"It's my friend Kayla." Kemi tensed.

Nami said in a condensed voice: "Then, I'm going to start bidding, we have 700 million."

At this moment, Luffy knew that even with so much money, it was not enough.

But, no matter what, we must save.

Luffy naturally heard what Kidd said.

Like them? Naturally impossible.

It was impossible in the original plot, let alone now, it was even more impossible.

The auction room fell silent, and Disco said: "It seems that everyone is very interested. Yes, it's been a long time since I auctioned a mermaid, let alone such a young and good-looking mermaid. So, how much does the starting price start? I'm going to say, the auction starts. The price is..."

"One billion!"

Suddenly, St. Charles Rose spoke first.

This made the auction house instantly quiet, and Disco was also taken aback.

However, after a brief start, he was naturally excited.

Originally, I thought the starting price would be 100 million Baileys, but the Tianlong people went straight to 1 billion.

The auction hall was silent for ten seconds. Nami's face changed in shock, and the good bidding cards in her hand subconsciously fell out of her hands and fell to the ground.

Nami's eyes were blank, her pupils contracted, and she stayed where she was.

Kaimi and Xiaoba were sweating and desperate.

Keira, who was locked up, was even more desperate, collapsed, and terrified.

The other nobles gave up. Although this was driving up the price, they did not dare to get angry.

"give up."

"I can only give up, the opponent is too strong, Tianlongren."

"We nobles are no different from ordinary people in the eyes of Tianlong people."

"Even if I have more than one billion, I will not rob Tianlong people."

...

For a while, no one bid, and most of them didn't have enough money.

Even if they had money, they didn't dare to bid.

The expressions of the Kidd Pirates became wonderful.

"Sure enough, as we thought, it was going to happen."

"What will they do?"

"What else can I do, but I can't compete in the auction, so I can only bear it, there is nothing I can do."

Nami's face was ugly: "How could it be... In this case, it's not enough at all."

The faces of Sanji and others also became heavy in an instant, Hachi and Kemi were almost in tears, desperate.

Luffy and the others have already helped themselves, and they can't ask for anything anymore, they have tried their best.

St. Roswald glanced at his eldest son and blamed him: "It's starting to waste money again. Don't you still have piranhas in your tank?"

Although it is blame, but do not care.

Saint Charles Rose looked forward to it, and said shocking words without changing his expression.

"You can let them chase after them. Mermaids seem to be the fastest swimmers in the world."

Xia Lulia Palace became interested: "It sounds very interesting, so I have to go and see it when the time comes. Also, brother Wang, since you are here for fun, you don't have to care about what you look like? I want to put the slave mark Can you burn it on her face, Brother Wang?"

0...Ask for flowers...

St. Charles Rose didn't care: "Yes."

Disco said at this time: "The whole audience is silent, so, is there anyone else who bid more than one billion? If not, we will end it as soon as possible."

However, no response.

Disco began to hammer the hammer, and by all accounts, it was set and the auction was over.

Saint Charles Rose grinned, determined to win.

Looking at this scene, Kidd said with emotion: "It's like a miniature of the world, a farce. Don't watch it, let's go."

Kidd was about to leave with his men, and the auction also meant that it was over, so there was no need to stay here.

Disco knocked three times before announcing: "Then, the mermaid Kayla was won by Charlos Saint Flower with a bid of one billion Baileys. This auction is successful..."

However, before the word "Jiao" could be uttered, a piercing sound resounded.

"etc."

With this sound, Disco's words came to an abrupt end.

Kidd and the others who were walking towards the gate also stopped in their tracks.

Kidd turned his head and saw that it was Straw Hat Luffy. What is he going to do?

The rest of the nobles were puzzled and looked at Luffy standing up, but they didn't know each other.

"who is he."

"What to do?"

"I do not know."

...

All eyes, including Keira, looked at Luffy who stood up.

bang bang bang...

Footsteps sounded, and Luffy, who was wearing a black cloak and a straw hat, lowered his head and couldn't see his expression clearly.

I saw Luffy stand up from his seat, walk to the aisle, go down the steps, and walk to the auction stage.

This made Xiao Ba's face change, should he come by force?

Xiao Ba was already thinking about saving it by himself, but he didn't have the key, and he was thinking about how to get the key, otherwise it would be useless if he saved it, the collar would explode.

And, that's a Celestial Dragon, so you can't let Luffy do it, because Luffy and others have already helped them enough, but you can't let Luffy and the others get into such a huge trouble.

"Wait, Straw Hat, what are you doing?"

Xiao Ba held Lu Fei back and asked in a deep voice.

"Of course to help her."

"But she's wearing a collar and it's going to explode."

"It's okay, leave it to me."

Xiao Ba still held on to Luffy, resolutely: "No, even if you have a way, you can't do it, or you will provoke the Tianlong people."

However, it was difficult to drag Luffy, Xiao Ba subconsciously stretched out his claws, and grabbed Luffy all of them.

This suddenly made the faces of the other nobles change, they were extremely disgusted, and there was discrimination in their bones.

"Ah! Look... look at that hand... it's a murloc!"

"Why are murlocs here, this monster."

"Staff, catch him quickly."

"Get away from me, ugly monster, and go back to the sea."

...

After Xiaoba realized it, he let go of Luffy, at a loss.

Papagu shouted: "Little Ba, run away, or you will be in danger."

Xiao Ba is not afraid: "I don't care, Kayla..."

boom!

Suddenly, a gunshot rang out, and it was Charles Rose who aimed at Xiaoba and pulled the trigger.

However, Luffy had been prepared for a long time, flashed quickly, and his hand had already caught the bullet.

This changed the faces of everyone in the venue, especially Kidd and Luo.

As for Xiao Ba, his expression changed even more, he was uneasy.

Saint Charles Rose hadn't had time to be happy, his face darkened: "I was caught by him, * it!"

Luffy was about to make a move, but was held back by Hachi.

"Leave me alone, Straw Hat."

Xiao Ba immediately looked at Tianlongren: "Don't, don't be angry, you can shoot me a few more times, I won't hide, don't blame him."

Xiao Ba's words touched Luffy's heart, and he said this in order to avoid provoking Tianlong people.

"Xiao Ba, let go." Lu Fei said lightly.

"Don't...straw hat boy, don't be angry, I screwed up, you don't mind me, just let him shoot me, two shots, twenty shots, don't mind. I said it before, no matter who it is If you are killed in front of you, you can't even shoot at the Tianlong people. Didn't you promise me? So, leave me alone, let him shoot me to relieve his anger, and then you will be fine.

Anyway, I am a pirate, maybe this is what I did at the beginning

Retribution for the bad things you did. In order to atone for Nami, I really want to help you, but it seems that I can no longer help you go to

Fishman Island, so let me die here, I don't want to fail to help you, I'm sorry for causing you trouble, I'm really sorry!"

Xiaoba burst into tears, very sorry and sad.

St. Charles Rose was angry: "Don't move, I'll take twenty shots!"

"you dare!"

Suddenly, Lu Fei stared at St. Charles Ross with a sharp gaze. The aura of this moment directly made St. Charles startled.

But, soon, St. Charles Rose was angry: "What kind of eyes do you have, how dare you say such things to me."

Luffy didn't say anything, but walked towards Charros St. step by step.

Xiaoba panicked: "Don't...don't do anything, you will end badly, stop quickly."

However, Luffy approached step by step with a gloomy expression.

St. Charros was furious, pulled the trigger, and the sound of bang bang bang was heard, but Luffy easily dodged it.

Luo frowned: "This is to..."

Kidd was startled: "Seriously?"

At the same time of being horrified and finding something wrong, it is not just about doing it.

Kidd and Luo were shocked, because from the straw hat, they felt the killing intent! Inch.

Chapter 101 Five Emperors Luffy: Isn't it the two generals?

"How... how come, I can't hit..."

Saint Charros was about to pull the trigger again, but in an instant, Luffy flew in front of him, clenched his fists tightly, and roared fiercely.

boom!

Luffy punched St. Charlos's face hard, causing the bubble air cover to shatter directly, the face was directly sunken, flew out backwards, and hit the wall with a bang.

For a moment, the entire auction house was dead silent.

All the nobles stared wide-eyed and opened their mouths in disbelief.

They even suspected that what happened in front of them was not real, but a dream, because such a scene was unimaginable, and someone dared to beat Tianlongren.

Kami, Xiao Ba's face changed drastically, he was extremely worried, and the most worrying thing still happened.

Kidd's men were stunned.

"It's different from what we imagined..."

"Unexpectedly, dare to fight Tianlong people."

"I didn't choose to be aggrieved and endured, but to do it directly, without hesitation..."

"I was wrong before. Not only does he have the courage of the Five Emperors, but his style is also the same...even worse."

...

The subordinates were shocked, and Kidd also grinned after a brief surprise, admiring the straw hat very much, and the straw hat was very pleasing to the eye.

The other two Celestial Dragons were terrified and couldn't believe it.

The guards came, and they were all paralyzed with fright. The Tianlong people were beaten, and they were also finished.

"How dare you beat the Tianlong people..."

"Don't want to live..."

"It's the first time I heard that the Tianlong people were beaten."

...

The nobles couldn't believe it. Suddenly, a person found something in Luffy's hand.

"Look, what he has in his hand is..."

"My God, when did you get it?"

"Could it be... still... don't you..."

...

An even more terrifying voice sounded.

Luo and Kidd looked at Luffy's right hand, their faces changed.

And, Luffy raised his right hand, and the thing in his hand appeared in front of everyone, it was the pistol of St. Charles Ross just now!

I saw that Luffy picked up his gun and pointed it at Charros Saint.

"four nine seven"

Kidd was horrified, he never thought he would dare to do this.

"Hey, isn't it, one punch is not enough, do you still want to kill?"

Kidd's men were extremely panicked.

"Whether it is or not, Captain, let us go quickly."

"You have to go, or it's over."

"It's very serious for Tianlong people to be beaten. The general will definitely come, not to mention that the straw hat has used a gun now."

...

At the same time, Luo stood up, ready to leave.

Sauron withdrew the knife: "Luffy, because you beat him into the air, that's why I didn't draw the knife. Now that you want to move the gun, then I won't do it."

These words shocked Luo and Kidd, not only Straw Hat Luffy, but also Zoro dared to attack Tianlongren, and still slashed them with knives. The Straw Hats are really crazy.

"Stop! What are you going to do!"

The faces of the guards changed drastically, and they went up to attack.

"Damn! Your target is her, then I will kill her!"

Xialulia Palace climbed onto the auction stage and pointed a gun at Keira in the water cage at close range.

Disco's face changed first: "Ah? This is a billion Baileys, please...please think twice, Xia Lulia Palace, the money has not been paid yet."

"court death!"

Xia Lulia Palace shot directly at Disco, and the bullet pierced Disco's heart directly, falling to the ground and dying.

"No, Kayla is in danger!"

Xiaoba and Kaimi's expressions changed in shock.

At the same time, the guards attacked Luffy.

Charulia Palace, too, is about to pull the trigger and shoot Kayla.

However, Luffy's eyes widened, his domineering look burst out, his aura was terrifying and domineering, the cloak fluttered behind him, and there was a sound of hunting.

The invisible overlord swept across, and under the control of Luffy, the guards and Xia Lulia Palace suddenly fainted and fell to the ground, even bleeding from the mouth and nose.

Ka Ka Ka...

A slight crack sounded, but it was covered by a louder sound with a bang.

Therefore, Jean Luo and Kidd did not hear the cracking sound.

I saw that the wall in front of the auction stage was suddenly torn apart, and a hole appeared below. A figure stepped on slippers, wore a white cloak, and walked out with his hands in his pockets.

Above the figure, a pair of big hands tore open the wall, revealing a giant figure.

Rayleigh stepped out, looked around, and was shocked.

"It's so overbearing, I don't even need to do it."

Rayleigh glanced at the seats in the venue, and he was shocked by the fact that many cracks appeared.

"The overlord's color is so strong that it can cause substantial damage. As far as I know, only Shanks can do it."

Rayleigh looked at Luffy, his eyes couldn't help being shocked.

Wearing a straw hat and a black cape with a stand-up collar, he is domineering and bold.

On Luffy, Rayleigh saw the shadows of two people. Roger, the redhead!

Luo and Kidd's expressions changed when they heard this.

"Substantial damage?"

"Really...really... how is it possible."

The two were shocked, Luffy's domineering look can cause substantial damage!

The unbearable cracks in the seat, you can tell from the nosebleed of the fainting mouth, that you have been injured by the shock!

They also know, and even the whole world knows, that the only thing that can cause real damage is red hair.

I also feel that it is exclusive to redheads. But I didn't expect that Straw Hat Luffy could do it too.

The domineering color cannot be improved through practice, it depends on one's own courage, how strong the red-haired spirit is, you don't need to see the person, just look at the photo to see it, it is very domineering. And now, Luffy can do it too.

After the shock, they were not surprised to see Luffy's aura at this time, and the straw hat's aura is also very strong, especially after wearing this black stand-up collar cape.

Rayleigh sighed softly: "When I first came out, I thought it was Shanks when I first saw it."

"Ray...Rayleigh!" Xiao Ba shouted, happy and excited.

Nami and the others were taken aback, he was a very strong coating craftsman.

Lei Li's eyes lit up: "Little Ba, long time no see, you come here..."

Lei Li didn't continue to ask. He looked around, then at the mermaid in the water cage, and understood.

Kidd and Luo's expressions changed again.

"The murloc called him..."

"Could it be..."

Both Luo and Kidd thought of it instantly.

Vice-captain of the Roger Pirates, Pluto, Silbazz Raleigh!

Luffy said hello: "Uncle, you know Shanks."

Although I know it, I can't act indifferently.

Lei Li said, "Yes, he told me about you, and I've wanted to see you for a long time."

...

At this time, outside the auction house, there was already chaos and panic.

Because the nobles of the auction house ran out a lot, the news that Straw Hat Luffy beat Tianlongren and even shot Tianlongren has spread quickly.

Suddenly, the entire island fell into panic, and everyone was ready to flee.

"It's over...it's over, this island is about to end, run!"

"What's the matter... why are you panicking, what happened?"

"In Population No. 1 Auction, Straw Hat Luffy beat up Celestial Dragon!"

"Ah? Run!"

...

Immediately understood, without asking any more questions, the civilians fled without packing their things.

While escaping, he was frightened and cursed.

"You dare to fight the Tianlong people, don't you know that you will recruit the admiral?"

"I heard that he not only beat him up, but also shot the Tianlongren!"

"My God, that's even more terrifying! There will be more than one general! After all, the general Aokiji failed to take down the Straw Hats before."

...

Civilians, bounty hunters, and underground forces are all preparing to flee the island.

Even the supernovas were horrified and their faces were extremely heavy.

"The Straw Hats, are you crazy?"

"What audacity."

"Let's go, even we have to leave quickly."

"Is the boat coated?"

"Godfather, it's ready."

"Let's go to Fishman Island right away. It's not good to be a general, and maybe there will be more than one general, and he will lead many high-strength fighters."

"yes!"

...

Although Fire Fist Ace will be publicly executed, there is still a period of time, and this place is very close to the Navy headquarters, and if such a big event happens, the Navy will definitely take action.

Bonnie, who was eating and drinking, stopped.

"Captain, let's go quickly."

Bonnie put down the drumstick very reluctantly, and cursed: "That idiot in the straw hat, it's really unlucky to meet him, let's go."

...

"Let's go quickly."

"Okay, Captain Drake."

Drake was shocked and heavy: "So, which future will it be, it won't be one, maybe it will be two."

...

"Captain Hawkins, run away, it's not good to stay here."

Hawkins was determined, took out the card and glanced at it.

"It doesn't show that today is my death day, don't panic."

...

Inside the auction house.

Rayleigh understood everything and wanted to save the mermaid, so this happened.

If it were someone else, they would have to endure it, but for the Straw Hats.

Rayleigh smiled, and it was as he thought, a group of extraordinary people, and Shanks was right.

Luffy was holding the gun at this time, watching Charles Rose stand up.

He was extremely angry, his face was in pain, numb and unconscious, and he flew into a rage.

Chapter 93

As a Tianlong person, even if things go wrong, he will be angry, not to mention being beaten, which is unprecedented.

"Damn it! If you dare to hit me, you will die! Someone, kill him! Cut him to pieces!"

However, suddenly, Luffy pointed his gun at him.

For a moment, St. Charlos was terrified and trembling with a sense of death crisis.

"You... what do you want to do..."

boom!

Luffy didn't speak, but pulled the trigger in response, and the gunshot rang out.

With a puff, blood spattered.

St. Charles Rose screamed, fell to the ground with his right arm in his arms, screaming in pain.

"Ah! It hurts, ah!"

Luffy said: "Miss the shot, then continue."

This made Luo and Kidd's expressions change again, obviously it wasn't a miss, how could it be possible to miss it, it was meant to be shot to death?

Kidd began to admire it from the bottom of his heart: "It's crazy to the extreme, but I like it."

"Come! Save me, save me! Ah!"

St. Charlos was terrified and kept screaming, but the guards fell and no one rescued him.

boom!

Another shot hit St. Charlos's other arm, screaming continuously.

One after another gunshots hit every part of the body of Saint Charlos, and none of them were fatal.

The painful St. Charles Rose is like a deep hell, pampered and pampered.

He has never suffered a little pain in his life, but the pain now makes him extremely painful.

Nami and the others were not surprised, they felt quite refreshed.

Although Xiaoba also feels good, after all, he is a hateful and disgusting

Tianlong person. Everyone wants to do this, but no one dares to do so....

Seeing this scene now, the Tianlong man screamed terribly, he was extremely miserable, and he naturally relieved his anger, but the consequences would be very serious.

Xiao Ba didn't say anything, because he had already caused a lot of trouble, and it was useless to stop now.

"It's been barking for so long, I can't listen to it so badly, you can be quiet."

When Luffy finished speaking, Luo and Kidd's pupils shrank.

The last shot was aimed at the heart, and with a bang, the Sacred Heart of Charros was pierced and fell to the ground dead.

Kidd's men were stunned.

"Really...really dare to kill Tianlongren..."

"Now we're in big trouble."

"Captain, we have to leave quickly."

...

Kidd nodded and quickly left the auction room.

Luo and his men also left quickly, praying for Luffy and others in their hearts.

Luffy walked towards Keira and said, "It's okay, I'll save you."

Lei Li stopped and reminded: "This collar needs to be removed. Without the key, if you force it, it will explode and she will die. But, leave it to me."

"It's okay uncle, I can."

Luffy stepped forward, grabbed it, and used Liu Ying to tear it open and throw the collar out.

There was a roar, and the collar bombarded in the air, and Keira was unharmed.

This made Xiaoba and the others dumbfounded, they were amazing, and they were very happy, and it was all right.

Raleigh was shocked and surprised: "This is..."

Lei Li naturally knew, he was surprised and exclaimed: "I didn't expect to master Liuying, it's really amazing."

Xiaoba and Kaimi were very happy and rushed over to hug Kaila.

Kemi introduced: "They are my friends."

Kayla is extremely grateful, without their help, her fate would be miserable.

"Thank you, thank you very much."

Luffy said: "Let's go."

They came here to save people. They don't want to stay in this kind of place.

Kidd knew that the Straw Hats were following behind, and he also knew that the Straw Hats had to leave here, and realized the seriousness.

Navy Headquarters.

Warring States had already heard the news, and he held his forehead, feeling very headache.

"It's that little brat again. He's really making troubles. What's going on with that family?"

"Marshal, the latest news! Celestial Dragon, Saint Charros, was... shot dead by Straw Hat Luffy!"

"what?!"

Zhan Guo slumped directly on the seat, his face became more and more ugly. This time, the matter was bigger, bigger than ever.

Tianlongren was killed and appeared for the first time!

It is conceivable that the five old stars of the world government will put great pressure on him.

There is something fortunate in the Warring States Period: "Fortunately, the public execution time is not now, so we must act and end it as quickly as possible. However, the opponent is the Straw Hats, so we can't just send out one general."

Warring States immediately ordered that what kind of lineup to send has already been thought out, and let his subordinates go down to inform.

Inevitably, there are two generals.

Soon, two figures walked into the office, letting people know who the two generals in this operation were.

They are: general, yellow ape!

General, Aokiji!

In addition, there is the pacifist, Zhan Momomaru.

At this moment, Sengoku was slightly surprised, because Xiong, one of the Qiwuhai, volunteered to go to Shambord to help solve the Straw Hat gang.

Warring States is naturally happy, in this case, the combat power will be stronger.

"Then, go out, even the Straw Hats, this time, will definitely be taken down!"

Huang Yuan turned and left, put his hands in his pockets 3.1, said lightly, "I'll be back soon, don't worry, no one can escape."

Zhan Guo sat on the office chair, reported to Wu Laoxing, and heaved a sigh of relief.

In his opinion, it is inevitable that the straw hat gang will be arrested.

However, it is still a headache. After all, the Tianlong people are not injured, but dead. Even if they catch the Straw Hats, their navy will be scolded by the Tianlong people.

At this time, the population auction house.

The administrators contacted Doflamingo, panicked.

"Who said the auction house is mine? I think human trafficking is outdated. From now on, the shop is yours."

...

Outside the auction house, it was already surrounded by naval soldiers with guns, and mortars were also set up, ready for battle.

When the leading second lieutenant learned that the support had arrived, his face changed with surprise and excitement.

"It turned out to be those two generals. Then, these supernovas, especially the Straw Hats, are going to be finished!"

At this time, Kidd and others were about to leave the auction site, and the subordinates outside came in to report.

"Captain, it's not good, the generals are coming, and there are two of them. It has been spread that the ones who are coming are the generals Huang Yuan and the general Qingzhi!"

This made Kidd's face change, and his pace was a little faster.

"Two generals, sure enough, let's leave quickly."

Both Kidd and Luo thought this way, but in the rear, Luffy's words made them startled.

"Uncle, go to Xia Qi's shop, let's talk slowly."

"Oh? You don't want to leave quickly?"

"No, in that case, it's not leaving, but running away."

This made Rayleigh smile and appreciate him even more, but he still suggested: "It's best to leave as soon as possible."

Kidd and Luo shook, and said heavily: "Straw hat, have you heard, the navy's coming combat power, you won't run away? Or, you didn't hear?"

Lu Fei looked indifferent, and shook his head without hesitation: "No escape. I heard, aren't they just two generals?"

Luo: "??!!!"

Kidd: "??!!!"

Chapter 102 Five Emperors Luffy VS General Yellow Ape

This surprised Luo and Kidd, aren't they just two generals?

That's the admiral of the navy, the highest combat power of the navy headquarters, and two of the three admirals came. Moreover, it cannot be just two generals, there must be other powerful combat forces. However, the straw hat actually said so calmly.

After being surprised, Kidd reminded: "Straw hat, even you guys are too arrogant to say this, you are even more arrogant than me."

Luo reminded: "It's better to leave as soon as possible."

Luffy said: "Leave as soon as possible, I'm sorry."

Thinking about the original plot, a yellow ape makes the supernovas desperate.

The yellow ape took one bite and one was terrible, but ended up with a supernova with one kick.

But now, because of the changes caused by himself, the combat power to come has also changed and is stronger, so the supernovas are even more unlucky.

Naturally, Luo and Kidd had to leave quickly, facing the encirclement of the surrounding navy, and directly attacked.

"room!"

"Slaughterhouse!"

The cannonball flew towards Luo, but as Luo took off the head of a sailor, the head and the cannonball switched positions, and the cannonball suddenly bombarded a group of sailors.

Kidd deflected the shell, and a group of sailors were blown away.

"Breakthrough the encirclement of the navy, it will take a little time."

Kidd sighed softly.

Luo Shen said: "As soon as possible, time is the most important thing now."

However, Luffy took a step forward, stepped out from between Law and Kidd, and stood in front of them.

The black cloak fluttered. Seeing this domineering figure, Luo and Kidd frowned slightly.

It was as if they had become little brothers.

With this aura, they stood behind them, and they were indeed like younger brothers.

Luffy said: "Don't be so troublesome, I don't want to spend a little time here."

As soon as the words fell, Lu Fei suddenly burst into domineering arrogance, and the dark red domineering color swept across. In an instant, all the sailors fainted.

Even the second lieutenant suddenly couldn't bear it, kneeling on one knee, shaking his body, and sweating coldly.

"How could it be... Such a terrifying domineering look, even for me who has experienced many battles, I can't bear it..."

Rayleigh looked at Luffy's back and sighed secretly: "It's amazing, Shanks, if you see it, you should be more shocked than me, and you will be very relieved."

Kidd looked at Luffy and rejoiced: "It's good to see you here. I'm very happy. There are not many pirates who can make me feel good. You are one. Now I am not as strong as you, but next time I see you, I will fight with you again, and I will become stronger by then."

Lu Fei nodded: "Okay, let's become stronger as soon as possible, otherwise if someone catches you, you won't be able to see me."

Chapter 94

"Cut, no way."

All the sailors fell, Luffy and others left, and Kidd and Luo also left separately.

Not long after leaving, Kidd and his gang stopped.

Whoosh!

Suddenly, a golden laser struck. Even though Kidd dodged quickly, he was still scratched on his right leg, leaving a scorched black line with a pained expression on his face.

Kira's expression changed: "Kidd."

"captain."

Kidd frowned, looked up at a big tree, and saw the existence attacking him.

This made Kidd and his gang change their expressions.

"Could it be... the king's Qibuhai, the tyrant, and the bear."

This makes Kidd and his group feel heavy, but they don't know that this is not a bear.

At this moment, Luo's gang also came, and their expressions changed in shock.

"Why did I meet the king's Qi Wuhai here. Even he must leave. I don't want to meet the general."

"room!"

...

At this time, Luffy and others encountered no obstacles along the way.

Even if it is encountered, it will be cleared quickly, because the two generals have not come yet.

When I came to Xia Qi's shop and saw Lei Li, Xia Qi sighed softly: "You really found him, come in."

Xia Qi knew not to procrastinate too much, so she naturally knew what happened on the island.

Entering the store, Luffy and others chatted with Rayleigh.

Nami and others were surprised that it turned out to be the deputy captain of the Roger Pirates.

Brooke was indifferent, muttering: "Gol D Roger, there seemed to be such a newcomer before."

Nami and others also knew that Roger was not arrested, but turned himself in.

I also fully understand why the Roger Pirates are fine.

After the chat, Raleigh prepared the coating tools.

"Okay, I'll go to your boat and wait for you. You can prepare some things you need to go to Fishman Island."

"it is good."

Luffy and the others set out separately from Rayleigh.

Meanwhile, Port 27.

The faces of many pirates changed drastically.

"A warship is coming quickly!"

"Is the general coming, run quickly."

"It's so fast, basically the people on the island haven't escaped yet."

...

Suddenly, the crowd panicked.

Whoosh!

A black cannonball was fired, and a figure flew towards him, the cloak of justice fluttered, and it was the yellow ape standing on the cannonball.

The shells are about to land and bomb, and the yellow monkey is the first to elementalize and float to the ground. The shell explodes behind him, and the flames fill the air.

Huang Yuan raised his left hand and asked on the phone: "Moxi Moxi, I'm Huang Yuan. I've arrived. Please reply."

When the pirates in the distance saw it, they ran away in fright, their faces covered in cold sweat.

"Really...really a great future!"

"General Huang Yuan! Run!"

"At this level, they won't catch us little pirates, but go and catch Supernova and the Straw Hats."

...

However, Kizaru ignored those running pirates at all, and continued to raise his hand to talk.

"~Moshi Moshi... so strange."

In the alley, two pirates hid behind the box, looking at the yellow monkey who was talking sideways to them.

The heartbeat of the gun-wielding pirate quickened, and a flicker of madness flashed across his eyes.

"Good opportunity, if I can solve him, I can become famous overnight!"

"Ah? Don't be silly, the opponent is the highest combat power of the navy."

"Although it is, this opportunity is great!"

The pirate couldn't help raising his rifle, aimed and pulled the trigger, and the bullets shot out.

Whoosh!

The bullet passed through the head of the yellow ape and hit the wall on the other side of the yellow ape.

The pirate was extremely excited: "It's done! I couldn't escape!"

The partner was also stunned, very surprised, but also happy.

However, it was soon discovered that something was wrong, the yellow ape was still standing.

Finding something was wrong, the two pirates ran towards the other exit of the alley. However, when he ran to the exit, the yellow ape had already appeared, with his hands in his pockets, slightly bent down and lowered his head to ask.

"I want (Li's) to inquire about something. I'm looking for a man named Zhan Taowan, who is the old man's subordinate."

However, the two pirates were so frightened that they couldn't listen to it at all, and ran away directly.

Huang Yuan was helpless: "Really, I just want to inquire about it."

The yellow ape's right foot was shining with golden light, he raised it towards the two fleeing pirates, and kicked it out from the air.

Whoosh!

A golden laser shot out, passed between the two pirates, and instantly hit the huge red tree engraved with the number 27.

boom!

The terrifying roar resounded throughout the Shampoo land, and the huge tree was directly blown up and collapsed.

The two pirates collapsed on the ground, trembling, extremely terrified, too terrifying, this is the strength of the admiral.

At this time, Lu Fei and others heard the sound of bombing, and soon the ground trembled, as if caused by something falling to the ground.

Luffy guessed it, and his fighting spirit rose, and he secretly said: "Here, then, the next battle will not be the same as in the original plot. The Five Emperors will fight the two generals! All.

Chapter 103 Five Emperors VS Two Generals!

At this time, Huang Yuan kicked down the huge mangrove tree, shocking many people.

Near Azalea, there are several supernovae.

When they were about to leave, they all came to the port, but they just ran into the yellow ape who had just arrived.

In front of them is the admiral. Although the straw hat Luffy abused them before, they felt that it was because the straw hat was the five emperors.

Therefore, they are not very afraid of the yellow ape.

What's more, as pirates and supernovas, they can't be afraid of the navy, even the generals.

On the roof, Apu sighed softly: "Is that the Admiral? It looks very powerful and interesting."

The subordinate's face changed: "Captain, it's too dangerous, let's run quietly."

"That's right, Captain, the main reason why the general acted was because the straw hats killed the Tianlong people. In addition, the straw hats are as powerful as the emperor, and the straw hats are also very powerful. So the general will only attack the straw hats, not the straw hats. Those who pursue us, so let's go."

"Yes, they must be here to catch the Straw Hats. Although it is dangerous, there is still a chance. The yellow ape will definitely look for the Straw Hats immediately and will not fight us. It is unreasonable to say that."

However, Apu did not have the idea of running away directly, but wanted to seek excitement.

"What an idiot. What's the point of running away secretly? It's interesting to run away after angering the enemy."

These words made the faces of the subordinates change. Could it be that they want to provoke the general Huang Yuan?

I provoked the straw hat before and got beaten up, this time...

But if you think about it, it should be fine. The general won't spend too much time on them. In that case, even if they are generals, they will be safer.

After all, in a short time, even a general, don't even think about killing a supernova.

At this time, the sailors were arresting the pirates on the island.

Naturally, they couldn't deal with the Straw Hats and had to hand it over to the general.

"Port 27 requests support!"

"What's wrong, so panicked."

"Unbelievable, the sailors have become old people or children, unable to fight at all."

"What? Well, let's go right away."

...

Obviously, it was a group of sailors who met Bonnie, who either became four or five-year-old children, or became gray-haired old people with crutches and difficulty in moving.

At this time, Hawkins sat quietly, neither dodging nor avoiding.

The subordinates panicked, knowing that the general had arrived.

Hawkins said indifferently: "We don't need to worry, our fate is a foregone conclusion."

"Well, I want to inquire about something."

Suddenly, a voice sounded, causing the expressions of Hawkins' men to change.

Looking over, a tall yellow figure had appeared in front of them.

They were terrified, they couldn't figure out when it appeared, and they didn't notice it at all.

They backed away subconsciously in fear, their voices trembling.

"Great...General Yellow Ape!"

"Why...why did you find us?"

507 "It was the straw hat that killed the Tianlongren. As soon as the general arrives, shouldn't he hurry to find the straw hat gang?"

"Are you asking where our straw hats are? Let me tell you, the exact location is unknown, but it is roughly in area 13! Hurry up, your main task is to take them down, don't delay, or they will run away. "

...

However, they were wrong.

Even if it was true, Huang Yuan had no intention of going directly.

"I didn't mean to ask that."

Huang Yuan's words made Hawkins and others startled, didn't they ask this?

What a joke, the straw hat killed the Tianlongren, isn't it the first time to find the straw hats and solve it? What's more important?

"Then... what is that..."

The subordinates thought that Huang Yuan would leave, but it didn't.

Hawkins said calmly: "Don't panic, I won't die today."

The subordinates wanted to scold their mothers in their hearts, you can't die, but what about us.

Hawkins took out the cards and started divination, and the yellow monkey just looked at it like this, without any sense of anxiety.

The subordinates discussed in low voices, very puzzled.

Chapter 95

"Why don't you go?"

"Yeah, why waste time here, aren't you afraid that the Straw Hats will escape?"

"It's hard to understand, why don't you go to the thirteenth area quickly, we are not the ones who killed the Tianlong people."

However, Kizaru was not in a hurry at all, just stood and looked at Hawkins.

At this time, the green pheasant came to Chambord.

"Ah Lala, the Straw Hats, we will see you again soon."

At the beginning, I was alone and failed to take down the Straw Hats, but this time, Aokiji felt that such combat power was enough.

Aokiji thought to himself: "Polusalino arrived before me, so I should have found the Straw Hats by now, right?"

Qingzhi didn't ask, but went to ask someone by himself.

The pirates panicked and trembled when they saw that it was the general Aokiji.

But found that Aokiji was surprisingly peaceful, just asked, they said they didn't know, and Aokiji left.

This stunned them, and the admiral didn't take them easily.

Aokiji kept asking the pirates, or civilians, and soon found out where the Straw Hats were.

After all, Luffy and the others walk without hiding. Now that everyone on the island is fleeing, someone will naturally see the direction that Luffy and the others are walking.

"Thanks."

Aokiji quickened his pace.

After finishing the divination, Hawkins calmly analyzed: "The defeat rate in the battle is 100%."

"The escape success rate is 12 percent."

Huang Yuan interrupted: "Excuse me, I'm looking for a man named Zhan Taowan, do you know where he is?"

Hawkins' subordinates are even more puzzled, why don't you look for the straw hats, are you really an admiral, are you really here to catch the straw hats?

Hawkins shook his head: "I don't know the person you are talking about, you can ask someone else."

Huang Yuan sighed: "It's impossible to find him, but I'm free now, so I can't let you, the bounty offender, go at this time, right? Bounty, 249 million Baileys, magician, Basil Hawkins."

The faces of Hawkins' subordinates changed greatly, and they were uneasy, which meant that they were going to be attacked.

Finally, they couldn't bear it anymore.

"Hey! General, you are so free, why don't you hurry up and find the Straw Hats, why are you doing something to us?"

They hope that the yellow monkey will quickly find the straw hats and catch the straw hats. After all, if you kill the Tianlong people, if you don't catch them, will you take them back and restore some dignity.

Thinking of this, panicking, one person yelled.

"Hurry up, aren't you afraid that the Straw Hats will escape? Or do you just hope they can escape?"

Whoosh!

"what!"

As soon as Hawkins' subordinates finished speaking, Huang Yuan raised his finger and shot a golden laser, piercing the man's heart, and fell to the ground dead.

For a moment, the people around didn't dare to speak. Why did other people say nothing? After this person said this, he was killed.

"Speed is weight, have you ever been kicked by the speed of light?"

Immediately, Huang Yuan kicked horizontally, and the golden light on his leg was dazzling.

Hawkins, who was sitting, was kicked away before he could react.

After being kicked away, another laser shot exploded, and the flames raged.

However, Hawkins walked out unscathed.

Huang Yuan was slightly surprised: "It's so strange."

"what!"

With a scream, a figure was knocked over and fell to the ground. It was the strange monk Urgi, and a pacifist also came.

Urki was lying on the ground panting, his face bleeding.

"It's really amazing, is this the strength of Qi Wuhai under the king?"

However, these supernovae can be even more shocking if it is known that this is not a real bear.

Urki quickly realized that something was wrong, General Yellow Ape!

"It's really unlucky. First, I was abused by the straw hat, and then I met Qi Wukai, and the general Kizaru. Is it over?"

Hawkins said: "Don't worry, you haven't shown your death yet."

When the pacifist was about to attack Urki, Drake came and kicked the pacifist away.

Suddenly, there are four supernovae here.

"I can't be too inferior, karma."

Urki swelled up, ready to go all out. They are all supernovas, and whoever falls the fastest will be the worst.

"As expected of a supernova with a bounty of over 100 million, each one is as strong as a monster, so scary."

Hearing this, Urki and other supernovas felt a little proud in their hearts, and asked the admiral to say that about them.

But, soon, they doubt life.

The next thing is, one mouthful is terrible, and one foot is a supernova.

Soon, all four supernovas were quickly defeated by Huang Yuan.

...

At this time, Luffy and others stopped, because a huge figure in front of them blocked the way, not a bear, but a pacifist.

Whoosh!

A golden laser shot out, aiming at the center of Luffy's eyebrows.

However, Luffy tilted his head slightly, dodged it easily, and said boringly: "It's so slow."

The laser exploded in the rear, facing away from the bombing Luffy, the black cloak fluttered.

Looking at Luffy at this time, Chopper's eyes lit up.

"So handsome."

Since Luffy put on the black stand-up collar cape, they found that they have become more imposing, and they look more domineering and handsome. In other words, they are really the fifth emperor of the sea!

When the pacifist was about to condense the laser again, he was suddenly blown away by Luffy's punch and exploded directly.

Robin was stunned: "Qiwuhai, are you so weak?"

She knows, (aedb) This is Shichibukai, Xiongxia.

At this time, Franky said: "It's not Qiwuhai, it's transformed from Qibukai, transformed by Vega Punk."

Robin and the others understood, and it was no surprise why Frankie knew it. After all, it was the Vegapunk template that taught Frankie in the teaching space.

Franky said: "At that time, I was training in it, and these guys appeared in the simulated environment. At first, I felt very dangerous."

But now, to deal with this kind of thing, Franky can solve it with one shot.

Solving the pacifists, Luffy and others moved on.

At this time, the yellow monkey is about to kill the supernovas, and the raised hand condenses the laser, aiming at Hawkins.

However, the hand can be lifted in the air for five seconds.

Pororo Poro...

At this time, the phone bug on Huang Yuan's left hand rang, and Huang Yuan put down his right hand that condensed the laser.

"Moshi Moshi? I'm Polusalino."

Zhan Taowan's voice came from the phone bug.

"Grandpa, don't you have a phone bug, why don't you contact me?"

"It's Zhan Taowan, I've been looking for you for a long time."

"Looking for me? You must have been shouting at the black phone bug for a long time, right? Didn't I tell you before that the black phone bug on your wrist is for eavesdropping. Forget it, let's get to work quickly, or the straw hats will kill you." I have escaped. I already know the area where they are. Although the pacifists have been defeated, they have sent back information. Father, come quickly."

Zhan Taowan didn't dare to act alone, knowing that he couldn't beat it.

"Okay, I'm coming."

Huang Yuan left directly, which made the supernovas startled, leave them alone?

Isn't this general too casual?

However, this was even better. They thought it was over, so they quickly stood up in embarrassment.

"Quick... go."

"Damn it, we are so weak."

"First he was punched by the straw hat, and then he was kicked by the yellow monkey."

"Unlucky us."

"It's good luck to survive, become stronger, and prepare to enter the new world."

...

As supernovas, their aura is not so strong anymore, and they were taught a lesson by the strong.

At this moment, Luffy and the others stopped again.

bang bang bang bang...

Because, five figures in front landed, the ground shook, and five pacifists blocked the way.

After appearing, it directly and continuously emits laser light.

However, they were easily dodged by Luffy and others.

Chopper, Brook, Franky, Usopp, Robin.

Five people started to deal with the five pacifists very quickly.

With a bang, Zhan Taowan, with a solid figure like a wrestler, with a somewhat feminine face, fell to the ground while carrying a huge axe.

Zhan Taowan was frightened, those supernovas were very strenuous to single out the pacifists, they were not opponents, but the Straw Hats solved one by one, and they were all instant kills.

The most important thing is that it wasn't the three main combat powers who did it, so he was shocked. Is this still a supernova cluster?

Thinking about the instructions of the Warring States Period, Zhan

Taowan understood: "This is indeed not a supernova cluster, but the Five Emperors cluster."

Even so, Zhan Taowan is confident, so what about the Five Emperors, this time there are two generals, one Qi Wuhai, and himself.

Such a lineup, can't win the Four Emperors, and can't win the Five Emperors?

"Stay out of the way." Luffy continued walking forward.

Zhan Taowan thinks it will, confidently: "Even if you can't beat you, don't think about going over like this, you have to stop you, wait until the old man comes over."

Zhan Taomaru stood there, very confident, feeling that he could stop the Straw Hats for a while.

"My uncle's defense is the strongest in the world! So, don't think about passing it now."

After Zhan Taowan finished speaking, he pushed his palms forward and faced Luffy from the air.

"Walk alone."

Zhan Taowan can directly release a large amount of domineering energy outside the body, knocking the opponent into the air without touching it, and even attacking the enemy's body to destroy it from the inside.

Now Luffy and others naturally know that this is Liu Ying.

Luffy directly hit the third gear of the Grizzly Gun, and the cherry blossoms flowed.

boom!

There was a roar, a brief stalemate, and a scream, Zhan Taowan was blasted out.

Chapter 96

Luffy was puzzled: "Is this the strongest defense in the world?"

Zhan Taowan was startled, is this the strength of the Five Emperors, so strong.

Zhan Taowan's arms trembled and hurt, the force was too strong.

Zhan Taowan stood up in embarrassment, and said in a deep voice, "I won't let you pass!"

In second gear, Luffy suddenly rushed in front of Zhan Taomaru, so fast that Zhan Taomaru could hardly dodge.

"Oops..."

"Frozen Time Capsule!"

The cold air hit the ground, and Luffy in second gear dodged sideways.

If you don't dodge, if you touch it, you will be frozen directly.

Zhan Taowan breathed a sigh of relief, it was General Aokiji who came.

"Ah Lala, Polusalino hasn't arrived yet."

Aokiji was a little surprised, after all, he came before him, but arrived later than him.

The appearance of Aokiji made Robin's face darken: "General Aokiji."

For a while, the Straw Hats also became serious, and they had to pay attention to the opponent who came at this time.

Whoosh!

Suddenly, a golden laser strikes, the target is Luffy.

However, he was quickly dodged by Luffy.

This made Zhan Taowan happy, and when he looked back, it was Huang Yuan.

"Old man, you are finally here."

Robin's face became more serious, and the general Huang Yuan also came.

Admirals of the Navy, meet them!

Huang Yuan sighed softly: "As expected of the Straw Hat Luffy who offered a bounty of 1.3 billion Baileys, he escaped. What a monster.

Then, can the light speed kick be avoided?"

The yellow monkey turned into an element, suddenly appeared beside Lu Fei, and kicked out with his right foot, shining golden light.

Whoosh!

Kicked it out, but Huang Yuan was startled and didn't touch the essence.

Whether it can escape, Luffy responds with action.

Kizaru looked sideways, his pupils shrank, and Luffy had already appeared to his right.

Being dodged, Huang Yuan was startled, not only because of his fast speed, but also because of his knowledgeable domineering aura.

In the face of the previous supernova, the yellow monkey can bite a monster and kick a supernova.

But in the face of Luffy, you can bite a monster with one bite, but you can't knock Luffy away with one kick.

After all, what you are facing is not a supernova, but the Five Emperors!

Aokiji took a step forward and stood shoulder to shoulder with the yellow monkey.

The two generals stand together, and the momentum is stronger.

"It's not too late for you to come. If I am alone, I can't take them down, but since it's the two of us, it's fine."

"It seems that it is not comparable to those supernovas. It is more monster and scarier. I don't want to fight with you. So, can you surrender?"

Huang Yuan asked.

Luffy smiled: "Do you think that the imperial group will surrender in the face of two generals?"

This made Huang Yuan and Qingzhi's expressions change slightly, and they realized that this was a battle between the Five Emperors and the two generals! .

Chapter 104

General Kizaru and Aokiji stood side by side, facing Luffy in front of them.

The two generals just stood there, and their momentum was extremely strong, giving people a great sense of oppression. However, Luffy faced the two generals alone at close range, and his momentum was not suppressed at all.

Luffy, who was wearing a black cape with a stand-up collar, faced the two generals with a calm and domineering look.

Aokiji exclaimed, "You're getting more manly, Straw Hat."

Huang Yuan also couldn't help but marvel: "We are alone, but we can still have such courage, which is not comparable to other supernovas."

Huang Yuan felt that it was like the real emperor facing the two generals.

bang bang bang...

Footsteps sounded, and it was Zoro and the eight straw hats who walked behind Luffy.

In an instant, it was no longer Luffy facing the two generals alone, but the entire Straw Hats.

Nine people against two people, Zhan Taowan in the distance was startled, his pupils constricted.

The reason why I was shocked was that I felt, it seemed, that the two sides confronted each other, and it turned out that the Straw Hats were more powerful! The momentum is stronger.

"Illusion? Even if it's the Five Emperors, it's impossible to be like this. It's not the Four Emperors."

At this time, another figure appeared.

Usopp looked over and wasn't very worried. Although the navy came to fight again, it was just a pacifist.

Franky's face changed slightly: "No, not a pacifist."

Robin also found that something was wrong, it felt different, and held a Bible-like book in both hands.

Robin condensed: "Maybe it's the deity, the king's Shichibukai, bear!"

Zhan Taowan breathed a sigh of relief, even if it was the Five Emperors, they would take it down this time!

"It's all here, Straw Hats, don't try to escape."

The combat power of both sides is fully assembled. On the navy side, there are two generals, Yiqi Wuhai and Zhan Taowan.

With such a lineup, they are confident that if they can win the Straw Hats, they will definitely win, after all, they killed the Tianlong people.

"I didn't enjoy the battle last time, so let's continue."

Zoro and Sanji took a step forward, and the two stared at the general Aokiji.

Aokiji "Five Zero Seven" is also interested, but wants to hit the other side more.

"Ah Lala, since it's the two of you, there can't be any more."

Zhanmomomaru Ichirin, although he is two of the three main forces of the Straw Hat Regiment, but the general Aokiji can only fight against two at most?

"General Kuzan, can't you deal with one more?"

Senmomomaru thought, Aokiji was against three, Zoro, Sanji, and one more.

Qiwu sea bear, against the non-main force of the straw hat regiment, can it be against three?

In my own words, it is a non-main force against the Straw Hats.

If the old man Huang Yuan said, he will definitely face Straw Hat Luffy.

As the captain, he can also be called the Five Emperors. Although it is not yet, it must be.

However, this name will not be spread, because after this battle, the Straw Hats will be imprisoned in Jinjin City, and they will inevitably be executed publicly. Therefore, the title of Five Emperors will not be officially sealed.

Since it is a straw hat, then Mr. Huang Yuan can add a straw hat regiment as a non-main force to the straw hat, right?

This arrangement is just right, the four of them play the straw hat group and nine of them.

But now, Aokiji means that Zoro and Sanji seem to be alone.

Qingzhi said: "If you add more, you will belittle them. You should regard them as the cadres of the imperial regiment. It can even be said that the two of the three main combat forces of the straw hat regiment can be regarded as the right-hand man of the emperor!"

When Aokiji said this, Zhan Taowan was shocked.

If a general singles out the right-hand man of the imperial group, then it really cannot be added.

Zhan Taowan understood: "Okay, then I will deal with the two non-main forces of the straw hat regiment, Mr. Huang Yuan, you deal with the straw hats and one non-main force."

Huang Yuan's tone was the same as before: "Although it's scary, but with the straw hat, I didn't even ask three of them..."

However, the next moment, Huang Yuan's words stopped abruptly, and the pupils of his eyes shrank slightly under the glasses.

Hearing that, Luffy shouted in a low voice:

"Fourth gear!"

Suddenly, the gazes of Kizaru, Aokiji, Kuma, and Zhanmomaru all focused on Lu Fei and were shocked by it.

Aokiji was shocked. Although he had been in contact with the Straw Hats before, he had never seen the strength of the Straw Hats, let alone the fourth gear.

During the Battle of Judiciary Island, I knew that the Straw Hat had two gears and three gears, but the fourth gear was useless at the time.

Now, the Straw Hat directly opened the fourth gear, which attracted their attention. What kind of existence?

Following Luffy's sound of fourth gear, he bit his right arm horizontally, and breathed heavily, his right arm suddenly swelled, his muscles knotted, and he swelled against the wind, instantly growing stronger.

At the same time, white steam flows around his body, lingering like silk.

For a short moment, Luffy's whole body was burly, bouncing on the spot, making duang, duang, duang sounds.

"Fourth gear! Elastic Man!"

After the battle against the Golden Lion, Chambord Islands, the fourth gear elastic man, appeared again!

Seeing the fourth gear Luffy bouncing in place, Aokiji, Kizaru, and Zhanmomaru were all startled.

Obviously, I didn't expect the fourth gear to look like this, and thought it was a little funny.

Zhan Taowan doubted: "Is this the fourth gear? It looks funny."

Aokiji was surprised: "It looks like I didn't expect it, how is the combat power?"

Huang Yuan continued what he said just now: "It seems that I can still deal with three."

Zhan Taomaru breathed a sigh of relief, if the old man Huang Yuan dealt with the three, then it would be fine. When he and Xiong defeated the non-main combat force of the Straw Hat regiment they were dealing with, they would join the battle, eliminate the main combat force of the Straw Hat regiment, and then successfully take down the Straw Hat gang.

"Huh, we're here."

At this time, a figure swooped in, it was Lei Li, the king of the underworld holding a sword.

Seeing that the battle seemed to have just begun, and that Luffy and the others were fine, Rayleigh breathed a sigh of relief.

After arriving, Lei Li held the sword in his right hand and danced his white cloak with astonishing momentum.

Aokiji and Yellow Ape all changed their expressions slightly, and it was Lei Li, the king of the underworld.

In this case, it is difficult to say whether the Straw Hats can be taken down. Because, they could feel that Pluto Rayleigh wanted to join the battle.

Huang Yuan condensed his voice: "Pluto, Lei Li."

Rayleigh reminded with fighting spirit: "Don't pick off the shoots, their era has just begun."

Zhan Taowan's face became heavy. Originally, the distribution he thought would definitely win the Straw Hats, but such an existence unexpectedly came.

"The old man said, Pluto... Could it be that he is the deputy captain of the Roger Pirates, Pluto Sirbazzrelli. If this is the case, it's troublesome. If he joins, it's hard to say whether he can take down the Straw Hats."

Zhan Taowan frowned, feeling uncertain.

But quickly dismissed this idea, Zhan Taowan was firm: "Even if Pluto joins, the Straw Hats must be taken down. Two generals, one Shichibukai, plus me, it is still possible!"

Huang Yuan felt that it was getting more and more troublesome, and he didn't seem to be very motivated. After all, the tasks to be completed were somewhat beyond expectations.

However, you still have to keep fighting.

Huang Yuan sighed softly: "Although I often heard that you are on this island, I never thought it was true. Besides, it's fine, it's even more troublesome to help them. However, the task cannot be completed. , it will be more troublesome and headache. After all, the straw hat killed a Celestial Dragon. If we can't take them down, our navy can't stand in front of the Celestial Dragon."

Raleigh was ready to do something: "Then, let me exercise my muscles and bones."

However, at this moment, Luffy spoke.

"Uncle Raleigh, just watch from the sidelines, don't interfere, don't help us."

This made Rayleigh startled. He didn't expect it, so he didn't need his help.

Yellow monkey, green pheasant, Zhan Taowan, and Xiong didn't even expect it.

With the arrival of Pluto Rayleigh, the Straw Hats should feel relaxed and happy. It is best to join the battle. Then it will be very difficult for them to take down the Straw Hats, or even impossible.

However, the Straw Hats did not allow Hades Rayleigh to help them.

Chapter 97

While shocked and puzzled, except for Xiong, they are naturally willing to see if Pluto Rayleigh agrees.

Looking at Luffy's expression, Rayleigh knew that he was serious.

"Are you sure?" Raleigh still wanted to make sure.

Luffy nodded heavily: "Sure. Uncle Rayleigh, don't worry. You are not allowed to help because this battle is also a test for us. The most important point is that we can do it! Because..."

After a pause, Lu Fei raised his face slightly, and the domineering face under the straw hat appeared, his eyes flickered, the black cloak fluttered, and he whispered domineeringly:

"Because we are still...the Five Emperors!"

This shocked Rayleigh, and immediately smiled, and took a few steps back: "Okay, I see."

Obviously, Raleigh did not intend to participate in the battle, but to watch it.

This made Zhan Taomaru heave a sigh of relief, but still felt that if the Straw Hats couldn't do it, Pluto Rayleigh would still do it.

But it's better than joining forces at the beginning. Even if Pluto Rayleigh did it later, the Straw Hats would be dead at that time, and Pluto couldn't turn it around.

Qingzhi secretly sighed: "As expected of Mr. Karp's grandson."

It would be better if Lei Li didn't do anything, but Huang Yuan felt a little upset inside, and also expressed that the straw hats looked down on them.

"Confidence is a good thing, but facing us, are you overconfident?"

After the words of the yellow ape, at close range, he kicked Luffy again at the speed of light.

Faced with this kick, Luffy didn't dodge. In Kizaru's view, it's impossible to dodge like in second gear with such a body.

In Huang Yuan's view, in the next moment, Luffy in fourth gear will be kicked away by himself.

However...it's not that Luffy can't hide, but...

Facing the kick at the speed of light, Luffy squeezed his right fist and slammed it out.

"Rubber... Ape King Gun!"

boom!

The terrifying fist collided with the speed of light kick, and there was a deafening roar, and the air wave swept across, and the surrounding ground was torn apart.

The dust surged and spread over a large area.

Zhan Taowan looked over, his heart shuddered, in the dust, the body of the straw hat didn't kick out?

bang bang bang...

Backward footsteps sounded, Zhan Taowan's eyes widened and his pupils contracted, because the one who fled from the dust was the yellow ape!

Every step that fell left a deep depression on the ground.

"Master Huang Yuan...how could..."

Huang Yuan was frightened, the dust in front of him dispersed, and the bouncing fourth-gear Luffy was ready to go again.

Huang Yuan exclaimed: "What a powerful force, Zhan Taowan, I'm sorry, I can only deal with him alone."

Huang Yuan didn't say anything about adding two non-combat powers to deal with the Straw Hats before. Facing the fourth gear Luffy, he didn't think it was funny anymore, but became serious.

Zhan Taowan's heart is heavy, which is different from what he expected.

Don't say three, Mr. Huang Yuan can't even fight against two, he can only fight against one straw hat, and the two are singled out with 0...

Aokiji fights against two, and the general himself singles out the straw hat.

However, Huang Yuan didn't feel ashamed, but said in a concentrated voice: "It can only be one-on-one, and the battle with him should be treated as a battle with the emperor."

Zhantaowan: "!!"

Zhan Taowan understood, indeed, if it is facing the emperor, then even a general would not be able to despise him, and would choose to deal with an emperor and at the same time add two cadres of the imperial regiment.

Zhan Taomaru is facing Nami, Brooke, and Robin.

Bear faced Usopp, Franky, and Chopper.

The fight started, and the bear didn't release the water.

Chopper became gigantic, his giant palms were pitch black, flowing cherry blossoms lingered, he moved quickly, and combined with the bombardment of the Six Kings Spear.

Usopp aimed and attacked from a distance.

Franky turned into General Franky, and the three besieged.

At the moment of the collision, the bear was shaken. Although he was not pushed back, Chopper was not blown away by himself either.

It was only at the beginning of the battle that Frankie and the others realized that this Shichibukai was not comparable to Moria and Crocodile.

Although they are all Qiwuhai, they know that Hawkeye's strength is not outrageous even at the emperor level.

But Moria and Crocodile are much worse.

Therefore, they felt that the strength of this bear was also very strong, and it was not comparable to Moriah.

You can't be careless, but you are also excited, and your fighting spirit is rising. Such a powerful opponent is fine.

Xiong thought to himself, "There's no need to turn on the water."

Not only does it not need to release water, but it does not need to cover the Straw Hat and others to escape.

In this way, one's own identity is also more difficult to be discovered.

Originally thinking that the Straw Hats were facing such a terrifying combat power, he could only take the risk of being discovered and shoot the Straw Hats away. Looking at the situation now, Xiong felt that perhaps he should not worry about the Straw Hats, but himself.

Although it is not yet the Five Emperors, its combat power is obviously already there.

Therefore, Xiong couldn't be careless in the face of the three royal cadres.

Facing Nami and the three of them, Zhan Taowan has the greatest pressure and the greatest disadvantage, and will be the first to lose.

"hateful..."

Zhan Taowan was beaten and retreated steadily, with more and more injuries on his body.

The swordsmanship is extraordinary, and the climate control and physical skills are also very strong, especially Nicole Robin, who has powerful abilities and various restraints. Once touched by hands, she will be locked up, which is even more dangerous.

Zhan Taowan felt that if he faced three supernovas, he would not be so strenuous or at such a disadvantage. But facing the three non-main combat forces of the Straw Hat Regiment, the disadvantage is so great, and the sense of crisis is very heavy.

Zhan Taowan was extremely heavy: "I'm not facing three newcomers, I'm really facing three royal cadres! The pressure is too great."

Huang Yuan knew that Zhan Taowan was very dangerous, and he couldn't last long. He exclaimed: "Your crew members are also very monsters. Even those supernova captains can't compare with them. They are really super monster pirates. Zhan Taowan can't last. How long, I have to end the battle with you as soon as possible, even if you are the five emperors."

After the words fell, the yellow ape jumped into the sky, with his arms crossed in front of him, and the golden light was shining brightly.

"Eight-foot Qiong Gouyu."

Whoosh whoosh whoosh...

In an instant, countless dazzling light bullets fell from the sky and shot at Luffy quickly.

I knew from the collision just now that it's not that Luffy can't avoid the light speed kick, but that he is not afraid of the power of the light speed kick, and the power of the fourth gear is also extremely strong.

But now, even if the fourth gear is faster than the second gear of 3.1, Huang Yuan knows that it is impossible to completely avoid his eight-foot Qiong Gouyu.

However, Luffy didn't hide, and even charged towards the yellow monkey.

Seeing that Luffy was able to fly at a super high altitude, Kizaru was shocked, understood, and flew in the air with elastic force.

Soaring into the sky, he will inevitably face more light bullets. Luffy blows on his right hand, suddenly huge.

Huang Yuan vibrated, and in fourth gear, the arm was still as huge as in third gear.

In an instant, it was as huge as a giant, and a punch slammed upwards.

At the same time, it also blocked Luffy's body, and all the light bullets hit the giant fist.

"Rubber...Great Ape King Spear!"

The giant fist bombards upwards, and the light bullets hit the fist, which cannot cause damage in a short period of time, but if it accumulates and bears hundreds of light bullets, it will still be injured.

However, the power of the Great Ape King Spear also continuously defeated the light bullets.

Seeing the huge giant fist combined with terrifying power combined with Liuying, Huang Yuan didn't dare to catch it hard, his body became elemental, and the eight-foot Qiong Gouyu's attack also stopped.

The body of the elemental yellow ape is refracted like a beam of light. When the ape king spear hits, it happens to be completely refracted away. Otherwise, even if it is elemental, it will be hit. After all, unlike other supernovas, it is not armed with domineering.

The refraction of light is extremely fast, and after the rapid refraction by the surrounding buildings, it reflects to the sky, behind Luffy.

Luffy closed his eyes, saw the short future, reflected in the hands of the yellow monkey behind him, condensed the Amacongyun sword, and slashed at his waist.

When Huang Yuan refracted behind him, Tian Congyun sword in his hand was already condensed, ready to slash.

However, just a second before that, Lu Fei leaped to the sky, and before the yellow ape swept and slashed at Lu Fei, Lu Fei had already dodged.

This frightened Huang Yuan, he really had the domineering power of seeing the short future, otherwise, how could he escape the speed of light, it could only be predicted.

The yellow ape raised his head suddenly, and Luffy was ready to attack, his feet compressed and creaked, and before he attacked, it gave people a feeling of terrifying power gathering.

"Rubber... Rhino Howitzer!".

Chapter 105 Deputy Emperor: Sauron! Sanji! Fight the green pheasant!

Huang Yuan held the Tiancongyun Sword with both hands and slashed upwards to block. The strength of the chopping and upwards combined with the strength of his arms, he held the Tiancongyun Sword tightly, thinking that he could block it.

However, at the moment of the collision, Huang Yuan only felt that the strength of the upward thrust collapsed, his arms sank suddenly, and Tian Congyun sword pressed against his shoulder, and the shoulder quickly became elemental, otherwise he would be cut by his own sword on his shoulder.

The terrifying force made it impossible for the yellow monkey to isolate the attack from above, and the body was immediately hit by Luffy's feet.

Whoosh!

boom!

The yellow ape turned into a beam of light and fell to the ground with a bang, the ground cracked and a deep pit was created.

In an instant, the pupils of Aokiji shrank in the battle, and he was shocked by it.

Zhan Taowan's complexion changed drastically, how could it be possible, that is Mr. Huang Yuan.

While the bear was fighting, he felt more at ease.

Seeing this scene, Raleigh exclaimed: "It seems that I really don't need my help."

Rayleigh felt that he could go for the coating, but he didn't want to miss the battle between the Straw Hats and the generals, so he sat down and watched with a drink.

Rayleigh discovered that the Straw Hats did not fall behind in every battle, even when Zoro and Sanji fought against the general Aokiji.

At this time, the supernovas came one after another, and they all saw this scene.

Nine supernovas and their subordinates all arrived.

Originally, the subordinates of the Hawkins Pirates dissuaded him.

"Captain Hawkins, hurry up, otherwise it will be our turn for the generals to defeat the Straw Hats."

"Yes, Captain, you are seriously injured. If you face General Kizaru again, you will lose quickly. What's more, the combat power here is stronger.

Two generals, one king Qi Wuhai."

"Captain, let's go."

...

However, Hawkins said indifferently: "Don't panic, I still haven't shown my face, and neither do they."

Now, the subordinates are not in a panic anymore. It is incredible to watch the battle between the Straw Hats and the high combat power of the navy, which is extremely shocking.

Not to mention them, even Kidd, Luo, Drake and other supernovas were extremely shocked.

In particular, Huang Yuan was kicked to the ground by Lu Fei's feet.

Although he knew that as a general, this would be nothing, it was still shocking.

They faced the general, but they were kicked one by one. Although they knew that Luffy was very strong, they didn't expect to be able to compete with the general, and they were not at a disadvantage.

The supernovae are located in all directions and do not intend to leave.

If the Straw Hats were hanged and beaten, then 04 was looking for death here, but they didn't leave after seeing this scene.

I don't worry that the navy will send more combat power. After all, there are still big events to happen. The navy can't make the headquarters' combat power weak, so as not to be attacked by the enemy suddenly and take advantage of it.

Therefore, Naval Headquarters, Sengoku, and Garp must be there, and even if it is not enough, Admiral Akainu must also be there.

Otherwise, the four emperors of the sea will never miss this opportunity.

Kidd said in a condensed voice: "Then, let's see the real full strength of the straw hat."

Drake said: "And how strong is the overall combat power of the Straw Hats?"

"It's really unbalanced, the gap is so big."

Ulgi looked at Zoro, the battle between Sanji and the general Aokiji.

They faced the general and were defeated, and the Straw Hats were not the captain, they could fight against the general together, which made them feel embarrassed as supernovas and captains.

Chapter 98

They even discovered that not to mention the main combat power, even the non-main combat power is stronger than them.

"That guy is much stronger than what we met."

"Hahaha, I was really shocked. I thought that our supernova is not too weak, and we can still defeat Shichibukai together, but we found out that the ones we defeated before were all fakes and imitations."

"This is the real King Shichibukai, Tyrant Bear."

"Before defeating the counterfeit, I regained my confidence as a supernova. I thought that I defeated the real king Shichibukai, but I didn't expect..."

...

The supernovas became more self-contained, their arrogance disappeared, and each of them found that they were still too young.

Originally, I thought that even if they entered the new world, they would be very powerful, but now I feel that they have to be more careful when entering the new world.

It is not easy for Aokiji to face Zoro and Sanji, knowing that he has to go all out, otherwise it will be dangerous.

"Devil wind feet, rough!"

Sanji ignited his right foot and kicked towards Aokiji with terrifying power.

Feeling the strong force coming and the high temperature, Aokiji pointed his right hand and shouted:

"Ice Cube, Storm Pheasant's Mouth!"

The ice bird condensed and flew out, collided with Sanji's right foot, and with a roar, Sanji fell to the ground, and the ice bird also shattered.

Meanwhile, Sauron attacks.

"Three-sword style, pole, tiger hunting!"

The blue tiger roared out, and the green pheasant condensed the ice blade in his left hand and slashed up to block.

However, the arm suddenly sank, Aokiji exclaimed: "What a powerful slash."

Ka Ka Ka...

As the ice blade and the tiger were in a stalemate, there was a crackling sound, and the ice blade was full of cracks.

Sanji was about to attack again, Aokiji condensed ice spears all over his body, and shot out quickly.

Sanji moved quickly to dodge, and at the same time kept rushing forward, kicking the ice spear to pieces if he couldn't dodge.

"Devil's foot, veal shot!"

Sanji approached while moving quickly, and kicked out.

Aokiji made a fist with his right hand, the cold air filled the air, forming an ice fist, and blasted out.

As a general, he has strong fruit ability and physical skills.

With a bang, the ice fist collided with the fire demon's wind foot, and there was a stalemate.

Sanji's feet and Aokiji's hands were shaking. Gradually, Sanji felt a cold feeling coming from his feet. If it wasn't for the flames on his feet, he might have frozen directly.

With a click, Aokiji's frozen hand shattered, and Sanji was also repelled.

With a click, the blocking ice blade shattered, and the tiger rushed down to bite. Aokiji's left arm was completely frozen, and the arm turned into an ice blade and slashed out, crushing the blue tiger.

But at the same time, Sauron was ready to go.

The whole body of Qingzhi was frozen, the cold air was raging, and the surrounding temperature dropped. In this way, close-up attacks can be avoided. For a swordsman, if he slashes himself, the sword will be frozen.

However...

Zoro's double knives were entangled in the overlord's color, and the muscles in his arms swelled, which made Aokiji shiver.

"Two Swordsmanship, Two Gang Liluo, Two Gods to Avoid!"

He didn't touch the green pheasant, but slashed out from a distance.

Aokiji's arms were frozen, pointing at the same time, two huge ice birds sprang out.

However, accompanied by the sound of breaking, the huge ice bird shattered.

Sanji quickly rushed behind Aokiji, and Aokiji felt the pressure, and an ice wall formed behind him.

Aokiji kicked with his right foot repeatedly, afterimages spread all over the place, and the ice wall shattered in an instant.

However, behind the ice wall, ten ice spears had condensed, and the instant they shattered, they stabbed Sanji at close range.

However, Sanji did not dodge, and spun quickly, like a top, and at the same time, a fire tornado rolled up all over his body.

Ka Ka Ka...

Immediately, the ice spear was isolated and melted.

Facing the double gods, Aokiji crossed his arms to block, and with a roar, Aokiji was shaken out and slid 20 meters away on the ground.

Zoro and Sanji landed, located in front of and behind Aokiji, and their momentum rose.

Qingzhi sighed: "This battle is not easy, you can't be lazy, you have to fight them as two emperor's lieutenants."

When Qingzhi said this, Zhan Taowan was startled.

Because of too much pressure, he had no time to pay attention to other battles, and could only hear voices, which meant that General Aokiji could not gain the upper hand.

Zhan Taowan said heavily: "Are the Straw Hats so strong?"

After Kidd and other supernovas saw it, they were shocked and silent at the same time, not only a little better than their captains.

"They're all so strong, that's the entanglement of overlord color."

"Before I saw the strength of the Straw Hats, and now I have seen the strength of everyone in the Straw Hats."

"It's stronger than we thought."

"None of us can fight that reindeer?"

...

As soon as Drake said this, Kidd and Becky felt very upset. Such words were too shocking.

But looking at the battle on Qiwuhai's side, they couldn't be unhappy.

Chopper, who has become huge, is as tall as a bear. In this state, he will not go berserk and remain completely rational.

After all, the development of fruit has been improved too much. You must know that there is Teacher Kai in Chopper's teaching template.

What's more, there are strong physical arts like Garp, so Chopper is very strong when combined with physical arts.

It is so huge, extremely powerful, armed with domineering aura, and the physical skills taught by Karp, so that every time the bear fights and collides with Chopper, the bear's paw-like pads cannot bounce off Chopper's attack, the strength is too strong .

There are very few people who can fight with themselves in close quarters, because the pads have a strong rebound force, unless the opponent is very strong.

Chopper moved quickly, constantly flashing in the space around the bear, Shaved's movement was extremely fast and exquisite.

For a moment, there seemed to be more than a dozen giant choppers around the bear.

Bear was not the only one facing Chopper, his body was in a sumo pose, and his hands quickly slapped around.

"Shove the pressure cannon!"

For a moment, densely packed transparent bear paw shock waves shot out, counteracting the densely packed attacks around.

Watching the fierce battle, Kidd and the others were silent, and they had to admit in their hearts that Captain Supernova and the others couldn't even defeat the reindeer of the Straw Hats.

...

In the deep pit, a golden light shines towards the sky, and it is a yellow ape.

Patting the dust off his body, Huang Yuan touched his head and sighed softly: "It hurts."

The supernovas vibrated and suffered such an attack, and they seemed to be all right.

They knew that the next battle would last for a long time.

I even feel that the navy will not allow the battle to last too long. After all, now is a special period. They have been out for too long. For the Whitebeard Pirates and the other four emperors, it is an opportunity.

The yellow monkey looked at the rushing Luffy, pushed his hands forward, and spread his fingers.

whoosh whoosh...

All of a sudden, ten laser beams shot out.

The previous one can break a huge mangrove tree, let alone ten.

Huang Yuan is serious, urging the ability of Shining Fruit, the physical consumption will also be accelerated, but he knows that this battle cannot be dragged on for too long.

Facing the ten laser beams, Luffy's feet kept flying forward with the air as the driving force, and his hands contracted and squeezed.

"Rubber... Ape King Qun Duck Cannon!"

whoosh whoosh...

All of a sudden, dense fists blasted out.

This shocked the supernovas. In this form, the power is very strong, and they can still attack at such a high frequency like in the second gear, punching dense fists.

Boom boom boom...

The duck cannons and lasers collided and bombed continuously.

Supernova is glad that they are fighting in the sky, otherwise the bombing power, the Chambord Islands would not last long.

Huang Yuan's hands and ten fingers kept condensing and shooting lasers, Luffy roared, bombarded continuously, and approached at the same time.

Seeing that Luffy is approaching, it will take time to condense, continue to condense, but it will be too late.

After approaching, Lu Fei's right fist was densely packed and slammed down.

Huang Yuan's arms and fists were shining golden.

"Speed is power, light-speed group punches."

Immediately, the two fists of the yellow monkey continued to blast out at the speed of light, and for a while, it punched out dense fists of light, constantly colliding with Luffy's duck cannon fists.

The power of Light Speed Fist is not inferior to that of Light Speed Kick, not to mention such a dense attack.

Kidd and the others looked up, dumbfounded, it was too intense, the dark red fist collided with the golden fist continuously. They couldn't keep up with their naked eyes, but they felt that their fists could collide nearly a hundred times in three seconds.

The confrontation lasted for a full minute, and the two figures retreated separately.

Huang Yuan's hands trembled slightly, and it was painful.

Luffy was also exhausted and gasped slightly.

Fighting the yellow monkey, Luffy was in high spirits. After all, there were very few shots in the original plot. Even if he made a shot, it might be because of paddling, and the attack methods were only those, so let's see how much his real strength and means are.

Luffy was at a high altitude, above the head of the yellow ape, his huge right hand swung up, and the fire suddenly surged, and the sky was filled with fire, and it was all red.

At the same time, everyone in the Chambord Islands looked over and were shocked.

"It's a straw hat!"

"Why is there a flame rising?"

"And it looks like a terrifying flame, isn't it a rubber fruit?"

...

This attracted everyone's attention, and the supernovas were even more stunned.

"What... what's going on?"

"Flame? So turbulent, why?"

"Why does rubber catch fire? Atmospheric friction."

"Even so, it's impossible to have such a burst of flames, right?"

...

They were horrified and couldn't figure out why, but they thought it was only the friction of air that caused the fire.

Huang Yuan looked up, the pupils under the glasses shrank slightly, obviously shocked.

"Four-speed Karma pistol!"

Huang Yuan's hands are in the shape of calyx in front of his body, just like the gesture of Kameha Qigong in Dragon Ball, which makes the supernovas vibrate and the light gathers.

Whoosh! 517

Immediately, the laser was emitted, it could even be said to be a beam of light.

The laser emitted by the finger is thin, and this laser is equivalent to ten finger lasers condensed together. They know that the power must be even more terrifying.

boom!

Chapter 99

The four-stage karma pistol entwined with Liuying slammed down, collided with the golden beam of light laser, and stood deadlocked in midair, in the middle of the two.

Luffy felt that the laser was more powerful, and he felt a burning sensation in his fist. He gritted his teeth and endured it, growling and blasting downward.

The light beam laser is different from Lu Fei's fist. The power can be sustained, but the laser can't. As Luffy growled, the veins on his face popped up, and with a roar, the light beam laser exploded.

The yellow ape elementalized and landed, avoiding the bombing. Luffy was shaken to a higher altitude and was not injured. After all, the laser was defeated and did not spread too much in his direction.

"what!"

A scream came from Zhan Taowan.

After fighting for a while, he was defeated, and he was very embarrassed, vomited blood and fell at the feet of the yellow ape.

Huang Yuan kicked Zhan Taowan lightly with one foot: "Facing the Straw Hats, it is too embarrassing for you to participate in such a battle."

Zhan Taowan was sent away, and for a while, Brooke, Nami, and Robin were free.

The supernovas were shocked and felt that the situation was more favorable for the Straw Hats.

"It's amazing."

"I am facing Taowan in this battle. I am afraid that I am not an opponent.

He is stronger than our supernova."

"Even if they are stronger than us, but they are facing three members of the Straw Hats, it is normal to lose so quickly."

"It's really too strong."

"So who are these three going to help?"

"It seems that you don't need to help, but you will definitely help, and you will gain an advantage faster and have a greater advantage."

"Help the Straw Hats?"

...

However, under the astonished eyes of Kidd and the others, the three of Nami stood beside Lei Li with their arms in front of him. They wanted to watch!

"Why...won't you help?"

"If you help, you will have an advantage, right? If you help the straw hat, you will be more likely to defeat the general, the yellow monkey, right?"

"This...why?"

...

The next moment, the three of Nami gave them the answer, and said solemnly: "I don't need help at all."

This made them shake, said nothing more, and continued to watch the battle.

The battle between General Aokiji and Zoro and Sanji became more and more intense.

The bear fought with Chopper, Franky, and Usopp, and even the bear became a little passive.

As they continued to fight, they had a clearer understanding of the strength of the rest of the Straw Hats, except for Straw Hat Luffy, who was too strong.

The supernovas shook.

"Straw Hat Luffy is not a supernova, but stronger than the Five Emperors.

And, the Straw Hat Cluster is not a supernova cluster..."

"Yeah, this is not a supernova cluster, this is probably not the Five Emperors cluster!"

"Not only the Straw Hats are the Five Emperors, but the Straw Hats can also be called the Five Emperors. Zoro, Sanji, and the Vice Emperors of the Emperors! The rest are cadres of the Emperors!"

...

They know more about the Straw Hats. In retrospect, they were full of confidence before, and now they think it is ridiculous to challenge the Straw Hats.

For a while, they were even more stressed, thinking, after this battle, how much will the bounty of Straw Hat Luffy reach? How much will the total bounty offered by the Straw Hats reach? .

"We are ignorant."

"I was really hit. I don't have any sense of superiority as a supernova."

"It's becoming more and more certain that after this battle, the Straw Hats will become the Five Emperors, and the Straw Hats will become the Five Emperors, spreading the word all over the world! The bounties for the entire Straw Hats will be greatly increased!"

"Inevitable, because I feel that in this battle, it will be very difficult for the Navy to take down the Straw Hats."

...

The supernovas felt that the gap in bounty between them and the Straw Hats would be even greater.

I was even thinking, when the time comes, will the sum of the bounties offered by all the members of their respective pirate groups be inferior to the bounty offered by the lowest member of the Straw Hats?

After kicking Zhan Taowan, Huang Yuan breathed a sigh of relief.

Not only because Zhan Taomaru was saved, but also because the three combat forces of the Straw Hats actually watched from the sidelines and did not join the battle.

If three join, or even two, one joins, the orangutan will feel heavy.

Because, having seen the strength of the straw hat, Huang Yuan felt that with one or two more combat powers, it would be difficult for him to defeat.

It's the same for Aokiji. I feel that if the three combat forces join forces and join hands with Zoro and Sanji to deal with him, the pressure on me will be even greater.

Kumamoto thought that the three combat powers would come first, and then the six combat powers would defeat him.

After all, it is naturally possible to join in defeating the general, but it will take time, and Qi Wuhai's strength is naturally lower than that of the general.

However, he did not join.

The bear wants to join the fight, to defeat himself as soon as possible, but also understands that it really doesn't need help.

The most important point, Xiong also understands, is that the Straw Hats are eager to fight, to fight with the strong, to fight hard, so as to improve themselves.

The Straw Hats have not been out to sea for a long time, they are all young and have great potential, so they hope to experience such battles one after another.

Huang Yuan is glad that the Straw Hats are like this, otherwise it would be really troublesome.

Huang Yuan knew that he had to do his best to win the battle quickly.

This battle had to be successful, and it couldn't be delayed for too long.

Because, a bigger war is about to break out, with the strongest man in the world.

The battle continued, and Sauron's nine-sword style Asura form attacked more, making Aokiji overwhelmed.

For a moment, it seemed that three Zoro and one Sanji were fighting him.

Huang Yuanfei rushed up, holding Tian Congyun Sword in both hands, his arms turned into elements.

"Light Speed Heavenly Slash!"

It's not ordinary swinging a sword to slash, but slashing at the speed of light.

Because, the arms are elementalized.

The elemental kick of the leg is a light speed kick, which is powerful.

The elemental bombardment of the hand and the speed of light fist are also powerful. Now, combined with Tian Congyun Sword, the slash is extremely powerful in terms of strength and sharpness.

Luffy knew that Kizaru was going to go all out.

There is no doubt about the strength of the yellow ape. If he fights against the current Leili, Leili may not be an opponent.

After all, in the original plot, Huang Yuan fought Lei Li with Tiancongyun sword for a period of time, making Lei Li a little out of breath.

Looking at the battle, Lei Li felt in his heart that if he wanted to defeat the yellow ape, it would be impossible, at most it would be equal, or he would be slightly disadvantaged.

After all, getting older.

Slashing at the speed of light is also powerful.

Faced with Tian Congyun's sword slashing, Lu Fei shrank his hands and struck out at the same time.

"Rubber Lion Bazooka!!"

boom!

The two collided, and the terrorist force swept away, and the surrounding space was in turmoil.

Briefly speaking, both Kizaru and Luffy retreated, but Luffy retreated farther, and it was indeed stronger.

It's like punching a person at the same speed, and stabbing a person at the same speed as holding a knife. Naturally, the latter hurts more.

Huang Yuanxia had already stopped after receding, holding the Tiancongyun sword tightly with both hands, no longer in a slashing posture, but stabbing.

Both arms were shining with golden light, and the Tiancongyun sword in Huang Yuan's hand seemed to be elongated, turning into an extremely long golden lightsaber.

Immediately, both arms stabbed continuously at the speed of light, and for a while, golden streamers stabbed densely over the yellow ape!
whoosh whoosh...

"Speed at the speed of light and stabbing the clouds!"

For a moment, Congyun swords densely packed the sky and stabbed at Luffy.

Lu Fei's face changed, and his right hand was huge again, and he bombarded down, trying to break through all magic with his strength.

"Rubber Great Ape King Gun!"

boom!

The giant fist slammed down, but in an instant, Luffy felt a tingling sensation from his right fist, like hundreds of bees stabbing the skin with sharp needles, it was very painful.

Moreover, the strength of each stab is extremely strong. At the moment of collision, the Great Ape King Spear cannot go down, but freezes, and with the stabbing of densely packed Tiancongyun swords, Luffy's giant fist is constantly being shaken upwards .

In this confrontation, Luffy is at a disadvantage.

The supernovas watched the battle, marveling.

"This is the strength of the general."

"Take care of us one by one, now it seems that they are not serious..."

"Yeah... It's really shocking. I thought I was taking us seriously. After all, it's a monster, but now it seems that when he abused us, he didn't take it seriously."

"If we were to deal with us just now, we would have been finished."

...

Shocked, but also glad.

"General Huang Yuan has gone all out, the straw hat is probably going to die, isn't it?"

"Although they can be called Five Emperors, they are not Four Emperors after all."

"Yeah, his strength is far stronger than ours, but now he is really far behind the general or the four emperors who are going all out."

"However, even so, the Straw Hats won't be taken down. If the Straw Hats become more and more disadvantaged, the other three partners will join in the fight to help chase them, and then it will be reversed."

"yes."

...

The stabbing lasted for 30 seconds, Luffy was knocked into the air, and Pang Da's right hand was discouraged.

Huang Yuan didn't pursue and took a short rest. After all, such a quick stab, although combined with the fruit ability, also consumes physical strength, and most importantly, consumes both arms.

Huang Yuan's hands were a little sore.

Luffy's right arm also hurts, but for a person like Luffy with strong vitality and perseverance, this pain is nothing.

Huang Yuan took a short rest, once again grasped the Tiancongyun sword with both hands, and launched the light speed continuous stab again.

Luffy knew that if he continued with the Great Ape King Spear, it would not work.

Immediately, put your hands in front of your mouth and blow air, and your hands are huge at the same time.

The hands were compressed inwards, which shocked the supernovas.

Could this be... a gigantic rubber ape king group duck cannon?

As they thought, Lu Fei bombarded with both fists and shouted: "Rubber Great Ape King Qun Duck Cannon!"

Boom boom boom boom...

Immediately, densely packed huge giant fists bombarded down, stabbing at the speed of light, and striking again more intensely.

This time, while the yellow ape stabbed at the speed of light, he felt a strong obstacle and strength.

For a while, it was no longer that Luffy's giant fist was stabbed back again and again, but stalemate, stabbing and bombarding continued to collide.

Chapter 100

This made the supernovas dumbfounded. Straw hat Luffy hadn't gone all out just now.

"It can still be like this..."

"How did you practice?"

"In this case, it will consume more."

"Although this is the case, the attack consumption of the yellow ape is not small."

...

The practice of teaching space is more effective than half the effort. Even if it was impossible in the original plot, Luffy can do it now.

There is still a stalemate between the dense light-speed Tiancongyun sword stabbing and the dense great ape king duck cannon bombardment. With Luffy's roar, the attack frequency is faster and the power is more terrifying.

Huang Yuan also let out a low shout, constantly stabbing with all his strength.

Seeing how strong the Straw Hat is, then take it seriously and fight with all your might.

However, after going all out, he couldn't be defeated, and Huang Yuan also made a rare growl and exerted strength.

In this way, the high-frequency attacks from both sides continued, and it depended on who could last till the end.

Thirty seconds, sixty seconds, ninety seconds...

In the 90-second high-intensity, high-speed terrorist bombardment, the two sides were unable to stalemate and retreat at the same time.

Luffy's hands were numb and he was out of breath.

Huang Yuan was similarly panting, obviously the intensity was extremely high just now.

It's like panting after running at full speed.

Both sides gasped for 20 seconds, and gradually calmed down.

Huang Yuan felt that he could attack more powerfully.

The hands are in the shape of calyx again, facing Luffy, but this time it is not the laser beam of light, but the giant sword of Amacongyun, which is condensed ten meters away and 20 centimeters wide.

This shocked the supernovas, and they became larger, so their power must also be stronger.

Lu Fei frowned slightly, but he was also excited. The general is really strong, but he just expected such a battle.

Luffy's hands have changed back to the fourth gear size. Relaxing his arms, he saw the giant sword of Amazono cloud being held tightly by the yellow monkey, and his arms became elemental. This is to stab the sword of Amazono cloud at the speed of light.

Whoosh!

As Luffy thought, the giant sword of the speed of light Tian Congyun stabs, single stab, but more powerful.

Luffy's right arm blows huge again, which makes the supernovas feel that Luffy is going to be at a disadvantage.

"~ Is it still the Great Ape King Spear?"

"In that case, it's not enough."

"It seems that the straw hats are still not..."

However, the next moment, the faces of the supernovas changed, and they were stunned, because they didn't know what was covered.

As for Pluto Leili, his eyes froze and he beamed: "This is..."

Huang Yuan's pupils shrank slightly, and he noticed that there were not only flowing cherry blossoms, but also dark red lingering lingering on the giant fist.

Huang Yuan exclaimed in a really heavy tone: "It's really scary to be entwined with the overlord's color." (Li Dezhaoh)

The supernovas were shocked, and the overlord was entangled?

They still don't know this vocabulary, but it can be known that it is more powerful.

"The entanglement of overlord color can make the attack stronger."

"Not sure, but definitely."

"Then, does it depend on the strength of the Overlord's Color? The stronger the Overlord's Color, the stronger the overlord's color will be, right?"

"It should be, just like the armed color, if it is stronger, it will be stronger in defense and attack."

...

Hearing this, Huang Yuan was puzzled, and said to himself: "Although it is true, the domineering look is mostly the same, and it is only used to stun me."

However, the words of the supernovas made the face of the yellow monkey change.

"The domineering color of the straw hat can cause substantial damage."

"Yeah, although the overlord color of the straw hat is not as strong as the red hair, but now it is second only to the overlord color of the red hair."

"The same can cause substantial damage. There are only two people in the world who can do it, but it's not as serious as the red-haired one."

...

This made Huang Yuan startled. The overlord look of the straw hat can cause substantial damage? !

He doesn't know it, the whole world knows it, the only person who can do real damage with overlord color is red hair.

Huang Yuan was heavy, his hands were strong, elemental, and Tian Congyun's giant sword stabbed upwards with all his strength.

And Luffy's huge giant fist slammed down fiercely, with a powerful overlord look wrapped around him, growling Yu:

"Rubber... Overlord Ape Gun!".

Chapter 107 The Fourth Snakeman! Fierce battle against General Yellow Ape!

boom!

Suddenly, Tian Congyun's giant sword collided with the Great Ape King Spear.

Although it is still the Great Ape King Spear, it is different from before. It is wrapped in a domineering and domineering power, and its attack power is stronger.

Just like Sauron's God's Avoidance, if there is no overlord's color entanglement, then the power of God's Avoidance will not be so strong.

The moment of collision, the two stalemate again.

However, soon, Huang Yuan's Tiancongyun sword consumes too much power. After all, the speed of light stabs, the power is the greatest at the moment of stabbing, and the failure to repel Luffy after the collision is a continuous output.

Tian Congyun's giant sword shattered, watching the Tyrannical Ape King's gun strike, the figure of the yellow ape turned into photons and scattered to avoid it.

Dodging to another place, Huang Yuan was startled, the strength of the straw hat was beyond his imagination.

At the same time, the supernovas also stayed.

Even Nami and the others didn't expect Luffy to be so strong.

Huang Yuan condensed the giant sword of Tiancongyun again, clenched his hands tightly, and this time he planned to fight.

"Light Speed Tian Congyun Giant Sword Continuously Stabs!"

whoosh whoosh...

For a moment, the yellow ape's arms swelled, turned elemental, and stabbed quickly.

Although it was not as densely packed as the previous stabs, it was still more, after all, it was a more powerful giant sword stab.

Lu Fei knew that the yellow ape was fighting harder, and suddenly his arms were huge and straight up, the fire of karma surged, the cherry blossoms flowed, and the domineering look entwined.

"Fourth gear, Yehuo Overlord's group guns!"

Boom boom boom...

For a moment, Luffy fired a densely packed karma pistol that was entwined with the color of a king, and collided with the densely packed stabs of Amacongyun's giant sword.

For a time, more intense collisions erupted, the sky continued to roar, fire, golden light continued to erupt, and the sky shone brightly.

The supernovas were stunned and looked up at the sky blankly.

"This is the true all-out, desperate fight between the general and the five emperors..."

"Too intense..."

"With such frequency, density, and strength, let alone a group, even a punch or a sword is not something I can resist. If I am hit, I will be seriously injured even if I am not dead."

"Now I find that the gap with the straw hat is huge."

"I don't know who will win this battle."

...

Nami and the others watched the battle, winning or losing is not important, the main thing is that Luffy has fun fighting, can be tempered, and becomes stronger.

However, it seemed to Raleigh that he had a conclusion in his heart.

"I really didn't expect that Luffy could be so strong. It's not much different from the general Kizaki's combat power. Then, the comparison is physical strength, to see who can persevere to the end. Kizomaru relies too much on the fruit ability, resulting in physical strength." Speeding up consumption, and in order to launch stronger, faster and more intensive attacks, I have been slack on my own side, so doing everything I can will consume myself even more."

Therefore, Rayleigh is optimistic about Luffy.

517 Leili also understood: "The winner cannot be decided in a short time, and the yellow monkey knows that if the fight lasts for a long time, the physical strength may be exhausted before the straw hat. However, the navy has no intention of procrastinating this battle. After all, the navy still has a big enemy in the future, and it is impossible to fight here for several days and nights, or even more than one day and one night."

Nami understands what Rayleigh said, because if she fights like this, she will be injured.

They're expended, hurt nothing, there's Chopper, and the Navy seems to have more important things to do.

Then, the general will not be allowed to be injured, which will affect the subsequent war, let alone two generals.

In this case, even if the two generals go back later, it will be extremely disadvantageous if they take part in the war with injuries.

What Huang Yuan has to do is to do everything possible to fight and end it quickly, but the premise is that if the limit of the straw hat is like this, then it is still possible, if not more...

boom!

The bear was repulsed, and there were many wounds on his body.

Facing these three non-main combat forces, even he, who is the most powerful in Qiwuhai, finds it very difficult.

Chopper has strong physical skills, strong fruit ability, well-developed, close-range physical combat, and restrains himself.

Usopp is a sniper, looking for opportunities to attack himself from a long distance. Whether it is sniper ability, knowledge-like arrogance, or armed arrogance, they are all powerful and extremely dangerous.

There is also Franky, all kinds of technological weapons, deformation, no matter in terms of speed, strength, and firepower, they are all powerful.

Xiong was beaten and retreated. Although he was strong in Qiwuhai, he was not facing three supernovas, but the real three royal cadres. Even he was invincible.

Xiong lost his fighting spirit and chose to leave after the shock retreated.

Chopper and the others naturally wouldn't chase after him.

The supernovas shook.

"Qiwu sea bear, run away..."

"He also tried his best. After all, it's not the navy, but Qiwuhai, which is interesting enough."

"The navy can't do anything."

"In addition, there is still a bigger battle. The world government has nothing to do with Xiong leaving like this and participating in a bigger war. It will understand."

"Then the three of them will also be..."

...

Before Kidd and the others guessed, their expressions shook.

As they thought, just like the three of Nami just now, Usopp and the three of them stood in a row with the three of Nami, waiting with their arms around the front. Obviously, they did not intend to participate in the battle.

This made Aokiji and Yellow Monkey rejoice. If three of these six joined the battle between their two generals, they could only give up and choose to retreat, without even reporting to Sengoku.

Because, it is impossible to win.

However, since you don't intend to intervene, let's continue to fight.

"One knife flow together, black knife, (aedb) die, lion singing!"

Quickly drawing the sword and slashing made Aokiji jealous. Although it can be turned into an element, it is also dangerous to be entangled with the armed color.

The green pheasant can only spread the cold air on the ground, so that the two cannot touch the ground. Once they touch the ground, they will freeze.

Even if it is not frozen, it will affect the speed.

However, they all know how to step on the moon and step on the air before launching attacks in the air.

Aokiji's body was filled with cold air, and it swept out. The cold air storm roared, and it was extremely cold, as if the surrounding space could be frozen.

This is to make Sauron stop.

However, Sauron gritted his teeth, endured, and passed by in a flash.

Chapter 101

Aokiji was frightened, so he chose to rush over, hurting the enemy a thousand and hurting himself eight hundred.

Zoro appeared behind Aokiji. Although Aokiji tried his best to dodge, his waist was still scratched and blood flowed out.

Sauron's body was covered with a layer of frost, his body was shaking, and the blood in his body seemed to stop flowing, it was too cold.

Even if he drew his sword and slashed extremely fast, passing through the cold air quickly, it was still extremely cold.

Even if you stay in the cold range for 0.01 seconds, you will be frozen.

Just like a feather, passing through the flame quickly, it will also turn into nothingness or curl.

Aokiji wanted to take this opportunity to attack Sauron, whose body was cold and his movements were restricted, and the ice spears flew out densely.

However, Sanji approached, and Zhanhuo kicked repeatedly with his right foot, smashing the ice spear continuously.

After being crushed, Sanji took a cigarette and scratched the right foot of Lianhuo, lit the cigarette and took a puff.

After looking at Zoro who stood up trembling and teeth chattering, Sanji asked, "Do you want to hold my thigh and roast it?"

Sauron pouted: "No need."

Aokiji said heavily: "It's really tricky."

Sanji and Zoro said in awe: "There are more tricky things."

"Ah Lala, the preparations are almost done, let's end it as soon as possible. There may be hope for defeating you."

What Aokiji said made Sanji and Zoro startled, what do you mean?

Suddenly, the sky became wet, then icy cold.

This made Sanji and Zoro look up at the sky, feeling uneasy in their hearts, only feeling that the surrounding space has changed.

For a moment, the icy white chill visible to the naked eye filled the surrounding space, covering the battlefield where they fought with Qingzhi.

And the supernovas felt something was wrong. Although they were not within the range, they only felt very cold and shivering.

Reilly reminded: "Stand back a little distance."

Usopp was a little worried: "This general Aokiji, what big move is going to be used? Sanji and Zoro..."

Chopper was also worried, and felt that the next step would not be easy.

Nami stared at the icy air in front of her, and chose to believe.

"Stand back and trust them."

Nami's words mean that there is no need to enter for help.

Usopp and the others nodded heavily, choosing to believe.

Huang Yuan glanced at the world shrouded in icy cold air in the distance, and sighed softly: "It seems that the battle over there is about to end, so I have to hurry up."

Luffy didn't worry about Sauron and Sanji, he believed they could.

And the area shrouded in cold air became colder and colder, and Zoro and Sanji were already shivering.

Aokiji burst out its fruit ability, affecting the surroundings, and said at the same time: "In the battle just now, although my ice was crushed or melted, the water vapor permeated the air. This is also the prerequisite for me to use this move. Now, enough to activate It's over, it's over."

Sanji and Zoro wanted to get out of this area, but it was very cold, their movements were hindered, and they felt that their blood was about to freeze, not to mention their bodies, and they were struggling.

Qingzhi said: "There's no need to resist, it's too late."

Aokiji exploded with the ability to freeze fruit, and a circle of icy air spread around his body. Combined with the surrounding environment filled with water vapor and cold air, he let out a low growl:

"Thousand Years Ice Prison!"

boom!

Suddenly, under the stunned eyes of the supernovas, a column-shaped iceberg suddenly appeared.

The iceberg is 100 meters high and 30 meters in diameter, enclosing Sanji and Zoro in ice.

The iceberg is transparent, and you can see Sanji and Zoro inside.

Although Aokiji is also frozen, but as a frozen fruit ability user, it is not affected. The elemental Aokiji is one with the iceberg and walks out of the iceberg.

Looking at the iceberg in front of him, Qingzhi exhaled, the cold air raged.

"Ah Lala, it's been a long time since I used this move, it still consumes so much, but it's over."

This move is an extremely powerful blockade move for Aokiji, it is not as simple as ordinary ice, it is extremely thick and hard.

Moreover, the terrifying cold air makes people frozen, making it difficult to move, let alone break through the ice.

Originally, in the cold air, the flame on Sanji's right foot became smaller and smaller, and the flame went out immediately after freezing.

Through the iceberg, Sanji and Zoro can be seen inside.

Aokiji pressed his hands on the iceberg, and he could clearly see that around Sanji and Zoro, icicles were condensed, ready to stab.

"My side, it can be over. Although you are very powerful, you are still not good enough to face the general." Aokiji felt that it was inevitable.

The supernovas trembled.

"The general is just as terrifying."

"Huh, shall we go first?"

"It's okay, it won't happen, let's take a look."

"Yeah, after all, there are the other six combat forces of the Straw Hats, and Pluto Rayleigh is also there, so we are safe."

"I have a fortune teller, none of us will die today."

"What about Zoro and Sanji?"

"I didn't show my face, but it doesn't mean I won't be caught."

"The Straw Hats are as strong as the Five Emperors, but it seems that Zoro and Sanji are still not as good as the Deputy Emperors."

"Yes, the upper level of the Seven Martial Arts Sea is good, and the emperor's deputy is still a little bit worse."

...

Nami and the others changed their expressions, they were worried, and they clenched their fists slightly.

Without direct action, such a crisis is good for Sauron and the others.

Only when there is a crisis can they feel the pressure and break through their own limits.

Or, wait for Zoro and Sanji to use stronger moves.

Therefore, you can't do it directly, but if Aokiji activates the ice pick, Sanji and Zoro have not moved, at that moment, the six of them will do it together.

Even Raleigh was ready to act at the moment of crisis.

Blocked by the iceberg, Sauron felt heavy: "It's so cold, I can't move."

Sanji's heart trembled: "It has to rely on me."

While being trapped, Sanji sensed the crisis, the ice cone was about to strike, and if he was not dead, he would be seriously injured and defeated. He must act!

How to defeat this powerful iceberg blockade? One hundred thousand urgency, life and death in an instant.

Sanji couldn't help but recall the training of teaching space, a trial like hell.

What you get is not stronger physical skills, domineering, etc., but also changes in your own bloodline.

It's time to use that trick!

In an instant, Sanji himself changed. The exoskeleton, strength, and speed all changed and improved at the same time, and combined with the domineering armed color, more powerful flames are about to rush out!

Make your feet tougher and stronger!

Pooh!

In the next moment, Aokiji, Supernova, Lei Li, Nami and others all changed their expressions, their eyes widened and their pupils shrank.

Among the icebergs, Sanji's right foot ignited flames again, and the blazing fire burst out wantonly! The majestic arrogance is as bright as a star!

Everyone was shocked, seeing through the ice layer, the emerging flame turned out to be blue!

"We are not as good as the admiral? The admiral wants to catch us, but it is still not as good as it is."

Sanji's voice came out, which means...

Kaka...

The iceberg ice layer is filled with cracks, and the sound comes out from it, accompanied by a low growl.

"Devil God Wind Foot!"

Aokiji's heart was shocked, the hole card that he hadn't seen when he was empty island, now he saw it!

Boom!

The ice around Sanji and Zoro melted, and Zoro didn't do anything, but the blue flame on Sanji's right foot became more violent, as if enveloping the whole person, the demon * descended, and the evil spirits retreated!

According to the supernovas, it is still a little short of the strength of the emperor's deputy?

This record of the Demon God's Fengjiao gave them the answer!

Speed, strength, unprecedented improvement, fast kicks, kicks with blue flames spread in all directions, the sound of smashing continued, and the cracks in the iceberg became wider and wider.

finally!

Boom!

With a bang, the iceberg suddenly shattered, and the general Aokiji Wannian Ice Prison was broken!

Zoro, Sanji, and the two emperors reappear! The momentum is stronger! Sauron's ghostly nine-sword flow form, grinning: "This time, I will let you show off the limelight."

Sanji said: "I don't want Miss Robin and Miss Nami to look worried for a long time. Next, let's each do our best!"

"Devil God Fengjiao! First Meat!"

Instantly flew in front of Aokiji, with a volley blow, yes, Aokiji's pupils shrank, so fast, so terrifying power rushed towards his face, and even more blazing flames!

Aokiji suddenly felt more pressure and went all out to fight.

After the counterattack, Sanji suddenly disappeared, moving around quickly, attacking, as if there were eight Sanji attacking.

"Shoulder tenderloin!"

"Houston Meat!"

"Back ribs!"

"Belly!"

"Tail meat!"

Every time he shouted, Sanji kicked the corresponding position, Aokiji dodged, and at the same time as he counterattacked, he began to show pain and sweat.

At the same time, Sauron clenched the black knife tightly in six arms, entangled in a domineering look.

"Six swordsmanship, six gods to avoid!"

Boom boom boom...

For a while, a more intense battle broke out, Supernova stared blankly, looking at each other in blank dismay.

At this moment, they knew that Zoro and Sanji had the power to be emperors! It can be called the right arm of the Five Emperors!

Huang Yuan saw it naturally, it was unexpected: "What a monster."

Luffy is not surprised, this is the strongest state of Zoro and Sanji.

Qingzhi failed to end the battle, and Huang Yuan felt that he should end it first.

Jumping up suddenly, his hands condensed a huge golden light mirror.

"End it, Judgment of Light!"

whoosh whoosh...

Suddenly, dense clusters of cloud swords shot out, stabbing Lu Fei densely like rain.

Luffy bombarded at full speed, but couldn't dodge all of them. There were more and more wounds on his body. The yellow monkey took the opportunity to shoot a laser, and Luffy slammed into the ground, creating a deep hole.

The supernovas looked over immediately, and soon, Luffy swept out of the deep pit, but returned to his original body, full of scars.

"Are you going to lose?"

"The five emperors will still lose against the general."

"Out of fourth gear, give up."

...

Huang Yuan also thought so, saying: "It's over, Straw Hat Luffy."

Chapter 102

Luffy did grin, and said in a stern voice, "It's over? No, the warm-up has just ended."

After the words fell, Luffy raised his left hand covering the armed color horizontally, his momentum rose, and he breathed heavily.

"Fourth gear!"

"Snake Man!".

Chapter 108 Chambord, Red Dog joins the battle?

Luffy's words made the faces of the supernovas startled.

I thought Luffy was about to lose, but the warm-up just ended?

Lei Li was also shocked. He thought that Luffy was about to lose, but he also thought that although he is the fifth emperor, he is not the fourth emperor after all. Facing the general, it is still difficult to defeat.

However, it clearly doesn't look like it's over.

Also, the battle between Zoro and Sanji and the general Aokiji is still going on, and it has reached the most intense level, not to mention Luffy as the captain.

Even Nami and the others were shocked, looking forward to it.

The fourth gear of Elastic Man, they have seen the battle with the Golden Lion. And now, just after the warm-up, it means that it will not be the fourth-grade elastic man, but a new form? How was it?

"Fourth gear!"

"Snake man!"

Following Luffy's low shout, he blew heavily on the pitch-black left arm, and suddenly the whole body was filled with white auspicious cloud steam, completely enveloping Luffy.

Everyone stared at the past, the fourth-rank snake man? What kind of existence?

As the white cloud steam lingered over the top of the head, it was the first to change. Luffy's black hair became longer, and it rose and danced like a crown of anger.

There is a circle of dark marks around the eyes, and the white steam auspicious cloud satin surrounds the shoulders. The arms and legs are still covered with the dark red armed color domineering like the fourth-level elastic man. However, Luffy's body shape is completely different from the fourth-level elastic man. It is different, almost the same as the body form before the change, and it no longer bounces continuously, but can stand firmly on the ground.

The supernovas were shocked, and felt that the snake man looked more imposing, after all, it was not funny anymore.

"Fourth gear, new form..."

"Is it stronger than Elastic Man?"

"Unexpectedly, in the battle just now, Zoro and Sanji didn't go all out, and now they have started to go all out. The same is true for the straw hats. They didn't go all out before, and now is the real start."

"The gap is really too big..."

"Don't treat him as a supernova like us, as the Five Emperors, so that we can feel better."

...

Raleigh exclaimed after seeing it: "It really surprised me even more."

Nami and the others are excited, excited, and there are four new forms.

Chopper, Usopp's eyes are shining.

"So handsome..."

"It looks a lot more domineering."

"Although it is not as burly and massive as the four-speed elastic man, it looks more powerful, and the hair is longer and raised upwards, which looks cool."

"It looks a little bigger than the original body, but what kind of combat power will it be?"

...

For a while, everyone was looking forward to it.

Entering the fourth level of snake man, Luffy's fighting spirit rose: "Keep fighting, general Huang Yuan."

Huang Yuan frowned, feeling more and more heavy in his heart, surprised that he didn't go all out just now.

After panting, Huang Yuan calmed down, took a long breath, and prepared to start a more intense battle.

...

Navy Headquarters.

Garp was worried, and sent such a strong lineup to deal with Luffy and the others.

Karp was worried and bitter in his heart. Although he was relieved, he also had a bitter smile and a headache.

"Should it be said that blue comes from blue and is better than blue?"

Garp smiled wryly, he didn't have a good look at the Celestial Dragon, but his grandson Luffy killed a Celestial Dragon directly.

Even if the navy is about to start a war, but it is so serious, the navy will inevitably take action and send high-level combat power to the Chambord Islands to capture Luffy and the others.

Karp knew that General Polusalino and Kuzan were going.

And to add insult to injury, Shichibu Sea Bear took the initiative to go to the war, which was even more dangerous.

The sea soldier in charge of the investigation came in, and Garp asked anxiously: "What's the matter? Have the Straw Hats been taken down?"

It sounds like you're in a hurry for the Navy.

Sailor: "No, the battle is still going on."

"Huh?" Garp was slightly surprised and asked, "The battle just started?"

"No, the battle has already begun for a long time."

This shocked Garp, it has been a long time, and it is not over yet.

"Isn't our combat power completely on par with the Straw Hats?"

"That's right, General Polusalino, General Kuzan, Shichibu Kaikuma, Zhanmomaru, all met the Straw Hats. The battle has been going on for a long time, Zhanmomaru has long been defeated, and Shichiwu Kaikuma also After fleeing, the two generals are still fighting with Straw Hats, Pirate Hunter Zoro, and Blackfoot Sanji."

The sea soldier began to tell in detail, which shocked Garp extremely.

After the shock, Garp was relieved, and even more relieved and proud.

I wanted to laugh out loud, but Garp held back and admired in his heart:

"As expected of my grandson, he can actually fight against the general."

Although I have known about Luffy's strength before, I feel that there is still a little gap between the general and the quasi-general.

But now it seems that it has improved.

After being relieved, Garp felt even more regretful, and cursed secretly:

"Stinky boy, if you listen to me, you can be a general now."

Thinking of this, Garp couldn't help feeling a little sad in the depths of his eyes, thinking of Ace who was about to be executed in Advance City.

"Hey...all of them are no longer the little brats they were back then, and each one is better than the other. If they had listened to me back then, they would all have been able to become admirals."

Garp sighed regretfully, without ifs, he couldn't fantasize anymore.

Garp was relieved in his heart, because he also knew that the battle could not last for too long.

In the Navy headquarters, Karp did not hear the situation of sending support.

Garp went to the Marshal's office, wanting to see the expression of Sengoku at this time.

Soon after arriving, Garp entered, as he thought, Sengoku's face was heavy.

crunch crunch...

Karp ate the senbei, leaned on the sofa and asked, "Warring States, why do you have a stinky face?"

Warring States is a headache: "You guy, you should know, right? I'm afraid this time, it will be very difficult to take them down."

Thinking of this, I feel more and more headache. It would be fine if I beat the Tianlongren, but I can explain if I didn't win, and catch some other pirates to save face.

But I killed the Tianlong people, if I didn't win, the Tianlong people...

At this time, the cold voice of the red dog iron blood sounded.

"Marshal of the Warring States Period."

"come in."

Akainu entered and couldn't wait: "I heard that the two guys Kuzan and Polusalino haven't been able to take down any of the Straw Hats yet.

What are these two guys doing?"

Akaken's voice was a little angry, he couldn't figure it out, and he didn't think about it anymore, so he asked for orders directly: "Marshal, let me go to Chambord, three hours... no, take down the straw hats within two hours."

Although I really want to take down the Straw Hats, if I don't take it down, the navy will be under great pressure. However, a bigger war is coming, and they can't take risks. Their navy doesn't know where the Whitebeard Pirates are now.

Warring States resolutely refused: "No, you also know that more important things are about to be done, and they are likely to come, and you are gone too. The three major forces of the Navy are not there, and they want the Whitebeard Pirates to destroy Marin Fando. Is Fire Fist Ace robbed? It's not a big deal for Marin Vanduo to be destroyed, but Fire Fist Ace is Roger's son, and he must not be allowed to be robbed."

Although Akainu went to Shambord, there are two legends about him and Garp in the Navy Headquarters, but facing the Whitebeard Pirates is also extremely stressful and risky.

Akainu frowned, didn't want to give up, and was clear about the situation, and promised: "I will end it as soon as possible! Then I will rush back, and it won't be like those two guys who haven't ended for so long."

Sengoku shook his head: "We can't take this risk. We can't know when the Whitebeard Pirates will appear. After all, during this period, we have no way of knowing their whereabouts. What if they are already nearby?"

Therefore, we can't take risks. In addition, the most important thing is Yes, according to the information sent back, it's not that we have the upper hand, it's actually the Straw Hats..."

Hearing this, Akaken frowned. Are the two guys, Aokiji and Kizaru, paddling lazy, or is the Straw Hat group really powerful?

Akainu couldn't accept the latter, thinking how could it be possible, how long was it established, and most of the people on board were less than twenty years old, how could it be so strong.

Warring States dignified: "The information sent back knows that all the combat power of the Straw Hats is very strong, and we really want to treat them as the Five Emperors. After Judiciary Island, they are actually the Five Emperors. They are just for cover-up and have not been released. Now it seems that they of the Five Emperors are not inferior to the Four Emperors. In this case, there will be no mistakes in the information sent back, and the Straw Hats are so strong that even with such combat power, it is difficult to win."

These words made Chiquan's heart sink, that is to say, it was equivalent to hopeless.

Warring States punched the desk and sighed: "Damn it, but at this time, two major events collide, otherwise, you will definitely be sent to Chambord, and you will definitely take down the straw hats."

0...Ask for flowers...

Warring States felt a little bit complaining about Blackbeard, so couldn't he send Fire Fist Ace earlier or later.

Akainu looked ugly, and asked: "So, how to solve it next?"

Warring States is heavy: "Continue to fight, give them another hour, after all, they can't go out for too long, and it has almost exceeded the prescribed limit time. The Whitebeard Pirates must know about this, and they will definitely not miss this opportunity. In addition, also There is no guarantee that the other four emperors will not come, and there will be two less generals at that time, and facing them will be very risky."

Akainu understands, after an hour, it's best to take down the straw hats, if you can't take it down, just retreat...

Akainu had no choice but to leave, and after going out, his voice was low: "Polusalino, Kuzan, you two guys, don't be too disappointing, don't make me look down on you."

Akainu naturally hopes to win it, but at the same time regrets that it would be great if he sent it himself, and will definitely kill the evil of the Straw Hats.

The Chambord Islands, Luffy the Five Emperors, Zoro the Deputy of the Two Emperors, Sanji, and the battle with the two generals are still going on and have reached their peak.

Sanji's demon * has the wind feet, but he can fight against gods and demons, so what about the admiral.

Sauron no longer casts divine evasion, and is no longer a ghostly nine-swords style. He has become his original form, no longer superhuman.

Moreover, it is no longer the three-sword style, but holding Qiushui with both hands.

"Change my prestige, the new moves I just broke through, were difficult to control before."

Sauron grinned, also excited, and finally mastered this move.

Suddenly, the supernovas froze, what kind of moves?

Sanji Demon God's Wind Foot shocked them, so Zoro also has new and stronger moves?

Aokiji also changed color because of it: "Hey, hey, isn't it, there are stronger moves?"

Now this battle is enough to make him feel a few songs, and the hole card?

The muscles of Sauron's arms swelled, and he held the autumn water tightly. His overlord look wrapped around him, and his momentum became stronger. For a moment, Sauron's eyes flashed red, and his deterrent force was stronger.

Even stronger than Dachen Regret's aura, it makes people tremble and fear.

The supernovas in the distance were all subconsciously chilling and trembling with fear.

Even, this move is not against them, they are inexplicably afraid in their hearts.

"Good... so strong momentum..."

"And it makes people tremble with fear and subconscious fear."

"It's not a simple double emperor's deputy. Four emperors, Kaido's emperor's deputy is facing the straw hat regiment's deputy, which one is stronger?"

...

They were extremely shocked, not to mention the gap with Zoro and Sanji, not to mention Luffy.

For a while, Nami and the others expected that Sauron would be stronger, new moves? They have never seen it, and they don't know it.

Sure enough, this battle is a battle that can make everyone go all out.

Sauron's attack was ready to go, and the momentum reached the extreme, making people even more frightened.

At this moment, Lei Li's body shook violently!

Chapter 103

Avoiding God, let him see the shadow of Roger in Sauron. However, the current posture also made Raleigh see Roger's shadow again!

Lei Li was shocked and horrified: "This move...could it be...could it be stronger than divine avoidance..."

The next moment, Sauron gave a low growl and gave the answer.

"God is afraid!"

Rayleigh's pupils shrank, sure enough!

As he thought, God's Avoidance, a stronger move, God's Fear!

God avoids, God must avoid.

And the fear of gods is... even gods are afraid!

For a while, Aokiji's face changed drastically, and he regretted coming. Is it so troublesome? I knew that Akaken had come.

Aokiji went all out to urge the frozen fruit, and a larger ice bird sprang out, powerful enough to counter the fire-breathing red dog.

boom! !

The two terrifying moves collided, and the roar shook the sky and the earth, and the supernovas moved away faster, because the sharp sword energy and the ice-cold energy permeated the air.

The ground they just had was cut and frozen, and even the atmosphere was cut and frozen.

Sanji also continued to kick at high speed, and Aokiji was even more stressed.

But at this time, the fourth rank of snakemen are ready to go, and the battle has entered the final stage.

Chapter 109 Confer the Emperor! Five Emperors Luffy offers a reward of 3 billion!

"Rubber Jet Orochi Cannon!"

Luffy jumped out with his right hand and attacked the yellow monkey, but was easily dodged.

This surprised Huang Yuan, is that all?

However, the next moment froze, because he could bend back and attack himself again.

The yellow ape moved quickly and kept dodging, but found that it was hot on its heels, and its speed was getting faster and faster.

The fourth gear is in the elastic man state, but the fourth gear is in the snake man state, and the speed is faster.

It is not difficult for the yellow ape to dodge continuously.

"The speed is very fast, but, I am the speed of light, and I can't hit me."

However, Luffy's other hand is also extended, and the difficulty is not only doubled for a while.

Constantly chasing, the yellow monkey kept dodging. However, after dodging for a moment, as if he had predicted it, the big snake cannon bombarded the yellow monkey's back.

Huang Yuan turned around in the nick of time, Tian Congyun sword blocked, but was still blown out and fell to the ground, faster than Elastic Man, and not inferior in strength.

Whoosh!

Lu Fei flew over the yellow ape in an instant, and the expression of the yellow ape in the deep pit changed, and he became elemental.

Although it is the speed of light, elementalization requires an instant of time, not the speed of light all the time.

Lu Fei said in a cold voice: "So what about the speed of light, you can't escape the speed fist in the form of a snake man!"

"Rubber...Black Mamba!"

Luffy's hands stretched out again, constantly bent, and they no longer looked like two arms, but densely packed, as if there were countless arms.

This move is similar to the rubber ape king group duck cannon, densely packed, and the most frightening thing is that the trajectory cannot be determined, and it keeps bending until it hits the opponent.

The yellow ape's face changed in shock until it was too late to dodge.

Even if he dodged, the attack would still come. Before he could move at the speed of light, he needed to spend a short amount of time on his own elements.

Huang Yuan could only hold Tian Congyun Sword in both hands, constantly slashing and blocking.

For a while, the roar continued, and Lu Fei's arms bombarded the yellow monkey like rain, and the yellow monkey kept slashing and blocking at the speed of light.

"May 20" bang bang bang...

However, soon, the yellow ape was unable to resist, and began to be bombarded all over his body, his face showing pain.

The yellow monkey burst out the ability of the shining fruit, naturally shining golden light, and attacked Luffy with dense lasers blooming from itself.

Luffy stopped, dodged, and bombarded, but he couldn't be completely defeated, and was hit by the laser and bombed to the ground.

Both Luffy and Kiwi were seriously injured, but the physical exertion was greater for Kiwi, after all, he overused the fruit ability.

Huang Yuan also knew that he couldn't use it too much, and his physical strength would be exhausted quickly, but the straw hat was too strong, so he had to use it too much.

Whoosh!

"Rubber King Cobra!"

After a long distance, Luffy attacked again, with his arms stretched straight to attack, faster, really fast.

Kizaru froze, faster than the rubber jet Orochi cannon just now.

Huang Yuan has an ugly face, which can make him who has always had an absolute advantage in speed feel tricky, and the opponent also relies on speed.

Huang Yuan didn't dodge, but Tian Congyun sword merged, became bigger, and stabbed forward suddenly.

boom!

Instant collision. The terrifying power burst out, and Huang Yuan wanted to stab back with a sword, but after the collision, his body kept moving backwards.

Shocked back with the strength, the yellow monkey shoots a columnar laser with both hands in a calyx, knocking Luffy's arm back during the bombing.

At the same time, the golden mirror is condensed in front of the body, and the light beam is ejected to the surroundings, and the yellow ape turns into light and moves rapidly in the track of light.

This reassured him, however...

"Rubber Hydra!"

Just like the jet snake cannon can become a black mamba, the same speed is more densely packed.

And the rubber hydra is the same, with the same speed as the king cobra, but it has become more, densely packed, moving and bombarding at lightning speed.

The yellow ape shattered into pieces at the speed of light, but was quickly blocked by the fists all over, and the bent and moving arms intertwined into a big net.

Boom boom boom...

It is difficult for the yellow ape moving at the speed of light to dodge. It stops instantly and appears, and its ability explodes again. Knowing that it is impossible to block and block with Chitian Congyun sword, it will be hit. Once hit, more intensive attacks will follow. Furious blow.

Therefore, the sparkling fruit ability exploded again, and the physical strength was greatly consumed.

"The Judgment of Light!"

For a moment, the yellow ape shot out the Tiancongyun sword all over his body, densely packed, the two kept colliding, and the lightsaber continued to shatter.

The yellow monkey seemed to be surrounded by golden lightsabers, which made the yellow monkey feel relieved, but with Luffy's hysterical growl, the attacks became more and more fierce, and the lightsabers shot out were shattered faster and faster, more and more, seeing the surrounding space being punched out of the gap.

Huang Yuan was uneasy, and gathered Tian Congyun Sword with his hands again to prevent the snake fist from bombarding from the gap.

Whoosh!

As Huang Yuan thought, he still couldn't completely block it, so he swung his sword to slash and repel, or block.

However, what follows, more and more, is that the lightsabers are about to all come crashing down.

"A boy with strong vitality and physical strength."

Huang Yuan shook and slashed continuously, until finally the two swords crossed to block above, protecting himself, but it was useless.

Kacha, the Tiancongyun sword shattered and turned into a few photons, and the body of the yellow ape was hit and fell to the ground.

Whoosh!

Lu flew over the yellow ape, and the rubber hydra continued to bombard it.

Immediately, rain-like fists fell continuously, bombarding the yellow ape in the deep pit, the ground cracked, the deep pit became bigger and bigger, the roar of fists falling on the ground was dense, and fifty punches could hit the ground in one second generally.

In the distance, the supernovas watched this scene in shock.

"So strong..."

"General Huang Yuan, it's going to be dangerous!"

"This is the full power of the Five Emperors..."

"And, it is entwined with the overlord's color domineering!"

"And Liu Ying."

...

Nami and the others smiled proudly, and Leili was also more shocked, too strong.

The bombardment lasted for a full minute, and Luffy dropped his hands to the ground, his arms trembling, weak, and numb.

Luffy's eyelids shrugged, he gasped for breath, and his chest heaved for a while. Obviously, since the battle until now, the powerful moves again and again have greatly consumed his physical strength.

From the deep pit, Huang Yuan jumped out, also scarred and exhausted.

"What an outrageous monster."

Huang Yuan didn't expect this battle to be so difficult.

Whoosh!

The light-speed trajectory of the yellow monkey refracted and moved, and it came to the right side of Luffy in an instant.

However, Luffy has already foreseen that Liu Ying, entwined with the overlord's color, blasted out quickly, and karmic fire emerged.

"Rubber jet fire Orochi cannon!"

After Huang Yuan moved at the speed of light, he kicked at the speed of light. His fist and foot collided, and the two figures were shaken back in the roar.

After the shock receded, there was no collision again. Both of them stared at a distance, panting.

The supernovas did not expect this to be the case.

"It turned out to be like this."

"Evenly matched."

"Although he is the Five Emperors, he is not inferior to the General."

"If one of the four emperors is missing, the straw hat is no longer the five emperors, but one of the four emperors."

...

In this battle, they fully understood the strength of the straw hats and the strength of the Five Emperors.

After a brief gasp, Luffy attacked first.

This made Huang Yuan's pupils shrink, it was really strong, and he couldn't rest.

Luffy launched an attack again, with dense fists and arms all over the place, intertwined into a big net, and each arm was covered with karmic fire.

"The rubber industry fire Hydra!"

Boom boom boom...

Huang Yuan even had the idea that he didn't want to fight, he really didn't want to be so tired.

Activate the eight-foot Qiong Gouyu, and the densely packed light ends shoot out continuously, resisting Luffy's fierce offensive.

On the other hand, Aokiji is also not easy. Sanji Demon God's Kaze feet are constantly moving, kicking, and the power is extremely strong. The flames are so hot that he can't completely block the frozen fruit. The blue flames can quickly melt his own ice.

Sauron's slash was also getting stronger and stronger. The three of them fought just as fiercely as the other one, with the same consumption and injuries.

After Zhan Taowan was kicked away, he had come to the distance of the battlefield, very embarrassed and weak.

Watching the battle in the distance, Zhan Taowan was startled, he didn't expect it to be like this.

The two battles are evenly matched.

Five emperors VS general Huang Yuan, evenly matched.

Deputy Shuanghuang VS General Aokiji, evenly matched.

If the remaining six combat forces of the Straw Hats join in, then the Straw Hats will have the upper hand!

Pororo...

The phone buzzed, and Zhan Taowan connected immediately. It was Marshal Zhan Guo.

"Marshal of the Warring States Period." Zhan Taowan said in a respectful tone.

Warring States already knew the current battle situation, and the person in charge of the investigation had already reported it.

Chapter 104

"Continuing to fight will only waste time. It is impossible to take down the Straw Hats. It can be over, so as not to attack the Whitebeard Pirates, retreat."

In the final retreat, Warring States was very helpless and heavy, knowing that the gang who failed to win the straw hats would be under great pressure.

Zhan Taowan understands that although he is unwilling, it is useless to continue this situation. If time is wasted here, the headquarters will be more dangerous.

It is a disgrace that the Tianlong people were killed, but if Fire Fist Ace is taken away again, and these two things happen at the same time, the navy and the world government will be even more ashamed and humiliated.

After hanging up the phone, Zhan Taowan yelled: "Retreat!"

At the place of the battle, after the collision, all five of them were scarred and out of breath, but for the three of Luffy, the battle was also very happy, the first time such a happy battle.

As generals, Qingzhi and Huangyuan came to deal with the young Straw Hats, and when they heard the retreat, they were inexplicably relieved, but fortunate.

I don't feel ashamed, after all, it is the Five Emperors.

Qingzhi exhaled: "Ah Lala, I can finally retreat."

Huang Yuan: "I don't want to continue with this monster anymore."

The green pheasant and the yellow monkey chose to retreat, but the straw hats did not pursue them.

Although it can have an advantage, it is impossible to kill two generals.

The two generals retreated, but the rest of the sailors did not, but planned to catch some pirates to make themselves look better.

The supernovas shook and looked at the Straw Hats with admiration.

Although the two sides fought and were evenly matched, the navy retreated, which meant that the Straw Hats had won!

The supernovas left, each of them was not so arrogant, and they were all thinking about becoming stronger as soon as possible.

Rayleigh said, "I really don't need to do anything."

Even, Raleigh felt that if the Straw Hats were not strong enough, it would be difficult to protect them even if they took action.

Luffy and others and Rayleigh went to the port to coat the ship.

However, it is natural to know the big event that is about to happen.

Also, Rayleigh told Luffy and the others what he knew from Xia Qi, that is, when Feng Kelei pretended to be a Straw Hat gang to procrastinate on Judicial Island, he was imprisoned in Advance City 0...

Nami and the others changed their expressions.

"Luffy's brother, Ace has been arrested."

"Now locked up in Advance City."

"And Xiao Feng, who is also our friend."

"In this case..."

Immediately, Nami and others looked at Luffy, waiting for Luffy to make a decision.

Without hesitation, Lu Fei said in a stern voice, "Of course we're going to advance to the city!"

This made Nami and the others smile. Not surprisingly, they would go to save them even if they pushed into the city.

Raleigh said: "Then don't coat it first, I will wait for you here."

"it is good."

Immediately, Luffy and others boarded the boat and left Chambord.

...

Navy Headquarters.

Warring States hung up the phone and told Wu Laoxing about the failure, so he was scolded naturally.

Wu Laoxing could only decide to tell the Tianlongren that he had caught the Straw Hats, otherwise, if the person who dared to kill the Tianlongren was not caught and was still outside, the Tianlongren would always be worried.

Even, no Tianlong people dare to go out.

In the past, when you go out, you don't bring any powerful people around, because no one dares to do anything to the Tianlong people, even the powerful pirates, but now there are such people who dare to kill the Tianlong people, they must be caught.

Otherwise, the Tianlong people will riot, which will cause Wu Laoxing a headache.

So, can only claim to have caught.

As for the news in the future, try to block it, and don't let the Tianlong people know. Most Tianlong people don't pay attention to this kind of thing.

At this time, the pressure of the Warring States Period can be reduced, and he promised Wu Laoxing that after the execution of Fire Fist Ace, he will try his best to capture the Straw Hats.

This time, because of the big event, only two generals can be sent, and it can't be too long, but after this big event, you can go all out to catch it.

Warring States promises that within two months, the Straw Hats will be caught.

Because, Wu Laoxing told the Tianlong people that the Straw Hat gang will be publicly executed two months later.

Huang Yuan and Qingzhi came back and were in the marshal's office.

After the red dog came in, he was about to curse, but he felt that Aokiji and Kizaru must not have tried their best, one was lazy and the other was paddling.

But when he came in, he saw the two people who were seriously injured, and Akaken was taken aback.

Akainu frowned: "The Straw Hats, are they that strong?"

Qingzhi said: "It's very strong, it's the imperial group."

Yellow Monkey: "It's really a monster, Straw Hat Luffy, not inferior to a general."

This made Akainu shake, so strong.

Akaken said in a deep voice: "After this big incident, I will definitely participate in the next operation and take them down! I will definitely kill them! This time, they are lucky to catch up with this period, otherwise I will also go to the Chambord Islands, The Straw Hats are already advancing into the city."

Akaken's words silenced Aokiji and Kizaru.

After the silence, Aokiji reminded: "Sakaski, maybe even if you go too, it will be difficult to take down the Straw Hats."

This made Akainu's face sink: "Stop joking, Kuzan."

Qingzhi didn't speak, but glanced at the yellow monkey.

Huang Yuan said: "If you are with the straw hat group, the first emperor, the deputy of the double emperor, and the cadres of the six emperors, the three generals can have an advantage over the five emperors' straw hat regiment, but it is not easy to take them down. There is Raleigh, the king of the underworld. So Kuzan is right, and the result may be the same if you go."

This made Akainu look ugly: "Hmph, is it because of Pluto Rayleigh?"

Next time, I won't be so lucky."

3.1

Akainu didn't believe that none of the three navy generals could take down the Straw Hats.

Looking at the seriously injured and somewhat tired Aokiji and Kizaru, Akainu was still suspicious.

"Are you two regressing? You won't grow old so fast, right? Next time you face them, I'll deal with the straw hat and let him fall under my magma. It's just rubber. I will kill him and kill him. melt!"

Warring States sighed: "We can only wait for the big event. This time they are really lucky. Although they have strength, but this time they escaped, strength and luck coexist."

Warring States felt that sending three generals and more powerful combat forces would definitely win the Straw Hats.

Garp was on the sidelines, a little worried, hoping in his heart that after this big incident, Gao Zhanli would be injured more seriously and give Luffy and the others some time.

Otherwise, it will be really dangerous next time.

Aokiji asked: "Marshal of the Warring States Period, will the Straw Hats be designated as the Fifth Emperor at Sea this time? The Straw Hats will be designated as the Five Emperors?"

Zhan Guo didn't hesitate, and nodded: "Well, it's time to announce it.

Judiciary Island could have done it last time, just to cover it up. This time, it's well known and can't be suppressed."

This didn't surprise Aokiji, the Straw Hat cluster was no longer a supernova cluster.

In this battle, the emperor was crowned.

The rewards for the Five Emperors, the Straw Hats and everyone in the Straw Hats will naturally be updated.

Aokiji continued to ask: "To deal with pirates, increasing the bounty is also a way for us to deal with them. This time, how much will the bounty of Straw Hat Luffy be increased?"

Warring States looked at Kizomaru, because Kizomaru and Lu Fei fought fiercely, and knew the combat power of the straw hat best.

"Polusalino, if you keep fighting with the Straw Hat until the winner is decided, how much do you think?"

It means, who has a greater chance of winning.

Huang Yuan said: "Let's open it every five and five."

This shocked the Warring States Period, which meant that the Straw Hat Luffy was not inferior to General Yellow Monkey at all.

After the Warring States period pondered briefly, he had an answer in his heart.

"Then set the bounty offered by the Five Emperors Luffy to... three billion Baileys!".

Chapter 110 The Straw Hat Group Offers an Average Reward to the Super Redhead Group!

Straw Hat Luffy, Five Emperors, bounty... 3 billion Baileys!

Hearing this, Aokiji and others were shocked, and Garp smiled.

While vibrating, it is not unexpected, in terms of strength, it is sufficient.

It's just that, at such a grade, at the age of seventeen, the bounty offered is three billion, which is unimaginable.

And, also in history, the youngest sea emperor!

For three billion, Aokiji and others have no objection.

"Ah Lala, three billion, no exaggeration."

"It's no surprise that I can fight with me until we are evenly matched, kill another Tianlongren, and commit such a big crime, three billion."

"Hmph, three billion is at the top, because I will be strangled by me soon!

The rubber will be melted by my magma!"

...

After Akainu finished speaking, he glanced at Garp.

Garp didn't have a bad expression on his face, and, Garp thought to himself, he was just saying this now, not sure if he could do it, after all, he was his grandson, and he had grown to this level, the fifth emperor of the sea, but Not so easy to kill.

Warring States continued: "Then, the rewards offered by the Five Emperors Straw Hats and the rest of the group must also be updated and improved."

"First, two deputy emperors!"

"Roronoa Zoro, offer a bounty, 1.4 billion Baileys!"

"Sanji Blackfoot, bounty, 1.3 billion Baileys!"

Hearing this, the faces of the generals changed.

The combined bounties of the two emperor's lieutenants are 2.7 billion Baileys!

Moreover, now only the bounties for the three main combat forces of the Straw Hat Regiment have been updated, adding up to 5.7 billion Baileys! Warring States continued to evaluate based on the battle just now, and they had already thought about it.

"Next, update the straw hat regiment's six royal regiment officials to offer rewards!"

"Sniper, Usopp, bounty, 600 million Baileys!"

"Navigator, Nami, offer a bounty, 500 million Baileys!"

"Child of the Devil 04, Nicole Robin, the reward is 700 million Baileys!"

"Brook, offer a bounty of 600 million Baileys!"

"Chopper, offer a bounty, 600 million Baileys!"

"Frankie, offer a bounty of 600 million Baileys!"

...

After the announcement, although it seems unbelievable, it is not an exaggeration.

After all, during the battle in the Chambord Islands, Aokiji and Kizaru knew the strength of the Straw Hats best.

As a cadre of the imperial regiment, such a bounty is completely in line.

In this way, the Straw Hat Group's bounty update has begun to be printed in newspapers, preparing to publicize it, and a new bounty list is also being produced.

In addition to the navy, the world's major news agencies are also printing newspapers quickly, and they already know about this major event.

The headlines of all the news agencies basically mean the same thing, that is, the Chambord Islands, Straw Hat Luffy kills a Celestial Dragon, and the navy sends two generals, Yiqi Wukai, to capture the Straw Hats. A fierce battle broke out, and the Straw Hats retreated completely. The two generals, Shichibukai retreated, and the Straw Hats won.

Such a big event, every news agency will not miss it.

All kinds of headlines are full of straw hats.

Luffy fought fiercely against General Kizaru, Zoro, Sanji, and fiercely fought against General Aokiji.

The three non-main combat forces of the Straw Hat Regiment repelled Qiwu Sea Bear.

Chapter 105

The three non-main combat forces underestimated the Vegapunk bodyguard, Zhan Momomaru.

Navy Headquarters.

"Marshals, newspapers, and reward lists have been produced in large quantities and have begun to spread all over the world."

Warring States nodded, now they can't attack the Straw Hats, hope this high reward can play some role.

This matter was also dealt with for a short time, and then it was more serious and gave them a headache.

The public execution of Fire Fist Ace is a good thing, but what worries them is that the Whitebeard Pirates may start a war with the strongest man in the world.

Warring States Road: "Kuzan, Polusalino, hurry up and heal your wounds."

Qingzhi and Huangyuan also knew that a bigger war would break out, so they went to treat them.

Naturally, the best doctors in the navy were the ones who treated them, and they were confident that they could be fully recovered when the war broke out.

After all, the battle with the Straw Hats was only short-lived, not the kind of desperate fight for several days and nights. There was no permanent injury left, so he could heal in a short time.

Huang Yuan feels that if a war breaks out, the navy may not need to go all out.

Perhaps, it won't be as troublesome as fighting with the straw hats. If you fight like that, you can paddle at that time. Although the Whitebeard Pirates are powerful, if a war breaks out, the navy's deployment of combat power, the yellow monkey is clear.

So, it shouldn't be as hard as this time.

This time I have to fight. Facing the Five Emperors Luffy, it will be dangerous if we don't fight.

Next time, Huang Yuan felt that he would just paddle. Since Sakasaki is so passionate, he should mainly fight.

However, Huang Yuan didn't know that he was wrong, the battle would be more difficult, and he had to fight, and it still came from the same person...

Garp sighed softly in his heart: "Fame, the bounty is higher, but the future will be more difficult and dangerous. After this war, it is the beginning of your danger. Luffy, don't be strangled."

...

At this time, the Navy and the newspapers of various news agencies were scattered all over the world.

For a moment, the world shook. Everyone looked at the newspaper, shocked, unbelievable, shocked, unbelievable.

At first, I was shocked and unbelievable that someone dared to kill Tianlong people. Don't you know the consequences, aren't you afraid?

It was discovered that the person who killed Tianlongren was the recently famous newcomer, Straw Hat Luffy.

I was shocked again because the navy sent two generals, one Qiwuhai, nearly a thousand naval elites, and a large number of pacifists.

What kind of fierce battle, they can imagine, after all, is the admiral of the navy.

I thought that if this was the case, the following is the news that the Straw Hats were arrested.

Straw hat VS general yellow monkey, evenly matched.

Zoro, Sanji VS General Aokiji, evenly matched.

Shichibu Sea Bear was repelled by the main combat force of the Straw Hat Regiment Sanfei.

Zhan Taowan was easily defeated by Sanfei's main force.

The results of this series of battles were even more shocking.

According to the newspaper, the Straw Hats, the Straw Hat Luffy, are not inferior to the general Kiazuru.

Sanji, Zoro, and Aokiji are not inferior in joint battle strength.

The three main forces are extremely powerful, and the six non-main forces are also extremely strong, not inferior to the cadres of the Four Emperors.

Even the lowest combat power of the Straw Hats can defeat Captain Supernova.

In this incident of Chambord, the winner is the Straw Hat Pirates.

And, at the end of the news, it is summed up like this:

The fifth emperor of the sea is now alive!

On the sea, it is no longer just the Four Emperors, the Straw Hats have become... Five Emperors!

Five Emperors Luffy, bounty... 3 billion Baileys!

For a time, the world was in an uproar!

"My God! Straw Hat Luffy, the bounty has been raised to three billion!"

"Tianlong people dare to kill, never heard of it, and faced with the high combat power of the navy, they even won."

"In this case, it can be called the Five Emperors."

"It's very detailed. Regarding their combat power, they are too strong."

"I used to know that the Straw Hats are powerful, but I didn't expect them to be so powerful."

"I used to think that the Straw Hats were extremely powerful rookie pirates, but now I find that they are extremely powerful pirates looking at the whole world!"

"The Five Emperors means that the Straw Hat Pirates are the fifth most powerful pirates in the world!"

"It's no longer just the Four Emperors, there will be Five Emperors in the future!"

"It's quite a relief. Usually, the Tianlong people are too arrogant and domineering. They treat ordinary people as worthless. I feel very upset, but I have no choice but to endure it. Now that the Tianlong people have been killed, I feel very happy."

"Shut up, just think about it in your heart, you dare to say it."

...

The world was shaken, there was a lot of discussion, shock, and it became clearer about the strength of the Straw Hat Pirates. The prestige and reputation of the Straw Hat Pirates have been greatly improved.

Most people are happy in their hearts. Straw Hat Luffy has done things they dare not do at all.

Even many bounty hunters, underground forces, and pirates all worship Straw Hat Luffy, and they have done things they dare not do.

I thought the Straw Hats were dead and would be strangled in the Chambord Islands, but they won, it was too strong.

Navy Headquarters.

Akainu looked at the newspaper, and said in a low voice, "Evil pirates, no matter if they are the Four Emperors or the Five Emperors, just go for it.

As long as I am still in the navy, I won't let you do whatever you want.

Straw hat Luffy, rubber you, just wait. Let me melt it with magma!"

With a puff, the newspaper with Luffy's face printed on it in Akainu's hand burned and turned into nothingness.

At this time, Kebi was also reading the newspaper, his face constantly shocked.

"Kill the Celestial Dragon."

"Facing the general, victory."

"A bounty, three billion Baileys."

"The Fifth Sea Emperor..."

Kebi was excited, tears in his eyes, admiration: "Luffy is so handsome, gradually, no, quickly approaching the front. I have to work harder, the target general!"

...

At this time, the Merry was sailing on the sea.

The reward list and the newspaper fell.

The Straw Hats were delighted to see it.

"Luffy has become the Five Emperors, and we have become the Five Emperors!"

After being happy, there is no surprise. Judiciary Island was enough, this time is inevitable, it cannot be covered up, and it will definitely be announced.

Immediately, seeing each of the rewards offered, everyone was shocked.

"It's improved a lot."

"Wow, Luffy's bounty has been raised to three billion!"

"Our bounties have increased a lot."

...

A long list of things to celebrate, but the Straw Hats didn't.

Lu Fei's eyes were piercing: "After Xiao Feng and Ace are rescued, let's celebrate together!"

"it is good!"

...

New World Ocean.

The ship of the red-haired pirates is approaching the Red Earth Continent. Obviously, they are going to the first half of the great route. To be precise, they are going to Marlin Vandon!

"Boss! Watch the news!"

Jesus cloth came running with a newspaper, and the red hair was drinking wine on the boat.

"Jesus Bu, what's the matter, so anxious?"

520 "Boss, look!" * said excitedly.

The redhead took the newspaper and looked at it, his pupils shrank, and after being shocked, his face showed joy.

Killing the Celestial Dragon... Admiral Zhan Hai, the Straw Hats have the upper hand, and Admiral Aokiji, Kizaru, and Qiwukai retreat. The Straw Hats won, Luffy became the fifth emperor at sea, the Straw Hats became the Five Emperors, and Luffy offered a bounty of three billion...

A series of things shocked Honghair, making Honghair never expect it.

"It's unbelievable, Luffy, your growth rate is beyond my imagination."

The red-haired eyes were shining, shocked, far exceeding his expectations, growing so fast.

Now they have grown to the point where they can compete with the generals and become invincible. The Five Emperors are completely worthy of the name.

Jesus Bu, Beckman and the others were also excited, they didn't expect to improve so quickly.

"What a surprise."

"I knew that Luffy's future would be unusual, but I didn't expect it to be so soon."

"Three billion, hahaha, amazing."

"The fifth emperor, the youngest emperor, unprecedented."

"Wait, one more thing... The total bounty of the Straw Hats is... the average bounty is..."

The most balanced Iron Wall Pirates, everyone in the Red Hair Pirates realized another major event!

At the same time, most people in the world have realized it one after another, and there are many discussions.

"Wait, the total bounty of the Straw Hats is..."

"I'll forget it, 9.2 billion Baileys!"

"My God, 9.2 billion, it's terrifying!"

"The most important thing is that there are only nine members of the Straw Hats!"

"Then, the average bounty is..."

...

Everyone realized one big thing one after another, that is, the average bounty offered is as high as...

"The average bounty is... 1,020,000,000 Baileys!"

"My God, what a high average bounty!"

"The most balanced Iron Wall Pirates in the past, the Red Hair Pirates, what is the average bounty?"

"I remember, 600 million Pele!"

"My God, it's more than 400 million higher than the red-haired group!"

"this means..."

...

Soon, new newspapers are scattered all over the world, just because of another big event...

The Five Emperors Straw Hats have an average bounty of 1,020,000,000 Baileys! Surpassed the red-haired pirates, more than 400 million!

The red-haired pirate group is known as the most balanced iron wall pirate group, give way!

The new most balanced Iron Wall Pirates are...the Five Emperors Straw Hats! .

Chapter 111 When it's on the top, go to fifth gear!

The world shook again.

Chapter 106

"Not only does the average reward exceed that of the red-haired group, but it exceeds by so much."

"The new most balanced Iron Wall Pirates is the Five Emperors Straw Hats."

"With such a high average bounty, no pirate group can surpass it in the future."

"Also, it is still on the rise. As long as the Straw Hats are not killed, it may be even higher."

"One of the titles of the red-haired group is gone. Do you think the red-haired group will challenge the straw hat group?"

"It seems to be familiar, after all, the straw hat Luffy's hat is red-haired."

...

For a time, the world knew that Straw Hat Luffy won the title of Five Emperors, the Straw Hats became the Five Emperors, and won the title of the most balanced Iron Wall Pirates.

Everyone knows the reputation of the Five Emperors Straw Hats.

Redheads.

Redhead and the others were not upset because the title was gone, but were happy for Luffy.

The red hair sighed softly: "Luffy, you guys are really getting better and better, keep working hard."

"After the war, you have to work hard to live." * expressed hope.

At the same time, I also hope that my son can surpass himself and become the world's number one sniper.

Beckman breathed out the smoke, and his eyes flashed with wisdom:

"With such strength, they know about the war, and they will definitely participate. It's hard to say whether to continue on, or be strangled in the war."

Beckman's words awakened everyone, yes, if Ace is executed, Luffy will definitely go, and the Five Emperors know that they will definitely go to Marlin Vandor.

Then, when the time comes, the Navy Headquarters will face two royal groups.

Although they will also go, they don't interfere too much, they just try their best to reconcile.

Although there are two royal groups, it is hard to say who will win.

The red hair expects: "If you participate in this war, Luffy, I hope you can survive."

It is impossible not to let Luffy participate. Once involved, the navy will definitely want to take Luffy's life.

He can't interfere too much, protect, Luffy can go through difficulties and obstacles by himself.

...

At this time, the Mobidi was already very close to the Red Earth Continent, and no one knew of its whereabouts.

Whitebeard and the captains naturally also knew about this.

Marko exclaimed: "It's so strong, it can fight against the general, and it was not caught."

Qiao Zi: "The words of the Five Emperors can indeed hold up, and the Five Emperors can also hold up, they are all so strong."

Vista: "Brother Ace's strength is far beyond our imagination."

Yizang: "Will Ace's younger brother go to Marin Fando after knowing about Ace?"

Speaking of this, they discussed.

"I will go. Since he is Ace's younger brother, there must be no relationship, including character."

"Whether we go or not, we must save Ace."

"It's okay if we don't go, it's up to us, it's what we should do. If the Straw Hats go, we have to work harder and do our best to save them. We, the Four Emperors, the Whitebeard Pirates, if the performance of the Straw Hats is inferior, That would be embarrassing."

"Although it is the Five Emperors, it is still the most balanced Iron Wall Pirates, but when they are on the top, they are more in the limelight than us? Impossible."

"Although he is the Five Emperors, how can he compare to Dad."

...

Along with the discussion, Whitebeard smiled and said, "Kulalala, naturally."

What White Beard is referring to is that they have to do more and more to save Ace. It doesn't matter if the Straw Hats don't go, they must go.

The important task of saving Ace has to be placed on them, not the Straw Hats.

Although they are brothers, but when they go to sea and have their own groups, then in the face of difficulties and dangers, it is up to their respective groups and partners, how can they involve other groups.

White Beard said in a serious voice: "It's up to us to save Ace, but we can't think about getting the straw hats involved, even if we will take the initiative, we really have to do more."

"Yes! It's mainly up to us to save Ace!"

"It doesn't matter if the Straw Hats don't come. After all, they each go their own way. If they come, then we have to work harder. We can't be too inferior."

"Yeah, it doesn't matter if we come or not. We don't care. What we care about is that the Five Emperors Straw Hats will not steal the limelight. To save Ace, we still have to let the Whitebeard Pirates take the limelight and deter them. Navy!"

"Yes! Let us save, let us frighten the navy. After all, we are the stronger Whitebeard Pirates, and Dad is the strongest man in the world! Although the Five Emperors Luffy is strong, compared with Dad, he is still There is a difference."

...

For a while, the Whitebeard Pirates became even more motivated.

They all thought that if the Straw Hats were there when the war broke out, they would have to work harder.

"When the time comes, they really come, and we have to let them see it.

We, Ace's companions, are not weak..."

"Well, let the Straw Hats rest assured that Ace has powerful partners like us."

"Ace's two close relatives, one is the father of the fourth emperor, and the other is the younger brother of the fifth emperor. Naturally, the father of the fourth emperor will do more to save Ace."

"Yes, this is inevitable. No matter how powerful the Five Emperors are, it is impossible to steal the limelight from the old man."

...

This is what the crew of the Whitebeard Pirates think, even Whitebeard thinks so.

It is mainly up to them to save Ace.

It's not that I despise the Straw Hats, but I think they should mainly rely on them, after all, they are a pirate group.

If the Straw Hats exert more force at that time, they will lose face.

Of course, they didn't think that would be the case. After all, Papa is the strongest man in the world, and their overall combat strength of the Whitebeard Pirates must be higher than that of the Straw Hats.

Therefore, even the white beard felt that this would not be the case.

...

There is a pirate group, the distance from the red earth continent is about the same as that of the red hair group.

This pirate group is also the Four Emperors, that is, the Hundred Beasts Pirates.

On the boat, the leading man was fifty-seven years old, extremely tall and burly, with black hair shawl, a pair of long white horns like dragon horns, a dragon scale tattoo on his left arm, bare fruit on his upper body, and an X-shaped scar on his right abdomen , with a purple jacket hanging around his waist, two gold chains hanging from the hem of the jacket, dark green wide trousers on the lower body, Shimenawa tied around the waist, and a purple fluffy cloak, like a demon alive. Holding a wine gourd with the word "Heaven" printed on it in his hand, he raised his head and drank heavily, with a weapon and a mace beside him.

Obviously, this is Kaido, the Four Emperors and Hundred Beasts.

Kaido naturally also went to Marin Fando, but obviously he didn't go to participate in the war, but to stir up shit.

Kaido was drinking, reading the newspaper, and locked his eyes on Luffy.

"Five emperors? Hmph, I'm not used to having one more emperor, but the fourth emperor sounds more pleasing to my ear."

"What five emperors, if I meet them, I must pull the boat over and meet them! You don't need to do anything."

Obviously, the one who said this was naturally the ship lord, Drought Jack.

Jack was shocked and unbelievable. At such an age, he was granted the title of emperor, and the bounty offered was far higher than himself, three billion Baileys.

This made Jack want to meet very much, and his fighting spirit rose.

"If we meet, I will make the five emperors disappear, and there will only be four emperors in the sea again." Jack looked confident.

Going to the Beast Pirates of Marlin Vandor, only one of the three plagues came, and the other two plagues, Jhin and Quinn took care of the house.

The Fei Liufu were discussing.

"I heard that the Straw Hats are Ace's younger brother. I don't know if the Straw Hats will go to Marlin Vandro for this public execution."

"If you go, it will be interesting, that is, the four royal groups have all acted."

"Then, it is possible to meet the Straw Hats."

"It's also possible to meet the red-haired group. When the time comes, what should we do? Is it to block the straw hat group or the red-haired group? Or, to block both royal groups?"

...

During the discussion, they looked at Kaido.

Speaking of this, Kaido became more and more interested, hoping that the Straw Hats would go.

"If you go to meet them, you will know the so-called five emperors, the five emperors straw hat group and the red hair group, it is more interesting to block them at the same time."

Speaking of this, Kaido's blood is already boiling.

"The Straw Hats probably won't go, after all, they are just righteous brothers and not a pirate group."

"Don't you dare to go? Then even they will be dangerous, and the navy will definitely kill them with all their strength."

"Naturally the Navy would want the Straw Hats to go, just to deal with them."

"Shampoo and the others could not be caught because the navy can't fight for a long time, otherwise it's hard to say who wins and who loses."

...

Kaido hopes to meet, the more chaotic the better.

Navy Headquarters.

Warring States also learned about the relationship between Straw Hat Luffy and Ace, and speculated that the Straw Hat would definitely come. After all, from the Judiciary Island incident, it can be seen that straw hats are very loyal and value friendship.

At this time, there are Karp and Akainu in the office.

Warring States speculated: "When the war breaks out, the Five Emperors Straw Hats will definitely come. After all, although we don't know where it is at this time, we can know that it is not far from Marin Fando."

The Warring States Period was a little heavy, and in that case, it would be facing two royal groups.

However, it is only a little heavy, and there is a need for self-confidence.

Even if it is the two royal regiments, their navy will surely win this time.

The red dog's voice was cold, looking forward to: "At that time, I hope they dare to come, and I will kill them. The Five Emperors Straw Hats, please don't stop coming. After coming, just send their two brothers down together, and they will not be alone anymore. ."

After Akainu said this, Garp's face sank, his fists were slightly clenched, and he really wanted to punch Akainu.

But the position, the identity, naturally cannot do this, what's more, it is just talk, but it is not done.

However, Garp was still a little worried.

Garp knew best that the Five Emperors Straw Hats would definitely participate in the war, and that the Straw Hats and the navy had higher and stronger combat capabilities, and they would inevitably meet and break out more intense and dangerous battles than Chambord.

Although there will still be Whitebeard Pirates at that time, but this time, the naval battle is too big.

Knowing that the Five Emperors Straw Hats may also interfere, and that the Straw Hats killed the Celestial Dragon, the World Government is also preparing to send some powerful forces to Marlin Fando.

If there is no Straw Hat regiment, it is only relying on their navy.

In that case, coupled with the strategy, the Warring States period is more than 70% sure that the navy will win.

Now, although I feel that the Five Emperors Straw Hats will come, since the World Government will send some powerful forces over, their forces in this war will be stronger than previously arranged.

Even the Five Emperors Straw Hats cannot rewrite the ending.

Warring States Firm: "Even if the Five Emperors Straw Hats come to Marlin Vandor, we will win, and it is just right, we will kill the Straw Hats without waiting until after the war. Garp, when the time comes, you can deal with the Whitebeard Pirates with all your heart." ."

The meaning of the words of the Warring States is very obvious. If Garp is not allowed to deal with the Straw Hats, there must be compassion.

Garp nodded on his face, and his heart was even heavier. If he dealt with the Whitebeard Pirates by himself, then the navy would be able to allocate more and stronger combat forces to deal with the Straw Hats.

Akainu took the lead and said: "Lieutenant General Garp blocks Whitebeard, then I don't have to deal with Whitebeard during the war, and the straw hat Luffy will be handed over to me."

This made Cap sink, this guy.

Warring States also thinks the same way. If there is no Straw Hats, Red Dog and the other two generals will deal with Whitebeard together, but the Straw Hats are likely to come, so Garp will naturally have to do it. It is impossible for Garp to fight the Straw Hats. Bar? Therefore, Garp can only deal with Whitebeard.

Garp could only nod his head with difficulty: "Got it."

Warring States said in a condensed voice: "In this war, the opponent's combat strength exceeded our expectations, only because the Straw Hats may participate in the battle. Although the World Government will send some high-level combat forces to participate, but not too many, because the Revolutionary Army will take advantage of this opportunity to act, so , the world government will not send too many high-level fighters, maybe the two cp0 teams from Judiciary Island last time."

Akainu didn't care, he thought it was enough, even if he didn't come.

Akainu took off his hat and patted it, showing contempt on his face: "It's enough, it's just the Five Emperors, and there is no need for the World Government to take the risk of sending more combat forces. Let me do it, that's enough."

The world government really can't send too many high-level combat forces. Once the navy breaks out with the Whitebeard Pirates, the revolutionary army may take the opportunity to act. If the revolutionary army obstructs it, it will only be the world government.

Therefore, it is impossible for the world government to send too much military support, and it has to guard against the revolutionary army.

Akainu can't wait, hoping that the public execution will start now.

After the discussion, Akainu walked out of the office with magma surging in his fist.

Chapter 107

"Come as soon as possible, I can't wait to melt the new evil of straw hats."

Garp came out later, looking at the back of Akainu leaving and the murderous look emanating from his body, his face darkened.

"Luffy... I know you will come, when the time comes, I hope you don't have any accidents."

...

At this time, the base of the revolutionary army, the island of Baitu, Baltigo.

Looking at the newspaper, Long looked relieved and proud.

"As expected of my son, Luffy, your growth has exceeded my imagination. You have become the Five Emperors so quickly."

Long was surprised. He didn't expect his son to be so strong, and his team to be so strong.

Long also knew about the relationship between Luffy and Ace. Although he hadn't seen his son much, he knew that Luffy would go.

Long arranged: "We also have to make noise, so that the world government can't support the navy more."

"clear!"

...

Quiet Belt, Daughter Island.

In the empress's boudoir, Hancock, who was tall, 1.91 meters tall, with top-notch appearance and figure, looked at the newspaper and was shocked by it. His cold and beautiful eyes were filled with disbelief and a touch of admiration.

Hancock shook, not because of the appearance of the Five Emperors, nor because the most balanced Iron Wall Pirates gave way, but because the Tianlongren were killed.

She would not believe it if Tianlong was beaten, let alone (Li Le's) was killed.

Seeing Luffy's profile picture on the newspaper, Hancock couldn't help reaching out to touch it.

After the subdued, Hancock looked forward to: "I would like to meet him."

If other people in Daughter Island hear it, they will definitely suspect that they heard it wrong, because they can't believe that Hancock, who is arrogant, self-willed, and extremely contemptuous of others, would say such words like a real empress, and he is referring to a man.

However, Hancock's two sisters would not be surprised if they heard it, they would understand.

...

At this moment, the Sunnymery boarded.

Everyone was happy to read another major event in the newspaper.

"Average bounty, we are number one in the world."

"Proud to surpass the Red Hair Pirates of the Four Emperors and become the new most balanced Iron Wall Pirates."

"After this incident, we became even more famous, the bounty was increased, we became the Five Emperors, our reputation increased, and the world also knew our true strength."

...

Luffy apologized: "Shanks took good care of me when I was a child. He gave me this straw hat. I'm a little embarrassed to take away the titles of Shanks and the others, but I believe Shanks won't care. He's a very bold, informal guy."

Luffy couldn't help but recalled Shanks and what happened in Windmill Village back then.

"Let Luffy have such a look, I believe that the Four Emperor Shanks is a very good person, I will definitely not care, but will be happy."

"My father is from the Red Hair Pirates. I want to meet my father, and I also want to meet a man who can make my father choose to go to sea to follow."

"There have been a lot of turbulent things recently, because of the Fire Fist Ace incident, although I am not sure about the whereabouts of the Whitebeard Pirates and the Red Hair Pirates, but we all know that the Whitebeard Pirates and the Red Hair Pirates have left them The base camp. It seems that related to this matter, they may all go to Marlin Vandor, so we should meet, right?" Nami guessed.

Lu Feilin said: "This incident has made us famous, but after Marin Fando, people will know how powerful the Five Emperors are."

Obviously, only he himself knows what Luffy means.

That is, when it is on the top... open fifth gear! .

Chapter 112 The sun * must be awakened on the top!

To reverse and rewrite, Luffy knows that even with full power in fourth gear, it is difficult.

Therefore, at the top, the sun * must be awakened!

Luffy can also imagine that this time, the navy's combat power will be higher than the original plot. After all, the navy will guess that their Straw Hats will participate in the battle, and their straw hats' combat power is much stronger than the original plot.

Therefore, if it is on the top, the combat power will also increase accordingly, but it will not increase too much, and there will not be much change.

Luffy feels that there are only a few more combat forces sent by the world government.

...

At this time, the destination of Luffy and others is to advance the city.

Because the combat power has become stronger, after Shampoo Land, it will not be the same as the original plot. Everyone was photographed flying to different places, and Luffy did not land on Daughter Island.

Otherwise, you will know Hancock, and then it will be easier for Hancock to enter the city of advancement.

But the current combat power naturally doesn't need Hancock's help.

However, Luffy feels that it is necessary to get to know Hancock to untie the knot.

However, the most important thing now is to go to the city of advancement.

At this moment, the sky and the earth suddenly turned pale, and the weather on the great route changed again unpredictably, becoming harsh.

Moreover, it was an unprecedented huge change. The sea was curled like a wave. Suddenly, a tsunami hit the face, and it was in three directions, with a height of hundreds of meters.

The tsunami is so huge, and the power of the slap is also terrifying. It is impossible to rush over it, it is equivalent to hitting a mountain.

Nami frowned: "There is a tsunami in the direction of the advance city, so we can only launch the wind cannon in the direction without the tsunami."

Nami looked at Luffy, waiting for Luffy to decide.

After all, going to Advance City is a very important thing.

Luffy also knew that it would be difficult to rescue Ace if he went to the city of advancement, and he would be transferred immediately. To save Ace, he had to join the battle.

However, Jinjincheng still has to go, and he has to save Xiaofeng and get to know Jinping.

Luffy thought about it, he didn't need to take the risk to fight, there was still some time before the execution, and there was still time.

"Then launch the wind cannon in the direction where there is no tsunami first."

After Luffy finished speaking, Frankie acted immediately.

"The wind blows!"

Whoosh!

Suddenly, the Sunny Merry shot into the sky in a direction where there was no tsunami.

It feels good to fly in the air and feel the wind blowing.

Looking at the tsunami behind him, the place just now was about to be engulfed.

The great route is as bad as 520, and sometimes it cannot be dealt with by strong strength.

Soon, the Sunny Merry fell into the sea.

However, this piece of sea is extremely quiet, even without wind, the sea water seems to be still.

Nami glanced at her and said, "We have come to the windless zone, but the tsunami has not dissipated, and we can no longer enter the great route. We can only wait here for the tsunami to dissipate."

On both sides of the great route, there is a windless belt, and now the Sunny Merry is located at the junction of the quiet belt and the great route.

Once calm and calm, while a terrifying tsunami.

Luffy nodded: "I can only wait. While waiting, let me do something."

This made Nami, Zoro and others curious, do one thing?

"Luffy, where are you going? Do it alone?" Nami was puzzled.

Luffy nodded: "Well, I'm going to an island, which happens to be not far away. Now that I'm here, maybe it's God's will. I'll go there and come back soon."

Sanji asked: "Should we use it together? Just leave the head of the green algae to watch the boat."

Luffy shook his head: "No, I can go alone. It's not something that requires fighting. You don't have to go. Wait for me here. If you are Sanji, you can't go."

This made Sanji very puzzled, let alone go? Why?

"Okay, I'm leaving."

Seeing Luffy walking towards the bow, Nami and others were puzzled.

As a person with abilities, it is impossible to swim across, so how to get there?

"Let's go directly to our ship."

Luffy directly entered the fourth gear of elastic man, which made Nami and others understand, and Luffy flew directly over.

"Wait for me here, go and come back."

bang bang bang...

Propelled by the elastic force, Luffy soared into the sky and headed for the new destination, Daughter's Island.

If it was Zoro and the others, they could only swim there. Although they could walk on the moon, they couldn't see the end and the island at a glance, but they couldn't do it, and they couldn't stand it before they reached their feet.

So, that's what Luffy can do.

Luffy had already looked at the map in advance, and quickly headed to Daughter Island. Flying directly like this is also a test, because the distance is not close, and this is also exhausting the legs and physical strength.

An hour later, Luffy finally saw the island, and Daughter Island arrived.

"It's almost at the limit."

At the top of Daughter's Island, Luffy backed out of fourth gear and let himself fall.

It fell to the ground with a bang, and the current physique is fine.

"Huh... so tired, sleep for half an hour first."

Luffy's physical exertion is really high, after all, it hasn't been long since the battle of Chambord.

In that battle, it can be said that he went all out and consumed a lot. It has always been a high-intensity and high-frequency battle, with various big moves and a lot of physical energy.

In addition, coming to Daughter Island in this way just now consumes more, so Luffy is very tired.

However, even if he rests like this, he will wake up when danger comes.

He has a strong sense of arrogance and a strong sense of self-defense against danger.

Rest is also a must, as a greater war is at hand.

"Huh? Is that a person?"

A girl with short blond hair, good looks, good figure, and relatively light clothes saw Luffy sleeping.

Looking closer, it looks unfamiliar, and it seems a little different from myself.

This girl is Margaret.

"What's wrong with him? There are some injuries on his body. Although he is tied with a bandage and has been treated, there will be nothing else, right?"

Margaret shook Luffy slightly: "Hey, wake up."

However, Luffy slept soundly, and he would wake up only when danger came.

"There's nothing wrong with it, take him back and let Bella Donna take a look.

Bella Donna is the doctor of Daughter's Island.

Afterwards, Margaret carried Luffy on her back and brought her to Bella Donna's residence.

For a while, many female warriors from Daughter's Island were watching.

"It seems a little different from us."

"Yeah, it's so flat."

"Yes, our Daughter's Island is the flattest, not as flat as her."

...

They looked at it with a very curious look, knowing that they were outsiders.

However, they all regarded Luffy as the same kind of person as them.

Margaret said: "Bella Donna, how is he? Is he all right?"

After checking, Bella Donna said: "It's okay, I'm just too tired, you should take him to the hot spring for a dip, he should wake up faster. It's also strange, even if he is tired, he won't be so sleepy, right? "

Belladonna was puzzled by this, but after careful inspection, she found that although there was an injury, it should not be the main reason.

After thinking about it, it may be due to personal physical reasons.

"Okay, I'll take him to Bubble."

Chapter 108

Later, Luffy lay down in the hot spring, surrounded by lightly dressed Amazons.

If Sanji is here, he can faint with happiness, be completely petrified, and faint with anemia. This is why Luffy said that Sanji can't come here the most.

After all, there are all women here, and most of them are good-looking, only a few are not.

The most important thing is that they all wore very little attire. When Sanji came, from the beginning to the departure, he absolutely had a nosebleed all the way.

There will be battles in the near future, advancing the city, and Marin Fando, so Luffy let Nami and others wait for him there, and did not let the boat come.

Luffy slept more soundly (aedb) while soaking in the hot spring, and it was indeed more helpful for relieving fatigue.

In the hot spring, Margaret accompanied Luffy with her right hand supporting Luffy, lying in her arms, while her left hand was washing Luffy, sprinkling the hot spring water on Luffy continuously, which also contained medicine , Sprinkled in the hot spring, it can restore physical strength.

While washing and washing, Margaret was startled, and looked down, astonished.

"what is this?"

Bella Donna was puzzled: "What's the matter? What did you see?"

"How should I put it? It looks like a mushroom, but it doesn't look like it.

Maybe it's a strange mushroom? But, why do mushrooms grow?"

Margaret was very puzzled.

This made Bella Donna's face change. As a doctor, she thought of a mushroom.

"Could it be that the inability to wake up like this is not only due to fatigue? It is because the mushroom consumes itself, so it is so tired that it cannot wake up?"

Beladonna thought it was possible, and immediately said: "Hurry up and get the mushroom down, otherwise it will continue to consume his physical strength, and once it is exhausted, he will die."

This made Margaret's face change, and she hurriedly stopped washing Luffy, but quickly grabbed it with her left hand.

The moment Margaret caught it, she started to pull it out, but she was startled and couldn't pull it out.

Margaret began to exert force, and even stretched it, but she still couldn't pull it out.

"It's weird, I can't take it off."

"It's so sticky, because it grows out of the body, use all your strength, hurry up."

"OK."

Margaret pulled even harder, and even pulled it very long.

Margaret's face was flushed, showing that she had exerted a lot of strength, but it still didn't work. She even bounced back, and Margaret's hand followed.

Just like that, Marguerite pulled up, bounced back, and dropped her hand.

"I don't believe it can't be pulled out!"

Margaret kept exerting force, raising and lowering her hands, and beads of sweat appeared on her face.

But soon, strangely, why did it swell? What's the matter with this mushroom, strange?

It even swelled to the point that I couldn't hold it with one hand, and I had to use two hands.

"No, Belladonna, please help me."

"Ok."

Bella Donna came down and supported Luffy from behind.

Margaret squatted in front of Luffy, using both hands, so that she was more powerful.

With both hands ready to grab, Margaret continued up and down.

Luffy slept soundly, even in his sleep, he felt that he had dreamed about that kind of thing.

Lu Fei in his sleep thought it was normal, after all, he was seventeen years old, so it was normal to dream about this kind of thing.

Ten minutes passed, twenty minutes passed.

Margaret didn't succeed, but she didn't give up either, knowing that her life would be in danger if she didn't unplug it, so she lasted for twenty minutes.

"Damn it, why can't it work."

Margaret screamed, shouting hard.

However, the next moment, Margaret was stunned, stunned, and stopped.

Because, suddenly, a spray was sprayed on his face.

Margaret was stunned, and everyone around her was also stunned.

"what is that?"

"I do not know."

"Margaret, are you all right? Does your face hurt?"

"Could it be the poison on the mushrooms? Wipe it off quickly."

...

Margaret was quick and clear, but found, nothing unwell.

"I'm fine, I don't feel bad on my face or body."

This relieved the others.

At this moment, Luffy woke up, spread his arms, and stretched himself.

"Phew... I slept really well."

Luffy woke up, opened his eyes, and felt refreshed. It was a bit of a surprise, the effect wouldn't be so good after a night's sleep, right?

Margaret was happy: "Wake up!"

Bella Donna couldn't figure it out: "This, why, it wasn't unplugged."

Luffy opened his eyes and was stunned for a moment.

He looked around, looked down at himself, his pupils shrank, and most importantly, the position of Margaret's hand in front of him.

"Release quickly."

Luffy stood up, Margarita let go, was also puzzled after seeing it, and no longer inflated.

Luffy skimmed ashore quickly, everyone was startled, at such a fast speed, when they looked over, Luffy was already dressed.

Luffy understood a little bit, and was speechless for a while, no wonder dreaming, not just a dream, but the effect brought by the outside world.

Luffy smiled wryly. It would be impossible for this kind of thing to happen in other places, but this place is Daughter's Island.

Luffy never expected that his first time was to be...

There is no way, this kind of thing can only happen here.

"It's so fast."

"Are you all right?"

"However, I haven't pulled out the mushroom yet. Do you do it yourself, or should I continue? Or, I'll go get the scissors."

...

Luffy:"..."

Hearing this, Lu Fei quickly said: "No, I don't need it either, it's a part of me."

This startled the others, partly? But they didn't.

At this moment, Lu Fei breathed a sigh of relief, because the white-haired, very short Granny New came with a cane.

After Granny New saw it, her face changed and she understood.

"You don't have to worry, he is different from you, because...he is a man!"

Immediately, all the female fighters around were stunned and stunned, especially Margaret.

Granny New frowned and asked, "Why did you come here?"

Luffy said bluntly: "I want to see the emperor of your kingdom, Boa Hancock."

Chapter 113 Daughter's Island is covered by the Five Emperors, understand?

Granny Niu frowned and refused: "Impossible, not only can't see you, but I have to drive you away before she comes back."

Immediately, the soldiers from Daughter's Island were ready to attack.

Margaret's complexion changed, and she stopped her: "Don't do anything, just let him leave by himself."

Margaret looked at Luffy and hurriedly said, "You~ let's go."

Lu Fei shook his head: "I'm here specially, since you guys won't take me there, then I'll find it myself-."

After the words fell, Luffy was about to leave, but was surrounded by warriors from Daughter Island.

All kinds of bows and arrows aimed at him, Luffy was helpless.

"I can only apologize, then, you can sleep for a while."

Suddenly, Luffy's domineering look broke out and swept away.

bang bang bang bang...

In an instant, the warriors of Daughter Island fell down one after another.

Because they were warriors protecting the country, even if Luffy's domineering aura could cause substantial damage, it would not hurt them.

The stronger ones, although they didn't faint, still knelt down on one knee.

Kaka...

Cracks appeared on the ground, wider than before.

Lu Fei sighed secretly: "My domineering look has improved again."

Ever since she put on the black stand-up collar cape, she has become much more imposing and domineering.

However, after officially becoming the fifth queen, the bounty reached three billion, and her courage improved again. Therefore, the domineering look became stronger.

Controlling Overlord Color did not affect Margaret.

Looking around, Margaret was shocked, and naturally knew that she was domineering.

"He actually has the aptitude of a king, has the aura of a king, and is...too strong..."

Margaret was shocked, much more powerful than the empress's dominance, even the soldiers who defended the country fainted, and even Bella Donna knelt on one knee, sweating coldly.

On the surrounding ground, many cracks appeared unexpectedly, and the domineering aura caused substantial damage?

This shocked them even more. They knew that it was possible to do substantial damage, but the Empress said that in this world, there is only one man who can do substantial damage with the Overlord Ribbon, and that is the red-haired Shank, one of the Four Emperors. s.

But now, the person in front of him can't be red-haired, the hair is black, and the red-haired age is thirty-seven years old, the person in front of him is obviously a teenager.

The rest of the national defenders who hadn't fainted were extremely shocked.

"Overlord look domineering, how can you be so strong..."

"It's too dangerous, we must stop him."

"Letting such a dangerous person approach the empress is our dereliction of duty, we must stop it!"

...

However, in the face of Luffy, those who did not faint could not even stand up.

"Margaret, stop him quickly."

Margaret was in a difficult situation. The man in front of her was indeed very powerful, but he didn't do anything to herself.

Luffy looked at the embarrassed Margaret and smiled kindly: "Trust me, I'm not here to make trouble."

After saying that, Luffy moved away with a flicker, and Margaret was relieved, even if she did it herself, there was nothing she could do, so don't be embarrassed.

Luffy started looking for Hancock's room, the most iconic, the best, should be it.

At this time, Hancock just boarded the boat and came to the windless sea not far from Daughter Island, with a naval warship ahead.

"Lieutenant General Flying Squirrel, I saw Nine Snake's boat!"

The flying squirrel ordered: "Come closer."

"yes!"

After approaching, the flying squirrel breathed a sigh of relief.

"Finally found you, Kuja Pirates. I'm the Vice Admiral of the Navy Headquarters, Flying Squirrel. The Queen of the Sea, Pirate Empress, Boa Hancock, come out quickly! I'm here to pick you up."

However, nothing happened.

Chapter 109

The flying squirrel said in a deep voice, "This is the newspaper from this morning."

The newspaper was thrown up, and was caught by the female warrior of the Nine Snake Pirates.

The flying squirrel said sternly: "The time and place of Portgas D Ace's public execution have been determined, we will not delay any longer."

This compulsory convening by Qibukai is a strict order of the world government, and we must respond to the convening, otherwise, follow the The agreement of the world government will not be established. In that case, your Qiwuhai title will be deprived, think about what this means. You who have been doing whatever you want under the umbrella of the world government will become ordinary pirates and will be deprived of the title of the world government. And the navy is regarded as a hostile force, when the time comes, you will be in danger."

Speaking of this, the flying squirrel shouted: "You heard it too, Boa Hancock!"

thump thump...

Before the person came out, there was the sound of high-heeled shoes stepping on the deck. For a while, the surroundings became quiet, and everyone looked over.

The door opened, and Hancock, who was wearing a red patterned cheongsam inside and a white robe outside, came out.

At the foot, there happened to be a cute cat playing.

Hancock was arrogant, and his indifferent voice sounded: "Who the * is throwing kittens on the road I am walking on?"

Hancock raised his right foot, and the red high heel kicked the kitten away.

The flying squirrel's face darkened: "It's finally out, Boya Hancock."

Hancock said bluntly: "I will not participate in the war, but I don't want you to deprive me of the title of Qibuhai. In addition, I want all the goods on your ship. What should I do?"

Immediately, except for the flying squirrel, the other sailors hurriedly said, "Here, I'll give you everything, and we'll go move it."

The flying squirrel trembled angrily, and scolded, "What are you doing!"

Stand still with me!"

Immediately, the sea soldiers felt a shock in their hearts, they felt terrible, and subconsciously wanted to agree to the Queen's order.

The flying squirrel shouted: "Stop joking, do you think I will agree to such an unreasonable request?"

Flying Squirrel's heart is heavy, and the rest of the lieutenant generals have also gone to contact the other Shichibukai. It should be smooth, but he is the only one who is so troublesome.

The flying squirrel said in a deep voice: "Fire Fist Ace's execution will take place in Marlin Vando Square a week later. At that time, Fire Fist Ace will die there and broadcast it live to the world. Therefore, our navy Victory is necessary. However, victory is also difficult, because the Whitebeard Pirates are likely to appear, and the Five Emperors Straw Hats may also appear!"

Hearing the Five Emperors Straw Hats, Hancock felt a ripple in his heart, and the head of the Five Emperors Luffy appeared in his mind.

Immediately, Hancock didn't even want to go.

"So, you must go. The Whitebeard Pirates and the Straw Hats dare to come and swear to defeat them. You Shichibukai must respond to the call, otherwise, you will be deprived of your title. Now, make a choice here!"

Hancock said lightly: "I like the title of Qibuhai very much, and I will not be deprived of it. But the world government also hates it and doesn't want to listen to their orders. So, how about this? The navy soldiers who came to meet the concubine They all suffered an incredible time at sea, and all died in the sea."

Hearing this, the faces of the sailors changed drastically, feeling uneasy and very scared, after all, it was Qiwuhai.

"What...what does she want to do?"

"Are you going to attack us?"

"Be careful, don't take it lightly, or if you are a little careless, you will turn into a stone!"

...

The flying squirrel tightened its grip on the sword, and said in a deep voice, "Do you want to fight? Don't act recklessly. That means you are our enemy! You will definitely be deprived of the title of Qiwuhai!"

However, Hancock didn't care, and believed: "Even if you sink you, nothing will happen. Do you know why? Because no matter what I do, whether it's kicking kittens or tearing off your ears, killing people Either way, I will be forgiven by the world. Because, this concubine is too beautiful."

These words made the flying squirrel's face ugly, and he didn't listen to him at all. He reminded in a deep voice: "What do you want? If you don't participate in the war, you will be deprived of it! Your Daughter Island is waiting to perish. Although you are powerful, you can't cover it. Live in the entire Amazon Lily Kingdom! At that time, your country will be attacked by the Demon Slaughter Order and fall into disaster, don't regret it!"

Hearing this, Hancock's expression turned cold.

The flying squirrel promised: "I will definitely let the navy know, you will not be forgiven, you will definitely be deprived of the title of Qibuhai, you will be in danger, and your country will be in danger because of you! If you continue like this, it will be incomparable. Stupid choice! Then, just do it, and wait to be deprived of the title of Shichibukai."

The flying squirrel concentrated and kept himself awake all the time.

Hancock frowned slightly, naturally worried in his heart.

Because, it is really difficult to protect the whole country by yourself.

If it wasn't for the country, Hancock would not join even if Qibuhai is convenient. After all, Qiwuhai belongs to the World Government.

However, he had to join in. For the sake of the country, he was not as strong as the Four Emperors, nor was he as powerful as the Four Emperors, so he could not protect the Amazon Lily Kingdom.

Seeing Hancock hesitate briefly, the flying squirrel heaved a sigh of relief and sneered: "Sure enough, I'm still worried."

This made Hancock look angry and ready to do it. The flying squirrel reminded: "As long as I call the phone bug in my hand, even if I can't speak, I will be petrified by you in an instant, which means that your title will be taken away. This is What Marshal Warring States thinks, I know you, if I call, it means that if you refuse, it means that you will be deprived of your title, and the Marshal will deal with it soon."

Suddenly, Hancock lowered the hand he was about to raise.

The flying squirrel smiled triumphantly: "Then, choose to join the war, choose to compromise, choose to endure, this is the sacrifice you should pay, for the people of your country, obey the orders of the world government that you hate, you have to Do this, otherwise, the title of Shichibukai will be deprived!"

Immediately, Hancock frowned deeper.

However, before Hancock could answer, an awe-inspiring voice resounded from the sky.

"Then... take it away!"

This voice suddenly attracted everyone's attention, and they all looked up at the sky, including Hancock.

I saw that above the sky, Lu Fei stepped on the moon step at a high altitude, his body was dark red, steam filled, his right hand stretched and rushed towards the sky, and burst into flames suddenly.

This made Hancock's eyes brighten, Five Emperors... Straw Hat Luffy...

The face of the navy also changed drastically.

"It's the Five Emperors!"

"Why are you here?"

"What... what is he going to do?"

"Helping Hancock? What's the matter?"

...

The flying squirrel was also stunned, and shouted: "Straw hat, she is the king of Shichibukai, and she belongs to the world government. Do you want to help her?"

0...Ask for flowers...

Luffy smiled: "The king's Qiwuhai? It's not now. In the future, the Amazon Lily Kingdom will be covered by the five emperors, understand?"

Luffy's words, the five emperors are overwhelmed, understand? In an instant, Hancock's beautiful eyes flickered, and his heart froze.

Looking up at Luffy, Hancock's beautiful eyes were full of admiration, and she felt that a man was so cool and domineering like never before, and she even felt admirable.

These words made the flying squirrel's face change drastically, which means that Hancock and the Amazon Lily Kingdom will be protected by the Five Emperors from now on!

"Fire fist! Gun!"

Luffy said domineeringly, and suddenly punched the warship.

The flying squirrel launched a slash attack, but it was useless at all, and it was directly collapsed.

bang...

With a bang, the entire warship exploded directly, and the sailors screamed, were blown up, and fell into the sea.

The flying squirrel was hit head-on, vomited blood, rolled its eyes, and fell into the deep sea.

For a while, the surroundings became quiet, only the sound of the flames burning the warship.

All the female fighters of the Nine Snake Pirates were stunned.

"This...is the Five Emperors..."

"So strong..."

"Too aggressive."

"Is it true that the Five Emperors will protect us from now on?"

"In this case, it's nothing if the Empress Qiwuhai is deprived."

...

boom!

Luffy landed, stood on the deck, put on a straw hat, and waved a black cloak.

Hancock just stared at Luffy blankly like this, the more he looked at him, the more attractive he became, the more domineering and masculine he became.

In the past, it was other people who were obsessed with herself, but now, there is a sign that she is obsessed with Luffy.

...0

Hancock calmed himself down, and suddenly asked, "Why do you dare to kill the Celestial Dragon?"

Lu Fei was stunned, wondering: "Why do you ask like that? Why don't you dare?"

As soon as these words came out, the female fighters of the Nine Snake Pirates were shocked, and Hancock's pupils shrank even more.

Lu Fei said indifferently: "It seems that in your eyes, the Celestial Dragons are the same to you as other people. In my opinion, what about the Celestial Dragons? Tianlongren, I will not regret it, because, in my eyes, everyone is equal. Since it makes me feel ugly and makes me feel that I should kill the person, then kill him, no matter what Tianlongren he is."

Speaking of this, Hancock was even more shocked.

After the horror, Hancock couldn't believe it.

"I never thought there would be such a fool as you in this world."

Hancock squatted on the ground, bowed his head facing Luffy, tears dripping down, completely convinced, it sounded like he was scolding Luffy, but his tone was full of admiration.

"Disregarding the danger of life, challenge the sky, people like you actually exist."

Hancock began to talk about what happened, and Luffy listened carefully.

Only then did I know that Hancock is still perfect.

Although he used to be a slave, what Hancock had to do at the time was to face the beast, escape, and survive.

After finishing speaking, Hancock stood up, looked at Luffy from a close distance, and asked seriously: "You of the Five Emperors, do you really want to protect us? Will you think highly of me?"

Luffy sighed: "Why do you ask such a stupid question? I hate Celestial Dragons very much. If you want to ask, you should ask me if I think of Celestial Dragons."

Hearing this, Hancock's heart shivered, a blush appeared on his face, he wiped away the tears from the corners of his eyes, smiled happily, and his heart was completely opened.

"My concubine likes you."

Seeing Luffy say this, Hancock blushed even more.

Luffy knew that what he had to do had already been done.

Hancock wanted to help Luffy and asked, "Fire Fist Ace is your brother, you will definitely save him, right?"

Luffy nodded heavily: "Yes."

"Then let me help you, take you to sneak in, it will be easier and faster, and it will be more likely to rescue him."

However, Luffy shook his head.

"No, I will go to the city with my friends to rescue Ace and others I want to save."

Hancock was curious: "If I help you, I will take you in with the convenience of my status, and I will despise you to advance to the fourth underground floor of the city, so as to save a lot of trouble. Otherwise, it will be very troublesome. What plans do you have? How to save?"

Luffy said bluntly: "There is no plan."

This made Hancock and the others startled, they went to the city to save people, no plan? That is the largest prison in the world.

Hancock was stunned and puzzled: "No plan? Here, how could there be no plan?"

Lu Fei wrote lightly: "There is no need for any plan, just go in and take the person away."

Hearing this, Hancock and the others were even more shocked, and directly typed in... so simple and rude?

After the astonishment, Hancock admired him more and more, lowering his head, looking very shy.

This is unbelievable to others, the empress actually has such a side.

Hancock worshiped in his heart: "As expected of the man I like."

Although it sounds outrageous, it may be acceptable to the Five Emperors.

Chapter 114 Late at night, the five emperors fight the empress

However, Hancock still didn't want Luffy to be so reckless.

"Actually, I want to help you more. I will take you in alone. The target is small and it will not be easy to be found. Then, with your strength, Luffy, you can easily rescue people. Although you can go together, but They may transfer people away in advance, and the target is big, and there are still seven days before the public execution, if they get there early, the navy will take the opportunity to send troops over, and then combine the forces of the city to advance, and you will be in danger."

"Although it is very difficult to take you down, and a big battle is coming, fighting with you will consume a lot of energy, and it will be difficult to deal with the Whitebeard Pirates. However, I also know that you will join the Whitebeard Pirates in the battle. Therefore, the Warring States may choose to take you in the city of advance. In order not to increase consumption, then they will send a stronger force than the Chambord Islands to take you without serious injuries and without a lot of physical exertion. Three It is inevitable that two generals will go together, coupled with the powerful combat power of the city, the director of the city, Magellan."

Speaking of this, Hancock frowned slightly, worried.

Luffy remained silent for a while, and thought of typing in directly. After all, after Shambow land, it is different from the original plot, not alone, but everyone together.

If you want to be together, the goal is huge, and you must hit it directly, and you can't sneak in.

Although the strength is strong, as Hancock said, the Warring States Period is indeed very likely to send three generals to come together in 04.

Although it is necessary to guard against the Whitebeard Pirates, it has already been publicized, and the execution will be public in a week. The Whitebeard Pirates will probably not appear within a week, and will only appear during the public execution.

Chapter 110

After all, it is impossible for such a large pirate group to choose to enter the promotion city with limited space to save people, and Ace is easily transferred away.

Then, if they knew that the Straw Hats had forcibly entered the city, they would definitely send combat forces to support them immediately, the three generals, and even the two cp0 teams sent by the world government.

Moreover, the advancing city still has powerful combat power, especially Magellan.

Therefore, after listening, even Luffy has to ponder and be cautious.

Indeed, not reckless.

"Okay, then Hancock, I will trouble you."

Luffy felt that it was easy to enter as in the original plot. With his own strength, he also despised saving people and walked out of the city.

As for Hailoushi handcuffs? You can destroy it by flowing cherry blossoms yourself.

Hancock arranged: "Then prepare the feast first and recharge your batteries."

Speaking of this, Luffy started to wake up with his stomach growling, and he happened to be hungry.

"Then prepare, I'll let my companions come over."

Originally, I wanted to finish dealing with the matter of Daughter Island, go back directly, and then go to the city together, but now that I think about it, I will act alone, and after I come out, I will gather with everyone and join the battle on the top!

Soon, Luffy returned to the boat in fourth gear. After explaining, Nami and others agreed that this is indeed better.

Sanji asked, "Can I bring one more?"

Nami punched directly, and Sanji's head bulged in pain.

"Don't even think about it."

Luffy said: "It will be difficult to hide with two, I will go with Hancock alone, and you will wait for me outside the city."

"it is good."

Subsequently, the Sunny Meri sailed to Daughter Island.

After going to the island, Sanji felt that he had come to the place of his dreams, and he didn't want to leave.

At the beginning of the banquet, Sanji kept bleeding from his nose.

Except for him, Sauron, Luffy, Usopp, Franky, Brooke, and Chopper, all were women.

"It's really nice here."

Sanji's eyes were full of love, and his nose was bleeding.

I originally wanted to go with Luffy, but now I don't want to go at all, so I'll just stay here for a while.

Seeing Sanji's bleeding, Chopper was worried and understood: "No wonder Luffy was right not to let Sanji come."

Nami said: "After eating, you have to leave as soon as possible, there will be a big battle to fight."

Sanji promised: "Miss Nami, don't worry, I won't lose the chain when the time comes."

The female warriors watched Luffy gobble up and quickly clear up the food on the table, they were shocked and discussed in low voices.

"Too tasty."

"Is the belly a bottomless pit? Is the body structure different from ours?"

"I heard that men's bodies are strange, but it seems to be true."

"I heard that Luffy-sama has the ability of rubber fruit, and his legs can be stretched very long. I'm really curious about how long it can be."

"There are even things that we don't have. Let's see how it feels."

"Margaret has felt it, you can ask her."

"Margaret, how did you feel?"

"I do not know either."

Margaret didn't want to say it, she couldn't say it, so she said it.

The discussions continued.

"I heard that it is completely different from us."

"yes."

"Don't think about it anymore, Lord Snake is very fond of Lord Luffy, how far it can grow, I am afraid that only Lord Snake can feel it in the future."

"That's right."

...

Luffy listened and almost vomited.

It's not that they are too open, but that they are too innocent, and they don't realize how meaningful what they say is.

At this time, a female soldier ran in in a panic.

"Grandma New, come quickly."

"What's wrong?"

"Miss She Ji fell ill for some reason."

This made Granny Niu's face change, how could she fall ill?

Although the Five Emperors are protecting Daughter Island now,

Hancock cannot fall down.

Grandma New went quickly, and Luffy also chose to follow, probably knowing.

At this moment, in Hancock's room, she was lying on the bed, breathing heavily, her face flushed.

Belladonna on the side was helpless, she couldn't see what kind of disease it was, and why did she have such symptoms even though there was nothing wrong.

Hancock was worried and panicked: "Will the concubine...will die?"

Hancock didn't understand why her body was like this suddenly. She also wanted to help Luffy advance to the city, and help Luffy more in the future.

After Granny New arrived, Bella Donna frowned: "Since Mrs. Snake Lady has been covering her mouth, I thought it was a heart problem, but after checking, she found nothing wrong. Granny New, take a quick look."

For them, Grandma Niu was well-informed and knew more than them.

Granny New looked at Hancock like this, and her face changed: "Could it be..."

Grandma New thought that Luffy would leave tomorrow morning.

Granny New said, "Tomorrow morning..."

Immediately, Hancock reacted even more.

"Monkey..."

Before the name was spoken, Hancock's voice became a little louder as if he was about to reach the peak.

The faces of Hancock's two younger sisters changed drastically.

"Grandma New, what are you talking about, my lord sister is suffering even more."

"Stop talking."

Granny Niu held her forehead, she didn't expect it.

"I understand, don't worry about it, this is not a disease, and I have not contracted any virus."

Hancock asked nervously: "Grandma New, what happened to me? I am a concubine, will I die?"

Grandma Niu stood up and said, "Let's all go out, let Snake Girl stay here, and let the straw hat come in later."

This made the other three confused, why?

"No... don't you want to be treated?"

"Sister is so uncomfortable."

...

Granny Niu walked out first: "We have to leave for medical treatment."

The other three looked at each other in blank dismay, they had no choice but to go out with them.

Luffy was outside, Granny New said, "Please, try to stay as long as possible."

Luffy nodded: "Okay, don't worry."

Luffy knows that Hancock is lovesick, and when he sees himself, he will get better if he chats more, so he tries to chat with Hancock for one night.

Immediately, Luffy entered Hancock's boudoir and closed the door.

Granny New sighed in her heart: "Monkey d Luffy, how lucky, the iceberg that no one can touch, was actually touched by you, and so fast, so seriously."

"Okay, let's go and come back tomorrow morning."

Grandma New was about to leave, but the other three were puzzled.

"what is happening?"

"Why did you let Lord Luffy go in?"

"Why can Lord Luffy treat my sister?"

...

They can't figure it out at all.

Granny Niu said: "Don't think about it, you guys can't figure it out, just go back, and Snake Princess will be fine tomorrow morning."

In this case, they could only do as they did, and they couldn't wait for tomorrow morning to arrive. They were too worried, and sincerely hoped that they could see their sister get better tomorrow morning.

Luffy stayed in the same room with Hancock for the rest of the night. next morning.

Very anxious and impatient, Hancock's two younger sisters came.

At the same time, Luffy just came out of the room.

"How is my sister?"

"Done yet?"

Luffy said: "Don't worry, it's fine."

After staying with Hancock for one night and chatting with her for one night, the lovesickness was relieved.

This made them happy, they walked in quickly and saw their sister.

It was found that Hancock had got up and looked completely fine, no longer looking uncomfortable, but satisfied and brimming with happiness.

Looks really all right.

"Sister, are you okay?"

Hancock said, "It's all right."

This shocked them, they looked at each other, looked at Luffy, and became more and more curious.

Granny New explained: "This is lovesickness, so when you see Luffy, or get along and chat with him, you will get better immediately."

Immediately, they understood that this was the case.

Chapter 115 In order to save Ace, you must open the fifth gear!

In order to alleviate Hancock's lovesickness, Luffy stayed in Daughter Island for six more days.

One day before the public execution, he started to act and followed Hancock to Advance City.

Because, one day, even if the navy knows that Luffy is making a fuss in the city, it is almost impossible to send a general there, let alone three generals.

Therefore, I chose to act with one day left. For Luffy with his current strength, one day is not too short.

At this time, advance to the city, the sixth floor underground.

One day before the execution, Karp came to the cell where Ace was held and sat down cross-legged.

Looking at the imprisoned Ace, Garp's face was heavy, and he sighed:

"Hey, I still want you and Luffy to be excellent marines, let alone marines now, the two brothers have become big villains, especially Luffy has become the Five Emperors."

Hearing this, Ace, who lowered his head, suddenly raised his head, his eyes lit up, happy and shocked.

"Luffy, became the Five Emperors?!"

Here, I naturally don't know what Luffy is like.

After being locked up here, Ace was naturally worried about Luffy.

Chapter 111

Of course, I'm not worried about Luffy being caught by Blackbeard, after all, Luffy's strength is very strong.

Ace doesn't think Blackbeard's ability can restrain Luffy, so he doesn't worry about Blackbeard catching Luffy.

However, Luffy is too strong, and the Straw Hat Pirates, Ace is worried about the Navy's heavy attack on the Straw Hat Pirates, and he is worried that Luffy will be strangled.

After all, she was too sharp, even more dazzling and outstanding than her original self.

But now, it turned out to be the Five Emperors, which made Ace happy and relieved.

"Yeah, they have become the Five Emperors, and the Straw Hats have also become the Five Emperors."

This makes Ace happy, which means that Luffy's partners are also very strong, otherwise it would be impossible to become the Five Emperors.

"What happened, I want to hear."

Ace's tone was pleading, mainly because he wanted to know the current strength of the Straw Hats and whether they could cope with a big crisis.

Garp began to tell about what happened in the Chambord Islands. At the beginning, Ace was shocked, and then laughed, very proud.

"As expected of my younger brother, as expected of Luffy, even a Tianlong would dare to kill him."

After amazed, Ace was not surprised: "Luffy, this is you, it just surprised me."

Ace was surprised. He felt that with Luffy's character, it was certain that he would beat Tianlongren, but he didn't expect to kill him directly.

Although it will bring big troubles, it may be because of self-confidence in strength, not worrying about yourself and your partners.

Karp continued to tell, also proudly.

Ace became more and more horrified when he heard it, and he singled out the general Huang Yuan, and he didn't fall below, 50-50.

Zoro, Sanji, against the general Aokiji, 50/50.

Qiwu Haixiong was repelled by Sanfei's main force, and Zhan Taomaru was defeated with contempt.

The Straw Hats are too strong, and Luffy's strength is beyond his imagination.

Ace marveled: "Luffy is already so powerful, he can be on par with the Admiral of the Navy."

Ace fully understands why Luffy can be called the Five Emperors, and his strength is comparable to that of the general, which is completely worthy of the title.

And Zoro and Sanji are definitely the strength of the emperor's deputy, and they are powerful emperor's deputy.

After the horror, Ace was more relieved. Although he was in a very bad situation and would be publicly executed in a day, there was no fear or panic on Ace's face, but he was extremely happy.

"Great, great, Luffy and his partners are so strong. In this case, even if the Navy wants to take them down, they have to weigh it."

Just like the Four Emperors, the Navy will not take the initiative to easily fight with the Four Emperors.

Therefore, Ace expects the Straw Hats to be as deterrent as the Four Emperors, so that the navy will not dare to act lightly.

In this way, Luffy will not be killed in a short time, but will continue to grow, stronger and stronger, and the pirate group will grow stronger.

Looking at the happy Ace, Garp understood why Ace was happy.

However, Garp's face became extremely heavy.

Ace noticed it and asked, "Old man, why is there such a heavy expression? Are you unhappy?"

Garp sighed softly: "I am relieved that Luffy is so strong, but, as you can imagine, when the execution is public, not only the Whitebeard Pirates may come, but Luffy..."

Garp's words immediately froze the smile on Ace's face, and his expression changed suddenly.

"No, absolutely not! Dad and the others can't come, and Luffy and the others can't come! Because we are not a pirate group, they have no reason to save me at all..."

Ace panicked, and understood why Garp's face was heavy, and it turned out to be the reason.

"Did Luffy know that I was publicly executed?"

Garp nodded: "Of course, there are not many things that the world doesn't know."

Ace panicked: "No, we can't let Luffy and the others come, that would be a public execution at the Navy headquarters."

Although Ace has not seen the battle of the navy, he can imagine it. After all, I am the One Piece, the son of Gol D Roger.

His own execution was broadcast live and attracted worldwide attention, so the navy is determined to win, and it must be the strongest military force of the navy.

Although Luffy is very strong, he is still the Five Emperors, but he can't come.

"No, I can't come, I can't put them in danger because of me, they have just reached the beginning of glory, I can't hurt Luffy."

Ace was very worried, looked at Garp, and begged: "Grandpa, you must help me, go find Luffy, and tell him not to come!"

Although it is the Five Emperors, Luffy is very strong, and the Straw Hats are also very strong, but Ace knows that it will still be very dangerous.

After all, he is facing the most powerful navy.

Even if the Whitebeard Pirates, the strongest of the Four Emperors, come, he will be worried, let alone the Straw Hats of the Five Emperors.

If something happened to me, Luffy and his companions, or ended up like me, I would not die in peace.

Garp smiled wryly: "There is no other way, you also understand Luffy's temperament, he has decided, even if I go, I can't persuade him."

Ace is naturally clear, but it must be stopped.

It's fine if you're in danger, you can't let Luffy be in danger, you have to keep going, Luffy's adventure has just begun, and you can't have the possibility of being strangled because of yourself.

If there is no self, it is really possible for Lu Fei to fulfill his dream and become the One Piece if he continues like this!

What's more, I'm still an older brother, so how can I be ashamed.

Ace pleaded: "Then knock Luffy unconscious! Just wait for the public execution to end, this is the only way."

Ace also understands that persuasion is impossible, he can only be stunned or trapped, and just wait for the matter to end.

Garp still shook his head, which made Ace's face change, angrily, and cursed:

"Old man! Do you also want to see Luffy fall into crisis like me?!"

Garp sighed: "I think the same as you, and I don't want anything to happen to Luffy. Knowing that Luffy might come, I'm also worried. I also want to go to him, knock him out, or seriously injure him. Yue can't get up. But, even if it's me, it's hard to do it. Even if Luffy is not as strong as me, if I go, I won't be facing Luffy alone, but the Five Emperors."

Speaking of this, Ace understood, his face was extremely heavy, and he didn't know what to say.

Garp is very strong. Although Luffy is the Five Emperors and is very powerful, but in a one-on-one match, Ace thinks that Garp can win and stun Luffy.

However, Garp alone, singled out the Five Emperors...

Although it is the strongest legend in the navy, it can't be done.

"Damn! There is no other way!"

Ace gritted his teeth, his face was heavy, he was extremely worried, and he blamed himself extremely.

It's all because of myself that so many things happened, which made Dad and the others worry that they might come and be in danger, as well as Luffy and the others.

If his hands were not locked, Ace really wanted to slap himself twice.

Ace knew that there might really be no other way.

Whether it is Dad and the others, or Luffy and the others, whether they will come or not is not up to him to decide.

"Everyone, don't come, Dad, don't come, Luffy, don't come."

Ace prayed in his heart, afraid that everyone would be in danger because of him.

Ace asked for the last time: "Old man, the last time I ask you, you can definitely do it. If Luffy and the others really come by then, can you deal with them?"

In doing so, Ace also knew that Garp would definitely release the water.

Garp sighed: "No way, Warring States asked me to deal with Whitebeard."

This made Ace's face change: "Then if the Straw Hats come, who will deal with them?"

Garp said heavily: "General, Sakasky, deal with Luffy."

Hearing this, Ace's face was extremely heavy. Among the three generals, the most cold-blooded, the most capable of killing, there will be no mercy in the slightest, the general Akainu!

If it's Aokiji, it's better, he's familiar with Garp, and he'll look at Garp's face, not to mention that he won't go all out, but he will definitely not kill Luffy.

General Kizaru is also okay, it is impossible to be like Akainu.

"Really, there is no other way... Luffy, don't come, I don't think I can only watch and watch you being strangled. Don't come, or you who are rubber will face magma." General Akainu. You don't want me to be troubled, and I don't want you to be troubled. I hope you can understand my mood at that time. I will feel very uncomfortable, worse than death. So, Luffy, don't come, Even if you are very strong, don't come, because in this kind of war, you are not enough for the Five Emperors, so don't come, Luffy." Ace kept praying and talking to himself.

It made Karp feel uncomfortable, but he was helpless. Although he was a naval legend, he felt that he was a failure and could do nothing for them. Warring States sighed: "Hey, if you become a navy, you won't be where you are today."

Ace shook his head: "Impossible, both Luffy and I have inherited the blood of the world's biggest criminal, how could we be in the navy. Even though I inherited the name of my mother who has been kind to me, Portgas, but that * father's Being half blood embarrasses me because he brings me no memory or kindness at all."

"Hey, I hope the Whitebeards will come, and I hope they can win. Although it is wrong to say this as a navy, I don't want you to die. You are my grandson just like Luffy."

Garp said heavily: "Luffy, I don't want it. Although he is the Five Emperors, he is still worse than the world's strongest Whitebeard. If he is as strong as Whitebeard, then I hope he can come. I hope to rescue you even more, but the current Luffy is not enough."

Although he knows that Luffy is very strong, Garp really feels that it is not enough and needs to grow again.

Facing General Huang Yuan, the two sides went all out and split 50-50. But if you face the general Akainu, maybe it's not a 50-50 split, but the general Akainu has some advantages. Therefore, the five emperors are still very dangerous to the red dog.

Garp, like Ace, hopes that Luffy will not come, even if he is already the fifth emperor.

At this point, Hancock's ship heads to Advance City.

Luffy is on the boat, holding Ace's life card in his hand, which has been burned and left a wisp.

But, even so, Luffy is extremely firm: "Ace, you will not die. Now I am different. When I am on the top, in order to save you, I will awaken the sun god! Drive in fifth gear! Anyone who wants to stop me, I'll beat him down!"

Lu Fei's eyes were suddenly cold, his aura was domineering, and he was as concise as he was, and he waved the black cloak backwards.

Hancock secretly looked at Luffy from a distance, and when he saw how domineering Luffy was at this moment, he admired him even more.

"~Luffy... What a domineering man."

"I can't watch it, or I will die."

Hancock stretched out his hand to block the beautiful eyes, but said so, his body was still very honest, with five fingers spread, he couldn't help but continue to look at the domineering Luffy, making her addicted.

It is about to approach the city of advance, don't worry about the navy knowing in advance, because the flying squirrel has been found and killed, and the rest of the sailors sank into the sea to die at that time.

Therefore, no one knows that the Five Emperors sheltered Daughter Island. It doesn't matter whether Hancock is the Qiwuhai or not, because there are straw hats covering it.

Therefore, when we go to the city now, other people still regard Hancock as Qiwuhai.

Soon, they will approach the city of advance, and they must first pass through the gate of justice, which is difficult to break.

The Gate of Justice is so huge that even a warship seems small compared to it.

The most important thing is not only the size, but also the thickness, as well as the material of the door, which is the same material as the surrounding wall of the navy, so it is difficult to break through.

The reason why he was able to come, Hancock declared that he would join the battle if he saw Ace being imprisoned.

Warring States wondered why the flying squirrel didn't come back.

Hancock said that he didn't care about it, maybe he disappeared in bad weather.

Sengoku wanted to come to Hancock and there was no reason to do this.

Shichibukai had to be worthy, so he asked a lieutenant general to take Hancock to Jincheng City.

Advance to the first floor of the city, and Domino comes in to report.

"Deputy Warden, His Royal Highness Qiwu Haihan Cook has arrived, has put on the Hailou Stone, and has entered."

Hannibal nodded: "Understood, I'll go right away."

At this time, Hancock entered with Hailoushi handcuffs, and Luffy hid in the loose robes, making it difficult to find.

Entering the big prison, there are all kinds of screams for help.

"Help me, let me out."

"I was wrong, I will never be a pirate again, let me out, I must be a good person, this place is too tortured, I am going crazy."

"Help me, I'll give you all the money, I want to get out."

...

However, this sound is the norm and continues every day, all the time.

Hannibal (Li Liaohao) came to greet him, followed by Domino.

"Welcome to my Propel City."

After the words fell, Hannibal realized that something was wrong: "Ah, no, I slipped the tongue and exposed my ambition. I am Hannibal, the deputy warden, please take care of me."

"The warden... Ah, no, the warden Magellan is now in the warden's room on the fourth basement floor. Let's go there now, and the deputy warden Domino behind me will guide us."

Domino, with long blond wavy hair, tall and slender, wearing a deep-sea prison uniform, with long legs wrapped in burgundy stockings, made a gesture of invitation.

"Please come here, check your body first, I will check you before you can enter, please understand."

Chapter 112

Hancock also understood, and nodded calmly.

Follow Domino and walk towards the private VIP room.

Domino recounted: "If a prisoner wants to enter here, he will take off all the prisoner's clothes first, throw them into an iron pot boiling with 100 degrees of hell-warm water, and then go to prison after being sterilized.

Of course, there are differences among prisoners, not all of them. In this way, to those who were imprisoned not long ago, Fire Fist Ace, Shichibukai Jinpei, Hara Shichibukai Crocodile, etc., will not touch a hair of them when they come in, and their performance in prison is very good."

"As for Shichibukai, you of His Royal Highness Hancock, you only need to be checked by me in a separate room."

Then, when he came to the private room, Domino cheered up and said,

"Then, please take off the cloak, because it is the easiest way to hide things. Also, don't think about what to do, just do it, because there are telephones everywhere in the city. The bug will send the monitoring screen back to the monitor."

However, in the next moment, Luffy's domineering look broke out, targeting Domino.

In an instant, after a short period of dizziness, Luffy slipped out of the cloak and disappeared into the room.

Domino was puzzled when he lost his mind briefly, but he also knew that it was his fault. After all, Hancock was wearing a sea tower stone, so he couldn't let himself lose his mind.

"What's wrong with me, am I too tired?"

Hancock said: "I don't want to see it anymore, help me uncuff, I'm leaving now."

Domino was taken aback, in this case, he would naturally be more happy.

Chapter 116

"However, will you still participate in the war?"

"nature."

"Well."

Domino was naturally happy, took Hancock away, and opened the handcuffs after walking out of the city.

Domino was completely relieved to see Hancock board the boat and leave, out of Justice's Gate, and left without any trouble.

At this time, Luffy is acting on the first floor. Although there are surveillance phone bugs everywhere, the pair of eyes do not move in all directions, but need to move the eyes, so moving means there will be dead spots.

And Luffy is directly in second gear, moving extremely fast, and the surveillance phone bug can't catch it at all.

However, all of a sudden, the siren sounded loudly.

Luffy, who was moving fast, was taken aback. Logically speaking, he shouldn't have found out.

The alarm sounded on the first basement floor, indicating that there was a situation on the first floor.

Chief monitoring room, report immediately.

"On the first basement floor, the pirate who disappeared in Room 4, Bucky the Clown, is confirmed to be in the corridor in front of Single Cell 22, act quickly."

The sound resounded on the first floor, and Luffy understood that it was Bucky who was discovered.

Thinking of Bucky, Luffy had to sigh, the * of luck, the future four emperors.

Bucky was wearing a prison uniform at this time, with long blue hair tied in a ponytail, gritted his teeth and spoke.

"Damn it, it was discovered."

523

The criminals in the cell on the first floor smiled gloatingly, thinking that Bucky would soon be caught like them.

"Did you hear, Bucky was found."

"I knew it would be like this, how could I escape, this is the city of advancement."

"Horrible torture awaits him, he deserves it."

...

Immediately, many blue orangutans on the first floor started to move with big axes.

Luffy was on the basement floor and found that there were fewer surveillance phone bugs, but many blue orangutans started to act.

At this time, Bucky felt that he was in danger, but when he was besieged by the orangutans, all the orangutans suddenly fainted.

Bucky froze, what's going on?

Naturally, Luffy exploded with domineering arrogance and knocked out all the blue orangutans.

It doesn't matter if there is Bucky making trouble, thinking that Bucky solved it, it will be more difficult to find himself.

Luffy was moving quickly while avoiding some phone bugs, and when he paused, he happened to bump into Bucky.

Bucky was dumbfounded: "The Straw Hat Kid."

"It's you, Bucky."

"You were arrested too, now escape from prison like me."

Bucky gloats (aedb) and laughs.

Lu Fei shook his head: "No, I came in by myself, and I didn't escape from prison, but to save people."

These words startled Bucky, and found a problem, Luffy was not wearing a prisoner uniform.

Bucky was stunned. Could it be that he really came in and wanted to save someone?

It's unbelievable, Bucky can't believe it.

"Stop joking, you came in alone? Saving people? What are you kidding?"

Although I can't believe it, why I don't wear prison uniforms doesn't make sense.

Looking at the unbelievable Bucky, Luffy said indifferently: "What's unbelievable."

"Straw hat boy, don't pretend to be calm, you came in alone, and you still have to save people? How is it possible? Do you know where this is?

Have you not figured out the situation yet? Yes, after all, you are just a little pirate from the East China Sea. I don't know but..."

However, before Bucky finished speaking, his face suddenly changed

Luffy wrote lightly: "Isn't it the world's number one prison, Push City?"

Bucky froze, knowing where this was...

"You know you're still here to save people?"

"It's not impossible to save people."

Bucky froze, still so confident.

Bucky was touched: "Just now these blue gorilla fainted suddenly, it was you who did it, could it be that you came to save me because you knew I was in prison?"

"It has nothing to do with you." Luffy said helplessly.

"Okay, you can ask for more blessings, and trust your luck."

Whoosh!

The next moment, Bucky was stunned, because Luffy's voice was still lingering in his ears, and the figure disappeared, as if he had never existed.

"Just now...it's true, he really came, but disappeared again..."

Bucky was horrified: "Could it be, he became stronger, so fast."

"No, no, I have to follow him."

Bucky ran away, trying to hug a thigh like Luffy's.

But found that Luffy is not going up, not going out, but down.

"Is he really here to save people? What should I do?"

Going up, there is no hope, even if the people in the prison go out, they are even more desperate. The lineup of battleships stronger than the Demon Slayer Order is in the harbor, not to mention, there is a blocked door of justice.

I have no choice but to chase Luffy.

Soon, Luffy came to the second basement floor.

Originally, the beasts here made Luffy in the original plot take some effort, but now the Five Emperors Luffy, with his domineering aura, can make them lie on the ground in awe, trembling.

At this moment, a man with hair braided into three on the top of his head appeared in a prison uniform.

"Great, saved."

Luffy feels that he has brought luck to these people, this is mr3.

In the total monitoring room, everyone couldn't believe it.

"The second floor of the basement has also been resolved."

"I saw it just now. Another person has escaped from prison. It's mr3, a former member of Baroque Studio."

"Damn it, how did you do it?"

"Not only escaped from prison, but also knocked down all the beasts.

How could it be that Bucky on the first basement level and mr3 on the second basement level have such strength?"

"Underestimate them."

...

At this time, Luffy thinks it is good, it will be considered that mr3 did it.

Although it's okay to expose myself, after all, I'm not afraid of facing Magellan.

However, the later it is discovered, the better, because the later it is, the less likely the navy will send combat support.

If it is discovered now, there are still twenty hours before the public execution, and the Warring States Period will still hesitate to send high-strength combat operations.

However, if there are more than ten or a few hours left, the chances of sending high combat power are very small.

Moreover, with one's own combat power, it is impossible for a general to come over before the battle begins, and to catch oneself, it must be a long-term battle.

Therefore, the sooner it is discovered, the better.

Soon, Mr3 met Bucky.

Baki invited Mr3 to be with him, and going down, the strength of more people is greater.

Mr3 also understands that there is no hope to go up, and he can only get wet with the straw hat, and chase down the straw hat.

The progress was very fast, and Luffy came to the third underground floor, the Hunger Hell.

Luffy knows that the progress may not be so fast soon, because Magellan, the director of the promotion city, is on the fourth basement floor and will meet soon.

However, even Magellan couldn't stop himself who was already the Five Emperors.

Chapter 117 Akainu goes to the city of advancement!

At this time, Jinbe was locked in the same cell as Ace.

"Jinbei, your whole body is injured, does it hurt?" Ace asked.

Jinbe is upright and doesn't care: "It doesn't hurt or itch, but there is one thing that hurts me. My heart hurts because I can't implement justice."

Jinping's face was heavy: "If this continues, I will not die with peace.

What is the title of Qiwuhai, I don't want that kind of thing. If this war can be stopped, I don't have to die."

Because he didn't respond to the call of the World Government and didn't want to deal with the Whitebeard Pirates, he refused and was imprisoned here.

Ace is also clear, not surprising, after all, he is a very righteous and loyal Jinpei.

Although he has become Qiwuhai, he has been in the Whitebeard Pirates, and Jinping will naturally not be willing to join the navy to deal with Whitebeard.

Jinbe said: "The government thought I was a pirate who hated pirates, but you are completely different."

Hearing this, Ace was surprised: "Do you hate ~ pirates?"

"It's a surprise, although I have been in and out of the Whitebeard Pirates many times, but because of my position, all activities are carried out secretly, because I like you-"

Ace couldn't help but recall the first time - meeting.

"At that time, I was almost killed by you."

Jinbe said modestly: "We wanted to help him at the time, so we fought against you. Now the peace of Murloc Island is due to Daddy Whitebeard. Pirates want to enter the great route and go to the new world, and they will pass by Fishman Island. The era of great pirates began. Countless human pirates flocked to Fishman Island. They captured many Murlocs and Mermaids and sold them. When everyone was in despair, Whitebeard appeared. To say something, this The island is now my territory."

Even the face showed gratitude: "Just one sentence, no one dared to attack the Fishman Island since then. Such a powerful force, I will never forget what happened that day. That man protected many islands with his own name. He is The boss of the pirates must not be defeated, otherwise, what will happen to the sea. Everyone knows that the era of great chaos will come again. Therefore, even if I die, I will stop this war, and it is impossible to participate."

"And, if you participate, you will not only fight against the father, but also your younger brother, the Five Emperors Luffy, and they are likely to come. It is impossible for me to fight against Ace's father, and it is impossible for me to fight against Ace. Brother. If I want to stop the war,

I can save you, but I can't do anything now, sorry."

"Don't be sorry, I should tell everyone." Ace looked guilty.

...

At this time, Bucky and Mr3 not only chased down Luffy, but also released many pirates in prison uniforms along the way.

This made the pirates extremely grateful, worshiping Bucky, it's really amazing, this is a deep sea prison.

The pirates' eyes lit up, and they were extremely grateful.

Chapter 113

"Thanks Bucky."

"To have the ability to escape from prison, the only one who succeeded is the legendary Golden Lion."

"Bucky is too powerful, Lord Bucky!"

"That's a good title. God Bucky is too strong. He escaped from prison and saved us instead. It's amazing."

"It's even more powerful than the legendary Golden Lion. The Golden Lion just ran away, but Baki, the Great God, wants to take all of us to escape together, creating an unprecedented and unprecedented one!"

"I adore Bucky so much."

...

Mr3 was very speechless, the more you think about it.

Luffy is now on the third basement floor, and at a glance, it's all desert, and it's extremely hot here.

However, Luffy has no effect, after all, the environment in the teaching space is even worse.

Luffy is about to start searching, and will stay on this floor for a while, because Xiao Feng is on this floor.

"It was too big, hot and no food."

Luffy felt that this floor was also difficult, and the most important thing was the water source. Those who came here would not be starved to death first, but would die of thirst.

Luffy didn't act directly, but waited.

After a while, mr3 and Bucky came here.

The two were stunned, why didn't the straw hat continue to leave?

Luffy said: "You two, help me find someone. If I find someone, I can let you follow me out of the city."

This made the eyes of mr3 and Bucky brighten.

But after thinking about it, do you have the strength to leave the city?

Luffy said: "During this time, I am very strong and famous."

Bucky, however, remains skeptical.

Mr3 said: "Perhaps it is really possible. After all, my previous boss, Crocodile, was easily defeated by a partner of the Straw Hat. Then the Straw Hat may be stronger."

Bucky is still skeptical, it is possible to help, but is it really possible?

"There is only one person who has successfully escaped from prison in history, and that is the Golden Lion Shiji. Can you be as powerful as him?"

It would be more meaningful to let them leave instead of the straw hat leading them away.

As for whether he can keep up or not, it's out of Luffy's control.

So, Bucky thought of that.

Bucky also knows how powerful Shiki is. After all, he has been in the Roger Pirates, but he has fought against the Flying Pirates.

No matter how strong the straw hat is, can it be stronger than the legendary golden lion?

Luffy said: "Golden Lion, it's already gone to hell."

"Huh? The golden lion is dead?" Bucky was shocked, unbelievable.

"Who did it? Who has the ability. Now in this sea, who can do it, Whitebeard."

Lu Fei shook his head: "I killed him."

"what?!"

Bucky was in disbelief.

"Dahaishang, everyone calls me the Five Emperors now, and my bounty is three billion Baileys."

After Luffy finished speaking, Bucky was even more unbelievable, five emperors, three billion...

"It's fine if you don't believe me. I'm just wasting some time by looking for it alone. For you guys, find a way to escape by yourself."

This made Bucky's complexion change, relying on themselves, let alone hope.

Although helping Luffy, Luffy didn't lead them to escape, but let them follow, that is to say, to get the glory, whether they can get it or not depends on their own ability.

However, it is better than them escaping by themselves.

"I'll help you, who are you looking for?"

Luffy said: "Mr3 is very familiar, Feng Kelei."

Mr3 suddenly realized that he was indeed familiar and understood.

"I heard that Mr2 was arrested because he pretended to be you. No wonder you came to rescue him."

Mr3 was a little grateful to Feng Kelei, otherwise they wouldn't have had the chance to escape here.

"Who is Feng Clay?" Bucky didn't know.

Mr3 said: "Let me just tell you, you can recognize it at a glance, she looks like a ladyboy, and loves ballet, well, let's act."

Mr3 couldn't wait, Bucky quickly separated his body from his legs and moved quickly.

Because of the large space and high height on this floor, the cells are not one room, but one building after another.

There are nearly a hundred cells in each building, so even with Luffy's speed, it will take time to find them, so let mr3 and Bucky act together.

Now, it is still those jailers and creatures on all levels that are advancing the city, and Magellan has not yet acted.

So Luffy knew that neither the city nor the navy knew that he had come to the city.

That's fine, if the Straw Hats come together, they will be discovered, and they will be discovered before they enter the gate of justice.

In that case, the possibility of the navy sending a general is extremely high, or even directly sending three generals.

It's not that I'm afraid, I can fight with them, but not here, but on the top.

Therefore, it is best to let Hancock bring himself, and then he will participate in the battle on the top, so let Sauron and the others wait outside at the bottom of the sea.

When I went out by myself, I went to Marin Fando.

half an hour later.

Mr3 is hot and thirsty, but he has to keep looking.

"There are so many cells, it's hard to find."

Mr3 was sweating profusely, tired, hot and thirsty, very uncomfortable.

I'm a little lucky, but luckily I'm weaker, if I'm stronger, I'll be imprisoned at this level, which is too difficult.

Moreover, because this layer is too tormented, it is also very quiet, and most of them may not be able to bear it, and faint, and it is so hot that they are thirsty and don't want to talk.

However, mr3 was startled, and heard the voice, which was somewhat familiar.

Quickly following the sound, mr3's eyes lit up, and this special and cheerful voice spoke and sang.

"Anyway, there are only men and women in this world, but transvestites are both male and female, so they are the strongest. The way of transvestites is the strongest, the strongest..."

Mr3 is happy and found it.

"I found it! Come on!"

mr3 yelled, feeling like his voice was almost hoarse, it was too dry.

Luffy and Bucky rushed over after hearing it, and as they approached, Bucky felt that it was too weird.

"There is such a cheerful singing voice in such a tormented place. This person has such a good mentality."

Bucky also felt in his heart that this guy must be extraordinary, and it would be good to let him out, as there are more people and more strength.

Although Luffy said he defeated the Golden Lion, Bucky couldn't believe it, how could it be possible.

Soon, the three of Luffy came to the cell where Feng Kelei was.

Feng Kelei was taken aback when he saw it.

"Little straw hat."

Feng Klei's eyes lit up, happy, and soon realized something was wrong.

"Ah? Little Straw Hat, have you been caught too, or haven't you been able to get rid of the fate of being caught?"

"Xiao Feng, I came in by myself and was not caught." Lu Fei explained.

Feng Kelei found that he was indeed different from himself, not wearing a prison uniform.

Lu Fei easily pinched the cell door to death, and then used Liu Ying to tear off Hailou Stone.

Excited and happy, Feng Kelei hugged Luffy.

"Long time no see, Little Straw Hat, it's so nice to see you!"

Lu Fei embraced Xiao Feng and thanked: "I know that you helped us delay the arrest of the Demon Slaying Order."

Feng Kelei was happy: "Great, you're fine. After that time, I thought you were going to be arrested too. When I saw you just now, I really thought you were arrested."

Soon, Feng Klei realized something was wrong.

"Little Straw Hat, why are you here?"

This is a deep sea prison, but no pirates want to come in on their own initiative.

Luffy said bluntly: "Save you, and my brother."

"Brother of the little straw hat, he must be rescued, and I will be with you."

Feng Kelei was very moved, and Luffy saved himself again.

Feng Kelei's fighting spirit is rising, he must succeed, and must go out together.

"The ferocious beasts on this level are here, and I leave them to you. I can't be discovered by them yet, and it will take a long time."

Obviously, Luffy refers to the time until the public execution.

If he knew now, the navy might still send a general.

The shorter the time, the less likely it is to send a grand general. You have to wait for the Whitebeard Pirates in Marlin Vandor.

"Okay, leave it to me!"

"Turn, turn, turn, turn..."

0...Ask for flowers...

Feng Klei spun around like dancing a ballet, and Luffy hid in the fast movement.

Dense blue beasts, human face lions, etc. came.

Feng Kelei's strength is also strong, with fast kicks, and dense kicks keep knocking away beasts one by one.

"Shemale boxing, gorgeous swan dance!"

The main monitoring room is constantly reporting.

"Now we have identified three escaped prisoners who are not ordinary prisoners, namely Bucky the Clown, Mr3, and Feng Clay. Now, these three are rioting on the third floor of the basement. The blue gorilla and the Sphinx are not their opponents."

...

Luffy has entered the present and has still not been discovered.

After cleaning up the combat power of the promotion city on the third underground floor, Luffy asked Feng Kelei.

"Xiao Feng, do you know the way to the next floor?"

"Yes, little straw hat, come with me."

Soon, Luffy and Feng Kelei came to the stairs from the third basement floor to the fourth basement floor first.

However, not long after going down, four huge figures emerged.

Feng Klei felt that these four guys were not simple, and they were not comparable to the beasts just now.

"Little straw hat, you hide it and leave it to me."

Feng Kelei jumped up, spun quickly, and kicked out as soon as he got close to the jailer beast.

"Shemale boxing, the memoir of that winter!"

However, the Jailor Beast, which looked like a cow, reacted and struck out with a mace in its hand.

The moment of the collision, Feng Kelei fell to the ground, startled, how could this Jailor Beast be so powerful.

whoosh whoosh...

Chapter 114

Moving quickly, the other three jailor beasts appeared in other directions of Feng Kelei, and four jailer beasts surrounded Feng Kelei.

Feng Kelei was startled, this is the Navy's six-style shave.

These four Jailor Beasts are actually animal devil fruit capable users, but they look like real beasts in appearance. They are humanoid cows, koalas, rhinos, and zebras.

.....

The four Jailor Beasts immediately besieged, Feng Kelei didn't dare to be careless, his body spun quickly on the spot, like a tornado.

"Shemale boxing, the memoir of that summer!"

While spinning, it is also kicking in all directions.

However, the four Jailor Beasts were also powerful. They chose to resist and attack at the same time. With a scream, Feng Kelei was sent flying.

"hateful."

Feng Klei stood up and had to solve it himself.

Luffy appeared at this time: "Xiao Feng, let me come, you are not the opponent of the four of them."

"Little Straw Hat, can't you expose yourself now?" Feng Klei worried.

"It's okay, the phone bug has been stunned by me. As for these four guys, although they saw me, they just need to be defeated."

Feng Kelei understood, and his fighting spirit rose: "Then I will defeat them with the little straw hat."

"No need to."

After Luffy finished speaking, he moved suddenly and entered the second gear.

During the rapid movement, the fist was pitch-black, and the flow of cherry blossoms surged. It was so fast that the first cow jailer beast didn't react at all. It was punched in the abdomen, and flew out directly, spitting blood, and the abdomen was deeply sunken.

Flashing again, another punch flew away.

The other two reacted, and even though they waved their weapons and bombarded them, the weapons shattered and were blown away by a punch.

In an instant, the four Jailor Beasts fell to the ground, and were directly seriously injured and lost their combat power.

Feng Kelei was stunned, it was too strong.

"Little straw hat, to be so powerful..."

After all, Luffy can punch a supernova with one punch, and it's easy to kill this Jailor Beast with one punch.

Afterwards, Luffy and Feng Kelei came to the fourth underground floor, the scorching hell.

Luffy knows that he will come here soon, the real battle is coming, and he is also interested, and will face Magellan.

Navy Headquarters.

At this moment, Zhan Guo frowned slightly, feeling something was wrong.

I already knew about the riots in Jinjin City, so I thought it was a bit of a coincidence.

"There is no news about the flying squirrel. Hancock suddenly wanted to advance to the city, but he chose not to go in after entering. Why, what kind of tricks are playing. But, only Hancock entered, and it is true that no one else was seen. But, then Push the city and there will be riots."

Warring States always felt that there was something strange and a little worried.

Karp ate the senbei and asked, "Sengoku, what's the matter, frowning."

"I always feel like something's going on in Propulsion City."

"It happened, but don't worry about it?"

"It doesn't always feel that simple."

Sengoku was worried and called Hannibal again.

"Marshal of the Warring States Period, there are indeed only three major criminals."

Warring States frowned, and it was still the same after confirming again.

"Let Domino tell me."

"yes!"

"Tell me that meeting Hancock made you feel weird."

Warring States asked directly.

Domino thought about it, and said, "What's unusual is that when the body search was about to take place, I lost my mind for a short time, but in such a short time, it's impossible for anything to happen."

This made the Warring States period stunned, lost his mind? How could it be, how could the deputy warden lose his mind?

It is also impossible for Hancock to use his ability, and he was handcuffed by Hailoushi, but why did he lose his mind?

The Warring States felt more and more that something was wrong.

Overlord looks can make people dizzy, and those who are strong will lose their minds.

However, with Domino's strength, even a powerful overlord color, it is difficult for her to be stunned for a short time, right?

Unless it's a red-haired domineering color.

Thinking of this, Zhan Guo's face suddenly changed.

"No! Not only the overlord color of the red hair, but also... the straw hat!"

Inch.

Chapter 118 Five Emperors Luffy and Red Hair

Immediately, Zhan Guo's face became more serious.

"It must be a straw hat! I went to Advance City! What a trouble, first Judiciary Island, then Chambord, and now Advance City?"

Garp said: "Although this makes me more proud as a grandfather, but Warring States, do you think too much?"

Zhan Guo frowned: "I always feel that there is a problem."

Sengoku directly contacted Akainu and asked him to come to the office.

Soon, Akainu arrived.

Warring States directly said: "I suspect that the straw hat has sneaked into the city of advancement, no one dares, after all, Ace the Fire Fist is in the city of advancement."

Akainu asked: "Are you sure, why are you suspicious? If the Straw Hats go to the city, it will be easy to find out."

Sengoku frowned: "That's strange, perhaps, not everyone from the Straw Hats went to Advance City."

Warring States felt a headache for a while, and was also a little angry.

Thinking about pushing the city to the fourth floor, even if the "five two three" straw hat entered, it would be difficult to detect.

Now this is uncertain, making it impossible for the Warring States to give orders directly. After all, this is a special period, and the general cannot be easily let go because of an uncertain factor.

In the past, just let the red dog go to have a look, but it can't do it now, you have to be cautious.

Warring States contacted Magellan immediately, feeling a little worried in his heart. Because of Magellan's ability, he basically spent a long time in the toilet every day.

Poro Poro...

Dial the phone bug, and soon, it was connected.

"Marshal of the Warring States Period, I am Magellan."

Pushing forward to the fourth basement floor of the city, Magellan just came out of the toilet.

Zhan Guo breathed a sigh of relief, and said in a deep voice: "I suspect that the straw hats have sneaked into the city of advancement, you should immediately take action to confirm, as soon as possible, if you find out now, I can send a general there. If it is later, I can't send the general there. In addition, transfer Fire Fist Ace now and secretly send it to Marlin Fandor."

"Understood."

After hanging up the phone, Magellan acted immediately.

Akainu looked iron-blooded: "I'm going to Advance City now. If the straw hat is not there, I will return directly after getting the exact information.

If it is in Advance City, it will save time. I will kill him directly in Advance City."

Zhan Guo nodded, thinking the same way.

"It is impossible for all the Straw Hats to enter. It is likely that there is only one straw hat. In this case, there is no need to send multiple generals. And even if the Straw Hats are all there, they cannot send multiple generals. It is not long before the public execution. Are the Beard Pirates nearby, so send at most one, if only the Straw Hats are advancing in the city, I hope you can unite with Magellan to take down the Straw Hats as soon as possible."

The red dog was murderous; "It must be."

Akainu also knows that time is running out, and when encountering straw hats, they must be resolved quickly, because they have to join the battle to deal with the Whitebeard Pirates.

Akainu set off directly, and Sengoku breathed a sigh of relief.

The voice of the Warring States was low: "It would be best if you are not in Jincheng City. If you are, just stay there."

Garp's heart was heavy: "I hope Warring States will think more about it."

Garp doesn't want Luffy to be in the city, if everyone in the Straw Hats is okay.

However, the result will be discovered sooner, and the fire fist Ace will be transferred, and the general will not be sent over.

Now, transfer Fire Fist Ace, because there may only be one straw hat in the city of advancement, so Akainu acts.

...

The fourth floor underground.

Magellan was ready to act, and soon the jailer came to report.

"Director, it's bad, the four Jailor beasts have been defeated!"

Magellan's face changed, and he felt more and more possible.

"It can't be just the three of Bucky. With their strength, they can't do it.

To defeat the four Jailor Beasts in such a short time, at least they have to be imprisoned in the five underground floors with over 100 million existences. It is impossible for them to do it. Could it be, Straw Hats I really came to the city of advancement."

Thinking of this, Magellan's face darkened.

"If you come, let me keep this five emperors here forever."

Magellan immediately arranged: "Hannibal, little Satie, go to the stairs leading to the third basement floor, and take people to guard them. If they really come here, they must not be allowed to go out, and strictly guard against it."

Little Satie held the whip, a little reluctant.

"Well~~ Director, I don't want to defend, I want to attack. If I don't attack, there is no meaning for my existence."

Magellan reminded: "If it is the five emperors' straw hat, you can't attack him, you will only be attacked by him, so, guard the stairs on the third floor with Hannibal, and I will guard the entrance to the fifth floor underground."

"Well~ let others try it, I really want to use my little leather whip to whip this new five emperors."

Magellan frowned: "Aren't you going to listen to my arrangement?"

With a sigh, the poisonous mist filled the air, and the expressions of Hannibal and Little Satie changed drastically.

"Hmm~ Ya Die, director, I'll just do as I want 0..."

Magellan is confident: "Wait for me to grab the straw hat, and let you dispose of it."

Little Sati was excited and couldn't wait: "It's great, I really can't wait. I want to attack the Five Emperors as soon as possible. I heard that he is still a little brother who is not yet 18 years old. Director, you have to hurry up."

At this time, Luffy and Feng Kelei fell to the fourth underground floor, where it was even hotter.

"It's so hot." Feng Kelei couldn't stand up.

The armed color covering under Lu Fei's feet naturally has no effect.

Bucky and mr3 also came here, and they didn't want to come, but there were more and more fighting forces above, they couldn't beat them, so they had to come down.

Soon, mr3 felt like he was melting.

"It's getting hotter here, I feel like the candle is about to melt."

Feng Kelei knew the city well and was responsible for leading the way.

Although Luffy knows the plot, but if you want to say how much you know about the promotion city, you naturally don't know the route, the location of the stairs, etc., of course you don't know.

At this level, Luffy didn't hide anymore.

Because there are many jailers wearing protective clothing here, densely packed, and it is a very empty layer.

"It's really a straw hat!"

"He came here without anyone noticing, is this the strength of the Five Emperors?"

"Notify the Magellan Agency..."

However, in the next moment, they became quiet, and they all fell to the ground, stunned by Luffy's domineering look.

Even in the promotion city, cracks appeared on the ground.

"Wow, the little straw hat is amazing." Feng Klei marveled at 3.1.

Bucky looked at Luffy's back, the black stand-up collar cloak was dancing, his figure was domineering, wearing a straw hat, exuding domineering looks, his aura was stronger and more masculine.

For a moment, Bucky thought he saw red hair.

Bucky exclaimed: "The straw hat gives me the feeling, it looks even more powerful. It really gave me the feeling of seeing Shanks just now, powerful and domineering, also all black cloaks, and wearing a cape that Captain Roger once gave to Shanks. Max's straw hat, really like it."

Bucky reacted, Five Emperors?

Chapter 115

Just now, I heard the jailer talking about the Five Emperors.

Could it be that he has been crowned emperor? so smart?

So, is it true to defeat the Golden Lion?

After the horror, Bucky is happy, so that there is more hope of escape. Bucky didn't have any doubts either, because the momentum just now can be called the emperor's.

Chapter 119 Lava melts rubber? Sun God Luffy smiled

After the overlord's color stunned all the jailers on the fourth floor, the four of Luffy quickly came to the stairs leading to the fifth underground floor.

However, when he was about to move on, suddenly a huge figure fell down, the ground shook, purple poisonous mist filled the air, and Luffy and others retreated.

The poisonous fog dissipated, and a forty-five-year-old man appeared in most of the black director's uniform, a pair of black wings behind his back, and a pair of black long horns on his head.

Puddles of purple venom flowed from the face and body.

Magellan looked down at Luffy and the others with a low voice.

"The Straw Hats of the Five Emperors really came to Jinjin City, just as Marshal Warring States guessed."

Magellan felt a little ashamed, and his face was ugly: "It is a disgrace to the city and me to advance to this floor and find you."

Even, if it weren't for the reminder from the Warring States Period, Magellan felt that it would be difficult for him to discover the straw hat so quickly.

Feng Kelei's face changed drastically: "Magellan..."

Magellan was confident: "It's over, Five Emperors, and there are three mice, let me, Magellan, strangle you here, and stay in Push City forever." tick tock...

Puddles of venom continuously dripped from Magellan's body onto the ground, making a sizzling sound, and purple poisonous gas diffused.

Immediately, the prison guards in the distance moved further away in fright, not daring to inhale the poisonous gas, otherwise it would be doomed.

Magellan sighed softly: "It's really hot here."

As Magellan faced Luffy, the jailer in the distance changed his expression in surprise.

"The straw hats are here."

"Without the Administrator, we might not have known."

"Notify Marshal Warring States quickly."

"Before the notification, let's run away quickly, and we can only notify if we are alive."

"Although it is such a long distance, it is still very dangerous. Director, don't fight first, let's escape first."

...

For a moment, the prison guards in the distance fled in terror and went to the third floor underground.

After leaving, he was relieved, and then notified.

Soon, Zhan Guo knew about this, and his face became more and more gloomy.

It was just speculation before, but now it has been completely confirmed.

Straw hat Luffy has not only entered the promotion city, but has also reached the fourth underground floor.

Warring States is a little lucky, fortunately, it has been arranged to evacuate Fire Fist Ace to push the city, so it would be useless for the straw hat to go.

Moreover, they may be attacked by Magellan and Akainu from inside and outside, and stay in the city of advancement.

However, Warring States felt that it would not be so easy.

It's not that Magellan and Akainu can't take down Luffy together.

Although they are five emperors, they are only five emperors after all.

If it is Whitebeard, Magellan and Akainu join forces, and it will be difficult to take down Whitebeard. But the straw hat is bound to be won.

Even with one red dog, Sengoku felt it was possible.

However, just because there is only one straw hat in Push City, it doesn't mean that the Straw Hats are not nearby.

Sengoku hopes that after Akainu and Magellan join forces, they can quickly solve the straw hats, so that even if the straw hats arrive, it will be too late.

The strength of the straw hat leader, the straw hat, is a big blow to them.

"I hope it will work."

Warring States prayed in his heart, but felt uneasy.

After all, every time I thought it was possible, but failed.

Sky Island, Aokiji's operation failed, and the Straw Hats didn't use their full strength.

Judiciary Island, cp0 combat power plus the Demon Slaying Order, was defeated.

Shampoo, the two generals, still failed.

So this time...

Sengoku is uneasy, thinking that it may still be difficult, but there is a certain chance, it depends on Akainu, and things generally do not disappoint.

After Sengoku contacted Akainu, he asked Akainu to go to the city of advancement, and it was confirmed that the straw hat was in the city of advancement.

Although they have all started to act, Warring States still has a headache.

At this time, after confirming that Luffy was advancing the city, Garp laughed.

"Ha ha ha ha..."

Cap wasn't really worried.

If the Straw Hats join the battle, Garp is a little worried.

But if he went to Advance City, then even if there are Magellan and Red Dog, I believe Luffy will be fine. Also, the companion must be nearby.

And Garp also understands the current situation in the city of advancement. Luffy is constantly liberating some imprisoned pirates.

Then, Magellan and Akainu may not be able to join forces to deal with Luffy.

So, if Luffy and Akainu fight alone, it will not be easy to solve Luffy.

After all, they are not ordinary pirates, but emperors. One general faces one emperor, and it is very difficult to kill each other.

Otherwise, there will be no Four Emperors in this sea, and there will be no generals in the navy.

Hearing Karp laugh, Sengoku stood up angrily, and slapped his palm on the table.

"What's so funny, Garp. You're laughing so hard about this world-shocking top priority and the troubles you've gotten into one after another. Judicial Island, Chambord killed the Celestial Dragons, and now there's a separate invasion of Advance City, all of them This unprecedented event is simply the greatest challenge to the world government and our navy, and you can still laugh."

Seeing Garp already grinning, trembling with Sengoku spirit.

"Why is it always your grandson, Garp!"

Karp gave a thumbs up and said with a smile: "Haha, as expected of my grandson, he is really amazing, beyond my imagination, really good."

Warring States was very angry: "If it weren't for you being a naval hero, you would have been made to shoulder the responsibility of this family."

Garp said: "The seriousness of so many things cannot be solved with my old life."

523

"Damn it, why does the sinful blood always come from this family."

Warring States was very troubled.

I stopped talking to Karp, and seeing Karp still eating senbei happily, the more he talked, the more angry he became.

"Hopefully, Sakaski can solve it."

...

At this time, a warship quickly headed to the city of advance.

After being confirmed, Chiquan's face was full of iron and blood, his fists were clenched tightly, murderous, and he couldn't wait even more.

"Straw hat boy, you are indeed advancing to the city, and you can finally be strangled."

Akainu asked: "How long will it take to reach the city of advancement?"

"General Sakaski, it takes another hour!"

Although it only takes half an hour, Akainu feels that it is still a long time, and wants to meet the straw hat now, and then do it.

But, we can only wait.

Akainu looked in the direction of the advancing city, his face was low and murderous.

"Straw hat, wait to be melted by my magma!"

In Akaken's view, the fact that Kizuru failed to do it doesn't mean he couldn't do it.

He didn't believe that he was a majestic admiral, and the magma fruit himself couldn't kill five emperors or even a rubber. It was a joke to say that.

However, if Luffy heard Akainu's words, the magma melted itself?

Well, Luffy will definitely laugh.

Magma melted the sun god? .

Chapter 120 Five Emperors VS Magellan

Advance the city.

Luffy faced Magellan with a calm expression.

"Xiao Feng, step back."

Although Feng Kelei knew the horror of Magellan, he was very loyal and stepped forward to stand side by side with Luffy.

"Little Straw Hat, I'll help you."

Mr3 is apprehensive: "I heard that Magellan's poison is terrible. Straw hat, although you are very strong, if you are poisoned, it will be difficult to display your strength. I will use my ability to get you a bunch of candle gloves, and you must have them on your feet."

"No need, I can do it alone, you stay away, otherwise you won't be able to bear the poison later."

After Lu Fei finished speaking, he stretched his left arm horizontally and breathed heavily.

"Fourth gear!"

"Elastic Man!"

duangduangduang...

Facing Magellan, Luffy directly entered the fourth gear of Elastic Man, and didn't want to waste time.

The most important thing is that Magellan's toxin is indeed terrifying, and if he is poisoned, he will feel uncomfortable.

However, no help from mr3 is needed.

In the case of the original plot, it is necessary because it will not be armed with domineering colors.

Of course, ordinary armed domineering is also difficult to prevent Magellan's poison, otherwise the armed color can be used, and Magellan's powerful poisonous fruit ability will be useless.

If you want to prevent Magellan's poison, you need at least an extremely powerful armed color domineering.

Moreover, it is impossible to prevent it for a long time, but it is possible to prevent the toxin for a short time, because a powerful armed color is equivalent to armor.

Looking at Lu Fei's back, they felt more and more that the one in front of them was the Emperor, and it seemed that they were the ones to worry about the Emperor, some seemed too worried, and they should worry about themselves.

Feng Kelei and the others retreated a long way, watching the Five Emperors about to fight with the director of the advancing city.

Magellan frowned slightly as he watched the fourth-speed elastic man bouncing up in constant contact with the ground.

"The whole body is covered with powerful armed domineering, so I want to resist my poison, but some poisons cannot be stopped."

Magellan knew that he had to go all out, and the one in front of him was not the new Pirates, but the Five Emperors.

General Kizaru couldn't defeat the Straw Hats, so he had to go all out.

"Poison cloud!!"

Suddenly, Magellan's body was filled with purple poisonous gas, which spread rapidly and became rich.

Immediately, Feng Klei and the others moved away faster.

Feng Kelei yelled to remind: "Little straw hat, be careful! The poisonous gas will be unstoppable, you must hold your breath."

Luffy knows the power of Magellan's poison. Once this poisonous gas touches the body, it will make people's five senses disappear quickly.

Now there are four levels of elastic man, the whole body is covered with powerful armor and domineering, and there is no contact with the body.

However, Luffy knows that breath holding is necessary, otherwise it will gradually affect the five senses.

If Magellan is the only one in Advance City, now the Navy Headquarters must know that he has come to Advance City, so it is possible to send combat forces.

Therefore, in the battle with Magellan, I can't be seriously injured, and my body can't be exhausted. Then if the general comes later, it will be a little troublesome.

Chapter 116

Moreover, he has to participate in the top battle, that is the real, bigger battle.

It is also one of the most important reasons why I worked so hard, to become strong enough to change the outcome of the Dingshan War.

If you can't even change the top, what's the point of traveling and merging yourself to become Luffy.

It can't be changed, and there's no point in doing what's next. The thing I want to change the most can't be changed, let alone the follow-up.

Therefore, you must keep yourself in a good state and be on top of the exhibition.

The poisonous gas soon enveloped Luffy, and Luffy blindfolded his eyes.

After all, the eyes cannot cover the armed color.

The poisonous gas can also suffocate the eyes.

Magellan frowned, knowing that Luffy not only closed his eyes, but also held his breath.

Moreover, the whole body is powerfully armed and domineering, so it is equivalent to that poisonous gas is temporarily useless against straw hats.

Magellan said with a deep laugh: "A useless straw hat, it's just a short-term defense. How long can you hold your breath? Let alone fight with me with your eyes closed? Let's see how long you can hold your breath and close your eyes."

Magellan is not worried, thinking that Luffy will be poisoned sooner or later.

Once poisoned, no matter how strong you are at the time, even stronger than yourself, once your body functions are reduced, your strength will also be reduced, and you will not be your opponent.

Coupled with the geographical environment of Advancing City, it is very conducive to fighting by yourself.

Therefore, in Advance City, it is not an exaggeration to say that he is equivalent to the combat power of a general.

Feng Klei and the others were worried, and Luffy restricted a lot before it even started.

Feng Klei shouted: "Little Straw Hat, we will be your eyes."

Luffy shook his head: "No, just rely on knowledge and arrogance. In addition, you don't need to hold your breath for a long time, because I will make the battle end soon."

Luffy's words made Magellan's face darken, and he was angry.

"This guy...Even if you are the Five Emperors, if you say such a thing, you are too contemptuous of me, the director of the promotion city!"

With anger, Magellan's body surged with purple venom, ticking and falling on the ground, and the sound of corrosion continued.

Let the fight end quickly, which means, beat yourself up for a short time.

In this way, there is no need to hold your breath for a long time.

This made Magellan angry, and he had to show the arrogant Five Emperors his own strength.

"Poison channel!"

Knowing that Lu Fei closed his eyes, then relying on his knowledge and arrogance?

That being the case, I started fighting as quickly as possible.

The purple poison channel quickly formed, and Magellan's body turned into venom, quickly passed through the channel, came to Luffy, and was about to open his mouth to spit out the poisonous gas bomb.

However, with a whoosh, Magellan's eyes widened, and Luffy in front of him disappeared!

The next moment, I felt uneasy, and there was a piercing sound above my head.

"Fourth gear! Karma pistol!"

Luffy's right hand blows suddenly huge, like a giant, the fire of karma surges, and the cherry blossoms surge.

(Li Le Zhao)

Magellan raised his head, his pupils shrank, so fast.

Feeling that the blow was extremely powerful, Magellan did not dare to be careless.

"Poison Dragon!"

The body's venom condensed and three poisonous dragons roared upwards, and at the same time, four karma pistols blasted down heavily.
boom!

Pooh!

At the moment of the collision, the three poisonous dragons stalemated for a short while, screaming pitifully.

Soon, it collapsed directly, which made Magellan's eyes widen and he was even more shocked.

boom!

When the Yehuo punched the gun down, Magellan let out a scream.

"what!"

The screams were accompanied by deafening roars, and Magellan was punched to the ground and fell into a deep pit.

While screaming, Magellan opened his mouth wide, blood spurted out, and his face showed pain. Obviously, this blow made him extremely painful.

Seeing this scene, Feng Klei and the others were stunned.

Is this the strength of the Five Emperors....

Chapter 121 Four-stage Elastic Man War Awakening Magellan

In the deep pit, Magellan was in great pain, so powerful and domineering, so powerful.

Luffy was about to attack again, and Magellan in the deep pit kept spitting out venom bombs, densely packed.

"Poisonous blowfish!"

whoosh whoosh...

Dense venom bombs sprayed upwards, attacking Luffy.

Luffy dodges while moving fast. Although powerful and domineering can resist Magellan's poison, it is not completely resistant.

In comparison, this is Magellan's poison. In the promotion city, Magellan definitely has the strength of a general.

It is impossible for Luffy to defeat Magellan without injury.

Therefore, the poison should be hidden as long as it can be avoided, and it can be resisted for a short time, but if it takes a long time, or if there is a lot of poison, it will still have an impact.

Magellan jumped out and exclaimed: "No wonder General Polusalino failed to defeat you, but fought you 50-50. It seems that he is really strong, and he can be called the Five Emperors."

Magellan became very serious and planned to go all out.

"If you want to treat you as a general-level or emperor-level powerhouse, then I will also go all out! If you want to end the battle in a short time, then I will poison you in a short time!"

Suddenly, Magellan's momentum rose.

Luffy didn't dare to be careless, it would be troublesome if he was poisoned.

Luffy also knew in his heart that in Advance City, Magellan should not be treated as a quasi-general, but should be treated as a general.

In the battle with the general Yellow Monkey, Luffy was exhausted and his injuries were not serious, so the battle with Magellan will definitely consume and be poisoned, but the lighter the better.

Of course, if it is advancing outside the city, it will be difficult for Magellan to have the strength of a general, a quasi-general or infinitely close to a general.

But this promotes the city environment, which is too conducive to Magellan's ability to use it.

Luffy became cautious, knowing that Magellan might use the fruit to awaken.

Magellan's momentum rose, his eyes became blood red, and his body was continuously covered with venom. It was no longer the purple venom before, but dark red venom.

The dark red venom flowed like magma, covering the whole body.

For a while, the toxin became more powerful.

Magellan said in a deep voice, "It's impossible for you not to be poisoned.

Even if you have powerful armed domineering, the next collision will be very bad for you if you get poisoned."

Luffy also knows that the toxin is stronger now.

In the original plot, Luffy can cover his hands and feet with candles made by mr3 at the beginning, so as to fight and isolate Magellan's purple venom.

However, after Magellan entered this state, the candle would no longer work, and would be corroded by the dark red venom, which shows that the power of the venom has increased.

Therefore, Luffy knew that he couldn't touch the venom too much in the future.

"Then try not to touch 527."

Luffy's words made Magellan frown slightly, don't you touch it?

So, how do you defeat yourself?

The next moment, Magellan was stunned.

I saw Luffy's dark red domineering entwined hands, this is, domineering entwined!

With Magellan's explosive ability, the dark red venom continued to spread towards the surroundings like magma, and soon, it would spread all over the entire four underground floors.

The people in the distance keep retreating, not daring to approach, if they encounter a little bit of dark red venom, they will die soon.

Naturally, Luffy can't touch the ground, and uses the elastic force to stay in the air.

"Giant Soldier of Poison!"

With a low shout from Magellan, his power exploded completely, and he was swallowed by the dark red venom, and then surged like a fountain.

The top of the rising fountain is like a skull, eerie and permeating.

Soon, it was no longer huge, and a huge skeleton with a huge dark red venom condensed emerged, and Magellan was located in it, and his own movements were in line with the huge dark red venom skull.

With a punch, the dark red skull also punched Luffy.

Luffy has a four-speed Great Ape King Spear, and the overlord's color is entwined.

There was a sudden roar, and the venom splashed everywhere.

However, they all sputtered to the rear and left and right, and did not fall on Luffy, which means that the strength of the upper road is much stronger.

There is also no real contact, because the overlord color is entangled.

Magellan was not in a hurry, the longer the delay, the better for himself.

The poisonous gas around was no longer purple, but also dark red.

This means that the poisonous gas is stronger, and if you can't hold your breath, if you inhale it, it will seriously affect your body.

Although the domineering color entanglement prevents the attack from being touched, but the poisonous fruit itself must be armed with the domineering color to hit him, and then he will be hit to the essence.

Overlord color entanglement, because it can be spaced, so it can't be touched, and naturally it can't hit the natural system.

Luffy is also clear: "Then, let's hit your body, overlord color winding and armed color!"

Magellan is not heavy, on the contrary, he is very happy. Even if he is domineering and strong, as long as he touches the venom in his awakened state, if it accumulates, his body will be affected.

Magellan thought that it would be best if he could defeat the Straw Hats, but if he couldn't beat the Straw Hats, it would be a 50-50 split with the Straw Hats, and both of them would be seriously injured, so don't worry.

Because, Akainu is on the way.

At that time, the straw hat, which was poisoned and consumed a lot of body, would definitely not be the opponent of the general Akainu, and would be strangled.

At this time, Luffy felt that it was right not to let Sauron and the others come together, because the more people there are, the worse it is. In such a geographical environment, more people are more beneficial to Magellan.

Just like the Blackbeard Pirates in the original plot, they were almost wiped out by Magellan alone.

Therefore, the poisonous fruit is still very powerful.

In this state, Magellan once again condensed the red poisonous dragon, which became even bigger and roared out.

"Gear 4! Yehuo Overlord Ape King Spear!"

Suddenly, the fire of karma surged, the cherry blossoms flowed, and the overlord's color entwined, and a huge black giant fist bombarded out.

boom!

There was no real contact with the red poisonous dragon, and the moment of collision, the red poisonous dragon collapsed.

The giant black fist quickly approached Magellan.

Magellan's face changed, and he couldn't avoid it, because this state was too huge.

Moreover, if you can hide or not, let the straw hat attack you. Even if you will be injured, the straw hat will also be stained with your own poison.

Magellan quickly crossed his hands to block in front of him, defending with all his strength.

Magellan shouted in a low voice: "Iron block!"

At this moment, Magellan felt a little more relaxed...

However...

boom!

When the huge dark red Tyrannical Ape King's Spear arrived, Magellan's face suddenly changed drastically, his eyes protruded, his mouth opened wide, blood gushed out, and he flew backwards.

Chapter 117

With a bang, it hit the wall directly, creating a deep hole.

Magellan was in excruciating pain, this punch was too terrifying, directly causing serious injury to himself.

I thought it would not be so, after all, the poisonous dragon offset part of the power, and he defended with all his strength, but he was still seriously injured.

Not only pain, but also a burning sensation, and black smoke rising from his body.

"hateful..."

Magellan allowed himself to persevere. Although the straw hat's hand touched his own red venom, it was not enough, and he had to continue to fight.

Magellan's explosive ability did not move, but the dark red venom surged, and a huge skull appeared in front of him, opened his mouth, and swallowed Luffy.

"Surrounded by venom!"

"Fourth gear! Overlord Ape King Crow Cannon!"

Suddenly, dense black fists bombarded, separated from the poisonous skeleton, and continued to disperse.

Magellan stood up with an ugly face.

"At such a young age, I have mastered the overlord color entanglement. If I don't have it, it will be much easier to deal with."

If not, then Magellan is confident that he can make the straw hat more poisonous.

But since there is an overlord's color entanglement, then it depends on one's willpower and vitality, the longer you have to last.

On the one hand, it makes the straw hat unable to hold its breath, and on the other hand, it makes the straw hat more poisonous.

Magellan stood up, and suddenly shot dense red poisonous bullets all over his body.

"Hell Poison Pufferfish!"

whoosh whoosh...

For a moment, dense dark red poison darts shot at Luffy.

In the fourth gear state, the body is huge, so it is easy to be touched by the dense poisonous bullets.

Luffy also felt that it was time to make a quick decision, knowing that Magellan wanted to persevere and not fall, waiting for himself to be unable to hold his breath.

It is indeed difficult to hold the breath for a long time, then, end the battle as soon as possible.

Luffy knows that it is difficult to defeat Magellan with one punch, so ten punches, or even dozens of punches.

Luffy jumped up and floated above Magellan.

Magellan's hands suddenly became huge, like the hands of a skeleton, dark red and bloody.

Raise your hands and keep bombarding them out.

Above, Luffy's hands are both of the fourth-gear Yehuo Ape King Gun, and it is no longer a punch.

"Fourth gear of Karma Overlord Ape King Group Spear!"

whoosh whoosh...

The huge black giant fists were densely packed, and the karmic fire surged and bombarded down, constantly colliding with the huge dark red skeleton hand.

Isolated on collision, no contact.

Magellan said in a deep voice, "I want to hit me, and make me fall down completely this time, hold on!"

Magellan's continuous burst of ability keeps the skeleton hand from being collapsed, and it keeps confronting Luffy.

However, in terms of power, it is ultimately invincible. The power of the poisonous fruit is not defense, nor power, but toxin. Naturally, it cannot be compared with Luffy's violent bombardment.

It was quickly collapsed (aedb), and dense fists of karmic fire fell from the sky.

Magellan defended with all his strength again, even if he fell down, he must continue to persevere, and let the straw hat punch himself a few more times, dozens of punches, so that he would be infected with more poison.

Magellan's body was full of dark red venom, and his eyes were crazy.

"Come on Straw Hat! Look, I was the first to be knocked down by you, but you were the first to be poisoned and fell down!"

Boom boom boom...

bang bang bang...

"Ahhh!!"

...

In the next moment, amidst the roar, there was Magellan's shrill and continuous screams. It was too painful and the power was too terrifying.

The terrifying power and the terrifying karmic fire hit his body twice, making Magellan feel as if his body was about to explode.

Consciousness was about to collapse, Magellan gritted his teeth and persisted, and he only endured more than ten punches, but he couldn't fall down.

However, the dense bombardment continued, and Magellan was lying on the ground, constantly being bombarded with his huge body, excruciating pain, and there were continuous cracking sounds from the bones of his body, which was the sound of bone fractures, or even cracks.

In the mouth, he was beaten until he vomited blood.

In the distance, Feng Klei and the others watched in horror.

This kind of contest depends on who can't persist first.

Bucky and mr3 felt that Magellan was too scary, and they wanted to escape from prison, but it was impossible for them. Fortunately, the straw hats came.

Boom boom boom boom...

With constant bombardment, Luffy frowned slightly, and his hands were already a little numb and painful, and they had already begun to be affected. The powerful armed domineering, it really couldn't completely resist the poison of Magellan after awakening.

"Don't fall down, hold on!"

Magellan gritted his teeth and persisted, whoever persisted until the end was the winner.

However, even if the strength is strong, combined with the geographical environment and fruit awakening, even generals will face danger.

However, if you want to compare perseverance with Luffy, it is impossible to win, not to mention, the poison in Luffy is not deep yet.

In just three seconds, there were forty punches, and each punch was the Great Ape King Spear of the Overlord Sejia Armed Sejiayehuo.

Another mouthful of blood spurted out, Magellan rolled his eyes, his whole body was wounded and completely powerless.

Luffy didn't land, because the ground was covered with dark red venom, and flew towards the stairway leading to the fifth underground floor in the elastic man form.

Feng Klei was happy and won the battle.

However, Feng Klei was also a little worried. Luffy was obviously affected by the toxin.

It's hard to see now, but the longer the toxin stays in the body, the more damage it will cause.

"Straw hats! Don't think this is the end!"

Suddenly, Magellan's deep voice sounded.

Luffy looked back, surprised, and Magellan staggered to his feet.

The whole body was injured, the sound of ticking ticking continued, not only the venom fell to the ground, but also blood.

Magellan clenched his fists and bit the tip of his tongue to keep himself from fainting.

Luffy stared, it seems that it has to do it again.

After all, they are strong, and the vitality of the strong is strong.

Otherwise, the battle between generals and generals would not last for seven days and seven nights.

"Even if I lose to you, I will make you pay the price. If I can't defeat you, I'll leave it to the general who rushed over! I'll be responsible for seriously injuring you!"

Magellan tried his best. Although he was seriously injured, he still had a lot of physical strength. When he exploded with all his strength, the red skull became even bigger, so huge that it continued to expand, quickly covering the entire fourth underground floor.

At the same time, the dark red venom rose rapidly like a rising tide, and was about to touch Luffy.

Obviously, Magellan intends to completely soak Luffy before his own defeat, so that the poisoning will be deeper and have a greater impact on Luffy's body.

In that way, when the general Akainu comes later, he will definitely be able to solve the straw hat. This is Magellan's idea.

"Little straw hat, hurry up!"

Feng Kelei's face changed drastically, and he exclaimed.

However, the stairway leading to the fifth underground floor was completely sealed by the rising dark red venom first.

Immediately, mr3 and Bucky backed away in fright, and if they were touched, they would instantly spread all over their bodies and die soon.

Luffy quickly flew to the stairs, touching the venom is inevitable.

However, Magellan felt that it was not enough. While the huge skeleton was huge, it opened its mouth wide and devoured towards Luffy.

However, it was too late, and Magellan immediately exploded the venom.

Pooh!

In an instant, the venom like a rising tide rushed towards Luffy like a tsunami.

Luffy rushed to the stairs, but the venom rising from the ground in front of him had already rushed.

At the rear, a huge skeleton approached.

Unable to retreat, Luffy punched directly, carrying karmic fire, which could also evaporate some of the venom, punching a hole, and the body sprang out from it.

"Xiao Feng, stay away!"

Feng Klei understood that he had already retreated a long way.

With a puff, the dark red venom at the top of the stairs was punched through by Lu Fei, and the venom splashed inside.

With a whoosh, Luffy passed through the gap and landed.

Luffy released the fourth gear form and changed back to the original, but a layer of dark red has emerged on his hands and arms.

This means, has been poisoned.

My hands are weak, numb, a little painful, and my body is a little uncomfortable.

Luffy knew that if this went on, the degree of discomfort would increase.

Afterwards, he can leave and wait for Chopper to heal himself, but the general Akainu will come, not to mention his state when he met later, it is difficult to defeat Akainu in his current state.

So, let alone later, the body must be weaker at that time.

At this time, Magellan felt relieved and felt that enough was enough.

Completely dying, Magellan fell to the ground in a faint, and the dark red venom continued to disperse.

In this battle, Five Emperors Luffy VS Magellan, Director of the Propel City, Luffy won.

However, Luffy is also affected by the toxin, and it is impossible to defeat Magellan without injury in the promotion city.

"Stop them!"

At this time, a group of jailers rushed up.

Luffy was about to make a move, but Feng Kelei quickly stopped him.

"Little straw hat, leave it to us. You can't fight anymore, or the poison will spread faster. Although because of your powerful armed color, the poison is not deep, but if you continue to fight, the poison will deepen."

Luffy stopped, indeed, he couldn't increase his consumption and make the toxin serious.

Mr3 said in a stern voice: "Go down and leave it to me."

Bucky didn't want to go down, the fourth basement was so tough, let alone the fifth basement, I heard it was very cold.

Baki said righteously: "Let these guys be dealt with by my uncle!"

Feng Kelei didn't say anything, and turned his back to Luffy.

"Little Straw Hat, I'll carry you, you'd better not act."

Luffy knew Feng Kelei's kindness and wanted to help him, even the most loyal Feng Kelei couldn't refuse his kindness.

"Okay, let's go down then."

Luffy jumped on Feng Kelei's back and continued to fight and move, which would indeed speed up the spread of the toxin and the improvement of the toxin. If you don't have a big future, it's okay, you can insist on going back and wait for Chopper to heal and detoxify yourself.

Chapter 122 Five Emperors Luffy VS Admiral Akainu

In the teaching space, Chopper is not only improving his strength, but also his medical skills. Chopper is still focusing more on studying medical skills.

Feng Kelei carried Luffy on his back, and soon came to the fifth underground floor.

Before he got out of the stairs, a gust of cold air swept over Feng Kelei's body.

The exit of the stairs was covered with a thick layer of ice.

Chapter 118

Feng Kelei carried Luffy on his back to the fifth floor underground. This is an extremely cold * with ice and snow on the ground, whether it is a cell or a forest, it is covered by ice and snow.

"It's so cold." Feng Kresser shivered, and the snot flowed out quickly.

And it didn't fall on the ground, but was frozen directly, hanging on the nose, you can imagine how cold it is.

The four basement floors are scorching hot, the temperature can reach 100 degrees.

Then the fifth floor underground is extremely cold, and the temperature can reach minus two hundred degrees.

Even Luffy felt the cold and started shivering.

If there is no poisoning, then this kind of cold, Luffy can still bear it, just like the cold that ordinary people face in winter.

After all, in the teaching space, I am used to facing too many harsh environments.

But now, with some toxins, the body's immunity is gradually declining, so Luffy also feels cold here.

Feng Klei could feel Luffy trembling on his back, very worried.

"Little Straw Hat, you are colder. You have been poisoned by "527".

Although it is not deep, your immunity must have dropped a little."

"I'm fine." Luffy's voice trembled.

Feng Klei came to a big tree, broke it directly, and then made a wooden plank and let Luffy lie on it.

Immediately, Feng Kelei took off his prison uniform and covered Luffy.

This made Lu Fei's face change slightly, and he stopped: "Xiao Feng, don't do this, you wear it yourself, it's too cold here."

"No, little straw hat, you are poisoned now. You can't stand this kind of environment, and the worse your health is, the poison will deepen faster.

You still have to save your brother, so you can't fall down too early."

Luffy knew that he couldn't persuade him anymore.

Feng Kelei covered Luffy. He must do his best to help Luffy and do what he can.

Feng Kelei is not wearing clothes, and the rope is connected to the plank, pulling Luffy.

Covering it with some clothes can make it better, and being inactive can indeed slow down the deepening of toxins.

If it wasn't for Akainu to come, there is no need to do this. Even if you act by yourself, you can go out, and you may let Chopper heal yourself.

But you will encounter Akainu, so it is best not to let the poison deepen, so the combat power will also decrease.

"I'll take you to find Ivankov. I heard that he is a doctor and is also advancing the city."

At this time, the prisoner inside asked.

"You want Ivankov?"

Seeing someone outside, those on this floor did not call for help, and going out would be a bad thing.

Feng Klei's eyes lit up: "Do you know where it is?"

"Look at that forest over there, walk through the forest, and you'll find it."

Feng Kelei was happy, but Luffy's face sank.

The prisoner sneered in his heart: "Hey, idiot, there are all powerful snow wolves in there, where are you going to die?"

However, when Feng Clay was about to leave, Luffy stood up from the plank.

"Little Straw Hat, what's wrong with you?" Feng Kelei was puzzled, why he stood up suddenly.

Luffy naturally knew what the prisoner was thinking.

In the original plot, I was seriously injured to the point of dying, and was dragged by Xiao Feng. Then under the guidance of this person, Xiao Feng entered the woods and met a pack of wolves.

Luffy stepped forward and remained silent.

The prisoner was stunned: "What are you going to do?"

With a click, Luffy directly smashed the cell door.

This made the prisoner stunned, what to do? Feeling uneasy.

Looking at Luffy's gloomy face, the prisoner became more and more frightened, and retreated subconsciously.

Luffy clenched his fist with his right hand and slammed it out. The prisoner's abdomen suddenly sunken, and he flew out and hit the wall.
puff!

A mouthful of blood was spat out mixed with broken internal organs, and the prisoner was in extreme pain.

"For...why..."

Luffy said coldly: "I can feel that there are some powerful creatures in the woods, and you are deliberately trying to harm us."

This made the prisoner's face change drastically, and his vitality dissipated: "Damn it..."

With a tilt of the head, the prisoner dies.

Suddenly, Feng Klei gritted his teeth: "This guy is really disgusting."

"You want Ivankov?"

At this time, a man with a red wine glass in his left hand came over, with orange hair on the left and white on the right, and the same clothes.

Luffy recognized him, he is Ivankov's assistant, the one with the ability to cut fruit, Lightning.

"You make me feel good, come with me."

Lightning likes Feng Kelei, after all, they are all of the same kind.

Feng Kelei was happy, and soon, Lightning took Feng Kelei and Luffy to the 5.5th floor underground.

After arriving, he opened the door and entered. Feng Kelei was shocked, talking and laughing inside, most of them were men in black silk and heavy makeup.

Like himself, Funkley was happy.

They were all drinking, and the atmosphere was great, giving Feng Klei a feeling that this is not the city of advancement, obviously having a party,

"Brother, you are here."

"welcome."

"Cheers to the new shemale!"

"Sit down, the show is about to begin."

...

Feng Klei was stunned, but anxious.

"I still have something to do."

"Don't worry, I'll talk about something later, it's about to start."

Suddenly, on the stage ahead, the curtains were drawn open.

A figure with a huge face appeared facing away, with unusually large dark purple hair, strange clothes, black grid stockings and a cloak, and then turned around, the face is typical of a ladyboy, with long and thick eyelashes, light blue eyeshadow and purple lipgloss; body-hugging ultra-low jumpsuit.

Luffy knew that he was Ivankov.

"How are you feeling, candy boy. No, it's mr2 Feng boy."

Feng Klei was stunned: "Why do you know me?"

"Welcome to come here. You can reach this place by going along the impossible passage from the sewer of the city of advancement. The paradise for the prisoners. Enjoy it. There are everything. There are fine wines, weapons, games, and most importantly, , have freedom."

"Yes, we are free."

"It's all because of Lord Ivan that we can achieve freedom here."

"Master Ivan our king."

...

The ladyboys cheered happily.

Feng Kelei was happy: "You monster king, it's great to see you, you are Ivankov."

"You want to see me too, why?"

"I want you to save my friend and detoxify him."

Feng Kelei glanced at Luffy behind him, and found that the toxin on his arms had darkened, and the toxin had begun to spread to his neck.

Ivankov shook his head: "That's it, I can't, I'm not a good person who rescues the wounded as soon as I see it, I can save you if you want, straw hat boy, no."

"Please, the little straw hat's poisoning is not deep, you can definitely develop a detoxification agent, please do me this favor, let me do anything to make it 0..."

Feng Kelei begged, and in the next moment, he was about to kneel down. However, he was held back by Luffy.

"Xiao Feng, don't do this."

Lu Fei was moved in his heart, although he knew it would be like this, because Xiao Feng was so loyal, and he knew it best.

Feng Kelei was stunned, and shook his head: "It's okay, as long as I can detoxify you, I'm fine."

"Xiao Feng, leave it to me, he will save me."

Luffy stepped forward, and Feng Klei and Ivankov were startled by these words.

Soon, Ivankov understood: "Are you going to be a ladyboy too?"

Luffy shook his head: "Of course not, let me introduce myself, my name is Monkey D Luffy."

Luffy felt that he had to reveal his identity.

"Monkey D..."

This made Ivankov startled.

Luffy continued: "My father's name is Monkey D Dragon."

Immediately, Ivankov's eyes widened: "Dragon...Dragon is your father?"

"Yeah." Luffy nodded.

Ivankov was a little skeptical, but recalling the conversation with Long in the past, he always looked in the direction of the East China Sea, saying that it was his hometown.

The straw hat, as Ivankov knew, came from the East China Sea.

"In that case, I will save that straw hat boy too."

Ivankov checked and breathed a sigh of relief.

"There is no need to use healing hormones, which will have great side effects and consume ten years of life. The toxin is not deep, and only the detoxification hormones are needed. There are no side effects, but it will be a little painful."

Luffy shook his head: "It's okay, come on."

Although it hurt, Luffy's perseverance was amazing and he didn't cry out.

Seeing Luffy's courage, Ivankov became more and more convinced that he was the son of the dragon.

With the cure, soon, the toxin was removed, and Luffy's arm returned to its original state, with no toxin at all.

This is one of the changes in the improvement of Luffy's strength.

Although he fought and defeated Magellan, the poison is not so deep that it is life-threatening.

Such toxins can be eliminated without any side effect treatment.

So I thought before, after going out, Chopper can also help him get rid of it.

But it is best to get rid of it now, because to get rid of 3.1, you have to leave the promotion city. However, before leaving, you might meet Akainu.

After the toxin was eliminated, Luffy felt much better. Although he hadn't reached his peak state yet, he only needed to eat a good meal.

Both Luffy and Feng Kelei's stomachs were growling with hunger, and Ivankov arranged.

"Prepare for a feast! Treat Straw Hat Boy and Feng Boy!"

"Good Lord Ivan!"

...

At this time, the warship where the red dog is located is about to arrive at the city of advancement.

"General Sakaski, there are only three minutes left before entering the city of advancement! I have already contacted the guardian of the gate of justice in the city of advancement, ready to open the gate of justice."

Akainu's face was gloomy, his fists were clenched, and he was murderous.

"It's finally here."

Akainu couldn't wait.

Soon, the huge door of justice was getting closer and closer, and the watchman opened it directly after seeing it.

Chapter 119

After the warship approached, the door of justice opened without any delay.

Akainu asked, "How's Magellan doing?"

"Director...Director, he lost to Straw Hat Luffy, but Straw Hat Luffy was also poisoned, so he couldn't be in his strongest state. General Sakasky will definitely kill him!"

Akainu's face was cold, determined to win.

"Straw hat, let me strangle you in the city of advancement."

Chapter 123 Luffy: Go to the Navy Headquarters!

After the poison on Luffy was removed, Ivankov and Lightning led Luffy to the sixth floor.

Magellan was seriously injured, and it was very difficult for anyone to stop the three of Luffy in the city of Advancing.

Even if Magellan is there, it is difficult to stop, the jailer can only watch and pay attention to the whereabouts of the three of Luffy.

General monitoring room.

The jailer reported: "Deputy director, it's bad, the poison on the straw hat is no longer visible."

Hannibal's face was ugly: "What?"

"Beside the straw hat, there are two people, the monster king Ivankov, and the revolutionary Lightning."

Hannibal was heavy, knowing that it was probably Ivankov who treated him, so what the director did was in vain.

However, Hannibal also knew that the red dog was coming and was about to enter the city of advancement, so he felt relieved.

Originally, I wanted to stop it by myself, although I knew that I was not strong enough, but I still wanted to stop it. But since the red dog is here, there is no need to go by yourself.

At this time, the three of Luffy came to the sixth floor underground.

There was no harsh environment, just a prison cell.

It seemed a bit empty and quiet here. After all, those who could be imprisoned here were all extraordinary people, and they were either death row prisoners or life-imprisoners.

The criminals imprisoned are monster pirates who are too vicious and have been erased from history. The prisoners on this floor are all near-legendary figures, and their end is either death penalty or life imprisonment. The incident was covered up by the government, and even the newspapers deliberately concealed it.

Therefore, there are many unknown existences in this layer.

Although there are not many detainees, the sixth basement floor is also very large.

Ivankov grabbed a jailer and asked, "Can you tell me which cell Fire Fist Ace is in?"

"No, I can't possibly tell you."

Ivankov directly said: "Female hormones!"

His hands pierced both sides of the jailer's waist. Soon, the male jailer's body was deformed, his waist became slender, and his legs became slender. In the blink of an eye, he became a female jailer with good looks and a good figure.

"I... what's wrong with me."

Even the voice has become a female voice.

Ivankov handed out the mirror and asked, "How does it feel? I have awakened my true self."

The female jailer looked at herself in the mirror and was shocked.

"this is me..."

"You have been reborn and become a new ladyboy."

The female prison guard immediately respected her incomparably: "It feels really good, the feeling of being a woman, I am completely used to it, thank you very much, Lord Ivankov!"

"No thanks, tell us where is 04 Fire Fist Ace."

"Okay, in that direction, the tenth cell."

Suddenly, the three of Luffy moved quickly and arrived soon.

However, when he arrived, in the cell, he didn't see Ace, but he saw Jinbei.

Luffy was not surprised, he was still transferred.

Luffy doesn't think he can rescue Ace in the city of advance, but he still has to start. If he comes here, he can rescue Feng Kelei, Jinping, Ivankov and the others, which is not bad.

Ivankov frowned and looked at the jailer who came.

"Is it really this?"

"It's not wrong, Mr. Ivankov, I was locked here before, and the locks on the wall are still there. Could it be that they were transferred?"

Jinbe looked outside the cell, noticed the straw hat on Luffy's back, and his eyes froze.

"straw hat..."

Jinbe knows that he is Straw Hat Luffy, Ace's younger brother.

Looking at Luffy in front of him, Jinping was shocked, his aura was too strong, and he hadn't fought yet, just looking at his aura, he knew he was a strong man, not inferior to the aura of the Four Emperors.

"To be able to come here, it seems that there is no consumption or injury, it's amazing." Jinping sighed softly in his heart.

Jinbe regretted: "You are the straw hat kid Luffy, right?"

"yes."

"Ace was transferred before, was taken into the elevator and taken away, and may have left the promotion city now."

This made Luffy's face change slightly, and he still had to go to war.

Although they knew each other, Luffy naturally had to pretend not to know each other.

"Uncle, who are you?"

Ivankov was shocked: "Sure enough, there are big people here. The former king went to Qiwuhai, and Haixia is even."

...

At this time, Ace has been sent to advance outside the city.

Huang Yuan came in person, and he was responsible for transferring Fire Fist Ace to Marin Fandor.

Seeing that it was the general, Ace was worried, not worried about himself, but worried about Luffy.

"It's really troublesome, because the straw hat kid made a big fuss in the city, and I had to let me transfer you personally."

Ace's pupils shrank, is it still here?

However, he was also relieved, which meant that General Huang Yuan would not enter the city.

However, at this moment, a deep iron voice sounded.

"What's going on with Magellan now?"

With a bang, an iron-blooded figure wearing a white cloak of justice and a dark red suit fell down.

This made Ace's face change in shock, General Akainu.

"Report to General Sakasky! Director Magellan lost to Straw Hat Luffy! Originally, at the price of defeat, Straw Hat Luffy was poisoned, and he has already been poisoned."

Hearing this, Ace's face became even more serious, he was extremely worried, blamed himself extremely, and wanted to break free, but he was powerless.

"However, he was cured by Ivankov again. The director originally thought that the toxin would reduce the combat power of the straw hat, so that General Sakasky would be able to kill him in the future, but now..."

Hearing this, Akainu understood and didn't care.

"It doesn't matter if he is not poisoned, even if the straw hat is in its peak state, it is nothing, my magma can still melt him."

Ace didn't know whether to be grateful or worried, which meant that General Akainu came here to deal with Luffy.

Akainu is ready to act quickly, after all, time is of the essence now.

"hateful!"

Ace clenched his fists and gritted his teeth.

The jailer said: "The director is receiving treatment, he has woken up, and said that you are here, you can continue to fight, and kill the straw hat with you."

Akainu shook his head: "No need, he can deal with other people."

Akainu knew that when Luffy entered the promotion city, some powerful people had already been released.

The moment Akainu walked into the city and passed Ace, his voice was cold.

"I'll send your younger brother to * first, and then you can accompany him in Marlin Fandor."

Hearing this, Ace glared at Akainu fiercely.

"Don't try to hurt my brother!"

Akainu smiled: "Hahaha, what can you do now."

Ace was furious, but powerless, he really couldn't do anything, and blamed himself extremely.

"Luffy...it's all my fault...you must be okay! Otherwise, I will die with regret."

Ace was escorted by the yellow monkey to the warship, left the city of advance, and went to Marlin Vandor.

Ace looked back, and could only watch the general Akainu enter the city, unable to worry.

"It's all because of me, * it, Luffy, don't worry about it."

Ace kept praying in his heart, but panicked.

I am about to die, not afraid, there will be no panic at all, but now Luffy is in the city of advancement, not everyone in the Straw Hats, only Luffy, not only Magellan in the city of advancement, but now the general Akainu, even if he knows that Luffy is After losing the Five Emperors, Ace was also extremely worried.

Luffy's strength, growth speed, if he continues, he will definitely be able to achieve his goal and become the One Piece King, but if he falls here because of himself, then what should he do.

Ace could only keep praying, hating himself so much that he hurt Luffy.

...

Six floors underground.

After Luffy got acquainted with Jinbe, he released Jinbe.

Seeing Luffy crushing the Hailoushi handcuffs with both hands, Jinbe was shocked: "Liu Ying."

Ivankov exclaimed: "As expected of the son of the dragon, it's really amazing."

Luffy's eyes were sharp: "Since Ace has been transferred to Marin Vandro, then I will go to the Navy headquarters!"

Hearing this, both Ivankov and Jinbe's expressions changed in surprise.

Ivankov panicked and dissuaded him: "You can't go, there is the world's strongest combat power there. Even if you are the Five Emperors, it will be difficult to change there. You can compete with a general, but you know, the Navy What is the combat power of the headquarters this time, lieutenant general, Qibuhai, general, too many powerful combat power, too dangerous."

Luffy's eyes were firm.

"I will definitely go."

Looking at Luffy in front of him, with a firm demeanor, piercing eyes, and powerful courage, Ivankov was shocked and felt more and more like him.

"I have experienced this feeling many times. It is exactly the feeling when facing a dragon."

At this time, the voice of a jailer resounded through the loudspeaker on the sixth floor.

"Let's not talk about going to Marin Vanduo, even if you leave the city, it's impossible. The director is already awake, and the general Sakaski is here, you are going to be finished!"

Luffy extended his arm and punched out, smashing the loudspeaker.

After listening, Jinbe and Ivankov's expressions became more serious.

"General, Red Dog is here..."

"Magellan, plus Akainu, this..."

The two felt extremely heavy and worried.

Jinbe said righteously: "You are Ace's younger brother, and you also rescued me. I must help you out, and I will go to the Navy headquarters with you to help you deal with the navy."

Ivankov likewise: "Me too, let us help you."

However, Luffy shook his head.

"I'm going to the Navy Headquarters, but not alone, and my partners!"

This made Jinbe and Ivankov aghast, not only the Five Emperors went to the Navy headquarters, but the entire Five Emperors Straw Hat Regiment!

"Magellan, together with Admiral Akainu, will go to the Navy headquarters."

At this time, a thick voice sounded.

Looking at the sound, in the dark cell, Luffy can roughly see clearly, and he can hear it from the sound, Crocodile.

Crocodile suggested: "Facing these powerful combat forces, it will be difficult even for you. If you want to leave here, let me go. How?"

However, Luffy wasn't interested.

Chapter 120

The ones worth saving here are the ones that Luffy feels can have friendship.

Except for Feng Klei, Ivankov, and Jinbe, there is no need to save the others.

Seeing that Luffy ignored him, Crocodile was surprised, and his face sank:

"As long as I have my strength, I can escape, and I will help you at the Navy headquarters. This proposal is not bad, it is good for you and me ."

It was also an accident for Ivankov to see Luffy ignore him.

The man in front of him, Ivankov and Jinping naturally knew each other.

Ivankov suggested: "Straw hat boy, let him go. It is indeed a powerful force to join him. After all, not only to go out from here, but also to go to the Navy headquarters. If you go out from here, you will face Magellan. , Akainu, it is possible for us, I heard that Magellan was seriously injured by you, so it is still possible for me to deal with Magellan, Straw Hat Boy and Jinbei to deal with Akainu. It's dangerous to go. Even if the Whitebeard Pirates will go, it's still dangerous for you, and I heard that the World Government has also sent some combat forces there."

Jinbe agrees: "It's definitely better to have him in."

In the eyes of Jinbei and Ivankov, one of the four emperors, plus one of the five emperors participating in the battle, cannot make the navy feel in danger.

Unless, all the four emperors go, the navy can feel the crisis, or even, not necessarily.

After all, the three generals of the navy, as well as the legendary Sengoku, Karp, and Shichibukai under the king.

And too many powerful lieutenant generals, as well as rare quasi-generals, and so many troops.

Even if all the Four Royal Regiments participated in the battle, it was hard to be 100% sure who would win or lose.

What's more, a Four Emperors Regiment and a Five Emperors Regiment are still dangerous, and the navy still holds the upper hand.

But it would be better if they joined.

Luffy shook his head: "No, the battle at Navy Headquarters, in order to save Ace, is also a bigger test for us. Jinbei, Ivankov, if you go, help Whitebeard."

This shocked Jinbei and Ivankov, help White Beard, not the Straw Hats?

If Whitebeard hears this, he will not be happy.

It seems that when the top is on top, the Straw Hats of the Five Emperors do not need help, but the Whitebeard Pirates of the Four Emperors need help.

Ivankov felt that it was a bit exaggerated: "Well, straw hat boy, although Whitebeard is old, he is still the strongest man in the world, right? Let us help Whitebeard?"

Luffy confirmed: "Yeah."

On the top, Luffy will save Ace, but there is also one important point, the more difficult the battle, the stronger he becomes!

At this time, Crocodile was very embarrassed, his face was ugly, so he didn't need himself?

For myself, it is extremely humiliating.

"Damn straw hat, don't look down on people too much."

This was unexpected for Crocodile, and the Straw Hat was not interested.

Even the former Shichibukai Jinbei and Ivankov of the Revolutionary Army suggested that 527 would not listen, which made me feel very embarrassed.

"Ivankov, he is too arrogant. Although he is powerful, he doesn't want any helpers. Doesn't he realize that he went to the headquarters of the Navy, where the strongest combat forces are assembled. It is publicized by the whole world. The moment when the Pirates executed Fire Fist Ace under pressure. Do you really think the Straw Hats can handle such a big battle?"

Crocodile also knew how powerful the Straw Hats were. After all, it was a shame to be defeated by Sanji Blackfoot, one of the three main forces of the Straw Hats.

"Ivankov, stop persuading him?" Crocodile asked.

Jinbe was curious: "You seem to know each other?"

Ivankov nodded: "Yes."

Ivankov looked at Crocodile and sighed: "Long time no see, Crocodile boy, the last time I saw you was when you were new."

Ivankov looked at Luffy: "Then let him go and let him help the Whitebeard Pirates. Don't worry about him going back on his word. Even if he goes back on his word, I will suppress him. Not in terms of combat power, because, I Possesses one of his weaknesses."

Crocodile panicked for a moment, sweat slid down his face.

"Hey, stop talking."

Ivankov was a little upset: "Don't talk to me in this tone, or I will make your past public."

Immediately, Crocodile's face was gloomy. Although he was very angry, he did not speak.

This surprised Jinbe on the side. This is not the reaction that Crocodile should have. Could it be that he really has some weakness, what is it?

At this time, Luffy guessed it, thinking to himself, Crocodile used to be a woman, it seems really possible.

Luffy nodded: "Okay, then let him out."

Luffy tore through the cell door, grabbed Crocodile's Hailoushi handcuffs, and directly tore them apart under Crocodile's astonished gaze.

"Flowing Sakura."

Crocodile was shocked, but after the shock, he said: "It is a wise choice to release me. Although you may be stronger than I imagined, it is better for me to join."

Luffy said: "It's enough to help the Whitebeard Pirates when the time comes. My friends and I saved Ace for training, so you don't need to help us."

Hearing this, Rockdale laughed in his heart: "It's really arrogant."

Jinbe and Ivankov also felt that the Straw Hats might be a bit young and frivolous.

But it's normal to think about it. After all, he became the Five Emperors at such a young age.

"correct."

Ivankov was curious. He didn't know one thing, because he was locked in earlier.

"Straw hat boy, you have become the Five Emperors, so how much is the bounty now?"

Crocodile was also curious. He had just found out about the Five Emperors, and he was shocked that he had become an emperor in such a short period of time.

However, it is not the Four Emperors, but the Five Emperors.

Crocodile guessed: "Is it the fifth emperor at sea? It's the first time I've heard of it. I've only heard of the Four Emperors, but I don't know the Five Emperors. It sounds inferior to the Four Emperors. How much is the reward? I guess, Between one and a half billion peles?"

Luffy looked at Ivankov and replied, "My bounty is now three billion Baileys."

Suddenly, Evakov's expression changed: "What?! Three billion!".

Chapter 124

"Are...are you kidding me?" Crocodile's expression changed drastically, he couldn't believe it, it must be fake.

Although I know that the Straw Hats are very strong, they are not so strong that they offer a bounty of three billion Baileys.

Even if it is the Five Emperors, it is no different from the Four Emperors.

Jinbe said: "It's true. I, who was imprisoned not long ago, can testify. The five emperors Luffy have a reward of three billion."

Crocodile: "!!"

Crocodile was stunned, recalling that Luffy ignored his proposal just now, think about it, maybe the straw hat really felt unnecessary?

Ivankov was equally shocked.

"Even the son of a dragon is too strong, isn't he? Three billion, he's only seventeen years old, he's too strong."

Ivankov also felt that maybe they were wrong just now, it was not Luffy who was young and frivolous, but self-confidence.

Just when Lu Fei and others were about to leave, the other cells were no longer quiet.

"Something interesting."

"It seems that it has strength."

"Dare to break into the city alone, it seems that he is indeed called the Five Emperors."

"Let me out too, I can help you more."

"Me too, help you get out of here, help you beat the navy on top."

"It seems that he has just become famous. Did he just go to sea not long ago? The Pirates are short of people. I will join too."

...

For a while, the pirates on the sixth underground floor all expressed their willingness to help, and some were willing to join Luffy's pirate group.

Originally, they were arrogant. After all, they were all big pirates. It would be embarrassing to ask a young junior for help. But when they heard that it turned out to be the Five Emperors, with a bounty of three billion, they thought it was okay.

"The people here are all strong, let us go out, plus us, even if the navy gathers the strongest combat force and wants to fight against the Whitebeard Pirates, adding us is enough to make the navy fearful."

"Although you are the Five Emperors, you are still the Five Emperors Group, but there must not be many people? So, let us join..."

"This is a good place, recruiting people here, none of them are ordinary people, feel lucky, we have taken a fancy to it."

"Boy, you are very lucky. If you are outside, even if you are like this, it will be difficult for the old man to join, but here, let's join the pirate group of your junior, as long as you let me out."

"I ignored Crocodile just now, because he is too weak to compare with us, you must agree."

...

Crocodile's face was ugly when he heard this, but after looking at the characters who spoke, they were indeed powerful.

Crocodile looked at Luffy and also felt that the straw hat would agree.

However...

Lu Fei said lightly: "What are you all talking about, I think too much."

These words directly stunned the big pirates on the sixth underground floor.

Thinking too much? What's the meaning?

"Hey, boy, what do you mean by that?"

"It sounds like, shouldn't it be, to refuse?"

"Are you kidding? Reject? Such a good thing, such a good opportunity to recruit combat power, would you refuse?"

"Yeah, stop joking, boy, and make it clear."

...

Luffy said directly: "I won't agree, this is not a real partner."

This made the faces of the big pirates sink, and they were really rejected.

It made them angry, humiliated, and humiliated.

"It turned out to be rejected."

"Damn it, kid, do you know who we are?"

"You will regret this."

"It's not long since your pirate group was established, how many people are there now? Are there so many that we don't need to join?"

"It seems that there are many. Since it is the Five Emperors Group, which one of the Four Emperors Group has tens of thousands of people?"

"Even so, we are not comparable to those minions who refused."

"Tell me, how many people are there in your pirate group and who are they? Let's see if we know."

...

Lu Fei was too lazy to say: "I have eight partners, and I have been at sea for less than a year. You don't know, so I won't tell you more. There are still important things to do."

Luffy was about to leave, and the people who spoke just now on the sixth floor of the basement were all angry.

"Are you kidding me?"

"There are only eight partners? Why don't you let us join?"

"I don't even need help? Are you going to take his partner to find death?"

"Boy, let me ask you one last time, do you want me to join?"

"One last chance for you."

...

Luffy stopped at the stairs, picked his ears and said, "You guys are so annoying."

This directly made these pirates furious.

"It's really annoying."

"I'm the evil king, and I refused."

"I'm Crescent Moon Hunter, he doesn't know, it won't be like this if he knows."

"~It's a stupid decision not to help us out."

"What a disgrace."
