Su Yang once traveled to the world of pirates and became the captain of the seventeenth division of the Whitebeard Regiment.

Not assigned to team members, it doesn't matter, fortunately the summoning system is activated.

Madara, Black Dragon, Tornado, Misaka Mikoto, etc. are all members of Su Yang's Seventeenth Division.

Warring States: "I'm numb, it's more difficult to play a team than Whitebeard."

51 This team is extremely dangerous (for flowers)

Hearing Shanks' words, Su Yang stopped his steps.

After a few seconds of silence, he slowly continued to walk forward.

At the same time, he also left a message for Shanks.

"I still say the same thing. Many things are out of our control. What should come will always come. It's just late or early. Whitebeard is not afraid, and I am not afraid."

Watching Su Yang's back gradually leaving, Shanks was sluggish for a moment.

Of course, everything he did was not for Whitebeard, but for Ace, because he was Luffy's brother.

"It seems that the people from the Seventeenth Division of Whitebeard... don't agree with what we said." Benn Beckman glanced at the expression on Shanks' face, and said calmly.

Although he was a little disappointed, after hearing Benn Beckman's words, he still leaked a smile.

"Forget it, like Whitebeard, he's a bit stubborn. Let's go to the bar."

After Shanks said that, just a few steps away, Yasopp's voice came from behind him.

"But, boss, that pub has been destroyed because of Su Yang and the others."

Undoubtedly, it seemed like a direct blow to Shanks, who turned around with a scowling look on his face.

"Oops.... I completely forgot. It seems that things are not going well today. Forget it, let's go to another tavern."

After turning around, Shanks moved on.

The crowd followed quickly.

Benn Beckman quickened a few steps, walking side by side with Shanks.

He said, "What do you think of the newly established Seventeenth Division of the Whitebeard Pirates?"

When Shanks heard this, his face became solemn, and after a few seconds of deliberation, he said flatly, "It's very strong, far beyond my expectations, and, in the battle just now, I found a man called 'Madara' man, his eyes have changed."

"From normal eyes, it became blood red, and even had a pattern, but after the battle, his eyes returned to normal."

"I guess the moves he released should have something to do with his eyes."

After listening to it, Benn Beckman was a little confused. He sailed this sea with Shanks, and it was the first time that such a situation had been encountered.

"Not only that one named Madara.... There is a very strange person beside Su Yang."

"Um?"

Shanks looked at Benn Beckman.

"Didn't you find it?" Benn Beckman asked rhetorically.

"I didn't care too much, most of the attention was on Madara."

Listening to Shanks' answer, Benn Beckman explained.

"The one carrying the axe seems to have become stronger step by step with the passage of time, and the breath on his body has also changed, and his whole body reveals 'arrogance'."

"The Seventeenth Division of Whitebeard...is an extremely dangerous division. Although it was established not long ago, I think...it can be called the Whitebeard Pirates." ace squad."

For Benn Beckman's high evaluation, Shanks even nodded and agreed with him.

In the waters of this island, a Marine warship is observing the movement of the island from a distance.

"Yes, yes, the fighting stopped just now, specifically because of the conflict, the people we installed on the island did not eavesdrop on it."

"Okay, I see. You guys retreat first."

"Yes, Marshal Sengoku."

On the other side of the phone bug, Sengoku hung up the phone bug sadly.

It wasn't for him to deal with it originally, but when he heard about Whitebeard's Seventeenth Division, he immediately took over the matter himself.

Sengoku slowly put the phone bug in his hand on Crane's desk, but the person seemed to be distracted because he was thinking about something.

"This has only just appeared, and it has been taken seriously by Marine...even the World government. These guys are tricky."

Crane's voice disturbed Sengoku's contemplation, he raised his head slightly, glanced at Crane, and sat down on the stool.

"How long has it been... The Seventeenth Division has changed from two intelligence personnel to four intelligence personnel, and one of them is even worse than Sakazuki."

"This sea has also ushered in a short period of calm since the guys from the old era quieted down."

"However, the appearance of the Seventeenth Division gave me a sudden illusion that it seemed to return to the extremely evil era of 'Rocks'."

Hearing Sengoku's chatter, Tsuru didn't forget to add fuel to the fire.

"The key... It's not just the matter of the Whitebeard Pirates. The first half of the recent great route has not been smooth. If Marine doesn't deal with it in time, they will become a problem for us Marine in a few years. figure."

When the crane said this, Sengoku's face changed immediately, and he complained: "There is Garp's grandson here, that guy...it doesn't matter if he is worried, the key is, son, The grandson doesn't make you worry."

"Hehehehe..."

With the sound of He's laughter in He's office, the heavy atmosphere in the office eased a lot.

Sengoku frowned and said, "What? Crane, do you think I'm wrong?"

"No no no, you're right, it's true, but... I can't blame Garp entirely, he mentioned those things to me more than once before." He explained with a smile.

52 Sengoku: This blade is about to be unsheathed (for flowers)

"What you said... It's not bad. Although Garp is a father and a grandfather, he can never dominate other people's lives."

Sengoku looked a little complicated. He picked up the teapot beside him, poured himself a cup of hot tea, and then said calmly.

"Recently, the New World is not very peaceful. The redhead has contact with Whitebeard. I don't know what plans are being discussed."

"And today, the Seventeenth Division of the Whitebeard Pirates met with the red hair again. Although there seems to be a conflict, it is not ruled out that they did it on purpose to show us Marine."

Hearing Sengoku's analysis, she also pondered, and after a while, she whispered.

"There is such a possibility, what is the plan of the World government?"

"Since we learned about the deeds of the 17th Division and the serious damage to Sakazuki, the World government has asked us to do our best to erase it."

Sengoku carefully raised the teacup and tasted the good tea from Crane's side. Crane looked at him and seemed to vaguely see that Sengoku had a lot of white hair on his head.

"call!!!"

He sighed heavily, and his cloudy eyes were obviously a little sad: "As time changes, we have to admit that we are getting old, forget it, let's not talk about such sad things, but if we If you do Shichiban, have you thought about the consequences? Sengoku?"

"I know.... This will cause the largest war in years." Sengoku said with a solemn face and a very serious tone.

"If a war really breaks out, the other three emperors don't know if there will be any movement. If they also join in, the consequences will be unimaginable."

Sengoku didn't think about the problem mentioned by the crane, and it was because of this that he didn't unsheath the blade given to Sengoku by the World government for a long time.

Although the world government is only for its own interests, Sengoku is different, he has his justice in his heart.

Seeing that Sengoku didn't say anything, Crane continued: "I know it's difficult for you now, but sometimes, you have to make a choice, and the development speed of the seventeenth division is far beyond our expectations, let it go, maybe Things will happen that no one can predict."

Crane's words, if a panacea, instantly made him clear his mind.

"I think what you're saying makes sense. Time goes by and we're not the only ones getting older, and so does Whitebeard."

"I suspect that this seventeenth is the guy who Whitebeard cultivated who wants to inherit the will of the Whitebeard Pirates. As long as we solve it smoothly, we are not afraid of a war in the future."

Crane nodded in agreement with Sengoku's point of view.

"However, the Seventeenth Division is not easy to deal with. If you want to encircle and suppress it, I think it is necessary to increase the combat power by 50% within the original plan."

Facing Crane's reminder, Sengoku nodded: "Well, it seems that this blade, I have to swing it out."

"Even so, we... must choose the best time, the best place, a place that cannot be reached in time even if it reaches Whitebeard's ears."

"We only have one chance!!!!"

.....

Su Yang's side.

Since Uchiha Madara stopped, Su Yang and his party hadn't spent much time on the red-haired island.

After checking the collection of food, they set sail again.

"Who are they???"

Su Yang looked suspiciously at the two women hiding in the corner.

Their hair is messy, their clothes are shabby, their feet are bare, and they even lean on iron chains on their feet.

After being discovered by Su Yang, the two women hugged each other tightly and looked at Su Yang with wide eyes. Fear had made her unsatisfactory tears flow out unwittingly.

When Uchiha Madara, Ace Kano and Diablo came over, they looked at the two girls and shook their heads.

"I don't know, but it's very simple to deal with. Just kill it and throw it into the sea." Diablo said a note with a smile.

Because of these words, the two shivering women burst into tears. They thought they had escaped from the traffickers, but they didn't expect that they would end up dead in the end.

"To shut up!"

Su Yang shouted at the two women, who immediately stopped and kept sobbing.

"Give you a few minutes and tell me what happened to you."

"We were originally nobles living on the island of Asrad, but not long ago, the pirates invaded. They saw that we were a bit handsome, and then we arrested us. Finally, we heard that he was going to take us. Sold to the auction house."

"At the back, when we landed on the island, while they were not paying attention, the two of us took the opportunity to escape, and then we saw a boat and ran in and hid."

After hearing their words, Su Yang nodded thoughtfully: "Oh, then your luck is really bad, we are also pirates."

"Don't kill me, don't kill me, I'll do whatever you ask me to do, we don't want to die."

Su Yang didn't want to take care of them, and originally wanted to throw them both away, whether it was life or death to see their fate.

However, Uchiha Madara on the side said, "Can you cook?"

"It will be..."

The two women nodded hurriedly.

"It's good, I'm tired of the days of just cooking and eating. I want to be able to eat various flavors of food normally when I'm on the ship in the future. I think Su Yang, you shouldn't refuse food. Right." Uchiha Madara asked Su Yang.

However, it is true that these big men eat too simple, although they can fill their stomachs, but the taste is really indescribable.

"Whatever, we don't raise useless people anyway."

.....

53 New member, shivering

tornado (for flowers)

After hearing that Su Yang wouldn't kill them, the two women hurriedly knelt down, kowtowed and said tremblingly.

"thanks, thanks."

However, it would be a good thing to have two chores. In the past, cooking and chores would take turns.

The appearance of the two of them just happened to take care of all these boring and boring jobs.

"stand up."

Su Yang looked down at the two of them and spoke softly.

They moved quickly. After hearing Su Yang's words, they stood up immediately, for fear that it would be too late and make Su Yang dissatisfied.

Su Yang squatted down, reached out to grab their ankle cuffs, and then pulled hard, with a 'dang', the cuffs were instantly torn off.

After seeing Su Yang's power, both women swallowed.

In their hearts, an idea also sprouted.

That is... Absolutely obedient, absolutely can't have the idea of running away like before.

After a while, both of their ankle cuffs were pulled off by Su Yang. After standing up, Su Yang asked.

"From today, you are a handyman of the Seventeenth Division of my Whitebeard Pirates, but I advise you not to do anything stupid."

After the two women heard the Whitebeard Pirates, they were stunned, and their backs even got cold.

Yes, they never imagined that when they escaped, the boat they boarded in a hurry turned out to be the famous Whitebeard Pirates.

Now, their pressure is unprecedented, for fear of saying a wrong word, they will end their lives.

Su Yang glanced at them, the two of them were in tattered and dirty clothes, and after sighing lightly, they ordered.

"Diablo, take the two of them to the bathroom, let them rinse well, and then put on a clean suit. As for the clothes, we don't have any women's clothes on board, so just use mine."

After leaving these words, Su Yang left here, because now he has a more important thing to do.

Yes, that is... Summons the fifth member of the Seventeenth Division of the Whitebeard Pirates.

Arriving on the top of the boat, Su Yang took a look at his attribute panel after feeling the poisonous sun in the sky.

Warehouse: Summon Fragment X1

After looking back, Su Yang entered the command.

"System, use Summoning Fragments."

[Ding...Are you sure to use the Summoning Fragment! □

"Yes!"

[Ding...Congratulations to the successful use of Host, and get 100

Summoning Points. □

"System, summon."

[Ding... Command received, calling. □

[Ding...Successfully summoned, consumes 100 summoning points. □

[Ding...Congratulations to Host for getting the trembling tornado from

"One Punch Man". □

Hearing the word tornado, the face of a woman with blue curly hair flashed through his mind, followed by a slight twitch at the corner of his mouth.

There is no other reason, the main reason is..... Another uneasy guy came.

Tornado, from the world of One Punch Man, the 2nd S-class hero, a superpower, naturally there is no such thing as a strength, and the nickname is Tsundere Loli.

Su Yang believed that with the addition of Tornado, the Seventeenth Division would be even more restless.

An arrogant, Ace Kano, who sees everyone as a younger brother during the day and a father at night.

A dance king, Uchiha Madara,

A Tsundere, a tornado.

Only Diablo was quieter.

.....

That's where it will work.

The white light escaped from Su Yang's body and fell aside.

Immediately after, the group of white rays of light divided into a group, followed by slowly turning into a human shape, accompanied by her opening her eyes.

The white light on the human figure began to fall off little by little.

Finally, a Loli-faced woman with green curly hair and a black slit gown appeared in Su Yang's line of sight.

She blinked her eyes, her eyes full of disbelief.

She stretched out her hands, looked carefully, and then pinched her face with her hands.

"It hurts, this is not a dream, everything just now is real."

Saying that, Tornado's gaze turned to Su Yang in front of him, along with a green light released from his body.

She floated all over, then flew to Su Yang, circled around him a few times, and finally fumbled her chin, as if thinking about something.

However, Su Yang didn't care at all about her behavior, or even what she was thinking about. He smiled lightly and said, "Welcome."

"Hey hey..."

The tornado flew in front of Su Yang, and then began to babble: "I have traveled through the world to come here, and it is not good for you to simply say two words. Even the word "tornjuan" is not good. Do not say."

When Tornado said this, Su Yang looked surprised, and he just said it casually.

"Then let me say it again, this new world welcomes you, Tornado."

"It's almost there."

Tornado crossed his arms in front of his chest and snorted coldly.

And at this time, Uchiha Madara just came out of the boat.

Walking to the reclining chair, he lay down without saying a word.

However, as soon as he lay down, he saw the tornado floating on the top of the boat, and of course, because of the angle, he didn't see Su Yang.

"Why is there an intruder??"

The author thought about it for a while. Before there was a female crew member, he wrote a female crew member first. Anyone who has a recommendation can say it in the comment area. *

54 Big Plans, Sengoku's

Layout (For Flowers)

While wondering, Uchiha Madara moved quickly and immediately stood up from the reclining chair.

However, he was not in a hurry and jumped to the top of the boat immediately. Instead, he sensed the surroundings and wanted to make sure that there were other intruders in the boat.

When he finished sensing, he lay down directly on the reclining chair.

"If Su Yang is on it, I don't need to deal with it."

For such a boring thing, Uchiha Madara doesn't want to get involved.

In his eyes, doing those boring things is better than sleeping on a chair.

On Su Yuan's side, after saying a few words to the dragon scroll above.

He took her down and introduced him to Uchiha Madara and his party.

They are also not used to this kind of thing, after all, everyone is so inexplicable.

They all regarded this as Su Yang's ability.

However, it is worth mentioning that the two women who escaped on the Su Yang boat.

After bathing, I was completely different from the previous one. In terms of appearance, it was high, with fair skin. In terms of body shape, both of them were similar, and they should look like nearly 170.

Physically, both are great.

Su Yang glanced at the two of them, and then said calmly: "The clothes are still a little bigger, but, there is no way, before you land on the second island, you can only do this."

"Lord Su Yang, don't think about me, just wear what you have." One of the women with long yellow hair said timidly.

"Introduce yourself."

"My name is Emily." The woman with long black hair said.

"My name is Hilary Anna." The yellow-haired woman continued.

Time flies, and in a blink of an eye, several days have passed.

It's been pretty peaceful these days.

Tornado has also been fully integrated into this new family.

The days on the boat, people who have nothing to do, are always boring and boring.

As for Emily and Anna, at the beginning, no matter what they did, they were cautious and didn't even dare to talk much.

However, after several days of contact, what the two of them never expected was.

Su Yang wasn't as fierce and brutal as they thought, and so were the rest of the crew.

Even if they made some small mistakes because they were too nervous at the beginning, Su Yang and the others didn't scold them during the whole process, and they even said "be careful" in a flat reminder.

After several days of getting along, the two of them have been trembling in their hearts before they let go.

Because they can really be sure at this moment, Su Yang, they really won't hurt themselves.

"It's finally coming to shore."

Tornado sat on the guardrail of the boat, looking at the island not far ahead, his eyes full of anticipation.

Although she didn't stay on the boat for a long time, she felt that she was about to get moldy.

"Here, Mr. Tornado, this is the juice you want." Anna was holding the plate in her hand, while the other hand held a glass of juice and handed it to the tornado.

After taking the tornado, she took a gulp, then swayed her feet, and after swallowing it, she said.

"Ana, after landing on the island, let's go shopping for clothes together, and call Emily by the way."

Anna hesitated for a few seconds, then said softly, "This...you have to ask Mr. Su Yang."

"Don't worry, Su Yang will definitely agree. After all, he is always in my ear, whispering to me to change my clothes." Dragon Roll complained.

"As long as Lord Su Yang agrees, of course it's fine."

Soon, the ship docked.

Because Su Yang's boat is not coated, if they want to cross the Red Line from the bottom of the sea, they have to find some coating workers on the island to coat their boat.

Although it would take a while, Su Yang didn't care, they could just rest here.

There are plenty of supplies on board, so there is no need to replenish.

After disembarking, it is free to move, but Su Yang still reminded that if he sees a coater, he should tell it, so that they don't have to look for it.

.....

A few hours later, the Holy Land Mariejois.

"What? Are you telling the truth?"

Sengoku held the phone bug in his hand, and his expression was a little excited.

"Yes, Marshal Sengoku, after our repeated confirmation, the seventeenth division of the Whitebeard Pirates really appeared on that island."

"okay, I get it."

Sengoku hung up the phone bug, lay down on the chair, closed his eyes, and started planning.

"Yoyo, Mr. Sengoku, it looks like you're going to attack the Seventeenth Chapter of the Whitebeard Pirates."

On the other sofa, Kizaru, who is also one of Marine's three Admirals, said with a smile.

After hearing the voice, Sengoku opened his eyes and said calmly:

"Polusalino, I count you in this action this time."

"But Mr. Sengoku, I'm on vacation today?" Kizaru reminded.

"You can take vacations anytime, but if you want to wait for such a good opportunity now, you don't know when." Sengoku said with a serious face.

Kizaru just smiled without making a sound, nodding in agreement.

As for what's on your mind?

Maybe he shouldn't ask, so he might be able to continue his vacation.

In the following time, Sengoku did not continue to stay in the Holy Land Mariejois, and began to arrange and arrange it.

This time, Marine was lucky, Garp was on the island not far away, and it didn't take much time to get there.

However, as for the other Marine Admiral Aokiji, he was far away and couldn't come over in a short period of time.

.....

Brothers, it will be on the shelves in the early morning of tomorrow. You must come and place your first order, please!!! *

55 Future One Piece? (begging for flowers)

This time, Sengoku made a lot of money in order to completely eliminate the Seventeenth Division of the Whitebeard Pirates.

As long as they are on vacation, or have no missions, and have combat power themselves, they are all transferred.

"Sengoku, you are sure, once this is done, it will definitely start a war between pirates and Marine."

In the phone bug, Garp rarely said a serious word.

Sengoku fixed his eyes on the phone bug in his hand, raised his brows, and said solemnly, "What? Are you afraid? Garp?"

Hearing this, Garp not only didn't get angry, but laughed.

"Hahahaha...Sengoku, even though I'm getting old, a bunch of kiddos don't make me tremble."

"Don't forget, even his captain, Whitebeard, was chased by me a lot back then, even Roger and the others..."

The more Garp talked, the more energetic he was, as if at this moment, he had returned to his younger generation.

However, in his eyes, there is also a feeling of sadness, when did his bloody passion disappear without a trace.

After Roger's death?

Or.... the establishment of the Four Emperors system?

Or.... I'm getting old and I can't do it anymore.

Garp doesn't know about this.

In the end, he couldn't help but sigh.

Yes, the sea is still this sea, but people... have become different people.

"Okay, a big gentleman, aren't you ashamed to say such a thing? Hurry up and gather, if you miss this opportunity, you will never have such a good opportunity again." Sengoku groaned.

"Okay, okay, the old man knows, but...are you sure about your plan?"

Sending so much Marine power, in case, if the action fails, as Marines, all of us will Gotta dig a hole and get in."

"Garp.....we will not fail, justice will prevail!"

"Cut, come on, this old man doesn't want to hear you say these useless nonsense, that's all."

.....

After a long time, Su Yang's side.

His progress was also smooth, and he successfully found a coater.

However, after preliminary estimates by the coater, it will take five days to complete the coating.

Five days is neither too long nor too short.

People like Su Yang are not in a hurry, so they don't care too much.

Tornado went shopping with Emily and Ana, while Diablo, Uchiha Madara, and Ace Kano were free to move. As for where they went, Su Yang didn't know.

As for Su Yang, after finding the coater, he went to the restaurant to fill his stomach, and then went to the pub to drink.

"Come on, come on, come on, guys, celebrate our successful arrival in the New World!!!"

At the table next to Su Yang, one of the men with a stubborn beard and a fat body picked up a bowl of wine, stood up, and shouted.

As soon as this voice sounded, most of the people sitting in the tavern stood up one after another, picked up the wine, and shouted loudly.

"Thanks to the captain, we can see what the New World really is like."

"Look at what you said, isn't it just New World, your captain and me? In the future, I will be the man who will be the Pirate King. When that time comes, you will be the Pirate King's crew."

As soon as his little fan brother heard it, he had already imagined his majestic appearance in his mind.

Facing his captain, he admired even more.

And Su Yang was sitting next door, after hearing this, he just smiled lightly, but when he wanted to continue drinking, he was stunned and seemed to think of something.

After speaking, he also picked up the wine, came to his place, and said with a smile: "Congratulations to the future One Piece!!!!!"

When the bearded man heard the three words One Piece, his sense of satisfaction exploded, and before he even had time to look back to see who it was, he reached into his pocket and said.

"It's still your little mouth that can talk, come, this is your reward."

After all, he just took out some gold nuggets from his pocket and wanted to hand them to Su Yang, but after seeing Su Yang's face clearly, he paused.

"Who are you?"

Su Yang is not surprised, after all, his reputation is not very big now, only a small number of people who pay attention to New World's information will know a little bit.

From the first half of the Grand Line, not to mention, he may not even know how many teams Whitebeard originally had, let alone the recently established 17th team.

"I?"

Su Yang smiled and continued: "It doesn't matter who I am, you just need to know that I am a man who believes that you can become the Pirate King."

Although he didn't know where Su Yang came from, he liked to hear what Su Yang said.

"You stinky boy, I like you very much. How about it? Don't join us. In the future, you will be the crew of One Piece." The scumbag man said with a smile.

"Okay, but... When I just came in, it seemed that Marine's people were following you." Su Yang showed a very frightened look.

The bearded man grinned, patted Su Yang on the shoulder, and said with a smile: "Boy, have some guts, you will be a crew member of One Piece in the future, and the mere Marine will scare you like this, it's a shame, look, I am now Go out and get him back."

After all, the bearded man directly picked up the long knife leaning on the table and walked out staggeringly.

"By the way, the future One Piece! That guy is wearing a black hat and a suit. He's about 1.8 meters tall, don't get me wrong."

On the shelves tonight, brothers, please give a subscription, thank you very much. *

56 The opening of the prelude, the arrival of Sengoku (for flowers)

"Okay, I'll catch him right away and let you kill it. It's a gift for you to join us."

Looking at their retreating backs, Su Yang smiled lightly, then sat back on his table and drank the wine as if nothing had happened.

"Young man, if it's true, it's fine, if it's false, you can run away now, otherwise, once they turn around, you won't be able to escape."

At the bar, a man wearing a waiter's clothes kindly reminded Su Yang while wiping the cup in his hand leisurely.

Su Yang looked up at him, just smiled, and said indifferently, "What's the point of that?"

Of course, Su Yang wasn't fooling him. There was indeed a man in a black hat and a suit outside, but he was not following them, but Su Yang. As for his identity... It shouldn't be Marine, but he is a World government member with Marine.

Su Yang's preliminary guess was that he should just come to monitor himself.

If the group of pirates who went out just now can solve him smoothly, it is naturally good, but it doesn't matter if it can't be solved.

As for the movement, Su Yang doesn't want to make trouble now, he just wants to wait for his boat to finish coating, and then leave here.

After the man at the bar heard what Su Yang said, he didn't say anything more.

He's been here for several years, and he's seen too many people who just arrived in the new world, like Su Yang.

Without exception, none of them were spared and lost their lives at the beginning of the New World.

In a blink of an eye, two hours have passed.

Su Yang stretched, and now that he had enough to eat and drink, he planned to go back to the boat to take a nap.

"It seems that the ending you were expecting won't happen?"

Su Yang smiled at the man at the bar.

It's been two hours, if he guessed correctly, the group of pirates just now has been wiped out.

"Just kidding, sir. But, is Marine really coming outside?" the bar man asked.

"What do you think? Otherwise, it's been two hours, why hasn't he appeared."

After speaking, Su Yang got up and came to the bar, and continued to say, "How much."

The man at the bar hadn't spoken yet. Suddenly, the door of the tavern was pushed open, and it wasn't the pirates who walked in just now.

It was a man with frog glasses, a long beard tied into a twist shape on his chin, and a seagull on his hat. He was wearing a Marine uniform, and the "Justice" on the back coat was blue.

Yes...he is, Marshal Naval Headquarters, Sengoku of the Buddha.

When Su Yang turned around and saw that it was the current Marshal Marine, the Buddha Sengoku, who entered the tavern, his expression suddenly changed.

"It seems that I didn't come at the right time. You are all ready to check out and leave. I think, I'm not wrong, Whitebeard Pirates, Captain of the Seventeenth Division, Su Yang!!!!"

When the man at the bar heard this, the boss stared at Su Yang with wide-eyed eyes, and said with an unbelievable shiver: "White... The captain of the 17th division of the Whitebeard Pirates???"

Su Yang stared at Sengoku without saying anything. Sengoku's appearance was something he never expected.

After a few seconds, Su Yang grinned: "Okay, I admit it, I was careless, I always thought that your people were following me all the way, just for the Master's actions, I didn't expect... but it was Let you, the Marshal of Naval Headquarters, come to the door yourself."

"Marshal... Naval Headquarters, White... The 17th Division of the Whitebeard Pirates???" The man at the bar was dumbfounded. In this ordinary tavern, two incredible guys came.

Su Yang picked up a bottle of wine that he hadn't had before at the bar, sat on the table, opened it, and poured a few sips into his mouth, and finally said calmly.

"Are you... to arrest us?"

"What do you think? I've worked hard to prepare for your seventeenth division." Sengoku also sat down, his eyes still fixed on Su Yang, for fear that he would not pay attention, he Let Su Yang take advantage.

"Although I would have thought of such a day, I never imagined that this day would come so soon, tsk tsk tsk, it's just that my seventeenth division is just a small division, as for you, the Naval Headquarters Marshal, take action personally. ?"

"Your squad, the level of danger is extremely high. If you don't unplug it for a day, it will bring us unknown dangers." Sengoku said coldly.

Su Yang knew that Sengoku had made a decision, and this battle had to be fought.

After understanding what Sengoku meant, Su Yang poured the wine into his mouth again, then tossed the bottle.

"It turned out to be so, just try it."

.....

Buddha shape (for flowers)

"Don't struggle, this time, you can't run away, I've been waiting for this time for a long time.

At the same time as the words fell, Sengoku had already moved, his waving right arm had covered Armament Haki, and he punched.

And Su Yang's reaction speed is also very fast, and he also quickly counterattacks with punches.

"boom!

The two fists collided, and a strong airflow was immediately generated~.

The surrounding tables and wine bottles were instantly deflected by the air-flow.

Even the tavern collapsed in an instant.

Smoke billows all around.

The two figures pierced through the smoke instantly and were separated by a safe distance.

Su Yang landed on a roof. Looking around, not far ahead, there were already densely packed Marine soldiers, and it seemed that a lot of Vice Admiral had come too.

"Sure enough, I came prepared. Sengoku!"

"You guys, but the ones who defeated Sakazuki, how could I be careless?"

As Sengoku spoke, he took off his cloak and moved his shin.

Immediately, golden light began to bloom on his body, his whole body also turned golden, and his body gradually began to grow larger.

That's right, and this is Sengoku's Devil Fruit ability.

Sengoku's Devil Fruit is in Zoan, Eudemons, Renren Fruit, and Buddha form.

This ability can transform into a giant golden Buddha, but its real effect is to elevate the power, wisdom, spirit, and skill potential of the eater to the limit of human beings.

Combining a huge body like a giant Buddha with a smart mind and perfect skills, and turning oneself into an ultimate person with both mind and body skills, this is the power of everyone to be a Buddha.

Sengoku, who already has the qualifications of a king and a smart mind, is even more powerful after eating the Buddha shape of Renren Fruit.

Su Yang could see that Sengoku didn't want to waste too much time with him at all, and he planned to fight it quickly.

Meanwhile, Uchiha Madara's side.

"Yoyoyo, you must be the seventeenth member of the Whitebeard Pirates, Madara." Kizaru floated in the air, looking lazily at Uchiha Madara, who was sleeping on a tree.

Compared to Sengoku, Kizaru did not bring any other Marine soldiers, only himself.

Uchiha Madara opened her eyes, glanced at him, then closed her eyes again.

"Isn't it really shameful? After all... I'm also one of the three Admirals in Naval Headquarters." Kizaru frowned and slowly stretched out his hand, a yellow light spot on his finger has been condensed.

And Uchiha Madara, who was originally not interested, but after hearing that the person who came was one of Marine's three Admiral, ignited his interest.

However, at this time, Kizaru has unleashed his Devil Fruit ability.

·0 Flowers .....

A beam of golden light rushed towards Uchiha Madara at great speed.

And Uchiha Madara quickly placed the Uchiha fan in front of him.

After the golden light hit the fan, it disappeared in an instant like the human world evaporated.

Kizaru, who saw this scene, also paused. It was the first time he had encountered Marine who had been doing it for so long.

However, before he could speak, Uchiha Madara spoke slowly.

"Uchiha...rebound. 35

As soon as the topic fell, a beam of light appeared along with the fan, and in the next second, a beam of golden light shot directly towards Kizaru.

"Shuh

Kizaru turned into a spot of light and escaped the blow, and then moved to the other side, looking at Uchiha Madara who was still lying on the tree in horror.

"Yoyoyo... Really scary? It can absorb my attack, and then let it out again. What kind of weapon is this?"

Uchiha Madara stood up slowly, put the fan behind his back, and held the sickle attached to the fan in his hand.

He looked at Kizaru in the sky, and then spoke slowly.

"Marine three Admiral? I remember the guy with the magma too."5

"magma?"

Kizaru murmured, stared at Uchiha Madara, and said calmly, "You mean Sakazuki, what's wrong with him?"

"I heard Su Yang say that that guy is very strong, but unfortunately, I couldn't fight him, and he was killed by that guy Ace Kano."

Hearing Uchiha Madara's words, Kizaru immediately stretched out his finger and waved it, with a somewhat wretched expression on his face.

"You don't really think that guy named Ace Kano killed him, let me tell you the truth, that guy Sakazuki won't be killed so easily by you guys."

Originally, Kizaru thought that he would be a little weaker by saying this, but Uchiha Madara's arrogant arrogance, but he didn't expect that after listening to his words, he seemed to be even more excited.

'What kind of brain circuit is this guy...??

Kizaru groaned inwardly.

"In this way, being able to become Marine Three Admiral must be a bit of a trick, so I hope you don't let me down."

"Ugh,"

Kizaru sighed softly, the golden light had already condensed on his fingers, and he continued: "Your tone of voice is really unpleasant. 99 After all, he directly shot the condensed golden light in his hand like a bullet.

However, this time, unlike before, Uchiha Madara did not use the Uchiha fan for defense.

When the golden light fell on the big tree, it instantly caused a violent explosion.

A large plume of smoke spread out in all directions.

"Hit...not likely, right?"

Kizaru looked at the smoke below and muttered.

Suddenly, he seemed to have noticed when, and instantly transformed into a golden long knife made by his Devil Fruit for defense.

Sure enough, in the next second, only a 'dang' sound was heard, and Uchiha Madara's sickle had already slashed on his golden long knife.

"Yoyoyo, is it really dangerous? I was almost cut by you."

Uchiha Madara made a seal with one hand, and the next second, a huge flame was spit out directly from his mouth.

This operation made Kizaru stunned for a while, but he moved quickly and immediately used elementalization to ease the crisis this time.

Su Yang's side.

His battle with Sengoku also intensified.

"Shhhhhh!!

Every time Sengoku swung his palm, a shock wave would appear towards Su Yang.

The streets and alleys that were very lively not long ago are now riddled with holes, and most of them have turned into ruins.

Of course, some of the villagers in the city will naturally be involved in this sudden battle.

However, in Marine's eyes, as long as they win this battle, they can still accept it at a price that is not painful.

"What? Su Yang, do you just run away?"

Watching Sengoku stop attacking, Su Yang also stopped and stood in the rubble.

To be honest, as an older generation Sengoku, he not only has passed the level of strength, but also has rich fighting experience, and even in the fight just now, he has been looking for Su Yang's weakness.

However, it's a pity that no matter how he used the aggressive method, Su Yang was still indifferent and didn't fall into his trap at all.

At this moment, Su Yang folded his hands together and said softly.

"Wood Style Wooden Golem Jutsu.

As soon as the voice fell, the ground began to vibrate.

A huge cloud of smoke splashed out.

Immediately after, what caught their eyes was a wooden Arhat even larger than the golden Buddha of Sengoku.

Seeing this scene, those Marines who followed Sengoku were stunned, and their hearts began to panic.

"This...what is this, so...even bigger than Marshal Sengoku's golden Buddha."

"If I'm not mistaken, this should be the Devil Fruit ability of the Captain of the Seventeenth Division of the Whitebeard Pirates.0"

"This time, it seems that things are not going well. I didn't expect this guy to keep a hand. 99

"So what, didn't you notice just now? Marshal Sengoku's Devil Fruit ability has always been suppressing Su Yang's Devil Fruit ability, and all the previous attacks were undoubtedly broken by Marshal Sengoku's shock wave.

"That's right, right, that wooden giant just looks big, but it's actually far less than Marshal Sengoku's Golden Buddha.

"Is this your last resort? But, you know, your abilities have done me no harm at all. 99

Sengoku stared at the wooden Arhat in front of him and said solemnly.

"yes?"

Su Yang stood on the shoulder of Mu Luohan and smiled, and at this moment, a horn grew on his forehead, obviously, he entered the state of Sage Body.

However, at the moment when Su Yang's forehead grew a horn, a huge horn also grew on Mu Luohan's forehead.

Yes, this is a special ability in Sage Body, which was also discovered by Su Yang a while ago.

3.9

The general meaning is that assimilation, as long as Su Yang enters the state of Sage Body, as long as he wants, Mu Luohan will also enter Sage Body, and also can obtain defense, attack, and greatly enhance.

Even, Mu Luohan can condense natural energy and release the condensed energy.

However, there are advantages and disadvantages, that is, the physical exertion is a bit larger.

"I haven't used it before, but now I can try it with you."

"Insolent brat!"

Sengoku roared, followed closely, jumped up, and threw a huge fist.

Brothers, remember to give an automatic subscription for fattening, please.

Of course, Su Yang was not wrong, and the wooden Luohan who directly controlled his feet also waved his fist.

"Bang..." sound.

The ground nearby shook violently, and the surrounding ruins shook directly, and then fell like a torrential rain.

Seeing this scene, Sengoku frowned slightly. He thought that his punch could directly destroy Mu Luohan, but he never expected that it would be blocked directly.

However, at this moment, Mu Luohan suddenly opened his mouth, and a golden-yellow energy ball condensed in an instant.

"not good."

Sengoku just wanted to withdraw his fist, but in that instant, Mu Luohan spit out the energy ball in his mouth.

The energy ball directly sent Sengoku flying, and after spinning dozens of circles in the air, the energy ball was removed from his body.

And he himself fell to the ground. Due to the unstable center of gravity, he rolled a lot of times in a row before offsetting the impact.

Sengoku raised his head with an unbelievable look on his face: "I didn't expect to have this ability. Damn it, what kind of Devil Fruit ability is this?"

The other side that is some distance away from Su Yang.

Garp, who was with Sengoku, was also invited by the World government and found Ace Kano successfully.

"Bulky, and his weapon is an axe..."

Garp looked at the wanted warrant in his hand, and then looked at Ace Kano in front of him.

"Well, although I don't have an axe now, but based on the information from the World Government and the general appearance, you should be the person this old man is looking for."

Ace Kano was still eating the grilled meat he bought from the street at the moment, while he was eating, he looked at Garp in front of him.

"Wearing this dress, you are in the same group as that kid before.

Faced with Ace Kano's words, Garp naturally knew who the "boy" he was referring to was referring to.

"I heard that you have an immortal body, but I don't think so, because even Roger, the pirate king of the year, didn't have the ability."

Just before departure, Sengoku also called Marine Hospital and got some information about Ace Kano from Akainu's mouth.

However, Akainu said yes, but it seemed that it didn't help them much, just said, "The guy with the axe seems to have the body of immortality and the power of flames. It stands to reason that magma should be the superior of flames. Devil Fruit, but I was hurt by his flames.

"Boom!!!"

Suddenly, there was another violent explosion in the distance, Ace Kano looked in the direction of the explosion, then seemed to think of something, and said.

"Looks like you're not the only one here. 35

"Of course, you are the seventeenth division of the Whitebeard Pirates, we as Marines must take care of them.

When Ace Kano heard it, he didn't take it seriously, and said arrogantly:

"So what, the guy who wore the same clothes as you before didn't say that he wanted to kill me, but what about the final result, he didn't let me kill it.

"Hahahahahaha." 5

"For so many years, I have heard such arrogant words, only from the Rocks, and Roger, who are behind, you are the first.

As Garp spoke, he took off the cloak with the word justice engraved on the back, and was ready to fight at any time.

And Ace Kano, of course, was not ambiguous, I saw him slightly stretched out his hand, opened his palm, and said silently on his mouth: "Respond to my will, God Axe Rita. 39

In less than five seconds, an axe fell from the sky and landed on Ace Kano.

"Come and see if your strength is worthy of your arrogance.

While speaking, Garp had already launched an attack, and the moment he raised his right arm, Armament Haki was already covered in his hand.

Ace Kano didn't mean to step back at all, just raised the divine axe Rita and chopped it down.

"when!

The fist and the axe collided together. If they were placed in an ordinary world, the fist might be directly cut in half. However, here, there is no such thing, nor does it exist.

Although Garp is not a Demon fruit power, he doesn't have those fancy Devil Fruit abilities.

However, there is no doubt that his taijutsu and Haki are very strong.

After all, the nicknames 'Garp the Fist' and 'Marine Hero' didn't come with their mouths, but with their own fists.

Today's battle is actually not good for Ace Kano.

The reason is also very simple, because noon has passed, he is the only one in the sky and the world, and his state is no longer able to play, and not only that, he will also regress in strength and muscles as time goes on.

"Zizizi..

"Zizzizi....

Around the fist and the axe, the power fluctuations like thunder and lightning are constantly spurring the earth.

"Bang bang bang!!!!"

And at this time when Garp and Ace Kano were in a stalemate, another group of Marines had already arrived at 400.

And, when they saw that Ace Kano and Garp were in a stalemate, they pulled the trigger without hesitation and fired bullets.

Although the practice is a bit despicable, in their eyes, it doesn't matter, all they want is victory.

As long as they are victorious, they have distorted the real situation.

However, it was obvious that their bullets could not reach them at all, and when they were about to approach, they were ejected instantly.

Ace Kano glanced out of the corner of his eye, slowly raised his free hand, and then said to Garp with a smile on his face: "You are really a bunch of stupid guys."

At the same time as the words fell, a huge and extremely high temperature fireball had appeared out of thin air.

"The sun without mercy!!!"

As these words fell, Ace Kano threw back, not even looking at the back.

Garp realized that something was wrong, and immediately shouted: "Run away!!!"

As soon as the voice fell, in just a few seconds, behind Ace Kano, there was an explosion of distance.

"call.

As the sound of the explosion fell, a heat wave with high temperature washed over it.

Seeing this scene, Garp frowned, with anger in his eyes.

"You bastard.

Facing Garp's angry words, Ace Ka Nuo was indifferent and spoke calmly.

"The strong eat the weak is the law of the world, don't you understand?"

"drink!

Garp snorted lightly, increased his strength, and knocked Ace Cano back a few steps, while he performed a backflip and opened a safe distance from Ace Cano.

Immediately following, he looked in the direction of the explosion just now.

The place where the Marines were standing has just turned into a big pit, and there is still a thick smoke in the big pit.

Moreover, Garp also saw the edge of the big crater, with Mars, and even some places have melted, one can imagine how high the temperature of this fireball is.

As for the Marines before, there is no need to question, all of them have been reduced to ashes.

"At first, when I heard about Sakazuki being burned, I didn't believe it.

After all, a magma man, was burned? What a joke. But now... the old man believed it." Garp's eyes gradually became cold. up.

As for Diablo's side, there is no doubt that Marine must have come to the door, and the Marine who came to him is exactly the Naval Headquarters Vice Admiral and staff, the ability to wash the fruit, Crane.

And the Admiral candidate in the original book, Momousagi, who had fought before.

"I was about to go and see what happened? However, after seeing you, I have roughly guessed what happened. 35

Compared to when he was on the Su Yang boat before, Diablo's tone became indifferent at this moment, and there was a hint of playfulness in the corner of his mouth.

"You can't run away today, the Seventeenth Division of the Whitebeard Pirates is indeed a feared division, but...that's the end of it~

As soon as Diablo heard the words of the woman with the vicissitudes of life on his face, the corners of his mouth raised on both sides, and he laughed wildly.

"Cough...hehehehe, you really don't know how tall you are, do you only talk big? 35

Facing Diablo's words, Crane's heart didn't have any turbulence, she said slowly.

"Young man, time will prove everything, your arrogance will only make you lost."

Just as the crane's voice fell, Diablo had already appeared above her with a disdainful smile on his face. At the same time, he waved the sharp claws in his hand and grabbed it directly towards the crane's neck.

However, at this moment, Momousagi didn't know when he had drawn his sword and shot to block.

"Dang" sound.

Diablo's sharp claws grabbed directly on Momousagi's long sword.

The next second, Diablo looked at Momousagi, and sneered: "I remember you, the little doll from last time."

Before Momousagi could answer, Tsuru used his Devil Fruit ability to attack Diablo, but... Obviously, things were not as simple as she thought.

Diablo backed away instantly, and attacked again the next second.

After dozens of rounds, there was a trace of unease on the crane's face.

Because Diablo looks very young, but his combat experience is far better than Tsuru and Momousagi.

No matter what kind of attack, and he clearly felt that he was about to be attacked, he could always avoid it perfectly, and even counterattacked directly.

On the other side of Tornado, because she was summoned at the end, before that, she hadn't shown up to fight pirates or Marine or anyone else.

So apart from Su Yang and the others, no one knew that she was also a crew member of the Seventeenth Division of the Whitebeard Pirates.

Of course, she was not tracked by the World government, nor was she approached by Marine.

At this time, she was happily shopping with Emily and Anna.

Although the three of them also heard the movement, they disapproved and continued shopping.

"Bang bang bang!!!!"

At the same time, many shops have closed, and the citizens are carrying large and small bags, and then leave in a hurry.

"What are they doing?" Dragon Roll asked in surprise.

"Lord Tornado, something must have happened. After all, there are battles on several sides, and we have bought a lot of clothes. Why don't we go back to the ship." Anna offered her opinion.

"Yeah, all the shops seem to be closed, and we can't seem to be able to shop even if we want to." Emily also raised her attention.

Tornado sighed softly, there was no other way, now, as Emily told Anna, it is no longer called shopping, but watching how these citizens escaped.

In 'Well, it's almost the same anyway, Su Yang and the others should return to the boat, let's go back. "

However, Tornado and the others did not walk back, but flew back with Anna and Emily using their superpowers.

After about ten minutes, they successfully returned to the place where the boat was parked.

However, the scene in front of him made Tornado stunned.

Most of the ships that originally docked have now been burned down by fire.

Black smoke has polluted the sky above.

Yes..... Su Yang's boat is on fire, and the treasures and other things on the boat are already on fire.

Below, there are about three or four hundred Marines standing, all of them holding (damn) long spears, as if waiting for something.

"Dragon...Lord Tornado...we, our ship got tongue burnt.

Emily looked at Tornado, but after seeing Tornado's angry eyes, she immediately said, "Do we need to inform Su Yang and them? Lord Tornado."

Also because of Emily's words, they quickly noticed that someone was in the sky.

"Look, there are three people above."

As soon as they heard this sound, all the Marines on the coast immediately became tense, and their eyes were all turned to the sky.

Immediately after, the muzzles of the black guns were all aimed at the tornado, as well as Emily and Anna.

However, when they saw the three unfamiliar faces of the Tornado trio, their tense nerves relaxed a lot.

"Damn it. Damn, what are you doing, scaring me so clever, I thought it was the seventeenth episode of the Whitebeard Pirates."

"I... I'm not yet, my hand holding the gun is shaking, but, fortunately, there is no danger.

"Yes, I hope Marshal Sengoku and the others can handle it smoothly, don't let them escape, otherwise, we will definitely not be able to deal with it. 35

"Aren't you talking nonsense? Those guys are the existences that have defeated Akainu Admiral. If we encounter them, we will only have the fate of being cannon fodder."

"Don't worry, this time, not only Marshal Sengoku was dispatched, but even Marine hero Garp and Kizaru Admiral were dispatched. Even if Whitebeard's seventeenth fold has great ability, as long as Whitebeard doesn't come, they are doomed to fail. ."

At this time, Marine Vice Admiral, who was standing at the front, frowned. He saw that the tornado could fly, and he concluded that she was a Demon fruit power.

At this time, it is not appropriate to have branches outside the festival, so he made a decision.

"Everyone put down their guns, this is not a member of the Seventeenth Division of the Whitebeard Pirates."

After that, he raised his head again, and said to the tornado in a very polite tone: "This lady, I'm really sorry for making an unfriendly action, I apologize to you, but we are now carrying out a very Important task, I hope the lady will not get involved in this muddy water."

At this time, the three tornadoes had already landed on the ground.

"You...you fucking bastards!!!!

Tornado's anger value is still rising.

And Marine Vice Admiral, headed by Marine, thought it was the unfriendly action that made her angry, and said again.

"Please take a good measure, ma'am. Marshal Naval Headquarters, Admiral, and even the Marine heroes are here. If you join this turbulent water, then...you're done for the rest of your life."

"Hehe, you burned my boat, and you want me not to get involved in this muddy water????"

When Marine Vice Admiral heard the words of the tornado, he was stunned for a moment, and looked at the ship, not feeling confident.

"Did we burn the wrong boat?"

"Report Doraka Vice Admiral, the ship we burned, the flag on the ship is indeed the flag of the Whitebeard Pirates, and there is a 17 written on the flag, which is definitely the 17th Division of the Whitebeard Pirates. Hearing his subordinates report like this, Doraka said again with a polite look.

(baeg) "Lady, did you hear that, we burned the ship of the Seventeenth Division of the Whitebeard Pirates.

"That's not right!"

Tornado said this time, her whole body was covered with green light, she floated up, and when she stretched out her hand, Doraka's body also radiated green light.

Before he could react, he was directly strangled by the tornado, and because of the super power of the tornado, at this moment, Doraka couldn't move.

"Ma'am, what are you doing????"

"I'm a member of the 17th edition of the Whitebeard Pirates!!!"

Upon hearing this, Doraka was stunned for a moment, but also looked puzzled. In the information, it was not said that there were female members in the Seventeenth Division of the Whitebeard Pirates.

Unfortunately....before he could figure it out, the tornado had already ended his life.

Then, like throwing garbage, she threw his body aside, and the next second, her icy gaze was directed at the remaining Marine soldiers.

"Destroy my ship...None of you want to run!!!"

"Bang bang bang."

"Bang bang bang .

Although the Marine was scared, he pulled the trigger, and countless bullets were fired from the muzzle, one after the other.

Facing the bullets like a rainstorm, the tornado didn't make any waves at all, and with a wave of her hand, all the bullets were frozen in the air.

Waving again, all the firearms in their hands also flew up, floating in the air.

"Meet your price, goddamn bastards!!!"

And with the words of the tornado falling, the sound of tearing the air came from the sky.

Everyone raised their heads one after another. When they saw a huge meteorite that caught their eyes, no doubt, most of them were directly paralyzed on the ground.

"This is....."

"Meteorite? Hahaha, we're dead."

"I'm not reconciled, I'm not reconciled, I'm only 20 years old.

"Run away, run away. 99

"Gollum...escape...can't escape, someone who faces this kind of power. 95

"Damn, damn, damn, although I thought about this result before, but I'm not reconciled... Hahahaha. One of the Marine soldiers couldn't help laughing after roaring. .

Of course, there were also some Marine soldiers who didn't want to die.

"Forgive us."

"Forgive us, there is nothing we can do, we are only ordered to do things.

Although they showed a very pitiful appearance, the tornado was still indifferent.

"Boom!!!!!"

With the fall of the meteorite, the ground exploded in an instant, and an air current spread rapidly toward the surroundings, and even the burning ships were directly washed away.

After a while, only dozens of wisps of smoke remained. As for the Marines, they were all evaporated by the temperature of the meteorite. The only thing that could prove that they were alive was the pile of bones.

"Dragon...Lord Tornado, what should we do next?" Emily stepped forward and asked Tornado.

Tornado was silent for a few seconds, and then said: "Bring the phone bug, I want to contact Su Yang.

"it is good."

Soon, Anna was in the bag, took out the phone bug, and handed it to Tornado.

However, when making calls, it was not smooth, because Su Yang couldn't get through.

"Forget it, I'll go directly to him, you two find a place to hide, you hold this phone bug, I will contact you when you leave, Marine didn't know that you were also from the Seventeenth Division of the Whitebeard Pirates. , won't work against you, so don't worry.

After leaving this sentence, the tornado flew directly into the sky, and then left.

Emily and Anna glanced at each other, and then left with big bags and small bags. Of course, they just went to find a place to hide according to what the tornado said.

When they discovered that Su Yang was different from other pirates, they had already given their hearts to the Whitebeard Pirates, the 17th Division.

Woohoo, thank you two big guys for the reward. There is a chapter later, the author stayed up late to write.

62 Sage Art· Wood Style· True

Several Thousand Hands

At this time, another island.

Marine Hospital.

Akainu's eyes were fixed on the bird outside the window.

Now, his complexion is much better than before.

His body is also getting better day by day, and it won't take long for him to leave here.

However, as for the burnt area, I am afraid that it will accompany him in the form of scars for the rest of his life.

From the moment he was knocked down by Ace Kano, until now, there are still some shadows in Akainu's deepest heart.

Because of this, Akainu thought about it for a long time and didn't understand that he was a magma man and was burned.

I'm afraid, if it spreads out, it will become a joke in the marine world.

"Da Da Da!!! 35

Suddenly, right at this moment, there was a knock on the door.

"Come in!

After obtaining consent, the door was quickly pushed open.

Entering was a man in a Marine uniform.

"Report to Marshal Akainu, there...still no news."

Akainu heard it, and after being silent for a while, he slowly spoke up.

"They've all been gone for so long, how could there be no news at all?"

Speaking of this, Akainu suddenly felt a little uneasy for a moment, but when he thought about the lineup dispatched this time, he quickly dispelled this uneasiness.

"Go out and let me know immediately if there is any progress.

"Yes. Akainu Admiral!"

The Marine soldier bowed to Akainu and left quickly.

Akainu, on the other hand, was looking at the ceiling, his eyes gradually showing murderous intent.

If Sengoku and the others really bring back the Seventeen Fans, then he will know Ace Kano firsthand.

Su Yang's side.

"Boom..."

"Boom..."

The battle between Su Yang and Sengoku has evolved from melee to long-range, and then from long-range to melee, and it's hard to count how many reincarnations.

In these battles, Sengoku also found opportunities many times to separate Su Yang from Mu Luohan's body, and then attacked.

However, after he attacked Su Yang for a round, he was a little suspicious of life, although he didn't use Haki defense or something.

But, my dear, your own skin is tougher than Armament Haki, and without any special means, it's really hard to cause damage to Su Yang.

"It's been a long time since I met someone with this physique, so it seems that the decision I've made now is the right one.

"Because, the first two people I met with this physique have now become one of the Four Emperors of the New World."

Apparently, what Sengoku was talking about was Charlotte Linlin and Kaido.

Su Yang stood on the shoulders of Mu Luohan, but did not pay any attention to Sengoku.

And Sengoku is worthy of being Marshal Marine, and his strength is very strong.

Even the Wooden Golem Jutsu with the ability to 'assimilate' is still a bit reluctant to deal with.

Of course, there are many elements in it, lack of combat experience, lack of strong physical skills, and Haki.

Before, on Whitebeard's ship, he was only focused on cultivating physique, but Haki ignored it.

However, if he wants to get started now, it will be very simple, he just needs to tell him how to do it, and he will be able to master quickly according to the method.

"It seems that after solving this trouble, you need to think about Haki, otherwise, the battle with the strong will always be a bit of a disadvantage." Su Yang murmured inwardly.

Soon, Sengoku wanted to take the initiative to attack again, but just as he was about to act, a voice suddenly sounded, causing him to stop his actions.

"Su Yang!!!!"

Everyone heard the news, and what caught their eyes was a woman with a Loli figure, no doubt, she was a tornado.

Under everyone's attention, the tornado landed on Su Yang's side.

Sengoku saw this scene, and he had a bad feeling in his heart. After hesitating for a few seconds, he still spoke.

"This woman....isn't this woman from the seventeenth episode of your Whitebeard Pirates?"9

"Is it important?"

Su Yang asked back, then set his eyes on Tornado, and continued: "Why are you running here, hurry up, and after I get rid of this annoying guy, we will meet on the boat."

·0 Flowers ·...

When Tornado heard Su Yang's words, his expression changed, and he said softly: "The boat has been burned by Marine. 99

When Su Yang heard this, he was startled, and the anger in his heart gradually rose.

"What about Emily and Anna?"

"They're all right, I let him hide." Tornado continued.

Tornado said this, so that Su Yang was relieved a lot.

"call!!!"

Su Yang sighed softly and said calmly, "It's fine if you're okay, now, go and gather with Emily and Anna.

Seeing Su Yang's serious look, Tornado nodded and said in a Tsundere tone: "Okay, okay, if you can't beat it, if you call us to support later, I will definitely not come.

....00

While speaking, she floated up again, and then disappeared at a speed that could be seen with the naked eye.

"Emily, Anna, Tornado, I thought our Marines already knew about your current 17th Division, but I never imagined that there are still three crew members.

"You guys are really hiding. However, it doesn't matter, as long as I take you down, it's not too late for me to find them. After all, they can't leave you and escape first. Sengoku snorted coldly.

"Tsk tsk...I have to say, you Marines are really a group of dogs!!!" Su Yang sneered and complained, and at this moment, Mu Luohan disappeared.

Sengoku paused slightly, he didn't know what Su Yang's actions meant.

"As I said, for this time, we came here after we were fully prepared.

Besides, are you going to be obedient at this time?"

Facing Sengoku's question, Su Yang grinned and replied, "I remember you asked me before if the giant was my ultimate, and I'll tell you now, of course not.

While speaking, Su Yang folded his hands together and shouted loudly.

"Sage Art·Wood Style·True Several Thousand Hands!!!"

The last update is here, asking for various data.

63 Then I will step over from your body (please complete order)

Before, the reason why this move was not used against Sengoku was because Su Yang didn't want to fight Sengoku at all.

His original plan was to find an opportunity to sneak away during the battle, but, obviously, it was too impractical to sneak away in this situation.

Sengoku has been keeping an eye on him, and as long as Su Yang is distracted, he can find an opportunity.

Earlier, Su Yang also tried, once he tried to run away, Sengoku could always separate him from Mu Luohan.

Of course, there is another reason that Sage Art·Wood Style·True Several Thousand Hands consumes a bit of stamina.

However, now, there is no way, the only thing that can be tried is this trick, Sage Art·Wood Style·True Several Thousand Hands.

"Four Zeros"

After Su Yang's voice fell, suddenly, under his feet, a huge cloud of smoke rushed towards the side where Sengoku was standing like a flood.

Sengoku was slightly startled, facing the huge smoke and dust, he was afraid of cheating, so he kept backing away.

Then, the ground shook violently, and the surrounding ground began to crack like a spider web.

Finally, a huge airflow is like a tide, with Su Yang as the center, spreading in all directions.

When Marine was resisting the air current, he suddenly felt that the sky seemed to darken, and he couldn't help but look up at the sky.

However, in the next second, his pupils shrank violently, and dense beads of sweat instantly secreted from his forehead.

He slumped down on the ground and shouted in panic.

"Big..... Everyone, look, then..... what is that???"

With such a shout, the surrounding Marines looked up.

Immediately following, at this moment, almost everyone was stunned.

Then, one...two...three...more and more Marines, slumped to the ground.

Undoubtedly, their expressions were all terrified.

Because what caught their eyes was a huge Senju Buddha statue.

"This...what the hell is this???"

"Hehehe...it's the power of God.""

"Gollum... Gollum, Damn it, Damn it, this guy is just a squad leader of the Whitebeard Pirates, why does he have such a god-like power.""

"This guy is definitely not human, how can humans have such power, this is definitely a demon, a monster.

Earlier, they had absolute confidence in Sengoku's ability to defeat Su Yang, but when the Senju Buddha statue appeared, they...all had some doubts in their hearts.

"War... Can Marshal Sengoku really fight this monster?"

"I...I don't know either, this thing, but...but it's countless times bigger than the previous one."

"It's over, if even Marshal Sengoku is unmatched, our chances of winning this battle have been greatly reduced."

"Bastards, how can you say such things, we have to trust Marshal Sengoku. 35

"Yeah, that's what I think too. It's not even a fight yet. You guys are shaking the hearts of the army here. If Marshal Sengoku finds out, there will only be a dead end. 35

A huge statue of Senju Buddha appeared, it was like a god coming into the world, and even on the far side of the island, part of the body of Senju Buddha statue can be seen.

Even when the Senju Buddha statue appeared, many citizens who were fleeing directly knelt down and began to kneel in the direction of the Senju Buddha statue.

To say that on this island, who knows the power of Senju Buddha statues best is Uchiha Madara.

Because, in the previous world, he had experienced the power of the Senju Buddha statue many times, and he was defeated by this move.

"Hashirama???"

The moment Uchiha Madara saw the Senju Buddha statue, she couldn't help calling out the name Hashirama.0

"Hashirama? 35

Kizaru paused, his fight with Uchiha Madara suspended from the moment Senju Buddha appeared.

"You mean, that huge Wooden Golem is Hashirama? However, it's really incredible to say that, in the world, there is such a move." Kizaru frowned, and for some reason, he always had a sense of unease a feeling of.

Uchiha Madara didn't pay any attention to Kizaru's words, but continued to mutter while looking at the Senju Buddha statue: "Hmph, it seems that the Hashirama guy has a deep impression on my mind, and when I see this, I think of him inexplicably.

Now, he has guessed who used this move, except Su Yang, who in this world will use Wood Style? The answer is....no one.

"I thought I could have a sweaty battle this time, but it seems unlikely.

Uchiha Madara muttered, and then quickly ran towards the Senju Buddha statue.

It didn't have much purpose, he just wanted to go over to see what was going on, worried that many people would besiege Su Yang, and that he would be unable to resist.

"Shhhhhh

However, just a few steps away, the road ahead was blasted open.

Immediately after that, Kizaru's laughter was heard.

"It's not good for you to run away in front of me. If his 4.6 people know about it, it will be difficult for me to explain it."

Uchiha Madara paused, then grinned: "Okay, then I'll walk over your body.

As soon as the voice fell, a stream of air emanated from Uchiha Madara's body, and his eyes also changed from Sangou Jade to Eternal Mangekyō.

Finally, a blue giant rose from the ground.

I saw someone asked in the comment area (Can the author answer a question for me? Did Ace Kano release water or was it weakened by you?

Fighting with Akainu for so long?)

Because the protagonist has a setting before, the summoned is not the peak state, it needs to be unlocked slowly, I remember it was written before, you can look back.

64 On the top of Huadan VS

Buddha form (please complete order)

"Sure enough, it's exactly the same as in the information, is it really scary? Mr. Madara." Kizaru stepped on the void, pretending to be scared.

Uchiha Madara stood on the inside of Susanoo's forehead, and said indifferently: "You guy, you have been talking nonsense from the beginning, which is really annoying."

After that, Uchiha Madara took the initiative to attack.

Meanwhile, Su Yang over there.

The appearance of the Senju Buddha statue not only shocked the ordinary Marine soldiers, but even Sengoku, who had experienced ups and downs and had seen strong winds and waves, was also shocked.

"This...what kind of power does this guy have, to be able to summon such a huge and weird Wooden Golem.

Sengoku's eyes were fixed on the Senju Buddha statue in front of him, and beads of sweat appeared on his cheeks unknowingly.

Not to mention that the group of Marine soldiers became uneasy after seeing the Senju Buddha statue, even Sengoku himself had a bad feeling.

I even doubted myself whether I could fix this giant in front of me.

"Sengoku, let's fight!

Su Yang stood on the forehead of the Senju Buddha statue and shouted loudly.

Sengoku didn't say a word, his mind was a little nervous at the moment, he wasn't stupid, he wouldn't go up and fight recklessly in the face of such a huge giant.

Reckless, not his fighting style.

However, Su Yang didn't care whether he wanted to pick it up or not, he just clapped his hands and shouted, "On top of Huadan!!!"

Accompanied by the voice.

"Kakaka..."

The huge Senju Buddha statue began to move.

Immediately after, the huge wooden arm behind the Buddha statue began to move.

"Hush shh 35

The next second, countless wooden arms hit Sengoku like a torrential rain.

Seeing this, Sengoku immediately turned around and started running, shouting at the Marines.

"Run.

"Boom.

"Boom.

"Boom..."

With an explosion, one after another huge crater appeared on the ground.

Although Sengoku dodged some of the Senju Buddha's attacks, Marine, who followed him, was not so lucky.

Dozens of them fell to the ground with one punch, and even those ordinary Vice Admirals couldn't hold up two punches, and they were directly smashed by their fists.

At first, Sengoku thought that with such a large body, Senju Buddha must have an advantage in agility.

However, until later, he found that his guess was wrong.

From being able to stably dodge from the front, then to barely dodging, then to being unable to dodge, and finally, Sengoku simply chose not to run, and was ready to confront him head-on.

"Come on, let me see who is the first to fall to the ground.

Sengoku roared, facing the wooden fist falling from the sky, he straightened his body, raised his fist, and then waved it.

"Clap clap clap..."

"Clap clap clap..."

The wooden fist collided with his fist, and since Su Yang did not add Armament Haki to the fist of the Senju Buddha statue, the defense was still insufficient, and it shattered directly.

However, if the Senju Buddha statue is also assimilated and enters the Sage Mode, Su Yang's current strength will not be able to support it at all.

However, although it is said that the defense is insufficient now, the problem is not big, he has a lot of fists.

The fist-to-fist collision lasted less than a minute, and the ground that Sengoku stepped on was already seriously dented.

The situation is also the same as when he first started dodging. From the beginning, he can take all of them, then slowly he can barely take them, and finally he can't finish them.

Just after defeating the wooden fist in front, the wooden fist that made a circle hit him directly on the back.

Although the body does not fall, but the position has been messed up.

After that, he couldn't handle it directly.

"Drink!!!! I will never fall here!!!!" During the bombardment, Sengoku's roar continued to sound.

However, there was one thing that Su Yang admired. After he couldn't handle it, even though countless huge wooden fists hit him, his body was still standing.

However, after another continuous attack, Sengoku's body that was standing just now finally fell to the ground.

As punch after punch fell, the concave pit was getting bigger at a speed visible to the naked eye.

It continued for a long time before the bombardment stopped.

And the Senju Buddha statue disappeared the moment the bombardment stopped.

In the big pit, thick smoke billowed, continuously spewing out.

The battle seemed to have ended, and the surroundings became quiet.

Those Marine soldiers who were lucky enough to survive in the wooden fist swallowed hard, their eyes focused on the big pit not far ahead.

"Battle... Marshal Sengoku!!!!"

As soon as he finished speaking, "Bang.....", Sengoku rushed out of the smoke and landed outside the big pit, but now he is no longer in the form of a Buddha, but has returned to a human state.

The clothes on his body were already in tatters, and the whole body was covered with Bloodline, especially on the forehead, where the bright red blood still remained.

400 "Great.... Great, Marshal Sengoku hasn't fallen yet."

"I knew, how could Marshal Sengoku fall so easily?"

Sengoku didn't care about their words, his eyes glanced around, but he couldn't find Su Yang.

He just wanted to run and continue to pursue, but suddenly at this moment, a large mouthful of blood spit out directly from his mouth.

Yes.... Although Sengoku doesn't seem to have any injuries on the outside, but after the continuous baptism of wooden fists, his body has been injured inside.

He covered his chest, staggered a few steps, and knelt directly on the ground.

"Damn, I felt needle sticks all over my body."

"Marshal Sengoku!!!"

After seeing Sengoku like this, the Marines who survived not far away came running.

"Marshal Sengoku, are you alright."

Sengoku raised his brows, endured the pain, and said solemnly: "I'm fine, you hurry up to chase, absolutely can't let them run away, by the way, let Garp and the others pull out their hands and do their best to deal with Su Yang first."

"As ordered. 99

65 The Sin of Pride and the

Marine Hero

Sengoku looked at the Marine soldier who was gradually disappearing from his line of sight, the originally deep pupils, at this moment, there was a hint of helplessness.

He stood up staggeringly, looking at the riddled earth, the ruins that were still burning with fireworks, and the countless innocent lives.

At this moment, he was actually a little suspicious. Could it be that the encirclement and suppression of the Seventeenth Division of the Whitebeard Pirates was a wrong decision?

After being silent for a long time, Sengoku sighed softly and said sadly:

"In war, people always have to sacrifice their lives, if they are kept, it will only harm more innocent lives."

"Ta Ta Ta..." 5

Su Yang was running fast at the moment, looking behind him from time to time to see if the guy Sengoku was catching up.

When he saw that there was no one behind him, he sat behind a rock and wanted to take out the phone bug to contact Tornado.

However, it was found that the phone bug had changed and could not be used at all.

"Hey, that's really bad luck."

After throwing away the phone bug, Su Yang got up and hurried to the direction in front of his boat.

This time, his luck was not bad. When he arrived at the place where the boat was docked before, he saw that no one was there, and just as he was about to leave, Tornado flew over with Emily and Anna.

"Su Yang!!!"

After falling with this sound, the three tornadoes have also landed on the ground.

"Sir Su Yang, are you alright?"

Emily and Anna spoke out at the same time and asked worriedly.

"It's okay, it's just a little too much physical exertion. 35

"It's fine, but our ship has already been burned by Marine, and Tornado also avenged the ship burning and brought all Marines to justice~ Anna said.

Su Yang nodded: "I have already heard Tornado say it, and it has already happened, and it is inevitable.

While speaking, Su Yang came to the beach and saw him clapping his hands.

"Bang..." A ship of the same size as before appeared out of thin air in the sea.

However, this ship has no sails, no pirate flag, nor some internal parts of a normal ship, as well as equipment and the like.

To put it bluntly, this ship is an empty shell.

"Okay...awesome."

When Anna and Emily saw the ship that appeared out of thin air, their eyes widened in shock, and their eyes were full of envy.

"Hello Su Yang.

Tornado walked to Su Yang's side, floated up, patted him on the shoulder, and said angrily: "You have this ability, you should have said it earlier, it made me unhappy for a long time."

Su Yang sighed helplessly, and then explained: "This ship is just an empty shell, and it cannot be used as a normal ship at all."

"what???"

Tornado looked stunned, and then complained: "That's useless, what did you create it for..

Before the tornado had finished speaking, she suddenly seemed to have thought of something, and then looked at Su Yang with a look of disgust.

"Oh, I see, I know you're uneasy.

Su Yang shrugged and said helplessly: "No way, Tornado, you are the only one on the ship who can use this power, so it's not too late, we have to pick up our companions, and then leave here, save our lives.

Something went wrong.

Indeed, what Su Yang said was right, Marine probably still had reinforcements, and the longer he stayed here, the more variables there would be.

Now is not the time to fight Marine for a life-and-death fight, so there's no need to risk your life in a fight with little benefit.

"Well, since you are the captain, I will promise you.

Although Tornado said so, she was very happy when she heard Su Yang say that only she has this ability.

However, for a Tsundere Loli, it's obviously impossible to hear anything too good from her mouth.

"Come on board! Let's go."

While Su Yang was talking, he went up first.

The tornado uses super powers to send the things that he bought, Emily and Anna to the boat. After doing this, he finally gets on the boat.

Finally, with the green light emitting from the whole ship, the next second, the ship floated directly.

"Where shall we go first. 35 Tornado asked.

Su Yang didn't answer right away, to be honest, he didn't know where the rest of the people were, but, through the movement of several battles, he roughly guessed that his team members were fighting.

"Let's go to the combat area closest to us first. " Su Yang pointed to the right side.

"Oh? Where Ace Kano fought. Okay."

"You know? 35

"I just went to see it."

"Then you still ask where to go first, don't you want to say hello to Ace Kano when you go there, and then come back after picking up the one who is far away, and run around in vain."

Su Yang couldn't help but complained, he didn't know, but the tornado was different, this guy knew and asked.

Tornado put his hands on his hips, although he felt that it was his own problem, but hey, everyone knew it, and he refused to admit that he was wrong.

"Come on, that's not impossible.

"It can be.

"Why are you scolding me?"

"I don't! 35

"You said no. 55

to make

Meanwhile, Ace Kano's side of the fight (of four's) tongues.

As time went by, on Ace Kano's side, he gradually felt that something was wrong.

However, Garp's strength is very strong, his physical skills are tough enough, and Haki's side is tough enough, it is impossible for the two sides to win in a short time.

"I really didn't expect that you could last so long when you look like you are about to wither?" Ace Kano was carrying the divine axe Rita, with that arrogant expression on his face.

"The old man admits that you do have some skills, but that's all." Garp said with a sneer.

Today's fight with Ace Kano made him feel a little bit back to when he played against Roger and Rocks.

It's late, it's late, the author can't hold on today, rest early, get up early tomorrow to write, woo woo woo, ask for some data.

66 Kizaru: Good guy, I was directly beaten by the group

(please order all)

For a moment, Garp even felt that it didn't matter whether he won or lost, he just wanted to get back that warm feeling.

"boom!!!"

During the fight between the two, Garp found an opportunity and punched Ace Kano directly in the face.

Ace Kano's head tilted slightly, blood spilled from the corner of his mouth, and the next second, he also threw his fist and punched Garp in the face.

Although the process is different, the two's mouth Kakuzu overflowed with blood.

One as the Marine hero and the other as the sin of arrogance, can make each other bleed each other, one can imagine the power of this punch.

"Hahahaha...I haven't felt this way in a long time.

Garp became more and more powerful, and just wanted to continue punching, but with a sudden green light from his body, he followed, and his movements stiffened for a second.

What followed was that he was kicked out by Ace Kano.

"Um?"

Ace Kano paused slightly and looked up at the sky. At this time, a ship floating in the sky was slowly descending.

"Su Yang?"

"Ace Kano, let's go.

Su Yang stood on the ship's guardrail and spoke gently towards Ace Kano below.

However, before Wen 400 Scarno could answer, Garp had already climbed up from the ground, patted the dust on his body, and then said something inconceivable.

"Su Yang, why are you here, shouldn't you be fighting Sengoku? 99

"That guy Sengoku has been killed by me."9

Su Yang said calmly.

Of course, this is his nonsense, and the reason is very simple, deliberately disturbing Garp's concentration.

After all, old Garp can be tricky if he's going to keep you wholeheartedly.

It will definitely take a lot of work to get rid of.

After Garp Su Yang's words, he frowned slightly, a little dubious.

It was his plan to encircle the Whitebeard Pirates 17th.

If he was still alive, then he would definitely stop Su Yang desperately.

However, now Su Yang has appeared here, but there is no sign of Sengoku.

Maybe... It's really the same as what Su Yang said, and it's not impossible.

However, Garp also felt that with Sengoku's strength, even the Four Emperors could not be solved in a short period of time.

During this moment of his contemplation, Ace Kano has boarded the flying ship.

"Stay with me. 35

Garp roared at the rising ship, then jumped, covering Armament Haki with his hands.

Seeing Garp approaching, Tornado originally wanted to use his superpower to control Garp, but it couldn't play a big role. (Don't be fooled, the setting unlocking degree is not enough.)

At the critical moment, Ace Kano stood up and saw him raise the divine axe Rita, and his own magic power kept pouring in.

Finally, he said lightly: "Superslash"

When the words fell, I saw him wave, and the huge golden light blade fell.

Garp is different from Sengoku, he doesn't have as many concerns as Sengoku, he just sticks hard.

"Boom!!!!"

In mid-air, a violent explosion was directly caused.

The powerful airflow began to spread in all directions.

The difference is that on the ground, Garp can't fly. After being hit, he fell directly to the ground.

"Garp, if things get unpredictable, maybe one day, you'll thank me from the bottom of your heart.

As Su Yang's words fell, the ship was already flying higher and higher, and even if Garp wanted to chase, the chances of him being able to catch up were very slim.

"Damn it!!!

Garp stood up, watching the ship receding, and there was nothing he could do about it.

(baeg)..

As for Su Yang, the next rendezvous was much smoother. When Su Yang went to Diablo's side, Crane and Momousagi didn't dare to chase, so they could only watch Su Yang escape.

Because they knew very well that if Su Yang and the others fought together, they would have no chance of winning at all.

However, when the boat went to Uchiha Madara, Kizaru wanted to chase after him, but after being beaten by a group behind him, he used Sparkling fruit's ability and ran away cursing.

In this way, Su Yang and the others left successfully and smoothly.

Not long after, the marines of the island all came together.

In this battle, they did not capture any members of the 17th Division.

Instead, they suffered heavy losses. They brought more than 2,000 Marines, and only 200 survived.

"Sengoku, this time, I have to say, you have a big problem, you let that kid Su Yang run away, so you can go to my side to support that Ace Kano, and in the end there is no way, those guys will fly and let them run. 39

As soon as they got together, Garp went straight to Sengoku.

Sengoku sighed deeply, he felt a little wronged too, he couldn't tell how painful it was.

Su Yang, that guy is human? Te Niang's, not human at all, he is a monster.

"Mr. Garp, it's all right for you. When he came to my side, but all the staff, I chased after him. After being beaten by the group, if it wasn't for a flash of inspiration behind me, I used my Devil Fruit ability to run, I'm afraid I will end up like Sakazuki." Kizaru said slowly.

Sengoku heard that, and his heart was complicated. He knew that the failure of this battle was because he let Su Yang go, which resulted in a series of things.

"That kid...I couldn't stop him at all. I really didn't expect that at such a young age, not only did he have a tough body, but he even developed his Devil Fruit to such a terrifying level." Sengoku said solemnly.

"It seems that things are far more serious than we expected. Sengoku this time, your plan is still hasty. Next, we have to face the entire Whitebeard Pirates." Crane said, worriedly.

"A battle between Marine and Whitebeard...is inevitable. Momousagi also said.

Sengoku sat on the rock and looked at the ruins with a look of helplessness.

The update is coming, beg for full order, and subscribe automatically.

67 Akainu: You all play me, right?

At the same time, a certain island.

Marine Hospital.

"Bang bang bang... 35

Outside the door, there was a crisp knock on the door.

What followed was a loud voice.

"Akainu Admiral, news has come back from the front."

"Come in.

After receiving the order, Marine soldiers hurriedly opened the door and came to Akainu.

"What's the result?"

Akainu's ferocious look made the Marine soldier's back go cold, and he swallowed hard to calm himself down.

"Things didn't go well, although Marshal Sengoku personally went to work, but.

"but...

"But what? You bastard"

"But.... the result was unable to retain the 17th Division of the Whitebeard Pirates. 35

"The Seventeenth Division of the Whitebeard Pirates, no one was injured, and our losses were serious.""

Hearing this, Akainu was stunned for a moment, then became inexplicably irritable, grabbed the Marine soldier's collar, and said with an angry tone.

"How is that possible? How is this possible, this is absolutely impossible, Sengoku, Garp, Kizaru, and Crane have all shot, how can we lose!!!

That Marine soldier was caught like this, with a look of grievance on his face, he was just a message, it's useless for you to yell at me.

However, he naturally did not dare to say so, as he had followed Akainu for many years, he naturally knew Akainu's temper.

"Akainu Admiral, Akainu Admiral, these battle situations are all from there. As for whether it is true or not, I don't know."

The Marine soldier hurriedly explained, afraid that it was too late, Akainu threw him directly from the window.

"Bring, the phone bug, and let me ask it myself.""

"Yes Yes Yes Yes!!!"

Akainu casually dropped the Marine soldier on the ground.

And while he quickly got up, he bowed to Akainu, and then hurried out.

After a while, the phone bug was handed over to him, and soon, he dialed.

However, what I heard from Sengoku was exactly the same as what the Marine soldier said before.

And Akainu's face, now, is naturally extremely difficult to see.

"Sengoku! You told me that you sent a lineup like this to fight against the 17th Division of the Whitebeard Pirates, and you couldn't beat the Whitebeard guy's 17th Division, do you think I would believe it??? ?"

Apparently, what Akainu suspects now is that Sengoku released the water, which led to the escape of the 17th Division of Whitebeard.

Otherwise, with their Marine lineup, let alone annihilate them all, even if you annihilate one person, Akainu will believe it more, but if you say that the entire squad runs away, he Akainu will definitely not believe it.

"Sakazuki, I know you have a grudge against the 17th Division of the Whitebeard Pirates, and I also know that the 17th Division is a great threat to Marine, World government, and the world, but we really can't stop them. Sengoku said slowly.

Of course, how could Akainu, who is so angry now, listen to what Sengoku said, there is only one thought in his mind, and that is... You're a motherfucker, you all play me, right?? ?

"Just keep looking for reasons. The Seventeenth Division escaped this time, and next time you won't find any chance at all. Moreover, they will become stronger and stronger, and finally set off a big war that no one can stop, and this All thanks to you, Sengoku."

Hearing Akainu's words, Sengoku was also angry and said directly:

"Sakazuki, shut up, I'm Marshal Marine!!!"

Akainu is also true, and immediately hangs up the phone bug.

As for Su Yang's side, their boat is still floating high in the sky, and the direction is going back, and the destination is another island of the original island.

The distance is not too far. Judging from the speed of the flight, it is estimated that it will take about an hour to arrive.

"I never imagined that Marine would give us such a large gift.

Su Yang stood at the stern, leaning on the ship's railing, staring down.

·0 for flowers·

Marine shot too fast, coming soon, completely beyond Su Yang's expectations, the 17th Division of his own came out not long ago, Marine did not hesitate to encircle and suppress such a force, I am afraid, this is the first in history.

"It seems that Marine has quite a few experts." Uchiha Madara said indifferently, from his eyes, it could be seen that this guy was happy.

"My lords, are you all uninjured? Emily also asked worriedly at this time.

Everyone shook their heads.

Most of the people suffered from skin trauma, and skin trauma has no effect at all for them, and it can even be said that they are not injured at all.

"Next, I have a hunch that the Marine or the World government will greatly increase the chance of them taking action against us. When you go to the island in the future, you should pay more attention, and you need to leave people down to watch the boat. Su Yang explained. a sound.

....00

He didn't want to see it, because all the crew went out, and the boat was burnt when they came back.

"Speaking of which, these Marines are really Damn it, and they can do such despicable and nasty things. 33 Tornado groaned.

Hearing this, Su Yang couldn't help laughing, this kind of thing really doesn't matter to Marine or the World government, they have even more despicable means.

"However, they increase the chance of coming to find us. I don't think it matters, but they can be a tool to relieve boredom along the way."

Uchiha Madara leaned back against the ship's guardrail and said lightly.

As soon as the words fell, Su Yang was silent for a few seconds, and then grinned: "Okay, Madara, what I'm going to say next, you must be interested."

"Um?"

As soon as Su Yang said this, everyone looked at Su Yang.

Su Yang, on the other hand, said calmly: "Since Marine gave us such a big gift, it's normal for us to have contacts, so we also send a gift back to them. Marine."

There is another chapter, the author tries to write it before 12 o'clock.

68 Team's new bounty

(please order)

Hearing this, Uchiha Madara suddenly became a little more energetic, and after standing up straight, he asked.

"What? Next, is it our turn to attack their Marine?"

Diablo nodded to Uchiha Madara's words: "It seems....a very good decision.

Tornado didn't have much interest, she shrugged: "I don't care, you can decide.

However, just when everyone thought they were going to attack Marine's place next.

However, Su Yang shook his head, and then said calmly, "It's not interesting to attack Marine."

"Then we????"

Before they could finish their words, Su Yang interrupted immediately, and he continued: "If we want to attack, we must attack the important "April 13" place, and this important place is naturally the seat of the World Government headquarters, the 'Holy Land' Mariejois'"

"Holy Land Mariejois???"

You look at me and I look at you, obviously, they have never heard of them.

"Yes, it's equivalent to their old nest." Su Yang explained.

As soon as he heard the words 'Old Nest', Uchiha Madara immediately became excited: "Then what are you waiting for? Let's go now.

Su Yang shook his head: "Today is definitely not going to work, let's rest on the island for a day or two, but you must keep in mind when attacking the Holy Land Mariejois, you can't be wary.

Indeed, today's battle is quite exhausting. If you immediately attack the Holy Land Mariejois, it must not be a wise choice.

Of course, there are several reasons for the plan to attack the holy site of Mariejois.

First, their ship has been destroyed, and it is too troublesome to build a new ship. Even if they get a ship, they need to find a coater again, and then it takes too much time, which is completely uneconomical.

The second is the question of returning the salute. Marine attacked Su Yang and the others, which caught Su Yang by surprise, and when they attacked the Holy Land Mariejois, Marine and the World Government were caught off guard.

I'm afraid, they never dreamed that Su Yang would make such a decision. However, there is a reason why Su Yang said he can't fight, although the holy place Mariejois is said to be inhabited by Celestial Dragons like trash.

However, as a traveler, Su Yang knows very well that in the Holy Land Mariejois, there are still unknown 'Five Elders' and the ultimate behind-the-scenes boss, Yim!!!

"Whatever you say, I'll go get a drink of water first?" Uchiha Madara stretched, and he felt quite happy with the fight today.

"Drinking water? What are you thinking? This boat is just an empty shell, nothing, oh... No, wrong, there are things I bought before. The tornado said neither salty nor bland.

"What? I want something to eat. I'm just hungry." Uchiha Madara was not polite and asked directly.

"No, only women's clothes, if you want, I don't mind wearing them for you. 95 Uchiha Madara was numb, so he ignored the tornado, and while walking, he said softly, "Forget it, I'll go to sleep and let me know when I land on the island.

Time flies so fast, two days have passed in a flash.

New World, on the Moby Dick.

The captain of the fifth division of the Whitebeard Pirates, Bista, took out 100 Baileys, put them into the newsbird's bag, and then took out a newspaper.

As soon as it was opened, the wanted notice caught in the newspaper fell to the ground.

"Why do these newspapers keep putting the wanted notice in the newspaper? Can't we do something else?" Bista complained a few times while picking up the wanted notice scattered on the ground.

He didn't see it clearly in front, but when he saw it clearly in the back, he paused and wondered, "Why so many?"

Originally, he didn't care too much, because he saw that the portraits in the two wanted notices were of people he didn't know, but just when he wanted to pass.

He was stunned for a moment, because..... he saw the three words
Whitebeard.

"White... Whitebeard???"

At this moment, Bista seemed to have thought of something, and immediately picked up all the wanted notices on the ground, and then flipped through them. Sure enough, he saw Su Yang's wanted notice.

"Captain of the Seventeenth Division of the Whitebeard Pirates, Su Yang, a bounty...a, ten, a hundred, a thousand, a million, a million, a billion, a billion??"

Ten. Ten... one billion eighty-six million baileys???"

At this moment, Bista's mouth was trembling when he said these words, and now, the only thought in his mind was whether it was Marine's mistake.

After a few seconds of silence, he looked down.

"A member of the Seventeenth Division of the Whitebeard Pirates, Uchiha Madara, with a bounty of 600 million Baileys."

"A member of the Seventeenth Division of the Whitebeard Pirates, Diablo, with a bounty of 550 million Bailey."

"The Seventeenth Division of the Whitebeard Pirates, Ace Kano, Bounty, 845 million Bailey. 99

"A member of the 17th Division of the Whitebeard Pirates, Tornado, a bounty, 100 million Bailey.

In the end, Emily and Anna are also 100 million Baileys. There is no other reason. Although the three of Tornado have never fought with the famous Marine, they firmly believe that Su Yang will not want useless people as team members. In principle, the starting point is directly 100 million.

Although Marine lost 4.6 this time, the only good thing is that they have all mastered the names of everyone on the Su Yang boat.

Bista immediately held the wanted notice in his hand. At this time, he still felt extremely unbelievable. How long has it been since Su Yang's bounty has risen again?

And the increase is so outrageous, even the players have increased so outrageously.

What exactly happened in this?

Obviously, Bista couldn't guess.

"Daddy, Daddy! Big deal!!!"

Bista shouted and ran to where Whitebeard was.

It's late, it's late, I'm sorry to the readers, the code is too slow and the time is exceeded.

69 The dread of the seventeenth,

you don't know at all

(please complete the order)

However, before Bista reached Whitebeard's bedroom, he was stopped by the captain of the first division, Marco, and said solemnly.

"Bista, my old injury relapsed last night, and I didn't sleep all night. I only fell asleep when it was almost early morning. Let my father have a good rest and try not to disturb him as much as possible. 35

"The big thing, let's talk about it when Dad wakes up.

When Bista heard it, he felt that the words made sense, and what he wanted to tell Whitebeard was not an urgent matter, and it was not too late to say it after Whitebeard woke up.

"Oh, you've worked hard, Brother Marko, you've been guarding Dad for a whole night, so go and have a good rest." Bistapin said peacefully.

Marco squinted and smiled, and then said, "I don't care, this tiredness is nothing compared to Dad, but unfortunately, Dad's pain, as sons, we can't share any of it.

Bista nodded in agreement, originally because of Su Yang, he was a little excited, but after listening to Marco's words, his mood became complicated.

"By the way, what are you going to tell Dad?" Marko continued to ask.

"Oh, yes, I almost forgot what I was here for just listening to you talk about Dad."

At this moment, Bista's face forced a smile with difficulty, and handed the newspaper and the wanted warrant to Marko.

"Look at it.

Marco was slightly startled, staring at the wanted notice and the newspaper in Bista's hands. After a moment of silence, he seemed to have an answer in his heart.

"Isn't this... another wanted order for that kid Su Yang?"

"You guessed it right!"

"What did this guy do recently? Since the bounty changes so frequently."

Marcona was at a loss as he stretched out his hand to take the newspaper and the wanted notice from Bista's hands.

Immediately following, he looked around, and the first wanted notice was Su Yang's. At first he didn't pay much attention to it, but when he saw the bounty, he was stunned.

At first glance, he thought he was wrong, he rubbed his eyes and looked at Bista, who smiled at him.

Marko took a deep breath and looked at the bounty again. When he confirmed that the bounty was one billion eighty-six million Bailey, he was stunned.

"Ten... One billion eighty-six million Bailey?????" Marko looked at Bista in disbelief.

"That's right, Su Yang's bounty has been directly increased to one billion eighty-six million Bailey in a short period of time. I'm ashamed to say that I accompanied my father through countless battles and worked so hard. The bounty that has been placed for a long time is just so lost.

"As for Su Yang, it didn't take long for him to go out, he started from zero and instantly increased to more than one billion.

As Bista talked, the more he felt in his heart, the more he felt that he wanted to take his fifth division and went out to practice like Su Yang.

Marco also had a dead fish face, he reached out and patted Bista's shoulder and comforted: "If you say that, my face will have no place to rest, although Su Yang's bounty has not surpassed me for the time being. , However, if it grows at such a frequent rate, it will be a matter of time."

"By the way, you continue to look below." Bista reminded.

Marco didn't think too much, and continued to look down.

However, when he saw one high bounty after another, he doubted his life.

This is so special that people can't live????

Are all the bounties ridiculously high?

Dad? Is this what you are talking about or the trainee captain???

With such a sudden leap, it has become the division with the highest total reward in the Whitebeard Pirates.

"This guy Su Yang is weird, I'm quite curious, why is this guy Mao's bounty changing so frequently, what did he do?" Marko said in a puzzled way as he opened the newspaper. Look to see if there are any relevant clues in it.

However, he was very lucky that it was actually written in the newspaper, but... the process was modified by the World Government using some means.

"The Seventeenth Division of the Whitebeard Pirates attacked Marine Admiral stationed on XXX Island, and finally fled in embarrassment?"

The title was recited in his mouth, and the next second, Marko burst into laughter: "Su Yang, this kid is really skinny."

Bista was a little worried and said softly: "It is indeed a little skinny, but this is too dangerous. If something happens, the consequences will be disastrous. After all, it is Marine Admiral.

"Indeed, it's a bit too messy, it seems that I have to remind him." Marko said lightly.

If Sengoku heard Marko say this to Bista here, he would probably frown and scolded: Bah, you are too embarrassed to say that they are the crew of the Whitebeard Pirates, the seventeenth is terrible, you don't know it at all .

In such a short period of time, Su Yang's bounty has become more than 1 billion, and all the members also have a high bounty. This news still surprised the other three Four Emperors.

New World, Cake Island, somewhere in the lobby.

Charlotte Katakuri, one of the 'Dessert Three Stars' of the BIGMOM Pirates, entered the lobby with permission.

"Mom, it seems that Whitebeard's side has been restless recently. The newly established 17th Division, in a short period of time, the bounty of all members has skyrocketed. I suspect that the Whitebeard guy may be planning something. 33 Charlotte Katakuri said slowly.

Sitting in front of Charlotte Katakuri is a huge and fat old woman, and she is not only Charlotte Katakuri's mother, but also the captain of the BIGMOM Pirates. One of the Four Emperors of the New World.

Originally Charlotte Linlin didn't care, but when he finally heard the three words Whitebeard from Charlotte Katakuri, the smile on her face disappeared as fast as the naked eye could see?

"Whitebeard.

Brothers, I went out today, sorry for the update.

70 Ace Kano: How about enough

Haki? (For full order)

For some reason, when Charlotte Linlin pronounced the name in her mouth, she was inexplicably angry in her heart.

In fact, it stands to reason that their relationship should be good, after all, Charlotte Linlin, Kaido, and Whitebeard were members of the 'Rocks Pirate' many years ago.

And Charlotte Linlin is Kaido's benefactor.

However, I don't know what happened, the former partners have now become enemies, and the two sides will kill each other when they meet.

"Yes, Mom." Katakuri nodded and said softly. (I won't write the last name Charlotte. As for Auntie, she is different, so I will keep it. After all, writing Auntie feels a bit inconsistent, and writing Linlin is even more inconsistent.)

"Well, well, well..

At this point, Charlotte Linlin laughed, her laughter sounded creepy.

"For so many years, I haven't seen any movement from Whitebeard's side.

This time, a new 17th Division was suddenly established, obviously planning some kind of conspiracy. 95

"Yes, Mom, I think so too." Katakuri replied calmly. After speaking, he seemed to have thought of something, and then immediately added.

later, if Whitebeard knew about this, he would obviously go to war against Marine desperately.

When the time comes, the sea will be stained with blood, and Whitebeard may not be able to say goodbye because of this.

Therefore, after thinking about it later, I felt that it was unnecessary, and I had to find the face I lost by myself.

Of course, he didn't tell Marco about his plan to attack the Holy Land Mariejois.

If you talk to Marco, maybe he will directly fry.

And it is possible to shout at Su Yang: I told you not to stab Marine Admiral's ass, you said yes? You ended up stabbing World government headquarters in the ass.

Of course, there is another reason that once Marco knows about it, it is equivalent to being known by Whitebeard, and Whitebeard naturally won't let Su Yang take a risk.

"It's good to know, Su Yang brother, my father has recently relapsed from an old injury, try not to cause anything too big, I'm afraid his old man's heart can't stand it." Marko ordered again.

"Okay, I see. 99

"In addition, I taught you the Armament Haki and Observation Haki methods to practice well. When I wait for you to come back, how about a fight?"

"Don't worry, I definitely will."

"Don't be discouraged at the beginning, I also figured it out after pondering for a while. Armament Haki and Observation Haki both need time to settle down to learn."

"Okay, Marko, don't worry, I will never be discouraged." Su Yang smiled, looked at Armament Haki's right arm, pouted and shook his head.

In fact, whether it is Armament Haki or Observation Haki, Su Yang has already met the requirements. The reason why he will not use it is because he does not know how to use it.

Marko told Su Yang how to use Armament Haki, he basically did as Marko said, and he mastered it immediately.

As for Conqueror's Haki, Marco doesn't have it and can't tell how to use it, so Su Yang is not sure if he owns Conqueror's Haki or not.

`Okay, that's all I have to say, I have to go see Dad,

Su Yang nodded and hung up the phone bug.

Since getting the training Armament Haki and Armament Haki's training method from Marko's side.

Su Yang also mastered Armament Haki at an extremely fast speed. As for Observation Haki, although I feel that there is no problem, I still need to find someone to try the effect delay.

The plan to attack the Holy Land Mariejois was also postponed. The reason was naturally that Su Yang wanted all his team members to learn the practical abilities of this world, Haki.

"What? Haki, what is that?" Tornado asked suspiciously.

On the deck of the boat, Su Yang brought everyone together.

"Haki? Do you still need to learn about Haki? Su Yang, I feel like I'm enough of Haki. 35 Ace Kano said while waving the divine axe Rita in his hand, and went into the sea for a few minutes. Knife.

The sea was cut open in an instant, followed by healing at a speed that the naked eye could see.

"How? Is it very Haki?"

There is one more update, the author will write it as soon as possible, if everyone thinks it is possible, please give more support. As for the comments raised by readers in the comment area, the author has already made a number in his mind, and will make arrangements in the future.

71 All members set off, the destination Holy Land Mariejois

(please book all)

Su Yang looked at Ace Kano with a speechless expression, the corners of his mouth twitched a few times, this guy, as expected, is always the best way to communicate only at night.

The most important thing is that this is not the most angry, the most angry is that Diablo and the others think that the Haki mentioned by Su Yang is exactly what Ace Kano said.

"Idiot, if it's really as simple as what you said, I don't think Su Yang needs to talk about it. Who among us wouldn't know about the kind of Haki you're talking about? Uchiha Madara complained.

"Aren't Emily and Anna?" Ace Kano smiled and politely pointed to Emily and Anna who were standing at the door.

Su Yang sighed, then shrugged: "Okay, good to say, don't say it again next time. 55

After a pause, Su Yang continued: "Madara is right, the Haki in my mouth is not the kind of Haki in Ace Kano's mouth. 35

"Instead, a very practical stunt, in this world, there are three kinds of Haki.

"One, Armament Haki, is a Haki that can increase his own defense and attack power, and can catch the flowing body of the Logia Devil Fruit.

"For example, just like last time, Ace Kano fought against Akainu, Ace Kano thought he killed Akainu, but in fact, he confuses you with his Logia elementalization ability.

"But if you learn Armament Haki, it's not the same, it's definitely a punch to the flesh."

Su Yang didn't know about Akainu before, but after encountering Marine's encirclement and suppression, Uchiha Madara mentioned it and Su Yang knew about it later.

"The second, Observation Haki, can sharpen your five senses, detect the breath of surrounding creatures, and Haki's emotional changes, and can also be used to predict and avoid danger."

"Thirdly, Conqueror's Haki, this one is quite special, it is innate, it can neither be acquired by training nor inherited, and it can only be determined by one's own destiny (baeg) whether one has it or not.

"And Conqueror's, even if it can be controlled freely, cannot be strengthened by exercise, only by the user's own growth."

Su Yang only explained it to them once, and everyone basically understood it.

Moreover, relying on the method explained by Su Yang, their Master was very fast and basically did not spend too much time.

Holy Land Mariejois.

Pan Ancient City, inside the splendid hall.

The supreme leader of the World government, the 'Five Elders' is standing in various places in the hall.

Their eyes were always on Sengoku sitting on the sofa.

Sengoku, on the other hand, didn't say a word. After all, after losing the battle, there was nothing to say.

"Sengoku, don't you...don't you explain it? After all, Marine sent a different lineup, but in the end...it was one of the Whitebeard Pirates. A team with less than ten people is so embarrassed?"

An old man in a black suit, with curly white hair, a fluffy white beard, a flat hat and a scar on the left side of his face said calmly.

"In this battle with the pirates, you, Sengoku, have indeed brought shame to Marine and the World government, and even, in the end...we still let the World government wipe their ass." Wearing a dark blue suit, the old man with long straight white hair and a long beard added.

Of course, what he said was to slaughter everyone on that island, in order to hide this failed siege by the World government and Marine.

Furthermore, the 17th Division of the Whitebeard Pirates blamed all the filthy things massacred by the World Government.

"Okay, this is the end of the matter, and there is no way to do it. There is no need to continue to investigate the loser and the winner. It's just...

Sengoku, we want to hear the reason for the failure. 39 A man wearing a white Taoist robe , the bald man with glasses and a long knife in his hand said gently.

"The reason for the failure, of course, is...lack!

When the Five Elders heard this, they laughed out loud.

"Do you know what you're talking about? Sengoku? As the marshal of Naval Headquarters, you actually said that you lost to a squad? Besides, you can be regarded as a gathering of masters in this round of encirclement and suppression."

"They...are completely different from the enemies I've encountered before. Whether it's moves or abilities, I don't think even the World government can give a reasonable explanation. 55 Sengoku asked back. one sound.

For all the weird moves of Su Yang's group, Sengoku wrote it in the report and let Five Elders watch it.

Seeing that the Five Elders were silent, Sengoku continued to speak: "If one day in the future, if you fight against them, I advise you to be careless. After all, if you do, it will easily ruin your life."

The Five Elders didn't take it seriously, and said calmly.

"It's just a bunch of little devils, and they don't even have the qualifications to let us shoot.

Sengoku just smiled faintly and fell silent again.

"Okay, Sengoku, no matter what, you've worked hard, give yourself a vacation and have a good rest. As for the Seventeenth Division of the Whitebeard Pirates, I'll have a chance to deal with it in the future.

In the blink of an eye, a few days have passed.

In these days, almost everyone is very busy, and everyone is constantly exercising their Haki.

There is no doubt that Su Yang and the others have become even more powerful after learning Haki.

Moreover, since the battle with Sengoku and the others, Marine's side seems to have calmed down, and basically there is not much movement.

On the coast, Su Yang and his party gathered again on the deck of the ship.

"Okay, it's 10 o'clock, let's go, destination, Holy Land... Mariejois."

The update is here, sorry guys, it's late.

72 The 17th Ship Doctor of Whitebeard Regiment was born

(please complete order)

After Su Yang's voice fell, Tornado began to use his superpowers, and along with his whole body, a green light appeared, and immediately, the whole ship also appeared green.

As soon as the boat floated up, suddenly, a prompt sounded beside Su Yang's ear.

[Ding... Detect nearby summon fragments!]

When he heard this, Su Yang was stunned and quickly said, "Wait first.

Hearing that, Tornado stopped controlling the ship's flight, and then looked at Su Yang with a puzzled expression.

At the moment, Su Yang was still confused. In the past, the summoning fragments were always in battle, and the chances of them falling were even greater.

However, this time..... even when no one was fighting, the summoning fragments were also dropped.

However, Su Yang wasn't too surprised, just a little surprised.

After all, he clearly remembers that the way to get summoned fragments is 'drop from random people or things'

"What's the matter, could it be... Marine's gang came to the door again??"

Diablo also asked curiously.

Su Yang shook his head and responded to Diablo, but his eyes were constantly looking around.

However, after sweeping a circle, Su Yang did not find the summoning fragments that the system said.

"Is it not on the boat?"

Su Yang muttered, then jumped and jumped off the boat.

The others were confused by Su Yang's sudden operation, and they all patted on the boat guardrail and looked at Su Yang quietly.

Sure enough, his guess was right. The moment he jumped off the boat, he saw a golden light flickering in the sea.

Then, without thinking much, he went down into the sea in that direction.

And Su Yang's figure, because of the hull, blocked their sight.

"Do you want to go down and see what's going on? Su Yang's behavior is very abnormal." Tornado put away the previous Tsundere and said worriedly.

However, Diablo and Uchiha Madara on the side were very calm.

"In this case, there is only one explanation. If I guessed correctly, there will be new recruits to join our seventeenth division. Uchiha Madara calmly said.

He was the first to be summoned, so he knew more about Su Yang.

"Unexpectedly, you found it too." Diablo teased Uchiha Madara.

It was a normal conversation at first, but with the next soft voice, the style of painting changed completely.

"Have... have a child?" Emily asked cautiously from the side.

As soon as these words came out, everyone's eyes looked at her in shock.

Uchiha Madara: "?????99

Diablo: "?????"

Ace Kano: "????? 55

##:"????"

Seeing everyone's eyes, Emily swallowed her saliva and said strangely,

"I'm sorry, I'm sorry, I didn't know this was the secret of our Seventeenth Division."5

"Hahahahahahaha..

There was a burst of laughter on the boat.

"Haqiu...

Su Yang, who had just picked up the Summoning Fragment from the sea, sneezed inexplicably.

He took a deep breath, a smile appeared on his face, and he was secretly happy.

"It's really a pleasant surprise, and the summoning fragments this time did not fall from people, but from their own ship."

Muttering, his eyes glanced around, and after seeing no one, he decided to use the Summoning Fragment directly on the spot.

"System, use Summoning Fragments.

[Ding...Are you sure to use the Summoning Fragment!]

"Yes! 99

[Ding. Congratulations on using the Host successfully and get 100

Summoning Points. □

As soon as the system's voice fell, in front of Su Yang, his own virtual panel suddenly popped up.

Host: Su Yang

Binding: Whitebeard Pirates Episode 17

The unlocking progress is related to several events. The host increases the strength, the summoned learns the ability of the world, and the summoned improves by himself.

Warehouse: None at this time.

After taking his eyes back, Su Yang entered the command.

"System, call.

[Ding... Command received, calling. □

[Ding. The summoning is successful, consuming 100 summoning points.

[Ding. Congratulations to Host for getting Joruno Chopper from "JOJO's Bizarre Adventure: Wind of Gold"]

[Ding..Congratulations to the host who has reached (5/5) to get the lucky treasure chest X1. □

“Giorno Chopper Na???”

Su Yang was stunned for a while. He also has a very deep understanding of JOJO's Bizarre Adventure.

In the original world, at that time, because the style of painting could not be accepted, Su Yang didn't watch it. After watching the clip later, he ran back to watch it again, and... um, it was really fragrant.

As for Giorno Chopper's arrival, Su Yang is delighted.

Because, he has a wonderful ability, his stand-in, can give any object and creature "life force", if the material is used, it can produce other small animals or plants.

If it is used to attack a human, it will make it only mentally go berserk, the physical movement will be slowed down, and the pain will be intensified.

Organs can even be made, and even more outrageous, they can be used directly by humans.

Basically, at this moment, it is possible to swear that the exclusive ship doctor of the Seventeenth Division of the Whitebeard Pirates was born.

The update will be sent, everyone, please give a full order, woo woo woo bad grades.

73 What the fuck is the marshal, I don't have a comfortable position for Vice Admiral (please

b

And at this moment, the white light detached from Su Yang's body and fell to the side.

Immediately after, the group of white rays of light divided into a group, and slowly turned into a human shape, accompanied by him opening his eyes.

The white light on the human figure began to fall off little by little.

Finally, a tall and muscular man appeared in Su Yang's field of vision.

He is dressed in pink with a heart opening on his chest, a wing pattern on his collar and three ladybug emblems.

Of course, in addition to the weirdness of his clothes, his hairstyle is also weird.

He has curly hair similar to "@@@" on the forehead and a small braid on the back.

Originally, Su Yang thought that Giorno Chopper would be as weird as the original, but when he appeared in reality.

"Four One Three" doesn't seem to be too weird, the only weird thing is the clothes he wears and his hairstyle.

Giorno Chopper stared at Su Yang, then took a few steps back subconsciously.

Obviously, in his eyes, crossing this matter is still too exaggerated.

"If you have anything, or if you want to ask, please wait until you get on the boat." After leaving a sentence, Su Yang walked to the shore and jumped onto the boat.

As for Giorno Chopper, after pausing for a while, although he hadn't fully recovered, he still followed Su Yang and boarded the boat together.

"Are you all... avatars?"

Giorno Chopper glanced at Uchiha Madara and asked them.

"substitute???"

Obviously, except for Su Yang, everyone here is confused, because they don't even know what a stand-in is.

"I think you can speak more clearly." Diablo smiled.

"Indeed, I don't even know what a stand-in person is."

"Giorno Chopper, the people here are basically from different worlds, their worlds are very different from yours, but although they don't have the ability to stand in, they have Other abilities." Su Yang explained slowly.

"That's how it is..."

Giorno Chopper nodded, and at this moment, he suddenly felt that it seemed that time-travel was not bad.

"Well, presumably, most of you have already guessed, he... is our new partner, Giorno Chopper." Su Yang introduced to everyone.

"In the future, I will give you advice. However, you look tense and nervous. Newcomers, take it easy. We are partners, not enemies." Diablo squinted, his tone was gentle, and he said with a smile on his face. .

Of course, this gentle appearance can only be seen here in Su Yang, and Diablo will completely reveal his true nature to other people.

"You can call me, Lord Ace Kano." At this time, the arrogant Ace Kano did not forget to take advantage of this newcomer.

However, before Giorno Chopper could make a sound, Tsundere's tornado began to complain.

"Tsk tsk, Ace Kano, you got it. During the day, you want to be a father more than anyone else, and at night, you want to be a grandson more than anyone. I really can't stand you." Tornado floated in the air, his hands folded on his chest, a look of disgust.

"Little tornado girl, I will kill you." 9

"Okay, okay, don't make trouble, don't scare the newcomer, you don't introduce honestly, I'll introduce it to you again, this long-haired one is named Uchiha Madara."

"The floating one is called Tornado, the burly one is called Ace Kano, and as for this, Diablo.

"And then there are two chores, Emily, and Anna.

Su Yang gave Giorno Chopper a gentle introduction.

Whether the others are happy or not, I don't know, anyway, Anna and Emily are very happy, because the 17th division also has their share, that is to say, Su Yang really regards them as the 17th. members of the squad.

Giorno Chopper nodded, but said nothing.

"Okay, without further ado, let's go.

"Where?"

Giorno Chopper asked.

"Giorno Chopper, you are very lucky, you can exercise your muscles and bones just now, cherish it, after all, there are not many opportunities like this."

After leaving a sentence, Uchiha Madara stretched, then jumped and lay down on the roof of the boat.

"What's the meaning?"

Giorno Chopper looked at Su Yang in confusion.

"That guy Madara said it so clearly, don't you understand? Blonde kid."

Ace Kano said.

"When you go out on a mission, you will inevitably have to fight, so be prepared for newcomers.

After Diablo said that, he also slipped away. He had to take advantage of this time to take a good rest.

"It's just as they said, but I know your ability, so you can be miserable or not."

Giorno Chopper's ability, strictly speaking, can't be regarded as a combat type, and it is more appropriate to describe it as a support type.

Giorno Chopper heard this and just looked at Su Yang thoughtfully.

Su Yang patted him on the shoulder again, and said lightly: "Go and rest, it will take a while to get to the Holy Land Mariejois."

On Sengoku's side, since returning from the Holy Land Mariejois, he has also given himself time off.

However, although it is a vacation, he is actually dealing with internal affairs of the Marine 4.6 Army.

on the office.

"Speaking of which, it's been a long time since the three of us sat down and had a good chat like today." Sengoku said leisurely with a cup of hot tea in his hand.

Garp leaned back on the chair, eating senbei, while casually paying attention to Sengoku.

"Since you were promoted to Admiral, and then promoted to Marshal, you have been very busy, there is no time to talk to us, but I'm still smart, what the fuck Admiral, Marshal, do it Not as comfortable as my Vice Admiral, is it, Crane.

What's the matter, I have a cold, and my head is dizzy. One more chapter later.

74 Descendants of the Creator

He gave Garp a white look, and said in a sullen manner: "It seems that you are very reckless, but... I didn't expect that in this regard, you made the right choice."

"Hahahahaha...Xiaohe, don't say that, I'm quite calm in my work. 39 Garp laughed heartily.

Hearing Garp's words, Sengoku immediately had something to say.

"Come on, Garp, you're not ashamed to say that, you old man still calm.

35

Of course, Sengoku's words are not wrong, if Garp can describe it as calm, I'm afraid Marine is really not reckless.

"Hahahaha...99

In the office, there was a burst of laughter again.

"By the way, Sengoku, what happened to Whitebeard?" Tsuru suddenly changed the subject and asked Sengoku.

As soon as the word Whitebeard was mentioned, Garp also looked at Sengoku, waiting for his answer.

"According to Whitebeard's Marine report, Whitebeard still didn't move."

Sengoku explained slowly.

10

Hearing Sengoku's words, the crane was a little surprised and said, "...No movement at all?"

Sengoku nodded.

"It's unlikely, Sengoku, although the newspaper says that the Seventeenth Division of the Whitebeard Pirates attacked our Marine, but they know exactly who they are." Garp reminded.

Sengoku was also very depressed about this. According to Whitebeard's character, Marine did such a thing to his squad, and he couldn't have reacted at all.

"To be honest, Garp, I think so too. I'm not afraid of Whitebeard's movement. The key is that he doesn't move. This is too unreasonable."

Sengoku sighed, Whitebeard didn't play his cards according to the routine this time. things that made him a little worried.

"This thing...it's really strange, we have had so much dealings with Whitebeard, we even know his character well, according to his character, there shouldn't be a little bit of that. Movement."9

Tsuru, like Sengoku, was a little worried about Whitebeard's not playing cards this time.

"Swish.

While listening to the conversation between Sengoku and Crane, Garp ate the senbei in his hand, and after the two of them finished speaking, he spoke slowly.

"Why is it so complicated, that Whitebeard didn't move, there is only one truth, that is, Su Yang and the others didn't tell Whitebeard about our attack on them.

Crane and Sengoku paused, looked at each other, and said to Garp in unison.

"Eat your senbei...

Garp laughed again when he heard that.

What they didn't know was that this time, what Garp said casually, was right.

But, also, sometimes, it is often overthinking that can affect a person's judgment.

Often do not care, always be able to say a word.

After a long time, Su Yang and the others have successfully reached the top along the Red Line.

What caught their eyes were magnificent castles surrounded by huge walls.

"Good.... Spectacular. 99

Emily was shocked when she saw this scene in front of her, even though she was a noble before and had been to the palace on land.

However, it is nothing compared to this place.

"I really didn't expect...there would be such a magnificent castle here."

Anna said with emotion.

Su Yang, who was drinking fine wine, explained with a smile: "It must be magnificent, you don't even think about who lives here, this is the headquarters of the World government, and the Celestial Dragons who call themselves 'Descendants of the Creator'.

"Celestial Dragons???"

Upon hearing these three words, Emily and Anna's pupils shrank violently.

Celestial Dragons and the two of them are naturally clear.

However, the tornadoes on the side were just confused.

"What are Celestial Dragons?"

Emily and Anna paused after being asked such a question.

"Lord Tornado, haven't you heard of Celestial Dragons?"

Tornado shook his head slightly.

"Celestial Dragons are the nobles of the world," Ana explained to the tornado.

However, as soon as he finished speaking, Uchiha Madara, who was standing on the ship's guardrail, became excited.

"The nobles of the world? The descendants of the creator? It sounds very strong, Su Yang, you finally made a decent decision."

Uchiha Madara's words made Su Yang speechless, he shrugged and continued to speak.

"Madara, in fact, there is nothing wrong with the 413 words you understand like this. Celestial Dragons do claim to be the descendants of the creator, but in fact, 99% of them are scumbags, and even if there is no one to protect them, they might Even a seventy-year-old ordinary old man can't match.

"Moreover, they are quite individual, because they regard themselves as noble and disdain to breathe the same air as ordinary people and wear bubble hoods on their heads. And treat people of other races as slaves.

"So, wait a minute. If you encounter them, don't kill them all at once. In this case, it's too good for them, and they should feel the pain."

"Disappointing, I thought Celestial Dragons were some amazing guy, but I didn't expect it to be such a thing, I still pray that I don't meet such a guy." After hearing Su Yang's words, Tornado looked displeased, Of course not because of Su Yang, but because of Celestial Dragons.

Su Yang just smiled and looked down, their boat had passed through the huge wall.

"Okay, brothers, let's begin."

The update is sent, I beg for self-determination, please.

75 Holy Land?

"However, before that, I still want to say that our main purpose this time is to destroy. If we encounter a strong enemy and cannot be defeated in a short time, we choose to retreat."

If the time delay is too long, Su Yang is afraid of accidents, one is the support of Marine, and the other is naturally afraid of drawing out the 'Five Elders' who are not mentioned in the original book.

However, although there is no mention of the strength of the 'Five Elders' in the original book, but if you think about it, if they can be the top leaders of the World government, will their strength be weak?

Or are they just relying on their resourcefulness to become the top leaders of the World government?

Of course, the latter is obviously unlikely. In this world where the weak eats the strong, there is no strength, even if your resourcefulness is high, it is just a blank sheet of paper.

The world government can stand for 800 years and not fall, of course, not relying on words.

Therefore, preliminary guesses, 'Five Elders' are five powerful old men.

Moreover, there are not only the mysterious Five Elders living in the Holy Land Mariejois, but there is a more mysterious Eym than the Five Elders.

She is the leader of the Celestial Dragons, the mastermind behind World government, the master of the Void Throne, and her abilities are no doubt a mystery.

So, be careful, there is no harm at all.

"Although it's not enjoyable to listen to, but since what Su Yang said, there must be his reasons." Uchiha Madara said flatly.

Su Yang nodded, Uchiha Madara can say that, it is a good thing, after all, he is most worried about Uchiha Madara.

Once it starts, it's hard to stop.

As for Diablo and Ace Cano, it's okay.

Diablo will always take Su Yang's words to heart.

Although Ace Kano is arrogant, he still knows what he is here for.

In the case of the tornado.... this time she can't participate in the battle, because she has to control the ship smoothly, and use the advantage in the air to pass the situation to Su Yang and the others.

Of course, when Su Yang told Dragon Roll about this plan earlier, she obviously did not agree.

However, after Su Yang's brainwashing and some conditions attached, Tornado nodded.

As for Giorno Chopper, who just joined, Su Yang didn't give him the task right away, but let him stay on the ship with Tornado.

"Did you see that grand gate~*

Su Yang stretched out his finger and pointed into the distance, everyone's eyes looked straight away, and then nodded.

"The gate over there is our meeting place.

Under the Su Yang boat, at this time, a group of people happened to be walking slowly on the flat and smooth road.

"Go, go! Damn pariah, you're wasting my time.

A fat man is riding a man who is thinner than him at the moment, and he... is exactly what Su Yang said, the Celestial Dragons, a world aristocrat who calls himself a 'Descendant of the Creator'.

Now he keeps kicking his head with his feet while pulling the chains around his neck.

He kept cursing.

On the other hand, the man who was taken as a mount had a haggard look on his face, and blood was constantly spilling from the corners of his mouth.

finally..

After a kick of Celestial Dragons, he couldn't hold on any longer and fell directly to the ground, fainting.

And Celestial Dragons had an unstable center of gravity and was about to fall to the ground when suddenly at this moment, a World government officer in a black suit beside him immediately helped him, and then said with a smile on his face.

"Great Lord Chalkalin, please be careful not to fall."

"Humph! 35

Chalkalin Sheng directly shook off the hand of the man in the black suit, and then came to the man who was regarded as a mount.

He raised his foot, without saying a word, he aimed at his head and kicked it, while scolding: "Useless pariah, you almost made me fall, go to die, go to die!!!!99

After the operation, the man's face was already bloody and bloody, and after doing so, Chalkalin didn't seem to be able to relieve his anger, and took out the customized version directly from his waist, and its power was far greater than the power of ordinary long spears. The long spear aimed at his head, pulled the trigger directly,

"Bang bang bang!!!

Two thumb-sized bullets directly penetrated the head of the man in front of him, and this action also frightened the group of female slaves behind him, and screamed.

However, Chalkalin Saint did not deal with it immediately, and his eyes were still on the man in front of him.

Jingjing bah.

Chalkalin spit out a mouthful of saliva directly on his head, and then said: "What an unlucky pariah.

After all, Saint Chalkalin's gaze was withdrawn, looking at the female slaves near him, and the spear was aimed directly at one of them.

"You disgusting pariahs, how dare you scream without my permission.

And the group of female slaves slumped on the ground in fright when they saw the move of Saint Chalkalin, trembling all over their bodies.

However, just when Chalkalin Saint wanted to pull the trigger, suddenly, not far from his side, there was a sudden sound.

With a sound of "Boom...", the smoke and dust rose instantly.

When the man in the black suit saw this, he immediately stood in front of Chalkalin Saint, and then stared at the sounding smoke direction Yan.

When the smoke cleared, a tall man with a ponytail and loose clothes came into their sight.

And he...is the Whitebeard Pirates, the captain of the seventeenth division, Su Yang.

As for Saint Chalkalin, after a pause, he raised his head slightly, and a ship was floating in the sky.

"Why, the ship can fly?"

Hearing this, the man in the black suit also raised his head and glanced at him. Soon, he frowned, feeling uneasy.

"Isn't it? You encountered such an unlucky picture just after getting down?" Su Yang patted the dust on his body and walked out of the smoke.

The author of the message can be seen by everyone, but the author cannot reply if he is not a VIP. I suggest that I see it too.

76 These guys are a bunch of lunatics ps: I'm sorry, the author is brain-twitching, I wrote about Marshal Akainu earlier, it's completely wrong, I'm very sorry, I don't have permission to modify it now, everyone just knows what it means.

Following Su Yang's voice, Chalkalin's eyes shifted from the spaceship above his head to Su Yang's body.

In the next second, his anger immediately rose, he held his spear directly, pointed it at Su Yang, and said solemnly: "You damn pariah, why don't you kneel when you see me?"

"kneel?"

Hearing what Chalkalin said, Su Yang couldn't help laughing on the spot, followed closely, his face changed, and he said, "Do you think you are worthy?"

Before Chalkalin could make a sound, the man in the black suit standing in front of him reminded Su Yang.

"If you want to live, please pay attention to your words, the one standing in front of you is the supreme race... Celestial Dragons.

The reason why the black man said this was that he felt that Su Yang was not simple, and he also had some scruples in his heart, so 413 directly showed his identity as Celestial Dragons, and wanted to deter Su Yang with this.

After all, Celestial Dragons have all the perks. Once offended, the Admiral or CPO of Naval Headquarters must come out to protect.

However, maybe other people will be really shocked when they hear the man in the black suit, but Su Yang is completely indifferent.

The reason is also very simple, what's more, the marshal has already come, I'm still afraid that you won't be able to Admiral?

"Sorry, if I wanted to live, I wouldn't be in the Holy Land Mariejois.

Besides, I'm in a hurry, so I won't push you too much."

As soon as Su Yang's voice fell, the man in the black suit launched the attack first, but unexpectedly, Su Yang pressed down slightly and pushed him out with a palm.

"Wood Style Cutting Technique!"

The wooden thorn directly pierced the body of the man in the black suit. After entering the body, it continued to fork and grow. In an instant, the wooden thorn pierced out of his body, and he was undoubtedly killed on the spot.

"Bang bang bang..."

"To die, to die..."

Chalkalin scolded while pulling the trigger.

But seeing that the bullet was ineffective against Su Yang, he took a few steps back in horror.

"You seem... anxious to die.""

As Su Yang spoke, he slowly approached Chalkalin Saint.

"Untouchables, open your eyes, I am the highest race in the world, Celestial Dragons."

"So what? The so-called world's highest race is just what you call yourself." Su Yang sneered.

This time, he has come to the front of Saint Chalkalin.

And Chalkalin didn't seem to give up, he once again aimed at Su Yang with the spear in his hand.

Su Yang raised his hand slowly, twisted the long spear in his hand, and said coldly: "It seems that there is really no brain, it's such a time, I want to kill me with this thing.

"Shut up, you bastard..."

Su Yang swept across without even uttering the word "Min". Although it was only a slight kick, Chalkalin's waist was immediately broken, and he fell heavily on the wall.

"Ahhhh. It hurts...it hurts.

Chalkalin's mourning continued to sound.

In the next second, a yellow liquid leaked out of his crotch.

Seeing this scene, Su Yang frowned slightly.

A "click..." sound.

Su Yang made a few sharp wooden thorns from his hand, and then said calmly: "I didn't expect to have such a day. 99

(baeg)

Saying that, Su Yang threw one of the wooden thorns in his hand towards Chalkalin Saint.

The thorn just hit his stomach.

The wailing sounded together again, and Chalkalin Saint fainted directly.

"Oh, it's boring." 5

Su Yang sighed, originally planning to torture him, but he didn't expect to faint so quickly.

In the end, he directly threw the wooden thorns in his hand and inserted them all into the body of Chalkalin.

His eyes turned slightly and landed on the female slave.

All the female slaves slumped on the ground, staring at Su Yang with a terrified look.

However, Su Yang was not interested in them, and saw him turn around and clapped his hands.

"Wood Style · Flower Tree World is coming!"

With the falling of the sound, the ground suddenly shook, followed by countless huge tree roots rushing out from the ground, devouring all the surrounding castles.

In addition, huge flowers grow at the tail, and as the flowers open, the pollen flutters in the wind.

The first half of the Grand Line, on an island, inside the office.

At this time, Garp was sleeping soundly on the sofa, holding a packet of unfinished senbei in his hand.

Crane was sitting on the other sofa, reading the newspaper.

As for Sengoku, it is recording something.

Suddenly, the phone bug on the table rang.

"Blood

"Blublu...

"Blublu...

Sengoku froze slightly and stopped the pen in his hand.

The crane also looked over and joked: "It seems that, Sengoku, you are also very busy during your vacation.

Sengoku didn't say anything, reached out and picked up the phone bug and connected.

Before he could speak, a worried voice came from the other side.

"Sengoku..... Marshal Sengoku, big... something bad happened.

"What happened?"

"White... The seventeenth division of the Whitebeard Pirates attacked the Holy Land Mariejois." He said hurriedly.

And Sengoku, naturally, after hearing this, his pupils shrank violently, this incident was completely beyond his expectations.

"Attack on the Holy Land Mariejois?"

He also heard the voice of the phone bug, and she also had an unbelievable expression: "These guys from the 17th Division... are just a bunch of real lunatics.

Guiqiu automatic subscription!!!.

77 This is the second Rocks Pirate

(please order)

"It's really a bunch of lunatics."

Sengoku's face was complicated. Since he attacked the Seventeenth Division, he had thought about many things that would happen later.

For example, the entire Whitebeard Pirates attacked Naval Headquarters.

Even the unrealistic thing that the Whitebeard Pirates teamed up with the Red Hair Pirates to attack Naval Headquarters~ came to mind.

However, it never occurred to me that the Seventeenth Division of the Whitebeard Pirates would go directly to the butt of the World Government headquarters.

"Marshal Sengoku....what are we going to do?" asked again.

"Nonsense, what do I need to say about such a simple matter? Hurry up and call everyone around, whether it's Marine Admiral or Vice Admiral, and go to the Holy Land Mariejois for support. Sengoku said solemnly.

"Yes!!!"

Soon, the phone bug hangs up over there.

Sengoku put down the phone bug in his hand with a worried look.

"When such an accident happened, there is no way to do it. Right now, there is no other way, we can only face it.

The crane put down the newspaper in his hand, slowly got up, and by the way, he put the cloak engraved with the word 'justice' on the sofa and draped it over his shoulders.

Although her face is full of frost, her eyes are exactly the same as those of the past.

She knows that with great power comes great responsibility.

Sengoku sighed slightly. In the last battle, his internal injuries had not fully recovered.

However, now that such a thing has happened, he can't care whether the internal injury has recovered. .

"It was so fast that it caught us completely by surprise. No wonder it has passed for a few days without any movement at all. It turns out...that this...big conspiracy is being planned."5

Speaking of this skill, Sengoku also picked up the cape that was draped on the chair and put it on.

"Garp!!"

At this time, Crane walked over to the sofa where Garp was lying, and while shouting, he kicked his feet.

Garp opened his eyes, glanced at the crane with some sleepy eyes, and then stretched comfortably, and then he took another piece of the senbei that he had not finished eating and put it in his mouth, and finally, Speak unhurriedly.

"Is it time to eat? Alas, time flies so fast, I obviously feel like I just fell asleep.

"Eat, eat, eat, you'll know all day long that something is wrong." He Bai glanced at Garp and said angrily.

"Something happened?"

Garp was agitated and disappeared without a trace at will.

"Out...what's going on????"

"The Seventeenth Division of the Whitebeard Pirates has attacked the Holy Land Mariejois." Sengoku responded.

"What? Attacking the Holy Land Mariejois? These guys are really brave."

Garp was slightly surprised, it was the first time he heard such a thing when Marine had been so long.

"Although that's the case, but...I feel that this may be another opportunity." Sengoku said decisively.

"Sengoku, you're overthinking things too easily, what is that place, that's the Holy Land Mariejois, how could those guys from the World government give you all the fighting, do you want to... let the guys from Celestial Dragons move. ? Garp said this will be a kung fu, has slowly stood up.

"However, Whitebeard's 17th Division is also driving itself to a dead end."

Crane was also on the side and put forward his own views.

Sengoku stood silent, with an extremely complicated expression on his face.

Many years ago, the Rocks Pirate also attacked the "Valley of the Gods" where the Celestial Dragons lived. However, the situation in the Valley of the Gods at that time was much better than that of the current Holy Land, Mariejois.

In the office, there was silence for dozens of seconds, Crane was watching Sengoku, Sengoku was thinking, as for Garp, he was eating senbei chatting like a normal person.

"I always have a feeling... The Seventeenth Division of the Whitebeard Pirates is the second "Rocks Pirate"." Sengoku said slowly.

"When you say that, I think it's really similar. They're all lunatics.

However, the Seventeenth Division of the Whitebeard Pirates has one thing that is far superior to the Rocks Pirate. 55 Garp said calmly.

And then, Sengoku and Crane spoke at the same time.

"Unity!!!"

"Yes, if the Rocks Pirate hadn't fallen apart, it would have been easier said than done to take them down, but now the 17th division of the Whitebeard Pirates has completely inherited the advantages of the Rocks (powerful) and thus has too many shortcomings ( not united).

·0 for flowers·

"call..

Sengoku sighed deeply: "I really didn't expect that Whitebeard would come up with such a terrible squad after many years, it has come to this, there is no way, let's go!!! 35

Above the Holy Land Mariejois, the original magnificent castle, but after passing by the Seventeenth Division of the Whitebeard Pirates, no doubt all turned into ruins, and the blood of Celestial Dragons stained the ground red.

They were like ferocious beasts, and Marine, stationed here, couldn't resist.

At the same time, on the other side of the castle, a burly man was lying on a chaise longue, smoking a cigarette.

And he is one of the three Admiral of Naval Headquarters, Akainu.

Since he was able to be discharged from the hospital, he has come to the Holy Land Mariejois to recuperate. Here, everything is top-notch, so Akainu's body is recovering quite quickly.

"Ta Ta Ta..""

At this moment, a group of World government personnel walked into the courtyard with some anxious steps.

Akainu glanced back at him, then turned his head back to himself, not wanting to pay any attention to them at all.

"Sakazuki-sama, I'm sorry to disturb your rest, but there is an urgent matter at the moment, please come forward and stop it. One of the leading men respectfully said to Akainu.

Akainu exhaled smoke rings, and said impatiently: "Is the old man still on vacation? You won't find someone else if you have something."

"Sorry, the reason why I came to you is because there is no way to do it.

Whitebeard's seventeenth division is like a ferocious beast, running wildly in the Holy Land Mariejois, and we people can't resist it."

The third update will be sent, and there will be another update later, everyone will support it.

78 Actions of the Five Elders

When Akainu heard the Seventeenth Division of the Whitebeard Pirates, the expression on his face changed suddenly, and the whole person seemed to be frozen.

"Sakazuki-sama???"

The voice that sounded in his ear again brought Akainu back to reality, he raised his brows slightly, took a sharp breath, and then slowly exhaled.

"You mean? The Seventeenth Division of the Whitebeard Pirates came to attack the Holy Land Mariejois???"

"Yes, Sakazuki-sama."

Akainu was stunned, so she almost shouted, you really look down on me.

The whole squad is here, you want me to stop?

Can he still remember the battle some time ago?

Not to mention playing a team by himself, but the last time he played against Ace Kano of the 17th team of the Whitebeard Pirates, if it weren't for the "four-one-three" element, he would have been cold.

What's more, now, his injury is just right, and his body still needs to be recuperated.

What's the difference between sending oneself and sending someone's head now?

The answer is...there is no difference.

Akainu looked up at the sky slightly, guessing that the last time he went to see Whitebeard's Seventeenth Division was exactly this time.

Now....he doesn't want to try that feeling again, besides, he knows very well that this time no one will be 1 vs. 1 with you in the past, and the only thing waiting is a gang fight.

"Do you see that the old man's body supports the old man to do this?"

Akainu asked back.

"Sakazuki-sama, you just need to go over there for a while, and wait until Marine's support comes, that's it. 99

Akainu directly lay back on the reclining chair, and then said lightly:

"What a joke, it's already this time, isn't your world government taking action?"

Seeing such a positive answer from Akainu, the World government staff knew that it was useless to say too much.

"Then, Mr. Sakazuki, I'm sorry to disturb your rest."

After leaving this sentence, the World government personnel left.

Holy Land Mariejois, on the top floor of a castle higher than most of the castle, at this moment, the supreme leader of the World government, the 'Five Elders' gathered here.

Their eyes peered through the windows to the smoke billowing outside.

"Crack! 35

An old man wearing a dark green suit, bald, with a splayed beard, and a Madara birthmark on his forehead was still on the ground with information about the Seventeenth Division of the Whitebeard Pirates.

"These damn bastards have seriously provoked the face of our World government.

"Things seem to be getting more and more unbudgetable. Marine can't get there in time to stop them. If they let them go on like this, the Holy Land Mariejois will cause serious damage." He has long straight white hair and a long beard. The old man said with an expressionless face.

"It seems that we should have taken effective actions when we heard Sengoku's report at that time, but we still underestimate it, thinking that it is just a team and cannot stir up much trouble. 99

As soon as the old man's voice fell, another old man said.

"I can't blame us for this. You think that the captain of his family didn't do such crazy things. Who would have thought that a mere squad could have such a dangerous idea. 99

Indeed, the reason why the Five Elders didn't make much noise in front of them was that they thought that the Captain of the Whitebeard Pirates didn't have any too dangerous thoughts.

As for the squad, it is even more impossible.

However, I never expected that they would directly attack the headquarters of the World government.

"Well, it's useless to say these things now. It's a small loss to the Holy Land Mariejois. If the 'Master Yim' is disturbed, the consequences will be disastrous.""

"Marine couldn't help in time, Sakazuki was still recuperating, sigh, it seems, I can only do it.

"No, it's too slow. From the direction of destruction, they are destroyed separately. If they go alone, the effect is too bad."

"What do you mean??? Want the five of us to go?"

"Forget it, those gangs are just a bunch of little devils who don't even have long hair. We have to use our Five Elders. Is it too much to give them face." One wearing a dark red suit and no tie, Blonde hair and golden beard, the old man with a scar on his chest immediately retorted.

"It's not a shameful thing now, if you don't stop it in time, it will alarm 'Sir Yim'.

When the word Yim was mentioned again, the other elders who had opinions were silent, and finally they could only nod their heads.

After all, if you have to compare it, I'm still more than face.

Su Yang's side.

The spacecraft did not follow Su Yang's footsteps, but came to the front door of the Holy Land Mariejois ahead of time, but the tornado flew back and stayed in the air to observe.

Su Yang here is relatively smooth, wherever he goes, it will become ruins, and the Celestial Dragons he sees will undoubtedly kill them all.

"The Celestial Dragons guys are really enjoying themselves. 35

Su Yang sat on the dining table, while enjoying the food on the table, he complained.

Under the stool, Celestial Dragons had rolled his eyes and seemed to have died.

As for the low table, there were several women who were squatting without 4.6 attire, hot body, but with bruises all over their bodies. It is estimated that they had been abused before.

For what happened to them, Su Yang could only sigh lightly.

Such is the world of the jungle.

It's all... it's fate!

Su Yang didn't eat here for long, after a brief bite, he continued on his way.

Suddenly, the phone bug in Su Yang's bag rang.

Su Yang didn't hesitate and connected immediately.

"Su Yang, pay attention, a figure of mine is rushing towards you at a very fast speed."

The update is coming, please subscribe.

Hearing the words of Tornado, Su Yang glanced around for the first time.

Then he quickened his pace and ran fast towards the front.

"Can you see what he looks like?" Su Yang asked.

If it is a young Marine, or other World government personnel, then Su Yang is not afraid.

However, Su Yang would have to be more cautious if all the older people came.

After his voice fell, the tornado was silent for dozens of seconds. It was estimated that he was observing his appearance according to what Su Yang said.

"See clearly, Su Yang, he is an elderly man, but I think you still have to be careful. Although that guy looks old, his performance is not something that an old man can show. ...so...he should be strong."

"Old man?"

Su Yang raised his eyebrows slightly, he turned his head, glanced behind him, then turned his head back and said to the phone bug.

"Okay, I know."

Yes, at this moment, Su Yang has roughly guessed who is coming this time.

But, yes, Su Yang and the others broke apart separately, and the speed of the destruction was very frightening, and the Five Elders naturally couldn't sit still.

"There is more than one old man, in addition to one chasing you, there are three others who are chasing Diablo, Uchiha Madara, and Ace Kano.

As for the other one, his direction... It seems to be us. ship.

"A boat?"

Su Yang murmured, and after thinking for a moment, he continued to say to the tornado: "Go back first, then control the boat to move the place, and finally use the phone bug to tell us the location."

"Well, be careful, that old man is about to catch up with you."

After leaving this sentence, the tornado has hung up the phone bug.

And Su Yang also put the phone bug back in the bag.

However, when Su Yang was about to continue running, a figure instantly fell in front of him.

He was wearing a dark red suit with no bow tie, blond hair, a blond beard, and a scar on his chest.

Undoubtedly, he was one of the five Five Elders.

His sharp eyes were constantly looking at Su Yang, and then he said lightly: "If I guessed correctly, you are the kid named Su Yang from the Seventeenth Division of the Whitebeard Pirates.

Hearing his words, Su Yang was a little surprised. He didn't expect that the top leader of the World government, the 'Five Elders', would know about him.

"You said that, but I was flattered."

The blond old man sneered a few times: "I heard you from Sengoku's mouth. You can escape from his hands smoothly, which means that you still have some ability."

"Originally, I thought that you would be a resourceful guy, but now, it seems that you are just a brave brat.

"Hehehe..."

Hearing this, Su Yang just grinned, he doesn't value anyone's evaluation of him, all along, he just wants to do what he likes to do, as for evaluation, they can come as they please. .

"Why, do you think I'm wrong, if you had any brains, you wouldn't have come to this place in the Holy Land of Mariejois."

"Because you are here, it means that you will perish here, and Whitebeard's seventeenth division will completely disappear from the world after today."

"Hahahahahaha..."

At this moment, Su Yang finally couldn't help laughing out his voice, his eyes leaking, not fear, but a firm look.

"Holy Mariejois? So what?"

"What a brat who doesn't know how high the sky is, you don't seem to understand the seriousness of the matter at all." The blond old man said expressionlessly.

Facing this old man, Su Yang still had a trace of worry in his heart, mainly because...the original book did not mention his strength.

After all, fear comes from the unknown.

"I don't think...it doesn't really matter."

However, just after Su Yang's words fell, the blond old man took the lead in launching an attack, and his figure instantly disappeared in place.

When he appeared again, he was already above Su Yang, and he had already raised his fist and hit Su Yang's head.

Although Observation Haki is used, it still doesn't work much.

No way, at this time, Su Yang instantly entered the state of Sage Body, and then his body flashed slightly, dodging the attack of this punch.

"Boom!!!!!"

With this violent explosion sounded, billowing smoke spread out.

'In an instant, a lot of power has been enhanced, is it the ability of Devil Fruit? No, it should not be, I remember Sengoku said before that his Devil Fruit ability is related to wood.

The blond old man thought to himself, and walked out of the smoke without rushing.

"You don't have that kind of power, you can't break my defense at all, let alone hurt me." The blond old man stared at Su Yang, and although his eyes were cloudy, they showed confidence.

Su Yang was slightly startled, his words seemed to make Su Yang<sup>413</sup> think of something.

"The power you're referring to, the Conqueror's Haki?"

Obviously, when Su Yang said this, the golden old man also paused slightly, but he did not expect that Su Yang would know such a thing.

"It seems that Whitebeard has told you a lot of things. Does he want to train you as a successor?"

"Although I don't have Conqueror's Haki entanglement now, I feel that the problem is not too big." Su Yang smiled and said.

After all, he didn't intend to fight the Five Elders to the death, his purpose was to destroy the holy place of Mariejois, and then run away. Moreover, Su Yang really didn't have much confidence that this golden old man could defeat him, but, when it came to escape, he was still very confident, this golden old man could never stop him.

"Hmph, that's stupid."

As soon as the words fell, the blond old man attacked again.

The cold is getting worse and worse, dear brother, I stayed next to the computer today and couldn't write, I kept coughing, I have two updates today, I will make it up when I feel better, I am very sorry.

80 World government, the mastermind behind the scenes, Im
(please complete)

While Su Yang was fighting, Diablo, Ace Kano, and Uchiha Madara, the Five Elders had also arrived.

"Yo, it seems... This time, someone who can fight is finally here."

Ace Kano carried the divine axe Rita on his shoulders, facing the man in front of him, wearing a white robe, bald, and glasses, his eyes still showed disdain.

The Five Elders were the only ones not wearing suits and beards. And he is holding a long sword similar to Zoro's Third Generation Onitou.

Similarly, the look of disdain that leaked from the eyes of the bald old man.

Yes, no matter how you look at it, in the eyes of the Five Elders, Su Yang's 17th Division is nothing more than a bunch of brats with no hair. How could he possibly get into the Five Elders' eyes?

"I've always wondered why that kid Sakazuki was defeated by an arrogant and stupid kid like you. The bald old man held the long knife in his hand and said in a cold tone.

"You are also quite stupid. If you can ask such a mindless question, the answer is naturally... I, Mr. Ace Kano, are better than him. Besides, I will also kill you." Ace Kano responded. a sound.

"The arrogant brat."

The bald old man roared sharply.

The next second, I saw that his other hand was on the handle of the knife, and the next second, he drew the knife and slashed.

Immediately, an imposing sword energy rushed towards Ace Kano.

Ace Kano just grinned, and saw that he was waving the divine axe in his hand and looking heavily at the oncoming sword energy.

"Bang....." sound.

The sword energy was instantly disintegrated.

"Shh..." a sound.

The bald old man disappeared instantly, and when he reappeared in the next second, he had come to the side of Ace Kano, and, at this time, the long knife had been covered with Armament Haki and swung out.

"Little devil, you are gone~`c

Ace Kano turned his head slightly, with a slight smile on his face: "What are you talking about? Uncle?"

The bald old man's pupils shrank violently, because he could clearly feel that a very high temperature and huge fireball had formed behind him.

"Shh!"

Helpless, the bald old man had no choice but to give up this attack and landed on the other side, staring at Ace Kano.

"Yeah, why don't you continue to attack."

While speaking, Ace Kano has raised the divine axe in his hand, and the huge heat radiated is undoubtedly absorbed by the divine axe.

"Shhhhh.....

Immediately following, Ace Kano slashed dozens of times at an extremely fast speed, and the golden light blade rushed towards the bald old man at an extremely fast speed.

The bald old man hurriedly dodged, but later he found out that something was wrong. Where is this guy attacking him, he is obviously destroying.

"You kid, you have a bad heart!!

The bald old man scolded.

Ace Kano smiled faintly and continued to attack.

At the same time, Diablo and Uchiha Madara also had a confrontation with the Five Elders. As for the remaining Five Elders, when he arrived at the place where the tornado stopped before the tornado, the tornado had already moved, there was no way, he just keep chasing.

The four Five Elders fought at the same time, and the movement caused by them was naturally much greater than Su Yang and the others.

Located among the flowers in the deepest part of the ancient city of Mariejois, the Holy Land, the master behind the world government, 'Im', walked out slowly.

In the end, she walked to the top floor, looked down at the black smoke in the distance, and raised her brows involuntarily.

"Ta Ta Ta Ta..."

At this time, another man wearing a black cloak and wrapping his face came out.

"what happened?"

Immediately after Im's voice fell, the man in the black cloak knelt down, and said in awe: "Lord Im, according to the information I got, it was the pirates who invaded the Holy Land Mariejois.

"Pirates?"

Im paused, thoughtful, and in her mind, the report she received many years ago, when the Rocks attacked the Valley of God, came to mind.

"Clan of D?"

"Lord Yimu, the pirates who attacked this time, according to Marine's side and the World Government's side, are not from the D's clan, but from a certain division of the New World Four Emperors. The man in the black cloak responded.

Yimu turned his head and stared at him with icy eyes. The man in the black cloak had a chill on his back, and he couldn't help trembling instantly.

"What? The World government that has been standing in the world for 800 years no longer has any dignity to talk about, so that a group of guys who don't even have a name can come up and make trouble?"

Hearing this, the man in the black cloak felt extremely cold, and quickly explained: 'Sorry, Lord Yimu, this matter was indeed caused by our negligence, and we will definitely deal with it urgently. 95

"Looks like...it's time to clean up this dirty sea." Yimu said to herself, her eyes staring into the distance, and she seemed to be worried about something in her heart.

Next, Im not talking, she quietly looked into the distance, and the man in the black cloak naturally didn't say anything, just knelt there quietly.

Immediately after a few minutes, Im turned around, and when she was about to leave the top floor, she stopped and left a sentence.

"I don't care who it is, the intruder must not leave here alive, otherwise, everyone will think that the dignity of our world government can be trampled on."

"Yes, Lord Im.

(Is it okay?)

Su Yang's side.

Things, as the blond old man said, even Armament Haki had little effect on him.

'Looks like it's really only the Conqueror's Haki entanglement that can hurt him.

Standing on top of the collapsed castle, Su Yang thoughtfully, was looking for a solution.

However, in the next second, he suddenly thought of something, and a smile appeared on his face.

Yes, the last time I summoned Giorno Chopper, I also got a lucky chest, which Su Yang completely forgot to use because of some trivia.

Maybe, this lucky treasure box can change the current situation.
