

Chapter 17 ' Isolation Training Space (1)NightfallAfter dinner, Miaomiao, Jiang Lan, and Zheng Liqin had a private meeting. For hours, Miaomiao kept asking Jiang Lan and Zheng Liqin about this brothel, services, technology, and other trivial matters. In the end, Miaomiao used Zheng Liqin's authority to move Jiang Lan's belonging to this room, so they could live together. The day ended without any mishap, but Miaomiao's day was far from over. '|<<Ding>><<You have entered Isolation Training Space.>>As soon as Miaomiao fell asleep, his system skill triggered and brought his consciousness to a blank cubic room. The ceiling, walls, and floors were pure white, and the interior space was at least the size of a soccer stadium. 'What the-?' Miaomiao found himself naked, standing at the center of this mysterious space. At first, he thought that everything was a dream. But when he sensed the chilliness from the white floor and his warm breathe, Miaomiao realized that this wasn't just a dream. <<Ding>><<Welcome to the Isolation Training Space. Since this is your first time, the system shall guide you how you can use this space.>>'Huh? Oh, right. I have that system skill.' Miaomiao recalled the system feature, Isolation Training. The system said that he would enter this space whenever he fell asleep, so this might be the one. <<For starter, you can operate the system menu and go to the Isolation Training tab. There, you can see the list of available sparring partners, their cultivation strength, and their skills. The system can create their clone to spar with you. Also, you can adjust their base strength and difficulty, starting from 1% to 200%.>> Miaomiao followed the instruction and summoned the system menu. A blue semi-transparent screen appeared in front of him. After Miaomiao followed the guide, he found portraits of several men and women, including their status. These images had been pre-sorted, and strong cultivators were listed on the top. Miaomiao's jaw almost dropped on the floor when he found both Xu Xiuying and Luo Cheng's portraits in the menu. However, their status and detail remained as [???]. Miaomiao checked other people with less strength as well. He found the ten elders, who had attended in the 10th-floor meeting. However, the system menu didn't reveal their details. "System, where are these people's info? Why are their details unknown?" <<You haven't defeated them in real life, so there isn't any detail on them. However, if you can defeat them in this Isolation Space with 100% difficulty setting, you can unlock all of their details.>> This was easier to be said than done. As Miaomiao was aware of their general strength, he couldn't hope to defeat Xu Xiuying or Luo Cheng's clone at the 100% difficulty. Had he tried sparring with them, he would have been killed within one breathe. "How the hell am I going to beat them? Heck, that's impossible. I'll definitely die before I can do anything!" <<Please don't worry about physical or mental injuries. Anything that happens in this space will not harm your soul or your body. Even if you die in this space, the system will resurrect you. In other words, you can test any move that you can't try in the real world without worrying about backlashes, consequences, or injuries.>> "OH!?" Hearing that he wouldn't die or could be injured for real, Miaomiao was overjoyed, "So no matter what happens in this space, I can always recover or resurrect myself, right?" <<Yes.>> "SWEET!" The system continued explaining its feature. <<If you defeat any clone with 200% difficulty mode 100 times, you can learn one of their skills. If you wish to learn more of their skills, you can repeat the sparring matches and defeat them 100 more times.>> "Now, that's a good system!" Miaomiao clenched his fists. This sex system came with a feature that Miaomiao could exploit. But before he could proceed to the training, he had an unfinished vendetta. Without hesitation, he tabbed on Xu Xiuying's portrait and scaled the difficulty to the lowest setting, 1%. <<Warning, sparring with an opponent with 1% difficulty isn't a proper training. Your system recommends you to start sparring with weaker opponents and try to defeat them with 200% difficulty setting first to yield the best result.>> "Kakakaka! Don't stop me. Let me test something out a bit!" Miaomiao opened Xu Xiuying's equipment menu. He removed all of them and left her with nothing. Then, he pressed [Summon]. A naked pale-skin woman manifested in the white cubic space. Xu Xiuying's clone stood 10 meters in front of Miaomiao. "WAHAHAHA!! BITCH, I'LL GET MY REVENGE ON YOU IN THIS SPACE!!" Miaomiao's mushroom used [Harden] skill. It was super effective! As if the system could predict Miaomiao's intention, it warned him about the limitation of this feature. <<Warning, you cannot use Dual Cultivation skill in this space. All sexual actions will not affect your cultivation progress.>> "I don't care! I need to pay back for what she had done to me!"<<'!>>Like a horny dog, Miaomiao ran toward the clone, planning to push her down.Xu Xiuying's clone sensed Miaomiao's lewd intention. She pointed her index finger, aiming at his forehead.A sharp ice cone was fired from the clone's fingertip. Like a bullet, the sharp ice flew towards Miaomiao's head.PU"Eh?"Miaomiao sensed that something cold punctured through his forehead and exited through the back of his head. There was a hand-size hole in his head.Without realizing what hit him, Miaomiao died in this space for the first time. His body slowly disintegrated, but he was respawned within 3 seconds.<<Ding>><<You have died.>><<Your health has been restored.>><<Sparring Match Result: Xu Xiuying: 0W 1L>>Just like that, Miaomiao got his first [L]."What the hell!?"Miaomiao was confused about how he died. He turned to Xu Xiuying's clone, who smirked at him as if she was mocking him. As if the clone had sentience, she wiggled her finger, taunting Miaomiao for another round."DAMN YOU!!"Miaomiao stood up and charged at Xu Xiuying's clone again. He wanted to punch her in the face now.But as Miaomiao got closer to Xu Xiuying, the latter stomped her feet. An ice spike condensed from the white floor in front of Miaomiao and extended upward. The sharp ice pierced through Miaomiao's belly."Gah!"Even though the system said that he wouldn't die for real, it didn't tell Miaomiao that he wouldn't feel any pain. The sensation of having a hard object destroying his innards and his spinal cord was so painful that Miaomiao's brain stopped functioning.Miaomiao got respawned again.<<Ding>><<You have died.>><<Your health has been restored.>><<Sparring Match Result: Xu Xiuying (1%): 0W 2L>>"I don't believe that I can't beat you at 1% strength!" As soon as Miaomiao was respawned, he bellowed and charged at the naked Xu Xiuying's clone again.*BOOM*An ice boulder appeared out of nowhere and crushed Miaomiao underneath.<<Ding>><<You have died.>><<Your health has been restored.>><<Sparring Match Result: Xu Xiuying (1%): 0W 3L>>"AGAIN!"*PU*Miaomiao was shot by an ice needle.<<Ding>><<You have died.>>"Again!"*SWUA*Xu Xiuying's ice trap impaled him.<<Ding>><<You have died.>>"AGAIN!"*PU*An ice arrow entered Miaomiao's brain.<<Ding>><<You have died.>>...BOOM<<Ding>><<You have died.>><<Your health has been restored.>><<Sparring Match Result: Xu Xiuying: 0W 99L>>Miaomiao's body that had been destroyed reanimated and restored for the 99th time. The sore loser lied on the floor, gazing at the ceiling while he was panting in exhaustion.After dying 99 times, Miaomiao was sobered from his senseless lust and anger. The exhaustion and pain made him realize how pointless it was."Bah, what was I doing? Why am I this stupid?"Miaomiao sat up and glanced at Xu Xiuying's clone, who, as usual, tempted him to fight her one more time. He rolled his eyes and waved his hand, shoing the clone."I've had enough. You win. I won't fight you anymore.""!"The clone tilted her head and frowned.A minute later, Miaomiao didn't charge at her, but he focused on examining the details of the thugs that he had killed. He didn't want to fight Xu Xiuying's clone anymore, but he planned to train properly this time.Seeing that Miaomiao ignored her, the clone walked toward him and began touching his body."Huh?"Xu Xiuying grinned as she kissed Miaomiao while her hands rubbed his mushroom.'What the hell?'Miaomiao was confused. But since the clone asked for it, he wouldn't refuse.'It's on!'Miaomiao pushed the clone on the floor and inserted IT into HERS right away. Then, he started pumping.Despite being an ice art user, the clone's inside was warm and wet as if she had been through an hour of foreplays. Miaomiao enjoyed being squeezed and sucked by the clone's lower mouth.'HAHAHAHA! Xu Xiuying. Although I can't beat you in real life or your weakened clone, at least, I get to violate you! HAHAHAHA!'Miaomiao drooled and divulged himself in pleasure. 10 Minutes later, he reached his limits.*SPURT*White liquid flooded the clone's belly. Miaomiao exhaled to regain his breath."That was awesome. Time for round'! 2?"SPURT SPURT"Huh?"Something was wrong with his mushroom and his balls. He couldn't stop ejaculating, and he couldn't calm his little brother. It continuously released his seeds as if he was peeing inside Xu Xiuying's clone.Miaomiao tried to yank his mushroom out of the clone's lower mouth, but Xu Xiuying's clone locked her legs around his back. She hugged Miaomiao's neck and pulled him into a kiss.The lock was too tight. Even if the clone had 1% strength of the original, she overpowered Miaomiao and kept him connect with her.SPURT SPURTSPURT *SPURT*The ejaculation continued. Instead of shooting white juice into Xu Xiuying's lower mouth, Miaomiao's mushroom ejaculated blood."MMM!!"Miaomiao struggled to break free from the clone, but Xu Xiuying's clone used a weird skill that drained his liquid. Her belly swelled as Miaomiao's blood filled her womb.Soon, Miaomiao became a dried corpse as no fluid was left in his body. His consciousness faded, died the 100th time.<<Ding>><<You have died.>><<Your health has been restored.>><<Sparring Match Result: Xu Xiuying: 0W 100L>><<You have sincerely fought and lost against Xu Xiuying's clone 100 times. The clone has obtained sentience, and you can buy her spirit as a familiar from the system shop.>><<Note, no more clone can obtain sentience until you completed all tutorial quests.>><<Ding>><<The System Shop has been updated.>>.В виртуальном магазине, утопающем в сиянии светящихся иероглифов, расстилалась перед ним пестрая палитра возможностей. Здесь, на просторах цифровой реальности, он мог обрести любое желаемое преимущество, лишь бы хватило "Ян", этой незримой энергии, которая в мире онлайн-игр была эквивалентом валюты, власти и могущества. В ряду простеньких "волшебных пилюль", суливших нехитрое исцеление, укрепление духа и восстановление сил, за скромную цену в один "Ян", скрывались сокровища, способные перевернуть ход игры. "Сутра Орчьего Короля", "Техника Укрепления Демонического Тела" - заветные знания, доступные лишь за сто "Ян", открывали двери к запредельной силе. "Иммунитет к Афродизиаку" - этот перманентный навык за тысячу "Ян" был ценен не столько ради своей практической пользы, сколько как символ могущества и непоколебимой воли. И наконец, "Дух Клона Сю Сюин" - эта "фамильяр", тоже за тысячу "Ян", обещала стать не просто спутником, а верным союзником, чья сила могла сравниться со силой самой Сю Сюин.Он замер, словно перед выбором судьбы. Каждая покупка могла стать решающим шагом на пути его виртуального триумфа.
