The completion of the ghost back is 20%, and the training effect is increased by 1000 times!

...

One day, Lu En, a ghost-backed master, appeared in front of Luffy who was shouting to go to sea, and made Luffy cry on the spot.

Luffy: "The pirates in the sea are all monsters like my brother? I don't want to go out to sea!"

Garp: "For a long time, the two boys, Long and Luffy, with small arms and calves, I really doubt that they are not my sons and grandsons. Like Lu En, they are the grandsons of the old man!"

Warring States: "The strongest creature in the sea, land and air is Kaido?"

No, it's Lu En!"

Chapter 18:

They saw it.

A small raft is slowly approaching their direction.

"What are they trying to do?"

"Could it be that the Navy actually tried to send someone to negotiate with us?"

"and....."

"Still a kid!"

"A hairy boy!"

"Is the Navy crazy?"

There was a commotion.

Even Kukali, the Devil Fruit Ability user who offered a bounty of 11 million Berries, couldn't understand the scene before him.

"what happened?"

"The navy actually sent a kid to negotiate with Lao Tzu?"

After a brief period of confusion, Kukari stopped thinking too much, grinned, and the centipede-like scar left on his forehead became more and more hideous.

"Whatever the purpose of the Navy is."

"all in all....."

"Since the navy is willing to negotiate with us, this is obviously a fear of our strength!"

"Perhaps, it was because the navy didn't want to provoke our counterattack, so they sent a young boy to tell us that their navy was not malicious."

For a while, Kukari thought a lot.

gradually,

A wild smile appeared on his face.

"Little ones, later, don't be frightened by the envoy sent by the navy to us!"

Kukkari laughed out loud.

"Don't worry, boss, since the navy has deliberately agreed with us and sent a kid to negotiate, we naturally can't scare this cute little navy brother."

"I'm afraid, I'm afraid, as soon as this kid boarded our pirate ship, he was frightened by our momentum."

"you do not say....."

All the pirates were no longer afraid, and they all showed their arrogant attitudes.

finally--

The small raft is close to the pirate ship.

on the raft,

Lu En took a step and boarded the pirate ship step by step.

in a while,

He came to the deck of the pirate ship.

Oncoming, a famous pirate's eyes full of arrogance, arrogance, arrogance, and coldness gathered on Lu En's body by coincidence.

In general,

Even an adult strong man, who boarded a famous pirate ship alone, would inevitably be frightened by these pirates and his legs would go weak.

However,

From the beginning to the end, Lu En's face did not change much emotionally.

Weird atmosphere!

Depressed!

A group of pirates stared straight at Lu En, making no secret of the tyranny and malice in their eyes.

"White ostrich Kukari?"

Lu En's eyes were fixed on Kukari.

After the information provided by the Navy before,

Let him immediately recognize the captain of the White Ostrich Pirates, Kucari, the big pirate with a bounty of up to 11 million Berries.

"Little devil, how courageous!"

"Dare to board Lao Tzu's boat alone, but he still doesn't change his face, and the whole process is calm."

"Ordinary people have long been scared to pee."

Kukari stood up from the crowd and looked at Lu En with a cold look.

He really didn't expect it.

A young boy who was only a few years old, after boarding his own boat, was not frightened by these vicious pirates on their boat.

"Captain, he may have been frightened long ago, but he just hasn't shown it yet."

A pirate said with wickedness.

"Little devil, the navy sent you here specially to negotiate with our pirate group?"

Kukkari spoke directly.

"Negotiate?"

Lu En smiled, "No no no, I think you may have misunderstood. The navy sent me here not to negotiate with you. But to kill you all!"

the sound fell,

The whole place was dead silent!

Silent!

The entire pirate ship was silent.

Whoa!

The breeze blew the sea water, and the melodious sound of ripples rippled, which was particularly harsh from this strange and silent environment.

quite a while,

The smile on Kukkari's face subsided.

He looked at Lu En in front of him with cold eyes, expressionless: "Little devil, do you know, who are you talking to at this moment?"

"I'm a big pirate with a bounty of 11 million Berries!"

"An animal-based devil fruit power user!"

beside him,

Hundreds of pirates have strong killing intent in their eyes, and they stared at Lu En with a grim look.

Murderous ups and downs,

Murderous.

"Boss, let me teach this ignorant brat a lesson!"

A burly middle-aged man slowly walked out of the crowd and walked in the direction of Lu En.

As he approached, he showed a grinning face: "Little devil, should I say that you are ignorant? Or should I say that you are courageous?"

"Aboard the pirate ship of our White Ostrich Pirates, and dare to speak rudely to our captain!"

"Who gave you the guts?"

"You're simply tired of living!"

"Let my uncle come to teach you a profound lesson."

"Later, I'm going to tear you apart alive."

around,

Hundreds of pirates roared wildly.

"Tear up this kid!"

"Throw this little devil without long eyes into the sea to feed the fish!"

"kill him!"

finally,

The burly man's footsteps stopped abruptly, and he was already standing in front of Lu En with a pair of tyrannical eyes, looking down at Lu En with a bit of contempt and sarcasm.

"Kneel down to this uncle obediently!"

He stretched out a huge palm and slapped Lu En fiercely.

But at the critical moment...

Lu En disappeared.

"kindness?!"

The burly man's pupils shrank slightly, and his expression was a little suspicious.

A slap slapped empty.

"Are you looking for me?"

A light voice sounded from the back of the burly man's head.

When he reacts,

Out of the corner of his eye, he could only see that a fist was approaching his own head infinitely.

The fist has not come,

The punch is coming!

Accompanied by a harsh cracking sound.

sharp,

Sharp.

In an instant,

puff!

With one punch, the burly man's head instantly exploded like a watermelon.

Like a fragile piece of tofu...

It exploded on the spot.

It turned into a blood mist that filled the sky and danced gracefully.

Blood stained the sky.

Immediately after,

thump!

With a dull sound.

I see,

The icy corpse of the burly man fell heavily.

The pungent * smell spread in all directions.

Blood is like a drizzle of goose feathers,

Scattered all over the place.

Infect the deck of the entire pirate ship.

The whole place was dead silent!

Hundreds of pirates who were booing originally, all fixed their eyes on that young figure with terrified eyes.

Chapter 19:

The fear in their hearts magnified infinitely with the cold corpse lying on the ground.

The atmosphere here is so silent that you can hear the faint sound of people's heart beating.

"Is this what it feels like to kill?"

"like....."

"I didn't have any disgust or psychological discomfort."

"Does this mean that my body is eager to fight?"

As his feet landed smoothly, the fighting intent in Lu En's eyes burned like a flame.

The blood flying in the sky seemed to activate the violent factor in his body.

Immediately,

Without hesitation, he tore off the upper body clothes on the spot with those blood-stained hands.

rip-

A sharp sound.

then,

Lu En revealed that young but muscular body.

muscle bulge,

Kong Wu is powerful.

Gives a sense of déjà vu full of explosive power.

can be clearly seen,

One after another hideous blue veins spread all over the muscles of Lu

En's body, and the looming ghost back appeared under the eyes of hundreds of pirates from all over the world.

Even though he was young and thin, he exuded a sense of oppression.

at the same time.

The blood in Lu En's body is like boiling water...

passionate.

Burn it up!

Clenching his fists, Lu En could feel it very keenly.

The body is filled with unparalleled surging power.

He looked at the white ostrich Kukari in front of him with excitement, and grinned.

"Come on! Let's fight and kill a man!"

"Either you die, or I die!"

"All the pirates present today, one is counted as one, and none of them want to run away."

"All have to die!".

Chapter 15 Muscle Tyrant! One person sweeps the audience! [Second update! 3k chapter]

the other side,

Seas separated by a kilometer.

A huge warship was docked in this sea area, motionless.

Deck fence.

The navy headed by Garp stared blankly at the battle on the pirate ship ahead.

"Okay, so violent!"

A navy's throat was dry, and he blurted out subconsciously.

Just now,

The scene where Lu En smashed a pirate with one punch was clearly revealed in their eyes.

at the same time,

They also saw clearly.

Lu En tore his clothes, revealing his upper body full of muscular lines.

Like a beast leopard!

muscle bulge,

Contains an explosive sense of power!

Even though they were far apart, they could still feel the pressure of the aura from Lu En's back.

"Too fierce!"

"A pirate with blood on his hands was hit on the spot with a punch!"

"This is the way of fighting between men!"

A navy clenched his fists, his blood boiled, and he wished he could immediately intervene in the battlefield ahead.

This kind of bare-handed, fist-to-meat fighting style aroused the blood in their bodies to churn wildly.

"Lieutenant General Karp..."

"Your grandson Lu En is a born strong man!"

Pocato twisted his stiff neck and said in a shocked tone, "Not only did the first murder not cause any psychological discomfort, but instead, I felt a burst of blood boiling."

"This is the first time I've seen such an example."

"If Lieutenant General Garp's grandson doesn't join the navy, I have a hunch that in time, your grandson Lu En will surely become the most terrifying and murderous pirate in this sea!"

"This kind of violent character also has a unique talent for shocking the world..."

"It will surely create a top powerhouse in the future!"

the sound fell,

Karp nodded in approval.

He felt it too.

In the beginning,

He originally planned to let Lu En see blood, which was regarded as the only way to grow up, so that the other party could adapt to the cruel laws of this sea in advance.

Karp never expected...

His grandson Lu En is easier to adapt to this cruel sea than he imagined!

Do not!

More precisely.

"This kid Lu En seems to be born for this sea."

"The cruel laws of this sea seem to be custom-made for him."

"He didn't need to adapt at all."

"because....."

"In his bones, it seems that he was born with this kind of violence!"

Garp's eyes were lost for a while, and he kept thinking about the scene in which Lu En smashed the pirate with a punch just now, and the scene in which Lu En tore his shirt to reveal his fierce fighting intent.

He miscalculated.

Unexpectedly, Lu En, who was usually gentle and gentle, would show such a ferocity once he took part in the battle, like a tiger that wanted to kill people.

wild,

Fierce and unparalleled!

"Engraved in your bones to love fighting?"

"It's the old man who took a wrong look."

"Kid Lu En, you don't need to go through any fighting or training at all.

People like you are born to be employed in this cruel sea!"

Karp was amazed.

this moment,

He could finally rest assured.

Originally, I was worried that my grandson Lu En would encounter great danger on the pirate ship because of a moment of kindness and tenderness, which led to the counterattack of the vicious pirates.

Look now,

Karp didn't need to worry about that at all.

"As Pocado said."

"If Lu En doesn't join the navy, the old man really has a hunch that there will be an extremely terrifying big pirate in this sea in the future! An extremely dangerous and vicious big pirate!"

"There is an extremely dangerous element of violence lurking in Lu En's body."

Karp thought a lot.

on his side,

The young Ace stared blankly at the fighting on the pirate ship ahead.

His freckled little face turned pale, and his pale face revealed his inner panic and anxiety, and his hands trembled uncontrollably.

"This is the cruelty of this sea..."

"Every day someone dies!"

"The weak eat the strong!"

"Survival of the fittest!"

Ace's young mind was strongly impacted by the scene in front of him.

When he saw Lu En's muscular body, Ace felt an incomparably powerful sense of oppression from the opponent's body.

this moment,

Ace felt it deeply again.

Deep powerlessness.

"The gap between me and this guy Lu En..."

"More than one and a half stars!"

"It can be said that it is a world of difference!"

He was unwilling, but had to admit the fact.

Pirate ship.

The atmosphere is eerie!

silence!

Silent!

A gust of sea breeze came.

The pungent * smell in the air filled the sense of smell of every pirate present.

Whoa!

The sea breeze whipped up a wave of waves, rippling with ripples.

The crew of the White Ostrich Pirates, headed by Kukkari, all stared at Lu En, whose upper body was bare, with eyes full of astonishment and fear.

Chapter 20:

up close,

They see clearly.

Lu En's upper body is covered with muscular lines.

Even though he was thin and young, his bulging muscles still brought a strong sense of oppression to many pirates present.

"This kid..."

"not simple!"

Kukkari took a deep breath and looked solemn.

Even he couldn't see it clearly just now.

The details and process of his own crew being smashed by Lu En with a punch.

secretly,

He caught it from Lu En's eyes in front of him.

Negative emotions such as tyranny, murder, gloom and so on are surging.
moment,

Kukkari's face changed slightly, and his heart became a little heavy.

"This kid is afraid of being a monster!"

"At such an age, you already have the will to kill decisively..."

"It's like being born to fight!"

He was getting more and more depressed and gloomy.

this moment,

He didn't dare to underestimate Lu En in front of him.

even,

The violent aura emanating from Lu En made him, the big pirate with a bounty of 11 million berries, feel the slightest oppression.

"Boss, let me teach this kid a lesson!"

"Brothers, come on!"

"kill!"

"Kill this * brat!"

"He's just one person. Even a spit from one of us is enough to drown this arrogant kid."

"Is it difficult for him to try to overthrow their entire pirate group by himself? A joke!"

"..."

Hundreds of pirates shot at the same time.

"Do not impulse!"

Kukkari was about to open his mouth to drink.

Unfortunately,

It's too late!

Hundreds of pirates rushed towards Lu En, and from all directions, each with sharp weapons, launched a frantic attack on Lu En.

Lu En was surrounded.

The various weapons that attacked from 360 degrees exuded an incomparably fierce murderous aura.

"Little devil, go to hell!"

A slender, short man with a dagger tried to pierce Lu En's heart.

But just before it hits,

Lu En's right hand grabbed the man's arm.

Looked up,

The short man saw Lu En's eyes without any emotion, like a long-suppressed volcano that was about to erupt, and his eyes flashed fiercely.

Like a tiger with its eyes open!

Suffocating!

"no, do not want!"

The short man's face turned pale for a moment, and he was about to retreat in fear.

Click!

Lu En squeezed hard with his right hand, and the short man's arm bones were broken.

"what!"

The tingling sensation spread all over the body, causing the short man to let out bursts of sharp howls in pain.

"Battle, the official start!"

Lu En grinned.

The right hand grabbed the short man's body with one hand, suddenly burst out,

A terrifying distance erupted from the body,

He took the man in his hand as a stick and threw it in the direction of the group of pirates attacking in front of him without hesitation.

The short man's body smashed into the crowd, and there was a deafening loud noise.

The unparalleled amount of violent violence directly knocked several pirates into the air, vomited blood on the spot, was knocked several meters away, and rolled wildly on the deck.

"what!"

"My hand! My hand!"

"Quick! Come and save me!"

a mess,

Dozens of short men who were thrown out by Lu En were smashed into chaos on the spot. One by one, the pirates dumped and collided in all directions, scattered everywhere.

for a while,

The deck of the entire pirate ship was particularly chaotic.

Painful howls and screams were heard everywhere.

"It's your turn."

Lu En turned around and looked at the dozen or so menacing pirates.

Kick your feet,

boom--

The deck underfoot was directly trampled to pieces.

at the same time,

Lu En's body is like an arrow from the string, like a tiger descending from the mountain, wolves entering the flock, and plunged directly into the dozens of menacing pirate groups.

Dozens of pirates armed with various weapons had not reacted before.

Lu En's fists had already hit their bodies.

fist to flesh,

Punch to death.

boom!

...

Dozens of pirates were shot flying on the spot, flying backwards more than ten meters away.

Their figures tumbled in mid-air.

vomiting blood,

Eyes turn white.

even,

Some were killed on the spot.

pierced through the chest,

The abdomen is penetrated...

finally--

Dozens of pirates were embarrassed and fell to the sea next to them.

thump!

thump!

...

The sea splashed up,

A large piece of water splashed, and a little fell on the deck of the pirate ship.

The scarlet bloodstains seemed to dye the surrounding sea red.

In the blink of an eye,

Around Lu En, an absolute vacuum field was formed.

Not a single pirate dared to try to get close.

like a tyrant...

A muscular tyrant!

An absolute forbidden area for living beings is formed around!

One person, sweep the audience! .

Chapter 16 Devil Fruit Ability? One punch! [Three shifts! 3k chapter] creak!

Twisting his slightly stiff neck, Lu En was expressionless, staring at the White Ostrich Kukari, the captain of the White Ostrich Pirates in front of him, his eyes burning with fighting intent.

Look around,

The seriously injured pirates were lying on both sides of the deck.

Painful screams echoed around the huge pirate ship.

The corpse that is not cold is lying quietly...

all in all.

In just a short moment, the whole noisy and lively pirate ship has been reduced to a mess.

Less than a hundred pirates shivered and looked at Lu En with fear.

The arrogance and arrogance on their faces had turned into deep fear.

Gollum!

Chapter 21:

Looking at the corpses lying in all directions, the surviving pirates swallowed involuntarily, their faces turned pale, and their bodies trembled violently.

"This kid..."

"Just a monster!"

"There are hundreds of us, and we can't even get close to his body."

"Just a face-to-face, we have already suffered heavy losses! Nearly half of the casualties! How should we deal with this kind of monster?"

A group of pirates were terrified and wanted to retreat.

"A bunch of rice buckets!"

Kukkari snorted coldly, his eyes full of gloom and gloom.

Seeing the cold corpses lying around, he became even more angry.

Looked up,

He looked at Lu En in front of him, and his voice was cold: "Little devil, I admit that you are very strong. But, dare to break into Lao Tzu's pirate ship by yourself!"

"This is the greatest misfortune in your life!"

"I'm the big pirate Kukari with a bounty of 11 million berries!"

"who do you think You Are!"

"Want to arrest Lao Tzu? Kid, you are not qualified."

"I will use my strongest posture to smash your body, little devil, to let you feel what is fear, what is pain, what is death..."

words fell,

in the eyes of the crowd.

Kukkari activated his strongest form.

do not forget.

He is an animal demon fruit ability user!

Being able to be rewarded 11 million Berries in this era is enough to show that Kukkari's strength is definitely not weak.

Roar!

A roar.

I see,

The clothes on Kukkari's body are being burst by the swelled body.

Broken clothes turned into countless pieces,

They all fell off him.

In the blink of an eye,

There was no clothing on Kukkari's body, and the strong body was completely shattered into pieces of debris, and fell in a messy corner on both sides of the deck.

Take a closer look.

He has turned into a huge animal ostrich!

Not less than five meters tall!

If you spread your wings, it may be no less than eight meters wide! for ordinary humans.

Kukali, who turned into an ostrich, can definitely be said to be a behemoth.

secretly,

Even the entire pirate ship seems to have fallen into deeper waters slightly because of the change in Kukkari's size, seemingly unable to bear the weight burden brought by Kukkari's huge size.

for a while,

The eyes of all the pirates at the scene were fixed on Kukkari, the fear in their eyes was gradually suppressed, and a bit of surprise, hope and expectation appeared.

"The boss shot."

"Don't forget, the boss is an animal demon fruit person!"

"Looking at the entire East China Sea, with the strength of the boss, you can definitely walk sideways. The boss, he is a big pirate with a bounty of 11 million berries!"

"To deal with a mere brat, isn't the boss ready?"

A group of pirates heard excited voices one after another.

in their minds,

The boss, Kukkari, is an invincible existence!

They have never seen.

The eldest of his family has had any defeats.

therefore,

When they saw Kukkari go out in person, their inner fears were all suppressed.

"Boss, kill that hateful kid!"

"kill him!"

"Damn brat, dare to break into our White Ostrich Pirates alone! It's hard to vent your anger if you don't kill him!"

"Avenge the brothers!"

"As soon as the boss makes a move, that kid will suffer this time."

"He must die!"

"Tear up that * boy alive! Boss, let him see what real power is!"

A pirate shouted and cheered excitedly.

The atmosphere became very noisy.

Kukali, who incarnated as an animal ostrich, with a pair of huge sharp eyes, looked down at Lu En in front of him, and a mighty aura emanated from his body.

He is covered with white feathers and looks like an ostrich, but his body is more than ten times larger than an ordinary ostrich, and he has the ability to stay in the air for a short time.

Although it can't fly, its movement speed is amazing!

"Little devil, how do you want to die?"

Kukkari grinned, murderous intent in his eyes.

Chilling gas, spontaneously.

The atmosphere has become very depressing!

Combat is imminent.

"I don't like it very much. Others look down at me condescendingly."

"Whenever someone does this..."

"In my heart, there will be an urge to tear the other party to pieces immediately."

"Like, you are now!"

Lu En raised his head slowly, his eyes flashing fiercely.

passionate,

Combat burns.

Lu En, who entered the fighting state, not only felt a steady stream of power flowing from his body and limbs, but also felt that his spirit was always in a state of extreme excitement.

the whole body...

Like a desire to drink more blood!

The militant factor in the bones,

Once Lu En entered the fighting state, he would become extraordinarily irritable, irritable and murderous.

"Maybe, I was born a violent maniac!"

Lu En stretched his arms, the muscles of his arms and shoulders bulged slightly, the lines of his back muscles became more and more obvious, and his body exuded a terrible aura.

"Tear me apart?"

"Little devil, how dare you say that."

"Then see..."

"Who shreds whom!"

"Go to hell!"

Kukkari attacked in rage.

The right arm spreads its wings,

One after another, white feathers flew towards Lu En along the wings.

Each feather is like a sharp dagger, about the size of a slap, breaking down the airflow in the air.

Extremely cutting power.

To cut off everything in the world,

call out!

call out!

The overwhelming white feathers blocked Lu En's body in all directions.

There is no escape,

There is no way to hide.

"Die!"

Kukkari grinned, as if seeing Lu En's tragic death.

now,

In the face of Kukkari's attack, Lu En didn't change his face.

Immediately after,

He raised his right arm,

Clenched right fist.

then,

One punch!

boom--

The surging power in the body suddenly erupted along the fist.

The space seemed to be smashed through by this boxing.

hum!

The square space wriggled and twisted crazily, like ripples on the surface of a calm lake.

at the same time.

A violent air flow erupted along Lu En's fist, turning into a terrifying shock wave, rushing towards the white feathers that were attacking one by one.

The shock wave swept the dust on the deck and knocked away many pirate corpses lying on the ground.

to destroy,

Destruction!

The airflow that erupted from this punch completely wrapped the overwhelming feathers.

moment,

Chapter 22:

puff!

The sharp white feathers were crushed into countless pieces by the shock wave generated by the strong airflow that erupted from the punch.

turned into powder,

dissipated in the air.

next second,

Click!

Click!

Accompanied by bursts of crisp and pleasant sounds.

I see,

There were already cracks on the deck of the entire pirate ship.

The dense cracks are like spider webs, spreading all over the deck, and the cracks continue to extend and spread to further areas.

it looks like...

The whole ship is about to collapse and collapse.

With just one punch, he almost shattered the entire pirate ship on the spot!

"how can that be?!"

Seeing that the offensive he was brewing was resolved with one punch, Kukari was shocked, and a pair of eyes showed a thick color of horror.

He subconsciously took a half step back, only to feel his scalp tingling.

This punch made Kukari feel unprecedented fear.

even,

He smelled the threat of death.

"What kind of monster are you?!"

Seeing Lu En, who was only four years old in front of him, and the other's body covered with muscular lines, Kukali was terrified, his throat was dry, and he blurted out subconsciously.

To this,

Lu En didn't speak.

He kicked his feet,

The figure instantly disappeared in place.

It seems to disappear out of thin air!

It's like teleportation...

instantly,

When he appeared again, Lu En was already standing less than half a meter beside Kukari.

Raising the second punch, he slammed into Kukari's body mercilessly.

boom--

One punch hit,

Hit Kukkari in the rib waist.

The incomparably violent terrifying power directly penetrated the surface muscle defense of Kukkari.

Abruptly dented the waist area of the ribs.

at the same time,

Click!

A soft sound.

Ribs shattered instantly,

The tingling sensation spreads quickly throughout the body.

"what!"

Kukkari howled in pain.

The piercing pain made his eyes bloodshot.

then,

Lu En's third punch was already aimed at Kukkari's head.

without hesitation...

Very decisive!

Punch down.

Infinite might burst out at this moment.

boom!

A loud bang like thunder rolls,

Deafening.

The majestic power burst out from Lu En's fist, shattering Kukkari's head on the spot.

break the latter's skull,

The skull dented hard,

The extremely destructive power ruthlessly smashed the latter's head.

then.....

puff!

Kukari's huge head was like a watermelon, and it exploded on the spot!

A cloud of blood mist splashed up.

Scattered all over the place.

blood spilled,

Blood stained the sky.

A large smear of blood, like a drizzle of goose feathers, fell.

Immediately after,

A pungent and strong * smell came along with the sea breeze and drifted in all directions, filling the smell of every pirate on the deck of the pirate ship.

thump!

A dull voice sounded.

I see,

The huge body of the white ostrich Kukari has completely lost its vital features, and fell to the side, smashing on the deck, making a low and depressed sound.

gradually,

The power of the Devil Fruit faded, draining frantically from Kukari's body.

Kukari, who lost his vitality, naturally dissipated the power of the Devil Fruit in his body quickly.

Soon.

Kukari returned to his original human appearance, naked, with his head shattered on the ground, and the icy headless corpse lying flat, looking very pale and bloodless.

like withered leaves...

life lost,

Life withers.

So far,

The dignified bounty of 11 million Berry's animal-type devil fruit ability, the white ostrich Kukari, was tragically killed by a punch.

There's no fight back all the way!

Being crushed unilaterally!

finally.....

He even shattered his head with a punch.

Died on the spot.

Look around,

The deck was cracked and shattered, leaving numerous dense and ferocious cracks. It seemed that the core structure of the entire ship was already damaged.

The whole ship could collapse at any moment.

Kukkari's icy corpse, madly flowing blood infects this deck, along the cracks left on the deck, extending into the distance.

all around.

There were less than a hundred pirates who survived, and they all stared at the shocking scene in front of them with pairs of eyes full of horror, shock, and disbelief.

The atmosphere was dead silent!

Gollum!

A group of pirates swallowed their saliva involuntarily, their faces were pale, their bodies were shaking violently uncontrollably, their hands and feet were cold, and their backs were hairy.

The sea breeze blows,

A cold air burst from the bottom of their feet to the sky, making them shudder.

"Dead, dead..."

"The boss was killed by one punch!"

"how can that be?!"

"The boss is a big pirate with a bounty as high as tens of millions!"

"In a ghost place like the East China Sea, how could the boss be killed by someone? And he was punched and killed by a few-year-old boy!"

"Even if the boss uses the devil fruit ability and turns into a huge ostrich, he still can't stop the punch of that kid!"

Nearly a hundred pirates were terrified.

Kukkari's death completely shattered their psychological defenses.

Let their mentality completely collapse.

The boss, Kukari, is an animal demon fruit person, and is a big pirate with a bounty of 11 million berries. Looking at the entire East China Sea, he should be able to walk sideways.

Never thought.....

Today, even better than their boss, Kukari, was tragically killed by a punch.

All of this subverted the cognition of all the pirates present.

"What kind of monster is this kid?!"

"With just one punch, he killed the big pirate with a reward of tens of millions of Berry!"

"Is this just a kid how old?"

"How can it be so strong?!"

Chapter 23:

"East China Sea, how can such a monster appear! Even if this kind of monster is placed in the great waterway, it is extremely rare!"

Pairs of fearful eyes were fixed on Lu En invariably.

at this time,

Lu En's hands were stained with blood, his shirt was shirtless, his upper body had very obvious muscle lines, his eyes were plain and deep, and his body exuded a surging aura of coercion.

"The great pirate with a bounty of eleven million berries?"

"Animal Devil Fruit Ability?"

"That's it? Is it so weak?"

Lu En glanced lightly at the cold corpse lying on the ground.

He really didn't expect it.

A big pirate with a bounty of tens of millions is actually so weak!

If I had known earlier,

Shouldn't go all out.

anyway...

This is also a big pirate with a bounty of over 10,000,000 Berry.

Never thought.

so weak.

Lu En took no effort to kill him on the spot with only three punches.

From start to finish, he was unscathed.

It's just a loss of physical strength, that's all.

"Since your captain is dead. Next, it's time to send you to accompany him on the road."

Turning his eyes, Lu En stopped looking at the cold corpse on the ground, and looked at the group of nearly a hundred trembling pirates around him.

The sound fell.

Immediately,

Hundreds of pirates became more and more panicked.

Their whole body and mind were already completely dominated by a strong fear.

after all.

Even the boss, Kukkari, is dead.

This is a big pirate with a bounty of tens of millions of Berry!

But it was hit by that monster's three punches on the spot!

Just ask,

How should they contend against this tyrannical muscle monster in front of them? !

Can't beat it!

Not an opponent at all!

Under the tendency of extreme fear in the heart,

A pirate shivered and clenched the long spear in his hand, his eyes fixed on Lu En's direction, and then he pulled the trigger in Lu En's direction.

boom!

A shot went off.

Under the pressure of gunpowder, the bullet rushed to Lu En's position instantly.

call out!

The bullet pierced the sky,

There was a piercing cracking sound.

Penetrates the space airflow.

moment,

The bullet was already within easy reach of Lu En.

But in the eyes of everyone.

I see,

Lu En slowly raised his right arm, raised two fingers, and easily clamped the bullet in front of him firmly, so that the bullet could no longer enter an inch.

This scene fell into the eyes of many pirates from all over the world, and their inner fears were infinitely magnified.

"Even, even the bullets were caught with bare hands!"

"This kid is a monster!"

"Escape! Escape!"

"Faced with this monster, we have no chance of winning!"

Panic boils over.

Nearly a hundred pirates wanted to jump off the boat and fled the scene in panic.

see,

Lu En threw out the bullet in his hand, violent and powerful force emerged from his arm, and threw the bullet in his hand back to the direction it came from at a speed far exceeding the original speed.

instantly,

puff!

A cloud of blood splashed up,

The life-threatening pirate holding a spear had a blood-colored hole on his forehead and between his eyebrows, which completely penetrated the entire skull.

The thumb-sized blood-colored hole took away the vitality of this pirate.

Life is dying...

soon,

The icy corpse sank to the ground.

thump!

The dull voice resounded in all directions.

watching,

Another pirate was wiped out by Lu En, which aroused the fear in the hearts of the surviving pirates, making them go crazy and try to escape the entire pirate ship.

can be seen,

Many pirates have completely lost their minds.

Under the emotional trend of being feared, they jumped into the deep sea next to them, completely ignoring that this is the central area of the sea.

"escape?"

"I said that."

"Everyone present today, one counts as one, and no one wants to escape!"

"Did I let you run away?"

Seeing the scene of a group of pirates fleeing frantically, Lu En narrowed his eyes slightly with a playful expression.

To deal with this group of pirates who fled in different directions in all directions, like a piece of loose sand.

Lu En has a very good solution.

That is.....

"The overlord is domineering!"

Lu En's eyes flashed.

From the body, an unparalleled surging mental power suddenly erupted.

next second,

This mighty spiritual power was transformed into a terrifying aura that was like a tidal wave.

Like the majestic waves rolling in the waves.

to destroy,

Overwhelming.

boom--

Taking Lu En's body as the center, the shocking overlord's arrogance spreads inch by inch.

Invisible invisible aura, showing a circular arc sweeping all directions.

In a short moment,

The shocking overlord color has enveloped the audience! .

Chapter 18 The one-man team destroys the White Ostrich Pirates! Karp is dumbfounded! □One more□

Around the place where Lu En was standing, the sea area with a radius of more than 100 meters was inevitably enveloped by this shocking overlord.

then.

visible to the naked eye,

As the body was enveloped by this invisible aura, the group of pirates who wanted to jump into the sea, who were closest to Lu En, were immediately crushed in spirit and consciousness on the spot.

boom--

The surging overlord color destroyed their spiritual consciousness.

Let their eyes turn white one after another, foaming at the mouth, and after losing consciousness, they lacked control over their bodies, their limbs were weak, and their bodies fell heavily on the deck next to them.

thump!

...

One after another, the pirates fell to the ground without exception.

One down, down a lot!

A few pirates who were about to jump into the sea were shrouded in arrogance and domineering, instantly lost consciousness, and sank directly into the sea without a trace.

the sea splashed,

Water stains spilled on the deck.

Take a closer look,

surrounding,

On the deck of the entire pirate ship, no pirate could stand still.

Look around,

One after another pirates were lying in disorder in every corner of the deck, motionless, as if they had been reduced to cold corpses.

Even the group of pirates who were seriously injured and were constantly screaming and screaming were no exception to be stunned by the tyrannical arrogance on the spot.

The big pirate ship is silent!

at the same time,

The dozens of pirates who fell into the sea were also unable to escape the range shrouded in the domineering arrogance of the overlord.

The sea area with a radius of hundreds of meters...

Chapter 24:

All creatures are the object of this domineering domineering.

Then you can see,

The dozens of pirates who had just fled into the sea had their excited smiles on their faces before they fully bloomed, and their consciousness was crushed by the domineering arrogance of the overlord.

Their eyes turned white in an instant, and they floated on the sea like dead fish with weak limbs.

Hundred meters of sea...

Even some of the sea kings who happened to pass through this sea area had several small sea kings. They were stunned by this tyrannical arrogance and turned out their white belly.

There are also very few sea kings who can maintain consciousness and are trying to get close to those pirates that devour the sea, but they are under the shock of this shocking domineering look.

They fled in a panic full of fear.

Whoa!

The sea breeze blew lightly, and waves of waves rippled on the sea surface, and the ripples spread into the distance.

on the sea,

A pirate floated like a dead fish, his eyes turned white, and gradually began to sink into the sea.

now,

The atmosphere here has become even more eerie!

Silence!

Except for Lu En, there is no survivor who can retain consciousness.

"It's done."

Walking to the fence on the deck of the pirate ship, Lu En looked at the group of unconscious pirates floating on the sea with satisfaction.

Looking around,

He looked at the group of unconscious pirates on the deck again.

So far,

The White Ostrich Pirates, the group is destroyed!

All annihilated by Lu En alone!

A pirate group with a total bounty of 20 million berries faced the tragic end of the group's annihilation in Lu En's hands.

After this battle, Lu En gradually began to realize.

own strength...

I'm afraid it's not as weak as I imagined!

At least,

The so-called 'big pirate' with a bounty of over 10 million is simply vulnerable in front of him.

Even if the other party is an animal demon fruit person, he still can't bring any threat and pressure to Lu En.

This made Lu En unable to improve his strength assessment.

"My current strength..."

"It should be close to the pirates on this sea, who have a bounty of 20 million Berries?"

Lu En showed a satisfied smile.

Twenty million berries in this era...

That is not the 20 million Berries of later generations, which can be compared.

For now,

According to the information obtained by Luen, it is indicated.

The future kings of Qiwuhai, none of them have a bounty of more than 100 million Bailey now.

As you can imagine.

In this era, the pirates who can be rewarded with a reward of 20 million berries are by no means ordinary.

at the same time.

As Lu En solved the White Ostrich Pirates,

the other side,

Seas separated by a kilometer.

A huge warship is docked here.

on the deck of a warship.

Hundreds of navy members are now staring at the pirate ship in front of them, their eyes can no longer move from it, and their faces are stunned.

"Lying, lying in a trough?!"

"Solve it?"

"This solves a pirate group?"

"That's the White Ostrich Pirates! The powerful pirate group in the East China Sea is notorious, extremely powerful, and unparalleled in ferocity. The crew of the entire pirate group put together a bounty of 20 million Berry!"

"However, the pirate group with a total bounty of 20 million Berry was actually killed by Mr. Lu En alone?!"

"My God!"

"On his own strength, he pushed the entire pirate group horizontally!"

However, Mr. Lu En is only four years old!"

"Monster!"

Hundreds of navy members were shocked and shocked.

"Good, very strong!"

Little Ace grabbed the deck fence with both hands, and stared at the pirate ship in the distance with a pair of eyes full of shock, and clearly saw the only familiar figure standing on the deck of the pirate ship at this moment.

Ace, who witnessed the annihilation of the White Ostrich Pirates by Lu En alone, felt an unprecedented sense of oppression from Lu En more deeply!

Ace realized.

He is so far away from Lu En!

A world of difference!

"One group destroyed the entire pirate ship!"

"Even those with Devil Fruit abilities..."

"They were all smashed by this guy Lu En with three punches!"

"He's actually so powerful!"

Ace's throat was dry, and he clenched his fists subconsciously, with a bit of unwillingness in his eyes.

Standing beside Garp,

Pocato, a subordinate of Garp's confidant, raised his head to look at Garp, and said in a trembling voice, "Lieutenant General Garp, did you see it just now?"

"In an instant, the power that killed the group of pirates who were about to flee the scene..."

"Even the very few sea kings under the sea were instantly killed by that force!"

"It, it seems to be..."

heard,

Karp took a deep breath and blurted out with deep emotion: "I saw it, it's domineering!"

Garp is naturally very familiar with domineering and domineering.

But if he remembers correctly...

It seemed that Lu En had just awakened the domineering arrogance a month ago.

Just the initial awakening,

It has not yet reached the point where it can be freely displayed and used.

In general.

Those who have initially awakened the domineering power of the overlord will need to go through a long period of cultivation before they can gradually master the power of the overlord.

Even if someone specifically teaches, it will take at least the second half of the year to completely master the overlord.

However,

At this moment.

What did they see?

"Mr. Lu En, he seems to have mastered the domineering arrogance by himself!"

"and....."

"It only took a month!"

Pocato groaned.

Without being taught...

It only took one month to completely master the domineering power of the king!

Just imagine.

What kind of terrifying talent is this? !

It is unimaginable.

"The old man didn't even think of it."

"It was originally planned that when the boy Lu En followed the old man to the naval headquarters, the old man would find someone to teach him the display and use of domineering and domineering."

"Unexpectedly..."

"This kid's talent is actually powerful to such an incredible level!"

"Relying on my own slow exploration, it took only one month to completely control the domineering and domineering."

"Such an amazing talent and aptitude makes the old man amazed!"

Karp was amazed.

call!

He exhaled heavily,

Garp looked at Lu En on the pirate ship in the distance, and made an evaluation from the bottom of his heart: "This kid Lu En is probably the most terrifying monster I have ever seen in my life!"

"It's also the only example over the years that relies on his own exploration, and in just one month, he has completely mastered the domineering arrogance of a king!".

Chapter 19 The strength is improved again! Born strong! [Second update! 3k chapter]

Next,

Karp ordered.

They ordered people to control the warship to approach the pirate ship one kilometer away in the sea, preparing to arrest the survivors of the White Ostrich Pirates.

As the warships approached...

Whoa!

The sea water was pushed aside by the warship, and ripples spread and rippled in all directions.

at this time,

On the deck of the pirate ship.

Chapter 25:

Just when Lu En turned to look in the direction of the naval warship.

The system's prompt sound suddenly sounded without warning.

[Total obtained in this battle: Strength +0.003, Speed +0.002,

moment,

A warm current appeared out of thin air, poured into Lu En's body, washed his internal organs, and was bringing a certain degree of transformation and strengthening to his body.

in a while,

body remodeled,

Lu En's strength has improved a lot again.

He could feel it very clearly.

After remodeling,

The power contained in the body is getting stronger and stronger!

"turn out to be....."

"Fighting can also improve my strength!"

"And the improvement that can be obtained is far higher than the boring devil-style training!"

Lu En narrowed his eyes slightly, and a bright smile appeared on his face.

In the beginning,

He also thought that the hundred-fold increase in cultivation that he had obtained was only limited to training.

now,

After the battle just experienced,

Only then did Lu En have a deeper understanding and understanding of the hundredfold increase.

This battle not only improved Lu En's physical attributes a lot, but also gave him some fighting skills and experience out of thin air.

It seems like a daigo empowerment from the system...

Make Lu En's fighting skills more proficient!

at last.....

It's a spiritual boost!

The strength of mental power represents the strength of Lu En's domineering look.

The rest of the attributes such as strength, speed, and physical strength are closely related to Lu En's body explosiveness, endurance, and agility.

In short.

After this battle, Lu En's overall strength ushered in a small surge.

at the same time,

It also opened a new door for Lu En.

let him understand.

If you want to improve your strength, you are not limited to the boring training of the devil.

You can also start with combat!

As long as you continue to experience battles, you can continue to become stronger!

"The more I fight, the stronger I get."

"It seems that if you want to improve your strength in the future, there is no need to do boring devil-style exercises."

"certainly....."

"If you want to improve the completion progress of Ghost Back, you still have to exercise your muscles with self-discipline."

Lu En has a plan in his heart.

then,

He began to look at his current properties panel.

"System, bring up the properties panel."

[Host: Lu En]

[Strength: 19.7 (+2.1)]

[Speed: 17.8 (+1.7)]

[Physical Strength: 21.1 (+2.2)]

[Mental Power: 13.2 (+1.2)]

[Ghost Back Completion: 10.19%]

[The overall improvement of the current training effect: 100 times! □]

Seeing his current property panel, Lu En expressed his satisfaction.

Physical strength has broken through the numerical threshold of twenty.

And the power...

It is also about to break into the value of 20!

On the contrary, speed, as the bottom of the three-dimensional attributes, pulled down the whole of Lu En's three-dimensional attributes.

Lu En could understand that the speed was holding him back.

His muscles will naturally have some disadvantages in terms of speed.

However, it is only relative.

Compared with the animal demon fruit person who had a bounty of tens of millions of berries just now, Lu En's speed can still completely crush the opponent.

"If you want to make up for my disadvantage in speed, you must master a speed-based combat technique."

"Just like..."

"Navy Six Shave!"

"This instant explosive attack."

Lu En was thoughtful.

The disadvantage in speed naturally has to find offensive means to make up for it.

And the Navy Sixth Form just meets his needs.

If you can.....

In addition to the six-style shaving, the moon step is also a move that you want to practice.

The ability to stay in the air for a short period of time can play a great role in actual combat!

As for the other so-called sham feet, finger guns, paper paintings, iron blocks, etc., if possible, Lu En naturally wants to master them all.

But compared to the first two moon steps and shaving, his demand for the latter four will not be too strong.

can learn,

You can't learn, and you don't need to force it.

However, Yuebu and Shaved are the fighting skills that Lu En desperately needs to master!

"After a while, I will follow the old man to the Navy Headquarters. I think I will be able to initially get in touch with the Navy's Sixth Form."

"Then....."

"It's the turn of the two-color domineering practice!"

"After mastering the six naval styles and the two-color domineering, I can be considered a strong strongman. Looking at this sea, I definitely do not belong to the grassroots weak."

Lu En thought to himself.

Once you have mastered the six types of navy and the two-color domineering, you will initially have the strength to protect yourself in this dangerous sea.

in a while,

While Lu En was thinking, the huge naval warship had successfully approached the pirate ship.

then,

Under Karp's orders,

Hundreds of navies stepped onto the deck of the pirate ship one after another, and carried out frantic arrests of the pirates who survived fainting on the deck.

holding handcuffs,

Handcuffed a comatose pirate and piled them all in the corner of the pirate ship deck.

Some pirates who have died violently were handled cleanly by the navy.

Even the fainted pirates floating at sea were also captured by the navy one after another and sent to the pirate ship for collective custody.

After a while,

All pirates were caught.

All are held in the corner of the deck of the pirate ship.

Since the warship is not enough to accommodate hundreds of pirates, this pirate ship can only be used as a temporary storage for these pirates at the same time.

The result of this battle was also sent to Karp by Pocato: "Lieutenant General Karp, a total of 173 pirates were captured this time."

"Including the white ostrich Kukari, the captain of the White Ostrich Pirates, the number of pirates killed this time is one hundred and twenty-two."

"In the warehouse of this pirate ship, many high-end wines were found.

There were also some unopened boxes. After opening, they found a lot of gold and silver jewelry."

"In the ship's ammunition depot, two hundred guns were found. Pills..."

After listening to Pocato's introduction,

Kapu thought for a moment and directly ordered: "Pass the old man's order, order someone to control the pirate ship, follow the rear of the warship, and set off with the warship to the nearby naval branch base."

"By the time....."

"Hand over the entire pirate ship to the naval branch base in the East China Sea for processing."

Pocato nodded quickly: "Yes, Lieutenant General Karp."

then,

After Garp's order was issued, the entire warship set off again and rushed to the naval branch base stationed in the nearby waters of the East China Sea.

A pirate ship that was riddled with holes was put away and the side that hung high, symbolizing the pirate's skull flag, followed closely behind the huge warship.

warship,

on the deck.

Garp, who ordered all the complicated things, looked at Lu En with eyes full of relief and pride, and patted Lu En's shoulder heavily.

"It's better than the old man imagined! As expected of the grandson of the old man!"

aside,

Ace looked at Lu En with a complicated expression and remained silent.

After this incident...

He was deeply aware of it.

How big is the strength gap between him and Lu En!

this time,

Ace no longer dared to publicly threaten to surpass Lu En.

"Next, are we going to the naval branch in the East China Sea?"

Chapter 26:

At this time, Lu En had put on a loose white shirt again, covered the obviously bulging violent muscle lines on his body, and asked Karp casually.

"That's right, the destruction of the White Ostrich Pirates this time is entirely due to you alone. I don't want to covet the credit of you, a hairy boy."

"Don't worry, this old man will report to the Navy branch the truth about the extermination of the White Ostrich Pirates."

"No one can take away the credit that belongs to you."

"so."

"You kid, I'm afraid you're going to be famous this time!"

"A four-year-old kid who killed a pirate group by himself, with a bounty of up to 20 million Berries in total. If nothing else, after this incident, your reputation will surely resonate throughout the entire world. East China Sea!"

"How are you feeling at this moment?"

Karp was all smiles.

heard,

Lu En smiled: "it feels okay."

Seeing Lu En in front of him, he didn't feel any psychological discomfort because of the murder, which finally made Karp feel completely relieved.

at the same time,

He couldn't help feeling overwhelmed.

really!

This kid Lu En...

Is a natural powerhouse!

Chapter 20 The East China Sea Naval Branch Fortress! arrival! [Three more] a day later.

clear sky,

Clear skies.

East China Sea.

Naval Branch Fortress.

This is the largest naval base in the East China Sea. The main part is built on the sea level, covering an area of no less than ten square kilometers. It can be regarded as a small town.

The naval branch fortress was surrounded by hundreds of miles of sea area.

look around,

Wangyang, the sea is endless.

There is only one towering fortress, standing on the sea level, as the only embellishment of the empty sea area with a radius of hundreds of miles, and the only reference.

The naval branch fortress base has everything, and all the daily necessities for daily life can be purchased in the branch fortress. simply put.

This naval branch fort base, in addition to being used to detain the most vicious pirates in the sea, is also equivalent to a small prosperous town.

There can be no less than 100,000 navy in it.

For now,

As the largest naval fortress base in the East China Sea, this base houses about 30,000 navy, and also detains 50,000 pirates and the base prison.

As you can imagine.

How large is this naval base fortress?

Although the East China Sea is the weakest among the four sea areas, the largest naval branch fortress used to guard one sea area still has to be seated by a vice admiral in person.

so.

The largest naval branch base in the East China Sea is home to a powerful vice-admiral.

this day,

A medium-sized naval warship, under the control of the navy on the deck, sent the entire warship to return to the direction of the East China Sea naval branch base.

The sea breeze blows,

The white seagull flag that hangs high symbolizes the absolute fairness, justice and justice of the navy.

on the deck of a warship.

Hundreds of navy members stood, headed by a second lieutenant wearing a navy's "justice" coat, with bright eyes, a saber on his waist, and sunglasses. He was burly and powerful.

gradually,

As the warship arrived at the base of the naval branch fortress.

instantly,

rumbling—

The incomparably huge stone gate of the base was slowly opened from the inside, and there was a sound like thunder, which was deafening.

Whoa!

The sea splashed up,

The sea surface was set off by waves of ripples, and the waves spread.

With the door open,

The entire medium-sized warship entered the base.

"Back to base!"

After entering the gate, the warship arrived at the port in a short time and docked at the position next to the port.

anchor,

Stop the boat.

Hundreds of navy officers led by Second Lieutenant 'Damus', escorting a pirate in handcuffs, slowly stepped off the warship and prepared to be sent to the prison of the naval branch fortress for detention.

at the same time.

When the navy in the port saw the pirates escorted by Dames and other navies, the atmosphere at the scene became noisy and lively.

"Fuck? I read that right?"

"The pirate who was captured by Lieutenant Dames himself, is the pirate king Carl? A pirate with a bounty of six million berries?"

"As expected of Lieutenant Dames!"

"Even the big pirate with a bounty of six million berries was caught easily."

"Lieutenant Dames is too strong."

Lots of talk.

Hearing the touted voices of the navy in his ears, Dames showed a proud smile.

In order to capture the thief king Carl, he can be said to have spent a lot of energy, and he has almost survived many times. If he is not stronger, he may be planted.

"Small scene, small scene."

Dames' mouth curled slightly.

This high-profile scene made him feel physically and mentally happy.

"After catching the thief king Carl, who has a bounty of six million berries, I'm a step closer to being promoted from second lieutenant to lieutenant."

"Six million big pirates..."

"This is a great credit!"

With joy in his heart, Damus escorted the king of thieves Karl to leave the port under the eyes of many admirers.

But right now.

wow——

There was an uproar in the atmosphere.

"Quick! Look at you!"

"Another warship is here!"

"and....."

"It doesn't seem to be a warship belonging to our East China Sea!"

"What a huge warship!"

The navy in the port was full of astonishment, staring blankly at a behemoth traveling from afar.

Also a navy ship.

but.....

Whether it is style or aura, it is far from the warship that Dames just drove, and it can be compared.

Immediately after,

Numerous navies also see.

In addition to this huge warship, they saw a large-scale pirate ship right behind the warship!

"Yes, is it a pirate ship?!"

"what happened?"

"Why is there a pirate ship behind the warship?"

"Pirates attack?"

"No, it's not quite right. Look, that pirate ship seems to have been controlled by our navy."

"In other words, all the pirates on that pirate ship have been arrested and annihilated!"

In addition to the uproar,

Damus, who had been standing in the port for a long time, suddenly shrank his pupils, his face a little suspicious.

Seeing that slightly broken pirate ship...

He suddenly thought of an unforgettable past event.

some time ago,

A powerful pirate group repatriated from the Great Waterway appeared in the East China Sea. At that time, Damus personally led the troops to pursue and capture the pirate group.

at last.....

He failed.

Fiasco!

Killed by that pirate group!

Killing is losing ground!

Dames had no choice but to grit his teeth and give up the pursuit, and returned to the Navy Headquarters in despair.

The failure of this mission made Dames the laughing stock of the naval branch.

And this is the biggest shame in his life!

The pirate group that repelled Damus and the others...

Its name is White Ostrich Pirates!

Chapter 27:

"This this....."

"No way?"

"Is that pirate ship..."

Dames' throat was dry, and his face was full of horror and horror.

He stared blankly at the pirate ship that followed closely behind the warship.

He is too familiar with that pirate ship!

Just absolutely hate it!

did not expect.....

Today, I actually saw this pirate ship being sent to the naval branch fortress base!

what does that mean?

That is to say...

"The White Ostrich Pirates were destroyed by the group?!"

"how is this possible?!"

"Such a powerful white ostrich pirate group, even I can do nothing."

"Who exactly killed the White Ostrich Pirates?"

Although Dames didn't want to admit it, he had to.

With the overall combat power of the White Ostrich Pirates, unless the lieutenant general responsible for guarding the fortress of the naval branch is personally involved. Otherwise, basically no one can win the White Ostrich Pirates.

It is for this reason that

At this moment, the white ostrich pirate ship that appeared in the naval branch fortress made Damus's performance so shocking.

at the same time,

The navy standing in the port also gradually revealed the identity of the pirate ship.

"Fuck?!"

"Really? That's actually the White Ostrich Pirates?"

"This is a pirate group with a total bounty of 20 million Berries!"

"Looking at the East China Sea, who has the capital to annihilate the entire White Ostrich Pirates?"

"It's really the White Ostrich Pirates! It's absolutely true!"

"It is said that the captain of the White Ostrich Pirates, White Ostrich Kukari, is a devil fruit user of the animal system, and the bounty is as high as 11 million Berries."

"Who has the strength to not only take down the famous big pirate White Ostrich Kukari, but also wipe out the entire White Ostrich Pirate Group?"

The atmosphere was hot.

All scrambling to guess.

"This person....."

"What exactly is sacred?"

"Donghai, when did a monster of this level appear!"

Damus, who was standing in the port, stared at the huge warship with shocking eyes, eager to know the truth.

Chapter 21 Didn't I say it? It was my grandson who killed the White Ostrich Pirates! [Four more flowers! Ask for a ticket] warship.

on the deck.

Lu En stood on the edge of the fence, looking at the whole fortress of the entire naval branch base with a slightly curious expression.

This is a huge fortress like a fortress!

easy to defend, hard to attack, indestructible.

Even if 100,000 pirates completely surround the sea area, it is absolutely impossible to easily capture this huge naval base fortress.

When building this naval base fortress, it was clear that the Navy had taken various factors into consideration.

Not only is it difficult to break through this fortress from the outside, but even the pirates who are imprisoned inside have a hard time escaping from this base fortress.

"This is the largest naval branch base in the East China Sea?"

Lu En was very interested.

in a while,

The location of the warship close to the port.

anchor,

Stop the boat.

Immediately after,

Lu En followed a group of navies, got off the warship and came to this port area.

From all directions, a pair of eyes full of curiosity and awe, gathered at the same time.

"Everyone obeys the order and escorts all the pirates on board."

As Garp's confidant, Pocadoon took the initiative to replace Garp and gave orders as the commander on the scene.

These complicated things, Karp naturally does not need to do it himself.

Before rushing to this naval branch base, Karp had already contacted the Vice Admiral who was in charge of guarding the base through the phone bug.

At this moment, I think that the other party is already on the way to the port.

as predicted.

In less than a moment.

A middle-aged man with a pot belly trotted all the way to the port from a distance.

He was wearing the navy's unique 'justice' cape, and his body was round, and he didn't seem to have the majesty and posture of a vice admiral at all.

From the appearance alone, no one would have imagined that this was actually a Vice Admiral.

His name is Roster, the Vice Admiral in charge of guarding the fortress of the East China Sea Naval Branch Base.

The strength is not bad,

Although it is not as good as the Vice Admiral of the Navy Headquarters, but in the waters of the East China Sea, except for those hidden old monsters, this Vice Admiral Roster can definitely be said to be a top-notch combat force.

The Vice Admiral of the Navy Headquarters and the Vice Admiral of the Navy Branch are two completely different concepts.

The identity gap is huge.

"Lieutenant General Karp, you've worked hard."

Roster came to Karp with a cautious and respectful expression.

not to mention,

Garp's prominent status as a lieutenant admiral of the Navy Headquarters, and the prestige of Garp, a naval hero alone, is enough for Roster to show the highest respect for Garp.

"Lieutenant General Rossiter? Please order your staff to take all the pirates here into the prison at the base."

Karp looked calm.

"Yes, Lieutenant General Karp."

Rossiter nodded quickly.

Next,

Following Karp's order, Roster hurriedly ordered the surrounding navies to take over the broken pirate ship and * the handcuffed pirates on board to prison.

At this time,

When the surrounding navy saw Garp's figure, they suddenly realized.

"It turns out that Lieutenant General Garp killed the White Ostrich Pirates."

"Everything makes sense now."

"If Lieutenant General Garp went out in person, a mere white ostrich pirate group would be nothing to be afraid of."

"I just said, how could such a powerful existence suddenly appear in our East China Sea. I didn't expect it to be Lieutenant General Garp."

Lots of talk.

Dames was also stunned.

Garp's illustrious reputation is reverberating even in the four seas.
in the navy,

The prestige of the hero Garp is considered to be the top group!

Even today's Admiral Gang Kong Kong may not have the prestige and influence of the hero Garp.

"It turns out that the monster who killed the White Ostrich Pirates was Lieutenant General Garp."

Dames was stunned.

gradually,

As all the pirates on the entire pirate ship were taken into prisons, as the commander of the largest naval base in the East China Sea, Ross hurriedly repaid Lu En with his gratitude.

"The White Ostrich Pirates are really rampant. In recent days, they have been frantically burning, killing and looting in the East China Sea, making the people of the East China Sea hard to live."

"Fortunately, Lieutenant General Garp, you are willing to take action and solve such a huge tumor for Donghai."

"Otherwise, there will be endless troubles."

"Lieutenant General Karp can rest assured that I will definitely report this action to the headquarters truthfully."

Knowing the heroic Garp's reputation, Roster certainly did not dare to make such a foolish act of coveting credit.

Furthermore,

Just a pirate with a bounty of over 10 million yuan, but for Lieutenant General Rossiter, it's actually nothing more than a little.

He simply didn't have the spare time to deal with the White Ostrich Pirates, but it didn't mean that he didn't have the ability to deal with this cancer.

For this credit, Ross, the dignified Vice Admiral, naturally disliked it.

"You wait first."

Before Roster was about to leave, Karp suddenly stopped the other party.

"Do you dare to ask Lieutenant General Garp what else is there to order?"

Rossiter asked.

"Didn't I say it just now?"

Looking at Roster's puzzled eyes, Garp pointed to Lu En who was standing beside him, and said bluntly, "It's not me who solved the White Ostrich Pirates."

"But..."

"My grandson Lu En!"

"He used his own power to destroy the entire White Ostrich Pirates! He killed the White Ostrich Kukali alone, the animal demon fruit person!"

"So, this is his credit!"

"This point, you have to remember it clearly, and don't make a mistake when reporting it up."

The words fall.

The noisy scene became silent!

Silent!

A pair of astonished eyes fixed on Lu En who was standing beside Garp one after another.

Chapter 28:

watching,

With Lu En's thin body of only a few years old, a group of navy members were instantly dumbfounded.

"Lieutenant General Karp, you're really joking."

With the brief silence, Roster coughed dryly, glanced at Lu En, then looked at Karp again, and squeezed out an embarrassed smile.

Obviously.

He couldn't believe what Karp had just said.

A four-year-old child...

Killing a pirate group alone?

Moreover, is it still a pirate group with a total bounty of 20 million Berries?

He even killed a bounty of up to 11 million Berry alone. As the animal-type Devil Fruit ability, the captain of the White Ostrich Pirates, White Ostrich Kukali?

is it possible?

Rossiter laughed.

This is not realistic!

Even if Lieutenant General Garp wanted to help his younger generation, he shouldn't be so exaggerated!

If this is reported according to Lieutenant General Karp's words...

Just ask,

Who believes? !

It is clear,

Rossi thought subconsciously.

Garp made the exaggerated remarks just now to help the younger generation.

"Do you think the old man is joking?"

With a strange expression, Karp patted Roster's shoulder deeply, pointing to the hundreds of navies standing in the port, as well as the group of pirates who were escorted to prison in handcuffs.

He smiled: "If you don't believe it, you can ask these people. They have witnessed the details of what the old man said just now."

"That batch of pirates..."

"They are all participants and victims of this incident!"

heard,

Rossiter's pupils shrank slightly, with a look of surprise.

He couldn't help taking a deep breath. He looked suspiciously at Garp in front of him. The other party didn't seem to be joking at all, but a serious expression on his face.

Turned,

He looked to the other side again.

Looking at the hundreds of navies in the port, they all faced each other in unison, and Lu En, who was standing beside Garp, cast a look of awe. this moment.

Rossiter began to realize faintly.

Things are a little unusual!

It's not as simple as I thought!

"Could it be that....."

"Lieutenant General Garp, everything he said just now is true?!"

"Well, it won't."

"A four-year-old kid who killed a pirate group with a reward of tens of millions by himself?!"

"how is this possible?!"

Thinking of this, Roster couldn't help feeling deeply moved and gaffe.

Chapter 22 The Naval Branch is sensational! Four year old monster!

[One more update! 3k chapter]

call!

Exhaling heavily, Roster forcibly suppressed the shock and horror in his heart, and looked at Lu En with solemn and suspicious eyes.

quite a while,

He said to Karp: "Lieutenant General Karp can rest assured that I will report to the truth."

"Okay, the old man will never cheat on this kind of thing. You can check whether everything the old man said is true."

Karp saw through Roster's inner doubt at a glance.

He didn't care, he didn't take it seriously.

This year...

No one believes the truth?

No wonder!

just weird,

The old man's grandson Lu En is really a genius!

At the age of four, he destroyed a powerful pirate group!

presumably,

Anyone who hadn't seen it with their own eyes would be deeply suspicious of this.

"Lieutenant General Karp, I don't doubt what you said."

"only....."

Rossiter hurriedly explained.

"No need to say more, the old man understands."

"It's official business."

Karp smiled.

"Thank you Lieutenant General Karp for your understanding."

Rossiter was secretly relieved.

This one is standing at the top of the navy in front of him!

He is a little lieutenant general of the naval branch, and of course he dare not offend the hero in front of him, Garp!

"Boy Luen, let's go."

After explaining a few words, Karp led Lu En back to the warship.

Hundreds of navies in the port also followed in Karp's footsteps and returned to warships.

Including Pocato, Garp's henchman.

"Pass my order and set off back to Windmill Village."

Karp gave an order.

gradually,

This means that Ou's huge warship left the port again, drifted further away, left the naval branch, and made a return trip in the direction of Windmill Village.

When the entire warship has completely left,

Rossiter was able to breathe a sigh of relief.

Standing in front of Garp just now, he was under a lot of pressure.

Even though he is also a Vice Admiral, he has never forgotten that the Vice Admiral Garp of the Navy Headquarters in front of him is the most prestigious naval hero in the Navy!

In the middle of the day!

More influential than the Admiral of the Navy Headquarters!

At this time,

Dames quietly came to Roster's side, his throat was dry, and he couldn't help asking: "Lieutenant General, don't you think that everything Lieutenant General Karp said just now is true?"

"A four-year-old child..."

"The group wiped out the White Ostrich Pirates?!"

"Do you think this is really possible?"

Dames was equally incredulous about what Karp said.

To know.

The White Ostrich Pirates, but even the navy group he personally led were killed and retreated!

How can he accept it.

A four-year-old child...

Do something that even their hundreds of navies can't do? !

One-person team to destroy the White Ostrich Pirates?

It sounds like a dream to Dames.

too exaggerated!

How can there be such a monster in this sea? !

Dames was deeply skeptical.

"Is it true or false? Find someone to ask the pirates who were escorted to the prison to know the answer."

"The real can not be fake, the fake can not be real."

"Lieutenant General Garp has a prominent reputation and awe-inspiring justice, so he won't cheat for this matter."

Rossiter thought for a moment and said.

"Do you really believe what Lieutenant General Karp said?"

"This!"

Dames was shocked.

"No, I can't judge right now."

"Later, I will personally interrogate that group of pirates."

"presumably....."

"These pirates must know this."

Ross said bluntly.

"Lieutenant General, I also want to go see it."

Dames pleaded hastily.

"Okay, you come with me."

in a while,

The two came to the branch base where the pirates were held in prison.

Under the leadership of several navies,

Roster and Damus came to a prison responsible for detaining the pirates who had just taken in.

coincidentally,

A pirate hazy seemed to wake up from a dream.

Chapter 29:

Opening his eyes, he saw Roster and Dames.

"Next, I ask, you answer."

"understand?"

"Don't talk too much nonsense to me. Otherwise, I can't guarantee that you will not suffer from some flesh and blood."

Rossiter was expressionless.

"Lord Hai and Navy, I will answer your questions truthfully."

After waking up, the pirate nodded in panic.

"I ask you, who killed your White Ostrich Pirates?"

Rossit straight to the point, stepping into the subject.

aside,

Damus looked at the pirate with anticipation in his eyes.

under the eyes of the two.

The pirate seemed to be caught in a memory.

then.

This pirate seemed to be crazy, his eyes were bloodshot and frightened, and his voice trembled one after another.

"Devil, devil!"

"That's a devil!"

"Everyone on the boat is dead!"

"That kid, he's as strong as a monster."

"He was alone and destroyed our entire pirate group! Even the boss, Kukari, was smashed by that kid with three punches on the spot!"

"That kid is like a tyrant! He swept everyone on our ship by himself!"

Mentioning this, the pirate looked terrified and could not hide his inner panic at all.

see,

Roster's throat was dry and he couldn't speak for a while.

hiss!

His eyes were full of horror and shock, and he couldn't help taking a deep breath.

"What Lieutenant General Karp said..."

"It's actually true?!"

He was stunned.

Standing beside him, Damus was also stupid.

"how can that be?!"

"The grandson of Lieutenant General Karp looks like a four-year-old child."

"A four-year-old child actually destroyed a pirate group by himself? And it's still a pirate group with a total bounty of 20 million berries?"

"My God!"

"What kind of monster is this?!"

Dames turned pale, shocked.

"Never thought....."

"A four-year-old child has done such an earth-shattering act!"

"One person kills a pirate group! One person kills a big pirate with a bounty of over 10 million, and he is also a Devil Fruit ability user of the animal system!"

"Lieutenant General Garp's grandson..."

"It's too monster, isn't it?!"

Rao is a vice-admiral, Rossiter, who was stunned by the facts found out at this moment.

Pirates with a bounty of more than ten million berries are definitely not part of the weak in the East China Sea.

otherwise,

Dames, the second lieutenant in the navy, will not be beaten by the other side and flee and be defeated.

However,

It is such a powerful group of pirates, but today, it was tragically destroyed by a four-year-old child.

If this is spread,

Who dares to believe it? !

quite a while,

Roth took Dames out of prison.

The two separated with a very shocking mood.

Roster needs to brew his emotions and take some time to calm down before he can use the phone bug to report the matter.

Dames, on the other hand, returned to the port with a shocked mood.

Oncoming...

A group of curious navies gathered around Dames and asked.

"Lieutenant Dames, is what Lieutenant General Karp said just now true?"

"The White Ostrich Pirates were really wiped out by a four-year-old child?"

"Is that impossible?"

"How strong can a four-year-old be?"

"I always feel that Lieutenant General Karp is probably exaggerating."

"I think so."

"..."

Lots of talk.

Under the curious eyes of many navies.

Damus' throat was dry, and he told the truth in a trembling voice: "What Lieutenant General Garp just said is the truth! The White Ostrich Pirates were indeed wiped out by a four-year-old child alone!"

The words fall.

The whole place was dead silent.

roar for a moment,

The atmosphere was fully detonated in an instant!

The whole place shook!

"What, what?!"

"The White Ostrich Pirates were really wiped out by a four-year-old boy?"

"Fuck? How is this possible?"

"Looking at the entire East China Sea, the White Ostrich Pirates are one of the most powerful pirate groups, and the total bounty is as high as 20 million Berries."

"The captain, the white ostrich, Kukari, has been offered a bounty of 11 million berry for his animal-type devil fruit ability."

"Such a powerful pirate group was wiped out by a four-year-old pirate?!"

"Oh my God!"

"The four-year-old boy named Lu En just now, what kind of monster is he?!"

With a piece of news that Dames brought from prison, the atmosphere on the port side was strongly ignited.

It shocked all the navies on this side of the port.

Dames was in a very bitter mood: "Emotions, I have worked hard for most of my life to cultivate, but in the end, I can't even compare to a four-year-old child?"

this day.

The naval branch base in the East China Sea ushered in an unprecedented sensation.

Chapter 23 Three-year-old awakening overlord? The shock of the Admiral! [Second update! 3k chapter]

East China Sea Naval Base Fortress. office.

Roster returned to his office with a shocked mood.

Forcibly suppressing the shaking emotions, he slowly lifted the phone bug placed on the corner of the table, put it to his ear, and dialed the phone bug.

boo boo~

The unique voice of the phone bug resounded in the huge office.

finally--

The phone worm dialed.

"Roster? I'm Sora, did something happen over there in the East China Sea?"

A majestic voice came from the phone bug, buzzing around Roster's ears.
he knows.

Opposite the phone bug, is the Navy Headquarters Marshal Sora!

Supreme Commander of the Navy!

"Marshal Kong, I have something very important to report to you."

Rossit took a deep breath, but his shocking mood could not calm down for a long time.

"What's up?"

empty question.

"Today, Lieutenant General Garp took a pirate ship and a group of pirates to the base fortress in the East China Sea for detention. It was a pirate group with a total bounty of 20 million Berries."

Rossiter spoke slowly.

"Only this matter? It's not enough for you to contact me personally for such a trivial matter, right?"

Sora, who is the Admiral of the Navy, knows that Garp is in his hometown of the East China Sea.

also,

Isn't it common for a pirate group with a bounty of 20 million berries to be won by Garp?

so.

Sora was deeply perplexed and perplexed by Roster's presence today.

"But....."

"That pirate group was not taken down by Lieutenant General Garp."

"Instead, Lieutenant General Garp's grandson."

"A four-year-old child!"

"With his own strength, he killed a pirate group with a total bounty of 20 million Berries!"

Roster began to tell the truth.

The sound fell.

He can see keenly.

Chapter 30:

Marshal Kong, who was opposite the phone bug, began to breathe a little disorderly.

"What, what did you say?!"

"Kapp's grandson?"

"A four-year-old kid killed a pirate group with a bounty of 20 million berries?"

"you sure?"

Obviously, this matter moved Kongshen deeply.

A four-year-old child, destroying a pirate group with a reward of over 10,000,000 Berry?

If this is true...

That is too amazing!

"This is absolutely true!"

"My subordinates have already pried off the voice of that group of pirates."

"The information obtained from this batch of pirates shows everything."

"This pirate group was indeed annihilated by Lieutenant General Garp's grandson Lu En, a four-year-old child alone."

Until now, Roster is still deeply shocked and unbelievable.

"You let me calm down first."

"Kapp, when did you have a grandson?"

"I do not know how?"

"and also....."

"His four-year-old grandson is too scary!"

"But it's only four years old, enough to destroy a pirate group with a reward of over 10,000,000 Berry!"

"This amazing talent is simply enchanting!"

"Compared to Garp's talent, I'm afraid it's even more terrifying!"

Sora's tone was also full of horror.

Is this the case that the blue is better than the blue?

Cap this guy...

Finally did something worthy of praise!

She gave birth to a grandson with unparalleled talent!

Add fresh blood to the future of the Navy.

"Okay, I already know about it."

"If there's nothing else, I'll hang up first."

Sora hung up the phone first.

It is located in the Marshal's Office of Marine Vandoli in the Navy

Headquarters,

He picked up the phone bug in his hand and walked to the window step by step, looking at the group of navy recruits who were constantly practicing in the squares of Marinfando.

Think again and again,

Sora dialed the phone bug again.

boo boo~

A unique voice echoes through the huge office.

in a while,

The phone bug was dialed.

"Marshal Kong? I'm Sengoku."

A calm voice of the Warring States came from the opposite side.

"I ask you something."

Leaning against the window, holding the phone bug in his hand, he asked, "Do you know about Garp having a grandson?"

The words fall.

The Sengoku on the opposite side was slightly silent.

quite a while,

Warring States just opened his mouth to answer: "I know, Karp contacted me once last month and mentioned something about his grandson Lu En."

heard,

Sora continued to ask: "Then do you know that Garp's grandson, Lu En, is actually an extremely talented genius?"

"I found out last month."

Warring States had no choice but to use the phone bug to tell the truth about what happened at that time, "A month ago, Karp contacted me late at night and took the initiative to tell me."

"His grandson Lu En..."

"On that night, I awakened the domineering arrogance on my own!"

"An example of a three-year-old awakening the domineering arrogance of a king was born!"

The voice just fell.

Gang Gukong, who was holding the phone bug, shivered all over, and almost threw the phone bug in his hand out of the window next to him.

The words of the Warring States period,

It really frightened Sora quite a bit.

"You, what did you just say?!"

Sora's eyes widened, he could hear it through the phone bug, and his voice was full of a strong sense of shock.

"Awakened overlord at the age of three?"

"you sure?"

"Kapp's grandson, is he so monstrous?"

At first I thought,

He has high enough opinion of Karp's grandson Luen.

But now,

After hearing what Warring States just said,

He suddenly woke up.

turn out to be.....

He never really understood.

What a terrifying monster is Garp's grandson Luen!

An example of a three-year-old awakened overlord...

It's timeless!

At least,

There hasn't been a similar example in over a hundred years.

"Marshal Kong, don't you know about this? I thought that you came to me today to find out all kinds of information about Garp's monster grandson."

The Warring States tone is weird.

"Of course I don't know."

Kong scolded, "What are you and Garp going to do? Such a good seed! He is a good seed for a future general! Why don't you report it to me at all?!"

"This is a once-in-a-hundred-year shocking genius!"

"Do you know what this kind of genius means to our navy?"

"What our navy lacks the most is this kind of genius monster!"

"It's okay to be stupid like Garp. When did you become so stupid in the Warring States period? How could you keep such an important matter from me?"

"As Garp's best friend, don't you know how bad Garp's education is? Have you forgotten what Garp's son has done over the years?"

"He can't even teach his son! You expect him to teach his grandson well?"

The dignified Admiral Steel Skeleton was chattering like a shrew at this moment.

The opposite Sengoku was scolded and could not refute.

"I can tell you clearly..."

"This grandson of Garp, Lu En, his talent is really amazing!"

"Definitely the most talented genius I've ever seen in my life!"

"If I don't bring him back to the Navy headquarters as soon as possible to teach him carefully, I'm worried that this kind of peerless genius will be misled by the * Karp again."

"At that time, our navy will not cry if we find a place to cry."

"Warring States, can you give me some snacks!"

"If this time, Karp's genius grandson is taken crooked again."

"I'm sure that over time, with the world-shattering talent this kid possesses, he will surely create an unprecedented terrifying enemy for the Navy!"

"An enemy even more vicious, powerful and terrifying than the dragon!"

All the spit in the air has been sprayed on the head of the phone bug.

On the opposite side of the phone bug, Warring States subconsciously raised his right arm and wiped away the sweat that did not exist on his forehead.

"Don't worry, Marshal, Garp has told me."

"After a while, when his grandson meets his father, he will immediately bring his grandson back to Marinfando without stopping."

Warring States tells the truth.

"what?!"

"You mean to say..."

"That * son of Garp, still wants to meet Garp's grandson?"

"No! Absolutely not!"

"What if Karp's genius grandson is taken away by his son? Isn't our navy just missing out on a once-in-a-hundred-year-old amazing genius?"

"I will never allow this to happen!"

In a hurry.

A three-year-old awakened a tyrannical monster!

If they were taken to the revolutionary army...

Can't imagine it.

What a terrifying enemy the future navy needs to face!

no!

Absolutely stop this from happening!

"Warring States, pass my order."

"Call the troops immediately..."

"Give me savagely and destroy all the known bases of the revolutionary army!"

"Never let this * Long go back to the East China Sea."

"Avoid the meeting between the two of them as much as possible!"

Sora gave the order without hesitation.

Chapter 31:

"clear."

The Warring States responded quickly.

then.

A silent war between the navy and the revolutionary army,

It will be about Lu En alone.

the whole sea,

Suddenly, it became an undercurrent.

Chapter 24 Dragon: Is my son so talented? [Three more] three days later.

East China Sea.

Goya Kingdom, Windmill Village.

The wind is sunny and the sky is clear.

early morning.

There is still a little moisture in the air, but the simple villagers of Windmill Village have already devoted themselves to their busy work, showing their vitality.

at this time.

The port of Windmill Village is five kilometers away.

In the azure sea, the white clouds above the sky are printed, and there are no ripples on the calm sea.

Accompanied by a gentle breeze.

Whoa!

The sea surface ripples, and waves spread along with it.

I see,

A small merchant ship was moving slowly from afar, and the water on both sides was pushed aside on the sea surface, causing waves of ripples to spread in all directions.

on the deck.

There were only a few figures standing.

Everyone wears a dark brown cloak, which completely covers and covers their body shape and appearance, making it impossible for outsiders to see and see.

One of the leaders was a thin, middle-aged man, tall and thin.

Looked up,

Hidden under the dark brown coat, is a face with tattoos engraved on the left half of the face, without eyebrows, and the facial features look a bit stern, cold, sharp, and hideous.

He has a pair of piercing eyes, and there is boundless ambition in his eyes. The ambition is undoubtedly revealed from the bottom of his eyes, and he seems to have the will to embrace the world.

This kind of person only needs to look at one glance, and his face can be unforgettable in a short period of time.

This person is the founder and leader of the Revolutionary Army, Meng Qi Dlong!

One is regarded by the world government as the most vicious criminal in the world!

Even Roger, the pirate king, is far less threatening to the world government than dragons!

The threat nature of the Revolutionary Army is far more than the threat pirates bring to the world government.

One is a villain who does no evil at sea...

The other is a group with a purpose to overthrow the current ruling rules!

By comparison.

The latter is naturally more threatening!
certainly.

It can be regarded as the biggest thorn in the eyes of the world government, but over the years, he has not been arrested in prison. This alone is enough to show the terrifying strength and formidable ability of the dragon itself.

As the founder and leader of the revolutionary army, there is no doubt that the dragon's strength is naturally strong, and he must be ranked at the top of this sea!

only.....

In the past few days, the navy seemed to be going crazy, and it was frantically carrying out destruction operations on some of the bases of the revolutionary army, which made Long feel confused and puzzling.

"Can you find out why the Navy has been so crazy in recent days?"

Long frowned, and asked a fat woman with a big face beside him.

He never remembered.

During this time, he has actively provoked the Navy.

Arguably.

The navy should not be so mobilized, it should come to crusade and deal with their revolutionary army.

The target the navy has to deal with is the pirates.

Only the world government can't wait to deal with their revolutionary army.

these years.....

The Navy rarely took the initiative to attack the Revolutionary Army.

But in the past few days, the abnormal behavior of the navy has made Long feel a little clue and something is wrong.

"The main cause of the naval anomaly has been found."

"According to the people below, the information and intelligence conveyed indicate that."

"What makes the Navy so anomalous is..."

"Because of one person!"

A woman with a big face standing beside the dragon replied.

This person is one of the cadres of the Revolutionary Army, Ivankov.

Human | King of the Demon Kingdom!

Even if he looks at the sea, he is a strong man with decent strength.

Ivankov, as the right-hand man of the revolutionary army leader Long, won Long's trust and was one of the founders of the revolutionary army in the early days.

"Because of one person? What do you mean?"

"Just because of one person..."

"The navy went crazy and launched an attack on our revolutionary army base?"

"For this reason, do you not hesitate to start a war?"

"Who has such great ability? Let the entire navy fight against our revolutionary army for this person?"

The dragon raised his brows, feeling even more confused about this.

"Actually, the reason why the navy attacked the base of our revolutionary army like crazy."

"The main purpose is to..."

"To prevent you from returning to the East China Sea."

"Prevent you from returning to your hometown, Windmill Village!"

Ivankov hesitated again and again, but chose to truthfully inform the information that he had found out.

"Stop me? Why?"

The dragon was confused.

heard,

Ivankov took a deep breath and told the truth slowly: "Because of your son! Four years ago, you brought back the son Lu En from Donghai Windmill Village!"

"People from the Navy are frantically trying to prevent your father and son from meeting."

"to this end....."

"The navy does not hesitate to send a large number of people to destroy the bases of our revolutionary army!"

"Everything is because of your son Lu En!"

The words fall.

Long was even more incomprehensible: "Why? Just to prevent our two fathers and sons from meeting? The navy would not hesitate to go to war? This makes no sense either."

Ivankov replied: "Because your son Lu En is a genius! He was personally evaluated by the Admiral Gang Kong as a peerless genius once in a century!"

"It's a monster who has awakened a domineering and domineering monster when he is only three years old!"

"The navy doesn't want to see this kind of peerless genius being completely swayed by you because of you. That's why the navy keeps trying to prevent you from meeting your son at all costs."

"The Navy is afraid..."

"They're afraid that your meeting with your son will bring this kind of peerless genius to the revolutionary army."

"Obviously..."

"Your son Lu En is a monster that even the navy is afraid of! Even though he is only four years old now, he already has the peerless talent and potential that the navy fears!"

"The entire navy is mobilizing and fighting because of your son Lu En alone."

Having said that,

Ivankov's tone was also full of shock.

Even she can't imagine...

As the most terrifying force in this sea, one day, the navy will be willing to mobilize the army for the sake of a four-year-old child!

Just ask,

How monstrous is a four-year-old child...

Can the entire navy be completely crazy for this one person? !

can not imagine!

After listening to Ivankov's explanation, Long finally realized.

No wonder!

No wonder in the past few days, the navy seems to be crazy, trying to prevent himself from returning to his hometown of the East China Sea. He even did not hesitate to order, ordering a large number of people to go to destroy the bases of the revolutionary army.

Thus.....

Many things can be explained.

"Awakened overlord at the age of three..."

At this moment, Long blurted out subconsciously with a look of amazement, "Is my son so talented?".

Chapter 25 Work hard! Ace, I wait for you to surpass me! [Four shifts!

3k chapter]

After half an hour,

Merchant ships near the Windmill Village port.

The dragon standing on the deck saw the appearance of his hometown again.

Windmill Village.....

This is a place where he was born and raised.

Even though he has become the leader of the revolutionary army, whenever he returns to his hometown of Windmill Village, the dragon will have a special feeling of intimacy.

"You are all waiting here."

Chapter 32:

"I'll be back when I go."

After instructing Ivankov and other cadres of the revolutionary army, Long stepped forward and stepped into the shore port from the deck of the merchant ship.

In his hands, holding a swaddle baby.

It can be clearly seen that,

Not long after this baby was born, the skin on his body was wrinkled, and he was constantly fiddling with his hands and feet, looking like a small bean.

bow your head,

Long looked at the swaddled baby in his arms with a kind of gentleness and kindness in his eyes.

But soon,

This emotion was completely suppressed by him.

"Dragon, don't we need to follow?"

Ivankov and others in the rear were a little uneasy.

"No need."

"If you follow me, I'm afraid you will cause more trouble."

"My father wasn't a fuel-efficient lamp."

"He won't do anything to me, but it doesn't mean that he won't do it to you."

"Once my father goes out in person, one of you will be counted as one, and neither of you will try to run."

"Remember, don't set foot in Windmill Village rashly. This is not a place you can set foot in."

Long solemnly ordered.

As a son, of course he deeply understands.

What a powerful and terrifying existence his old father Garp was!

take a step,

Holding the baby in his arms, Long walked towards the familiar windmill village step by step.

He has not returned to his hometown Windmill Village for many years.

...

Korpo Mountains.

Darden family.

The sun is shining brightly, and the golden sun shines down.

The halo was imprinted on Lu En's body, revealing his upper body full of muscular lines, and exuding a powerful aura that far surpassed his peers.

two days ago,

Just after returning to the windmill village from the naval branch base in the East China Sea, Lu En once again entered the devil-like training day after day.

cycle continuously,

No slack.

After each devil's training session,

Lu En could feel that his physical strength was growing by leaps and bounds.

This stronger taste made him linger.

No one can resist the taste of becoming stronger!

"Nine hundred and ninety-sixth!"

"Nine hundred and ninety-seven!"

"..."

Beads of sweat the size of soybeans slowly flowed down from Lu En's forehead. His body was completely soaked and soaked in sweat, and the sweat dripped down from his body crazily.

The scorching sun on the horizon witnessed Lu En's unremitting efforts.

The reason why he can become stronger so fast...

Not just because of the ghostback system.

also,

more importantly.....

He keeps working hard!

If you don't work hard, even if you have the ghost back system, it is impossible to achieve a rapid increase in one's own strength at a speed that can be called a leap like Lu En.

"one thousand!"

After doing a thousand push-ups, Lu En let out a soft breath, dragged his slightly tired body, and lay down on the green grass next to him to rest.

at first,

A thousand push-ups are Luen's limit.

As the time goes,

Now Lu En's limit can probably reach tens of thousands of push-ups.

so.

These thousand push-ups are just a warm-up ritual for him to start the devil's training.

"It's time for me to leave."

Lu En was deeply moved.

He had a hunch.

After leaving Windmill Village this time, I'm afraid I won't be able to return for a long time.

It is unlikely that he will return to Donghai Windmill Village for at least a year and a half.

He was already very familiar with the simple villagers here in Windmill Village, and he suddenly had to leave for a long time, which made him feel a little reluctant.

and also.....

The Dardan family is a group of gentle and lovely bandits.

During this time, Lu En was under the care of the Dadan family.

call!

Gently exhaling, Lu En's ear sounded a system prompt.

[A total of gains in this practice: strength +0.001, speed +0.001, physical strength +0.001! □

[After a 100-fold increase in the training effect...]

[The host can obtain: Strength +0.1, Speed +0.1, Stamina +0.1! □

moment,

A weak warm current appeared out of thin air and rushed towards Lu En's body, constantly scouring the internal organs of his body and transforming the strength of various attributes of his body.

In the blink of an eye,

Remodeled,

The strength has become stronger again!

Although only a slight increase in efficiency.

But, this is just a workout.

A small exercise can slightly improve one's own strength, which has already satisfied Lu En.

Clenching his fists, Lu En felt the surging power in his body.

He shook his head and sighed.

"Pity."

"The further back..."

"The lower the physical strength gain you can get from exercising."

"If I want to continue to get stronger, obviously, it's not just about the devil's exercise."

Lu En was thoughtful.

Want to make your own strength skyrocket...

You must find another way!

Can no longer blindly boring to carry out the devil exercise.

The effect this can get is minimal.

further back...

The effect is worse!

this moment,

Lu En faintly began to look forward to going to the Navy Headquarters to accept the orthodox training method formulated by the Navy Headquarters for many years.

As such,

Your own strength will definitely be able to get skyrocketing again and again!

"Hopefully, after I go to Marine Fando at the Navy headquarters, I will be able to improve my strength by leaps and bounds through the training method tailored by the Navy."

For now, Lu En has faintly felt a slight bottleneck.

If you want to get stronger quickly, you can no longer follow the simple exercise method before.

With the energy of the Navy Headquarters...

It is absolutely appropriate to customize a special cultivation method for Lu En.

Next,

After a short rest, Lu En threw himself into the hard training again.
an hour later.

Lu En stopped training.

Feeling the increase in physical strength, he showed a satisfied smile.

Turn around slowly,

The naked upper body, covered with muscular lines, exudes a sense of oppression under the sun.

Lu En looked at him with a smile, staring at little Ace who was training with him not far away, with an intriguing expression on his face.

Since returning to Windmill Village a few days ago,

Lu En noticed it.

Whenever I entered the devil-style training, I could always notice that Ace was quietly hiding in the dark and watching, as if he wanted to imitate his cultivation method.

"Want to imitate my cultivation method?"

"such a pity....."

"Ace, you have no system!"

"Not everyone who imitates my cultivation method can become stronger as quickly as I do."

"I'm not like you."

"I, have the effect of a hundred times the increase in cultivation!"

Lu En laughed.

He could understand Ace's mentality.

I think it is because, some time ago, I killed a pirate group by myself, which caused an excessively strong impact on Ace's young mind.

It also made Ace truly experience it deeply.

Chapter 33:

The far distance between him and himself!

Simply a world of difference!

There is no comparison!

It is for this reason that Ace will try his best to imitate Lu En's cultivation method, eager to catch up with Lu En's footsteps, not to be left behind.

However, in Lu En's view.

Ace's idea is good.

But.....

Do you want to achieve Lu En's level of strength with the devil's training?

This is obviously not realistic.

Lu En's cultivation method is definitely not something others can follow.

fight from the beginning,

Ace walked into a misunderstanding of thinking.

"Work hard, Ace..."

"I'm waiting for the day you surpass me."

"Although, that may be a long way off."

Lu En glanced at Ace's direction, then withdrew his gaze and stopped looking at it too much.

Just as he was about to take the next step of cultivation.

Tread-tap-

A burst of hurried footsteps suddenly came from the front.

then.

can see,

A bandit member of the Dadan family was running to Lu En anxiously, with a little sweat on his forehead.

When I saw Lu En,

His eyes lit up and he quickly blurted out: "Lu En, I finally found you. Mr.

Karp told you to put down everything at hand and return to Windmill Village immediately."

"Mr. Karp said..."

"Your father has returned.".

Chapter 26 The arrival of the dragon! Meet Luffy! [Five more flowers!

Ask for a ticket]

The voice of the bandit from the Dadan family just fell.

Lu En abruptly stopped his current actions.

"my father?"

"Dragon?"

"This time, I'm afraid not only my cheap father Long is back, but also my stupid stupid brother."

Lu En narrowed his eyes slightly, feeling a hunch in his heart.

As early as a month ago, he was fully prepared for this.

"I see."

Next,

Lu En said goodbye to the bandit of the Dadan family and left the Korbo Mountains alone.

After half an hour,

He returned to the familiar windmill village smoothly.

The Korbo Mountains are not too far from the Windmill Village, and the journey back and forth takes an hour for ordinary people to travel.

However, Lu En, who was moving at full speed, only took half an hour to return to the windmill village from the Korbo Mountains.

As soon as I entered the Windmill Village, I was greeted by a simple and amiable villager.

"Boy Lu En, long time no see."

"Some time ago, I heard that you were sent to the Korbo Mountains by your grandfather? I remember that there are countless dangerous beasts buried in that mountain range. I feel relieved when I see that you are all right."

"Don't worry about it, old man. With Lu En's ability, even if he goes to the Korbo Mountains, he is the only one who can harm those beasts.

Don't forget, Lu En's strength is not simple. "

A group of amiable villagers greeted Lu En with smiles all over their faces.

It took a lot of effort...

Lu En was able to break free from the greetings of these villagers.

The hometown is to the east of Windmill Village.

in less than a moment,

Lu En turned left and right back to the front of the house.

Haven't entered the house yet,

Then I heard the voice of an unfamiliar man inside.

"Boy Luen, come in."

Garp's voice followed.

then,

Lu En stepped through the door and returned to his familiar and unfamiliar residence.

At first glance, he saw a thin man in a dark brown coat, without eyebrows, with scarlet scarlet tattoos on his left face.

A pair of eyes are bright and full of ambition.

This familiar face...

Let Lu En be able to judge the identity of the other party at first glance.

Not surprisingly,

This thin man is his cheap father Long.

This is an incompetent father!

just born...

Leave Lu En to Garp to take care of.

Except for the time when he was just born, Lu En had seen the dragon, and in the next few years, he had almost never heard of the dragon.

no sound,

It's like evaporating.

this time,

Seeing the dragon's face again made Lu Endu feel strange.

But okay.

Lu En is a transmigrator after all, and he was wise when he was born, so that he would not completely forget the real face of the cheap old dragon.

In general.

Lu En doesn't have too deep feelings for cheap dad dragon.

By comparison.....

Compared with grandfather Garp, the relationship between Luen and Garp is much deeper.

Although Grandpa Karp is also very unreliable on weekdays, he has taken good care of Lu En for many years.

Plus, Karp's concern comes from the heart, and it can't be faked. therefore.

Over the years,

Lu En completely adapted to the grandfather Karp.

now.

When facing this sudden cheap old dragon, he felt a little uncomfortable.

"He's your father, Monkey Dragon!"

Cap looked at Lu En and took the initiative to introduce.

"Father."

After thinking about it again and again, Lu En should have greeted Long with both affection and reason.

"In the blink of an eye, four years have passed."

"You've grown so big."

"I am ashamed of you."

Long was very emotional.

"How dare you say it!"

"As soon as I was born, I left it to the old man to take care of it!"

Mention this, and Karp was instantly furious.

But on second thought,

Karp was relieved and happy.

If it wasn't for the * son Long who entrusted Lu En to take care of him, he would not be able to find such an excellent successor!

A peerless genius who awakened the overlord at the age of three!

Simply the perfect successor!

future.....

Must be an excellent navy.

Such an excellent successor makes Karp more and more satisfied.

fine.

Lu En, a talented monster, was not brought to the revolutionary army by the * dragon.

otherwise,

The consequences could be disastrous.

This made Karp feel very happy.

call!

He exhaled heavily,

Garp suppressed all the thoughts in his head, looked at his son Long with vigilance and ill will, and asked aloud: "When you come back this time, if you have anything, just say it directly, don't be around the corner."

"This is my little son, your little grandson."

The dragon slowly placed the baby in his arms on the stone table.

"Humph!"

Karp snorted without saying much.

Take a closer look,

Seeing the infant babbling and dancing, Karp fell in love at first sight.

"What's his name?"

Chapter 34:

Karp asked.

"Monkey d Luffy!"

Long told the truth.

"Luffy?"

Garp raised his right hand and gently rubbed Luffy's chubby face, his eyes full of love.

Turned,

He looked at Lu En who was standing beside him and said bluntly, "let's see your brother."

"it is good."

Lu En nodded.

With great anticipation, he walked over to the swaddling baby.

Put it down high and look down,

Looking at the swaddling baby's chubby face and the other party's wobbly hands and feet, Lu En couldn't help showing a sigh of relief.

"Luffy....."

"We finally meet."

Raising his hands, he gently picked up the infant, Lu En's eyes narrowed slightly.

"Yeah ah~"

He seemed to feel his body rising into the air, and Xiao Lufei was dancing in the swaddling clothes, looking very happy, with a pair of * eyes, blinking at Lu En who was close at hand.

Preliminary conservative estimates,

Luffy is only two months old now.

very light,

Just the size of a palm,

Very skinny.

"Future Wang Luffy!"

"It's my stupid stupid brother..."

Lu En rubbed Xiao Luffy's chubby face, feeling the delicate and soft touch from his fingertips, and his heart was filled with emotion.

Chapter 27 In order to compete for Lu En, the two father and son almost fought! [One more]

Lu En held the infant Luffy and stood quietly by the corner of the wall.

At this time,

Long sat down on the seat, his eyes flickered, looking at Karp who was not far away, and finally began to step into the theme: "Old man, discuss something with you."

heard,

Karp raised his brows and was slightly surprised: "What's the matter? You still have something to ask the old man? This is really unexpected."

If he remembered correctly.

This is the first time that Long has made a request to himself.

"I want to borrow Lu En for a while."

"Don't worry, I will train him well and make him a top powerhouse in the sea."

"I will also keep him safe during this time."

"what do you think?"

The dragon opened his mouth with a smile on his face.

Borrow for a while?

This is of course just an excuse.

If Lu En was really brought to the Revolutionary Army...

Of course it is borrowed without repayment!

"kindness?!"

Garp's pupils shrank slightly, and his face changed dramatically.

then,

He was suddenly furious, looking at the dragon with an angry face, and shouting angrily, "what do you mean? You bastard, how dare you hit this kid Lu En?"

"Don't think about it!"

"The old man might as well tell you directly here."

"This kid Lu En will definitely become an excellent navy! Become the pillar of the navy! He will inherit the identity of the old man and become a hero in the new era of the navy!"

"No matter what reason you find, you can never take Lu En away!"

If it were changed to other requirements, Garp might also be concerned about the identity of the dragon as his son.

But the problem is...

The request made by the dragon now seriously touched Garp's inverse scale and taboo.

Lu En, it's Garp's taboo!

no matter who.....

Don't even think about taking Lu En!

"Old man, a peerless genius who awakened the domineering arrogance at the age of three, you should know what this means! How can a monster like this be wasted in the navy?"

"Only letting him join our revolutionary army is the best destination."

"He should have bigger ambitions!"

"This world should be the biggest stage for his peerless genius to use his fists."

The dragon continued talking, completely ignoring the angry Garp.

"You sure know this."

"Looks like..."

"Your revolutionary army is really pervasive."

"Even the interior of the navy is full of secret chess that your revolutionary army has planted."

Garp snorted coldly, looking coldly at the dragon with bad eyes.

It is not difficult to guess,

The reason why Long knew that Lu En woke up to the domineering overlord at the age of three must be because someone from the Revolutionary Army had been placed in the Navy Headquarters.

otherwise,

It is impossible for the dragon to know that this secret incident just happened some time ago.

Furthermore,

Karp didn't publicize it, he just told his old friend Sengoku.

most.....

The Warring States period also informed his immediate superior, the current naval marshal Gang Gu Kong.

So here comes the question.

Even Long, the leader of the revolutionary army, knew the news.

Does this mean...

The naval headquarters, already corroded and riddled with holes?

Are there secret chess of the revolutionary army everywhere?

Karp thinks.

It's very possible!

"However, the old man advises you."

"Don't put your conspiracies and ambitions on the kid Lu En."

"What do you want to do, the old man can't control it, and I don't want to do it!"

"Although the old man does not approve of your thoughts, he will never stop you or even be proud of you. However, the premise is that you do not anger the old man! Don't touch the taboos in the old man's heart!"

"This kid Lu En is not something that your revolutionary army can try to meddle and plot."

"Otherwise, don't blame the old man for not warning you."

Karp was expressionless and his voice was cold.

All along, he has never had huge expectations for Lu En!

so.

He will never allow anyone to try to lead Lu En!

for a while,

The huge room was filled with a chilling air.

Very depressing!

As if a storm was about to hit.

It seems like a battle is about to break out!

Seeing the dragon's silent appearance,

Karp sneered and continued: "Four years ago, you came to the old man with your baby in the swaddle, and asked the old man to help you take care of your son."

"At that time, how could you think of today?"

"You probably didn't expect..."

"Your son Lu En, my grandson, is a peerless genius that is rare in a century! A monster who has awakened a tyrannical monster at the age of three!"

"and also....."

"May I tell you, Lu En's talent and aptitude are far beyond your imagination."

"Can you believe it? This kid Lu En only spent a month, completely relying on his own exploration, and did not resort to any external means throughout the whole process."

"Only by myself, I have completely mastered the tyrannical arrogance."

The words fall.

Long was deeply moved, and he couldn't help taking a deep breath.

He thought,

His son's talent is already strong enough.

Unexpectedly.

Hearing Garp's words, he suddenly woke up.

emotion.....

His son Lu En is far more terrifying than he imagined!

"Relying on myself, I mastered the overlord's color in just one month!"

"This amazing talent is really unimaginable."

Long Wang couldn't help but be amazed.

this moment,

He longed for Lu En even more.

Chapter 35:

I can't wait to immediately pull Lu En into the camp of the revolutionary army.

If it wasn't for Garp, who was staring at him beside him, maybe Long would immediately use his devil fruit ability to take Lu En directly away. can only say.

Lu En's talent is too amazing!

As the leader of the revolutionary army, Long had to show an unprecedented heartbeat.

Now,

The revolutionary army just in its infancy...

It just so happens that there is a lack of such a peerless genius like Lu En!

If Lu En can be obtained, the future of the revolutionary army is simply bright!

"The old man knows that you * has bad intentions."

"However, the old man advises you to give up as soon as possible."

"Lu En won't go with you. He will follow the old man back to the naval headquarters."

Karp snorted again, his words sharp and merciless.

He knew it.

His own son, Long, is not a fuel-efficient lamp.

But never thought...

The other party was so daring that he dared to plot against this kid Lu En!

Karp would never allow this to happen.

"What's the benefit of being a revolutionary army with you? A group of rats crossing the street who only dare to hide quietly in the dark on weekdays, almost everyone shouts and beats them."

"By contrast....."

"Following the old man to the navy headquarters will be completely different."

Karp continued.

heard,

Long was speechless for a while.

really!

The revolutionary army, which is now in its infancy, is indeed like a rat in a stinky ditch.

But if he wants to let him give up such a peerless genius as Lu En, Long will still be deeply saddened and unwilling.

This is a three-year-old awakening overlord...

Relying on his own exploration, he mastered the overlord monster in just one month!

Just give up?

To know.

This kind of peerless genius is a once in a century!

Looking at the sea, there is no second example.

Dragon is very unwilling.

However, due to Karp's oppression, he could only choose silence.

after all.

He is no match for Karp.

No matter how strong he is...

even,

His strength can already be said to be at the top of the sea.

But there is still a certain gap between the naval hero Garp in front of him.

There is no doubt about this.

The atmosphere of the huge house is particularly depressing.

Karp didn't speak again.

The dragon remained silent.

Silent atmosphere...

Suddenly, Lu En took the initiative to stand up and break it.

Holding the newborn baby in the swaddle, he looked at the two fathers and sons who were about to fight, his eyes flickered, and he slowly expressed his thoughts.

"I want to be in the Navy."

Chapter 28 Dragon's Departure! Set sail for the Navy Headquarters in three days! [Second update! 3k chapter] navy?

Revolutionary Army?

Pirates?

how to choose?

Lu En naturally chose the former and the first one!

The Revolutionary Army was the first chosen target to be excluded.

only because.....

The present revolutionary army is too weak.

The revolutionary army, which is just in its infancy, is a mouse hiding in a stinky ditch.

Can't see the light, everyone shouts and fights.

Now that you choose to join the revolutionary army, isn't that a brain-dead?

As for being a pirate?

Lu En also subconsciously ruled it out.

Is it bad to be in the navy?

9 to 5...

Get a fixed salary.

Enjoy the benefits of the Navy.

It can also be backed by the navy, the most powerful behemoth on the sea.

Relying on the big tree to enjoy the shade.

also,

If you choose to become the winning navy, you can also get various training methods tailored by the navy, so that Lu En's strength can be improved by leaps and bounds.

This, why not?

Plus.....

Grandpa Garp is a naval hero. Once Lu En joins the Navy, he will be a well-known official for three generations. Who dares to provoke the Navy?

Although Lu En joined the revolutionary army, he may become a second generation, but the identity of this second generation is not visible after all, and he will be madly rewarded and killed by the navy.

instead,

Having become an officer of the Navy for three generations, Lu En can basically walk sideways on this sea.

Except for Garp's former enemy, who wants to kill Lu En quickly.

Basically, no one dared to take the initiative to provoke Lu En, the third generation of the Navy!

Even if it is the Four Emperors, you have to measure your ability in advance.

Based on the above analysis,

Lu En decided to become a navy without hesitation.

Without hesitation, the options of the revolutionary army and pirates were excluded.

With Lu En's voice falling slowly.

The dragon was even more silent.

Karp showed a satisfied and relieved smile: "Okay! Okay! Boy Lu En, you really didn't let the old man down. Becoming an excellent navy must be your best choice!"

aside,

Long hesitated.

just thought of,

As the son of a rare genius, Lu En, who had missed out on the revolutionary army he founded, felt helpless and depressed.

If Lu En is willing to join the revolutionary army, Long is confident that in the next ten years, he will develop the revolutionary army and become one of the most terrifying forces on the sea.

Pity!

Lu En made a choice to join the navy.

Sighing silently, the dragon looked at Lu En with complicated eyes, and didn't force it too much: "Since you already have your own choice, I won't interfere too much."

"The path you choose, you have to go down well."

"It's a pity..."

"But, as a father, I can only bless you silently."

Even if he wants to retain Lu En to join the revolutionary army, he will not make too much demands because of his dragon's character.

besides,

Next to him is his old father, Garp, who is staring at him.

Long did not dare to be too presumptuous.

The iron fist of the old father Garp's love, even to this day, still impresses the dragon deeply.

After so many years,

He didn't want to experience the iron fist of his old father's love again in front of his two sons. What made him a father?

"Thank you father for understanding."

Lu En said to Long.

"Get stronger..."

"This world is very exciting!"

"Only the strong can experience this colorful and wonderful world."

"The weak are not even qualified to stand on the world stage and overlook the world."

Long stood up from the seat and patted Lu En's shoulder deeply.

Looking around,

Looking at the newborn baby Luffy in swaddling, Long looked at Garp and said solemnly: "Old man, Luffy will be taken care of by you."

heard,

Garp's forehead bulged with blue veins, and he wanted to scold him, but seeing Xiao Luffy's cute appearance and the kinship of his flesh and blood made him forcibly hold back the irritable emotions in his heart.

"roll!"

"Every time I come back, it's not a good thing."

Karp snorted coldly, in a bad tone.

"I'm leaving."

Chapter 36:

"Lu En, if you have a bad time in the navy, the door of the revolutionary army is always open for you."

Long smiled, then turned and left.

His purpose has been achieved, and naturally there is no need to stay too much.

at first,

His original purpose was to send his youngest son Luffy back to Windmill Village and hand it over to his old father Garp to take care of.

I didn't expect...

suddenly learned,

His eldest son, Lu En, is a once-in-a-century genius!

therefore,

He suddenly had the idea of winning Lu En into the revolutionary army.

but.....

Now that Lu En has decided to join the navy, Long will not force it too much, nor will he insist on interfering with Lu En's choice.

As a father, the only thing he can do is to respect Lu En's choice.

The dragon is gone.

As the breeze came softly,

And like a gentle breeze gone.

When you go, don't take a cloud with you.

Only the baby Luffy was left, and he was handed over to the old father Garp to take care of.

Without his son as a concern and burden, Long, the leader of the revolutionary army, will definitely become more radical and fierce in his future behavior.

can be expected,

later.....

The Revolutionary Army and the navy will only be dealing more and more.

The character of the dragon is very free and easy.

Say no to two,

have their own ideas and beliefs.

The revolutionary army formed by such people will surely become the most troublesome enemy of the world government in the future!

There is no doubt about this.

Watching the back of the dragon leaving, Garp hummed, came to Lu En's side, touched the infant Luffy on his arm, and looked at Luffy happily as he was dancing and babbling.

"Three days later, prepare to leave for Marine Vando, the headquarters of the Navy."

"In these three days, if there is anything else you want to do, feel free to do it."

"After the matter here is resolved, you may not be able to return to the East China Sea in the next year and a half."

Karp reminded Luen beside him.

"clear."

Lu En nodded.

While he was a little reluctant, he also had strong expectations.

Looking forward to the Navy Headquarters!

The countless top powerhouses in the navy are all gathered in the navy headquarters.

Finally can meet these monsters on the sea.

This era...

Yellow Ape is still a lieutenant general.

Akainu and Aokiji are also lieutenant generals.

Sengoku has not yet become a naval marshal.

The marshal is Cyborg Kong.

Zefa served as a general and set up a naval training camp to teach a new generation of students for the Navy.

This era is for Lu En.

very exciting!

...

Windmill Village.

port,

A merchant ship quietly docked here.

on the deck.

Ivankov went all the way and saw the leader dragon in a dark brown coat.

in a while,

The dragon returns to the merchant ship.

Immediately, Ivankov couldn't help but ask: "Long, where is your genius son? Don't you plan to bring him to our revolutionary army? That is a peerless genius that is rare in a hundred years! Awakened overlord at the age of three. monster!"

heard,

Long shook his head, looked at the Windmill Village, his eyes were lost, and he said with emotion: "He has his own choice and his own path."

"We don't need to force it! We can't force it!"

"What does my son want to do in the future? It's up to him to decide. I won't interfere too much. As a father, I just need to bless him silently."

"And the Revolutionary Army..."

"In the end, it's up to us to lead."

The words fall.

Ivankov sighed in disappointment.

Pity!

That is a good seedling to become the top powerhouse in the sea!

A natural powerhouse!

A once-in-a-century peerless genius!

It is a terrifying monster comparable to the future naval headquarters!

Unfortunately.....

Such genius cannot join the revolutionary army.

if not,

The future of the revolutionary army is simply bright!

"Let's go."

"Next target....."

"Alabasta!"

The dragon ordered directly.

"Yes, chief."

Beside him, several revolutionary army cadres also wearing dark brown coats nodded in response.

instantly,

The merchant ships drifted away and gradually left the port of Windmill Village.

finally--

The entire merchant ship turned into a tiny black spot and disappeared at the end of the boundless sea in the distance.

Chapter 29 The plan before leaving! Get ready to kill the bandits!

□Three more□

the next day.

The sun is shining, the wind is sunny.

East China Sea.

Eighty miles north of Windmill Village.

Lu En and Ace came to a towering mountain, and their footsteps gradually stopped.

Look up and look forward.

It was a huge mountain range that stretched for hundreds of kilometers.

There are green trees, and the mountains are full of lush trees.

Occasionally, there are bursts of wild beasts roaring and roaring, sparrows sing, and they are full of vitality.

"What exactly do you want to do?"

"All the way..."

"Come here on purpose, where birds don't lay eggs."

"Is this what you call a special training method?"

Ace rubbed his slightly sore thighs, looked at Lu En with a strange look, and asked.

early in the morning,

He was taken by Lu En and ran for 80 miles from Windmill Village to the north.

Rao is Ace's strong physique, and he can't hold it anymore.

After all,

He was just a three-year-old child.

Even if he has a strong physique far beyond his peers, he can't stand Lu En's torment.

On the other hand, Lu En's face was neither red nor panting, his complexion was ruddy as always, his breathing was rhythmic, and there was no disturbance at all. This 80-mile road seemed to be walking in his own back garden.

It didn't bring any negative effects to Lu En's body at all.

Seeing this, Ace couldn't help but secretly complained.

This guy Luen...

Indeed a monster!

It's a physical monster!

Everyone is also at the age of three or four, but only Lu En, who has run for a full eighty miles, still looks like he doesn't have any physical exertion.

This made Ace feel a deep sense of powerlessness again.

"Is the gap between me and this guy really that big?"

Ace thought with some doubts about life.

He was almost exhausted himself.

And when he saw Lu En's normal appearance, Ace's heart was hit.

these days,

Because Lu En...

Ace didn't know how many times he was hit.

even,

Chapter 37:

Even his inner pride has been beaten to pieces by Lu En.

"Humph!"

"Sooner or later, I will catch up with you!"

"just wait!"

Ace gritted his teeth, reluctant to admit defeat.

Seeing that Ace was very tired, Lu En smiled, his eyes were deep, and he said with a serious face: "In two days, I will leave Windmill Village."

Immediately,

Ace's face stiffened, and his expression became a little far-fetched.

Although I have been with Lu En for a short time, it's only just over a month.

However, even Ace may not know it, he has already subconsciously regarded Lu En, whose strength is far superior to himself, as his leading brother.

After more than a month of getting along, Ace has become accustomed to following Lu En for devil-like training.

now.

When he heard that Lu En was leaving Windmill Village, it caught Ace a little off guard, and his mood became a little dull.

It's hard to find a peer...

and,

Still stronger than his peers!

but did not expect,

The other party is about to leave the Windmill Village.

Ace felt a little lonely.

"Where are you going after leaving Windmill Village?"

Ace took a deep breath, suppressed the complicated feelings in his heart, and asked.

"Marin Vando of the Navy Headquarters."

Lu En said bluntly.

"Navy Headquarters..."

"Are you going to be in the navy?"

Ace suddenly raised his head, looked at Lu En with a heart-pounding expression, and couldn't help but say, "Don't you want to be a pirate? Become a pirate king?"

"In no mood."

Lu En smiled.

One Piece?

Love who is who.

Anyway,

He doesn't care.

"In that case..."

"Then the throne of One Piece is mine!"

"Without you and me to * the throne of One Piece, I'd be almost certain!"

"If it was you who competed with me, I might not have much confidence in becoming the pirate king. However, it is fortunate that you are going to be a navy."

Ace breathed a sigh of relief.

From Lu En's body, he could almost always feel a terrifying and oppressive feeling so majestic that it was about to suffocate him.

If Lu En also wants to go out to sea and become a pirate, and his goal is to become the pirate king...

Ace may be completely desperate.

because,

From beginning to end, Ace could not find any hope of surpassing Lu En.

Lu En is a majestic mountain, and it is so heavy that it is suppressed by Ace, making it difficult for him to find a way to cross this majestic mountain.

Now,

Hearing that Lu En was going to become a navy, Ace could finally rest assured.

"Are you quite the pirate king?"

"Then you have to work harder."

"At that time, as a navy, my mission is to catch you pirates. You can count on me not to be touched by me. Otherwise, the navy prison will be waiting for you at any time!"

Lu En smiled and patted Ace on the shoulder.

"You bastard, it's like you've got me."

"I will definitely become stronger!"

"Being stronger and stronger than you!"

Ace shouted angrily.

"Really? I'll wait."

Lu En smiled, disapprovingly.

Want to surpass yourself?

It's not that simple!

Ace is getting stronger...

But yourself, will you always stay where you are?

nonexistent.

Has a ghost back system...

Coupled with a hundred-fold increase in the cultivation effect,

The speed at which Lu En's strength has become stronger is enough to make everyone in the entire sea unmatched!

"In two days, are you going to follow the old man to the naval headquarters?"

Ace asked again.

"right."

Lu En nodded, changed the subject, and casually mentioned, "I also have a stupid and stupid brother, his name is Luffy, so I will entrust you to take care of him for the time being."

"Luffy? I know, I will take good care of him, don't worry."

Ace immediately responded without hesitation.

Looked up,

He looked at the majestic mountains in front of him, and couldn't help but ask curiously: "So, today you took me all the way from the Windmill Village, and came here after a full 80 miles, just to tell me about this. ?"

"Of course not. Just before leaving Windmill Village, there are some things that make me uneasy. Therefore, I plan to completely solve these unstable factors that make me uneasy before leaving."

Lu En did not hide his purpose.

"What do you want to do?"

Ace asked.

"I heard that there is a mountain range called 'Daksen' 80 miles north of Windmill Village. There is a group of bandits living in it, the number of which is as high as 300 people, as the largest bandit nearby. group."

"I'm about to leave Windmill Village, and I really don't worry about letting this group of bandits continue to do evil."

"In case one day, he comes to Windmill Village, that group of simple villagers can't stand the tossing of these bandits. I don't expect you to be able to deal with this vicious band of bandits either. "

"I don't want to see the windmill village with simple folk customs, that group of amiable villagers suffer from these vicious bandits."

"And that's what I came here for today."

Lu En's eyes narrowed slightly.

heard,

Ace felt something in his heart and blurted out subconsciously: "You mean, before you leave Windmill Village, you want to exterminate this group of bandits?"

"good."

Lu En showed an intriguing smile.

This is the main goal of his trip to this mountain range after running a full eighty miles!

Taking advantage of this group of bandits, before they endangered the windmill village...

Get started first!

The bandit group that completely wiped out the entire mountain range! .

Chapter 30 Ace, I'll show you what a real strong man is! [Four more flowers! Ask for a ticket]

In Lu En's impression.

Windmill Village has always been peaceful, safe and peaceful.

The vicious pirates from the sea could not threaten the simple villagers of Windmill Village.

Instead...

The number of bandit groups near Windmill Village is almost endless.

Compared with the pirates, the bandits here are a higher threat to the windmill village!

Lu En vaguely remembered.

later,

Ace and Luffy will be coerced and harmed by bandits.

In order to avoid this from happening as much as possible...

Lu En decided.

Before leaving Windmill Village and heading to the Navy Headquarters, kill the bandit groups around Windmill Village!

In this way, some tragedies can be effectively avoided.

Lu En has certain feelings for these simple folk villagers in Windmill Village.

He doesn't want to see,

The amiable group of villagers were coerced by the bandits around them.

so,

Only the first strike is stronger!

Destroy all the bandits around here!

Make Windmill Village an absolutely safe area.

"As you said, there is a band of bandits with a size of 300 people here."

"You, are you going to deal with this group of bandits alone?"

Ace's eyes widened, a little worried in his eyes.

"That's what it means."

Lu En smiled and nodded.

"are you crazy?"

"A band of 300 bandits, you want to deal with it by yourself?"

"What if there is an accident?"

Chapter 38:

Ace looked shocked.

"Accident?"

"It's no surprise that I'm here."

"Only three hundred people..."

"You can rest assured."

"Later, don't blink, keep your eyes open and watch this battle!"

"And this is the main reason why I brought you here."

Lu En took a deep look at Ace with a meaningful expression.

"you!"

Ace opened his mouth, unable to speak for a while.

At this time,

Before waiting for Ace to respond,

Variation is rife!

Tatata!

A rush of chaotic footsteps came from the dim mountains ahead.

Preliminary conservative estimates...

There are no less than a hundred people!

The footsteps were thunderous and loud.

in a while,

Hundreds of bandit groups walked out of the mountains ahead.

For the first time, they saw Lu En and Ace two young figures.

"what....."

"There are actually two little white dolls here?"

"It's surprising."

"Brothers, I accidentally found two little dolls, and then I can play with them well."

Rough voices resounded everywhere.

I saw a group of bandits coming out of nowhere,

Ace's little face was white with fright, and his eyes were a bit frightened and nervous, and he subconsciously took a half step back, his hands and feet were cold.

"He, they are here!"

As if asking for help, Ace looked at Lu En's back with anxious eyes.

this moment,

Lu En's back appeared in Ace's eyes, looking extremely tall, majestic, and reassuring.

When Ace, who was in a panic at first, saw Lu En's back, it seemed as if he had grasped the backbone, and his inner fear and anxiety were gradually curbed.

"Lu En, you must be careful!"

Ace gritted his teeth, and the ninja's fear in his heart quickly reminded him.

He knows himself,

With his strength, not only can he not help Lu En, but he will most likely become Lu En's burden.

so,

He had no intention of participating in this battle.

At this time.

This group of hundreds of thieves had already fixed their eyes on Lu En and Ace, and they surrounded them step by step with malicious eyes.

in less than a moment,

About three hundred bandits completely surrounded Lu En and Ace.

airtight,

Water leaks.

These bandits looked at Lu En and Ace as if they were looking at the lambs that were about to be slaughtered, and their eyes were full of emotional fluctuations of tyranny and murder.

"How are you two little dolls! Didn't your elders tell you that this is not a place you can set foot in?"

"However, since we've all come, why don't you two little dolls take us to your village? Be a guest?"

"We will definitely keep our own feet, and we will never do anything to your village, how about that?"

Several thieves walked out of the crowd, looking at Lu En and Ace with weird smiles, and their words were full of sternness and coldness.

Bandit words,

Of course I can't believe it.

Once they do go to Windmill Village...

The consequences could be disastrous!

That group of simple and amiable villagers couldn't stand the tossing of more than 300 bandits.

"Little devil, take us to your village."

"otherwise....."

"I will kill you now!"

A burly and strong man came to Lu En and looked down at the latter condescendingly, his eyes were cold, murderous and fierce.

"Dashan, don't be so impulsive."

"But don't freak out these two little dolls..."

"Let's have a good time with these two little dolls."

"Anyway, there is a lot of time now, so don't worry."

A famous thief spoke out to dissuade him.

certainly.

They didn't feel pity for Lu En.

And purely...

They want to tease Luen and Ace.

That's all.

"Lu En..."

Ace gritted his teeth and stood behind Lu En.

"Do you know why I brought you here?"

At this moment, Lu En suddenly spoke.

His voice hovered in Ace's ears.

Ace's original fear and anxiety were swept away in an instant.

"what?"

Ace's throat was dry, his eyes were lost for a while, and he asked subconsciously.

"Next..."

"You have to look good!"

"Ace, I'll show you what a real strong man is!"

"I'll let you know."

"What kind of attitude is the powerhouse of this sea!"

"I know that sooner or later you will go out to sea. In this case, and today, before I leave Windmill Village, I will let you feel it well in advance."

"Why, strong man!"

finished speaking,

Lu En raised his right hand,

Without hesitation, he tore his shirt off with one hand.

rip-

A harsh voice sounded.

Incredibly sharp.

then,

can see,

Lu En showed his upper body full of muscular lines.

Kong Wu is powerful,

Full of explosive power aesthetics.

Gives a full visual impact.

Like a beast leopard, his body is covered with bulging muscles, and muscle lines make Lu En exude a surging sense of oppression.

full of energy,

Coercion all over the place.

in the sun,

The golden halo was imprinted on Lu En's whole body, making the muscles in his upper body more eye-catching and dazzling, attracting Ace's attention from behind.

Ace's eyes were stunned for a while, and he stared blankly at Lu En's back.

he saw...

Lu En's ghost back!

Muscles bulge all over,

The whole body is covered with muscles.

Gives an unprecedented spiritual shock!

now,

Seeing the muscular lines of Lu En's upper body, that indestructible body like a diamond, shocked Ace.

His eyes stared at the former in a daze, and his eyes were unable to move from it for a long time.

He felt from Lu En...

Full sense of security!

very reliable,

Very reassuring.

"What is a strong..."

Ace muttered to himself, muttering words in his mouth.

He was constantly recalling what Lu En said just now.

These words were already deeply imprinted in Ace's mind.

And rooted in his heart thoroughly!

Not surprisingly...

Chapter 39:

In this life, Ace must not be able to forget the words left by Lu En today.

Chapter 31 One Punch Explosion! Let's have a fun fight! [One more]

"Are you all ready?"

The shirtless Lu En, with his muscles unmistakable, was expressionless and looked at the group of more than 300 bandits in front of him.

A surging aura coercion slowly emanated from Lu En's body.

even young,

But it still brought a strong sense of oppression to all the bandits present.

"You brat..."

The burly thief standing in front of Lu En looked a little suspicious. His eyes looked strangely at Lu En's muscles, and he felt a little uneasy and uneasy for a while.

around,

Hundreds of thieves looked at Lu En with a look of surprise.

in particular.....

When he saw that Lu En's upper body was covered with muscular lines, the bandits present were deeply surprised.

"It seems that this kid is not simple."

"Not an idle person!"

"But, after all, it's just a kid with no hair at all!"

"Not enough to be afraid of!"

"Brothers, shouldn't you be frightened by this kid? No, no?"

After a short period of shock, a group of bandits burst into laughter.

"Little devil, what did you just ask us to prepare?"

The burly thief looked down at Lu En from a height, and quickly suppressed all the doubts in his heart, returning to his original contemptuous expression again.

"Naturally, to prepare you..."

"Come to lead the death!"

"Next, you all listen to me."

"One present counts as one..."

"You, none of you can escape!"

"I want to blow you up one by one!"

Lu En grinned.

A violent aura emanated from him.

sweeping all over the place,

Cover the whole place.

now,

Lu En, who is shirtless and full of muscles, seems to be a muscular tyrant.

Gives a very strong sense of oppression.

"Break us alive?"

"Little devil, how dare you say that."

"Then I will tear you apart first!"

"Go to hell!"

The burly man in front of Lu En showed a hideous smile.

He stretched out his right arm,

This huge palm was covered with calluses, and it grabbed Lu En's head fiercely, trying to crush Lu En's head and shred it on the spot.

However,

Before this slap fell.

Swish!

A soft sound.

Lu En disappeared from the spot.

without a trace,

No sound.

In place, only a vague afterimage remained.

A slap in the face...

The burly man was a little surprised, and the whole process was unexpected.

He obviously didn't expect that,

Things can suddenly change so dramatically!

Before waiting for the burly man to respond,

A dull voice came from behind his ear.

"Are you looking for me?"

the voice is flat,

But it seems to contain the momentum like a volcano that is about to erupt.

Like a repressed volcano...

An extremely violent and violent emotion was accumulated in this voice.

Like a humming beast!

With the tyranny and desire to tear apart everything in the world.

"you!"

The burly man was terrified and shuddered.

He was about to turn around,

But can only see.

A fist, infinitely enlarged from his eyes.

The fist has not come,

The fist blows.

A hurricane hit his face, rolling and blowing the man's hair. This fierce airflow, like a sharp blade, scratched his cheeks with pain.

Unable to respond all the way...

instantly,

puff!

The man's head is like a watermelon,

It exploded on the spot.

like a piece of tofu,

In an instant, it turned into a blood mist that danced in the air.

blood stained the sky,

It seems that half of the sky dome is to be rendered into a crimson sunset.

Blood spilled from the sky, splashed to the ground.

The pungent and rich  smell followed spontaneously and drifted into the distance.

ground,

Infected by bright red bloodstains, it looks like a bright red makeup has been applied to this floor, which is extraordinarily dazzling and dazzling.

thump--

A dull voice sounded.

I see,

The icy corpse of the burly man fell heavily to the ground, and a faint dust flew up wantonly.

Take a closer look,

His whole body has been withered,

No more breath of life.

The whole place was silent!

Silent!

The originally noisy and lively atmosphere turned into a dead silence.

More than 300 bandits were looking at Lu En and Ace with a playful expression, with a wild and presumptuous smile on their faces.

But right now,

The smiles on their faces all stopped abruptly and became extremely stiff.

the breeze blows,

The pungent  smell filled their sense of smell.

Let their faces show a thick color of astonishment and horror.

"What, what's going on?!"

"That guy in Dashan was actually beaten up by a punch?"

"One face-to-face, instantly killed!"

"How could that kid be so strong?!"

All the bandits present were deeply moved and gaffe.

Their eyes were full of horror at the cold corpse lying on the ground at the moment.

for a while,

A gust of cold air rose from the soles of their feet to the sky, making them only feel horrified.

at the moment,

The development of things went beyond their original expectations.

"I said it before."

"If you have one present, don't even try to run away!"

"I'm going to blow you all up alive!"

"This is just the first!"

Glancing at the cold corpse lying on the ground, Lu En turned his eyes and showed a playful smile, looking at the hundreds of horrifying bandits around him.

this moment,

The smile on Lu En's face appeared in the eyes of this group of bandits, like a devil's smile, which made them feel heart palpitations, trembling all over and hair on their backs.

"Good, very strong!"

Chapter 40:

Standing behind Lu En, Ace stared blankly at the scene where Lu En punched a bandit, and was once again shocked by Lu En's powerful strength.

A face-to-face, a bandit was instantly killed and exploded!

This scene was deeply imprinted in Ace's mind.

Lu En's strength also gave Ace a more intuitive understanding.

"Next, it's your turn."

"You guys, let's go together!"

"Otherwise, this battle will be very boring."

"Come on! Let's have a good fight!"

"Either you die, or I die!"

Lu En was like a violent beast, showing sharp fangs, and his right fist was completely infected with blood.

The fighting intent in his eyes burned like a flame.

Tick tock!

Tick tock!

...

Bright red bloodstains fell from Lu En's right hand along the trajectory.

This is blood from the enemy!

It's not the bloodstain flowing in Lu En's body.

It looks as if...

his body,

Eager to fight!

A great desire to drink the blood of the enemy!

Born to fight!

for a while,

Lu En's current expression of eagerness to fight and kill has shocked more than 300 bandits around him.

Let this group of thieves all look frightened, dare not act rashly in a short time, and act hesitantly.

Chapter 32 Push the audience horizontally! Strong as a monster!

[Second update! 3k chapter]

"superior!"

"Don't be intimidated by this * brat!"

"He's just bluffing."

"A mere kid dares to challenge our three hundred troops alone?"

"kill him!"

After a short period of hesitation, the bandits, who had a tyrannical personality, were naturally not so easily frightened. Instead, they also aroused the blood and murderous aura in their bodies.

moment,

Dozens of thieves attacked at the same time, targeting Lu En.

They each took out sharp swords.

Maces, hammers, swords, and more...

Various weapons appeared one after another, reflecting a dazzling and sharp halo in the sunlight.

About thirty bandits surrounded Lu En, and the weapons in their hands were swung down.

call out!

call out!

...

"Die!"

A thin middle-aged man showed a grim smile, and the sword in his hand slashed Lu En's head without mercy.

But at the critical moment,

Lu En's figure turned slightly to one side.

It was easy to dodge the sword.

then,

Lu En raised his right hand and grabbed the middle-aged man's arm.

a little force,

Click!

A crisp and pleasant sound followed.

Lu En's arm was crushed on the spot.

broken bones,

Burst open.

"what!"

The tingling sensation spread from the arm to the whole body, causing the middle-aged man to scream in pain, and let out a roar that made his scalp numb.

then,

The sharp saber slipped from the man's hand.

then,

Lu En lifted the middle-aged man's body abruptly with both hands, and lifted it to the top of his head effortlessly, as if lifting a weight. The man was suspended above his head and struggled constantly.

"Let go!"

"Damn brat..."

Under the trend of fear in his heart, the middle-aged man shouted with fear on his face.

However,

He couldn't control his body and was firmly grasped by Lu En.

For the powerful physique that Lu En has now.

Carrying an adult strong man is simply a simple matter.

After carrying this middle-aged man...

Without hesitation, Lu En threw him in the direction of the dozens of bandits who came.

The violent force surging like a trend continuously erupted from Lu En's body, rushing all the way to his arms, and the mighty power of both hands grabbed the middle-aged man and threw it out.

This middle-aged thief was thrown away by the terrifying force, and rolled upside down for dozens of laps all the way in the air.

boom--

Accompanied by a loud bang.

More than a dozen bandits were instantly knocked into the air, and the terrifying shock wave that hit the middle-aged man's body abruptly caused the dozen bandits to vomit blood.

Their bodies were like uprooted trees, flying backwards dozens of meters away.

puff!

puff!

blood all the way,

Blood stained the sky.

Boom!

More than a dozen bandits slammed on the ground, rubbing the sand and dust on the ground all the way, rubbing the clothes on their bodies to rubbish, and there were countless skin injuries on their bodies.

The blood is flowing, infecting the ground here just a face-to-face...

More than a dozen bandits were killed at the same time!

"Good come!"

After more than a dozen thieves, Lu En turned his eyes and looked to the other side with excitement.

next second,

He is like a beast,

The head of the stride meteor plunged into the group of bandits ahead.

In his right hand, he firmly grasped a burly thief, using the opponent as a weapon in his hand, grabbing the thief as an iron rod and sweeping towards the surrounding gang of thieves.

boom! boom! boom!

A large band of bandits were knocked away dozens of meters away, and they fell to the ground in a messed up shape, rolling and rubbing freely.

"Ah! My hand!"

"Come and save me!"

"I have broken my leg!"

"Do not!"

All kinds of screams full of pain resounded in this area.

In the blink of an eye,

More than 300 thieves suffered heavy losses, and they were close to the fate of ordinary personnel who were tragically killed by Lu En.

There are also some people who are lying on the ground with serious injuries and dying.

The ground here has already been infected with blood and turned a crimson red.

It was as if the earth was covered with a layer of light bright red makeup.

spooky,

dazzling, attention,

Creepy.

"Happy! Happy!"

"Hahaha....."

Lu En laughed out loud.

Facing the fearful eyes of the bandits, he plunged into another bandit group again.

clenched fists,

The fist with terrifying power slammed into the bandits in all directions.

Show no mercy!

Very decisive!

then.....

puff!

puff!

...

Chapter 41:

The bodies of the bandits were pierced by Lu En's fist.

Some were punched through the abdomen, some were punched through the chest, and some were smashed to pieces on the spot...

In short.

None of the bandits who were hit by Lu En were spared, all of them were killed instantly, their lives withered, and they were reduced to icy corpses lying motionless on the ground.

The blood splashed wildly, blood splattered,

Infecting Lu En's body, his body covered with muscular lines is more ferocious and terrifying, giving people a full sense of oppression.

A ghostly back,

Experienced the pouring of blood...

The remote sensing brought to people is more and more terrifying and powerful!

The pungent blood stained Lu En's upper body, and his body full of muscular lines was already full of blood from these bandits.

Tick tock!

Tick tock!

Drops of blood kept falling from Lu En's body.

Naturally, all the blood came from these bandits, not Lu En himself.

From the beginning to the end, Lu En was unscathed!

No thief could bring him the slightest threat and damage.

Lu En was like a ferocious beast, rushing through the crowd wantonly.

Wherever you go...

Corpses everywhere!

One after another, icy corpses fell one after another.

Lu En, who was naked, had a ghostly back, which made the muscle lines on his body more and more obvious.

Contaminated with blood, he looks like a muscular tyrant.

Dealing with these bandits, he kept the slightest sympathy throughout.

There is no mercy.

Violence!

bloody!

cruel!

another punch,

boom!

A sonic boom with one punch.

sharp,

harsh.

The spatial airflow in this area was smashed and torn apart by this punch on the spot.

for a moment,

This punch blew the head of a bandit.

Like a watermelon exploding,

The sky is full of blood fog, dancing gracefully.

gradually,

Lu En's footsteps stopped abruptly.

The atmosphere was dead silent!

Look around,

can be clearly seen.

Countless icy corpses lay on the ground.

There are still many bandits lying on the ground crying and screaming in pain, it seems that they are dying, and they are only half a step away from death.

rivers of blood,

Corpses are everywhere.

Lu En alone pushed all the bandits in the audience!

Kill the armor not to stay!

The thieves killed are powerless to fight back!

The whole process was unilaterally crushed by Lu En.

This was a horrific slaughter!

the breeze blows,

The air here is filled with an extremely strong pungent * smell.

There were more than 300 bandits, and nearly 200 people died.

Hundreds of people were seriously injured.

Remaining.....

The dozens of thieves who remained shivered, their faces stiffened with fear, their bodies were unable to move at all, and their bodies were shaking violently.

Looking at the * and cruel scenes around...

The courage of these dozens of thieves has been frightened.

Their lips were trembling, and their faces were pale as they looked forward to the young figure in the center of the corpse, and the fear in their hearts gradually dominated the whole body.

That young figure brought them endless oppression and fear.

Like a monster!

Terribly strong!

Powerful outrageous!

Killing blood flowed into rivers!

At the beginning, there were more than 300 people, but within a moment, they were almost killed.

"How can it be so strong?"

"He's obviously only four years old!"

"More than 300 of us were killed by a four-year-old kid?!"

They spoke in trembling voices.

If you hadn't seen it with your own eyes,

They may not even dream of it.

someday,

They have more than 300 people, and they will be killed by a three or four-year-old kid. They have no power to fight back!

The entire bandit group...

He was almost wiped out by a few-year-old kid!

Killed by force!

The surviving bandit looked at Lu En with horror in his eyes.

"You, you little bastard..."

"What kind of monster is that?!"

They've never heard of it in their life.

this world...

There are such terrifying monsters!

A four-year-old monster! .

Chapter 33 Overlord's Color Reappears! One-man group to destroy the bandits! [Three more]

"So strong!"

"too strong!"

"This guy Lu En pushes the audience like a monster."

"It's like entering the realm of no self!"

"Every punch knocked out a bandit and took away a fresh human life."

Seeing the violent and * scene in front of him brought Ace a very strong visual impact, causing his eyes to be lost for a while.

Lu En's strength was deeply engraved in his bones and deeply felt by Ace.

At this time,

A bandit silently touched behind Ace, held a sharp dagger, and put the dagger on Ace's neck, close at hand.

"Don't move!"

"Little devil, stop your behavior immediately!"

The thief stared at Lu En with a terrified face, and clearly saw Lu En with his upper body bare, revealing his muscular body, exuding an incomparable sense of oppression.

Obviously,

He has been scared to death by Lu En.

even,

He didn't even have the courage to face Lu En directly.

And having lost his courage, under the belief that he desperately wanted to live in his heart, his only option was to choose to hold Ace hostage.

Only in this way, in his opinion, he will still have a chance of life.

Anyway,

He didn't think that he could have the strength to compete with Lu En head-on.

Nearly 300 people died, the dead, the crippled...

All this just happened in half a quarter of an hour, making him feel like a nightmare.

"Little devil, I don't care how strong you are."

"You must let us go!"

"If not, I'll kill this kid immediately!"

The pirate looked at Lu En with fear on his face, and clenched the dagger in his hand, trying to negotiate with Lu En to find a way to survive.

However, it can be clearly seen from the trembling right hand of the man holding the dagger.

This person has been completely dominated by fear.

And this fear is naturally given by Lu En!

"I advise you, don't let yourself regret it."

"I just want to live..."

"I don't want to die!"

Chapter 42:

"If you let me go, I will never hurt this little brat."

"how?"

The bandit who held Ace with a dagger in hand, negotiated with a voice full of fear.

More than 300 people are almost wiped out...

He could only use Ace's life to coerce Lu En.

otherwise,

He felt like he was going to die!

Ace felt it for the first time in his life.

The taste of death...

His hair stood on end.

Feeling the cold touch from the neck, the sharp dagger, like a piece of ice for ten thousand years, constantly exudes a cold breath.

Ace's throat was dry, his lips trembled slightly, and his little face was pale.

After all,

He was just a three-year-old child.

It is natural to feel panic and panic when someone is holding a dagger around the neck.

He dared not speak.

Involuntarily, he looked at the reassuring figure not far away.

"turn out to be....."

"I'm so weak!"

This was the first time Ace hated his weakness.

Just now, when I saw Lu En kill the Quartet,

There was always an illusion in his mind.

Feel.....

If he goes on his own, he can also kill and kill!

However,

But reality gave Ace a loud slap in the face, making him wake up completely.

It also made him feel deeply.

He is too weak!

Compared with Luen,

Simply a world of difference!

The bandit group that was almost wiped out by Lu En alone, even if only one person needs to be dispatched, is enough to put him in a crisis of life and death.

By contrast,

"Lu En, this monster, I'm afraid one finger is enough to crush me to death."

Ace sighed bitterly.

at the same time.

Lu En, who was in the battlefield, turned around slowly and looked at the bandit holding a dagger to threaten Ace with a blank expression on his face.

The blood bathed on him,

A ghostly back,

The muscle lines all over the body are very obvious!

Tick tock!

Tick tock!

Bloodstains kept falling from him.

He is like a tyrant who came out of a sea of corpses and blood!

The bulging muscles were filled with bloodstains, which gave people a full sense of oppression.

"Come on!"

"I just want to live!"

"Let me go..."

Watched by Lu En's eyes, the bandit holding the dagger trembled and was terrified.

If it wasn't for the belief in his desire to live that supported him, just one look from Lu En would be enough to scare him to the ground on the spot.

Facing the scene where the bandits coerce Ace...

Lu En suddenly burst out laughing.

"Didn't I tell you?"

"All of you present today, one counts as one!"

"One, don't even try to escape!"

words fell,

I haven't waited for the bandit to respond.

Immediately after,

Lu En's slightly closed eyes suddenly opened, and his eyes looked particularly sharp.

moment,

boom--

An unparalleled surging spiritual force erupted from Lu En's body rapidly, like a detonated volcano, sweeping the mountains and seas in all directions.

to destroy,

Destruction!

The moment this spiritual power erupted from Lu En's body, it immediately transformed into a monstrous overlord.

This terrifying aura spread inch by inch.

crazy stretch,

Cover the whole place.

The earth-shattering monstrous overlord is domineering and domineering, like a surging ocean wave, with the speed of thunder, and in an instant, it has completely covered the area of a radius of 100 meters.

The invisible invisible aura showed a circular arc, with Lu En's body as the center point, spreading over a radius of hundreds of meters.

Being within the confines of this area...

All living beings were instantly crushed in spirit and consciousness, fainting on the spot and unconscious.

therefore.

can be clearly seen.

The thief who held Ace with a dagger, was forcibly crushed by the tyrannical arrogance in an instant.

As he lost consciousness, his eyes immediately turned white, foaming at the mouth, and he lost the ability to control his limbs.

Passed out on the spot.

then,

The dagger clipped to Ace's neck slid from the bandit's palm and fell to the ground.

instantly,

thump!

It was followed by a dull sound.

The thief fell to the ground, and the dust on the ground floated faintly.

unconscious...

Completely fainted.

at the same time.

The few thieves who survived by chance were all without exception, and their consciousness was crushed by Lu En's outburst of overlord.

They rolled their eyes, foamed at the mouth, and lay motionless on the ground.

thump!

thump!

...

One after another, the bandits fell to the ground one after another, unconscious.

The group of seriously injured bandits who had been screaming in pain and wailing before were also stunned on the spot, losing consciousness and lying on the ground like icy corpses.

It's just a blink of an eye.

The entire bandit group of more than 300 people was wiped out by Lu En alone!

There was never a single survivor.

Look around,

The corpses piled up like mountains,

Rivers of blood.

The bandits who fainted without panning were lying in every corner.

The pungent * smell filled the air here and slowly flowed.

The atmosphere was dead silent.

Silent!

Occasionally a little wild beast roars,

Jungle chirping.

now,

Except for Luen,

At the scene, only Ace remained awake.

Under the control of Lu En, the earth-shattering tyrannical arrogance deliberately separated Ace, and did not crush Ace's consciousness on the spot.

It can be seen from this.

Lu En's mastery of domineering and domineering has become more and more consummate.

"This, this is..."

"Is the legendary overlord arrogant?"

Seeing that the bandits who were still clamoring wildly just now were all killed in an instant at this moment, Aston was dumbfounded and dazed.

The only thing he could think of...

To be able to kill all the surviving bandits in seconds in a short period of time, only the legendary domineering tyrant is left!

Seeing the scene where the overlord seduces all the bandits in the audience at close range, Ace's mood is full of shock.

in vain!

The system prompt sounded from Lu En's head without warning.

Before Lu En could respond,

instantly.

A warm current rushed to his heart instantly, appeared out of thin air, washed his body, and transformed his internal organs, meridians, bones, and blood.

Quickly strengthen the attributes of his body.

a makeover,

Let Lu En feel the wonderful taste of becoming stronger again.

soon,

The system has been successfully remodeled.

Lu En suddenly opened his eyes, and a dazzling light flashed in his eyes.

Clenching his fists, he could feel the power in his body becoming more powerful and surging.

Although this is only a slight increase in strength,

But it can still make Lu En clearly realize that his strength has become a bit stronger!

After a long while,

He just suppressed all the thoughts in his head.

"What? Frightened?"

Raising his head, Lu En couldn't help laughing and joking when he saw that Ace's eyes were lost for a while, with that silly look on his face.

Immediately,

Ace woke up from a dream.

He subconsciously raised his hand and wiped his neck.

"stop looking."

"He's been knocked out by me."

Lu En knocked on Ace's forehead.

call!

Hearing this, Ace was finally able to exhale heavily.

Waving his sleeves, he wiped the sweat from his forehead, his pale complexion gradually turned back, and his complexion gradually became rosy.

At that moment just now,

He thought he was dead!

He is still thinking,

What will Lu En do to save himself?

But did not expect.

Lu En's way of saving himself was so simple and rude!

With only an invisible invisible aura...

Then he killed the bandit who was coercing him!

"Is this the legendary domineering overlord?"

Ace raised his head and looked at Lu En with shock and longing in his eyes.

"That's right."

Hearing that Ace mentioned the overlord, Lu En was slightly surprised, so he nodded with a smile.

"It is said that among millions of people, only one person has the potential of a king!"

"Lu En, you really are a monster!"

Ace took a deep breath.

"Don't be discouraged, in fact, you also have such potential."

"The only difference is..."

"I activated this potential earlier than you."

"Your potential is still hidden in your body and has not been activated.

When the time is right, the power in your body will naturally awaken."

Lu En came to Ace's side and spoke bluntly.

As the son of the pirate king Roger, Ace naturally has the potential to be overbearing.

There is no doubt about this.

"Do I also have the potential of a king?"

Ace clenched his fists and looked excited.

He has begun to fantasize,

Just like Lu En just now.

Effortlessly...

It instantly killed all the surviving bandits in the audience!

That scene, just imagining it, made his blood boil.

"Don't think about it, now you are still too far from these."

"How old are you?"

"Three years old is like awakening the overlord?"

"Wash and sleep..."

Lu En patted Ace on the forehead.

"But....."

Ace wanted to object.

Didn't you also awaken the overlord at the age of three?

But on second thought,

Lu En this monster...

It really can't be viewed with common sense!

Suddenly, Ace swallowed all these rebuttal remarks.

"You want to talk about me? I'm different from you."

"This sea..."

"Only me is the most special!"

Lu En laughed out loud.

The two talked for a while, but it completely resolved the panic and panic in Ace's heart.

Shaking his upper body, Lu En threw off all the blood on his body, but the blood stained on his fists could not be completely washed away.

A ghostly back,

Muscle lines all over the body bulge,

Kong Wu is powerful,

So oppressive!

Plus.....

The faint smell of blood emanating from Lu En's body added a terrifying deterrent to his whole being.

"Did you freak out just now?"

"The feeling of being held by someone with a dagger around your neck should be uncomfortable, right?"

Lu En looked at Ace.

"kindness."

Ace lowered his head, his voice was a little dull, "At that time, my head was blank and I had no choice but to let my own life be slaughtered by others."

"That feeling of powerlessness..."

"Let me truly realize that I am so weak!"

The words fall.

Lu En's eyes flickered, and he took a deep look at Ace.

Let Ace realize that he is weak as soon as possible...

This is not a bad thing.

At least,

In this way, Ace will have a target to chase in the future.

In this way, Ace can grow and become stronger!

"It also started from that moment."

"I just knew..."

"It turns out that I'm so different from you."

Ace was a little unwilling.

Next,

Lu En took Ace to deal with the remaining group of bandits, and also let Ace see blood by the way.

Gave Ace a dagger...

Test whether the opponent dares to kill the unconscious bandit.

finally--

Ace did it.

Ace, holding a dagger, solved the bandit who had been coercing him just now, learned about the opponent's life, and the dagger plunged into the opponent's heart.

In an instant,

With a large splatter of blood,

So far,

The bandit's life was taken by Ace.

reduced to a cold corpse.

"Good job."

Walking to Ace's side, Lu En couldn't help laughing at the pale face and trembling body of the former.

first murder...

Ace will inevitably have some negative effects after all.

To this,

Lu En said he could understand.

Chapter 44:

Ace and myself, after all, are different!

My first murder...

Not only did not feel panic.

instead,

Even deep in his heart, there is a violent impulse to tear everyone apart.

"You rest first, and wait for me to deal with the remaining bandits."

Lu En asked Ace to rest, while he went alone to deal with the remaining group of bandits.

After half an hour,

With blood on his hands, Lu En shook off the blood on his hands and threw it to the ground next to him.

"It's finally resolved."

After punching the head of the last thief, Lu En completely wiped out this group of thieves with a size of more than 300 people.

Destroy the entire bandit group alone!

Not one left!

Not a single fish slipped through the net!

Killed cleanly!

After cleaning up the blood on his body a little, Lu En was shirtless, revealing the upper body with a little blood on his body. His muscles were very obvious, and his back was full of oppression.

then,

He returned to Ace again.

"Let's go."

Now that the bandits here have been resolved, Lu En naturally has no need to stay here.

at last.....

All the corpses of the thieves were piled up together, and they were burned with a fire.

After doing all this,

Lu En took Ace and the two away without looking back.

The two walked farther and farther,

Go back in the direction of Windmill Village.

The fire was burning fiercely, and the gray-black mist rose up.

There was a crackling sound from the flames.

That is.....

The sound of bones being burned!

The bodies of more than 300 bandits were all burned to ashes.

After about a quarter of an hour,

Lu En and Ace stopped abruptly.

turn around,

The two looked back at the raging flames behind them.

"Ace, try to become stronger!"

"Try to chase after my back and footsteps..."

"Don't be thrown too far by me."

Looking at the dazzling fire in the distance, Lu En withdrew his gaze, patted Ace on the shoulder, and warned earnestly.

this day,

Lu En's powerful strength has left a deep impression on young Ace!

"Is this the real powerhouse?".

Chapter 35 This big brother, I will protect you all your life! [One more update! 3k chapter]

Time flickers.

Alternating day and night.

In the blink of an eye,

Two days have passed.

early morning.

A round of scorching sun was rising, hanging on the edge of the sky, and a golden halo scattered down. The warmth slowly flowed, dispelling a little water mist that remained in the air.

Early in the morning, the villagers of Windmill Village entered their busy work.

hustle and bustle,

lively,

Windmill Village, Harbor.

A huge warship was quietly docked at the port.

The sea breeze blew lightly, and the waves rippled and spread.

Whoa!

The sea slammed on the reefs of the port, making a crisp and pleasant sound, like a beautiful musical note.

A white flag hung high on the warship, shaped like a seagull, and like a scale, symbolizes the absolute fairness, justice and justice of the navy.

I see.

A young navy in navy dress is constantly busy, each carrying various goods from the port to the warehouse of the warship.

It can be seen from this.

just like,

This is the prelude to the upcoming voyage of the warship!

The materials prepared at this moment are the necessary materials for the voyage of the warship.

"Send this thing to the warehouse."

"This is the item that Lieutenant General Garp ordered. You have to handle it with care, and don't damage the items inside. Otherwise, Lieutenant General Garp will be furious and throw you to feed the fish on the spot."

"And this, and that..."

"Be careful!"

The port is full of lively and noisy, and hundreds of navies are busy with their eyebrows.

Pocato was also in it, acting as a commander, directing all the navies present to deliver goods, so busy that sweat was dripping from his forehead.

As the supreme commander of the entire warship, Garp was lying on the deck of the warship with a comfortable face, leaning against the sun lounger, lying flat, holding a glass of juice in his right hand, looking very relaxed and leisurely.

not far apart,

Lu En also stood on the deck fence of the warship, quietly looking at the busy group of navy.

Turned,

He looked at Garp, who was very comfortable, with a speechless expression on his face.

At this time,

Karp suddenly said, "Boy Luen, you have been making a lot of noise these days. I didn't expect that before you leave Windmill Village, your kid will still worry you."

Recently,

All the bandit groups near Windmill Village were annihilated by Lu En alone.

Bandits big and small...

No less than seven or eight!

In just three days, it was completely eliminated by Lu En alone.

The remaining few bandit gangs shivered and shrank in the steep mountains, and dared not go out easily, for fear of being targeted by Lu En.

Because the killing was too fierce.

resulting in...

In the past few days in Windmill Village, not even the shadow of a bandit could be seen.

Every thief hid in the ravine in fear and trembled.

They dare not go out at all.

If it weren't for the fact that these bandits started to hide, Lu En would probably kill more bandits.

Destroyed seven or eight bandit gangs...

The lives of Lu En's hands contaminated by thousands of lives have already been lost!

Seven or eight bandit gangs were all killed by Lu En.

Not one left.

These days, Lu En has almost transformed into a terrifying killing god!

It made Karp feel the fright.

afraid of...

Lu En is addicted to killing.

That would be troublesome!

As a navy, how can you kill like this?

"This kid Lu En..."

"It's completely different from the old man's character."

"It's not very similar to his Laozilong."

"It's weird, how could this kid kill like this!"

Cap was puzzled.

but.....

All Lu En killed were extremely vicious bandits, which made Garp a little relieved.

I'm afraid,

Lu En is addicted to murder and acts on ordinary civilians.

And this is not what Karp wants to see.

"But I have to admit it."

"This kid Lu En's strength has grown too fast!"

"In the blink of an eye, even if you look at the entire East China Sea, with Lu En's strength, he definitely belongs to the strong."

"As expected of the old man's grandson!"

"A once-in-a-century peerless genius!"

Karp was overwhelmed with emotion and deeply proud.

Chapter 45:

Because seven or eight bandit groups were destroyed by Lu En alone...

for a while,

There is a rumor circulating near the windmill village.

There is a top powerhouse who is chivalrous and righteous, and hates bandits. Any bandit will eventually find it difficult to escape the fate of being punished!

This rumor,

It caused countless people who had tried to join the bandit to stop, and never dared to join the bandit group to do evil.

at this time,

Lu En looked at Garp with a contented face: "Isn't it exactly what you want to solve the bandit here? Actually, you have wanted to do this kind of thing for a long time, right?"

heard,

Garp was dumbfounded: "You saw through it. Indeed, the old man has long wanted to eradicate the bandits around here. However, these bandits are like flies in the stinky ditch. Exhausted."

"If you can't solve the problem at the source..."

"These bandits can't be killed."

"So, when the old man was young and vigorous, he was impulsive once or twice. After that, he never did anything to these bandits again."

Lu En was thoughtful.

"Okay, you don't have to think about it so much, go say goodbye to Ace's bastard."

"I'm afraid you won't be able to meet for a long time to come."

"I have to say, your kid has a very good way of dealing with people. At first, this * Ace was full of hostility towards you. Now that you are leaving suddenly, this kid is full of reluctance to part with you."

Garp glanced out of the corner of the eye and saw a small beanie standing at the port.

It was Ace who came to see him off!

Before the warship is about to set sail,

There are many villagers of Windmill Village gathered in the port.

They all came here to say goodbye to Garp and Luen.

in,

Including Ace.

and also.....

The tavern owner's eldest sister, Makino, is holding Luffy in her arms.

Makino is very young now, full of youthful breath, and her face is very delicate and beautiful, exuding a unique temperament that is gentle and pleasant.

Luffy, who was in her arms, was dancing and screaming.

Ace stood beside Makino with a pair of reluctant eyes, looking at the huge warship ahead, his eyes fixed on Lu En on the deck fence of the warship.

Under the leadership of the village chief grandpa, a group of villagers came to see Lu En off specially.

"Little Luen, go to the navy headquarters to fight for our windmill village!"

"Don't listen to his nonsense. Xiao Luen remember to take care of himself and stop being bullied."

"In the blink of an eye, little Luen has also grown up. When he reaches the age of going to sea, it's really hard time."

"..."

A group of villagers were very emotional.

Warship, on deck.

Lu En looked at the amiable villagers with a smile on his face, and a wisp of warmth slowly flowed in his heart.

farther,

He also saw the Dardan gang.

Although Dadan and others did not come to the port, they came to see Lu En from afar.

At this time,

Ace, who was standing beside Makino, suddenly turned towards Lu En's direction with all his strength, his face flushed red, and he shouted for a long time.

"Lu En, you guy..."

"I'll catch up with you sooner or later!"

"You must wait for me!"

I thought this was over...

Unexpectedly,

Ace hesitated.

then,

He gritted his teeth and shouted again, "Brother!"

loud voice,

resounded everywhere.

Wandering in the huge port echoed for a long time.

A group of villagers cast smiles full of kindness.

"Ace, you kid..."

"Are you finally willing to call out Big Brother willingly?"

Lu En stood on the edge of the deck fence of the warship and smiled at Ace, whose face was flushed.

Looking at Ace, he couldn't help but meditate slightly in his heart.

Ace, the big brother you shouted today, from now on,

I will protect you forever!

You will never die young!

Even if you commit a great sin...

As your big brother, I will definitely save your life in the future!

Keep your life safe!

your brother...

I got it! .

Chapter 36 Set sail! Go to the Marine Headquarters Marine Fando!

□Second Update□

"Ace..."

"Remember to help me protect my stupid stupid brother."

Lu En stood on the deck of the warship with a smile, looking at Ace in the port not far away.

"Don't worry, he's my brother too!"

Ace nodded solemnly.

"Mr. Lu En..."

"What a gentle person."

Standing beside Ace and holding Luffy's Makino in his arms, he showed a gentle smile.

"gentle?"

Ace's mouth twitched.

He could not help but recall,

In recent days,

The scene where Lu En madly killed the bandits.

Every time, in the purest violent way, the group of vicious bandits were all destroyed!

until now,

Ace still can't forget.

Lu En was shirtless, revealing his upper body full of muscular lines and his hideous and terrifying ghost back, punching like a dragon, and frantically killing the * scene of the bandits.

Every bandit was beaten up with one punch!

bloody,

fear,

Scalp tingling.

That scene must be enough to make Ace remember deeply in this life.

"If you let those bandits know, Sister Makino, you would describe this guy Lu En as gentle..."

"I'm afraid, they will climb out of the grave and argue with you!"

"Tenderness?"

"For those bandits, Lu En is a brutal monster! A muscular tyrant!"

Ace groaned inwardly.

Soon.

Under Pocato's command,

Hundreds of navies quickly sent all the materials accumulated in the port to the warehouse of the warship.

After doing all this,

Pocato also stepped onto the warship.

Everything is ready!

Today, a large amount of materials accumulated in the warehouse of the warship can make it not a problem for the hundreds of navies of the entire warship to consume more than half a month.

"Old man, we should go."

Lu En stood on the deck and looked back at Karp lying on the sun lounger.

"No need to say goodbye to them again?"

Karp asked with a smile.

"No need."

"It's not that there is no chance to return to Windmill Village."

Lu En shook his head.

Now, he has suppressed the sadness and reluctance in his heart.

At this moment, his heart is full of expectations for the Navy headquarters.

I can't wait to be able to go to the Marine Headquarters Marine Fando immediately!

The Navy Headquarters has 10,000 possibilities to make Lu En stronger!

It can make Lu En's strength soar by leaps and bounds!

For now,

Ordinary devil-style training has been unable to support Lu En's strength by leaps and bounds.

What he wants is...

A more reasonable training method!

Chapter 46:

A more scientific training method!

And this is also the main reason why Lu En chose to join the Navy.

"System, call up the current properties panel."

After several days of fighting with bandits, Lu En's physical attributes have also ushered in a considerable improvement.

Obviously can be seen.

He is now stronger than he was a few days ago!

simply put.

Lu En's strength is changing almost every moment!

Has a ghost back system...

Plus a hundred times the increase of the cultivation effect.

Every minute and every second of Lu En's strength will usher in a certain degree of improvement.

His strength increases...

It is visible to the naked eye!

Karp is a veteran witness.

Whenever he sees Lu En's strength changing, Garp can't help but sigh.

You are still getting old!

Now in this era...

It belongs to the world of young people!

And this kid Lu En is the leader of this era!

One of the most terrifying monsters!

instantly,

In front of Lu En's eyes, his own attribute panel popped up.

[Host: Lu En]

"good."

Lu En showed a satisfied smile.

In just a few days, his strength has improved a lot.

Even if the effect of devil-style training on oneself has become minimal,

But with a hundred-fold increase in cultivation effect...

However, he can still make his own strength soar in a range beyond the comprehension of ordinary people! .

Next,

Under the eyes of Ace and his fellow villagers.

"set sail!"

Garp stood up slowly from the sun lounger and raised his arms.

With Garp's order.

All the navies responded.

Immediately after,

The entire huge warship, under the control of a group of navies, gradually began to set sail.

set sail, out to sea.

The sea breeze came.

Whoa!

The calm sea caused waves of rippling waves, and the waves crashed and washed the reefs on the edge of the port. They picked up the sea and danced in the air, reflecting the golden halo scattered around the sky.

gradually,

The entire huge warship drove away, completely away from the port of Windmill Village.

The distance from the windmill village is getting farther and farther.

The warship pushed aside the sea water on both sides, rippling waves of waves.

Whoa!

The crisp and melodious sea water slams against the coast, and there are beautiful notes that are very beautiful.

port.

Ace, Makino, and their group of villagers, headed by the village chief grandfather, and all the members of the Dadan family who did not come to the port not far away.

They all watched the huge warship gradually leave.

"We must win glory for our Windmill Village!"

"Little Luen, remember to come back to see us often when you have time."

"If you suffer and suffer outside, the Windmill Village welcomes you at any time!"

"..."

A group of villagers showed their sincerity and watched the warship leave with emotion on their faces.

"Lu En, wait for me!"

"I will go to sea sooner or later."

"By the time....."

"I will definitely find you! You and I will fight again!"

"At that time, the one who wins must be me!"

Ace clenched his fists with determination.

"Yeah ah~"

Xiao Luffy was held in Makino's arms, using his hands and feet together, dancing with his hands and feet, and a melodious laughter like a silver bell came out, as if he was saying goodbye to his grandfather and eldest brother with a smile.

"Little Ace, let's go back."

Watching the warship gradually turn into a small black spot, Makino said to Ace beside him.

"kindness."

Ace Zheng nodded.

He glanced again at the boundless sea.

In his eyes,

visible,

The warship that carried grandfather Garp and eldest brother Luen had completely disappeared at the end of the distant sea, and the warship could no longer be captured.

then,

Ace, who watched the warship completely leave the waters here, slowly turned around, and with a determined look, followed Makino back to Windmill Village.

The amiable group of villagers at the port, under the leadership of the village chief, also dispersed and returned to their respective posts to carry out their busy work.

this day,

It is the year 1505 of the Haiyuan Calendar,

Just in the middle of July.

Lu En followed Karp to officially set off for the Marine Headquarters

Marine Fando! .

Chapter 37 The genius of hard work! The chain effect of genius! [Three shifts! 3k chapter]

Four days later.

Blue sky, clear sky.

A round of scorching sun hangs on the edge of the sky, scattered with golden halo.

The meaning of warmth flows slowly.

The little mist that remained in the air was completely evaporated by the warm sunlight.

Whoa!

The sea breeze blew lightly, and waves of ripples spread on the calm sea.

An incomparably huge warship passed through the endless sea, pushed aside the seawater on both sides, picked up the water stains and flew into the air to dance gracefully.

As the sea breeze blows, the white seagull flag hanging high is very eye-catching in the sunshine from all directions.

That white seagull flag...

It represents the overlord of the sea!

Wang Yang's boundless sea could not find any reference.

Only by recording the pointer can the warship be guided to an island where people live.

Once you lose your sense of direction in this sea, it is a very scary thing, and you may even be completely buried in this sea because of your sense of disorientation.

Every year, someone will be buried in the sea with this method of death. certainly.

The most dangerous in this sea, the number one is the sea king!

Sea kings are a unique and powerful species of life. They inhabit the deep sea and occasionally surface to the surface to experience the hot sun.

And the powerful species of life such as the sea kings, in this endless sea, there are simply countless, and the number of hunted and killed is far less than their reproduction.

therefore.

When sailing on this sea with a sailboat, the thing people fear most is to encounter a sea king!

this time,

Under the sea area where the huge warship passed through, you could see many dark figures, very large in size, passing recklessly through the dark and deep cold.

They are the sea kings that make countless creatures in the sea terrified!

Each sea king has a huge body size of no less than ten meters!

Move your body a little,

That's enough to trigger a series of mini-tsunami disasters!

at this time.

huge warship,

on the deck.

Karp was lying on the sun lounger and sleeping soundly, a large bubble was exhaled from his nose, and he was snoring, like a thunderous snoring sound resounding all over the deck of the warship.

The warm sunlight shone down, illuminating Kapurna's burly body.

Chapter 47:

just like,

He is enjoying the sun bath.

No one dared to disturb the sleeping Garp.

Even Pocado, who was Garp's confidant and subordinate, stood far away on the other side of the warship, as if he was afraid that he would wake Garp, who was asleep.

Only Lu En remained on the empty deck.

and.....

At this moment, he is constantly training hard.

"Two thousand nine hundred and ninety-third!"

"Two thousand nine hundred and ninety-fourth!"

"Two thousand nine hundred and ninety-five!"

"..."

I saw that Lu En's body was already covered with countless weight training equipment.

He was shirtless, with no clothes on his upper body, revealing his muscular body.

The back muscles are more ferocious and obvious,

A ghost back...

Gives a full sense of oppression!

at this time,

Lu En, who is in training state, has a load of no less than 300 kilograms on his body!

Yes!

With 300kg of weight-bearing equipment hanging, Lu En still did nearly 3,000 push-ups in just one hour.

This kind of training intensity can be called the devil...

Let all the navies on the entire warship have to express their admiration from the heart.

Even Pocato was amazed at Lu En's hard work.

these few days,

All the navies on the whole ship have seen Lu En's respect for cultivation!

Once you enter the state of cultivation...

Lu En is simply crazy!

Do not practice like a life!

It's just like.....

As long as you don't die,

Practice to the death!

With such a terrifying training intensity coefficient, even Pocato, an elite and strong man in the navy, felt his scalp numb, and he didn't dare to follow Lu En's training mode at all.

Now,

Pocato finally understood.

why...

Lu En's strength can achieve such a rapid increase and rapid progress!

only because,

The training method of this monster Lu En is really cruel!

gradually,

Hundreds of navies of the entire warship secretly gave Lu En a nickname.

They refer to Luen as...

Hardworking genius!

A genius with a unique talent that is rare in a century, far from being complacent. On the contrary, he has also spent far more sweat and time than everyone else to cultivate.

This is the true genius!

Deserving of everyone's respect!

Ordinary geniuses become very lazy when they hold themselves to have a good talent and aptitude.

And Lu En is completely different...

He obviously has a world-shattering talent far beyond everyone in the sea!

But he still worked harder than ordinary people, devoting a lot of time to hard training.

Amazing talent coupled with hard work...

This convinced all navies of the entire warship.

Lu En, he will definitely become a famous top powerhouse in the future! even,

Inherited the hero name of Lieutenant General Garp.

Become the new hero of the new age navy!

Over the past few days,

They can see almost every day that Lu En is in the process of practicing hard day and night.

rose earlier than them, sleep later than them.

Such amazing perseverance...

It really opened their eyes.

It also makes them feel ashamed.

after all.

Even a peerless genius like Lu En, who can be called a once-in-a-hundred-year-old genius, put so much time and sweat into his crazy training.

Just ask,

They were already mediocre in talent,

How can you continue to be lazy?

"Mr. Lu En has an unparalleled talent that I can't wait for! But he still works so hard, it really makes me ashamed."

"In contrast, we have neither such amazing talent nor such strong perseverance as Mr. Lu En. No wonder we are a group of weak people, we really deserve it!"

"If it is said that a genius like Mr. Lu En cannot become a strong man. Then, looking at this sea, I am afraid that there will be no second person who is qualified to become a strong man."

"This is the real monster! A well-deserved peerless genius!"

"Obviously possessing a world-shattering and unparalleled talent, and still practicing extremely hard day and night, how can this make people like me who are mediocre in talent and lazy in temperament suffer?"

"..."

then,

The atmosphere of the whole warship was driven by Lu En to become positive.

In layman's terms it is...

They were killed by Lu En!

watching,

As a peerless genius, Lu En worked so hard!

All the navies of the entire warship had to grit their teeth and force themselves to devote themselves to their own training.

A once-in-a-century genius is working hard to cultivate,

Where do they come from to be lazy?

"Is this the chain effect of genius?"

Seeing a group of navy clenching their teeth and cultivating hard, the sergeant Pocato, who was the second commander of the entire warship, couldn't help but be amazed.

Looking around,

He looked to the other side of the deck, looking at the young figure who was still cultivating, his eyes were full of deep admiration.

"This is the rhythm of young people who are going to completely kill this sea?"

"These days, even geniuses have worked so hard..."

Pocato's expression was weird, and he couldn't help but complain for a while, "How can those people who are so mediocre in their aptitudes be so embarrassed?"

"Originally, they have been unable to keep up with the genius."

"Not to mention, geniuses are now working harder than them."

"They, I'm afraid they are going to be completely desperate, right?"

secretly,

Even he felt a little bit of pressure, and he could not wait to immediately enter the training and join the group of navy groups who worked hard to cultivate.

Thinking of this, Pocato couldn't help but let out a wry smile.

obviously.

The current atmosphere of the entire warship...

He was completely crooked by Lu En alone!

This is the influence of genius! .

Chapter 38 The Six Forms Cultivation is extremely difficult, are you ready? [Four shifts! 3k chapter]

"Two thousand nine hundred and ninety-ninth!"

"The third thousand!"

call!

Lu En exhaled heavily, dragged his tired body, felt the pain from his muscles, and fell down on the deck next to him.

Relax your limbs, exhausted.

Carrying a full weight of 300 kilograms on his shoulders, it brought enormous pressure to Lu En.

If it weren't for the 300kg load on his shoulders and the mere 3,000 push-ups, it would naturally not be difficult for him.

Tick tock!

Tick tock!

...

Sweat dripped slowly from Lu En's forehead, slipped down on both sides of his cheeks, and fell on the deck, like a downpour, falling madly.

one look,

Lu En was already sweating profusely.

Three thousand push-ups with a weight of three hundred kilograms made Lu En feel his limit.

Physically exhausted...

He fell into an unprecedented state of weakness.

but,

Chapter 48:

His strong physical fitness is frantically replenishing his physical strength, allowing him to return to his heyday in the shortest possible time.

Although a little tired,

However, Lu En was deeply intoxicated by the unprecedented sense of fulfillment after training.

Every training...

All means that their own strength can be effectively improved!

This is the speed of strengthening visible to the naked eye!

It is for this reason that Lu En was able to persevere and practice almost day and night.

Just as he was lying on the deck to rest, the system's prompt sounded without warning.

[A total of gains in this practice: strength +0.004, speed +0.002, physical strength +0.003! □

[After a 100-fold increase in the training effect...]

[The host can obtain: Strength +0.4, Speed +0.2, Stamina +0.3! □

In an instant,

As soon as the sound of the system fell, a warm current appeared out of thin air, quickly flushing the internal organs of Lu En's body, transforming his body's bones, blood, etc.

Lu En's physical strength had bottomed out after going through a devil-like training.

But at this moment, the warm current that emerged from the system transformed his body, but his physical strength recovered rapidly.

Not only did physical strength recover...

Physical strength, speed and other attributes have been greatly improved!

After a while,

The system has been transformed,

Lu En could feel it.

Become stronger again.

He clenched his fists and felt the surging power in his body.

Even the tired feeling that had swept his body and mind seemed to be dispelled a lot.

Muscle soreness disappeared completely.

Every time the devil training, all the negative states of Lu En will be swept away with the transformation of the system.

And this is the main reason why Lu En can keep insisting on the devil's training.

He doesn't need to worry at all,

Due to excessive training for a while, any hidden injuries and hidden dangers appear in the body.

As long as there is a system modification...

He will never leave a dark injury due to training!

"System, bring up the properties panel."

Lying on the deck, Lu En recovered a little of his mobility, so he meditated in his heart and checked his current attribute panel.

[Host: Lu En]

[Strength: 24.7 (+2.1)]

[Speed: 21.5 (+1.6)]

[Physical Strength: 26.2 (+2)]

[Mental Power: 14.1 (+0.4)]

[Ghost Back Completion: 10.38%]

[The overall improvement of the current training effect: 100 times! □]

This is the overall gain that Lu En has obtained after going through the devil's training again and again in four days.

In just four days, Lu En's strength became a lot stronger.

Not only the strength, speed and physical strength are improved.

Lu En still felt it.

The domineering arrogance that he has mastered is also rising steadily!

With the improvement of mental power, the intensity of the overlord's domineering has also become higher and higher.

In general.

In the past four days, Lu En didn't waste every minute at all!

Starting from the windmill village in the East China Sea, it took four full days to sail on the sea, and the entire warship is now infinitely close to the great channel.

These four days have been unimpeded all the way, but I have not encountered too many obstacles.

For such a huge warship, no pirate group has the courage to take the initiative to attack.

Occasionally on the way, I will encounter some very few pirate groups with a reward of over 10 million.

Karp naturally didn't need to do it himself.

Instead, it was left to Lu En to solve the problem alone.

therefore.

Down this way,

With all the calculations, Lu En solved a total of three pirate groups with a bounty of over 10 million Berry.

Sink them all strongly in this endless sea.

From the beginning to the end, Lu En remained unscathed.

It can be seen from this.

These so-called big pirates with a bounty of over 10 million Berry actually pose almost no threat to Lu En.

four days,

The warships crossed nearly four or five islands one after another.

Let the entire warship have already sailed from the East China Sea to the junction of the East China Sea and the Great Channel.

The navy's warships travel through the Great Channel from the East China Sea, and they don't need to go through the reverse current of the Upside-Down Mountain, like the Pirates, to enter the Great Channel from the East China Sea.

Navy warships have a most special place.

That is.....

Can traverse the windless belt!

And this is the technology that the pirate ship cannot achieve.

The Navy has a peerless scientific genius, Dr. Vega Punk, who is five hundred years ahead of current technology.

After the research of Dr. Bergapunk,

The Navy has created a warship that can traverse the windless belt!

Not only can it traverse the windless belt, but it will not be attacked by any sea kings.

It is this special technology that makes the navy's shuttle between the East China Sea and the great waterway extremely easy and simple, and there is no need to follow the pirate ship's step-by-step approach to the upside-down mountain.

To know.

The number of sea kings living in the windless zone is simply countless!

There are countless great dangers hidden inside.

Even the top powerhouses of the sea would not dare to easily steer their ships across the windless belt.

However,

The Navy has no such concerns.

The bottom of the navy warship uses a very special material, which will not attract the attention of the sea kings, and it will also make the sea kings deeply disgusted by it, so naturally they will not attack the warship.

In this way, there is basically no threat of warships crossing the windless belt.

"According to the originally planned sailing route..."

"Now, the warship should be about to leave the East China Sea and enter the great waterway."

Lu En put his hands on the deck and stood up slowly from the deck.

in the sun,

His upper body is covered with muscle lines, his muscles are bulging, and his back is like an indestructible diamond, giving people a visual impact with a very muscular beauty.

Every muscle seems to contain a terrifying power that can destroy the world.

Like a long-depressed volcano!

Once it erupts,

It will be rock-shattering!

Looking around,

Lu En looked at Karp, who was sleeping soundly on the sun lounger not far away, and shook his head helplessly.

"During the time I went to Marine Fando at the Navy Headquarters, I was idle anyway."

"It's better than..."

"Let the old man teach me some useful practical skills for the time being."

"Just like, Navy Six!"

Lu En's eyes flashed, and a look of anticipation appeared on his face.

Marin van Dou is at the end of the first half of the Great Passage.

It takes a lot of time to travel from Donghai to Marinfando.

During this time, Lu En didn't want to waste it at all.

As for the sixth form of the Navy, he has always wanted to master it!

Just do it.....

then,

Holding his inner thoughts, he stepped forward without hesitation.

Wake up Garp, who was sleeping.

Raising his hand and rubbing his eyes, Karp's face was still a bit sleepy, his eyelids dropped slightly, he glanced at Lu En, yawned, and asked,

"What's the matter with the old man?"

Looking at Garp with a comfortable face, Lu En didn't swerve, just got straight to the point, and said, "Old man, I want to learn the six naval styles."

"kindness?"

Karp slowly opened his eyes, a little surprised, and looked at Lu En with a little surprise.

See Lu En's determined face.

Think again and again,

Karp was a little hesitant, his brows furrowed, and he couldn't help but ask again: "Are you sure? Before practicing the Sixth Form of the Navy, the old man had to tell you in advance."

"The training of the Sixth Form of the Navy is extremely difficult, are you mentally prepared?".

Chapter 39 The first contact with the six naval styles! Six-point gun!

[Five more! 3k chapter for flowers! Ask for a ticket]

The Sixth Form of the Navy is the most widely used combat technique in the Navy!

basically,

But all the elites in the navy have more or less mastered some of the six types of the navy.

From this it can be seen that

Chapter 49:

How important is the Navy Type 6 in the Navy.

Although the six styles can play very little role in high-end battles. But no one can deny that the Navy Type Six is indeed the cornerstone of the Navy.

Can be used to improve the overall strength of the navy!

To know.

Two-color domineering, not everyone can master the cultivation.

As such,

The importance of the Navy Sixth Form has become even higher!

As long as they practice hard, every navy can master the six naval styles.

In this case, there are tens of millions in the navy, if everyone can master the six styles.

unimaginable.

What a huge and terrifying force it was.

As the founder of the Sixth Form of the Navy, Karp's mastery of the Sixth Form is naturally at its peak.

In fact,

What Karp has mastered is not the Navy Six, but the Navy Nine.

only.....

The other three combat skills are too lethal and extremely difficult to cultivate, and they do not have the ability to popularize the entire navy, so they have to be shortened to the sixth form of the navy.

"Have you seen the Pocato guy?"

Karp raised his finger and pointed to Pocato, who was not far away, and said bluntly, "This guy spent two years practicing the six naval styles, and finally he managed to master all the six styles."

"The reason why I tell you so much is to make your kid mentally prepared."

"Although the sixth form of the Navy is not as difficult to cultivate as the two-color domineering, it is also a powerful combat technique that requires many years to master."

"If you have a contempt for the Six Forms, then this old man has to advise you not to waste too much time here."

If.

Two-color domineering is the cornerstone of the Navy's high-end combat power.

So.

The Sixth Form of the Navy is the foundation of the naval mid-level combat power!

and.....

It is the power that every navy can master!

"In the old man's impression."

"Back then, even that kid, Qingzhi, spent a full four months in order to cultivate the Sixth Naval Form before he could fully master the Sixth Naval Form."

"And this is the fastest record for mastering the Sixth Form in the Navy Headquarters!"

"The little ghost Qingzhi is full of talent, even if he doesn't have that natural devil fruit, he can still be called a top powerhouse."

"But even him, it took four months to cultivate the Six Forms."

Karp took a deep look at Lu En and solemnly reminded him.

Aokiji, Vice Admiral of the Navy Headquarters.

Natural Frozen Fruit Ability!

Extremely powerful!

Belongs to one of the strongest monsters in this sea.

Even if he has not yet become a general, Qingzhi's combat power is still very terrifying.

Everyone in the Navy can speculate.

Aokiji will become an Admiral of the Navy Headquarters, and it is already a certainty.

"The old man asks you again, are you sure you still want to learn the Sixth Form of the Navy?"

Karp asked.

"study."

Lu En nodded without hesitation.

"it is good!"

Karp showed a sighed smile and continued to say, "Even if you are talented, you have an unparalleled talent that is rare in a century."

"But the old man has to remind you."

"If you want to completely master the Sixth Form of the Navy, you have to spend at least three months!"

"For this, you have to prepare mentally in advance, and don't give up halfway."

He is looking forward to it,

Lu En refreshed the record of Qing pheasant mastering the sixth naval style!

He believes,

With the peerless talent of his grandson Lu En, isn't it a matter of course to surpass Qingzhi?

certainly.

How much can it surpass Aokiji?

Then it is unknown.

Next,

Karp slowly stood up from the sun lounge and brought Lu En to the open and spacious deck.

Against the golden sunlight scattered in the sky,

Karp began to cycle gradually, giving Lu Ep a lot of introductions to the Navy's Sixth Form.

"The six types of naval forces combine attack, defense, evasion, aerial combat, close combat, and long-distance combat. I can say with certainty that, looking at this sea, there is no actual combat skills that can be compared with our six types of naval combat."

"It also doesn't have any actual combat skills, which can be more comprehensive than the Navy's Sixth Form."

"In the future, even if you have mastered the other two types of domineering, once you are in battle, the Sixth Naval Style can still bring you a lot of help."

"Six moves, as the name suggests, there are six moves."

"Respectively..."

"Melee, finger gun!"

"Fight from afar, Lanjiao!"

"Defense, iron!"

"Attack, shave!"

"Air combat, Moonstep!"

"Dodge, paper painting!"

"This is the synthesis of the six styles."

"Once you master the Six Forms, it will also mean that you will no longer have any shortcomings in various battles from now on. All the shortcomings will be made up for by the Six Forms..."

After speaking,

Karp walked over to the fence on the deck of the warship.

The steps stopped abruptly,

He stood in front of a thirty-centimeter-thick plank.

"Next,"

"The old man will let you have a good look at the actual combat effect and destructive power of the Navy's Sixth Form."

"See clearly!"

"This is the six-type finger gun!"

"Gather the strength of the whole body on the index finger, and release a blow with the hardened finger between the electric light and flint. The fingertip has the attack power of a bullet, which can easily penetrate the human body, as fast as a bullet! It is hard to prevent!"

words fell,

Garp focused his power on his index finger.

then,

With one finger, he gently touched the thirty-centimeter-thick board ahead.

moment,

puff!

A faint voice sounded.

I see,

The thirty-centimeter-thick wooden board was easily pierced by Garp's index finger, like a bullet, penetrating the entire board and penetrating it completely.

Even if Garp seemed to be, he just casually touched his index finger forward.

touch lightly,

The board is like a piece of tofu.

Got punched with a finger!

Except for a bullet-like perforation, there were no traces in the whole process, and the wooden board did not produce any cracks.

visible.

This finger has a very strong penetrating power!

All the power in one place!

The power did not spill out at all...

therefore.

This blow just pierced a hole without causing damage to other positions on the board.

"Did you see clearly?"

"This is the effect and destructive power of the Six-Type Finger Gun used in actual combat."

"More powerful than bullets! And faster!"

"In the next period of time..."

"You can concentrate on practicing the six-style pointing gun."

"When you master the finger gun, the old man will teach you other tricks of the Six Forms. As the saying goes, you can't chew too much. Don't be too ambitious, you kid."

Karp thinks.

Even with Lu En's world-shattering talent, if he wants to fully master the finger gun, he probably needs to wait until a week and a half later.

By that time...

They have all arrived at the Marine Headquarters Marine Fando.

At that time,

Karp will throw Lu En directly to the general Zefa and let the other party teach Lu En.

Although Zefa is not as powerful as Garp, he has the ability to teach the navy that Garp can't match.

"Finger gun..."

Lu En's eyes narrowed slightly, and he kept reminiscing about the scene in which Karp mobilized his energy and gathered his index finger and pierced the template with one finger.

gradually,

He also slowly raised his right hand, raised his index finger, manipulated the power in his body to gather it in the index finger, and concentrated the gathered power on one finger.

Everything was going well...

at critical moments,

Chapter 50:

Lu En could feel that the strength of his index finger was lost.

finally,

All this power dissipated.

So far,

The first use of the finger gun ended in failure.

"Don't be too hasty."

"You're still young..."

"Even if it takes half a month to practice the finger gun, it will have little effect on you."

Karp laughed and patted Lu En on the shoulder.

Just when Lu En was about to use his finger gun for the second time.

Without warning...

in vain!

The sound of the system sounded from his head.

[Total obtained in this practice: Six-style finger gun skill +0.01! □]

[After a 100-fold increase in the training effect...]

[Host can get: Six-style finger gun skill +1! □]

boom--

A completely unfamiliar amount of memory poured into Lu En's mind like a trend.

His head is like a sponge,

Continue to absorb these extra memories in my head out of thin air. these memories...

It's all about how to use the six-type finger gun!

It was as if he took out the methods and skills of the Six Forms from other people's heads, and forced them into Lu En's head.

thereby,

Let Lu En master the six-style finger gun out of thin air!

Everything is like an innate instinct.

Familiar with the road...

Unobstructed!

this moment,

With the complete fusion of the unfamiliar memory generated out of thin air in his head, Lu En felt extremely familiar with the use of the Six-Style Finger Spear!

This familiarity is like...

Has been cast thousands of times like the finger gun!

It's like an instinct carved into the bones!

then.....

With countless memories that just melted into my head,

In front of Karp,

Without hesitation, Lu En used his finger gun again.

Chapter 40 Karp: What the heck? Did you learn it by watching it? [One more]

Close your eyes slightly...

According to the memory just melted into my head!

Concentrate all your strength on your arms.

then.....

Strength gathers between the index fingers.

Concentrate the power continuously,

Concentrated to the extreme!

finally--

One finger sticks out!

call out!

Accompanied by a high-pitched piercing sound.

Lu En suddenly opened his eyes, and his eyes flashed with a bright light.

I see,

His index finger was aimed at the thirty-centimeter-thick plank in front of him, and with lightning speed, he cut through the airflow in the space at an extremely fast speed, and hit the plank ruthlessly.

moment,

puff!

A faint thud.

The voice sounded, wandering all over the place.

The index finger seemed to pierce a piece of tofu.

Lu En didn't burst out with too much power during the whole process, but he just concentrated his power on the tip of his index finger and touched the board lightly.

That's all!

However,

With this light touch, a finger pierced through the 30-centimeter-thick wooden board on the spot, directly piercing the board through a ferocious hole like a bullet hole.

A hole the size of an index finger ran through a distance of thirty centimeters, piercing the entire board.

The second hole looks like a bullet hole...

This appeared in Karp's eyes.

Slowly retracting his index finger, Lu En looked at Karp and smiled: "I think, I should already know how to use the finger gun, and I have mastered the six-style finger gun."

now,

Garp was dumbfounded, dumbfounded.

He widened his eyes and stared blankly at the second bullet hole-like hole left on the wooden board.

Others are stupid.

"What?"

"what's going on?"

"This kid Lu En..."

"Is this mastering the finger gun?!"

"I just watched the whole process once, so I have mastered the skill of using the finger gun?"

"how is this possible?!"

Cap was taken aback.

He thought,

No matter how talented his grandson Lu En is, if he wants to completely master the finger gun, it will take at least half a month of training.

But finally...

He could never have imagined.

In just a short moment,

As soon as he used the pointing gun, Lu En immediately followed suit, and successfully used the pointing gun!

If he hadn't seen it with his own eyes, Karp would never have believed such a bizarre phenomenon.

For the first time, I saw the use of the finger gun...

then,

It was only a few breaths before and after.

The other party has completely mastered the trick of pointing the gun!

Just ask,

What an astonishing talent is this? !

Rao is that Karp can't imagine it.

This talent is too amazing!

The Finger Spear of the Sixth Form, although it is not the most difficult to cultivate among the Sixth Form.

However, in just an instant, the finger gun was mastered.

This still left Karp in disbelief.

"You, your kid..."

"Could it be that you have been in contact with the Navy Sixth Form before?"

Karp's throat was dry, he stared at Lu En with wide eyes, and blurted out subconsciously.

heard,

Lu En couldn't help rolling his eyes: "Old man, have I ever been in contact with the Navy Sixth Form before? Don't you know? You are my guardian!"

words fell,

Karp just woke up from a dream.

yes!

He has always been Lu En's guardian.

If Lu En really had contact with the Sixth Naval Style, then as a guardian, it is impossible for him not to know.

so.....

today,

This kid Lu En is indeed the first time he has come into contact with the Sixth Naval Style!

It was only the first time I came into contact with the 6-style Navy, and I mastered the 6-style finger gun in an instant!

"This this!"

"This talent..."

For a moment, Garp was speechless.

Even he couldn't think of any words to describe and describe Lu En's amazing talent!

Amazing!

It's too incredible!

Even Garp, who has been able to keep his face unchanged even when faced with life and death countless times, was frightened by the amazing talent displayed by Lu En at this moment.

"Lu En, you kid..."

"Surely a genius!"

"A once-in-a-century peerless genius!"
