn't turn their heads to look at the Demon Slaughter Order, and Luffy ignored Spandam.

Watching all this, Robin was moved, sad, worried and many other emotions.

Deep in the eyes, tears welled up, knowing that Luffy and the others would never leave.

Looking at Robin, Luffy suddenly shouted loudly: "Robin, I want to hear from you! Say you want to live!"

Zoro, Sanji, Nami, Usopp, and Chopper all stared at Robin, waiting for Robin's answer.

Robin hesitated: "Live..."

In my mind, some words from my former "partner" came to mind.

"You don't deserve to live in this world, Robin."

"Your very existence is a crime, Robin."

"Hurry up and die."

...

Robin burst into tears and said to himself: "I thought I had no right to do this, and no one would allow me to live."

Suddenly, in his mind, it was no longer the images of many people letting him die, but what Sauro said to himself when O'Hara emerged.

"One day, a companion will appear to protect you."

In an instant, Robin burst into tears uncontrollably, looking at Luffy and the others standing awe-inspiringly opposite, waiting for his answer.

Robin lowered his head, and murmured: "If I can really make a wrong, I...I..."

Robin raised his head abruptly, tears welled up, and shouted loudly at Luffy and the others:

"I want to live! Take me to the sea too!"

Luffy grinned, turned around under the astonished gazes of everyone on the opposite side, and lightly said something that shocked Robin, cp9, cp0, etc.

"Wait for me, I will repel the Demon Slaughter Order first." Inch.

Chapter 076 Robin, I, the Sun God, will illuminate the darkness!

"Zoro, watch, if they do something to Robin, do it."

"it is good!"

Luffy turned around, turned his back to Robin, and cp9, cp0.

The words and actions made Robin astonished.

Cp9 is the same as cp0, Spandam looks puzzled.

"What does he mean by that? Repel the Demon Slaughter Order first?

And look at the meaning, is he going to defeat the Demon Slaughter Order alone?"

Lu Qi frowned, surprised: "It seems, it seems."

Spandam was stunned, and then laughed: "Hahaha, what are you kidding, I thought the Straw Hats teamed up to repel the Demon Slaughter Token, but he was the one who repelled it alone? How is it possible, what is the Demon Slaughter Token? "

Cp0 member opening.

"If they fight back together, we will directly attack Nicole Robin. Since we are alone, let's take a look first. After all, if we attack, the straw hat partners will also attack."

"Yeah, I really want to see how he can repel the Demon Slaughter Order by himself."

"Even the captain dare not say that. He is just a rookie. Even if he is the captain of the Straw Hats and offers a bounty of 1.3 billion Baileys, it is impossible. It is too ridiculous."

"I didn't choose to leave, but I was determined to take Nicole Robin away. That's fine, let's deal with them as well."

"The Demon Slaughter Order has also come, and together with us, it won't be very difficult to take down the Straw Hats."

"Four Eighty Zero"...

The six members of Cp0 were full of fighting spirit, but they didn't do anything, but wanted to see how Straw Hat Luffy repelled the Demon Slaughter Order alone.

They think it is impossible, what a joke.

Spandam thought it was impossible, and Lu Qi and the other seven also thought it was impossible.

Lu Qi looked at Lu Fei's back and frowned: "Repel the Demon Slaughter Order alone, what a joke, although there is a gap between me and you, it is impossible for the gap to be that big."

If it was the Four Emperors who said that, Lu Qi felt that it was normal.

If he were himself, facing one-fifth of the combat power of the Demon Slaughter Order, it would be impossible for him to repel it by himself.

Although Straw Hat Luffy is stronger than himself, he can't be that strong.

Sauron and the others were fighting, and Robin said that if he wanted to survive, he could start fighting.

Now, the Demon Slaying Order is handed over to Luffy, they are holding cp0, as long as they do something to Robin, they will do it.

But now, they don't intend to do anything, so they won't help Luffy, just stand like this.

Although it sounds unbelievable to defeat the Demon Slaughter Order by one person, Sauron and the others chose to believe it.

Luffy turned around, facing the sea ahead, and ten battleships came in a mighty way by Slaughter Demon.

With the arrival of the Demon Slaying Order, the sky was dark and cloudy, and the weather just turned cloudy.

The world was dark and depressing, and with the arrival of the Demon Slaying Order, the world was even more depressing.

Robin worried: "Luffy..."

On each battleship of the Tumo Order, the elite navy is ready to go. All the muzzles have been aimed at the Straw Hats on Judiciary Island. The shells have been filled.

All of a sudden, all the ten thousand marines had their eyes fixed on Luffy and the nearly hundred powerful muzzles.

On the battleship deck headed by the front, there are five lieutenant generals wearing white cloaks of justice. They are the five elite lieutenant generals of the flying squirrel.

"The Straw Hats chose to interfere, stupid decision."

"They will regret it."

"They are going to be finished. There is cp0 in the front, and the demon-slaying order in the back. They can't escape with their wings."

"Just send them to the city of advancement."

"It's strange that only Straw Hat Luffy is facing us. What do you mean?"

...

This confuses them, but if they don't understand it, they don't think too much about it, as long as they catch them, other things are not important, so they don't need to think about it.

After approaching, the battleship stopped on the sea, 100 meters away from Judiciary Island.

The flying squirrel asked Haibing to bring a trumpet, and shouted at Luffy after receiving it.

"Straw Hats, surrender, there is no point in fighting, you will be arrested by us this time."

Luffy's hand suddenly stretched out and grabbed the horn.

This made the flying squirrel frown slightly, and didn't try to grab it, just to see how he responded.

Luffy picked up the horn, ready to speak.

This made everyone look over, wanting to see how Straw Hat Luffy would respond.

However, after that, everyone was startled.

Luffy's voice resounded through the speaker.

"Devil Slaughter Order, retreat, I still have important things to do."

This made the flying squirrel and the fifth lieutenant general stunned, and Tu Moling and all the elite navy were also stunned.

Fifth Lieutenant General's face was ugly, but he didn't expect to say that.

If it was a surrender, or a direct fight, it would not be surprising, but you want them to retreat? What are you kidding, what are you talking about?

"Is he kidding us?"

"Let us retreat? This is a demon-slaying order."

"Can't he understand the situation?"

Chapter 58

"It sounds like our presence will interfere with his important things a little bit."

"Yeah, that sounds too contemptuous."

...

The flying squirrel sent another horn, and said in a deep voice: "Straw Hat Luffy, what are you kidding? Let the Demon Slaughter Order retreat? Impossible! I came here to arrest you. The appearance of the Demon Slaughter Order means destruction." , How could it be possible to retreat, let alone retreat just because you are a pirate, that would be too shameful, what will the deterrent effect of the Demon Slaughter Order have on the world in the future?"

Luffy asked: "Aren't you going to retreat?"

"Of course!" The flying squirrel was very determined.

At this point, Spandam laughed.

"Hahaha, I laughed so hard, I have never made me laugh so many times like today, let the Demon Slayer Order retreat? Are you kidding me?"

Lu Qi and others, as well as cp0, thought it was ridiculous. Is this straw hat Luffy stupid?

Even Robin is puzzled, it sounds impossible, she knows the horror of the Demon Slaying Order.

There are cp9 and cp0 in front, plus the troops and firepower of the Demon Slaughter Order, and the combat power of the fifth lieutenant general, how can it be possible to retreat against the Straw Hats?

If there is only one demon-slaying order, and the other party is the Four Emperors, then such words sound like a reminder, an admonition.

But what Luffy said was surprising.

Luffy had no choice but to say, "In this case, the speaker is useless, there is nothing to say, then, quickly solve you, and then save Robin from cp0."

As soon as these words came out, the faces of Lu Qi and the others sank, and they ignored them without mentioning them.

Lu Qi was angry in his heart, and the other six, Kaku, Gabra, Kalifa, Snuggle, Owl, and Bruno, also felt ashamed. Although they had a bounty of 1.3 billion Baileys, they were too underestimated Well, don't count them all.

"Damn, you underestimate us too much."

"Although they are powerful, our cp9 is not bad."

"Ignore us, we will fight later, let Straw Hat Luffy know how powerful we are."

"Perhaps there is no chance. To face the Demon Slaughter Order alone, he will be taken down soon."

"Yeah, there is no chance for him to see our strength."

...

Spandam laughed again: "Hahaha, it sounds like the Demon Slaughter Order has retreated, it's because of his pity for the Demon Slaughter Order. Now that the Demon Slaughter Order refuses to retreat, he wants to teach the Demon Slaughter Order a lesson by himself? Hahahaha, I'm really looking forward to it."

Flying Squirrel and the others were also upset when they heard it, and their faces were gloomy.

The flying squirrel said in a deep voice: "Let me see how you fight against the Demon Slaughter Token alone. You are just a newcomer, a newcomer with a great reputation, and you are not the Four Emperors.... Facing the Demon Slaughter Token alone? Arrogant, these are ten top warships, ten thousand navy, and us, even if you are 1.3 billion, you can't fight against the Demon Slaughter Order alone, let alone repel it!"

Lu Fei whispered awe-inspiringly: "Emperor, it will be there soon. As for the strength of troops, it is useless in front of me."

"Ok?"

The flying squirrel and the others were about to say something, but Luffy crushed the horn. Suddenly, the momentum changed, and suddenly became extremely domineering.

She raised her head suddenly, her eyes glared angrily, a red light flashed in the depths of her eyes, and her domineering arrogance burst out suddenly!

The originally gloomy sky was suddenly covered with a dark red domineering look, and the sky and the earth were dark red.

Luffy's domineering aura instantly swept towards the sea in front of him, covering the Demon Slayer Order lineup.

bang bang bang bang...

In the next moment, there was a continuous sound of falling to the ground. The elite of the navy, who was constantly fainting, rolled his eyes and fell on the deck.

bang bang bang bang...

The sound of falling to the ground continued, and the elites on every battleship lost their vigor, and all rolled their eyes and fell on their backs, with painful expressions on their faces.

The faces of the five lieutenant generals including the flying squirrel changed drastically, showing a domineering look.

Knowing that the straw hat has a domineering look, but it is so terrifying.

Soon, the sound of falling to the ground stopped, and the surroundings became quiet. Flying Squirrel and the others looked around and saw that none of the elite naval elites on the ten battleships remained standing, and all fell to the ground in a faint!

The 10,000 elite naval forces disappeared in an instant!

The flying squirrel and the other five lieutenant generals were terrified, how could it be possible? !

"This...how could it be, they are all elite navy! They were stunned by the domineering color of the straw hat!"

"If it's an ordinary sea soldier, it's not surprising, but they are all elites of the Demon Slayer Order."

"It wouldn't be too surprising if it was the red-haired domineering domineering look, but his domineering look is so strong."

"In an instant, all the troops were gone..."

...

The faces of the lieutenant generals were extremely heavy, which was never expected.

Without troops, whoever is responsible for firing the guns is equivalent to having no firepower.

Robin was stunned, cp9 Lu Qi and others, as well as Spandam, were all stunned.

They stared wide-eyed and opened their mouths wide, staring blankly at the demon-slaying order in the sea ahead, in disbelief.

"Am I dreaming, how can it be, it's not real." 3.1

"Domineering and domineering, stunned 10,000 navy elites in an instant, it's too outrageous..."

"Can you really repel the Demon Slaughter Order alone..."

...

They were shocked, horrified, like a dream, unacceptable.

The six of Cp0 were also surprised and unexpected.

On the leading battleship, Flying Squirrel and the others looked downcast. Although they were shocked, their fighting spirit remained undiminished.

"Although the military strength and firepower are gone, we still have us as the backbone of the Navy Headquarters! Five lieutenant generals! We haven't fallen yet, and the Demon Slayer Order is not defeated by the Straw Hats alone."

"Yes! Leave it to us to deal with him."

"The bounty of 1.3 billion is powerful, but the combination of our five elite lieutenant generals is not something he can deal with."

"Don't be too shocked, the domineering look stuns the elite soldiers, let's see how he deals with us alone."

"He meant to quickly repel the Demon Slaughter Order without wasting his time, so let's see how he can quickly get rid of the Fifth Lieutenant General of the Demon Slaughter Order!"

...

At this moment, Luffy suddenly jumped up! Everyone raised their heads and looked at Luffy high in the sky.

Lu Fei skimmed over the battleship where the fifth lieutenant general was located, and spoke awe-inspiringly.

"Robin!"

Luffy's shout made Robin raise his head, staring at Luffy high in the sky, what did he want to say to himself? .

Chapter 077 Karmic Fire! pistol! (wonderful subscription)

Luffy said domineeringly, "Robin! You said your enemy is darkness, so let me illuminate the darkness!"

Lu Qi and the others, cp0 and the others were all taken aback, thinking it was a bit ridiculous to light up the darkness? You rubber fruit ability, how do you light up?

However, the next moment, as Luffy used a new move, Nami and the others' eyes lit up!

Lu Qi and the others changed their expressions drastically!

Luffy is above the leading battleship, which makes Flying Squirrel, Huoshaoshan, Dauberman, Ghost Spider, and Stoloberry feel that this is very dangerous.

They raised their heads and looked at Luffy above, all smiling.

"It's in the air like this, is it going to be a target?"

"It's our five elite lieutenant generals who are facing the sky, instead of rushing directly."

"It seems to be going up and down to attack, but it will only be offset by our attack, or even defeated, and then he will become a target and be shot down from the air by us."

"Facing the five of us, how can he dodge in the air? Although he is powerful, with a bounty of 1.3 billion Baileys, he is too smooth and hasty."

"Fight back, beat him down, we'll take Straw Hat Luffy..."

...

However, the flying squirrel hadn't finished saying the word "take down" at the end, and his face changed drastically, including the other four elite lieutenant generals.

They were all panicked and shouted: "Counterattack! Counterattack with all your strength!"

Flying Squirrel, Huoshaoshan, Dauberman, Ghost Spider, and Stoloberg all waved their knives, and 04 slashed at Luffy in the sky.

Flying squirrels, Huoshaoshan, and Moman are all single swords, and their slashing powers are very powerful, while ghost spiders, with eight spider-like hands, each hold a knife, slashing dazzlingly.

Holding a knife in both hands, Stoloberi made an X slash.

In an instant, all kinds of powerful slashes rushed to the sky.

So panicked, Qi Qi went all out to slash, just because the sky above...

Lu Fei said in a deep voice: "I persuaded you to retreat, but you didn't agree, then regret the choice you made!"

Luffy's next move shocked Nami and others, wasn't it a fire fist?

They were surprised. When they heard that Luffy said he wanted to light up the darkness, what they thought of was the fire fist.

After all, the Fire Fist Gun can burst into surging flames.

Lu Qi and others, cp0, and the Fifth Lieutenant General of Tu Moling didn't know, and felt that it was ridiculous for Luffy of the rubber fruit to say that it would light up the darkness, but they knew that it could be illuminated.

However, I thought it was a fire fist, but now it seems that it is obviously not.

Luffy asked again.

"Robin! Do you want me to light up the darkness you face!"

The voice of inquiry resounded all over the world, Robin shed tears, nodded heavily, and shouted: "I think!"

"it is good!"

Luffy responded, and his right hand suddenly became huge! Like a giant arm, it became pitch black! Cover flow cherry!

Robin and the others confirmed that it wasn't the Fire Fist, but a new move they didn't know about!

Luffy growled suddenly, his eyes widened, his aura reached its peak, his huge right hand suddenly went up, all the power gathered in his right hand, and he was ready to bombard the Fifth Lieutenant General of the Demon Slaughter Order on the battleship below from above!

"Guo Mo, Guo Moruo..."

Luffy's next punch caught everyone's attention.

Flowing cherry blossoms are flying like flowers! The third level of heavy punches rises from the sky! Like a flying meteor! Break through the night!

This punch is to prove the power that can be an enemy of the world!

This punch is to protect the unswerving bond of the partner until death!

This punch was to ignite the fire of hope in Robin's heart!

This punch was aimed at illuminating the darkness for Robin, who has been in the dark all this time, but yearns for the light! From darkness to light!

On the battleship, the fifth lieutenant general of Tu Moling only felt a dazzling and raging flame descending from the sky! Break through the darkness! Dispel the haze! Reappear the clear sky!

Luffy's huge right hand is covered with fiery flames, surging and surging, illuminating the world!

I only heard Luffy growl in a low voice:

"Third gear! Karma! Pistol!!!"

The giant fist that covered the surging karmic fire fell from the sky and struck down heavily!

I only heard a loud explosion in the space, and the flaming clouds pierced the darkness, and the infinite momentum shook the sky and the earth, even if it was the fifth lieutenant general of the Demon Slayer Order?

Facing this 'Grade 3, Karma Pistol', they will all be defeated by this punch!

Click click click!

All the slashes of the five elite Lieutenant Generals of the Flying Squirrel collided with the Giant Karma Fist that fell from the sky, and they all collapsed, failing to stop the Giant Karma Fist!

The slash of their elite five lieutenant generals was extremely fragile under this punch.

It was too late to fight back again, so the giant fist of karma from the sky came to their heads in an instant!

The eyes of the five lieutenant generals widened and contracted in pain, fear could not help appearing in their eyes, and their hearts were all uneasy.

It is difficult to dodge, there is no time to counterattack, and even if they counterattack, they will be defeated. All they can do is defend with all their strength.

"Iron block!"

Chapter 59

The unnamed elite lieutenant generals shouted in unison, defended with all their strength, and used the iron block of the Navy's six-style, and relaxed a little.

However...

Yehuo's giant fist slammed down heavily, and the five lieutenant generals of Tu Moling all fell down with their faces sunken from being smashed.

boom!

Click! !

The huge fist of Karma fell, and the earth-shattering roar caused the entire battleship to shatter and sink.

The five lieutenant generals of the Tu Mo Ling who were hit by the bombardment were all blasted into the sea, their whole body was in severe pain, and their bodies were about to explode. It felt like their internal organs and bones were about to be shattered by the terrifying force. .

My mind was buzzing, buzzing constantly, and my brain went blank for an instant. Even with all my strength to defend, the Fifth Lieutenant General of Tumoling was instantly seriously injured by Luffy's punch, and fell into the sea after being defeated!

As the giant fist of Karma blasted down, circles of flame ripples spread across the sky, illuminating the sky brighter.

Robin stared blankly at the punch, the circles of flames flying into the sky, the bright sky, and Robin's eyes were also illuminated with light, and the world in his eyes was full of light!

Looking at Luffy high in the sky, like the sun, it warmed her heart, illuminated the darkness for her, and brought dawn to her.

"Luffy..." Robin was so moved that his tears couldn't stop falling.

Before, it was worry and grief, but now it is tears of joy.

Whoosh!

Luffy fell from the sky and landed on the stone pillar he was standing on before, staring at cp0 in front of him, with a low voice:

"It's your turn."

At this time, cp9 Lu Qi and others, Spandam, and even the six members of cp0 all stayed where they were, pale with horror.

The scene just now, the karma pistol, even Sauron and the others were shocked.

There were smiles on their faces, as expected of their captains.

Chopper's eyes burst into starlight: "Luffy, that punch just now is so handsome."

Usopp shivered, excited: "It's too hot-blooded, I have goose bumps all over my body, so handsome! Luffy, so strong!"

Nami was amazed: "It was really a short time to defeat the Demon Slayer Order alone, Luffy, you are stronger than I imagined."

Sauron smiled: "Luffy, it seems that you are more than a little bit stronger than me."

Sanji: "Cooler, stronger, and brighter than the Fire Fist Gun."

...

Luffy's performance, even his friends who knew him well, was shocked, too strong.

I knew that Luffy might be able to repel the Demon Slaughter Order alone, but I didn't expect it to be so fast and crushed like this.

First, the domineering look stuns all the elite navy, and then he defeats the fifth lieutenant general of Tu Moling with a three-speed karma pistol, which is too strong.

Nami and the others were proud and excited, while cp9 and cp0 on the opposite side were unbelievable, horrified, and their faces were heavy.

"The Demon Slaughter Order was defeated just like that."

"Although there are still battleships, they are useless."

"So fast, so strong, defeating the Demon Slaughter Token by one person."

"It really illuminates the darkness, the dark clouds have completely dissipated, the sky is clear, and it is no longer depressing."

"Why... why is this? Why does the attack burst into flames? It's obviously a rubber fruit!"

"I don't understand, I can't figure out why the rubber fruit can burst into flames."

"It doesn't look like it's rubbing against the air to catch fire. I've heard that 480's Fire Fist is in the second gear, not the third gear. The arm quickly rushed to the sky to catch fire, and it rubbed against the air at a very fast speed to catch fire, but this The trick is a huge punch, and the third gear is far slower than the second gear, but why did it catch fire? It is definitely not a friction fire."

"Why is that? It's a rubber fruit. It can only be caused by friction."

...

They couldn't figure it out at all, their faces were very ugly, and they were all slapped in the face.

The Demon Slaughter Order was defeated in this way, and the strength of Straw Hat Luffy was beyond their imagination, which greatly shocked them.

Gritting his teeth angrily, Spandam looked at Robin whose eyes were full of light. His pupils were no longer dim, but full of hope for the future and longing for his partner's voyage.

This means that Robin believes that he can leave and continue sailing.

"Do you think you can escape unscathed? Impossible, let's all die here!

Let's do it!"

Spandam roared, but was kicked away by a cp0 member, and said contemptuously:

"You are not qualified to give orders."

Although Luffy is powerful, defeating the Demon Slaughter Token by himself shocked them, but he must fight, and he must not embarrass the World Government.

"It's strong, but it's also fun."

"In this case, they must be killed, and they cannot continue to grow."

"Just now, I really looked like an emperor."

"If you continue, you will definitely become the fifth emperor in the sea, and it is even possible to defeat anyone of the four emperors and become one of the four emperors."

"With us here, they have no chance. The end of the journey is on this judicial island."

The six members of CP0 are ready to fight.

After being shocked, Lu Qi said seriously to the owl: "Test their power values and see how much they have reached, especially Straw Hat Luffy!"

"Got it, I'll test it now!"

...

...

[If you think it looks good, vote for some flowers, evaluation votes, and monthly tickets. Give an automatic subscription, thank you very much!].

Chapter 078 This battle, open the fourth gear!

The members of cp0 were not prepared to do it when they saw that the power value was to be measured, so let's take a look at the power value of the Straw Hats.

However, let's take a look at theirs first, how much they have reached, and it can also shock the Straw Hats.

The fat owl with a zippered mouth folds its hands together.

"Six-style gaming skills, hand-to-hand."

"Assuming that a sea soldier with a weapon has a power value of ten, what is your power value?"

The next moment, Lu Qi and the others began to kick the owl's body one by one.

It is necessary to bear the opponent's blow, so as to judge the strength of the enemy and infer the power value of other people.

Soon, the owl knew.

"Kalifa, 630 power points."

"Snuggle, 810 power points."

"Bruno, 820 power points."

"Gabula, 2180 power points."

"Kaku, 2200 power points."

...

As he got there, the owl became more and more vibrated, and until the end, his expression changed and he was surprised.

"Lu Qi, 4000 power points."

Owl vibrates, too strong.

The other members of Cp9 were also surprised, much stronger than they imagined.

Although the Dao value can reflect a person's combat effectiveness, it cannot completely determine a person's strength, but it can also prove the strength of a person. Lu Qi is the strongest among them, even much stronger.

Even cp0 members are surprised.

"As expected of cp9's strongest player in the past 800 years, his strength is not bad."

"It is known as the strongest and most ruthless killing weapon in cp9's history, and it must have some strength."

"You're still young, you can temper yourself, and you will definitely be able to enter cp0 in the future, or even be placed in cp0. The combat power is a powerful existence."

...

At this time, Luffy was a little surprised when he heard cp0's words.

"This makes you react like this, then, you are not as strong as I thought."

Hearing this, the faces of the three surprised members of cp0 all sank, what does this mean?

They quickly heard that it was their ridicule and contempt.

It means that if they behave indifferently, it's okay, they are in line with the strongest shield of the Celestial Dragons, cp0.

However, being surprised by Lu Qi's Dao value seems to be incompatible with their identities.

This made cp0 angry, and made Lu Qi even more angry.

However, without making a direct move, Lu Qi said in a low voice:

"Straw hat, you may be stronger than me, but don't think you can despise me. Come on, let me see how much your power is worth, how much higher than mine, it will make you You have the illusion that I can't compare with you!"

Luffy wanted to see it too, so he nodded casually: "Come on."

The owl jumps directly into the air like a balloon, without worrying about being killed. In this state, it is very difficult to fight, and its body is like a very elastic balloon.

Luffy jumped up. The whole body is filled with red steam, entering the second gear, the arms are stretched straight to the sky, covered with jet-black armed domineering, the flames are surging, and the sky is illuminated again.

Lu Qi and the others knew that this was the Fire Fist.

The rubber fruit has so many flame attack moves.

"Fire fist, gun □.!"

boom!

With a sudden and rapid punch, the owl's body was hit, and the place where the stomach was hit was suddenly dented. It was as if Luffy's fist had pierced through the owl's stomach and hit the inside of it.

The owl only felt the qi and blood rushing, and the pain hit him. He opened his mouth, and the blood mixed with the broken internal organs sprayed out.

boom! !

The owl's body deflated instantly, like a hot air balloon being pierced, and suddenly hit the ground with a roar, and the entire Judiciary Island was shaken.

"owl!"

Kaku and the others exclaimed, looking at the motionless owl in the deep pit, bleeding from the corner of its mouth, in an extremely miserable state.

They have an uneasy feeling that they won't...

Lu Qi frowned and asked, "How much is his power worth?"

The owl was dying, and his consciousness was about to collapse.

Lu Qi shouted: "Even if you die, you have to say it before you die!"

Lu Qi is indifferent, even if his companion will die, he doesn't care, it is worthwhile to die, at least he should tell the value of the straw hat's power.

The owl was afraid, terrified, and desperate. He didn't expect that he couldn't hold it, and even, he was about to die.

Hearing Lu Qi's shout, Owl tried his best not to close his eyes and let himself feel it. Suddenly, his eyes widened, terrified.

At the same time, the ability to show such an expression is also a flashback.

Looking at the terrified owl, Lu Qi and the others knew that the owl already knew it, and the value was very high!

Even the six members of cp0, as well as the captains of the two groups this time, were curious and wanted to know.

Lu Qi shouted: "Say it!"

He didn't want the owl to be inked anymore, because he was about to die, and he had to say it before he died, so that they could roughly understand the strength of the straw hat.

The owl was dying, and said weakly: "He... his power value is... yes..."

However, when he was about to say the value, the owl tilted its head, lost its vitality, and died.

"hateful!"

This made Lu Qi and the others angry, but still failed to speak out.

Chapter 60

Luffy landed on the top of the stone pillar, regretting: "He died. I'm also curious about the value of Taoism."

In this way, the power values of Zoro, Sanji and others cannot be measured.

Cp0 members are not interested anymore, they are ready to do it, and some are ready to use the fruit ability.

Cp0, there are people with strong physical skills, people with no abilities, and people with abilities. Most of them are powerful animals. Now, they are ready to do it.

They are bound to succeed. Since the Straw Hats are interfering, Nico Robin and the Straw Hats must take the blueprint if they want to get it.

If the Demon Slaying Order failed, it was up to them.

Just when cp0 was about to make a move, Lu Qi took a step forward, angrily.

The contempt just now made him angry. He wanted to know the strength of the straw hat and see if he had the right to belittle himself.

After all, he was the strongest cp9 in the past 800 years, yet he was so underestimated that his anger was hard to suppress.

"Let me try to fight against him first. I want to see how much stronger he is than me. Is it arrogance or self-confidence."

Listening to Lu Qi's firm tone, cp0 didn't make a move.

"Okay, I'll let you fight him."

"Your strength is not weak. Although he is very strong, he is not like that owl."

"Let's meet the strongest cp9 in the past eight hundred years."

"I can understand your mood, then vent your anger, show Straw Hat Luffy your strength, and let him know that it is wrong to look down on you."

"Even if he is stronger than you, if he wants to defeat you, the straw hat must enter a stronger form. Know that he has second gear, third gear, Lu Qi, go all out, and see if he has a stronger form. For example, fourth gear."

...

This is the calculation of cp0. No matter how strong the shape is, it will be called the fourth gear.

They also know that the straw hats have never gone all out, whether it was the battle on the empty island or the general Aokiji.

When facing Aokiji, the straw hat didn't make a move.

Defeating Crocodile did not do anything, so, regarding the strength of the Straw Hats, if the World Government and the Navy least understand who's full strength, it is naturally the Straw Hat Luffy.

Therefore, in this battle, they must see the strength of the straw hats, and there must be a stronger state.

Lu Qi nodded: " ~This is inevitable!"

This is the goal in Lu Qi's heart. Lu Fei, who is younger than him, is stronger than him, which makes him feel unbalanced.

However, even if it is strong, it can't be too strong. Even if he can't beat him, he still has to force the straw hat to use all his strength.

Luffy said: "For this battle, I will drive in fourth gear."

This shocked cp9, cp0 and others.

As they thought, sure enough, in addition to the second and third gears, there is a stronger form called the fourth gear.

Robin is also Yi Rin, a stronger form.

The second and third gears are very strong, how strong will it be in the fourth gear?

Nami, Zoro and the others were also shocked. They also didn't know that Luffy still had fourth gear, and they had even mastered it.

They are not clear about Luffy's full strength, and they are also curious.

Hearing that Luffy said that this battle will be in fourth gear, they are naturally looking forward to it. What will it be like? What kind of combat power?

Luffy thought to himself, this battle must be serious, after all, there are six combat powers of cp0.

Even though the strength varies, among the six, there must be a high combat power, not much worse than the general.

Therefore, to succeed in this battle and leave with Robin, it is necessary to open fourth gear.

but...

Luffy looked at Lu Qi, and corrected: "But, it's not about fighting with you, you need to open fourth gear, but with them."

"asshole!"

Luffy's words directly made Lu Qi break his defense and roar angrily.

At the same time, the body swelled, and the black suit on his body was torn. It can be seen that Lu Qi's body is constantly expanding, and the muscles are clearly defined. (Money's) and covered with leopard fur.

Soon, Lu Qi entered the human-beast form, like a leopard in human form.

He is the animal department, the cat cat fruit, and the leopard form.

He was already angry because of his contempt, but Luffy's words made him furious.

I thought it meant fighting with myself, but it wasn't.

After transforming, Lu Qi's aura was still improving, and his inflated body suddenly shrunk. To be precise, the muscles and bones were tightening and shrinking.

Soon, although it was still in human-beast form, it had the same body shape as the human form just now.

Immediately, his aura reached its peak, and he directly entered his strongest form, the human-beast form, plus the return of life.

"Dare to despise me like this, and let you see my full strength! You don't plan to drive fourth gear? Then... regret it! Chi!"

From Lu Qi's point of view, either don't drive, get beaten by himself, and regret it.

Either slap yourself in the face and open fourth gear.

No matter which of the two, he has to do one.

Lu Qi entered the strongest form, and it was the strongest blow directly, and he didn't intend to ink it.

Luffy blew a huge amount of air into his hands, and it became pitch black. He suddenly stretched back, and pulled back the huge fists with all his strength, and bombarded them forward.

"Guo Mo, Guo Moruo... the Grizzly Bear Gun!"

Seeing the huge pair of fists coming heavily, Lu Qi's pair of fists also blasted forward with terrifying force.

"Six Types of Mysteries, the largest round of Six King Spears!".

079 Let's Fight! The fifth emperor of the sea!

Lu Qi used the most powerful attack, but facing Luffy's attack which was not at full strength, he felt the pressure in his heart.

"If you feel pressure like this, let alone force him to open fourth gear."

Lu Qi didn't want to admit that he was feeling the pressure now, growling and punching out with both fists.

boom!

boom!

The four fists collided with great disparity, and there was a brief stalemate. Ripples of power swept across, and the surrounding buildings collapsed.

The other members of Cp9 were all shaken out.

"What a strong aftermath."

"How strong is the attack power?"

"If I were to face it, I'm afraid it would be solved with one move."

"Even if Lu Qi is not the opponent of the Straw Hat, I believe that he can force the Straw Hat to open fourth gear, which is considered a victory."

...

However, in the next moment, their expressions changed in shock.

After the collision, there was a brief stalemate. No matter how loud Lu Qi exploded his strength, he couldn't move forward.

Moreover, he was constantly retreating, feeling the terrifying power coming, constantly defeating his power.

After a brief stalemate, his strongest attack power completely collapsed, unbearable, and the huge black fist slammed heavily on his body.

Lu Qi felt excruciating pain all over his body, blood spewed out, his eyes seemed to be cracked, and he was in extreme pain.

Whoosh!

Lu Qi was blasted out like a cannonball, and hit the wall inside the tall building, directly smashing a deep depression with large characters.

Lu Qi vomited blood, and felt that the bones of his whole body were about to fall apart, which was too painful.

Sliding to the ground, Lu Qi was about to fall to the ground, but he clenched his teeth and persisted.

"I can't just fall down like this. The strongest me in cp9 for 800 years can't be defeated by a straw hat. That would be too shameful!"

Even if he can't beat the straw hat, he can't be defeated in seconds. This is absolutely not allowed by him.

Lu Qi gritted his teeth and persisted, his face was bloodied, and his whole body was injured, but when 483 was about to fall down, he knelt on one knee, then stood up with difficulty, and walked towards Luffy step by step.

"I must force you to do your best!"

Luffy's hands changed back to normal, Lu Qi stepped forward and said in a deep voice, "Are you going to use fourth gear?"

With a puff, Lu Fei's complexion turned red and steam filled the air.

Luffy shook his head: "No, it's second gear."

"hateful!"

This made Lu Qi explode with anger, panting, and spitting blood, and he didn't know if he was angry, seriously injured, or both.

"Six Forms of Mysteries, Pointing to the Spear! Huang Lian!"

Lu Qi stretched out both hands, but each stretched out an index finger, and suddenly stabbed forward at an extremely fast speed, like a machine gun for a moment, densely packed with high-frequency attacks.

However, instead of backing away, Luffy walked towards Lucci.

Such high-frequency attacks were all avoided by Luffy.

"how is this possible..."

Lu Qi was stunned, his eyes widened and his pupils shrank.

It was clearly right in front of my eyes, and it was still walking towards me, getting closer and closer, but none of my dense attacks like machine guns touched the essence, which meant that I didn't attack at all, and all of them were walked straight towards me Luffy dodged it.

With just a slight movement of the body, they all escaped, how could it be possible.

Cp9 was even more horrified, couldn't believe it, and kept rubbing his eyes.

"Am I dazzled?"

"All escaped?"

"How could it be possible to avoid such a close attack with such a high frequency of rapid attacks?"

...

However, with the second gear and Luffy's powerful knowledge and arrogance, it is easy to avoid the fastest high-frequency attack of Lu Qi with his current strength.

The Cp0 member is vibration.

After the shock, his face was heavy.

"As expected of 1.3 billion."

aedb) is very strong, its speed is very fast, and its knowledge and domineering are more exquisite."

"Who taught his domineering and physical skills."

"I don't know, I didn't find out at all, including the Straw Hats, and I didn't find out who their teacher was."

"We can't find cp0, it's really mysterious."

"Seeing that the straw hat is getting stronger, it makes us more determined. In this battle, we must arrest him! Kill the straw hat gang."

...

As Luffy went straight forward and was about to get close at hand, Lu Qi was uneasy, gave up attacking, and retreated quickly.

However, when Yusha moved quickly, the figure of Luffy where he was standing just now disappeared from his sight.

This made Lu Qi startled, uneasy, and quickly searched, his face changed, and he was on his right side.

The moment he turned around, Luffy was ready to attack.

"Guo Mo, Guo Moruo..."

Lu Qi's eyes widened, his face was ugly, and his heart was heavy: "I can't hide!"

He couldn't hide, and he didn't have time to fight back, but Lu Qi didn't despair. In the state of the strongest life return, he used the strongest defense of the six forms, and shouted ""

"Iron block!"
