Chapter 437: The Process Of Becoming Shichibukai!

"Rifan, I hope to have the opportunity to communicate with you again in the future."

Gion turned around and said to Rifan with a smile on her face.

"Communicate? Gion, what you call communication, is it serious?"

Rifan raised the corner of his mouth and smiled.

Hearing this, Gion immediately blushed.

What she said was serious communication, but...

"If Rifan, you are willing to give me something I want."

"As for how to "communicate", we can also discuss it appropriately."

Gion exhaled and spoke.

"Really, then I have to look forward to it a little bit~"

Rifan laughed.

While everyone was talking, the Marine warship with the head of a dog approached.

Apparently, this is Garp's warship.

After Garp greeted Gion, Momonga and others.

Then he led a few people back to his Marine warship.

"Zephyr-sensei, are we not going to leave with Vice Admiral Garp?"

Ain saw that Vice Admiral Garp and others were gradually boarding his Marine warship, but Zephyr did not take any action, so she couldn't help asking with some doubts.

"I don't have anything to do next, so I won't be returning to Naval Headquarters for the time being."

Zephyr shook her head and walked up to Rifan.

"Rifan, you don't mind if we sail with you for the next part of the journey."

"What, Zephyr Vice Admiral wants to spy on us?"

"Surveillance doesn't count, but since you have officially become a Shichibukai, I am also obliged to take you to the holy place Mariejois."

"Holy place? Order of the Five Elders?"

"Yes, this is also the process."

Hearing what Zephyr said, Rifan couldn't help but raise his hand and touched his chin.

Knowing the situation of the World Government, he understood that the Five Elders couldn't wait to get his blood factor at this time.

However, Rifan already has the means to deal with this.

"Can."

After thinking for a while, Rifan nodded with a smile on his face:

"Although we have different positions."

"But you, Zephyr, I still admire you."

"Also, I heard that you are the chief Instructor of Marine, and you are very good at training soldiers."

"As it happens, I recently trained Hina well because of the deal with the Marines."

"Just use your experience to make a good evaluation."

"By the way, since you are going to sail a certain distance with us, how about Hina just come to work on your ship for a while?"

"If she is on your boat, when you are sailing with us, she can also come to me to continue her training for a while."

"In this way, I think you can evaluate the effect of my training method more intuitively."

Letting Hina go to Zephyr's side, this is what Rifan had already thought about.

If history develops in the original direction.

Zephyr will most likely leave Marine.

And Hina only needs to establish a deep teacher-student relationship with Zephyr beside the other party.

When the time is right, Hina will have the opportunity to defect to the Marines alongside Zephyr.

Chapter 438: Rifan Eyes On Zephyr!

At that time, Rifan will be more confident in inviting Hina to come to him.

Even, he can try to invite Zephyr through the line of Hina.

And Zephyr is here, so Ain naturally wants to follow.

At that time, they are all in the same boat.

Isn't it a matter of time before Ain becomes his person like Hina.

Of course, having Hina with Zephyr has another advantage.

That was at least for the time he and Zephyr were sailing together.

He can have more opportunities to have fun with Hina.

For Rifan's proposal.

Zephyr naturally accepted it with open arms.

Rather, Rifan's proposal made him feel relieved.

Originally, he was worried that Rifan would not be so easy to talk to.

After all, Rifan's training method is so special, and the effect is so fast, this method should never be announced to the public.

But now, Rifan is willing to let him refer to Hina's progress in becoming stronger, which is obviously beyond Zephyr's expectations.

Even if he can't watch his Rifan train Hina.

But he can see the results of Hina's practice in a timely and objective manner.

This is also very acceptable to Zephyr.

After all, although the Marine has obtained some methods for his partners to become stronger quickly.

But these are not objective enough after all.

And the authenticity of the information revealed by Rifan is also open to question.

Although some people in the Marines believed it.

But as a person who has devoted himself to teaching for many years.

Zephyr obviously didn't want to accept the information Rifan said so easily.

At this time, Zephyr didn't know anything.

Rifan had already set his sights on him.

And is working hard to pull him into his big ship.

After Rifan greeted his friends around him.

Then he carried Cammy, who was somewhat disabled due to the previous gunshot wound, to the infirmary.

Of course, it belongs to his own infirmary, that is, not only to see a doctor, but also to satisfy the interests of Rifan and his girlfriends.

It's not the kind of infirmary that belongs to Chopper and can be used by all crew members.

"How do you feel, Miss Cammy?"

Rifan asked after placing Cammy on the hospital bed.

"I can't die."

Cammy shook her head, staring at Rifan with a pair of beautiful eyes:

"Rifan, what about Ethan, that guy probably has not died."

Cammy is different from the natives in this world. Marines, pirates and other natives don't know that Rifan's Dark Fruit has the power to take away other people's Devil Fruit.

But Cammy knew it.

Ever since Ethan was engulfed by Rifan's darkness, Rifan never walked out of Cammy's sight.

Cammy didn't think that Rifan would execute Ethan before taking away his ability.

Of course, Cammy affirmed the most important reason why Ethan didn't die.

It's because she didn't receive the reminder about Ethan's death from the reincarnation space.

"That guy was still suffering in my dark space."

"Leave that guy alone first, you can deal with that guy after treating your injuries."

As Rifan said, he raised his finger and pointed to the gunshot wound on Cammy's leg.

"And I'm going to touch your leg to heal you so I hope you don't mind."

Chapter 439: Special Treatment!

Hearing this, Cammy shook her head:

"Of course I don't mind. Instead, I should say thank you."

"No need, but please don't forget the previous agreement you made with me."

Rifan smiled, and took out the medicine he had prepared from the medical cabinet next door.

While applying ointment to Cammy, Rifan said:

"These medicines are all prepared by myself, and they are good things that have been tested."

"If a person's physical fitness is good enough, it won't take long for the injury to heal."

"However, this corresponds to those powerful pirates and Marines in this world."

"In your case, after all, you haven't entered the top 100 reincarnator ranking list."

"So, it may take several months for these ointments to fully heal your injury."

"After all, Ethan's bullet went through your leg bone."

Cammy nodded in agreement:

"Ethan's bullets did have a big impact on me."

"However, such an injury can heal within a few months."

"It's already quite a remarkable achievement."

"No, it should be said that it is already a miracle."

"Ethan's gun seems to be specially made. So I thought I may be disabled for a lifetime. So it shows how great your medicine is."

"According to ordinary methods, it will indeed be disabled."

"But you and I both know that this world is special."

"So I was able to tinker with some healing gadgets."

"However, even without my things."

"If you can find some special existences on our planet to seek for help, maybe, they can heal you soon."

While talking, Rifan applied the ointment.

And he has to say that Cammy's legs are very healthy.

That's right, health.

Unlike ordinary women, Cammy may have been exercising all year round.

There are many sharp-edged muscles on her legs.

Although Rifan prefers soft girls.

But it also makes Rifan happy to meet a woman like Cammy once in a while.

"By the way, do you want some special treatment?"

Rifan suddenly raised his head and asked Cammy.

"Special treatment?"

Cammy frowned, and looked at Rifan with some doubts.

"I can use the power of my Devil Fruit to heal you completely."

"Not just gunshot wounds, but other injuries you suffered while fighting the Blackbeard pirates."

"I can also use my ability to heal the damage you have received."

"But that requires me to swallow you whole."

"If you don't mind entering my stomach, I can use this method to treat you."

Munch-Munch Fruit is a bit special after all, although if he makes a move, Cammy can't resist.

But Cammy is Chun Li's good friend after all.

In addition, Rifan has a good impression of Cammy, a former game character.

Therefore, Rifan felt that it was necessary for Cammy to have no worries, and then treated her with a special method.

Chapter 440: The Determination

Of Revenge!

"So that's the case, and you can cure me just by swallowing myself?"

"Devil Fruit is really a magical power."

Cammy nodded, and continued:

"Of course I am happy to be able to recover faster."

"My crew follow me and die because of me."

"I want to do something for them, and the only thing I can think of doing for them is to avenge them."

"Although Ethan has been captured by you, there are still members of the Blackbeard Pirates."

"If I don't recover as soon as possible, if I don't become stronger as soon as possible."

"I can't achieve my goals."

"So, I am willing to accept your treatment plan, Rifan."

"However, since it needs to be treated by swallowing, do I need to wash off the stains on my body first?"

"Also, when you use your devil fruit ability, should I wear clothes or not?"

Among Cammy's partners, there's also a devil fruit user.

Therefore, after Rifan explained, she immediately accepted the setting of Munch-Munch Fruit.

However, facing Cammy's sudden question, Rifan was a little stunned.

Not only Rifan, but even the audience in the real world were a little stunned.

But before he could answer, this time, the falsely concealed door of the infirmary was slowly pushed open.

Rifan glanced back and saw Kalifa, who was wearing a black OL uniform, walking in with light steps.

Beside her was Nojiko with a smile on her face.

Nojiko first pushed her glasses to Rifan, and then said to Cammy with a smile on her face:

"Although even if you don't wash off the stains on your body, or take off your clothes."

"The ability of Munch-Munch Fruit can also work."

"But Miss Cammy, you don't want to make Captain Rifan feel uncomfortable with all the dirt in your body right? After all, you still have the enemy's blood on you."

"So, as Captain Rifan's nurse, my suggestion is that you still wash off the stains on your body."

"And then change your clothes, too. That's what a sick, benevolent person should do, isn't it?"

After finishing speaking, Nojiko winked at Rifan.

Rifan twitched the corner of his mouth, looking at Nojiko's expression, he didn't know what Nojiko was thinking.

But she was clearly helping him fight for some good things.

Nojiko does a lot of things like this now

Chapter 441: Nojiko Offers An

Assist, The Strange Khalifa?

If it was any other time, Rifan would gladly accept the benefits from Nojiko.

It's just that Cammy is Chuuli's friend after all.

And Rifan's feelings for Chun Li, the first female character in a fighting game he has ever been in contact with, are quite special.

For her, Rifan naturally likes her very much.

Of course, Rifan likes her so much because Chun Li's background has Panda elements.

Now that he knows that Chun Li is in the world of reincarnation.

If possible, Rifan naturally wants to have a chance to make her his wife.

So naturally, Rifan couldn't be as casual as he was with Ayane and Kasumi.

If possible, Rifan would like to be sincere to gain Chun Li's favor.

And to gain Chun Li's favor, he naturally cannot make Cammy feel too bad for him.

Otherwise, Cammy will speak ill of him in front of Chun Li.

After that, it became more difficult for him to get married to Chun Li.

Originally, in his situation, it was very difficult to get married with a normal girl.

After all, there are too many beautiful flowers around him.

And Chun Li's background is inspection.

Rifan felt that Chunli might be a firm monogamist.

Even in this reincarnation world.

'Sigh. There is a long way to go. '

While thinking in his heart, Rifan shook his head slightly at Nojiko, intending to tell her not to continue.

At the same time.

The audience of Chollima saw Nojiko's expression and heard what Nojiko said.

They suddenly felt a little uneasy in their hearts.

Vaguely, they felt that Nojiko would make the situation develop in a direction they did not expect.

It's just that at this time, they can't do anything.

Similarly, to Rifan's surprise.

He just reminded Nojiko not to treat Cammy like Gion, Hina and others.

But Cammy actually made a very bold decision.

"I see."

As Cammy said, she pulled hard on her tights with her right hand.

The next moment, Cammy showed a state of zero defense.

At the same time, the live broadcast room of Rifan and Cammy fell into a black screen instantly.

This made the audience and officials tense up instantly.

"So, where should I go for cleaning?"

After Cammy put the red hat on her head, she asked Rifan and Nojiko.

"Well, actually, you don't need to clean it, I can use my abilities."

Rifan rubbed his nose, looked at the beauty in front of him unconsciously, and said.

"As a patient, I need to do a good job of hygiene before the operation."

"You use Munch-Munch Fruit to treat me, which is also a kind of surgery."

"So, I should naturally take good care of my body's hygiene."

Cammy paused, perhaps aware of Rifan's thoughts, so she said:

"Rifan, are you worried that Chun Li will blame you for this?"

"Don't worry, I won't complain about you to her because of this."

"In addition, you can appreciate mine with confidence and boldness."

"Since you saved me, I should repay you."

"This is what we agreed on earlier."

"Besides, besides these things, I don't have anything that I can give you in return."

Hearing this, Rifan couldn't help but sigh in his heart.

Cammy is worthy of being a soldier, even if her strength is far from him.

But she was able to guess exactly what he was thinking.

"It turns out that Miss Cammy thinks so."

"That's great. In this case, I don't need to waste my words."

"I believe that your method can indeed satisfy Captain Rifan~"

Nojiko covered her mouth and looked at Rifan with a light smile.

"If you can go one step further, or go a few steps further."

"Captain Rifan may be even happier."

Kalifa pushed her glasses and spoke for the first time.

"Kalifa, why are you like this today?"

"It's not like you."

Rifan's eyes widened, as if he was frightened by Kalifa.

"I'm just telling the truth."

"After all, Captain Rifan, you're good at this, aren't you?"

Kalifa glanced at Rifan, then walked up to Cammy and put her hand on her shoulder.

Chapter 442: Cleaning Cammy's

Stains!

"As for cleaning the stains on your body, you don't have to go to the bathroom."

"My ability to clean up any stains is very good."

"Of course, it also includes the human body."

As soon as Kalifa finished speaking, a series of bubbles gushed out from the hand she pressed on Cammy's shoulder.

Not long after, Cammy's whole body was wrapped in it.

That's the power of Kalifa's Devil Fruit.

Cammy was wrapped in the bubble fruit, and she was instinctively surprised at first.

But after feeling that there was no danger on Bubble, she opened her hands generously and let Bubble complete their work.

Seeing this, Rifan also gave up the idea of persuasion, and walked to the closet beside him to choose clothes that she could wear according to Cammy's body shape.

It's a pity that although there are many clothes in Rifan's closet, there are no clothes similar to Cammy's tight military uniform.

After a while, Kalifa dispelled the bubbles on Cammy.

In an instant, a gleaming woman in her birthday suit appeared in front of Rifan, Nojiko, and Kalifa as if she had just left the factory.

"Wow, Miss Cammy is so pretty."

"It's a different style from all of us."

"This kind of slightly angular muscle line should be what Captain Rifan likes."

Nojiko walked up to Cammy, and looked up and down at Cammy in front of her with a pair of gleaming eyes.

Especially when she saw Cammy's abdominal muscles, her eyes shone even brighter.

If Rifan didn't know that Nojiko is a normal woman who likes him, Rifan would have thought that Nojiko was crooked.

"Does it look good, I don't know."

"But if Rifan doesn't hate it, then my goal has been achieved."

Cammy nodded and looked at Rifan.

In this regard, Rifan can only give her a thumbs up.

"Miss Kalifa's ability is really exquisite."

"It's not just cleaning up the stains on my body."

"Even the dirt in the wound was cleaned up."

"This ability is quite good before surgery."

"Could it be that you are also Rifan's nurse?"

Cammy looked at Kalifa and asked suspiciously.

"I'm just a secretary."

"Nojiko is a truly excellent nurse."

Kalifa said.

She knew that Nojiko not only possessed the necessary skills for nurses.

Similarly, Nojiko can also use her Bubble Fruit ability to clean the wounds of the wounded.

So, the really good nurse is Nojiko.

"That's right, Kalifa is the secretary and I'm the nurse."

When Cammy looked at her, Nojiko nodded and said,

"By the way, Miss Cammy, since you don't mind Captain Rifan looking at you, you don't mind me recording your data, do you?"

Nojiko laughed.

"Record my data?"

Cammy looked puzzled.

"That's right, I can use my Devil Fruit ability to transform into other people."

"As long as I record your data, I can become like you."

"After you leave, maybe one day Captain Rifan will want to recall your beautiful face."

"At that time, I will be able to use my ability to bring all this back in front of Captain Rifan."

Nojiko laughed.

"Not only that, if Captain Rifan needs it."

"Nojiko can still change into your appearance and spend the night with him."

Kalifa said calmly.

"I said, aren't you two talking too much?"

Rifan covered his face with one hand, and said with some shame.

"Isn't this what you want, Captain Rifan?"

Kalifa turned around and said it as a matter of course.

Rifan: "..."

Rifan was silent.

He did have the idea of letting Nojiko imitate Cammy.

But isn't it too much for the two of you to discuss this in front of Cammy?

"I understand, but if Rifan is interested in this body."

"You don't need Nojiko to use her ability to change into my appearance."

"If Rifan needs it, I am willing to accompany you."

Cammy nodded, and said what surprised Rifan the most in the calmest words.

Of course, Kalifa and Nojiko are also included.

"So that's it, she's the same type of person as me."

After a while, Nojiko was the first to react, and said with a smile on her face.

Once upon a time, she also committed herself to Rifan in order to repay his kindness.

The current Cammy made Nojiko seem to see her former self.

At this moment, she even felt that Cammy would join the Black Pearl Pirates later~

Chapter 443: Kalifa's Interest In

Cammy!

"I said Cammy, are you serious?"

Rifan couldn't help asking.

"Yeah!" Cammy nodded slightly, and said:

"Without you, this body is already dead.

"Therefore, it doesn't matter if I dedicate it to you."

Rifan raised his eyebrows, he didn't think what Cammy said was true.

After all, Cammy still has a chance to be resurrected.

Even if she died in the battle with Ethan.

She can also be resurrected.

Although the location of the resurrection is random, it may directly send Cammy to a dangerous situation.

It's like the reincarnated person who was once killed by Rifan once.

That unlucky guy was teleported to the territory of the Big Mom pirates, and then was directly killed by Smoothie.

"However, sometimes I may not be by Rifan's side."

"So, Nojiko, it is indeed necessary for you to copy my data."

Cammy said.

"Hehe, since that's the case, I won't be polite~"

As Nojiko said, she raised her right hand and used the power of Clone-Clone Fruit to record Cammy's data.

And at the request of Cammy, she changed into Cammy's appearance.

Cammy looked at Nojiko's face and body that were exactly the same as her own, and was quite surprised in her heart.

Of course, in Rifan's view, there are still many differences between Cammy and the Cammy that Nojiko turned into.

Cammy is unsmiling, but Nojiko loves to smile even if she becomes like Cammy.

With a smile, Rifan was able to tell the difference between the two.

"Cammy, you said you could give yourself."

"This should not only be because I saved you."

"You should have other ideas."

Rifan asked.

Cammy nodded and opened her mouth to speak.

But when she saw Kalifa and Nojiko beside her, she closed her mouth again.

"It seems that the two of us disturbed Captain Rifan, you chatted with Miss Cammy."

"Kalifa and I will leave for now."

Nojiko is smart, she naturally saw Cammy's thoughts.

She smiled, and after thinking that Rifan would often use the growth ointment and special ointment for new crew members on the Black Pearl, she walked up to Cammy and whispered a few words.

And after seeing that Cammy remained calm after hearing a series of content such as ointment, refrigerator, and drinks, Nojiko couldn't help sighing

"Then, Kalifa and I will leave first."

"Captain Rifan, Zephyr outside asked if he could watch how you train Hina."

"How do I answer him?"

Noki asked.

"Well... If it's him, it's not impossible to let him see it a little bit."

Rifan nodded and said.

If it was another Marine, Rifan might not agree.

But for this potential partner, Rifan doesn't mind laying the groundwork for him to join him.

"Understood, I'll answer it now."

Nojiko nodded, and planned to take Kalifa away...

But at this moment, Kalifa suddenly took out a Devil Fruit from behind and handed it to Rifan.

"Kalifa, what do you mean?"

Rifan asked puzzledly.

"Captain Rifan, if Miss Cammy intends to become one of us."

"You can give this Devil Fruit to her."

After Kalifa finished speaking, Cammy immediately looked at Kalifa, and then at the Devil Fruit in her hand.

Even Nojiko's words did not change Cammy's expression, but this time, facing Kalifa's sudden words, she showed a surprised expression for the first time.

Obviously, Kalifa's decision took her quite by surprise.

Of course, the same is true for Rifan.

"This is the Zoan Devil Fruit I gave you earlier.

"Why did you think of taking it out suddenly?"

Rifan asked.

"Captain Rifan, you said it before, if I meet someone who can use the dog dog devil fruit wolf form."

"I can give this devil fruit to her or him."

"Coincidentally, I think Miss Cammy might be very suitable for this Devil Fruit."

"So, if she is willing to be one of us."

"I won't keep this Devil Fruit any longer."

"Instead of staying in my hands, it is better to let it play its due role."

"If it can increase the combat power of the Black Pearl Pirates, that would be a very good thing."

Kalifa spoke up.

Chapter 444: Come To My Mouth,

Miss Cammy~

"Ohh."

Rifan raised his eyebrows, looked at Cammy and nodded slightly.

He didn't think of this before, but now, Rifan feels that Cammy is indeed very suitable for the dog dog fruit wolf form.

Cammy's fighting skills are very sensitive.

This corresponds exactly to the Devil Fruit that can turn into a werewolf.

If Cammy is allowed to use this Devil Fruit, and if the Devil Fruit is awakened, Cammy's combat ability will inevitably increase rapidly.

'If she really wants to be one of us, this Devil Fruit can be given to her.'

'Even, I can use the rewards that can help awaken Zoan devil fruit power on Cammy.'

'It's a pity that Cammy is not an aborigine of this world, but a reincarnator.'

Rifan thought to himself as he looked at the back of Kalifa who left with Nojiko after putting the devil fruit in his hand.

In his opinion, Kalifa and Nojiko felt that there was no difference between Cammy and them.

That's why she thought she would become a member of the Black Pearl Pirates.

It's just that in Rifan's opinion, a reincarnator like Cammy is the least likely person to become a member of the Black Pearl Pirates.

After all, Cammy is not someone from the same country like Leigh and Ada.

If it were really that easy, Kasumi, Honoka, Mary Rose, Ayane and others would have already become his 'slaves'.

"Forget it, let me heal your wounds first."

"We'll talk about other things later."

"Miss Cammy, come to my mouth.

As Rifan said, he used the power of Munch-Munch Fruit to swallow Cammy into his body.

With previous experience using Munch-Munch Fruit to heal others.

Not long after, Rifan successfully healed Cammy's body.

After Cammy landed again, she immediately felt that the injuries in her body had completely healed.

"It can really be treated with this method."

Cammy sighed.

Rifan smiled, raised his hands and pointed in the direction of Cammy.

The next moment, the scene that made Cammy feel a little familiar appeared again.

She saw a lot of bubbles gushing out of Rifan's hands, quickly surrounding her body.

It's like Kalifa used the ability of Bubble Fruit to surround Cammy before.

However, it may be because of the ability used by Rifan this time.

Cammy suddenly felt that being touched by those bubbles was like being touched by Rifan's hands.

In fact, what Cammy thought was not wrong.

Because Rifan is using the awakened version of Bubble Fruit now.

Its power has not only grown to the point where it can turn the surrounding inorganic matter into soap bubbles.

Similarly, Rifan's sense of touch can also extend to those bubbles.

At this time, Rifan's hands did have the feeling of touching Cammy.

Of course, with such an ability, Rifan can control it.

Otherwise, it would be good to touch Cammy with Bubble Fruit, but it would be bad if you touch an old woman like Tsuru, or a man like Garp and Akainu.

Cammy's strange feeling came and went quickly.

Following Rifan to disperse all the soap bubbles.

Cammy withdrew her thoughts.

"Your wounds have healed, and the residue of my saliva on your body has been cleaned up."

"Next, you can talk about what you planned to say earlier."

"Avoiding Kalifa and Nojiko, are you planning to talk to me about our original world?"

Rifan walked to the side, found a chair to sit down on, and said to Cammy.

Cammy looked at the Devil Fruit that Rifan put on the table, walked up to him and sat on his lap facing him under his surprised eyes.

"Huh? What are you doing?"

Rifan felt Cammy's thigh muscles tense, and asked strangely.

"Before talking, let me repay the favor first, how about?"

As Cammy said that, she stretched out her hand to unbutton Rifan's clothes.

But before that, Rifan grabbed Cammy's hand.

"Your attitude is a little strange, Miss Cammy."

"My Observation Haki can sense that you are sincere."

"Originally, according to my character, I should accept your dedication."

"But I'm really curious how you made such a decision."

"So, before you act."

"Can you tell me why you are doing this?"

Chapter 445: Chollima: Oops, Our

Reincarnator Is Really Going To Slip Away!

As Rifan said, he put his hands on the bottom of Cammy's body and exerted a little force upwards, pushing Cammy away from his body.

He was worried that if he continued like this, he would develop a relationship with Cammy to the point of being too close in a daze.

After Cammy stood on the spot and pondered for a while, she walked towards the clothes that Rifan had prepared.

While changing her clothes, she generally spoke to Rifan.

"Okay, let's make things clear first."

"But in order to avoid misunderstanding between our countries, I'll say these words in front of them."

After the words fell, Cammy had already changed into the clothes that Rifan had prepared for her.

At the same time, because of Cammy dressing, the live broadcast room of Rifan and Cammy lit up again.

"Now you can talk, Miss Cammy."

Rifan looked at Cammy who was sitting upright on a bench in front of him, raised his eyebrows, and asked.

Rifan is also quite interested in the topic that Cammy wants to discuss in front of the live broadcast room.

"Rifan, make a contract with me."

Cammy spoke calmly.

Following Cammy's words, everyone's attention was more and more focused on Rifan and Cammy.

Everyone wanted to understand why Cammy made such a sudden decision.

"Interesting, are you planning to enter into a bond of slavery with me, Miss Cammy?"

"Can you tell me your reason?"

Rifan asked.

"It's simple, I need strength."

"I want to avenge my dead comrades."

As Cammy said, she also glanced at the devil fruit next to Rifan.

After a pause, Cammy continued:

"Obviously, being your person, I can become stronger faster."

"Otherwise, with my ability, it would be impossible to take my revenge on the Blackbeard Pirates."

As a reincarnator, Cammy can better understand how terrifying the bonuses she can get after becoming Rifan's partner.

Therefore, she will make such a choice.

And after she finished speaking, the barrage in Rifan's live broadcast room became more and more turbulent.

"..."

"I understand your desire for revenge, but if you do this, what about the country behind you?"

"You should understand that our country is not on good terms."

"If you sign a slavery contract with me, you may have to fight against your country in the future."

Rifan put his hands on his chest and said.

"That's exactly what I wanted."

"I don't want people to think that you used some means to force me to make a contract with you."

"As for the country behind me... After all, I don't even know what my own nationality is."

"I became a member of the Chollima country because I was caught by the official people of the country when I was performing a mission in the "Shadaloo Assassin".

"They removed the Hypnosis from the Shadaloo Organization, so I stayed with them for the time being."

"Counting now, what I have done for them is enough to repay their kindness to me."

"So I think it's okay for me to act for my own purpose next."

Chapter 446: I Welcome You!

Cammy's words made the audience in the real world excited.

Of course, excitement can also be divided into happy excitement and sad excitement.

Obviously, Panda is the happy side.

And the Chollima is the lost side.

But even though it was sad, they couldn't think of a way to stop Cammy.

They can only watch the screen in the live broadcast room and pray that things will not develop in a bad situation.

However, things still didn't go as they wanted.

Rifan already liked Cammy, a character who came out of the game.

Now Cammy took the initiative to apply for membership.

Rifan felt that if he refused, his head would be trapped by the door.

"So that's the case, since you already say that, then I think, I should have no reason to refuse."

Rifan smiled, stood up from his seat, and stretched out his right hand to

Cammy:

"Cammy White codename 'Killer Bee', on behalf of the Black Pearl Pirates,

I welcome you to join me."

Cammy looked at Rifan's outstretched hand, nodded slightly, and also stood up from her seat and stretched out her hand to hold Rifan's hand.

"I am very happy to be a member of the Black Pearl Pirates."

"From now on, please take care of me, Captain."

Chapter 447: Death!

"Rifan, can I ask you something?"

After Cammy let go of Rifan's hand, she asked.

"What's the matter, we are all a family now, you can say it with confidence."

Rifan laughed.

Although the slavery contract has not been formally concluded.

But Rifan believes in Cammy's personality, and also believes in his perception of Observation Haki.

Cammy, it is absolutely impossible to go back on her word.

"If possible, I want you to let me kill Ethan with my own hands."

"I know that you and Ethan have a deep grievance."

"I'm asking you so, maybe it will trouble you."

"But that guy killed all my friends."

"So, please."

Cammy pursed her lips, and gave a military salute to Rifan with both feet.

"Well, actually, you don't have to be so serious."

Being saluted by Cammy with a military salute, although he knew it might be because of her military habits.

But Rifan still felt a little awkward.

"Ethan, I can leave it to you to handle."

"In the final analysis, he is nothing more than a defeated general."

"I never said that I had to kill him myself."

"Anyway, I have the identity of the captain, even if I kill him, I won't be able to get points."

"But you, if you kill him now, you may be able to gain a certain amount of growth~"

Rifan said.

Although Cammy was a reincarnator captain before and could not get points by killing.

But now, having lost all her crew members, her identity has automatically changed from captain to crew member.

Therefore, she can gain battle points through fighting and killing.

The fighting and killing between reincarnators can often bring more battle points to reincarnators.

Especially the existence of Ethan whose strength has reached a certain level, and who is at the forefront of the top 100 reincarnator rankings.

If Cammy killed Ethan with her own hands, Rifan felt that her strength might directly increase to a stage.

Rifan raised his hand and aimed at the open space in the room.

The next moment, a burst of black mist gushed out from Rifan's palm.

Ethan, who had been imprisoned in the Dark Fruit space for a long time, was spat out like a pleam.

Cammy looked up and found that Ethan was already scarred and worn all over his body.

Obviously, in the Dark Fruit space.

Ethan suffered a lot.

Ethan noticed Rifan and Cammy, and he opened his mouth to say something.

However, because of the injuries on his body, he could only speak a few intermittent words.

Rifan and Cammy listened for a long time before they realized that Ethan was pleading.

"He's begging for mercy, Cammy, what do you think?"

Rifan turned his head to look at the slim beauty beside him, and said.

"Death is not a pity."

Cammy's eyes were fixed, and she walked to Ethan's side.

Afterwards, they saw Cammy punching out, and landed heavily on Ethan's head.

Click!

There was a crisp sound.

Even without using Observation Haki, Rifan understands.

At this moment, Ethan's skull has been shattered by Cammy's fist, and death is inevitable.

Sure enough, it seemed to confirm Rifan's idea.

The reminder of the reincarnators space rang in Rifan's ears instantly.

At the same time, the same reminder began to spread rapidly in the major live broadcast rooms of Bluestar with the top golden barrage.

[notice!]

[Cammy White, the reincarnator of Chollima, kills Ethan, the reincarnation of Eagle!]

[Ethan, the reincarnator of the Eagle, does not hold resurrection coins, and Ethan is completely dead!]

Chapter 448: Everyone Surprise!

Seeing Ethan's death with their own eyes, the activity of Blue Star's live broadcast instantly rose several steps.

The Camel country, which had been silent for a long time, once again announced that Rifan is a member of the Camel country.

There are even some small countries that have followed the Camel country and advertised that Rifan is from their country.

For a while, Panda people began to actively speak to these mentally retarded people in the live broadcast room.

In addition, the news that Cammy killed Ethan also spread throughout the reincarnators.

At this moment, the reincarnator exchange group, which had been quiet for a long time, became active.

['Eagle' Albert Wesker: That guy, Ethan, is dead...]

[tl/n: Albert Wesker is from Resident Evil if you don't know.] em>

['Eagle' Tina: With Ethan gone, you will be the strongest reincarnator in the Eagle, Wesker.]

['Eagle' Albert Wesker: Just being the strongest in a country is nothing at all, only the strongest reincarnator in the world is qualified to talk about it. ]

['Kangaroo' Helena: I deeply agree, among all the reincarnators, the strongest is that Rifan. ]

['Green Pheasant' Honoka: I, I think so too!]

['Kangaroo' Mary Rose: Hmph, what's so great about him, isn't he just a little bit of lucky. ]

['Green Pheasant' Kasumi: Rifan's strength cannot be attributed to luck alone. In addition, little Mary, if you comment on Rifan here casually, you will be taught by him later. ]

['Kangaroo' Mary Rose: Hmp, I'm not afraid of him. ]

Having said that, Mary Rose stopped speaking in the message group very honestly, thinking of Rifan's various methods of training people.

You know, she is still on Rifan's boat.

If Rifan wanted to do something to her, she would have no way to resist. Although she knew that Rifan would not force women to do that kind of thing.

But apart from that, there are many ways to make a woman feel ashamed.

At this time, Mary Rose thought of the various potions that Rifan had concocted.

'Speaking of which, since Rifan can tinker with potions like growth ointment. '

'Is it possible to tinker with a potion that can change the system so that even people with a genetically determined body can get a chance to develop?'

Mary Rose thought of the fact that the growth ointment didn't work for her, and she couldn't help thinking expectantly in her heart.

['Eagle' Crimson Viper: Huh?! Cammy was able to kill Ethan?! How is this possible!?!]

['Camel' Huuli: Hehe, that Cammy is not even among the top 100 reincarnators, how could she kill Ethan who was ranked at the top of the reincarnators? I see, there is a high probability that Rifan helped her.

After all, Chun Li, who had the same nationality as Rifan, asked for help, and Cammy also asked Rifan for help. ]

['Camel' Yuza: No matter how Cammy defeated Ethan, I won the bet between you and me, Miss Huuli, after all, you bet that Cammy would lose in the duel with Ethan . ]

['Camel' Huuli: Hmph, shut up, woman]

['Panda' Chun Li: No matter what, it's good that you're safe and sound, Cammy. ]

['Chollima' Cammy: Yes, thank you for your concern, Chun Li. ]

['Eagle' Crimson Viper: That's right, if you're safe and sound, I can take care of you with my own hands. ]

['Chollima' Cammy:"..." ]

['Elephant' Kieran: I'm afraid that you simply don't have the ability to deal with Cammy. After all, Cammy is very likely to be on Rifan's big boat now. ]

['Green Pheasant' Makoto Itou: Cammy White, would she also enter into a slavery contract with Rifan? If so, it would be really enviable.

['Panda' Ada Wong: Hey, is there another sister in our team?]

['Panda' Leigh: And the nationality is not from our country, but if Rifan thinks it is reliable, I will not object. ]

['Chollima' Jonelle: Huh? Cammy signed a contract with Rifan? How is it possible, Cammy is a member of Chollima!]

['Green Pheasant' Makoto Itou: So what if she is from your country?

Didn't Ayane, Kasumi and Honoka of my country also sign a conditional slavery contract with Rifan?

If they can't give Rifan a sufficient amount of Devil Fruit within the specified time, they are not from our country.

Damn it, why do these bitches make a contract with Rifan? Even if they want to make a contract, they should make a contract with me!]

Chapter 449: The Contract Has Been Completed!

['Green Pheasant' Otoshi: Why should they make a contract with you, it should be me who is the strongest!]

['Kangaroo' Mary Rose: Do you two want to see what you are talking about? Make a contract with Honoka and the others? Do you have the strength?]

['Green Pheasant' Ayane: Hmph!]

['Eagle' Tina: Haha, I really laughed so hard, the two of you are not even as strong as Ayane and Kasumi. What a joke.]

['Green Pheasant' Honoka: I, I will not make a contract with you!]

['Green Pheasant' Makoto Itou: Hmph, don't be complacent, sooner or later I will let you be my plaything, Honoka. And you, Mary Rose, I'll make you regret what you did to me at the Thriller Barque!]

['Panda' Rifan: If I remember correctly, I should be the mastermind who killed you, Itou. Why? Because you can't win against me. Are you targeting a girl now? Doesn't that make you the ultimate coward among cowards?]

['Green Pheasant' Makoto Itou: Hmph, don't be too complacent, Rifan. ]

['Panda' Rifan: Sorry, my strength can make me complacent~]

['Panda' Chun Li: Rifan, do you really want to make a contract with Cammy? If possible, please don't force Cammy. ]

['Panda' Rifan: Don't worry, Chun Li, you are my idol. So I respect your will.]

['Panda' Chun Li: Thank you, Rifan. After we meet on this sea, I will thank you in person. ]

Rifan looked at Chun Li's message, the corners of his mouth were slightly arched, and he turned to look at Cammy beside him.

"Chun Li said that, what do you think?"

Cammy shook her head and said:

"You don't have to worry, Rifan."

"Since you and I have agreed to enter into a bond of slavery."

"I'm not going back on my words."

"It's better to say that if you don't make a contract with me, I will be the one who feels embarrassed."

Now Cammy is looking forward to quickly gaining strength through

Rifan, and then defeating the Blackbeard pirates with her own hands, avenging her dead partners.

If she can't sign a contract with Rifan.

Cammy felt that it might not be possible for her to gain the power to fight the Blackbeard pirates in her lifetime.

Although the fight between Rifan and Blackbeard ended abruptly, the terrifying scene was deeply engraved in Cammy's mind.

That level of fighting has surpassed many levels of the Blue Star Street Fighter Competition.

Even if Akuma(Devil), who is the strongest in the street fighter competition came, he would probably be annihilated in the fluctuation of the battle between Rifan and Blackbeard in an instant.

"Rifan, you can rest assured."

"After the contract is signed, I will explain it to Chun Li."

"She won't have any opinion on you just because I became your slave."

"In addition, since I have become your slave, you can naturally do anything to me."

"Including, sex!"

While talking, Cammy stretched out her hand and took Rifan's hand and placed it between her chest, as if urging Rifan to formally enter into a contract with her.

Such a scene made the eyes of those who were watching Rifan and Cammy's live broadcast room tear up.

It's a pity that they can't do anything to Rifan and Cammy at all.

So they could only vent their anger in the live broadcast room.

It's a pity that even in the live broadcast room, their barrage was quickly crushed by the audience who supported Rifan.

Rifan looked into Cammy's eyes, he didn't expect Cammy to be so direct.

He had no doubt that if he wanted it now, Cammy would never object.

but...

"Still not."

Rifan shook his head, and withdrew his hand that felt the soft touch.

"I see what you're thinking."

"I also believe you are serious."

"But you are too... serious, no, it should be said that you have no feelings."

"If possible, I would prefer to do that kind of thing with a woman with "love" in my heart."

"Otherwise, it will make me feel like I am playing with a doll."

"You don't have to worry about my contract with you if I didn't do that with you."

"Once the contract takes effect, you will be mine."

"I will treat my partners as sincerely as I treat my women."

"I believe you have seen it, even the women on my ship are not all my women.

"I also treat them very friendly and sincerely."

After finishing speaking, Rifan showed a big smile.

"A doll?"

Certain adult tools and images of Rifan interacting with the tools automatically appeared in Cammy's mind.

She shook her head and said after dispelling the strange picture in her mind.

"Those female companions of yours may not be your women for the time being."

"But one day, they will all become your women."

"Even Leigh and Ada Wong are the same."

"Maybe, Mary Rose, Honoka, Kasumi, and Ayane are also included."

Cammy said.

Chapter 450: Cammy's Way Of Thanking!

"Haha, if something like that really happens.

"Doesn't that make me the luckiest guy?"

"The premise is that everyone really likes me."

Rifan rubbed the back of his head and said with a big smile, he also yearned for such a scene in his heart.

"Although I haven't talked much with your partners."

"But I think they'll grow to like you."

Cammy couldn't help saying with emotion when thinking of the scene of talking with Nojiko and Kalifa earlier.

Needless to say, Nojiko, she even continued to cater to Rifan's ideas in order to let Rifan have fun.

And Kalifa is willing to take out a Devil Fruit, euphemistically called Cammy willing to be a partner, and this Devil Fruit belongs to Cammy.

In such a situation, if Kalifa has no feelings for Rifan, Cammy would not believe it.

At least, Cammy's affection for Rifan surpasses that of ordinary friends.

More than friends, the possibility of not being satisfied with lovers is also very high.

"Then let me just hope for a while."

After listening to Cammy's words, Rifan said with a smile.

"Speaking of which, since you said that my partner will gradually like me."

"You will be my partner too, right?"

"In that case, will you also gradually fall in love with me?"

Rifan asked.

"Do you care about this, Rifan?"

Cammy raised her eyebrows and asked.

"Of course I care, if you like me in your heart.

"Then when you showed me your favor earlier, I might have accepted it."

Rifan laughed.

"Indeed, if I like you, if I do something with you, it won't make you feel that you are interacting with a doll."

"However, what you like should be to use the attached mutual affection."

"Just that I like you, shouldn't be enough."

Cammy stared straight at Rifan with a pair of eyes, as if she wanted to see through Rifan.

"Cammy, you probably don't know yet."

"Actually, I really like you in my heart."

Rifan patted Cammy on the shoulder and said solemnly.

Can you not like her? In the Street Fighter game, apart from Chun Li, Rifan's favorite female character also has Cammy.

Rifan was very happy to see the live-action version of Cammy.

If it weren't for the fact that he had a good impression of Cammy in his heart, Rifan might have helped Cammy because of Chun Li's request, but his attitude towards Cammy would never be as friendly as it is now.

"Thank you for your love."

"I'll try to love you too."

"When the time comes, we're doing something between a man and a woman."

Cammy was a little stunned after hearing Rifan's words, but her state of mind as a soldier quickly brought her back to her senses.

"What you said is really direct enough."

"Emotions like shyness should be insulated from you."

Rifan touched his cheek and said with emotion.

Now the live broadcast is still going on.

Being able to say such things in front of the live broadcast, even Rifan has to admire her.

"Shyness is an unnecessary emotion."

"Also, we can't do that right now though."

"But the rest, you shouldn't mind. "

Cammy asked.

"other things?"

Rifan tilted his head in doubt.

"For example, this."

After Cammy finished speaking, she stood on her tiptoes, and her bright red lips quickly touched Rifan's lips.

Afterwards, Rifan even felt a moving object rushing into his mouth.

After being slightly surprised, Rifan closed his eyes and enjoyed it.

Cammy's movements seemed a little rusty, but the strong and powerful feeling that originated from the soldiers made Rifan feel a different taste.

When the audience in the live broadcast saw this scene, their eyes widened.

This is especially true for the Chollima audiences. The major news platforms quickly sent relevant news, and those who did not have time to watch the live broadcast, but learned about this incident through the news, collapsed on the spot, and even lost their hearts at the idea of going to work.

Each of them rushed into the live broadcast room where Rifan and Cammy were located with a very nervous mood.

After a long time, Rifan and Cammy separated their tongues.

Cammy licked the remaining marks on her mouth, and said calmly:

"How do you feel, is there any discomfort?"

"If anything, I apologize."

"I haven't done this before, I don't have experience."

Chapter 451: [Blank Chapter]

Chapter 451: [Blank Chapter]

Chapter 452: Last Remain!

After a long time, Rifan and Cammy separated their tongues.

Cammy licked the remaining marks on her mouth, and said calmly:

"How do you feel, is there any discomfort?"

"If anything, I apologize."

"I haven't done this before, I don't have experience."

Hearing this, Rifan immediately shook his head:

"Is it uncomfortable?"

"It's better to say, it feels very good."

After Rifan finished speaking, he gave a thumbs up to Cammy.

Although Cammy is working hard, Rifan's physical fitness is not underestimated.

He didn't have to worry about Cammy pushing too hard and turning his lips into sausages.

On the contrary, it was because of Cammy's strength that he also felt a different experience.

"That's good, I will try my best to like you later."

"At that time, I will be able to join Nojiko and your team."

Cammy nodded and said.

...

...

After playing with Cammy, Rifan looked at the fallen reincarnator Ethan.

Rifan is also quite emotional about this person who is following him closely on the ranking list of reincarnators.

However, although it is said that he is pursuing him closely, the strength gap between the two is not too far.

Not only Ethan, but Rifan alone has raised the top of the pyramid of the strength of the entire reincarnators.

"This guy is finally completely dead."

"Speaking of which, he was the first reincarnator I met."

"He should have died a long time ago, but now he is completely dead."

"He has earned such a long time for nothing..."

While speaking, Rifan walked to Ethan's side and wrapped him up with the power of Dark Fruit.

A little later, when the black mist dissipated.

Ethan's body has been completely swallowed up by Rifan's dark energy.

Only one barrier fruit left in Rifan's hand symbolized the trace of Ethan's existence.

Chapter 453: Giant with Barrier!?

"This is Bartolomeo's Devil Fruit!"

Cammy looked at the Devil Fruit in Rifan's hand, with a very complicated expression.

After all, Bartolomeo is the strongest in her pirate group besides her.

And he has a lot of respect for Cammy.

Such a capable man died because of her, even the cold Cammy would inevitably feel sad.

"Rifan, what are you going to do with this Devil Fruit?"

Cammy took a deep breath and asked Rifan after calming down.

"I plan to give this barrier fruit to Lili, my "personal bodyguard" from the giant race."

"The bodyguard is the partner you accepted earlier. But, she should be a devil fruit user."

"Indeed, she is a mini-fruit devil fruit user, and it is precisely because she is a mini-fruit capable user and a giant warrior. That's why I let her be my "personal bodyguard"

"So that's how it is. Giants and miniature fruits, this Lili can make her body grow and shrink freely. She is indeed the best candidate for a bodyguard. And if she has a barrier fruit, she is even more suitable for the position of a bodyguard..."

"That's right! If the barrier fruit is used by giants with huge bodies, its power will be terrifying. And Lili can become smaller and stay by my side, which is enough to protect me personally."

Rifan smiled and said.

At this time, Lili, who was his bodyguard, should have stayed by his side.

But Lili was hungry, and Rifan wanted to talk to Cammy who was a reincarnator alone, so he left Lili in the restaurant.

"With this barrier fruit, the rank of her position "personal bodyguard" may also rise."

"When the fleet is upgraded, I can get rewards again."

"Perhaps, before the fleet is upgraded, Lili's position can reach the highest level."

"At that time, I will be able to directly obtain excellent rewards."

"Cammy, you don't mind if I give the Devil Fruit left by your partner to my partner for use?"

When Rifan asked, he looked at Cammie beside him.

"I do not mind."

Cammy shook her head and said:

"Now I am also your partner."

"I think Bartolomeo would be very glad that his devil fruit ability can be given to new partners."

"Instead of being used by Ethan who killed him."

Hearing this, Rifan said happily:

"Thanks, Cammy."

"Don't worry, I will fully support you in obtaining the experience to become stronger."

"After you and I formally sign a contract."

"Maybe I can guide you in some physical training."

"If you practice body techniques I have mastered by my side."

"Your practice speed will be further accelerated."

"You're good at legs, I think you should at least be able to master Marine Six Styles' Moonwalk, Shave and Tempest Kick.

"Then cooperate with the Devil Fruit left by Kalifa."

"Your strength will be further enhanced."

As he spoke, Rifan looked at Cammy's legs.

Even wearing looser clothes at the moment.

Rifan could also feel the strong muscles on Cammy's thigh through the clothes.

Rifan felt that if Cammy mastered the Marine Six Styles, she might be able to exert a stronger power than ordinary people.

"Since that's the case, let's formally sign contract now."

Cammy said.

"About this, I need to tell you something."

Rifan scratched his cheek and his sight moved to Cammy's stomach.

Cammy also turned her gaze to her stomach, with a little doubt in her expression.

"Well, Cammy, you don't mind taking off your upper body clothes again?"

"Um?"

Cammy blinked and looked at Rifan strangely.

Chapter 454: "Hunter" Special

Identity!

If it weren't for Rifan's performance before, she would think that Rifan wanted her body at this time.

However, despite being puzzled, Cammy took off her clothes very cooperatively.

In fact, if it wasn't for letting people from the blue star know that she voluntarily signed a contract with Rifan.

She wouldn't even bother wearing the prepared clothes.

"Um, I was just talking about clothes."

"You don't have to take everything off, do you?"

Rifan couldn't help twitching the corners of his mouth when he saw Cammy dismantle all her defenses in an instant.

"That way, whatever you do will be more convenient."

Cammy stood up straight and looked at Rifan quietly.

The corners of Rifan's mouth twitched more and more. If he hadn't known about Cammy's personality, he would have thought that Cammy was thinking of sending an invitation again.

"Forget it, let's talk about business first."

"Letting the live broadcast room in the real world go black."

"It's because there are things I don't want people in the real world to know."

"Cammy, you should have learned from the reincarnator space that I have accepted a partner with the position of "Hunter".

Hearing this, Cammy nodded:

"Of course I know, you don't want people in the real world to know who the "Hunter" is?"

"As expected of Cammy, communicating with smart people is a pleasure."

"The hunter has a special status, she is actually not a pirate."

"Not pirates? Rifan, I don't understand what you mean."

"At least, she's not a pirate now. In fact, she's a Marine!"

"Marine? A spy?"

"I have plans to develop her into a spy, but I still need to work hard."

"I see."

Cammy nodded knowingly, and said:

"If this hunter is a Marine, it is really inconvenient for people in the real world to know."

"Although people in the real world can't pass the news to this world now, it's not guaranteed that they will be able to do it one day."

"Rifan, you are right to be cautious."

"Don't worry, I won't reveal her identity in front of the live broadcast room."

"However, it's not the only reason why you made the screen black in the live broadcast room, right?"

In Cammy's view, if it's just about hunters.

Rifan can completely take off his guard and let the live broadcast room go black.

Instead of letting her take off her defenses on purpose.

Chapter 455: The Difficulty Of Inviting Partners!

Rifan smiled and said:

"That's right, I have other things I want to finish while the live broadcast room is black."

"But let's talk about the identity of the hunter first."

"Cammy, the hunter of our pirate team is the Marine Hina you saw earlier."

"It turned out to be her." Cammy blinked, and Hina's face with pink hair appeared in her mind.

"I was thinking the way she look at you earlier is not normal, so it's because of this."

Cammy is a soldier, and a soldier of the secret service level.

Her powers of observation are naturally very strong.

Sometimes even just by looking at other people's eyes, Cammy can learn many things.

"Hina is grateful to me, so she gave me all of her."

"For such a woman, I naturally want her to be my partner."

"But she's still attached to the Marine."

"So, I can only engrave my seal for the time being, so that I can make her a little bit stronger."

Rifan said.

"Even if she has Marine in her heart, she is willing to be stamped."

"Thinking about it, you already occupy a big place in her heart, Rifan."

Cammy sighed.

She has also been a reincarnator captain, so she naturally knows how difficult it is to accept a partner.

Even ordinary people, reincarnator with the status of captains, have to work hard to invite them.

Although Rifan has not completely let Hina board the ship, Cammy can also imagine how difficult it is for Rifan to engrave Hina's partner's seal.

"Well, something happened between me and her."

"Also, when making her my partner."

"I also waive lies about my abilities to a certain extent and told her."

"I'm going to use this to make the Marine and the World Government misunderstand my ability."

"It can be regarded as an excuse for me and my crew to become stronger quickly."

Cammy nodded:

"After all, we are reincarnators, and our abilities need to be reserved even for our partners."

"For that Hina who still cares about Marine's identity, your reservation is also correct."

"It's just that we reincarnators are more able to easily explain the speed of becoming stronger."

"But you, both you and your crew are getting stronger too quickly."

"Rifan, how did you explain it to the Marine?"

"By the way, the Marine and World Government will enthusiastically agree to you becoming a Shichibukai."

"Could it also have something to do with your explanation to them?"

Even if Rifan is strong enough, from Cammy's point of view, it is not easy for Rifan to become a Shichibukai after Blackbeard.

Not to mention, Rifan was able to invite the original Shichibukai Moria as a partner while becoming a Shichibukai.

Marine was able to agree to accept Rifan with Moria as a partner to become a Shichibukai, which shows that Marine and the world government pay attention to Rifan.

Therefore, Cammy is quite curious about Rifan's explanation of Marine.

"It does have something to do with my explanation."

"With that, I also got some of what I wanted from the Marine and World Government."

"After they believe it, I can also get more of what I want from them."

Rifan laughed.

"After you said that, I became more and more curious about the lies you tell them."

"Tell me about it, Rifan."

Cammy said.

"It's natural."

"However, please don't laugh."

"I told them earlier that I have two special abilities."

"One, because I can copy the devil fruit ability once."

"Although that's not completely a lie since I did copy Blackbeard's Dark Fruit."

"As for the second, I use the fruit abilities of my partners."

"And the reason why my partners can quickly become stronger."

"Actually, I told them, as long as they are engraved with the fleet mark by me and get close enough to me."

"There will be a chance to become stronger, and if this distance can be negative, then the chance of becoming stronger will be even greater~"

Rifan smiled and told Cammy what he once said to Hina.

Unlike Hina, Cammy is a reincarnator, and she is about to sign a contract to become his.

Therefore, Rifan can tell everything to her with confidence.

Chapter 456: The Purpose Is To Misunderstand Marines!

"Negative distance...Although they may have misunderstood."

"But I think if there is really a woman who can have a negative distance from you."

"Presumably you will use your method to make her stronger."

Cammy said calmly.

Rifan looked at Cammy's expressionless face, and couldn't help but sigh in his heart.

If it were someone else, maybe they would have made fun of him.

But Cammy still kept such a calm appearance.

In such a situation, Rifan is both happy and admires Cammy.

"Not necessarily."

"If the woman I have sex with is my enemy."

"I may not necessarily help her become stronger."

"Although, if that person is really my enemy."

"Under normal circumstances, I would not have a relationship with her."

"Unless she uses force on me."

Rifan laughed.

Rifan pays attention to the gratification of two feelings, and when dealing with those women he has no feelings for, Rifan is only taking some small advantages at most, and will not really make the last step.

Not to mention the enemy.

Even if it is a woman, as long as it is an enemy, Rifan can attack them without hesitation.

"In this world, there is no such thing as a woman capable of being strong against you."

Cammy shook her head.

"You can't say that."

"Perhaps there are still powerful people in this world that we don't know about."

"Cammy, I believe you have seen my agreement with Zephyr before."

"I will keep Hina by my side for a while and cultivate her."

"After all, she is now my woman. I can't let her die in the battle between Marine and the Whitebeard Pirates because of her lack of strength."

"So, I have to strengthen her."

"At that time, in order to save time, I will probably train you and Hina together."

"If it's just that, it doesn't matter."

"However, because I mentioned earlier that the closer the distance, the more helpful it will be... So, I will do some intimate things with her."

"At that time, in order to make her more certain, and make the Marine and World Government behind her believe more in what I said to them.

"I'll do that with you, in front of Hina."

Cammy frowned suspiciously:

"Didn't you say you wouldn't be with me earlier... I understand, you are planning to make Nojiko look like me, right?"

Rifan nodded with a smile.

"Indeed, you shouldn't mind, right?"

"I don't mind, although it's a bit awkward, I don't mind."

"Thank you so much."

"Rifan, in fact, you don't have to ask Nojiko to replace me, I can do it myself."

"Let's talk about it when you really have feelings for me."

Rifan raised his hand, and the application for signing the contract was sent to Cammy.

When Cammy heard the reminder from the reincarnation space, she immediately opened her personal panel.

"Is this the covenant?"

Cammy glanced at it and planned to formally sign it.

"Wait a minute, I still have something to tell you, Cammy."

"The tattoo representing Nojiko becoming my partner is a little lower on the stomach."

"Although after Nojiko uses her ability to become you, even the tattoos on your body can be completely restored.

"Tattoos that represent partners can naturally be accurately restored, whether it is position, color, shape, etc."

"So, even if you have a partner tattoo engraved anywhere on your body, it's okay."

"But when Nojiko becomes you and gets close to me, it's hard to guarantee that she will forget that her tattoo has changed its position because of becoming you, making her show her feet in front of Hina's eyes."

"So, I hope that after signing a contract with you, I can engrave a tattoo for you at the same position as the tattoo of Nojiko."

"That's why I asked you to take off your clothes earlier, this... I hope you don't mind."

Rifan scratched his cheek in embarrassment.

Although it was to avoid showing off, Rifan also had to admit that he had some personal factors in asking Cammy so much.

Therefore, even if Cammy refuses to agree, he can't say anything.

However, Cammy nodded without hesitation.

"Can!"

Chapter 457: The Announcement

Resounding Throughout The World!

"Although having the tattoo engraved there, I might not be able to wear my previous battle suit."

"But since it's your request, I can agree."

"And I believe that Hina, or those who see Marine and World Government later will be more willing to believe that there is a very close relationship between me and you."

"It's just that, why do you need to engrave the tattoo after signing the contract?"

"When you and I made a contract, couldn't you put a tattoo in there—?"

Rifan shook his head and said:

"You don't move now."

"The slave tattoos are different from traditional partner tattoos.

"Partner tattoos can be anywhere on the body."

"But the slavery contract is on the skin of a person's heart."

Cammy raised her hand and put it on her chest.

"I see, my heart. It also symbolizes sincerity. It's understandable that the tattoo of the slavery contract will stay here."

"Then let's do it, Rifan."

"It's time for me to officially become yours."

Cammy said.

"Your words always feel a little weird~"

Rifan touched the back of his head.

Although after signing the slavery contract, Cammy is indeed his.

It's just that Cammy's current state now makes it easy to make people feel like a series of stories.

"Before signing the contract, there is one more thing we need to do first."

Rifan smiled, and took out the G virus strengthening potion from the medical cabinet.

"This thing is called G virus strengthening potion."

"As long as the physical level reaches the basic qualifying line."

"It can strengthen a person."

"Theoretically speaking, after the physique reaches the baseline, the lower the physique level, the stronger its strengthening effect will be.

"Of course, the stronger the strengthening effect, the heavier the pain the body can feel."

"Your physique must be able to use this G virus strengthening potion."

"And if you make a contract before taking this, then your physical points will be blessed by my Germa 66 exoskeleton and the blessing of Elite Trainer and grow to a rather exaggerated level."

"At that time, the effect of this G virus strengthening agent will be limited."

"So, for maximum benefit."

"I think we can use this thing to help you strengthen yourself first."

"Afterwards we can make a contract, what do you think?"

Hearing what Rifan said, Cammy naturally had no objection.

"Since using the G virus strengthening agent first can make me stronger."

"Of course I have no objection, please use it on me, Rifan."

Although Rifan said that it would be painful to use the G virus strengthening potion.

But for Cammy, who is a fighter and soldier, this is nothing at all.

"Then, I'll start the injection."

After speaking, Rifan injected the medicine into Cammy's body through the needle.

The medicine of the G virus took effect very quickly, and after a while, Cammy's body had a reaction.

A large amount of sweat dripped out of Cammy's body unconsciously.

Even her body began to tremble uncontrollably.

"Cammy, are you alright?"

"Need me to help you?"

"If I use my massage method, your pain will be relieved a lot."

Rifan asked.

"No, as a soldier, these pains should be bearable.

Cammy said coldly.

These words made Rifan feel admiration, but also regret.

Cammy doesn't accept massages, which means he can't massage those muscles of hers.

'Forget it, there will be another chance in the future.'

'And that's all right. "

'If Cammy and Chun Li talk about it, wouldn't my image be reduced because of this?'

Rifan thought in his heart, silently waiting for the effect of the G virus to end.

After a long time, Cammy's body finally stopped shaking, and the color of her skin also changed from deep red to normal white.

"What do you think of your new power?"

Rifan asked with a smile.

"Very strong! Unexpectedly, the G virus medicine can achieve this effect."

"If this potion works on anyone."

"Rifan, you will create a superhuman army...no, it's a kingdom!"

Cammy said solemnly to Rifan.

"Hehe, there are prerequisites for using this."

"Used by ordinary people, they can only get tragedy."

Rifan smiled, raised his hand and used the Bubble Fruit to clean up the sweat on Cammy's body due to the use of the G virus strengthening agent.

And immediately, he called out his own personal attribute panel, and summoned the contract.

"That's just the beginning. Next, get ready to receive the power of the Germa 66 exoskeleton and the blessings of 'Elite Trainer'."

After Rifan finished speaking, he signed his name on the contract.

So does Cammy.

After being baptized by the G virus strengthening potion, Cammy was very curious about how powerful she could get after entering into a contract with Rifan.

As a tingling pain hit Cammy's heart, she found that a tattoo gradually appeared on her chest and skin.

And that tattoo is exactly the tattoo representing Rifan's Black Pearl Pirates.

With the appearance of the tattoo, Cammy immediately felt a powerful force centered on the tattoo and began to spread towards her limbs.

In an instant, the muscles of Cammy's whole body tensed, and a powerful aura burst out from her body.

[notice!]

["Panda" Rifan signed a slavery contract with "Chollima" Cammie White, and Cammie White officially belonged to Rifan!]

Chapter 458: Not Many People

Can Reject Rifan's Power!

Rifan raised his eyebrows, carefully sizing up and down Cammy in front of him.

'Sure enough, Cammy is different from other women.

'This body of muscles is not inferior to ordinary men at all. '

'Fortunately, this is what it looks like in a fighting state. "

'Although I have muscles in normal times, they are not so exaggerated.

'Otherwise it would be too hard to lie down together in bed...'

Rifan sighed in his heart.

Because of the bonus brought about by the Germa 66 exoskeleton and Rifan's talent "Elite Trainer", Cammy's body is automatically filled with the sudden increase in power.

The muscles will stand out because of this, Rifan thinks it is very normal.

As long as her strength calms down and Cammy's body can return to its previous shape, Rifan thinks it is good.

Rifan can be sure that after the strengthening is completed, the value on Cammy's personal attribute panel will increase exponentially.

After a while.

The aura on Cammy's body gradually calmed down, and the muscles on her body also returned to their original appearance.

Seeing this scene, Rifan was naturally very satisfied.

"How does it feel, can you still get used to your current power?"

Rifan looked at Cammy who opened her eyes again, and asked with a smile on his face.

"Very strong, much stronger than the enhancement brought by the G virus enhancement potion. I never thought that I would have such a powerful power one day..."

Cammy clenched her fists, even though she was as cold as her, she was quite excited at the moment.

"Germa 66 exoskeleton, and the system bonus brought about by your talent "Elite Trainer"."

"The strength of my body has more than doubled..."

"This is simply an increase of more than ten times."

Cammy said excitedly.

She even felt that if Ethan appeared in front of her eyes at this time, she could even blow his head off with one punch.

"Rifan, I completely believe it now."

"As long as you wave your arms, there will be countless reincarnators who are willing to sign a contract with you and establish a relationship."

After Cammy took a deep breath to calm down her excitement, she raised her head and said to Rifan.

"I don't think so. If that's the case, then Ayane, Kasumi, Mary Rose, and Honoka should have signed a contract with me~"

Rifan laughed.

"That's because they don't understand how much bonus your strength can bring."

Cammy said.

If the contract with Rifan is not really made, it will never be clear what kind of power the reincarnator can obtain after signing the contract with him.

It is no exaggeration to say that this power can even make a weak chicken grow to the level of Naval Headquarters Commodore in a single leap.

Don't underestimate the strength of the Naval Headquarters Commodore.

Cammy thinks that the Naval Headquarters Commodore may already have the strength to defeat most Street Fighter fighters.

Signing a contract with Rifan is equivalent to making the reincarnator reach the level of the top street fighter.

With such power in front of her eyes, Cammy didn't need to think how many reincarnator could withstand the temptation.

Chapter 459: Childhood Goddess!

"I think they should understand, after all, because Ada made a contract with me, she is quite high in the ranking of reincarnators."

"And also, they are different from you, and you may not even belong to the Chollima country."

"But they are people with their own country after all and families."

"Signing a contract with me means that the object of their allegiance is me in the future."

"This makes it difficult for them to make a contract with me as simply as you do."

"However, if you are free, you can spread the word to Ayane, Kasumi, Mary Rose, and Honoka."

"Especially like Kasumi, Mary Rose and Honoka who are on my ship to promote it~"

"In this way, they will be more willing to sign a formal contract with me."

"Although the probability is not high, if they are really lucky enough to find enough devil fruits to give to me."

"My pre-contract with them will be voided, if that happens, I will be very sad."

Rifan laughed.

Hearing this, Cammy nodded and said:

"I don't have a lot of confidence in this aspect of things."

"But since it's your request, I'll try to do it."

"By the way, do I need to promote it to other reincarnators?"

"I can help you publicize this on the reincarnator communication interface."

Hearing this, Rifan looked at Cammy in surprise, and felt that he was looking at the wrong Cammy...

"You don't need to help me promote in the group."

"If anyone can make a contract with me, then this contract is too cheap."

Rifan said.

"That's right, if too many people make contracts with you."

"Even if each of them cannot violate your order because of the contract."

"But in private, maybe someone will do something that is not in your interest."

"Even if you sign a contract, you still have to choose a team."

Cammy nodded and said in agreement.

"Not only that."

"After you signed a contract with me."

"When I defeat specific enemies in battle, you can get battle points."

"To be precise, all of you who signed a contract with me can share the battle points equally."

"If there are too many people who made a contract with me."

"Maybe you won't be able to grow quickly through this."

Rifan shook his head and said.

"It turns out that there is also this layer of factors."

"In this case, it is indeed impossible to conclude a contract at will."

"This ability should still be used to cultivate confidantes."

"Rifan, thank you for trusting me and signing a contract with me."

Cammy said solemnly.

"Hehe, signing a contract with you is also what I want."

Rifan rubbed his nose and said

How could Rifan be unwilling to accept the goddess of his childhood games?

Whether it is Ada, Leigh, or now Cammy, Rifan is very happy to make a contract with them.

Even if the two parties are simply maintaining a partnership relationship.

Rifan is also very happy to get to know and become attached to them.

"By the way, I almost forgot."

"All the reincarnators should know about the contract between the two of us."

"Chun Li must be too."

"Cammy, you have to explain it to her properly."

Rifan said.

"I got it."

Cammy nodded, raised her hand and opened her personal panel.

Soon, the communication content of the reincarnators who had almost swiped the screen appeared in front of her eyes.

['Elephant' Kieran: Look, just what I said, Cammy will really become Rifan's slave!]

['Green Pheasant' Makoto Itou: Damn it, is there another beautiful woman beside Rifan? What a bastard. ]

['Green Pheasant' Otoshi: I really don't understand, why did this woman Cammy sign a contract with Rifan directly? She is not from Panda. Damn, I supported Cammy during the Street Fighter contest, and she just reciprocated like this?]

['Eagle' Tina: Who are you, do you think that if you watched her match, Cammy should repay you? If you watched my match in the dead or alive contest, should I also repay you?]

['Green Pheasant' Otoshi: That's natural!]

['Eagle' Tina: Hehe, you are such a self-centered retard, you deserve lose

your crew to Rifan.]

Chapter 460: More People Will Be

Willing To Enter Into A Contract

With Rifan!

['Green Pheasant' Otoshi: Damn, you woman, don't let me meet you, otherwise I will never let you go!]

['Camel' Huuli: Hmp, I'm wondering why it's so noisy, so it's a pitiful dog barking! Cammy, let me ask you, how does it feel being Rifan's slave?]

['Green Pheasant' Otoshi: You bitch, Huuli!]

['Eagle' Crimson Viper: Shut up, you dog! Cammy, you actually became Rifan's slave, or did Rifan forced you?]

['Panda' Chun Li: Cammy, what's going on? Rifan, didn't you promise me not to force Cammy?]

['Chollima' Cammy White: Chun Li, Rifan didn't force me. It's just because I want to gain power from Rifan, so I signed a contract with him. ]

['Panda' Chun Li: Gain power?]

['Chollima' Cammy White: That's right, the Blackbeard Pirates destroyed my Pirate group, even though Ethan is dead, but I still need to take revenge on the Blackbeard Pirates, after all they killed all my crew. But in my current situation, there is no way to seek revenge from the Blackbeard pirates, so I can only sign a contract with Rifan. Don't worry, Chun Li, Rifan didn't do anything excessive to me, he respects me very much. "

['Panda' Chun Li: So that's how it is...]

['Panda' Rifan: That's right. Chun Li, since I promised you, I won't make things difficult for you. ]

['Panda' Ada Wong: Don't worry, Chun Li, Rifan will not force others, especially this Cammy is still your friend. ]

['Panda' Leigh: Yes, Chun Li. Just trust Rifan. And what Cammy said is right, we can indeed gain a lot of power by signing a contract with Rifan. Whether it is the Germa 66 exoskeleton, or the bonuses brought about by Rifan's talent "Elite Training" it will be of great help to us. ]

['Panda' Chun Li: Huh? The Elite Training can really work on you?]

['Camel' Yuza: Ah, this is really exciting. ]

['Camel' Huuli: Tsk, this is simply cheating. ]

Rifan rubbed his nose, he didn't expect that Cammy didn't say what kind of help he brought to him in the communication interface,

As a result, Leigh announced it on the communication interface.

In this regard, Rifan can't say anything.

After all, Leigh did it to explain for his sake.

"In this way, many people will plan to make a contract with you, Rifan."

Cammy gave a rare smile and said to Rifan.

"They want power, but I don't make a contract casually."

Rifan shook his head.

"At least, Leigh's words will make Kasumi, Honoka, Mary Rose and others move their hearts."

"It's a good thing for you, right?"

Cammy laughed.

"I didn't expect you to be very good at comforting people, Cammy."

Rifan also had a smile on his face.

"Speaking of which, Cammy, that Viper really cares about you."

"You who have gained strength, do you plan to confront her?"

Rifan asked when he saw what Viper was still asking about Cammy.

Others don't know, but he knows it clearly.

Viper and Cammy can be said to be sisters.

It's just that Viper really intends to kill Cammy, and the two can be said to be characters who love and kill each other.

"A duel?" Cammy shook her head, ". "If possible, I really don't want to confront her."

"But don't worry, Rifan."

"I won't let her affect you."

"If you meet her in the future, please don't hurt her."

"Leave her to me."

Naturally, Rifan would not refuse Cammy's words, and nodded solemnly.

['Eagle' Crimson Viper: Cammy, don't you dare answer my question?]

['Panda' Chun Li: Viper, who are you and why are you so attached to Cammy?]

['Camel' Huuli: Hehe, what a pair of sisters. ]

['Kangaroo' Helena: It seems that there is a story in it. ]

['Chollima' Cammy White: Viper, we will meet one day, let's have a good chat then. As for now, you should work hard to become stronger. The me now...is not something you can overcome.]

['Camel' Huuli: Tsk, this woman is really embarrassed to say it]

['Panda' Chun Li: Really, are you that strong?]

['Panda' Leigh: Of course, I feel that if this continues, I will be able to touch Shichibukai level!]

['Eagle' Tina: Hey, this is too exaggerated, Leigh, are you not lying?]

['Panda' Leigh: What do you think?]

Chapter 461: The Possibility Of

Learning Technique From

Reincarnators!

Others may not know exactly how powerful the Shichibukai are.

But Leigh, as the empress Hancock's crew, was able to experience Hancock's power for herself.

Naturally, she can also compare her strength with Hancock's strength more accurately.

Leigh feels that although she is not as good as Hancock now.

But in time, maybe she can really beat Hancock

Provided, of course, that she is immune to Hancock's charm.

Thinking that the Empress's Hancock could make even a woman's heart flutter, Leigh's body couldn't stop shaking.

'Really, the appearance of the empress is too foul. '

'If this continues, I won't become fond of women, will I?

'No, I don't want to be like this. '

There are still outstanding men like Rifan in this world...'

'So how can I like a woman. '

Leigh shook her head vigorously, and Rifan's appearance automatically appeared in her mind, so as to strengthen her belief.

['Eagle' Tina: Are you really that strong?! Damn, why do I suddenly want to be Rifan's woman? Rifan, do you still lack women around you?]

['Eagle' Crimson Viper: Woman? Cammy, have you become Rifan's woman?]

['Chollima' Cammy White: It's just a contract with Rifan, but... the possibility of becoming a Rifan woman in the future cannot be ruled out.]

['Eagle' Crimson Viper: Hehe, very good, I will kill anyone related to you without mercy. ]

['Panda' Ada Wong: Hehe, don't be too arrogant, woman. ]

['Panda' Leigh: If you want to trouble Rifan, pass me first. ]

['Green Pheasant' Honoka: Yes, Rifan-sama is very strong, if you fight against him, you may die. ]

['Kangaroo' Mary Rose: Hmph, although it makes me a little unhappy to praise Rifan. But Rifan's strength is indeed very strong. Viper, although you rank high among reincarnators, you are not Rifan's opponent.

Haven't you seen what happened to Makoto Itou and Ethan?]

['Green Pheasant' Makoto Itou: Damn woman, how dare you make a joke about me!]

['Eagle' Crimson Viper: I am different from them! Honoka, Mary Rose, you speak for Rifan, can I think you are already Rifan's people?]

['Kangaroo' Mary Rose: What are you talking about, woman?]

['Green Pheasant' Honoka: Me, me, that, I don't have the qualifications...]

['Chollima' Cammy White: Calm down, Viper, if you have any questions, just come to me. ]

['Eagle' Crimson Viper: It's natural, I'll come to you without you saying, Cammy. Before that, I will hone my strength as you said. ]

Viper, as a rigorous fighter, naturally wouldn't go directly to trouble Cammy without thinking about anything.

If it was before, of course she could.

After all, she is one of the top 100 reincarnators, and Cammy is not even on the list.

But now, Cammy has gained a huge strength through Rifan.

Even though Viper was upset, she was already prepared to train hard before going to trouble Cammy.

['Panda' Chun Li: Cammy, if we have a chance, let's talk face to face. ]

['Chollima' Cammy White: Yes! When the time comes, I will introduce Rifan to you. You are both from Panda, so you can have a good chat. He seems to be very interested in you who participated in Street Fighter. ]

['Panda' Chun Li: Hey, has Rifan watched the Street Fighter competition?]

['Panda' Rifan: I have probably understood it. If possible, can I learn Kung Fu from you? I am very interested in Hyakuretsukyaku and Tenshokyaku.

I can trade the skills I have acquired. Marine Six Styles, I think you should be able to learn it. ]

['Panda' Chun Li: Yes, we can have a good exchange at that time. ]

After seeing Chun Li's massage, Rifan closed his personal panel with satisfaction.

What Chun Li said.

Rifan was not joking.

He is indeed very interested in her kung fu.

Although maybe Chun Li's Kung Fu and One Piece World's abilities are two systems, he may not be able to learn it, but Rifan still wanted to try.

As a Street Fighter player, why wouldn't he want to be able to use moves like Tenshokyaku and Hyakuretsukyaku?

"Speaking of which, can you teach me your boxing skills, too, Cammy?"

"I'm also very interested in your fighting skills."

Rifan looked at the second heroine in the Street Fighter game in front of him, and ask.

Chapter 462: Stomach Tattoo!

Cammy's strength is mainly physical strength, and there are no such tricks as making waves.

Rifan felt that with his current understanding of various boxing techniques, he should be able to learn Cammy's fighting skills.

Even as a crew member, Cammy may not have the aura for the captain to quickly learn her fighting skills.

At the same time, Rifan even felt that if he could combine Cammy's fighting skills with Marine Six Styles' shaving and Moonwalk, he might be able to play a more powerful techniques.

"Rifan, if you want to learn, of course I am willing to teach."

"Just in time, I also want to test my current strength. "

"Rifan, shall I challenge you?"

Cammy jumped two steps in place, and said to Rifan seriously.

In her opinion, only through fighting can she grasp her current power faster.

And on Rifan's shil, it is naturally the most appropriate to fight Rifan.

By the way, the two can also learn their own combat-skills separately.

"Of course it is possible."

Rifan smiled and nodded:

"But before the battle, let's put on the tattoo mentioned earlier."

Rifan took out a tattoo pen from somewhere, and went back to Cammy to show it.

"Well, you can do whatever you want."

Cammy nodded slightly.

In order for Rifan to do it more conveniently.

She took the initiative to go to the side of the hospital bed and lay down.

All of a sudden, Cammy's figure became more and more obvious in front of Rifan's eyes.

"So beautiful."

"Rifan, what did you say?"

"Nothing, just a compliment to you."

Rifan smiled and started his work.

Rifan is very familiar with the logo of the Pirates group.

In addition, Rifan himself has a considerable understanding of painting.

In just a few minutes, Rifan had already finished the tattoo.

Rifan looked at the expressionless Cammy, and admired Cammy more and more in his heart.

When other people have tattoos, they will cry out that it hurts.

Cammy is good, not only does not cry pain.

When Rifan engraved the seal on the more sensitive place, Cammy actually kept her blushing and her heart beating in composure.

This has to make Rifan admire Cammy.

But after thinking about it for a while, Rifan felt relieved.

In the game, whether in the fighting competition or in action, Cammy always wears her tight battle suit.

As for skirts, pants, etc., they are almost only seen in Cammy's dlc.

It's normal for Cammy to be able to do this and keep calm during Rifan's tattooing process.

"Well, let's see how it works, Cammy."

After Rifan put the tools into the cabinet, he spoke.

"Very nice, exactly like the tattoo on my chest.

Cammy nodded:

"However, this tattoo is a little too big which will be seen in my previous battle suit.

"If you only wear that combat uniform, maybe there is no way to block this."

Rifan heard the words and said with a smile:

"In that case, don't fight in that tight suit."

"Or, wear it down, but like we did when we met today, you can add hot pants. "

"Of course, when we usually train, you can wear it boldly."

"It's just right, I can let Hina take a look at it."

Cammy nodded thoughtfully, recalling the previous words Rifan said, she said:

"I see, you don't want my body to be seen by other men."

"Well, since the contract is signed, I will abide by it."

"In front of other men, I will wear my pants or skirt properly."

"I won't wear that discreet battle suit."

Rifan scratched his cheek, he didn't expect Cammy to guess what he was thinking.

He does have such thoughts.

Although he is still not sure what will happen with him and Cammy.

But if he could, he didn't want Cammy's beauty to be seen by other men.

"By the way, the tattoo on your stomach was inscribed by me with the potion I developed."

"When you take a shower or something, it won't fade.

"But if one day we don't need it anymore and you want to get rid of it, you can tell me."

"I will wash this tattoo off with a special potion."

"Of course, it's limited to the tattoo on your stomach, the tattoo on your chest comes from the reincarnator space, I can't wash it off."

Rifan said.

Cammy looked at the tattoo on her body, shook her head and said:

"Let's keep it, if the two of us can really come together."

"Its existence can also make things more interesting between us."

Rifan's eyes widened, and he looked at Cammy in surprise. It was hard to imagine that such words were actually said by Cammy.

'This Cammy knows better than I imagined. '

'Sure enough, after the game characters enter reality, they will be more vivid than in the game.'

Rifan sighed in his heart but also have some expectations for the future.

Chapter 463: A Special

Exoskeleton Called The Power Of Wind!

"Speaking of which, Cammy, do you feel any strange power in your body?"

Rifan rested his chin on one hand, and looked at the blonde beauty in front of him carefully.

"Strange power? Rifan, what do you mean?"

"If you talk about physical growth and the Germa 66 exoskeleton, I do feel it.*

"But the strange power you're referring to doesn't mean this, does it?"

Cammy asked suspiciously.

"I mean..."

Rifan organized his language a bit and continued:

"When Leigh made a contract with me, she also gained the power of an exoskeleton."

"It's a different situation for her and my crew when they get the Germa 66 exoskeleton though."

"Except for the addition of the Germa 66 exoskeleton foundation."

"She also gained the power to excite lightning from her body."

"And I can use the Germa 66 exoskeleton to inspire the power of flames."

"Although I haven't confirmed the situation on Ada's side yet."

"But I'm thinking, after the reincarnators signed a contract with me, when they got the Germa 66 exoskeleton, is there a greater chance of obtaining a certain element or special power?"

"Perhaps, you will also master a certain special ability through the power of the exoskeleton."

When Cammy heard Rifan's words, she couldn't help being a little surprised.

"I'll give it a try."

After being surprised, Cammy took a deep breath, put her hands on her chest and closed her eyes.

As if feeling the specific situation in her body.

After a while, waves of breeze radiated from Cammy's body.

The breeze is getting stronger and stronger, and it is gradually developing towards a strong wind.

hum!

Suddenly, a powerful storm erupted from inside Cammy's body.

That powerful breath even blows all kinds of equipment in the room to scatter in all directions.

"This is... the power of the wind!"

As Cammy spoke, she opened her eyes.

However, after seeing the various items in the room that were blown and damaged by the wind and waves, Cammy immediately showed an apologetic expression to Rifan.

"Sorry, Rifan, I didn't control my power well."

"I'll help you sort it out."

After finishing speaking, Cammy turned her back to Rifan and bent down to pick up the items on the ground without any defense.

Rifan opened his mouth and wanted to speak, but seeing Cammy bent over and facing him, he was speechless for a while.

'This is too defenseless.'

'Aren't you afraid that I'll go in from behind like this?'

Rifan stared at Cammy's current situation again, coughed twice, and said:

"Cammy, no need."

"When the energy of the wind attribute in your body exploded earlier."

"I have neutralized most of them with my abilities."

"The damage is just some small items."

"It's not a big deal."

"In addition, although I said that I like to be in love with each other..."

"But I'm a normal man after all."

"Could you stop seducing me unsuspectingly?"

"I can't help but do something to you."

When Cammy heard Rifan's words, she didn't stop tidying the room, but sped up the progress.

"I think, Rifan, your endurance is extraordinary."

"Only to this extent, at most it will make you a little angry."

"If you are really the kind of person in your mouth."

"I think Kasumi, Mary Rose, or Honoka are already yours?"

Cammy said while tidying up the room.

"If that's the case, they will probably hate me."

"It's awkward to think about doing something intimate with someone who hates me."

Rifan shook his head, and also squatted down to pick up Cammy's clothes that fell on the ground.

"In short, take this and wear them."

"Although I have the endurance that I should have."

"But seeing you like this all the time, I may not be able to guide you in training later."

"Before instructing you to train, I may have to go to Nojiko to calm myself."

"In addition, these clothes are made of special materials."

"Extensibility is very good, after you eat the dog dog fruit · wolf form."

"Even if you become a werewolf, you don't have to worry about destroying your clothes."

Chapter 464: With Me Here, Even

If You Eat The Fruit, You Won'T

Become A Landlubber!

After a pause, Rifan continued:

"The fact that the clothes don't hold up is also influenced by Devil Fruit itself."

"Oddly enough, Devil Fruit doesn't just affect one's own body."

"Even the weapons worn and carried by the devil fruit user can be affected."

"Zoan devil fruit power makes it difficult to burst clothes when transforming."

"When the Logia ability user is elementalized, he can carry clothes with him to elementalize."

"I don't know if it's because the demons in Devil Fruit don't like to be naked."

"That's why the ability given by Devil Fruit will also affect the clothes worn by the ability user."

Cammy stood up in good time, took the clothes and put them on.

Although she didn't mind Rifan looking at her like that.

But if the training time is delayed, this is not what she wants to see.

"Perhaps, it is really as you said."

"The devil in Devil Fruit doesn't like to be naked."

Cammy replied while wearing clothes.

And with Cammy's clothes back on her body.

The live broadcast room of Rifan and Cammy was restored to light again.

After Rifan looked up and down at Cammy in front of him, he said with a smile:

"Congratulations, Cammy."

"With the power of this wind, you will definitely become stronger and stronger."

Cammy also had a little smile on her face:

"It's all thanks to you, Rifan, thank you."

The powerful power gave Cammy more confidence in dealing with the Blackbeard pirates.

Naturally, her gratitude to Rifan became heavier.

"No need to thank me. If you keep saying thank you, there's no end to it."

"Instead of saying thank you, you can eat this first."

"After that, I have to continue to strengthen you."

"Don't worry that you won't be able to swim after eating Devil Fruit."

"With the influence of my strength, sea water will not be your weakness."

Rifan smiled, and handed the dog-dog fruit and wolf form left by Kalifa to Cammy.

Chapter 465: The Possibility Of

Sneaking Into The Beasts Pirate!

"Remember, one bite is enough."

"This thing is quite unpalatable."

Hearing this, Cammy nodded, and took a bite of the Devil Fruit without changing her expression.

With the power of Devil Fruit remaining on Cammy, Cammy instinctively used her ability for the first time.

Soon, Cammy in front of Rifan turned into a werewolf with a height of more than two meters, a strong body, and full of violent aesthetics.

However, perhaps it is because Cammy is a slim woman herself.

The werewolf Cammy in front of Rifan actually revealed a certain sense of elegance.

In front of Rifan, Cammy raised her hands, to be precise, her claws, after a little experience of her new body shape.

She tried to stimulate the energy in her body to turn into wind.

And with the input of energy, her hands were indeed entwined with the power of the wind.

"Looking at this power, it reminds me of Falke."

"I don't know how she is doing now."

"Has she been selected as a reincarnator to enter this world?"

After Cammy muttered to herself, she looked down at Rifan.

Although her original height is not taller than Rifan.

But Cammy in the transformed state is obviously much taller than Rifan.

Rifan looked at Cammy in front of him, and couldn't help but fell into thinking.

'Zoan devil fruit power!'

If Cammy can become strong enough.

'Maybe Kaido will cast his gaze at her.'

'If Cammy doesn't intend to stay on my ship.'

'Maybe I can arrange for her to go undercover to Kaido group.'

'It's like Ada went undercover to the Big Mom pirates. '

'Maybe, I can rely on Cammy to snatch Gin Rummy and Yamato from the Beast Pirates. "

Rifan thought to himself.

Among the Beasts Pirates, there are many beautiful women.

Yamato and Gin Rummy are two of them.

What's even more gratifying is that Yamato didn't like Kaido at all.

Rifan believes that he has a high chance of poaching Yamato.

Although Yamato thinks she is Kozuki Oden, she has a headache.

However, Rifan felt that if he worked hard to let Yamato know the happiness of women, it would be a breakthrough.

Maybe she will recognize her identity as a woman.

As for Gin Rummy, an inconspicuous pirate among the Beasts Pirates with a beautiful appearance but relatively weak strength.

For her, Rifan was also quite impressed.

After all, this one is walking outside in a bikini boldly.

Rummy will naturally be left in his heart.
