Once through the pirates, Lu En became the son of Monkey d Dragon, a grandfather named Monkey d Karp, and an unreliable and neurotic younger brother named Luffy.

Fortunately, the ghost back system is activated!

The completion of the ghost back is 10%, and the training effect is increased by 100 times!

The completion of the ghost back is 20%, and the training effect is increased by 1000 times!

One day, Lu En, a ghost-backed master, appeared in front of Luffy who was shouting to go to sea, and made Luffy cry on the spot.

Luffy: "The pirates in the sea are all monsters like my brother? I don't want to go out to sea!"

Garp: "For a long time, the two boys, Long and Luffy, with small arms and calves, I really doubt that they are not my sons and grandsons. Like Lu En, they are the grandsons of the old man!"

Warring States: "The strongest creature in the sea, land and air is Kaido? No, it's Lu En!"

Chapter 51:

quite a while,

Karp looked at Lu En with a complicated expression, and was amazed.

In the beginning,

He also planned to use a finger gun to fool Lu En and let Lu En practice for half a month. When he arrived at Marine Fando of the Navy Headquarters, he could be a hands-off shopkeeper and throw Lu En directly to Zefa for teaching.

He believed.

With Zefa's talent, Lu En will definitely be able to teach Lu En in a better way.

Unexpectedly,

Lu En's talent is too strong!

strong to...

See through the mystery of the finger gun at a glance!

At the first contact, I immediately mastered the knack of the finger gun, and can also use the finger gun extremely skillfully!

All of this was completely unexpected to Karp.

this moment,

Karp was deeply aware.

The amazing talent possessed by his grandson Lu En...

Far more terrifying than I imagined!

"Is it difficult for the Navy Sixth Form?"

"It seems simpler than I thought."

Lu En smiled.

heard,

Karp was speechless, silent.

It was the first time he had heard someone say...

Cultivating the Six Forms of the Navy is very simple!

The key is,

He couldn't refute it yet.

after all.

Lu En in front of him really has the qualifications to say this.

this monster...

Just read it once, and immediately mastered the six-style finger gun!

"You are even better than that kid Aokiji!"

"The old man has a hunch."

"You, you will definitely set the record for the fastest mastering time of the Navy's Sixth Form!"

"even,"

"From now on, no one will be able to break the record set by you brat!"

Karp had a very strong feeling in his heart.

call!

Gently exhaling, he forcibly suppressed many complex emotions in his head.

Looked up,

He looked at Lu En with a serious look on his face: "The Finger Spear of the Sixth Form is the lowest cultivation threshold among the Sixth Forms of the Navy. Next, this old man will teach you the most difficult of the Sixth Forms to cultivate."

"The Moon Step of the Six Forms!"

"I hope you, don't be complacent."

"You can master the finger gun, which may only mean that you have a unique and shocking talent in power control."

"But it doesn't mean that when you practice the other six styles, you can still master all the remaining five styles just by reading it once."

Next,

Karp began to perform the Moon Step of the Six Forms himself, and explained to Lu En how to perform the Moon Step.

"The Moon Step of the Six Forms is a powerful airborne technique.

Stepping on the air with strong foot force produces a strong airborne force. You can walk in the air like stepping on stairs, but you cannot stay in the air for too long."

"After mastering the moon step, you can freely change your position in the air. Moreover, you can also use this high-altitude movement technique to launch extreme attacks from the enemy's blind spot."

"Moon step is the most difficult combat technique in the six-style, and it belongs to the extension of the six-style shaving."

"Having mastered the moon step, you will no longer have to worry about encountering enemies who can fly. The moon step is the most practical skill among the six styles..."

After talking about the many introductions about the moon step.

Immediately after,

Karp exemplifies this.

Lu En stood aside and listened quietly.

...

(PS: The first update! Ask for flowers, evaluation tickets, monthly ticket support! Thank you!).

Chapter 41 I firmly believe that Lu En is a very scary genius! [Second update! 3k chapter]

As Karp said.

The Moon Step of the Sixth Form is the most practical fighting skill in the Sixth Form!

Able to achieve short-term stagnation...

To deal with enemies who can fly, the moon step is the best way!

It can effectively make up for the lack of air combat.

also,

When fighting with the enemy, you can also rely on the moon step to achieve a second turn in the air, making the enemy hard to guard against.

Moon step is one of the six moves that Lu En is most eager to master.

In addition to the moon step, what he wants to master is shaving!

There are only these two, so he can't forget them.

now,

Finally got what I wanted!

For the remaining four and six styles, Lu En had a dispensable attitude.

certainly.

If you can.....

After mastering the Sixth Form of the Navy, he wanted to master further.

Life is returned!

This is also an extremely powerful divine skill!

Being able to freely control every limb, internal organs, hair, etc. of the body is the role of life return, and it can play a very high role in actual combat.

Next,

Lu En quietly watched Karp's moon step.

visible,

foot on the air,

Garp's figure soared into the air.

walk in the air...

This is the main function of the moon step.

Not for offense, not for defense.

It just can make people increase the ability to stay in the air and the ability to fight in the air.

This alone is still enough to make the practicality of the moon step at the top of the six styles.

...

Stepping on the air, Garp stepped on a piercing sound like a sonic boom.

His figure was madly walking in the air, stepping on the air and constantly changing the direction of his body shape in the air, as if he had grown wings, and briefly realized an alternative soaring.

Although the moon step can't make people stay in the air for a long time, even if it can make people stay in the air for ten minutes, it is still enough to make the moon step fighting skill sought after by countless people.

After a while,

Garp landed from the air and returned to Lu En.

He asked: "Do you see clearly? Do you need me to demonstrate it a second time? The moon step is different from the pointing gun. If you want to master the moon step, the difficulty is at least three times higher than that of the pointing gun!"

"No need."

Lu En shook his head.

After watching Karp's moon step, he already had a preliminary idea in his mind.

Only do it yourself...

Learn from failure.

This is the best solution for Lu En to master the moon step.

otherwise,

No matter how much you watch, it won't help Lu En.

"You kid, shouldn't you be able to master the moon step skillfully just by watching it once again?"

Karp looked at Lu En with a strange expression.

at the same time,

Pocato, who is not far away, is also observing the movement on the deck. As well as the dozens of navy standing beside Pocato, they also looked at the scene of Garp teaching Luen the six types of navy.

"Can you do it?"

"Moonstep, known as the most difficult combat skill to master in the Six Forms!"

"It is also the most practical fighting skill."

Pocato was thoughtful, looking at the front deck with some curiosity in his eyes.

A pair of eyes focused on Lu En.

I see,

Lu En began to perform a moon step step by step according to Karp's method just now.

first cast,

Ended with failure.

Because of his instability, Lu En almost fell from a height of half a meter in the air.

Chapter 52:

But fortunately, he forcibly stabilized his body.

This scene fell into the eyes of Cap and Pocato and others not far away.

They couldn't help but sigh.

The moon step is indeed the most difficult skill to master in the Six Forms.

"Kid Lu En, it's not so easy to master the moon step."

"This time..."

"You have to practice for at least three or five days!"

"I almost scared the old man to death just now. I really thought that your kid's talent and aptitude have become so powerful that you can learn any combat skills without a teacher."

"Fortunately, your kid is still a normal person, and finally failed once."

Karp was slightly relieved.

at the same time,

This time, the failure to cast the moon step...

It didn't bring any blow to Lu En.

On the contrary, it still brought a lot of gains to Lu En.

Just as he had guessed in his heart.

as predicted!

The sound of the system sounded again.

[Totally obtained in this practice: Moon Step Skill of Six Forms +0.01!

boom--

Another unfamiliar memory flooded into Lu En's mind like a trend.

for a moment,

The detailed method of using the moon step was integrated into Lu En's head.

It seems to have become an instinct carved into his bones.

Like a daigo.

For a short moment,

In Lu En's head, the confusion and incomprehension about Yuebu were all solved at this moment, and the thinking in his head suddenly became clear.

For the moon step, he seems to have used it thousands of times.

Incorporate a sense of familiarity into your body instinct!

then,

In front of Karp,

And Pocato, which is not far away, and under the eyes of all the navies.

Lu En's slightly closed eyes suddenly opened, and after digesting the amount of knowledge about moon steps in his head, he seemed to have a lot of innate instincts.

I feel very kind and familiar with Yuebu!

Immediately,

Lu En performed the moon step again.

All eyes are on,

He stepped out,

boom!

A soft sound.

It's like breaking glass.

The first step is to achieve short-term stagnation.

this moment,

Karp's eyes changed.

Pocato was also shocked.

next second,

Lu En took the second step.

Stepping on the air, the second step directly stepped into the air several meters high.

Stepping on the residual airflow in the air under his feet, there was a piercing sound like a sonic boom.

boom!

boom!

...

third step,

the fourth step,

Lu En is getting taller and taller.

He seemed to be heading towards the sky.

in an instant,

Lu En was already standing dozens of meters above the warship. He stepped on the air, forcibly stabilized his figure, lingered in the air for a short time, and stood in the air.

The sea breeze blows,

The high-altitude air is particularly fresh, and the sea breeze has become extremely cool and comfortable.

The sea breeze swayed Lu En's clothes and hair wantonly.

His feet kept beating.

After performing the moon step, you must keep stepping on a high frequency in order to keep your body above the sky for a short period of time.

"Is this the Moon Step of the Sixth Form?"

"What a practical fighting skill!"

Lu En stood in the air with a satisfied smile.

Longing for the six-style moon walk for many days...

I finally got my wish to be completely mastered by myself!

As such,

Only the last six-style shave is left!

Lu En believed.

Today, he will be able to completely master the Sixth Naval Form!

at this time,

When he saw Lu En's figure standing at an altitude of tens of meters for a short period of time, this scene fell into the eyes of Karp, Pocato and others very clearly.

Make them look stunned.

"Successful, successful?!"

"Really just watched it once?"

"Even the most difficult moon step in the Six Forms..."

"It's all taken by Lu En, who can master it in just a few breaths?!"

"This this!"

Garp opened his mouth, shocked.

Others are stupid.

Even if the finger gun is grasped in an instant.

But now,

Even the most difficult moon step in the Six Forms was mastered by Lu

En in an instant!

This was really unexpected to Karp.

He couldn't imagine.

My grandson Lu En...

What an amazing talent he has!

"This kid is a monster!"

Karp's throat was dry.

the other side,

Pocato and the dozens of navies around him also stared blankly at Lu En, who was walking on the moon in the sky.

They were bewildered.

"Lieutenant Colonel Pocato..."

"Just, just now, did we read it right?"

"Lieutenant General Garp just performed the six-style moon step once."

"However,"

"Mr. Lu En, he understood the trick and essence of the moon step in an instant. And when he used it, there was no trace of jerky feeling at all!"

"Are you sure you're not dreaming?"

"Just watch it once, and you have mastered the moon step?!"

A navy was stunned, his face shocked.

They couldn't help raising their hands and rubbing their eyes, wondering if they were hallucinating at this moment.

"I think....."

"You probably didn't have hallucinations."

"I didn't have hallucinations either."

Pocato was equally stunned and shocked.

paused,

He took a deep breath and forcibly suppressed the shock in his heart.

good half sound,

Pocato couldn't help it, and subconsciously blurted out: "Just read it once, even the most difficult moon step in the Six Forms, was easily learned and mastered by Mr. Lu En."

"Now, I'm very convinced that..."

"Mr. Lu En, he is definitely a peerless genius!"

Having said that,

Pocato's eyes showed deep awe, raised his head, and looked at the young figure standing in the sky.

He continued on.

"At least, looking at the Navy for hundreds of years..."

"There has never been an example like this!"

"There has never been such a terrifying genius as Mr. Lu En!"

Chapter 53:

"The amazing talent he possesses is completely beyond the cognition of common sense!"

"It is unparalleled in the past and present! It is the best in the world!".

Chapter 42 Is the Sixth Naval Form Difficult? Get it all! □Three shifts! 3k

chapter]

At this time.

One of the navy couldn't help but asked weakly, "Lieutenant Colonel Pocato, you said, can Mr. Luen master all the six naval styles in one day?"

the sound fell,

Pocato opened his mouth and wanted to reject it, but he couldn't find a reason.

If it were someone else, he was afraid that he would immediately reject it without hesitation!

But the problem is...

The person in front of him is no ordinary person.

But a total genius!

A peerless monster!

just now,

Lu En has already done it.

Just read it once, and you have mastered the most difficult moon step in the Six Forms!

Just ask,

With such peerless talent, Lu En,

Is it really impossible to master the six naval styles in one day?

Do not!

On the contrary,

The possibility is very high!

"Do you master the Sixth Form of the Navy in one day?"

"If it can really be done..."

"Mr. Lu En, I'm afraid that we are going to forcefully refresh the records of our navy headquarters for hundreds of years!"

"Create a record that will be unmatched by all the navies of later generations!"

Pocato was shocked.

The previous record holder is the current Admiral Aokiji of the Navy

Headquarters, a candidate for the future Admiral of the Navy

Headquarters!

It is one of the most powerful monsters in this sea.

now,

Pocato seems to have seen it.

The record set by Lieutenant General Aokiji is about to be broken by others!

And the scariest thing is...

The one who broke this record was a four-year-old child!

"Can you do it?"

"In one day, completely master the six naval styles!"

Pocato raised his head and looked up at Lu En's figure with a pair of eyes full of awe.

He doesn't believe others.

But if it's an extraordinary genius like Lu En...

Pocato hesitated.

After a while,

Lu En landed slowly from a high altitude.

step on the moon,

Walk in the air.

In the blink of an eye,

Lu En's figure had already landed steadily on the deck, and every time he stepped on the airflow in the space, there would be a sharp and piercing sonic boom.

As your feet land smoothly,

Lu En looked at Garp, who was dumbfounded in front of him, and said with a smile, "Old man, let's continue. There are still the last four of the six naval styles, so you might as well give them all to me."

"It also saves trouble and wastes a lot of unnecessary time."

heard,

Karp's mouth twitched.

When others practice the Six Forms of the Navy, they are taught and cultivated slowly one by one.

But when I got to my grandson Lu En...

The style suddenly changed!

"waste time?"

"How long has it been since you learned the Sixth Form of the Navy? It's not even a quarter of an hour!"

"In less than a quarter of an hour, you have already mastered two of the six naval styles."

"Isn't that efficient enough?"

Karp couldn't help but complain for a while.

That's it.....

Do you hate wasting too much time? !

What this kid said can be ashamed and shameless.

What's the point of letting those people who spent a lot of years just barely mastering the Sixth Form of the Navy?

call!

Gently exhaling, Garp suppressed all the countless thoughts in his heart.

Next,

In view of Lu En's strong talent, Karp had to follow Lu En's proposal to display all the remaining four types of Navy Six at one time.

The remaining four types of Navy Six Forms are Shaved, Paper Painting, Lanjiao, and Iron Nugget.

Let's start with paper drawing...

Karp demonstrated it for Lu En himself, and explained to Lu En various skills and tricks about paper painting.

in a while,

After Karp finished speaking,

Lu En began to try to perform paper painting for the first time.

Ended with failure.

Immediately after,

The system beep sounded.

[Total obtained in this practice: Six-style paper painting skills +0.01! □

boom--

With the roar of his forehead, a wave of unfamiliar memories like a trend flooded into Lu En's mind crazily, and he kept absorbing these unfamiliar memories.

moment,

With all the memories in the head melted into the body.

In a short moment,

Lu En announced that he had officially mastered the six-style paper painting!

then,

Garp demonstrated by himself, taught the iron block of the six styles again, and gave Lu En a detailed introduction, there are some noteworthy points about the iron block.

then.....

After the first failure,

The system prompt sounded in Lu En's head again.

[Totally obtained in this practice: Iron Nugget Skill of the Six Forms

[After a 100-fold increase in the training effect...]

[The host can get: Six-style iron nugget skill +1! □

boom--

Another unfamiliar memory flooded into Lu En's mind.

Being continuously absorbed and digested by his brain...

soon,

He completely digested the memory of the iron block.

So far,

The iron block has been mastered by him skillfully.

Now,

With only the last two types of Navy Six left, Lu En can completely collect them all!

...

then,

It's the turn of the Six Forms.

This is a very powerful offensive tool.

It is not a kick technique, but a powerful kick that passes through the ultra-high speed, rolls up the vacuum to produce a slashing attack to attack the opponent, and can easily split the target in half.

This is an offensive method similar to the swordsman's slash.

The slashes that Lan's feet kicked were equally deadly, and their cutting power was extremely strong, capable of easily severing a house into two halves.

Just like Jianhao's flying slash!

Once he has cultivated to an extremely advanced level, the slashes released by Lanjiao are in no way inferior to those of Jianhao.

This is a means that can be used for long-range attack.

Under Karp's personal practice,

After one failure,

With the help of the system, Lu En once again mastered the Six Forms with great ease.

[Totally obtained in this practice: Six Forms of Lanjiao Skill +0.01! □ at last.....

Chapter 54:

It's the six-style shave!

A means similar to teleportation out of thin air.

certainly.

It's just a visual effect, not a teleport in the true sense.

It's just because the speed of the burst is too fast, causing the silhouette to disappear instantly in place, in order to achieve the visual effect of teleportation.

In the duel of the strong, the role that shaving can play is still very impressive.

Same as the moon step.

Shaving is also a fighting skill that Lu En has always wanted to master. is what he thinks.

Among the six types of naval forces, the two most useful combat skills!

moon step,

shave!

These two make Lu En very eager.

"The casting method of shaving..."

"It relies on the continuous high-speed stepping on the ground dozens of times, resulting in an explosive reaction to move at high speed."

"In this way, the visual effect of instantly disappearing in the eyes of the enemy is achieved."

"It's a very strong fighting technique."

Karp began to explain.

And by example.

Performed a shave myself.

Lu En witnessed the whole process, and his head kept recalling how to perform shaving.

quite a while,

After one failure,

Lu En understood again.

[Total obtained in this practice: Six-style shaving skills +0.01! □

[After a 100-fold increase in the training effect...]

[Host can get: Six-style shaving skill +1! □

So far,

The six-style shaving was also completely mastered by Lu En.

Completely complements the final deficiency of the Navy Sixth Form.

Can officially announce...

Today, Lu En has all mastered the six naval styles.

The whole process may take less than half an hour.

Lu En easily mastered the six naval styles to perfection.

Now,

Lu En, who has mastered the sixth form of the Navy, has also become much stronger!

Strength to the next level!

The deficiencies in his previous actual combat were perfectly made up after he mastered the Sixth Naval Form.

At this moment,

Lu En gathered six completely different combat skills, such as air combat, melee combat, long-distance combat, defense, unloading, and teleportation, which made his actual combat level rise in a straight line.

He doesn't have any flaws anymore!

From now on belong to the all-round powerhouse!

flawless,

flawless.

"I have successfully mastered the sixth form of the Navy. Presumably, even if I look at the first half of the great waterway, there are basically not many people who can threaten me, right?"

Lu En narrowed his eyes slightly and showed a satisfied smile.

He made an initial conservative estimate.

After mastering the Sixth Form of the Navy...

He assessed his combat power and predicted that he could reach the level of a bounty of no less than 50 million Berries!

Such strength can completely sweep the entire East China Sea!

As long as those old monsters hiding in the East China Sea don't appear...

Lu En is completely invincible!

also,

Even if it is placed in the first half of the entire great channel...

With Lu En's powerful combat power, he is almost at a level that is infinitely close to the top!

And this is just because Lu En has mastered the sixth naval style.

If you master the two-color domineering again...

Then his strength is really unpredictable.

"How about it?"

"Did you see clearly?"

"Just now, the four remaining six styles that the old man personally displayed."

"Do I need the old man to demonstrate it to you again?"

Karp looked at Lu En and asked with a strange expression.

"Don't bother you old man anymore."

Lu En smiled and shook his head, "Now I have mastered all the six naval styles."

Chapter 43 Kapuma! My grandson really is a monster! [Four more flowers! Ask for a ticket]

As Lu En's voice just fell.

Karp was stunned.

Obviously,

He almost didn't respond.

Immediately, he opened his mouth and asked subconsciously, "You mean, you have fully mastered the six naval styles? Is it all? Are you sure?"
real or fake?

This has mastered the Navy Sixth Form?

In less than half an hour...

From the beginning to the end, he just performed the six naval styles.

However,

This kid Lu En, he actually mastered all the six naval styles? !

is it possible?

Karp said it was unimaginable.

"Old man, look good."

Lu En showed an intriguing smile.

Next,

I haven't waited for Karp to ask too much.

Just under his stunned eyes.

I see,

Lu En first performed the moon step.

boom!

boom!

Step on the air flow in the space, and there are bursts of sonic booms.

sharp,

harsh.

Lu En's figure soared into the air, and he stepped on the moon step, and in an instant he rushed up to a height of tens of meters above the warship, and was constantly traveling in all directions.

as if...

This sky has become his home ground.

walk in the air,

Standing in the sky.

Lu En, who was located at an altitude of tens of meters, then performed a shave.

Swah---

A soft sound.

He stepped in the sky dozens of times in a row, relying on the explosive reaction, which caused his body to disappear instantly, like teleporting out of thin air.

for a moment,

Lu En's figure disappeared in place.

In place, only a vague afterimage was left, which soon disappeared with the wind.

next second,

Lu En appeared in the sky more than ten meters away, and performed the moon step and shave at the same time. There was still no jerky feeling, but it was as perfect as if he had performed it thousands of times.

"Try again..."

"Lan feet!"

Lu En stepped on the void and looked at the endless sea dozens of meters away from the warship.

instantly,

He gathered the strength of his body rapidly under his right foot.

According to the memory in my head...

He kicked his feet at a high speed and forcibly ripped apart the airflow in the space, thus producing an unparalleled bright blue light, which was suddenly thrown out from under Lu En's feet.

"Lan feet!"

A dazzling blue slash was thrown out by Lu En.

moment,

This flying slash directly hit the endless sea area dozens of meters away.

boom--

With a loud bang.

Chapter 55:

Like thunder,

Deafening.

The slash exploded with incomparably violent power, forcibly splitting a ferocious crack about five meters long on the sea surface, no less than a few meters deep.

one look,

It's like the whole sea has been split open!

Gives a very strong visual impact.

Whoa!

The violent force not only severed the sea, but also set off waves of monstrous waves, slamming wildly in all directions.

rippling rippling,

The waves crashed.

The entire warship, dozens of meters away, was beaten by the waves, causing a series of violent shaking, making all the navy on the warship unstable and crouching on the fence. edge.

picked up seawater,

Crazy down from the sky.

Like a very short downpour.

Water droplets the size of soybeans splashed directly above the warship, hitting the bodies of countless navies, soaking the deck with a layer of smooth water stains.

The sea water was thrown up to ten meters high,

A large group of water stains scattered in front of Lu En.

He concentrated his body strength on the tip of his index finger and stabbed at the large ball of water floating in front of him.

"Finger gun!"

Prick with one finger.

puff!

With a faint sound.

The water polo burst on the spot,

In a short period of time, this huge water polo was abruptly pierced by Lu En's index finger through a hole like a bullet hole.

Before the water polo burst completely,

Only Lu En's index finger left a hole like a bullet hole, and there were no other cracks.

As you can imagine.

What terrifying power and speed this finger contains!

Even the water polo was forcibly pierced,

Without affecting the overall water polo!

Whoa!

at last.....

The water polo exploded and danced like a mist in the sky,

Scattered everywhere.

Next...

Lu En also used iron blocks and paper paintings one after another.

set it down,

The Sixth Naval Style was fully displayed by Lu En.

Not only is it not jerky at all, on the contrary, it still looks like a naval elite who has mastered the six naval styles for a year and a half, and has an extremely proficient ability to control the six naval styles.

Before the water stains scattered on the horizon had completely disappeared, Lu En stepped on the moon and continuously performed the six-style shave, flashing crazily in the air.

All the water spots that were about to fall were shot from the top of the warship.

Take a closer look,

Lu En's figure sometimes appeared dozens of meters away in the sky, and sometimes flashed back to this area.

Just like a ghost.

Extremely fast!

Teleport in the air out of thin air.

It was impossible for everyone to see through Lu En's trajectory.

He is so fast!

Moon step plus shave...

It made Lu En seem to have really achieved teleportation.

After half an hour,

Lu En landed steadily on the deck of the warship with his feet on the moon.

The deck underfoot was slightly water stained.

soon,

Under the halo scattered by the hot sun on the horizon, these water stains gradually evaporated into water vapor and disappeared.

at this time.

Hundreds of people on the entire warship, with dull, astonished and shocking eyes, all gathered on Lu En's body by coincidence, unable to move from it for a long time.

this moment,

Karp was completely numb.

His throat was dry, and he looked at Lu En with a confused expression.

"The old man believed it."

"The old man's grandson Lu En..."

"This kid is a complete monster!"

Unable to take a deep breath, Garp was deeply moved by his expression and gaffe, "In less than half an hour, this kid has completely mastered the six naval styles!"

"The whole process, I just watched the old man perform the Six Forms!"

"Just by reading it once, you can master the six naval styles without a teacher..."

"This kind of phenomenon, the old man has never heard of it over the years!"

"Throughout the hundreds of years the Navy has seen, there has never been an example of such a monster."

Karp's trembling mood at the moment could not be calmed down for a long time.

Looking at Lu En's figure,

Garp's eyes seemed to be looking at a monster.

"This kid Lu En not only broke the record set by that kid Qingzhi."

"And, the old man can be absolutely certain."

"For thousands of years in the future, I am afraid that no one will be able to try to shake it. Today's new record created by this kid Lu En!"

"This record is enough to maintain for the next thousand years! No one has the qualifications to break it!"

"genius!"

"This is the real peerless genius!"

today,

The world-shaking talent Luen showed completely subverted Karp's cognition.

...

at the same time.

When Karp was deeply shocked.

the other side,

The navy headed by Pocato also looked at Lu En's figure with dull faces.

A navy's throat was dry and his lips trembled slightly: "Yes, am I dreaming?"

He was dumbfounded.

The scene just now caused him an unprecedented strong visual impact.

even,

Let his worldview collapse and collapse!

Are you sure it's human?

How can there be such a monster in this world!

The atmosphere is quiet!

The whole place was silent!

Obviously,

All the navies present were frightened by Lu En.

Including Pocato, they all stared ahead with dull eyes, unable to speak.

quite a while,

With a brief silence,

The atmosphere at the scene was fully detonated!

A sensation!

"Lying, lying in a trough?!"

"I am not wrong, right?"

"Just now, Mr. Lu En used all the six naval styles?"

"Are you sure it's not a hallucination?"

"In less than a quarter of an hour, Mr. Lu En has completely mastered the Sixth Naval Style? Oh my god!"

"What kind of monster is this?!"

A group of navy was shocked.

What happened just now made them feel like a dream.

Things you can't even dream of...

now,

It happened abruptly in front of them.

"Really, really did it..."

"Actually!"

Pocato's eyes were lost for a while.

His mood was wild.

Chapter 56:

then,

He looked at Lu En's back with awe, horror and admiration on his face.

paused,

He forcibly suppressed the many shaking emotions in his heart.

As if he had lost his soul, Pocato was dumbfounded, muttering words in his mouth.

"Mr. Lu En, he really deserves to be a rare genius once in a century!"

"The record of Lieutenant General Qingzhi was not only broken by Mr. Lu En. And from now on, I firmly believe that no one can break the record set by Mr. Lu En today."

"In less than half an hour..."

"Completely master the six naval styles!"

"What kind of terrifying talent is this?!"

think of this,

Pocato's mood shook even more.

"Even if you look at the Navy for hundreds of years, no one can compare to Mr. Lu En! Even those monsters in this era!"

"For example, Lieutenant General Sakaski, Lieutenant General Polsalino, Lieutenant General Kuzan, these three monsters are far less terrifying than Mr. Luen."

"Mr. Lu En, he is a real evildoer!"

"An unprecedented monster!"

this day,

All the navies of the entire warship were shocked by the record set by Lu En.

thereby.....

It caused a great shock to the entire warship!

One after another, the navy ran to the edge of the deck.

then,

They all looked at Lun with their shocking eyes.

Hundreds of navy officers present, without exception, showed unprecedented awe, admiration, shock, admiration and other emotional waves to Lu En.

"Before this, we are still judging whether Mr. Lu En can master the six naval styles in one day?"

"I have to say, our vision is still too low after all."

"One day? No, not even half an hour!"

"Mr. Lu En's talent and aptitude are too amazing. He completely mastered the six naval styles in less than half an hour."

"monster!"

just thought of,

They even judged before.

Can Lu En master the Navy's Sixth Form in one day?

Recalling the past, they couldn't help but smile again and again.

It's just looking at the sky!

Frog in the well!

No one could have predicted.

The truth is far more outrageous than they imagined!

one day?

Half an hour is enough!

A navy voice said with a trembling voice: "I had initial contact with the sixth form of the Navy six years ago. However, because the training of the sixth form of the Navy is too difficult, I had to give up this unrealistic idea."

"did not expect....."

"I regard it as the Sixth Naval Form that I can't cultivate successfully in my life."

"One day, it will be mastered in half an hour."

"Is this the gap between ordinary people and geniuses?"

"This gap is too big! It's so desperate!"

these words,

Said the voice of many navy.

because.....

There were many navies present, who had tried to practice the sixth form of the navy.

But in the end they all failed.

They understand deeply.

How hard will the process be to master the Sixth Form of the Navy!

What a long, long time it takes!

But now.

They saw a ready-made example.

It took only half an hour to master the Sixth Naval Form.

this moment,

They felt it very deeply.

They and true geniuses...

What a difference there is!

Out of reach!

A world of difference!

"What's more scary is..."

"Mr. Lu En is only four years old!"

"At the age of four, he has fully mastered the Sixth Naval Style!"

"What is a genius? What is a demon? That's it."

"By contrast."

"For most of our lives, we have lived on dogs."

Many navy sighed bitterly.

A four-year-old child...

They have achieved something they could never achieve in their entire life!

Naturally, they will inevitably have a feeling of admiration and admiration for Lu En.

If people are too far apart...

So.

Far from being jealous in their hearts.

instead,

They will also sincerely respect and worship each other.

for example,

Luen now.

Even if they were present, all the navies felt the huge gap like a chasm.

After a while,

Pocato, who had woken up from an extremely shocking emotion, waved his hand quickly and quickly dispersed the navy who gathered more and more at the scene.

"It's all gone, it's all gone."

"Nothing to see."

"You can't learn it either."

"However, you don't have to be discouraged. After all, Mr. Lu En is a peerless genius that is rare in a century, and is completely different from those ordinary geniuses."

"Even if you look at this sea, few people can compare it with it."

"You don't need to be disheartened."

"I personally advise you from the bottom of my heart. If it's okay, don't compare yourself to this monster. It's easy to hurt your self-esteem."

in a while,

Driven by Pocato.

With many emotions of horror, shock, awe, and admiration, the group of navies present gradually left the area on the edge of the warship deck.

come to...

What happened on this day is enough to make them memorable in this life!

"Boy Lu En, you can officially graduate."

"In terms of Navy Sixth Form..."

"The old man has nothing to teach you."

Garp looked helpless and looked at Lun with the same eyes he looked at monsters.

"Thank you, old man."

"If I don't have your teaching today, I just rely on myself to explore slowly. Even if I want to master the six naval styles, I'm afraid it will take at least half a month."

Lu En smiled.

"..."

Hearing this, the corner of Karp's mouth couldn't help twitching.

For a moment, he was speechless.

good guy!

this kid...

The tail is about to go up in the sky!

What did he say just now?

without being taught,

It only takes more than half a month to still be able to master the sixth naval style?

Are you sure this is what someone said?

but.....

It has to be admitted that,

This kid Lu En is indeed a very scary monster!

at the same time,

Pocato, who was walking over, heard what Lu En said.

He almost stumbled and fell on the deck next to him.

"Is this a genius?"

"Long experience!"

Chapter 57:

Pocato was speechless.

Does it mean that geniuses can do whatever they want?

After half a sound,

Pocato lowered his head and remained silent.

really!

Geniuses can really do whatever they want! .

Chapter 45 Supplementary supplies! Arrive at Rogue Town! Followers!

[Second update! 3k chapter]

Two days later.

Due to the lack of replenishment of supplies on the island for a long time, the supplies brought from the Windmill Village and stored in the warship warehouse have gradually bottomed out.

Without materials, it is naturally impossible to continue sailing in this sea.

The sea is ever-changing,

No one can be sure...

Will there be some foggy weather on the sea and a brief sense of disorientation?

in this case,

Sufficient supplies must be prepared!

then,

Under Karp's orders.

The warship started sailing to the nearby islands.

And the island closest to the warship is named...

Rogue Town!

exactly,

Garp also went to the naval branch in Rogue Town to do some errands, and just went to Rogue Town to replenish supplies.

Sailing for half a day.

finally--

Lu En, who was on the deck of the warship, finally saw the shadow of an island.

"Is there Rogue Town?"

Lu En's eyes narrowed slightly, looking at the prosperous island in the distance.

Rogue Town, known as the place where it begins and ends.

The place where One Piece Roger was born is also the place where Roger was executed.

also,

Rogue Town is also the last island leading to the great waterway in the East China Sea!

In general,

The pirates who came to Rogue Town were all eager to go from the East China Sea to the Great Channel.

certainly.

The Navy's warships do not need to go upstream through the Upside-Down Mountain. Therefore, warships from the East China Sea to the Great Channel only need to cross the windless belt.

And this is where those pirates can't imitate.

gradually.

Under the control of the navy, the huge warship quickly approached the port of call in Rogue Town.

When arriving at the port.

Because the warship is too large, it has attracted the attention of many people in the port.

On the port side of Rogge Town, many merchant ships are docked, and they are constantly moving goods.

As the warship approaches...

They stopped their current actions one after another and looked at the gigantic warship with awe.

at last.....

The warship broke down,

Stop the boat.

The entire warship is docked at the port.

Under Pocato's orders,

A group of navies followed him and went to Rogue Town to collect supplies to replenish.

The rest of the navy stayed behind the warships to prevent some pirates who did not have long eyes from daring to break into the warships rashly, thus causing some irreversible damage to the warships.

"Boy Luen, you can move freely."

"When you come to Rogge Town, you can stroll around casually. This town is quite prosperous, and you can buy everything you want."

"The old man is going to go to the naval branch."

Karp said to Luen.

and,

He gave Luen a stack of baileys.

A lot.

about it,

This stack of Berry is afraid that it is not less than one million!

Enough for Lu En to spend a lot in Rogue Town.

With millions of Berries in his arms, Lu En jumped off the deck of the warship very leisurely, ready to go to Rogue Town and take a look at the folk customs here.

Watching Lu En's back fading away,

Pocato, who had just stepped off the coast of the port, couldn't help but ask Karp, "Lieutenant General Karp, don't you need to send someone to protect Mr. Luen?"

heard,

Garp looked at Pocato as if looking at a fool.

quite a while,

He just said: "Do you think that someone in Rogge Town can really threaten the life of this kid? Don't forget, this kid even mastered the six naval styles two days ago."

"In the eyes of the old man..."

"With the strength of this kid Lu En, he can be said to be invincible when looking at the entire East China Sea! He can definitely walk sideways!"

"As long as he doesn't encounter some very few hidden old monsters, Lu En's strength can be said to be the number one powerhouse in the East China Sea!"

"Even if it is placed in the first half of the great waterway, Lu En, who has mastered the sixth form of the navy, will definitely not belong to the weak."

"In this case, the old man thinks that if he doesn't provoke others, others should burn the incense. As for others to provoke him? Then we just need to pray silently, and those who provoke Lu En must not die too much.

awful."

really!

As Karp said.

With Lu En's current strength, looking at the East China Sea can be said to be invincible!

It's good that he doesn't provoke others.

Who dares to provoke him?

provoked him...

That would be troublesome!

After listening to Karp's remarks, Pocato's old face flushed, and he instantly realized what a ridiculous remark he had just said.

Afraid of Lun being in danger in Rogue Town?

This is downright ridiculous!

Not to mention the small town of Rogue...

Even if you look at the entire East China Sea!

I'm afraid I can't find it, the pirate gang that can threaten Lu En!

"Lieutenant General Karp, I was the one who was abrupt."

Pocato smiled wryly.

"Go back quickly, don't waste too much time here in Rogge Town."

"The matter of replenishing supplies will be left to you."

"The old man will go to the naval branch in Rogge Town to explain something."

"Rogue Town..."

"What a nostalgic place."

Karp walked away without looking back.

huge warship,

In a blink of an eye, the building was already empty.

About a hundred navy members were left behind, who were responsible for guarding the warship and preventing some small-eyed thieves from breaking into the warship and wreaking havoc.

the other side.

Lu En alone held millions of berries and walked freely in the bustling streets of Rogge Town.

The location of the port is not far from the core prosperous area of Rogue Town.

therefore,

Before Lu En took two steps, he came from the port to the bustling town center.

on both sides of the street,

Open a dazzling array of luxury stores.

clothing store,

Jewelry Shop,

weapon shop,

Fruit stand and more.

Everything, everything.

Full of prosperous style.

Having never been to such a prosperous town before, Lu En's eyes kept rolling, and he kept looking at the surrounding bustling streets with curiosity.

Lu En, who was only four years old, was dressed neatly and cleanly, and at the moment looked around with a wide-open and curious look.

With such an appearance, one can tell at a glance that Lu En is a fledgling boy.

and also.....

Lu En carried millions of berries in his arms without concealment, and naturally attracted some, and the coveted and greedy eyes from the secret gathered one after another.

in,

The three eyes did not conceal the greed at all.

And as soon as the masters of these three eyes appeared, in just a short moment, they strongly suppressed the people who were about to move around.

"I just saw it clearly."

Chapter 58:

"This kid came all the way from the port."

"Obviously, he's a foreigner!"

"Besides, looking at this kid's clothes and pampered appearance, it is very likely that he is still a noble kid."

"Did you see it? That kid has millions of bellies in his arms! If a kid can carry millions of bellies alone, the family behind this kid must be very rich!"

"If we can take down this kid, then use the kid's life to coerce the family behind him. This time, we're going to make a fortune!"

"Brothers, it's done!"

"This is a big fat sheep! Never let it go!"

The secret voice is full of longing and greed.

Next,

Lu En constantly shuttled through the bustling streets of Rogge Town.

See the unique folk landscape of the entire Rogue Town.

He walked past the weapons stores,

It has also passed through a large-scale casino.

Even more, I have passed the execution platform that was once used to execute Roger, the pirate king.

have to say.

The execution platform that was used to execute Roger, the pirate king, had a lot of people gathered here, and they all seemed to be watching this unique and iconic building.

This execution platform is the most iconic place in Rogge Town!

these years,

Countless outside tourists are drawn to Rogge Town.

in,

The vast majority of tourists are there to witness the execution platform used to execute One Piece Roger.

And Lu En just stayed here for a while, then turned and left.

all in all.

Most of Rogge Town has been visited by him alone.

gradually,

Lu En had a faint insight.

I don't know when,

behind you...

Several followers have already appeared!

"Looks like..."

"I'm being treated like a fat sheep!"

"interesting."

Lu En's eyes flashed, and an intriguing smile appeared on his face.

Mind moving...

The surging power surging all over his body gathered at his feet one after another.

moment,

Lu En performed the six-style shaving.

"shave!".

Chapter 46 It turns out that the person behind the scenes is you, Bucky the Clown! [Three shifts! 3k chapter]

Bustling streets.

People come and go, lively and noisy, lively.

Three young men in short-sleeved tops, with hair dyed in different colors, looked ahead with greed and eager eyes, staring at the boy who was only a few years old on the street ahead.

Their eyes...

Full of fervent stares, the millions of Berries in the boy's arms.

"Do you want to start?"

one person asked.

"Wait a minute."

"There are too many people here, and rash action may attract the attention of the navy."

"Let this kid keep the million berry for us for now."

The other person shook his head, resisting the greed in his heart.

then,

They followed in the footsteps of the boy in front of them.

But right now.

in vain--

The boy they were tracking suddenly disappeared out of thin air. without a trace...

There is no sound!

Not even the slightest trace was left.

"kindness?!"

"What about people?"

"Where did the people go?"

"Why did it suddenly disappear?"

Three young men with hair dyed in different colors rushed out of the dark with anxious faces and came to the place where the boy disappeared just now.

Can't find any trace at all!

"Damn!"

"This * kid, actually ran away?!"

A young man with dyed blue hair gritted his teeth, his face was angry and gloomy.

suddenly.....

without warning,

A faint voice sounded slowly from behind the blue-haired man's ears.

"You guys, are you looking for me?"

The sound fell.

The atmosphere became dead silent!

Silent!

The movements of the three young men came to an abrupt end, with a pair of stunned and suspicious eyes.

then,

They twisted their stiff necks and looked behind them.

I see,

I don't know when,

The boy they had been following was already standing quietly behind them, and was looking at them with a playful smile.

The boy who appeared out of thin air was naturally Lu En who performed the six-style shave!

"What, when did it appear?!"

The blue-haired man's pupils shrank slightly, and his face changed slightly.

He stared at Lu En with a suspicious look in his eyes.

"Something's not quite right."

"This kid..."

"It's very different from anything we've encountered before."

The other two approached, looking hesitant.

"What are you afraid of!"

"What we do in our business is to carry his own life on his crotch."

"We finally caught such a fat sheep!"

"How can you let it go?"

"This kid has millions of baileys on his body. If he can be held hostage, wouldn't he be able to threaten the family behind him to pay more baileys?"

"At that time, we will make a fortune, and we won't need to do this kind of thing again in this life."

The blue-haired man gritted his teeth, his terrifying emotions were gradually suppressed by greed.

heard,

The other two men nodded in agreement.

In the end, greed * fear.

The three of them stared at Lu En eagerly, as if they could not wait to kidnap Lu En immediately.

"Little devil..."

"You didn't take advantage of the chaos to escape from here just now.

This is definitely the worst choice you've ever made in your life."

The blue-haired man looked straight at Berry in Lu En's arms.

"I'm curious....."

"Why have all the ill-intentioned glances around me all disappeared without a trace since you appeared?"

"Can you answer me?"

Lu En asked curiously.

"Little devil, it seems that your observation skills are good."

"It's okay to tell you."

"Of course it's because..."

"There is a famous boss standing behind us! Looking at the entire Rogge Town, in the underground world, no one dares to provoke our boss!"

"So, since you became our prey, those guys naturally dare not act rashly against you. Because, you are our prey, and no one dares to take it away!"

The blue-haired man looked proud.

"Your boss? Who is it?"

Lu En laughed.

He then asked, "If you don't mind, how about taking me to meet your boss?"

Immediately,

The blue-haired man looked a little weird.

Chapter 59:

It was the first time he met.

Some people dare to take the initiative to meet their boss!

this kid...

Afraid of being crazy?

Don't you know that your boss is the dark king in the underground world of Rogge Town? !

"Little devil, you are really brave."

The blue-haired man gave Lu En a deep look.

quite a while,

He pondered for a moment and sneered: "Since you are looking for death, then I will fulfill you. If you are not afraid of death, then come with me, and I will take you to see our boss."

In his opinion,

Lu En is obviously seeking death on his own initiative!

That being the case...

He will complete the opponent!

Exactly,

Bring this big fat sheep back to the boss, and the boss will definitely reward him.

"Then let some of you lead the way."

Lu En's smile was unabated and calm.

"Walk!"

The blue-haired man gestured with his eyes to the two companions beside him.

instantly,

The blue-haired man walked in front alone, Lu En followed, and the two young men walked behind, seemingly afraid that Lu En would take the opportunity to escape.

One after the other,

Completely block Lu En's escape route!

But in fact,

They all guessed wrong.

From the beginning, Lu En had no plans to escape.

On the contrary,

He really wanted to meet him.

The dark king who rules the underworld of Rogue Town!

Take a look at how sacred the other party is!

Dare to hit your head on your head?

The smile on Lu En's face became more playful.

Since I let myself run into it.

Then have a good time with them.

Anyway,

There is still plenty of time.

Pocato led a group of navies to replenish supplies in Rogue Town, and it would take at least a few hours to think about it.

During these few hours, Lu En was naturally allowed to act at will.

at the moment,

He wanted to take advantage of this group of interesting pirates...

To pass the time!

Soon.

led by the blue-haired man.

Lu En followed the three of them to a relatively remote wilderness in the southeast of Rogge Town.

I walked about three or four kilometers.

Get away from the bustling streets of Rogue Town completely.

There is no one around,

barren mountains,

deserted,

A loneliness.

A gloomy atmosphere lingers in this area.

"Little devil, do you know you're afraid?"

"such a pity....."

"Want to run now? It's too late!"

The blue-haired man turned around and sneered at Lu En again and again, "Want to meet our boss? Now, let's do it for you! Later, don't be scared to the point of shit!"

"Our boss..."

"But the famous big pirate in this sea!"

next second,

He walked to the door of a huge tavern,

Standing in front of the gate, I could clearly hear the clamor from the tavern.

Colorful colors flashed wildly from the tavern.

Crunch!

push open the door,

The blue-haired man looked at Lu En with a gloomy expression: "Little devil, go in."

see,

Lu En didn't have any timidity or hesitation.

take a step,

Step into the tavern.

moment,

A strong aroma of wine swept from the inside of the tavern, filling Lu En's entire sense of smell.

at the same time.

With Lu En's entry, the original noisy atmosphere of the tavern came to an abrupt end.

The noise became dead silent!

No sound!

boom!

A dull sound came from behind.

I see,

The door of the tavern has been slammed shut by the three blue-haired men.

Colorful lights flickered inside the tavern.

extremely dazzling,

shine,

Dispel the darkness inside the tavern.

"Little devil, open your eyes and look carefully."

"The one wearing the pirate admiral's outfit in front is our boss."

The blue-haired man looked at Lu En with a mocking expression.

Looking in the direction the blue-haired man pointed...

Lu En saw it.

A young man dressed as a white pirate admiral was sitting on the sofa swaggeringly. His unique face was refreshing.

The body is very ordinary,

Neither tall nor thin,

Neither fat nor short.

On his forehead, there is a pattern formed by the intersection of two white skull bones.

Most notably...

He has a big round red nose.

The originally majestic posture suddenly became somewhat comical because of this big round red nose.

"what....."

When he saw this man's appearance clearly, Lu En couldn't help but let out a small sigh.

Immediately,

There was a bit of surprise on his face, and his eyes became more playful.

"I thought who it was."

"did not expect....."

"It turns out that you were behind the scenes, Bucky the Clown!".

Chapter 47 Next, I will blow you all up! [1/20 for the first order]

Inside the pub.

There are a lot of pirates.

Here, is a tavern formed by pirates.

Pirate's home base!

Ordinary people entering this tavern are afraid that they will be scared and shivered by the atmosphere here.

However,

From the beginning to the end, from the moment Lu En stepped into the tavern.

There was no change in his face.

now,

Lu Enzheng looked at the red-nosed man on the sofa seat in front of him with interest.

That's right!

Just like what he just said.

This person is Bucky the Clown!

A so-called big pirate with a fierce reputation in the East China Sea!

evil character,

Chapter 60:

tyrannical,

do no evil,

For evil.

In the East China Sea, the name of the clown Bucky can simply make countless ordinary people feel afraid.

Lu En didn't expect it.

It was just a whim, and I wanted to find a group of pirates to play with me.

never thought,

By such a coincidence, I let myself meet Bucky the Clown!

This little pirate who used to be on the ship of One Piece Roger has grown into a 'big pirate' on his own!

and.....

Still the worst one ever!

Those who have been on the ship of Roger, the Pirate King, have basically made their debut in this era and have become the top powerhouses in the sea.

Only the clown Bucky didn't dare to set foot in the first half of the great waterway easily.

Contemporaneous with Bucky...

Red-haired Shanks.

That is already in the second half of the great waterway, in the sea area called New World, and has made a great name.

But the clown Bucky is still hiding in the East China Sea with no progress, and wants to be a soil emperor.

"29 is a coincidence!"

"Let me meet you..."

Lu En took a deep look at Bucky the Clown.

Although this is the first time we meet...

But, for some reason.

He has absolutely no affection for Bucky the Clown!

instead,

The more I look, the more unhappy I feel!

just thought of,

The red-haired Shanks, Bucky the Clown's good friend, will lead his stupid and stupid brother Luffy in the future, and Lu En's heart is burning with anger.

It was supposed to be anger against redheads...

But now,

When he saw Bucky the Clown, the anger in his heart gradually shifted to Bucky the Clown.

"Since fate arranged for you and me to meet..."

"So."

"Today, I will leave a deep impression on you!"

Lu En looked at Bucky in front of him with a somewhat meaningful look in his eyes.

By coincidence, I met Bucky the Clown in Rogue Town.

Naturally, you have to make a lasting impression on the other person.

Can't think of it after all...

It turns out that the culprit who rules the underground world of Rogge Town is the clown Bucky in front of him!

at this time.

When Lu En was looking at Bucky, there were hundreds of pirates in the whole tavern, and they all fixed their weird eyes on Lu En.

Hundreds of pirates stared at each other, with a bit of playfulness, coldness, sternness, and irony in their eyes.

If it is an ordinary person,

Under the scrutiny of hundreds of vicious pirates,

I'm afraid I can't help being paralyzed on the spot.

However, Lu En remained unchanged and expressionless, standing quietly and unmoved.

Weird atmosphere!

Depressed!

quite a while,

The blue-haired man behind Lu En quickly trotted to Bucky's side and told the latter truthfully.

After a while,

Knowing the ins and outs of the matter, Bucky slowly stood up from the sofa, looking at Lu En with longing eyes, with a bit of greed in his eyes.

"Little devil, did you hear that you are rich?"

"Why don't you borrow some Berry to give this uncle Huahua?"

"Unfortunately, this uncle is very poor during this time. I believe, you shouldn't mind, right?"

Bucky looked at Lun with icy eyes, showing a stern smile.

around,

When a famous pirate saw Bucky's actions, they all cast schadenfreude at Lu En.

"This kid is going to suffer."

"I don't know where this brat got the courage to ask to see boss Bucky?"

"It's so boring to live!"

"If this brat can't come up with a Berry that makes boss Bucky satisfied, I think this kid won't be able to get out of this tavern today. He will definitely be cut off by the angry boss Bucky on the spot!"

"Looking at the boy's fine skin and tender flesh, I'm afraid he was born in a nobleman? Ordinary nobles are very rich. If we hold this boy hostage and force the family behind him to pay the ransom, we will definitely make a fortune."

"..."

Hundreds of pirates chatted in a low voice.

"Little devil, do you know who our boss is now?"

"It's the famous clown Bucky!"

"Seeing our boss, are you already scared to pee?"

"The prestige of the boss of Bucky, that is famous in the entire East China Sea!"

The blue-haired man sneered at Lu En.

In his opinion,

Lu En is simply asking for his own death!

The first time he saw

Someone wants to take the initiative to meet their old clown Bucky!

Now,

This kid is dead!

"Bucky the Clown?"

At this moment, Lu En looked at Bucky and spoke slowly.

"Little devil, you have good eyesight, it's this uncle!"

Bucky raised his head high, majestic and arrogant.

then,

He continued: "Little devil, for the sake of your sophistication. This uncle gives you a chance to live. I will do everything possible to let the family behind you collect 20 million bells for this uncle!"

"otherwise....."

"This uncle will tear you apart, this little devil, in eight pieces!"

The sound fell.

A group of pirates looked at Lu En more excitedly.

They seem to have seen it.

The scene where Lu En was cut into pieces.

"Let the family behind me gather 20 million?"

Lu En laughed.

paused,

He took a deep look at Bucky, smiled playfully, and said slowly: "Then, I will also give you a chance to live. You choose, how about you obediently take me to the Navy prison?"

"Or do you want me to do it myself and send you to the naval prison in Rogue Town?"

"You, make your own choice!"

"I would like to remind you here that if you want me to do it, you may not be so lucky. At that time, I can't be sure if you can save a little life by luck."

The words fall.

The whole atmosphere became dead silent!

Hundreds of pirates who were originally whispering, all looked at Lu En in astonishment.

They were startled.

First time seeing...

There are still people who dare to say such wild remarks in front of their boss Bucky!

"This kid, is he crazy?"

"How dare you say such wild remarks to Boss Bucky?"

"He's absolutely dead!"

"It annoyed Boss Bucky, and he can't leave alive today."

"It's just self-destruction!"

Lots of talk.

The blue-haired man standing beside Bucky was frightened by Lu En's remarks.

"are you crazy?"

He widened his eyes and looked at Lu En blankly.

at this time,

Bucky laughed angrily: "Okay! Very good! Kid, you have successfully angered Uncle Ben! From now on, Uncle Ben can tell you clearly."

"Even if the family behind you collects 20 million berries, this uncle will never spare you!"

"Now, the price of your little life has gone up."

"If I don't give this uncle fifty million bells, I will tear you into tens of thousands of pieces today!"

He looked at Lu En with cold eyes.

murderous,

Killing intent fluctuates.

A chilling aura emerged spontaneously.

The atmosphere in such a huge tavern has become extraordinarily depressing!

It seems like a battle is about to break out!

Chapter 61:

"What a pity."

"It seems..."

"You made a wrong choice."

Lu En looked at Bucky the Clown and smiled lightly, "Red nose, you will regret your choice."

As this sentence falls,

The atmosphere is even more deadly!

A group of pirates stared at Lu En stupidly.

The three words Lu En just said were still lingering in their ears.

red nose...

"This, this kid, is simply crazy! He must be crazy!"

"He actually dared to call Boss Bucky's nickname Red Nose in front of Boss Bucky?!"

"It's over, it's over!"

"Boss Bucky is going to be angry."

"This time, even if the family behind this kid brings 100 million berries, I'm afraid it won't be able to resolve the anger in the heart of Boss Bucky."

"This kid will surely die today!"

"Dare to touch the taboo of Boss Bucky?"

"He's done!"

A famous pirate thought so.

as predicted!

Bucky was furious.

The moment I heard the three words red nose.

The anger in his heart was burning like an erupting volcano.

burning with anger,

bristle!

The most hated thing in Bucky's life...

Just to hear someone call him red nose.

This is his inverse scale!

An absolute taboo that others should not touch easily!

"Little devil, I tell you, you are dead!"

"Whoever comes can't save you!"

"Dare to call my uncle's red nose? Even if you take more Bailey, this uncle will definitely cut you into eight pieces today!"

Bucky looked angry and stared at Lu En with murderous intent.

"Cut me down in eight pieces?"

"Hahaha....."

"Can you really do it?"

"If you can do it..."

"Then why don't you try it!"

Lu En laughed, and the smile on his face became even brighter.

next second,

He slowly raised his right arm.

Lightly grasped the collar of the upper body shirt.

then,

He spoke again.

"Just in time, I also have something to say to all of you present, including you."

"I heard it clearly..."

"Next, I will blow you all up!"

"One counts as one!"

"You guys, don't even try to run away!"

finished speaking,

rip-

It was followed by a crisp sound.

sharp,

harsh.

I see,

Lu En righteously shredded his shirt on the spot.

Broken clothes, turned into pieces of debris.

Flying all over the sky.

Falling on all sides.

instantly,

Lu En showed his upper body full of muscular lines,

A ghostly back,

It looked extremely hideous.

Every muscle on the body contains a very violent force.

Like a volcano that has accumulated for a long time...

From him, an incomparably powerful and terrifying sense of oppression exudes! .

Chapter 48 Everyone, please welcome the feast of domineering and domineering! [2/20 for the first order]

The atmosphere seemed particularly eerie.

The lights inside the tavern flickered.

colorful,

colorful.

One after another, dazzling halos shot down from the ceiling and onto Lu En's body, making his upper body full of muscular lines even more eye-catching and dazzling.

A ghostly back,

It's like a picture of a devil!

ferocious,

fear,

So oppressive!

Even though Lu En was only four years old and his body was still a little thin, his muscular body still brought a strong visual impact to all the pirates present.

The light of different colors makes Lu En's figure extra mysterious and strange.

for a while,

The surging aura coercion emanated from Lu En's body.

instantly,

This sense of oppression swept over the hundreds of pirates around, making the sneer on their faces extremely stiff, and pairs of eyes full of surprise and astonishment gathered on Lu En's body.

Depressed!

Silence!

Chilling air permeates all directions.

murderous,

The surging murderous intent enveloped the entire tavern.

"You just said..."

"To blow us all up?"

"Just you?"

"Stop laughing!"

"Little devil, do you know who you are facing at this moment?"

"You are facing Uncle Bucky!"

"The famous pirate in the sea!"

"In front of this uncle, how dare you brag about it? It's ridiculous!"

Bucky was stunned for a while, then burst out laughing.

His bursts of wild laughter broke the eerie silence.

for a moment,

It also ignited the atmosphere of the hundreds of pirates present.

Originally, hundreds of pirates had been frightened by Lu En.

However, with Bucky's wild laughter resounding everywhere.

Immediately,

The fear in the hearts of the hundreds of pirates was quickly suppressed by them all.

"I have to say, this kid does have some guts."

"Facing the boss of Bucky, he still dares to say such outrageous remarks.

This courage, even I do not have at all."

"But, what does this mean? It just means that this kid doesn't know how powerful and terrifying Boss Bucky is."

"Otherwise, at the moment of confronting the boss of Bucky, this kid may be scared to pee."

"..."

A group of pirates sneered.

"Boss Bucky, kill him!"

"Kill this crazy brat!"

The blue-haired man stood behind Bucky, shouting excitedly.

"kill him!"

"kill him!"

Immediately after,

All the pirates at the scene shouted and roared.

for a while,

The atmosphere is fully driven!

Chapter 62:

"Did you hear?"

"They all let me..."

"Kill you!"

"But, my uncle thought about it for a while □~."

"In view of the fact that you just called me a red nose, I decided not to let you die so easily."

"Anyone who dares to call my uncle a red nose, this uncle will never spare him easily. And you, I will definitely cut you into pieces today!"

"In this way, I can resolve the anger in my heart at the moment."

Bucky sneered and looked at Lu En with gloomy eyes, not concealing the murderous intent of dissatisfaction in his words.

Bucky's character is very cruel, tyrannical, murderous...

For the weak,

Bucky is a complete villain!

A bully!

The wicked big pirate!

The vicious pirates with countless innocent lives on their hands!

It is for this reason that

Although Bucky's strength is not very strong, but he is famous in the East China Sea, his prestige far surpasses that of most big pirates, and makes countless civilians in the East China Sea terrified.

It's because of Bucky's cruelty, cruelty, cruelty...

this character,

Make Bucky famous!

Even if the navy was dispatched, it would be difficult to capture Bucky in prison.

after all.

Bucky is not weak.

and.....

Still a devil fruit power user!

Superman is a person with the ability to split the Devil Fruit!

Any devil fruit ability person, even if the ability accumulates, his own strength is definitely not weak.

Furthermore,

Bucky has been in the East China Sea all the year round, and did not trespass into the great waterway without authorization, so naturally it will not cause the navy to kill him.

It is all of the above reasons.

resulting in...

Bucky's famous reputation,

But over the years, no navy has been able to capture Bucky.

Let Bucky go unpunished and do all kinds of crimes.

With the sound of a group of pirates talking loudly in my ears...

twitter,

Like a bird chirping.

Like hundreds of sparrows, screaming and buzzing in their ears.

It made Lu En feel very irritable.

"It's noisy!"

His face was expressionless, his eyes were indifferent, and he looked at the group of chattering pirates not far away, and a loud shout came out.

Once in combat mode...

Luen found that

His temper will become extraordinarily grumpy!

and.....

It's easy to get irritated!

In his view, this may be the temperament change brought about by this body of muscles.

To this,

He was not disgusted.

instead,

enjoying the moment.

"A group of ants..."

"You dare to chatter in front of me?"

"It's so noisy!"

"Who gave you the courage to call around in front of me?"

Lu En glanced at the audience.

for a while,

Hundreds of extremely vicious pirates, no one dared to look at him, all of them avoided his gaze, dodged, and did not dare to look directly at him.

"Little devil, how dare you be so arrogant in this uncle's territory?"

"Really brave!"

"Next..."

"You said, what is the best way for this uncle to kill you?"

"Breaking you into eight pieces?"

"Or chop you into meat sauce?"

Seeing Lu En's irritable face, Bucky not only didn't feel any timid, but his inner killing intent became stronger and stronger, and he grinned.

As a pirate who once followed One Piece Roger, Bucky would not be easily frightened by Lu En.

unless.....

Things are completely out of Bucky's control.

However, the current development of things clearly has not been beyond Bucky's control.

"Before I take you down..."

"I have to do one thing first."

Lu En looked at Bucky.

"Oh? What's the matter? Is it to beg for forgiveness from the uncle? It's useless, since the moment you called the nickname of the uncle. It is impossible for the uncle to forgive your evil deeds!"

"You are sure to die!"

Bucky couldn't stop laughing.

"You may have misunderstood."

"I just wanted to..."

"Let those noisy ants get a good night's sleep."

"That's all!"

"I think you wouldn't mind, would you?"

"Let a group of weak and insignificant ants chat here..."

"Don't you feel very disgusted?"

Lu En was full of smiles.

"Well? What do you mean?"

Bucky raised his brows and looked at Lu En coldly.

""Little devil, don't be mad!"

"Dare to call us ants?"

"who do you think You Are?"

"If it wasn't for the fact that Boss Bucky had already gone out in person, there would be so many of us here, one mouthful of saliva would be enough to drown you arrogant brat!"

The blue-haired man and the hundreds of pirates around him stared at Lu En with a cold expression, his eyes were murderous, and his eyes were burning with a bit of anger.

Open your mouth and shut your mouth,

Just call them ants...

Do you really think they are soft persimmons?

"listen!"

"Did you hear it?"

Lu En showed a slightly arrogant smile.

"What's the meaning?"

Bucky was expressionless.

"You didn't hear?"

"The cries of these ants are so loud! You didn't hear them?!"

"when....."

"Even ants are qualified to call in front of me?!"

Lu En laughed out loud.

Bucky's face sank: "Little devil, don't be too arrogant!"

"Oh yes, I almost forgot to tell you."

Lu En looked at Bucky with a smile, met his gloomy eyes, and said,

"Actually, in my eyes, even you, who is standing in front of me at this moment, are an insignificant ant!"

"Next..."

"Let these ants get a good night's sleep!"

"Let them continue to disturb my good mood!"

then,

Before the angry Bucky could respond.

moment,

(Is the money okay?) Without hesitation, Lu En instantly stimulated the surging power in his body.

An unparalleled majestic spiritual force...

At this moment,

Suddenly burst out!

Like a volcano that has accumulated for a long time,

Under Lu En's deliberate mobilization.

This power is like a volcanic eruption!

boom--

There was a roar in the body.

Chapter 63:

The long-brewed spiritual power in Lu En's body swept through his body rapidly.

to destroy,

Destruction!

The incomparably powerful spiritual power gradually began to transform into a terrifying aura.

astonishing,

surging!

Like waves of waves, rolling in all directions.

The overwhelming air waves rushed towards every corner of the tavern.

inch by inch extension,

Cover the whole place.

Invisible invisible aura, showing a circular arc.

Taking Luen as the center point, the radius of the radius of hundreds of meters is completely covered.

at this time,

Even the layer of dust accumulated on the ground for many years has already been rolled up by the air waves emanating from this invisible aura.

curling up,

Dancing grass.

and this,

It is the legend, the overlord is domineering!

"Everyone..."

"Let's welcome a feast brought by the domineering arrogance of the overlord!".

Chapter 49 The Shocking Overlord Seduces the Audience! Bucky is shocked! [3/20 for the first order]

boom--

The endless tyrannical domineering, like the turbulent waves of the mountains, spreads and swept in all directions along Lu En's body, covering the entire tavern with a radius of hundreds of meters in diameter.

Shocking Overlord is domineering...

Strongly shock the audience!

then,

Visible to the naked eye...

The pirates who were affected by this invisible and invisible aura originally still had expressions of schadenfreude on their faces, but in an instant, their expressions became extraordinarily stiff.

moment,

eyes turned white,

Foaming at the mouth.

Their spirits and consciousness were subjected to an extremely strong and terrifying impact, and they were crushed on the spot by the mighty power brought by the overlord's domineering arrogance.

"Uh...uh..."

A pirate who lost consciousness also lost control of his body and limbs.

thump!

thump!

...

It was followed by a dull sound.

I see,

A group of pirates fell to the ground one after another, unconscious.

Once it fell, it fell a lot!

There are hundreds of pirates. In the blink of an eye, more than 90 pirates were stunned by the overlord's arrogance, paralyzed on the ground, motionless, and their bodies became extraordinarily stiff, like cold corpses.

Everything just happened in an instant.

Before all the pirates in the audience could react,

More than 90 pirates have already been stunned by the overlord color.

Invincible,

Unstoppable.

In the face of the tyrannical shock that Lu En broke out, they did not have the capital to resist at all.

Depressed atmosphere!

silence!

The whole place was silent!

As the shocking domineering arrogance that Lu En erupted disappeared, there were very few pirates who were still able to remain conscious in the entire tavern, and there were not many left.

As this batch of pirates all fell down, the whispering voices that filled the interior of the 843 had all disappeared without a trace.

The overlord color erupted rapidly,

It also disappeared quickly.

Before and after it was less than a few breaths,

The domineering arrogance that erupted from Lu En disappeared.

now,

Look around,

All can only see.

There were nearly a hundred vicious pirates, all laying on the ground strangely and motionless, as if they had lost their vital signs.

If not for their still heaving chests, they were still alive.

I'm afraid...

It will be mistaken for people to think that these pirates have been reduced to cold corpses.

The strange scenes were clearly presented in the eyes of the surviving pirates.

Let their faces turn pale, their faces are full of horror and horror, and their eyes are full of fear and shock.

All of this has seriously subverted their cognition.

Let their worldview shatter and collapse on the spot!

Gollum!

The blue-haired man couldn't help swallowing his saliva, his face was pale and almost bloodless, and his eyes were full of horror, looking at the several pirate accomplices who were lying beside him at the moment.

Others are stupid.

Originally arrogant...

But at this very moment,

Seeing nearly a hundred pirates in the audience, they were all killed in an instant!

The arrogant arrogance on his face disappeared without a trace, and his face was full of horror.

He felt an unprecedented fear in his heart.

He is precisely the survivor within the range of the overlord's domineering arrogance.

From this it can be seen that

This person has good strength and spiritual will, otherwise, it would be impossible to stop Lu En's tyrannical shock.

"Just, just now..."

"In the end what happened?!"

The blue-haired man's lips trembled, and his whole body trembled uncontrollably.

He was going to mock Lu En...

I think the latter is beyond their own power and dare to provoke their entire Bucky Pirates in public!

Unexpectedly,

In the next second, such unbelievable phenomena happened.

"It's the momentum..."

"I feel it now."

"Just now, an extremely terrifying aura enveloped my body."

"It's like, let me sink into the * of Jiuyou."

"At that moment, my body couldn't move at all!"

A pirate who was almost paralyzed by fright, spoke in a trembling voice.

Watching openly,

All the pirate accomplices around him lost consciousness one after another and fell to the ground.

This scene really caused a strong visual impact to the surviving pirates, and it also ignited the flames of fear in their hearts.

Thick fear, welling up in my heart, penetrates my body and mind!

"Qi, momentum?!"

The blue-haired man recalled,

The surging momentum that swept his whole body just now made him seem to have returned to his childhood, when he once fell into a wild mountain forest and faced a beast alone.

That deep sense of powerlessness lingers in my heart.

Powerless!

helpless!

fear!

Panic!

Countless emotions dominate the entire body in an instant.

After many years,

The blue-haired man never dreamed that one day, he would once again feel the deep sense of powerlessness in his heart when he faced a beast alone when he was a child.

"what is happening?!"

"In an instant..."

"Nearly a hundred people were killed on the spot!"

"Are they all stunned by the momentum just now?"

"What exactly is this means?"

"How can it be so scary!"

The blue-haired man had a dry throat and clenched his fists, unable to suppress the fear in his heart.

He had never experienced such a shocking and strange event in his life.

Looking around,

He looked at Bucky the old clown not far away with a look of helplessness, as if looking for the latter, who could bring them an accurate answer.

As the remaining survivors, the fearful eyes of the pirates were fixed on Bucky by coincidence.

Chapter 64:

They couldn't help but ask, "Boss, Bucky, what's going on here?"

can see,

Not only the survivors were terrified.

now,

Even Bucky, the captain of the Bucky Pirates, a big pirate with a famous reputation when looking at the entire East China Sea, couldn't help but reveal emotions full of shock, shock, and disbelief.

"how can that be?!"

Bucky's eyes were full of horror and astonishment, and he stared blankly at the nearly 100 subordinates who fell to the ground.

Nearly 100 subordinates were instantly killed in seconds!

Only a few survivors remain...

The gloomy, stern and violent expression on Bucky's face had turned into deep fear.

Others are stupid.

Never thought.....

in the East China Sea,

This is called the weakest sea area.

He actually felt that familiar power again!

Yes!

Bucky had experienced the terrifying aura that swept his body just now, and he was all too familiar with this force.

then,

His good friend, the red-haired Shanks, has such potential, and more than once or twice, he has personally experienced the horror of this power.

"It shouldn't be like this!"

"This is the East China Sea!"

"Not the Great Channel! Not the New World!"

"It is known as the weakest sea area, the East China Sea. How can this power appear here?!"

"Am I dreaming?"

Bucky opened his mouth, his eyes were lost for a while, and the shock on his face could not be dissipated.

He was all too familiar with this power.

It is because of familiarity with...

so,

He will show such a strong shock.

even,

Let Bucky lose his temper completely.

"The power of Shanks..."

"It can't be wrong!"

"My feeling can never be wrong."

"It's that power!"

"It's called..."

Bucky swallowed, and the more he thought about it, the more his heart skipped a beat.

At this time,

The blue-haired man couldn't help but ask, "Boss Bucky, what did you think of?"

"In this sea..."

"There are three extremely terrifying tricks!"

"Those supreme powerhouses and those monsters in the sea, most of them can only control two of them."

"And the third..."

"It's called, the overlord is domineering!"

Bucky blurted out subconsciously, "It is said that among millions of people, only one person has the potential of a king! Every person with the potential of a king will surely become the most terrifying monster in this sea in the future!"

"If I'm not wrong."

"Just now, the aura of power that killed nearly 100 people in the audience in one second is the legendary domineering arrogance!"

"In this small East China Sea, known as the weakest sea area."

"I never imagined that one day, I would actually feel the power of the overlord's arrogance!"

Bucky was in a frenzy.

He has been hiding in the East China Sea...

but did not expect,

You can still feel the domineering power of the king!

This power, but looking at the first half of the entire great channel, only those top monsters have it!

today,

But let him meet in the East China Sea!

What is this luck? !

"Ba, the tyrant is domineering..."

The few surviving pirates were dumbfounded, their heads buzzing.

Although they had never heard of Domineering Domineering, but from Bucky's introduction, they could deeply appreciate how terrifying the power called Domineering Domineering was.

"The overlord is domineering, it is the exclusive use of monsters on this sea!"

"How could it possibly appear in the ghost place of the East China Sea?!"

Bucky was deeply moved.

He is sure,

The power that can instantly kill nearly a hundred subordinates on the spot...

Undoubtedly, this is the rumored overlord color!

"Boss Bucky, who is it that unleashed such a terrifying power?"

The blue-haired man asked in a trembling voice.

heard,

Bucky sucked in a breath.

After being reminded by his subordinates, he suddenly realized something even more frightening and terrifying.

then,

He turned his eyes and stared straight ahead.

Looking at the shirtless four-year-old boy with muscular upper body.

moment,

A gust of cold air rises from the soles of the feet to the sky...

Bucky just felt creepy and his scalp tingled.

"The man who broke out the domineering arrogance just now."

"Could it be..."

"This kid?!".

Chapter 50 Exploding Alive! What kind of monster are you! □Ask for the first order on 4/20□

Inside the pub.

Weird atmosphere!

Silence!

Look around,

can be clearly seen.

One by one, the pirates lay unconscious on the ground, completely lost consciousness, passed out, and did not move.

The bustling pub...

Before and after but just a few breaths- of time.

Here, it becomes - it becomes a silence!

Silent!

Colorful halos flickered and scattered from the ceiling, dispelling the darkness in the corner of the tavern.

Bucky looked terrified and shocked.

The astonishing guess that came to his mind just now made him stunned instantly.

"How, how is it possible?!"

"I must be crazy!"

"This kid..."

"How could it be possible to have a tyrannical appearance?!"

"How is it possible..."

"At such an age, do you have control over the tyrannical arrogance?"

Bucky's lips trembled and he shuddered.

He was frightened by the speculation in his heart.

But aside from this speculation...

There is no second possibility.

Who else could it be besides this little devil in front of him?

At the scene, who else would burst out overlordism to deal with their group of pirates?

No!

There is only one answer!

Even if this answer makes Bucky unbelievable.

However, this is also an indisputable fact.

"This kid..."

"Actually, among millions of people, only one person has the potential of a king?!"

"This uncle has encountered a monster with the potential of a king here in the East China Sea?"

"And, before this, the uncle foolishly took the initiative to provoke this monster? He even threatened to cut this monster into eight pieces?"

Recalling what happened before, made Bucky's heart full of panic.

He was vaguely aware of it.

today,

He seems to have provoked an extremely terrifying existence!

Chapter 65:

A monster with the potential of a king!

more of a...

At just four years old, he took control of the overlord-colored freak!

"Even Shanks back then couldn't control the overlord at the age of four."

"even....."

"I've never heard that there are people who can completely control the domineering and domineering of the king before the age of ten, and can display and use them freely."

"Only today, I have encountered such an example."

"A once-in-a-century example!"

"Unparalleled in the past! Unrivaled in the world!"

The more Bucky thought about it, the more terrified he became, his mood fell to the bottom, his body seemed to have fallen into an abyss, making him goosebumps and shivering.

As a pirate who once followed One Piece Roger, Bucky's knowledge and experience are naturally not comparable to those of the pirates in the sea of the East China Sea.

But even so,

When I saw an example of a four-year-old who was able to control the overlord's color with great skill, after all, Bucky was shocked and lost his temper.

Stronger than Shanks...

Can't do it!

One Piece Roger...

Mr. Reilly...

Neither can they!

There has never been an example of being in control of the overlord at the age of four.

"Four-year-old control overlord's color?"

"What is this concept?"

"What kind of amazing talent does this kid have?"

"unimaginable!"

Bucky was shaking violently.

He has understood.

At this moment,

He caused a terrible disaster!

Provoked an unprecedented peerless evildoer!

"My uncle's luck is too bad."

"A four-year-old monster who has mastered the overlord's color, even if it is placed in the sea of endless monsters in the New World, it is a rare example that has never been seen before!"

"Why..."

"However, in this weakest piece of the East China Sea, I actually let this uncle encounter such a rare monster in a century?"

Bucky thought terrified.

He is sure,

With the talent in front of Lu En, even in the new world, it is the top. therefore.

He is completely incomprehensible...

Why does this kind of monster appear in the East China Sea? !

This is not scientific at all!

Looked up,

Bucky's face was pale, with a terrified expression on his face, he looked at Lu En: "Little devil, have a discussion. You and I will stop here, how about everyone turning the fight into a jade brocade?"

just like,

Bucky is dumbfounded.

He was afraid.

A four-year-old monster who has mastered the overlord's color, makes Bucky completely afraid to treat each other as an ordinary hairy boy. Although he is in control of the overlord's domineering, it does not mean that the opponent's strength will be very strong.

However, Bucky is reluctant to gamble.

Don't dare to gamble!

just in case.....

Is the strength of this monster really strong?

Then how should he be?

Bucky identified.

A person with the potential of a king will surely become the top monster in this sea in the future!

this moment,

He has even forgotten.

Just now, he was called to do something with a red nose.

The anger in his heart was directly doused by the domineering arrogance like a basin of cold water.

With Bucky taking the initiative to confess...

around,

As the last survivors, several pirates, led by the blue-haired man, looked at Bucky's figure with dull and horrified faces, as if they couldn't believe it.

The invincible boss Bucky in their hearts would actually take the initiative to bow his head to a kid and admit it softly!

This scene overturned their understanding of Bucky.

"Lian Bucky boss..."

"Have you all taken the initiative to admit your cowardice?"

"That kid is too scary!"

"Obviously, he's only four years old!"

The blue-haired man was terrified.

just thought of,

This terrifying monster was brought back to the base camp by himself, and his heart became more and more panic.

"Have you confessed?"

Seeing that Bucky took the initiative to admit and surrender, Lu En's eyes were a little playful, and he looked at the humble clown Bucky with surprise.

Wasn't it arrogant just now?

this time...

Why are you so cowardly?

"Unfortunately....."

"I've said it from the beginning."

"All of you present today, one counts as one!"

"I'm going to blow you all up!"

Lu En grinned.

the sound fell,

Bucky only felt a tingling in his scalp, creepy.

then,

Not waiting for Bucky to react.

Lu En started.

Since the tyrannical look just now has been cleared smoothly...

Then next,

It's time for him to start getting serious.

"Without that group of chattering ants..."

"I really feel better."

Lu En looked at the surviving pirates, including Bucky the Clown, with a brighter smile on his face, "Now, let's have a man fight!"

"You better kill me!"

"otherwise....."

"I will kill you!"

a loud laugh,

Accompanied by Lu En's figure, it flickers through the space like a ghost.

too fast!

The speed is fast to the extreme!

With the naked eye, Lu En's figure could not be seen at all for a while.

"shave!"

.....

.....????

The Navy Type 6 was activated, causing Lu En's figure to move frantically at a super high-speed frequency.

Even Bucky couldn't see Lu En's trajectory clearly.

"Okay, fast!"

Bucky's pupils shrank, his face was pale, and his face was full of horror.

Lu En's figure, he couldn't capture it at all!

instantly,

Lu En flashed out of thin air and appeared beside the blue-haired man.

huge fist,

He mercilessly smashed the head of the blue-haired man.

The thunder can't cover the ears,

extremely fast,

The fist has not come,

Fist is coming.

This punch seemed to shatter the space.

rip-

Accompanied by a piercing cracking sound.

Like a sonic boom!

This punch actually produced a sonic boom.

The sharp voice resounded in the blue-haired man's ears and kept buzzing, making him unable to respond the whole time, and his head seemed to be completely disturbed by the sound of sonic booms.

"Get out of the way!"

Chapter 66:

Bucky's face changed dramatically, he looked back at the blue-haired man, and shouted loudly.

However,

It's too late!

Lu En's speed is so fast.

Far beyond the imagination of everyone present.

Originally, Lu En's physical fitness was extremely strong.

not to mention.....

Now, Lu En has also mastered the Navy's Sixth Form.

Lu En, who performed the six-style shaving, was almost at an extreme speed. Naturally, it was not something that the blue-haired man could easily react to.

then.....

Under the eyes of Bucky and others.

Lu En's fist had already hit the blue-haired man's head hard.

boom--

The violent power suddenly erupted in Yu fist.

to destroy,

Destruction.

This punch seems to be going through space.

Infinite might burst forth from Lu En's fist.

Like a long-suppressed volcano, it finally ushered in the moment of eruption.

The unparalleled power was fully vented and rushed to the head of the blue-haired man.

secretly,

Even the surrounding space seemed to be wriggling and twisting faintly, and it seemed that it might collapse at any time.

The surging air pressure enveloped the blue-haired man's body, forcibly imprisoning his body.

In an instant,

puff!

The head of the blue-haired man is like a watermelon,

It exploded on the spot.

broken,

split.

The blood that splashed up turned into a mist that danced in the sky.

blood stained the sky,

Minced meat flying.

A large bloodstain, like a drizzle of goose feathers, slanted down from the air.

infested on floor tiles,

The ground is covered with a layer of light red makeup.

The pungent * smell spread in all directions.

instantly,

thump!

A dull voice sounded.

I see,

The blue-haired man's icy corpse that had lost all the breath of life fell heavily to the ground next to it, raising the faint layer of dust accumulated on the floor tiles to float.

life withered,

Life is lost.

So far,

Blue-haired man, completely dead!

Being confronted by Lu En...

With only one punch the whole process, it blew up on the spot!

There is no fighting back!

at this time,

Witnessing the scene where the blue-haired man was punched by Lu En,

Bucky looked horrified and stared at Lu En, whose fist was already covered with blood at this moment.

quite a while,

Bucky trembled slightly, his face pale, and he blurted out subconsciously.

"Just, the trick you used just now is..."

"Navy Six?!"

"What kind of monster are you?!" Zhang.

Chapter 51 Beat the tavern with one punch! Hit Bucky on the spot!

□First order on 5/20□

A breeze was blowing from the tavern window.

in the air,

There was a pungent * smell everywhere.

on the ground,

A cold headless corpse, extremely ferocious and terrifying.

The blue-haired man is dead.

Got punched by Lu En!

There was no time to react the whole time.

Just be quick,

Destruction!

With an absolutely crushing attitude, he punched the blue-haired man to death!

The atmosphere is quiet!

Silence!

Gollum!

Several pirates couldn't help swallowing their saliva, looking at the cold corpse lying on the ground with horror and shock, their eyes were full of horror.

the whole process.....

They are completely unresponsive!

When they reacted, they could only see this cold corpse lying on the ground.

The entire head has been blown up by one punch!

The blood flows slowly,

Spilled from corpse.

Rivers of blood.

This scene fell into the eyes of several pirates extremely clearly, causing their inner fears to be fully ignited and amplified.

Tick tock!

Tick tock!

...

Bright red blood dripped from Lu En's fist.

His upper body was naked, and his muscles were particularly evident.

The bulging muscles formed a ghost back.

Like a devil's pattern, it was printed on Lu En's back.

It looks so hideous,

fear!

A strong sense of oppression of "August 47" emanated, sweeping the entire tavern.

this moment,

Lu En's figure appeared in the eyes of several pirates and Bucky, like a demon who came out of hell, sweeping the body and mind with a full sense of oppression.

"Good, very strong!"

A pirate's throat was dry, and he subconsciously took a half step back, his face was pale, and he looked at Lu En's figure with lingering fears, his voice trembling.

beside him,

The other two survivors also looked pale and seemed to be extremely frightened.

It can be clearly seen that,

The bodies of these pirates were shaking uncontrollably.

fear!

Thick fear, welling up in my heart!

"I can't see his movements at all."

"Just a face-to-face..."

"That guy Jack was beaten up with one punch."

"We, and this monster, are not at the same level of comparison."

"In front of this monster, we are as vulnerable as ants!"

"emotion....."

"From the beginning, what this monster said did not despise us. More precisely, in the eyes of this monster, we are indeed ants!"

Several pirates were terrified.

Watching openly,

The accomplices around him were instantly killed by a punch!

All the while, they were powerless.

This sense of powerlessness made them completely desperate.

"You, you are using the Sixth Naval Style?!"

"am I right?"

Bucky stared at Lu En tightly, feeling terrified inside.

He recognized it.

The tricks that this kid just displayed!

It is the famous six-style of the navy!

Here comes the problem...

Chapter 67:

This kid, how could he use the Sixth Form of the Navy? !

Could it be that.....

Is this kid a navy? !

In other words,

This kid, came from a family of navy? !

So.

Who is it that can teach a terrifying monster of this level? !

"you are right."

"pity....."

"No prizes."

Lu En smiled.

He twisted his arm and shook the blood on his fist.

The blood fell from his hands,

Dye the ground next to it red.

"You little bastard..."

"Where is the holy place?"

Bucky was horrified.

A four-year-old monster who has dominated the domineering and domineering...

now,

Even more terrifying is...

The other party was actually carrying the sixth form of the Navy!

It's a complete Navy 6-style, not a Navy 6-style that lacks arms and legs.

what does that mean? !

Bucky couldn't imagine it.

How could such a terrifying monster appear in this world!

It's okay to control the overlord's color at the age of four.

The other party even mastered the six naval styles at the same time.

This made Bucky unbelievable.

"What a shocking and terrifying talent..."

"Can you be at the tender age of four, not only mastering the overlord's color, but also mastering the six naval styles extremely skillfully?"

Thinking of this, Bucky couldn't help swallowing.

Others are stupid.

Frightened pale.

"who I am?"

"Is that important?"

"unimportant."

"The important thing is..."

"You're dying, you know that?"

Lu En looked at Bucky with a smile.

words fell,

Bucky felt hairs on his back, and the cold air shot up from the soles of his feet.

"Want to kill this uncle?"

"Don't think about it!"

Bucky's eyes were fierce, forcibly suppressing the fear in his heart.

then,

He hurriedly shouted to the shivering subordinates beside him: "You guys! Give it to Uncle Ben! Kill that * brat!"

However,

These pirates shivered and did not dare to respond.

When witnessing...

In the * scene where the blue-haired man was beaten with a punch just now, how could they dare to act rashly against Lu En?

just like,

These pirates were already terrified.

"waste!"

"A bunch of rice buckets!"

Bucky hated that iron could not become steel, and scolded angrily.

"Boss Ba, Bucky, this kind of monster is definitely not something we can try to contend with."

"It's better to admit defeat..."

"In a naval prison, we might get a little life back."

"But if we continue to resist stubbornly, we may really die. Just like that guy Jack, we were beaten alive with a punch!"

Several pirates said in fear.

"Damn!"

Bucky gritted his teeth, helpless.

Turned,

He stared at Lu En, tense in body and mind, always prepared for Lu En's sudden attack.

just thought of,

The monster in front of him, who can even master the six naval styles, immediately made Bucky feel a deep sense of powerlessness.

"Can't beat..."

"I will never be the opponent of this monster!"

"In this case, there is only one last way left."

"escape!"

"Must escape from this ghost place!"

Bucky has a plan in his mind.

Immediately,

He turned around suddenly without hesitation, opened his mouth, spat out a round sphere from his mouth, and attacked Lu En's direction.

"Bucky Bomb!"

with a loud shout,

Immediately after,

Bucky took a very decisive step and quickly fled in the opposite direction. at this time.

Facing the black bomb that Bucky spit out, Lu En was expressionless, looking at Bucky who was trying to escape from the scene through the bomb.

"escape?"

"Can you escape?"

instantly,

Lu En slowly raised his right arm.

clenched fist,

The power in the body quickly gathered in the fist.

The power of repression is getting stronger and stronger.

Terrible!

Earthshaking!

"Iron Nugget Steel Fist!"

The iron block of six styles was mobilized by Lu En to gather the fist in his right hand.

moment,

His right fist seemed to have turned into an indestructible steel plate.

The power is all concentrated in one point.

Tighten the muscle cells of the fist.

Infinitely strengthen the defense!

Flesh's defense is climbing straight up!

then.....

The power burst out in an instant!

Endless surging power erupted from Lu En's fist.

like an erupting volcano,

to destroy,

Destruction!

boom--

punched out,

Aim at the small bomb that hits ahead.

One punch hit the bomb on the spot.

moment,

boom!

Accompanied by a loud roar.

Like thunder,

Deafening.

It's like the sky is broken.

There was a shock, and the sound was loud and spread over a thousand-meter area.

Infinite air waves exploded,

Swept in all directions.

at the same time.

The explosive force of Lu En's fist generated an extremely strong airflow, which abruptly crushed and shattered the explosive force of the bomb, forcing it all back.

The earth collapsed.

In the blink of an eye,

Lu En's figure has fallen to a depth of about half a meter and thirty centimeters, and his fist is still firmly blocked in front of the shock wave that the bomb exploded.

On the ground, there were cracks that were scary like spider webs.

Creepy.

Boom!

The two forces are madly intertwined,

keep colliding.

Appears to be very intense.

secretly,

One after another, lightning-like currents flickered all over Lu En's fist.

A faint halo illuminated Lu En's muscular upper body.

A ghostly back,

Shocking.

It looks like a small body, but it contains extremely terrifying power.

"Break it for me!"

The power of Lu En's fist climbed again.

The air wave was extremely destructive, and Lu En stood on the spot with his bare hands, knocking it back forcibly.

then,

This shock wave with the power to destroy the world was forcibly forced to retreat in the direction that Bucky was trying to escape at the moment.

An extremely fast impact comes... 3.4...

With lightning speed,

Suddenly hit Bucky who was running away!

for a moment,

The overwhelming violent shock wave,

With the power of Lu En's punch, Bucky's body was completely enveloped.

"what!"

The terrifying force bombarded Bucky and vomited blood on the spot. He felt the tingling sensation from his body, and Bucky couldn't help but let out a really painful scream.

His figure flew all the way upside down dozens of meters in midair.

That violent shock wave even carried his body...

All the way, he bombarded the wall a hundred meters away from the tavern.

then.....

boom--

Another loud bang erupted.

The entire wall of the tavern was shattered and cracked by the bombardment on the spot.

Cracked inch by inch,

Fall apart.

Boom!

the wall collapsed,

It turned into countless pieces of debris and scattered down wildly.

100 meters away...

This shocking punch from Lu En broke the whole tavern on the spot! .

Bucky's body was knocked flying by this violent shock wave, slammed into the wall a hundred meters away, and fell with a real strength.

The whole body slammed into the wall, and there were dense cracks. On Bucky's back, the wall was sunk hard.

cracks spread,

Cracks like spider webs are extremely densely arranged on the entire wall.

puff!

Opening a mouth, Bucky spit out a mouthful of pus and blood, his eyes were full of horror and shock, his face was pale, and the tingling sensation all over his body passed through his body.

"what!"

From Bucky's mouth, there were waves of painful howls and screams again.

his body...

It was as if all the bones on his body were shattered.

The heart-piercing tingling sensation made Bucky's eyes bloodshot, and his face looked particularly hideous. He couldn't bear the pain at all, and kept rolling and whining.

Take a closer look,

The clothes on Bucky's body have become torn and damaged, and the moment the violent shock wave hit it, it was instantly crushed and crushed.

also,

There were also countless scars on Bucky's body. Numerous skin injuries spread all over his body, and bloodstains flowed slowly, infecting his body.

In the blink of an eye,

He soaked Bucky into a * man, looking particularly miserable and embarrassed.

The pungent * smell drifted in all directions.

"Pain! Pain!"

Bucky's body seemed to fall apart completely.

He was knocked into the air and slammed into a wall 100 meters away.

Coupled with Lu En's punch, it carried a strong shock wave from the explosion of the bomb.

Bucky, who was bombarded with such a force, if it weren't for his own vitality, he was extremely tenacious. Maybe Lu En's punch just now would have killed him suddenly on the spot.

But fortunately.

As a pirate on Roger's ship, although he was only a small one, he had experienced countless battles and had tempered his incomparably tenacious vitality.

Like a little strong,

As long as they are not bombarded by too terrifying power, they can live tenaciously.

Tick tock!

Tick tock!

...

The bloodstains kept slipping from Bucky's body, falling to the ground and merging into it.

At this moment,

Bucky showed an unprecedented embarrassed posture.

The famous big pirate clown Bucky in the East China Sea, the ferocious pirate who made countless civilians fear the wind, at this moment, shows a very weak and embarrassed appearance.

"Cough cough!"

Coughing violently, Bucky vomited blood, his face was pale, and he looked almost bloodless, and his entire body was sunken and embedded in the wall.

Not only did the body suffer from extremely serious skin trauma...

also,

The internal organs in Bucky's body were subjected to extremely strong shocks, which caused damage to the internal organs one after another.

In just one encounter, Lu En severely injured Bucky the Clown on the spot with just one punch, and even nearly killed Bucky with one punch.

Now,

Bucky couldn't move.

His limbs were completely out of his control.

I can't control the movement of my limbs at all...

every slight movement,

like a mudslide...

Countless broken pieces of debris piled up like mountains on the edge of the corner.

for a while,

Here the smoke billows and the dust lingers.

Even Bucky, who was seriously injured, fell heavily into the pile of ruins, and his body fell heavily under the small ruins formed by countless broken stones.

Bucky, who was seriously injured, ushered in a second wave of injuries again.

In the blink of an eye,

Bucky's body was completely buried under the rubble.

This wall was actually punched by a hole that stretched dozens of meters.

So far,

The entire tavern, one wall was completely pierced!

the horizon,

A round of scorching sun hangs.

The scattered golden halo, through this broken wall, was imprinted on the interior of the tavern, completely dispelling the original darkness of the tavern.

Lu En's punch almost forced the entire tavern to explode!

At least,

This punch was 100 meters away, forcibly smashing and collapsing the wall of the tavern.

the ground collapsed,

The ground shattered.

Countless scars were left behind...

riddled with holes,

Devastated.

The mess left on the scene is simply creepy.

Countless broken pieces of debris are scattered in every corner.

Who dares to imagine...

Such a miserable and messy environment inside the tavern was only forcibly punched out by someone? !

If you hadn't seen it with your own eyes,

I'm afraid no one can believe it!

look around,

The whole tavern looks like a ruined ruins.

broken,

decay,

run down.

The whole place was dead silent!

A few pirates shivered, hiding at the edge of the wall and daring not to act rashly. Their eyes were filled with fear, and they looked at the messy ruin hundreds of meters away.

"Ba, Boss Bucky..."

"I'm instantly killed by a face-to-face!"

"Even Boss Bucky can't stop that kid's punch!"

"What kind of monster is this?!"

"It must be too strong!"

Seeing the scene where Bucky was killed in seconds, these pirates became more and more fearful and trembled.

Looking around,

They couldn't help but look.

The young figure who stayed where he was from the beginning to the end, and only punched one punch the whole time.

Gollum!

Several pirates swallowed, and the fear in their hearts was infinitely magnified.

now,

They even had the idea of escaping completely extinguished.

dare not move,

dare not escape,

Only shivering and shrinking in the corner.

"Fortunately, we did not choose to resist."

"otherwise....."

"At that moment just now, we must die!"

They thought happily.

the other side,

Watching the collapsed wall become a ruined ruin, and burying the clown Bucky's body under the ruins...

see,

Lu En took his steps slowly, and came to the position beside the ruins all the way from the floor tiles that were riddled with holes.

He can feel it.

Bucky is not dead!

Although Bucky is not strong.

But I have to admit that Bucky's vitality is still quite tenacious.

At most, this injury can only make Bucky seriously injured.

But away from death...

Far from it!

gradually,

Under Lu En's eyes.

A faint tremor came from the dilapidated ruins.

Boom!

Countless broken pieces of debris slowly scattered down to the two sides.

finally--

A hand poked out from the ruins.

then,

A second hand also appeared.

Two hands supported the broken ruins on both sides.

With countless rubble scattered...

in a while,

Bucky's bruised body, as difficult as a snail, crawled out of this dilapidated ruin in an extremely embarrassing shape.

"Cough cough!"

Bucky, who had just climbed out of the ruins, could not help coughing violently again, almost coughing out his internal organs, vomiting blood, and his face became paler.

His hair was messy.

The hat on top of his head had long since shattered into powder and disappeared without a trace.

On the horizon, there were streaks of golden halo.

The whole pub is open and bright.

See the sun again,

Feel the warm sunshine.

Make Bucky feel like the rest of his life.

Resisting the tingling sensations from all over his body, he raised his head with great difficulty.

Immediately after,

He saw a familiar figure.

At this moment, the other party stood quietly beside the ruins, looking down at him condescendingly.

A pair of eyes without any emotional waves.

as if...

Watching an insignificant ant!

And his clown Bucky is this tiny ant overlooked!

"you....."

Bucky's throat was dry, his lips were shaking, his face was pale, and he was shaking.

The four-year-old boy in front of me...

It has become Bucky's worst nightmare!

It made him completely unable to contain the fear in his heart, goosebumps all over his body, and his hands and feet became cold.

Chapter 70:

By now.....

In fact, it is not difficult to see.

At this moment,

Lu En has cast a huge psychological shadow on this big pirate clown

Bucky, whose fierce name is resounding throughout the East China Sea!

To each other's heart...

Inflicted 10,000 tons of trauma! .

Chapter 53 Escorting Bucky the Clown! Go to the Navy branch! □First order on 7/20□

"Are you willing to climb out?"

"I thought you were going to hide in there and pretend to be dead."

Lu En glanced at Bucky lightly.

heard,

Bucky was sweating coldly on his forehead.

Just now, he really thought about it.

Hide under the ruins and play dead to get through the level.

But after thinking about it, he still crawled out.

Seeing Bucky's appearance, Lu En couldn't help laughing: "If you chose to hide and pretend to be dead just now, then I will send you on the road completely!"

The words fall.

Bucky's throat was dry, and his face grew more frightened.

Almost lost my life!

quite a while,

Only then did he endure the fear in his heart, and couldn't help but ask with difficulty, "Why? Why do you have to take me down?"

He never understood.

Why is Lu En in front of him so determined to take him down?

"why?"

Lu En's eyes narrowed slightly.

just thought of,

His stupid and stupid brother Luffy will be swayed by Bucky's good friend, the red-haired Shanks in the future, and his inner anger keeps rising.

Can't find redhead Shanks...

Take Bucky as an alternative!

This is not.

After crippling Bucky, Lu En's mood became much more comfortable.

"It's just unhappy to see you, that's all."

"Are you satisfied with this reason?"

Lu En smiled.

"Just looking at me upset?!"

Bucky cursed inwardly.

What's the reason for this ride?

Seriously injured just by looking at yourself unhappy?

This reason is too far-fetched!

Who is the pirate?

Why does it always sound like...

You monster is more like a pirate than me!

Simply reckless!

Relying on his own strength, he has almost no scruples!

"Okay. If you don't die, come with me to the prison of the naval branch."

"There, is your best home."

Lu En patted Bucky's head and said meaningfully, "I told you this long ago. Let me do it myself, and you may end up miserably."

"But it's fine."

"Your vitality is very tenacious, and you were lucky enough to save a life."

"To be honest, I really don't want to kill you."

"But, who made you choose to let me do it?"

Next,

Under Lu En's eyes.

Bucky endured the stinging pain in his body, gritted his teeth, forcibly propped up the bruised body, and stood up slowly from the ruined ruins. in the sun.

The base station is above the mountain of gravel debris, and there is no intact area on the whole body, and it is all covered with scars.

covered in wounds,

Bloodstained.

The clothes on his body have long been torn, his hair is messy, his face is pale, and his eyes are bloodshot, like a patient who is about to die.

"Cough cough □~!"

Coughing violently again, Bucky vomited blood, and the blood slowly flowed from the corner of his mouth.

The breath of his body is weak,

Disordered breathing.

"How many of you."

Lu En turned his eyes and looked at the shivering pirates not far away.

"No, don't kill us!"

"We surrender..."

"We would like to be put in a naval prison."

Several pirates were terrified, and quickly blurted out and kept begging for mercy.

"Your subordinates are not very brave."

Lu En looked at Bucky who was seriously injured beside him with interest.

Bucky was speechless.

He was silent in his heart and sighed.

this day,

The Bucky Pirates are completely wiped out!

The entire Bucky Pirates was wiped out by a four-year-old monster alone!

Even he, the captain of the Bucky Pirates, was severely injured and wounded.

Bucky expected it.

He is about to face the fate of being imprisoned in a naval prison.

If there is no accident, he may be imprisoned all his life.

Spend the rest of your life in a naval prison.

Thinking of this, Bucky was desperate.

"Well done..."

"Why should I provoke this monster?!"

"Who the * brought this monster back to the base camp?"

Bucky was about to cry.

He suddenly thought.

The blue-haired man Jack who brought the monster Lu En to their Bucky Pirates base camp...

"Good to die!"

"This * guy..."

"If he doesn't die, this uncle must kill him with his own hands!"

"It's okay to have nothing to do all day."

"Unfortunately, when there was nothing to do, he even brought back an extremely terrifying monster!"

"As a result, the entire Bucky Pirates was destroyed by one person!"

Bucky was full of unwillingness and anger.

This anger is naturally directed at the blue-haired man who brought Lu En here.

If it's not the other party...

How did the Bucky Pirates die?

How could they provoke such a terrifying monster?

With a silent sigh, Bucky was helpless.

It's too late to say anything now.

to no avail,

Meaningless.

"Come over here."

"Self-consciously, I tied my hands and feet with ropes."

"Don't play tricks on me..."

"Otherwise, you know the consequences."

Lu En glanced at the shivering pirates lightly.

With these pirates in a frightened state, Lu En believed that these guys would never dare to be clever.

as predicted.

Lu En's voice just fell.

Several pirates quickly picked up the rope and tied themselves up, and the binding was very firm.

see,

Lu En looked back with satisfaction.

Looking around,

He looked at Bucky next to him and said with a smile, "Come on, let me go to the Navy Headquarters. You should know that the Navy branch in Rogue Town is heading in that direction, right?"

heard,

Bucky's face paled.

Chapter 71:

Resisting the fear in his heart, he said weakly: "I can give you a lot of wealth, how about you let me go? This wealth is enough to make you handsome for most of your life! I have accumulated a lot of money. Half a lifetime of wealth!"

Lu En smiled.

Want to bribe yourself?

such a pity!

For Bucky's so-called wealth...

He didn't care at all.

"Walk."

Pushing Bucky with his right hand, Lu En's face was flat.

Seeing Lu En's face that didn't change in the whole process, Bucky's face was ashen.

He was desperate.

Under Luen's order,

Buckymore dared not obey.

He could only drag his heavy body, grit his teeth, and step by step with difficulty, walking towards the direction of the pub door.

every step,

It was a huge ordeal for Bucky.

His injury was too serious.

this time,

Allowing him to walk several kilometers on his own would cost him his life.

Every time he took a step, the body would deliver a heart-piercing tingling sensation, causing Bucky to sweat coldly on his forehead, gasping for breath, and trembling in pain.

This is definitely the worst trauma Bucky has ever suffered in his life!

There has never been an injury more serious than the one hit by Lu En today.

""This kid..."

"He, who is holy?"

"Who is it that can actually cultivate such a terrifying monster?!"

Until now, Bucky is still puzzled by this.

Lu En's identity is like a mystery...

Bucky was always confused.

then,

Lu En took Bucky and left from the direction of the tavern gate, all the way to the direction of the naval branch in Rogue Town.

certainly.

Before leaving the tavern,

Lu En had knocked out the shivering pirates.

Avoid them taking the opportunity to escape.

After knocking out these pirates,

Lu En could take Bucky to the naval branch with confidence.

Only left...(money Zhao)...

in the pub,

Hundreds of pirates that looked like cold corpses everywhere.

They all lay motionless on the ground, unconscious.

The pirates who were stunned by the domineering look of the overlord, naturally couldn't easily recover without a long time.

After solving the cumbersome things that remain in the tavern...

Luen took Bucky for a few kilometers.

Bucky's body and mind were numb to the point of pain.

finally--

far away,

Bucky saw the standing naval branch.

very majestic,

Full of oppression.

this moment,

Bucky was relieved.

He has never been so eager to...

Very eager to see the Navy branch!

now,

It finally got his wish.

If you let him run an extra kilometer...

He might really be dying.

"arrive!"

"finally reached!"

Bucky's legs were weak, and he was half-kneeling on the ground, trembling all over.

beside,

Lu En glanced at Bucky casually, but didn't care about Bucky's embarrassed appearance.

Grab Bucky's neck,

Drag the latter all the way.

He walked towards the direction of the naval branch.

Chapter 54 The Great Pirate of Ten Thousand Berries! Alert the Navy

Branch! [Ask for the first order on 8/20]

Come to the gate of the naval branch,

Lu En released his right hand.

thump!

A dull voice sounded.

Bucky, who was bruised and bruised, fell to the ground with a heavy body, raising a faint layer of dust on the ground.

one look,

Bucky lay dying on the ground like a dead dog.

The little blood that flowed from his body had already infected the soil here.

He was pale and looked like he might die at any moment.

"Wait here."

"If you want to escape..."

"You can try it."

Lu En took a deep look at the dead Bucky and said with a playful look.

heard,

Bucky was silent, not daring to speak.

He was still lying on the ground, motionless and paralyzed.

escape?

He has completely extinguished the idea of running away.

not to mention,

Now that he is seriously injured, he has no capital to escape at all.

Even if he is still at the peak of his strength, he is afraid that he will not dare to escape the scene easily.

only because.....

Lu En, left a deep psychological shadow on Bucky!

Scared Bucky.

Looking around,

Lu En looked at the naval branch in front of him curiously.

The new naval branch seems to have just been built.

With a bit of a classical verve.

Overall, it is very clean, with snow-white bricks on the outside, very tall, like a towering mountain.

Just above the central area of the building, a white seagull flag hangs high, symbolizing that this is a building belonging to the navy.

There is a sense of majesty that blows in the face, making people dare not make a noise here.

The gate of the naval branch is made of hard stone and is very thick. in front of the door,

Also guarding two navy soldiers in 850 dressed in neat navy attire, holding a long gun in the left hand, standing neatly, and a pair of eyes with bright eyes patrolling all directions.

This is the naval branch of Rogue Town!

"It looks like a decent..."

Lu En smiled.

then,

He took a step forward, preparing to enter the gate of the naval branch ahead.

Facing the stunned eyes of the two navy soldiers who were guarding the gate of the naval branch, Lu En stepped directly into the quilt of the naval branch without pausing at all.

Just entered the naval branch,

A rush of bookish air filled Lu En's sense of smell.

Many naval clerks are standing busy with their work.

Occasionally, there is a pleasant sound of scrolls flipping...

The environment is very clean and tidy,

There is no filth.

The hall is very spacious and huge.

soon,

Lu En found a beautiful female navy who was specially responsible for handling the affairs of bounty pirates.

"Little brother, what's the matter?"

The female navy was very polite, looked at Lu En with a smile, and stopped what she was doing.

"I caught a pirate and sent it to your naval branch for custody."

Lu En was straight to the point, Daoming's intention.

Chapter 72:

"what....."

The female navy looked at Lu En with a surprised expression on her face.

Immediately,

She still smiled, "Little brother, if you are only in town and encounter a thief and catch the thief, this kind of thing is not my responsibility."

"You can go to the front and turn left. There is a place for thieves and other affairs."

"Sister, I am here, but I am in charge of pirates."

just like,

(cjde) Subconsciously, she treated the pirates that Lu En said were ordinary thieves.

after all.

Lu En's immature age is too deceptive.

The female navy obviously couldn't believe it.

Lu En, who is only three or four years old, can really catch a vicious pirate.

Hearing the female navy's words, Lu En couldn't help but feel helpless.

This year...

To be honest, no one believes it!

It's so frustrating!

call!

Breathing out gently, Lu En explained patiently: "You can instruct someone to go out and bring him in. I already sent the pirate to the gate of your naval branch, but I didn't bring him in. "

"Have you caught the thief?"

The female navy gave Lu En a strange look.

then,

She said to a colleague in the Navy not far away: "Go out and see if there is a thief in front of the gate. If there is, bring someone in."

"Yes."

The navy nodded.

in a while,

When he came back again, he was carrying Bucky the clown like a dead dog.

Because of the blood and blood...

The true face of Bucky the Clown has been completely obscured by bloodstains all over his body.

It was impossible to see his face.

boom!

The navy threw Bucky aside at will, and looked at Lu En with strange eyes, as if he couldn't believe it, that Lu En, at such a young age, would actually kill him so painfully and beat a person into such a miserable appearance.

"Little brother, it's not right to beat up a thief."

"In case of a fatal accident..."

"Then you're in trouble."

"Even if he is a hateful thief, there should be a law to punish him."

"You, you can't abuse lynching easily."

"Stealing things is shameful, but it's not a crime to die for..."

The female navy was also frightened when she saw Bucky's miserable appearance.

then,

She solemnly warned Lu En: "Next time, don't do this kind of thing. It's very dangerous, and if you're not careful, if you kill the thief, you'll get into a lot of trouble. understand?"

heard,

Lu En was speechless.

Obviously he has been emphasizing...

This is a pirate!

A big pirate!

why,

The eldest sister in front of her seems to be selectively forgetting?

Do you have to think this is a thief?

Lu En felt a little helpless.

then,

He had no choice but to tell the truth: "This is not a thief. It's a pirate! A real pirate! A big pirate with a bounty of over ten million Berry!"

"If you don't believe me..."

"You can find the bounty list about him and compare it to see if what I said is true."

The words fall.

The atmosphere was briefly silent.

moment,

The female navy's eyes were slightly suspicious.

Is it...

Really pirates?

"Little brother, you really know how to joke."

"Do you know what a dangerous and terrifying monster the big pirate with a reward of tens of millions of Berry is?"

"They do all evil, they are extremely powerful, and their hands are contaminated with human lives."

"Even if Colonel Gerson, who guards our naval branch in Rogge Township, goes out in person, I'm afraid he won't be able to easily win a big pirate with a reward of tens of millions of berries."

"Now, you tell me..."

"You, won a pirate with a reward of over 10,000,000 Berry?"

The female navy laughed, disapproving of Lu En's words.

The big pirate whose bounty exceeds tens of millions...

Not even Colonel Gerson, the strongest of their Rogue Town naval branch, was sure of victory.

How could she believe that,

A four-year-old child won a pirate with a reward of tens of millions of berries?

is it possible?

Impossible!

Anyway,

It is impossible for her to believe such a bizarre thing.

At this time,

Lu En didn't say too much, but just grabbed a piece of cloth.

instantly,

He wiped off a large piece of blood on Bucky's face.

then,

When I saw Bucky's face clearly,

The female navy's pupils shrank slightly, and her face changed dramatically.

She was actually impressed by the face in front of her!

She can be sure.

I've never seen this face before!

Not an illusion!

"It's a bounty list!"

Immediately,

She subconsciously picked up the stack of reward lists on the table next to her.

in a while,

From that stack of reward lists, she took out one of them!

Then,

Slowly put this bounty beside Bucky.

visible,

The portrait on the bounty list is exactly the same as Bucky's face!

The similarity is as high as 99%!

Infinitely close to ten percent!

So far,

She came to a very frightening conclusion.

That is to say...

The man in front of him was bruised and bruised.

He is really a big pirate!

This is not a so-called thief!

A real pirate!

Gollum!

Swallowing softly, she turned her eyes and quickly looked at the contents of the reward list.

"Little, Bucky the Clown?!"

"The bounty..."

"Twelve million bellies!"

"This!"

The right hand of the female navy holding the reward list trembled slightly, and at this moment, a pair of pretty and delicate white faces showed a strong shock.

She is stupid.

Totally unexpected...

This is actually a big pirate with a bounty of tens of millions of berries!

and.....

She is no stranger to this big pirate.

This is.....

The notorious pirate of the East China Sea, Bucky the Clown!

In the East China Sea, it has a very prominent and fierce name!

once,

Colonel Gerson, who is in the town of Rogue, will lead the navy to capture Bucky the clown more than once or twice.

Chapter 73:

But none of them were successful.

Every time, it ends in failure!

From this it can be seen that

How difficult is it to catch Bucky the Clown!

What makes her dumbfounded is...

The famous big pirate clown Bucky, at this moment, was actually dragged to the naval branch by a four-year-old kid like a dead dog!

All this made her worldview shattered and collapsed on the spot.

Chapter 55 The four-year-old kid won ten million pirates? The navy captain was dumbfounded! [First order on 9/20] silence!

In the huge hall of the naval branch, the atmosphere was deadly silent!

Silent!

The female navy was stunned.

stand aside,

The young naval soldier who was responsible for bringing Bucky in just now was also stupid.

He stared blankly, and the share in the female navy's hand belonged to Bucky the Clown's reward list.

Turned,

He looked again at Bucky the clown who was paralyzed on the ground like a dead dog.

"This!"

Opening his mouth, his mind was blank.

good guy!

This is really Bucky the Clown!

The famous big pirate!

The terrifying big pirate in the East China Sea!

do no evil,

For evil.

"Am I hallucinating?"

Young Navy couldn't help swallowing his saliva, his heart trembled.

"If i remember correctly."

"Some time ago..."

"Colonel Gesen, he personally went out and fought hard to catch Bucky the clown. But in the end, it still ended in failure."

"Escaped by Bucky the Clown!"

The more he thought about it, the more his mood shook.

at the moment,

What did he see? !

Even Colonel Gerson, the strongest of the naval branch in Rogue Town, is always helpless, Bucky the clown.

However,

now,

The other party was like a dead dog. He was beaten to the brink of death.

He was lying motionless in the hall of the naval branch, as if he was about to die, and he looked particularly embarrassed.

This, are you sure it's the notorious clown Bucky in their minds?

A big pirate with tens of millions of berries...

To be so embarrassed?

It must be too miserable!

"Is this really a big pirate with a bounty of over 10 million berries?"

"How could it be so miserable?"

"In the end what happened?"

The young navy was dumbfounded and dumbfounded.

call!

With a heavy sigh, the young navy looked at the female navy colleague beside him and asked, "Do you want to report to Colonel Gerson? This matter is too involved."

"A big pirate with a reward of tens of millions of berries! And it's the notorious clown Bucky!"

"Colonel Gerson has shot Bucky the Clown many times, but all of them have ended in failure."

The words fall.

The female navy seemed to wake up from a dream.

She couldn't help taking a deep breath, her eyes full of horror looking at Bucky in front of her, and the arm holding the bounty list trembled slightly.

until now,

The shock in her heart still couldn't be completely suppressed.

The person she sees as a thief...

did not expect,

The other party is really a pirate!

It is a big pirate with more than 10 million!

"You two, do you believe what I just said now?"

Lu En looked at the two of them.

the sound fell,

Like thunder rolling, it exploded in the foreheads of the two navy and buzzed.

Now,

They believed.

"emotion!"

"This little boy, he didn't exaggerate from the start."

"He, really won a big pirate with a reward of tens of millions?!"

"Is this really possible?"

"how come....."

The female navy was stunned.

Even if she knew Bucky's identity, she still couldn't believe it.

This big pirate with a reward of over 10,000,000 Berry was actually won by a four-year-old child!

This sounds...

Make her feel like a dream.

It's like dreaming!

A pirate who won a reward of over 10 million at the age of four?

"No, no?"

"How can there be such a terrifying monster in this world?!"

The female navy was in shock.

at first,

She doesn't care about Lu En at all.

But at this moment,

When she saw the scene where Bucky the Clown was dying, she suddenly woke up.

and realize...

This four-year-old boy does not seem to be an ordinary person!

"He, did you really take it with your own hands?"

The female navy looked at Lu En and asked in a trembling voice.

"if not?"

"Do you think someone would be so kind to help me take down Bucky the Clown, and then hand it over to me to send to your naval branch for credit?"

Lu En smiled.

"This!"

The female navy was speechless.

However, she still felt it.

A four-year-old boy won a big pirate who thought the reward was over 10,000,000 Berry. All this is too shocking and subverting cognition.

She can't imagine.

What an earth-shattering and terrifying talent it takes...

at the age of four,

With only one's own strength, he has won the big pirate with more than ten million Berry!

Every big pirate with a bounty of more than 10 million Berry, looking at the East China Sea, is an extremely terrifying top-level powerhouse, a powerful existence like a monster.

And the clown Bucky in front of him is also a powerful monster in the East China Sea.

Superhuman Devil Fruit Power!

Extremely powerful!

Brutal!

Ruthless!

Unexpectedly,

It is such a superhuman devil fruit person who is now tragically captured by a four-year-old child and escorted to the naval branch.

"You, please wait a moment."

"This matter is too important, I need to report it up."

The female navy took a deep breath and forcibly suppressed the shock in her heart.

"Don't make me wait too long."

Lu En waved his hand.

"Don't worry, it will be soon."

The female navy nodded.

then,

She hurriedly took a pair of long, straight and slender legs, and quickly walked to the stairs of the naval branch, all the way to the office on the second floor.

call!

He exhaled heavily,

Chapter 74:

She was in front of the office door and slowly raised her hand and knocked on the door.

dong dong dong!

The crisp and pleasant sound resounded in all directions.

in the office,

A middle-aged man with a cigar at the corner of his mouth, with a burly body and piercing eyes, was leaning on his desk with his legs crossed.

I heard a knock on the door,

The middle-aged man adjusted his appearance a little, moistened his throat, and said, "Come in."

This person is Gerson, the supreme commander of the Rogue Town Naval Branch!

A navy colonel!

He is also the strongest of the Rogue Town Naval Branch.

The strength is not bad,

Even the big pirates with a bounty of more than 10 million Berry have been chased by Gesen many times and fled.

Crunch!

A soft sound.

The office door was pushed open.

Female Navy Lilith hurriedly stepped into the office, her expression hurried, and her pretty face still had a strong sense of shock.

"Lilith, why are you in such a hurry?"

Gerson was slightly surprised and asked.

"Colonel Gerson, a very terrifying event just happened!"

"I think....."

"I need to report to you in person."

"Best, let you handle it yourself!"

"This is too unbelievable."

Lilith said with a heart palpitating expression.

"A big deal? But it doesn't matter."

Gerson held the cigar at the corner of his mouth with two fingers, and exhaled lightly. The white smoke rose up and quickly dissipated in the air.

heard,

Lilith sorted out her mood.

then,

She spoke slowly: "Just now, a four-year-old boy came to our naval branch. He told me that he had captured a pirate and was going to send it to our naval branch for custody."

.....

.....???

"I thought..."

"This is just a casual joke made by a child. Maybe it's just that this child mistook a thief or other gangster as a pirate."

"So, I didn't take it to heart at the time."

"But what happened next, I'm still in awe of it."

paused,

In the presence of Colonel Gerson,

Lilith took a deep breath and blurted out at once.

"I asked the pirate he caught to be taken to the hall of our naval branch.

After careful observation, I discovered an extremely terrifying truth."

"It wasn't a thief who was sent to our naval branch. As the kid said, it was indeed a pirate!"

"and....."

"It's still a real big pirate! A big pirate with a bounty of 12 million bergs!"

"This captured pirate is..."

"For the past few years, the infamous big pirate clown Bucky!"

The words fall.

Gerson staggered and almost fell from the seat.

The cigar in his hand...

Then it slipped from his hand and fell on the floor tile.

White smoke rises up...

"You, what did you just say?!"

"Bucky the Clown?!"

"A four-year-old kid took down Bucky the Clown? And sent it to our naval branch for custody?"

"you sure?"

"Do you know what you're talking about right now?"

Gerson's eyes widened, shocked.

That clown Bucky who made countless ordinary people in the entire East China Sea terrified?

sure?

To know.

More than once he's had a hand on Bucky the Clown.

However, they have never been able to successfully arrest the other party.

And at this moment,

What did he hear? !

Even the pirate clown Bucky who can't do anything about him.

Was it taken by a four-year-old child alone? !

And sent to their naval branch to be detained? !

Is this really possible?

The more he thought about it, the more frightened Gesen became.

"That's a big pirate with a bounty of tens of millions!"

"A mere four-year-old kid..."

"Can you win a pirate with a reward of over 10 million?"

"Are you sure you're not talking in your sleep?"

Gerson's throat was dry and he couldn't help but refute.

At just four years old, he won the big pirate with a reward of tens of millions of berries?

What kind of monster is this? !

"This is absolutely true!"

"Colonel Gerson..."

"I suggest you take a look for yourself."

"I can guarantee that the captured pirate is Bucky the Clown! There's no mistake! It's exactly the same as the one on the bounty list."

Lilith answered in the affirmative with a shocking tone.

"This!"

Gerson was completely stunned.

Judging from Lilith's serious face, he could not see any trace of the other party lying.

and,

There is no need for the other party to lie!

In such an important matter, the other party does not have the courage and guts to lie!

only.....

All of what Lilith said was really too shocking.

Jean Gerson was completely unacceptable.

"Walk!"

"Take me there and see this four-year-old kid..."

"What kind of monster is he!"

"Does it have three heads and six arms?!"

Gerson hurriedly stood up from his seat, unable to sit any longer.

Naval Branch.

hall.

A young navy looked at the dying Bucky, turned his head, and looked at Lu En standing beside him.

this moment,

His whole body became particularly tense, and his eyes were full of restraint and looked at Lu En.

until now,

He still couldn't believe it.

A four-year-old child actually turned over a big pirate with a reward of over 10,000,000 Berry!

If it weren't for the fact that he was in front of him, he might never have been able to imagine such an incredible phenomenon in his life.

in a while,

There was a sound of hurried footsteps from the stairs.

then,

A burly middle-aged man, wearing a navy cape with the word 'justice' engraved on his back, walked down the stairs resolutely.

behind it,

Followed by the beautiful female navy Lilith just now.

come to the hall,

Before Gerson could look at Lu En, he was frightened by Bucky's dying appearance.

"This, this is..."

"Bucky the Clown?!"

Seeing the miserable appearance of Bucky who was seriously injured, Gerson was dumbfounded.

anyway,

This is also a big pirate with a bounty of over 10 million Berry!

Was beaten to the death?

"Eight-five-zero" was beaten all over the body?

Chapter 75:

real or fake?

I'm afraid this pirate with tens of millions of Berry is not a fake, right?

Of course, Gerson has a deep understanding of how difficult Bucky the Clown is.

He has led the navy many times to capture the clown Bucky.

But none of them were successful.

This alone is enough to show the clown Bucky's own ability.

What Gerson never expected was...

someday,

He actually saw it.

The clown Bucky, the incomparably difficult big pirate, was beaten into a dead dog, and lay dying in the hall of the Navy branch.

This scene really caused a lot of visual impact to Gesen.

It made him feel crazy.

"It's really Bucky the Clown!"

"I've had a lot of dealings with him..."

"For sure, this is Bucky the Clown!"

"A real big pirate with a bounty of tens of millions of Berry!"

Coming to Bucky's side, Gerson observed it carefully, and finally came to an extremely accurate conclusion.

This conclusion shocked him.

call!

He exhaled heavily,

Gerson resisted the shock in his heart.

His eyes gradually moved away from Bucky's body, and then he began to really notice the four-year-old boy standing here in the hall.

"this....."

"It's the righteous master?!"

"Single-handedly, took down the monster of Bucky the Clown?"

"A four-year-old monster?!"

Gerson couldn't help but gasped.

Although from the subordinates, I have heard the ins and outs of the matter.

But when you really see it with your own eyes...

Still terrified.

"Too young!"

"Only four years old!"

"A four-year-old boy who has the strength to turn over the big pirate with a bounty of tens of millions of Berry alone?"

"What is this concept?!"

"Inconceivable!"

Rao Gesen, a colonel of the Navy headquarters, was shocked by all this. moment, Gerson forcibly suppressed the shock in his heart.

He came to Lu En and said politely and respectfully: "I think, you should be the strong man who took down Bucky the Clown and sent it to our naval branch, right?"

The existence of a big pirate who can personally surrender a reward of tens of millions of berries, even Gesen, a colonel of the Navy headquarters, has to be treated respectfully.

not to mention.....

The person in front of him is still a four-year-old child!

A four-year-old child already possesses such an unparalleled and terrifying strength!

As you can imagine.

Given time, how terrifyingly powerful the other party will become? !

Get in touch early...

Absolutely no harm!

At least,

If the other party chooses to deal with the pirates, it proves that the other party has the same hatred for the pirates.

This alone is enough to force the friendship of the navy.

Anyone who is an enemy of a pirate will be a friend of the navy!

"At just four years old, he can win a big pirate with a reward of tens of millions..."

"In a few more years, I'm afraid I can become one of the top monsters in this sea!"

"This terrifying talent is simply amazing!"

"There has never been an example like this."

The more he thought about it, the more amazed Gesen's mood became.

"At the age of four, he already has a powerful combat power at the level of tens of millions of bounties."

"This, I'm afraid that you started to cultivate in your mother's womb, right?"

"What a terrible monster!"

"An unparalleled genius!"

After thinking about it,

Gesen developed a strong love for talent.

he thinks.

If this level of genius can be...

win over to the navy's camp.

That must be a great achievement!

For him, a naval colonel who has served in Rogue Town for twelve years.

If he can win a once-in-a-hundred-year-old genius to the navy headquarters, his own official rank will definitely rise!

By the time.....

It is not necessarily impossible to become a Commodore of the Navy and even.....

Headquarters!

Major General!

Thinking of this, Gerson's eyes looking at Lu En became more and more enthusiastic.

"In Lower Gerson, Colonel of the Navy Headquarters in charge of this naval branch in Rogue Township."

Gerson started self-registration taboo.

The genius of a big pirate who can win tens of millions of berries at the age of four is completely worthy of being treated so enthusiastically.

The future of this genius...

It is by no means comparable to him.

Gerson knew this.

There is absolutely no harm in making a good relationship with him as soon as possible.

"Your Excellency was able to take down the big pirate clown Bucky with a bounty of 12 million Berry by himself."

"This strength is really admirable."

"Furthermore, your Excellency is only four years old!"

"I'm curious....."

"What kind of method did your Excellency take down the Clown Bucky?"

As far as I know, the Clown Bucky is very insidious and cunning. It is not an easy thing to take down."

"Once, I shot the clown Bucky more than once or twice. But in the end, they all ended in failure."

"Comparing to know, Your Excellency took down Bucky the Clown alone, which really makes me ashamed."

Gerson said with emotion.

"How to take down Bucky the Clown?"

Lu En looked strange.

thought about it,

He said: "Isn't it a very simple thing to take down Bucky the Clown? I didn't feel any difficulty at all. I just punched him the whole time, and he was half-crippled on the spot."

"Then....."

"Bring him to your naval branch."

The words fall.

The whole place was dead silent!

The smile on Gesen's face froze, and the corners of his mouth twitched violently.

good guy!

This four-year-old kid...

It doesn't seem like an ordinary monster!

Something that you can't even do by yourself, but when it comes to this little devil's mouth, it turns out to be a simple thing?

By contrast,

Gerson suddenly had an illusion.

I am afraid that I am not a rice bucket? !

I am afraid that this dignified colonel of the Navy Headquarters is a waste, right?

"With one punch, you took down Bucky the Clown?!"

"In vain, I spent a lot of energy to expand the encirclement net, but I still let the clown Bucky escape."

"This is too shocking!"

Gerson wanted to cry without tears.

He never dreamed of it.

one day,

He will be completely beaten by a child who is only four years old.

The beaten can't lift their heads,

A face of shame.

aside,

Lilith and another young navy also stiffened in place with dumbfounded expressions.

They stared at Lu En in a daze, with Lu En's remarks lingering in their ears.

then,

The eyes of the two of them, invariably, looked at Gesen.

"Does this count as hitting Colonel Gerson in the face?"

They thought so.

Chapter 76:

The entire naval branch is basically known to everyone...

Colonel Gerson tried unsuccessfully to capture Bucky the Clown many times.

However,

At this moment.

What did the four-year-old say?

Take down Bucky the Joker with just one punch?

Does this count as 3.4 is...

Sprinkle salt on Colonel Gerson's wound?

Too cruel!

Colonel Gerson is so pitiful.

Simply embarrassed!

"My dignified Colonel of the Navy Headquarters, in the end, I'm not even a four-year-old kid?"

Gerson couldn't help but doubt life.

quite a while,

He suppressed this strange emotion in his heart.

"Cough cough!"

With a dry cough, Gesen quickly changed the subject, looked at Lu En, and asked with a slightly curious expression, "I don't know what your Excellency should be called?"

"My name is Lu En."

Lu En said bluntly.

"Lu En? Good name..."

Gerson hurriedly patted his * to ease the awkward atmosphere a little.
what.....

and many more? !

For some reason, Gerson was suddenly stunned.

He could not help but recall,

Just now Lu En reported the name taboo by himself.

"Lu En?"

"How do you feel..."

"Where have I heard this name?"

"A very familiar name."

"I've definitely heard this name from somewhere recently!"

"But for a while, I can't remember it anymore."

Gerson frowned, lost in thought.

Chapter 57 The Lu En you mentioned is actually me! □First order on 11/20□

With Lu En self-registration taboo.

Gerson was lost in thought.

on his side,

The beautiful navy Lilith suddenly shrank slightly, and seemed to be terrified by Lu En's name.

Her unusual expression changes...

Caught Gerson's attention.

Immediately,

Gerson didn't continue to drill the bull's horn, lowered his voice, and asked Lilith, "what did you think of? Do you also think that the name Luen is familiar? It seems that you have heard it before? "

heard,

Lilith hesitated again and again, but finally nodded: "Colonel Gerson, I think, I probably already know who this Mr. Luen is."

"Who is he? Have you heard his name? Why am I not impressed?"

Gerson kept asking questions.

"Colonel Gesen, do you still remember what happened in the fortress of our East China Sea Naval Branch some time ago? That incident caused a sensation in the entire East China Sea Naval Branch Fortress!"

"I think....."

"You probably still remember now, don't you?"

"At that time, the entire fortress of the naval branch in the East China Sea was completely overturned by one person!"

Lilith opened her mouth, her voice trembling.

The words fall.

Gerson woke up suddenly.

He remembered.

29

some time ago,

An earth-shattering event happened in the fortress of the naval branch in the East China Sea!

thereby,

It caused a huge sensation in the entire branch fortress!

From Lieutenant General Roster, who is sitting in the fortress of the East China Sea Naval Branch, down to a navy recruit, all of them were completely detonated by this news!

This naval branch fortress has tens of thousands of navies, and all of them, without exception, were shocked by the news.

Although Admiral Gesen, who sits in Rogge Town, needs to be in Rogge Town all the year round, he naturally has heard a little about what happened in the East China Sea.

He knew very well.

That time, the entire East China Sea naval branch fortress was detonated.

Just because of one person!

A four-year-old child!

He was the culprit who detonated the fortress of the East China Sea Naval Branch.

"The total amount of bounties is as high as more than 20 million Berries for the White Ostrich Pirates..."

"Together with Captain White Ostrich Kukari, an animal demon fruit person!"

"All of them were destroyed by one person!"

"The entire White Ostrich Pirates was tragically destroyed by one person."

"finally....."

"They were sent to the naval fortress in the East China Sea for detention."

"It was this incident that caused the entire naval fortress to cause an unprecedented shock."

Gerson's eyes were lost for a while, recalling the news he heard some time ago.

The moment I got the news,

He was bewildered.

because.....

The news is so incredible!

The White Ostrich Pirates were wiped out by a four-year-old child alone!

This naturally made Gerson express his disbelief.

At only four years old, the group killed a pirate group with a total bounty of 20 million berries?

Anyway,

Gerson expressed difficulty in accepting all this.

even,

He had doubts for a while.

This earth-shattering news may have been deliberately exaggerated.

How can a four-year-old be so strong?

How could it be possible to destroy a pirate group?

Moreover, it is still a group to destroy a pirate group with a total bounty of up to 20 million Berry!

more heard,

The four-year-old child killed the animal demon fruit person alone, the captain of the White Ostrich Pirates, White Ostrich Kukari.

is it possible?

To this,

Gerson laughed at the time.

He did not object,

no denial,

Nor is it recognized.

because.....

He trusted his own judgment.

He identified.

There is no such terrifying monster in this world!

Gerson didn't pay too much attention to the news from the naval fortress, and after a brief period of astonishment, he dismissed it as a joke.

Unexpectedly,

today,

Such a coincidence!

A four-year-old boy took the big pirate clown Bucky with a bounty of up to 12 million berries, took him alone, and sent him to their naval branch in Rogue Town for detention.

Just ask,

this matter.....

what happened with the naval fortress,

How similar are the two?

Just the same!

Also a four-year-old child!

It was also a big pirate with a bounty of over 10 million Berry!

Is there such a coincidence in this world?

Do not!

This is no coincidence!

But necessarily!

Chapter 77:

"Colonel Gerson, do you remember..."

"The four-year-old who killed the White Ostrich Pirates by one person."

"What's his name?"

Lilith looked at Gesen, her pretty and delicate face full of horror.

For this matter, she was very impressed.

Calm East China Sea...

It has been many years, and such an earth-shattering event has not happened.

besides,

This happened only a few days ago.

therefore.

She was very impressed with this matter.

"The four-year-old who killed the White Ostrich Pirates..."

"His name seems to be Lu En!"

Gerson's throat was dry, and he blurted out subconsciously.

moment,

The atmosphere here has become silent!

The whole place was silent!

Gerson was stunned.

Lilith's face was also shocked, her eyes were wide and round, and she fixed her gaze on Lu En's body, unable to look away for a long time.

Could such a coincidence really happen?

The same four years old...

Also won the big pirate with a reward of 10 million!

The scariest thing is...

Two people,

It's all called Luen!

All kinds of coincidences began to gradually merge.

this moment,

In Lilith's heart, there is already an amazing answer.

Even if the answer is amazing.

However, she still believed.

Gollum!

He couldn't help swallowing his saliva. Gesen looked at Lu En in shock, opened his mouth, and was speechless for a while.

Previously,

Something he has been deeply suspicious of...

now,

is turning into reality!

at the moment,

Bucky the Clown lay dying not far away.

This great pirate with a prominent name and made countless ordinary people in the East China Sea feel terrified, has indeed been seriously injured 850, and was taken down in an extremely embarrassing manner.

This, of course, cannot be faked!

And Bucky the Clown...

It just so happens to be a big pirate with a bounty of 12 million Berries!

"you....."

Gerson looked at the theory, hesitating to say anything.

The truth seems to be close at hand!

At your fingertips!

beside,

The young navy had already become dumbfounded by the words of Gesen and Lilith.

now,

He was looking at the young figure standing beside him with a pair of shocking eyes.

turn out to be.....

That was only four years old,

The monster that overturned the entire naval fortress...

Just around the corner!

Next,

Under the horrified eyes of Gerson, Lilith and others.

"Unexpectedly..."

"It turns out that before I knew it, my fame was already so big."

Lu En was very emotional.

paused,

He chuckled lightly.

He did not choose to hide the curious questions of Gesen and others.

Instead, answer truthfully.

"Unfortunately, it's just like your guess at the moment."

"It was me who overturned the fortress of the naval branch in the entire East China Sea."

"When I was only four years old, it was me who killed the entire White Ostrich Pirates by myself."

"The Lu En you mentioned is actually me!"

"For this answer..."

"Are you satisfied?"

Accompanied by Lu En's voice, it slowly fell.

In an instant,

The whole place is silent! .

Chapter 58 Identity Exposure! Lieutenant General Garp's grandson!

□First order on 12/20□

"really!"

"There have never been so many coincidences in this world."

"It's a bit of a coincidence..."

"Inevitably!"

"Some time ago, the four-year-old monster that detonated the naval base!"

"It's you!"

Ge Sen couldn't help but gasped, and looked at Lu En in shock.

I thought,

That's just an exaggeration of his brother's rumors.

But today,

Gerson finally saw it for real.

In this world, there really exists such an unreasonable monster!

For example,

Lu En in front of me!

"I originally planned to sincerely invite you to join our navy."

Thinking of this, Gerson couldn't help but smile bitterly.

A once-in-a-century genius...

If you can join the navy,

So.

As a recommender, he can naturally get some credit from it!

This is a great achievement!

even,

It can take his official rank to a higher level, and he no longer has to sit in Rogue Town, but returns to the Navy Headquarters to serve.

Unfortunately,

Before Gerson's plan began to unfold, it was already in vain.

As for what reason?

With a pair of awe-filled eyes, Gerson fixed his gaze on Lu En.

If Lu En was just a monster with a bounty of tens of millions, then it would not be possible for Gesen, a colonel of the naval headquarters, to have such awe to Lu En.

But the problem is...

Gerson knows.

The Lu En in front of him is not only a peerless genius that is rare in a century!

The other party also has an earth-shattering and terrifying identity!

Compared with countless people in the entire navy, they have a more honorable identity!

Great background!

monstrous backing!

Even the parents and sons of the generals of the Navy headquarters are far inferior to the four-year-old Lu En in front of him.

Gerson can be sure of this.

"Whether it's talent, or identity background..."

"Almost impeccable!"

"This is the son of destiny!"

"The talent is timeless!"

"The identity is extremely prominent!"

Gerson was amazed.

before,

He never believed in fate.

Chapter 78:

But today, after seeing Lu En in front of him, he began to believe in fate.

some people.....

Born to be born strong!

Lu En in front of him is such an example!

"You are Lieutenant General Garp's grandson, right?"

Gerson asked in a trembling tone.

Lieutenant General Garp, that is the top existence of the Navy!

One of the most powerful monsters in the sea!

He has been nominated for admiral numerous times, and is the only one who voluntarily rejected the position of admiral.

even more.....

Hero of the entire navy!

Hero Karp!

He is the lifelong belief of countless navy.

Countless navies joined the navy not only because of their inner justice, but also because of the name of the hero Garp.

This is Karp's terrifying influence in the Navy.

And as the grandson of the hero Garp...

How noble and prominent is this level of identity?

it goes without saying.

Even the grandson of the Admiral, his identity is nothing but that.

In Gerson's eyes.

Lu En in front of him is a real third generation!

The status is very noble...

Prestigious status!

Even if the other party has not joined the navy now, he still has an incomparably detached status.

"Ka, Lieutenant General Garp's grandson? □~!"

Lilith and a young navy beside her looked at Lu En with shock on their faces, and there was a deep sense of awe in their eyes.

The name of the hero Karp,

In this sea like thunder.

Especially in the East China Sea...

The name of Garp is even more prominent than the Admiral Gang Kong Kong!

Garp, is a legendary sailor!

Being able to be the grandson of the hero Garp naturally has a very prominent and detached status by birth.

There is no doubt about this.

In the navy...

Look at the younger generation,

No one can be more honorable than this Lu En's identity!

"Mr. Lu En, will he become a new generation of naval heroes?"

Lilith's eyes were lost for a while, and she stared at Lu En in a daze.

A four-year-old monster with extremely terrifying combat power, coupled with an inherently prominent identity. Maybe, in the future, he can really become a hero of the new generation of the Navy!

At least,

They have never seen.

Who else has talent that can compare to this one!

No!

Look at this sea,

There is no such thing as an example!

The world-shattering talent in front of him is unparalleled in the past and present!

"okay."

"Bucky will leave it to you."

"I can't stay here too much."

Lu En waved his hand and was about to leave the naval branch.

before leaving,

He took the initiative to remind: "That's right. I almost forgot to mention that in the southeast of Rogge Town, a few kilometers away, there is a tavern, which is the base camp of the Bucky Pirates."

"And I, before sending Bucky to the naval branch, have already dealt with them all. So next, you just need to send people to arrest and detain them."

"Don't waste too much time, to avoid very few pirates escaping from it."

"Before the sun goes down, you must send someone to catch those pirates. Otherwise, that group of pirates may escape."

finished speaking,

Lu En left without looking back.

There was no chance for Gerson and others to speak.

Now that the identities have been exposed.

He also has to leave quickly.

After a while,

Watching the back of Lu En leaving, Gesen and the others were unable to recover for a long time.

"Colonel Gerson, you have to send someone to arrest and imprison the members of the Bucky Pirates."

Lilith was the first to come back to her senses and quickly reminded.

For these vicious pirates, she naturally would not show mercy.

"I know."

Gerson nodded.

Next,

Under Gerson's order,

About five hundred well-trained navies, carrying sophisticated weapons and equipment, went from the naval branch to the southeast of Rogue Town with great fanfare.

According to the location Luen said, go to arrest the members of the Bucky Pirates.

After doing all this,

Gerson came to Bucky's side and looked at Bucky, who was dying like a dead dog, and his heart was filled with emotion.

"Bucky, you have today too!"

"Over the years, the innocent people who have been brutally murdered by you have no one thousand but eight hundred. If you let them see you in such a miserable state today, they would be eager to applaud."

"This is retribution!"

Gerson snorted coldly, but he didn't have the slightest fondness for Bucky, but was deeply disgusted in his heart.

This kind of villain who doesn't treat the lives of civilians as human lives...

He can't wait to get rid of it soon!

"Gerson, don't do this with Uncle Ben."

"My uncle was planted, but not in your hands."

"My uncle just lost to a monster."

"Otherwise, just because you want to arrest Uncle Ben?"

"joke!"

Bucky opened his mouth with difficulty and sneered, without any fear at all.

paused,

He said reluctantly: "If it wasn't for my unfortunate misfortune, I encountered a terrifying monster in a ghostly place like the East China Sea, how could this uncle be in this situation?"

"East China Sea....."

"It should be the weakest sea area!"

"Why did such a monster appear?!"

"A four-year-old monster!"

heard,

Gerson was expressionless and stared at Bucky indifferently.

quite a while,

He opened his mouth: "Actually, you didn't lose wrongly. Do you know who you lost to?"

""That kid, who is he?!"

Bucky endured the stinging pain in his body and subconsciously asked.

this monster...

Should not be silent!

Not only master the overlord color,

And he is also proficient in controlling the Sixth Form of the Navy!

The scariest thing is...

The other party is only four years old!

Bucky never figured it out.

In this sea, who can teach such a monster?

Can't figure it out,

Deeply confused.

"he?"

"He's Lieutenant General Karp's grandson."

"Now, do you know that you are not wronged?"

Gerson told the truth.

"Ka, Karp?!"

Bucky's pupils shrank, and his face changed dramatically.

His originally pale complexion became even more pale!

Karp's name...

For him, it was a blast!

Simply too loud!

He used to be a crew member on One Piece Roger's ship, although Bucky was only a small one.

But in that special period,

The character that scares Bucky the most is not Roger's old rival, Whitebeard.

Chapter 79:

Rather...

Navy hero Garp!

Even Gerson, a captain in the navy, was far less aware of Garp's strength than Bucky.

in that era.....

Stronger than Roger, the pirate king, he has been cornered by Garp many times!

Even Whitebeard, known as the strongest man in the world, was chased by the hero Garp and fled.

Garp's strength has become the nightmare and psychological shadow of countless pirates in an era!

It made countless pirates in an era panic, tremble, and fear.

Even Roger...

I don't want to run into Karp either.

(Qian Li's)

The word Karp represents the top combat power of an era!

Be one of the scariest monsters in the sea!

Even Roger the Pirate King...

In a one-to-one case,

At most, it is no different from Karp!

Once on Roger's ship, Bucky had seen Garp's face from a distance more than a few times.

That aura...

That kind of aura that gives up on me!

domineering boundless,

Unparalleled strength.

Even now One Piece Roger is dead.

But Bucky still couldn't forget that once upon a time, he saw the stalwart figure in the navy from afar.

Extremely powerful!

Strong terror!

Once made Bucky doubt life for a time.

This sea...

How can there be such a strong man!

"No wonder!"

"That kid..."

"It's actually the grandson of the hero Garp!"

"I couldn't understand before, who is qualified to teach such a monster in this sea?"

"Now, I finally understand."

Bucky smiled miserably.

this moment,

All the confusion in his heart was completely resolved.

Lost to Karp's grandson...

It doesn't seem like a shameful thing to lose.

At least,

Bucky thought so.

"Losing to Garp's grandson..."

"It's not wrong for this uncle to lose!"

Bucky exhaled heavily, and the unwillingness in his heart completely disappeared.

Chapter 59 Overlord? Gerson was shocked! Mr. Luen monster! □First order on 13/20□

Next,

Gerson personally escorted Bucky to a prison built by the naval branch in Rogue Town.

He also silently put Hailou stone handcuffs and anklets on Bucky...

As such,

To avoid Bucky's silent escape from prison.

As a devil fruit power user, what Bucky is most afraid of is Hailoushi.

Being put on Hailoushi handcuffs and anklets completely locked the possibility of Bucky escaping from prison.

If there is no accident in the prison in the future, presumably, Bucky may be imprisoned in the prison in Rogue Town until his old age. certainly.

Although Bucky was famous in the East China Sea, his bounty was not enough for the navy to take care of him alone, and it took a lot of time to send people to * him to the advance city.

This, perhaps for Bucky, was a blessing in a misfortune.

Once escorted to the advancing city, Nabaki wants to escape from the advancing city?

It's more difficult than climbing to the sky!

Throughout the ages,

On this sea, only one person can escape from the advance city.

That is.....

The top boss of the old era, the Golden Lion Shiki!

Paid your legs as the price,

Escape from the advance city!

Other than that, there is no second example.

Given Bucky's tenacious vitality...

Gerson did not send a doctor to treat Bucky's bruises.

Bucky is notorious and famous.

To deal with such a vicious pirate, it was not bad that Gesen didn't mistreat the other party.

As for getting a doctor to see Bucky?

joke!

As long as Bucky doesn't die, Gerson doesn't care about Bucky's injuries.

"This prison will bury the rest of your life!"

"Bucky..."

"Repent well in prison."

"Remember, how many innocent lives have you killed in your life?"

"In the second half of your life, 853, you should spend the rest of your life full of repentance."

Gerson looked at Bucky who was in prison and snorted coldly.

then,

Turning around, he simply left the place slowly and neatly.

After getting out of prison,

Feeling the warm sunshine scattered in the sky made Gesen feel very comfortable.

Seeing Bucky the Clown being imprisoned in prison, he has fulfilled a wish that has not been fulfilled for many years.

all the time.

He wants to catch Bucky the Clown.

only.....

The other party is too treacherous and cunning.

therefore,

His many arrests have ended in failure.

now,

He finally got his wish and sent Bucky to prison with his own hands!

Take a step and return to the office on the second floor of the naval branch again.

Just as Gerson was about to take a break,

dong dong dong!

In vain, the door of the office was knocked again.

"kindness?"

"who is it?"

Gerson raised his brows, his * sandwiched the cigar that had just been lit, the gray-white smoke rose up, and the pungent smell filled the huge office.

"come in."

Crunch!

The door was pushed open.

A middle-aged navy came to Gerson with a respectful and restrained expression: "Colonel Gerson."

"I remember you."

Seeing the middle-aged navy, Gerson frowned and asked, "Just now, didn't I send you to the tavern in the center of Rogue Town, a few kilometers southeast, to arrest those Buckys? The crew of the pirates?"

"Why did you come back so soon?"

"You guys, have you arrested all the people and put them in jail?"

heard,

The middle-aged Navy hurriedly shook his head, looking a little apprehensive, and said weakly, "Colonel Gesen, I suggest you go to that tavern yourself."

"some things....."

"You need to see it with your own eyes."

The words fall.

Gerson's expression became more and more puzzled.

He took a deep look at the middle-aged navy.

However, he didn't say much.

Slowly stand up from the seat,

Before his * was hot, he followed the middle-aged navy again, slowly left the navy branch, and rushed all the way to the tavern in the southeast.

It probably took about a quarter of an hour.

Gerson successfully arrived at the destination of the trip.

look forward,

Chapter 80:

He saw a relatively large tavern.

To open such a huge tavern in the wild mountains and ridges around this place, it is obvious that this tavern is abnormal.

When Gerson was looking at this tavern.

Next,

He was horrified by what he saw in front of him.

"kindness?!"

"This, this is..."

Gerson's pupils shrank slightly, looking at the collapsed wall of the tavern with a horrified expression on his face.

With shock,

He took a closer look.

then,

He found out.

This collapsed wall seems to have been destroyed and devastated by man-made terrorist forces, and finally formed a messy ruin.

This discovery made Gerson even more shocked.

"Man-made?!"

He couldn't help taking a deep breath.

What a terrifying power this is...

To forcibly collapse a wall that is tens of meters long? !

Look around,

Looking at the broken stone remains everywhere...

riddled with holes,

Devastated.

This incomparably dilapidated and messy ruin was presented incomparably clearly under Gesen's eyes, which made him feel an unprecedented shock.

hiss!

Taking a breath, Gesen was shocked.

"Don't tell me..."

"This mess is caused by the one who captured Bucky?"

"What a terrible battle this must have broken out?"

"Do not!"

"wrong!"

Gerson resisted the shock in his heart.

then,

He stepped forward and came to the top of the ruined place.

Countless broken stone remains piled up like mountains.

After some inspection,

Gerson was horrified to perceive a fact.

That is.....

The whole tavern is so dilapidated and ruined, it is very likely that it was caused by a punch.

Just one punch...

The whole pub was blown up on the spot!

Let the entire tavern be reduced to ruins.

All the facilities inside the tavern were smashed to pieces by that terrifying force.

this moment,

Gerson was stunned.

(cjde) "As that person said..."

"With one punch, Bucky the Clown hit * the spot! Take down a big pirate with a reward of tens of millions of Berry!"

"also,"

"The one who hasn't finished speaking is..."

"That punch not only severely injured Bucky the Clown, but also disabled most of the tavern on the spot!"

"With one punch, the entire tavern almost collapsed and shattered!"

The messy ruins left at the scene made Gesen feel more and more frightened.

Simply shocking!

One after another broken cracks, like spider webs, cracked in all directions.

densely packed,

Creepy.

There are also countless traces of collapsed and broken ground.

Who dares to imagine...

All the mess here was actually caused by a punch from a four-year-old child? !

"too strong!"

Gerson made an assessment from the heart.

Go inside the tavern,

Looking at the countless broken facilities inside...

His mood became more and more shaken.

debris scattered everywhere,

And countless sawdust,

Broken glass shards, etc.

The entire tavern seems to have been abandoned for hundreds of years!

It was reduced to a ruin that no one cares about.

"Colonel Gerson, go and see the group of pirates left here."

"Their state..."

"Very weird!"

The middle-aged navy reminded in a low voice.

"The state is weird?"

"What's the meaning?"

Gerson asked.

"I can't tell for a while. Anyway, you'll know when you see it."

"These pirates are obviously not dead, and they still have strong vital signs..."

"But the strange thing is that each of them fainted in the tavern. No matter how we called, we couldn't wake them who were in a state of fainting."

"Moreover, there are more than one or two people like this."

"But..."

"There are nearly a hundred pirates in the tavern, all without exception! They all fell into this strange state of deep sleep."

The middle-aged navy took a deep breath, his face a little horrified.

After listening to the introduction of the middle-aged navy,

With a solemn heart, Gesen came all the way to the place where hundreds of pirates were being held.

as predicted!

instantly,

He saw the strange state of the group of pirates.

not dead,

And have very strong vital signs.

But, just can't wake up.

as if...

The spiritual consciousness of these pirates has been completely destroyed beyond recognition, and it will take some time for them to recover before they can wake up from their deep sleep.

"This, this is..."

Gerson, who came to the scene, realized the horror of the matter at first sight.

"More than a hundred pirates, all fell into a deep sleep in a strange state."

"It looks like, in just a short moment, all these pirates were killed by a collective instant!"

"The weird thing is that they don't have any skin injuries."

As you look deeper,

The more Gesen noticed how weird and terrifying things were.

all over...

Unscathed!

This group of pirates obviously did not have any damage, but they all fell into a deep sleep strangely and could not be easily awakened.

As a colonel of the Navy Headquarters, Gesen was very frightened by this scene.

"All of this must be that person's masterpiece!"

"But, what kind of weird method did he use..."

"Can you kill all the pirates in the audience in an instant? And you haven't left any skin trauma to these pirates?"

"What exactly is this means?"

Gerson was puzzled.

gradually,

As he pondered deeper, he vaguely discerned some clues.

An extremely frightening guess came to mind.

"Hey Hey hey....."

"No way?"

"It won't really be as I guessed it?!"

"This!"

Gesen's pupils suddenly shrank, and his face changed dramatically.

Looking around,

His eyes were full of horror at the group of unconscious pirates, his throat was dry, his lips twitched slightly, and he blurted out subconsciously.

"This, is this a legend..."

"The overlord is domineering?!"

Chapter 81:

"It is said that among millions of people, only one person has the potential of a king?!"

This astonishing guess shocked Gerson.

He wanted to deny it.

However, this guess is the closest to the truth!

"Doesn't that mean..."

"Mr. Lu En, who is only four years old, has already controlled the legendary overlord?!"

"how can that be?!"

good half sound,

Gerson said in a trembling voice.

"Mr. Lu En he..."

"Simply a monster!".

Chapter 60 That kid is a monster! Can't be bothered, can't be bothered!

□First order on 14/20□

Rogue Town.

Bustling streets.

People come and go, lively and lively.

Shops of various colors are dazzling ~, dazzling.

clothing,

jewelry,

arms,

food.....

Lu En, who left the naval branch, was walking through the lively streets, preparing to return to the original road in the direction of the port of Rogge Town.

With millions of baileys in his pocket, he never again attracted the attention of those scoundrels who were just around the corner.

Walking through the noisy streets, and occasionally tasting the special food of Rogge Town, Lu En was full of food. With a bloated stomach, he went straight to the port.

In a dark corner of the street.

With terrified eyes, they watched Lu En's back leaving with lingering fears.

This group of gangsters who do all kinds of evil, were frightened by Lu En's figure.

"If I remember correctly, the kid who was walking on the street just now was taken away by Jack with blue hair half an hour ago."

"Why..."

"The person who was taken away by Jack with blue hair can actually return to the street again?"

"Could it be that this kid was not extorted by Blue-haired Jack and the others? No. With the characters of Blue-haired Jack and the big pirate Bucky the Clown standing behind them, they shouldn't let this kid go. right."

A bunch of thugs are deeply puzzled.

At this time,

A weak voice sounded: "I said, is there a possibility. That is, the blue-haired Jack and the others have been wiped out? Was this kid killed by one person?"

The words fall.

The whole place was dead silent!

Silent!

quite a while,

Only then did a trembling voice come out: "Hey, hey, are you sure you're not joking? Who is Jack with blue hair? That's a pirate with a bounty of millions of berries!"

"and also....."

"If I remember correctly, the direction that Jack with the blue hair left with that kid is to the direction of their Bucky Pirates base camp."

"As you mean, the entire Bucky Pirates were wiped out by this four-year-old kid? Do you think it's possible?"

"The captain of the Bucky Pirates, Bucky the Clown, is a big pirate with a bounty of 12 million Berries! He is also a superhuman devil fruit person!"

A voice full of doubt resounded in the dark corner of the street.

The gangster who just made the guess was speechless and speechless. after all.

A four-year-old kid destroying a pirate group with a reward of tens of millions?

This does sound like an exaggeration!

But no one thought of it.

Without warning...

in vain!

A startling news came from his subordinates.

"Old, boss!"

"Big news! Great news!"

"The Bucky Pirates were destroyed by the group!"

"Just now, a large number of navies were from the naval branch, fully equipped, armed with long guns, and well-equipped to rush to the tavern a few kilometers southeast of the town center."

"I remember clearly, that tavern is the base camp of the Bucky Pirates!"

The news came.

moment,

The dozens of gangsters at the corners of the dark streets were all dumbfounded and dumbfounded.

"What, what did you say?!"

"The Bucky Pirates were wiped out? Are you sure this isn't a joke?"

"That's the big pirate clown Bucky, who has a bounty of over 10 million Berry, an extremely powerful pirate group founded by himself! How could it be destroyed by the group?"

"Did that Colonel Gerson personally go out?"

Someone hurriedly asked.

"No, not the Colonel Gerson."

"I heard a cryptic message from the people under my hand."

"The culprit who killed the Bucky Pirates..."

"It's a four-year-old monster!"

"The entire Bucky Pirates was wiped out by a four-year-old kid alone!"

With the subordinates tell the truth.

The whole place is silent!

Silence!

Dozens of gangsters were shocked, their eyes widened and rounded, completely dumbfounded.

"What, what?!"

"The Bucky Pirates were wiped out by a four-year-old kid?"

"you sure?"

"how can that be?!"

"Crazy!"

A group of gangsters were shocked.

"Boss, this is absolutely true."

"This news has completely detonated the naval branch!"

"It's really a four-year-old kid who overthrew the Bucky Pirates. Even Bucky the Clown, the big pirate with a bounty of tens of millions of berries, was taken down by the four-year-old kid alone! And sent to the naval branch for detention!"

All the gangsters present were stunned.

gradually,

They suddenly thought of an extremely frightening fact.

"Hey Hey hey....."

"No way?"

"You said, the four-year-old kid who killed the Bucky Pirates."

"Could he be..."

"That kid just now?!"

Dozens of gangsters were full of horror, and they quickly turned their eyes away, staring at the four-year-old boy who was walking through the bustling street not far away.

for a moment,

An icy cold air pierced the sky from the soles of their respective feet.

make them creepy,

shudder.

"Is there really such a coincidence?"

"Just now, that kid happened to be taken by the blue-haired Jack to the base camp of the Bucky Pirates. At this moment, in less than half an hour, it was heard that the Bucky Pirates were taken by a four-year-old kid. dead news."

"coincide?"

"Do not!"

"It's no coincidence!"

"I've been wondering just now, how did a four-year-old kid escape from the base camp of the Bucky Pirates? It turns out that this kid killed the entire Bucky Pirates by one person!"

The group of * couldn't help but gasped, and their mood was terrifying.

They are stupid.

this moment,

The truth that emerged in their foreheads completely overturned their cognition.

Gollum!

They couldn't help swallowing their saliva, their eyes were full of panic, heart palpitations, shock, and fear, looking at the four-year-old boy on the street, trembling all over.

"My God!"

"A kid who was only four years old and killed the entire Bucky Pirates!"

"What kind of monster is he?!"

"Rogge Town, how could such a terrifying monster suddenly appear?!"

"It's too strong!"

"The four-year-old group killed the pirate group with a reward of tens of millions! Win the big pirate clown Bucky with a reward of over 10 million Berry!"

.....

.....????

"This kind of monster is simply terrifying and outrageous."

At this moment,

When they learned the truth, their hearts were filled with shock, but they also felt extremely fortunate.

fine.....

Chapter 82:

It wasn't them who took the initiative to provoke that terrifying monster in the first place.

Instead,

Blue-haired Jack, the crew of the Bucky Pirates!

They just couldn't imagine it.

At that time, if it wasn't for the blue-haired Jack who made the first move.

They may have already made a move on that monster.

By then...

What will happen to them?

provoked such a terrifying monster.

How do they end up?

Just imagining it is enough to make the dozens of gangsters present numb their scalps and shudder.

That's the monster that one person killed the Bucky Pirates!

provoked this monster...

Will they end well?

Didn't you see that even the Bucky Pirates were wiped out?

Compared to the Bucky Pirates,

What are they?

.....

The terrifying monsters that can destroy the Bucky Pirates can destroy dozens of them. Isn't this a piece of cake?

"Boss, boss, we are really lucky."

"It was almost a disaster."

"You must know that Bucky the Clown, the big pirate who has offered a reward of tens of millions of berries, has escaped from the hands of the Navy Colonel Gerson many times."

"However, in front of this four-year-old monster, Bucky the Clown was taken alone!"

"It is conceivable how terrifying the strength of this monster must be!"

"Once we provoke this kind of monster, our entire group will be destroyed by that monster mercilessly in an instant!"

A group of gangsters were palpitating, and looked at their boss with fear on their faces.

It can be clearly seen that,

As the leader of dozens of gangsters, the boss also showed a strong sense of panic, trembling all over, his hands and feet were cold, and his face was pale.

"lucky....."

"Get a little life back!"

A group of thugs hiding in the dark corner of the street are watching the four-year-old boy drifting away from the bustling street with shock, fear, and fear.

from start to finish,

They dare not act rashly,

Don't dare to speak out!

even,

Even the sound of breathing was deliberately lowered.

quite a while,

After Lu En's figure completely disappeared from the bustling streets,

This group of thugs hiding in the dark can finally breathe a sigh of relief.

They were relieved and wiped the cold sweat from their foreheads with trembling hands, and the fear in their hearts eased slightly.

at this time,

As the boss of the entire gang, he could not help but solemnly instruct his subordinates in a tone full of horror.

"after....."

"When we choose fat sheep, we must keep our eyes open, and don't provoke some existences that we can't afford to provoke!"

"Otherwise, the Bucky Pirates who were destroyed by the group today are our lessons learned!"

"Who would have thought..."

"A kid who is only four years old, and looks weak and weak on the outside. But in fact, he is actually a monster with extremely terrifying strength!" Zhang.

Chapter 61 Prestige resounds in Rogge Town! My name is Lu En! □First order on 15/20□

Walk the streets of Rogue Town,

Admire the local style of Rogue Town...

Lu En didn't know.

Before he knew it, he had scared the * out of a gang of dozens of people.

Even if he knew, he might just laugh it off and not take it too seriously.

The number of tourists in Rogue Town is very large,

As the island town closest to the great waterway in the East China Sea, it is also known as the place where it begins and ends, naturally attracting countless tourists.

And countless pirates who want to go to the great waterway from the East China Sea.

Rogge Town is the only way for pirates to travel from the East China Sea to the great waterway.

Pirates do not have the ability of the navy to traverse the windless belt.

They can only come to Rogge Town step by step, and then go through the reverse current of the Upside Down Mountain to enter the great waterway smoothly.

There is naturally a lot of risk here!

After a year,

Almost all of the pirates who tried to enter the great waterway from the East China Sea were damaged in the upstream of the Upside-Down Mountain. In the end, the ship crashed and people died, and they were completely buried in the sea.

Along the way, Lu En found quite a few traces of pirates.

However, with the idea of not wanting to cause trouble, Lu En did not fight these pirates on the street.

There is absolutely no need for this...

If there is someone who doesn't have long eyes to provoke them, he will take the initiative to take down these pirates. "Eight Five Three"

If you don't take the initiative to provoke yourself,

Lu En wouldn't kill all the pirates with hatred and hatred.

In short.

two words...

Buddha nature!

Lu En's attitude towards pirates has always been very Buddhist.

As for why it was so cruel to the Bucky Pirates?

Of course, it's just plain unhappy watching Bucky the Clown!

Because of Bucky the Clown's best friend, Red-haired Shanks...

And implicated Bucky the Clown!

All the anger in Lu En's heart was vented on Bucky the clown.

Terrible Bucky...

Maybe he doesn't know yet.

He took the blame for his good friend, the red-haired Shanks.

"System, bring up the properties panel."

Walking around the street, Lu En started to check the changes of his current attribute panel when he was doing nothing.

[Host: Lu En]

[Strength: 26 (+1.3)]

[Speed: 22.4 (+0.9)]

[Physical Strength: 27.4 (+1.2)]

[Mental Power: 14.3 (+0.2)]

[Ghost Back Completion: 10.42%]

[The overall improvement of the current training effect: 100 times! □]

Since the battle with the Bucky Pirates just now.

Lu En's overall strength has once again ushered in a big improvement.

Although the increase is not too high.

But, as long as it adds up.

Similar battles have gone through hundreds of thousands of times.

Then accumulate...

The improvement of Lu En's strength is still quite large.

If it weren't for the hundredfold increase in cultivation, Lu En's strength would not have changed so much.

The devil's training has little effect on him.

We must find a more reasonable scientific training method!

only so,

Only Lu En can realize the rapid progress of strength again.

"A battle, the harvest is not small."

"There has been a slight improvement in all attributes."

"It's not bad either."

Lu En was quite satisfied with this.

His requirements are not high,

Every time you fight, your strength becomes stronger.

That alone made him content.

"The only pity is..."

"The completion of the ghost back seems to have been slow like a snail."

Lu En was helpless.

Expecting the completion of Ghost Back to reach 20%, thereby unlocking a higher multiplier increase in practice, is so far away that Lu En can't even hope for it.

"Once the completion of the ghost back exceeds 20%, I have a hunch that it will be a dramatic change!"

"A real qualitative change!"

Lu En was thoughtful.

By the time.....

It is possible that the multiple increase obtained by cultivation is no longer as simple as a hundred times.

Most likely two hundred times as much...

even,

Chapter 83:

A thousand times!

If this is the case, Lu En will only need to practice for one day, and he will be able to stand up to others' practice for several years!

Just ask,

As such,

Wouldn't Lu En be directly invincible in a month?

Thinking of this, his eyes were full of anticipation, but he could only helplessly shake his head and sigh.

The progress of the ghost back is too slow!

Slowly, he almost ignored his own ghostback completion progress.

call!

Gently exhaling, Lu En suppressed all the complicated thoughts in his head.

clenched fists,

I can clearly feel...

His own strength is a bit stronger than before the battle with the Bucky Pirates broke out.

Next,

With a cheerful mood, Lu En returned to the port of Rogue Town.

on the way,

He stumbled upon a few pedestrians who were chatting hotly.

listen carefully,

good guy!

I also heard a message about myself!

"Have you heard?"

"There is a tavern on the east side of the city, which is the base camp of the Bucky Pirates! They are so daring to set up their base camp in our town of Rogge!"

"Clown Bucky, I heard that this is a very vicious big pirate. His hands are contaminated with human life. The people who kill can accumulate a city."

"That's right, a big pirate with a bounty of over 10 million Berry is enough to show the power of Bucky the Clown."

"But you don't know, just now, the Bucky Pirates were wiped out! Even the big pirate Bucky the Clown was escorted to the Navy Prison!"

"Really or not? A pirate with a bounty of tens of millions of berries has been detained in a naval prison? Who is it? Which Colonel Gerson came out in person?"

"..."

A group of pedestrians looked curious and shocked.

Bucky the Clown is famous for his fierce reputation and prestige, which is simply frightening.

No one thought of it.

someday,

This famous and famous pirate was actually detained in a naval prison!

It's so heartwarming!

then,

People are getting curious.

Who actually took down Bucky the Clown?

This is a real big pirate!

"I heard....."

A middle-aged man said in a terrifying tone, "It's a four-year-old child!

Alone, he killed the Bucky Pirates! He even took down Bucky the Clown, the big pirate, alone!"

The words fall.

The whole place is silent!

After a brief silence,

The atmosphere was fully detonated!

"What, what?!"

"What did you say?!"

"A four-year-old kid killed the Bucky Pirates? Are you sure?"

"Are you sure it's not my hallucinations?"

"Crazy!"

"A four-year-old kid won a big pirate with a reward of ten million? What kind of monster is this?"

The whole place shook!

All the pedestrians were shocked.....

They were dumbfounded and dumbfounded.

Someone asked weakly: "Are the big pirates with a reward of tens of millions of berries so weak? Was it taken by a child who was only four years old?"

Immediately,

This remark caused a group of people to scoff.

"Weak? What are you kidding!"

"A pirate who can be rewarded with a reward of tens of millions of Berries, which one doesn't have the terrifying power to destroy the town?

It's not that Bucky the clown is too weak."

"And it's purely..."

"That four-year-old is too strong!"

"It's a horrible four-year-old monster!"

This sudden news ignited a huge sensation in the entire Rogge Town!

All streets and alleys...

began to spread,

The news that Bucky the Clown was killed by a four-year-old.

at the same time.

Lu En's name resounds throughout Rogue Town!

Everyone is starting to know.

When he was only four years old, he was alone to destroy the monsters of the Bucky Pirates.

His name is...

Luen!

"A monster named Luen..."

"I seem to have foreseen it."

"In the future, there will be an unparalleled and powerful monster in this sea!"

The huge town of Rogue,

There is a reputation about Lu En everywhere.

As the party concerned, Lu En shuttled through the crowd with a strange look.

did not expect.....

But it just killed the Bucky Pirates.

It actually caused such a huge sensation in the entire Rogue Town!

This really surprised him.

The East China Sea is still the East China Sea...

The killing of a pirate with a bounty of over 10 million Berry was enough to cause shock and sensation among thousands of residents of Rogge Town.

If placed on the Great Channel...

The pirates who offer a reward of tens of millions are buried in this sea almost every day. Naturally, it is impossible to be like today's Rogge Town.

Just because the pirate group with a bounty of tens of millions was wiped out, such a huge wave was set off.

"Little brother, looking at your appearance, you should be no more than four-year-old childish age..."

"You have to learn from that Mr. Lu En."

In front of a barbecue stall,

Lu 3.4 En listened to the barbecue boss's remarks, and his expression became more and more strange.

good guy!

This means...

Allow yourself to learn yourself?

"By the way, what's the name of the little brother? Why didn't you come out with your family?"

"Although the navy is stationed in Rogue Town, and the security is good. But if you walk the streets of Rogue Town alone, it is easy to be targeted by those gangsters."

The boss is very kind and concerned.

"It's easy to be targeted by gangsters?"

"Boss, you don't have to worry about that."

"Even if you give them a hundred courage..."

"They don't dare to stare at me!"

Lu En laughed.

"Oh? Little brother, what is the basis for this?"

Seeing that Lu En didn't look timid at all, the boss looked a little curious for a while.

Rogue Town gangsters are quite difficult.

The boss had a deep understanding of this when he first arrived in Rogge Town.

"Reliance? No reliance."

"only because....."

"My name is Lu En!"

Lu En laughed.

Immediately,

Under the stunned and shocked eyes of the boss...

I see,

Lu En picked up a bunch of fragrant barbecue and turned away without looking back.

Chapter 62 Leaving Rogge Town! Enter the Great Channel! [First order on 16/20]

After a quarter of an hour,

From the bustling central street of Rogge Town, Lu En arrived at the port of Rogge Town smoothly.

As he just came to the port.

I see,

A group of navies who originally transported goods to the warship warehouse stopped their actions one after another, and invariably looked at Lu En with awe-filled eyes.

Chapter 84:

attracting attention,

All admiration.

The eyes full of admiration were all fixed on Lu En's body.

This weird atmosphere...

It made Lu En feel embarrassed.

"Mr. Luen, but there was a lot of trouble in Rogue Town."

Pocato came to Lu En's side and was amazed.

"Let Colonel Pocato laugh."

Lu En shook his head and laughed.

Dealing with a pirate with a reward of tens of millions of berries, it may be called earth-shattering here in Rogge Town.

However, for a Navy elite like Pocato, a lieutenant colonel of the Navy Headquarters.

Pirates who offer a reward of tens of millions of berries are naturally not enough to watch.

To know.

Pocato is Garp's confidant and subordinate, and his strength is naturally undoubted.

Even an ordinary navy colonel is far inferior to Pocato!

It is for this reason.

Lu En just thought.

Dealing with a mere Bucky pirate group, in Pocato's eyes, is at best the same.

"Just now, Lieutenant General Karp was cheering loudly when he heard what Mr. Luen had done, and he was very happy."

Pocato continued to speak.

"Does the old man also know?" 29

Lu En was helpless.

But it's just a little thing...

How did the whole world know about it?

"For Mr. Luen, this is no small matter."

"You're only four years old!"

"Looking at this sea, who can be as powerful as Mr. Lu En at the age of four? There has never been a similar example!"

"Looking at the hundreds of years in the Navy, there has never been a monster like you, Mr. Lu En, with an unparalleled and unparalleled talent."

"So, Mr. Lu En, don't belittle yourself."

"If even a genius like you, which is rare in a century, starts to belittle yourself. Then how should other navies with mediocre talents be so embarrassed?"

Pocato couldn't help laughing bitterly.

If even a monster like Lu En in front of him is arrogant...

The other navies are simply too ashamed to be ashamed.

"Where's the old man? Has he done his business?"

Lu En changed the subject.

"A bell ago, Lieutenant General Karp had finished his work and returned to the warship."

"In addition, we need to prepare sufficient materials, which have been prepared half an hour ago. We just need to transport all those materials to the warehouse of the warship."

"This process may also take half an hour."

Pocato told the truth.

"That is to say..."

"Am I the last to arrive?"

Lu En couldn't help shaking his head.

"Mr. Luen can go back to the warship for a rest first."

"Soon, warships will be able to set sail for the Great Channel."

"Calculated according to the originally formulated navigation plan..."

"In about four days, the warship will be able to enter the great waterway smoothly."

Pocato thought for a moment and said bluntly.

"Four days..."

Lu En nodded.

Saying goodbye to Pocato, he walked on the deck of the warship alone.

Along the way,

Facing a pair of eyes full of awe and admiration.

as if...

Walk in the navy full of attention.

It made Lu En feel uncomfortable.

Returning to the warship, Lu En soon saw Karp.

"Boy Luen, are you enjoying yourself in Rogge Town?"

"I heard that your kid killed another pirate group with a reward of ten million?"

Cap laughed loudly, and patted Lu En's shoulder with a strong arm, causing the latter to stagger and almost fell to the deck next to him.

"I said, old man, can't you control your power?"

"If it weren't for my physical fitness, I might not be able to withstand the force of your slap."

Lu En rolled his eyes.

"Sorry, sorry, I was happy for a while and forgot to pull back."

Karp wasn't apologetic at all, but instead had a brighter and prouder smile on his face.

Seeing my grandson keep getting stronger...

Karp was naturally excited and joyful, and his whole heart was full of gratification.

old man...

There is a successor!

Looking at the bulging muscles of Lu En's upper body, Karp's expression became more and more satisfied.

good!

This kid Lu En really has the demeanor of the old man back then!

Don't rely on Devil Fruits...

Nor did he rely on the sword in his hand.

Just use a pair of fists to kill countless pirate groups in this sea with a reward of tens of millions!

In Karp's view.

Relying on Devil Fruit and Sword in Hand...

Those are the weak!

A real man is to blow up the enemy with his bare hands!

This is the real man!

And Lu En was very much in line with Karp's appetite.

even,

From Luen's body, Karp saw it.

A monster far beyond himself is rising!

This is a bare-handed...

Then there is a monster that becomes the top powerhouse in this sea!

Unlike those cowards who rely on devil fruits and swords in their hands.

"even....."

"This kid Lu En is even better than the old man back then!"

"It's also more brutal than the old man's character!"

"To the pirates, this kid really doesn't have any kind of sympathy."

"In time, this kid must be the nightmare of countless pirates in this sea!"

Karp thought to himself.

this kid...

Born to be a born strong man!

quite a while,

Garp suppressed the many complicated thoughts in his head.

He asked, "By the way, is the captain of the pirate group you dealt with in Rogue Town this time a guy with a round red nose?"

heard,

Lu En nodded: "it's him, Bucky the Clown."

"Red-nosed kid..."

"It's really nostalgic."

"This guy, it turned out to be hiding in the East China Sea, and he didn't even dare to run out of the Great Channel."

"It's just as timid as a mouse back then!"

Karp let out a laugh, his eyes filled with a bit of nostalgia and emotion.

then,

When he fought against Roger, the pirate king, he had seen the red-nosed kid more than once.

as well as.....

That boy with red hair!

now,

That red-haired boy has already made a name for himself in the new world. He is no longer the weak and hairy boy he used to be, but a real big pirate!

It is one of the most terrifying monsters in the sea!

but did not expect,

The red-nosed kid who was at the same time as the red-haired boy, but the other party willingly hid in the East China Sea, and did not dare to run to the great waterway.

and.....

This red-nosed kid is still as fragile as he was back then!

Completely different from that red-haired kid!

Now,

Even his grandson Lu En can beat that red-nosed kid with one hand.

It's really unforgiving of the years...

In the blink of an eye,

Chapter 85:

So many years have passed.

For a moment, Karp was overwhelmed with emotion.

After a while,

Under the command of Pocato, all the materials were successfully sent to the warehouse of the warship.

So far,

The warship can officially set sail away from Rogue Town.

"set sail."

After all the navy had returned to the warship, Karp began to give orders.

instantly,

Under the control of several navies, the huge warship left the port coast of Rogue Town.

warships set sail,

set sail,

anchor,

Go to sea!

The warship began to sail, and the sea water that was pushed away from the bottom of the ship rippled to both sides, setting off waves of waves.

Whoa!

Ripple waves spread out on the sea surface, and the ripples generated by the waves hit the reefs on the coast of the port, and there were bursts of crisp and pleasant sounds.

in a while,

The warship completely left the port of Rogue Town.

turned into a tiny black spot,

Lopsided.

finally--

The huge town of Rogge completely disappeared from Lu En's eyes on the deck of the warship.

From a tiny black spot...

at last,

completely disappeared.

The incomparably huge warship sailed towards the Wangyang Sea area in the distance.

Sail in the direction of the great fairway!

...

Time flies.

Alternating day and night.

In the blink of an eye,

It's been four days.

The entire warship has officially left the East China Sea.

Enter the Great Channel! .

Chapter 63 Four-day strength improvement! Surprise the sea king class!

□First order on 17/20□

Great fairway.

The wind is sunny and the sky is clear.

A cool sea breeze blows.

The calm sea was lifted, and there were waves of rippling waves.

Whoa!

The crisp and pleasant sound of the waves hitting each other is like a series of wonderful notes.

An incomparably huge warship sailed from a distant sea at an even speed.

Passing away from the sea,

It seems that the sea surface is torn apart on both sides, making the ripples spread farther and farther on the sea surface.

the breeze blows,

The white seagull flag hangs high and flutters in the wind. The pattern on it symbolizes the peace, fairness, justice and justice of the navy.

After a full four-day voyage, Lu En and others finally left the East China Sea as they wished, and successfully came to the great waterway, a sea area where pirates emerge in endlessly.

Compared to the peaceful waters of the East China Sea...

Here in the great waterway, the crisis is ups and downs, and there are dangers everywhere.

a little careless,

will be all over the place, completely buried in the sea.

The most dangerous thing in the great waterway is not only the countless huge sea kings hidden under the sea, but also the weather here is changeable.

Maybe the last second, the sky is still clear.

But in the next second, the weather here became raging, and the storm was about to hit.

In general.

Navigating in the sea area of the Great Channel, not only need to pay attention to the sea kings that appear under the sea, but also need to always observe the changes in the sky above the head.

After a year,

There are countless people who have been buried in the sea due to changes in the sky.

in,

Of these deaths, pirates naturally account for the vast majority.

It is for this reason.

The most important thing for a sailing ship is not only to have an experienced helmsman at the helm.

There is also an experienced navigator who needs to observe the changes in the sky at all times.

Prevent the ship from straying into some extremely terrible celestial storms, which will cause the entire ship to collapse and collapse, and the entire army will be annihilated and buried in this sea.

And the warship that Lu En was on was naturally filled with all kinds of talents.

more than one helmsman,

There are more than one navigator.

This warship, which is headed by the naval hero Karp himself, naturally has all kinds of talents, and will not cause the warship to stray into some dangerous areas of the sea.

at this time.

warship,

on the deck.

Facing the bright scorching sun scattered down from the sky, Lu En was training hard constantly, carrying a weight of 500 kilograms, carrying out devil-style training.

Constantly repeating the boring training process...

Week by week.

keep looping.

"One thousand nine hundred and ninety-four!"

"One thousand nine hundred and ninety-five!"

"One thousand nine hundred and ninety-six!"

"..."

Lu En was dripping with sweat, and he was sitting and doing push-ups constantly. Countless beads of sweat the size of soybeans had already appeared on his forehead, and slowly flowed down from both sides of his cheeks.

Tick tock!

Tick tock!

A large piece of sweat madly vented and fell from Lu En's body.

Like a downpour!

The 500kg weight on his body is more than ten times that of Lu En's own weight!

However,

Even though he was carrying a load that was more than ten times his own body weight, Lu En still did nearly 2,000 push-ups, which only took less than an hour.

feel...

The soreness from his whole body made Lu En narrow his eyes slightly.

In order to prevent the sweat from his forehead from flowing down his eyes, he simply closed his eyes.

With both hands constantly supporting the heavy body,

The body became extremely heavy, but he still persisted.

Very disciplined!

Very hard work!

This effort deeply moved the entire fleet of Hundreds of Navy ships, and they had to admire Lu En's strong perseverance from the bottom of their hearts.

Anyway,

Not to mention Lu En's amazing talent, this perseverance alone is enough to make the entire warship unmatched by all navies.

Too hard!

When all the navy saw Lu En's devil-style training, they only felt frightened and shuddered.

They are completely afraid to follow suit.

Such hard training...

make them worry,

Their physical fitness can't handle it at all!

at the same time,

They are also worried,

Will Lu En's body suffer dark injuries or leave hidden dangers?

but.....

This kind of worry didn't last long, and they could only helplessly smile.

because,

Karp has publicly threatened.

Lu En's physical fitness is very strong, and any hidden injury can never appear on Lu En's body. Even if he is overtrained, he only needs one night of practice to recover as before.

This strong physical fitness...

All the navies on the entire warship could only cry and laugh, and they couldn't help but express their deep awe and admiration for Lu En from the bottom of their hearts.

"Mr. Lu En..."

"What a terrible monster!"

This is a sincere evaluation from the hearts of all the navies of the entire warship.

therefore.

Chapter 86:

For Lu Enneng, he had such a powerful and terrifying combat power when he was only four years old.

All the navy of the entire warship did not show any extreme psychology.

On the contrary,

they think.

Lu En can be so strong...

This is a very common sense thing!

As the saying goes,

God rewards hard work!

God will never fail anyone who works hard.

not to mention.....

Lu En is still a monster with an unparalleled and unparalleled talent!

A genius with unparalleled talent and aptitude, plus, day and night, day after day devil training.

If this kind of hard-working genius can't become stronger...

How can other people be qualified to become stronger?

so.

Lu En's strength convinced all the navies of the entire warship.

"Two thousand!"

After doing 2,000 weight-bearing push-ups, Lu En's limbs were sore, and he was lying on the deck, constantly adjusting his disordered breathing.

Take a deep breath,

Take a big breath.

The sweat stains on Lu En's body gradually infected the deck, soaking the deck.

These sweats...

Witness Lu En's perseverance!

Witness his hard work!

Feeling the sore limbs and tired body, Lu En closed his eyes, turned his feet to the sky, and lay flat on the deck, feeling the cold sea breeze blowing from all directions, and bathed in the golden sunlight.

The meaning of warmth flows slowly.

The cold sea breeze seemed to dispel a little tiredness in Lu En's body.

Immediately after,

He didn't wait for Lu En to respond.

The sound of the system sounded from his head soon.

[A total of gains in this practice: strength +0.003, speed +0.002, physical strength +0.004! □

[After a 100-fold increase in the training effect...]

[The host can obtain: Strength +0.3, Speed +0.2, Stamina +0.4! □

moment,

With the sound of the system just dropped.

A warm current appeared out of thin air and rushed into Lu En's body, scouring his internal organs and transforming his meridians, bones, blood...

in a while,

Remodeled,

Lu En became stronger again.

He can feel it.

Even if it is only a small increase in strength, he can still feel that his body is full of that power, which is much stronger than before.

also,

The muscle soreness caused by the devil's training also made Lu En's body recover more than half with the warm current of the system emerging in the body.

call!

Exhaling heavily, Lu En unloaded all the weight-bearing objects on his body, and slowly stood up from the deck, returning to his full energy again.

""After four days of devil training..."

"I've become a lot stronger again!"

Lu En's eyes flickered and his heart was filled with emotion.

Strong taste...

Make him deeply intoxicated and fascinated.

During the four days when he entered the Great Channel from the East

China Sea, Lu En has been persevering and kept training hard every day.

This makes his own strength to a higher level!

In general.

During these four days, he did not waste a minute or a second!

every point,

every second,

All used by him to improve his strength!

In four days, the warship came from the East China Sea to the Great Channel without any setbacks.

Not attacked by the sea kings,

There was no bad celestial disturbance either.

Some pirate groups I encountered occasionally, when they saw such a huge warship, they all fled, and did not dare to try to get close.

therefore.

The four-day voyage was very smooth, and there were no obstacles throughout the journey.

Occasionally encountered some small hair thieves, they were bombarded by the warship directly with long-range bombs, and those little hair thieves were easily killed in three or two times.

In general.

In the past four days, Lu En was basically in a state of assiduous cultivation (Qian Li Zhao).

certainly.

Four days of practice...

Naturally, Lu En benefited a lot.

"System, bring up the properties panel."

With a thought, Lu En began to check his current physical fitness.

[Host: Lu En]

[Strength: 27.1 (+1.1)]

[Speed: 23.2 (+0.8)]

[Physical Strength: 28.5 (+1.1)]

[Mental Power: 14.9 (+0.3)]

[Ghost Back Completion: 10.46%]

[The overall improvement of the current training effect: 100 times! □]

This is the total gain that Lu En got in four days.

A small increase in strength!

Although there is no such thing as a surge in strength,

But in just four days, he can make his own strength usher in a small improvement and change, which has already made Lu En express his satisfaction.

Just when Lu En carefully looked at his attribute panel.

Without warning...

In vain or!

A loud shout full of panic and anxiety came from the deck fence not far away.

"It's a sea king!"

"There is an extremely large sea king class that is rushing to the position where our warship is sailing at an extremely terrifying speed!"

"If it's not stopped in time..."

"After a while, our entire warship will most likely be washed away by it on the spot!"

"Quick! Go and tell Lieutenant General Garp!"

Chapter 64 Entering the sea alone! Fight the sea kings with your bare hands! [First order on 18/20]

A group of navy looked in a hurry, standing on the edge of the deck fence of the warship.

Their faces were full of horror, and their eyes were full of unease as they looked at the distant sea area.

can be clearly seen.

the endless seas far away,

About a few kilometers away.

In the depths of the sea, there is an incomparably huge sea king. A huge black shadow appeared, sprinting frantically in the direction of the warship.

Like crazy!

slam-la-

The calm sea was set off by waves of rippling waves.

majestic,

The waves crashed.

The rippling ripples spread in all directions along the trajectory.

On the entire sea surface, a large piece of water splashed and danced, followed by the pleasant sound of the clear spring.

Because the speed of this sea king was too fast, the sea surface seemed to be cut open, and a terrifying sea crack appeared.

Even a few kilometers away,

But the naval observer on the warship could still clearly see that the sea king lurking under the sea was at least ten meters in size!

This is a real sea king!

In the East China Sea, any Neptune of this size can be used as an overlord.

Available on the Great Passage...

A sea king of this size is just an ordinary sea king.

Once this sea king is allowed to pass under the warship frontally, it will inevitably cause irreversible damage to the warship, and even cause the entire warship to shatter on the spot.

"Sea Kings?"

On the deck, Lu En naturally heard the voices of the navy who were full of anxiety and panic.

He raised his brows and looked away from his attribute panel.

then,

Taking steps, with a little curiosity about 857, Lu En came to the wooden fence on the deck and stood beside a group of navy.

Chapter 87:

"Mr. Lu En."

With the arrival of Lu En, it immediately attracted the attention of the entire navy, and they all cast a respectful look.

During this time,

Lu En has deeply convinced all the navies of the entire warship with his actual actions, as well as his shocking talent, terrifying strength and other factors.

Every navy who sees Lu En will involuntarily show a strong sense of awe.

This is definitely not in Karp's face.

And purely...

Lu En used his hard work to make these people admire from the bottom of his heart.

"Is this the legendary sea king?"

Lu En nodded at the group of navy, and then turned his eyes, looking at the sea directly ahead with interest, the huge sea kings that were constantly attacking.

The speed of the sea kings traveling under the sea is very fast, so that the sea surface shows cracks that are about to be cut apart, and the splashing sea water is flying all over the sky, throwing it into the sky.

from afar,

All I could see was a huge black phantom that was as pitch-black as ink.

in a while,

Lieutenant Colonel Pocato came to the deck.

at the same time,

Karp also came.

And when they saw Karp's figure, all the navy who were terrified, heaved a sigh of relief, and their faces returned to their former expressions.

From here it can be seen that

In the minds of this group of (cjde) navies, what a heavy weight Karp has!

What a strong sense of security it gave them!

even,

Let all navies think.

As long as Lieutenant General Karp takes action, all difficult things will be solved.

There's nothing Lieutenant General Karp can't do.

Just a sea king...

Once Lieutenant General Garp makes a move, isn't that a trivial matter that can be solved easily?

"Lieutenant General Karp, you are finally here."

"That sea king is about to hit our entire warship. At this moment, even if the helmsman is ordered to divert the direction of the warship, I'm afraid it will be too late."

One after another, the navy spoke anxiously.

"A sea king?"

Karp followed his gaze and saw a sea king that looked like a horse, with a horse-like head, but an extremely huge body, no less than ten meters in length.

The sea king's fangs are exposed, and it looks particularly ferocious and extremely evil.

see here,

Karp was expressionless, and was about to kill this sea king, so as not to cause some damage to the warship because of this sea king, it would not be worth the loss.

"Old man, let me come."

"Just right..."

"Check how my strength has improved during this period."

Before Garp was about to start, Lu En, who was standing beside him, suddenly spoke up.

"kindness?"

Karp was surprised.

He looked at Lu En with a look of surprise, and couldn't help asking, "Are you sure? Are you going to deal with this sea king? Sea kings are different from pirates. They are truly unique and powerful life species in the sea."

"Every sea king has extremely terrifying destructive power and lethality."

"The bigger the sea king, the more terrifying the destructive power."

"Compared to the life of the sea kings, we humans are extremely fragile and insignificant. Even the strongest human beings, it is not easy to kill a sea king."

"Even a pirate with a reward of more than 10 million bells, facing an attack by a sea king, is afraid that he can only flee, and dare not fight head-on with the sea king."

"So, are you sure you're really going to deal with this sea king?"
around,

Hundreds of navies looked at Lu En with horror on their faces.

Obviously,

They didn't expect it either.

Lu En actually offered to deal with this attacking sea king!

Including Pocado, was equally astonished.

After thinking about it again and again, he couldn't help but advise: "Sea kings are different from humans, they don't have any fear at all. Once they are regarded as enemies, they will sacrifice their lives to tear the enemy to pieces."

"Fighting with sea kings and fighting with pirates are two completely different concepts."

"Fighting with sea kings is extremely dangerous! A little careless, it is very likely that you will be completely buried in this sea."

"Mr. Lu En, I advise you not to be too impulsive."

heard,

Without thinking too much, Lu En said again, "I've decided to let me deal with this sea king alone."

"Okay, since you've made up your mind, this old man can't dissuade him too much."

Karp did not continue to persuade, "Once you are in danger, the old man will save you in time."

Next,

Just under the eyes of Karp, Pocato and other navies.

I see,

Lu En slowly raised his right arm and grabbed onto his own collar.

then,

rip-

Simply and neatly, with a little force on his right hand, he tore up the entire shirt.

Clothes turned into countless pieces, slowly falling from the air.

instantly,

Lu En showed his upper body full of muscular lines, and his muscles were bulging. Every muscle seemed to contain infinite power, like volcanoes about to erupt.

A ghostly back,

extremely hideous,

Exudes a surging aura of coercion.

In full view.

Lu En kicked his feet,

Jump without hesitation and jump into the sea alone!

boom!

A dull sound came out.

Lu En's body slammed into the sea, causing a burst of sea water to splash.

The water stains scatter down,

Infected Lu En's hair.

Looked up,

His eyes were full of anticipation, and he faced the direction of the attack of the sea king.

"Would you like to give you a sword? Let you break through the epidermal defense of the sea kings."

Garp, who was standing on the deck, suddenly asked.

"No need."

Lu En chose to refuse.

sword?

A real man fights with his own fists!

Fighting with the sea kings with bare hands...

This is the real man!

"bring it on!"

"It's the first time for me to fight a sea king in the sea."

"Just let me feel good."

"Whether the famous Sea Kings are really as powerful as rumored."

Lu En was in high spirits and clenched his fists.

Muscles all over the body...

Begin to brew surging boundless power.

just like,

Lu En is going to fight the sea kings with his bare hands!

Not carrying any weapons...

Just rely on your own fists!

this scene,

It fell into the eyes of the hundreds of navies on the deck with great clarity, making their eyes full of horror.

good guy!

This, is to fight the sea kings with bare hands? !

Fierce!

It's just too fierce! .

Chapter 65 The Flesh is Hard and Sea King! Violent fight! □First order on 19/20□

"Lying, lying in the trough?"

"I am not wrong, right?"

"Mr. Lu En, is this going to fight the sea kings with bare hands?"

"With the power of pure flesh, harden a sea king?"

"God! Crazy?"

"It's just crazy!"

"This is the boldness of the real art master."

Chapter 88:

"..."

The entire warship, hundreds of navy, looked at Lu En's every move dumbfounded.

They are stupid.

Lu En, who was only four years old, tried to kill the sea kings with his astonishment, which really scared them a lot.

"Lieutenant General Garp, are you sure it's all right?"

Pocato also looked worried and couldn't help asking.

"Don't worry, the strength of this kid is far beyond your imagination!"

"He would never do anything unsure."

"What's more, no matter how bad it is, with the strength of this kid, he will not be instantly killed by the sea kings. As long as he is not killed by the sea kings, the old man can save him in time."

Garp waved his hand and looked expectantly at Lu En's figure.

instantly,

Lu En, who is under the sea, can clearly feel it.

My body seems to be getting a little sluggish...

Due to the promotion of the ocean current, Lu En's mobility was slightly restricted. Although the restriction was not big, it made Lu En feel awkward.

"The pressure from the sea water has greatly suppressed my speed."

"Looks like I have to get used to it."

Entering the sea for the first time to fight against the sea kings, there are still many places that Lu En wants to adapt to.

But right now, he doesn't have much time to prepare.

because.....

A kilometer away from the front,

That horse-like sea king has already been oppressed with a terrifying momentum, and sprinted frantically in the direction of Lu En and the warship behind him at a terrifying speed.

This sea king shuttled through the sea at high speed, and set off a wave of waves on the sea surface.

The sea splashed up,

Water stains scattered everywhere.

The waves of ripples have already extended to the sea area where Lu En is located.

He swam tens of meters away, and let this spacious and open sea serve as the battlefield for him and the sea kings to fight.

Avoid the aftermath of the fierce battle that will break out later, which will spread to the warship and cause irreversible damage to the warship.

"coming!"

Lu En narrowed his eyes slightly, and stared at the huge dark shadow under the sea with great interest.

Immediately after,

He took the initiative.

without hesitation...

Suddenly dashed forward in the sea.

Whoa!

Lu En exerted his strength and set off a wave of surging waves rolling freely.

boom--

Push your feet lightly.

The piece of sea water under his feet seemed to have been hit by an extremely terrifying pressure, and it was forcibly bombarded and dented.

then,

Accompanied by a loud bang.

There was a roar from the sea.

moment,

Lu En's body was like an arrow from the string, suddenly pierced from the bottom of the sea, and charged forward without the slightest fear towards the attacking sea king.

As Lu En has gone...

The sea also set off a turbulent wave, and the sea water splashed up and scattered in the air, faintly depicting a looming rainbow.

The overwhelming sea water was hitting Lu En's body, trying to intercept his high-speed movement under the sea.

The sea water created a lot of obstacles for him...

However, Lu En's speed is still very high!

close!

The distance between Lu En and the sea kings is getting closer and closer.

From the first kilometer,

300 meters to the present,

two hundred meters,

One hundred meters.

...

At close range, Lu En could feel the surging evil aura emanating from the sea king in front, as well as the coercion of the extremely exuberant aura of life.

Just under the gaze of the hundreds of navies such as Karp.

finally--

Lu En moved at a high speed, and a head-on collision broke out with the sea king that was also moving at a high speed.

"Iron Nugget Steel Fist!"

with a loud shout,

Lu En stimulated the surging power in his body, and immediately performed the six naval poses, concentrating the power on his right arm, and then on his fist.

Concentrate your strength a little,

Aiming at the sea kings ahead, they suddenly bombarded.

punched out,

Hit hard.

With this punch, the power brewing in Lu En's body exploded in an instant.

It's like a volcano that has been accumulating for a long time has ushered in an eruption.

A punch fell,

secretly,

The fist and even the surrounding space were wriggling and twisting, and there was a visual illusion of trembling in the space, which seemed to collapse at any time.

call out!

A sound exploded.

sharp,

harsh.

Lu En threw a punch. Due to the high-speed punch, coupled with the sudden explosion of the power contained in the punch, it forced a sonic boom by rubbing the space.

The unparalleled strength gathered in Lu En's punch.

The fist has not come,

Fist is coming.

The extremely tearing fist wind caused waves of terrifying airflow shock waves, causing the seawater around Lu En to wriggle and tremble.

finally,

This fist is aimed at the head of the sea king,

Successful hit!

boom--

Accompanied by an earth-shattering bang.

A violent force erupted from Lu En's fist, rushing towards the huge body of the sea king.

The power of this punch.

to destroy,

Destruction!

The extremely destructive power erodes the huge body of the sea kings in an instant.

From a close look, Lu En could clearly see the hard scales all over the body of this sea king.

suffocating,

So oppressive!

With a huge body like a hill, even the life magnetic field emanating from it is enough to cause unprecedented suppression to countless creatures.

A punch slammed into the head scales of the sea kings.

Abruptly smashed the scales of the sea kings...

Click!

Click!

The scales that seemed indestructible like diamonds were pierced by Lu En's small punch, and the heads of the sea kings were dented.

Although the extent of the depression is not obvious, it is enough to show that Lu En's punch has indeed caused a lot of trauma to this behemoth.

Boom!

A terrifying shock wave erupted from Lu En's punch, sweeping the sea in all directions, forcibly hitting the sea and causing monstrous waves and water stains.

the waves roll,

The waves are rising,

Scattered all over the place.

Under the influence of this violent airflow, waves of surging waves spread out.

Even the huge warship that was hundreds of meters away was constantly swaying weakly under the influence of the rippling waves on the sea.

Lu En's punch forced the figure of the Sea King to stop!

original,

The sea kings shuttled through the sea at an extremely terrifying speed, and the huge and terrifying body like a mountain was accompanied by terrifying acceleration...

Even if it encounters a warship, I am afraid that its body will be smashed and washed away on the spot.

.....

..... ????

However,

At this moment,

Lu En used only one punch in the whole process, and the amount of violent violence that broke out with just one punch actually blocked the figure of the Sea King, so that the other party could no longer make an inch.

As you can imagine.

What terrifying power is contained in this punch.

Even the sea kings, which were nearly ten meters long, rushed forward at a terrifying speed, but were forcibly stopped in front of him by Lu En's punch.

This scene clearly fell into the eyes of the hundreds of navies on the warships 100 meters away.

A group of navy was amazed and full of amazement.

Chapter 89:

"Good, very strong!"

"Hard sea kings with the flesh..."

"One punch with his bare hands, forcibly stopped the Neptune's body!"

"Too raw! Too violent!"

"You know, with the speed of the sea king just now, if we hit our current warship head-on, the whole warship will be disintegrated."

"But Mr. Luen, he forcibly blocked the way forward of the Sea Kings with just one punch."

"What amazing and terrifying power does that punch contain?"

"unimaginable!"

A group of navy was amazed again and again.

Garp and Pocado didn't say much, and their eyes were fixed on the battlefield in the sea a hundred meters away.

.....0

"Hahaha....."

"happy!"

"Happy!"

He hit a sea king with one punch, and felt a shock from his fist, which made Lu En not surprised but happy, he couldn't help laughing, and the mad laughter reverberated in the quiet sea area.

Ow!

The sea kings were in pain, and an angry roar came from under the sea.

A roar resounded through the sky and spread to all directions.

The sea kings showed a pair of bloodshot scarlet eyes, and looked at the tiny ant in front of them with anger, and the whole head was completely dominated by anger.

It's probably like a child of a few years old...

Although there is a certain thinking.

However, there is not much to think about.

Once provoked,

It will be completely immortal with the enemy!

Under the control of pain and anger, this sea king slapped the surrounding sea frantically, raising waves after waves to roll Lu En's body.

Whoa!

The crisp and melodious voice lingered in all directions.

Immediately after,

It showed a ferocious mouth full of fangs, and was about to bite down on the direction Lu En was in, as if to swallow the little Lu En into its stomach.

"Good come!"

Seeing the attack of the sea kings, Lu En laughed out loud.

It seems that there is no intention to back down at all,
instead,

Go ahead!

The terrifying speed broke out again, making Lu En's figure swiftly approaching the sea kings.
next second.

He raised his hand and punched it fiercely at the huge fangs of the sea king.

The brewing power is concentrated in the fist a little,

A giant explosion!

boom--

A loud bang.

Like thunder,

Deafening.

The mighty and terrifying power was released from Lu En's fist.
moment,

The terrifying fangs of the sea king were smashed and broken with just one punch by Lu En!

A wave of air burst out from it, setting off the sea water and rippling violent waves again.

just like,

This is a very primitive physical fight!

Very violent fight!

Without any bells and whistles...

Not even using weapons.

There is only a head-to-head confrontation between the flesh and the flesh!

Lu En only relies on the fragile and weak body of human beings, and the unique and powerful body of sea kings can be hardened with bare hands!

Husband.

Chapter 66 Tearing the Sea Kings! Unarmed kill! Silent! □First order on 20/20□

"happy!"

"Come again!"

Lu En's body was gradually stained with some bloodstains. It was not the blood that flowed on his body, but the bloodstains spilled on the sea king's body.

instantly,

The surrounding sea area began to be stained with bright red blood.

soon,

The sea breeze blows,

Another wave of new sea water rushed in, quickly washing away the blood in this area.

A faint smell of blood lingered in the air.

Next,

Lu En staged a melee combat!

In pure flesh...

Not relying on any external force.

With only bare hands, he forcibly fought against this violent sea king.

Ow!

The angry sea kings patted Lu En with their paws.

Very large and sharp claws, wanting to smash Lu En's body directly.

But at the critical moment,

Lu En's body disappeared in place.

It seemed to disappear out of thin air.

Without the slightest sign.

"shave!"

The six-style shave allows Lu En to still move at high speed in the sea, so as to achieve the visual illusion of near teleportation.

When it appears again,

Lu En was already standing on the back of this sea king, clenching his fists, condensing the surging strength in his body, his muscles bulging, and slamming down against the sea king's back.

one punch,

Another punch.

Every punch brings a little bit of strength to the iron block of the six styles that Luen's "860" erupted.

boom!

boom!

...

There were loud noises, accompanied by the wailing and wailing of the sea kings.

Lu En stepped on the backs of the sea kings, letting the sea water from all directions infect his body, and his fists kept bombarding the backs of the sea kings.

Every punch shattered the scales on the back of the Sea King.

gradually.

The back of this sea king has become bloody, looking very ferocious, and the flowing blood stains the sea area in a radius of tens of meters again.

A large piece of blood spilled out from it, making Lu En's body covered with the blood of sea kings.

Ow!

The tingling sensation came, making the sea kings roar in pain, and it rolled over its huge body, as if to turn Lu En off its back.

and,

Its claws are also constantly shaking the surrounding sea area, causing the sea water to gradually form a small vortex, causing a strong tearing force, trying to absorb Lu En's body into the ocean current vortex.

Whoa!

There were waves and ripples on the sea.

Lu En left the sea king's back.

Forcibly resisting the tearing force of the ocean current vortex, Lu En began to exert his strength again, fighting fiercely against the heads of the sea kings.

clenched fists,

Fist charge.

Without any actual combat skills, only showing pure physical combat.

Lu En smashed the head of the sea king with his fists frantically.

Dangerous and dangerous...

Lu En's chest was torn apart by the sudden claws of the sea kings, leaving a terrifying blood-colored scar on his chest.

Blood flowed slowly, overflowing from his chest.

fine.

This scar was only a few centimeters deep, and it didn't hurt Lu En's bones. For him, it was just a minor injury, and it didn't affect his combat strength and state at all.

"It hurts!"

Feeling the tingling pain from his chest, which was made more obvious by the washing of the sea water, Lu En couldn't help taking a breath, his eyes full of irritable emotions.

body hurt...

Not only did it not make Lu En timid and flinch.

instead,

Also aroused his ferocity and tyranny!

"This kind of battle is even more enjoyable!"

Lu En took the initiative to attack.

His eyes were full of madness, and he seemed to have been dominated by violent emotions.

Chapter 90:

Kick your feet,

Under his feet, he stepped on the traces of the current depression and reverse current.

moment,

boom!

Lu En's figure burst out, penetrating layers of seawater at a terrifying speed, seemingly ignoring the pressure obstruction caused by the seawater, and slammed the sea king again with lightning speed.

Holding the claws of the sea kings...

"I'm going to tear you apart alive!"

Lu En looked crazy.

strength with both hands,

The terrifying power surged from the body and gathered in his arms, and abruptly made Lu En shake the huge sea kings that were dozens of times larger than his own body.

finally--

Tear!

A harsh voice sounded.

Blood splattered,

Blood stained the sky.

Lu En forcibly tore the claws of the sea king, and forcibly tore the sea king's claws into two halves with extremely violent brute force.

A large piece of blood was thrown from the claws of the sea kings.

Ow!

This heart-piercing stinging sensation completely made the sea kings lose their minds, and bursts of roars and roars came out, constantly rolling and smashing the sea water.

The waves spread,

Ripple ripples.

Whoa!

Countless water stains danced in the air and fell slowly.

Lu En was covered in blood, stained with large bloodstains from the sea kings.

But soon,

The body was immersed in the sea, and these blood stains were washed away without a trace in the blink of an eye.

Only the strong and pungent * smell that filled his nose could not dissipate for a long time.

In the face of the sea kings, he seemed to be mad and counterattacked.

Lu En still handled it with ease.

I see,

There are more and more wounds on the sea kings.

Injuries are getting worse.

even,

Some wounds were forcibly torn out by Lu En with his teeth.

Lu En is like a tyrant incarnate!

Raging monsters that have lost their minds!

Do everything possible,

As long as it can cause injury to the Sea Kings, he will not hesitate to launch an attack.

Fist, feet, head, teeth, etc.

These are the tools Luen used to deal with the sea kings.

Obviously it's just the purest flesh...

But when it came to Lu En, it became an extremely terrifying murder weapon!

This is the real man's battle!

unarmed.....

Fight the sea kings!

Defeat the killing of the sea kings!

The whole process did not rely on any external force, and did not use any weapons.

Just by virtue of the body...

Lu En's killing was in full swing.

One more punch,

A punch with infinite power smashed the bloodshot scarlet eyeball of the Sea King class.

puff!

Blood splattered,

Blood stained the sky.

The bloodstains soon soaked on Lu En's body again, carrying some inexplicable strange substances and exuding a very pungent smell, which was disgusting.

Lu En became a blood man, a blood man soaked in the blood of sea kings.

at this time.

As one eye was blown out, the sea king became more angry and mad, screaming and roaring in pain, and blood kept flowing from the wound on its body.

the surrounding seas,

It was already dyed red.

Even if the sea water continues to wash in, it still cannot be stopped. The bloodstains flowing on this sea king's body dye the sea area red into crimson.

"And another eye!"

Lu En grinned.

Looking around,

He aimed at the sea king's second eye.

"shave!"

"Moonstep!"

The Navy's Six Forms performed two of them at the same time, causing Lu En's body to disappear instantly.

At a terrifying speed like teleportation,

He appeared in front of the second eye of the sea king.....

without hesitation...

Kicked down hard.

boom--

One foot wants to pierce the earth,

Smash everything.

He slammed into the eyeballs of the sea kings with a solid kick.

puff!

Another blood splattered.

So far,

Neptunes are blind in both eyes.

Beaten up by Lu En with his bare hands!

The sea kings who lost their eyes fell into the final state of berserk, almost lost their senses, and continued to blindly attack the surrounding sea areas.

It has no vision...

They can only blindly attack the surrounding seas indiscriminately and frantically vent their inner anger and pain.

this time,

Lu En has been standing quietly on the back of the sea king class, watching the other party fall into a crazy state of losing it, his eyes are a bit playful.

"Next..."

"It's time to send you on your way."

Lu En showed a smile.

bow your head,

Facing the back of the sea king, his hands turned into sharp blades, and suddenly plunged into the back of the sea king.

then,

He started to push.

The violent power poured into his arms, Lu En grabbed the bones of the sea king's back with both hands, and the power was crazily entangled in his hands, which he kept tearing apart to both sides.

stab-

The entire back of the Sea King was torn apart by Lu En forcibly with his bare hands.

puff!

A cloud of blood splattered instantly from the back of the Sea King.

It's just like.....

Like an exploding water pipe.

Countless blood danced and stained the sky.

Lu En grabbed the sea king's wound, and his hands exploded with infinite power, crushing the bones of the sea king's back with pure brute force.

Ow!

The sea kings howled in pain.

The blood stained Lu En's body, but he ignored it from beginning to end.

Grabbing the wounds of the sea kings...

Just a rip off!

A blast of hammer!

The entire back of the Neptune was torn apart by a ferocious crack that stretched several meters.

bloody,

Terrifyingly terrifying.

Lu En fiercely faced the location of the sea king's wound, and kept hitting it with his fist.

With every punch, a large smear of blood was splattered all over the sky.

He was keenly aware,

The vitality of this sea king is rapidly plummeting.

The breath of life is getting weaker and weaker.

finally--

3.4 The Sea Kings were no longer able to struggle and declared sudden death.

The body no longer has any vital signs.

Life withered.

Chapter 91:

just like,

It was tortured to death throughout the pain.

From beginning to end, there was no fight back.

In the piercing pain, he gradually moved towards death.

no more sound...

I see,

The huge scarred body of the sea king, after losing its vitality, is like a dead fish, floating quietly on the sea and motionless.

Floating freely with the current.

"It's really unbeatable..."

"Sea Kings?"

"But so!"

Lu En slowly retracted his fists and looked at the sea king who had lost his vitality.

So far,

he made it.....

With pure flesh,

without any external force.

With just his bare hands, it is an amazing act of tearing a sea king with his bare hands!

A sea king that makes countless people on the sea terrified...

today,

Killed by Lu En with his bare hands!

at the same time.

this scene,

It fell into the eyes of the hundreds of navies who were hundreds of meters away at this moment.

The entire warship...

In an instant, it became dead silent!

Silent! .

Chapter 67 Mr. Lu En, be a general! [First order on 21/20]

in the sun.

The golden sunshine is scattered in the fenced sea area.

A dazzling halo of light flickered on the sea surface.

The meaning of warmth flows slowly.

An incomparably huge warship stayed in the boundless sea area of the Great Channel.

on the deck.

Hundreds of navies headed by Garp and Pocatò stared blankly at a huge, icy sea king corpse floating in the spacious sea hundreds of meters away.

clear and distinct,

On that huge sea king corpse, there was a thin figure standing, and the muscular lines all over his body were particularly eye-catching and dazzling.

muscle bulge,

A ghost back.

Gives a full sense of oppression!

and.

This slender figure, who had just been bathed in blood, was now covered in scarlet red bloodstains.

suffocating,

Incomparable!

Even if they were hundreds of meters away, the hundreds of navy officers present could still clearly feel a strong sense of oppression coming from this figure.

"Dead, dead..."

"That sea king is really dead!"

"It's not an illusion!"

After a brief silence, a navy broke the eerie atmosphere with a trembling voice.

instantly,

The atmosphere of the entire warship was fully detonated!

The whole place shook!

Pairs of shocking, horrified, dull eyes looked at the corpse floating on the sea invariably, unable to take their eyes away for a long time.

The scene that I saw before me completely clearly showed the cognition of the countless navies present.

29 "Me, my God!"

"I'm afraid you're not dreaming?"

A navy couldn't help raising his right arm and rubbed his eyes, suspecting that he was hallucinating at the moment.

However,

When I opened my eyes again, I still saw the same scary picture.

this moment,

He believed it.

This is the fact!

"Mr. Lu En, he tore off a sea king with his bare hands?!"

"My God!"

"It's too strong, isn't it?"

"With bare hands, without relying on any external force throughout the whole process, abruptly smashed and shredded an extremely large sea king?!"

"It's terrifying!"

A group of navies came out with shocking voices in their hearts.

I witnessed the scene where the sea king was pressed and beaten by Lu

En...

Let them feel that the scene is like a dream until now.

Looked up,

Looking at the figure standing on the huge corpse of the sea king, hundreds of navies showed a sense of awe, admiration, and shock in their hearts.

"It's as fierce as a monster!"

"Just with bare hands, kill a sea king with bare hands!"

"and....."

"It's still a giant sea king with a body size of dozens of tons!"

"That giant sea king has almost no power to fight back in front of Mr. Luen."

"The most terrifying thing is..."

"Mr. Lu En, he is only four years old."

"Without any external force, four-year-old single-handedly kills the Sea Kings?! What is this concept?"

A group of navy was deeply moved and gaffe.

They widened their eyes and looked at the sea area ahead with shock on their faces.

The sea breeze blows,

The pungent and rich * smell spread from the distant navy and rushed to the face, filling every navy's sense of smell.

The hundreds of meters of water in the surrounding area seemed to have been almost completely infected by the blood flowing from the sea king, causing the seawater to turn a crimson red.

spooky,

dazzling,

Hairy.

Smelling the pungent * smell, looking at the corpse of the sea king, and the boy standing on the sea king's body, all the navy couldn't speak for a while.

In the beginning,

They are still worried.

For fear that Lu En, who was fighting the sea kings with his bare hands, would encounter unexpected events in this battle.

after all.

The power of the Sea King is almost obvious to all.

In this sea...

The most powerful will never be human.

Everyone knows this.

The most powerful life in the sea is recognized as the sea king!

It is for this reason that

When I heard that Lu En was going to fight a giant sea king with his bare hands, alone.

Hundreds of navies have all revealed their inner worries.

However,

What they never expected was...

Just a quarter of an hour before and after.

The giant sea king, estimated to weigh dozens of tons, had already died tragically in Lu En's hands.

Killed with bare hands!

Shred it with your bare hands!

All of this naturally caused a strong psychological impact on all the navies in the city.

"I think....."

"Looking at this sea, there shouldn't be a second person, who can be a four-year-old giant sea king with only bare hands when he is only four years old?"

someone said in a trembling voice.

"No doubt."

"This is absolutely 100% certain!"

"Except for Mr. Luen, there is no second similar example in this sea."

"When others were four years old, they were all crawling on the ground to drink milk."

"However, when Mr. Lu En was four years old, he was already enough to kill the Sea Kings with his bare hands! In the end, he even forcibly killed the Sea Kings alone!"

"Tear sea kings with bare hands!"

"This move is too shocking."

A navy was amazed.

Chapter 92:

recall,

Childish things they did when they were four years old.

Compared to the front...

Lu Ensui, who was only four years old, had already forcibly killed the sea kings with his bare hands.

In this Wangyang sea,

With only his own pair of iron fists, he forcibly blew up a giant sea king!

think of this,

The group of navy suddenly felt ashamed and embarrassed.

"In contrast, we are simply a group of rice buckets!"

"Mr. Luen, he is an extremely terrifying monster!"

"Let's not easily compare ourselves with this monster."

"It's really easy to hurt your self-esteem like this."

"You can imagine."

"Like Mr. Lu En, how many amazing monsters are there in the sea? This is just one example!"

"Comparing with this kind of monster? Isn't that self-indulgent?"

While all the navies present were shocked, they all found reasons to comfort themselves.

This remark made everyone feel the same.

yes.....

Compared to a monster?

Isn't that asking for trouble? !

look at the sea,

I couldn't find any one that could compare to a monster of Mr. Luen's level!

How dare they compare themselves to each other?

"us....."

"It doesn't fit!"

"Not even qualified to carry shoes for Mr. Lu En!"

Hundreds of navies were bitter.

"Just now, who suspected that Mr. Lu En couldn't fight a sea king? Stand up, I'm going to give him a hard slap now!"

"Did you see clearly?"

"What is a genius? What is a demon?"

"That's it!"

"As a genius monster that is rare in a century, how can Mr. Lu En be able to figure out what ordinary people can do? We can never imagine how terrifying the potential of a monster is!"

The navy stared blankly ahead, their eyes fixed on Lu En's back.

for a while,

Even though Lu En's back looks very thin, in the eyes of these hundreds of navies, he is extraordinarily stalwart, powerful and awe-inspiring.

call!

With a heavy exhalation, Pocato slowly woke up from the shock.

He couldn't imagine it either.

That such a powerful sea king was so easily beaten up by Lu En, who was only four years old, with his bare hands!

"Mr. Luen, what a terrible monster!"

"Strong beyond imagination!"

Bo 860 Cato sighed from the bottom of his heart.

Just now, he witnessed the scene where the Aquaman was killed by Lu En, which made him feel awe of Lu En from the bottom of his heart.

Fighting sea kings with bare hands...

This is the romance of men!

That's how real men should be!

For example,

Lu En just now!

fierce and unmatched,

furious,

Domineering.

By contrast,

Even the giant sea king looked extremely fragile and insignificant in front of Lu En.

This head-to-head confrontation between the flesh and the flesh...

The final winner is obviously Lu En!

At only four years old, he competes, fights, and fights with pure flesh.

In the end, defeat a sea king!

What is a monster?

"This is the monster!"

"A real monster!"

"Even though Mr. Lu En is only four years old, he already has the capital of a general!"

Pocato's eyes were lost for a while, and his heart was shocked.

The more you think about it,

His mood was more shaken.

"This kid Lu En is so strong!"

"It is far more powerful than the old man imagined."

Garp, who was standing beside him, let out a light breath.

His eyes were full of pride and relief, looking at Lu En's back.

quite a while,

Karp said with emotion.

"Just rely on pure flesh, and kill a sea king!"

"Humans have always been fragile..."

"In Lu En, this kid has become an extremely terrifying weapon for murder!"

"Even with his bare hands, Lu En is still enough to blow up a sea king!"

paused,

Cap laughed out loud, making no secret of the joy and excitement in his heart.

"As expected of the old man's grandson!"

"This talent is unparalleled! It is the best in the world!"

"The old man's grandson Lu En..."

"It's the most terrifying monster in this sea!".

Chapter 68 Lu En's power is beyond the imagination of all the navy!

□First order on 22/20□

"Pass the old man's order..."

"You can have a big meal today!"

"Such a huge sea king can't be wasted."

"The meat quality of the sea kings makes the old man simply linger."

"This time, I can finally feast my eyes on it."

After a while, Garp stared at the corpse of the sea king, and couldn't help swallowing, his appetite widened.

A giant sea king weighing dozens of tons, the meat must be very delicious.

Just imagining it made Garp full of anticipation, and he couldn't wait to order someone to pull the sea king back to the cold storage of the warship.

But unfortunately...

He could only imagine it.

Although the warship is very large, it is large enough to accommodate thousands of navies.

However, this sea king is too large.

A sea king class weighing dozens of tons is naturally not something that this warship can easily consign.

Furthermore,

There are still hundreds of navies that need to carry this warship.

If a giant sea king is added, it may seriously delay the sailing speed of the warship.

In doing so, it puts the cart before the horse.

then,

Cap pondered for a moment, and hurriedly ordered a group of navies around him: "Everyone obeys the order and immediately divides the most delicious part of the sea king's body for the old man."

"As much as possible to fill the cold storage room for the old man, it is hard to come across such a huge sea king, and it must not be wasted."

"Cut out the most delicious part of the meat first. Today, all the navy can feast on their mouths."

"The rest of the medium-quality meat will be piled up in the refrigerator until the refrigerator can no longer hold it."

"As for the last ones..."

"Just add a little nourishment to the sea kings in this sea."

Next,

After Karp's order was given.

A group of navy is eager to try.

in particular.....

The navy chef in charge of the kitchen stared at the corpse of the sea king with eager eyes, his eyes seemed to be shining, and his eyes were flickering.

The corpse of each sea king is one of the most delicious ingredients in this sea.

For a qualified chef.

Being able to cook a sea king is simply a great pleasure.

"Listen to me! Don't be impulsive!"

"Don't destroy the original delicious meat of the sea kings!"

"After a while, you can divide as much as I tell you to divide it."

"Never act rashly."

"If anyone destroys the delicious meat of the sea kings, wait for the northwest wind today!"

Chapter 93:

The chief chef of the navy stood up and shouted loudly with a majestic look on his face.

then,

One after another navy jumped into the sea.

Including the head chef.

A group of people happily came to the corpse of the sea king, looking at the icy corpse of this giant sea king floating on the sea with their eyes full of amazement.

get close,

People can see more clearly.

Countless ferocious wounds spread all over the Neptune's body...

Countless wounds left the entire Sea King bruised.

"Unbelievable..."

"Such a huge behemoth could be blown up by Mr. Lu En alone without any external force!"

"terrible!"

"Mr. Lu En is indeed a monster."

The close contact with the huge corpses of the sea kings made the mood of the navy even more shocking.

Before getting in close contact,

Of course they can't really feel it.

What a huge sea king this is!

Only when they have been in close contact can they experience it more deeply. What a terrifying monster is Lu En, who can beat this sea king with his bare hands alone!

The corpse of the sea king is too large.

At a glance, you can't even see the full body of this sea king.

The bloodstains that flowed from it had already infected the waters of the four directions into a strange crimson red.

The pungent * smell slowly flows through the air in all directions.

All the navies close to the corpses of the sea kings are like bathing in a sea of blood, and their sense of smell is almost completely filled with the pungent  smell.

A navy came to the icy corpse of the sea king, and with trembling hands, slowly touched the scaled body of the sea king.

The scales are indestructible...

Just like a diamond!

Every piece of scales all over the Neptune's body gives people an indestructible sense of sight.

Very hard!

After a brief moment of daze,

then,

He quickly took out a sharp dagger from his waist and stabbed it fiercely at the sea king's corpse.

However,

boom!

A soft sound.

The corpse of the sea king was unscathed.

instead,

The sharp dagger in his hand was already broken by the hard corpse of the sea king.

Click!

Click!

One after another cracks spread all over the top of the dagger.

touch lightly,

The dagger shattered and disintegrated in an instant, turning into pieces of broken debris scattered under the sea.

this moment,

The navy with the dagger was stunned.

His throat was dry and he opened his mouth, unable to speak for a while.

bow your head,

He stared blankly at the dagger he was holding in his right hand. Only the handle of the dagger was left, and the sharp dagger blade had already shattered into countless pieces and the wreckage was scattered in the sea without a trace.

Others are stupid.

"This this!"

"The dagger in my hand can't even cut through the skin defense of the sea king's corpse?"

"Instead, the dagger was severely damaged!"

"I'm afraid I'm not dreaming?"

"This sea king has such an amazing terrifying defense?"

"My God!"

"Then, Mr. Lu En, how did he kill this sea king?"

Thinking of this, the navy's face was full of shock and horror.

He used all his strength just now, and he couldn't break through the defense of the sea kings with a dagger in his hand...

As you can imagine.

How terrible is the defense of this sea king!

So here comes the question.

How did the sea kings with such terrifying defensive power be killed by Lu En? !

This question is deeply entangled in the minds of countless navies. only because.....

Similar things are happening to other navies.

The sharp blades in the hands of the navy, before they could penetrate the corpses of the sea kings, were shattered by the amazing defensive power of the sea king's skin, which in turn shattered the weapons in their hands.

A group of navy was completely stunned.

They stared blankly at the broken weapons in their hands, dumbfounded.

""Lying, lying in the trough?"

"what's going on?!"

"The weapon in your hand can't even break the defense of this sea king?"

"Be good..."

"Then the question is, how did Mr. Lu En kill this sea king with such a terrifying defense? And how did he tear this sea king with his bare hands?"

"My God!"

"The weapons in our hands are not even capable of leaving scratches on the skin of this sea king. But such a terrible sea king was blown up by Mr. Lu En with his bare hands!"

A group of navy's faces were full of shock, and their mood was terrifying. paused,

After they reacted, Fen (Qian Wanghao) showed shock and awe.

"Now, I finally deeply realize how terrifying Mr. Lu En's strength is!"

"It's as strong as a monster!"

"Mr. Luen is a complete monster!"

"Before, I ripped apart the sea kings with his bare hands against Mr. Lu En, and I didn't have an accurate cognitive concept. But now, I finally understand."

"To be able to tear up the sea kings with bare hands, what an amazing behavior!"

"While we were holding the blade, we couldn't even break through the epidermal defense of the sea kings. Mr. Lu En, without relying on any weapons, smashed and killed the sea kings on the spot with his bare hands!"

"This is the difference!"

"too strong!"

A group of navy was shocked.

then,

They all raised their heads in unison, looking at the figure standing on the corpse of the sea king with awe, shock, and admiration.

Only in person...

Only then can they understand the power of the sea kings!

to experience...

How powerful and terrifying is Lu En, who blasted the sea kings with his bare hands! .

Chapter 69 Six Forms of Profound Truth: Return of Life! Soaring strength!

in the sun.

Lu En stood quietly on the cold sea king corpse, feeling the warm sunlight falling on his body, the cold sea breeze blowing gently, and the pungent * smell filling his sense of smell.

at the same time.

Without warning...

The system prompt sounded in vain from Lu En's head.

[Total obtained in this battle: Strength + 0.002, Speed + 0.001, Physical Strength + 0.02, Six-type Profound Truth and Life Return Skill + 0.1! □

moment,

With the sound of the system just dropped.

boom--

A warm current suddenly appeared out of thin air and poured into Lu En's whole body and mind, scoured his internal organs, and transformed his limbs, meridians, bones, blood...

Once again, Lu En's strength has been slightly improved!

soon,

The transformation is complete.

Lu En's strength is even higher.

at the same time.

boom!

The head roared.

A large number of unfamiliar memories like a trend flooded into Lu En's mind crazily.

And Lu En's head seemed to be a sponge at this moment, constantly absorbing this strange memory pouring into his head and integrating it into his body.

gradually,

These memories gradually formed Lu En's physical instinct!

It's just like.....

Innate instinct is the same!

Chapter 94:

It's like from a person's head, forcibly depriving this person of the amount of knowledge about the return of life, so as to match it into Lu En's head.

Daigo empowerment!

instantly,

After Lu En completely merged this unfamiliar memory,

can officially announce...

He has mastered the Six Forms of Profound Truth - Return of Life 863!

The top-level mystery of the Navy's sixth-style!

A very powerful practical technique.

Just fighting the sea kings with bare hands, let Lu En master the return of life out of thin air.

This made Lu En feel very happy.

did not expect.....

How could there be such a surprise!

After controlling the return of his life, Lu En's strength has obviously improved to a higher level.

Practical skills are more diverse!

and.....

In the event of a life-and-death crisis, he can also use his life to return the position of the moving internal organs, thereby avoiding the fatal blow.

all in all.

The return of life is a practical skill with a very wide range of practicality!

call!

Gently exhaling, Lu En suppressed all the thoughts in his head.

Looking around,

He stood on the back of the sea king's corpse and looked at a group of navy who had already moved closer to him.

"Here, I'll leave it to you to deal with it."

"I'll go back to the warship first."

Lu En spoke slowly.

Naturally, there is no need for him to do the trivial matter of dealing with the corpses of the sea kings.

"Don't worry, Mr. Lu En, we will leave it here."

"You better go back to rest."

"I want to come..."

"You have torn apart such a terrifying sea king with your bare hands, and you are already very tired."

A navy hurriedly responded respectfully.

After what just happened...

At this moment, let them all experience it deeply.

This four-year-old boy in front of him has such terrifying power in his body!

other side.....

What a terrifying monster again!

after all,

They used the strength of sucking milk and used sharp sword-blade weapons, but they were unable to break through the epidermal defense of this sea king.

But it is such a powerful and terrifying sea king,

But he was blown up by the unarmed man in front of him!

Whenever thinking of this, all the navies present could not contain their inner shock, and showed unprecedented awe to Lu En.

Next,

Lu En took a deep jump and jumped into the sea from the corpse of the sea king.

I rinsed off the blood stains on my body a little...

moment,

After washing, Lu En returned to the direction of the warship.

From the stairs of the warship, he walked all the way to the deck of the warship. The seawater on his body kept falling, infecting and soaking the deck he walked all the way.

"came back?"

"Is the wound okay?"

Karp looked at Lu En with a look of relief, his eyes fixed on the scar on Lu En's chest, he couldn't help showing concern and asked.

"It's all right."

"Soon, the wound will automatically scar, without treatment."

Lu En waved his hand.

This injury is just a small injury to him.

"Great job this time!"

Karp came to Lu En's side, patted the latter's shoulder heavily, his inner joy could not be concealed, "Only four years old, tearing a giant sea king with bare hands!"

"This move..."

"It's so out of date!"

"Looking at this sea, I can't find a second example."

"Boy Lu En, I really give the old man a chance!"

Being slapped on the shoulder by Garp's big hand, Lu En couldn't help coughing. He always felt that his internal organs were about to be seriously damaged by the slap.

"Old man, stop taking pictures."

"I am the wounded!"

"Can you give a wounded the respect he deserves? If we continue to shoot, maybe I didn't get seriously injured in the fight against the Sea Kings, but it was in your hands. You were severely injured by you."

Lu En rolled his eyes and couldn't help but complain.

heard,

Karp smiled awkwardly, and was about to pat Lu En's big hand on the shoulder, and then it stiffened in mid-air, unable to fall for a long time.

"Okay, kid, go and rest."

"When they get rid of the sea king, the old man will call someone to inform you."

"The meat of the sea kings is very delicious..."

"You kid, this time you can feast your eyes on it."

Speaking of the delicious flesh of the sea kings, Garp couldn't help swallowing his saliva.

just like,

Karp's expression at the moment...

Just a typical foodie!

Only foodies can show this look.

Saying goodbye to Karp, Lu En returned to his room alone to rest.

Got a little wounded in this battle.

But overall.

He has benefited greatly.

After the battle, the strength has been slightly improved.

also,

The fighting experience with the sea kings has also become more proficient and rich after this battle.

And finally...

The Six-style Profound Truth of System Rewards: Return of Life!

This is what Lu En thinks is the biggest gain.

Lu En was not too satisfied with the powerful practical skill of killing a sea king and obtaining the return of life.

If you spend your time cultivating on purpose...

Lu En thought.

It may be difficult for him to control the return of his life for more than half a month.

And now...

No need to practice at all!

It's just the use of the Navy's Sixth Form to kill a giant sea king.

After a hundred-fold increase in the system,

Let him master the powerful practical skill of returning life out of thin air.

And once mastered the return of life,

It has already reached the realm of incomparable proficiency directly.

pure fire,

Very skilled.

It's not as simple as just getting started.

"Just let me try it out."

"How to cast the return of life..."

Back in the room, Lu En did not rest, but began to prepare to cast his life return with great interest.

A thought moved,

From the familiar memory in the head.

Run the power in your body according to a specific method...

gradually,

In the dark, Lu En's consciousness seems to have a certain degree of connection with every cell in the body.

As if you just need to use your mind...

You can change every part of your body!

now,

Lu En poured his consciousness into his hair.

instantly.

will be able to see.

Lu En's hair, originally no more than ten centimeters, is gradually extending and lengthening, becoming half a meter long, and it is still being extended.

These hairs seem to have life and consciousness...

With Lu En's manipulation.

Hair comes alive!

for a while,

group dance,

Chapter 95:

Like a group of demons.

The slender hair is under the control of Lu En,

It seems to want to turn into an arm.

A full six arms, formed by hair, danced very flexibly on both sides of Lu En's arms.

This is the power of the return of life.

It allows Lu En to pour his consciousness into every part of his body.

The position of the body that was originally uncontrollable was reduced to two legs and arms, which could be manipulated by him at will.

For a moment,

Lu En manipulated an arm formed by his hair and threw it at the glass bottle beside him.

Swah—

A piercing sound rang out.

The arms formed by the hair seemed to blast the space with a loud sonic boom.

sharp,

harsh.

In a short moment,

boom!

Accompanied by a soft sound.

The hair cut the glass bottle in two violently.

then,

The broken glass bottle slowly slid down to both sides.

But just before the bottle fell to the floor,

Lu En's hair spread quickly like a spider web, turning into a web, intercepting the two broken glass bottles before they fell to the floor.

In the next time,

Lu En hid in the room and kept trying to return his life.

gradually,

His proficiency in the return of life is getting higher and higher!

already able to cut his own hair,

Eight arms are transformed.

Just like the two inherent arms, the eight arms that make the hair illusion can be manipulated freely.

handy,

No jerky at all.

even,

Can be multitasking!

Eight extra arms...

Let Lu En's combat power climb straight up!

After mastering the Six Forms of Profound Truth and Return of Life, the change in strength brought to him is quite obvious.

"Life returns..."

"What a powerful fighting skill!"

At this moment, Lu En deeply realized the power of the return of life.
in his mind.

The future naval headquarters, Marin Vando,

There is an extremely powerful top lieutenant general of the Navy headquarters, known as the ghost spider.

He is one of the most powerful lieutenant generals in the future navy headquarters, relying on the six-style profound meaning and the return of life to allow himself to realize the unique fighting method of multi-knife style.

Chapter 70 People are stupid! Subvert cognition! The world view collapses! [24/20 for the first order]

The strange crimson sea.

like a sea of blood...

The sea breeze blows.

The pungent and rich smell of blood wafts in all directions.

Headed by the chief navy chef, there are more than thirty navy elites, who have completely surrounded the corpses of the entire sea king.

However,

now.

In the face of this huge sea king corpse, they were at a loss.

"Old John, what's going on here?"

"The weapons we have in hand cannot even break through the defense of this sea king."

"How to divide the sea kings?"

A navy stared blankly at Old John, the navy chef.

All this made them all seem unexpected.

They didn't expect...

This sea king who was blown up by Lu En with his bare hands actually has such a terrifying defense!

Even if they exerted their strength to suckle, they could not use the weapons in their hands to break through the defense of the sea kings.

As such,

How can they dismember the sea kings?

Nothing can be done.

Helpless.

"This!"

Old John is also stupid.

He has been a chef for so many years, and he has never seen a sea king with such a terrifying defense!

Thinking of this,

He couldn't help but look back, looking in the direction of the warship in the rear.

"Even the weapons we have on hand can't break the defense of this sea king. However, this terrible sea king was killed by Mr. Lu En with his bare hands!"

"Be good..."

"Mr. Lu En, what a terrible monster!"

Old John only felt terrified and horrified.

Next,

Old John had no choice but to take out the treasured knife at the bottom of the box!

A treasure that has been treasured for many years!

cut iron like mud,

Incredibly sharp.

Even compared to the well-known and well-known good knives on the sea, it is not much less.

"Get out of the way! Let me do it myself!"

Old John, who was holding a treasured sword, came to the corpse of the sea king. He first lifted the treasured sword and chopped off the front limbs of the sea king's corpse.

This time,

The sharp sword finally did not disappoint Old John.

puff!

With blood splattered up.

The forelimbs of the sea king were successfully dismembered and divided by Old John.

"Finally successful."

"If even the treasured sword I have treasured for many years can't dismember this sea king, then I really have nothing to do."

"It's unimaginable..."

"This kind of terrifying sea kings will one day be beaten to death with bare hands!"

Old John was deeply moved.

Seeing Old John's successful dismemberment, all the navy members present showed their excited expressions.

"Success!"

"Old John finally lived up to expectations..."

"If we can't dismember this sea king, then we can only watch helplessly.

This sea king is buried in this sea and becomes the nourishment of other sea kings."

"Fortunately, the treasured sword that Old John has collected for many years is showing its power!"

A group of navies were in high spirits.

Watching Old John keep dismembering the corpses of sea kings...

They were amazed and began to talk again and again.

"Speaking of which, before I learned about the terrifying defense of this sea king, I really couldn't imagine that this sea king is so terrifying!"

"Obviously just now, I saw Mr. Lu En, hanging and beating this sea king with a crushing attitude! I thought that this sea king was not as terrifying as I imagined."

"Unexpectedly, after all, I was still sitting in the well and watching the sky."

"It wasn't until now that I suddenly woke up. In fact, it's not that this sea king is too weak, it's just that Mr. Lu En is too strong!"

"As terrifying as a monster!"

"..."

After a while,

Old John dismembered the sea kings and let the navy transport them to the cold storage of the warship.

A group of navy is constantly busy.

Busy and happy,

Every navy had a happy smile on his face.

at the same time.

the other side,

It is about three kilometers away from the sea area.

I don't know when,

A huge pirate ship appeared here!

The breeze was blowing, and the skull flag hung high, showing the identity of this pirate ship.

This is an extremely large pirate group.

The number of people is no less than 800 people!

Chapter 96:

They come from the West Sea!

They had just driven the pirate ship from the West Sea to the Upside Down Mountain, and after finally passing the reverse current of the Upside Down Mountain, they finally got their wish and came to the Great Channel.

This piece is called...

The Sea of Pirate Paradise!

The great waterway has been passed down by word of mouth of countless pirates, thinking that this is a pirate's paradise!

therefore,

Countless pirates in the Sifang Sea area almost dream of going to the sea area of the Great Channel.

finally--

today,

The pirates of this pirate ship succeeded.

After countless hardships...

Experienced countless life-and-death crises.

But they finally came to the great channel smoothly!

at this time.

On the deck of the pirate ship.

The entire pirate ship should have been filled with joy and ecstasy.

after all.

Just after countless trials, I got what I wanted and came to the great channel that countless pirates dreamed of. It stands to reason that their mood at the moment should be extremely excited and excited.

.....

.....:???

However,

this time,

The whole pirate ship fell into a very strange atmosphere.

no joy at all,

There is no emotional atmosphere such as excitement and excitement.

A dead silence!

Hundreds of pirates stood on the deck, their eyes filled with emotions such as panic, shock, sluggishness, and disbelief, staring blankly at the sea a few kilometers away.

Including the captain of this pirate ship, he was also dumbfounded and dumbfounded, and his heart was gradually dominated by deep fear.

quite a while,

Gollum!

The captain of the Pirates couldn't help swallowing, breaking the eerie silence here.

"Be good..."

"What did I just see?!"

"That is a sea king with a body as large as a hill!"

"Are the sea kings of the great waterway so terrible?"

.....

"Comparing the sea kings of the West Sea with the sea kings of the great waterway, it is simply a baby compared to an adult! There is no comparison!"

With a dry throat, the captain spoke in a trembling voice.

paused,

Haven't waited for everyone to respond.

then,

He continued to say in a trembling voice: "But it is such a terrifying sea king. Just now, it was actually torn apart with bare hands!"

"My God!"

"Am I dreaming?"

"That's a giant sea king like a mountain!"

"It was actually beaten and killed by someone with his bare hands?!"

"It's unimaginable!"

Yes!

All the pirates were present, and they witnessed the scene of Lu En blowing up the sea kings with his bare hands.

It is for this reason that

When the ecstasy they had just entered the great waterway had not yet reached its peak, the scenes they saw in front of them were like a basin of cold water that instantly quenched the ecstasy and excitement in their hearts.

thereby,

Let them fall into the ice cave.

A gust of cold air shot up from the bottom of their feet.

A chill...

make them creepy,

shudder.

As the saying goes...

Fall from heaven to hell.

What they described was the mood of everyone in their entire pirate group at this moment.

They just came to the great channel, and they haven't had time to celebrate.

I saw this terrifying scene!

A terrifying sea king that is even larger than the size of their entire pirate ship.

now,

But it was forcibly shredded by a man with only his bare hands,

Blast alive!

All this subverted their cognition.

Let the world view of the pirates at the scene face the fate of being broken and collapsed on the spot.

Chapter 71 What the hell? Are the great fairways all such monsters?

□First order on 25/20□

instantly,

After a brief silence.

Hundreds of pirates present have ignited their inner fears.

the atmosphere of the scene,

It was also completely overturned and detonated!

"Boss, boss, did we read it right?"

"Just now....."

"That terrifying sea king was really blown up by someone with his bare hands?!"

"That's impossible, right?"

"We must be hallucinating!"

"How can there be such a terrifying existence?!"

"With the size of that sea king, even if it flips its tail, I'm afraid it is enough to crush our entire pirate ship on the spot. How could such a terrible sea king be killed with bare hands? This is unscientific!"

Hundreds of pirates on the deck woke up from their dreams one after another.

They were all without exception, and they all showed an extremely strong sense of shock. Their eyes were wide and round, and their faces were full of gaffe.

They were bewildered.

Just after going through countless hardships from the West Sea, I finally came to the great waterway.

But just after coming to the great channel,

The scene they saw in front of them was a real blow to them!

They made their brains "eight six three" dizzy.

A sea king that is even bigger than their entire pirate ship!

now,

Killed by one hand!

Forcibly blast!

Witnessed all the way...

even,

The person who blew up the Sea Kings was not seriously injured.

In an absolutely crushing attitude...

Destroyed a giant sea king!

All this caused a strong sense of shock in the hearts of the pirates in the audience.

"The one just now is really too strong!"

"Alone alone, kill giant sea kings alone!"

"This, what kind of terrifying strength is required?"

"Just a monster!"

"I have never seen such a shocking scene in my life. A giant sea king that is countless times more powerful than our sea kings in the West Sea. It was in this sea area and was shot with bare hands!"

"If I hadn't seen it with my own eyes, I think I would never have believed in such a horrible phenomenon that subverts cognition in my life."

A group of pirates were deeply moved.

The astonishing scenes they witnessed just now are enough for them to remember them for the rest of their lives.

Not surprisingly...

their life,

Will still remember that scene!

can never be erased!

A figure who blew up the sea kings with his bare hands caused an unprecedented spiritual shock to all of them.

Let them really experience it.

This sea...

There is also this kind of terrifying monster powerhouse that is almost beyond the scope of common sense!

At this time,

When people are in a great mood.

suddenly,

A weak voice sounded from the crowd: "By the way. Did you notice just now? The terrifying existence that killed the sea kings with one hand."

"He looks like a kid who is only four or five years old!"

Chapter 97:

"I don't know if this is my hallucination."

moment,

The whole place was dead silent!

Silent!

After a while,

The captain of the pirate group said in a frightened tone and trembled: "I thought this was an illusion I had. But I didn't expect that you saw it too."

"The figure of the sea king who died with his bare hands just now..."

"It is indeed a small boy! A kid who is only four or five years old!"

"Only four years old, he blew up a giant black Wang Lei!"

The words fall.

The atmosphere was fully detonated!

Nearly a thousand pirates were completely shocked.

for a moment,

Countless emotions flooded my heart.

fear,

horrified,

horror, incredible.

One pirate's throat was dry, and he stared at the huge warship in the distance.

Gollum!

They collectively couldn't help swallowing saliva, revealing their inner panic and horror.

"Only four years old..."

"Blow up a giant sea king alone with your bare hands?!"

"My God!"

"What kind of monster is this?!"

"How can such a monster exist in this sea?!"

A group of pirates boiled in panic.

this moment,

They suddenly regretted it.

They should not go to the great waterway!

This dangerous sea...

It's not at all that they can get involved in!

They are not qualified to enter the great channel at all!

"The sea area of the great waterway..."

"Could it be that there are such monsters everywhere?"

Thinking of this, all the pirates were terrified and their scalps numb.

They thought,

Someone can do it, just with his bare hands, to blow up a giant sea king with his bare hands, this is already a very shocking phenomenon.

Unexpectedly,

The truth is far more terrifying than they imagined!

Destroy that giant sea king...

It's a four-year-old kid!

Just ask,

What a terrifying monster is this? !

They dare not imagine.

"Ship. Captain..."

"Why don't we go back to the West Sea?"

"The great waterway is too dangerous! It's not a place where small shrimps like us can set foot."

"If the great waterways are all such monsters, then let's play a hammer!"

"We came to the great waterway, I'm afraid it's not even worthy to lift shoes for this monster!"

"If we mess with this kind of monster, we're afraid we won't be able to run away."

"The great channel is too dangerous!"

A group of pirates looked at their captain in fear.

just like,

They have been frightened by Lu En alone.

The scene of the giant sea king being killed by Lu En with his bare hands lingered deeply in the minds of all pirates, making them vividly remembered.

now think of it,

They just felt shivering.

If they are targeted by this monster...

I'm afraid it will be doomed!

"What you said makes sense."

"actually....."

"I, that's what I mean!"

I saw that the captain of the pirate regiment, who offered a bounty of tens of millions of berries, responded with panic, pale face, and trembling.....

He was also afraid.

If the great fairways were all such monsters...

Then they are playing a fart!

What are you fighting for One Piece?

Just let it go to someone else early.

One Piece's Throne?

to ride a horse...

Whoever likes to fight will fight!

Anyway,

They have no guts and courage to compete with this monster.

So far,

A huge pirate group has just entered the great waterway from the West Sea, and has not stayed for half an hour...

It was because of Lu En that the scene of the Sea King was destroyed with his bare hands.

to frighten their ass,

fleeing in a hurry,

Quickly set sail from the great channel, and returned to the West Sea on the original road.

The big pirate who offered a bounty of tens of millions of berries was trembling with fright, his face pale, and immediately ordered his subordinates to drive the pirate ship and return to the same road as when they came.

The sea of the great waterway,

They didn't dare to stay for a quarter of an hour.

"The sea area of the Great Waterway is really terrible."

"It's far from a place where we weaklings can attempt to set foot in."

"It's better to take back the West Sea as soon as possible..."

"Be our soil emperor! Be our soil overlord!"

With such thoughts in mind, a group of pirates gradually escaped from the Great Channel.

when you come,

They are high-spirited and confident.

when leaving,

They were disheartened, their crap, and they fled in a panic.

from start to finish,

They just witnessed the scene of Lu En blowing up the Sea Kings with his bare hands.

That is to say.

The whole pirate group...

He was scared by Lu En and ran away on the spot!

...

at the same time.

the other side,

Endless seas a few kilometers away.

I see,

3.4 An incomparably huge warship is staying motionless in this waters.

on the deck.

Garp's eyes flashed, and he looked at the pirate group with a playful expression. The pirate group that had just arrived at the great channel, turned around immediately, and returned to the West Sea.

"A bunch of funny little guys..."

"They seem to have been frightened by this kid Lu En!"

"That's fine, lest the old man sunk them all with his own hands!"

paused,

Karp said with great emotion, "This kid Lu En really did an incredible thing. With his own power, he scared all the pirates that had just arrived on the great waterway and fled back to the West Sea in a panic."

"The old man has been in the sea for so many years..."

"But it's the first time I've seen it."

"There is actually a pirate group that will be frightened and flee back to the West Sea from the great waterway!"

To this,

Karp couldn't help but be amazed.

He has seen a lot of the pirate group that was sunk by the group.

But.....

The pirates who were scared away.

have to say.

This is the first time Karp has seen it! .

Chapter 98:

Chapter 72 Lieutenant Colonel Pocato, don't you mind having a fight with me? □First order on 26/20□

three days later.

The wind is sunny and the sky is clear.

In the blue sea, the sea reflects the bright halo scattered by the golden scorching sun.

sunny,

The sea breeze is cold.

A huge warship, with the navy's white seagull flag hanging high, sailed gradually from the distant sea, setting off waves of rippling waves.

Whoa!

The sea current beats, crisp and sweet.

There was a beautiful sound like a series of musical notes.

at this time,

After three days of sailing at an average speed, the warship entered the great channel from the very beginning, and has already reached the middle of the great channel.

Distance from Marine Headquarters Marine Vendor...

There are about ten days left.

Maintain the speed of the current warship sailing, if there is no accident in the middle, you can reach Marin Vadod smoothly in ten days.

During these three days,

Hundreds of navies in the entire warship eat sea kings almost every day until they vomit.

three days down,

The Neptune-like flesh piled up in the refrigerator has gradually begun to bottom out.

Empty.

During the past three days, Lu En still carried out devil-style training every day as always.

Although the strength improvement he gets every day is relatively weak, he still perseveres and does not waste a single bit of time because of it.

Even after each training session, the 29 increase in strength gained was minimal, but he still did not relax, and he did not feel discouraged because of it.

besides,

Because three days ago, he killed a sea king with his bare hands, and let himself master the six types of profound meanings and return of life.

Now, Lu En's daily training is apart from the boring devil's training.

There are also extras, and a fixed time every day is used to familiarize yourself with the display of the trick of life return.

visible to the naked eye,

Lu En's control over the return of life is getting higher and higher!

With the strengthening of physical fitness, coupled with the increasing proficiency in mastering the Six Forms of Profound Truth and Return of Life, Lu En's strength has naturally risen steadily!

In these short three days alone, Lu En's overall strength has almost doubled!

this day,

Lu En, who had just finished his daily training of returning his life, walked out of the room slowly.

Crunch!

push open the door,

The golden sun shone down from the sky.

The meaning of warmth flows slowly and penetrates the heart.

The dazzling sunlight shone down, causing Lu En to subconsciously raise his right arm to block the light from his vision.

Occasionally a cool sea breeze blows gently,

The cold touch made Lu En narrow his eyes slightly, feeling the peace and comfort at the moment.

Life at sea...

dull,

But not boring.

Anyway,

With nothing to do these days,

Lu En would jump into the sea and fight with some sea kings under the sea, which made his life-and-death fighting experience almost skyrocket again and again.

"Three days of practice..."

"It's time to find someone to test my current strength level."

"Since I have mastered the return of my life, which level of this sea is my current strength?"

Lu En's eyes flashed, and he had a plan in his heart.

During this time,

The only target that he can use to test his own strength is the sea kings lurking under this sea.

However, this test method made him feel that he was still out of standard.

most.....

Naturally, it is to find a strong human powerhouse!

Let the other party test their own strength.

As for who?

Looking at the entire warship, who else is qualified to be Lu En's opponent.

Except for Karp,

There is only one lieutenant colonel of the Navy Headquarters, Pocato!

Of course Lu En wouldn't use Karp as a target to find abuse.

Now he is more than a star and a half away from Karp.

Karp, as one of the top monsters in this sea.

At present, Lu En can't even shake the opponent's hand!

second to none...

Pocato is the trial target Luen was looking for!

Pocato's strength is not weak, although the rank is only lieutenant colonel of the Navy Headquarters. But in fact, as Karp's confidant subordinate for many years, Pocato's strength is obviously not limited to that of the lieutenant colonel.

Even if it is a general colonel of the naval headquarters, if it is concerned with strength, I am afraid that it may not be able to win Pocato.

simply put.

Pocato probably has the strength of a colonel!

It is more appropriate to use him as a trial target to measure his own strength.

Make up your mind,

Lu En hurriedly took a step, and his body was recklessly shuttled on the deck of the huge warship.

eyes turn,

Looking around,

Keep looking for Pocato's figure.

Take a closer look,

The scar on his chest, the hideous scar left by the unarmed fight with the Sea Kings three days ago, has been completely scarred, and the scar has fallen off.

Only a faint white trace was left.

This is the powerful physique that Lu En possesses!

Even if it's only four years old and stature...

But the extremely powerful physical attributes make his healing power, defense power, resilience and other aspects have a horror attribute panel that far exceeds that of humans!

And the hideous scar left by the sea king's claws had actually been scarred and fell off two days ago. During the whole process, Lu En didn't even bother to treat it.

Relying on your own strong physique, let this scar heal on its own.

But even so...

It only took two days, and the wound had already scarred and fell off.

Only a faint white trace was left, showing that there was once a hideous wound here.

in a while,

Lu En, who was walking on the deck of the warship, felt the cold sea breeze blowing at his face, and finally found Lieutenant Colonel Pocato as he wished.

When he came to Pocato's side, the other party was commanding the navy subordinates around him, so that the navy was constantly carrying goods back and forth, and they were very busy.

see,

Lu En didn't disturb the other party without authorization.

867 He quietly leaned back against the wooden fence on the deck, closed his eyes slightly, savored the fresh air blown by the cold sea breeze, and waited silently.

"You guys, send the box to the warehouse!"

"and also....."

"Helmsman, remember to adjust the direction."

"Just now, the observers heard news that there may be an extremely severe change in the southeast at 79 degrees ahead, ten kilometers away.

We must prevent warships from straying into that sea area."

After finishing the instructions, Pocato raised his hand to wipe the sweat on his forehead, and exhaled heavily.

At this time,

He only noticed it later.

Lu En stood quietly by the fence next to him, as if waiting for him on purpose.

"Mr. Lu En, are you?"

Pocato was a little surprised, and then he went straight to the point and asked.

"I'm here for you, Lieutenant Colonel Pocato."

Lu En said bluntly.

"Looking for me? What's the matter?"

Pocato was deeply puzzling and bewildered.

gratuitous...

Why did you suddenly find yourself?

Totally incomprehensible.

then,

Just when Pocato was in a confused mood, under his puzzled eyes.

I see,

Lu En slowly raised his head and looked directly at Pocato, his eyes twinkled brightly, and the flames with a bit of fighting intent in his eyes were burning.

then,

He said seriously.

"Lieutenant Colonel Pocato, do you mind having a fight with me?"

Chapter 73 A Touch of Fire! Collision with Lieutenant Colonel! □First order on 27/20□

Chapter 99:

As Lu En's voice just fell.

Immediately,

Pocato was stunned.

What?

what's going on?

Want to have a fight with yourself?

Why?

Can't understand it at all!

Pocato's response was a little sluggish.

Can't figure it out...

He obviously couldn't expect that Lu En came to find him on his own initiative, just to have a fight with him.

After half a sound,

With confused eyes, he looked at Lu En in front of him and couldn't help asking, "Why?"

heard,

Lu En said bluntly: "The cultivation during this period of time has made me want to know what level I am now looking at this sea with the strength I have."

"In the past few days, I have been fighting the sea kings constantly, but I still don't have an accurate concept of my own strength."

"so....."

"I want to discuss with you, Lieutenant Colonel Pocato."

"Check your own strength level and see what level your own strength has reached."

"Presumably, Lieutenant Colonel Pocato, you shouldn't refuse, right?"

The words fall.

Pocato was stunned.

Immediately,

The corners of his mouth twitched involuntarily, a look of bitterness and helplessness on his face.

emotion.....

Have you become the object Lu En used to measure his strength?

As a last resort, Pocato couldn't refuse, he could only nod his head:

"Okay."

then,

this day,

Early in the morning, a piece of news quickly swept the entire naval warship!

Hundreds of navies have swept away the drowsiness of the morning, with strong anticipation and excitement on their faces, and rushed to the direction of the warship deck.

"Big news!!"

"Lieutenant Colonel Pocato was challenged by Mr. Lu En face to face!"

"Mr. Luen, it's about to confront Lieutenant Colonel Pocato."

"A battle of this level is absolutely rare."

"You said, which of these two is stronger or weaker? Although Lieutenant Colonel Pocato is only a lieutenant colonel, his strength has already reached the level of a colonel in the Navy Headquarters."

"I personally think that Lieutenant Colonel Pocato should be stronger."

"Mr. Lu En, after all, he is still too young."

"Not necessarily!"

"..."

Lots of talk.

A group of navies rushed to the deck with anticipation.

I see,

In less than half an hour.

Around the deck, a group of navy has been completely surrounded.

Hundreds of navies moved by the wind, and they all came to the scene, watching the showdown that was about to break out with curiosity.

Various kinds of remarks emerged one after another among the crowd.

Some people expressed their optimism about Pocato.

after all,

A dignified lieutenant colonel of the navy headquarters, and he has followed Lieutenant General Garp for many years, and has already possessed the powerful combat power of a colonel of the headquarters. certainly.

Some people are optimistic about Lu En.

A few days ago, the scene of Lu En fighting the sea kings with his bare hands is still vivid in his mind, and the shocking scenes made all the navies in the audience still remember them.

all in all.

Optimistic about both sides.

But relatively speaking, there are obviously more people who are optimistic about Pocato.

Even if Lu En blows up a sea king with his bare hands...

But in the minds of most navies,

Pocato, who has the combat power of the Colonel of the Navy Headquarters, obviously makes them more convinced.

at the same time.

With the lively atmosphere of the entire warship, even Garp was alerted and came to the deck to serve as the referee of Lu En's confrontation with Pocato.

In the event of some unexpected situation, Karp is responsible for preventing the fighting between the two sides and avoiding some excessive trauma.

"You two, remember to click until the end □~."

Garp stood in the middle of the deck, glanced at Lu En and Pocato, and reminded him earnestly.

"clear."

The two nodded in unison.

Lu En's eyes flashed, and he looked at Pocato with fighting intent.

This battle...

Just test your strength level!

The combat power of a navy colonel, presumably, should not be too weak, right?

Before the battle broke out,

Pocato took a deep breath, looked at Lu En with a dignified face, and said, "Mr. Lu En, you have to be careful. I won't show mercy later."

"Although I'm just a lieutenant colonel in the navy headquarters, I can tell you responsibly. Even some navy colonels in the navy headquarters are far inferior to me in terms of strength."

"If you just treat me as an ordinary navy lieutenant colonel, then I have to regret to tell you that you may be defeated in my hands!"

"Hopefully, Mr. Lu En can also go all out!"

How strong is Lu En?

Pocato knows that.

A monster who can fight a sea king with his bare hands, and eventually even forcibly blow a sea king, is naturally not an ordinary person.

Pocato knows this very well.

It is for this reason that

He didn't dare to be careless and slack at all.

In the beginning,

He directly pointed out his inner thoughts.

In this battle, he will not show mercy!

because.....

Even he is not 100% sure that he can win Lu En in front of him.

Once he shows mercy, he may face a fiasco!

And this, of course, is not what Pocato wants to see.

As a lieutenant colonel of the Navy Headquarters, he also has his own pride.

He will never allow...

You are defeated by the enemy!

not to mention.....

Lu En in front of him is still a four-year-old child!

Lost to a four-year-old kid?

Just imagining it makes Pocato uncomfortable.

How could a lieutenant colonel of the dignified headquarters be defeated by a four-year-old kid?

Even if the other party is a peerless genius that is rare in a century!

Pocato didn't allow himself to lose either.

"Lieutenant Colonel Pocato, are you sure you want me to do my best?"

Lu En narrowed his eyes slightly and looked at Pocato with a playful smile.

Go all out?

Even he did his best...

He doesn't even know how strong he can be!

"nature."

Pocato nodded solemnly.

""Since that's the case..."

"That's what you want."

Lu En smiled.

Next,

In front of hundreds of navies.

Lu En grabbed the collar with his right hand,
then,

Pull hard,

rip-

Accompanied by a crisp and pleasant sound.

The shirt was torn on the spot,

It turned into countless pieces of debris and slid down in mid-air.

Clothes all over the place...

Scattered at Luen's feet.

Chapter 100:

in the sun.

A golden halo fell on Lu En's body.

Muscles bulge all over,

Blue veins like centipedes covered Lu En's upper body muscles, and there was a faint white scar on his chest, which made the muscles of this body particularly hideous.

Kong Wu is powerful,

Tiger's back bears the waist.

The bulging muscles, each with an explosive strength and beauty.

Gives a strong visual impact.

A ghost back...

It looks like a devil's pattern has been printed on it.

creepy,

shudder.

An incomparably majestic sense of oppression slowly radiated from Lu En's body.

in an instant,

Press the audience!

Let all the navies at the scene feel the full oppressive power from Lu (Wang Wang Zhao)en.

Their scalps were numb, and their eyes were full of horror and nervousness watching Lu En's figure.

in particular.....

Seeing Lu En's hideous back,

It aroused the awe in the hearts of all the navy.

"Good, what a terrible aura!"

"Mr. Luen's aura is obviously more terrifying than Lieutenant Colonel Pocato!"

By comparison,

Even though Pocato has the sturdy body of an adult, the aura emanating from him is far inferior to the four-year-old Lu En opposite him.

Twisting his arm, Lu En looked at Pocato with a smile: "Lieutenant Colonel Pocato, are you ready?"

for a while,

The atmosphere has become depressing!

Chilling gas, spontaneously.

now,

Rao, the battle-hardened Pocato, was shocked by the powerful aura emanating from Lu En in front of him.

call!

He exhaled heavily,

Pocato forcibly suppressed the palpitations in his heart.

He looked at Lu En with a dignified face, and silently spit out a word.

"war!"

a war,

Coming soon! .

Chapter 74 Duel Pocato! Life is returned! □First order on 28/20□

Under Karp's gaze,

And its presence in the eyes of hundreds of navy.

Fighting broke out.

Pocato took the lead.

"shave!"

The six-style shaving was performed extremely skillfully by Pocato.

In an instant.

His figure disappeared out of thin air.

without a trace...

There is no sound.

With pure naked eye vision, it is completely impossible to understand the movement trajectory of Pocato's figure.

As a lieutenant colonel of the Navy Headquarters and a confidant subordinate of Garp, Pocato has naturally already mastered the Sixth Form of the Navy.

instantly,

Pocato appeared beside Lu En, his strength condensed at his fingertips.

One finger blasted,

Lightning fast.

His finger seemed to turn into a bullet, rushing towards Lu En's forehead and brow at a terrifying speed.

call out--

An ear-piercing crack sounded.

A surging airflow rushed towards Lu En's face.

With this finger, wanting to smash and tear the space, the shock wave oscillated into a stream of air, blowing Lu En's hair and dancing in the air.

"Finger gun!"

Another six moves, shown from Pocato's hands.

Faced with this move, Lu En did not show any signs of dodging.

then,

In the public eye,

Lu En displayed it as soon as he opened the scene. He had just mastered the Six Forms of Profound Truth: Return of Life!

Because three days ago, when he first mastered the return of life, with the help of the system, 867 had already returned his life to his mastery.

Plus.....

After a few days of practice, Lu En's control over the return of life has become even higher!

So far,

With just one thought, Lu En can easily manipulate any position of his body.

He closed his eyes slightly, and poured all the conscious thoughts of his head into his hair.

moment,

Lu En's hair seemed to be transformed into a living being, possessing the conscious ability to think independently, so it began to slowly extend, like a group of hair dancing wildly around him.

then,

Countless hairs circling like a spider web turned into six arms, and suddenly sprinted towards Pocato who was attacking in front of him.

Swish swish!

There was a loud banging sound.

sharp,

harsh.

Six arms transformed from hair quickly wrapped around Pocato's arms with lightning speed.

Two arms wrap around Pocato's arms,
An arm wrapped around Pocato's neck,
Two arms bound Pocato's legs,
The last arm was firmly wrapped around Pocato's waist.

So far,

Pocato's attack was easily neutralized.

His pointing gun was silently fixed on Lu En's forehead and between his brows, and when it was less than ten centimeters away, he stopped abruptly and was forced to stop by cjde.

not moving at all,

Can't move.

His body was completely out of control for a while!

The finger gun that wanted to stab forward, the power condensed at the fingertips disappeared.

This blow was easily resolved by Lu En.

Understatement all the way,

Take it easy.

even,

Lu En didn't even move his footsteps. He stood quietly in the same place as always, looking at Pocato who was so close in front of him with flat eyes.

in a moment,

The hair-like arm shrinks!

I see,

The hair and arms wrapped around Pocato's neck suddenly began to tighten, constantly shrinking the space, trying to strangle Pocato's neck.

"This, this is..."

In an instant, Pocato's face flushed due to the lack of oxygen in his body, his eyes were bloodshot, and his face was full of shock and horror.

He stared at Lu En in front of him dumbfounded, his throat was dry, and he couldn't speak for a while.

A strong sense of shock came to my heart...

Pocato was stunned.

His worldview shattered and collapsed on the spot.

"Life, life return?!"

Pocato lost his voice.

He never dreamed,

Lu En, who was in front of him, showed the Six Forms of Profound Truth and Return of Life at the very beginning!

This is an extremely powerful fighting skill that can only be understood after the Six Forms have been cultivated to a master level!

Its difficulty factor...

Far more than the sixth type of the Navy!

Even Pocato himself failed to master the return of life.

It is for this reason that

Pocato's mood showed such a strong shock when he saw Lu En's life return.

He looked sullen, his eyes wide and round, and he looked at Lu En with horror.

What happened in front of them completely overturned their cognition.
