AN* more lewd things...

-----

"Ah~~"

Naruto began to thrust in and out in a slow rhythm.

Soon, Hinata began to pant. Her eyes became moist and her expression turned hazy.

Naruto kissed her neck and moved his hands to her breasts. His dick thrust repeatedly inside her cave, bringing incredible pleasure to both of them.

"Ahh...~ So good...~"

Hinata exclaimed and hugged His back, her legs wrapped around his waist and she began to move her waist to cooperate with his movements.

"Hinata~~"

He exhaled in her ear and bit her earlobe. Hinata twitched and moaned while kissing back his neck.

Their bodies once again entangled on the bed, fighting with each other and trying to get as much pleasure as possible.

Hinata had long forgotten about the pain of her virginity, she had the strongest body that could endure anything.

Her bare skin turned red. Her nipples perked up under the constant teasing of his hands, and her legs pressed his waist against her cave.

After Hinata became used to the pleasure, she began to fight him for the lead. He thrust inside and moved his dick around her cave, pleasuring every single inch of her skin and causing her love juices to fill her cave.

He moved up and down, attacking fiercely without stopping. Before long, her body couldn't endure the constant burst of pleasure and shivered.

"Ummm...~~"

Hinata let out a long cry and hugged his neck with all her strength.

Naruto enjoyed her reaction and paused briefly. When He was sure that her orgasm ended, he began to move again.

Hinata's tight and wet cave brought him an incomparable feeling.

And knowing she's his wife brought indescribable pleasure.

Hinata's body trembled under his fierce attack. She bit her lips in a try to suppress her moan.

But the continuous waves of pleasure defeated her quickly. Before long she was again moaning and cooperating with him.

"Naruto~~~"

Hinata's mouth moved through his neck and chest, sucking and biting repeatedly to cope with the pleasure.

Her skin quivered under his fingers. Naruto sucked her neck and left marks there.

His member slid in and out faster than before, breaking through her layer of flesh and touching the entrance of her womb.

Hinata cried and exclaimed with each thrust, gripping his arms strongly.

Her walls clenched around his penis, Naruto was not sure if Hinata was doing it purposefully, but the pleasure it brought him was intense.

She continued fighting with him for half an hour without a sign of her next orgasm.

Naruto smirked and looked into her eyes. She bit her lips and looked at him full of love and desire.

Naruto looked down at his Hinata who was looking at him, he could see a swirling deep emotion that seemed to be awakening from the abyss, a feeling that something that shouldn't be awakened had awakened.

Naruto loved every inch of her. She looked at him biting her lips. But suddenly, she felt a strong impact below.

"Yes...~ Faster~~"

Her eyes begged and she felt his movements becoming faster and fierce, and she began to have trouble suppressing her next orgasm.

Her vagina clenched around his penis, trying to make him cum too.

Naruto kissed Hinata's lips and put her legs on his shoulders, and then, he began his last sprint.

Hinata gasped. Her cave constricted and clenched his penis, and her womb sucked him to get his seed.

The next second, a great amount of love fluids flowed out from her cave.

Hinata twitched and shivered while the love fluids splashed on the bed.

Naruto groaned and thrust with all his strength.

Instantly, his semen was released again, shooting inside her womb, and painting it white.

"I am full inside~~"

Hinata gasped and closed her eyes. She could feel his hot seed filling her cave and entering her deepest part.

Naruto looked at the beautiful body below him and smiled, she was his wife, and he wanted to do everything with her.

Hinata felt his gaze on his body and blushed, she wanted him to ravage her completely, she loved him so much.

She wanted to do every lewd thing with him, and just thinking about it made her excited.

Naruto locked his hands with her hands, their fingers interlocking, she was pinned down below him, it brought immense pleasure to her.

Naruto leaned forward and kissed her forehead, then he moved to her nose and kissed. Finally, he looked at her cherry-red juicy lips.

"Umm..."

A soft moan escaped her mouth as he sucked her lips and moved his tongue inside her mouth.

Their bodies rubbed with each other, their heat filled the room.

A thread of saliva was the only thing connecting their lips when he parted.

Naruto looked into her hazy eyes, she looked bewitching, "I don't want to stop~~"

Hinata spoke in a seductive tone.

"If mom hears your loud moan what will she think," Naruto teased her while kneading her breasts.

"Umm...~"

She moaned softly when his hand squeezed her boobs.

Hinata trembled below him, just thinking that his mom would hear her moans. It made her more excited, she shuddered under him.

Naruto looked at the twitching body and her expression, her eyes telling everything for her.

"I wouldn't have thought that my little Hinata is a pervert,"

She averted her gaze in embarrassment, it made her look cute in Naruto's eyes.

"How cute,"

Naruto murmured and kissed her cheeks making them red.

Hinata looked at him with a begging expression, she was to fuck with him all night.

Looking at her begging expression and her pitiful eyes his inner wolf started to wake up.

"My little Hinata is a pervert, isn't she?" Naruto asked with a smirk and pinched her erect nipple.

"Anngghhh~~"

Hinata moaned out in pain and pleasure, she looked at him pittyfully, she knew he was teasing her and she was enjoying it.

"Yesss~~ your little Hinata is a pervert only for you,"

She said averting her gaze, just expecting it would make her excited.

Seeing her averting her gaze made her only adorable, Naruto wanted to eat her completely, and his gaze was heated.

Hinata felt his heated gaze as if he wanted to eat her completely, her body shrank in excitement. She loved his heated gaze on her body.

Their dark side started to come out as they looked at each other. She wanted to do things with him as a Maid, as a little girl, as his sister, just thinking about it made her body twitch under him.

Naruto on the other hand wanted to feel her good, eat her completely.

And it was presented in his eyes.

This was the dark secret of them, only they knew about it. And it excited them beyond anything.

Hinata shivered from thinking that, Kushina would hear her son fucking his newly married wife, and her wife whom she consider a daughter moaned lewdly under him.

"Ahhh~~"

Hinata softly moaned as she felt his dick was rubbing her pussy.

Naruto with a quick motion turned Hinata around, she was now lying on her stomach. Her ripe ass was in front of him. Naruto raised his hand...

~Pakh~

Hinata's ass rippled As Naruto hit her juicy ass.

"Umm...~~"

Hinata moaned in pain and pleasure, and buried her face in the pillow, and closed her eyes. She slightly wiggle his ass.

Naruto looked at her wiggling her ass as she invited him to hit her.

~Pakh~

"Umm...."

~Pakh~

"Ahhh..."

~pakh~

"Nnnnnn...~"

Hinata moaned loudly as she felt his palm hitting her ass, it only brought immense pleasure to her.

Naruto looked at her white juicy ass, now printed with his hand prints, every time he hit her ass it rippled and brought immense pleasure to him.

Naruto looked at her wet pussy that was flowing with her love juices mixed with his white seed.

Just seeing his beloved in this state his dick became more hard and twitched.

"On you fours...sweetheart."

Hinata nodded to him and was on her knees, she buried her head in the pillow, her hands grabbed the bedsheet, and her face was completely red, this position was so embarrassing, and the more embarrassing thing was that she loved every bit of it.

Her ass cutely wiggled in front of him, seeing her like this his dick became stronger and without waiting he put his dick in front of the cave and thrust forward.

"Aghmmnnn"

Hinata's eyes opened wide, and her mind went blank, her face turned completely lewd as he received his hits.

Naruto savored the feeling of piercing her from Behind, his dick moved inside and outside repeatedly while slapping sounds came from their bodies slamming into each other.

"Ahhh..."

"Nnnghhhh..."

Hinata loudly cried out in pleasure, the room filled with her loud moans, this only ignited the flames inside Naruto, he slammed his dick hard inside her touching her womb every time.

"Ahhh...~"

Hinata put her mouth on the pillow and tightly grabbed the sheets, she could feel her beloved's cock moving fiercely inside her, hitting her womb and causing her unbearable burst of pleasure.

"Ummmmm...~~"

She cried out in pleasure, tears continued to slip from her eyes.

Her body shook repeatedly under his assault, and her moans were sweet music to his ears.

Naruto hugged her waist while piercing forward, one of his hands grabbed her breasts and teased them repeatedly.

Their breathing turned ragged and their bodies became sweaty, love juices were constantly created from the place where their two bodies were joined, and slurping sounds escaped with each movement.

The feeling of piercing Hinata's womb was so wonderful that he couldn't endure it and bit her back, causing her to lift her face with a scream and tighten the walls of her moist cave.

The increased pressure provoked their primal instinct even more.

"Ummm..."

Hinata moaned under his hits.

Naruto moved faster, slamming his body against her and drowning in her incredible cave.

Hinata was completely drunk in pleasure, she had become unable to speak and could only moan, groan, and scream repeatedly.

Finally, Naruto felt something hot forming in his abdomen, without hesitation, he accelerated his thrusts. His breath became quicker and his dick moved constantly inside her.

"I am cumming...~"

Naruto shouted and held her ass. Hinata only moaned constantly, unable to speak, while feeling her own climax approaching, Naruto was unable to endure.

His dick pierced her cave completely, hitting the entrance of her womb to the brink

"ahhhh mmmm~~~So hot~~"

Hinata was unable to endure the sudden pleasure and screamed, her body shuddered completely and a flood of love juices mixed with his cum,her vagina wrapped tightly around his rod, sucking the last bit of his semen and making him groan in Delight.

They stood at this position for a while as his semen continued to fill her, it was only a few moments later that he pulled out, causing semen with her love juice to leak out from her pussy.

"That was amazing~~~"

Hinata spoke with rapid breath, laying on the bed completely tired with his semen constantly leaking out of her pussy, it was quite the sight.

Naruto laid on her, pressing his body on her, he kissed her neck and whispered in her ears, "Yes that was amazing..."

Hinata blushed and nodded. Naruto with a quick motion changed their position, he was lying on his back while Hinata was lying on his body, her head placed on his chest.

Naruto wrapped his hands around her waist and hugged her tightly, Hinata did the same, a sweet and satisfied smile graced her face as she listened to his heartbeat.

Naruto kissed her head and looked at her, she looked so adorable and cute, "I love you Hinata..."

Hinata hummed sweetly as she looked into his eyes and smiled sweetly, "I love you too"

Saying this she put her head on his chest and closed her eyes with a satisfied and sweet Smile.

Naruto hugged her tightly as he caressed her head and kissed her head softly before closing his eyes.

I will upload an extra chapter on Monday. goodbye friends.

chapter 119~The more you resist,

The more pleasure it gives me

The rays of sunlight fell upon the new day as Naruto slowly started to open his eyes. His gaze fixed upon the sleeping beauty. Hinata was peacefully slumbering on his chest, her eyes closed in deep slumber, a very satisfied smile gracing her face.

Naruto smiled at her cute appearance and gently placed a small kiss on her forehead. "We truly let our wild side loose last night," Naruto chuckled.

He and Hinata were truly horny last night, filled with the desire to compete with each other. They explored each other's bodies in different beautiful ways.

Naruto leaned in and placed another kiss on her forehead.

A soft, whisper-like moan escaped from Hinata's lips as she began to shift in his embrace.

It took a minute for her to groggily open her beautiful, white eyes. They sparkled with momentary confusion before recognition filled them, and she smiled radiantly.

Seeing this, Naruto smiled and went forward, placing a kiss on her lips.

After which he spoke.

"Good morning, my little wife~"

Hearing his words Hinata's body trembled as she smiled sweetly and leaned forward and placed a kiss on his lips as she said in a shy voice.

"Good morning, Husband~"

Naruto's heart melted as she called him husband. He hugged her waist tightly.

Hinata put her chin on his chest and looked into his eyes. Her eyes filled with love.

Naruto locked his eyes with her, they gazed at each other. They could feel what others were thinking.

A light passed through their eyes, only they knew how corrupted they were for each other. And this was a dark secret only they knew.

Naruto laughed with her and patted her head. She closed her eyes as she received his pats on her head. A blissful expression graced her face.

Naruto could only smile; he found her so adorable and cute as he gently patted her head. He just wanted to pamper her with everything he had.

Hinata received his head pats with a sense of contentment. "I just want to be pampered and spoiled by him," she thought, smiling happily.

Seeing her adorable smile, Naruto felt like his sugar levels were skyrocketing.

"Do you want to sleep more?" Naruto asked.

She shook her head and slowly began to sit up. The blanket covering them slid down, revealing her beautiful breasts as she perched on his stomach.

Naruto couldn't help but gulp as his gaze lingered on her. Sensing his intent, Hinata smiled shyly and covered her breasts with her hands. She knew he had watched and played with them the previous night, but she hid them, teasingly awaiting him to remove her hands.

"Haha... so my little Hinata wants to play the innocent girl," Naruto teased as he playfully attempted to remove her hands.

Hinata put on an expression of shyness, averting her gaze and attempting to resist him as he gently tried to remove her hands from her breasts.

"Please don't do it," she said timidly.

Naruto removed her hands completely and looked at her beautiful breasts.

"You know I can be quite wicked, and the more you resist, the more pleasure it gives me," Naruto smirked.

Hinata gazed at him for a moment, and then they both burst out laughing.

"Hahaha," Hinata laughed, wiping away a tear from her eyes.

"Let's freshen up and get ready for breakfast," Naruto said while laughing and admiring her.

Hinata nodded cutely before getting out of bed and wrapping a piece of cloth around her body.

They both entered the bathroom and washed themselves.

Hinata stood in front of the door, wearing a lovely blue one-piece dress with her hair tied in a bun behind her. She looked stunning in Naruto's eyes, and he leaned toward her, pecking her lips.

"Umm," she let out a sweet moan.

Naruto stood beside her, dressed in a black t-shirt and black pants, with a ring on his finger.

"I can smell the food; let's go," he said, heading towards the dining room.

Hinata gazed at him, her smile sweet, and followed him.

chapter 120

Naruto and Hinata opened the door and walked outside the room as they headed toward the dining table.

Their room was on the first floor, so they had to walk downstairs to reach the main hall.

As Naruto took steps, a delicious scent of food wafted to his senses, and they were both hungry from their activities the previous night.

Kushina was setting the table, while Minato was sitting in a chair, waiting for all of them to sit and start eating.

Kushina looked at Naruto and Hinata, she smiled tenderly, "Good morning, Naru-chan." Then she looked at Hinata, "Good morning, Hina-chan."

"Good morning, Mother," they both said in unison, with Hinata's part in a softer voice but still audible.

After greeting Minato and engaging in some conversation with his mother, Naruto sat in a chair. Hinata sat beside him, and his parents sat on the other side of the table.

"As always, this is delicious," Naruto said as he chewed the food. The food she made was truly delicious.

Kushina smiled lovingly, "Eat as much as you want, you must be hungry after all."

Hearing her words, Hinata's face reddened, and she looked down as she ate her food.

Kushina noticed Hinata's embarrassed expression and teased her, "Oh... look, my daughter is shy."

Hinata responded in a meek voice, "It's not like that." She was bold, but in front of Naruto's mother, she felt the need to behave like a shy girl, which she didn't mind at all.

"Oh, is that so?" Kushina said with a teasing smile.

Hinata nodded in response.

"Don't worry, we didn't hear anything. After all, your room has soundproof sealing barriers that I personally installed," Kushina reassured her while observing her face.

Hinata's face became red as she remembered what she was thinking last night, 'Oh god, this guilty pleasure.' she couldn't help but avoid her gaze. Seeing her gaze Kushina's smile became more teasing, "oh... so you think we might hear you,"

Naruto looked at Hinata's expression, he knew what she was thinking, he looked at his Mother, "Mom, you are embarrassing her"

Kushina's gaze focused on Naruto, "so my little boy has become a man now that he is ordering his mother,"

Naruto looked at her, he couldn't win against her, "no I didn't mean that,"

"So what did you mean," she asked.

Minato looked at the bickering, in his heart he was happy, he loved it when his whole family sat like this, and ate, bickering about random things, he loved every bit of it.

He didn't want his family to be separate, and he would do everything in his power to maintain his family. but he knew this was only for a few days, and Naruto had to go, he knew the time was approaching for their departure.

And then only he and Kushina will remain in the house, and it will become quiet without them.

That's why he was savoring every moment of their chatter, their teasing and laughter.

When he saw that Naruto was again verbally cornered by his mother, "Kushina, you are embarrassing the kids, let's eat quietly," he said politely not wanting to feel her wrath.

Kushina glanced at him and pouted, "I was just teasing my son,"

Naruto looked at her pouty face, "you look cute Mom," he commented with a smile.

Kushina smiled mildly and looked at him tenderly, "you think I am cute," Naruto nodded to her, "you are the best, Mom"

Kushina's heart fluttered at this. her son looked so cute when he said,

"You are praising me too much"

She loved it when her son praised her, but she had to maintain the facade of a tough mother. However, she was not someone who could hide her emotions; it was clearly written on her face that she cherished his praise.

"But I told you the truth, you're the best mom," Naruto said as he ate his food.

"Hmmm," she hummed in delight.

Soon, they finished their meal. Kushina and Minato quickly washed the dishes and completed their household chores.

They were dressed in their mission attire, and Naruto looked at them, asking, "Are you going on a mission?"

"Yes, the Hokage will assign us a mission, so we need to go to the Hokage's office. But don't worry, I'll be back by night," Kushina reassured him.

They had received a message from an Anbu ninja in the morning that the Hokage wanted to see them, and they would receive different missions.

Her mission was to investigate the remaining swordsmen of the Mist Village, as some of them had been found dead at the outskirts of Konoha.

Minato, on the other hand, had to go to the ongoing war to provide support.

Naruto nodded and said, "It's fine."

Kushina looked at her son and could sense a slight sadness in his demeanor. "Don't be sad, Naru-chan. I've packed a lunchbox for you. You can go outside like yesterday, but please don't cause trouble. Spend time with Hinata, and the day will pass quickly until I'm back home," she said, blurting out everything.

Naruto smiled at his mom and said, "Don't worry about me. Be safe on your mission."

Kushina nodded and hugged him tightly. "See you soon, son."

Naruto patted her back and replied, "Hmmm."

Kushina and Minato stood outside the house. Naruto looked at them, nodded, and they both disappeared.

End of the chapter, how do you like it tell me in the comments, I know it's taking too long for this arc, I will try to finish it as soon as possible, almost in the next 10 chapters.

his embrace, her hands wrapped around his neck and her legs locked on his waist, "I can't get enough of you,"

Hinata move forward and pecked his lips and started fiercely sucking him, Naruto put his hands on her waist, he responded with equal passion. Naruto parted her lips with his tongue and entered her mouth, her mouth was wet and warm, he sucked her juicy lips and played with her tongue.

They savored each other taste

Their kiss was getting wild and wild every moment, Naruto parted his lips with her and looked at her cherry-red lips, some stains of saliva were drooled to her chin.

Naruto leaned closer and licked her lips and her chin.

"Umm"

Hinata let out a sweet moan as she felt his tongue licking her.

Naruto really loved her wild side.

Naruto put her down, and looked into her eyes, "let's find a good place," Hinata nodded to him and locked her hand with her and they walked forward.

They walked for a bit before sitting down beside a fountain, in the land of fire many small fountains were naturally made in years.

Naruto sat on the ground, and Hinata sat on his lap, she wrapped her hands around his neck, and put her chin on his shoulder, Naruto hugged her waist.

They sat there in his position for a long time, feeling each other's warmth, Naruto caressing her back tenderly and patting her head fondly.

Hinata closed her eyes as she enjoyed his caresses on her back, and his head pats, they were full of love. To her this was heaven.

Naruto patted her head and kissed her head from time to time. Her scent was filling his whole being and he enjoyed it.

They sat there, in each other's embrace, the world around them was so peaceful, this was what she always wanted, to live happily with him in peace. She lifted her head and kissed his cheeks, and kissed again.

Naruto pulled out the tiffin box. Open it, and the delicious scent filled the surroundings, "it's going to be hard to eat like this," Naruto spoke.

"I don't mind, I want you to feed me," Hinata replied in a cheeky tone while still planting kisses around his face.

"You have gotten more spoiled and cheeky," Naruto replied with a smile.

"Well. it's my husband's responsibility to feed me," she whispered in a shy voice which was extremely appealing to Naruto.

With a smile, Naruto opened the food that his mother made this morning, and he slowly started to feed her.

Hinata took it with happiness as the two of them lost themselves in their world like a couple of lovebirds.

Time passed as they fed each other. At times, he would feed her, and other times she would feed him. Sometimes the food He placed in Hinata's mouth would be directly into his as her lips sought his.

In the end, they both ended up lying on the ground, Hinata was above him as she put her chin between her palms and looked at him.

"I wanted to see all the world with you," she spoke.

"It shall be done," he said

"I want our honeymoon to be the best."

"And it shall be done," Naruto responded as he tugged her hair behind her ears and caressed her back. The two of them just went on with their talks... Right now they were just lovers planning their future together, from time to time they talked about what they would do in the bed and to names of kids they would have.

It was fun yet weird talk, though, in the end, they really enjoyed it.

"I love you," Hinata said once more.

"And i love you too," Naruto replied once more and she once again surrounded him with kisses.

"I can't get enough of you telling me that you love me, say once more," Hinata said as she hugged him tightly.

"I love you" Naruto whispered in her ears and kissed her forehead. He adores her too much. She was his. And he will do anything to make her happy.

And like this, some hours passed by as they lay there kissing, hugging, and talking with each other.

Hinata's Pov *

Hinata's POV

it's Hinata's POV, so it's bound to be heavily R18 and Dark so read it on your own safety.

--

My eyes are closed as a sweet smile graces my face. I am the happiest person in the whole world.

I am currently sitting in Naruto's lap as he fondly caresses my hair; his other hand is wrapped around my waist, and my back is leaned against his chest.

I can feel his muscles pressing against my back, and his sweet scent is driving me crazy.

Last night was the night when we truly became one. I raised my hand to look at my ring. This was the ring Naruto placed on my finger.

I looked at my ring, and a sweet smile appeared on my lips. Now that I think about it, we did many things last night.

Just thinking about the wild night, my cheeks started to heat up, I could feel his member penetrated me for the first time, that was slightly painful for a moment but the pleasure I felt was otherworldly, I could remember he looked with all his love when he saw the tears in my eyes due to the losing my virginity and pleasure, it melted my heart that how much he love and care about me.

But when I told him that it was fine he kissed me with all his passion and started his movements.

"Oh my goodness' that was so amazing that we lost ourselves in the pleasure. And as time passed, we became wild and didn't hold anything back.

And when he turned me around and spank my ass I felt the electric jolt in my whole body. I buried my head in the pillow to suppress my moans but I knew Naruto loves my moans and when I tried to suppress them he became more eager to hear them.

As he fuck me from behind, I know that position was embarrassing but the pleasure I felt when he hit my womb every time it felt so good, and I was moaning like crazy under his thrust.

And I felt so amazing when his semen painted my walls white and filled my womb with his seed.

I didn't want to get pregnant so soon, so I used some pregnancy seels that mother gave me.

"Mother... huh."

I didn't know when I really started to call her mother. She always seemed energetic, calling me with the same love she showed My Naruto.

She talks to me like a real mother, sharing stories of her childhood while we're shopping, cracking all types of jokes to make me laugh. Sometimes she teaches me things about what a wife should do with her husband.

As for his father, I can also call him 'father.' He is kind, gentle, and shows his love for his family.

Although in the beginning, his and Naruto's conversations were not like those of a father and son, I know that my Naruto didn't hate his father; he was just frustrated with him.

But his father tried his best to form a bond with him. He loves his son dearly and shows his affection, and soon he succeeds in regaining his son's love.

As for me, I can say that he sees me as a daughter, even though he hasn't spoken a single word to me. He has asked about me through his son. I think he's shy about talking to me, but he considers me part of his family.

I will try to talk to him, exchange morning greetings and engage in small talk.

As for my real father, he might hate me now, or perhaps he loves me. He doesn't show any emotions on his face; he always wears a facade of coldness. He hasn't shown me any affection, but maybe he loves me and doesn't express it. In reality, I don't care about it.

I have my real family here. My Naruto loves me more than anything, and his mother and father, or should I call them my mother and father, treat me like a real daughter.

I have everything that a woman wants, a loving husband who could burn the whole world just for me, 'I will do the same thing for him', and a loving mother and father.

Although I haven't spent much time with them, the time I spend with them is filled with happiness and I myself find peace with them.

As for Naruto and me, all the shackles that were holding us were broken last night, and we had so many things to do.

'hehe... how about fucking in the open' I had so many ideas to do with my Naruto.

Like I became a maid and he became my master and punished me for my mistakes.

Or, I became a civilian girl and he became a prince and when he passed by my village his eyes landed on me and he fell in love with me at first sight and then he took me to his castle and married me.

Or I became a holy maiden and he became a villain and abducted me.

Or how about he became a little kid and I became his mother and he fell in love with me and tried to pursue me?

Or how about we became siblings, he became my older brother who saved me from bullies and I fell in love with my older brother, and our relationship was considered taboo so we had to hide it from all the world.

'My fucking mind, I want to try so many things with him, and I haven't considered my sadistic side yet, hehe... I want some dolls for my Naruto so we can both play with them.'

Now who should I choose first, 'what about my own little sister- Hanabi? She is a pure and innocent girl, hehe... I will make her fall in love with my Naruto. wouldn't it be fun to watch her lose her virginity in front of her big sister? I know Naruto will be happy to fuck both sisters in the same bed.

it will make my sister's life easier, she won't have to worry about anything. She will get a loving husband and be happy with her older sister. I can't give her to anyone else, she is my little sister after all.'

And as for the others 'hehehe... about other girls, I will make them play things for my Naruto.'

Just thinking about it makes my cheeks turn hot.

"Are you thinking something naughty my little pervert wife~~" I heard Naruto whisper in my ears, his hot breath tickling my ears.

I shuddered in his lap as his teasing voice entered my ears. He knows how to make me like this.

"Umm..." I nodded to him, I can't lie to him and he knows how I think.

"Are you thinking about some other girls to present them to me~" his voice again tickled my ears. As his hands started caressing my waist.

"Hmm~" I nodded as he licked my ear and bit it, sending jolts of pleasure to me.

"You are becoming naughty, Hinata" he said as his hand which was caressing my hair, cupped my breast and started kneading it gently.

"Ummm..." I couldn't help but moan as his hand started to change the shape of my breast and start flicking my nipple. I closed my eyes in pleasure.

I opened my eyes wide when I felt his other hand was heading towards my pussy and he started rubbing my clit over the clothes.

I could feel I started to become wet as my love juices started to leak.

I just closed my eyes and let him do anything, after all this body of mine belongs to him.

I started to feel his dick start to become hard as it poked me, a smile appeared on my face as I wiggled my butt and positioned myself in a way that his dick was now sandwiched between my ass cheeks.

"Wouldn't it be fun to fuck those bitches, and they twitch and cry under you, hehe just thinking about i became excited " I said as his hand movements became faster.

"Hehe... my wife is so corrupted, and you know I love you," he said as he pinched my nipples.

"Ahh..." I couldn't help but moan out loud. Now that we are in the open, I suddenly remember something. And looked at my Naruto, "Let's play a game." I said with a mischievous smile.

"Game, what type of game," he asked me with a grin and sent a slight electric current to my pussy.

"Ahhh.." I moaned in pleasure.

"Hehe... let's play Truth or Dare,"

"So that is the game you want to play... hehe I know where are you getting at," he said and kissed me and inserted his tongue in my mouth.

"Haaa..." we parted after a few minutes.

"Let's play," I said. .

Notes

I feel a different kind of energy when I write about my favorite character. do you also feel it while reading Hinata's POV... . Hinata is in action again and will be in the next two chapters...

how can we fall so low, so immoral and so depraved?***

Looking at my Naruto a sweet smile graced my face as my legs wrapped around his waist, my hands locked behind his neck. Sitting in his lap I positioned myself in a way that he was between my asscheeks.

My hands unconsciously started to gently stroke his hair, Locking my eyes with my love, I could see the burning fire and love in his eyes, leaning forward I pressed my forehead with his.

Our foreheads were pressed together, my nose was touching his nose as we both breathed each other's air, I started to feel dizzy just by that, leaning forward I put my lips on his lips as I licked his lips and entered his mouth massaging his tongue.

I closed my eyes and felt his taste, so warm, so sweet, so passionate. He gently caressed my back with his left hand as his right hand found its way to my left breast and started massaging it, changing its shape and molding it as he pleased.

"Ummm..."

I let out a moan in his mouth as he pinched my erect nipple through the cloths, kissing him deeply I started to ravish every moment of his touch, I couldn't get enough of his touch, he is the person I love the most, and feeling his touch on my body, I started to feel the fire in my belly.

Parting with his lips, I looked at him with my hazy eyes, a thread of saliva hung between our lips, moving forward. I licked his lips one more time and planted a kiss on his cheeks.

"Hehe~"

I giggled like a little girl, with my Naruto I felt no restriction, I could act as I wanted.

Looking around the lush green grasses in the wilderness my heart thrilled in anticipation as a gentle wind touched my face. Doing things in the middle of the forest is so thrilling.

The evening has just started and I have no plans to just jump on him directly, for now, we have put our morality aside and play the game.

It was the time to live in our fantasy. I have many things to do with my Naruto.

"Let's start the game,"

"What about the things," He asked.

"Don't worry about them,"

Closing my eyes, I looked at the shops and houses in Konoha and found all the things I needed. I put my two fingers on the ground and some small and big portals started to rise from the ground, and all the things I needed appeared in front of us.

I looked at Naruto who had put his hand on the ground, "what are you doing," I asked him curiously.

"You're the not only one who wants to play, my princess," he said with a grin.

The ground shook slightly as a pond filled with hot water appeared with some stones encircling it. There are some other things as well.

Looking at his mischievous smile my belly fluttered as I couldn't wait to see what he wanted to do with me.

"Have you ever tasted it," I asked him while holding a wine bottle in my hand. This was also my first time holding a bottle of wine.

He shook his head, as he said, "I haven't tried it, but I guess it will not affect us,"

If we wanted to get drunk we needed some strong alcohol, but we wanted this bottle just for the game, so I opened the cap, "We have to empty this, hehe... let's see how it tastes..."

I gulped down half of the wine in one gulp, I squinted my eyes as I parted the bottle from my mouth, "Ah... it is bitter and sweet at the same time,"

"Haha... give it to me," Naruto laughed looking at my expression as I passed the bottle to him.

"Let's see" Saying this he gulped the remaining wine in one gulp. And as he gulped down his expression changed. "Ahh... you are right," he said.

I laughed at his antics as he put down the bottle between us, "let's start

He spun the bottle, I waited in anticipation, the bottle spun for a few seconds before stopping its head towards me, and a grin appeared on my face.

"Truth or Dare" I asked him.

He cupped his face between his palms his elbows resting on the table and smiled at me, "Dare"

'Damn... his gaze, it's just so hot that I want to jump on him right now.

And pin him down,'

'Hehe,' I laughed inwardly as I put a bowl of sweet chocolate on the table and looked at Naruto.

"You have to feed me one of these without using any on your hands or techniques," I said with a mischievous smile.

He looked at me for a moment while thinking a grin started to appear on his face, "My Naughty Hinata, the game has just begun and you are already impatient," He said while slamming the table and some chocolate flew in the air, he caught one between his teeth and looked at me.

Standing up I leaned my face to his, I slightly opened my mouth as he put the chocolate in my mouth, I started eating the chocolate, it started to get shorter and shorter and before long my lips met his and another round of passionate kisses began.

"Huff.. huff.." I parted with him and breathed heavily. "That was awesome," I said between breaths.

"You bet it was the best," he said while spinning the bottle again, this time the bottle's head towards him.

"Truth or Dare" he asked.

"Truth," I said.

"What is your wildest fantasy for now, you know what I mean," he asked looking into my eyes.

"Hehe..." I laughed as my thoughts ran wild. A silly smile appeared on my face.

"Imagine, both of us became invisible and fuck in the living room as Mother sat on the couch, and she had no idea that her daughter and son were fucking each other in front of her and she could not see that.

or

At night she hears my unrestrained moan as you fuck me while she wouldn't be able to sleep at night, and the next morning how will she face us, I want to see her reactions," I said while with a silly smile on my face.

"Hold your horses, you pervert,"

"And what is your obsession with Mom hearing us," he asked me and I could see a mischievous glint in his eyes.

"I don't know, but it always turns me on, just thinking about it, don't tell me you also want this, hehe" I asked him, and I could see his face turning red in embarrassment. I didn't need any explanations.

"We truly are the biggest scum on this earth," I said.

"Hahaha," he laughed didn't deny my words.

"let's spin again"

I put my hand on the bottle and spun it, and this time it stopped towards me, grinning I asked "Truth or Dare"

"Dare," he said.

I thought for a while and my eyes lit up as I looked at him, "From now on call me little sister," as I said this I felt more debauched, more corrupt, and it excited me more as I ravaged the pure relationship of blood. We were falling into the pit of debauchery and there was no way back.

Looking at My Naruto, I could see his expression change slightly and a grin appeared on his face.

"Little Sister" As he said this my heart fluttered and the feeling of being corrupt overwhelmed me, just listening to him saying 'sister' turned me on.

"Big Brother," I said while lowering my head in shame and excitement, how can we fall so low, so immoral and so depraved? We just plundered the relationship of brother and sister.

"Hehe... big brother is the best." I ran towards him and hugged him tightly. I felt his excitement as he looked at me.

"Is there anything you want 'little sister'," he said, and damn it hits harder than I thought. The way he looks at me, his gaze, his emotions.

"I want you, Big Brother," I said snuggling in his chest.

should we do the things mentioned up there... and give me some powerstones if you have any... Creation is hard, cheer me up!

End Part 1

*AN~ long, very long chapter around 9199 words, so enjoy. I had mixed at least 4 to 5 chapters to end this arc.

To appreciate my work just comments, that would be sufficient for me.

I stood there in his embrace as he gently caressed my back, his warm breaths tickled my ear, my cheeks were red due to such intimacy.

My hands tightly wrapped around his waist as I pulled him closer, my breasts were pressed against his chest.

Tilting my head upwards I looked at his warm and mischievous smile as the same smile appeared on my face.

He gently brushed off some of my hair and tugged them behind my ears and gently caressed my cheeks with his fingers.

Feeling his fingers trailing down my cheeks my heart fluttered, my whole body quivered just by his touch, I couldn't get enough of his gentle touch, he considered me his most precious treasure.

His eyes were filled with love, desire, possession, and passion when he looked into my eyes, he was an open book not even hiding a single emotion that showed how much he loved me.

He gently rubbed my lips with his thumb, "I love you..." he said.

As he touched my lips I melted in his arms, "I love you too,"

I buried my face in his chest, this small and lovable moment made my heart go into a frenzy.

'I love my Naruto so much that I myself didn't know to what extent, I just want to do everything with him'

I wrapped my hands around his neck and bushing his hair with my fingers, I looked into his eyes, I don't what snapped inside me as I started to kiss his forehead, then cheeks, then his lips, and as I moved down I kissed his neck and sucked fiercely and I leave a love mark on his neck.

Leaving a mark on his neck, I felt satisfied as I looked at it. He is mine, I want to dominate him but at the same time, I want him to dominate me.

"Hehe..." I giggled as I looked at him.

"Now... now... our game has not ended yet," He said, squeezing my waist slightly.

We both looked at the spinning bottle in front of us as it finally stopped towards him.

He grinned and asked me, "truth or Dare,"

I closed my eyes for a moment, "dare"

'What dare he give me, hehe will he ask to do something bad' I thought in anticipation.

He pointed his hand to the small pond that he had created and said, "I want you to dance for me, just like you did that time"

My face blushed as I remember, that time I was dancing in the middle of the night, "do you remember that," I asked him shyly, but I was also getting excited. Dancing for my naruto, I will do anything for him.

"How can I forget that, you were like an angel,"

Hearing him, my cheeks felt heat and a fire in my body, I started to walk towards the pond.

I removed my sandals and I walked on the water. I felt a soothing and warm sensation in my feet.

Turning around I looked at Naruto who was looking at me with a smile.

'This is for you my Naruto'

I took a tentative step onto the water's surface as my bare feet left ripples of moonlight in their wake. The pond, calm and still started to wave as my feet touched it.

Each of my steps was a whisper of grace, a dance for my Naruto, the water drops moved around my body as they reflected the moonlight.

My hair swayed in the air when I spun on the surface. In my vision the world started to blur. The only thing I could see was my Naruto.

As I moved on the surface, the water rippled creating a distinct patterns. Between my moves I looked at my naruto, he seemed to be spellbound by my dance.

Seeing him like this made my heart flutter and soon my dance came to an end.

"How was it," I asked him.

"It was perfect" he said, he came towards me, hearing his praises I felt butterflies in my stomach.

My whole body was wet, my clothes were sticking to my body, revealing my curve to him. Yes, I want to show him everything.

"Let me take care of you," he said as he looked at my feet.

With a flick of his finger some Things appeared beside him that I had picked up for our little game.

He with kind eyes and gentle smile, looked at me, his beloved. He sat on the ground and placed a hand on the ground and a chair made of rock appeared behind me.

"Sit down"

I nodded to him as I sat down on the chair. He took a small basin filled with warm water and a few drops of fragrant lavender oil, placing it at my feet.

As soon as he touched my feet, I quickly opened my eyes and pulled my legs back.

"What are you doing?" I said, No he shouldn't do that, he should never lower himself for anyone not even for me. It's a woman's duty to wash the feet of her man. Not the opposite.

"I said, let me take care of you..." he said as he approached my feet.

"No, you shouldn't do that, it should be me, not you," I said, retreating my feet further away.

"Do you think I care about such petty things, you're my wife, if I can't take care of you, and if my ego is too high to lower myself to you, then I shouldn't call myself a man" he said with a loving and tender expression .

"And if you want to do this you can do it anytime, I am all yours," he added and approached my feet as he dipped a soft cloth into the water, then began to cleanse my feet, even though there was nothing on my feet but he didn't care.

Putting aside the clothes, his hands glowed green as he gently started with slow loving strokes, massaging my feet with utmost care. He kneaded my sole and heels, his fingers working magic on my skin.

My heart swelled with warmth at my Naruto's gesture, I couldn't help but a smile graced my lips and my fingers gently ran through his hair.

"Umm " a sweet moan of pleasure escaped my mouth. His eyes look at me from time to time.

The world around me faded away, in this moment there were only two of us, connected by the intimacy of this simple yet profound act of love and care.

"I love you..." he whispered softly, his voice filled with tenderness.

Unknown to me, some tears flowed down to my cheeks as I reached down and cupped my Naruto's face, drawing him into a loving kiss. I kissed him deeply, my emotion for him filled the kiss.

I hugged him tightly as his face was buried in my breasts, 'I love you too

"I whispered in his ears, I don't how many times I said it but I said as if my life depended on it.

He gently patted my back. Calming my raging emotions down.

He looked at me, "your clothes are wet, wait a minute, i will bring you something," he said to me.

I nodded to him and he disappeared from there.

I can't wait for him to return. With a smile I waited for him to return, this one minute was the longest one for me.

"Here, wear them" Naruto appeared behind me and handed me the clothes, but I don't want this, I want him to dress me. Unknown to me a smile appeared on face as I looked at him, "i want you to dress me up,"

"Really," he asked me.

"Of course, remove these clothes and put new ones on me" I said.

"You are being naughty again," he said to me.

"Yes... I am your Naughty girl," I said as I spread my arms.

He came closer to me and started to remove my clothes, first the top was gone, and with a click sound my lower clothes fell to the ground, leaving me naked in front of me.

Standing like this my face blushed as I covered my breasts with one hand and with another hand I hid my private parts.

"Now... now... don't be shy my little Hinata," Naurto said as he slowly removed my hand from my breasts. I don't even resist it, I want him to see everything. But hiding and then revealing it had its own charm.

My other hand was still hiding my pussy, his other hand was gently placed on my hand as he removed my other hand as well.

I was standing naked in front of him, I closed my eyes when I felt his warm breath tickling my belly, I felt his tongue circling around my belly button.

"Umm" I moaned when I felt his touch.

He teased me for a bit, before starting to dress me, and soon I was dressed completely.

I don't know where he brought it but it was extremely beautiful.

And I could guess why Naruto brought this, he really loves to undress me, hehe.

Naruto sat on the grass, his back leaning against a rock, I walked towards him and sat between his legs and my back touched his chest.

Naruto wrapped his hands around my waist as his chin rested on my shoulder.

We both sat there enjoying each other's warmth as we looked at the beautiful moon in front of us, there was only silence and I could hear his heartbeat matching mine.

"I wish time could stop and we stay like this forever" I whispered.

"Hmm" he hummed in my ears, tilting my head. I kissed his cheeks as we stayed there.

"It's getting late, let's go home..." he said. It was around 9 in the night, but I didn't want to part with him.

"Just stay like this for a while," I said while closing my eyes. He nodded to me.

Naruto's Pov

Chapter 116

I was sitting against the rock while I held my Hinata in my arms, she was sitting between my legs and her back was pressing against my chest.

I moved my hand slightly tickling her belly.

"Hahaa" Hinata giggled when she felt me playing around her stomach.

I rested my chin on her shoulder, my cheeks were touching her ear and my breath tickled her cheeks.

'This is so good, I didn't feel this good when altering my DNA,' I thought as I inhaled the sweet fragrance of her.

"So sweet"

I kissed her neck and started to flick my tongue around her neck sending jolts of pleasure to her whole body.

She shuddered in my arms when she felt my tongue sucking her neck.

Feeling that I had enough, I raised my head and left a love mark on her neck.

"This is for earlier,"

I whispered in her ear and raised my left hand and squeezed her breasts, sinking my hand into her soft flesh. her breaths were firm, soft and elastic, I Molded them as I pleased.

I felt her erect nipple through the fabric of the cloth, placing my fingers above her nipple. I started to massage it tenderly.

"Ummmm...." Hinata let out a soft moan as she felt her nipple massage.

"Ahhh"

She suddenly cried out in pleasure as I pinched her nipple hard, she tilted her head to look at me and as she looked at me I captured her lips.

As my lip met her juicy lips, I gave a lick to her lips with my tongue and started to suck her lower lips, nibbling on her lip and slightly biting it.

Hinata let out a moan in my mouth and when she opened her mouth, my tongue entered her mouth, exploring every inch of her mouth.

I felt the warmth of her mouth as I started to swirl my tongue. Soon her tongue started to play with mine, I sucked and massaged her tongue.

My hand was not ideal, I started to grope her breasts and knead them, I started to twirl her nipples, and pinch them from time to time.

"Ahhh"

She let out a moan as we parted, a string of saliva connecting our lips.

Looking at her flushed face, her red cheeks and ears, she looks so adorable and beautiful, I want her to take her down now and make love with her all night.

"That was good," she breathed heavily.

I like everything about her, she sometimes acts like an innocent girl, sometimes seductive, a bad girl, sometimes she wants to dominate me, she perfectly knows what I want.

I looked at her and smiled, "Let go home, it's getting late,"

I picked her up in a princess-carrying style, tonight I will make love with her in every way.

Seeing my smile, Hinata had a teasing smile as she said, "You are thinking something naughty, don't you"

She locked her hands around my neck and wrapped her legs around my wrist, she was clinging to me, her boobs pressed on my chest, and I felt her warm breath on my neck.

"Be Ready for tonight, sweetheart" I said as I tightly hugged her and started walking towards the home.

"Fuck me so hard that I couldn't walk properly tomorrow," she whispered in my ears.

'This girl'

She knows how to make me horny, and I didn't what is her obsession with family relationships, she just wanted to corrupt every relationship, and it's not like I don't like it, fuck, I like this so much.

'At this moment I don't know who corrupted whom, I corrupted her or she corrupted me'

I wouldn't be surprised if she cosplayed as my own mother.

'Fuck... why am thinking this'

I know I love my mom so much and this will never change, but my perverted wife, she will fuck this scared relationship I know it.

I walked towards home with a steady pace, she sometimes kissed my neck leaving many love marks there.

I could heal them, but I didn't want to. These were the marks of love given by my love.

I have to hide them when we reach home, if my mother finds out about it, she won't let me eat in peace, and I can't argue with her.

And I know Hinata was doing it on purpose, I could guess she would not hide the mark on her neck, she would show it to her and I would be the one who would be teased, her sadistic side is too wild sometimes.

Soon we reached home, putting her down gently. I opened the gate, I have an extra key so I don't have to barge in.

"No one is home," Hinata said as she walked in.

"Let me see where are they,"

I activated my eyes and sensory abilities, and soon both of them were in my vision.

My mother was heading back with some other jonins, I think her mission to investigate the seven swordsmen was finished.

"She will arrive in one hour," I said, calculating the time when she arrived.

As for my father, well he can teleport whenever he wants, but he is currently at the border of Iwa, the third ninja war is going on and here I am playing with my Hinata.

'I think he will arrive in the morning.'

As for the war in the future, I don't know what is happening in the future, my clone will find some ways to protect what needs to be protected.

"Let me prepare food, she must be tired," Hinata said and went to the kitchen,

I nodded to her and sat on the chair, putting my chin on my palm. I watched her elegantly washing the vegetables.

I admire her slim waist, her juicy thighs, her tight and firm ass, her dark blue hair. She was the girl I could admire all my life and never get satisfied with.

Feeling my gaze she turned her head and looked at me, there was a tinge of red on her cheeks, I just wanted to cuddle with her but the food was important for now.

"Naruto~ you are making me blush..." she said shyly and turned her gaze.

'Oh my Hinata... she is... doing it again... is she really think I won't take her down now,,,'

"You are getting too naughty, you need some punishment," I said with a smile forming on my face.

Hearing my words her body shivered, and I knew she was doing it on purpose, I could see the excitement in her eyes.

"Please don't punish me, I am a good girl, I will tell mom that you bully me," she said while her tears welled up in her eyes.

*Snif* snif *

"Yes, I will tell Mom," she said, sobbing while wiping out her tears.

I just looked at her, my eyes didn't even blink.

This girl really needs some heavy punishment, "if you tell mom, your punishment will be doubled,"

She gazed at me, fearing me, "I will definitely tell Mom now, I know you will punish me either way, if I tell her or not," she said, her excitement evident in her eyes.

"Fine we will see," I said as I admired her from my chair, and I didn't even know when one hour had passed, the food was ready and already served on the table. I was too engrossed in her.

My head snapped open when I heard the sound of the door opening.

And as the door opened my mother came into my view, unknown to me a smile formed on my lips.

"Mom you are back"

She looked tired but as soon as she looked at me all of her tiredness was gone and a sweet smile formed on her face, she looked so energetic all of a sudden.

"Sweetie... you are waiting for mommy, come here and give me a hug" she opened her arm.

Calling me like that, I became slightly embarrassed, no one has called me like that, it's not like that I hate it, I loved it so much. Getting up from my seat, I walked towards her and before I knew it I was in my mother's embrace.

"My baby boy, give me a kiss," she smiled sweetly as she rubbed her cheeks with mine, and kissed my cheeks.

I leaned forward and kissed her forehead, her eyes brightened up, she was radiating pure joy and happiness, "that's my boy,"

She patted my shoulder and looked around, her eyes fixed on Hinata,
"come here, don't you want to give me a hug,"

I sat on the chair and looked at Hinata. This time she was actually embarrassed. I looked at my mother as she hugged and rubbed her cheeks with Hinata, she was too happy.

"That's my girl," she said and patted Hinata's shoulder.

"You made all the food," she asked while looking at the food.

Hinata nodded.

"What a sweet girl"

"I will be back in no time," she said and ran towards her room, and just in a few minutes she bathed and was now sitting at the dining table with Me and Hinata.

"How's your mission?" I asked her.

"It was okay, I just wanted to come back home and spend time with my sweetie," Mom said.

I nodded with a smile, "let's eat,"

Both of them nodded and started their meal.

"Delicious..." mom said as she took a bite. She gulped down the food and looked at Hinata.

"This food is so good,"

"Thank you," Hinata said

"Thank you what"

"Thank you, mother," Hinata said meekly.

"Hmmm...." she hummed and started eating again.

"The house is so lovely with you, what will I do when you are gone," my mom whispered.

The atmosphere became sad all of a sudden, and realizing it she shook her head and smiled brightly.

"I guess your father hasn't come yet," she said.

"Maybe he will come till morning," I said.

She looked at me for a while and then the scarf I was wearing, was the same scarf Hinata had made for me.

"Why are you wearing the scarf in summer," she questioned me.

I quickly checked that she hadn't found anything out of the place. "I really like wearing a scarf," I said, avoiding her gaze.

"Is that so...are you hiding something under it?" she asked.

"No... there is nothing... I really like it," I said.

She looked at me suspiciously before smiling, "If you like them so much you would have told me,"

"Ok I will make one for you," she said before continuing her food.

I looked at Hinata, she had a hidden smirk on her, and I was praying to myself that she didn't bring out the earlier matter.

Seeing my gaze on her, her smile became wider, although her head was lowered but with Byakugan we both could see each other.

'No...no...no... don't' I exclaimed in my head as soon as I saw her eyes start to become watery.

The food was finished and my mom was about to stand up.

~sniff! Sniff

My mom stopped abruptly and looked at Hinata, she could feel her sobbing.

"What happened sweetie?" she asked her.

Hinata looked at Mom her eyes moist tears about to spill, "sniff sniff"

She just sobbed. My mom came near her hugged her and patted her back,

"tell me sweetie what happened, why are you crying," she asked tenderly.

"N-Naruto," Hinata said between sobs.

"Naruto what" Mom asked.

"H-he bullies me, sniff sniff," she said and I could see her lips forming a smile as she looked at me, my mom couldn't see this, she was busy consoling her.

'Your punishment is tripled,' I said with my eyes. But her smile became more lively.

"Don't worry sweetheart, I will take care of him, you don't have to worry about him, he will never bully you again, is that ok?" she said and Hinata nodded.

My mom turned around me, fire in her eyes as she looked at me, "No... it's not like this..." I said.

"I know it's not like this," my mom said as she bonked me in the head. I could feel she got the gist of our play.

"Now tell me will you bully my sweet girl ever again," she asked angrily.

But this was evident to everyone she was just trying to be angry.

"No Mom, I will never do it," I said with pitiful eyes, and that seemed to work miraculously on her.

"I see, now give Mama a hug," she said as she embraced me tightly.

I stayed there, she didn't want me to go, she wanted to live every moment of this.

"You are mama sweet boy, aren't you" she asked.

"Yes Mom," I replied.

I stood there, in my mother's embrace. I didn't know how much time had passed. In reality, I didn't care about time, the thing that mattered most was that I was in her embrace, her soft hand caressing my back. I stayed there feeling her love and warmth, I didn't know how long I would stay here.

Parting with her I saw her radiant smile as she looked at me. Her eyes were brimming with happiness, "look at you, behaving like a little child." she said while ruffling my hair.

"When did I do that," I asked her, to my question she just smiled.

Looking around I didn't find Hinata anywhere, "where is she?" I asked.

"She is already in her room, after washing plates, she went upstairs, she didn't want to disturb you,"

I nodded to her.

"It's already late, and I am tired, I will see you in the morning," she said and went towards her room.

Standing alone in the dining room I looked around and picked up a bottle and gulped down the water.

I looked upwards and a smile started to form on my face, "sweetheart I am coming,"

Walking upstairs I couldn't help but think I was about to do with my lovely wife. My whole body filled with excitement just thinking about her.

I opened the door as I entered the room and the door closed shut behind me. I looked at the big bed where Hinata was sitting, she was waiting for me.

As soon as she looked at me a sweet smile formed on her lips, "you took your time," she said seductively.

Walking towards her I glanced at the table where some things were placed, I nodded in my head as I stood in front of her, "It's because of you, I have to console her,"

She smiled innocently as she looked into my eyes, "what are gonna do," she asked.

"You are a bad girl, I have to punish you," I said as I pushed her on the bed and hovered above her.

"Kyaa~~" she yelped in surprise, she didn't expect me to suddenly move.

"And how are you going to punish me," she asked with a smile as she lay beneath me, her hair disheveled, her body quivering in anticipation for what came next. It made her more beautiful.

She raised her hand and pointed her finger and a streak of lightning shot out from her finger and hit the invisible paper, this paper was the only thing that blocked our sounds from going out of this room, I looked at her and she giggled sweetly, "I have got this one opportunity and I am not going to waste it,"

I think she was serious when she told me that she wanted to hear my mother her moans. I looked at her excited eyes. And if I say, I don't like this idea I will be lying to myself.

What has become of us?

"What about punishment, hehe what will you do,"

"This," I said as I pinned her hands above her head and bound them with some chakra strings. She lay beneath me, her hands above her head, and my knees were placed on the bed as I sat on her stomach, I didn't press my weight on her.

I raised my hand and grabbed her right breast and started fondling it.

Feeling the softness of the breast I started to knead it more roughly.

"Ahhh..." She let out a moan as I pinched her erect nipple, both of her nipples were completely hardened.

My other hand moved behind me as I touched her pussy over her clothes, and when my hands touched her, she shivered.

I started to move my finger in a circular motion over her pussy, love juices started to gush out from her, and her breaths became heavy.

Looking at her flushed and dizzy eyes, my hand slipped into her panties, and when I touched her flesh.

"Umm..." she trembled when I slightly entered my middle finger in her cave, I didn't insert my whole finger, just the tip of my finger, I started to move my finger in a circular motion.

Her pussy clenched my finger and started squeezing it, her insides were tight and warm, and due to the love juices, her cave became slippery.

I started to caress her pussy with my fingers, teasing her. I moved my thumb to her clit and slowly brushed over it, making her gasp and moan. I moved my thumb in a circular motion while my finger was playing with her cave.

My hand was drenched in her love juices, her eyes were shut closed as she enjoyed my teasing.

"You like that?" I whispered and quickened my hand's movements, one hand was playing with her breasts and one was playing with her pussy. She hummed as she gasped.

I felt her walls tighten around my finger as she started to become stiff, she was about to cum. I quickened my pace and when I felt she was on the edge, I suddenly stopped.

She suddenly opened her eyes and looked at me, "why," she asked with her pleading eyes. I smirked and pinched her nipple.

"Ahhh" she moaned.

"This was your punishment," I said as I moved, I pinned her wrists with my own hands, and the binding was undone.

I hovered above her. Our forehead touched, I shook my head and played with her nose, touching it with my own nose.

I felt her hot breaths on my face, my mind started to feel dizzy. I licked my lips and kissed her, our lips met, and I started to suck her lips.

She whimpered when I bit her lip and tugged on it, pulling toward me.

She gasped and my tongue entered her mouth and started playing with her tongue.

Our tongues massaged each other, sending jolts of pleasure to our brain, her mouth was warm, and her taste was sweet. Sweaters more than anything.

She moaned out in my mouth when she felt my fingers start to move again, her love juices started to soak my hand as I played with pussy. We kissed passionately and wildly, exchanging saliva, she could only receive pleasure as her hands were pinned above her head and I was above her.

Her walls started to tighten as her cave squeezed my finger, it became more slippery, and warm. Her body started to shudder, she let out a moan.

"I am coming," she said as her back arched up.

"Come for me sweetheart," I said and kissed her and quickened my pace.

"Ahhhh...." She let out a satisfied moan, her toes curled up and she went limp.

She fell flat on the mattress breathing heavily with her eyes closed, I looked at her satisfied smile.

I started to kiss her face lightly and whispered in her ear and nibbled on her earlobe, "Do you like it,"

"Yes,"

"Do you want more," I asked teasingly in her ears.

"Yes fuck me, fuck me hard," she said, I think she wants to play rough.

"Don't say it like this, say love me, Husband," I said and I started to roughly kneed her breasts.

Her face became more red as she looked into my eyes, "yes touch me as you do, love me as you do, love me so much that my mind stopped working, love me hard, Husband" she whispered seductively in my ears.

This was the last straw as I started to kiss her neck, sucking hardly. She moaned out in pleasure, I left a bite mark on her neck.

I grabbed her dress and ripped it off, leaving her upper body completely naked, her big breasts jiggled in front of me, and with a quick motion, she also ripped off my clothes.

I pressed my body on her, and our naked bodies met, her hardened nipples pressed on my chest, I started to kiss the other side of her neck, and her hands started to roam on my bare back.

I kissed her collarbone, and moved to her face, capturing her lips again, then I kissed her cheeks, and her chin and started to move downwards.

I kissed her between her boobs, leaving a mark between her breasts.

I moved my hand and started to roughly knead her left boob, feeling her softness as I mold it into various shapes.

I flicked my tongue over her right nipple as I moved my fingers towards her core.

Her eyes fluttered closed and she gasped as my fingers started to flick her pussy.

"Ahhh..." she moaned as I lightly bit her nipple. I started to suck her nipple roughly, although there was no milk coming out, but it tasted sweet.

*pulp*

A sound of pulp was heard as I removed my lips from her boob while pulling it upwards.

I looked into her eyes, she blushed and averted her gaze. I really love her boldness and shyness at the same time.

"You are so beautiful," I said as I moved to the other nipple and started to flick it with my tongue and sucked hard. I circled my tongue around her nipple and sucked like I was drinking her Milk.

Lifting my head I looked at pink buds that were now red due to my sucking.

My other hand was still playing with her pussy and twitched from time to time and moaned as I pinched her clit.

Moving downwards, I kissed her middle leaving another mark there, I finally stopped at her belly button and flicked my tongue around it.

"Ahhh..." she gasped and arched her back upwards. It was her sensitive spot, her walls started to tighten. I kissed her belly button for some time.

I moved down and my face was between her thighs, I could feel the heat and her feminine scent was making my dick twitch in anticipation.

I started to slowly remove her shorts, she arched her back for me so I could easily remove them. I looked at soaked panties and gently removed them like I was unwrapping a gift.

Her back finally settled down after I completely undressed her.

Her naked body was in front of me, her white milky skin, her disheveled hair, her flushed expression, and her pink nipples made her so beautiful.

I looked at her pink pussy and sniffed her feminine scent, suddenly my mind went into a frenzy.

I squeezed her thighs and started massaging them and kissed them. I left many hickies on her thighs, I love marking her.

My face finally stopped her entrance, I looked at her as she averted her gaze, 'Oh good how much I love her.'

"Look at me," I said as she looked at me, and as our eyes met I gave her pussy a lick, she moaned loudly as I observed her expression. Her eyes were clouded by lust.

"Yess~~~"

Her back arched as my tongue made contact with her wet folds. Her love juices started to gush out, I tasted her nectar, and my dick throbbed in my pants.

"Don't avert your eyes," I said to her and my hand moved towards her clit and I began to slowly massage it. I looked at her flushed face as she watched how I lick her pussy.

Looking at her beautiful and lustful expressions my mind started to lose.

Her eyes became hazy as I parted her folds with my thumbs and inserted my tongue inside her, her walls soft and warm. My tongue started to move in a circular motion, her walls were slippery due to the previous orgasm.

Her walls started to clench around my tongue, her eyes rolled back and she grabbed my head and buried it into her pussy, love juices started to leak uncountably, and her back arched up.

My face was buried in her pussy as her thighs tightened around my head, her legs began to twitch and her body jerked as she cummed

"Ahhh..... Yess.... Fuckkk... this is so good... I love you Naruto"

She moaned loudly, I looked at her rolled-back eyes.

I tasted her love nectar, my dick twitched hard, I can't take it anymore.

She looked at my expression and understood what to do, she quickly pulled out my pants. My dick sprung forth and stood in front of her.

She quietly laid down and spread her legs and looked at my dick and then at me.

I slid a pillow beneath her back and grabbed her legs and put them on my thighs, her legs wrapped around my waist.

My dick twitched as it touched her pussy. She gasped when she felt my rod in front of her entrance.

I groped her breast and started kneading them, my dick touched her pussy but I didn't enter her.

Pinching her hardened nipples, I started to twist them and she moaned out in pleasure.

I teased her pussy with my rod, and her pussy twitched every time my dick touched her, she wants me to enter her.

Hinata looked at me with pleading and begging eyes, "Don't tease me,"

I smirked at her and rubbed my dick on her cave lubing it with her love juices.

"Say it," I said.

She blushed and tried to avert her gaze but I held her chin, she looked into my eyes, "please enter me, I want you inside me," she said.

That's what I needed and I started to move my dick inside her pussy.

"Ahhhh..." she moaned loudly when the head of my dick entered inside her. She tightly squeezed my dick with her walls. I felt so good as her pussy walls wrapped around my dick.

She was very tight, and due to her love juices, her walls were slippery.

"This feels so damn good," I said as I slowly started to move my dick.

She moaned and grabbed the bedsheets as I finally hit her womb.

Her walls were clenched around my dick, I stay inside her for a while and then I started to move slowly, pulling out my dick and thrusting it forward again.

"Ahh...."

Her moans felt sweet music to my ears.

"I want to hear you," I said as I started moving in rhythm.

"Ahhh..."

She moaned every time I hit her womb with my dick.

"Faster... please do it faster...." she said between her moans.

I grunted and I picked up my pace, my thighs hitting her ass creating a sound of flesh hitting flesh.

I slammed my dick inside her pussy and with every thrust I increase my speed.

"Yess~~~ harder,"

Her moans filled the room as I fuck her. Her eyes were clouded.

I grabbed her waist and pinned her there, she couldn't move and only received my thrusts.

With every thrust, I felt my dick hitting the entrance of her womb and start opening it.

"Ahhhh..."

She cried out loud as I buried my dick inside her, opening the entrance of her womb.

Her walls tightly clenched around my dick as if they wanted to milk out my seed, I quicken my pace, and I know she is about to cum.

Love juices gushed out making her cave more slippery and at the same time her pussy squeezed my dick, my mind went blank due to the heavenly pleasure.

"Let's cum together," I said as I kissed her on the lips.

She nodded to me and started to suppress her orgasm and doing so only make it more pleasurable for me as her walls pressed hard on my dick.

My dick twitched inside her pussy and it became slightly thick, she felt it and kissed me passionately.

"Now"

Her walls clenched tightly when my semen shot out and filled her womb.

"Naruto My love, you filled my womb with your seed, ahh..." she moaned out and released her load on my dick, I felt her warm juices around my dick, and her pussy felt so good as it turned to milk out my seed.

I grunted as slowly started to pull out my dick from her cave.

I looked at her pussy, her pussy was closing and opening, it was dripping with my cum. I looked at this beautiful sight.

"You are so beautiful" I whispered.

"Haaa.. are not done right..." she asked with heavy breaths.

"Of course not, darling," I said, my cock was still standing.

I grabbed her waist and turned her around as I pulled her waist, she knew what to do, and her face became embarrassed as she got on her fours. Her face was buried in pillows, I know she liked this position.

I grabbed both of her hands and pinned them on her back. And with another hand, I brushed her hair to the side revealing her neck.

Leaning forward I kissed her neck, she moaned out, I started to kiss her neck and trailing back while kissing her back.

My dick was resting between her folds, I rubbed my dick but didn't enter.

Feeling my intestions Hinata moved her ass backwards to take my dick inside her pussy.

I positioned my dick in front of her cave, she moved her ass and took my whole dick in one go. I stood there as she started to ride my dick.

In this position, I could reach more deaper inside her.

I raised my hand and slapped her ass, her ass ripped in front of me, it look so beautiful.

"Ahh.... yes... hit me harder," she moaned out loud and started to move fast.

I looked at her reddened ass, my hand was printed on it. I raised my hand again and slapped her ass again and again and again until it became completely red.

Her moans were too loud, I started to move forward and start thrusting my dick inside her pussy.

I parted her asscheaks, molding them in various ways and feeling their softness as my finger sank into her flesh.

I looked at the cute pink butthole, I move my hand and put it in her mouth, first, she was shocked but understanding me, she started to suck my fingers, and drool trickled down from her mouth.

Removing my hands from her mouth, I looked at the cute butthole, this hole also needed my attention.

I started to rub her anus with my thumb, feeling my touch her hole clenched, it looked more cuter.

I started to lube it and stimulate it with my thumb and slowly inserted my thumb in her butthole.

"Ahhh,....." she moaned out loud when she felt my thumb in her ass.

"If you moan so loud, Mom could hear you," I said and started to increase my thrusts.

Her body quivered at this thought and she started to move faster and her pussy walls started to chanced around my dick tightly.

I quickened my pace and started to hit her womb deeply.

"Yes..." her back arched as she cummed on my dick. Feeling her hot cum my dick throbbed inside her and her pussy making me feel so good as it tightly clenched my dick.

"Fill me up..." she said and I shot out my hot sperm inside her pussy painting her walls white. I spurt three more times filling the insides of her womb.

Her pussy was milking my dick as if she wanted every single drop inside her.

"Haaa..." she breathed heavily and her knees wobbled and she fell flat on her tummy.

White cum leaked out from her pussy as she lay there. I slumped on her, my dick was between her pussy folds as I lay on her.

Our naked bodies were sweaty, I felt warmth as my chest touched her back. I kissed her neck and whispered in her ears, "I love you"

She trembled under me as she tilted her head and kissed me passionately on my lips, a sweet smile forming on her lips, her eyes bright as she twisted under me, her breasts pressed against my chest and she brought out her hands and cupped my cheeks and said with tender and love as she caressed my face, "I love you too..."

A smile formed on my lips as I rolled down, she was above me, my hand on her waist and another one on her head. I hugged her tightly and stroked her head fondly. She wrapped her hands around my back, I could feel her breath on my body.

I held her as if she was the most precious thing to me, and yes she was. She was everything to me.

We stayed like this for a while. Hinata rose up on her elbows as she looked into my eyes, a mischievous smile forming on her face, "we are not done, right," she asked me and she started to kiss my neck.

"This is just the beginning, sweetheart," I said as I grabbed her ass. My dick pressed against her belly and she felt it and a blush crept on her beautiful face.

We did in all positions that were humanly possible, against the wall, on the floor, on the table, she rode me and moaned out loudly. I didn't do it in her butthole, this was for another time and she agreed with me. One time she went unconscious while having an orgasm.

We fucked each other until 5 in the morning, she was moaning loudly and I was sure everyone in the house heard us.

I looked at her beautiful sleeping face, a satisfied and sweet smile was on her face. She looked so adorable while sleeping, she was sleeping on me, I stroked her hair tenderly and patted her head, I kissed her forehead fondly and tightly hugged her before falling asleep.

My body was feeling warm, happiness filled my mind as I slept soundlessly. My bare skin was feeling content with another body.

The sunlight poured into our room, I groggily opened my eyes. The first thing that came into my view was the handsome face of my Naruto, he was sleeping peacefully with a satisfied smile on his face.

His hands were tightly wrapped around my waist, I was lying on his chest, lifting my head. I kissed his chest and moving forward I kissed his cheeks and then packed his lips.

I licked my lips as I felt his sweet taste, I carefully removed his hands around my waist and got up. I covered him with a blanket and put a cloth around his eyes. I know his eyes are light-sensitive, I don't want to wake him so soon.

Getting out from the bed I stood beside him, I observed him for a whole minute with a lovable smile on my face.

I bent towards him and gently ruffled his hair, kissed his forehead, and searched for my clothes.

I was butt naked, looking around I found a towel and covered it around my body.

Opening the door as quietly as possible I walked out from the room and headed to the bathroom.

*splash*

I entered the tub. 'Ahh..' a satisfied moan escaped my mouth as the warm water touched my body.

My whole body felt sore from last night's activities.

My cheeks heat up when I start to remember what we did last night.

Well, we fuck for 7 hours continuously. We did in many embarrassing positions.

I looked at my erect nipples, they had turned hard just by thinking. There were bite marks all around them. 'He really loves my boobs so much'

Now looking around my whole body was filled with love bites and marks.

My lower area felt slightly numb.

When I ask him to fuck me so hard that I couldn't walk properly the next day, he took that seriously.

I rubbed soap all around my body and washed myself, 'it would be so much more exciting if Naruto was here' I thought as I imagined having a love-making session in the bathroom.

'Hehe' I giggled and stood up in the tub, I tilted my head and looked at my reddened ass. Many palms were printed on my butt. A smile crept on my face as I remember him hitting me from behind and I asked him to hit me harder.

Slapping my cheeks slightly, I shook my head to get rid of these perverted thoughts.

I only slept 2 hours, well it didn't matter, I had to prepare food for my Naruto, and as a woman it's my duty to satisfy my man in every way, and food was one of them.

Quickly drying my hair I tied them in a bun behind my head and I put the Hairpin that My Naruto gave me. I wore the blue shorts that covered my thighs and wore long thigh-high black stockings, and matching footwear.

On the upper body, I wore a sports bra, it was more like wrapping bandages around my breasts. And due to this my size was reduced noticeably, but whatever, only my Naruto knew the real size.

*cough* I went off-topic again. Wearing a gray jacket-type shirt I walked out from the bathroom.

I glanced at the bathroom for the last time and sighed, what a pity that we couldn't do in it. And we would never be able to do it, well this was not our time nor our real house. And today was the day that we would go to our real-timeline.

We have discussed some theories about how we will go in the future, and I have full confidence in him that he will somehow find a way.

I started to hear some voices from below as I walked. I don't know if I will be able to see them again or not. But the time I spent here was memorable, and I will never forget about it.

I think my Naruto's father arrived a few minutes ago, and why am I calling him like that? I still wasn't able to call him properly.

I walked downstairs, arrived in the main hall, and looked at Kushina, I mean Mother. She was washing some fruits and vegetables. I guess she hasn't started to make breakfast.

Hearing my footsteps, she turned around and smiled sweetly at me.

"Good morning, Mother" I greeted her. And walked towards the kitchen.

"Good morning, Hinata Chan," she said, "are you here to prepare breakfast," she asked me, I think she hasn't fully accepted the fact that someone beside her could also make food.

But too sad, this was the last time I would accompany her. But I didn't say anything about it and walked towards her.

I looked at Minato and for the first time I said, "Good morning Father." I said with a slight bow.

Looking at his expression, he was slightly surprised, then he smiled warmly, "Good Morning," "where is Naruto," he asked.

"He is sleeping, he will wake up when the breakfast is ready," I said and started to prepare the food.

With the corner of my eyes, I saw that Minato had walked away from the hall.

'Hear it comes' I thought as I looked at Her.

She yawned loudly and looked at me with an amused smile, "Because of you brats I wasn't able to sleep," "I didn't know how but The sealing tag I put in your room didn't work properly,"

Embracement started to crawl in my heart, I quietly looked down and continued to cut vegetables, how could I say that it was me who burned the sealing tag especially that you could hear us.

Committing the taboo, that a mother heard her son and daughter fucking each other, how immoral and how exciting. 'I think this is the beginning of us committing taboos, I wonder if there are some special punishments for people like us in hell.'

My hands trembled in excitement as I cut the onion, and because of it my eyes started to become watery, 'damn onion' but Mother took it in a different way as she saw my trembling hands, "I am sorry, mother. It won't happen again, please don't say anything about it to Naruto" I said looking at her, in a mosquito-like voice.

She looked at my moist eyes and thought that I was about to cry, 'Good, the onion has other uses except eating' 'damn when did I become so good at acting,'

She put her hands on my shoulder and said, "Don't cry sweetie I won't say anything to Naruto, after all, you are young and full of energy" she said in a gentle voice, trying to soothe me.

I timidly nodded to her, but her smile became wide as she looked at me, "I didn't expect any less from my son, so how was it, did you enjoy it," she asked with a teasing smile.

I briefly looked at her and looked at the ground, of course, we hadn't fucked for 7 hours if we weren't enjoying ourselves, "hmmm" I hummed avoiding her eyes.

"Hehe... my little sweet girl has become a proper woman..." she said and had a smile on her face as she looked at my flushed face. 'She is having fun' 'If you were in my place you have gone unconscious in a few rounds'

'No... no..no... don't think like this Hinata, she is your mother' I forcefully blocked these taboo thoughts.

"Have you done it...you know..." I asked her shyly. Well, it looked shy to her, but I was really curious, I know Naruot will be born in 2 years.

I looked at her red face, 'hehe I think I hit the nerve,'

"Well we have done..." she said but this she avoided my gaze.

"When was your first time..." I asked in the same mosquito-like voice. I was behaving like I was learning something new and exciting.

"Hahaa..." she laughed awkwardly. "When we were around 14," she said embarrassingly.

"So you have been doing it for 7 years," I asked her. I was really surprised, she is currently 21, and they have been doing it for nearly 7 years, so that's how she gave me tips. And here I am 2 years late than her.

"You didn't get pregnant after many years," I asked curiously, if someone is having sex for almost 7 years, the chance of getting pregnant is too high, so why my Naruto hadn't been born early?

Sensing my curiosity she slightly lifted her cloth revealing her belly and some seals started to appear on her, "I have put a permanent anti pregnancy seal, you know my dream is to become Hokage, and after that, I can bear children " she said while pointing towards a specific seal.

I nodded to her, this was my first time hearing that she wanted to become Hokage. But instead of her Minato will become Hokage.

"Do you want me to put a seal on you," she asked me.

I shook my head in denial, I didn't want to get pregnant due to the seal, I didn't want to have any babies for now, and getting accidentally pregnant makes it more fun during sex.

"So you want to have children at such a young age," she said and then suddenly her smile became wide, "I want some cute little grandchildren playing around me, that's it, I want two boys and one girl, three tomato heads with white eyes playing around me and calling me grandma, this is so exciting," she said excitedly. And looked at me with stars in her eyes. 'What' I looked at her for the first time I was perplexed, she hadn't given birth to my Naruto and she was dreaming about her unborn child to make children.

Nonetheless, I nodded to her, We chatted about some random and embarrassing things and soon the breakfast was ready and served on the dining table.

And of the chapter, I think the conversation between Kushina and Hinata was the heart of this chapter....

Reject

It was 8 in the morning, sunlight poured through the small window.

Naruto groggily opened his eyes.

Raising his hand he removed the piece of cloth that was put on his eyes.

"Ahhh..." he stretched out his hands and let out a satisfied gasp, the blanket slid down revealing his toned chest that had many love bites on it.

He looked around him and didn't find what he was looking for, 'I think Hinata has already woken up'

Naruto sat on the bed stretching his hands above his head and cracking his neck left to right, his upper body was naked and his lower body was covered by the blanket.

A smile graced his face as he remembered last night's events, he was sure that if he had not this much stamina Hinata would have sucked him dry.

'Fuck... the soundproofing of this room was removed by Hinata, I wonder if someone heard us,'

He looked down, there was a tent between his legs, due to his remembering last night's events and the suspicion that someone had heard them.

"Calm down boner-kun, it's not time for this," he said as he wrapped a towel around his waist and got up from the bed.

He looked around and picked up his clothes that were lying on the floor, he raised his t-shirt and looked at it, his eyes twitched as he looked at it, the t-shirt was torn in many places.

"Hinata sweetheart, you really were wild last night," he said with a chuckle. Activating his eyes he looked in a specific direction, and with a flick of his fingers the t-shirt disappeared and a new t-shirt appeared.

"Space wrapping is really handy sometimes."

He picked up his pants which were somehow okay, then walked out of the room and entered the bathroom.

After altering his DNA and becoming an Otsutsuki, some of his skills also upgraded, and his god-level substitution jutsu advanced even further.

Although he could achieve the same effect with only his substitution jutsu, warping space has its own appeal.

With substitution, he could warp or substitute things within a specific distance, limited to the area where Kagura's 'mind eyes' allowed him to sense chakra. Its range is around 10 miles, meaning he could substitute anything within a 10-mile radius with himself or the objects he desired. As for space warping, there are no limitations on distance, as long as he could see the things he wanted to warp.

'I wonder how the shopkeeper will react when he finds out about it,' Naruto thought while submerging in the hot water.

His whole body relaxed as the water touched him. His head rested on the edge of the tub, raising his hand as he looked at his wedding ring.

He smiled as he caressed the ring with his finger. There were some engravings on it. After altering his DNA, he gained two main powers: one was soul fusion, and the other was the power of rejection.

To channel the power of rejection, he first needed massive amounts of chakra, which was not a problem for him.

The second thing he needed was a medium, and the medium was his wedding ring.

The ring was connected to his soul, which meant it could not be destroyed until his soul perished. The ring was indestructible.

With a thought, the ring flew out from his finger and split into six parts.

The parts of the ring arranged themselves in a hexagonal shape, forming a red shield.

Naruto examined the shield. It was the first time he was using this power.

"Let's see how powerful this is."

'This could cause a massive explosion, and I don't want to be scolded for destroying the bathroom,' he thought and disappeared from there, reappearing in the forest.

The red hexagonal shield floated in front of him.

"Reject," Naruto said, clenching his fist tightly. He raised his fist backward, and with all his might, he punched the shield.

*Boom*

A loud explosion occurred, and a large crater formed beneath him.

*Crack!*

A cracking sound echoed in the surrounding area.

*Drip*Drip*

Blood dripped onto the ground as Naruto looked at his shattered arm; the bones in his arm were completely crushed.

"Fuck... this hurts," Naruto grumbled while examining his injured arms.

He had used his full strength to punch the shield.

But there wasn't even a single scratch on the shield.

Naruto had intended to reject the attack, a simple command to redirect any force that struck the shield.

And here he was holding his arm. A smile appeared on his face, With a single thought, all six pieces of the ring flew out and formed a three-dimensional cone around him.

"Reject," Naruto softly commanded, and his arm was completely healed in a matter of seconds.

He gave the command of rejecting his injuries and here he was examining his arm.

"Good as new"

The ring flew and wrapped itself around his finger. Naruto could reject anything; it could be life, death, time, space, or any type of attack. With enough mastery over his powers, he could bring things into existence out of nothing.

He was still wearing a towel around his waist. "Now, I have to bathe again," he thought while examining the dust around his body.

He had used his powers twice, but this didn't drain any significant amount of his chakra. Immense chakra would be required if he tried to manipulate life, and death, or engage in heavy reality-altering.

"It's time to go back home."

Naruto said, disappearing from there and reappearing in his bathtub.

"This is good," he said while he lazily lay in the hot water.

"This could be excellent if Hinata was here," Naruto chuckled as he thought about her.

"NARUTO, HOW LONG WILL YOU TAKE?" his mother called.

"Just two minutes!" Naruto yelled from the bathroom, quickly washing and drying himself.

End of the chapter, how do you like his powers?

Notes

give some powerstones to your friend...

Sadness, it's everywhere

Wearing a white T-shirt and black pants, Naruto exited from the bathroom. His expressions were somewhat unreadable. He slowly walked toward the dining hall.

He remembered his conversation with Hinata last night. Today was the day he was going to return in real time. If he stayed here longer, he was sure a new timeline would be created, or something drastic would change in the future.

He didn't know how he would go, but he had some theories about time traveling. He was going to use the same but slightly different technique that they used to travel to the past.

His heart wanted to stay here with his parents, but he knew it was not possible. It would cause more problems than he could imagine, and he had someone waiting for him to return.

In reality, he didn't know how much time had passed. Traveling through the time tunnel could cause time dilation. For him, it might have been just a few minutes, but for others, it could have been hours, days, months, or even years. He wasn't sure if he would arrive in the future at the same time when he left. He might have arrived in his time several years later, and he didn't know how much time had passed in that time.

"I promised Shion that I would return in two days. Now, here I am, and I don't even know how to go back, and the time strings around my father and mother have changed drastically."

"I just hope everything will be all right."

Naruto had placed all his hopes for the future on his ice clone.

Now that he was about to go, he didn't want his parents to be sad. He knew they didn't deserve what happened to them in the future. He wanted them to be happy, and as a parting gift, he would give them what they deserved: happiness, a life full of joy and peace with their family.

He had talked with his Hinata about this, and, of course, she was more than happy to help him. She even suggested some of her ideas to him.

The only option was a powerful genjutsu, a genjutsu so powerful that it could be considered both an illusion and reality at the same time.

A genjutsu that lies between the realm of imagination and reality. With Hinata's Jogan and his ability related to souls, he could create a false world yet real at the same time.

Lost in thought, he didn't know when he walked down the stairs and reached the dining table.

snap

Kushina snapped her fingers as she looked at her son in a daze.

Hearing the sound of the snap, Naruto came out of his own world. "Sorry for that, I was a bit lost in my thoughts."

Kushina, with her usual teasing nature, looked at him. "What are you thinking, could it be..." She was about to say something when she felt Hinata's pleading eyes gazing at her. They had agreed not to tease Naruto about the events of last night.

cough

Kushina coughed and smiled amiably. "Let's eat first, or the food will turn cold."

Naruto nodded and avoided her gaze. He knew what she was about to bring up, but looking at Hinata, he knew she had resolved the matter.

He looked at Hinata, and their gazes met. A blush appeared on Hinata's cheeks, and she averted her gaze, looking down at the ground.

Naruto found her reaction so cute that he wanted to jump on her and kiss her. 'Calm down, this is not the time.'

Hinata felt his heated gaze, and her cheeks turned even redder. Kushina was beside them, serving the plates on the table, so she didn't notice them, which made it more thrilling for them.

The fear of being caught by Kushina added excitement to their playful flirting. They didn't want to get caught, but at the same time, they wanted to indulge in some light teasing.

Naruto moved around the table and started to help his mother. "I will do it myself, sweetie. You can sit in the chair."

"Let me help," he said with a smile, and when he was about to pass by Hinata, he quickly leaned forward and kissed her on the cheek.

"Mmm..." Hinata hadn't expected him to do something so daring in front of Kushina. She quickly looked at Naruto, who was arranging the plates, and it seemed like nothing had happened.

Hearing Hinata's soft hum, Kushina turned her head and looked at Hinata. Her cheeks had a tinge of red. "Is there something you want?" she asked with slight suspicion. But she didn't find anything and continued arranging the food. When everything was ready, she looked at Naruto. "Call your dad; he is outside the house."

He nodded and went to the backyard of the house, where Minato was reading some scrolls. Naruto raised an eyebrow. If his memories were right, he knew his father didn't read in the morning. He looked at his father curiously and asked, "What are you reading?"

Minato came out of his daze and looked at Naruto. "Ahh... when did you come? I haven't noticed you."

"I just came," Naruto replied while looking at the scroll.

Minato, feeling his gaze, nodded in understanding. "I was studying the shadow clones, their uses in different situations," he said and quickly closed the scroll. Getting up from his seat, he walked towards Naruto. "I guess you're here for breakfast."

Naruto nodded to him. He found his father's reaction a bit suspicious. He couldn't put a finger on it, but when he saw through the scroll, his father was indeed reading about shadow clones.

'Am I becoming paranoid?' Naruto thought and walked with his father.

He couldn't risk something happening to those who were waiting for him in the future.

Soon, they both reached the dining table and sat down.

"Let's start," Kushina said, and all of them began to eat while having some small chat.

After finishing breakfast, Naruto and Hinata picked up the plates.

"I can wash them; you don't have to do it," Naruto offered.

"Let us do it for once," Naruto said firmly, to which Kushina was unable to resist.

"Okay... but only this time," she said. Naruto smiled at her.

"I am outside if you need something; just give me a call," Minato said.

Kushina nodded and sat on the sofa, watching her son with a soft smile.

"So you're going to do it now?" Hinata asked in a low voice, only audible to Naruto.

"I have to do it," he said, but his tone wasn't as bright as it used to be.

Hinata could feel the sadness in his voice. It pained her to see him sad, but she knew he had to do it.

"Don't worry about it, I'm with you," she said, leaning towards him, their shoulders touching as they washed the plates.

Naruto nodded to her, his heart felt warmth as he looked at Hinata. She understood him the most, even without him knowing, she always did her best to support him. She was the perfect wife, his wife.

His eyes looked gently at her, and feeling his gaze, Hinata sweetly smiled, her face slightly red.

"You are so cute," he said softly. Her cheeks turned even redder.

Kushina looked at the two of them. She couldn't hear them, but she could feel their emotions. 'So cute,' she thought to herself.

But her eyes flickered slightly when she felt a tinge of sadness from Naruto. She knew she couldn't have them forever; they had to go, and it pained her heart. She wanted them in her life.

But she knew this was futile. Naruto had to go, and she would be left alone. These past days were the happiest days of her life; the dream of having a family had become real for her. But soon, it would shatter like a broken mirror.

'Maybe I will just live with memories, memories of my son, my whole family, right?' She couldn't help but smile sadly.

Soon, they finished the washing. "I will be in our room; just call me when you need me," Hinata whispered, to which Naruto nodded.

Hinata went upstairs, leaving Kushina and Naruto alone in the house. He walked towards his mother and sat beside her.

Kushina gazed at her son, a sweet smile forming on her lips. She looked at his face, his hair, his eyes, ears, nose, as if she were engraving him in her soul.

Naruto didn't say anything; he let her do as she pleased. And when she was done looking at him, a mischievous smile appeared on her face.

"What were you talking so secretly about that you didn't want your mother to hear?"

Naruto looked at her for a brief moment. "Nothing," he said.

"Hehe... Don't be shy," she teased him. It was always good to tease her son.

Naruto felt a pain in his heart when he looked at her radiant smile.

Today was the last day he would see her.

"Can I lay there?" he said in a low voice.

Kushina nodded to him with a sweet smile. "Come here, my baby."

Naruto felt embarrassed. He leaned forward and put his head on her lap.

Kushina gently ruffled his hair as he closed his eyes. She continued to caress his face gently, and she could hear his heart beating. A sadness filled her heart. She knew it was time. After a brief moment, she softly spoke, "Are you going?"

Naruto nodded his head. He could feel her sadness, and he gently opened his eyes and looked into her eyes. "You know, Mom, I love you."

A sweet smile graced Kushina's face as she fondly stroked his hair. He was her precious son, and she didn't want to be separated. She always wanted to hold him right in front of her. "I love you too, my sweetie."

He just lay there, savoring every moment he spent with his mother.

Unknown to him, his eyes filled with sadness. Naruto felt conflicted.

Looking into her son's eyes, Kushina's eyes started to become moist, and tears threatened to fall. She raised her head and looked at the ceiling so that her tears wouldn't fall.

She started to speak while gently caressing his cheeks. "I always wanted to live with my whole family. When I saw you for the first time, my heart was about to burst out of my chest. My whole world became so bright.

The days you spent with me were the best days of my life."

She gazed down at her son, a tear slipped from her eye. Her heart beat faster, and her breaths became heavy. "And now that you are going, I feel like my whole world is shattering right in front of my eyes."

"But thanks to you, I now know how it felt to have a whole family, and I'll always remember these moments. I'll always remember you, my son," she said, her voice dry.

Naruto averted his gaze. He knew that if he looked at her for one more second, he wouldn't be able to control his tears.

He wanted to say something, but his voice didn't come out of his throat.

He felt some wet drops on his face. Raising his hand, he touched them and took a heavy breath. He didn't want her to cry.

Raising his hand, he touched her cheeks and wiped away the tears. "If you cry, it will make me cry too."

She closed her eyes and tried to stop her tears. She didn't want her son to cry because of her.

"Mom."

She looked at him.

"What is it, sweetie?" she asked him sweetly.

"Before I go, I want to give you a parting gift," he said and stood up from her lap, looking into her eyes. "Call Father."

Kushina nodded to him and called her husband. On the other hand, Naruto called Hinata. Soon, the whole family gathered and sat on the sofa.

Naruto looked at Hinata, and she nodded to him. They had talked about it last night.

Hinata held Naruto's hand as her eyes turned to Jougan.

"Hold each other's hands," Naruto said, and soon all of them were holding each other's hands. Naruto was in the middle, his left hand holding Hinata's and his right hand holding his father's hand.

Naruto spoke softly, and everything changed around them.

"Genjutsu: World of Illusions."

give me some powerstones brothers....

Butterfly flapped it's wings

Naruto was standing in the air as he looked down on Konoha. He had a complicated expression, and nobody knew what was going on in his eyes.

His once-bright eyes had dimmed.

With a sigh, he started to perform hand signs, and his eyes glowed for a moment as the Yin chakra started to leak out from his body at an alarming rate.

Soon, the entire Konoha was covered by his Yin chakra. With his ability to suppress or erase memories using his Byakugan and combine it with his genjutsu, the whole village was immersed in layers of genjutsu.

With a final hand sign, he brought his hands together, causing waves to ripple from his body, suppressing all memories of himself and Hinata in the minds of those who had seen them.

He observed the time strings around every villager, ensuring that everything was as it should be, and nothing had changed. He heaved a sigh of relief. "I think it's time to go," he muttered softly and disappeared from there, reappearing in the middle of the forest.

"So you suppressed their memories," Hinata's voice rang out from a branch of the tree.

She looked at him, a smile forming on her beautiful face. Jumping from the tree, she appeared in front of Naruto. She grabbed his hand, and they walked with no particular destination in mind.

He didn't resist her and walked alongside her.

"Did I do the wrong thing?" he asked in a low voice.

Hinata closed her eyes. To her, everything he did was right, even if it was wrong. As his wife, she would support him unconditionally.

"No, you did the right thing. Don't feel sad. They had a happy life with you, didn't they?" she said soothingly, tightly holding his hand as if to convey that she was with him, and he didn't have to feel bad.

Unbeknownst to him, a smile formed on his face. He raised his left hand, and on the back of his palm, three star-like black markings appeared.

"Everything was real, wasn't it?" he said while looking at his hand.

Raising her hand, Hinata caressed the three marks with her fingers.

"Hmm... So, don't feel so sad. You did more than you should have. As a son, you gave them what they deserved. You should feel good," she gently said.

She didn't want him to be so sad. She knew it was hard for him to separate from his parents, and even more heartbreaking that he had to lock away their memories. They didn't even know his name or the time they had spent together. But he had made sure that, the next time they saw him, all their memories would resurface again.

When they would see him for the first time, all the time they spent together, the laughter they shared, or the teasing his mother did to him, all of these memories would be a parting gift for them. They would pass away knowing that they had spent an entire lifetime with their son. In their last moments, they wouldn't be sad about leaving their child alone." Well, that's what Hinata thought. She knew it had weighed heavily on his heart. 'I think I have to help him forget all these depressing thoughts,' she pondered.

"So, how are we going to the future?" she asked, trying to divert his attention.

Naruto looked directly at his mother through the space, a complicated expression appearing on his face.

"Haaah," he sighed and took a deep breath. "Let's try it with this."

A scroll appeared in his hand, and with a puff of smoke, the fuinjutsu materials appeared on the ground. Naruto had been studying the summoning jutsu for a while, and drawing inspiration from that, he began to inscribe a seal on the ground, unsure of whether it would work or not.

"It's done," Naruto said, unfolding the scroll.

"Now, distort the space as much as you can."

Hinata nodded to him, and activating her Jougan, she began to manipulate the space around them, weakening all the barriers between dimensions.

Naruto attempted to recreate the same situation they had faced when fighting Isshiki. With the space around them now distorted, he started to manipulate the time strings. When all the time strings around them were in disarray, Naruto poured his chakra into the seal. The black lines had a slight glow, and Naruto knew it was time.

He looked at Hinata, grabbed her hand, and stood in the middle of the circle, holding her waist. He couldn't bear the thought of being separated from her, knowing that if one of them got lost in the space-time tunnel, it would be nearly impossible to find each other.

Hinata tightly wrapped her hands around him. "Are we going to be all right?" she asked.

"Are you afraid?" he teased her.

She locked eyes with him, a smile forming on her lips. "Afraid? No. As long as you're with me, I don't care, even if we end up in the past."

Naruto looked at her, chuckled slightly, and patted her head. "Nothing will go wrong."

And, saying that, they disappeared from there. The seal cracked, and the space around that area returned to normal.

Kushina was weaving a scarf with a smile on her face, humming from time to time. Suddenly, her eyes shivered as she looked at the scarf. She was confused about why she was sewing the scarf.

"Why do I feel like something is missing?" she muttered and looked around her house. It wasn't as lively as it was supposed to be. She knew her house was supposed to be filled with laughter, but now it felt empty. She stood up and walked towards the dining room, staring at the empty chair.

"Why do I feel like this chair belonged to someone, someone close to me?"

She caressed the chair with her fingers. Kushina knew something important was missing from her life, but she couldn't pinpoint what it was. She had tried to remember many times, but nothing came to mind. Days passed, and her heart occasionally ached. Sometimes, she found herself staring at various places, like the chair and the sofa. Every time she wove the scarf, it felt as if someone had told her they liked scarves, and she couldn't help but continue to sew it, as though it was meant for someone.

"Maybe it's just my imagination," she thought for a while, then began preparing food for her husband.

"I'll make his favorite food tonight," she giggled to herself and started to prepare the meal.

Minato stood in front of his shadow clone and looked at him. He had created this clone just one day before Naruto had left. He had been studying shadow clones lately ever since Naruto had entered his life. The real Minato didn't know anything about Naruto; to him, the name didn't exist.

Minato had taken precautions against Naruto, knowing in advance that he would forget everything about his son. This clone was safely hidden from everyone, and it had never existed in Konoha. If it had existed in Konoha, Minato would have forgotten about Naruto.

Now, two clones were looking at each other.

"So you really don't remember?" the clone spoke.

"What are you talking about?" Minato asked, frowning, unsure of what his clone was talking about.

"Naruto, your son," the clone said.

Minato fell silent for a moment, trying to piece things together. He had sensed that one of his sealing formulas had disappeared some days ago, but nothing came to his memory. Still, he knew the clone in front of him held the key to solving everything.

With a hand sign, he dispelled the clone. Instantly, several memories began to flood into his mind. His face contorted with a mix of emotions, and he grabbed his head, sitting on the ground.

"Haaaaaa," he breathed heavily.

"Naruto," he muttered.

As he said his son's name, the suppressed memories rushed back like a flood: the time they spent in the genjutsu. He remembered everything.

"So, I died due to old age," he laughed softly.

"I can't leave you alone, all by yourself," he said in a low voice.

"I can't let Kushina suffer. I will save both of you."

Minato walked with numerous thoughts swirling in his mind.

"When was his birthday? If I remember correctly, it was on the 10th of August."

Unbeknownst to him, the time strings around him underwent a drastic change. He didn't realize that he had completely fucked the timeline.

man, I am losing interest... Creation is hard, cheer me up!

evil

"It was a gruesome sight; limbs were severed, heads rolled like cabbages, and blood had painted the ground red. The smell of blood was so intoxicating that it permeated the surroundings.

Roars of pain filled the battlefield as people's limbs were severed, kunai and swords pierced their hearts, and fire burned them alive. It was nothing but the first Shinobi War.

In the middle of the battlefield, a black circle appeared, and with a flash of light, two people emerged. They were none other than Naruto and Hinata. She clung to him tightly, and as they appeared, a frustrated sigh escaped Naruto's mouth.

But before he could collect his thoughts, he heard a loud shout, 'Fire Style: Fireball Jutsu!' The fireball rushed toward them, consuming everything in its path. The one who cast the jutsu was a Konoha Shinobi. Naruto raised his eyebrows and looked at the approaching fireball. With another sigh, they vanished from the battlefield and reappeared in a nearby forest.

The Konoha ninja exclaimed loudly, thinking he had killed two enemies. However, in the next instant, a kunai sliced his throat, and his body hit the ground.

The man who killed him disappeared the next moment and went elsewhere to fight.

"Another failure, huh?"

"Yes," Naruto nodded.

This was not the first time they found themselves in situations like these. Naruto had been using this method continuously to try and return to his timeline. But every time he used this method, he only traveled back in time. It's not like he didn't modify the jutsu; he had used it many times and improved it from its initial stages. But he didn't know where the problem was.

If this kept happening, he would reach thousands of years in the past.

"It's so frustrating..."

He had never been this frustrated in his life, and every time he used this jutsu, he had to ensure he hadn't messed up the timeline.

Sometimes, he had to correct minor things. Every time something changed, the time string around that person also changed, and due to this, Naruto corrected the time strings to avoid messing up everything.

However, the poor boy didn't know that his dear father had fucked the current timeline. The sealed memories were undone, and nobody knew what would happen. His father would try to save him and Kushina at any cost, and this might lead to unexpected outcomes, which could be both good or bad for Naruto.

"So, what now?" Hinata asked him.

"Let me clear my mind," he said as he started to walk aimlessly, pondering how to solve this problem.

Hinata followed him, not saying anything. She knew he would find a solution to their current situation and had no doubt about it.

Soon, they heard a loud explosion. Naruto lifted his head in that direction, and his eyes glowed faintly as he saw through space. The sight he witnessed made his lips curl up.

"Interesting... this might improve my mood a little," he said.

Hinata also looked in that direction, her curiosity piqued. She asked, "Are you going to let him die like this?"

Naruto slightly quickened his pace. "Of course, my dear."

Hinata's smile turned into a grin. "As expected, nothing less from you."

The air around them became humid, and the explosion shook the ground below them. Violent chakra was palpable in the surroundings. With a grin, Naruto appeared on a tree trunk, observing the battle on the ground.

"We're not going to save such a heroic man. What a pity," Hinata said, shaking her head in mock disappointment. Her smile contradicted her words, and her tone dripped with sarcasm.

Naruto chuckled, well aware of his wife's thoughts.

He looked at the violent chakra of a tailed beast, and to be precise, there were two men using it. Naruto recognized this chakra; it was the chakra of the Nine-Tailed Fox, his friend Kurama.

On the ground, many shinobi lay dead, and many others were attempting to kill a single man. The man had white hair and a Konoha headband on his forehead, but it was different from the usual; it was like stone. The person was none other than the Second Hokage, Tobirama Senju.

The people fighting him were from the Hidden Cloud Village, a team of elites known as the Kinkaku Force. The two brothers using Kurama's chakra led the team. They had been affected by Kurama's chakra when he devoured them, and they, in turn, started consuming Kurama's stomach.

After some time, Kurama expelled them from his stomach, and that's how they became jinchuriki without a bijuu.

Naruto watched as Tobirama fought them fiercely, but in the end, they were all S-rank shinobi. Ultimately, he was cornered, and a sword pierced his chest. His breath became heavy as blood trickled from the corner of his mouth, and he closed his eyes.

Kinkaku and Ginkaku returned to their human forms, having used their mini tailed beast forms. They looked at Tobirama and then at their fallen teammates.

Kinkaku clicked his tongue, obviously displeased that many of his comrades had died at the hands of one person. "Let's go."

All the remaining individuals nodded to him and vanished from the scene.

Naruto glanced at Kinkaku for a moment, or more accurately, he looked at the weapons Kinkaku was using. It was a fan that had been used by the Sage of Six Paths. Naruto shook his head. These weapons held no meaning for him. He had his lovely Truth-Seeking Orbs, though there were only two left, he was satisfied with them.

"Are you not going to kill them?" Hinata asked curiously as they appeared in front of Tobirama.

Although they were supposed to die, if they didn't die as they were meant to, it would only create mess, and they were important figures in the Fourth Ninja War.

"Let them enjoy their remaining days," Naruto said with a chuckle.

Naruto looked at Tobirama, who was supposed to be dead. "How long are you going to keep pretending?" he said in a playful tone.

Tobirama was an exceptional sensor and master of many jutsu, and faking his death was nothing more than a trick. However, his condition was dire, and he knew he was going to die in just a few minutes if he wasn't treated properly.

"Who are you?" Tobirama asked warily. He understood that he was facing death, but he was slightly relaxed when he saw that Naruto was not attacking him.

"We are nothing but random travelers," Naruto said playfully. He had nothing against the man, but he also had no intention of saving him. If he wanted to save him, he could have healed his injuries within seconds. But Naruto was no saint.

But when Naruto saw Tobirama, his grin widened. "You know, I'm also a fortune teller. Would you like to hear something about your future?" he asked.

Tobirama felt like the boy in front of him was mocking him. He was going to die, so what future could he possibly hold?

Naruto knew that the man had a grudge against Uchihas, so why not have some fun?

"I saw a very interesting future... hmmm, the Uchihas had turned traitors, the same Uchihas that killed your brother," he said with mocking laughter. He knew Tobirama loved the village more than anything.

As soon as Tobirama heard this, his heart sank. He didn't want to believe some random kid spouting nonsense, but he knew Uchihas were never considered trustworthy.

He gained the desire to live again to protect his precious village, but this was futile. In the next second, his heart stopped, only learning after that the Uchihas had turned traitor. He died with regret.

"See you later," Naruto waved his hand as Tobirama finally closed his eyes.

"You were so evil; he died with regret, hehe..." Hinata giggled like an innocent girl.

"Well, what do you expect from me?" he asked curiously.

"Nothing less, husband."

"Hehe, that's my girl. Let's go, hopefully this time we'll succeed," he said.

He walked and hugged her, and the next moment, a circle appeared beneath them, and they disappeared from there.

Pitiful Woman

After many tries.

This time when they appeared, they were surprised. There was no chakra present in the surroundings as if it never existed. The only thing that was present was nature energy.

But suddenly, he lifted his head in a specific direction. His eyes glowed as he tore through the space and locked his eyes with someone. That was the only source of chakra. When he locked his eyes with that person, his lips curved up.

In a luxurious-looking mansion, there was a woman wearing a white kimono with black tomoe engraved on it. Her skin was pale white, and she had very long white hair. Her white pupilless eyes snapped open and looked directly at the red eyes that were looking at her.

Her heartbeat became faster as sweat beads appeared on her forehead, and fear crawled in her heart. The presence was stronger than her. From their chakra signatures, she could tell they were the same as her.

This woman was none other than Kaguya Otsutsuki. She didn't believe she would be found out so early. It had been only a few months since she had arrived on this planet. She caressed her belly, and a determined expression appeared on her face. She was going to face them to protect herself and her children.

"Pitiful woman" were the words she understood from his lips. She was about to open a portal, but before she could move, they were gone.

She searched for them in the entire Elemental Nation but found nothing.

She heaved a sigh of relief when she couldn't find them. 'Who was he?' she couldn't help but think. 'And why did he call me a pitiful woman?'

She searched for several years for them.

"What are you thinking, mother?" a child asked her curiously. "It's nothing, son," she smiled sweetly and ruffled her son's hair. Her heart was filled with love when she looked at her child.

'Was it an illusion?' she thought.

And just like that, many years passed, and nothing happened. Until a fateful day came as she fought her sons who were trying to kill her.

Her heart shattered as she looked at her sons who were so desperate to kill her. They had chosen the nameless people over her, over their mother.

If she wanted to kill them, she would have done it, but she couldn't bring herself to kill her own sons. She had given birth to them, nurtured them, taught them, she loved them dearly, she gave all her love to them, yet they didn't even try to understand her. It hurt her more than anything that her own blood was trying to kill her.

Then she remembered two words, 'I am truly pitiful.' With that thought, she looked at her sons for the last time. She closed her eyes, and in her last attempt, her will transformed and birthed her 3rd son.

She teleported him far from that place in order to unseal her. And just like that, she was sealed. The moon was created, sealing her completely.

She had placed all of her hopes on her son.

Major changes... part 1

It's been several months since Naruto and Hinata had left their lives after suppressing their memories. But even after suppressing their memories, Minato had broken that seal.

He could remember all of the interactions between him and his son.

Minato knew he had done something like this to prevent any trouble for the future. If his parents went back to normal after forgetting about him, everything would be okay in the future. But nothing went according to Naruto; his father regained all of his memories.

Now, currently, Minato was walking towards his village, bathed in the blood of Iwa shinobi. He had killed thousands of their shinobi.

The Konoha ninjas were cheering for him, calling his name loudly and praising him for saving them. But Minato didn't pay any attention to them.

When he raised his hand and looked at all the blood he had spilled, he didn't feel like he had won something. He didn't feel like cheering and celebrating.

No, he felt sick, he felt worse, he didn't want to do it, but for the village, he had done it. No, he didn't do this for the village; he did it for Kushina and for his future son.

He felt like he had robbed so many lives, he had killed someone's son, husband, or father. How could he cheer for his victory?

But after living with his son, after seeing his family filled with laughter and joy, he couldn't let anyone harm them, he had to protect them even if he had to kill thousands more shinobi.

A random shinobi walked towards him with a happy expression, "Hey Minato, why are you not celebrating with us?" he asked when he saw Minato walking ahead of them.

Minato looked at the random shinobi, closed his eyes briefly, and said, "You guys celebrate; I don't feel like it," as he walked ahead.

The random shinobi shrugged his shoulders and went away.

Lost in his thoughts, he didn't even realize when he arrived in front of his house. After arriving at Konoha, he had to go through some formalities, telling all the mission details to the Hokage.

And now when he looked at the Hokage, his thoughts about him had changed; the respect he once felt for him was now gone.

Minato knew he was going to become Hokage; Naruto had told him many stories of his time, and through those stories, he knew that after dying, Hiruzen would become Hokage again. And he knew how he would treat Naruto after this.

Minato was sharp; although Naruto hadn't told him how exactly, from his eyes, he could tell Naruto was not good at hiding his emotions, just like his mother.

But he hid all of his thoughts from the Hokage and behaved like his previous self; he couldn't afford to make any mistakes. He had to become Hokage himself to protect Kushina.

He knew the Hokage and other council members saw her as a war weapon.

Lately, he had been thinking too much. If the Hokage and council members knew about Kushina, why did they let him stay near her? Why didn't they interfere in anything?

The more he thought about it, the more his thoughts changed about the village. He started to recollect all of his memories from childhood and started analyzing them, and he came to one conclusion: emotional support and manipulation.

As far as he could remember, he was an orphan, so why did the Sannin pay attention to him? He knew he was a genius, but this was not enough to attract so much attention.

How could a jinchuriki be kidnapped by Kumo ninjas from the middle of the village? How could only he know about it and go to rescue her?

Now, he remembered that the kidnapers were not even Jonin-level ninjas. How could they infiltrate the village, and how could an academy student like him defeat them?"

He wouldn't be surprised if all of this was a setup done by the Hokage to make them fall in love with each other. For him, he gained a lover, and for Kushina, she gained someone she could trust, all of this to keep them loyal to the village.

He started to consider that there was a hand of Konoha in the destruction of Kushina's home to bring her to Konoha and save her like some heroes.

He had realized this for some time, but he was not sure how much of this was true.

*Knock* *knock**

He knocked on the door of his house, and soon there was the sound of footsteps running towards the door. A smile graced his lips as he heard the hurried footsteps. With a creak, the door opened, and a beautiful smile from Kushina welcomed him.

"I am back," he said. As he saw her, all of his thoughts and bloodshed were blown out of the window.

"Welcome back," Kushina said as she welcomed him.

"I have prepared the food; quickly wash your hands," she said.

Minato chuckled at her enthusiasm and did as she said. Soon, both of them were sitting around the dining table and started to eat.

Minato looked around the table, he looked at the seat where his son was supposed to sit, but now only two of them were present.

"Where are your thoughts," Kushina asked him. She had noticed that her husband had changed significantly in a few months; sometimes he seemed distant, lost in some thoughts. On the other hand, she was happy that his love for her had significantly increased; he was behaving overly protective, and she liked it very much.

She knew something was bothering him; she had asked him many times, but he always said it was about the village.

"It's nothing; I was just thinking about our future," he smiled sweetly at her.

"Is that so? If there is something you want to talk about with me," she asked in the hope of finding some clues.

"Do you really want to know," he asked with a smile. Seeing his smile, she knew he was teasing her.

"If you don't want to tell me, just say," she pouted and crossed her arms.

"When the time comes, you will know everything," he said. "Want to know some good news?"

Her ears perked up when she heard about good news, and her mood changed in an instant. "What is it? Tell me," she asked quickly.

"I am going to become the 4th Hokage," he said.

Her eyes widened for a second, then she processed the news, and before long, she hugged him. "Really?"

He patted her back. "Really," he said and continued, "I am sorry; I know you wanted to become Hokage."

She quickly looked at him and shook her head. "Yes, I wanted to become Hokage, but it doesn't matter now. I am happy for you," she said. It was true; she was really happy for her husband. It didn't matter if she became Hokage or not. Her husband was Hokage, and she was his wife."

major changes part 2

And soon, everything went smoothly, and Minato became the 4th Hokage.

Several months later.

After becoming Hokage, Minato had learned many jutsus. He practiced and trained every day, making him the strongest man alive in the current generation. He was preparing for the future, working on seals and creating many types of seals for various situations.

He had prepared many things in advance. He wasn't sure about his life, but he was certain that he would protect his wife and unborn child.

Kushina was sitting in a comfortable chair, tenderly cradling her belly. Her lips curved into a beautiful smile as she tried to feel the baby inside her. "What should I name you, my baby?" she asked herself, falling into deep thought.

She thought for a while, but nothing came to her mind. "Ahhh... Why can't I think of a good name?"

"Don't stress yourself, Kushina," Minato said.

She looked at him and smiled, "Look, he is moving," she said when she felt the baby moving in her belly.

Standing up, Minato put his ear to her swollen belly and tried to hear something. His heart raced when he heard something inside.

He suddenly looked at Kushina, "It really moves," he exclaimed.

"Hehe, of course it moves," Kushina giggled at his reaction.

"So, what should we name him?" she asked.

"Are you sure it's a boy? What if it's a girl?" he asked, even though he knew it was a boy.

"Heh... I hadn't thought about it, but I feel like it's a boy. Maybe I'm wrong. So, if it's a girl, what should we name her?"

They started suggesting many names to each other for their baby.

"Let me draw something," Minato suddenly said and brought a canvas and paints.

He was a seal master, and he could also paint. He quickly prepared everything, as he had some ideas to test. Kushina looked at him and asked, "So what are you going to paint?"

"It's a secret," he put his finger to his lips mysteriously. Soon, he began to draw, and a figure started to appear on the paper. Kushina watched the painting take shape.

"So, what do you think about it?" Minato asked her. It was a painting of Naruto, and he wanted to see if this would trigger her memories.

"It looks beautiful," she said.

"This is what our son will look like," he said with a smile.

"Why are his eyes red, but his hair is just like mine? He's handsome," she examined the painting with a smile.

"Do you like it?" he asked curiously.

"I love it."

Kushina shook her head, feeling like she had seen him somewhere, but she quickly dismissed that thought because it didn't seem possible.

'So, she doesn't remember anything,' he thought to himself.

On August 10th,

"Huh...nothing happened," Minato was shocked when his boy wasn't born on his birthday. He had made all the calculations, but this wasn't supposed to happen.

'I have destroyed everything.'

Another day passed, and Naruto still hadn't been born. Every day, Minato grew more worried.

"Everything will be alright," Kushina said with a smile; her husband was more worried than she was.

"Yes, you are right. Everything will be alright," he said with a faint smile.

'I am sorry Naruto,' he said to himself, unsure whether he had killed his future son or not. His heart felt heavy with each passing moment.

And just like that, another two days passed, and it was August 13th.

Today was still a normal day.

"Not even today," he exclaimed in his head.

"Why? Why does everything go so wrong? I just want to protect Kushina and Naruto, so why is this happening?" He punched the Hokage's table in frustration.

'Now what should I do?'

At night,

A thunderous roar reverberated in Konoha.

The New Uzumaki.

"RRRROOOORRRREEEE"

A thunderous roar resounded throughout the village, a thick aura of killing intent sweeping across the area. The entire village felt shivers running down their spines.

A large puff of smoke appeared in the middle of the village, and as the smoke dispersed, the nine tails of the Kyubi swayed in the air. Its enormous form roared in the sky.

Some people died from heart attacks, and others found their feet frozen in place. The village descended into chaos.

Anbu ninjas began preparing attacks, while chunins and jonins started evacuating the civilians.

As time passed, many people started to succumb to the roars of pain echoing in the middle of the night.

Minato, however, stood in front of a masked man, his eyes so cold that they could freeze a person's soul.

Despite being the fastest man, he couldn't protect his wife. The Kyubi was forcefully ripped out of her seal, leaving her and their child safe for the time being.

He regretted being too slow, feeling as though he couldn't do anything, as if fate had conspired against him.

The reason for this was the masked man standing in front of him. Minato was determined to kill this man. The masked man could feel Minato's killing intent; he hadn't experienced anything like this in his entire life, and he knew his sensei was not usually like this.

The masked man was none other than Obito Uchiha.

However, this time, he genuinely felt that he could die if he faced his sensei. Despite his initial confidence, seeing Minato in this state made him uncertain.

Before he could react, he felt a kunai pressing against his neck. Blood started to gush out, but before the kunai could pierce his neck completely, he became intangible, and the kunai passed through his neck. He was surprised that he couldn't keep up with Minato's speed.

Fortunately, he activated his Sharingan at the right time to avoid his sensei's attack. He touched his neck, finding a trickle of blood.

Before he could do anything else, he found himself buried in the ground as pain assaulted his back.

Minato had left his mark on his body when the tip of his kunai hit the masked man's neck.

Minato had trained every day nonstop. First, he was surprised that his kunai passed through him. But when he looked at the drop of blood on his kunai, he understood everything.

Obito really felt fear in his heart, he hadn't thought this could happen. He was confident in his abilities, he had trained under Madara Uchiha. He was confident that he could control Kyuubi. But his sensei was so strong.

He had thought that when Kyuubi started to rampage Minato would go to save the villagers and have the chance to escape. He even tried to kill his child but he failed again.

And to his horror, the seal on his back started to suppress his chakra, and before he could regain his bearings he felt a Rasengan hit his stomach.

Blood gushed out from his stomach and the ground dyed red.

But When he was about to use wood style, he felt his mask shattered and the last thing he saw was a white Rasengan.

The wind-style Rasengan completely eradicated his head, and the headless body of Obito fell to the ground.

Minato didn't pay any attention to the dead man and disappeared from there and appeared in front of Kushina.

"You are here, Minato," Kushina said in a low voice as if she was about to die. Even if not for her being an Uzumaki, she would have died as soon as her seal broke.

"Yes," he replied. He had teleported her to their home.

"Am I going to die?" she asked him. As soon as the seal on her stomach broke, she remembered everything—the time she spent with her son, the life she spent in the genjutsu. She remembered everything.

She closed her eyes as tears started to fall.

She looked at him with her tear-filled eyes. "You know everything, don't you?" she asked.

He avoided her gaze. "Yes."

"Why didn't you tell me?" she asked, as her tears started to fall even more. She tried to stand up.

But he quickly appeared in front of her and stopped her from getting up.

"I am sorry."

She looked at him for a minute, her tears didn't stop. "It's fine. You don't have to be sorry. I know you tried many times, but it didn't work."

"That brat's genjutsu was really powerful," she said with a slight laugh.

But before she could do anything, Minato started to perform hand signs and placed a seal on her stomach, putting both of his hands on her.

"What are you doing?" she hurriedly asked, but soon she started to feel her life force returning to her, and Minato's face started to become pale.

He had created this jutsu based on Chiyo's forbidden technique.

When he felt Kushina's life force return to normal, he removed his hands, not caring about himself dying.

"Now you will be fine," he said with a heavy breath.

"Why did you do it?" she asked, her eyes red and voice quivering.

"Silly, it's to protect you and our child," he said with a smile.

But before she could say anything else, he put his hands on her, and with a yellow flash, he was gone.

"Where are we?" Kushina asked, looking at an unfamiliar house.

"This will be your new home," he said.

*Cries*

Both of them tilted their heads and looked at the baby.

"It's not Naruto," Kushina said.

Her emotions were in turmoil, and she didn't know what to feel. She was happy that she would spend her life with her child; she was sad that this was the last time she would see her husband. When she looked at the baby, her lips curved in a sweet smile.

Minato held the baby in his arms and looked at her fondly. Her blond hair, blue eyes, and three whisker marks made her cute and adorable.

He looked at his little princess, his heart aching that he wouldn't be able to raise her, love her, and spoil her.

Deep in his heart, he knew he had fucked up everything. His son had done everything in his power to ensure that everything went right, but he, as his father, poured water on his efforts. This baby was supposed to be Naruto.

"It doesn't matter," he said while caressing her cheeks.

The baby girl giggled and tried to catch his finger. He played with her for the last time.

'Did I kill Naruto? No, this is not possible. He is alive. If he was dead, he wouldn't have come to the past. He is alive somewhere,' he tried to reason with himself.

Minato felt guilty in his heart, but it was soon overcome when he heard her laughter.

He had protected his wife, and now his child didn't have to grow alone.

When he looked at the little girl, he felt chills just thinking about her being left alone in the village.

He made the right choice; now she had her mother beside her. She didn't have to grow alone.

And he couldn't leave Kushina and his girl in the village. He didn't know what would happen after his death. He couldn't take any risks regarding them; that's why he had teleported them far away from Konoha.

This village had no ninjas, Kushina would be safe here, and he had left some safety measures. No one would find her.

"What about my Naruto?" Kushina asked him with hope in her voice. She didn't want to believe that his son didn't exist anymore.

"You will find him someday," he reassured her.

"Really?"

"Really," he said while giving the baby to Kushina.

"Take care of yourself and our child, and I am sure you will meet our son," he said.

"I will."

"What shall we name her?" she asked him.

Minato thought for a while, looking at his girl. She looks so kind and gentle. "It will be Yuna, Yuna Uzumaki."

"Do you like it?" he asked her.

"I love it," she smiled as she held her.

"I will be going now," he suddenly said.

"Do you really have to go?"

"Nine tails is still rampaging in the village; I have to take care of it,"

Minato explained.

Kushina looked at him, knowing this was the last time she was going to see him. She weakly nodded to him. "I hope you return."

"I will try my best," he said with a smile and kissed her forehead. Both of them knew this was a lie.

And with a flash, he was gone. Kushina lay alone in the bed, her tears soaking her cheeks and rolling down to the bed. She was alone with her baby.

As if feeling the sadness, Yuna started to cry. Kushina quickly held her in her arms and smiled sweetly between tears, "Don't cry, baby. I am here."

She patted her head and back with utmost care as if scared of hurting her.

End of the chapter. how do you like it?

i am sorry for this late update, if your response is good, I will continue it, or else you could read my new book.

Do you like him.

Five people were walking at a slow pace; their destination was the Konoha war camp. They had been walking continuously for three days.

This group of individuals consisted of Naruto (Ice clone), Sasuke, Karin, Jugo, and Suigetsu.

Suigetsu had a grin on his face; he was the most excited about the war.

Holding Kubikiribōchō on his back, he ranted about something sometimes. He was the group's entertainment, the clown of the group, although he didn't know he could die in a single blow if he faced someone powerful.

The other one was Jugo; he was the calmest person. Some birds flew onto his shoulder as he caressed them, and he had rarely spoken in these three days.

As for Karin, she was the happiest person in the group. She was finally rescued from Orochimaru, and she had found a family member who was walking ahead of her.

She sometimes tried to talk to him, but she didn't know what to say.

She could talk to anyone, but when it came to Naruto, she felt she couldn't form a single sentence without stuttering. Her mind was in a mess. But one thing was sure; she stole glances from time to time, being careful enough not to alert him.

The second last person was Sasuke, he was the most frustrated person in the group, he had been walking for three days, well this was not the problem, the problem was that they could have traveled this distance in half a day, but his Friend Naruto rejected his idea every time, he says if he goes any faster than this he had to use his chakra and he didn't want to use any chakra.

It was clear to him he was just messing with him.

He looked at Naruto and sighed, lately, he had been sighing too much.

And the last person of the group was none other than Naruto himself, his lifespan was only 15 days, and even if he didn't do anything he would shatter.

And if he used any chakra this lifespan would become shorter. 2 days were gone easily when Naruto created him, then he used 5 days' worth of chakra while fighting Obito, and adding that day also he spent 3 more days with the group so 11 days of his lifespan was gone with only 4 days of lifespan remaining.

He occasionally checked the conditions of Konoha troops, who had gathered at the borders, and Suna troops had already arrived. With a quick scan, he knew there were only around 10 thousand Konoha troops, and in these troops, 3 thousand were only children below the age of 16. Around 8 thousand Suna troops were present in the group. These numbers were pitiful in comparison to the three hidden villages and the Zetsu army. With any normal means, there was no way they could win.

"Where is Nagato?" Sasuke asked.

Naruto looked at him with a smile as he raised his hands in defeat, "I don't know where he is."

"You didn't even know his location, so how are we going to call him?" he asked frustratedly.

"Hey! Hey! Don't be so harsh, there is one simple way, you just have to release your chakra, and he will pick up the call," Naruto said with a poker face.

"Do you know every sensor ninja will know our location?" he said.

"Hehe... that's the fun, man..." saying so, he briefly released his chakra with a chuckle. Red chakra was visible to the naked eye, and every sensor ninja in the world picked up his ominous chakra.

Naruto raised his thumb, "Done, it was as simple as that," well, it cost him half a day of chakra.

"You... revealed our location to the whole world."

"So what, are you afraid?" Naruto asked.

Sasuke was trying to remain calm and composed, but Naruto's fox-like grin irked him.

He put his hand on his katana, but before he could do anything, Naruto was gone ahead, "let's go," only his laughter remained in their ears.

Sasuke turned around and looked at the remaining people with a dark expression, "Let's go."

They quickly caught up with Naruto; they were going at their full speed.

'I swear, I saw hearts in her eyes for a moment,' Naruto couldn't help but think when he briefly looked at Karin.

Well, this was not his job to handle women, he was just a clone.

Soon, they found Nagato and Konan waiting for them on a tree.

"You are here, what took you so long?" he asked Naruto.

All of them looked at Naruto, indicating that this was his fault.

'A clone,' Nagato, with his Rinnegan, could see through him, but he didn't ask.

His eyes wandered through the remaining people, and finally, his eyes settled on Karin.

Both of their eyes met, and from this brief encounter, there was only one thought on their minds, 'Another Uzumaki.'

'Why are his eyes so weird?' Karin thought, 'And why is he so powerful?'

This was the fourth person she met in a short time whose chakra was off the charts.

Well, she didn't know the name of the Rinnegan, but three of them had it.

Sasuke had it, Obito had it in one eye, and now this Uzumaki had these eyes.

'Do all powerful people have these onion-like eyes?'

'If so, I also want one.'

She quickly discarded these thoughts and focused on him. He was one of her clan members, and this meant she had another family member.

Now she was not alone; she had two family members.

Nagato also had some similar thoughts as her, 'Now there are only three Uzumaki alive.'

Naruto, looking at them, coughed. "Let me introduce you to each other.

Her name is Karin Uzumaki," he said while pointing towards Karin.

'I felt nostalgic doing this.'

He pointed his finger toward Nagato and said, "His name is Nagato

Uzumaki. You can call him big brother, clan elder, old man, uncle, Nagato, or anything you want," he said.

"You...." Nagato scowled. He was not even 35; how could he become clan elder and uncle? He looked like he was around 25. He was still young and in his prime, and this brat who isn't even half of his age called him uncle. This was not acceptable.

Konan laughed beside him; she was happy in recent days. After meeting Naruto, Nagato had changed so much, and she liked it.

Sasuke had a slight smile on his face; he was not the only one to get trolled by Naruto.

Karin nodded to him; she had gotten used to Naruto in these three days.

"Let's go," Naruto said and took the lead.

After some time, when he looked back, he was surprised to see that Karin was happily chatting with Nagato and Konan as if they were really her big brother and sister.

And when she felt his gaze, she looked down and averted her eyes. A red hue crept over her cheeks.

Naruto shook his head and moved slightly faster; he didn't want to pry into their conversation.

Naruto was moving ahead, Sasuke and his team were in the middle, and Konan, Nagato, and Karin were in the rear.

When Konan knew that Naruto couldn't hear them, she asked, "Do you like him?"

"W-what are you talking about?" Karin shuddered. A blush appeared on her face, and she tried to avoid them.

Nagato and Konan found her expressions cute; they looked at her as if they were observing a cute animal and just wanted to tease her.

"Don't be shy, tell me," Konan whispered.

"Ahh- k-kinda, but I don't think he will like me," she said in a low voice only heard by them.

Nagato looked at Karin, as the saying goes, blood is thicker than water.

He really started to consider her as his little sister, 'Poor girl, she had a tough competition,' he thought about that psychopath girl and had chills down his spine.

He didn't know how she would react to someone liking Naruto.

He wouldn't be surprised if she tried to kill this girl. But he couldn't let that happen.

He was wrong in this one; Hinata didn't mind, but there is one other girl who would mind another girl.

"You have to work hard if you want to get him," Konan blurted out. She clicked her tongue; she knew she slipped up.

"What do you mean?" Karin asked, a bad feeling started to rise in her heart.

But before Konan said something, Nagato cut her off, "You don't have to worry about it; I will help you," he said. He didn't want her to become sad.

"Really?" Karin asked with a happy smile.

"Really," he said.

"You are the best," she said.

Nagato felt his heart melt when he looked at her smile. He finally found out what it meant to have a younger sibling. He couldn't let her go with Naruto. He knew it was dangerous; he would bring Karin with him.

'Why am I being so overprotective?' he thought to himself. He had just met her one hour ago, but now he felt like he knew her very well.

Well, he didn't know that it was in their genetics.
