Су Ян однажды отправился в мир пиратов и стал капитаном семнадцатой дивизии полка Белоуса.

Не закреплён за членами команды, не беда, благо система призыва активирована.

Мадара, Чёрный Дракон, Торнадо, Мисака Микото и др. все они члены семнадцатого отряда Су Яна.

Воюющие Государства: «Я оцепенел, в команде играть труднее, чем с Белоусом».

231 new members, Aizen

Sōsuke!!!

Above the sea, because Su Yang and the others entered the New World, a huge wave was once again set off.

At this time, Su Yang's group had also finished resting on The fish men island, and were ready to continue their journey towards New World.

Of course, because this time to enter the New World, it is Su Yang and the others who are going to compete with Kaido, Charlotte Linlin and the others.

So this time, Su Yang did not bring Shaoxing and Shirahoshi with him.

Instead, they were left on The fish men island, and Jinbei led the Sun Pirates to sit on The fish men island.

In this way, Su Yang set off with the Dimensional Pirates.

After the Shura floated back to the surface from the deep sea, Su Yang stretched his waist and opened the panel of the system.

Warehouse: Summoning Fragments X1

Su Yang glanced at it roughly, and sure enough, Mewtwo and Akurolia, who had previously played the new Murloc Pirates, had a slight increase in their unlocking degrees.

Sure enough, only fighting can unlock the unlocking degree faster...

After Su Yang sighed in his heart, he also put his eyes on the column of the warehouse.

"System, use Summoning Fragments~".

[Ding...Are you sure to use Summoning Fragments!]

"Yes!

[Ding. Congratulations to the Host for successfully trying it out and getting 100 Summoning Points. □

'System, summon.

[Ding... Command received, calling. □

[Ding Summons successfully, consumes 100 Summoning Points. □

[Ding. Congratulations to the Host for getting Aizen Sōsuke from "Shinigami". □

`Hi... Gotei 13 5th Division Captain Aizen... This time, he summoned an amazing character! 35

'However, with him in the team at this time, not only will there be a strong player who can be used as a hole card!

"In the future, there will be another guy who can help with the staff! This wave is not bad!

Seeing the notification from the system (Li Lihao), Su Yang gasped for a moment, and muttered softly.

Just as Su Yang murmured in a low voice, a white light came out of his body and fell to the side.

In the blink of an eye, the white light gradually transformed into a human form.

When everyone around the deck saw this scene, they all understood that Su Yang had brought new people over for them at this time!

Unable to help, they also put down the things at hand and prepared to see what kind of character the newcomer should be this time!

242 Diablo's Hostility!

The light group was transformed, and the appearance of Aizen Sōsuke was quickly drawn up.

After the white light body was completely condensed and formed, it split apart at a speed visible to the naked eye, and fell to the ground piece by piece.

Suddenly, a tall and straight man with short brown hair, brown eyes, black-rimmed glasses, a black suit, a white coat, and a samurai sword on his waist appeared in front of everyone.

This man has a gentle expression, warm eyes, and from a distance, he has a refined temperament, just like a scholar.

However, in the perception of Su Yang, Uchiha Madara, Diablo and others, this gentle and jade-like man has a terrifying energy that is like a volcano ready to explode, waiting for a vigorous eruption.

Aizen Sōsuke⁵²³ opened his eyes, and after seeing Su Yang, a gentle smile appeared on his face.

When he came to Su Yang, he bowed ninety degrees and bowed deeply, and then said to Su Yang:

"Presumably Your Excellency is Su Yang! 99

"That... the one who summoned me to this world!"

"Before this, the guide had told me everything, and he said that only you can make me truly free!"

"Aizen Sōsuke offers you my loyalty and thank you for letting me out of that world! 35

After speaking, without waiting for Su Yang to react, he also turned to look at Uchiha Madara, Diablo, Ace Kano and others.

Then he bowed slightly and bowed to everyone, and said.

"You must be like me, strong men from other worlds!"

"Hello everyone! I'm under Aizen Sōsuke!"

"Please give me more advice in the future!"

A think tank is a think tank, and if you don't make a move, you will startle everyone on the boat as soon as you make a move.

Looking at the information that the newcomer Aizen Wuyousuke had instilled in his mind when he was summoned, he had already judged so much information, and even after waking up, he appeared to be at ease. .

As the first summoned Uchiha Madara, he couldn't help but slapped his mouth, gave Aizen Sōsuke a deep look, and sighed:

"Tsk... this newcomer, it's not easy!"

"Diablo, here comes the one who is fighting for your life and favor! 35

Saying that, he also touched Diablo with his shoulder, and secretly adjusted the relationship between him and Aizen Sōsuke.

After all, Uchiha Madara remembers it very well.

Before, when Su Yang summoned Diablo, the first sentence Diablo said was to be loyal to Su Yang.

Aizen Sōsuke said the same at the moment, but he wanted to compete with Diablo for Su Yang's "dogleg" competitor.

Diablo next to Uchiha Madara listened to the guy next to him and looked at Aizen Sōsuke deeply.

Has great strength.

Have a loyalty that is not lost to yourself!

He even has quite the IQ!

As soon as he came up, he threatened to give all his loyalty to Su Yang! kindness!

Truly a formidable foe!!!

After all, only the enemy knows him best, and after being provoked by Uchiha Madara, Diablo did come to a similar conclusion after comparing Aizen Sōsuke with himself.

Involuntarily, it made Diablo's heart a little heavier, and when he looked at Aizen Sōsuke again, there was a little more murderous intent!

243 Good news again and again!

Aizen Sōsuke is a formidable enemy to Diablo, the Demon Lord who led his younger brother to kill the Demon Lord of the Demon Realm in order to be summoned.

As the biggest boss in the Shinigami world, Aizen Sōsuke, who controls Soul Society, is full of insight and naturally takes Diablo's demeanor into his eyes.

Of course, he had also seen a guy with such a character during his years in Soul Society, so he ignored it.

After all, summer bugs can't be shy, everyone's pursuits are different, why bother?

This is his greatest pride, the mastermind behind the manipulation of Soul Society with his IQ!

Diablo's hostility towards Aizen Sōsuke was not only perceived by Aizen Sōsuke, but also by Su Yang.

After shaking his head with a headache, he said to Aizen Sōsuke as always:

"Anyway...that's what I said, Aizen Sōsuke, welcome to this world!"

"Come on, let me introduce you to the members of our Pirates~!"

"This is Uchiha Madara, this is Diablo, this is Ace Kano...-"

After saying each of his signature welcome words, Su Yang also began to introduce every-crew on the ship to Aizen Sōsuke.

And Aizen Sōsuke also put on his gentle appearance and greeted everyone one by one.

What surprised everyone was that Aizen Sōsuke, after a series of greetings, actually chatted with Chao Meng very much.

However, Su Yang was not surprised at all.

After all, these two are scientific madmen with high IQs.

Although the research direction is not so consistent, but the heart that loves to study is the same sincere.

So, for the next few days, Aizen Sōsuke spent most of his time with Mewtwo, discussing various matters that people on the ship couldn't quite understand.

At the same time, Su Yang and the others haven't been idle much these days.

Almost according to the island that originally belonged to the Whitebeard Pirates, they fought one by one.

Except for some guys who don't wink and don't know whether to live or die, basically Su Yang and the Dimensional Pirates can take down the island without a fight.

Of course, there was naturally a part of the power that Diablo contributed.

·0 Seeking flowers.....

In the past few days, he almost didn't care much about going up to fight with the opponent Uchiha Madara.

Now almost every island Su Yang and the others go to, Diablo is the first to wash up on the island.

Several times, before the ship had docked, and even just saw the edge of the island, Diablo suddenly flapped his demon wings and flew towards the island.

As soon as the Shura docked, the island's king or leader, almost all suppressed by Diablo, knelt down on the island's pier or beside the beach, waiting for Su Yang and the others to arrive.

At this time, he hit the muzzle of the gun, was unwilling to surrender to the Dimensional Pirates, and even uttered mad words. Almost all of them were taken out of the heart by Diablo and piled up into a mountain of corpses, and then he summoned a fire directly. Burned.

In the end, there is a situation where there are no bones left...

In this way, the Shura made great progress all the way, and it was like a destructive force, and it took back the old sites that belonged to the Whitebeard Pirates one by one.

Until one afternoon, Mewtwo came to find Su Yang and proposed to him to leave the ship for a while.

244 Mewtwo's

Disembarkation Application!

"What the hell? You're going to be off the ship for a while?"

Su Yang was slightly taken aback when he heard Chaomeng's words, and then he opened his mouth and confirmed to Chaomeng.

"Yes! Captain Su Yang! 35

"Since Mr. Aizen was summoned, our interaction with each other has helped me tremendously with my research!35

"The original problem of insufficient energy has been solved by Mr. Aizen for me!

"But my research is now stuck in a bottleneck according to "May 23"!"

After hearing Su Yang's question, Mewtwo also told Su Yang one of the reasons why he got up and prepared to leave the ship.

"Oh? It's actually at a bottleneck again!

"This time, what kind of problems have arisen and need to be overcome?"

Su Yang listened to what Chao Meng said, and looked at him quite curiously, and asked him.

Chao Meng shook his head when he heard the words, the expression on his face was a bit more of a wry smile, and only listened to him slowly opening the mouth:

"It's not that there is a problem with the design of the steel suit!

"It's... the equipment on the ship can no longer meet my needs!"

"That's why I want to take Anna and Emily out of the ship for a while!"

Hearing Chaomeng's words, Su Yang instantly understood, and even after digesting the news, his heart was even more ecstatic.

Even though he already has the body of a fairy at this time, he doesn't need it at all, and even has some disdain for the mecha, but it does not mean that his love for the mecha and the steel battle suit has ended.

It's a mech after all!!!

Iron suit... is every man's dream!!!

"The design drawing is fine!

"I approve your request to leave the ship!"

"As for the place you just said, you need to be able to support you to build the mecha, but I know a good place! 99

"Wait a moment, I'll call and ask for the exact address!"

Su Yang immediately agreed to Mewtwo's request, took out a phone bug from Kabuto, and dialed it after pressing a series of buttons.

"Blu blu blu~"

"Blu blu blu~"

"Gaga ~ Moses Moses, I'm Sabo!

Soon, the phone bug was picked up, and the appearance of Sabo, chief of staff of the Revolutionary Army, also appeared on the phone bug's face.

Seeing that the call was connected, Su Yang also opened his mouth to report his home, and explained to Sabo why he had made the call:

"Sabo, I'm Su Yang!"

"There's something I want to ask you about!"

"I know you revolutionary army, know the location of Vegapunk's hometown..."

Watching Su Yang on the phone with people, Chaomeng listening to her heart is also extremely complicated. 0

He originally thought that his application for disembarkation would not be approved by Su Yang.

Which material layer thought, the moment Chao Meng Zai proposed it, Su Yang agreed.

And now he will even help himself to find a suitable place for himself.

"Okay! I see!"

"After that, you worked hard for the crow to deliver the eternal pointer with the coordinates of the island to 4.6!

Just when Chao Meng was thinking about it, Su Yang had already hung up the phone, and turned around and said to him:

"The eternal pointer that records the location of the island, I have asked the revolutionary army to send it over the past two days!

"When the record pointer arrives, you can go anytime!"

"By the way! I have a very good recommendation for the materials for making battle suits!"

"Mewtwo, you know... Wabo Alloy?"

245 Black Dragon's Choice!

"Wabo alloy?"

"I'm not quite sure about this, is there anything special about it?"

Hearing the material mentioned by Su Yang, Chao Meng shook his head and said.

"Ang~ This kind of wave alloy was accidentally made by the original drum country king, Tun Tun Demon fruit power Wapol!

"That's a memory metal that repairs itself when it's broken!"

"And the hardness and reliability of this alloy surpasses that of ordinary steel, and it may be helpful for you to make battle suits!"

"When you get to that Winter Island, you might as well try it out!"

10 Seeing Chaomeng shaking his head, Su Yang also explained to him.

After all, in the original book, General Franky created by Franky was made of Wabo metal.

According to Su Yang, if this kind of Wabo metal is used to make a steel battle suit, the performance of the battle suit should be even better!

After listening to Su Yang, Chao Meng nodded and silently wrote down the name of this metal.

When it comes to the efficiency of the revolutionary army, it is really fast.

Su Yang just made contact with Sabo using the phone bug, and someone sent him the record pointer early the next morning.

After getting the record pointer, Su Yang handed it over to Mewtwo, and told everyone in the Pirates that Mewtwo, Anna, and Emily would leave the ship for a while.

"Stinky cat! I'll go with you this time!"

"The main thing is that you go to that slope island this time, and take Anna and Emily with you! 35

"The two of them are not like you, they have some strength to protect themselves! 35

"If I go with you, if you encounter any strong enemies, you only need to protect them, and the enemies can be handed over to me to solve them!

35

Like the last time, Aknororia also opened his mouth to express his intention to go with this Mewtwo.

And the reason he gave this time was also very strong.

To protect Anna and Emily, two helpless crew members.

After this time together, although Anna and Emily's position on the ship was a handyman.

But everyone on the boat has long regarded them as their companions and family!

Therefore, even Mewtwo couldn't find any reason to refute this idea after Akunorolia proposed it.

Then Mewtwo looked at Akunororia, nodded slightly, and agreed.

So, under the watch of everyone in the Dimension Pirates, Mewtwo, Akunororia left the Shura with Anna and Emily and went to Vegapunk's hometown.

However, because of Akunorolia's special "halo" characteristics of all means of transportation, in order to take care of his situation, the group of them did not take any means of transportation.

523 On the contrary, Akunorolia turned herself into the body of a giant dragon, carrying Anna and Emily on her back and flying in the sky.

And Mewtwo, naturally, will not be allowed by Akunororia to be on his back like Anna and the two girls.

Therefore, he can only use the super power in his body to wrap his body, and control his own body, floating next to Akunorolia and following closely.

The opposite is the opposite.

When the two of them started to fly, as if there was some kind of competition, they began to compete for the speed of flight.

It's just that the group of four who were on their way at this time did not realize that an accident was hitting them.

246 Encounter with Kaido!!!

It continued to fly in the air for about four hours, and it was almost noon.

The gradually rising temperature and the state of blowing in the air for a long time made Anna and Emily unable to bear it.

So the two girls worked together to dissuade Akunorolia and Mewtwo from the speed competition, and suggested that they hope to take a break on the island in front.

Although this road is not a difficult task for Akunorolia, who has incarnated into the body of a giant dragon.

Thinking that Anna and Emily are both ordinary human beings, they can't stand it.

Therefore, Akurolia and Mewtwo didn't object, they stopped the speed of each other, and landed on an uninhabited island not far away.

After finally arriving on the island, Anna and Emily started simple camping and grooming.

Mewtwo went to the woods to find some coconuts and wild fruits, and Akurolia also went into the sea and caught the very large Sea Kings.

The four of them were eating barbecue, drinking coconut water, and eating wild fruits.

Just as everyone was enjoying their meal, Aknororia and Chao Meng suddenly stood up and looked at the top of their heads with solemn expressions.

"Boom~~~~"

Just when Anna and Emily were still a little bit confused, a huge sound of breaking air came from the sky above their heads.

When Anna and Emily looked up, it turned out to be a black shadow, falling rapidly from small to large, from far to near.

"Boom!!!!!!!!!"

With a loud noise, the black shadow fell on the ground not far from their camp at a speed visible to the naked eye.

Because this black shadow fell on the junction of the beach and the land, the moment it fell, a huge smoke and dust mist was raised, covering its figure.

At this time, the gloomy faces of Aknororia and Mewtwo were staring at the smoke and dust, while protecting Anna and Emily behind them.

Looking at Akunororia and Mewtwo's vigilant expressions, and the move to protect the two of them behind her, Anna murmured involuntarily:

"Lord Mewtwo... Akunoro Lord Leah..."

"Boom! Boom! Boom! Boom!"

Just as Anna's voice fell, a series of heavy footsteps came from the dusty fog.

A broad, tall, and robust figure appeared in the fog.

Soon, the shadow came out of the dust, revealing Kaido, one of the "Four Emperors", his true appearance!!!

After clearly seeing the figure falling from the sky in front of them, it turned out to be Kaido, one of their own pirates, and Anna and Emily covered their mouths in horror.

`Oh? I didn't expect to jump off the Sky Island, and there is such a small surprise!

"Hey!!! If I remember correctly, you two are the crew of that bastard Su Yang?"

"Your Dimensional Pirates have killed so many of me, and Laozi killed a few of you today, and it's counted as getting some interest back for Jack and the others! 99

Kaido carried his (Li Lehao) mace, looked at Akurolia and Mewtwo who looked at him with a wary expression not far away, and after thinking for a while, pointed at them with one hand, and said They muttered.

Listening to what Kaido said, Akurolia and Mewtwo also knew that this wave of encounters was happening, so why couldn't they have a fight!

So, Aknororia took the lead in turning her head and said to Mewtwo next to her:

"Stinky cat, take Anna and Emily away first!"

"I'll stop him!!!"

247 Fight!

As soon as Akurolia's voice fell and Mewtwo didn't speak, Anna and Emily reacted first.

They looked at Akronoria with tears in their eyes, and shouted to her:

"Lord Akronoria!!!

Mewtwo, on the other hand, looked at Akurolia with a complicated look.

Although they didn't see each other in the eye before that.

But in fact, in their hearts, they have long recognized each other's strength!

It's just that the situation is critical at this time, and there is not much time to waste.

The complex emotions in Chao Meng's heart were fleeting, and he quickly returned to his state of rational thinking.

He was clear.

Kaido is a long-established powerhouse in the sea, the Four Emperors of the sea known as "the strongest on the surface of 523"!

And Anna and Emily...

Before the steel battle suits were developed, they who were low in strength and fought against the five scumbags could only be a drag if they stayed here rashly.

On the contrary, Chao Meng sent the two away first, and then rushed back as soon as possible.

Together with Akurolia, not only can we fight Kaido, but there is a chance of winning!

Listening to the shouts in Anna and Emily's mouth, and feeling the gaze projected by Mewtwo, Akurolia understood that Mewtwo had already understood her plan.

He then grinned wildly at the corner of his mouth, turned to look at Anna and Emily, and comforted the two women:

"Before I set off, I promised Su Yang that I would protect the safety of both of you!

"Don't forget, I am the strongest dragon slayer in the world!"

"Four Emperors... what can I do!!!"

This time, Mewtwo didn't talk back to Akronoria as usual, but stretched out his right hand and summoned his huge spoon.

The powerful thought force exploded in an instant, turning into three blue lights, wrapping Chao Meng's body as well as Emily and Anna.

"I'll get them back as soon as I get them to safety!"

"Stinky lizard! Don't lose until I come here!

"Otherwise... I could laugh at you for a year!"

Although I didn't raise the bar at the right time to interrupt Akurolia's pretending, but after doing all this, Mewtwo still (baeg) teased him.

As soon as the voice fell, regardless of the slightly changed expression of Aknororia, Chao Meng no longer delayed, and directly manipulated the power of the mind to wrap the two girls, Anna and Emily, and blasted away in the direction of the sea.

Just as Mewtwo had just set off, Kaido was already rushing towards him in great strides.

Seeing that they were about to run away, they were furious.

"Humph!!! Did Laozi let you go!!!"

"Thundering Eight Trigrams!!!

Just listening to Kaido snorted coldly, while drinking loudly, he also waved his mace in the direction of Mewtwo.

"Whoo~~~"

The huge mace cut through the air, causing a huge roar.

"Heh...they want to leave, but you can't stop them!"

Just when Kaido's mace was about to hit the three of Chaomeng, only a light laughter sounded.

At the same time, Akurolia's body turned into a black shadow, intercepting the three of them before the mace and Mewtwo.

"The Iron Fist of the Black Dragon!!!

With the loud shout of Aknororia, his fist, which was wrapped in dark black terrifying energy, smashed heavily on the mace.

"Boom!!!!99

A roaring explosion sounded from where the fist made contact with the mace.

The huge wind and waves generated by the explosion immediately swept up the sea sand that had been accumulated on the beach for a long time, and the large swathes of sand and dust turned into a pervasive sand mist, covering all the figures of Kaido, Akurolia, and Mewtwo.

248 Black Dragon Battle Kaido!!!

"Whoo~ whoo~ whoo~"

In the blink of an eye, the three figures swept out of the dust mist generated by the explosion, and continued to fly towards the sea at an extremely fast speed.

Obviously, Kaido's blow was blocked by Akurolia, and the three of Mewtwo got out of the fight smoothly.

"Damn!!!

Looking at the backs of the three of Mewtwo riding away, Kaido was furious in his heart, cursing in his mouth, and immediately prepared to throw his mace at Mewtwo.

However, Kaido's movements had already been predicted by Acunorolia.

Before he threw the mace out of his hand, he heard Akunorolia exclaimed:

"The Elbow of the Black Dragon!!!"

With this loud shout, the elbow full of the power of the dark dragon smashed towards Kaido's stinky face under the cover of sand and dust. Immediately, the Observation Haki in Kaido gave him an early warning. As a result, the mace that he was about to throw away was also retracted at the right time, and with a flick of his wrist, it blocked the path of the elbow attack of Aknororia.

For a while, two figures, one big and one small, in Sagiri began to stalemate.

"Ding! Ding! Ding! Ding!"

"When! When! When! When!"

"Boom! Boom! Boom! Boom!"

The roaring explosion sounded incessantly, and every collision between Akurolia's fist and Kaido's mace would produce a huge sonic boom.

After a short while, the endless fighting gradually made Kaido get angry.

"Since you let them run away, then you leave Laozi a little life!!!"

"Armed Color!!!

After another violent collision, Kaido sipped from his mouth, activating the Armament Haki within him.

Armament Haki followed Kaido's wrist, and instantly wrapped and wrapped around the mace.

And Aknororia, who was fighting with her, shuddered when she heard Kaido's words.

He knew that the guy in front of him was going to make a big move!

"Cut! I told you just now that you can't keep anyone's life today!!!"

"Dragonization!!!

As Aknororia spoke, her body also acted decisively to mobilize the boiling magic power, and cast the mysterious body of dragon slaying magic into a dragon!!!

Small and tight black scales gradually covered Akurolia's body with lightning speed.

·0 for flowers ·.....

At the same time as his body was transformed into a dragon, the power of the dark black dragon also began to accumulate in his right arm.

As if he had a heart-to-heart, at the moment when the power of the black dragon in Aknororia's right arm was accumulated, Kaido roared, waving the huge mace in his hand and smashing it again!

"Thunder Eight Trigrams!!!35

"Black Dragon's Collapse Fist!!!"

With two loud shouts, the black iron-colored luster mace collided with the dragon scale fist filled with the power of a dark black dragon.

"Boom!!!!!!!!!"

A huge roar suddenly sounded, and a strong light bloomed at the place where the two met.

The energy of the strong collision devours everything around it.

The beach where Akunorolia and Kaido were standing before was turned into a vacuum under the collision of this nuclear explosion-like energy, forming a large circular crater about thirty meters in length.

And the strong air wave formed by the explosion also swept everything around in an instant, spreading overwhelmingly towards the surroundings.

Several tall coconut trees that have been rooted around for a long time were all uprooted in this strong storm, and were thrown to the sea and woods farther away.

249 We are the Dimensional

Pirates!!

"Boom~"

The two girls, Anna and Emily, were flying fast with the Super Dream Psyche wrapped around them. Just when they were about two or three kilometers away from the small island they had stopped before, a thunderous roar came from behind them.

Hearing the roaring sound in their ears, Anna and Emily turned around and were shocked.

I saw that at the edge of the small island before, a huge mushroom cloud rose up.

In the middle part of the mushroom cloud "five two three", there is an extremely dazzling light group shining in it.

"Meower-sama! Is that...is that the movement of Akurolia-sama fighting Kaido?"

Ana looked worried and asked Chao Meng who was beside her.

The huge movement from the rear was naturally captured by Chaomeng.

Seeing the worried expressions of Anna and Emily, Chao Meng first nodded, then gave them a "reassuring" look, and explained to them in a rather gentle tone:

"Although that stupid lizard has not fully recovered due to his fitness for the laws of this world! 35

"But that doesn't mean he is strong at this time, and he doesn't have the power to fight Kaido!

As soon as Mewtwo's words came out, Anna and Emily's eyes lit up.

After this period of time together, Chao Meng's profound knowledge and wise mind have already convinced the two of them.

Therefore, his words made Emily and Anna quite convinced.

"Hehe! Mewtwo-sama, doesn't that mean that Akurolia-sama is not in danger now!

Immediately, Emily confirmed to Mewtwo with a smile on her face.

"Of course there is no danger to life!

"Based on the analysis of the battle data I've collected these days, the Stinky Lizard and Kaido should be on a par!

"The two of them can't tell the difference for a while, and it's endurance that fights in the end!"

Chao Meng heard the words and continued to nod, and while giving Emily a positive answer, he also expressed his own analysis.

"Then...Akunorolia-sama asked Mewtwo to lead us first, also to prevent us from being affected by the aftermath of the battle?"⁵

When Anna heard this, she also asked Chao Meng a question.

"That's just one of the reasons!"

The answer Mewtwo gave this time instantly aroused the curiosity of Anna and Emily.⁰

Seeing the eyes of the two girls, full of curiosity, Chao Meng also explained to them patiently:

"Isn't it on the ship now, with the protection of Shura and others!

"If you stay on the island, I will need to protect your safety all the time, and the damage I can cause to Kaido is limited!

"And I will take you out first, settle you in a safe place, and then quickly turn back!"

"That way, I can free up my hands and teach Kaido a lesson with that stupid lizard! 99

"After all...we are the Dimensional Pirates!!!"

When Chao Meng said the last sentence, the aura that belonged to the divine beast on his body ^{4.6} broke out unconsciously.

yes!

He is a dream!

In order to surpass the dream, the Rockets specially created the Mewtwo for combat!

And the pirate group he and Akronoria, Anna, and Emily belong to are the Dimensional Pirates!

How can the people of their Dimensional Pirates be just a mere Kaido that the Four Emperors can bully!!!.

250 Crash! Conqueror's and Dragon Power!!!

There are two flowers, one on each side.

While Mewtwo is at sea, Haki talks to Anna and Emily, and the collision of energy on the island gradually ends.

The flying dust gradually fell from the air to the ground.

Under the collision of the two energies, the huge deep pit that was created was also poured into the sea from the sea at this moment.

The Akunorolia and Kaido, who had just made a duel, have also moved to the land of the island.

I saw Kaido's broad and majestic chest rise and fall greatly, and his nostrils the size of a cow's nose suddenly fanned out.

Under the sun, the mace in his hand glowed with a metallic luster of black iron color, which was extremely fierce.

10 And Akurolia was panting.

It's just that the rise and fall of the chest is not as exaggerated as Kaido.

A pair of originally sturdy and very linear arms have now been covered with dense black scales, under the sunlight, they are restrained and dangerous.

As Mewtwo had expected, the collision of the two just attacked did not hurt each other.

And Akurolia and Kaido are not good people, they are standing at each other at this time, and their eyes are full of killing intent.

"Whoo~~~"

A gust of breeze blew slowly, bringing along a few fallen leaves that had just been blown to the ground by the aftermath of the battle between the two.

As if they got some signal, Kaido and Akurolia acted at the same time.

"Conqueror's!!!

"Longwei!!!

As the two of them burst out drinking at the same time, two terrifying and domineering auras burst out of their bodies and rose into the sky!

"Boom!!!

"crunch~crunch~crunch~"

On one side is Conqueror's Haki, who has been bred for many years and covers the will of Kaido's "strongest on the surface" hegemony.

On one side is the supreme pressure of the divine dragon, who is dazzled by the world and nurtured by the body of the ancient black dragon!

Two powerful and domineering auras collided in the void, producing a powerful vibration and blasting sound.

And along with the edges of the collision and friction between the two momentums, there are countless tiny electric currents intertwined with the sound of birdsong.

This time is a competition of wills, a collision of backgrounds.

Against the backdrop of Conqueror's Haki, Kaido looks like a terrifying monster, projecting the void.

And above Aknororia's head, there seemed to be a tyrannical black dragon hovering in the void at this time.

The collision of the two momentums once again brought unparalleled damage to this small island!

The swept-up air wave was like a destructive force, and with the two people as the center, the land and trees within a diameter of 50 meters would rise from the ground.

With the gradual spread and expansion of these two momentum battlefields, in just a moment of effort, the entire island was basically shrouded in these two momentums.

The 523 creatures that originally lived here on the island, at this time, all fainted on the ground, or crawled on all fours, expressing surrender and worship to the owner of these two imposing manners.

"Pfft~"

After a moment of effort, there was a small beast whose physical strength was not strong enough and fainted, unable to withstand the collision of the two momentums, and its body exploded like fireworks.

"Puff~Puff~"

"Puff~Puff~Puff~"

This time, it was as if the referee blew the opening whistle on the field, and the long-stored dam opened the floodgates.

The animal bodies on the island began to burst one by one, adding a bit of bloody and wild meaning to the entire island.

251 Oh... you are the only 1 who can transform into a dragon?

Watching Akunororia confront the Conqueror's Haki chamber he unleashed with a power he had never seen before.

Kaido suddenly felt a love for talent in his heart, he couldn't help laughing and threw an olive branch to Akurolia:

"Ha ha ha ha ha ha ha!"

"Is the black dragon Akunorolia? It can have such power! 55

"How? Do you want to come to Laozi's ship, I will let you be the first of the three plagues, or the deputy captain of the Beasts Pirates can do it for you!

And after hearing this, Akurolia couldn't help but cast Kaido a mentally retarded look.

He had already fought him to death here, yet he still wanted to recruit him?

Is there something wrong with this guy's brain???

I remembered!

I heard Su Yang say it before, this guy loves to die when he has nothing to do!

What ran to Marine headquarters to provoke, what jumped a volcano and bathed in lava, what jumped down from Sky Island, changed tricks to death, committed suicide!

Even today, this guy suddenly fell from the sky, because he jumped from Sky Island again.

From this point of view, there must be something seriously wrong with this guy's brain, so he should stay away.

And...Listen to the smelly cat, brain diseases are contagious!

This guy, let alone getting on his ship, even if the battle with him has to end quickly, if he is infected, how can he still be on the ship?

After Kaido threw the olive on Acunorola, he had been watching Acunorola's reaction.

The so-called silence is better than the sound at this time!

Although Aknorollia didn't take his words, she directly told him whether to agree or refuse.

But from the change in Akurolia's expression at this time, as well as the expression changes of "Look at the fool" and "Mom won't let me play with the fool", he got the answer he wanted.

It's just...the answers he got in this way made Kaido even more furious!

he!

Kaido!

Four Emperors in the sea, the strongest on the surface!

At best, he can be regarded as a reckless man, but definitely not "big smart"!!!

"Humph! How dare you refuse Laozi's solicitation!

"Since you don't know the good and the bad, don't blame Laozi's men for being merciless!"

Although Kaido was furious in his heart because of the results he analyzed, the reason for "being angry because he was rejected" on the surface was still in place.

At the same time as a roar, Kaido also mobilized the power of Devil Fruit in his body and began to transform into a beast.

Zoan[Fish Fruit]Evil Animal Species[Blue Dragon Form!!!

66`Teng!!!”

A large number of weapons appeared from Kaido's body, covering his already burly and huge body.

In the fog, Kaido's body began to gradually elongate, become larger, and thicker, and at the same time, blue scales began to cover his back.

"Roar!!!"

In a moment, with a huge dragon-like roar, a huge figure rose up from the fog and floated in the air!

At this time, Kaido (Li Lehao) has turned into a dragon with blue body, yellow belly, antlers, dragon head, and sharp teeth.

"Oh...isn't it just a dragon?"

"Just you?"

Looking at Kaido who turned into a dragon, floating in the air, looking down at him, Aknorollia, who folded his arms in front of his chest, pouted, and laughed softly with a look of disdain.

As soon as the voice fell, Aknororia also snorted softly: "Dragon Slayer Magic Dragon Transformation!!!"

252 Kaido you worm!!!

With the light drink of Aknororia, the magic power in his body also boiled instantly, spreading towards his limbs.

In an instant, Akurolia's body also began to change.

The arms, which were originally covered by fine and hard scales, began to swell, and the hands began to change like sharp claws.

The scales that had previously covered the chest and back of the upper body also began to wrap gradually toward the lower body.

"Shh~~~"

A pair of huge wings also appeared out of nothing from the back of Akronorlia, and when it stretched, it quickly became larger with Akronorlia's extremely large body.

In the blink of an eye, Aknorollia transformed into 523, a giant dragon whose body size did not lose the form of Kaido's blue dragon.

Of course, although both of them are dragons, there are still differences.

The dragon that Kaido transformed into is a dragon that is more oriental and has a snake body as its main body.

And what Aknororia has transformed through dragon slaying magic is the western giant dragon mainly in the shape of a lizard!

After Kaido saw that Akurolia was able to transform into a giant dragon whose size was comparable to his own, the spark that had just been extinguished in his heart was ignited again.

Naturally preferring to collect and recruit all kinds of Zoan Demon fruit power, (baeg) trying to build an "animal world" pirate group, he was even more excited after seeing the changing dragon in Aknororia at this time.

He was even so excited that he subconsciously forgot that he had recruited Acunorolia before and was rejected by Acunorolia.

"Wow... I didn't expect you to be the Demon fruit power of Zoan Eudemons!"

"This one that can transform into a giant dragon should be the Zoan Lizard Fruit's mythical beast!"

"Acunorolia! I will ask you one last time, if you are willing to be the deputy captain of my Beasts Pirates, then from now on, you and I will be able to cross the sea and rule the whole world!!!

However, Kaido's solicitation this time, not only did not attract Acunorolia, but deeply touched the pain point of Acunorolia, arousing the monstrous anger in his heart!

There is no reason for him!

Just because Kaido saw the dark magic dragon transformed by Aknororia, he even classified it as Zoan's lizard fruit classification.

And what Akurolia hates to be told is that she transforms into a dragon like a lizard!!!

As a result, Akurolia, whose chest was filled with monstrous anger, involuntarily shouted angrily at the opening:

"Kaido, you worm, you dare to call me a lizard, kill me!!!!"

"The... roar of the black dragon!!!"

With the roar from Akronorlia's mouth, a huge magic circle appeared in Akronoria's open mouth.

The powerful and dazzling magic power was condensed in Aknororia's mouth, and it was spit out after a while!

Suddenly, the Observation Haki in Kaido's body once again brought him an early warning.

"Suck

"Heat breath!!!"

With Akurolia's current state, how could Kaido not see that he was really going to kill himself.

Therefore, he would not sit still and wait for Akurolia to kill himself. He also sucked in his belly, and after brewing a burst of energy, he faced the attacking attack and walked away!

253 Why should I, the black dragon, give face to others!

"Boom!!!!"

The huge explosion once again spread to the entire island.

The strong storm caused by the roar of the black dragon shrouded half of the island like a blanket, and swept the flowers, plants, trees, beasts, birds, fish and insects on one side of the island into the sky.

The other half of the island was shrouded in the ultra-high temperature covered by the dragon's breath. Whether it was the trees or the gravel, the "523" raging fire was ignited at this extremely high temperature, forming a sea of fire.

Just the collision of this blow turned the entire island into an existence like the "Ice and Fire Island" created after the battle between Aokiji and Akainu in the original book.

The difference between the two is that half of this island is raging wind and half is raging fire.

"Wow!!! Akurolia, you dare to refuse Laozi again and again, it's shameless!"

"Laozi tells you that next year's day will be your death anniversary, take another blow from me!!!"

"Bad wind!!!

The two breath-like attacks had just finished colliding, and Kaido, who had been brought back to a state of rage by Akunorolia, roared at Akunorolia again.

At the same time, the Devil Fruit ability in his body was operating, and a powerful wind force was brewing in his belly, and then spit it out.

Immediately, a strong and piercing airflow escaped from Kaido's mouth, and turned into a huge tornado in the air at a speed visible to the naked eye.

With the naked eye, Yi saw that the mighty tornado contained countless wind blades, like the slash of the scythe, overwhelming the sky and attacking the body of the black dragon of Akunorolia.

"Heh! I'm the black dragon Akunorolia of the Dimension Pirates. Besides the head of the group, Su Yang, why should I give any face to anyone else?"

"Kaido bugs are ridiculous!"

"The... roar of the black dragon!!!

Akunorolia heard Kaido's angry words, and even more did not give him face and turned back the words, and at the same time, he shouted.

The shining magic circle reappeared in the mouth of Akunorolia's blood basin, and powerful magic was brewing from it.

"Whoo~~~"

Between the electric light and flint, the black dragon roared rapidly, with a terrifying aura attached, spewed out from the mouth of Akunorolia, and headed towards the incoming storm with lightning speed.

The so-called one power down ten meetings!

The roar of the black dragon and the bad wind storm meet unexpectedly. In the blink of an eye, the energy of the black dragon's roar shot straight through the swept storm, destroying the originally terrifying storm.

It's just... this time the bad wind collided with the energy of the black dragon's roar, making the island, which had already become extremely fragile, no longer able to withstand it.

Just like the body of a small beast that was squeezed and burst by the collision of the two people's breaths before, the entire island was also torn apart by the aftermath of the two people's attack, turning into pieces of different sizes. gradually sink to the bottom of the sea.

The island is unsurprisingly destroyed, while the battle between Kaido and Akurolia continues and grows more stalemate.

Chapter 254 The Power of Secrets!

Different Spaces!

As Kaido's battle with Aknorollia escalated, so did their battle.

This also makes Mewtwo have to take Anna and Emily, and dodge a little more distance than originally planned.

"Secret Power!!!"

Chao Meng held this huge spoon and drank it lightly in his mouth, while hitting the seabed sand pile in front of him.

Strange forces followed the top of the huge spoon in Chao Meng's hand and scattered towards the inside of the seabed sand pile.

At ten o'clock, a space node of a different dimension was opened by it.

And under the blessing of the wonderful power input before Chaomeng, the space nodes that appeared here were quickly widened and expanded.

In a moment of effort, an independent and empty space was expanded.

After completing all of this and confirming that the space barriers in the entire different-dimensional space have been completely firmed, Chao Meng controlled the power of thought and entered the space with Anna and Emily.

"This is a different space created by me using the power of secrets!"

"It is a space independent of the whole world, you will be safer here! 35

After recovering the mind power wrapped in Anna and Emily, Chao

Meng also introduced to the two.

"Alien space?"

"Wow~ Mr. Chaomeng is amazing!"

Finally got out of the floating state, and after regaining a down-to-earth feeling, Anna looked at the wonderful space around her and couldn't help but sigh.

Unlike Anna, who was cheering and full of freshness and curiosity, Emily asked Mewtwo with a worried look:

"But... Master Chao Meng, this place is under the deep sea!

"Once you come into contact with the energy from the seawater, and you are soaked in seawater for a long time, will your ability fail because of this?"

Hearing Emily's words, Anna, who was still very curious, also instantly realized the problem, and her face suddenly became extremely frightened, as if thinking of some terrifying picture.

Seeing the two of them react like this, Chao Meng smiled involuntarily.

He knew in his heart that even though Emily and the others had been in contact with the people of their Dimensional Pirates for a long time, they even knew that the people on board were basically from other worlds.

But from time to time, they will still be limited by the limitations of this world's power system.

For example, the secret power that he uses is obviously the power of the Pokémon world.

But Emily would subconsciously think about Devil Fruit's ability.

So, Mewtwo also explained to Emily:

"The power of secrets will not be weakened by the erosion of the sea!

"And the reason why I opened up this alien space on the bottom of the sea is to use the seawater to block the spread of Devil Fruit's ability!

"After all... as far as I know, this world still has the Devil Fruit ability that touches the power of space!"

When 523 heard Mewtwo's explanation, Emily and Anna also showed a hint of understanding, and the originally worried and frightened expressions also eased.

"Then you can do something to eat, drink, or get out your sleeping bag and rest here for a while!"

"I have already set a space anchor here just now, and I can find you at any time!"

"After I go out for a while, I will use the power of secrets to seal this place again! 35

"So you don't have to worry that there will be sea water pouring in here!"

After seeing them better, Chao Meng did not forget the previous plan.

After explaining the last few words to the two women, he waved the spoon in his hand lightly, and stepped out of the space.

255 Mewtwo's full of fighting spirit!!!

It was different from the rapid rush that took Anna and Emily with her mind power just now.

The way Chaomeng rushed back to the island this time was much more high-end than before.

"Teleport!!!"

"Shu~~~"

With a thought of Chao Meng, his body appeared less than twenty kilometers away from the island.

Just before the rapid attack, Mewtwo had already put down a few space anchors on the way, so that he could use teleportation moves to teleport in space.

Another thought, Chao Meng disappeared and reappeared.

This time, he has come to a location three kilometers away from the island.

"Boom! Boom!"

"Crack~Crack~Crack~"

At this time, Chaomeng couldn't see any traces of the island before, except for the turbulent sea surface that formed a huge vortex, there was only the overhead of lightning and thunder.

Even through the thick clouds, Chao Meng can still see the two behemoths fighting in the clouds!

Kaido and Akurolia!!!

Their huge bodies are intertwined and fought in the clouds, and every collision will bring about a commotion of lightning and thunder.

If ordinary people watch it here, they will only experience the terrifying coercion that is like divine punishment.

In Chaomeng's eyes, this scene was like a flame, igniting his long-depleted heart.

In the world of Pokémon, there are not many Pokémon that can be his opponents!

Those first-level gods and second-level gods are either sleeping or fulfilling the responsibilities entrusted to them by their respective "gods", and they basically have no time and effort to fight against him.

And those "champion" trainers who have cultivated the power of Pokémon close to the god level, each has a different "divine vocation" of mythical beasts to pay attention to.

Coupled with his every move, he was constantly being watched by that little thing in the dream.

Whenever he is itchy and wants to go to those Pokémon trainers for a duel, the dream will appear at the right time, preventing himself from using his full strength, so he can't enjoy it every time.

Now that he came to this world, Chao Meng not only saw a different power system, but also saw many "human beings" from different worlds and masters of various extraordinary powers on the ship.

For a period of time before, Chao Meng was doing scientific research work according to the ideas given by Su Yang, while trying his best to adapt to the power of the laws of this world, in order to restore his strength as soon as possible.

And the usual speed of adaptation is too slow and gentle, even a temperament like Chao Meng can't stand it.

Therefore, he became more and more aware that Uchiha Madara, Diablo, Ace Kano, and Tornado, all of them, were all in a state of fighting frenzy looking forward to fighting.

After all, no one with extraordinary power, who could have been above the world, could tolerate the weakness of his own power.

While Mewtwo was thinking in his heart, the look in Kaido's eyes became more and more full of fighting intent.

He has endured (Li's good) for too long!

Whether it is the previous Pokémon world or the one after the pirate world summoned by Su Yang.

Chao Meng is very clear in his heart that he needs a hearty battle at the moment!

And now... Kaido, one of the world's top fighting forces, ranked among the New World Pirates Four Emperors and known as "the strongest on the surface", is in front of him.

Then Chao Meng does not need to be as rational as before, just need to fight hard!!!.

256 Mew2 Kaido!!!

"Kaido!!!"

"Today I will use your defeat to leave the name of my super dream in this world!!!"

Mewtwo stared at the sky full of fighting spirit, Kaido, who turned into a dragon and swirled in the mist, pointed at him with a huge spoon in his hand, and exclaimed.

When these words were blurted out, a momentum representing the identity of the super dream Pokémon mythical beast rose into the sky, pointing straight at the sky like a sharp sword.

At the same time, Mewtwo's mental power exploded, wrapping around his body, swooping away with a swoosh, and rushing towards Kaido's body.

Mewtwo arrived here from the momentary movement and the burst of breath was naturally perceived by Kaido.

At this time, when he heard Chaomeng's explosive drink, Ben 523 was scolded by Akunorolia one after another as "long bugs", and the angry Kaido was even more angry in his heart.

Even though the momentum that erupted from Chao Meng's body should not be underestimated at this time, he still roared at Chao Meng, who shot from bottom to top:

"Wow!!! The little mouse that just escaped not only dared to come back, but also dared to provoke Laozi!"

"You Dimension Pirates really think Laozi has no temper!!!99

"Roaring Thunder!!!

As soon as Kaido's voice fell, a thick thunder and lightning roared out of his mouth along with the dragon's roar, and the target was directed at Mewtwo.

Looking at the thunder that descended from the sky with an incomparably terrifying aura, Chao Meng did not stop his steps.

At the same time, he opened his mouth, and the energy in his body quickly condensed.

"Destroy the Light of Death!!!"

"Whoo~~~"

"Boom!!!!!!35

The destructive death light from Chaomeng's mouth collided with the terrifying thunderbolt in the air, and a huge roar suddenly collided.

It's just... the skill of destroying death light, in the skill evaluation of the Pokémon world, the power value has reached 150 points!

The thunder that Kaido spewed out did not cancel out Mewtwo's destructive death light, but instead was directly pierced and destroyed by him after a slight stalemate.

After penetrating Kaido's attack, Mewtwo's baeg light blazed towards Kaido's body at an extremely fast speed.

Immediately, Observation Haki in Kaido warned him.

"Damn it! I underestimated you!"

"Tornado!!!"

Feeling the warning from Observation Haki in his body, Kaido also understood in his heart that he was underestimating Mewtwo, and while he was shouting angrily, his body twisted, the dragon claws on the dragon's body grabbed the surrounding clouds and mist, begins to rotate rapidly.

With the rapid rotation of Kaido's body, a tornado appeared from his body and surrounded him.

At the same time, countless wind blades were spit out from his mouth.

When those sharp and dense wind blades appeared, they were pulled by the tornado around Kaido and merged with them, protecting Kaido's safety like a loyal and dangerous ninja.

"Boom!!! 99

"Crack~Crack~Crack~"

Mewtwo's destruction of death light and Kaido's tornado blade, two energies met unexpectedly and collided in the air.

It is a pity that Mewtwo's destructive death light consumed a lot of energy when it penetrated the thunder before.

At this time, he encountered those dense and sharp tornado blades, but failed to break through again.

A moment of effort, then disappeared and dissipated, and was disintegrated by those wind blades Ling Chi.

257 Kaido: Can't beat it, get on the buff!!!

Seeing that Kaido's tornado blade was neutralized, Mewtwo was not surprised by this, but the fighting intent in his eyes became even more fiery.

This is the power of the strong!

This is the fight he should have in his dream!

It's been a long time...I haven't encountered such an exciting battle~!!!

Chao Meng, who was extremely emotional in his heart, only felt the blood from his whole body to boil.

However, just when Chao Meng was about to continue to make moves to break those tornado blades, a roar interrupted his move.

"Roar!!! Stinky cat, come when you come, what's the matter with you robbing me!!!

"Roar of the Black Dragon!!!

Following this roar of blame, a dark black dragon breath attack with a very destructive aura appeared from the other side of the sky.

This dragon's breath attack appeared overwhelming, destroying the tornado blades around Kaido in a destructive manner.

At the same time, a huge western dragon with supreme dragon power flashed his wings and came to Chaomeng's side.

Apparently, it was the "black dragon" Akunorolia who had been fighting with Kaido for a long time now!!!

"Stealing monsters?"

"Cut... For the safety of Anna and Emily, I ran a little more distance and left you a lot of time! 35

"You haven't solved the enemy for such a long time, it's your own lack of strength!

"Stupid lizard, where did the face come from??? 35

Chaomeng looked at Akunorolia, who had turned into a giant dragon and exuded a very disgusting breath in front of him. He didn't leave any virtue in his mouth, and directly replied to Akunorolia.

As soon as Chao Meng said these words, the black dragon Aknororia was irritated enough!

At that time, he wanted to use "Black Dragon's Roar" to kill Chao Meng directly!

But considering that this guy will teleport, he may not be able to kill him with one shot, but it will develop into a protracted war, which is not cost-effective, so he put out the plan to fight with force and prepared to talk back.

However, before Aknorollia had time to respond, Kaido, who was attacked by him with the "Roar of the Black Dragon", immediately roared angrily:

"Damn!!! How disregarding Laozi are you!!!"

"Laozi is the strongest Four Emperors Kaido on the surface!!!"

·0 for flowers·.....

At the same time Kaido roared, he got a wine gourd out of nowhere, and then threw the whole wine gourd into his mouth.

As he chewed, an extremely strong aroma of wine emerged from his mouth.

In front of Akurolia and Mewtwo, Kaido swallowed the strong liquor originally contained in the wine gourd, along with the fragments of the wine gourd.

"Hiccup~~~"

"Destroy me all!!!"

"Dragon Eight Trigrams!!!99"

After drinking the strong drink, Kaido's face suddenly appeared red after drinking, and after hiccups in his eyes, he waved the mace in his hand and aimed at Akurolia and Mewtwo. rush away.

It seemed that the strong drink had blessed Kaido with some indescribable buff. Both Mewtwo and Aknorollia could clearly feel that Kaido's attack was far more powerful than the previous attack.

Kaido is so rushing, Mewtwo and Akurolia can't just sit still.

"Million ton kick!!!"

I only heard Chao Meng shouting, and the figure flashed, and rushed towards Kaido's direction.

258 Take advantage of your illness and kill you!

"boom!!!"

Mewtwo's fist collided with Kaido's mace, and an explosive explosion exploded in the air.

The collision of just one blow, even if Kaido has entered a state of anger and drunkenness, he will no longer underestimate Mewtwo.

And Chao Meng also realized how powerful Kaido, who is known as "the strongest on the surface", is through the huge force feedback from his fist.

"Roar!!!"

Just as Kaido and Chaomeng both "540" sighed the strength of each other in their hearts, a huge roar sounded from behind Kaido.

Immediately, a large mouth full of sharp fangs bit the back of Kaido's head and neck.

The so-called "snake hit seven inches".

Even though Kaido is already the body of a dragon at this time, the common weakness of snakes still exists in Kaido's body of a dragon.

At this time, the bite of Aknororia was exactly at the "seven inches" of Kaido's dragon's body!

This is what he discovered during his previous engagement with Kaido.

It's just that Kaido is obviously very clear about this weakness of his own, so he has always protected it very well, and has always let Akurolia not find a chance.

It was not until the head-to-head duel between Mewtwo and Kaido that Aknorollia found a chance.

The severe pain suddenly made Kaido scream.

"Roar!!! Damn!!!! 35

"Despicable guys, give Laozi loose!!!"

"Armed Color□Tail Shot!!!"

While roaring in Kaido's mouth, he also mobilized Armament Haki in his body, completely covering the tail of his dragon's body, glowing with a black iron luster.

Then Kaido's body twisted, and the entire body of the dragon was bent like a bow, and then it was shot again.

In an instant, the tail covered by Armament Haki turned into a long whip, whistling and slashed towards Akurolia, who was biting at Kaido's "seven inches".

"Whoo~~~"

"Snapped!!!"

The tail wrapped by Armament Haki burst through the air and slapped Akunororia heavily.

But even though Akurolia had to bear Kaido's blow, she still bit Kaido's "seven inches" and didn't let go!

The so-called take advantage of your illness to kill you!

Such a good time to beat the drowning dog, Chaomeng will naturally not let it go!

"Million-ton punch!!!39"

With the explosion of Chao Meng, a ray of light began to condense on his fist.0

I saw his figure flashing, appearing directly above Kaido Jiaolong's head, with a fist radiating light, a punch against the huge head.

"boom!!!"

A dull sound came from Kaido's head.

At the same time, Kaido only felt a dizziness in his head, and his eyes even turned black for a moment.

Without waiting for Kaido's reaction, Mewtwo continued his beaten-down dog action.

"Flaming Fist!!! 35"

"Bang!!!95

"Frozen Fist!!!" 5

"Lightning Fist!!!"

"Bang!!!"5

"Sonic Fist!!! 35

.4.6...

A series of fighting skills were displayed by Mewtwo and smashed heavily on Kaido's head.

The sound of ping ping pong pong intertwined to form a strange movement.

It will also be accompanied by various special effects of lightning, flames, ice and snow of "Farmer's Three Fist", and the scene was once beautiful!

The only thing that doesn't look good is probably the beaten Kaido, with a black face in anger...

259 Kaido's Calculation!

Fate!

Anyone who is beaten by Mewtwo and Aknorollia will not feel good.

What's more, Kaido, the most reckless man through the ages?

Naturally, Akurolia and Mewtwo couldn't tolerate such shameless behavior of pushing their noses and faces.

However, the anger in his heart turned into anger, and Kaido also knew in his heart that he was suffering from a physical disadvantage at this time.

At this time, this kind of battle that turned into the body of a dragon, and the black dragon Aknororia, which can also be transformed into a giant dragon, originally everyone could fight evenly and evenly.

Mang is over!

But the appearance of Chaomeng broke this balance.

Super Dream itself wins with dexterity, and with a strange skill, it can be said to be elusive.

What's more, the attack on "Dragon Eight Trigrams" just now made him fully understand the impressive attack power that Chao Meng possesses. In this way, the addition of Akurolia and Mewtwo is completely one plus one greater than two, which makes me very disadvantaged!

It is not even an exaggeration to say that he was completely pressed and beaten.

Therefore, Kaido naturally cannot let the entire war situation continue to develop in his own unfavorable direction.

So he intentionally started flying towards an island nearby in his memory.

After all, if he had withdrawn from the state of the dragon's body at this time, whether he was in a human state or a half-orc state, he would not have the master flying skills.

And the small island below has been completely destroyed by him and Akurolia in the previous battle.

Once he hastily withdraws from the state of the dragon's body, as a Demon fruit power, he will definitely fall into the bottom of the sea.

Although he fell into the deep sea in the state of his body at the moment, he would not die directly.

However, the large amount of sea water still makes him unable to switch the state of Devil Fruit freely.

In addition, in the deep sea, the strong pressure and the structure of the sea water will hinder the movement of his body, making him unable to attack freely.

Especially... As far as he knows, all the members of the Dimension Pirates have various powerful abilities, but none of their abilities come from Devil Fruit, so they will not be affected by the sea water. influences! That is, once he fell into the sea.

Then he can only use the body of a human to compete with Akronoria, who can still use dragon slaying magic, and Mewtwo who have strange abilities!!!

Although Kaido is reckless, he is really not stupid.

He would never choose such a method that would kill him!

Therefore, he could only continue to persevere, and at the same time guide Akurolia and Mewtwo to follow him and fly towards the island in memory.

"Wave missiles!

"Spray flame!!! 35

"One hundred thousand volts!!!

"Freezing rays!!!

"Spirit Blade!!!"

Thanks to Team Rocket in the 540 Pokémon world, Mewtwo has a sea of skills, and during this period, he bombards Kaido with his endless skills.

During this period, Kaido will also fight back with the air attack of Conqueror's Haki and the wrapping of Armament Haki's tail.

But most of them were blocked by the dragon body of Aknororia.

The remaining small part was also evaded or blocked by Mewtwo with teleportation or defense.

The lingering battle continued until Kaido and Mewtwo hit another deserted island.

Immediately, Kaido roared in his mouth:

"Wow!!! Laozi has been messing with you for a long time, it's so deceiving!!!”

"Dragon Man Form!!!"

260 The strongest blow, the space is broken!

As soon as Kaido's voice fell, waves of mist emanated from his Flood Dragon's body, covering it.

In the mist, Kaido's body was rapidly shrinking at a speed visible to the naked eye.

In the blink of an eye, Kaido has grown to his original size.

It is also because of Kaido's shrinking body that he also managed to escape from the bloody mouth of Akurolia.

He became smaller in the air, and fell rapidly from the air, towards the deserted island he had been waiting for for a long time.

The change in Kaido's body caused Akurolia, who was still biting hard, to bite an empty mouth.

Looking at Kaido's rapidly shrinking body, a look of contempt flashed across the huge dragon face of Aknororia, and he muttered in mockery:

"Huh... shrink?"

"Whoever said that will not become a little dragon man!"

As soon as the voice fell, Akurolia flashed her own wings, and after it was lowered to a certain height, the magic power in her body worked.

With the technique of slaying dragons, Aknororia also began to withdraw from the state of black dragon and transformed into the state of dragon man, which is very similar to Kaido.

At the same time when Akunororia was withdrawing from the black dragon state, Mewtwo was not idle, but held the huge spoon in his hand and supported Akunororia by his side to prevent Kaido, who was the first to turn into a dragon. Attack it.

"That thing I don't know what it is, you played Laozi just now, didn't you have a good time~`!"

"Now Laozi will let you know, what is the strongest on the surface!!!"

Looking at Mewtwo who was holding a giant spoon with a wary look in his eyes, Kaido held up his mace and said to Mewtwo.

As soon as the voice fell, Kaido's Conqueror's Haki was instantly activated by it and wrapped around the mace at the same time.

The wrapping of Conqueror's Haki made Kaido's already sturdy mace shine with a black-red luster, exuding an extremely terrifying aura.

"Tattoo! Tack! Tack!"

Holding the Conqueror's wrapped mace, Kaido is like a rainbow, striding towards Mewtwo and Akurollia.

"Three Worlds, Yinna Luo!!!"

In three or two steps, he rushed in front of Mewtwo and Aknororia, Kaido jumped up, and twirled the mace wrapped around Conqueror's Haki in his hand.

The mace ripped through the air, bringing a creaking black lightning bolt, and smashing violently towards the two of them from top to bottom with a swaying momentum.

Looking at the powerful and terrifying attack in front of him, Mewtwo didn't hesitate, and used the skills defined in the Pokémon world with a power value of 150 points.

".` Ultimate Impact!!!

In an instant, Chao Meng's whole body flashed a pale white light, and the strength of his whole body began to gather.

At the same time, he turned the huge spoon in his hand like a knight's spear, turned the head of the spoon into the head of a spear, and greeted Kaido's mace toward the altar.

It was a well-deserved blow of Kaido's pent-up anger.

(Lee's)

Likewise, this is a blow that Mewtwo uses all her strength.

The black-red mace meets the huge spoon exuding pale white.

This time, there was no banging sound, only the place where the mace and the top of the spoon met, a black hole the size of a baseball, and the cracks around it that looked like glass shattered.

Under the collision of the two terrifying blows, the space... shattered!!!.

261 Lose your arm!!!

The black hole that suddenly appeared in the space gradually expanded from the size of a baseball, and the surrounding glass cracks became larger and larger.

Until a certain moment, the space is completely fragmented.

"Crack~Crack~Crack~"

"Wah la la la~"

"boom!!!"

All the voices that had just disappeared resounded from this moment.

Whether it was the cracking sound of space like glass, or the terrifying explosion sound of Kaido and Mewtwo's powerful blow, all erupted at this moment.

"Dragon Slaying Profound Truth: Dark Blast Blade!!!

It was also in the movement composed of the explosion and the sound of space fragmentation, a voice sounded at the right time.

What followed was Aknororia, who had entered the black dragon mode.

I saw the 540 scaled Aku Norolia wrapped around the dark black dragon's power, and quickly disappeared and reappeared.

With lightning speed, he appeared behind Kaido who had just hit

Mewtwo.

Kaido's blow just now was not only his anger blow, but also a poised blow that he had been brewing for a long time.

In addition, at this time, he is in a state where the old power has been exhausted and the new power has not yet arrived.

He couldn't dodge the sudden attack of Aknororia.

Between the lightning and flint, the power of the dark black dragon in Aknororia's hand turned into an extremely sharp (baeg) energy blade, which slashed towards Kaido's right arm holding a mace.

"Armed Color!!!"

Although Kaido was powerless to dodge, his instinct to fight for many years made him make his last effort.

With his loud shout, all the Armament Haki in the body, under the control of the mind, covered the position where Observation Haki sensed that Akurolia was about to attack.

I just want... to be able to defend against Akurolia's attack to a certain extent.

"Huh~~

"puff!!!

Kaido's Armament Haki didn't do anything this time. The dark black energy blade in Akurolia's hand, like a knife cutting tofu, was easily broken open and plunged into Kaido's right arm.

The whole process is very smooth!

It wasn't until Akurollia's energy blade cut through Kaido's musculature and touched the bony part of Kaido's right arm that he felt blocked.

The severe pain in the hand, with the neuron transmission, quickly spread to Kaido's brain.

Even though Kaido is intoxicated at this time, he is immune to the perception of pain.

But this long-lost, deep stinging sensation of being cut still made Kaido shout out in a drunken state:

"what!!!

"Damn it, how dare you hurt me!!!

"King Kong[]Dysprosium!!!"

When he shouted, Kaido resisted the pain and waved the mace in his hand, and he waved it at Akurolia.

"Huh~~

Immediately, an attack similar to sword qi detached from Kaido's mace and headed straight towards Akurolia's head.

"Cut! I thought that this blow could directly cut off the right arm of this long worm! 35

Feeling the "stickiness" coming towards him, Aknorollia pouted and sighed with regret.

At the same time as he spoke, he also moved his feet and dodged to the side.

The thorn, like the dark black energy blade on Kaido's right arm, also dissipated in time, leaving only a deep visible bone cut on Kaido's right arm.

262 Straw knots! Dogs chew mud???

Feeling Akurolia's departure, Kaido was about to take a breath, but Observation Haki also gave a mad warning in his heart.

"Teleport!""

In the blink of an eye, Mewtwo, who had just fought with Kaido, reappeared beside Kaido.

When Mewtwo appeared, I saw him lift his right leg and kick it fiercely towards Kaido's right arm, which Akurolia had just cut.

"mean!!!"

"Junda Li Longsheng Army!!!

Looking at Mewtwo, this is going to pick up the baton from Acqueror's Haki and continue to attack his wounds. Kaido's mouth is full of rage, and at the same time, the mace in his hand that has been wrapped around by Conqueror's Haki grows bigger. .

He was immediately picked up by Kaido brute force and headed towards Mewtwo.

"boom!!!"

Mewtwo's attack met Kaido's mace again, and the strong collision resulted in a huge - roar.

"Black Dragon's Collapse Fist!!!"

While Kaido and Mewtwo's attacks continued, Aknororia didn't miss this opportunity. With a loud shout, the power of the black dragon in her body was wrapped around her right fist and bombarded towards Kaido's right arm.

"boom!!!"

The powerful and terrifying power of the black dragon slammed into Kaido's right arm, accompanied by Akurolia's fist.

And Acunorolia didn't want to fight after punching.

Leaving a black dragon's power to continue to erode and corrode on Kaido's right arm, he himself stepped back quickly.

"Uh!!!

"boom!"

The unbridled power of the black dragon made Kaido cry out in pain, and his right arm couldn't bear it any longer.

"Aaaa

Damn chops!!!"

"David Thunder Eight Trigrams!!!

Kaido, whose right arm was injured, shouted in his mouth, and Conqueror's Haki, who had withdrawn from his mace, was also condensed on his left hand.

Immediately, Kaido turned into a bull, roaring in his mouth, stepping on the ground, wrapping his left arm with Conqueror's Haki, and imitating a mace with his left arm, rushing towards Acunororia with a stride of meteors, and hit his head Hit hard.

"Tie the grass knot!!!"

But just when Kaido took two steps and hadn't come to Akurolia, he heard Mewtwo's voice.

.0 Seeking flowers.....

In an instant, a stream of strange plant vines appeared from under Kaido's feet.

Those strange vines aimed directly at Kaido's ankle, and the moment it appeared, they wrapped around his ankle and stumbled over it.

"boom!!!"

Just like that... New World Four Emperors Kaido, who is known as "the strongest on the surface", was not only interrupted by this attack, but also thrown a heavy somersault after a long absence.

.0

And Super Dream is not surprised by this.

After all, in the world of Pokémon, the skill of tying a straw knot exists to trip the opponent.

Especially the heavier the opponent, the more damage this skill can bring!

I don't know if it has become so angry that Ultimate has had a counter-productive effect?

Kaido, who almost fell off a dog eating shit, was already furious on the surface, and the furious anger seemed to be able to ignite the sea.

But in his heart, he has calmed down and realized one thing very clearly.

Mewtwo and Akunorolia, he really doesn't seem to be able to beat... one.

263 Kaido's shock!

At the beginning of the battle with Akunorolia, Kaido's perception of it was just that of a guy with a Master's bizarre abilities, and his physical body was no worse than his own.

And when Kaido and Akunorolia turned into dragons and fought with the bodies of dragons and dragons, Kaido began to clearly perceive one thing.

That is, the gap in strength between Akunorolia and himself is gradually narrowing.

Moreover, the speed of shrinking "540" is very terrifying.

It's like one minute at a time!

Even as the battle went on, Kaido had a terrifying feeling that he found that Akunorolia's strength was on par with himself!!!

It was at this time that Akunorolia's companion Mewtwo rushed back to the battlefield and joined forces with him to fight against him.

From then on, the two began to press and beat themselves.

Moreover, the intensity of this pressing is getting faster and faster, and the intensity is getting heavier and heavier.

That Mewtwo was just like Akunorolia, and at first it gave Kaido a mediocre feeling, but its cooperation with Akunorolia gave him some headaches.

But as the battle progressed, something even more shocking happened to Kaido!

He found out... Mewtwo, just like Aknororia, his strength is also improving at an unbelievable speed!

Such a discovery made Kaido, who had gradually calmed down, pondered with fear!

What kind of freaks are the members of the Yuan Pirates this time???

The original strength is not bad, no matter what, one by one, what is the strength will be stronger!

Fighting, hey, people have gradually changed from a situation that was originally lower than yours to a being stronger than you!

What a horror this is!!!

While shocked in his heart, Kaido's danger level for the Dimensional Pirates was immediately full.

At the same time, he was also a little fortunate.

Thankfully he was in a league with Charlotte Linlin before that!

Otherwise... just Su Yang and his strange and terrifying crew members, Beasts Pirates, and Kaido alone can't really stop him!!!

At this time, Akurolia and Mewtwo joined forces, which has already made Kaido feel difficult.

If the battle continues, and his two fists are no match for his four hands, it is possible that more than one arm will be injured. 0

"Broken Teeth of the Black Dragon!!! 35

Kaido made a secret calculation in his mind, but Akurolia, who Isshin wanted to let him die, did not hesitate, and continued to attack Kaido with a roar in his mouth.

Aknorollia turned her claws into claws, and the claws were covered with the power of a dark black dragon, and with a swaying momentum, she charged towards Kaido, who had just tripped over.

And with a lot of thought, Kaido's face was calm, and he had already decided to withdraw in his heart!

Seeing that Akurolia continued to attack himself, this time he was no longer the same as before, using any moves to offset or evade it.

On the contrary, he directly suffered the blow from Aknororia, and at the same time he let out a loud roar.

"Fire Dragon Torch!!!"

In an instant, a 4.6-line fire burning with raging flames burned from his body.

The terrifying high temperature of the raging fire scorched the air around Kaido and gradually distorted it.

At the same time, Kaido's body was transformed into a dragon again.

Akurolia didn't expect that Kaido would do this at this time, so he was also burned by this flame at the first time.

264 Kaido... slipped???

"snowstorm!!!

At the moment when Akurolia was burned, Mewtwo on the side also reacted immediately.

I saw the huge spoon in his hand waved in the void, and snowflakes fell on Akunorolia's body under the blowing of the strong wind, extinguishing the burning flames around him.

"Flame Cloud!!!

"Whoo~~~~"

At the same time, Kaido, who was wrapped in flaming flames and turned into a flaming dragon, let out a loud cry, and the dragon claws under his abdomen also grabbed the surrounding flame cloud created by him, causing his body to rise up quickly.

"Heat!!! 9

Kaido rose up, with a dragon mouth and a bulging belly, and then a hot and huge dragon breath spit out 10.

"Huh... again?"

Seeing Kaido doing this same routine again, a contemptuous smile appeared on Akurolia's face, and while mocking, she also clenched her hands into fists, as if to blow a virtual horn.

"Roar of the Black Dragon!!!"

Along with the mouth of Aku Norolia, he also blew hard on the fist in front of him.

In an instant, a splendid magic circle appeared at the forefront of his two fists superimposed on everything.

The power of the huge black dragon appeared directly from the magic circle, spinning, turning from small to large into a huge dark black tornado, attacking the dragon breath that fell from the sky.

"boom!!!"

When the two dragon breaths collided, a huge roaring sound was produced, and a huge amount of fog was also produced.

This huge fog not only shrouded Akurolia and Mewtwo on the ground, but also shrouded Kaido in the sky.

Also in the fog, Aknorollia and Mewtwo are preparing for Kaido's next move.

However, he saw that the flame dragon in the fog directly broke through the fog in the air, twisted his body at an extremely fast speed, and flew towards a direction outside the island.

Akurolia and Mewtwo never imagined that Kaido, who had just fought so fiercely with the two of them, would slip away in this way...

"Heh... Four Emperors..."

Looking at the figure that was escaping quickly in the sky, the disdain on Aknororia's face became even more intense, and she sneered in her mouth.

At the same time, the power of the black dragon in Aknororia's body was excited, and he was ready to continue to transform into a black dragon. He flashed his big wings and chased after him to teach Kaido, what is the way of the strong!!!

But as soon as Akurolia made a move, he saw a huge spoon appearing in front of him and stopped him.

"Stinky cat, you want to stop me!

Aknorollia frowned, looked at Mewtwo, and asked in a bad tone.

"Cut...stupid lizards!

"Although Kaido's suicide jumping off a cliff is a random event, the ship of the Hundred 540 Beast Pirates must be nearby!"

Upon hearing the words, Chaomeng directly cast an "idiot" look at Akurolia and explained it to him.

"Humph! So what?"

"Even Kaido is no match for me, let alone a Beasts Pirates!"

"If they dare to come, I will give him a pot directly!!!

"I said stinky cat, aren't you afraid?"

Seeing Mewtwo and showing the same idiotic expression as always, Akurolia instantly became angry, and immediately crossed her arms to her chest, talking to him, and finally taunted and provoked Mewtwo.

265 The Embarrassment of Black

Dragon!

Hearing Akurolia's clumsy aggressive words, the idiot's look on Mewtwo's face became even stronger.

But with the principle of not arguing with fools, Chao Meng still explained to him:

"A lizard is a lizard, and the brain capacity is not big enough after all!"

"You know about the alliance between Kaido's Beasts Pirates and Charlotte Linlin's BIG·MOM Pirates?"

"If we rush to catch up, we meet Kaido and Charlotte Linlin, the Four Emperors!"

After Chao Meng said this, before he could finish what he said next, he heard Akurolia's more dissatisfied words interrupted:

"The current long bug is just an injured disabled person, you can completely stop the stinky cat!"

"And Charlotte Linlin, the fat aunt, with my current strength, I can definitely fight against it, and there is a small chance of winning!"

"What about the two Four Emperors? It's totally out of the question!"

As soon as Aknororia's voice fell, Mewtwo could only sigh slightly, and continued what she didn't finish:

"Alas... It is true that with your strength, we can naturally block it, and even have a small chance of winning~!"

"But you stupid lizard, with your walnut-sized brain, how long will such a fight take?"

"Anna and Emily are still waiting in the alien space I created under the sea!"

"Can they... afford to wait?"

As soon as Mewtwo said this, Aknororia was stunned.

really!

As Super Dream said.

With the strength of the two of them, once they encounter a joint battle between Kaido and Charlotte Linlin, they can indeed fight with one!

But for a battle of this scale, the four of them would have to fight for at least a few days and nights!

During this time, Anna and Emily could only stay in a different space with nothing, worrying about them.

Also, because they considered that they would be protecting themselves and Mewtwo together, they did not prepare much in terms of food and drinking water.

As a result, the two women who didn't eat or drink really couldn't last long.

Chao Meng looked at the silent Aku Norolia, and realized that this stupid lizard had already figured it out, and no longer mocked him, just put his right hand on his shoulder.

"Teleport!!!

"Shh~shh~shh~shh~shh~"

The voices of Mewtwo and Akunorolia disappeared and reappeared, and between a few spaces, they came to the deep sea of the different space created by Mewtwo.

".!Secret Power!!!

Chao Meng waved the giant spoon in his hand, running the strange power, and lightly tapped the big rock on the bottom of the sea in front of him, and a door of different space opened.

"Master Mewtwo! Master Aknororia!"

"You guys are back!"

As soon as they set foot in the different space with Akronorlia, the voices of Anna and Emily rang in the ears of the two of Mewtwo.

Capturing the surprise emotion in the words of the two women made the already silent Akurolia even more embarrassed.

Too bad it didn't work out!

Just when Akronorlia was in a complicated mood, the sharp-eyed Anna noticed that there was a pool of Bloodline on the sleeve of Akronoria's right arm. After exclaiming, she also asked with concern.

"Lord Akronorlia! Your...you have blood on your clothes!

"Akunorolia-sama, are you injured?"

266 4 Emperors, but you!

This time, even Akunorolia couldn't hide his embarrassment with aloofness.

"It's okay! Anna!"

"It's not my blood, it's the blood from Kaido's arm when I cut Kaido's right arm!"⁹

Immediately, Akunorolia had no choice but to accompany her face and open her mouth to comfort her.

"Wow~ Akurolia-sama is amazing! 99

"Even Kaido, the Four Emperors and the strongest on the surface, is an opponent of Lord Akurolia!"

After hearing that Akurolia said that it was not her own blood, but Kaido's blood, Anna felt relieved, and she was very surprised and praised Akurolia.

Akurolia listened to Anna's astonishing words, and a little vanity rose in her heart involuntarily.

I saw him waving his right hand, making a nonchalant look, and said:

"The Four Emperors are just as powerful!"

"In terms of strength, our own people in the Dimension Pirates are the best!""

And he hadn't spoken before, silently watching Akurolia's embarrassing Mewtwo, and at this time, he also curled his lips and opened his mouth to make up for the knife:

"The Four Emperors are truly inferior!

"A certain stupid lizard still wants to chase Kaido and fight directly to his hometown and his family for three days and three nights, fighting for three hundred rounds!"

Listening to the jug that Mewtwo couldn't open and which jug was not being lifted, Akunorolia also felt annoyed in his heart.

Hear the strings and know the elegance!

Anna and Emily on the side probably guessed something after hearing what Mewtwo said.

However, seeing that Akronorlia's face was already a little red, and Mewtwo and Akronoria were about to fight as usual, after they exchanged glances with each other, they quickly interrupted each other.

"Lord Akronorlia, let me clean up the blood on your clothes now!"

Anna took the lead to come to Akronorlia's side, took out water and soap, and said to Akronoria.

"That... Mr. Chaomeng, why can't we use phone bugs here?"

"I just wanted (baeg) to use the phone bug that Master Su Yang gave me to contact Master Su Yang, but the phone bug didn't respond!"

And Emily rate also came to Chao Meng's side, took out a phone bug and asked him.

For the kindness of the two women, both Mewtwo and Akunorolia appreciate it.

Aknorollia lowered her head, handed her coat to Anna, and let Anna do it.

And Chao Meng looked down at the phone bug in Emily's hand, and explained to him:

"This is the different space I opened up with the power of secrets!"

"The node connected to the original world here is blocked by me again, and the phone worm naturally cannot sense the phone worm outside the space!"

"In this way, I will open the connection door now, you can use the phone bug to contact Su Yang and tell us about our encounter with Kaido! 35
Chao Meng said, and also raised the huge spoon in his hand and waved it slightly towards the top of his head, slamming out a hole in the dark space above his head.

With Mewtwo's actions, the phone bug that was originally in Emily's hands suddenly came to life.

"Hey! It's really good!

"Master Chaomeng, I will contact Master Su Yang and report what we have encountered to him!"

Seeing the phone bug in her hand come back to life, Emily immediately started the phone bug with a smile and contacted Su Yang.

267 Surrender? Or and Destruction!!!

The second half of the Grand Line of Pirate World is not only a paradise for outlaw fanatics, but also a hell for the weak!

Coming to this area called New World, what human beings need to guard against is not only those ruthless pirates.

What is more important is the islands with different weather and geographical conditions.

Jacob Island, as a winter island covered by blizzard all the year round, should have been blizzard and cold at this time.

But now on Jacob Island, not only is there no trace of wind and snow, but the temperature on the island has even begun to approach the temperature of Summer Island.

Even the holy mountain on the island, which was hailed as "never melt" by the islanders, has shrunk a lot at this time.

The gurgling snow water flows continuously down the mountain along the ridge of the holy mountain.

And the initiator of all this, but he didn't care about it.

Instead, he held his arrogant head high, with an expression of "I am the only one in the sky and the earth".

I saw him holding a golden giant axe in one hand, and holding a golden, bright, sun-like fireball in the other!

"Humble ants, you should be judged by God for your actions against the strongest man in the world! 39

"But as I am the closest to God, I extend my last mercy to you!

"Submission? Or annihilation!!!"

Ace Kano's eyes were cold, and his words were all looking down.

In front of him, he had already knelt down.

If you look around, you will see people wearing padded jackets and sweating profusely!

Beside them, there are also "complete" and "incomplete" people lying on the ground.

Different from those who looked terrified and threw their bodies to the ground, those who lay on the ground were all wearing steel helmets and armor and holding weapons.

However, the steel helmets and armors on their bodies were basically scattered on the ground at this time.

The weapons in his hands are basically broken swords and spears.

Even on the bodies of many people, there are also missing arms and legs, or they were cut off in the waist, or they were split, or they were headed by owls.

Obviously, these people who fell to the ground were the ones Ace Kano spoke of, those who resisted stubbornly and were then violently suppressed by the powerful Ace Kano.

"Submit! Submission!!!"

"Our Jacob country is willing to submit to the Dimensional Pirates in the form of a vassal state!"

·0 for flowers ·.....

"Also please...Also please Lord Sun God to accept the magical powers and let us live!

With such a powerful force as Ace Kano, among those who were kneeling, there was an old man with an old face who replied to Ace Kano as soon as his voice fell behind.

"Yeah! I am willing to surrender to the Dimensional Pirates, and also ask Ace Kano-sama to raise your hand and let me wait for a life!

....0

As soon as the old man's voice fell, words of willingness to surrender began to appear in the crowd of people around him who were kneeling and bowing.

"Come on! It's not like this at first!

"You despicable ants, you actually started to fight with me just now?"

"You know... what you are provoking is Ace Kano, the strongest species in the world!"

Seeing the scene where the leader is taking the lead and the followers are like clouds, Ace Kano said to them disdainfully.

As he said that, with a thought, he dissipated the sun-like fireball.

After doing all this, he looked at the green-haired girl floating in the air beside him, and said something to her:

"Tornado, I'll leave the rest to you!"

Dimensional Pirates in Volume

268!

"Humph! Are you guys all rushing to get on when you fight!"

"After the fight, leave the rest to others!"

"I don't even think that people haven't done it for a long time!"

Hearing Ace Kano's words, the small Loli tornado floating in the air wrinkled his little nose, Tsundere turned his head away, snorted and said.

"Uchiha Madara is only one step away from regaining strength, "May 40!"

"And Diablo's strength has been increasing rapidly recently, and he will soon reach the bottom of Uchiha Madara!"

"The same people who were summoned by Su Yang to this world not long ago, as the strongest species in the world, how can I fall behind them! 55

It was past noon at this time, so Ace Kano's state was no longer extremely confident. After hearing Tornado's words, he still explained a little to him.

"Humph! You don't want to fall behind them, I just thought?"

"Look at how many of you are curled up now?"

"It's all Neptune's fault! What a subsidiary ceremony! What a subsidiary country! 35

As soon as Ace Kano's voice fell, Tornado muttered even more angrily. really!

Since they made a mess on The fish men island, Neptune took the whole The fish men island, surrendered to the Dimension Pirates, and took the lead in becoming the affiliated country of the Dimension Pirates.

In the following period of time, Uchiha Madara, Diablo, and Ace Kano of the Dimension Pirates were involved.

Every time they arrive on a new island, they take turns appearing.

I have to force those countries to obey their dimensional pirates like The fish men island!

Once other countries do not agree to become a dependent country, they will directly play force to suppress them, and they will threaten to destroy the country at every turn!

And what's even more extreme is that after they have finished the kings and nobles of those countries, they will directly leave the remaining handover work to Tornado and Giorno Chopper to accept them, and they will not care about anything!

This is very busy for Giorno Chopper, the "Ship Doctor", who has lost a lot of hair recently.

The tornado here is complaining, and the work that should be done is still to be done.

Using psychic power, he floated a set of documents of surrender, the pirate flag of the Dimension Pirates, etc. that had been prepared before, to the old man who took the lead in the group just now, and told them about the dimensional sea they had recently decided. The rules of thieves.0

And Ace Kano jumped back to the Shura floating in the sky after seeing that everything was on the right track.

On the Shura, Uchiha Madara is posing in a meditation posture with five hearts facing the sky, practicing a practice similar to meditation.

Aizen was holding a book in his hand and watched quietly.

Diablo, on the other hand, stared at Aizen with a hostile expression, always keeping an eye on this "number one competitor" to see what the hell he was going to do.

"nailed it?"

Su Yang was lying on the wooden reclining chair he made with Wood Style, and after sensing Ace Kano's return, he also asked him a question.

"With the strongest species like me, it's natural to catch it!!!

"The rest has tornado wraps! 4.6"

"I went to see the wine in the cellar, how is it fermented! 39

As soon as Su Yang finished speaking, Ace Kano nodded, and after answering with confidence, he also carried the divine axe Rita and walked towards the wine cabin of the Shura.

"Blu blu blu~"

"Blu blu blu~"

At this time, a phone bug in Su Yang's arms rang at the right time.

269 Unlocking of Leap

Forward!

"Huh? How could Emily contact me at this time?"

Hearing the movement of the phone bug in his arms, Su Yang took it out and took a look.

At this moment, it was the one that he had given to Emily and told her to contact him!

"Blu Blu Bleu~Gaga~"

"Hey, Emily! I'm Su Yang. Did Mewtwo and Akunorolia get on the shelves again, delaying your trip?"

Picking up the phone bug, Su Yang asked Emily.

"No! Lord Su Yang!"

"Everything was going well, but just a few hours ago, we encountered Kaido, one of the Four Emperors!"

On the other side of the phone bug, Emily, after hearing Su Yang's words, also hurriedly explained for Mewtwo and Akurollia.

At the same time, he also talked about his encounter with Kaido.

As for Su Yang on the phone bug's side, after hearing Emily mention the word "Kaido", her relaxed and comfortable expression instantly became solemn.

"Shu~huh~huh~"

At the same time, several sharp eyes also looked at the phone bug in Su Yang's hands from different directions of the Shura.

Su Yang doesn't have to look to know that the masters of these eyes are the militants on his ship!

"System, open the virtual panel!"

Su Yang immediately opened the system panel with his mind and began to check the unlocking degree of everyone.

With Su Yang's review, everyone's data has changed as expected!

In particular, the data of Mewtwo and Akunorolia jumped over the 40% mark directly from the original 30%.

This sudden increase in data proves that Mewtwo and Akunorolia definitely fought a battle 540!!!

"Emily, what the hell is going on?"

"How did you meet Kaido? What's the situation now? What about Mewtwo and Akurolia?"

After checking everyone's data, Su Yang held up the phone bug and asked Emily the doubts and worries in his heart.

"Lord Su Yang! We are all fine!"

"Just when we were on an island to eat and rest, Kaido fell from the sky!"

"Akunorolia-sama asked Mewtwo-sama to protect Anna and me, and then..."

After hearing Su Yang's question, Emily also spoke out on the phone, Vice Admiral and the others.

270 Furious Uchiha Madara!

During the call, Emily reported the situation here to Su Yang in great detail, during which Mewtwo and Akunorolia would also make some timely additions.

Especially when it comes to the fight against Kaido, Akurolia and Mewtwo will add a lot.

In less than a while, from Anna, Emily, they suddenly encountered Kaido who fell from the sky, Akurolia and Mewtwo joined forces to fight Kaido, Akurolia cut Kaido's arm, and finally Kaido escaped. It's all been said.

After listening to Emily's explanation, Su Yang breathed a sigh of relief.

He explained two sentences to Emily in a calm tone as much as possible, and then expressed his attitude at this time:

"Phew...I already know what happened to you!"

"Since none of you have anything to do, the four of you continue to set off according to the previous plan! 35

"Strive to reach the future as soon as possible, and use the equipment there to make the steel battle suit and return to the team quickly! 95

"As for Kaido...we'll take care of it here~!"

"Don't worry, no matter what the final result is, I will give you an explanation!!!"

After Haki finished the final summary, Su Yang hung up the phone bug in his hand.

And Uchiha Madara opened her legs in a cross-legged position, got up from the deck, and came to Su Yang's side.

Just when Su Yang and Emily called and mentioned Kaido, Uchiha Madara, who was meditating with his eyes closed, opened his eyes and kept following their conversation.

Now that he understood Su Yang's attitude on this matter, Uchiha Madara could no longer restrain his excitement and said to Su Yang:

"Su Yang! I think Kaido's behavior is a provocation to our Dimensional Pirates!"

"This matter can't be counted like this!"

"Today Kaido dares to attack our Dimensional Pirates, and tomorrow it will be Charlotte Linlin's turn!"

"In my opinion, we should go straight to the ghost island now and take Kaido's nest in one fell swoop!"

"In this way, we can not only let Kaido know how good we are, but also shock other guys with ulterior motives!!!"

When speaking, Uchiha Madara's attitude was very fierce, and his words were full of anger.

It looks like it wasn't Kaido who was defeated and fled, but Mewtwo and Aknororia!

The rest of the people on the Shura looked at him with strange expressions after hearing what Uchiha Madara said.

Diablo, as the "exclusive ETC" of Uchiha Madara, stood up at this time, not disappointed, and raised the bar at the right time:

Look at `Oh... it turns out that those so-called contact rules cultivation, there are such benefits!"

"Obviously some guys are not strong enough to break through the last hurdle! 35

"In order to find a strong person to fight and sharpen, now I have learned to use the dignity of the Dimension Pirates as an example!"5

"Tsk tsk tsk... It's really unbelievable..."

Hearing Diablo's words, a big # character appeared on Uchiha Madara's forehead instantly.

I saw Uchiha Madara crossed his left and right hands in front of his chest, with a straight face, and replied with a cold snort:

"Humph!

"You think I'll be like you bastard, unable to handle even a small bottleneck! 35

"I, Uchiha Madara, traverse the world of ninja, and have experienced countless battles, but I can still be shackled by this kind of thing? It's a joke!!!

But when everyone listened to Uchiha Madara's words, they could always hear a bit of annoyance turned into anger from his words.

271 Give Kaido a lesson!!!

In this way, Uchiha Madara and Diablo started their daily "love and kill"

The two girls, Rem and Ram, who were dressed as maids, walked out of the Shura's kitchen with a dessert each.

"This is the special dessert of The fish men island that we successfully made with the secret recipe taught by the royal chef of the Dragon Palace!"

"Lord Su Yang, try it, how does it taste?"

The two sisters, Rem and Ram, came to Su Yang's side one by one, served them the desserts in their hands, and also spoke to Su Yang.

Su Yang took over the dessert with a smile, ignoring Uchiha Madara and Dia 540 Polo who started taunting, raising bars, and arguing with each other on the deck. Instead, she looked at the two sisters Rem and Ram, and said to them:

"I just got a call from Emily!"

"On the phone, Emily told me that they encountered Kaido, one of the Four Emperors, not too long ago!"

Hearing this, the expressions of the sisters Rem and Ram immediately changed.

Anna and Emily, although they were the handymen of the Dimensional Pirates on the Shura, had a pretty good relationship with Rem, Ram, and Tornado in private.

In addition, because the sisters Rem and Ram were in the kitchen (baeg) making dessert just now, they didn't hear the phone calls from Su Yang and Emily.

Therefore, after hearing the news, it is natural for them to be worried.

"Lord Su Yang! Are Anna and Emily all right?"

Immediately, Rem asked Su Yang with a worried look.

"Don't worry! They have Mewtwo and Akronoria to protect them, so of course they'll be fine!"

"When they first encountered Kaido, Mewtwo took the lead in protecting them to a safe place!"

"And after settling them down, Mewtwo went back and joined Akurolia to beat Kaido away!"

Su Yang looked at the worried faces of the two sisters, and gently explained and comforted them.

After hearing Su Yang say that the two friends are all right, the sisters Rem and Ram were relieved.

"Hee hee! Anna and Emily will be fine!"

"Lord Su Yang, that Kaido is so damn it, that he would attack Anna, Emily and the others! 35

"We must teach Kaido a lesson, and let Anna, Emily and the others breathe a sigh of relief!"

After smiling happily, Ram also turned his worry for his friend into anger at Kaido, the "attacker", so he also held his small fist and said to Su Yang angrily.

And Su Yang couldn't help laughing twice after seeing Ram's incomparably cute appearance, and said to him:

"Hahahaha! Ram, you're right, we just have to teach Kaido a lesson!"

"If I remember correctly... Dressrosa's should be near us!"

Hearing Su Yang's sudden change of style, Rem replied to Su Yang even though he was a little unclear:

"Yes! Yes! Lord Su Yang!"

"Dressrosa really isn't very far from Jacob's Island! 35

Following Rem's answer, Ram, who also did not understand why, also asked Su Yang the doubts in his heart:

"Lord Su Yang! Dressrosa is the site of the Seven Warlords of the Sea Doflamingo, I remember!"

"Aren't we going to trouble Kaido? What does this have to do with Dressrosa?"

272 Aizen's Comeback!

Seeing the two sisters, Rem and Ram, who seemed to be confused at the same time, Su Yang laughed and explained to the two:

"Haha! You don't know anything about this!

"Although the Doflamingo guy is the Seven Warlords of the Sea, he also has quite the power in the underworld! 39

"He who goes by the pseudonym Joker, is not only engaged in arms activities in the underground forces, but also undertakes many unknown transactions!"

"And one of the most important of these unknown deals is a deal about Kaido's dreams!"

"The so-called "snake and seven inches", since we have to teach Kaido a lesson, let's start by destroying Kaido's dream!!!

Hearing Su Yang's explanation, the two girls, Rem and Ram, were suddenly enlightened, and the curiosity in their hearts was even stronger.

They only listened to them and asked Su Yang, "Lord Su Yang, what is this deal about Kaido's dream?"

"Have you heard of...SMI~LE?"

Hearing the two sisters' questions, Su Yang did not answer directly, but threw a question directly.

"SMILE?"

"I haven't heard of it, what is that? Lord Su Yang!

Rem and Ram thought for a while in their minds, then glanced at each other, and after confirming that there was no such thing, they shook their heads helplessly and said to Su Yang.

"SMILE, is the name of an artificial Devil Fruit!"

At this moment, a gentle and low voice came from one direction on the deck.

Everyone looked in the direction of the voice, and the speaker was Aizen, a newcomer who was summoned to the world by Su Yang not long ago!!!

"Hey! That guy named Aizen, isn't Devil Fruit randomly generated in this world!"

"How can it be made artificially?"

"If you talk nonsense, I will do it!"

Seeing that the person who answered was Aizen, Diablo couldn't care less about arguing with Uchiha Madara, and provoked him.

While Aizen was hearing Diablo's provocation, he simply ignored the provocation of this clever fellow.

Instead, he put down the book in his hand, raised his hand and pushed the glasses holder on the bridge of his nose, and continued to reply to Rem and Ram in a gentle tone:

"SMILE is not only an artificial Devil Fruit, but also capable of mass production! 39

·0 for flowers·

"It's one of Joker's ace products in the underground! 35

"And the biggest buyer of this product is the Four Emperors Kaido who dreamed of building the entire Zoan Demon fruit power pirate!

"SMILE was heavily used by Kaido in the Beasts Pirates, and even created several legions for it!"

"These intelligences can basically find clues in different newspapers, and they can be deduced only by combining them!"

When Aizen said the last sentence, he also looked at Diablo with a meaningful look.

It looked like he was saying to Diablo:

I saw your provocation, but because it was too naive, I ignored it!

As the strongest supporter of Mr. Su Yang, I will show my ability and value in every aspect.

And you?

Nothing but recklessness!!!

As the strongest Demon Lord, Diablo naturally sensed Aizen's gaze towards him, and understood what he meant, and anger rose in his heart at that time.

On the other hand, Rem and Ram, after hearing Aizen's answer, understood why Su Yang had mentioned Dressrosa before.

273SMILE!!!

"Aizen, it seems that your recent books and newspapers are not in vain!"

At this time, Su Yang also gave Aizen a thumbs up.

Since Aizen was summoned to this world by Su Yang, in addition to fiddling with various researches with Mewtwo, he also obtained books and newspapers belonging to this world through various means.

It is no exaggeration to say that the newspapers and books purchased by Aizen during this period of time have almost filled the originally empty study in the "May 40" Luohao.

Just like that, there are still a steady stream of news birds coming and going on the Shura every day.

Especially after Mewtwo, Akunorolia and the others left, Aizen basically entered a state where he couldn't put it down.

No matter what time or what you are doing, you will have a newspaper or a book in your hand.

And the effect of doing so was revealed at this moment.

A large amount of information collection has made Aizen become the existence of the entire dimensional pirate group, second only to Su Yang in the knowledge of the pirate world!

Therefore, the information about SMILE basically came and blurted out.

"Hehe...knowledge is also power!

"Now that I have not fully adapted to the rules of this world, the collection and analysis of a large amount of information can be regarded as a contribution that I can temporarily provide to our Dimensional Pirates!

Hearing Su Yang's compliment, Aizen laughed and replied to Su Yang with a calm expression.

It's just... Aizen's interaction with Su Yang made Diablo even more furious.

Even when the two of them were talking, he had the feeling that the characters [Su Yang's Heart Status -1] and [Dimensional Pirates Status -1] kept appearing in his head!

"Devil Fruit is a manifestation of the rules of this world! 35

"In my opinion, even if this artificial fruit called SMILE is developed, it must have some flaws!

"After all, the rules of a world, where is it that a mere mortal can easily Master!

Immediately, Diablo pushed the glasses on the bridge of his nose, glared at Aizen and said.

Su Yang has always ignored the "competition" between Diablo and Aizen. After all, in the original world, which of the people on the ship was not a strong man with his own will and character?

As long as their character and thoughts don't affect or hurt the rest of the boat, Su Yang will also choose to respect.0

Therefore, after hearing Diablo's words, he did not interfere too much with the behavior of the two of them, but just opened his mouth and said some information about SMILE that he knew:

"Indeed! Because of the rules of this world, this artificial Devil Fruit still has many flaws!"

"For example, the ability you can get after eating SMILE can only be Zoan!"

"And some permanent, irreversible animal features, such as trunk, tail, etc., will appear on the user's body!"

"And it doesn't mean that everyone who takes SMILE can successfully obtain the Devil Fruit ability!"

4.6 "Once the ability to acquire fails, the person who eats SMILE will be stripped of the expression on his face!"

Hearing Su Yang say this, everyone on the boat frowned slightly.

Immediately, the two sisters Rem and Ram also asked Su Yang the questions in everyone's heart:

"Lord Su Yang! What does it mean to be deprived of the expression on your face? 99

"Is it a condition similar to facial paralysis?"

274 Goal: Dressrosa!!!

"Alas... As long as the faces of those who fail to acquire abilities after taking SMILE, can only have one expression in this life!"

"That's the laugh!!!"

Hearing the questions of sisters Ram and Rem, Su Yang sighed slightly and said.

"laugh???"

"It's not an expression that is too unacceptable, is it?"

"I just hope that under my leadership, the ninja world can have no wars and make everyone's faces full of smiles!"

Hearing this, Uchiha Madara also said somewhat puzzled.

"No! Madara, the kind of smile you want, a smile from the heart, not a simple expression!

"Think about it... If a person, whether it is sad, painful, uncomfortable, he can only have a stiff smile on his face!

"No matter how excited the emotions are, there are tears in the eyes, and there is only a sound of laughter in the mouth!"

"What a sad and pathetic look that would be!!!"

Su Yang shook his head slightly and corrected Uchiha Madara.

"If that's the case, that's really sad!"

"Smile like that...don't worry!!!"

Uchiha Madara had a solemn expression, crossed his hands on his chest, shook his head and said.

"Such an unhealthy thing... would anyone really eat it?"

After Uchiha Madara finished speaking, Rem hesitated for a while, and then asked Su Yang.

"Not only... but quite a few!"

"As SMILE's biggest buyer, Kaido has built three legions within his Beasts Pirates!"

"Among them, the number of people who are rushing and waiting to take SMILE is the most, and they are called waiters in Beasts Pirates!"

"And those who ate SMILE and successfully obtained the Zoan Devil Fruit ability can be said to have reached the sky in one step, and are called givers!"

"As for those who eat SMILE and fail...they are called hilarious ones!"

When it comes to this question, Su Yang does not need to answer it.

Aizen, who has collected a lot of intelligence through various information sources, answered it.

"Is this... these people don't think about the consequences?"

Hearing Aizen's explanation, Ram still had some unacceptable doubts.

"No matter what world you are in, there will be people who are willing to give up everything in pursuit of strength and power!

"And in this world, pirates are prevalent, and the powerhouses in New World are like carp crossing the river!

"Those who try to gain powerful power and gamble to eat SMILE are naturally no longer in the minority!"

This time, it was the Demon Lord Diablo who answered for Ram.

After all...for this kind of human nature issue, he, the "Fallen Devil King" of the Otherworld, has the most say!

Obviously, Diablo's cruel and realistic answer made the sisters Rem and Ram somewhat unacceptable.

As for the other people on the Shura, they are all "human sober" who are used to seeing human nature and have long recognized the nature of the world, so they are noncommittal about this.

Looking at sisters Rem and Ram's frowns, Su Yang smiled and put down the dessert in his hand, rubbed the two sisters' heads respectively, and said:

"Okay! When faced with a choice, the choices made by each person will be influenced by the people and things he has encountered!"

"Since you think things like SMILE are very harmful, let's go and smash the factory that produces SMILE!!!

"Then go kill the guy who invented SMILE!"

"Did you say okay?"

275 Ace Kano's careful machine!

With Su Yang's comfort, the expressions on the faces of the sisters Rem and Ram finally improved.

They nodded heavily and answered with an "um".

Seeing that the two sisters' faces turned a little better, Su Yang also said to Diablo around him:

"Then it's decided!"

"Diablo, go down and call the tornado up!"

"This Jacob Island loves not surrender, and if it does not surrender, call Jinbei and ask them to come over and treat the next group of people well!!!35

After hearing Su Yang's order, Diablo raised his hand and responded with a slight salute to Su Yang, as if he had been beaten.

"As you order, Su Yang-sama!

"Diablo is here for you!!!"

As he said that, the Demon King's wings spread out behind Diablo, disappeared on the Shura in an instant, turned into a phantom and flew towards the tornado below.

"After the tornado came up, we drove the Shura straight to Dressrosa! 35

"This time, we will not only smash his Doflamingo's place, but also smash the factory that makes SMILE~!"

"And kill the guy who invented SMILE!!!"

After Diablo disappeared, Su Yang also spoke to everyone on the deck of the Shura.

"Yes!!!"

As soon as Su Yang's voice fell, several militants headed by Uchiha Madara responded enthusiastically.

Obviously, they don't want to miss such a good opportunity to make a big fuss!!!

"Su Yang! I have something to discuss with you!"

At this moment, Ace Kano, who had not interrupted much before, called Su Yang.

"Hmm, what's up?"

Hearing Ace Kano calling himself, Su Yang asked suspiciously.

"Can the Shura be handed over to me to drive the trip to Dressrosa? 35

Ace Kano then made his request to Su Yang.

As soon as these words came out, Su Yang and the others didn't understand for a moment, how could Ace Kano suddenly make this request.

It wasn't until Aizen raised his finger to point to the position of the sky that everyone understood.

At this time, the sky has begun to gradually darken, and in a few hours it will be night.

And everyone is now starting from Jacob Island to Dressrosa, and at the speed of the Shura, they can basically arrive at midnight.

well known.

Ace Kano!

I'm sorry for being a man of nostalgia one night, but the Lord of the sky and the earth in the daytime, I am the only one!!!

Had this arrived at Dressrosa at midnight, the result would have been obvious.

He, Ace Kano, the man standing at the pinnacle of the race, will not be able to participate in this Dressrosa battle due to his personality.

What a blow this will be to the arrogant him!!!

Therefore, at this moment, he proposed to let himself control the Shura attack.

In this way, as long as he slows down the speed of the Shura before night comes.

In the evening, with his other character's "steady as an old dog" driving speed, then Jin (Li Lihao) took over.

The time for the Shura to arrive at Dressrosa will be tomorrow morning!

And wait until tomorrow and daytime, then Ace Kano will be the "heaven and earth, I am the only one" again!!!!

For Ace Kano's careful thought, everyone saw through it but didn't reveal it.

"Okay! The Shura will be handed over to you to open it!

After talking to Ace Kano, Su Yang handed over the driving right of the Shura to Ace Kano.

276 Donquixote Family Meeting!

Dressrosa.

Inside the King's Castle, Doflamingo walked out of a room with the steps that he did not recognize.

"My lord! Your Excellency Torrepol, Your Excellency Diacarman and others are already waiting for you!"

Seeing Doflamingo coming, he said to him respectfully in a burgundy maid outfit baby-5.

"It's all here..."

Hearing baby-5's words, Doflamingo nodded and pondered slightly.

At the right time, baby-5 also opened the door of the room for him, revealing the interior of the room.

In the room, there are four seats with shapes of hearts, spades, diamonds, and plum blossoms.

553

On the four seats, at this time, a figure was sitting either with Erlang's legs crossed, or with crutches.

"Hohohohoho! Keep you waiting!

"Then let's start today's family meeting! 35

Doflamingo walked to the four seats, turned to face the four people on the seats, and said to them with a smile.

And the four people in the seats, after hearing Doflamingo's words, their expressions with different expressions gradually converged.

"As always, it is all thanks to you that the arena is able to develop so well!

"Diamandi!"

Doflamingo first looked at the man sitting on the square seat and spoke to him.

"Over the top, Dover!"

"It's all about your charisma as a king!""

Diamandi, who was wearing a black fur-brimmed hat, two red-orange tattoos on his face, and a red cape heard the words, grinned his big mouth, and opened his mouth to be modest to Doflamingo.

"No! It's all yours!"

Seeing Diamanti's modest response to himself, Doflamingo continued to praise Diamanti with a smile as always.

"Nonsense! I'm not an arena hero!"

Hearing Doflamingo's continued praise, Diamanti continued to speak modestly.

It's just that there have been so many turns in the words.

"No! You are the hero of the arena!"

Even though Diamanti continued to be humble, Doflamingo (baeg)'s praise did not stop.

"Don't say that, Dover, I'm just doing my normal fighting! 35

Diamanti heard the words and continued his modesty.

"If that's the case...then I don't think so..."

And Doflamingo also turned a corner at this time, withdrew the compliments he had made to Diamanti before, and started talking. He was only halfway through speaking, but when he heard Diamanti, who was extremely humble just now, suddenly interrupt Doflamingo's words, the volume increased, and his tone became extremely arrogant and proud and said to Doflamingo:

"If that's the case, then I have to admit it!"

"That's right! I, Diamanti, are the heroes of the Arena!!!"

That appearance is very flamboyant, and it is no longer the very humble state just now.

The few people sitting around didn't have any special attire for the awkward conversation between Doflamingo and Diamanti, obviously they were already used to it!

"Shh~~~"

"Puff~Poke~Poke~"

At this moment, the man who was sitting on the plum blossom-shaped seat suddenly turned into a paste and swept towards Doflamingo.

After it came to Doflamingo, the mush-like existence turned into a human shape again.

I saw it, wearing a blue cloak with a circle printed all over the body, shaped like a cup, with a brain shell with neat bangs, and a pair of black sunglasses, sticky snot flowing from the nostrils. , looks like a sloppy uncle!

277 Doflamingo's Plan!

"Hey hey hey! It's too close!!!"

"Torrepol!!!"

Seeing that the sloppy uncle's face was almost sticking to his body, Doflamingo also spoke to him.

"Ah Lie Lie? Is it too close? Is it too~ close?"

"Hey, Dover, I've already brought what you said before - here it is!"

Torrepol didn't have his own snot at all, and it was almost rubbing against Doflamingo's flamingo cape.

"I got the things, you go ahead and do them well! 35

Doflamingo took the small treasure box that Torrepol handed over, pointed to the plum blossom-shaped seat, and said to Torrepol.

For Doflamingo's orders, Torrepol is still extremely respectful.

I saw him turn into that mushy position again, and swept back to his plum blossom-shaped seat.

"After Summit War, the world is even more chaotic!"

"For that great plan, we will always be ready!"

"The next step is crucial!"

"I believe that this thing is enough to attract the world's attention and cover our actions behind the scenes!"

"Diamandi, this crucial item will be handed over to you!!!"

Doflamingo looked at the small treasure chest in his hand, and after muttering to himself for a while, he looked up at Diamanti and spoke to him.

"Wait! Dover, I'm not good at this, I'm not suitable!"

Seeing Doflamingo walking towards him and handing over the small treasure chest, Diamanti raised his hands and waved them in rejection.

"No! Diamanti, you are the most suitable person!"

"I believe you can!"⁹

Doflamingo's words were firm, holding up the small treasure chest and continuing to speak to Diamanti.

"Farewell, this rainbow fart is going to blow people into the sky!!!"

Diamanti continued to shake his head and evaded with a modest voice.

"No! Only a genius like you can do this! 35

Doflamingo didn't feel bored at all about such a conversation, and continued to praise Diamanti.

·0 for flowers·

The compliments in it are even more and more "excessive".

"Don't say that, it's really embarrassing!"

Still the same recipe, still the familiar taste, Diamanti continued to wave her hands away.

"Yeah~~~ If that's the case, then..."

As if feeling the heat, after Diamanti's shirk this time, Doflamingo did not insist.

As he said that, he was about to retract the hand he stretched out earlier.

"Since you have said so, then I will admit that I am a genius!"

"Such an important task, of course, can only be done by a genius like me!!!

As before, Diamanti's reply this time was extremely firm and conceited.

He reached out and stopped the hand that Doflamingo was about to withdraw, and then grabbed the small treasure chest in his own hand.

"Hohohohoho~It's really reliable!!!"

Watching Diamanti snatch the small treasure chest from his hand, Doflamingo didn't mind it, but instead laughed and continued to praise him.

278 "Ghost Bamboo"

Vergo!!!

After Diamanti took the small treasure chest away, he got up and walked towards the door beside him.

Diamanti's departure did not end the Donquixote family meeting.

I saw Doflamingo turned his head again, looked at the man sitting on the seat of hearts, and said to him:

"Hohohoho~ Although there is no one sitting in this seat for a long time, I also have someone take care of it on time!

After hearing Doflamingo's words, the man sitting on the "five five three" heart seat put down Erlang's legs.

This person has an inch head, wears flat-framed sunglasses, and under a golden plush cloak, is a pure white outfit with densely printed forks.

Strangely, there was actually a small piece of steak stuck to the man's face at this time.

It seemed that when eating, one accidentally didn't feed it into his mouth and directly touched his face.

"Hehe... Dover, the seats on Marine's side aren't as comfortable!"

"If it's not for the mission, I don't want to stay in that boring place of the G5 branch all the time!"

"And recently I heard that the headquarters is going to transfer a new generation of dove seed candidates, which is very troublesome!

Hearing Doflamingo's words, the man laughed and said to Doflamingo.

"Your former boss, that trash, Pika and I have already dealt with it three months ago!"

"I've already found someone to take care of the World Government and Marine!"

"Now Marine is at the juncture of the world's conscription!"

"As for your promotion to Vice Admiral and the appointment of G5 Base Commander, I believe it will be in your hands soon!

"Vergo! For our great plan, we need you to persevere for a few more years!"

Listening to the man secretly expressing his loyalty and unchanging words, Doflamingo still explained to him with a smile on his face.

The one who came to attend the Donquixote family meeting this time was the Marine general "Ghost Bamboo" Vergo who was ordered by Doflamingo many years ago to go into Marine as an undercover!!!

"Through these years of development, G5 is already the Master in my hands! 35

"That bastard didn't care about it two years ago, and now that he's dead, I'm just more righteous!

"On the contrary, having the identity of Vice Admiral will help me even more in the neutral faction!"

"Dover! For the family, for that great plan, I will do my best to contribute my strength!"

After hearing Doflamingo's words, Vergo also opened his mouth to report his achievements over the years.0

Doflamingo came to Vergo's side, patted him on the shoulder, laughed and said to him:

"Hohohoho, Vergo, your role is very important!

"The research on Guy's side has reached a critical moment!"

"And there was so much noise from that research, Dressrosa was no longer enough to support his research!35

"In the next period of time, moving the research room to the work of Punk Hazard will require more than 4.6 more help from you!

Hearing the task assigned by Doflamingo, Vergo thought for a while and said:

"It's not difficult!"

"I just heard that the dove guy who is about to be transferred is a guy with a strong sense of justice!"

"Dover, you'll have to send some useless pirates over there, and use that

As soon as Jorah's voice fell, Mahabais, who was at the card table with her, also made a pose to show the muscles of his arms, and said with a laugh.

"Just do everything according to the young master's will! 35

"Besides, if it wasn't something important, Senor wouldn't come with me!

Rao G, the oldest at the card table, finally spoke up.

"Furfurfur~ Senor, Violet, the young master is still having a family meeting!"

"What is it that makes you so nervous?"

Big Die Buffalo grinned, brought Sugar and Monet over, and asked Violet and Senor who hurried over.

"I just...I just passed the eyes of a seagull!

"See... see the ship of the Dimension Pirates, heading towards us Dressrosa!!!"

After hearing the crowd's inquiries, Violet panted heavily and spoke to the crowd with a slightly stumbling speech.

"Hey! Who was I at that time!"

"It's not the Dimensional Sea... What are you talking about???"

Dimensional Pirates!!!

As soon as Violet's voice fell, Namahabais continued to pose in his strange pose, speaking indifferently.

But halfway through, he suddenly realized something.

After a brief recollection, he immediately stopped his arrogant words before, and turned into an extremely shocked tone, confirming with Violet.

"I'm sure I read it right!"

"The boat is steered by Ace Kano of recent fame! 35

553 "The rest of the crew of the Dimensional Pirates who participated in the Summit War appeared on the deck!

"Look at their aggressive appearance, it's not like they are just passing by!!!"

Before Mahabaith could finish speaking, Violet spoke to the crowd.

Hearing Violet's words, the oldest of the crowd, Rao G, had a gloomy expression on his face.

He put down the playing cards in his hand, stood up and said to Violet:

"If the Dimensional Pirates really came, then this matter would be tricky!"

"Violet, you go with me to see the young master, please decide!"

280 strong dragons do not overwhelm the local snakes!!!

Obviously, Little Garden's movement was also noticed by Doflamingo and the other three cadres who were meeting in the room.

"Squeaky~~~"

The window of the room was opened, and Doflamingo stood in front of the boat, looking down at everyone in the garden.

After glancing around, Doflamingo asked Violet:

"Violet, come here in such a hurry, what happened?"

Hearing Doflamingo's question, the panicked look on Violet's face did not subside in the slightest, and she replied to Doflamingo:

"Dover! The Dimensional Pirates are heading towards us Dressrosa!"

"And looking at the aggressive state of the people on the boat, it doesn't look like they are just passing by!!!

After Doflamingo heard Violet's words, the picture of fighting Su Yang before flashed in his mind, and his face suddenly sank.

"BE..."

"Why is he here all of a sudden?"

"Could it be...he came for that thing~°?"

Doflamingo had a low face, and the purpose of Su Yang's coming here was also running fast in his mind, and he murmured two words unconsciously in his mouth.

No matter how Doflamingo thinks, the final result is that Su Yang is not good at this time.

Immediately, he looked back at the top cadres in the room, and then swept around the core cadres in the garden, the smile on his face reappeared.

After all, Dressrosa is their Donquixote family home!

Qianglong still does not suppress the snake in the ground!

If he really can't beat him in the end, he will be protected by the World government as he bears the blood of that place!

"Hohohohoho! Since Su Yang and his Dimensional Pirates are heading straight for Dressrosa! 99

"Then let's give them the passion from the Donquixote family!!!"

The frantic smile on Doflamingo's face grew stronger, and he said to the crowd with a big laugh.

"Follow! Young Master!!!"

As soon as Doflamingo's voice fell, whether it was the three top cadres on the four chairs in the room, or the core cadres in the Little Garden outside the house, they all squatted down and gave Doflamingo a big salute, and shouted loudly.

"Dringer!"

Doflamingo's smile didn't change, and he shouted at a murloc in Little Garden wearing a sports hat, a pair of sharp horns, and a mouth full of serrated fangs.

"Young Master! Dellinger is at your command!!!"

When Dellinger heard this, his head that had already been lowered instantly raised his head to look at Doflamingo, and a pair of sharp mouths grinned fiercely.

In `Dringer, you go to the Arena and find Diamanti!"

"Then tell him that the arena is closed today, and let him go back to the king's castle to attack! 35

"He will sit at the King's Castle with me, Torrepol, and Pika!!!"

Doflamingo looked at Dellinger and instructed him.

"Yes! Young Master!!!"

Deringer (Li Lihao) heard Doflamingo's order, and after answering, he turned into a black shadow and ran quickly towards the direction of Dressrosa Arena outside the garden.

"Senor! Mahabaith! Jorah!"

Seeing the figure of Deringer running out, Doflamingo then looked at the others in Little Garden, and called out the names of the three again.

"Master! I'm waiting!!!

Senor, Mahabais, and Jorah who were named responded at the same time.

281 Arrangement by Doflamingo!!!

"The three of you go to the SMILE factory!"

"Together with the factory manager, Yu Yin, protect the SMILE factory from being destroyed!!!

"At the same time, I'm also responsible for those little people not to take the opportunity to escape!!!"9

Seeing Senor, Mahabais, and Jorah looking up at him, Doflamingo continued to speak for the three of them.

"Yes! Young Master!!!"

"I will definitely use my life to protect the safety of the SMILE factory!!!"

"At the same time, I won't let any of the little people go!!!

As soon as Doflamingo's voice fell, Senor, Mahabais, and Jorah also answered Doflamingo imposingly.

Unexpectedly, their words of loyalty were suddenly interrupted by Doflamingo!

"Who told you to give your life? Stupid!!!" 553

"Every one of you has been my family since my brother died!"

"If it's really impossible to do anything, you will abandon the SMILE factory, and it is important to save your life!!!

Following Doflamingo's remarks, Senor, Mahabaith, Jorah in Little Garden, and everyone inside and outside the room were all moved with expressions that could no longer be added.

"Okay! If you know it, go to the SMILE factory first!"

Seeing everyone's grateful expressions, Doflamingo waved his hands with a smile on his face, and said (baeg) to Senor, Mahabais, and Jorah.

After Senor, Mahabais, and Chora heard the words, they didn't delay any longer and hurried towards the SMILE factory.

"Monet! Come to the room first!

As the three Senor left, Doflamingo first called to Monet in the direction of Little Garden, and then turned to look at Vergo the "Ghost Bamboo" in the direction of the Spade Seat.

"Whoo~~~"

"Swish!!!"

As soon as Doflamingo's voice fell, Monet in the garden waved his hands, and the whole person immediately turned into a snowflake, rising from the ground and scraping along the window to the position beside Vergo. Until she reappeared her original form, she still maintained the previous posture of kneeling down and bowing her head.

"Monet! You go to the laboratory to find Guy, and let him go to the underground shipyard with the personnel and equipment needed for the experiment!"

"Just take this opportunity to move the laboratory to Punk Hazard!"

"I'll let Gladius arrange the ships for you first and send you off! 99

After Doflamingo gave Monet a few words, he turned to look at Vergo and said:

"Vergo, your identity is sensitive and it is inconvenient to show your face!"

"And Guysa himself and his experiments are very important to us, and I need you to leave with the ship!"9

"Monet has always been in charge of the work in the laboratory, and she will cooperate with you to complete this relocation!"

When Vergo heard the words, he nodded, indicating that he was clear.

After all, this was what they were discussing a few minutes ago, but it was a change in the relocation time, and they had already arranged the rest of the arrangements.

Seeing that both Vergo and Monet had figured out what they should do, Doflamingo nodded to the two of them, then stopped looking at them, and continued to look at the other people, arranging their work.

And Monet also looked at Vergo very wisely, took the lead in leading the way, and said to him:

"Lord Vergo, please come with me, Dressrosa's laboratory is on this side!"

282 Youthful...G!!!

With this series of arrangements, there were not many people left in Little Garden and the house.

After Doflamingo glanced around with his sunglasses for a week, he opened his mouth and called out another name in Little Garden: "Lao G!"

"Young master! The old slave is here! 35

The old-faced Rao G replied to Doflamingo.

"Torrepol will be with me later in the King's Castle!

"I'll leave the responsibility of protecting the sugar to you!"

Doflamingo first glanced at the sugar with a basket of blueberry fruit beside his hand, and then said to Lao G with a rather solemn expression. The members of the entire Donquixote family are very aware of the ability of sugar and how important it is to the Donquixote family and this country.

"Young Master, entrust such an important task to me, I will definitely not hurt the sugar, please don't worry!

"This...is youth -G!!!

Therefore, when Lao G heard Doflamingo's order, his eyes seemed to be blazing with raging fire, and he replied with full of fighting spirit.

"Hohohohoho, it's really reliable!

"Then the sugar will be handed over to you!"

When Doflamingo heard this, he laughed and praised Lao G.

"Then... the old slave will take the sugar back to the underground toy factory first!"

After Lao G said a word to Doflamingo, he took sugar and walked out of the castle.

"Tatta tah tah tah tah tah"

"boom!!!

Just as Lao G left Little Garden with the sugar, there was a sound of footsteps outside the door of Doflamingo's room, and then the wooden door was violently pushed open.

"Dover! Dellinger stopped me on the way and said the Dimension Pirates were coming!"

"This is how the same thing?

What appeared at this moment was naturally Diamanti who had just left with a small treasure chest.

Baby-5 and Dellinger followed behind him and walked in together.

Doflamingo laughed and said to Diamanti:

"Hohohohoho~ Yeah! 35

"Violet saw it with her own eyes, Su Yang is already on the way with his Dimensional Pirates!"

"As reliable as you, I have decided to let you, Pika, and Torrepol join me against Su Yang and the main force of the Dimension Pirates!"

"Of course...if you don't want to, neither will I...35

However, this time, he did not have the limit of a conversation with Diamanti as before.

Sure enough!

Before he could finish his last words, Diamanti interrupted him directly.

And in his extremely arrogant, proud, and loud voice:

"I should! Dover!"

"As you said, it's as reliable as me, and the Dimension Pirates' attack is a good time to prove my name as an invincible swordsman!!!

"A mere dimensional pirate group, I alone can stop it!!!"

As Diamanti said, he walked over to the seat that belonged to him and sat down again.

After watching Diamanti sit down, Doflamingo also said to the rest of the crowd:

"Those who didn't make arrangements just now, wait with me to defend against the enemy!

"Oh, right!"

"Violet, about the attack of the Dimensional Pirates, it's up to you to inform the whole country!"

"After all... your feelings for this country are not ordinary!"
